THE DIGBY

The hundrotth anniversary of the Digby Weekly Coorder has brought to mind some tond memories as contained in the following historical chapter of the Alter Box first, I wish to congratulate the current into of the Courier, Mrs. J.M. (Edith) Wallis, for a physical done over the years and still being well done, to will done over the years and still being well done, to solve over the years and still being well done, to be control on any record. I have at hand, the high Courier, in one hundred years of publication for 42 years. 1931 to 1973, under the control of Wallis Print Limited, the late J.J. We worked ten-hour days, six days a week. "J.1." and "Mac" sometimes worked overtime I worked only the regular hours being paid a weekly wage which was comporatively good for those times and may lack of experience. I received four or five dollars a week for working after school hours to six o clock and on Saturday all day, and more dollars a week for hall weeks after finishing school. A two or three dollars a week raise was offered to me in the fall of 1025 for me to stay on at printing, but. I had made up my mind to enter a branch of the Royal Bark of Canada, starting salary of $200. The bank salary mired out about the same per hoar as for the prin-ing job. A Gloomy Outlook.

A Gloosuy Ontlook. Lynkon, May 19.—The Times says attention has been drawn to the pro-bable effects of the continuance of cold northerly winks upon argical tranz pros-pects, which are already sufficiently unfavorable. Unless a change occurs soon in the temperature there can be little or no fruit, and there may pro-hably be a serious deficiency in sever-al crops, which means larger pay-ments than usual to forcign growers and vortually defarer monosy. Pro-minent among other prospective deficient yields on the continent is silf, cold winds keeping the malborry leaves apon which the silk worm feeds. The flow of silver to China and Japan will probably be increased from this cause.

WEEKLY COURIER, FRIDAY, JUNE 20, 1879. DIGBY WIT AND HUMOR.

For there is mught to her so dear As a new and sweet spring bonnet: And there is maght she more does fear Than a drop of water upon it.

Than a drop of water upon it. A man coming out of a Texas newspaper office with one cycal gouged out, his nose spread all over his fice and one of his tears chewed off replied to a policeman who interviewed him "I ddin't like an article that peared in the paper last week, a<sup>10</sup> I wont to see the man who writis, it an he war there l' In a little texp in Missonri a lark

BOYS AND GIRIS CORNER.

WHO DID IT. Who tracked the mud across the floor. And through the hall and up the sta And left it clinging to the chair? Whose finger-prints deface the door?

Whose crumbs henced the table lie? Who secured the butter on the cloth Who spilled the gravy, slopped the b And dropped a pickle in the pic?

Who pulled the cartain with a jerk, And left it langing all askew, And broke the cord--twas nearly new: I wonder if 'twas mother's work?

Whose in twas motions work? Whose knife is this, with handle stained, And open blads with cust so marted "Twas found this morning in the yard, Upon the grass—hast night it mined.

Just new I slipped and nearly fell-A marble rolled and nearly fell-A marble rolled a rod or more, And then I crushed an apple core --Whose was it, mother? Can you tell?

Face downward on the slab, a book Lies open, leaves dog-cared and thun And near, a bandkerchief, begann a And stiff with taffy—only look !

Upon a door-knob hangs a hat— "Tis passing strange it hangs at all; And in the corner is a ball, And on the sofa rests a bat.

I missed the hammer yesterlay ; The hitchet vanished long ago ; All winter underneath the snow, Behind the house the shovel lay.

Are things bewitched? Do genil hide Within my closets and my drawers, And shunk behind the chamber door And through the darkened attics glide

I often go from room to room, And sweep the floating coloreds down, And sweep the floating coloreds down. And wonder when the spiders brown Departed with their dainty loom,

But then, who knows ?--those films a May once have fain upon my shelf Beneaft the little bowl of deff; 'Twas there I asad to keep my twine.

Twist mere I have not a series and pring, A paper full, with polished heads As black as jet and round as bead But deader than a mumuny king

What do you think they did to day? My sugar-backets, sides they storm And in the sugar-backet fairly swa Who turned tacks into ants, tell, pray

The elves are in the house, 'tis clear : I'd like to catch that one who took The clothes-brush down from off hook And left it on the etagere,

Who was it, little Johnny Eell? Why do you stand so shame-faced their And blush from eijin to forejesal fair? I think you know the culprit well.

OUR CASTLES.

OUR CLASTEES. In olden times, you know, they used to build high and strong walls all aroand their towns. In these walls wrong great grades to shut out enomics, and to let in Friends, acal supplies of food and clothing for the towns-peo-ple; and on some high place over-looking the town, was the cliatel, or essels of the kling, to whom the town belonged. This was strongly fortified and was the last point of dofence. When an enomy soised this, they were complete masters of the whole place.

When an enemy solard this, they were complete matters of the whole place. So dd John Banyan writes of the "famous town of Mansoul," in a story called the "Idoly War," which every one should read. This town of Man-soul had they gates, which every and the gates, which is town of Man-soul had they gates, which, lite the walks, dould never bo opened or forced hat by the will and icarvo those with-in. The names of these gates were Fargents, By Gate, Month-Fate, Noss-Gate and Pool-Gate. And there was reased up within the town a most rease and study palace which the great and good King was built the great mid good King was built to the down intended for himself clone, and committed the keeping of it only to the Wean is seen a borne a cini snewling to the town.

Soon lessons at school will be to dull to be studied, mother's withos and futher's commands will com too irksome to be carried out, and the boy's thengits and the girls dreams will be of anything but duty. When I see a bay or a girl who likes to frair constant are sent out in a cory direction I know that the foul freq meleanines has a stored that soul, and 'guin and disolution are not far away. Soon the cithield of Mansoal, the fair castle of the Lord, the hourt, with its precious treasures, will bu defied. Statan will himself enter with his, destroying forces, and the ond is easy to see.
