DIGBY COUNTY NEWS

Westport

No mails arrived from Digby for two days.

Mr. Angus (Gibney), M. P., of Mink Cove, was in town last week.

St. John's Westport 111 arrived Tuesday afternoon at 3 p. m. from St. John.

Rev. Richard Kemp held a watch meeting here on Thursday evening, Dec. 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coggins and son Fuller, of Boston, are visiting the former's parents here.

Tuesday was something that we can seldom record, each street had to turn out and break roads. Snow of the banks were four feet deep.

During Sunday and Monday, we had the heaviest and coldest snow storm at Westport since 1887. The Schars, Arnott, Hartz, Daisy Lindner and Curlew rode out on the ice in their sleighs.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. Albert Moore on Thursday evening, Dec. 31st, when his daughter Alice M. Thomas, was united in holy bonds of wedlock to Mr. Wintford W. Garton, the ceremony being performed by Rev. E. C. Ford. The bride was dressed in a white gown with a tulle train and a ribbon and wore a bridal veil. She was attended by her sister, Miss George Thomas, who also was dressed in a dress of figured organdie, while the groom was attended by Mr. Charles Barr, of Westport. The bride and groom were served to the guests and the remainder of the evening was spent in games of all kinds. Among the presents was a silver berry spoon from the bride's friends in Gloucester, also many other both beautiful and useful. Mr. and Mrs. Garton have our wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Xmas has passed off very quietly. The day being pleasant and warm, family and social gatherings. Unlike many of our neighboring villages, there were no signs of liquor, due to a great extent to the old Western Star being in such a flourishing condition. We hope always to be able to report a strictly temperate community.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for communications under this heading.]

To the Editor of the Courier:—DEAR SIR.—Our School held its annual treat in the form of a Xmas Tree last night, in the vestry of the Baptist Church, and a great number of our scholars were present. A large tree was well decorated and lit up with many colored lights. Santa Claus appeared on the scene, called for order, and amused the audience by a reading selected for the occasion, after which he rendered good assistance in distributing the gifts to the enjoyment of the children. Our ladies then furnished a treat which was enjoyed by all.

Several selections of music were given by the School scholars during the evening. But we wish to say more particularly at this time how glad we were to see so many of our boys and girls present, who do not come to our School. Over two hundred were present and our school numbers eighty-five.

Now the question arises, are we doing our duty towards those who do not attend? And if you will permit me to say a few words on this matter (for it is one I have become very much interested in), we find the same evil in connection with our day schools. What are our children doing who are not in our schools? Fathers and mothers, are we doing our duty towards those who are not in our schools? By keeping them away from school.

PICK THE LONG WAY TO CELEBRITY APPEAR IN THE NEWS
"TAMM MEMOIRS"

Blended together the two most talked-of of policemen in the city were the "Tamm" police, patrolmen Almon J. Daniels
the City Hallways station and Alfred Daniels of the Roxbury Crossing station. They were among the best men in the force as far as their work was concerned, and were also well known for their good nature and friendly ways.
On Wednesday night, and the resurrencence between them is so close that it is in their beatings have difficulty in keeping them apart.

Alfred, during the early part of the evening at the hall, was stationed at entrance to the "longway," giving direction orders, and while his brother was looking after the crowd, the two knowing stations intended to do for brother. Many persons stopped and conversed with him, and yesterday he told that he did not know whether they were talking about him, but he assured everything they said just to be agreeable.

Almon said yesterday, "I have smok-man a good cigar that was intended my brother and Alfred and I am to go home."

Almon Daniels for two years has patrolled the east-end hall, Newspaper Row day and he keeps on foot over the hallways, by which he has been called the "day officer" on the Roxbury Crossing route, and is known by everyone in that section. He is Station officers tell how many times he went to the station where persons coming from cars at the Transfer station stand him for his brother and ask him about the "day newspaper."
Station officers tell how many times of his brother found him up to work and told him funny stories.
The twin policeman enjoy the meddle made by their friends.

The brothers were born in East Medford, Mass., Oct. 25, 1867. Alfred joined the police force Oct. 25, 1895, and Almon became a member June 1, 1892.
They are both members of the Police association, the only way to tell them apart
by the numbers on their belts.

Halifax Train Left The Rails.

PASSENGERS SHAKEN UP, BUT NOT INJURED.—HARD TO WALK TO ST. JOHN'S.

ST. JOHN'S, Jan. 27.—The day express from Halifax due here about seven o'clock tonight, derailed at Gilbert's Crossing at the outskirts of the city. The train was two hours late, as a Quebec-Montreal engine along about 8:15 o'clock every day suddenly left the rails. The engine alone kept the track and was derailed as quickly as possible. The stopped cars kept upright and no serious injuries for a hundred yards or so before they stopped.

There were five cars on the train, baggage, mail, two passengers cars and a motor. The passengers were not about somewhat but no one was injured. They disembarked at Gilbert's Crossing and made their way to the city while the baggage and mails were transferred and the train was being rolled. The rolling stock is not damaged much, neither is the roadbed, and it was expected that all the cars would be on the rails again before morning. The cause of the accident is not yet officially known. Conductor Raitano was in charge of the train.

Another New Block.

THE DIGBY PAINT & WALLPAPER CO. HAVE NEW BUSINESS QUARTERS.

The Digby Paint & Wallpaper Co.'s new building on the west side of Water Street, north of H. P. Warner's new block is about finished with the exception of outside painting, and presents a good appearance. It is 22 x 40, consisting of basement, two stories and attic.

The building was erected by Mr. H. H. Sullivan, of Smith's Cove, who had with him a staff of good workmen. The material was furnished by Mr. C. E. Woodman, manager of the Digby Paint & Wallpaper Co., of Moncton, and at H. T. Warner's Hill Grove mill.

In the basement is a McClary furnace, suitable for wood and coal, which heats the entire building. This was supplied and put in place by Dakin Bros., who also supplied the fittings and put in the plumbing and hot water apparatus in the kitchen and bath room.

On the first or ground floor is a selection of 30 different varieties of wall papers, patterns, glass, etc. This is lighted with a plate glass front and finished with a ceiling and oak-stained trimmings. The remainder of the wood work being painted white, with the exception of the floor which is hard wood.

In the rear of the salesroom is a conveniently situated office, and back of that is the sleeping room, 12 ft. long. The second floor is reached by a front entrance, hallway and stairs, or from a back staircase leading from a side entrance.

On the third floor where Mr. and Mrs. Woodman will reside are several pleasant rooms fully finished, consisting of parlor, hall, two bedrooms, dining room, kitchen, pantry, bath room, etc. The third floor will be finished later.

The main work was done by Mr. J. Woodman, who also did the painting and inside decorating in charge of Mr. Woodman, manager of the company.

The building is lighted throughout with electricity, and is up-to-date in every respect.

We wish the company success in their new quarters and their advertisement appears in another column.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

Little Paragraphs Which Tell of the News Around Town.

NEWS GATHERED HERE THE WEEK AND RECORDED IN BRIEF FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PUBLIC.

An alarm of fire was rung in Tuesday afternoon for a chimney on fire in the rear of the house of Mr. H. P. Warner, at the corner of Water and Main streets.

The firemen responded promptly but fortunately the apparatus was not required.

At the annual meeting of the School Board held on Tuesday, J. L. Peters, Esq., was re-elected chairman for the ensuing year.

Last Wednesday was the beginning of Lent, the oldest inhabitant is puzzled when asked the date of the winter when there was more snow in Digby than this year.

Reports from the month of St. Mary's Bay state that there is more drift ice in that vicinity than has been there for many years.

Don't forget the Board of Trade meeting next Tuesday evening.

The firm of Anderson & Letteney, wholesale fish dealers, has been dissolved. We understand the business will be closed up for the present.

Letteney & Co. Ltd., have sold their entire stock of furniture to Mr. P. M. Steadman, proprietor of the Digby Furniture Store.

At the corner of the wide walk on Water street, near Mr. Jameson's residence, a large pile of drift ice was found, which was probably blown there by the snow shovellers during the present winter.

It is rather unusual to find a house for sale in Digby, but there is one advertised in this issue.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, March 11, 1904.

The coldest winter that man can remember since last to have broken the record. There is no slayer of weather wonders like the meteorological record keeper. The weather is always something entirely new and unheard of until the chronic calculator steps in to tell that every second or third season during the recent past has equalled, if not outdone, the present one in the particular peculiarity for which it is remembered for all time. This winter, which has kept up its conditions almost without break since Christmas, was to be the record-breaker for cold, but an officer of the United States Meteorological Bureau, Dr. Clarke, of New York, says that, when the mean averages are ascertained, it will probably be found that the winter of 1903-4 has not been much colder than the whole, than many other winters within recent years. At times this winter, he admits that, from Greenland to New York harbor, eastern America was in the grip of the ice age, as never before during the memory of the living. It is natural that apprehension should be expressed that the climate of these latitudes is actually growing colder. But Dr. Clarke thinks we are living in the tapering off of the ice age, and he permits us to hope that in about a thousand years there will be warmer weather in these regions, both in winter and summer. That process would gradually make Canada take the place of the United States as the belt best adapted to human habitation. Meantime, we, who are but short life tenants, had better continue to make the usual provisions of fuel and clothing, as there is no reason to suppose that the weather will be less severe during our tenancy, and Mr. Blackman, of McGill University, does not think the weather will have any warmer or colder years hence than now. He informs us that the average temperature of the present winter has been lower than that of any winter in recent years also, that the average temperature for the whole of 1903 has been practically the same as that of previous years.

The Montreal Witness says: The Russians seem to have got them a great financier at last for their finance minister. He starts out by showing the Russians that the expenses of the war will in many ways be in excess of the money that will be spent in Russia and not over the cost, as in the case of Great Britain's war, as Mr. Kokorov does not seem to see that a dead horse is a lost horse, no matter whether it was bought. If war profits are going to be of use to the advantage of Russia, that which was to be made by Russians. But so far as the real value of the horse is concerned it is positively no difference to Russia whether he was born so long as Russia loses him. It is not the horse that will be war profits or any profits to the raisers of the horses if these are lost in Russia. There are more horses in Russia than in any other country, and so for all that working finance minister proposes to nullify with the protectionist fallacy that money kept in the country is saved.

Perished in the Woods

Miss Margaret Hopkins, a maiden lady of 78 years, who lived alone about three miles from Port Medway, went into the latter village last Thursday morning and has not been seen since. When about half way from her home she left the main road intending to reach the distance by taking a short road, being thoroughly familiar with the entire district, and not until Friday morning was she discovered. She was found lying face down in the snow, and it is believed that she had been in the forest. The impression prevails that she became exhausted with the cold and sitting down to rest became chilled to death.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, March 18, 1904.

HAVE WE BEEN DOING RIGHT?

A couple of issues back the Courier called attention to the fact that a canvasser for some Truro job printing office had been taking orders for letter heads, etc., from some of the merchants here, and about the same time payment of a license. The Yarmouth Herald, in copying our item, and commenting on it, said that the same person had been at Yarmouth, and had initiated that residents who patronized outside concerns, in preference to dealing with the business men of their own town, were not the best citizens. (The subject once introduced brings with it food for much thought. Are the people of Digby as a whole giving that support to local industries that they should? We have frequently heard to the contrary.)

We have heard, for instance, that people who needed supplies such as the Digby Woodworking Co. manufacture, have sent their orders to Annapolis and Yarmouth, without ever asking the Digby concern to figure on their bill of goods, preferring to take the risk of paying more elsewhere, but this is not a very common thing. Competition is very good, it is healthy, and has been called the life of trade, but this is not a very common thing, it is the "go by" pure and simple.

Time was, too, when Yarmouth tailoring agents used to come to Digby and take large numbers of orders for clothing made to order. They are glad to say, a thing of the past. There are still some people who prefer to send away for their clothing, but there are few and far between. In most instances, by their ill fitting garments.

Again, we have a laundry in Digby, managed by capable and obliging people, who are fitted to do good work, and who have been doing it right along. Still, each week large quantities of laundry goods are forwarded to Yarmouth and Annapolis by the agents of those concerns in Digby. This would seem to be a relic of the time when there was no laundry in Digby, but now that there is one in the town there can be no reason for its not receiving the patronage of all the people. Is there any record of either Annapolis or Yarmouth sending a single dollar's worth of work to be done in Digby, or ordering any supplies from here? We think not.

It is to be hoped, now that we have a well supplied furniture shop right at hand, that the people of this town will not send their orders for furniture away, as heretofore.

There can be no question that it is better to have every stand point to keep money in circulation in the place, rather than to send it to other towns to build up industries there.

Many of the local merchants have been converted, from the fact that people have sent to the Truro supply stores for dry goods, and to St. John for groceries, paying with the exception of a few, probably, the cost of the goods. It is not a very long time ago, having more than a year ago, that a really good thing for night at home had they possessed sufficient public spirit to spend their money in their own town.

Let our merchants and business men set the example of patronizing local concerns. It is well that we should ask ourselves once in a while, when complaining that business is not what it ought to be, "Have we been doing right?"

Enterprising Bear River.

THE CITIZENS TALKING INCORPORATION AND HALLWAY CONVENTION. A correspondent writes the Halifax Herald as follows: "The enterprising citizens of Bear River are talking incorporation of their town, although having more inhabitants than several of the incorporated towns of the province. This industrial community, hitherto been content to do without local civic government. Perhaps the fact that the town is purely in Digby and partly in Annapolis County, which adds somewhat to the difficulty of early arrangements of incorporated towns, has retarded the movement, as they would have two towns to deal with in the matter of joint expenditures, while most towns find they have a beautiful ally in one."

If there is a district in Western Nova Scotia, the resources, business activity and number of people, of which give it a just claim for municipal government, is the town of Hillborough, of which Bear River is the thriving center. For several years the people of this town have been keeping an eye on the main chance of securing railway connection, and a public school, lately held at what a scheme, which was considered with some interest, and the government was asked to render the customary aid. The committee was composed of the matter in hand, and an amount subscribed to defray expenses.

Death of Mr. Johnson.

Dorcas, wife of Reynold Johnson, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, of the town of Bear River, died at her home, Mechanic St., Franklin, Mass., last night at twelve minutes past two, after a long illness of lung trouble. She was forty-five years old and was a devoted wife and mother of three children, Wallace, William, Carl, and Wallace, father and mother, three brothers and two sisters. Her husband has been a resident of Franklin for some twenty years, where he was greatly missed among his friends and relatives. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the church of the town of Bear River, of which Mr. Johnson was a member. Rev. J. Miner officiating. The remains were interred at Oakdale Cemetery. The bereaved ones have been especially of the nature of Mr. Johnson is also a notice of Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Apt. of Marshalltown.

Death of Mrs. Melanson.

A Plymouth correspondent writes: "It is with deep regret we chronicle the death of Miss, wife of S. I. Melanson, which occurred at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. DeVoe, on Saturday, March 12th. The deceased had been ill but a short time, and died at the age of 72 years. She was a devoted wife and mother of two children and left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother. Mrs. Melanson was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Melanson of the 'Willows,' Yarmouth, and had this community who will sympathize with the bereaved ones. Her mother, Mrs. A. DeVoe, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. DeVoe, on Monday, the remains were held in the cemetery in Swanton."

Duty Abolished.

Newfoundland has abolished the duty on flour, molasses and kerosene. The loss in revenue will be the loss of last year's figures, over $132,000. The duty on flour was 25 cents, on molasses 4 cents, and on oil 6 cents.

WAR NEWS.

Admiral Makroff Will Force The Fighting on Sea.

RUSSIAN FLEET OUTSIDE PORT ARTHUR READY TO GIVE BATTLE TO ADMIRAL TOGO—COMPLETE CHANGE IN THE RUSSIAN PLAN OF CAMPAIGN IS EVIDENT.

LONDON, March 12.—A. M.—It seems most probable that Port Arthur has been captured and not evacuated. Notwithstanding the recurrence of reports to that effect in some papers, not a word of confirmation can be obtained from Tokyo, while Shanghai reports the receipt of a telegram from Admiral Makroff absolutely denying the reports.

The fact that Admiral Makroff will probably take the aggressive as was intimated in these dispatches on Saturday, receives confirmation from other sources. The correspondent of the Daily Mail (New Shanghai) reports that since the appointment of Gen. Kuropatkin to the military command of the East coast, the Russian plan of campaign has undergone complete change, especially as the Japanese have been successful in their naval successes by active land operations.

READY TO GIVE BATTLE. He gives statements indicating no more action and quotes M. Murmice, secretary to the governor of the province, as saying that after the removal of the Russian fleet from the coast, Admiral Makroff has been ordered to give battle to the Japanese fleet.

Such action is interpreted as indicating his intention to give battle to the Japanese, inasmuch as remaining at anchor outside Port Arthur would imply a repetition of Admiral Stark's error in the Japanese torpedo boat destruction from entering as they did at Wei Hai Wei in the case with China.

That Admiral Makroff intends to force the fighting is, according to other reports, the general impression here. The New China correspondent of the Daily Mail says that in an interview with the Japanese secretary to the governor of the province, it was stated that two Japanese battleships, two cruisers and two torpedo boats appeared on the night of March 12th, Thursday, but were afraid to enter the harbor and then took to sea, leaving a small chance available and ordered the destruction of the Japanese fleet.

It is stated that the Japanese fleet, which was reported to have been destroyed, is still in the harbor, and that the Japanese fleet is still in the harbor, and that the Japanese fleet is still in the harbor.

A Halifax Mail reporter had an interview with the Japanese secretary to the governor of the province, who stated that the Japanese fleet is still in the harbor, and that the Japanese fleet is still in the harbor.
