

THE DIGBY COURIER

CENTENNIAL EDITION

SEPTEMBER 18, 1974

Welcome to the Digital DIGBY COURIER

1877-1978

100th Birthday

The hundredth anniversary of the Digby Weekly Courier has brought to mind some fond memories as contained in the following historical chapter of the writer. But first, I wish to congratulate the current editor of the Courier, Mrs. J.M. (Edith) Wallis, for a job well done over the years and still being well done, good service rendered with great fortitude.

According to any record, I have at hand, the Digby Courier, in one hundred years of publication, was controlled under the same family management for 42 years, 1931 to 1973, under the control of Wallis Print Limited. The late J.J. Wallis became editor of The Courier the second time, in 1929, and at the same time of the business, which he had been running for some time previously and which became Wallis Print Limited sometime between 1929 and 1931.

I well remember the last year of the twenties when I worked in the office of the son with the husband and father of the late J.J. Wallis, the Courier. Sometime in 1928 or early 1929, the late J.M. Wallis (Mac), son of "J.J." engaged me to work every day after school hours, Saturdays, and for some months after full time. The place of work was in the building of the present Digby town hall on First Avenue. J.J. Wallis then worked occasionally at the print shop but mostly across the street at the Courier office which was then located on land in the general area where The Royal Bank of Canada is now.

Wallis Job Print operated in 1929 with a staff of four consisting of J.J. Wallis, J.M. Wallis, Miss Eva Haynes, who later became Mrs. George Kicup, and myself. I was engaged as a printer in the left Eva's job was to run the printing plant but mostly at the Courier office. "Mac" worked nearly full time at all the different jobs at the Job Print, and I worked at various duties, most of the time being spent at operating printing presses.

We worked ten-hour days, six days a week. "J.J." and "Mac" sometimes worked overtime. I worked only the regular hours being paid a weekly wage which was comparatively good for those times and my lack of experience. I received four or five dollars a week for working after school hours to six o'clock and on Saturday all day, and nine dollars a week for full weeks after finishing school. A two or three dollar a week raise was offered to me in the fall of 1929 for me to stay on at printing, but I had made up my mind to enter a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, starting salary of $300. The bank salary figured out about the same per hour as for the printing job. Nevertheless, the congenial atmosphere of the printing plant those days, and, experience however short, were helpful and appreciated by me.

"J.J." was very jovial in his occasional trip to the Job Print and did considerable kidding all in good fun. "Mac" was a witty person who mixed in a good natured sarcasm now and then for one reason or another. Eva most always had good answers to all the kidding she was called upon to take, and, generally held her own in a quiet sort of way, always busy setting type. We four all got along very well indeed. However, I do remember that some days did seem long and weary because of the monotony of some repetitious jobs.

In spite of the great demand for printing those last boom days of the twenties, business generally being brisk, it looked to me that people had to work long and hard to make any decent profit. There was including treatment of the hands. However, nails and finger ends were used and I was soon back to work.

Now and then a printing job had a dose on parchment paper which required a special kind of printers' ink which smelled very bad those days. I always dreaded it when "Mac" would do that job on the largest press, in spite of the fact that we always opened an outside door to lessen the effects on the constitution.

One of the jobs I had to do, being the junior and printers' devil on the staff, was to clean up now and then. One day not long after I started my job at the printing plant, I decided to clean the floor that apparently hadn't been cleaned in some considerable time.

"J.J." came along and said, "how are you making out Vince?" I assured him that I thought I was beginning to see the floor. "J.J." laughed very heartily, he thought the remark pretty good and suitable.

Sometimes the gasoline engine or a piece of machinery would refuse to work, and after "Mac" the fix-it man had patiently worked for a certain length of time to get it going again, without results, "Mac" would then stand back and cuss quite strenuously, then he would immediately start working. "See," he would say, "all it needed was a bit of cussing."

On other occasions when some gadget refused duty for me and, seemed to be broken, "Mac" would say, "use a little oil," and sure enough, often that is all it took. How often since, have I thought of the value of that remark and the actual need of "oil" in many life situations, applied at the right time, right place and, in the right way.

Other things that sort of stick in my memory and come to mind now and then are, like the time I told "Mac" of four teenage boys who in the spring season of 1929 got together just before dark one evening and decided to initiate the newly built outdoor Pines Hotel swimming pool which had just been filled with water. Clothes were taken off near the road just east of the pool; nobody else seemed to be around except the four boys; no thought or time for bathing suits up to the pool they went. They stood on the edge of the pool and looked at the chilly water, one soon jumped in, the rest quickly followed and across the pool they swam. "Mac" listened to the story and hardly said anything, but the next "Digby Courier" had a good story on the episode. The heading of the story went something like, "Four Boy Scouts Officially Open Pines Hotel Swimming Pool." Who were the four? Many years later they are known as: the late Dr. Earl H. Anderson, veteran of two wars (second world and Korean), was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sidney L. Smith, now prominent druggist for many years in Digby; Clayton D. Snow, Digby wholesale lobster king merchant; and myself.

As a young teenager I used to like doing some writing about different events interesting to myself and mostly for myself. One day "Mac" said to me "how about writing your version of the story told about 'The Marooning of Jerome'." I had heard and read at least two somewhat different stories about the man who was found marooned on a beach at some point on the French Shore of St. Mary's Bay, Digby County. When found this man's tongue had been cut out and his legs quite freshly amputated, were surgically well dressed and bound. He was presumably left by some vessel before dawn one morning, all for some mysterious reason.

"Jerome" appeared to have been a man of some considerable social standing and possibly of some considerable wealth. However the only thing the man could or would ever say after being found and cared for by some family in the French shore was, something that sounded like the word "Jerome". He either could not, or, would not, write anything about who he was or why he was left the way he was. Well, it was, and is, one of Digby County's mystery stories, and, different ideas have been expressed over the years concerning this man. However my response to "Mac" was, I felt no urge to write anything more or different about this man. The mystery seemed to have been very well explored in the mind of many people, and, he was a sort of curiosity for many people who visited where he lived for many years.

Three years later I was quite a young man in the street that I lived back and forth, led a boat clanking noise, powered by a small engine, and a "plur", and as I remember it, it was a "plur". "J.J." was noted for his sense of humor and his sense of humor.

Digby 172 Years Ago

Compiled by David Sanford

From the files of the Courier of January 23, 1867, the following account has been copied concerning Digby in 1800.

"Among a number of old newspapers kindly sent to us by friends is a copy of the Saint John Gazette of May, 1802, says the Telegraph and among other advertisements contained in the issue before us is one describing the town and township of Digby, and offering for sale certain lots in the town. In this area we are told the township of Digby extends from the Gulf of Annapolis westward to the extremity of the province of Nova Scotia, and contains about 130,000 acres." The town plot is thus described:

"The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of St. Mary's Bay. This laid out from the water's edge, partly on level ground and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having with an eastern aspect, a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in where it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New York in 1783, the most of whom went early to farms, or, moving to older countries, left the whole side to be bought proved by about who now reside detached, built dwellings with orchards, and some fishery and. It has communal parts of the communal provisions in a cheap, built readily to be from many circumstances, probability of place of some shipbuilding, the West India a cheap and of residence.

This advertisement, dated at Digby, December, 1800, were to be a No. 100.

free trade with the U.S.A., especially with the New England States. The question was then debated by some Digby High School students one of which was some Digby's daughter, Florence (now Mrs. Melvin O. Tibert, Freeport, Digby Co.) Some days after the debate a man from some part of Nova Scotia came to the printing shop looking for Florence, one of the successful debaters; I had the impression that this man was interested politically but, maybe I was wrong.

Well, I felt that I had learned considerable from my short experience at "The Wallis Job Print". I was learning to do beginner jobs, receiving some knowledge about things like: embossing, stapling, perforating, counting, cutting and trimming paper stock, mixing inks for certain desired colors, and so forth, but, the only experience I had at setting type was just enough to make a "pi", the printers name for a confused mess.

There was a taste of trying to sell job printing outside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for printed personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it, made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular house, and got an order, but, it was much time and got an order, but,

Years and experiments with. The last time I saw of personal interest, after one day when he sent and talked with him was, after one day when he had a week he wanted me to visit him at his home. He had recently returned from the Novascotiath after a long absence. I made the visit and brought back some interesting information.

THREE FACTS For Sick Women To Consider.

First.—That almost every operation in our hospitals performed upon women becomes necessary through neglect of such symptoms as backache, irregular and painful periods, displacement of the female organs, pain in the side, burning sensation in the stomach, bearing-down pains, nervousness, dizziness and sleeplessness.

Second.—The medicine that holds the record for the largest number of absolute cures of female ailments is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It regulates, strengthens and cures diseases of the female organism as nothing else can.

Third.—The great value of unselfish and grateful testimonials of all the many of which are from time to time published by permission, give absolute evidence of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Mrs. Pinkham's advice.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women.—Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are faithfully replied, real and answered by women only. From experience, you will find that your trouble may be healed and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.—Mrs. Pinkham is a lady of the name of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge.

AN OCEAN EDEN. Beautiful Bermuda—Land of Sunshine and Flowers. (Written for the Courier.)

The writer has just returned from his 12th outing of nearly six months in an Island Eden—the loveliest land he has ever known in varied travels at home and abroad; a land of great charm; a land where sunshine is almost perpetual and the sea breezes blow through a whole year of flowers; a paradise plot of land and water.

What with these cheerful charms, the soft sun, the gentle breeze, the flowers of the forest and field, the adorning of the sea, which, so often, are waited for the seagull, and the soft sun, the gentle breeze, the flowers of the forest and field, the adorning of the sea, which, so often, are waited for the seagull.

Pointers on Sheep Raising.

THRIVE BEST IN SMALL FLOCKS, MOST CHARMINGLY FED ANIMALS.—WORST ENEMY OF THE SHEEP IS THE DOG.

Much interest has been excited by the facts recently published showing the great profits in sheep raising in Nova Scotia. Many are increasing their flocks of sheep, others have gone into sheep raising, and some have stopped to look at the question.

On a farm there is plenty of food for the sheep and then the cost of their keep is reduced to a minimum—practically nothing. The benefit of sheep on a farm more than compensates for the attention required in the winter.

Mr. Philomen Deveau, of Meteghan Station, was united in matrimony to Madeline Gorman, relict of the late George Deveau, Tuesday of last week.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. A. B. Cote, they drove to We-stville and had dinner at the Lombard Hotel.

Rev. Fr. Deveau, of Tusket Wedge,
Rev. Fr. Coetane, of the Sacred Heart Convent, N. B. and Rev. Fr.
Daly, Canon, dean of St. Bernard's of scores of passengers. Among those who escaped were Col. Gould, a Kenucky butcher and his wife. As a result of her injuries and nervous prostration, the Colonel's wife gave premature birth to a child that died. His nearly destroyed her mind. Her doctor told the Colonel that the only hope for her was in the adoption of infant. Fortunately one was found unharmed among the rescued passengers.

Say "I was in it" we hear nothing of the mother who killed Mrs. Alcorn and the Colonel loved and reared the child as though she was really their own.
When she became old enough, two young men sought her heart and hand.
One was the confidential clerk of Col.
Gould, and the other was a young Southerner. She preferred the latter.
The Colonel told him frankly that he was willing she should marry him, but said she was the daughter of a woman whose identity was unknown.
This did not deter the lover. Meanwhile the spoiled lord of the castle made him a villain and he resorted to trickery, lying, forgery and other devils to get the girl.

Governor Lawrence and the Acadians.

[A Review, by Judge A. W. SATWELL.]

The paper on Governor Lawrence by Mr. James S. McDonald, published in Vol. XII of the Transactions of the Nova Scotia Historical Society, seems to call for a few observations from me.

He says on page 36, speaking of the deportation of the Acadians: "Reverend Mr. Lawrence, in 1719, thirty-five years before, but for reasons of state it had been deferred."

Now, with all respect, surely this is not historical. By the treaty of Utrecht in 1713 the Acadians who did not care to take the oath of allegiance to the British Crown were granted the liberty of leaving the country with their effects within a specified time, which was extended by Queen Anne in a promise made by her to the King of France for a consideration.

Needless to mention here, but the English authorities in Nova Scotia, "for reasons of state," distinctly violated this solemn agreement, "badly treated at night both the Treaty of Utrecht and the letter of the Queen." I am quoting from Parkman's Half Century of Conflict, Vol. I, page 188, and the "reasons of state" being that their presence in the country, unwilling as it was, and despotically and perfidiously enforced, prevented the Indians from settling in the country, and secured the fort and garrison at Annapolis Royal a supply of materials and provisions.

As often as the Acadians were forced to leave the country, they invoked the terms of the treaty which permitted them to leave, and so often was the treaty violated by the English authorities in the Province.

Miss Anne Fuller, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Arthur Fuller, at Victoria, returned home on Sunday. Mr. F. C. G. Gower, of the Baptist Church, Bear River, preached his first sermon here on Sunday last, this being the first time he has been in the place.

THE NEW SCHM. LOREN B. SNOW ARRIVED HERE LABOR DAY.

The new sch. Loren B. Snow arrived Point Prm at midnight Sunday after excellent run from Lunenburg, where was launched last week, and docked Capt. Joseph E. Snow's wharf in thequette Monday. She has but one ner, Capt. Joseph E. Snow, who dily showed a COLIER representative oughout the vessel Wednesday after- n. Her topmasts had just been set n and everything is now being made dy for her to sail for the fishing

The Loren B. Snow was built and named by Messrs. Smith & Rhoads; of Portland, who have certainly given it. Snow an excellent job. She is 112 feet long in every respect. Her beam is 110 feet over all, 24.6 feet at the widest part, 11 feet deep, and registers 100 tons. She has a crew of Oregon pine, 70 and 78 feet long with 100 tons each. Her beam and holdover are of pitch the former being 64 feet long. She is a handsome suit of sails manufactured by Messrs. Hewitt & Adams, of Newburg. She carries a big spread of canvas and shows every evidence of being a good sailer. In her after cabin are berths for ten persons besides a lot of convenient locker room. Under the cabin floor is room for five tons of coal which can be obtained from the U. S. A. at a very low price. Another through a small, but convenient trap near the stove. The cabin is nicely furnished and has double bulk heads between it and the main hold of the vessel. In the overhang are convenient lockers for stowing away extra gear, etc. In the forecabin are 14 single bunks, 12 of the companion way on the port side is a "shack" locker to contain food for the men at night. Next to this is an oil clothes locker

Running athwartships the full width of the vessel is a water tank with a capacity of 718 gallons. This is divided into three compartments which prevents slopping or churning when the vessel is rough weather.

The chain runs down through a caxing the forecassle with a patent receiver deck and coils itself under the fire- floor. Under this floor is also and wood lockers with a depth of more than four feet.

On returning to the dock the COURIER observed that nearly all the fittings were patent ones. Patent jibers fitted the rubber gear to relieve the strain and the jar are attached to both the fore and main sheets.

A new patent on the forward end of a jumbo boom allows that sail to run down with great ease, the boom having fore and aft movement. Patent an-

We might go on to enumerate these improvements on deck and aloft, such as round mast heads, etc., but we will simply say that the Loren B. Snow is the latest up-to-date vessel in Digby's fishing

We have not referred particularly to the ample, cold storage below decks or the modern binnacle set in just beneath the ton of the after cabin in plain view the helmsman, but as we have already stated she is up-to-date, and the Lunenburg builders have every reason to feel proud of their first vessel constructed for a Digby owner. The following enjoyed the trip from Lunenburg to Digby: Capt. Joseph E. Snow (owner), wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snow (master), J. L. Dakin, Geo. Keen, James Hazelton and Howard Sealey.

That's the sensation experienced by Robert Price, of Hec-ton, Ont. He knew it was a steel knife and of course used "Nerviline." As usual it cured and he says: "No liniment or excels Polson's Nerviline. Severe pains made my side lame. It was like a steel knife running through the flesh. I rubbed in lots of Nerve-line and was completely cured." A regular snap for Nerve-line to ease Sciatica and rheumatism. It sinks into the core of the pain, cures it in short order. Large 45c bottles at all dealers.

Acaciville.

We are glad to see Mr. Edward Nichols home again.

There are no school bells ringing in

Mr. C. W. Warren of Manchester, N. H., who came here on his vacation spent most of his time in fixing up the Audubon graveyard at Acaciaville where he has had and many relatives lay. He has had it all cleared out and has left it in charge of Mr. Peter Butler and Mr. Ames Warren to finish. It will be a great improvement in our place, and I think the people here will appreciate the work that he has done and the good spirits he has shown. He is also going to have a handsome monument erected in memory of his father and sister and we hope in the near future to see a nice fence completed. We wish Mr. C. W. Warren the best of success and prosperity in his business.

Man Drowned at Grand Manan.

ST. JOHN, September 3.—The Grand Manan steamer Aurora today brought word of a drowning accident in the bay on Sunday morning last. Bradford Thomas, aged about 21, a fisherman took home a small lobster, and for a sail. A equal came up and the boom swung, driving Mose overboard. One of the women also was knocked overboard, but she managed to catch a rope which was trailing in the water and was hauled aboard. The man, however, sank. The women, with some difficulty brought the boat ashore.

HEADACHES

Tablets, powders, drugs, of any kind will NOT cure headaches. Simply because they never reach the CAUSE of the headache.

What causes headaches? Poisoned blood, always.
If the bowels are constipated—
If the kidneys are weak at all—
If the millions of pores of the skin are not active—
There are bound to be headaches.

Fruit-A-Tives

These headaches because they cure the cause of headaches. They do not drug the nerves. They go to the root of the trouble, invigorate and strengthen the liver and increase the flow of bile into the bowels, which cure constipation at directly on the kidneys, heal all kidney ailments. Act on the skin, stimulate and open the pores.

With bowels, kidneys and skin all healthy and working in harmony, the blood is kept pure and rich and there can be no headaches.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are pure fruit juices—combined by a secret process with tonics and intestinal antiseptics.

Send a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price if your druggist does not handle them.

potatoes offered for sale here, about a bushel, say that I can buy within my reach, also apples, turnips, all kinds of vegetables, etc., in fact about all the farmer has to sell. Besides this I have been compelled to send to our neighboring towns this season for a large quantity of berries and fruit. This latter statement I regret as I feel satisfied that our own farmers can raise anything that Nova Scotia can grow. I am always ready to buy any live stock notwithstanding that I handle it at a very low margin, but will continue to do so to oblige the farmers, build up the country and encourage home industry. I want to ask you a question—Who should have your patronage?

Boils and Pimples

Red Rash, Eczema, in fact any skin disease, disfigures the complexion because the bowels are constipated—or because the kidneys do not rid the system of waste—or because the skin itself is unhealthy.

Clintments, salves and soaps are useless. Because the trouble is with the blood.

Owing to defective action of bowels, kidneys or skin, the blood becomes impure. It is this impure blood—deposited by the blood—that makes boils, pimples, and painful, disfiguring skin diseases. It is because the trouble is with the bowels, kidneys or skin, that FRUIT-A-TIVES cure these diseases.

act directly on the eliminating organs—correct their irregularities—strengthen them—and thus clear the skin and make the complexion clear and soft.

If you have any skin trouble—or any fault with constipation, liver troubles, biliousness, headaches, indigestion, rheumatism, or yourself feel unwell—take FRUIT-A-TIVES. They are made of fruit juices and tonics—and never fail to cure. See a bottle of FRUIT-A-TIVES at your drug store. Sent on receipt of price if your druggist does not handle them.
