DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, January 6, 1911

Special New Year Editions.
THE HALIFAX HERALD AND CHRONICLE PUBLISH INTERESTING PAPERS.

The Halifax Herald and Chronicle published very interesting New Year editions this year which contained a lot of reading matter in reference to the future prospects of the various towns and the province of Nova Scotia generally. The Chronicle especially features its annual edition and its first issue in January is eagerly looked forward to every year and is generally laid away by the majority of our citizens for future reference. The Herald had part of its new year stories in its issue of Dec. 31st and some in its issue of Jan. 2nd. The Herald, it is true, is not devoting the space to Digby news that it did a while ago. But are enterprises newspapers and should the Herald in every issue in Nova Scotia. We contend that if a family only supports two newspapers they should be the local ones, published in the town of the county in which they reside and a daily paper published in the capital town of the province. If they desire more reading, we can recommend a dozen of others, but those should be the first two.

Xmas Gifts

A PASTOR AND HIS WIFE VERY KINDLY REMEMBERED.

During the holiday season Rev. R. M. and Mrs. Brown of Sandy Cove, received many highly appreciated gifts from their people. Among the gifts were a beautiful Xmas lamp and two pieces of hand embroidery, together with a handsome embossed card with the word "Centerville," on one side, and on the other, "To Rev. Mr. Brown and Mrs. Brown, with their wishes for the future, from the Adult Bible Class and teachers of the Methodist Sunday School, Centerville, Digby Co., N.S., 1910."

Mr. and Mrs. Brown write in thanking the Bible Class and teachers and each of the other kind donors for these truly expressive and thoughtful gifts, and heartily extend to them their best wishes for 1911.

It is Again Eldridge's Livery.

As will be seen by referring to our advertising columns Mr. L. B. Eldridge, of Sandy Cove, has resumed business at his stable in Digby, where for some time has been leased to Mr. Frank Leitch and known as Leitch's Livery. Mr. Eldridge, among other things, is using a species of driving on Digby Neck and says his prices for teams in that direction will be particularly reasonable. Mr. Eldridge is anxious to see that his service is of the best, and was formerly engaged on this route, but who has for the past few years, been in charge of Dr. L. H. Hulse's stable and manager of Eldridge's Livery, which we trust will meet with the success it deserves.

Death of William Henry Lawrence.

The death occurred at Yarmouth at 12 o'clock Saturday of Capt. W. H. Lawrence after an illness of three months, during which he suffered intensely of kidney trouble, in the 70th year of his age. He leaves a wife, six daughters, Mr. Wm. and Mrs. Wm. Harrington, of Eastport, Maine; Mrs. Albert Ganning, Yarmouth, Mrs. Geo. A. Doty, Ravenshoe, Ohio; Mrs. Alfred Campbell, of Westport, and Mrs. L. A. home and three sons Edward of Portland, Me., Fred and Johnnie at home. He is also survived by one daughter, James and one sister, Mrs. Billy Russ, of Eastport, Me.

New Church at Annapolis.

The new Roman Catholic church at Annapolis was opened for Divine worship on Christmas eve, Rev. Fr. Grace officiating. The dedicatory services will be held at a later date. The church cost about $10,000 and known as St. Thomas church, which is also the church of the Rev. Fr. Grace. The contractors were A. W. Allen & Son, Middleton, and it is a great credit to the congregation as well as to the town. It will seat 300 persons and is furnished with a fine-toned organ.

Would Be a Good Thing for Digby.

The Yarmouth Herald says: We understand that arrangements have been made with the junior of the public buildings that upon the death of an official or public man a telegram is to be sent to the department at Ottawa, when permission will be given to have the flag hoisted at half mast. This was done in the case of the late master Scott, and the flag was flying at half mast all day Sunday, the occasion of his funeral.

Successful N. S. Boys.

Among those who obtained first class honors in the junior examinations of the Ontario College of Pharmacy held recently in Toronto, was P. A. Margeson, son of Conductor Margeson of the D. A. R. This bright young man was also among those making the highest marks in physics. C. W. Munro, another Nova Scotian, successfully passed with second class honors.

Won a Season Ticket.

Miss Nina Lewis, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. C. F. Lewis, formerly of Digby, but now residing in St. John, won the prize in the recent contest in that city by writing the best essay on "Skiing" in Victoria school. The prize was a season ticket at the rink. An odd coincidence is that the same prize was won last year by her brother, Mr. Roy Lewis.

Calendars.

THE COURIER has received handsome calendars this week from E. B. Bos, general merchant and manufacturer of lumber, Bear River, and Mr. F. W. Nichols, Digby, agent for the Nova Scotia Fire Insurance Co. The latter contains a map of the maritime provinces which is as useful in an office, for reference, as the calendar itself.

Purchased Snow Property.

Mr. Alma Roney, of Paradise, Annapolis county, has purchased from Capt. John W. Snow, of Port Wade, his property on the corner of Birch and Carleton streets, Digby, and extending through to First Avenue. This is quite a valuable property and its situation in the north end is liable to continue to increase in value.

Death of Deacon Francis.

Deacon Joseph Francis died at his home in Westville, Digby county, at 5:35 Wednesday morning, aged 50 years. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. The funeral will take place at two o'clock this afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. D. W. Dixon, pastor of the Hill Grove Baptist church.

25 Years Ago.

Death of B. H. Dodge.

An Acadia Rally.

Acadia students, both old and new, met for a rally in the Temperance Hall at Freeport on the evening of Friday, the 23rd of December.

The meeting was held in the auditorium of the College Y. M. C. A. In the afternoon the quick fingers of the College boys and girls were busy draping the hall with spruce, evergreen and blue and garnet. The genial and popular pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. A. H. Saunders, joined in heartily and showed himself an adept in all the arts of decoration.

The rally proved a success in every way. The Rev. A. H. Saunders very cordially presided as chairman, and every department of college life was touched upon. Mr. E. M. Bleakney made an interesting speech, told of the work done at the Ladies' Auxiliary, H. C. A., and also spoke of the purpose and need of the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Hayford, in a humorous speech, told of his experiences and impressions as a freshman in his own inimitable way. Mr. Raleigh Brooks spoke of College sport and College spirit. In the few minutes that remained, Mr. C. A. Butler made an appeal for higher education. The addresses were interspersed with college choruses, songs and readings. After the address, the guests were treated to a good dinner and had gathered a good collection for the Y. M. C. A., the Acadia doxology was sung, and a very happy evening was closed.

An Odd Craft.

The power boat Greta arrived here yesterday in town of the St. John River from St. John. She was purchased in Scotland by Col. Smart, president of the Maritime Fish Corporation of Montreal, for use in the St. John River, and was brought to St. John by the Donaldson line and put in the water Wednesday under the superintendence of Capt. H. H. Anderson, who had her towed here by the 29 ft. long, 10 ft. wide and of heavy draft for a boat of this size. It is propelled by a kerosene motor and will not doubt make a good tow boat or a good fish carrier. Her heavy rig, her oddity painted hull, her red sails and heavy machinery and her entire make up, cause her to make an appearance that the average American or Canadian is not accustomed to see along the water front. We wish to see Greta every success in her new port of ownership.

A Trifle Previous.

The Yarmouth papers, which evidently delight in placing new captains and commanders in the water, have been out of Digby, tell the public in their last issues that a tug boat captain in St. John is about to command a new boat, now on the St. John River. The Times says: "It is now known that two steamers—probably the Prince Rupert and Yarmouth, Capt. J. D. Powell, of the Y. M. C. A., the former making connection in St. John for Nova Scotia with the C. P. R. train from Montreal and the West, and the Yarmouth running as a freight and passenger boat."

This has been known for some time, but the Times and Herald are a little tardy in running the Yarmouth's new commander.

Death of Arthur Firth Denton Powell.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Powell, Freetown, was made sad by the death of their only child, Arthur F. D. Powell, on Friday morning, Dec. 30th, aged three months. Funeral took place on Saturday.

Rev. J. H. Saunders, pastor of the Baptist Church, conducted the services at the house and grave. We extend our sympathy to the mourning ones.

"The hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart,
We must forever part."
Eye-sail could warm or frosty fade
Death came with friendly care
The opening bud to heaven conveyed
And bade it bloom there.

"Banks" Fish Free if Native Helped Catch It

OTTAWA, Dec. 29—Advises received here to-day from St. John's N. F., say the British Embassy at Washington has informed the governor of Newfoundland, the United States treasury department and the Canadian government that Newfoundland waters by Americans with the assistance of native Newfoundland fishermen shall in future be free of duty to the United States from Newfoundland.

This is an official authorization of a practice heretofore said to exist with out legal authority. In the opinion of the Canadian papers, it foreshadows the free entry of fish to the United States from Newfoundland.

A Useful Publication.

We have received this week from the McAlpine Publishing Co., Halifax, a copy of the Maritime provinces for 1911. It is a beautiful publication and is found anywhere for 25 cts. which contains as much important information as can be found in this book. Every one should have a copy of Belcher's Almanac both in their homes and in their places of business. It can be consulted for almost any subject that comes to hand and its author's can be depended on. These books are for sale by local dealers or can be obtained from Mr. Isaiah Wilson, Smith's Cove.

Grant's Prohibition

Pictou Advocate. Rev. R. R. Grant recently sent an article to the provincial papers on "Prohibition in Prince Edward Island." The article appeared in the Halifax Herald of Dec. 10th. On that date 520 cases and 9 casks of liquor passed through Pictou to the island. Many people seem to have the idea that the securing of "Prohibition" is a prohibition law—means the shutting out of liquor. Prohibition will prohibit when there is a strong public sentiment behind it, not before.

Brown Tail Moth Inspection.

Dr. C. Gordon Hewett, Dominion Entomologist, and Mr. Cumming, Secretary for Agriculture, Province of Nova Scotia, have completed arrangements for a combined campaign against the Brown Tail Moth. Here-to-for this work has been carried on almost entirely by the Local Government, but as the question of allowing the Brown Tail Moth, or any other serious insect, to become established in any province of the Dominion is a matter of serious importance to the whole Dominion of Canada, the Dominion Government have recently agreed to co-operate with the Local Government in fighting this pest.

Beginning with this week, a party under the direction of Mr. Sanders, Assistant Dominion Entomologist, will begin inspecting orchards and forest sections at Yarmouth, and another party under Mr. H. G. Payne, who has previously been engaged in this work, will begin an inspection at Windsor. These parties will work until they meet and hope, in the course of the next five months, to cover all that territory of Nova Scotia which is at all likely to be infested with the pest.

Citizens in the counties of Hants, Kings, Annapolis, Digby and Yarmouth are urged to inspect their orchards and report to either the Department of Agriculture at Truro or to Ottawa, or to the inspectors and thus afford the inspectors an opportunity of investigating their orchards.

Thus far the measures taken to repress the Brown Tail Moth have been attended with signal success but, with a double force working this winter and with a more definite location of the Moths, it is hoped that a great deal more will be accomplished. We can not afford to allow the province of Nova Scotia, or any other part of the Dominion, to become over-run with troublesome insect pests.

We can not afford to allow the province of Nova Scotia, or any other part of the Dominion, to become over-run with troublesome insect pests.

Thus far the measures taken to repress the Brown Tail Moth have been attended with signal success but, with a double force working this winter and with a more definite location of the Moths, it is hoped that a great deal more will be accomplished. We can not afford to allow the province of Nova Scotia, or any other part of the Dominion, to become over-run with troublesome insect pests.

The first on the list was the closing exercises of the school, which consisted of recitations by the scholars and the unloading of the Xmas tree. All the children received several presents and the scholars presented the teacher, Miss Rowena Kinney, with a pretty cold water set. The entertainment and Christmas tree in the church too was all that could be wished for. The recitations by the little tots were very pleasing. Death of S. Z. Dickson.

A despatch received from St. John yesterday morning announced the sad news of the death of S. Z. Dickson, which had just taken place at his home in that city after a very short illness.

The deceased, who was a native of Yarmouth, N. B., where he was born about 65 years ago, had for many years, carried on a successful business in the St. John market, he himself owning a farm in the Kennebec river. He was a member of the Episcopal church and was well liked by all who knew him. In politics he had been for a long time a staunch Liberal.

Mr. Dickson is survived by a widow (sister of Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Digby), two sons and one daughter, George at home and Edgar in Cambridge, N. B., and Alice, wife of Dr. W. H. Simon, of St. John.

The funeral will be held this afternoon. The Coroner will receive the deepest sympathy to the bereaved relatives and friends.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Scott Act and Prohibition.

To the Editor of the Courier:

SIR:—I have perused with interest the articles of Mr. Munro on the Scott Act as a prohibitory measure against the retarding liquor traffic. Like him I am of the opinion that if the law was put to its final execution, there would not be so many indulging in the trade. When one considers the number of rum-sellers in the county the conclusion must be that there is money in it. But how are we to remedy this evil? An evil which causes more destruction than the white plague. The community is inundated by a flood of so-called liquors which is not only sold but consumed. The rumor is that there are more than one distillery in our municipality of Clare. Such distilleries it seems are not equipped with the necessary appliances to purify the liquors so distilled, of certain gases, which thus renders it a poison to the human system. Also, the distillation process is the most perfect state, is injurious to the human system. Steps are to be taken to place out these distilleries which are engaged in the distillation of liquors brought to bear the consequences of the law. Moreover one word to the liquor dealers in Halifax, St. John or wherever. If it is found that they are to be found to ship liquors in the village of Salmon River against the provisions of the Scott Act they will not be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. This is a caution to them because we are bound to stop that pernicious traffic here and we will strike the evil at its very root. Spies will be found where those dealers in liquor will not think of, and at the moment they won't even dream of, they will be dragged here for one, two, three different offences and that as long as they will continue the trade of shipping, these spies will be at the shipping places and at the destination. Another thing to be considered. Councilors must exert their influence to put a stop to the trade. To the position of Scott Act Inspector they must appoint a man who is not only a man of law, but also a man of the trade, persons who do not indulge in the bewitching glass of every opportunity. Let every citizen mind out his shoulder to the wheel and the traffic will soon be abolished. Another thing which we are also in need of are lock-ups in every town. The Councils should take up that matter at their first meeting. There is too much disturbance, swearing and profane language in the public streets. Let us in inebriates on Sundays and we must have some place to put them in and so leave them in a state of meditation "till the morning." Without that all our police officers are useless, being unable to fulfill their duties properly. Thanks, Mr. Editor. With best New Year greetings, I am yours sincerely,

A. ABNER DEVEAT, J. P.

The Late Capt. J. W. Dunham.

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR:—I wish to express my deepest sympathy with you in the death of your exemplary brother. It was indeed a shock to me when I read his death in the COURIER. He was a skilful navigator, and a most thorough ship master, one well liked and appreciated by every citizen he ever sailed for as his long records will show for itself. I have always taken an interest in him and watched out for his sailings and arrivals, and I made the voyage with him in the barque Nicotina from St. John to Barrow-in-Furness and back to New York, then a young boy serving my time, and since I have had command we have been brought together on several occasions. On his last voyage in the good ship Astoria I met him on our side near New York harbour towing around to Philadelphia. I blew my whistle to him and he waved but he was below at the time and did not see me. I think that so many of our notable master mariners have passed away during the past few months. May their souls find an ever lasting anchorage in that "Haven of Rest" which they so justly deserve. Each ship master has his own record, and picture, if you will, he has many many treasured tales, these men have lived with the waves roaring and lashing all over the ship, each one threatening to engulf him or tear him asunder. It seems all but incredible to me that they have brought them all, and at last are permitted to breathe their last breath on earth. I think I can safely say that nobody ever valued the true value of a seaman but those of his same vocation.

Capt. Dunham was one of our members in the Boston Marine Society, of 13 members in the oldest and most famous kind in America, and there are very few societies or orders that have a longer record in America. It was founded by master mariners for the benefit of seamen's Widows and Orphans and they distribute yearly from $2,000 to $3,000 to deserving ones.

I am adding my condolences after I go to sea so much better than while in New York that I almost always leave until I go. It is one of my great pleasures, and I think I did not know of your esteemed brother's death until I had sailed from New York. I am mailing this in Kingston, Jamaica, as I will not be back until the 15th.

I have also written Mrs. (Capt.) Dunham and her daughters my sincere sympathy in this their sad hours of bereavement. Kind regards to you and yours.

Sincerely yours,
 H. A. HENSHAW

Two Weddings at Wilson's Beach.

WILSON'S BEACH, CAMPOBELLO, N. B. Jan. 2—Two weddings of more than ordinary interest took place on New Year's eve, when Miss Delphina Mitchell was married to Mr. Bailey, of Westport, N. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey leave for their home in Westport by steamer Brunswick today.

To Cure a Headache.

The experience of Mr. O. Barber, Simcoe, Ontario, who has suffered all his life with headaches, he writes: "For a long time I was troubled with headaches, which came in about once a week with such violence that I could not get on my feet. I tried all kinds of powders and quick cures did no good. I then used six boxes of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food and have not been troubled with headache since. That was eight months ago."

WHAT A C.P.R. FIREMAN OWES TO ZAM-BUK.

George H. Duffus of Robertson St., Fort William, a C. P. R. fireman, says: "The water gauge of my locomotive burst and scalded the whole left side of my face terribly. I had a box of Zam-Buk in my pocket, which I was using for a sore on my lip, and when I had recovered from the shock of the accident, I produced the balm and had it applied freely to the scalded parts. I was suffering acute agony, but within a wonderfully short time Zam-Buk gave me ease. I was able to continue my journey and upon reaching home, I obtained more Zam-Buk and continued the treatment. Zam-Buk acted wonderfully well, and in a few days had the wound nicely healing. I don't know anything so fine as Zam-Buk as a healer of burns, scalds, cuts, and similar injuries, which workers are so liable to, and, in my opinion, a box of Zam-Buk should be kept handy in every worker's home."

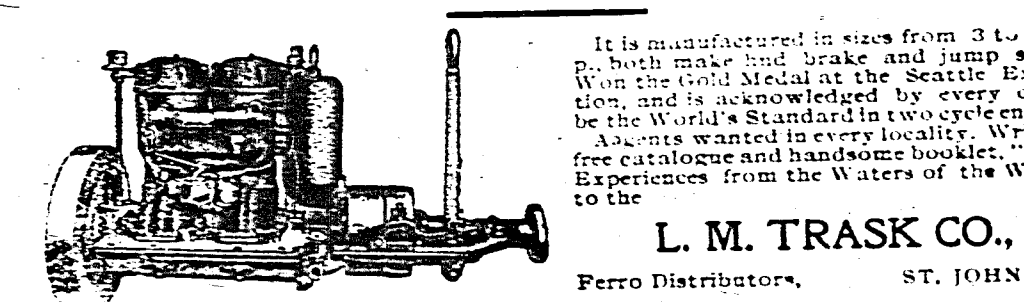

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for cold sores, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, blood-poison, varicose sores, piles, scalp sores, ringworm, inflamed patches, babies' eruptions, and chapped places, cuts, burns, bruises, and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

Light Cigars Not Mildest.

Probably there is not one smoker in a thousand who is not surprised and, in fact, incredulous, when he is told that the color of a cigar is absolutely no guide to its strength. Yet such is the case, and a fact well known to cigar manufacturers and importers. The belief of smokers that cigars of dark color are strong and those of a lighter shade are milder is, in point of fact, as fallacious as it is general. This is but one of many delusions harbored by consumers of tobacco, and which practical cigar men have smiled at and indulged from time immemorial.

CURED OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Mrs. Alex. Moore, of James St., Oxford N. S., says: "Booth's Kidney Pills cured our little daughter, Christian, age six years, of many symptoms of kidney weakness. She complained of a sore back, the kidney secretions were frequent and uncontrollable, especially at night. Her stomach was weak and her appetite poor. This caused her to have frequent headaches, and the least exertion would tire her. We had tried many remedies, but she did not improve. Finally we learned of Booth's Kidney Pills and procured a box. In a short time she was well and does not now complain about her back, the kidney secretions have become normal, and she plays around the house with no apparent fatigue. We always recommend Booth's Kidney Pills."

Sold by all druggists, 50c. box, or postpaid from R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by H. E. Jones.

Reduce the Cost of Living

Let us look into this problem of high cost of living. Let us see if we can whittle it down a bit and extract some of its fangs.

We all agree that the cost of living has gone up. Eggs have gone up, butter has gone up, meat and poultry and vegetables have gone up. Everything we put on our tables has advanced in price from 30 to 50%. Except one item—Flour. Most of us have known this in a way some time but have we ever for a moment realized that 10 cents spent in good bread buys more real value than fifteen times that amount spent in Eggs, Beef or Mutton. Just glance at the tables above showing the comparison made from the U. S. Government bulletin. From a food point of view—bread is the most important in our whole bill of fare. Test after test by various Governments has proved that first class bread is in itself almost a complete food and provides most nourishment to the body.

It is a fact that the best bread made from OGILVIE'S ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR is richer in real food value than anything you may eat. It furnishes more all round food in the shape of carbohydrates than either beef, veal, lamb, pork, fish or vegetables. The only element of sustenance that it lacks is fat and that you provide for by using butter. Bread is the one item of food that has not advanced in price, and has advanced in quality. Modern first-class bread made from OGILVIE'S ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR is vastly superior to the crude bread of our olden times. It is not only better in taste but vastly richer in food elements. It is the result of scientific study and scientific methods of milling. "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" is the highest perfection of flour. No ordinary flour is comparable with Royal Household for quality and uniformity. One way to reduce household expenses is to eat more bread and pastry made from Royal Household Flour.

OGILVIE'S ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR

Let us make good, clean, fresh, home-made products from ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR—bread and pastry and cookies and muffins and rolls for the youngsters and in that way we will all get better food and be healthier and wealthier in the long run.

If you send in your address and the name of your dealer you will receive a copy of Ogilvie's "Book for a Cook" containing 125 tried and tested recipes.

and it would help greatly to preserve the condition of your live stock in the Spring.

Every farmer knows that in the Spring of the year his barnyard is almost bottomless. The live stock mire down into the mud and almost float around—greatly to the detriment of their physical condition.

By building a Concrete feeding floor in the yard, this trouble is done away with.

A Feeding Floor of comparatively small area and built this Fall, would pay for itself next year. Concrete is the only material that can be used in this way at a moderate cost.

Will you ask for your copy of the book which we have prepared for you—"What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete"? It's free—and, take our word for it, you'll find it one of the most interesting pieces of such literature you ever read. And profitable, too—because it will save you money.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah W. Wilson will be glad to learn that the work on their new cottage has so far been completed as to enable them to move into it. Some six years ago Mr. and Mrs. Wilson had the misfortune to lose their home. Since then they have been living on the old Jones homestead near the Joggin Bridge. Last fall they were forced to vacate, owing to a change in the management of this place. Mrs. Wilson had hardly recovered from a very severe sickness, during which it was not thought possible that she could recover. This, with Mr. Wilson's life-long affliction of partial blindness, and the approach of their declining years, made their friends, especially those in the Temperance Order, feel that it was an opportune time to show their appreciation of Mr. Wilson's life-long interest and faithful work in the Sons of Temperance. Mr. S. S. Thompson, representing the Grand Division, and Mrs. H. H. Woodman, representing the Local Division, made an appeal to his friends both in and out of the Order, and as a result about one hundred dollars in cash has already been donated, besides quite an amount in material and work. This sum has been expended in the erection of a small cottage which, when completed, will make a cozy and comfortable home for them. It is situated near the Smith's Cove railway station. Home Division appointed a committee to take charge of the work, of which P. W. P. Herbert H. Woodman is chairman, and under whose supervision the work has been done. We trust that the donations will continue to come in until this little home is complete in every respect.

PROMINENT MEN AND WELL KNOWN WOMEN Gladly Testify for "Fruit-a-tives"

One reason why "Fruit-a-tives" is winning a welcome in the hearts and homes of thousands from coast to coast, is because so many of the leading citizens of Canada have spoken so strongly in favor of this wonderful fruit medicine. In every province—in every city—in every hamlet—throughout the three million, seven hundred square miles of the Dominion, there are many who owe their health and some who owe their lives to the marvellous virtues of "Fruit-a-tives".

Nelson Baxter, Esq., (Capt. "A" Squadron, 12th Manitoba Dragoons) of Oak Lake, Manitoba, says: "I was stricken with Sciatica and Neuralgia of the Heart—in bed for six weeks—I tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and it completely cured me. Today, my whole family use 'Fruit-a-tives'."

Paul J. Jordan, Esq., retired merchant of Sarnia, Ont., testified: "I suffered for 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I gave 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial and find it the only remedy that does me good and I cannot praise it too highly."

Mrs. Lewis Barker, of Home Place, Toronto,—"I was a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism for nearly a year. Two doctors treated me but I became a helpless cripple. I saw 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised and decided to take it. After taking five boxes, I was well."

Henry Spence, Esq., the well known Justice of the Peace of Moorefield, Ont., "I suffered from severe indigestion for almost two years and became almost a skeleton. Two experienced doctors pronounced my case hopeless. My son asked me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and from the onset of taking these wonderful tablets, I was better and 'Fruit-a-tives' completely cured me."

N. J. Jordan, Esq., a well known and an esteemed citizen of Grande Ligne, P. Q., says: "I highly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' to all who suffer with Constipation."

H. Marchessault (High Constable of Province of Quebec), St. Hyacinthe, says: "Fruit-a-tives" cured me of Chronic Pain in the Back.

DEAR SIR:—Replying to your enquiry as to how the Ferro engine performed on my trip to the coast, I am pleased to say that it was a most successful one. The engine has given perfect satisfaction, and I have earned money enough to pay for her for the year. I would recommend the Ferro to anybody for pleasure or fishing purposes, as it has never missed a trip with her in an open boat.

Yours respectfully,

A New Mianus Plant.

It may not be generally known that the Mianus Motor Works, Mianus, Conn., are building a new factory for the manufacture of gasoline engines at Stamford, Conn. Stamford is only three miles from Mianus, and thirty miles from New York. Last July the Mianus Motor Works bought a tract of land containing 53 acres in the city of Stamford adjacent to the freight yard of the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R., on which they are erecting a series of buildings.

The first building, a machine shop, will be completed and in operation this month. A two-story office building is also nearly completed. A warehouse of ample capacity and a new building for testing will be completed early in February. The testing department will be equipped with large tanks so that each engine can be tested with a standard propeller wheel, and no engine will pass inspection until it can turn its propeller up to catalog speed. A foundry and other buildings will follow.

The Mianus plant will continue to be operated to its full capacity, and in conjunction with the new plant at Stamford, it will have a capacity of forty complete motors a day, or in other words, a complete engine every fifteen minutes.

In order that the motors might be made to the best advantage on automatic machinery, they had to be redesigned. This gave the makers an opportunity to incorporate long contemplated improvements. The machinery used in the new factory is almost all automatic, even the cylinders are bored on automatic machinery, one operator attending to three or four machines. This will, of course, greatly reduce the cost of manufacturing. All machinery in the Stamford plant is motor driven; no belts or counter-shafts; each machine having its own electric motor.

The machine shops have saw tooth roofs with glass the entire length of each roof. The side walls are nearly all glass, so that the interiors of the shops are about as light and sunny as out of doors. The buildings will be lighted by Cooper-Hewitt electric lamps, the illumination of which is nearly equal to daylight. Mechanics working in such a shop and under such conditions will do their best work, and do it cheerfully.

Motherly Advice.

Margery was playing school with her dolls. The class in physiology was reciting.

"Now, children," she said, "what are your hands for?"

"To keep clean," was the prompt reply.

"Yes," repeated the little teacher, "hands were given us so we could keep them clean, and 'member, too," she added, "we must keep our feet clean, 'cause there might be an accident."

Millions of Lives.

AN AWFUL TOLL COLLECTED BY CONSUMPTION. MANY UNRECOVERED LIVES.

If people could only understand that systemic catarrh is an internal disease that external applications cannot cure, they would not need to be warned so often about this malady, which, when neglected, paves the way oftentimes for consumption, at the cost of millions of lives every year. Yet catarrh may be cured, if the right treatment is employed, and the mucous membrane or internal lining of the body is toned up and made capable of resisting the infection of consumption and other diseases.

We have a remedy prepared from the prescription of a physician who for thirty years studied and made catarrh a specialty, and whose record was a patient restored to health in every case where his treatment was followed as prescribed. That remedy is REXALL MUCU-TONE. We are so positive that it will completely overcome catarrh in all its various forms, whether acute or chronic, that we promise to return every penny paid us for the medicine in every case where it fails or for any reason does not satisfy the user.

We want you to try REXALL MUCU-TONE on our recommendation and guarantee. We are right here where you live, and you do not contract any obligation or risk when you try REXALL MUCU-TONE on our guarantee. We have REXALL MUCU-TONE in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Very often the taking of one 50 cent bottle is sufficient to make a marked impression upon the case. Of course in chronic cases a longer treatment is necessary. The average in such instances is three 50 cent bottles. Remember you can obtain REXALL Remedies in Digby only at our store—The Rexall Store. P. W. Holdsworth.

When the hair thins out on the top of the head and the bald spot is getting ready to appear in public, don't get discouraged or irritated. Just go to your Druggist and ask for Parisian Sage Hair Tonic. He will charge you 50c. for a large bottle but if it does not cause hair to grow where the hair is thinning out nothing on this earth will.

And we want to say to everybody, man, woman and child, that you can have your money back if Parisian Sage isn't the best hair grower, hair saver, hair beautifier and hair restorer on the market today.

It stops itching scalp and falling hair and makes hair grow thick and abundantly. All druggists everywhere sell Parisian Sage or postpaid from The Gironx Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont. See that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle. Sold and guaranteed by H. E. Jones.

An Easy Job. Anyhow.

Charles E. Bigelow, the comedian, is almost as bald as he could be. One day at the Lamb Club he said to the barber, "I am in a great hurry. Can't you cut my hair with my collar on?"

"Sure I can," said the barber. I can cut it with your hat on."

The Kind You Have Always Bought

An Excellent Plan.

The Canadian Government Annuities system which was approved by unanimous vote of Parliament in 1908, and is available to everyone, presents exceptional advantages to the young or middle-aged who are able to save over a considerable period to secure for their declining years an income free from all possible danger of loss or diminution, and at the lowest possible cost. If the person has a lump sum saved up which he or she could apply on account of the purchase, the cost for the remaining years would be reduced to a greater or smaller extent, according to the amount which was paid in the lump sum. For example, a man of 35 wishing to purchase an Annuity of $300 at 60 and having $500 in the Savings Bank which he could apply on account of the purchase in a lump sum could then complete his contract for an annual payment of $38.82, while if the $500 had not been paid he would have had to make an annual payment of $71.04. In the event of his death before 60, his heirs would of course receive back the $500 as well as the annual payments with 3% compound interest; and if he became an invalid or disabled so that he could not earn a livelihood, and the amount that he had paid in would yield him an income of $50 or more, he could draw his Annuity at his then age though he were under 55 or 60. This points out the advantage to a man or woman who has been saving up for the years when they are unable longer to work of immediately transferring any amount which they can spare to their account for the purchase of an Annuity. The amount if left in the Savings Bank at 3% would yield an income far short of the amount which might be required for their maintenance.

Information may be had at the Post Office, or of the Superintendent of Annuities, Ottawa, of the plan you may adopt to make this provision.

Booth's Kidney Pills

What woman at sometime or other does not experience these dreadful bearing down pains. Mrs. E. Griffith, of Main street, Hepworth, Ont., says: "A heavy bearing down pain had settled across my back and sides. I was often unable to stoop or straighten myself up. Many times each night I would have to leave my bed with the irregular and frequent secretions of the kidneys and just as done out in the morning as on retiring. I was languid and would have to let my housework stand. Nothing I had tried would benefit me. I learned of Booth's Kidney Pills and decided I would try them, which I did, and soon found the long sought relief. My back strengthened and I began to feel better and stronger. I now enjoy my sleep without being disturbed and feel grateful to Booth's Kidney Pills for what they did for me."

Booth's Kidney Pills are a boon to women. She would know less of backaches if she took more of these wonderful pills. They are nature's greatest specific for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. At druggists, 50c. box, or postpaid from The R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by H. E. Jones.

PURITY FLOUR

"More bread and better bread"

Makes just the kind of biscuits you like to make

An Interesting Calculation

HERE is an interesting calculation for young housewives or old ones for that matter. A pound of the best bread in the world made from ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR costs less than four cents. A pound of the best beefsteak costs 25 to 30 cents. Yet a pound of bread made from ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR contains more working energy than a pound and a half of beefsteak. Or three pounds of pork, or two pounds of veal.

Whether figured by the pound or by actual units of health and strength, bread made from

is the most economical food in the world. Especially is bread made from ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR good for growing children. They can't eat too much of it. For their general healthy growth and development it furnishes an almost complete food. As a matter of household economy children ought to be given all the bread they can eat at all times.

Statistics also prove that ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR will sustain life longer than animal food. It is extremely rich in high quality gluten which comes from the best Red Fife Wheat—the finest in the world. This large percentage of high quality gluten is what makes ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR so much better than ordinary flour. Red Fife Wheat is known the world over for its richness in high quality gluten.

The beautiful white color of ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR is natural. It indicates the richness of the wheat from which it is made. The one safe rule in buying flour is to get ROYAL HOUSEHOLD and in that way you will make sure of getting the largest percentage of nourishment and the cleanest, purest and most uniform flour. Best for pastry as well as for bread, rich, nuttily, natural, most uniform and most satisfactory for all household baking. Insist on ROYAL HOUSEHOLD—your grocer will be glad to furnish it if you tell him that substitutes will not do.

Cook's with 125 pages of recipes that have been tried and tested, will be sent free to your address if you mention the name of The Ogilvie Flour Mills Co., Limited, Montreal.

Salmon River.

The marriage of Edward Martin and Agath LeBlanc, of this place, is announced for the 18th inst.

At the moment of writing this short sketch we hear with regret the death of Celestin C. Deveau, Esq., J. P., from an attack of pneumonia after an illness of 9 days.

Mr. John Doucett, beloved son of Mr. Patrice Doucett, of Norwood, Yarmouth Co., breathed his last on Friday 13th, inst., after a lingering illness of 5 years at the age of 23. Deceased was afflicted with that terrible melody consumption but had always borne his trials with resignation to the will of God. He died fortified with all the consolations which the Roman Catholic church surrounds her children in that last and supreme hour. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon, 15th inst., at Salmon River. To the bereaved family we offer up our most heartfelt and profound sympathies.

Weymouth.

W. W. Chase, of St. John, was in town this week.

Mr. Alphia Muise was a passenger to Boston last Saturday.

Mr. Francis Journeay, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Journeay, returned to New York last Saturday.

Sorry to report Mr. Siffroi Theriault on the sick list. He has quinsy sore throat; also Miss Pauline Thebideau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Thebideau.

The members of the R. C. church held a basket social last Saturday evening in the C. M. B. A., for the benefit of the church. The proceeds, clear of expense, amounted to $20.00. All report enjoying a very pleasant evening.

Kempt. Queen's Co.

Mr. Samuel Luxton, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again.

Miss Helen Douglas, of Caledonia, was the guest of Miss Tressa DeLong last week.

Mr. Reuben Cushing is attending the short course at the Agricultural School, Truro.

The ladies' sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. F. M. Christopher on Tuesday. New officers were elected: Mrs. R. Atkins, president; Mrs. Ernest Dukeshire, vice president; Mrs. Hardy Freeman, treasurer.

A surprise party was given to Miss Abbie Kempton at Mrs. F. M. Christopher's on Wednesday evening. A very pleasant time was spent. It was a genuine surprise to her. She was presented with several pieces of china and glassware, for her faithful services as organist in the church. She expects to go to Truro as a member of the C class. We shall miss her very much.

This community was saddened on Friday morning by hearing of the death of Mrs. Sylvanus DeLong, of Pleasant River. The remains were brought to Mr. Spurgeon DeLong's on Saturday and from there to the church on Sunday morning where a very impressive service was conducted by Rev. G. M. Wilson. All who knew Mrs. DeLong feel that they have lost a friend. She was always so pleasant and jolly and met every one with a smile and a hearty grasp of the hand. Our sympathy goes out to the husband and two children, also the sister and aged father. Again as we were gathered at Mr. Christopher's to the circle, word came that Mr. Whitman Freeman's little boy (only child) was dead. Words fail to express our sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. Freeman in their hour of sudden sorrow.

Centreville.

A large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson Saturday evening, Jan. the 14th, to a donation which was held in behalf of Rev. G. H. Hunt, pastor of the Baptist church. Although the so-called twenty-five cent men were present yet the net little sum of $20.60 was realized, and so we think that their hearts and their purses must be fuller than their accusers think. When Mr. Thompson presented the gift to their pastor, he not only made a very appropriate speech, but a prayer also, which we know must have come from a sincere and thankful heart. The evening passed very pleasantly with lots of music and singing, and as each one parted to go to their homes they felt that they had many friends to be thankful for.

Lower Granville.

Capt. Avery Johnson arrived home on Saturday.

We regret to report that Mrs. Eliza Thorne is very low.

Harry Thorne came from Boston on Wednesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Thorne.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

Annual Meeting Held at Digby, January, 1911.

MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS, AUDITORS' REPORT, COMMITTEES APPOINTED, AND OTHER MATTERS OF INTEREST TO OUR COUNTY READERS

On Tuesday the 10th, day of January, 1911, the Councilors elected in and for the Municipality of Digby met at the Court House in Digby at two of the clock in the afternoon, viz., Cereho H. Purdy, Hillsburgh; William M. Cossaboon, Smith's Cove; Harry H. Marshall, Brighton; Harry W. B. Warner, Plympton; W. Freeman Nicholl, Weymouth No. 2; J. A. Grierson, Weymouth No. 22; and Ellis, Culloden; Charles L. Cossaboon, Rosaway; Edwin A. (Gidney), Sandy Cove; Helen J. Outhouse, Tiverton; Edwin Hains, Freeport; Herbert P. Bowers, Westport, are sworn into office according to law.

Upon motion seconded, that Cereho H. Purdy, of Hillsburgh, No. 1, be Warden of the Municipality for the ensuing term. Passed unanimously and accordingly Mr. Purdy took the chair and called the Council to order.

Ordered, that Councilors Hains, Nicholl and Marshall nominate Standing Committees, who retire and return the following nominations: Assessments, the whole; Finance and Public Accounts, Councilors Hains, Grierson, Warner, Marshall; By Laws and Regulations, Ellis, Bowers; Poor and Homeless Issues, Bowers, Warner, Nicholl, Ellis; Tenders and Public Property, Grierson, Marshall, Licenses, Warner, Gidney, C. H. Cossaboon; Insane, Bowers, Warner, Nicholl, Ellis; Arbitration, Grierson, Marshall; the Warden being ex-officio a member of all standing committees.

Upon reading report of F. E. Rice, M. D., Medical Health Officer, ordered, to be received and adopted.

To the Warden and Municipal Council for the Municipality of Digby:

GENTLEMEN,—I beg leave to make the following report in reference to the sanitary condition of the Municipality for the year A. D. 1910.

(a) Speaking from my experience and from the reports received from other physicians, the year has been a very healthy one.

(b) Several times during the spring and summer attention was called to cases of scarlet fever of a very mild form, and a complaint was received from Dr. L. S. Morse, Health Officer for the Town of Digby, stating that the disease was being brought there from other parts of the Municipality. I have endeavored to stop this by having disinfection carried out in those houses which were thought to be the source of infection. There has been no further spread of the disease.

(c) Typhoid fever, which has been very prevalent on Digby Neck and other parts of the Municipality for a number of years, has not returned, few cases having been reported during the year. This improvement is largely due to the people becoming more familiar with the mode of infection and improved sanitary conditions.

(d) A number of complaints have been received especially from Digby Neck with reference to the situation of composts and the disposal of gurry. I find it is often difficult to arrange these matters satisfactorily, as at present the By-laws of the Municipality require all composts, etc., to be situated forty rods from any thoroughfare, dwellings, etc. The lots in that section being very narrow, in many cases it is impossible for a man to have a compost on his cultivated ground and comply with the laws.

I would suggest that this By-law be amended for this section of the Municipality and that twenty rods be substituted for forty, with a suitable covering of earth.

FRANK E. RICE,
Municipal Health Officer.
Sandy Cove, Digby County, Jan. 26th, 1911.

Ordered that W. C. Harris, M. D., be and he is hereby appointed medical health officer for the municipality for the ensuing year.

Upon reading report of John Journeay, inspector under "The Canada Temperance Act", ordered to be received and adopted.

Nerves at High Tension

Slight extra strain means collapse—Restoration obtained by using DR. A.W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

The successful men and women are often of the high-strung nervous type—keen and active—but with too little reserve force.

A little extra worry and anxiety and snap goes the nervous system. Weeks and months are often required before energy and vigor are regained.

Rest helps, so does fresh air and exercise, but the blood must also be made rich and red by use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mr. Wm. Branton, Victoria St., Stratford, Ont., writes: "My nervous system seemed all unstrung. I could not sleep, had no appetite, my digestion was poor and I had jerking of the limbs. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food helped me and I continued until I had taken twenty-four boxes. This treatment has made a radical change in my condition, bringing up the system and strengthening the nerves." GIN PILLS Brought Relief

"I suffered untold misery even when under treatment from the best doctors for over ten months, and nothing seemed to do me any good or relieve my painful condition. My trouble was inflammation of Kidneys and Bladder.

I finally determined to go to the Victoria Hospital, Halifax, for treatment. Two days, however, before my intended departure, a neighbor called and happened to have a GIN PILL in his pocket, insisted on my taking it. I did so and six hours after taking it, the results and benefits I derived were simply nothing more or less than miraculous. Instead of going to the hospital, I sent for a box of GIN PILLS with the result that I am a cured man. I recommend GIN PILLS to everyone suffering from Kidney Trouble."

N. B. After the accused was released from jail on No. 14 above, his wife promised on his behalf that he would not sell any more liquor. The above information Nos. 13 and 14

My last report showed that from my appointment as inspector, in 1904, I had paid into the hands of the Municipal Treasurer over and above all expenses the sum of $1335.75. I have this year added $63.95 so that the amount so paid now stands at $1399.70.

I have during this year had quite a large amount of correspondence, throughout the Municipality answering inquiries and giving instructions as to the working of the Canada Temperance Act. I have endeavored to conduct all prosecutions so as not to involve the Municipality in unnecessary expense. I have met with several reverses. The amendment to the Summary Convictions Act requiring the evidence of witnesses to be taken before a summons or warrant is issued has proven very inconvenient and has been the cause of me failing to get convictions on several of the informations laid.

I am credibly informed that it is harder to purchase liquor in the Municipality of Digby now, than ever before.

I trust that my report and services are satisfactory to you. I shall be pleased to receive the appointment as your Inspector for another year at the same salary.

All the above is respectfully submitted.

To paid treasurer to balance	578.30
	$578.30	$578.30

My last report showed that from my appointment as inspector, in 1904, I had paid into the hands of the Municipal Treasurer over and above all expenses the sum of $1335.75. I have this year added $63.95 so that the amount so paid now stands at $1399.70.

I have during this year had quite a large amount of correspondence, throughout the Municipality answering inquiries and giving instructions as to the working of the Canada Temperance Act. I have endeavored to conduct all prosecutions so as not to involve the Municipality in unnecessary expense. I have met with several reverses. The amendment to the Summary Convictions Act requiring the evidence of witnesses to be taken before a summons or warrant is issued has proven very inconvenient and has been the cause of me failing to get convictions on several of the informations laid.

I am credibly informed that it is harder to purchase liquor in the Municipality of Digby now, than ever before.

All the above is respectfully submitted.

JOHN JOURNEY.

Inspector under the Canada Temperance Act in and for said Municipality of the District of Digby.

Dated at Weymouth N. S., this 5th day of January A. D. 1911.

Ordered that John Journeay, of Weymouth, be, and he is hereby appointed inspector under "The Canada Temperance Act" for the municipality for the ensuing year.

Upon reading petition for changes in a road at Waterford, Rosaway district; for a new road at Little River, Sandy Cove district; for a new road at East Ferry, Sandy Cove district; ordered to be referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.

Life's pathway is not bordered only with roses. Thistles and thorns are to be found also along the way. If a thistle stings you, keep a brave heart and a smiling face and you'll win the battle. Genuine sorrow is to be felt for the one who can neither sing nor whistle when the clouds are in the sky. A cheerful disposition in times of sore trial is a valuable possession.

My Own Son Was A Martyr to Dyspepsia "Fruit-a-tives" Completely Cured Him

INKERMAN, ONT., SEPT. 23, 1910.

"Fruit-a-tives" is the best remedy I keep for sale. I am in the General Store business, at the above address, and have been a resident of Inkerman for thirty-seven years, and since I started this store, (four years ago) I have found my remedy the most satisfactory one I have used. Many of my customers having results, and I can truthfully say that I know of two particular cases, among my patrons, that have been completely cured of Dyspepsia. They had previously been treated by physicians without being cured, but I advised them to try "Fruit-a-tives", and since taking that remedy their troubles have vanished.

My own son was a martyr to the same complaint, or Dyspepsia, and after a short course of "Fruit-a-tives", he is enjoying the best of health.

Every general store keeper, who stocks medicines, would keep "Fruit-a-tives" prominently displayed, he would increase his business many fold.

You have my authority to publish this letter along with my photo, if you think it would aid the sale of "Fruit-a-tives".

(Signed) ALEX. LARUE.

The sales of "Fruit-a-tives" are increasing by leaps and bounds. Thousands of people, who have been cured by "Fruit-a-tives" are telling the good news to thousands of others, and these in turn are recommending it to still others. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit. See a box—6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers, or sent post paid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

That bath-room of yours cannot be kept clean with mere soap and water

Soap will not do the work properly because soap only cleans the surface—it does not dig deep after germs and hidden impurities like GOLD DUST—the greatest of all sanitary cleansers.

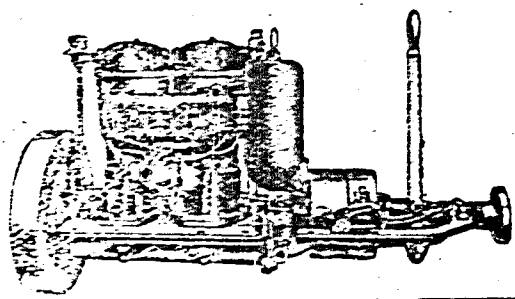

To keep bath tub and lavatory shiny-white and inviting—To keep metal pipes, fixtures and taps brightly burnished—To purify closet bowl—To keep tiling and woodwork spotless and beautiful—

Simply add a heaping teaspoonful of GOLD DUST to a pail of water. You will be surprised at the ease with which it does the work. GOLD DUST sterilizes as well as cleans—and saves you one-half the labor.

Dear Sirs:—Replying to your enquiry as to how the 11 h.p. Ferro which I purchased from you last season is running, I am pleased to say that it is running better than ever. It has a beam with four feet draft, and she ran 1000 miles in 100 hours and about 22000 miles in 1909.
The engine has given perfect satisfaction, and I have earned money enough to pay for her each year. I would recommend the Ferro to anybody for pleasure or fishing purposes, as I have never missed a trip with her in an open boat.

The Contribution Box.

The wife of the clergyman of a certain suburban parish was mending clothes the other day when a visitor was announced. The hostess went on with her sewing, for the caller was a well-known parishioner. After a while the visitor glanced toward the sewing table and exclaimed: "Why there are some buttons exactly like some my husband had on his last winter suit. They are an odd kind of button, too. Where did you get them?"

The clergyman's wife smiled roguishly. "In the collection basket," she answered quietly. "I found a good many of the same kind. I am saving them up for possible use."

The caller changed the subject as hastily as she could and somehow or other she did not stay very long.

Her Bad Break.

Cartier de Haven is providing us with a whole lot of material these days. Here is another of his stories: A man wished to introduce a friend to a wife who was at the seashore. When the pair got to the resort they found the wife in the surf. Entering the bath house, the men donned their suits and went into the water. The husband introduced his friend.

A week later the friend observed the woman he had met in the water sitting opposite him in a street car. He bowed and she exclaimed:

"Oh how do you do! I didn't know you with your clothes on."

They had to leave the car at the next corner.

Minus The People.

Some weeks ago two little girls of six and seven years old heard a party of older people discussing skeletons. The six year old listened intently to the conversation, when the older girl, with an air of superior knowledge, said abruptly:

"You don't know what a skeleton is and I do."

"No, do I," sharply replied the younger, "I do know! I know for certain, I do!"

"Well, now, what is it?" the elder wanted to know.

"Why, it's bones with the people off, that's what it is!"

"Father!"
"Well, what is it?"
"It says here, 'A man is known by the company he keeps.' Is that so, father?"
"Yes, yes, yes."

"Well, father, if a good man keeps company with a bad man, is the good man bad because he keeps company with the bad man, and is the bad man good because he keeps company with the good man?"

Healthy Happy Children

As everyday food for growing children, good bread and butter is much more wholesome than meat. It is lighter in the stomach, more easy to digest and furnishes every element of health and strength necessary for the growing child, provided the flour is rich in that fine quality of high grade gluten which distinguishes Ogilvie's

Royal Household Flour.

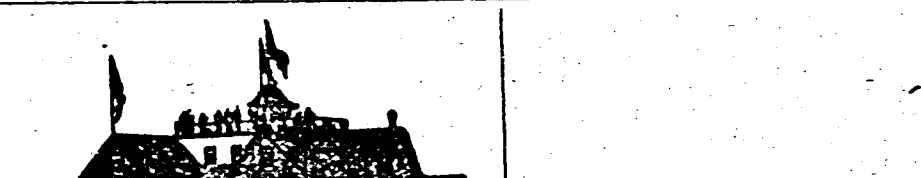

It is this rich nourishing element which makes children grow fat and happy when given plenty of bread made from this finest of all flours. Children thrive on it. It puts flesh on their bones and brings the rosy flush of health to their cheeks.

This is not so with bread made from inferior flours. It falls very far short of being whole food and fails to build up strong, vigorous growth. For the children's sake buy the best flour—Ogilvie's Royal Household. It counts for health and happiness. Best and most nutritious for pastry as well as for bread.

"Ogilvie's Book for a Cook," with 125 pages of recipes that have been tried and tested, will be sent free if you will send us your address and mention the name of your dealer.

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, February 3, 1911.

OF A LOCAL NATURE

The Courier's "Scoop."

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER WAS THE ONLY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED LAST FRIDAY MORNING WHICH HAD A STORY OF THE MIDDLTON FIRE.

Out of all the papers published in the Maritime provinces last Friday morning, including the dailies, the COURIER was the only one to furnish its readers with an account of the Middleton fire.

Out of our edition of 2300 about 400 were printed before we received a telephone message stating that the business section of the town of Middleton had been destroyed by fire and that although the blaze was under control, the fire was still burning.

A number of subscribers in the south end of the town had already received their papers before the second edition was started.

We were able, however, to catch all the mails with our second edition. It was thought that the Middleton Outlook would arrive here Friday afternoon with details of the calamity which had befallen its enterprising town, but we regret to say that in some way the Outlook's Friday edition missed the western mail, and was there behind nearly all other papers in spreading the news which was exclusively its own.

It is astonishing how many weekly papers in various parts of Nova Scotia miss the mails on the day published, but the Outlook in a time like last Friday should have been up-to-date. It is no longer necessary as its building was not in the burnt district and its regular subscribers had a right to the news which they were anxiously waiting for at the proper time of arrival.

The COURIER has never missed a mail under its present management and its advertisers and subscribers need not be able to imagine what happened in the COURIER did not appear as regularly as an express train.

We know of a country weekly not more than a mile from Digby dated Wednesday which has not for weeks reached Digby earlier than Friday, and another still further east which often arrives here Thursday, while another dated Saturday never reaches Digby until the following Monday.

Advertisers as well as subscribers are slow to realize that it pays to patronize a publication which can be depended on for punctuality as well as reliability.

Saturday Night's Storm.
GOVERNMENT BREAKWATER DAMAGED AT SANDY COVE—BOAT LOST IN TIVERTON.

One of the worst storms of the season commenced here late Saturday afternoon and continued until Sunday morning. No vessels were anchored off Digby and no damage occurred here.

At Sandy Cove, Digby Neck, the government breakwater was damaged, the captains were split and over 50 pieces of piling were carried away by the tremendous seas which came in from the west.

At Freeport and Westport no serious damage has been reported. The low glass for some six or eight hours before the gale gave the vessels along the coast ample time to seek shelter.

The lowest glass recorded in Digby for over two years occurred on Monday morning and the morning was very early gale which struck Digby about seven o'clock Monday evening and continued, but in a moderated form, all day Tuesday and Wednesday.

Our Civic Candidates.
Last Tuesday was nomination day in Digby for Mayor and town councillors which resulted as follows:

FOR MAYOR.
William W. Hayden, of the town of Digby, wharfinger.
Harry B. Short, of the town of Digby, merchant.

FOR COUNCILLORS.
Charles H. Cart, of the town of Digby, carpenter.
Clarence A. Jordan, of the town of Digby, hotel proprietor.
Thomas E. G. Lynch, of the town of Digby, mine owner.
Stanley W. Titus, of the town of Digby, butcher.
William S. Troop, of the town of Digby, hotel proprietor.
H. Tupper Warner, of the town of Digby, merchant.

The election takes place next Tuesday.

Farmers' Meeting Postponed.
The farmers' meeting announced in the COURIER last week to be held in the Acadiaville school house last Saturday night, was postponed owing to the severe storm which prevailed. The meeting will be held in the Acadiaville school house tomorrow (Saturday) night at 7.30 to be addressed by three local speakers, James Trevo, of Brighton; James M. Papp, of Acadiaville; and Jacob F. Teak, of Marshalltown. Mr. Trevo's subject will be "The Cultivation and Growth of Potatoes." We can assure those interested in agriculture that this meeting will be worth driving many miles to attend and we trust that the speakers will be greeted with a large audience.

Bay View Boat Lost.
Mr. Allen Adams' fishing boat, parted from her moorings off Bay View on Tuesday night, Jan. 23d, and drifted out in the Bay. During the night a northerly breeze sprang up, causing her to crash ashore. The struck Green Point Cove about low water and beat up with the tide, totally destroying the hull. Mr. Adams fortunately saved his gasoline motor, but lost all his fishing gear together with the boat which was only two or three years old. The weather was fine Tuesday night and it is thought the boat was either struck by a vessel or drift ice. There was no insurance.

The Mission Band Concert.
The concert held by the Mission Band of the Baptist church on Tuesday evening was a success, both as an entertainment and from a financial point of view. The children all did well and showed the training which they had received from Miss Alice Nowlin and Miss Lizzie Steadman, who had charge of the entire preparations for the program, which was so much appreciated by the large audience present.

Remembered by Former Employers.
Mr. Isaac D. Harris, who is spending a few months for his health on a sheep ranch in Tidville, Digby Neck, received a very nice Christmas card in the shape of a cheque for $25 from the Boston Elevated Railway Co., in recognition of his faithful services to the company in the past. This is not the first time Mr. Harris' valuable services have been specially recognized by that company.

Referred to the Wrong End.
(Annapolis Spectator)
Navigation of Bay of Fundy is now closed by heavy drift ice.—Hants Journal.
Belay, there, brother Anslaw, you may run your end of the Bay of Fundy is closed. Our end of it never closes.

Peavies have gone up in price. Dakin Bros. have a full stock at very low price.

Death of Mrs. Cooper

(Bridgetown Monitor)

Elizabeth Cooper died at Bear River Jan. 28th in her seventy-third year. Her husband, the late Henry Cooper, publisher and printer of the Charlottetown P. E. I., passed beyond at the early age of thirty-eight. His demise occurred at Charlottetown at which place the body of his wife, who has survived him so many years, was interred in Sherwood cemetery on Wednesday last.

The survivors are one son, Charles Henry Cooper, of St. Louis, Missouri, and four daughters, Mrs. Jas. Lealie, Miss Etta Cooper and Miss Julia Cooper, who are located at Seattle, Wash., also a brother, John Gidley, who resides at Medford, Mass.

The deceased has resided since 1903 with Mrs. W. Wade, the fourth daughter, at Bear River. Prior to that time she resided at Charlottetown, where she was a devoted Christian and a staunch member of the Methodist church. Her son, C. H. Cooper, and daughter, Mrs. W. Wade, accompanied the body to its last resting place on Monday last. A short service was held at the house by Rev. A. Daniel before leaving.

Death of Geo. W. Carr.
Yesterday's St. John Telegraph says: Word has been received here that George W. Carr, a former resident of this city, died in Worcester, Mass., on Jan. 21. He left St. John about twenty-five years ago, and had been one of the leading factors in the contracting business in Worcester, being prominently identified with the paving business. He was head of the George W. Carr Company, which laid the first granite pavement in Worcester, and had contracts in many of the principal cities of the United States. He was also superintendent of the class paving company. He was a widower, and had one daughter, Mrs. W. Wade, one daughter and three step-children, all residing in the states. A brother and sister also reside in Worcester. The funeral was held on Monday, Jan. 23, from the First Church of Christ, Worcester, of which he was a member.

New York Has Another Mystery.
NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The police of various cities were today asked to investigate a search for a tall, slender man with a cast in one eye, who was a light overcoat and a black hat, who is wanted to clear up the murder of a handsome woman found dead from strangulation last night in the Hotel Bryant at Forty-Fourth Street and Sixth Avenue.

Today, twelve hours after the discovery of the crime, the body of the woman is still unidentified in the morgue, and the assassin was still at large.

The man and woman had registered early yesterday afternoon at the hotel as Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, of Montreal, N. J., but the police declared today that these were fictitious names.

The murderer had fourteen hours' start upon the police which led the authorities to believe that he had left New York.

Death of Charlie Barnett.
A Montreal despatch announces the death in that city on Jan. 29th of little Charlie Barnett, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barnett, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Peters, of Gagetown. Mr. Peters and his daughter, Miss Pearl, had gone to Montreal owing to the serious illness of the child and were with Mrs. Barnett when death claimed the little sufferer, who had been ill some weeks with rheumatism and heart trouble. The parents will have deep sympathy from their many friends for the loss of their only child. The body was brought to Gagetown for interment.

The deceased was a nephew of Mrs. (Dr.) DuVernet, of Digby.

Amherst to Have New Theatre.
AMHERST, N. S., Jan. 31.—F. G. Spencer of St. John yesterday announced that he had made definite arrangements to erect an up to date opera house in Amherst, costing $25,000. Since the burning of the old opera house, Amherst has been without a proper building for this purpose. Mr. Spencer has not fully cleared up the site, but has options on two desirable lots in King street, on the rear of the Maritime Block, with entrance from Havelock and Church streets, and one in the C. C. Henson block, Maple Avenue and Electric street.

Brought Cargo of Lobsters From Nova Scotia.
Friday's Gloucester (Mass.) Times says: An arrival at Portland on Wednesday which attracted considerable attention was the little lobster smack Etta M. Burns, which has made a winter trip to the Nova Scotia coast, and is now bringing back to the lobster business, being the first in a great many years. The little schooner, which measures only 15 net tons, made a successful trip to Westport, N. S., returning with 6000 lobsters for the F. S. Willard Company, and although considerable rough weather was encountered, met with no mishaps of any account.

A Great Corporation.
The Gaspe Electric Company are preparing to do big things in the Annapolis Valley. When it gets properly set up, it will be a big corporation, light for the whole of the Annapolis Valley, also for Halifax and Yarmouth. Sir Fred Burden, who is one of the promoters, predicts a glorious future for the corporation. Another member says that electric roads will be constructed throughout the apple section of the valley and at other points where they may be required. The valley counties have certainly every reason to look forward to a boom.

Still more curious was this clerical slip:

A gentleman said to the minister: "When do you expect to see Deacon S. again?"

"Never," said the reverend gentleman, solemnly; "the deacon is in heaven."

He Was Convinced.

'My doctor told me I'd have to quit eating meat.'

Bright Nights

Erroneous opinions are widely entertained concerning the character of the long winter nights of far northern regions. We are apt to think of such nights as being dark, gloomy and depressing in the extreme. As a matter of fact they are brightened and made cheerful by brilliant moonlight by the aurora borealis and by the reflective property of the broad, snow-covered surfaces.

Attention was recently called to this subject at a meeting of an association of steel manufacturers in England when the ore treasures of Scandinavia were discussed. The objection was raised against that part of the world as a mining country that for six months it was buried in almost continual night.

In reply to this the facts recited above were pointed out, and it was shown that in consequence of the nocturnal brightness there, the people are able to carry on work throughout the year without interruption.

The absence of direct sunlight proves a less serious hindrance to their activities than is the oppressive heat endured under a perpendicular sun by the inhabitants of the equatorial regions of the globe.

Murder Revealed By a Dream

Perhaps the most amazing crime mystery ever solved by a dream was that revealed by a murder trial a couple of generations ago. The dead body of Mr. Norway, an inoffensive Cornish gentleman, had been found by the roadside between Wadebridge and Bodmin, brutally murdered. No trace of the murderer could be found, and the mystery of the crime seemed beyond all solution, when Mr. Norway's brother, a naval officer, arrived in England and told the following singular story:

On the very night of his brother's murder, when he was on his ship in the West Indies, he saw him in a dream walking along the Bodmin road, when from a dark recess in the hedge two ruffians sprang out, slew and robbed him and then made their way to a house in Wadebridge, which he saw vividly in his dream. To this house he conducted the police officers, and there found the very two men whom in his vision he had seen commit the murder. They confessed and suffered the extreme penalty of the law.

The Parson Bird

Among the feathered inhabitants of New Zealand there is a bird called the parson bird, or tui. It is about the size and shape of a blackbird, but has a pair of delicate white tufts at its throat and is a glossy dark green otherwise, which looks black in the sunshine. It can be taught to crow, to speak, to whistle tunes, and, besides these tricks, it has a repertory which is not often equaled by any other feathered songster. At vespers it has a note like the toll of a bell or the clear, high note of an organ. It can mimic every bird in the bush to perfection. It will break off in the middle of an exquisite melody and indulge in a strange melody of sounds which are impossible to describe, but if you can imagine "the combination of a cough, a laugh, a sneeze, with the smashing of a pane of glass," it will be some approach to the idea.

White Muslin Underwear Sale

GRAND OPENING FEB'Y 14th

AND FOLLOWING DAYS

All the exquisite Muslin Garments that we have collected to make this our most notable WHITE SALE are now on display. It is doubtful indeed now, unless a woman is an artist with her needle, whether she could equal the beautiful needlework seen in these dainty garments. Take any garment you see, run it over with an expert's eye, note the fine materials, the beautiful laces and embroideries—what woman could find time to take such pains in making at home—and yet the surprisingly little prices. Just these few hints to remind you that before the recent advance in the price of cottons, laces and embroideries, the Eclipse White Muslin Co. placed gigantic orders to keep its factories running at their full capacity during the dull season. The garments produced were priced just to cover cost. Hearing of this, we lost no time in securing our share at prices not otherwise possible. Read this list and do not finish unweaving at the prices till you actually see the qualities and the good taste of the garments themselves.

Mail Orders.

It will be impossible to send samples to Mail Customers as the life of the lines offered is entirely too short to do this with any satisfaction. Those who send Cash with order are amply protected, however, as we will return money if any garment is not found to be exactly as advertised. We would also remind you of the necessity of always making a first and second choice in ordering, so that if the first is sold out we can send you the second. We pay freight on all orders of $10.00 to your nearest Railway Station.

IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT WILL HAVE A BUSY SEASON.

Mar. 1	Lake Champlain, from Liverpool
" 3	Virginian, " "
" 4	Nunatid, " Glasgow
" 4	Canada, " Liverpool
" 8	Royal Edward, " Bristol

Special attention is given to selecting suitable people for the Maritime Provinces by an officer appointed especially for that work. Farmers who will need help should write at once to Staff Captain Jennings, Box 47, Halifax, N. S., mentioning the COURIER.

The Big Explosion in N. Y.

SCHR. B. B. HARDWICK DAMAGED—CAPT. SAUNDERS AND CREW UN-INSURED.

Among the vessels near the scene of last week's dynamite explosion in New York harbor was the schooner B. B. Hardwick, a one of the few remaining clipper ships, and built from Liverpool, in Norway. Just ahead of the freight was the two-masted schooner B. B. Hardwick, Annapolis, N. S. Around the Hardwick was Capt. Herbert Saunders, of Sandy Cove, Digby County. He had been congratulating himself on having finally reached port in safety after one of the roughest mid-winter passages ever made down the Eastern coast from Nova Scotia. With the captain was his son, Murray Saunders, and a crew of six.

The B. B. Hardwick's cabin was considerably injured but was pleased to state that Capt. Saunders and his entire crew were uninjured, but certainly had a narrow escape.

Prohibition in P. E. I.

Provincial prohibition works like a charm in P. E. Island. On Wednesday of last week, with the thermometer below 0, Joe Aresault, with two companions, came to the wharf, where they were to be taken to work on a farm. He got tired and lay down on the ice, and his companions left him. Joe was unconscious for some hours, his feet were frozen, his body chilled and his life at a low ebb. His companions have not shown up. There's nothing like prohibition that prohibits.

Swept by Terrible Tornado

VILLAGES WRECKED AND SCORES KILLED AT BRUNION ISLAND

PARIS, Feb. 8.—A terrific tornado of three days' duration has passed over Reunion Island, a French possession in the Indian Ocean, killing scores and wrecking villages. The French authorities say the damage was enormous to shipping as well as inland.

Reunion is an island of the Vercarene group, and has a population of more than 174,000. It is mountainous, with the central part on an elevated plateau. The sea is very deep, and the coast is though much of the coast is precipitous and dangerous.

Matheson, of Campbellton, waited upon Premier Hazen today at the government offices and discussed the details of legislation for the relief of the people of the town of Campbellton. Hunting Brown Tail Moths

Western Chronicle.—Messrs. Payne and FitzRandolph have carefully examined all the largest orchards between Windsor and Kentville and so far have not found any signs of the pest. The finding of three nests last spring has been reported to them. From Bridgetown to Digby, especially Bear River, seems to be the district most seriously infested, and to which they will devote special attention.

Nation Demands Reciprocity

UNITED STATES PRESIDENT AGAIN HEARD ON TARIFF MATTERS.

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—Urging the proposed Reciprocity agreement with Canada, a message from President Taft was read over the long distance telephone by his Secretary, Chas. D. Norton, to the members of the Massachusetts Real Estate Exchange, assembled at their annual banquet at the Hotel Somerset in this city last night. The message from the President, which was received with much applause, was as follows:

"I regret that I cannot be present at your dinner and meet the New England governors. I note that the subject for discussion is New England's welfare. I believe that the welfare of New England is the same as the welfare of the nation, and that the welfare of the nation is the same as the welfare of the world. Best wishes for the success of your banquet."

"We shall have Reciprocity," said Governor Foss, "we may not get that this winter, but it is coming. The people are demanding it. We may have to reconstruct the United States Senate to get it; but the people are already at work on that job, and with the direct election of Senators by the people, the people will get their will carried into effect."

Tenders For the Warships

TEN CANADIAN WARSHIPS ARE TO BE BUILT AND CONTRACTS CALL FOR CONSTRUCTION IN CANADA.

OTTAWA, February 6.—The government has called for tenders for the construction of the ten new vessels of the Canadian navy, contemplated in the naval program of 1909. The vessels are six destroyers of the latest improved type.

The tenders are not publicly advertised, but are to be opened by the admiralty, details have to be kept secret and only firms in whom the department have confidence and who might be considered tenderers, will have access thereto.

Letters have been sent to all the leading British and Canadian firms who are in a position to tender, inviting them to inspect the plans and put in tenders. It is stipulated that all the vessels must be built in Canada. Tenders must be in by April next.

Urges Peace For Germany

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—During a committee discussion of the army budget to-day representatives of the clerical and trade union parties raised the question of International Peace Arbitration.

The Socialists, who are the most ardent advocates of a more friendly attitude toward the Reichstag, urged the committee to emphasize the readiness of socialist soldiers to fight lightly if the Fatherland were endangered, said that the increase provided in the new five year military bill was necessary to maintain the country's independence and fully justifiable. In return the Socialists asked only for better treatment of the soldiers.

Moisant, who was killed in the crash of his biplane on Long Island Sound, yesterday flew from San Antonio, Texas, to New York City, in a biplane, and during the flight he will make a series of aerial maneuvers in the field of war.

To Tax Automobiles

QUEBEC, Feb. 7.—In the Legislature yesterday, the Provincial Treasurer gave notice of a bill providing for the taxation of automobiles according to their rated horsepower. The revenue derived from this tax will be used for the improvement of highways, in accordance with the provisions of a bill, which was also introduced, by which the Government agrees to contribute to the cost of the improvement of highways in the improvement of main highways. The auto law contains provisions for a reciprocal agreement between the provinces of the Dominion and the United States, and the collection of taxes on non-residents. Fines collected for infractions of the law are to be given to the prosecuting Municipality.

Liberals Won P. E. Island Election

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Feb. 8.—The Liberal candidate, George W. McPhee, a barrister of Charlottetown, defeated the Conservative candidate, John B. Butland, in the election for the House of Assembly yesterday. By thirty three votes, the total vote being: McPhee, 820, and Butland, 787. The Liberal majority in 1908 was 126. The total votes exceeded that of 1908 by 15.

Previous to this election the standing of the parties was: Liberal, fourteen; Conservatives, fourteen, not including the vacant seat. The return of the opposition candidate would have meant a general election.

German Emperor Will Visit Rome

ROME, Feb. 8.—The announcement that the German Emperor will visit Rome as the guest of the Quirinal on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the proclamation of Rome as the capital of Italy, was caused by the report that other heads of State may come also during the celebration. Those mentioned more particularly are President Fallieres of France and King Haakon of Norway. King Peter of Serbia will arrive here on Feb. 10th, and is thought not to do away with the emperor. The second plot is alleged to have been hatched in the United States.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR:—I have a few facts and suggestions that I should like to put before the newly organized committee of the Town Council in particular, and to the ratepayers in general, in connection with the proposed valuation of the town. As a decision in the matter will be reached until it is clearly proven that the assessed valuation of the Municipal property is as high as that of the town, the following is one view that can be proven: A certain person owned two lots of land in one of the Municipal districts in 1900 and sold one of them for $225 and the other for $300. The assessed valuation of the two lots was $300. We turn to the town of Digby and we find that in 1910 a certain piece of land in the very center of the town was sold for one-tenth more than its assessed value. The person who is familiar with fractions and figures will see from the above actual facts that the assessed valuation of the Municipal property is only one quarter the true value, where as that of the town was nine-tenths of the true value. This is not by any means an isolated case. The valuation committee will collect half a dozen or so almost similar cases from each and every district in the Municipality, and showing by actual transfer that the assessed valuation in the town averages well up to two-thirds, a decision will be self evident to any fair minded person. The valuation of the Municipal officials that timber lands are not assessable because they are not fenced is manifestly absurd, since after a hundred years of common sense as you might say, of our many unfenced properties in town exactly the same thing, yet these are assessed as high as the fenced lands. The lands are the very best kind of real estate, advancing in value every year from five to eight per cent.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space taken, I am,
Yours very truly,
R. F. RAYNER.

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR:—It may be of interest to some of your readers, as they are interested in the proposed valuation of the town, to know that a pen of pure bred White Wyandotte pullets did for me, in the year 1910. These pullets began laying Jan. 1st, 1910 and in the first week of the year 1910, laid an average of 230 eggs each. At 35 cts. a dozen, these eggs would bring $8.41 per hen.

Two years ago, a pen of our B. P. Rocks averaged 218 eggs each in the twelve months, and up to this year, the B. P. Rocks led, as best egg producers, but must now take place, as close second to the White Wyandottes.

Yours very truly,
L. R. GUILD.

Had Eczema In Both Legs

Remarkable cure of Chronic Eczema by use of DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

You could scarcely imagine a more severe test of this ointment than the case of Mrs. Clark, recorded here. For twenty years she suffered all the tortures of this terrible disease and tried in vain the prescriptions of doctors and the cures commonly recommended. She was finally cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. It writes:—"My mother had Eczema in both legs for about 20 years and suffered from the dreadful itching, stinging conditions which can never be described. She doctored and tried everything but it got no relief until she used Dr. Chase's Ointment which was recommended to her by a friend. She found that this brought relief and by continuing its use has been cured of Eczema. I do not think any one could have done this and I can recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as a thorough cure for Eczema."

Where He Made His Money

Years ago a gentleman settled in the south of England and became very popular in the neighborhood. The county families could never discover how he had made his money, but were satisfied by his solemn assurance that it was not in trade. Nothing could exceed the ordinary gravity of his demeanor, which indeed caused him to be placed on the committee of peace, but now and then, without any apparent provocation, he would burst into such a laugh as no one ever heard before except in one place. Where they could have heard it puzzled the county families for five and twenty years, but at last he was betrayed unconsciously by his own grandchild, who, after a visit to a travelling circus, innocently exclaimed, "Why, grandpa laughs just like the clown!"

He spoke particularly of the success which had been attained in the pulp and paper industry. Following the governor's remarks, the legislature, on motion of the Premier Sir Edward Morris, adopted a resolution deploring the loyalty of the colony to King George.

The Newspaper "Job."

Many people believe that a newspaper falls together without work or concerted action or plan. The Rev. James McLeod, a Presbyterian minister at Pasadena, was of this opinion, and asked to be allowed to edit one edition of The Pasadena Star. The editor gladly accepted the opportunity to go fishing, and the minister took up his duties in the newspaper office. This is how he felt when he found himself at last at the end of his task, which, it must be said, had been done quite creditably.

"My time is now almost up as I pen this last line, and my hand is almost paralyzed; my brain is befuddled, and I am free to confess that I am right glad to vacate the holy spot. Such a jumble and potpourri. It strikes me as the effort to bring order out of chaos, and do it lightning quick. I am reminded of the memorable words: 'The earth was without form, and void and darkness was upon the face of the waters.' Never shall I criticize newspaper men more. I shall pray for them. They will have my heart's forbearance henceforth and forever. They are the hardest-worked, shortest-lived, poorest-paid brain workers on this weary old world."

Making a Locomotive.

A young lady once visited the Baldwin Locomotive works and then told how a locomotive is made.

"You pour," she said, "a lot of sand into a lot of boxes, and you throw old store lids and things into a furnace, and then you empty the molten stream into a hole in the sand, and everybody yells and swears. Then you pour it out and let it cool and pound it, and then you put it in a thing that bores holes in it. Then you screw it together and paint in and put steam in it, and it goes splendidly, and they take it to a drafting room and make a blue print of it. But one thing I forgot—they have to make a boiler. One man gets inside and one outside, and they pound vigorously, and then they tie it to the other things, and you ought to see it go!"

Idle Cars.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—The number of idle freight cars in the United States and Canada, as shown by the report of the American Railway Association, Saturday, is on the increase. On January 18, the date in which the report was complete, there were 122,297 idle cars, more than twice that of January 1910, when 51,923 idle cars were reported. There is an increase of 11,310 coal cars, while the box cars have decreased by 832, due to increased demands from the West and Northwest.

The Perishability of Riches.

One of the facilities which the provisions of the Canadian Government Annuities Act affords, is that given to old people of investing their capital with absolute security and safety, and with a much greater return than any other form of investment will give them. A woman of 80 years of age who is living in one of the small villages in Ontario, and who had outlived all her near relatives, has a deposit in the Savings Bank of $1,500, which is all that remains of a very considerable fortune left her by her husband, who predeceased her nearly fifty years ago. This amount is earning her an income of $45 a year, which, needless to say, is not sufficient to provide her with the necessities of life, and the poor house would ultimately have been her only destiny, as in a little less than six years she would have spent the remainder of her capital, as her living expenses are over $300 a year. One day the little booklet "Comfort and Happiness" found its way into this lady's hands. She perused it carefully and considered the statements thoughtfully, and with the result that she is advised to transfer her $1,500 to the Government. She will then receive a very comfortable income of $288 every year instead of $45, and the probability is that her life will be very much extended. Certainly her happiness and comfort while she lives will be increased, as the difference of $243 a year in her income will mean to her all the difference between poverty and affluence. She may live to be 100—her paternal grandfather did.

Particulars concerning this provident system of investment may be had from your Postmaster, or from the Superintendent of Annuities, Ottawa, to whom letters may be addressed postage free.

How to Distinguish His Father.

"Where's your father, little boy?" said the insurance agent, calling at the back door. "Father's down in the pig sty," said the boy curtly. "You can go and find him," And, he added, as an afterthought, "you'll know father—he's got a hat on!"

Killing Time.

Father—(at head of stairs)—"Ethel, what time is it?" Ethel—(in drawing room)—"It's a quarter past ten, father."

Father—"All right. Don't forget to start the clock again after the young man goes out to get his breakfast."

HELPLESS CRIPPLE FROM RHEUMATISM

Five Boxes Of "Fruit-a-lives" Cured Her

4 HOME PLACE, TORONTO, DEC. 15th, 1909.

"I was a terrible sufferer from Rheumatism for nearly a year, and my right arm was swollen and the pain was fearful. All down the right side, the pain was dreadful, and I could hardly move for the agony. I was treated by two physicians but their medicine did me no good, and I tried numerous other remedies but received no benefit. I was simply a helpless cripple and suffered from Rheumatism all during last winter.

I saw "Fruit-a-lives" advertised in "The Telegram" and decided to try this remedy. After I had taken one box, I was much better and the pain less, and I continued the treatment with good hopes. When I had taken three boxes, I was well, and I could use my arm again, and the pain was practically gone. After I had taken five boxes, I was entirely well again—no pain—no suffering—and now I am as well as I ever was.

The cure of my case by "Fruit-a-lives" was indeed splendid because all the doctors failed to even relieve me of my suffering.

For the sake of others who may suffer from this terrible disease, Rheumatism, I give you permission to publish this statement."

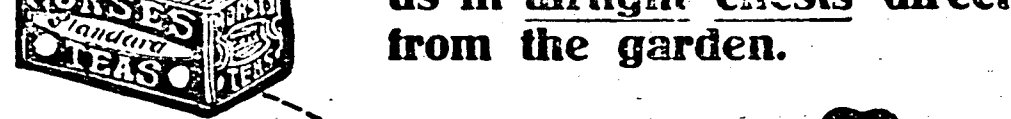

MRS. LIZZIE BAXTER.

"Fruit-a-lives" is the only remedy that actually cures Rheumatism, and Sciatica because "Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine that actually prevents Uric Acid being formed in any quantity in the body. If there is no excess of uric acid in the blood, there can be no Rheumatism.

"Fruit-a-lives" keeps the stomach clean—the liver active—the bowels regular—the kidney strong and the skin healthy. These are the organs that rid the body of all waste. When "Fruit-a-lives" so regulates the system that all waste is eliminated, then there can be no waste or "uric" to be changed into uric acid. Thus, there can be no uric acid in the blood, to inflame nerves and cause the pain which we know by the names of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuralgia, "Fruit-a-lives" will cure every trace of Rheumatism, Pain In The Back, Swollen Hands and Feet, and other troubles due to the blood being poisoned by uric acid.

If you are subject to Rheumatism, cure yourself now with "Fruit-a-lives" and be free of pain this winter.

For Health and Economy Eat more Bread

TEN cents will feed an ordinary family a day on first class bread. This does not mean ordinary bread. For there is an important difference between ordinary bread and first class bread.

It isn't a difference of looks or methods of making or baking. It is a difference of nutrition, food value, healthfulness. And this food value depends on the flour used. For there is a wide difference between flours.

If all flour were the best flour, then all bread, properly made, would be good bread. But all flour is not first class because all wheat is not first class. Wheat, you know, varies in quality almost as much as apples or potatoes; there are as many different grades of wheat as there are grades of butter—or wool.

And every difference in grade represents an actual difference in nourishing value, food elements, wholesomeness. Flour made from a low grade of wheat is by no means so healthful as flour made from high grade wheat. Now the wheat that goes into

is of the very highest grade. It contains the highest possible percentage of nutritive value. The makers of "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" maintain extensive laboratories and baking departments where skilled men scientifically analyse each day's milling. None but the very best Red Fife wheat—rich in nutrition and healthfulness—can pass. For this reason bread made from ROYAL HOUSEHOLD FLOUR contains the maximum of food value and furnishes the maximum of energy and strength. And for the same reason "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" makes the finest pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, rolls, and pastry of all kinds. It is the one flour that a housewife should use in order to have her household baking strictly first class.

"Ogilvie's Book for a Cook" with 253 pages of Recipes that have been tried and tested will be sent free to your address if you mention the name of your dealer.

I sincerely bless the day that I made up my mind to take your medicine for female weakness, and I am exceedingly grateful to you for your kind letters, as I certainly profited by them. Two More French Aviators Killed.
DOCK-FRANCE, Feb. 10.—Two more names were added to the death roll of the aviators. The aviators Noel and Delatour were killed while conducting a trial of a military aéroplane before experts from the war department, previous to its delivery to the army. Noel was the pilot and Delatour a passenger.

According to the requirements of the department, Noel put the machine through its paces for an hour, and the trial, which was considered in every way successful, was practically at an end.

The aviators were planning down from a height of about 250 feet, when suddenly the wings folded up, and the machine fell headlong to the earth.
The two men were taken out dead.
Their skulls were fractured and they were badly crushed.

HILDA'S VALENTINE.

By Father Bundy she was called
"the sorrowful maiden," and Jack dubbed her "Niobe," although she tearfully reiterated the fact that her name was Hilda. Mother Bundy only smiled in a sweetly indulgent way when Grace and Blanche complained of the depressing state of things.

She had found the girl at the employment office, damp and disheveled from recent grief, and had engaged her at once. Mother Bundy was tender-hearted. When she came to question Hilda she could not elicit any satisfactory information as to the cause of her sorrow, and asked her whether she had lost mother, father, brothers or sisters; but Hilda shook her head to all. "Mein mudder, mein fadder, long ago die. No von was lost only just Hilda," she said, and her tears flowed afresh.

"She is just homesick," Mother
Bundy decided, commiseratingly.
"She will get over it in time."
It is a mercy it does not affect her looks to cry as it does mine," remarked Grace.

"Why, her nose isn't even red, and the tears only seem to soften the blue of her eyes. Sometimes I should think her grief was really becoming if it were not so—so inopportune."

Jack looked up from his algebra quizzically.
"It is a blessing, isn't it?" he said.
"Just suppose she should come into the dining-room with an armful of plates some day and drop all at once with strange convulsions of countenance, and begin to choke and catch her breath and collapse suddenly into convulsions on the hearth-rug, plates and
all. That is the way Grace weeps, and when she comes out of it her nose is the color of a mangel wurtzel, and her eyes—well, they can appear in public the next day." But Grace had not waited to hear the whole of this graphic description.

With this one exception Hilda was one of the most desirable of hand maids, supplementing Mother Bundy's wisdom with ready hands and willing strength, until she had made a place for herself in the Bundy household.

If she could only forget her troubles and grow joyful and happy she would be an ideal servant," Blanche declared;
but Hilda did not forget.

She was happy in a subdued way,
but no one ever heard her laugh.
When, however, Father Bundy suggested they try a handmaiden of more cheerful countenance and of American nationality the children all objected.

"She's all right, father," remonstrated
Jack, and the girls both raised earnestly dissenting voices. "No one else would be so helpful, so obedient, so—"

"We are teaching her to read and write English, papa, and you have no idea how fast she learns. It would be a pity to have her give it up," Grace declared. This was a feature of the case that would appeal particularly to Father Bundy. Mother Bundy only smiled; but Mother Bundy's smiles meant a great deal sometimes.

"She is only a little older than my Blanche. Suppose she should be 'lost some day—a stranger in a strange land,'" she mused.

At Christmas there were two dozen handkerchiefs among Hilda's gifts, presumably from Jack. They were acceptable apparently, for at Christmas time Hilda's tears flowed afresh.
America was so big and so lonely;
Sweden was so small and so far away.
At Christmas time one year for one's very own.

When February 14th drew nigh
Jack undertook to explain to Hilda the mysterious rites and ceremonies of St. Valentine's day. She examined the collection of St. Valentine's offerings with interest. The array of loves and doves, of "pierced hearts" and "fiery darts," bewildered her.

"You all lose love?" she questioned him, wonderingly, counting the number on her fingers.
"All these and more, many, many more," declared Jack, with a generous outspreading of his arms. Hilda looked shocked.

"Ve von valentine haf in Sweden,"
she said, simply.
Jack smiled indulgently. "Think of only getting one valentine, girls!" he said, in mock dismay.

"That wouldn't be any fun at all,
Hilda. The best part of it is guessing who sends them," explained Grace, as she addressed an elaborate construction of airy cupids with silver bows and arrows pursuing a flock of frightened doves.

Hilda looked unconvinced. She spelled out the superscription in a puzzled way. It was addressed in a bold, decided hand, quite unlike the faint handwriting of her Miss Grace.
There was a furious snow storm on St. Valentine's day. Hilda stood at the window and watched the postman plunge through the drifts from house to house with his load of valentines, and her heart was moved to pity.

"All words—words—so many of dem to mean nothing," she said, commiseratingly.
There was company in for the evening despite the storm, young people to whom St. Valentine's day was a huge joke—and they played games and roasted chestnuts in the grate and counted apple seeds after the fashion of their grandmothers and grandams, until the shy, sweet superstition of the old time was no longer there.

Out in the kitchen Hilda stood by the window and stared out into the whirling darkness. She did not remember ever to have seen such a storm.
The electric lights twinkled with pale luster across the clouds of driving snow, which piled up rapidly into grotesque heaps. There were but few abroad. Hilda watched these few with useless sympathy. There was no one to seek for her.

One of them stopped before the house presently, as if to get his bearings.
There was a familiar look about the broad shoulders and in the way he pushed his rough cap up off his forehead. Hilda's heart set to beating strangely. When he turned and came up the walk the light shone full in his face. "Hans!" Hilda cried, joyously.

When Jack came down for a fresh supply of apples, he stopped and stared at the broad shouldered young Swede who stood beside Hilda. Her face flushed rosily as he came forward.

"I, too, valentine haf, Mr. Jack," she said, adverting shyly, "Ve Swedish peoples haf only von, you see."

Jack went back to his stairs two steps at a time. "Hilda has valentine," he burst out, excitedly, "and he makes these look rather cheap!" he added, indicating the pile of offerings.

Hilda was no longer "lost." Hans Peterson had at last succeeded in finding his sweetheart.

Jack was disappointed at not having a "swell wedding" for Hilda and Hans, but Hilda objected. It was not befitting. "Hans and me ve like not mooch show, many words," she said, and Jack concluded presently that she was right. He heroically restrained, therefore, his tendency toward inditional customs, and no shower of rice or old shoes marred the tenderness of the fervent "Godspeed!" with which Mother Bundy sent the couple on their way to the distant prairie home which Hans had made against the coming of his valentine.

Iron Bark Sunk by Ice

HALIFAX, Feb. 10.—The Norwegian iron bark, Langen, Captain Petersen, 1,141 tons net, was sunk in Lahav river last night, while proceeding down the river from Bridgewater. The captain and the crew of about fifteen hands were saved, as they were but a short distance from the shore. An ice jam was the cause of the wreck, which occurred just above Jettison's Cove.

Russian Bark Lost

CASSACK, West Australia, Feb. 10.—
The Russian bark Glenbank was wrecked off here today and all except one of the crew of thirty were lost.
The Glenbank, laden with copper ore, was bound up the coast when driven upon a reef by a squall. The sole survivor reached land after being lashed to a spar for forty-eight hours.

Temple Bar May Again Be Built

LONDON, Feb. 15.—It is probable that Temple Bar, which was removed from its original position in the city in 1878, will once more be restored to London. It is understood that when the final arrangements have been completed it will be erected as an entrance to Temple Gardens. Temple Bar was removed from the position it occupied originally on account of the obstruction it caused to traffic which it caused.
The question of removing Temple Bar was first discussed in 1788, but the actual removal was not carried out until 90 years later. When this interesting landmark of the city of London was pulled down, every stone was carefully numbered and deposited on a vacant site in the neighborhood of Farringdon street. Here they remained 10 years, when Sir Henry Meux arranged for the re-erection of the material as a gateway at the entrance of Theobald's park, Chesham, where it is now to be seen.

PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills
Healed Mr. Wilson's Sores

When the severs of the body—bowels, kidneys and skin ducts—get clogged up the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently sores break out over the body.
The way to heal them, as Mr. Richard Wilson, who lives near London, Ont., found, is to purify the blood. He writes:

"For some time I had been in a low, depressed condition. My appetite left me and I soon began to suffer from indigestion. Quite a number of small sores and blotches formed all over my skin. I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointments, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood, and I looked about in vain for some medicine that would accomplish this."

At last Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was purified, my sores healed, and my skin my indignation vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy."

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cleanse the system thoroughly. Sold by all dealers at 25c a box.

He Was Paralyzed

Mr. W. J. Bennett, Western Hill, St.
Catharines, Ont., tells what it feels like to be paralyzed. He lost power of speech, could not sleep. For doctors failed to help him. He Electricity proved ineffective. He used Dr.
A. W. Chase's Nerve Food until his former good health was restored. Face was restored to shape, mouth of speech, and he gained in weight. Says he would not return to former condition for all the gold in the country.

Roman Galley Safely Housed

ANCIENT SHIP DISCOVERED BURIED IN MUD OF THAMES.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The old Roman galley, discovered buried in the Thames mud during the excavations unearthed by the workmen for the construction of the new county hall at Lambeth, to which reference has already been made in these columns, has now been housed in one of the vaults formed by the arches of the terrace on the river front.

The remains of this interesting discovery are in an excellent state of preservation, and the weight of the craft, which is nearly 50 feet long is over six tons. It is much to be regretted that a portion of the stern of the ship was unfortunately cut away about 20 years ago by some workmen during the course of some building operations. Not knowing the actual nature of the material they had come across, they considered it to be merely buried rubbish, and it was only because it was necessary for the men engaged on the present work in connection with the new county hall to go so much deeper for the foundations that the outline of this interesting craft was revealed.

Leaky Books

There is a small town in Western Florida which is very "dry." In it lives a man noted for his assistance at revivals in bringing forward the mourners. One day he anxiously inquired at the express office for a box of books, and seemed greatly disappointed when told it had not arrived.
Much to his surprise a week later he received the following message:
"Come and get your books. They're leaking."

Canada Has Enough Peat

TORONTO, Feb. 15.—Nature has provided a substitute for coal and wood, for fuel, in the peat bogs scattered in abundance throughout the central provinces, said Dr. Eugene Haamel, director of the Canadian Club.
The doctor's subject was "The Fuel Supply of the Central Provinces of Canada and its Economic Value."

"It has been estimated," the doctor stated, "that the known peat bogs of Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec and New Brunswick cover an area of 12,000 square miles, with an average depth of six feet. This is probably but a small fraction of the actual amount."

One square mile of peat bog, with an average depth of six feet, will produce 774,000 tons of peat fuel, containing 25 per cent of moisture. The 2,000 square miles will therefore contain about ten billion tons of peat, equivalent to five billion tons of good coal, or enough to supply over five million families for a century."

Plenty of fresh air, sleeping out-doors and a plain, nourishing diet are all good and helpful, but the most important of all is

2,000,000 Chinese Face Starvation

AMERICAN CONSUL TELLS HORRIFYING CONDITIONS, AND APPEALS FOR AID.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Unless relieved, 2,000,000 people in China will die of starvation. This is a calamity predicted by American Consul General Wilder at Shanghai, in a cablegram received from him today by the American National Red Cross Society.

The consul-general appeals for quick assistance for the suffering people, and says that $500,000 is needed immediately. There will be no crop until the end of May, and Chinese relief is inadequate, he adds.

In describing the pitiful condition
Mr. Wilder says the scenes in the mine district are horrifying. Children people, dead lay by the roadside, and the misery of the sufferers is being increased by severe cold and snow.

The famine area stretches over a territory 300 by 150 miles. The Shanghai relief committee, which has formed to alleviate the condition of the starving inhabitants, is trustworthy, the consul-general adds.

The Red Cross today cabled to China $5,000, which was contributed by John D. Rockefeller. Red Cross committees throughout the United States are collecting supplies to be sent to the stricken people on an arrangement from Seattle, where, in addition to the famine, the plague is also making heavy inroads upon the population.

A cablegram received today from Dr. Richard P. Strong, the American plague expert, in Manila, stated that he would leave that city by the first steamer for Peking, where he will join the British, Japanese and French experts to assist in combating the plague.

Many Fishermen Drowned From Floe

VINSON, Feb. 10.—An ice floe on which about 250 fishermen had established a village and which after being swept out to sea on Friday last became stranded near the mouth of the St. Lawrence, was partly destroyed by a gale last night. One hundred of the fishermen escaped to land, while numbers are known to have been drowned. For breakers have been sent to the rescue.

Only two days ago the fishermen declined assistance offered them by two vessels, declaring that they were in no danger and refusing to be taken off.

The C. P. R. Again.

Friday's Montreal Star has the following interesting item:

Private advice received in this city to day from Jamaica show that the C. P. R. is now completing arrangements for the most important project of the year on which the Company has entered since it bought up the Beaver line of steamships and became a competitor in the Atlantic trade.

The new project is the establishment of a steamship line between the Maritime Provinces and the West Indies, via Boston and the building of a chain of summer hotels at St. John, N. B., Digby, Halifax, Chester and Yarmouth, N. S., Jamaica and Bermuda.

Further in the article it is stated that the company now has across Canada.

Mr. Harris, assistant to Vice-president Bosworth, of the C. P. R., is on his way to the West Indies, and according to the arrangements made there the whole scheme will be announced at a meeting of the directors of the various island colonies to be held in Jamaica shortly after Mr. Harris' arrival.

Miss Isabelle Cousins' Success.

DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. B. W. COUSINS WINS A HENDRED DOLLARS.

Miss Isabelle, the twelve-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Cousins, another puzzle solver, was in the Boston Post inserted by the Ring Piano Co., and by her skill in arranging this difficult problem, won fourth place in the contest, a prize of $100.00, which she received this week.

The first and second prizes were prizes, the third an organ and the fourth a check as stated above. The bright little girl is now receiving congratulations from her school companions and numerous friends.

The Royal Bank of Canada.

We have received from the Royal Bank of Canada a well printed and neatly arranged folder, containing its annual statement to the Dominion government, a list of its branches in Canada, Cuba, West Indies, Newfoundland, Great Britain and United States, together with a list of its principal foreign correspondents. The folder also gives the directors and principal officers of the bank.

This bank's authorized capital is now $10,000,000, paid up capital $2,500,000, reserve funds $7,500,000 and aggregate assets, $22,500,000. The Royal Bank of Canada is one of the COURIER's regular advertisers. We wish the institution continued success.

Skating Carnivals.

The skating carnival held on Mr. Geo. M. Wilson's rink, Birch street, last Friday evening was a splendid success. There was quite a large number of skaters in costume who were witnessed by many spectators. It was impossible to get a complete list of the skaters, and the characters they represented, for publication, as they did not register with the door keeper.

Another successful fancy dress carnival was held on the same rink last night at which many of the costumes and local hits were even better than the previous one. We hope to secure a list of the skaters for our next issue.

Another Social Event in Marshalltown.

A very pleasant social event occurred at the home of Mr. George L. Marshall, Marshalltown, Monday evening when a number of his friends met at his home very unexpectedly and gave him a pleasant surprise. The evening passed only too quickly with games, music and social conversation. Refreshments were served and different kinds of candy kept on hand for the time. The hostess entertained delightfully.

Death of Mrs. J. P. Comeau.

Our St. John River correspondent writes:—Sunday, the 12th inst., at about 8:30 a.m., Mrs. J. P. Comeau, nee Adele Deveau, breathed her last after a short illness of about 12 days of pneumonia.

The late Mrs. Comeau had been for a long time suffering from a mercantile business and she will be greatly missed by her numerous customers. Upright and just in her dealing with others, charitable to the poor, she was a true friend to all.

During her lifetime many noble works and deeds of charity which God in His great mercy has surely recorded in the great book with the golden clasps in which He keeps the good and evil deeds of all.

She also belonged to the Apostleship of Prayer. She leaves behind to mourn their loss a husband, five children, a father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Constant J. Deveau, six brothers and four sisters. The funeral took place on the 14th inst., at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the bereaved.

To the members of the bereaved family, some of them our intimate friends, we offer our most profound and heartfelt sympathies in their great bereavement. The loss of such a loving wife, fond mother and sister and before the throne of that God who has said "I am and the resurrection and the life" we will offer our most fervent prayers for the repose of her soul, because it is a holy and saintly soul, and we hope that it will rest in peace.

Alfred B. Gardner Dead.

ATTACKED WHILE AT DESK IN INDUSTRIAL TRUST BRANCH TUESDAY, STABLY GROWS WORSE UNTIL

END.

(From the Providence R. I. Bulletin Feb. 11th)

Death came to Alfred B. Gardner, one of the best known business men in Warren, Rhode Island, yesterday of his term at 3 o'clock, in his home at 114 North Main street.

He was formerly a hardware dealer and later a bank official. He had been identified with the business life of the town for nearly 60 years.

Mr. Gardner, who was in his 70th year and had been in declining health for some time, but did not become seriously ill until a week ago last Tuesday, when he suffered an unexpected seizure while at his desk at the Industrial Trust Company's Warren branch.

He was taken to his home but his condition grew steadily worse until he died at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. His death was the result of a general breaking-down and diseases incidental to his advanced age.

WEDDED NEARLY 50 YEARS.

Had Mr. Gardner lived until Sept. 20, of the present year he would have celebrated the golden anniversary of his wedding to Miss Henrietta Crowley of Digby, N. S.

Mr. Gardner survives, Alice Louise Gardner, wife of Dr. Marcus H. Merchant of Warren and three grandchildren.

Mr. Gardner was a native of Warren and was born Nov. 29, 1852. He was the son of James and Lydia B. Gardner.

He was descended from Richard Warren, who came to this country from England in 1635.

He was a descendant of George Gardner, one of the first citizens of the town, and was also descended on the maternal side from Nathaniel Bosworth, who built the first house in Bristol, 200 years or so ago, now known as the Perry house.

Mr. Gardner was educated in the parish school of St. Mark's Episcopal Church and when he was 17 years old entered the employ of Oliphant & Co., hardware merchants in Boston. Two years later he returned to Warren and became associated in partnership with his father, James Gardner, in the firm of James Gardner & Son in 1884.

His partnership continued until 1888, when the firm sold out.

BECOMES BANK OFFICIAL.

Mr. Gardner became interested in banking during his connection with the hardware business and was soon made Treasurer of the old Warren branch of the First National Bank of Boston, two institutions which occupied the same quarters on Water street, Warren.

He continued with the two banks until 1905, when the institutions were absorbed by the Industrial Trust Company. He was appointed chairman of the board of managers of the trust company's Warren branch this morning.

Mr. Gardner was Senior Warden at St. Mark's Church and had served in that capacity for 31 years preceding his death yesterday. He was a vestryman at St. Mark's for 40 years. He was also a member of the Apostleship of Prayer. He leaves behind to mourn their loss a husband, five children, a father and mother Mr. and Mrs. Constant J. Deveau, six brothers and four sisters. The funeral took place on the 14th inst., at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the bereaved.

A Council of War.

A COMMUNICATION FROM MR. H. R. GRANT ON TEMPERANCE.

"The Church," says a writer, "has never seriously addressed herself to the task of solving this problem or abating this evil of the liquor traffic. If the solution is, what the Church has said, then the most important duty that confronts the Church, is to destroy the liquor traffic."

During his long association with the business activities of Warren, Mr. Gardner became widely known and respected. He was a member of the Warren Town Council, the Society and was Treasurer at the time of his death.

Although a Republican in politics he was not actively engaged in the town's political life during his later years. A score or so of years ago, however, he secured several terms as a member of the Warren Town Council.

A petition has been sent to the Postal Department at Ottawa by A. Abner Deveau, J. P., and Ivan Pothier, Municipal Councillor, praying for a post office at St. Vincent de Paul, Doucette Lake. The mail contract between Salmon River and Hectanooga provides for a post office at that place and it is a need that should have been filled long before. It is to be hoped that the proper authorities will see fit to grant the ardent prayers of the petitioner. We also rely on our local members, Messrs. Comeau and Wall, and on the Hon. A. H. Comeau, Senator at Ottawa, to do everything in their power to obtain the fulfillment of our petition.

A special meeting of the Municipal Council of Clare is called for the 23rd inst. at Little Brook to elect a successor to the late A. M. Comeau, Esq., who for many years had filled the office of Municipal Treasurer and Clerk, but whom God has called to his eternal rest at the age of 86 years. Of the late Mr. Comeau we can say that his public life was without blemish and he was honored and respected by all. Fervent christian, he was the very type of those brave heroes of 1755. The hospitality of his hearth was renowned far and wide. There seems to be many applicants for the vacant position, but a great many would like to see it remain in the hands of his son, Arnaud Comeau, Esq.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Pastor Russell Refutes Charges.

WORLD-BURNING NO PART OF HIS MESSAGE FOR 1915, NOR ANY OTHER DATE.

MR. EDITOR:—I crave a few inches of your space in correction of a news item widely circulated from Washington, D. C., Jan. 29th, stating that a Street Evangelist charges me with "exciting the people" by preaching that "Christ will come in A. D. 1915, and accomplish the destruction of the world."

This "Street Preacher" got himself mixed up with my theology. It is true that he sent me a kind invitation to share twenty minutes of my time in explaining to the audience how he misunderstood my presentations before he had heard them. It is true that he has requested a public debate with me at the next Baptist Convention in June or at the Christian Endeavor Convention in July. But I did not believe that the gentleman was authorized to speak for either of the Conventions; consequently I gave him no heed. As I was announcing the closing hymn the gentleman attempted an interruption.

But it appears that after my meeting was dismissed, the interrupter, who calls himself an evangelist, undertook to explain to a bevy of reporters Pastor Russell's "errors." He declared that all over the country I was preaching the second coming of Christ in 1915 and scaring people, as Wm. Miller did years ago. I do not blame the reporters, for how could they know how foolishly the man was talking.

I wish to deny, as positively as language will permit, that I said a single thing concerning the year 1915 last Sunday. Nor have I ever preached such things; nor do I believe them now. So far from teaching that Christ will come and the world be burned up in 1915, as Wm. Miller taught of an earlier date, my teaching is that the world will never be burned, but, as the Bible declares, "The earth abideth forever."—Eccles. 1:4.

If "Evangelist" represents any Protestant or Catholic bodies, as he intimates, his creed surely recites the burning up of the world at the Second Advent of Christ. Many ministers in all denominations teach that Christ may come at any moment, and that the moment of His coming will be the end of the world. A few saintly ones, they say, will be saved; but all the remainder will be overwhelmed by fire that will fall upon them from heaven. It is one of their stock arguments intended to excite the people. I wonder if "Evangelist" has not so preached!

It is because my interpretation of the Scriptures are so very different on this particular point that many Christian people are being awakened to a fresh study of the Bible. I am in communication with Bible classes all over the world. Many persons are being reclaimed from infidelity by the Message which has nothing of excitement in it, but which shows the Bible in its true light, as the most common-sense book in the world.

SO JEWISH STATE BEFORE 1915. What I have said respecting 1915 is that, in my understanding, there ends the treading down of the Jews by the Gentiles—a period of 2520 years from the time the crown was taken from Judah's last King of the house of David—Zedekiah, B. C. 605. Israel's restoration to Palestine as a nation will, Biblically, mark the beginning of the Messianic reign of righteousness, which will last a thousand years.—Luke 21:24.

Mr. Editor, "Evangelist," either intentionally or unintentionally, most thoroughly misrepresents my views. I teach from the Scriptures that Messiah, as the King of Glory, is not a man and will not be visible to men—that his Empire will be spiritual, but powerful.

The Scriptures which alarm "Evangelist" and others, as representing the burning up of the world, I understand to refer to a great time of trouble with which this Age will terminate, and the New Era be inaugurated. Those who read my sermons and books do not get deceived by "Evangelist." Yet thousands of other people may have been. So I thank you for this opportunity for explanation.

Respectfully,

C. T. RUSSELL

The 1911 edition of this indispensable collection of concrete, crisp Canadian facts, edited by Frank Yeigh, of Toronto, the well known lecturer and writer, and the author of the new book, "Through the Heart of Canada," has been issued and is filled with facts of a most interesting and illuminating character. It is a marvel of condensation, presenting in small space striking figures relating to every phase and department of Canada's resources, trade and national life.

Its popularity and wide sale can easily be understood, in fact, it is, as has been said, "worth its weight in Colaba silver or Yukon gold." The booklet may be had from the leading news-vendors, or for 25 cents from the Canadian Facts Publishing Co., 607 Spadina Avenue, Toronto.

Soap will not do the work properly because soap only cleans the surface—it does not dig deep after germs and hidden impurities like GOLD DUST—the greatest of all sanitary cleansers.

To keep bath tub and lavatory shiny-white and inviting—To keep metal pipes, fixtures and taps brightly burnished—To purify closet bowl—To keep tiling and woodwork spotless and beautiful—

Simply add a heaping teaspoonful of GOLD DUST to a pail of water. You will be surprised at the ease with which it does the work. GOLD DUST sterilizes as well as cleans—and saves you one-half the labor.

I also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby was born, and I recommend it highly to all pregnant women.—Mrs. E. WANDY, 92 Logan Ave., Toronto, Ont.

The Butcher's Dream
Last evening I was talking with a butcher aged and gray. Who told me of a dream he had. I think it was Christmas day. While sleeping in his office. The vision came to him. For he saw an angel enter. Dressed in garments white and new. Said the angel, "I'm from Heaven. The Lord just sent me down. To bring you up to glory. And put on your golden crown. You're a friend to every one. And a good neighbor to all. You've supported many thousands. And from few received your pay. So we want you up to glory. For you have labored hard. And the good Lord is preparing Your eternal just reward." Then the butcher and the angel started up to glory's gate. Between passing clouds to Hades. The angel murmured "Wait. I have a place to show you— It's the hottest place in Hell Where the ones who never paid you In torment always dwell." And behold! the butcher saw there His old customers by the score. And grabbing up a chair and fan He wished for rest no more. But was bound to sit and watch them As they'd "size, slice and burn. And his eyes would rest on debtors. Whenever they'd turn. Said the angel, "Come on, my brother. There's the pearly gates to see." But the butcher only muttered, "This is Heaven enough for me."—Ex.

67 Years Ago.
Yarmouth Herald, Nov., 1844:—Died at Clare, Nova Scotia, on Saturday, 9th Nov., 1844, the Reverend and truly Venerable Abbe Segogne, Mr. Segogne was one of those respectable, but persecuted clergymen, who, during the French Revolution, had to take refuge in England for safety, soon after which he visited Nova Scotia, and took charge of the Parish of Clare, and for a long period discharged the religious duties of Priest among the Roman Catholic population of that place, in the most exemplary and conciliatory manner. He was esteemed by all classes and by men of all religious denominations. As a peace-maker, he was almost universally known for his charity towards the poor, his kindness to the aged, his gentleness to the untamed Indian, or the hapless African, found in this worthy man present relief, and every provision he could make for their future welfare. He will long be remembered with affection and respect by the members of his own Church, and deservedly lamented by all who had the satisfaction of his acquaintance.

His Body Cremated.
London, February 20.—The body of Henry Richardson Chamberlain, for many years London correspondent of the Sun, and European agent of the Laffin Bureau, was cremated at Golders Green, just outside of London, today. CURED OF CONSTIPATION
Mr. Andrews praises Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.
Mr. George Andrews of Halifax, N. S., writes: "For many years I have been troubled with chronic Constipation. This ailment never comes single-handed, and I have been a victim to the many illnesses that constipation brings in its train. After trying medicine I have taken in order to find relief, but one and all left me in the same hopeless condition. I seemed that nothing would expel from me the ailment that caused so much trouble, yet at last I read about these Indian Root Pills.

That was indeed a lucky day for me for I was so impressed with the state ment made that I determined to give them a fair trial. They have regulated my stomach and bowels, and I am free of constipation, and I claim they have no equal as a medicine."

For over half a century Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills have been curing constipation and clogged, inactive kidneys with all the ailments which result from them. They cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. Sold everywhere at 25c. a box.

LOSS OF BARK
"JAMES W. ELWELL."
A Woman's Brave Part in a Terrible Sea Tragedy.
(From the St. Andrews Beacon.)
The barque James W. Elwell, the narrative of whose loss on the bleak coast of Patagonia is so graphically told in the accompanying article from the pen of J. E. Wilson, of Halifax—was owned by Troop & Son, St. John, and was one of the smartest sailing ships belonging to the port. She was commanded at the time of her tragic loss by Capt. John Wren, of St. Andrews, who is still living.

We ran all that day and towards evening made a harbor under the lee of an island. The name I did not know, not having a chart. The next day we managed to get the two dead bodies out of the boat and buried them on shore as we did the first two, under stones and brush. At this island we remained about a fortnight and here I lost four more of my crew. With a good deal of exertion we managed to bury two on shore, but we had no strength to carry the last two up the beach. All we could do was to commit the bodies to the sea over the side of the boat. Our principal food now was mussels and limpets gathered from the rock and a plant we named wild celery. There was a sea cabbage but we could not eat it. One day as the sun shone out I succeeded in lighting a fire by concentrating the rays of the sun through a marine glass on to some cotton wool tied to the ring of a vest and some resinous fibre from a tree. This was the first and only fire we had at any time. We feared to attract the attention of the natives, whom we knew to be a dangerous and savage race. Once we saw smoke in the distance but never a human being though we observed traces of them and evidently of white people also, as where timber had been cut and sawed and skids laid to get it to the water, possibly by whaling vessels, and considerable wreckage was seen on the coast at times. With this fire we made some musselsoup, the first hot food we had tasted since leaving the ship, but to our regret found it would not agree with us, though strange to say, the raw mussels did. The only food now remaining of the ship's stores was a little wet biscuit, a part of a bag that was damaged by water soon after leaving the ship and had been trampled under foot for weeks. It was fished up from the bottom of the boat and a spoonful in the shape of soft paste passed round to each one at a time. Nevertheless, it was plainly to be seen that the terrible effects of starvation were daily becoming more visible in the appearance of all, but with some more than others, and still worse, the horrible fact that they were looking with longing desires to the dead bodies of their comrades to appease their dying hunger. Fearing that such would be the case before long I determined to make a move whenever the weather would permit, which was very uncertain, as the wind was either blowing very strong or there was a dead calm. At length an opportunity offered, we set sail, continuing our course down the Strait, it being the most likely place to fall in with a vessel or steamer, having abandoned the idea of trying to make a northerly course up the coast of Patagonia. In the evening of the day we started, another of our crew, a tall powerful young fellow, died. His sufferings were fearful. The flesh on his legs mortified and dropped off. When removing the bandages to wash him with fresh water pieces of flesh would follow. We continued our course amongst islands, making harbors and being detained in some for days, and the men dropping off at different places. At last we reached an island forming the north side of the Strait, where we remained about four weeks. Our number now was reduced to four, viz., the stewardess, the carpenter, a seaman and myself, and our only food was mussels gathered from the rocks. Each one had to collect through the day what they required, which was trying work in our exhausted condition, as the mussels had to be scraped from the rocks with a knife. We lived on shore in the day, but slept in the boat at night. The carpenter at last became too weak to collect his food, but we collected it for him, though not for long, as the flesh on his legs and feet turned black and he shortly after died. I now became despondent myself. It appeared like hoping against hope. It was now about ten weeks since leaving the ship. We were in an uninhabited country and in a portion of the globe not much frequented by vessels, with not an ounce of food except the shell fish gathered from the beach, always exposed to the weather. Could nature endure much longer? Though blessed with a tolerably good constitution I had witnessed stronger men yield and must not I? Possibly feeling the responsibility of my position had somewhat stimulated me. But here was a puzzle for me in the cook's wife. She, a woman, and therefore not expected to have the endurance of hardy seafaring men, having worked, shared the same fate, exposed to the same hardships as all of us, and yet physically stronger than any; really she was becoming a heroine in my estimation. Moreover, she was ever ready with a word of cheer, and with the object of keeping up our spirits (though in a most tantalizing way) would enumerate the many good things in store for us when picked up, and describe a dish that a certain American captain was very fond of and had to beg her to stop to spare my feelings, as the thought of it made my mouth water.

One day we laid by watching three thrashers on a whale, we watched them with deep interest, looking forward to a good dinner of raw blubber, should they kill him. Fancy a dinner of raw whale who are so particular as to your cuts of roast beef. She (the stewardess) noticing my despondency was at once as ever ready with a cheering word. "Saying our strength is good for some days yet, succor may come by that time, I feel encouraged to hope as I have gone through a similar trial. In crossing the Atlantic once in a sailing vessel, when from the effects of a heavy gale we had to take to the boats, I was in one in which was the captain and his wife. For a week or more we expected every moment would be the last, but eventually all were saved."

One day we laid by watching three thrashers on a whale, we watched them with deep interest, looking forward to a good dinner of raw blubber, should they kill him. Fancy a dinner of raw whale who are so particular as to your cuts of roast beef. She (the stewardess) noticing my despondency was at once as ever ready with a cheering word. "Saying our strength

Finding that mussels were becoming scarce in our present location I determined to make another move further down the Strait in the hope of finding better feeding grounds. In looking across a large bay I noticed a bold headland about eight miles off, and beyond it still another. I therefore concluded that a bay or channel would be found between them. It was foggy at the time and I could just make out the headlands. I was particularly in setting my course, not knowing but the fog might shut in and threaten the headland, and if we were to miss and strike on the rocks I knew that we had not sufficient strength to get the boat off. Our number was now reduced to three, the woman, one sailor and myself. When all was made ready for a start I offered a hearty prayer and set sail, having a presentiment that a change was about to take place, either rescue or death. I tended the sail and steered and the woman bailed. The sailor was asleep in the bottom of the boat. We made fair headway, carefully watching the headlands to keep them in sight. When about half way over by an extra swell of the sea I fell over into the bottom of the boat through sheer weakness. In getting up I happened to turn and look in the direction from whence we had left. Though dazed and bewildered I thought I saw smoke—collecting my thoughts I looked astern again—can it be possible! It is a steamer. Thank God our prayers are answered at last. I broke the joyful news by singing out "ship in sight." The prostrate seaman whom we thought was taking his last sleep raised his head and cheered. The woman clasped her hands for joy with the characteristic exclamation "I told you so, I told you not to despair."

With this fire we made some musselsoup, the first hot food we had tasted since leaving the ship, but to our regret found it would not agree with us, though strange to say, the raw mussels did. The only food now remaining of the ship's stores was a little wet biscuit, a part of a bag that was damaged by water soon after leaving the ship and had been trampled under foot for weeks. The carpenter at last became too weak to collect his food, but we collected it for him, though not for long, as the flesh on his legs and feet turned black and he shortly after died. I now became despondent myself. It appeared like hoping against hope. It was now about ten weeks since leaving the ship. We were in an uninhabited country and in a portion of the globe not much frequented by vessels, with not an ounce of food except the shell fish gathered from the beach, always exposed to the weather. Could nature endure much longer? Though blessed with a tolerably good constitution I had witnessed stronger men yield and must not I? Possibly feeling the responsibility of my position had somewhat stimulated me. But here was a puzzle for me in the cook's wife. She, a woman, and therefore not expected to have the endurance of hardy seafaring men, having worked, shared the same fate, exposed to the same hardships as all of us, and yet physically stronger than any; really she was becoming a heroine in my estimation. Moreover, she was ever ready with a word of cheer, and with the object of keeping up our spirits (though in a most tantalizing way) would enumerate the many good things in store for us when picked up, and describe a dish that a certain American captain was very fond of and had to beg her to stop to spare my feelings, as the thought of it made my mouth water.

One day we laid by watching three thrashers on a whale, we watched them with deep interest, looking forward to a good dinner of raw blubber, should they kill him. Fancy a dinner of raw whale who are so particular as to your cuts of roast beef. She (the stewardess) noticing my despondency was at once as ever ready with a cheering word. "Saying our strength is good for some days yet, succor may come by that time, I feel encouraged to hope as I have gone through a similar trial. In crossing the Atlantic once in a sailing vessel, when from the effects of a heavy gale we had to take to the boats, I was in one in which was the captain and his wife. For a week or more we expected every moment would be the last, but eventually all were saved."

Finding that mussels were becoming scarce in our present location I determined to make another move further down the Strait in the hope of finding better feeding grounds. In looking across a large bay I noticed a bold headland about eight miles off, and beyond it still another. I therefore concluded that a bay or channel would be found between them. It was foggy at the time and I could just make out the headlands. I was particularly in setting my course, not knowing but the fog might shut in and threaten the headland, and if we were to miss and strike on the rocks I knew that we had not sufficient strength to get the boat off. Our number was now reduced to three, the woman, one sailor and myself. When all was made ready for a start I offered a hearty prayer and set sail, having a presentiment that a change was about to take place, either rescue or death. I tended the sail and steered and the woman bailed. The sailor was asleep in the bottom of the boat. We made fair headway, carefully watching the headlands to keep them in sight. When about half way over by an extra swell of the sea I fell over into the bottom of the boat through sheer weakness. In getting up I happened to turn and look in the direction from whence we had left. Though dazed and bewildered I thought I saw smoke—collecting my thoughts I looked astern again—can it be possible! It is a steamer. Thank God our prayers are answered at last. I broke the joyful news by singing out "ship in sight." The prostrate seaman whom we thought was taking his last sleep raised his head and cheered. The woman clasped her hands for joy with the characteristic exclamation "I told you so, I told you not to despair."

With this fire we made some musselsoup, the first hot food we had tasted since leaving the ship, but to our regret found it would not agree with us, though strange to say, the raw mussels did. The only food now remaining of the ship's stores was a little wet biscuit, a part of a bag that was damaged by water soon after leaving the ship and had been trampled under foot for weeks. It was fished up from the bottom of the boat and a spoonful in the shape of soft paste passed round to each one at a time. Nevertheless, it was plainly to be seen that the terrible effects of starvation were daily becoming more visible in the appearance of all, but with some more than others, and still worse, the horrible fact that they were looking with longing desires to the dead bodies of their comrades to appease their dying hunger. Fearing that such would be the case before long I determined to make a move whenever the weather would permit, which was very uncertain, as the wind was either blowing very strong or there was a dead calm. At length an opportunity offered, we set sail, continuing our course down the Strait, it being the most likely place to fall in with a vessel or steamer, having abandoned the idea of trying to make a northerly course up the coast of Patagonia. In the evening of the day we started, another of our crew, a tall powerful young fellow, died. His sufferings were fearful. The flesh on his legs mortified and dropped off. When removing the bandages to wash him with fresh water pieces of flesh would follow. We continued our course amongst islands, making harbors and being detained in some for days, and the men dropping off at different places. At last we reached an island forming the north side of the Strait, where we remained about four weeks. Our number now was reduced to four, viz., the stewardess, the carpenter, a seaman and myself, and our only food was mussels gathered from the rocks. Each one had to collect through the day what they required, which was trying work in our exhausted condition, as the mussels had to be scraped from the rocks with a knife. We lived on shore in the day, but slept in the boat at night. The carpenter at last became too weak to collect his food, but we collected it for him, though not for long, as the flesh on his legs and feet turned black and he shortly after died. Magellan. The Tropic belonged to the White Star Co., and the owners in the most generous spirit gave me a first class cabin passage in one of their steamers from Liverpool to New York free of charge.

Capt. Parsells, for whom I shall ever retain the most affectionate regard for his kindness to me and my companions, still commands one of the company's steamers running between Liverpool and New York.

A remarkable incident in connection with our rescue was, as told by Capt. Parsells, that on this voyage he took a course through certain islands that he had never taken before, or was not customary for vessels to take. Had he not, the fate of the Barque J. W. Elwell and her crew would never have been known. Truly, there is a Providence which guides and directs all things.

Avoid Harsh Drugs.
MANY CATHARTICS TEND TO CAUSE INJURY TO THE BOWELS.

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rex all Ordineries. These are prompt, soothing and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. Their principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time, either day or night, without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not grip, purge nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons and aged people as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in two size packages, 12 tablets 10 cents, 36 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain them only at our store, The Rexall Store, P. W

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures. If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 51 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. It is manufactured in sizes from 3 to 25 h.p. both make and break and jump spark. With the 11 h.p. Ferro which I purchased from you last Spring, is running well and has this installed in a boat thirty-six feet over all, 11 ft. beam, with four feet draft, and she ran 1500 miles in 1909 and about 2200 miles in 1910.

The engine has given perfect satisfaction, and I have earned money enough to pay for her each year. I would recommend the Ferro to anybody for pleasure or fishing purposes, as I have never missed a trip with her in an open boat.

The Ground Floor.

Once upon a time, as the story goes, a Fox and a Groundhog went out for a walk, and their talk ultimately drifted on to the subject of the various schemes which even in that day were being presented to a credulous public by which they might Get Rich Quick, the fox, recognizing the increasing interest of the groundhog in the subject, remarked: "Would you like, my boy, to get in on the ground floor of an absolutely sure thing" and the groundhog's readiness to embrace such an exceptional opportunity being immediately communicated, the fox said: "All right then, you have only to open your mouth and the plum will fall into it there you are," and suiting the action to the word, he pointed to a juicy piece of meat which was hanging from a bush near by. As the groundhog reached for it, the carefully concealed trap, to which the fox had all along been leading him, was sprung, and the fox walked off with the meat. The foxes which are on your track to day are more numerous than ever, and the number of get-rich-quick schemes with which you are beset is also increasing. The ground floor plan is worked over time, and the 'fox' in ninety-nine times out of one hundred walks off with the 'plum'. If, however, the people of Canada are serious looking for a 'sure thing' in which to invest their savings, that sure thing is available of them in the Canadian Government Annuities proposition, by which, for the payment of a small sum each month they can provide an income to begin at any age after the age of 55 ample for all needful requirements, and which no process of law can deprive them of. You should be interested in the subject, and information will be supplied you either by your Postmaster or by the Superintendent of Annuities, Ottawa, to whom letters go free of postage.

Panama Canal
LIKELY TO BRING UNITED STATES AND JAPAN TO A CLASH IN CHINESE MARKETS

PARIS, Feb. 22.—The Panama canal was the subject of a lecture tonight by M. De Rousiers, professor of political economy, before the Franco-American committee, presided over by Admiral Fournier. After reviewing the history of the canal, Professor De Rousiers said that the United States would be the complete master of the situation. He pointed out that although the treaties guarantee equal treatment to all nations, the United States could discriminate in favor of American ships trading between two American ports. It was impossible to determine the effect of the competition on the Suez canal. He considered the Panama canal would, for the most part, merely augment trade between the Western States and Brazil and Argentina.

Admiral Fournier said that, in his opinion, the principal effect of the Panama canal on far eastern affairs would be the great impetus given to American expansion in China under the new spirit of imperialism, but the United States faced a powerful rival in Japan. He expressed the hope that the problems would be solved peacefully.

THE CURSE OF THE NATION IS CONSTIPATION

"Fruit-a-tives" Alone Cures This Disease

A famous scientist states that Constipation, or non-action of the bowels, causes more deaths than all other diseases combined. Constipation inflames the Kidneys, ruins digestion, is the foundation of Rheumatism, poisons the blood, causes Headaches, Neuralgia, Nervousness and Insomnia.

Bile, the only purgative of the body, is secreted by the liver, which in turn should pour out into the intestines sufficient bile to move the bowels. Unless the liver is active, there cannot be enough bile to move the bowels regularly, and Constipation is the result.

"Fruit-a-tives", the famous fruit medicine, will always cure Constipation because it acts directly on the liver—relieves the congestion—increases the quantity of bile—and strengthens the bowel muscles.

OLIVEINE EMULSION

Invigorating - Tasteless - Strengthening - Nutritious

OLIVEINE EMULSION is a most palatable preparation, containing all the virtues of Cod Liver Oil without its nauseous grease. It can be freely taken and retained by the most delicate stomach, no unpleasant or injurious effect whatever following its use.

It will promptly relieve, and if its use is continued, cure Chronic Bronchitis and all Pulmonary affections, Hoarseness, and Coughs, Colds, Tonsillitis, General Debility or Constitutional weakness of young and old, indeed at any age of life, night Sweats, Hysteria, Insomnia, Nervous Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Dyspepsia, Anemia, Prostration following Fevers, Diphtheria, Debility at change of life, Blood disorders and any other complaint traceable directly or indirectly to an impoverished condition of the Blood.

It is a specific in Throat and Lung diseases. OLIVEINE EMULSION will so invigorate the system that the germs of the diseases will not gain a foothold, as it is only on the run down weakened system that they can develop. Rich red blood and abounding health is the best safeguard, and these can be obtained and retained by the use of OLIVEINE EMULSION.

A brief description of the following ingredients contained in OLIVEINE EMULSION will serve to show its remarkable combination. It has long been admitted that the most valuable remedies known to medical science for the treatment of Pulmonary complaints, Lung, Throat, Bronchial and other wasting diseases, is Syrup of Hypophosphites, extract of Malt and Fluid extract of Wild Cherry Bark. It is safe to say that in all wasting diseases the medical profession has obtained more satisfactory results from the use of Hypophosphites than any other preparation known. The extract of malt is nourishing and stimulating. Fluid extract of Wild Cherry Bark is recognized as an excellent adjunct in the treatment of Pulmonary affections. It helps to improve the appetite and strengthen the digestive organs. OLIVEINE EMULSION is incomparably the most efficient remedy before the public today. It is an ideal Tonic and Nutrient.

Experienced physicians prescribe lots of food in wasting or nervous diseases. OLIVEINE EMULSION, produces an appetite, helps digestion and enables you to receive the full benefit of all your food. Run down business men and women, over-worked mothers, delicate boys or girls will show permanent improvement from the use of this preparation.

DEAR SIRS:—
I thought I would write and tell you the good your "Oliveine Emulsion" has done for me. I was run down and could not do a hard day's work. I heard of "Oliveine Emulsion" and got a bottle. The first dose did me a lot of good, and I have since taken four bottles and now weigh 207 lbs. I shall never do without it in my house as long as I can get it. I have told a number of my neighbors about your "Oliveine Emulsion." Nothing ever came my way which did me as much good and I appreciate it very much.

GENTLEMEN:—
I had a severe attack of Llagrippe this Spring which left me in a weak and run down condition. I had no appetite and hardly strength enough to walk. I purchased a bottle of your "Oliveine Emulsion" and I had only taken it a few days when I felt quite well again, in fact when I had taken only the third dose I noticed a change.

Yours truly,
(Signed) MRS. WALTER WRIGHT.

DEAR SIRS:—
I would like to say I think the "Oliveine Emulsion" is splendid. My little daughter had a hard dry cough and had no appetite whatever. Before she had taken the "Oliveine Emulsion" a week the cough was decidedly looser and her appetite had greatly improved. I followed the directions and implicitly and honestly believe "Oliveine Emulsion" is all it is recommended.

Sincerely yours,

SANIA, ONT., Feb. 5th, 1910. "I have been a sufferer for the past 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I tried many remedies and many doctors but derived no benefit whatever.

Finally I read an advertisement of "Fruit-a-tives" and decided to give "Fruit-a-tives" a trial and found they did exactly what was claimed for them.

February Red And Gun
Some of the many joys of the Canadian winter form the predominating feature of the February issue of Red and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

A snowshoe tramp is not only enjoyable but likewise health giving and as a recreation cannot be surpassed. When such a tramp can be taken in the winter woods, which have charms and glories all their own, the fascinations of the outing are unequalled, and he who has failed to indulge in such pastime has missed much that goes to make life worth living.

Beyond the winter joys there is so much well worthy of attention. Hunting in the Land of the Caribou—Newfoundland—well describes the attraction of that island to the big game hunter; while the adventures of Quebec, of Nova Scotia, of British Columbia and of both old and New Ontario for game and game fish are recorded by those who have had experience and recount their experiences for the pleasure and profit of their fellow sportsmen. An illustrated description of a portion of the mountain section of the Grand Trunk Pacific goes to show that in scenic beauties Canada's new transcontinental is going to rival any other route. There is also a wealth of further articles on sporting matters and the large army of trappers will be particularly interested in an illustrated account of the Hamilton Winter Tournament. Altogether this number has only to be seen to recommend itself, as the finest exponent of Canadian outdoor life in its many phases now published.

Bearing Down Pains.

What woman at sometime or other does not experience these dreadful bearing down pains. Mrs. E. Griffith, of Main street, Hepworth, Ont., says: "A heavy bearing down pain had settled across my back and side. I was often unable to stoop or straighten myself up. Many times each night I would have to leave my bed with the irregular and frequent secretions of the kidneys and just as done out in the morning as on retiring. I was languid and nervous and could not do my household stand.

Nothing I had tried would benefit me. I learned of Booth's Kidney Pills and concluded I would try them, which I did, and soon found the long sought relief. My back strengthened and I began to feel better and stronger. I now enjoy my sleep without being disturbed and feel grateful to Booth's Kidney Pills for what they did for me."

Booth's Kidney Pills are a boon to women. She took more of these wonderful pills. They are nature's greatest specific for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. All druggists, 50c. box, or postpaid from The R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Port Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by H. E. Jones.

CORRESPONDENCE.

An Urgent Need.

THE PROPOSED PORT OFFICE AT ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, DISTRICT OF CLARE.

To the Editor of the Courier:
DRAR SIR:—A little space in the columns of your Journal to press once again upon the proper authorities the great need of a post office at St. Vincent de Paul. It is not from any political standpoint that we are making the case, but from the mere necessity in which those people are situated. It can be proved that there comes almost as much mail matter into the post office at Salmon River for those people as for Salmon River people and it is a great inconvenience for them to come out every evening through summer and winter for their daily mail. It seems strange that such a thing as a post office has not been opened before. The mail contract from Salmon River to Hecanooga provides for a post office there. Furthermore if we consider the question from the political point of view we have also some very strong arguments in favor of the scheme. For one thing we have there at St. Vincent de Paul some energetic and life long supporters of the Liberal cause. We have among others Mr. Henry Melanson, Mr. Marcel A. Desautels, Mr. Peter A. Devere, Mr. Mark LeBlanc, etc., all ardent supporters of the Liberal party and all good men to be appointed postmasters. We rely on the advocacy of the Hon. A. J. Comeau, Senator, and also on our local members, Messrs. Comeau and Wall, to help us in our undertaking and to press on the proper authorities the granting of the humble petition of the electors of St. Vincent de Paul and vicinity.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I am yours, etc., A. ARNE DEBEAU Salmon River, Feb. 28th, 1911.

Boy Had Fits For 6 Years
Druggist advised DR. A.W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD—Cure complete and lasting.

Mrs. J. D. Palmer, 38 Park St., Amsterdam, N. Y., writes: "When six years of age my boy began to have fits. They came on in the night. He would make strange noises, stiffen out, froth at mouth, face would turn and sometimes turned purple. After the fit he could not talk."

"The family physician said all he could do was to keep them down some. The second physician pronounced trouble Jeffersonian epilepsy, but could not cure him. He suffered for six years before beginning the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. After five or six days. Our druggist recommended Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. He has taken seven boxes and has not had the symptoms of a fit since. His color has greatly improved; he is not nervous and irritable like he used to be, and we consider his cure complete."

Such results are only obtained by the use of the genuine Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food—not from imitations or substitutes. 50 cents a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Mr. Arthur Fairbank, of 547 Lansdowne Ave., Toronto, is the speaker, and he says: "A bad eruption on my forehead quickly spread until it covered my scalp with foul and painful sores. I went to a doctor who treated me for it. Still the sores spread until almost the whole of my head was affected. As the doctor's treatment did me very little good, I left it off and tried various home remedies. Then I tried blood purifiers, but not one of them did me any good. I was by chance in a drug store, and as I was looking at a bottle of Zam-Buk, I saw it was a skin medicine. I bought a box and used it as directed. It cured me in a few days. I have not had a recurrence of the sores since. I have been able to go to work and feel like a new man. I have been able to go to work and feel like a new man. Chinese Famine Grows Alarming

MISSIONARIES ESTIMATE 1,000,000 WILL STARVE TO DEATH BEFORE FIRST CROP IS HARVESTED.

PRIN, March 8.—Famine and the plague are sweeping over China. The known deaths from the plague number 30,000, and according to the official statistics the death rate averages 200 daily. But the officials have little knowledge of the conditions of the interior, or if they have, they are not permitting the facts to be known. There are few or no foreigners in the interior, and conditions there, for this reason, are not attracting much public attention. It is impossible even to estimate the number of deaths that have resulted from the lack of food. Dr. Samuel Cochran, an American who is engaged in the work of relief, writes:

"One million people will die before the first crop is harvested. This will be scanty because the people have not the strength to till the soil, and no animals remain for ploughing."

Physicians engaged in combatting the disease are of the opinion that warm weather will kill the germs, although this may be only a temporary respite. If the plague were of the bubonic type, the summer heat would serve to augment it, bubonic being conveyed by fleas, rats and other vermin, which thrive in warm atmospheres. The pneumonic type on the other hand, is transmitted through the respiratory apparatus and as a consequence when the Chinese emerge from their winter quarters into the open air they will escape much contamination. It is said by the medical authorities that such an epidemic as the present one, which is entirely pneumonic has not visited the world since the middle ages.

The missionaries who are distributing relief tell of many tragic occurrences—a man on his way to meet them dying on the road; another falling by the wayside as he was returning to his family, with a packet of rice. They describe the people as horrible skeletons, some of them with limbs hideously swollen. From the famine the death rate is several thousand daily.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

South Western Bay, Another Rail Way

HAS SECURED CONTROL OF THE LIVERPOOL AND MILTON ROAD.

LIVERPOOL, March 8.—The Liverpool and Milton Railway has passed under the control of the Halifax and South Western Railway. Fourteen years ago several of the Liverpool and Milton merchants conceived the idea of connecting these town by tramway and built sections, some of half a mile and some a mile, until the line was completed. The engine and part of the rolling stock came to Bridgewater over the Nova Scotia Central, thence here by steamer. It operated through the principal streets of both towns for some years, until it was merged into a railway concern, with extensions on the increased water-front and a new right of way. It was a successful enterprise.

In all the years of operation no fatal or serious accident ever occurred, though the amount of traffic to and from the lumber and pulp mills has been enormous. While the amount of the purchase is not made public the shareholders, who are as follows, are satisfied:—A. W. Moren, President, A. W. Hendry, James E. Bars, John F. Swiden, Chas. Firth, of Liverpool; John Harlow and Simon D. Mereworth; Milton; Jos. Cushing, Caledonia; Capt. Israel Wharton, Brooklyn; Capt. Amos Burns, Clements; E. K. Spinner, Yarmouth, and Engineer Hopkins, of Barrington, who laid out the original road.

Still Coming

'You deceived me, protested the woman at the wash tub. "When you married me you said you had a job on the road." "And so I did, my dear," rejoined her husband, who was hitting the pipe in an easy chair, "but it hasn't arrived yet."

A Germ Victim

The Preacher—I suppose that drink was your downfall!

The Tramp—Yes, sir, I took a drink of water once that had microbes in it and I ain't been a well man since.

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

OPERATIONS AVOIDED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bellefleur, Que.,—"Without Lydia E. Pinkham's vegetable Compound I would not be alive. For five months I had painful and irregular periods and inflammation of the uterus. I suffered like a martyr and thought of death. I consulted two doctors who could do nothing for me. I went to a hospital and the best doctors said I must submit to an operation, because I had a tumor. I went back home much discouraged. One of my cousins advised me to take your Compound, as it had cured her. I did so and soon commenced to feel better, and my appetite came back with the first bottle. Now I feel no pain and am cured. Your remedy is deserving of praise."—Mrs. E. M. CULLEN, Valleyfield, Bellefleur, Quebec.

Another Operation Avoided.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y.—I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for womb trouble. But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did more for me than the doctors did. I have gained five pounds. I hope that everyone who is suffering from female trouble, nervousness and backache will take the Compound. I owe my thanks to Mrs. Pinkham. She is the working girl's friend for health, and all women who suffer should write to her and take her advice.—MISS TILLIE PLENGZ, 314 St. Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

Thirty years of unparalleled success confirms the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to cure female diseases.

Only Once.
It was a pitiful mistake.
An error and a crime;
I waited for the railway train,
The light was low and dim.

It came at last, and from the car
There stepped a dainty dame,
And looking up and down the place,
She straight away came.

"Oh, Jack!" she cried, "Oh, dear old Jack!"
And kissed me as she spoke.
Then looked at me and frightened cried
"Oh, what a mistake!"

I said, "Forgive me, maiden fair
That I am not your Jack."
And regarded the kiss you gave,
"I'll straight away take it back."

And since that night I have often stood
On the platform and sighed,
But only once in a man's whole life
Do such things come to mind.

Sailors Suddenly Become Wealthy
GULF PORT, Mass., March 14.—As a reward for rescuing Baron Rothschild and party of 93 from the stranded yacht, the Cape San Antonio, Cuba, last Sunday morning, Captain Dan Williams and crew of the tramp steamer Silverwings, which arrived to day, were showered with diamonds, brooches, bracelets, rings and other costly jewelry by the wife of the Paris banker and other women from Athens.

Baron Rothschild personally passed the hat among the men of his party and more than $3,000 in gold was offered as a purse to Captain Williams and his sailors.

The crew were literally wallowing in wealth. The value of the jewels and trinkets the men received was greater than the cargo of nitrates the steamer brought here from Buenos Ayres, which customs officials entered at $50,000.

Why Sleep is Necessary
During sleep Nature restores the cells and wastes washed by its activities. Life without sleep physical bankruptcy is quick and certain. Mrs. J. Decher, 455 Deane St., Detroit, Ont., writes: "I can say for a certainty that Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills, besides strengthening the nerves, built up my system wonderfully and enabled me to sleep and eat well."

Not Serious But Startling.
"And I can't lie on either side," wailed a legal patient, continuing symptoms of illness.
"Great heavens!" exclaimed the doctor.

"Is it very serious, doctor?" asked the legal patient, anxiously.
"Oh, no, not very; but it is the first time I ever met a lawyer who could not lie on either side."

AN OLD MAID'S HERO.

Miss Amanda Perkins was an old maid. She had never loved. Her brother Ben, who was a farmer and a widower, took her for his housekeeper. Abe Smith came to work as a hired man for an adjoining farmer. Abe was an old bachelor.

It was fate that kept Amanda an old maid. It was fate that brought Abe all the way from Indiana. It was fate that finally brought the two faces to face. Abe had hardly a through asking Amanda for the loan of a hoe when he found his heart tugging with a strange thump.

Two weeks after the Hossier's appearance a band of gypsies came along the road, and in return for some odd victuals one of the women told Amanda's fortune.

"You will marry," she started off. "It seems impossible."

"But the stars say so, and they are never mistaken."

"That sort of husband will be better than no husband at all."

"A lie," she said. "You will not know that he is a hero for some time, but it will suddenly come to pass. He will save your life from indignant insects. I cannot say whether they will be grasshoppers or not."

The next time Abe called Amanda looked him over and decided he was no more of a hero than the gatepost. He didn't look it nor talk it, and therefore when he told his love and asked for her hand she replied:

"I shall never marry any one but a hero."

"But I'm one. I fit into the Spanish war, and lands save you, but how I moved 'em down."

But Abe was thrown down. Amanda's brother liked him, but it didn't count. She had asked Ben what particular insects got indignant, but he couldn't give her the information. He had seen a beetle or a grasshopper, but he had never poked either with a stick. The Hossier arrived in the early spring. In May he renewed his offer of matrimony. He had an affectionate disposition and $100 in his trunk.

"You are as good as any one around here, Abe," replied Amanda, "but the stars have settled it for me."

"The stars be hanged! The stars have about as much to do with marriage as the June bug."

"But he is to be a hero!"

"Well, ding it, ain't I one? I've never bragged much about how I moved the Spanish down, but I fit into you right here and now that I killed seventeen of 'em."

"Why, that was brave of you!"

"I should remark, but I'm not boasting of it. If the battle had lasted a little longer I'd have made the number twenty."

"But the gypsy said it would be some one who would save my life. I'm kinder liking you, Abe, but I don't go back on the stars and the gypsy."

Abe came over on a dozen occasions in June and said nothing further, although he was more determined than ever. It was the first of July before he got around to say:

"You might as well be bridal tending around as washing taters here. What's the use of fooling about a thing of this kind?"

"The hero may be along any day now," was the reply.

"Say, Manda, that gypsy must have meant me. She sure did. I've been counting up since I told you I had killed seventeen Spaniards, and I find the number was twenty-seven. I added them up wrong. Do you want any bigger hero than that?"

"Lands, Abe, but how you must have fit!"

"Fit? Well, I guess yes! I was there to do it, and I moved 'em. Lemme get this preacher tomorrow."

"Nope. I've got to go by what the stars say."

There weren't any stars out next afternoon and no gypsies around when Amanda started across the meadow to gather cowslips at the pond. Swinging a basket in her hand and humming a tune, she walked right into a bumble bee's nest.

The hero was right over in the next. Giving the corn a second look, he heard screams. He heard yells. He heard wails for help. He ran to the fence and saw Amanda hopping and running and dodging and using her sunbonnet as a weapon.

"Humph! grunted Abe as he cut with his knife and cut a thick topped bush. 'There's the indignant insects, and by gum if here hain't the hero! Amanda Perkins, you are mine!'

There were half a hundred bumbles. They made it lively for Amanda, and they had plenty left over for Abe, but a hero always conquers. The suffering hero picked the suffering heroine up in his arms and toted her to the house and dropped her on the floor to say:

"There! If you are looking for any more heroes and indignant insects I'll take you back!"

"Oh, Abe, am I rescued?" was asked.

"Yes, the biggest part of you, and don't you try it again. As soon as these jumps go down it's the preacher for us."

"But the hero?"

"You can't see him, but he stands before you and has all the time. Durn my cats, what can you call a fellow who fit into the Spanish war and moved thirty-five of 'em down?"

That Realm Of Fiction
(From the Youth's Companion.)
Mr. Graham threw down his newspaper with an expression of annoyance. "It's too much when the daily papers begin to print fairy tales," he said.

"Let me see it," said Mrs. Graham. "Perhaps I could read it to the children at bedtime tonight."

"It's not that kind," said her husband. "This is the story of a young plumber's assistant who declared that he worked so fast that it was not fair to pay him by the hour, but that he should be paid by the job."

Opinions are to the mind what furniture is to the house. It isn't economy to have more than you know what to do with.

AT DEATH'S DOOR FROM KIDNEY DISEASE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES"

CLANDRASSIE, ONT.
"Two years ago, the doctor made forty-four calls on me, and then said he had done all he could for me. I was suffering with intense Kidney Trouble and inflammation had set in. Today, I take 'Fruit-a-tives' as my only medicine. I am in excellent health, and 'Fruit-a-tives' is the medicine that cured me after I had been at Death's Door for months."

Distressing Headaches.
Headaches are largely the result of disordered kidneys.

Mrs. Hall, 84 Flora Street, St. John, Ont., says: "I suffered for years with headaches of the most distressing nature. They would come on me suddenly, and would last for days at a time. These were usually accompanied by spells of dizziness that would leave me unable to attend to any house duties. My back was weak and caused me much suffering through the kidneys. I had doctors, but all to no avail. Nothing benefited me and my condition was gradually becoming worse. I learned of Booth's Kidney Pills. One box gave me a complete and lasting cure. I have not had a headache or dizzy spell since and I feel like a new person."

Booth's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists, 50c. box, under a guarantee to refund your money if they fail to relieve any disease having its origin in the kidneys or bladder. Postpaid from The R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by H. E. Jones.

A Lighthouse Keeper's Story

From the light-house at Lobster Cove Head, Bonne Bay, Newfoundland, Mrs. W. Young sends an experience of Zam-Buk, which should certainly act as a true beacon light, guiding all sufferers from skin disease to a safe harbor of refuge.

Mrs. Young says: "I suffered with eczema for seven years, and on my great delight Zam-Buk has cured me. The disease started on my breast, and spread until it extended over my back. The itching and burning—especially when the affected parts were warm—was terrible; and yet when the eruption was scratched or rubbed, it turned to bad sores, and caused great pain. I went to a doctor, and tried various prescriptions, but seemed to get no benefit, so tried another doctor. Again I got no relief, so tried a third doctor, and then a fourth. Although they all did their best for me I got no relief from my pain."

"Seven years is a long time to suffer, and I had got used to the thought that I never would be cured when I saw a report in The Halifax Herald telling how beneficial Zam-Buk was in cases of skin disease. I thought there would be no harm in giving this balm a fair trial, and bought some."

"Well, from the use of the very first box of Zam-Buk was going to do me good. I persevered with it, and the improvement it worked in my condition was really wonderful. It eased the irritation, stopped the pain, and the sores began to dry up and disappear. In short, I found Zam-Buk all that was claimed for it, and within a very short time it worked a complete cure in my case."

Not only for eczema, but for ulcers, abscesses, varicose veins, and leg, poisoned wounds, cuts, cold sores, chapped places, piles, ringworm, children's eruptions, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries and diseases, Zam-Buk will be found unequalled. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations.

St. John Has $60,000 Fire.
INTERCOLONIAL FLOUR SHED AND A LARGE QUANTITY OF FREIGHT DESTROYED.

St. John, March 10.—A fire occurred in the I. C. R. flour shed in Smythe St., just off Mill St., and near the Union Depot at 2:30 this morning, and the largest shed owned by the railway has already been destroyed and further damage is feared.

A third alarm has brought out the entire City Department and several steamers are playing on the blaze which is very spectacular. The shed destroyed was built last year and was very large.

The shed contained a large quantity of flour, feed, sugar and beans and the loss is roughly estimated at upwards of $60,000. The wharf on which the shed was built and valued at $7,000, was also destroyed, the flames carrying underneath the heavy timbers with such persistency that the firemen were unable to check them. The flames at times could be seen all over the city, and it was thought at first that the elevated railway leading from the city to the I. C. R. pier was on fire. A wide berth, however, lies between the terminals and the wharf destroyed, and the flames were kept from spreading across.

The Government carried no insurance.

Steamers Had A Rough Time.

VESSELS ARRIVING IN HALIFAX REPORT MEETING ICE AND HEAVY SEAS.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 10.—Five days overdue from Rotterdam, the steamship Voltorno, of the Uranium Line, arrived today after a fifteen days' voyage consisting of a continuation of tremendous gales and mountainous seas.

Fierce weather was encountered all the way round Sable Island and therefore one of the worst storms of a terrible trip was experienced.

On March 7, for nearly the whole day the seas swept the ship fore and aft. The engines had to be stopped and at night the ship lay to. Next morning there was no improvement, and again the ship had to be content to face the storm, making no progress.

Yesterday morning there was an abatement of the storm, and the steamer reached port this afternoon with no serious damage which the captain considered under the circumstances. The Voltorno landed 139 passengers and sailed for New York tonight.

The Manchester Commerce, arrived this morning from Manchester, reporting a somewhat similar experience. Forty miles north of Sable Island, the ship struck a heavy field of ice stretching for many miles. She plowed her way through eighty miles of it and to minimize the danger, the engines were run at quarter speed. Captain Heath says he never before saw so much ice at one time, the field being at least one hundred miles long.

The steamer Birma, which arrived today from Libau, Russia, on her way to New York, short of coal, had 500 passengers on board. She coaled and sailed late tonight for New York.

The steamer Bruce arrived at Louisburg today from St. John's after a passage of 36 hours and on the way back met heavy ice at Scataria. The steamer was obliged to go to St. John's on account of snow blockade on the Newfoundland railway, which prevented trains running. She brought 40 passengers including Judge Emerson, of St. John's.

You Blame the Stomach
But chronic indigestion will disappear when the liver, kidneys and bowels are set right by DR. A. W. CHASE'S KIDNEY AND LIVER PILLS.

You are skeptical. For you have tried many medicines and still suffer from indigestion with all its annoying symptoms. Take a new line.

Leave the stomach alone, for the source of trouble is in the intestines, and healthy digestion can be restored by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills.

Mr. C. D. Bennett, Maple Grove, Maine, writes: "I have had chronic dyspepsia very bad. The food would sour, my stomach would swell up. I suffered a great deal and could not sleep. The result was that using Dr. Chase's Kidney and Liver Pills I am now entirely cured and can eat any kind of food. They have made a new man and a younger man of me and I cannot say too much in their praise."

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, March 17, 1911.

Retail Merchants' Association.

Mr. I. Macdonald, of Halifax, Sec'y of the Retail Merchants' Association of Nova Scotia, was in Digby Wednesday. In conversation with the Courier Mr. Macdonald said that the great aim of the association was to better conditions in Nova Scotia. He referred to the vacant farms, and at the same time to the thousands of dollars worth of produce, eggs, poultry, flocks, all kinds of green stuff, pork, beef, lamb, bacon, etc., which was being imported into this province, all of which could be produced in Nova Scotia. After learning some of its intentions we believe the above association is making moves in the right direction and we would advise every farmer to become a member at once and help along the good work. The annual dues are only $2.00 per annum, which entitles every member of the firm to full membership. Mr. Macdonald is arranging for a big meeting of the association to take place in Midvale in June. Any further information can be obtained by those interested, from Mr. Arthur R. Turnbull, of the firm of Turnbull & Co., retail grocers, Digby, who is the Vice President of the Association.

Price Webber's Big Success.

Mr. Price Webber, the veteran actor, and his excellent company of performers (The Boston Comedy Co.) passed through Digby en route from Yarmouth for Houlton, Maine, after a very successful winter, business in Nova Scotia. He played to a record-breaking house in Yarmouth Wednesday night. Mr. Webber put on his first show in that town May 24, 1910, playing in the old temperance hall in Digby nine days later. His reception in Yarmouth Wednesday night was certainly a good one and it must have made Mr. and Mrs. Webber feel that their visits are much appreciated. The company would have played here last night, but Mr. J. L. Peters, manager of the Oddfellows hall, thought it would not prove profitable to have another company play so close to the "Third Degree," which was played here Monday night. Mr. Webber expects, however, to return in September and should be met with a full house, the same as in other provincial towns in which he plays.

Sudden Death of Rev. W. H. Warren.

The many friends of Rev. W. H. Warren in Digby and throughout the Province will learn with regret of his sudden death, which occurred at Bridgetown on Saturday last. Mr. Warren was in his usual good health up to Friday morning, when feeling somewhat distressed his physician was summoned, who at once located something serious in his condition. Doctors DeBios, Armstrong and Bechman, with his physician, Dr. Burns, at once held a consultation and diagnosed the case as an advanced stage of appendicitis. It was then decided to summon Dr. McKay, of Digby, by wire. Dr. McKay arrived at noon, just after the arrival of Dr. McKay.

"The Third Degree."

MONDAY NIGHT'S SHOW A BIG SUCCESS.

Mr. Carl Zellner, with the Paul Gilmore Co. presented to a good audience in the Oddfellows hall last Monday night "The Third Degree," a drama in four acts by Charles W. Warren. "The Lion and the Mouse" and several other popular productions. Every performer was a star, but of course Miss Acadie French, Miss Lillian French, Jr., and Mr. John Conner, as Richard Brewster, were great favorites with the audience. Mr. Howard Hill, as Captain Clinton, was also a great success. He played a difficult role and did it well. Mr. Zellner will probably return to Digby with his company in September. A good house awaits him.

Public Meeting.

A public meeting will be held in the Brecken's room, town hall, on Monday night at eight o'clock to make preparations for the big regatta and other sporting events to be held in Digby on Saturday, July 29. It is the duty of the hotel keepers, merchants and all interested in the welfare of the town to be present and take hold of this matter in a proper manner. Digby can hold a successful regatta and draw a crowd when our people undertake it, as was fully demonstrated last Dominion Day.

Booming Nova Scotia.

An interesting illustrated article appeared in the Boston Sunday Globe of March 5th, entitled "Nova Scotia Booming." The article was written by "The Editor," son, which our limited space prevents from reproducing in the Courier. Like all Mr. Anderson's articles it is well written and extremely interesting. The views consist of Lunenburg's water front, Digby's fishing wharves, a portion of Digby's fish-drying racks, an excellent view of the schooner "Albert J. Lutz," the interior of a smoke house, showing how the famous "Digby chickens" are smoked, and a view of the wharves, one of the most important fishing communities in Western Nova Scotia.

Judge Holdsworth's Funeral.

The funeral of the late John Holdsworth, Esq., took place last Sunday afternoon, service being held in St. Paul's church, Marshalltown, with interment in Forest Hill cemetery. The services in the church and at the grave were conducted by Rev. Wm. Driffield, rector of Trinity Parish. The pall bearers were Messrs. E. W. Nichols, A. D. Daley and V. C. Marshall. The services were well attended and the floral tributes beautiful.

Nova Scotians' Banquet in Worcester.

The members of the Maritime Provinces Association of Worcester, Mass., held their 24th annual banquet on the evening of the 9th inst. Over 190 were present, nearly all of whom were natives of the maritime provinces. Among those present, formerly of Digby county, were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Gilliat and Mr. Leah T. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Gilliat were among those on the reception committee. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Another Farmers' Meeting.

The farmers' meeting recently held at Smith's Cove was one of the most successful in the history of the Digby County Farmers' Association. The next meeting will be held in the same house, Marshalltown, Saturday evening, March 25th, and should be largely attended. It will be presided by local farmers, the names of whom have not as yet been made public.

Our Efforts Appreciated.

A Philadelphia, Pa., subscriber writes "I wish to thank you for the prompt delivery of the Courier every Monday morning. It is a very welcome visitor I assure you. My eyes fell upon the Courier in my infancy and I hope that I will always be able to have it in my family."

Special S. A. Meeting.

A special meeting will be conducted at the Salvation Army hall, Tuesday night, March 21st, by Capt. Gray, Annapolis, and Capt. McKee, Bear River. At the close of the service there will be a sale of ice cream.

Death of Mrs. Christopher Payson.

WEYMOUTH HAS LOST ONE OF ITS OLDEST AND MOST INTERESTING RESIDENTS.

Mrs. Christopher Payson died on Friday last of heart failure. And so has passed away one of the oldest and most interesting of the residents of Weymouth.

Sophia Augusta, daughter of John and Sarah Parker, was born in Weymouth, nearly ninety-three years ago. Her father was for several years sheriff of Hants county.

In 1833 she married Christopher, a local miller, and they lived in the early settlers of Weymouth.

Their family consisted of two sons and two daughters, all of whom are deceased. Mrs. Payson was a devoted member of the Klondike, Mrs. T. C. Rice, of Weymouth, and Miss Ada at home. She also leaves two grand daughters, Mrs. J. H. and Mrs. F. H. Rice, of New York, and Miss Frances Rice of the Halifax Hospital nursing staff. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Mrs. Payson was a woman of keen intellect and wonderful memory which she retained up to the time of her death. She was a devoted mother.

Although a great sufferer from rheumatism during her latter years, and practically confined to the house, her eyesight was good and she was a constant reader of all contemporary literature, thus keeping in touch with all political and other questions of the day.

Her intelligent grasp of such matters, and her wise and witty remarks thereon, were a delight to the many visitors who counted her friendship a beautiful thing to possess.

Mrs. Payson's religious views were broad and charitable, embracing all denominations, and trusting with Tenison, in the larger hope "that not one life shall be destroyed."

The funeral service, held at her late residence on Sunday afternoon, was conducted by Rev. H. Munro and Mr. Cummings, after which the remains were taken to the Methodist burying ground and interred beside that of her late husband, who died in 1870.

A large procession followed on foot, paying their last respects to one who had been a most interesting and useful member of the community.

Long ago, has faithfully earned her place "where beyond these voices there is rest."

Burglary Across The Harbor.

POSTMASTER HAYNES ROBBED AT VICTORIA BEACH AND POSTMASTER KEANS AT PORT WADE.

A daring burglary took place across the harbor Monday evening which was evidently committed in the moonlight by some person or persons acquainted with the location and plan of the premises which were robbed. While the ferry boat Port Wade in command of Capt. Edw. Keans, postmaster at Port Wade, had a special trip to attend the play in the Oddfellows hall some one unlocked and entered Mr. Charles Haynes' store containing the postmaster's office. The burglar took $50.00 in cash, forty-five of which belonged to the post office department and the remainder to Mr. Haynes personally. This money was located in five different places, but was gone nevertheless. The thieves left the door closed, but unlocked.

At Port Wade several miles from Victoria Beach, Capt. Edw. Keans' store was unlocked and $150.00 in cash taken. This money belonged to Capt. Keans' store, but was not in his possession at the time.

No goods are missing from either store. Capt. Keans' house was also visited but the burglar did not enter. Mr. and Mrs. Keans had not yet returned from Digby, but the children who were in the house alone at the time reported that the burglar entered around the premises about 11:30.

Passengers going home from the boat saw a couple of suspicious strangers between Port Wade and Victoria Beach and it is also reported that some one heard a boat land on the beach and the sound of oars.

We trust that this matter will be thoroughly investigated by the proper officials and the guilty ones punished to the full extent of the law.

Death of Mrs. Oscar J. Killam.

YOUNG WIFE AND MOTHER BELOVED BY ALL SUDDENLY TAKEN AWAY.

(From The Truro Daily News.)

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Killam, were deeply pained to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Killam, after a short illness, at the Truro General Hospital on Thursday afternoon, the 9th.

The deceased was a host of friends in Truro, who were shocked to hear of her death; and to the bereaved husband, the Provincial Manager of the Canadian Railway, and so well and favorably known in our town as one of Truro's best citizens, and to the motherless little son of seven years, the sincere sympathy of all friends is tendered.

Mrs. Killam was the daughter of Mrs. E. B. Bidon, of Amherst. There also survive to mourn the untimely death of a beloved sister, three brothers, Harry Bidon in Amherst, W. E. in Victoria, B. C. and Herbert D. in South Africa.

There was a long service at the home residence, Arlington Place, at one o'clock tonight. The remains will be taken by No. 1, D. A. R. express to Truro, and the funeral and interment will take place in Digby in the afternoon.

The remains arrived here Saturday afternoon accompanied by Mr. Killam, husband of the deceased, and her brother, Mr. Harry Bidon, of Amherst. The funeral took place on the arrival of the train, with interment in Forest Hill cemetery, beside the grave of her late father, Mr. E. B. Bidon, who for many years was one of the most prominent residents of our town. The services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Driffield, rector of Holy Trinity church, the pall bearers being Coun. T. E. G. Lynch, D. Daley, H. E. Jones and Fritz Dakin.

Improved Mail Service.

THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF A. E. WALL M. P. P. MONTREAL MAIL REACHES DIGBY 24 HOURS EARLIER THAN BEFORE.

Some two months ago Mr. A. E. Wall, Digby county's enterprising M. P. P., called the attention of the Post Office Department at Ottawa to the fact that the mails from Montreal and the west were not being despatched in the way to give the quickest and best service in Digby county. He stated the following telegram which we reproduce in full:

OTTAWA Ont., March 14, '11.
H. E. Wall M. P. P.

You will be glad to know that instructions have been issued for the forwarding of mails from points in Annapolis Valley, viz. P. E. train from Montreal and west to St. John and Digby on Saturdays, instead of via C. E. to Halifax as heretofore, this saving 24 hours.

W. F. Borden.

The Yarmouth Times says: Robert, the eight year old son of James Thompson, Weymouth, died on Saturday of inflammation of the bowels. The funeral took place this morning and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Cummings, rector of St. Peter's church. Robert was a bright little fellow and much sympathy will be felt in Yarmouth and elsewhere for the bereaved family, who a short time ago removed from this town to Weymouth.

When Sleep Fails You

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD will bring rest, comfort and vitality by building up the nerves.

Mr. Jas. Wesley Weaver, a veteran of the Fenian Raid, Port Dalhousie, Ont., writes: "For years I was afflicted with nervousness and dreaded insomnia, so that I never knew for three years what a full hour's sleep was, never more than dozing for five minutes at a time. Headache and dizziness almost drove me wild. I had spells of weakness and cramps in stomach and limbs. I was through trying several doctors. It was useless except finally Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was brought to me and eight boxes cured me. It is simply wonderful what benefit it has obtained from this treatment. Sleeplessness and headaches are warnings of approaching nervous collapse. You can positively remove these symptoms and prevent prostration of the system by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50, at all druggists or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for free copy of Dr. Chase's Receipts."

An Interesting Report

Published elsewhere in this issue is the Annual Report for the past year of the Board of Directors of the Canada Cement Company, as read by the President, to the shareholders, at the Annual Meeting held in Montreal on the 21st of February.

The fact of statement of the policy and the general attitude of fairness evidenced by this address, are such as to warrant more than passing comment. Any lay member of the community reading the Report must surely feel disposed to echo the hope expressed by the President, that the increased demand and increased output in the year to come will result in further savings in the cost of manufacture, and it further commends the fact by the public that any such reductions that may be obtained will, according to the broad-minded policy of the Company, be used as an advantage to the consumer.

Another noteworthy feature of the Report is the provision made for employees to become possessors of stock. This is a policy already in force in some of the largest institutions, and shows that the Canada Cement Company are quick to appreciate the importance of stimulating interest and confidence upon the part of the staff.

The strong financial position of the company is a well known fact, and all that is necessary to ensure the continued success of the concern is continued prosperity of the country, together with increased realization of the importance and economy of cement as a building material.

Democracy Wins in Maine Elections

CARRIED FOUR OF THE FIVE MAJORITY CONTENTS IN CITIES WHICH VOTED.

PORTLAND, ME., March 13.—Democracy won in Maine today, candidates of that party winning the majority contests in four of the five cities which voted. The only upset was at Bangor where State Senator Charles W. Mullin, Democrat, defeated Mayor Chas. F. Sweet, Republican, by a majority of 4,000 in the heaviest vote cast in a city election there. The City Government remains Republican.

Augusta remains under the Democratic control, first secured in 1906 by the present Governor, Fred W. Hastings, who is succeeded in the mayoralty by State Senator Ruel J. Noyes.

Mr. E. F. Parsons, Democrat, was chosen Mayor of Belfast for a seventh term, with a Democratic Council; Albert O. Marcell, was re-elected Mayor of Biddeford by Democrats and Independents, with a Council of Independent Democrats. The Republicans won easily in Brewer, headed by Victor Mutty.

Of Course You Would. Who Wouldn't?

Would you spend your money in our own province if we could prove to you it would be to your own advantage to do so? We asked this question to over a hundred of our local traders and in every case received the same reply, viz.: "If you can show that you can sell to us, offering the same advantages of the large Departmental Stores of the Upper Provinces, we want to deal with you and are willing to give you a try."

With this assurance of our local trade, we immediately "got busy" and organized our business on a short term basis. We have framed our arguments in catalogue form backed up, so to speak, with the goods.

Our business is strictly catering to the clothing and furnishing wants of the boys and men of Western Nova Scotia. Will you let us send our Spring and Summer catalogues to you? It will soon be ready. Mail a card to-day to A. M. King & Son, Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia.

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. Canada's Forests

MUCH TO BE DONE IN PRESERVING THEM FOR FUTURE USE.

"Of all the civilized nations in the northern hemisphere, Canada is doing the least to treat the public timberlands as a permanent asset." This is the conclusion reached by Mr. H. R. MacMillan, one of the Assistant Inspectors of Dominion Forest Reserves, after a study of the present status of forestry in Canada, particularly in regard to the forest fire problem. This study is published by the Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior as their Bulletin No. 9 ("Forest Fires in Canada").

During 1909 the loss through forest fires throughout Canada amounted to $210,400, and 1909 was by no means a bad year for fires. The expense of fire fighting and fire protection amounted to $330,000.

There can be little doubt that this total of fire loss is much too small. In the last place, the value of the timber destroyed is arbitrarily placed at $1 per thousand feet, board measure, while the actual value of the trees as they stand in the forest would average much higher than this. No account is taken of the damage done to young growth, which, while not now actually saleable, will in the course of a few years have considerable value. "An enormous amount of cordwood," to quote the words of the writer, "destroyed, in districts where it now has a value, and in other districts where it will soon be needed, has neither been estimated nor valued." Many fires have undoubtedly occurred in districts remote from present settlement, and have destroyed large quantities of timber which ultimately would command a ready market.

Extracts are given from many works dealing with exploration in Canada to show how widespread and disastrous have been the fires in former years—years even before exploration was attempted, in many cases. Treating the subject more generally in the first part of the bulletin, Mr. MacMillan arrives at the conclusion that seven times as much timber has been destroyed by fire in Canada as has ever been cut by lumbermen. This view is sustained by many lumbermen some of whose estimates exceed even this.

The treatment of land cut or lumbered over and destined to remain permanently in forest, is one of the big problems of forestry on this continent. This is also discussed, and plans are outlined for the cutting of the timber so as to reduce as much as possible the danger from fire. Of all kinds of land, cut over timberland, with chips, tree tops and other debris scattered around, presents the greatest danger from fire—a fact that is emphasized by many fires which occurred even during the past summer in British Columbia and western Ontario. Any who care to look further into this subject may obtain copies of the bulletin mentioned above, free of charge, on application to R. H. Campbell, Superintendent of Forestry, Ottawa and mentioning the Digby Courier.

CANADA CEMENT COMPANY LIMITED

Annual Report of the Board of Directors

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS:

Your Directors beg to present herewith the annual statement of the affairs and financial position of the Canada Cement Company, Limited, as of the 31st December, 1910.

In presenting the Balance Sheet, we call attention to the Company's strong financial position as disclosed by the large amount of cash on hand, and other quick assets, and the comparatively small amount of current liabilities. After providing for interest on our Bonds and Dividends on our Preferred Stock for the year, we have been able to set up reserves for depreciation, extraordinary repairs and renewals, bad debts, etc., and carry forward a substantial balance to Surplus Account.

The consumption of cement during the past year was not as large as anticipated. Our business also suffered on account of the Railways not being able to meet our full requirements for cars during the heavy shipping season; consequently, we carry over from last year 781,116 barrels of cement.

Early in 1910 the price of our product was fixed at a lower price than cement had ever been sold for in Canada, excepting for a short period in 1909, but your Directors are pleased to state that the anticipated savings in manufacturing and distributing our products were such that they were able to still further reduce this price.

We trust, when you consider the above mentioned conditions, and also the fact that during 1910 our plant: were only operated 37.6 per cent. of their capacity, the profits shown will be satisfactory to the Shareholders.

During the current year, we look for a larger natural demand, which demand will be stimulated by continuing to manufacture a strictly high grade article, and by selling it at the lowest possible price. This anticipated increase will enable us to operate our plants to better advantage than in the past, but we do not expect that the demand will be sufficient to enable us to put into operation either of the two plants which have been idle since the organization of this Company. However, it is confidently expected that the increased demand, and increased output, will result in further savings in the cost of manufacture and distribution, and it is the policy of your Directors to give your customers the benefit of these reductions.

The Shareholders' profits will depend on the increased volume of the Company's business, the policy of the Company being the maintenance of such a stable position as will insure regular and uniform payments of interest on its bonds and dividends on its Preferred stock, and at the same time be in a position to withstand any unforeseen emergency that may arise consequent on business depression or otherwise, which condition naturally necessitates the accumulation of, and the maintenance of, a large cash reserve.

It is also the policy of the Company to equalize the price of cement throughout Canada in so far as the physical conditions make such possible, and in furtherance of this policy, your Directors have arranged to purchase a site near Winnipeg, on which they will erect, this year, a mill to grind clinker, which clinker will be shipped from one of our Eastern mills. The buildings, machinery, etc., will be planned so that, should it at any time in the future be advisable, a Burning Department can be added, and the clinker produced on the property.

And further, an agreement has been entered into whereby this Company expects to acquire, in the near future, a property at Exshaw, which, added to our Calgary plant, and the projected plant at Winnipeg, will put us in the position of anticipating any extraordinary growth in the consumption of cement in the Great West.

With the view of educating the public, and popularizing the use of cement, in addition to the ordinary advertising, the Company has published a small book illustrating some of the many uses to which cement may be put, for which book there has been a great demand, 25,000 applications for same having been received during the past six months.

For the purpose of stimulating interest in the Company on behalf of the Employees, both in efficiency and cheapening production, as well as creating a feeling of mutual goodwill, your Directors deem it expedient to introduce a system, already adopted by several large industrial corporations with beneficial results, viz., to enable employees to become the possessors of Preferred and Common Stock at prices which will be attractive to them, the employees paying a fixed amount per share per month out of their earnings, and the Company carrying the stock for them, charging a rate of 5 per cent interest. If the plan is put into effect, all dividends will be credited to the employees applying for the stock. Said stock will be held in trust for the employee for a term of five years, excepting in exceptional cases, such as death, when his heirs will receive what benefit a deceased employee has derived from subscribing to the stock.

Your Directors feel that the policy, as herein outlined, will, as nearly as possible, make the interests of the consumers, the employee and the shareholders identical, and will insure to the most enduring and beneficial results for all concerned.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

On behalf of the Board of Directors,

WILLIAM C. EDWARDS,

President.

Presday Joy

There's trouble in the print shop. No language can express how Friday's rolled around again. The day we go to press.

The compositors are hustling fast. Each has a dirty proof. The makeup man is cursing. In a way to raise the roof.

The devil's paid a galley full of oil. The foreman's saying things to him. That makes the brimstone smell.

The steno-grapher's jawin' 'bout an ink-spout on his desk. And any gold-dusted fool can tell we're trying to get to press.

Everything is all "balled up." The forms are in a mess. And now the Old Man's asking: "When we go to press?"

Through the room there rings aloud a piercing bell-born wail. The office dog is yelpin, 'cause they've stepped upon his tail.

The pressman now is ready—'bout the 4—'d old form won't "fit." So he whistles out a "chance man." And gives his quid a shift.

The forms are on the press at last. The press is running great. But we've got to take 'em on again—"Forgot to change the date!"

They're on again; the motor's down. We're running with a jerk. But a paper on the rollers now. An you bet it's there to stick.

The whole d—n bunch is mad as sin and cursin' more or less. For hell break loose on Friday. When the paper goes to press.

Worst Case Of Eczema

Cure only came when doctors gave up and DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT was used.

Mrs. Wm. Miller, St. Catharines, Ont., writes:—"My daughter Mary, when three months old, contracted eczema and for three years the disease baffled all treatment. Her case was one of the worst that had ever come under my notice, and she apparently suffered what no person could ever describe. I had three different doctors attend her all to no purpose. Finally I decided to try Dr. Chase's Ointment and to my surprise she immediately began to improve and was completely cured of that long standing disease. That was four years ago when we lived at Cornwall, Ont., and as not a symptom has shown itself since, the cure must be permanent."

AN INTELLIGENT HORSE

This Wonderful Animal is the Property of a Former Digby County Man.

WILL STOP AT THE HOUSES WITHOUT BEING REINED—UNDERSTANDS FRENCH AND ENGLISH—KEEPS HIS EYES ON WINDOW SIGNS—RECOGNIZES A PRETTY SCHOOL TEACHER—FOND OF MUSIC.

Mr. C. H. Gilliland of Danvers, Massachusetts, and formerly of Rosary, Nova Scotia, is the owner of "Tom," a rolypoly, white horse, conspicuous for his good looks and a wonder for his far greater than ordinary endowment of horse sense.

Mr. Gilliland purchased "Tom" soon after the latter's arrival to the United States, when he peered with shining eyes upon the strange sights of a strange city and heard a strange language spoken on every hand for he had been reared upon the farm of a French Canadian and came in all the rugged strength of his four years to the equine working ranks.

Mr. Gilliland's judgment of horses, acquired by the ownership of a large number while engaged in an omnibus business and later in the provision business, prompted him to purchase the pretty Canuck on general principles, but he has received daily surprise since on account of the animal's great intelligence and no reasonable offer of money could induce him to part with "Tom" at present.

"Tom" began his duties on a provision order route where one hundred customers were called upon on different days of the week. He soon astonished his driver by stopping at the houses of customers without being reined, and as he learned enough of English to understand the conversation exchanged between customer and clerk he would stop at the house on the delivery trip or bustle past it according to his memory of the conversation.

Several customers put signs at the windows when they wish the order team to stop at their houses, and "Tom" soon learned to keep an eye out for these indications of business.

If a new man takes the route it is understood that "Tom" will help him in locating the customers. "Tom" once gave an amusing example of his intelligence. It was the custom of a driver to carry a pretty school teacher from the school building to her boarding place at noon, and "Tom" meeting her on the street one day, regardless of the fact that he had a different driver, halted and waited for his passenger.

He knows that trucks are carried aboard trains and when luggage is put on to his wagon he trots off to the depot without a word of command. If ice bags are thrown into his wagon he takes the plank of the iron for a signal to go to the ice house. He learned the direction of right and left by hearing the words spoken to him three times each accompanied by a pull on the reins in the desired direction.

He knows the names of adjoining towns and cities as well as of several public buildings in his own town. He deems it a great misfortune that is only a working man and not a polo pony. He is a most enthusiastic fan at a polo game and cries out in envy as the trained ponies scurry over their course. "Tom" has a great fondness for music and has frightened more than one Italian by walking up to a burdy gurdy to discover the source of the music.

He is rather fussy about his diet and to tease him he is often consulted about his meals. If a favorite grain is mentioned he will neigh lustily or give a faint assent to a less popular one, but if something which he does not like is suggested he will answer by a sulky silence.

"Tom's" weight is 1410 pounds and his girth is exactly the same as the distance from his ears to his tail—six feet, ten inches. He is pure white and a pleasing driver and very satisfactory work horse. He has a large circle of admirers.

Naval Estimates Total $221,982,500

BRITISH PROGRAMME IS ANNOUNCED—FIVE DREADNOUGHTS AND THREE PROTECTED CRUISERS.

LONDON, March 15.—The naval estimates issued tonight provide for the expenditure of $221,982,500, an increase of $19,000,000 on the previous year. The cost of new construction is fixed at $75,319,385.

The programme includes five dreadnoughts, three protected cruisers, one armored cruiser, twenty destroyers, six submarines, and an increase in the personnel of the navy of 3,000 men.

The naval building proposals have caused a good deal of discussion of late. According to the reports the Admiralty wanted six new dreadnoughts laid down this year.

Reginald McKenna, first lord of the admiralty, favored five, but the Radical section of the cabinet and Liberal party insisted that four would suffice.

Mr. McKenna's statement shows that a compromise has been reached between the insistent Radical demands for naval economy and the Admiralty authorities. According to this by April 1, the battleship Neptune, the armored cruiser Indefatigable and five protected cruisers will be available for service, while the vessels under construction will include ten battleships, three armored cruisers, six destroyers, and three unarmored cruisers, thirty-two destroyers and twelve submarines.

It is pointed out that a considerable amount of the increased estimates is due to increased pay for the betterment of the men's condition and for dockyard construction at Portsmouth and Rosyth.

The Conservatives criticize the amount devoted to new construction as being insufficient to do much with the present year on new vessels laid down. It is generally expected that a heavy new construction programme, which will include eight Dreadnoughts, is projected for next year.

Trained Nurse on Zam-Buk—READ WHAT SHE HAS FOUND.

Miss J. Keith, of Alta, a trained nurse, who has had a wide experience of Zam-Buk, speaks of it as follows: "I wish to express my high appreciation of Zam-Buk. I have personally tested it in a great number of cases and find it excellent. I have introduced it to several patients, with highly satisfactory results. Indeed, in many cases I have been warmly thanked for its introduction."

"Speaking professionally, I would give all sufferers from skin disease, the following advice: Cleanse the parts affected and apply Zam-Buk freely and regularly. Use clean lint and clean, soft rags for drying. Zam-Buk and cleanliness will be found sufficient for the most stubborn case of skin disease."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for abscesses, ulcers, blood poison, various ulcers, scalp sores, eruptions, children's rashes, piles, cuts, burns, abrasions, scratches, scalds, and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box, all druggists and stores. Try Zam-Buk soap, too; 25c. per tablet.

Hamilton Herald Wins Libel Suit—TORONTO, March 14.—The actions for libel which Dr. John E. Wilkinson, the J. E. Wilkinson Company and the British Canadian Smelters brought against the Hamilton Herald, on account of an article describing the arrest of Dr. Wilkinson on a charge of receiving stolen goods from the Cobalt mines were concluded today, the jury bringing in a verdict of "no libel" after twenty minutes deliberation.

All babies whose mothers do not know about Dr. Chase's Ointment are truly to be pitied. They are sure to have skin troubles of one kind or another such as eczema, irritation, scald head, milk rash or baby eczema and nothing can bring them comfort so quickly as Dr. Chase's Ointment. It stops itching promptly and heals the skin beautifully.

The Children Were Prepared.—A member of a certain school board was a crank on the subject of fires, and when visiting a school invariably limited his remarks to asking the pupils what they would do in case the building caught fire. Knowing this little peculiarity, the teacher coached his pupils as to the answer which they should give. This was the result. A government inspector made his usual official visit. "You boys have listened so attentively to your master's remarks," he said, "that I wonder what you would do if I were to make a little speech?"

To the consternation of the master a hundred voices shouted in unison: "Form a line and march down stairs!"

Giving it Away.—A little girl was keeping close to the "bearded lady" in a circus exhibition, and casting friendly glances now and then at the personage. A spectator noticed this, and suspecting there was intimacy between them, inquired, "Is the bearded lady your mother?" "No," answered the child, timidly, "she's my father."

—Mr. Bacon—You should never judge a man by his clothes, my dear.

Mrs. Bacon—I never do. I always judge him by his wife's clothes.

After all had joined in singing "He's a jolly good fellow," a delicious "treat" was provided by the hostess, consisting of ice cream, cake, candy, etc. During the evening games were indulged in by all present, and at a late hour the guests departed for their homes after spending a most delightful evening.

GRAND LODGE PASSED RESOLUTIONS ON NUMBER OF MATTERS DURING SESSION.

SYDNEY, March 17—The Grand Orange Lodge of Nova Scotia, which has been in session here for the past three days, concluded its business last night and the delegates left for their homes today. The officers elected were:

G. M.—George White, New Glasgow.
D. G. M.—Wm. Fraser, Thorburn.
D. G. M.—A. E. Ernst, Mahone Bay.
G. Chap.—Rev. A. P. Thompson, Truro.
G. S.—E. H. Humphreys, Trenton.
G. T.—Dan. McDougall, Glace Bay.
G. D. C.—David Evans, Trenton.
G. R.—Edward Young, Windsor.

The members of the Lodge decided to express their disapproval to the British Government in regard to the Home Rule Bill, and the sympathy of the Grand Lodge was expressed to those fighting the passage of the Bill through Parliament. The Lodge will ask the Governor General to make an official statement as to whether the State laws are and shall be maintained as the supreme authority on such questions as to the standing of a marriage performed by properly qualified persons, as against the decrees of the Pope in reference to mixed marriages.

Sympathy was expressed with the men who are working against the bilingual school system of Ontario, and the disapproval of the Lodge was expressed in the actions of public officers wearing State robes in connection with religious demonstrations, such as the Eucharistic Congress last year. The session was one of the most successful ever held and was productive of much good to the order.

SAD MARINE DISASTER

American Schr. Allen Green Wrecked on Long Island—One Man Drowned.

THE BIG THREE MASTER STRUCK NEAR FLOUR COVE AT MIDNIGHT DURING A TERRIBLE GALE OF WIND AND BLINDING SNOW STORM AND SOON BECAME A TOTAL WRECK IN THE TREMENDOUS SURF ON THE ROCKS.

A special telephone message to the COURIER last Friday morning after the edition had been issued, told a sad story of another ship wreck on the Bay of Fundy side of Long Island between Grand and Petite Passages, the drowning of the cook and the narrow escape of the captain and his frost bitten crew.

The American three masted schr. Allen Green, 400 tons register, of Stoughton, Maine, commanded by Capt. Samuel H. Rogers, left Rockland, Maine, for Liverpool, N.S., on Monday, the 13th, to load lumber. She was more or less delayed by variable winds and bad weather. On Thursday, she encountered in the mouth of the Bay of Fundy one of the worst storms of the season.

At midnight with the vessel iced up and almost unmanageable she struck near Flour Cove on the Bay Fundy side of Long Island. Just previous to the wreck the crew and cargo were overboard. The former was drowned, his body washing ashore in the wreckage. The crew after being in the ice-cold water more than twenty minutes.

The men climbed up the rocks and in their wet and frozen clothing were edged through the woods to the main road and called at the home of Leslie Powell where they received the kindest of welcomes. They returned to the wreck after daylight to find their vessel a total loss.

The cook's name was Ambrose Ames, of Rockland, Maine, aged 55 years, and is survived by a widow but no children. He was a member of Aurora Lodge, No. 24, A. F. & A. M., Rockland, Maine. His body was conveyed to his little home, passing through Digby Monday, accompanied by Capt. Geo. Merrill, of Freeport, an enthusiastic member of the Masonic order. There also passed through Digby Monday Charles Lane, one of the first bitten seamen, whose hands and arms were badly injured. The men, of course, were sent home by Mr. W. Stewart, the American consul at this port.

The wreck was sold on Monday by Mr. E. C. Bowers, of Westport, receiver of wrecks for that district. The remainder of the hull was purchased by Capt. John Clifford, of Freeport, and the rigging attached, including the mast, by Hains Bros., of Freeport, the latter storing the same and other gear by Charles Ensign, of Freeport; the compass by Ivin Thibault, of Freeport; and the engine by Samuel Gidney, of Mink Cove, and a Minus stationary hoisting engine by Mr. Frank Ruggles, of Tiverton.

It is said that no word has yet been received from the American schr. Kurtis which left Rockland four hours ahead of the Allen Green for Liverpool, N.S., the same port of destination.

Church History Lecture at Weymouth.

Much regret was felt owing to the inability through sickness of the Rev. H. H. Ingham in delivering his lecture on "The Mission of St. Augustine to Great Britain," last week. That has now been postponed until further notice. The Rev. Mr. Cumming, the Rector of Weymouth, thought it advisable, however, to continue the series of lectures. So, accordingly, another large congregation assembled at St. Peter's church, on Tuesday evening last, and listened to the Rev. J. H. Ingham, the Rector of Round Hill. He read the account of the mission of St. Augustine to this country, and then presented for over an hour, in able handling, the Period of Church History assigned to him, namely, "The Conversion of the Heptarchy." Although this is a lengthy period covering the years from 499 to 1215, yet he dealt with it in a most comprehensive and interesting manner. His opening scriptural illustration from the Acts of the Apostles was striking one. He likened it to the ship in which were Christ and his chosen Apostles, and the "other little ships" around it. This lecture was also made helpful by magic lantern views, which were very clear. Altogether his treatment of his subject was most plain, and that he had put much time and energy upon its preparation, and was therefore well worth hearing. He repeated at St. Thomas Church, at the Bridge, on Wednesday evening. It is astonishing the interest that is being maintained. Mr. Cumming cordially invited the people of Weymouth to attend these lectures on every announcement. Mr. Rocks was the guest of Mr. Jos. Morse while at Weymouth. The Rev. W. P. Suckling, Rector of Granville Ferry, will be the lecturer next week, which will also be illustrated with special magic lantern views. Tuesday, Mr. Peter's Church at 8 p.m., and Wednesday at St. Thomas Church at 7.45 p.m.

Backache Suffering

A wonderful medicine is this man's description of DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Mr. Fred. Gummer, Lillies, Ont., writes: "I can honestly say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a wonderful medicine. For six weeks last fall I could scarcely walk around for pains in the back and legs, and was almost completely unfit for work. Though I tried several medicines I got no better. I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and bought five boxes. After I had used three boxes, I was greatly improved, and by the time I had them all taken felt as well as I ever did. I would advise anyone suffering from kidney disease to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

"We have also used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for bad colds and sore throat and would not be without these medicines for anything."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for a free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipe Book.

Dr. de Van's Female Pills

A reliable French regulator never fails. These pills are especially useful in regulating the generative portion of the female system. Refuse cheap imitations. Dr. de Van's are sold at 10c. per box, or three for 30c. Mailed to any address. The Robell Drug Co., St. Catharines, Ont.

PURIFIED HIS BLOOD

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Healed Mr. Wilson's Sores

When the sores of the body—boils, kidneys and skin ducts—get clogged up, the blood quickly becomes impure and frequently sores break out over the body. The way to heal them, as Mr. Richard Wilson, who lives near London, Ont., found, is to purify the blood. He writes:

"For some time I had been in a low depressed condition. My appetite left me and I soon began to suffer from indigestion. Quite a number of small sores and blotches formed all over my skin. I tried medicine for the blood and used many kinds of ointments, but without satisfactory results. What was wanted was a thorough cleansing of the blood, and I looked about in vain for some medicine that would accomplish this."

At last Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills were brought to my notice, and they are one of the most wonderful medicines I have ever known. My blood was purified in a very short time, sores healed up, my indigestion vanished. They always have a place in my home and are looked upon as the family remedy."

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cleanse the system thoroughly. Sold by all dealers at 25c a box.

Death of Thomas R. Wyman.

A PROMINENT ODDFELLOW AND A GOOD CITIZEN HAS PASSED AWAY.

The death occurred at his home in Yarmouth, Thursday morning, 16th inst., of Thomas R. Wyman, a well known professional gardener and florist. Mr. Wyman was born in Overton, Yarmouth county, 33 years ago and leaves a widow, who was formerly Miss Lucy Churchill of Pembroke, one son, Arthur, in the United States, five daughters, Winnie, Jennie, Sadie, Nina and Edna. Mr. Wyman resided in the New England States for about 8 years where he practised gardening and horticulture, afterwards returning to Yarmouth and taking charge of the estate of the late Mrs. Hannah Burrell for seventeen years, since when he has been overseer of Dr. L. M. Lovitt's lawns and flower houses at Milton. He was an upright, industrious and honest citizen who will be greatly missed.

He was a very enthusiastic Oddfellow, being a charter member of Diamond Lodge, I. O. O. F., and also Yarmouth Encampment. He received the Grand Lodge degree at Lunenburg several years ago, but his close attention to business prevented him from attending the annual sessions of Grand Lodge. He was a very affectionate husband and father and one who took a deep interest in the welfare of his family.

Tuesday's Yarmouth Herald says: The funeral of Mr. Thomas R. Wyman took place from his late residence at Milton on Sunday afternoon. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. Mr. Seller, pastor of Wesley church. The funeral services were beautiful and numerous tributes were paid to the deceased, who lived the life of a saint.

She Was Wild With Pain.

From Willow Creek, Ont., Miss E. Derge writes: "A few years ago I was afflicted with rheumatism and was like a steel rod, and I was in great pain. I tried many remedies and was just wild with pain. I applied balm to my back and my pain was relieved. I was so much better that I was able to get up and move about. I was so much better that I was able to get up and move about. I was so much better that I was able to get up and move about."

Death of John Sinclair.

Yarmouth Herald: Port Maitland sustained a loss in the death of Mr. John Sinclair, which occurred on Sunday last. Mr. Sinclair was a native of Liverpool, N. S., but had lived for the greater part of his life at Port Maitland, where he gained the respect of all by his uprightness of character and his willingness to aid in forwarding any effort for the welfare of the place. He was a valued member of the Baptist church.

After a few days' illness from paralysis he passed away at the age of 80 years and 5 months. His wife predeceased him about five months. Mr. Sinclair was twice married and leaves by his first marriage four sons and two daughters, viz. Henry, of Port Maitland; Ernest H., of Yarmouth; Edward, of Westport; Jesse, of Boston; Mrs. Jacob K. Task, of Hesper, and another daughter in the United States.

Barely Lived Through It.

A terrible experience had Ed J. O'Connor of Saint Ste. Marie, "From both sides," writes: "I have been a constant sufferer from asthma and catarrh. My nose and throat were always stuffed up and I had a constant cough. When attacks came on I thought I couldn't live through the night. I would sit up gasping for breath and endure great distress. Catarrh was the cause of my illness. I was so weak that I was unable to do any work. I was so weak that I was unable to do any work. I was so weak that I was unable to do any work."

Married in St. John.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Horace L. Titus, 108 St. James street, St. John, at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, March 21st, when Mr. E. S. B. Gower, of Digby, and Miss Wynona Ferguson, formerly of Grandview, were united in marriage by Rev. Wilfred Gates of Queen Square Methodist church. The best man was Mr. Barton Dowling, a shipmate of the groom, and the bridesmaid was Miss Day, a close friend of the bride. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a handsome watch fob. The bride's present to the best man was a handsome stick pin set with diamonds. The wedding gifts were numerous, showing the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held by a host of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Canty will reside in St. John.

Patriotism

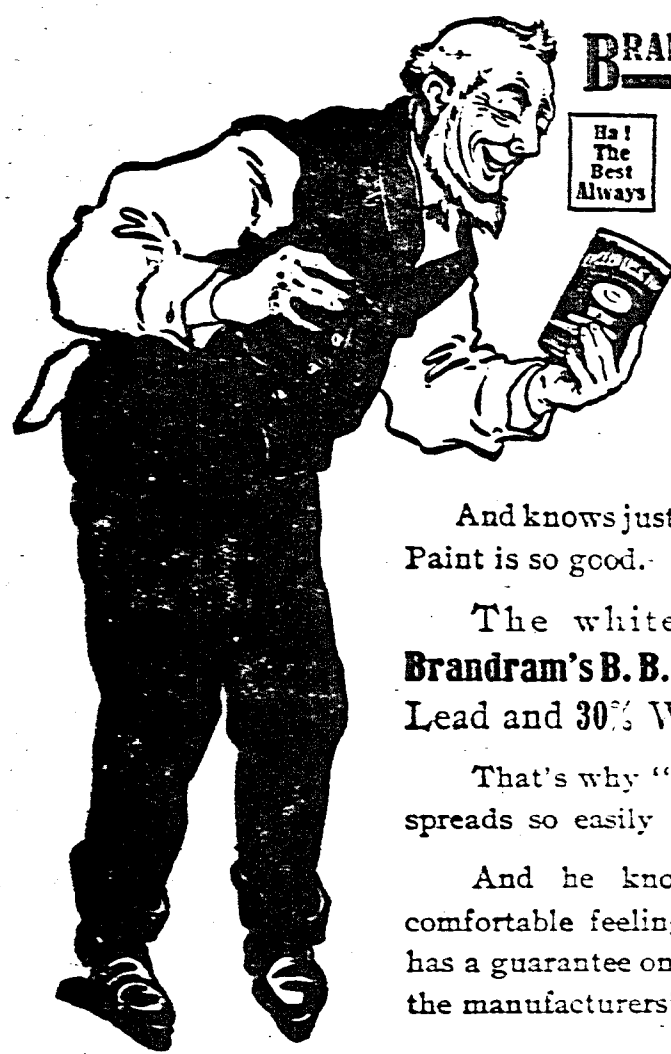

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware of. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a faint leader.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Yachting News

R. K. Y. C. HAS NOVEL ATTRACTION FOR NEXT SEASON'S SPORT.

[From the St. John Telegraph]
With preparations going on for three and perhaps more international sailing races on the Great Lakes, two at least, ocean races from Europe to America, and with nearly every yacht club on fresh water from Duluth to Montreal, and on the seacoast of both the Atlantic and the Pacific oceans, preparing elaborate programmes for carnivals, regattas and racing events, there is good reason to conclude that the majority of the population of the country living near the water have been infected by the aquatic sporting microbes.

Nor has St. John escaped the spread of the infection for all through the winter there has been a strong, but quiet, movement going on among yachtsmen and would-be yachtsmen, with the object in view of making the season of 1911 a memorable one in the annals of yachting and racing on the Kennebecasis and St. John rivers.

The members of the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club, which has always led in everything connected with yachting hereabouts, are taking a particular interest in these matters, and after many meetings, consultations, etc., are now completing the arrangements of a list of racing events, which will surpass anything ever attempted by this club in the past.

This club is in a particularly vigorous and prosperous condition. They own a fine clubhouse with large grounds at Millidgeville, which have just been considerably enlarged by the purchase of a large lot adjoining the clubhouse. On the property, and owned by the club, is a marine railway for the use of the members; also several large ice house, piers, landing stages, and many other conveniences. Their property is all paid for. There are no debts, and the membership, which is about the largest in the history of the club, is increasing. No doubt it will show a big jump during this season, for the club has just provided in its constitution for a junior membership, which gives to boys and young men between the ages of 16 and 20, by the payment of a very low annual fee, all the advantages and conveniences of the clubhouse, etc., at Millidgeville, and also opens to them all races, etc.

To encourage the younger members to become active and to take part in the sailing and racing game, a special class has been made for the so-called "sailing dory," a safe, seaworthy and fast type of boat, and one which can be purchased or built at a very low cost. The sailing committee of the club have arranged for this class a series of five races to take place during the summer, and very liberal cash prizes are offered for competition. A winner in this class will receive a prize that will almost cover the whole cost of his boat.

NEIL FERGUSON.

P. E. Island Lobster Fishermen.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., March 20.—In the Local Legislature a resolution introduced asking that the Dominion Government be requested not to apply to Prince Edward Island until after the opening of the lobster season, the regulations passed last December requiring space in the lair of the lobster traps, and the mesh in netting to be increased. The packers claim that 50 per cent of the lobsters on the south side, and 80 per cent on the north side now taken, are under eight inches. The new regulations mean the escape of this size lobster, and hence a serious loss to the industry.

CLARKE BROS.

FOR PROTECTION OF FISHERMEN

Debate in Parliament on Bay of Fundy Life-Saving Service.

DIGBY WANTS STEAMBOAT DURING WINTER SEASON. ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX NOW HEADQUARTERS OF VESSELS.

(St. John Globe)

When the house of Commons, on Tuesday, was in committee considering Marine and Fisheries Department, Mr. Brodeur, Digby, moved that the minister should be asked to consider the life saving service in the Bay of Fundy.

Mr. Brodeur—We have now two boats there instead of one, the Stanley and the Lunsdown. They are attached to the port of St. John, but they have instructions to place the boats at the disposal of the fishermen anywhere when required for their protection.

Mr. Jameson—Winter fishing has been prosecuted in the bay for many years, many people are interested and high class boats are used in carrying on this very valuable industry. Although the vessels are of high class, it is impossible to guard against the perils of the sea, and in a number of cases recently, fishermen have been killed and the vessels have been wrecked. I would suggest to the minister that as he has two boats at St. John, it would be advisable to transfer one across the bay and station her at Digby, where she would be available on short notice to the fishermen of Annapolis, Digby and Yarmouth counties. In that way a great deal of valuable time would be saved. With the boat at St. John it would be necessary to telegraph to that port and there would be considerable delay before she would reach the scene of the disaster. We cannot overstate the importance of having a boat at Digby to protect the winter fishermen; it is practically their only means of securing a livelihood, and they have to contend with the greatest hardships and difficulties and are today doing a very flourishing business. The ship could be safely accommodated at Digby as the vessels from the west coast do not come to St. John for the present. It would not cost more than to maintain the ship at St. John.

Mr. Brodeur—The two ships now in St. John are supposed to be attached to the New Brunswick side. Unfortunately, I find that there has been a system in the department for many years by which the Bay of Fundy is divided into two parts for the lighthouse and buoy service. The Nova Scotia side is supposed to be kept by the vessels from Halifax and the New Brunswick side by the vessels located at St. John. The department is considering the question whether it would be advisable to have a boat at Digby entirely under the control of the St. John division. This would give them control of the western part of Nova Scotia, the eastern part of that province being looked after by the boats at Halifax. We have always divided the lighthouses, situated on the Nova Scotia side from those on the New Brunswick side and we have had them looked after by the boats from Halifax. Of course, that is a drawback from the department's point of view and it is the committee's belief that it would be better to have the agencies it would be in accordance with the views which I have expressed. I do not know what there will be any feeling against it in the different provinces. I do not know what the people in Halifax would say if we should give the supervision of the lighthouses on the Nova Scotia side to the agency in New Brunswick. If that could be done it would, to a great extent, remove the views which have been expressed by the hon. member for Digby.

Mr. Jameson—I cannot see what difficulty the minister would have in the fact that the agency at Halifax has been in control of certain work in the Bay of Fundy on the Nova Scotia side. I do not see why it is a system which it would be better to get away from. Halifax is very remote from the Bay of Fundy as compared with St. John. St. John and Digby are both on the Bay of Fundy facing each other and ships from these ports will be able to cover the bay very extensively. I do not see why it is a matter which will suggest an unpleasant reminiscence, but I remember that when the question with regard to the loss of the "The St. Lawrence" was under consideration, the hon. member for St. John said that the ship was lost because of the lack of a boat stationed on the Nova Scotia side of the bay. I am sure that if one of these vessels had been stationed at Digby, a great deal of time would have been saved. I think the minister will find he will be able to accomplish very admirably the work which he has in hand by making the change that I suggest. If the minister desires to improve the efficiency of the department there should be no question where this suggestion should not be carried out.

Mr. Brodeur—We have an agency in New Brunswick which controls the Bay of Fundy on the New Brunswick side and also looks after the lights and buoys on the north shore of New Brunswick. It is very far away and it is very difficult to carry out the work we have to do there. If we came to an arrangement such as that suggested we would, of course, have to change the supervision of the lights on the north shore of New Brunswick to the agency in Prince Edward Island. The agent in Prince Edward Island has charge of the lights in that province, but he might more easily look after the lights on the New Brunswick side than the agent at St. John. As to the question of the bay, I am very glad that my hon. friend seems to agree with the views that I have expressed as to the possibility of putting the whole of the Bay of Fundy under the agency at St. John. If that meets with the general approval of the committee I would be very glad to take it into my serious consideration.

Mr. Croby—I understand my hon. friend from Digby (Mr. Jameson), his desire is to have a boat placed at Digby during the winter season.

Mr. Jameson—Yes, that is it. I think it would be an advantage to take the supervision of the lighthouses of Nova Scotia from the agency at Halifax and place the supervision of the whole of the western part of the province under the agency of St. John. My hon. friend wants to get a boat at Digby and no doubt he would like to have it come from St. John. I do not think it would make any difference to him if the boat came from Halifax or St. John during the winter season. It would be of no advantage to Digby if the supervision of the western part of Nova Scotia was placed under the agency at St. John, if they did not send a boat over to Digby. I appreciate how difficult a task it is for the Nova Scotia side, being fairly well looked after from the port of Halifax. There is no place in the Dominion where the Department of Marine and Fisheries has more accommodation than in Halifax and it does not cost very much either. There can be no reason to suggest that Digby would be any better off by the lack of the agency for the western part of Nova Scotia being transferred from Halifax to St. John if they did not get a boat at Digby. I quite agree with my hon. friend that it would be well if the minister could see his way clear to place a boat at Digby because quite a large fishing business is done there. I think the minister should consider how he could meet the views of my hon. friend from Digby whose request was to apply for the transfer of Annapolis and Yarmouth, the county of Yarmouth being a very important one in the fishing business. I think that the placing of a boat at Digby during the winter season would meet the desire of my hon. friend from Digby.

Mr. Jameson—Yes, it is a central point.

Mr. Croby—Therefore, I do not think there would be any great necessity for changing the agency at St. John. Mr. Brodeur—I think my hon. friend will admit that the lighthouses on the Bay of Fundy can be better looked after from St. John than from Halifax. Mr. Croby—I would not like to admit that without consideration. The cost is purchased from the Dominion Coast Guard, and there is no place where you can get your supplies so easily as in Halifax, and no place so pleasant to come to and to remain in. I think the minister makes the charge of that kind I would like him to take into serious consideration the disadvantages it would be to those who have been furnishing supplies for years.

Mr. Brodeur—The department has not reached a decision with regard to the change, and I was simply wishing to get an expression from the committee with regard to it. I will take into serious consideration what the hon. member for Halifax (Mr. Croby) has said.

Mr. Jameson—I hope the minister does not lose sight of what I consider to be the chief point in this matter. I am not interested, as my hon. friend from Halifax is, in the maintenance of the agency there in its present status, but I am very much interested in seeing that one of the two vessels on the Bay of Fundy shipping is increasing, and the aids to navigation are increasing in importance and number, and we hope that John Croby, the great national ports. I do not think that the status of the agency at Halifax or at St. John would be at all altered by stationing one of the boats at Digby, and my only wish to-night is to have an expression of opinion from the minister on that point regardless of the fact that the minister is a member of the St. John or Halifax in a minor way. I am not concerned with the convenience or profit of gentlemen living on the Nova Scotia side for the safety, welfare and comfort of those engaged in fishing and shipping on the Bay of Fundy.

Mr. Brodeur—These two ships are mainly devoted to the lighthouse and buoy service on the New Brunswick side of the Bay of Fundy, and the aids to navigation are increasing in importance and number, and we hope that John Croby, the great national ports. No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so gives health and strength to the whole body.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine or laxative compound, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

A Clean Mouth.

REFERRING TO THE INCREASE OF PROFANE AND BAD LANGUAGE, ALSO TO BAD BEHAVIOUR AND SACRILEGIOUS SENTIMENT GROWING AMONG COLLEGE STUDENTS.

(From the Montreal Witness, March 11th, 1911)

A Kemptville correspondent tells us of the formation there of a "Clean Mouth League" whose hope is to extend its beneficent operations from Halifax to Vancouver. Both of the places named—the newest and the oldest cities of the country—need it, as well as all places between. Lord Grey spoke in Toronto cogent words about the bad manners of Canadian young people, words that were only resented by those who do not know bad manners from good. Disrespect is our most noticeable fault, and one that breeds many others. Those who lack personal goodness to keep them straight are largely kept straight by a desire to be respectable, which is, respect for the opinion around them. An open delight in invoking the bad opinion of others is not only a bad symptom, but is in itself very demoralizing. Yet such is the attitude of those who use coarse and profane language. They are simply asking to be thought ill of. Such would seem to be the anxiety of some of the lads in one of the cities referred to, if we are to judge—and we are forced to do so—from a sheet sent us of selections of the vilest of doggerel from the programme of a students' entertainment in Halifax—as vile from an intellectual point of view as from that of morals. Cleverness of the crudest sort is as much lacking from these ditties as common decency. The slang in them is purely "American." "Tun a bad one from Dalhousie; I hit the pipe, the cops I fight; I live the life that 'guy.' There is much of this sort of vaunting—very incoherent; also a good deal whose only quality is sacrilegiousness: "Hallelujah, you're a bum; Hallelujah, bum again; Hallelujah, give us a hand out; Revive us again." Religion is travestied in every form. The parents who make sacrifices to send their boys to college that they may make something of themselves must feel stabbed to the heart by finding that this blasphemy against everything they hold sacred is what their boys are learning there, and taking more interest in than in anything that tends to their betterment. They must feel directly attacked when they hear that fathers and mothers, pay the bills, and we have all the fun, so what in the—do we care. Could anything be more actually degrading to them? We wish all success to the "Clean Mouth League," and to every one who has in his heart to make our schools and our families schools of reverence for all that is noble and holy.

OLIVEINE EMULSION

Invigorating - Tasteless - Strengthening - Nutritious

OLIVEINE EMULSION is a most palatable preparation, containing all the virtues of Cod Liver Oil without its nauseous grease. It can be freely taken and retained by the most delicate stomach, no unpleasant or injurious effect whatever following its use.

It will promptly relieve, and if its use is continued, cure Chronic Bronchitis and all Pulmonary affections, Hoarseness, and Coughs, Colds, Tonsillitis, General Debility or Constitutional weakness of young and old, indeed at any age of life, night Sweats, Hysteria, Insomnia, Nervous Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Dyspepsia, Anemia, Prostration following Fevers, Diphtheria, Debility at change of life, Blood disorders and any other complaint traceable directly or indirectly to an impoverished condition of the Blood.

It is a specific in Throat and Lung diseases. OLIVEINE EMULSION will so invigorate the system that the germs of the diseases will not gain a foothold, as it is only on the run down weakened system that they can develop. Rich red blood and abounding health is the best safeguard, and these can be obtained and retained by the use of OLIVEINE EMULSION.

A brief description of the following ingredients contained in OLIVEINE EMULSION will serve to show its remarkable combination. It has long been admitted that the most valuable remedies known to medical science for the treatment of Pulmonary complaints, Lung, Throat, Bronchial and other wasting diseases, is Syrup of Hypophosphites, extract of Malt and Fluid extract of Wild Cherry Bark. It is safe to say that in all wasting diseases the medical profession has obtained more satisfactory results from the use of Hypophosphites than any other preparation known. The extract of malt is nourishing and stimulating. Fluid extract of Wild Cherry Bark is recognized as an excellent adjunct in the treatment of Pulmonary affections. It helps to improve the appetite and strengthen the digestive organs. OLIVEINE EMULSION is incomparably the most efficient remedy before the public today. It is an ideal Tonic and Nutrient.

Experienced physicians prescribe lots of food in wasting or nervous diseases, OLIVEINE EMULSION, produces an appetite, helps digestion and enables you to receive the full benefit of all your food. Run down business men and women, over-worked mothers, delicate boys or girls will show permanent improvement from the use of this preparation.

DEAR SIR:—

I thought I would write and tell you the good your "Oliveine Emulsion" has done for me. I was run down and could not do a hard day's work. I heard of "Oliveine Emulsion" and got a bottle. The first dose did me a lot of good, and I have since taken four bottles and now weight 207 lbs. I shall never do without it in my house as long as I can get it. I have told a number of my neighbors about your "Oliveine Emulsion." Nothing ever came my way which did me as much good and I appreciate it very much.

GENTLEMEN:—

I had a severe attack of Lagrippe this Spring which left me in a weak and run down condition. I had no appetite and hardly strength enough to walk. I purchased a bottle of your "Oliveine Emulsion" and I had only taken it a few days when I felt quite well again, in fact when I had taken only the third dose I noticed a change.

Yours truly,
Muniac, N. B. (Signed) MRS. WALTER WRIGHT.

DEAR SIR:—

I would like to say I think the "Oliveine Emulsion" is splendid. My little daughter had a hard dry cough and had no appetite whatever. Before she had taken the "Oliveine Emulsion" a week the cough was decidedly looser and her appetite had greatly improved. I followed the directions and implicitly and honestly believe "Oliveine Emulsion" is all it is recommended.

Sincerely yours,
