Welcome to the Digital DIGBY COURIER

1877-1978

100th Birthday

The hundredth anniversary of the Digby Weekly Courier has brought to mind some fond memories as contained in the following historical chapter of the writer. But first, I wish to congratulate the current editor of the Courier, Mrs. J.M. (Edith) Wallis, for a job well done over the years and still being well done, good service rendered with great fortitude.

According to any record, I have at hand, the Digby Courier, in one hundred years of publication, was controlled under the same family management for 42 years, 1931 to 1973, under the control of Wallis Print Limited. The late J.J. Wallis became editor of The Courier the second time, in 1929, and at the same time of the business, which he had been running for some time previously and which became Wallis Print Limited sometime between 1929 and 1931.

I well remember the last year of the twenties when I worked in the office of the son with the husband and father of the late J.J. Wallis, the Courier. Sometime in 1928 or early 1929, the late J.M. Wallis (Mac), son of "J.J." engaged me to work every day after school hours, Saturdays, and for some months after finishing school. The place of work was in the building of the present Digby town hall on First Avenue. J.J. Wallis then worked occasionally at the print shop but mostly across the street at the Courier office which was then located on land in the general area where The Royal Bank of Canada is now.

Wallis Job Print operated in 1929 with a staff of four consisting of J.J. Wallis, J.M. Wallis, Miss Eva Haynes, who later became Mrs. George Kicup, and myself. I was engaged as a printer in the left Eva's job was to run the printing plant but mostly at the Courier office. "Mac" worked nearly full time at all the different jobs at the Job Print, and I worked at various duties, most of the time being spent at operating printing presses.

We worked ten-hour days, six days a week. "J.J." and "Mac" sometimes worked overtime. I worked only the regular hours being paid a weekly wage which was comparatively good for those times and my lack of experience. I received four or five dollars a week for working after school hours to six o'clock and on Saturday all day, and nine dollars a week for full weeks after finishing school. A two or three dollar a week raise was offered to me in the fall of 1929 for me to stay on at printing, but I had made up my mind to enter a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, starting salary of $300. The bank salary figured out about the same per hour as for the printing job. Nevertheless, the congenial atmosphere of the printing plant those days, and, experience however short, were helpful and appreciated by me.

"J.J." was very jovial in his occasional trip to the Job Print and did considerable kidding all in good fun. "Mac" was a witty person who mixed in a good natured sarcasm now and then for one reason or another. Eva most always had good answers to all the kidding she was called upon to take, and, generally held her own in a quiet sort of way, always busy setting type. We four all got along very well indeed. However, I do remember that some days did seem long and weary because of the monotony of some repetitious jobs.

In spite of the great demand for printing those last boom days of the twenties, business generally being brisk, it looked to me that people had to work long and hard to make any decent profit. There was including treatment of the hands. However, nails and finger ends were used and I was soon back to work.

Now and then a printing job had a dose on parchment paper which required a special kind of printers' ink which smelled very bad those days. I always dreaded it when "Mac" would do that job on the largest press, in spite of the fact that we always opened an outside door to lessen the effects on the constitution.

One of the jobs I had to do, being the junior and printers' devil on the staff, was to clean up now and then. One day not long after I started my job at the printing plant, I decided to clean the floor that apparently hadn't been cleaned in some considerable time.

"J.J." came along and said, "how are you making out Vince?" I assured him that I thought I was beginning to see the floor. "J.J." laughed very heartily, he thought the remark pretty good and suitable.

Sometimes the gasoline engine or a piece of machinery would refuse to work, and after "Mac" the fix-it man had patiently worked for a certain length of time to get it going again, without results, "Mac" would then stand back and cuss quite strenuously, then he would immediately start working. "See," he would say, "all it needed was a bit of cussing."

On other occasions when some gadget refused duty for me and, seemed to be broken, "Mac" would say, "use a little oil," and sure enough, often that is all it took. How often since, have I thought of the value of that remark and the actual need of "oil" in many life situations, applied at the right time, right place and, in the right way.

Other things that sort of stick in my memory and come to mind now and then are, like the time I told "Mac" of four teenage boys who in the spring season of 1929 got together just before dark one evening and decided to initiate the newly built outdoor Pines Hotel swimming pool which had just been filled with water. Clothes were taken off near the road just east of the pool; nobody else seemed to be around except the four boys; no thought or time for bathing suits up to the pool they went. They stood on the edge of the pool and looked at the chilly water, one soon jumped in, the rest quickly followed and across the pool they swam. "Mac" listened to the story and hardly said anything, but the next "Digby Courier" had a good story on the episode. The heading of the story went something like, "Four Boy Scouts Officially Open Pines Hotel Swimming Pool." Who were the four? Many years later they are known as: the late Dr. Earl H. Anderson, veteran of two wars (second world and Korean), was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sidney L. Smith, now prominent druggist for many years in Digby; Clayton D. Snow, Digby wholesale lobster king merchant; and myself.

As a young teenager I used to like doing some writing about different events interesting to myself and mostly for myself. One day "Mac" said to me "how about writing your version of the story told about 'The Marooning of Jerome'." I had heard and read at least two somewhat different stories about the man who was found marooned on a beach at some point on the French Shore of St. Mary's Bay, Digby County. When found this man's tongue had been cut out and his legs quite freshly amputated, were surgically well dressed and bound. He was presumably left by some vessel before dawn one morning, all for some mysterious reason.

"Jerome" appeared to have been a man of some considerable social standing and possibly of some considerable wealth. However the only thing the man could or would ever say after being found and cared for by some family in the French shore was, something that sounded like the word "Jerome". He either could not, or, would not, write anything about who he was or why he was left the way he was. Well, it was, and is, one of Digby County's mystery stories, and, different ideas have been expressed over the years concerning this man. However my response to "Mac" was, I felt no urge to write anything more or different about this man. The mystery seemed to have been very well explored in the mind of many people, and, he was a sort of curiosity for many people who visited where he lived for many years.

Three years later I was quite a young man, and I was back and forth, led a boat clanking noise, powered by a small engine, and I remember it as "Jerome", and as I remember it as "Jerome". "J.J." was noted for his sense of humor and his ability to make people laugh. In 1928 during the time Mr. Wallis was editor of the Scott Act (Prohibition Law) he was about and advocated by some people, and attached a boys' conference to the event.

Digby 172 Years Ago

Compiled by David Sanford

From the files of the Courier of January 23, 1867, the following account has been copied concerning Digby in 1800.

"Among a number of old newspapers kindly sent to us by friends is a copy of the Saint John Gazette of May, 1802, says the Telegraph and among other advertisements contained in the issue before us is one describing the town and township of Digby, and offering for sale certain lots in the town. In this area we are told the township of Digby extends from the Gulf of Annapolis westward to the extremity of the province of Nova Scotia, and contains about 130,000 acres." The town plot is thus described:

"The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of St. Mary's Bay. This laid out from the water's edge, partly on level ground and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having with an eastern aspect, a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in where it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New York in 1783, the most of whom went early to farms, or, moving to older countries, left the whole side to be bought proved by about who now reside detached, built dwellings with orchards, and some fishery and. It has communal parts of the common provisions in a cheap, built readily to be from many circumstances, probability of place of some shipbuilding, the West India a cheap and of residence. This advertised at the December, 1802, were to be a No. 100.

free trade with the U.S.A., especially with the New England States. The question was then debated by some Digby High School students one of which was "J.J.'s" daughter, Florence (now Mrs. Melvin O. Tibert, Freeport, Digby Co.) Some days after the debate a man from some part of Nova Scotia came to the printing shop looking for Florence, one of the successful debaters; I had the impression that this man was interested politically but, maybe I was wrong.

Well, I felt that I had learned considerable from my short experience at "The Wallis Job Print". I was learning to do beginner jobs, receiving some knowledge about things like: embossing, stapling, perforating, counting, cutting and trimming paper stock, mixing inks for certain desired colors, and so forth, but, the only experience I had at setting type was just enough to make a "pi", the printers name for a confused mess.

There was a taste of trying to sell job printing outside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for printed personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it, made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular house, and got an order, but,

Years and experiments with. The last time I saw of personal interest, after one day when he sent and talked with him was, after one day when he had a week he wanted me to visit him at his home. He had recently returned from the Novatoch after a long stay. I made the visit and stayed for a week and experienced with.

THE EUROPEAN WAR

Austrians Lost Forty Thousand Men in Past Week.

AS A RESULT OF THE RUSSIAN COUNTER ATTACK AROUND GOMBURG—IN THE WESTERN THEATRE, THE RUSSIAN ARE PREPARING IN THEIR ASSAULTS IN THE NEIGHBOURHOOD OF ARRA.

GENOVA, Switzerland, via Paris, June 28.—A dispatch to the Genova Tribune from Innsbruck, Austria, dealing with the fighting in Galicia, states that, according to estimates made by the Austrians, "the Russian counter attacks around Lemberg the Austrians have lost 10,000 men since June 23rd."

The dispatch continues: "The Russians are resting strongly on the left bank of the Zolota. The Austrians have begun a general powerful offensive on the Danube. The Russians have been obliged to retreat, which is difficult owing to the rain and mud."

FORCED ACROSS FRONTIER.

LONDON, June 29.—Driven back over their own frontier north of Lemberg, and forced to cross the River Lippa in Southwest Galicia, the Russian armies continue to retreat before the Austro-Germans along a front of approximately 250 miles, about equal the distance between Arras and the Vosges.

The Berlin official communication centres progress by the Russian troops in virtually the entire Southwest, although violent fighting is still in progress beyond the Gnilla Lippa, which joins the Danube at Biala.

Having forced a passage of this stream General Von Linsingen's army is generally outside the railway running from Haler to Lemberg, and now doubtless is aiming at the line which runs from Lemberg to Odessa, through Tarnopol.

It seems evident that Germany is bent on further punishment for the Russians before relaxing the intensity of her Galician campaign, but with the Russians against the frontier, the German will have to rely almost solely on road transport and their strain will necessarily be slower.

BRITISH PRESS HOPEFUL.

The British press is still voicing the hope that the Russians will soon find a tenable line and deliver a counter blow, but there is a note of anxiety in nearly all the accounts, together with the warning that either the capture of Warsaw or the seizure of the great railway lines which supply it, would be disastrous to Russian aims, and is already followed by another German offensive in the West.

Notwithstanding the French attacks around Arras, it is argued that the Germans must feel comparatively secure in the west, else they would not have risked their tremendous offensive against the Russians. The French are persistent in their assaults in the neighborhood of Arras, but without appreciable change in the situation.

REFUSED GERMAN ATTACKS.

PETERSBURG, June 29, via London.—The following Russian official statement concerning the progress of hostilities was given out here tonight.

"In the Shavli region we repulsed three German attacks. On the fronts of the Nistron and Narow rivers and on the left of the Vistula, calm prevails."

"The advance of strong enemy forces along the entire front between the sources of the Vistula River in the Government of Lublin and the West Bug continues, and here on rear guard positions in the region of Tomaszow our troops, on June 27 and 28, repulsed several desperate German attacks."

"The enemy army on the Dniester, reinforced by fresh German troops quite recently thrown into this region, fought the fiercest of attacks on the front Bukachewitz-Martynoff to three days ago, but our troops repulsed them and our retreat to the Gnilla Lippa River, but failed in this object and sustained enormous losses."

ITALIANS ARE ADVANCING BY TWO ROADS. URBINO, Italy, June 25, via Paris.—Slightly, owing to the difficulties of mountain warfare, but steadily and with grim determination Italian forces are advancing both from the east along the Pella Valley and from the north through Predil Pass, to wards the Gnilla Lippa River, but failed in this object and sustained enormous losses."

From Javorok, which is about five thousand feet high, the heavy artillery of the Italians is sweeping the valley floor as far as Pleszow, which lies for miles away in a direct line. The big guns dominate the whole valley of the Upper Lippa, and threaten Predil Pass. Though the defenses did not prevent Napoleon from passing this position in 1797, these fortifications and also those in the Pella Valley are strengthened and co-ordinated in 1915. The Hermann and Raibel forts have been provided with the best modern artillery of the latest range.

The plan of the Cadorna, Italian Commander in Chief, seems to be to attempt an invasion of Austria through the region around Tarvis, threatening the right wing of the Austrian army having headquarters at Lienz, and obtaining an immediate counter-relief from the pressure of the Austrian forces massed along the Tolaino Gorizia Trieste front.

British and French Hold Ground at Dardanelles, Inflicting Heavy Losses on Enemy.

STONEMAN DEFENCE OF ALLIED TROOPS OF GALLOPOLI DISHARKERS TURKS IN ATTEMPT TO REGAIN LOST POSITIONS—FRENCH WARSHIP SINKS ALEXANDRIA EFFECTIVELY.

LONDON, July 7, 8 p. m.—The Turkish forces completely failed in the big attack which they began on July 4, against the Anglo-French forces on the Dardanelles, according to a statement issued today by the British Official Press Bureau, which added that the Turks lost heavily. The text of the statement follows:

"General Sir Ian Hamilton reports that the night of July 3, 4, was a m. in the northern section, but at 4 a. m. the enemy started a heavy bombardment of the trenches. All the guns previously used against us, and some new ones, were in action, but the bombardment did away about 6 a. m. without doing much damage. During the bombardment about twenty 11.2 inch shells were dropped from a Turkish battleship in the straits.

"In the southern section the Turks kept up a heavy musketry fire along the whole line during the night, and did not leave their trenches. At 5 a. m. their batteries started the most energetic bombardment that has yet been experienced. At least 5,000 rounds of artillery ammunition were expended by them.

"Meanwhile this shelling of our line on the peninsula proved the stimulus to a general attack on our front with special efforts at certain points. The principal effort was made at the junction of the Royal Naval Division section with that of the French.

"Here, at 7.30 a. m., the Turks drove back our advanced troops and assaulted a portion of the line held by the Royal Naval Division. Some fifty Turks gained a footing in our trenches here, nevertheless some men of the Royal Naval Division held on to the summit of the mound which had retired, and after a short time the Turkish forces were driven back to the trench again.

"Another attack on the right of the Twenty Ninth Division section was practically wiped out by rifle and machine gun fire.

"On our left the Turks massed in a ravine, to the northeast of our newly captured trenches, and attempted several attacks. None of these was able to get home, owing to the steadiness of our troops and our effective artillery support. The bombardment died down towards 11 a. m., though it was resumed at intervals.

"Not only was the result a complete failure, but while our losses were negligible and no impression was made on our line, the enemy added a large number to his recent very heavy casualties. It seems plain from the disclosed nature of his attack that he is finding it difficult to drive his infantry forward to face our fire.

Deveau, nee Honoinie, had died at her home in Moncton, New Brunswick, after a long illness to this vale of tears and entered the land of everlasting rest at the ripe old age of 78 years. The late Mrs. Deveau was a native of the Maritime Provinces, and in fairly good health and no one thought the end so near. ## Fish, the Fisherman and the Consumer who wants to know he is not paying undue profits; and no less are they of importance to the fisherman, whose future market must depend in a great measure upon the product of his industry, being available to the consumer at fair and reasonable prices.

If it is industry of real importance in the economic life of the country is being neglected, or unduly exploited or if a food supply of great dietetic value is being so dealt with as to prevent it from becoming generally available, under the best conditions, for the use of the people of the country, it is in the hope that some means may be found to remedy so undesirable a state of affairs, that I have brought this subject forward.

No doubt at the next session of the House a parliamentary enquiry will be begun. Meanwhile, those who are desirous of helping can assist materially by preparing to supply information and practical suggestions which will tend to facilitate and render use of the work of the Fisheries Committee.

Khaki League

WHAT IS MOST REQUIRED AT THE GREAT MILITARY CAMP AT VALCARTIER.

One of the pressing needs of the great military camp at Valcartier is the establishment of some place for the amusement of the boys when off duty. Of course, the Government supplies them with everything to eat and wear, but it does not provide recreation rooms. When drill is over, on rainy days and dark nights, there is no place for the boys to go except to their tents.

The Khaki League of Montreal, was formed last winter for the purpose of establishing recreation rooms for the soldiers mobilizing for the front and for caring for the sick and wounded during the period of convalescence.

The Patron H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, on a recent visit to Montreal made a careful personal inspection of the work of the League and opened its first convalescent home.

Three club rooms were opened in Montreal and have been successful in contributing to the material well-being of the men, by giving them comfortable quarters where they could obtain light refreshments in the way of coffee, tea, sandwiches, cake, etc., play games, read the latest papers and magazines, write letters and meet their brother soldiers.

The rooms were continually filled and that they were much appreciated by the men, is proved by the numerous letters of thanks received by the secretary and members of the committee.

Club rooms on similar lines have been established in Ottawa and Quebec by committees of the citizens of those places, which have proved to be equally successful.

The Montreal League are now undertaking to establish a branch at Valcartier Camp. This is at the particular request of the Camp Commandant, Col. Hughes.

It has been suggested that, as a great number of Maritime Province men are in training at Valcartier, the people of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island would like to help in this work.

Perhaps you, who are now reading of the work of this excellent organization, have a son or brother or friend there? You can help to give him many pleasant hours of recreation by contributing to the League.

The men do not receive this as a charity or anything of that sort. The funds, raised by the League, all go into equipment, providing rooms and furniture. For the refreshments the men pay bare cost. There are no salaries for supervision or to any of the officers.

Many subscriptions of one dollar have been received, as one dollar constitutes a membership in the League. A subscription of fifty dollars or over enrolls a foundation member. The members of the Quebec committee of management are Mr. Lorenza Evans and Mrs. J. C. McLimont.

It is hoped that a generous response to this appeal may be forthcoming, as of necessity there will be a heavy expenditure required to open the recreation at Valcartier which are bound to be of great assistance and benefit to our soldiers.

Subscriptions should be sent to the Secretary, Mr. Austin Stead, 80 St. Francis Xavier Street, Montreal.

Her Own Idea
A certain little girl was discovered by her mother engaged in a spirited encounter with a small friend, who had got considerably worked into the engagement.

"Don't you know, dear," said the mother, "that it is very wicked to be so busy with a small friend, who has got so considerably worked into the engagement."

"Well, perhaps it was," the child admitted, "but kicking her shins was entirely my own idea."

SHARP ATTACK REPULSED

Dangerous Condition Relieved Just in Time By "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. F. J. CAVEN
632 Gerrard St. East, Toronto.

For two years, I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas in The Stomach. It afterwards attacked my Heart, and I had pains all over the body, so I could hardly move. I tried all kinds of medicines but none of them did me any good. At last, acting on the advice of a friend, I decided to try "Fruit-a-tives." I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to anyone suffering from Indigestion, no matter how acute.

FRED J. CAVEN.
Simple Indigestion often leads to Heart Attacks, Catarrh of the Stomach and constant distress of mind and body. ## Accurate Artillery Fire Aids French

POSITION HELD BY GERMANS SINCE BATTLE OF MARNE CONSIDERED IMPREGNABLE.

PARIS, July 18.—A French official eye witness at the front has sent a despatch giving an account of the success of the entente allies in the battle of Fontenelle in the Vosges. The scene of the conflict is in the neighborhood of the village of Senones and the forest of Ormont and the ground is described as being cut by deep ravines.

It was in this region, says the observer, that the Germans, after the battle of the Marne, took up a position on a summit commanding the surrounding countryside. This hill was height No. 627, which is known as Fontenelle. On June 22, after severe losses, the enemy succeeded in occupying Fontenelle, says the observer. "Although we counter attacked vigorously taking 142 prisoners, the enemy held the summit." General Van Kudenzen, in a report dated July 3 said that after a careful inspection of the German works and trenches, he firmly believed that the hill had been transformed into an impregnable fortress, and that its capture would necessitate tremendous losses.

"On July 8, all necessary preparations for the attack had been completed. The same night, at midnight, three columns, aided by a remarkably accurate artillery fire, took a portion of the enemy's trenches. In the centre we also attacked, forcing the enemy back to the west of Lannois, in ten minutes. The attack on the left progressed more slowly, but aided by gathering darkness, took possession of the northwestern portion of the hill. "At daybreak not only the whole of the summit had been retaken, but a majority of the German defences as far as the road from Lannois to Woyen Montier. Thanks to our artillery, all preparations for counter attacks were immediately stopped.

"During the battle on July 8 and 9, we took 881 prisoners, including 21 officers. When questioned, the prisoners gave great praise to our excellent artillery marksmanship, saying: 'We did not believe there could be such a hell of fire.'

The vessel has been sold for Atlantic service, but as she was too long to pass through the canals between Chicago and the sea, she was cut in two. At Quebec the halves will be reunited and the voyage to New York will be made later.

Italy's King Faces Danger.

WATCHING ITALIAN SOLDIER CUT WIRE ENTANGLEMENT, REFUSED TO RETIRE TO SAFETY.

UDINE, Italy, via Paris, July 18.—King Victor Emmanuel recently stood his ground while he and a group of officers were the targets of Austrian gunners, refusing to retire to a place of safety because he was interested in watching a young Italian soldier who was trying to cut the wire entanglements in front of the Austrian trenches.

The king marked the progress of the wire cutter attentively from the time the latter let the Italian lines. The ruler and the officers about him attracted the attention of the Austrians, who began to shell them. The king was advised to retire from the spot, but declined.

For a short time the Austrians did not see the wire cutter, but when they did discover him they made him the centre of a terrific fire. The soldier, however, redoubled his efforts and accomplished his work, returning to his own lines unharmed amid the cheers of his comrades. The king wished to congratulate the daring youth and the soldier was brought before him. When asked his name the young man gave it, adding that he was a leader of the republican movement in Romagna, which tried to overthrow the monarchy in June, 1914. Now, he declared, he was determined to shed his last drop of blood for his king, the first soldier of the land.

Submarine Outsped.

BRITISH STEAMER CHASED BY UNDERSEA BOAT, WHICH FIRED SEVERAL SHOTS.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Passengers aboard the British passenger liner Orinda which reached here today, said that a submarine attempted to torpedo the vessel at six o'clock in the morning of July 9th, and failing in its effort fired six shells at the steamer, none of which took effect.

Passengers were on the deck when the attack occurred. Baron Von Rosenkrantz of Denmark, one of the passengers, reached the deck as the Orinda was being fired from her assailant and witnessed the attack.

The submarine chased the steamer, it was said, for a considerable time, and finally abandoned pursuit.

The next day a meeting of the passengers was held in the saloon and a resolution, adopted by twenty-three of them, was handed to Captain Taylor, expressing their "heartfelt appreciation and admiration of the masterly manner in which you manoeuvred and handled your steamer during the sudden and deliberate attack made upon it on the morning of July 9th, at six a. m. by a German submarine."

Five Aeroplanes For Britain From Newfoundland.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., July 10.—Gov. Davidson, at a meeting tonight of the Patriotic Association, announced that the campaign launched last Tuesday for the presentation of two aeroplanes to the British army from Newfoundland, had, at a cost of $11,000 each, resulted in subscriptions for the week, of over $15,000. The balance will be raised by August 4th. Gov. Davidson stated that William, Harry and Robert Reid, three brothers, composing the Reid Newfoundland company, owners of the railway system, were contributing three aeroplanes on their own account.

Canadian Rewarded For Bravery.

BRANTFORD, July 18.—Private Robt. Little, a Brantford man, with the 10th Battalion, has been awarded the distinguished conduct medal, according to word received here today. Little, who was a member of the Twenty-Fifth Brantford Dragoons, and a native of this city, was awarded the honor for conspicuous bravery in drawing maps of the enemy's positions under heavy fire, while doing scout duty in fierce fighting around Ypres. The information he obtained, it transpires, proved invaluable to the Canadian division.

British Bare on Short Time.

LONDON, July 19.—The first order made by the Central Control Board for the liquor traffic has been made for the area of New Haven, near Brighton. It is an important transport area but not an industrial region. The order restricts the sale of liquor to four and one-half hours daily and four hours on Sunday, with heavy penalties for contravention of the order.

Mr. General Eubank expressed his pleasure at learning that two of the Canadian battalions at Shorncliffe had "dry" messes.

Bulgaria Cuts off Traffic with Turkey

LONDON, July 19, 329 a. m.—"A ministerial order was issued today," says the France Sofia, Bulgaria correspondent, under date of last Thursday, "definitely suspending railway communication with Turkey."

The step appears to have been taken in consequence of continued Turkish attacks with traffic, and may probably be regarded as marking the collapse of the negotiations for the cessation to Bulgaria of the Dedeagach railway.

The Allies Attacking Heavily.

LONDON, July 19.—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Athens, dated Sunday, says: "Heavy fighting continues on the Gallipoli Peninsula. The allies are attacking vigorously along the whole front. Each attack is preceded by a bombardment from heavy French artillery, and the guns of the allies. All the attacks are reported to have been successful, but there is no definite news concerning them."

Submarine Sinks Russian Steamer.

LONDON, July 18.—A Dutch vessel on Saturday laddered at Aberdeen, Scotland, was crewed by the Russian merchant Balwa, of Riga, which was sunk by a German submarine sixty miles east-northeast of the Shetland Islands on Friday. The Balwa was bound from Blyth, Eng., for Archangel, Russia, with a thousand tons of coal.

"A typist who trained on a typewriter, insisted that she could not use any other machine, but after a two weeks' trial on one of my Remingtons, she is now an enthusiastic Remington typewriter."

THE EUROPEAN WAR

Tensions Paying Dear For Advance on Warsaw.

REMARKS UNDER AN UNFRIENDLY ACT—NEW U. S. NOTE STATES PLAINLY IN WHAT LIGHT GOVERNMENT REGARDS FURTHER LOSS OF AMERICAN LIVES.

LONDON, July 21, 10:15 p.m.—A series of great battles, the result of which will seal the fate of Warsaw, is being fought to the north, west and south of that city. Having success fully retired to positions on the rivers, and being well flanked by fortresses, the Russians have turned and are fighting desperately to stem the Austro-German advance.

To the north, on the river Narw, they delivered yesterday three fierce counter-attacks from the fortresses of Iwan, Pultusk and Novo Goriavsk. The Germans, who had taken one out of Warsaw, repulsed these counter-attacks, according to the official report received from Berlin tonight, but are severely being unable to make any further progress southward.

Immediately to the west of Warsaw, on what is known as the Blonie Groje line, the Russians have suffered a reverse and are retreating toward the Vistula. Further south, the army of Gen. Von Woychik is making progress toward the same river, which has been reached at one point.

To the south of Ivanogorod, Field Marshal Von Mackensen, who is directing the offensive between the Vistula and the Bug has reached the Russian line and here the greatest of all battles is being fought—for the possession of the Lublin Cholm railway.

On the resistance the Russians are able to offer along this front, where the Austro-Germans are making their biggest effort, probably depends the success or failure of the Austro-German operations.

KAISER PLANS TRIUMPHANT ENTRY.

Apparently the Austro-Germans feel pretty certain of the outcome, for it is said that Emperor William, who is at Posen, has sent for the empress in order to make a state entry into the Polish capital when it falls.

Things are moving a little more quickly in Courland, where the Germans claim to have met with success. Along the coast, bringing them within striking distance of Riga and the roads which supply that town from the south.

There is another battle in progress along the borders of Desabarabia, but how this is going the official communications do not say.

The Germans have made another bid for the valley of the Rhen, in the Vosges. They have delivered several attacks which have been partially successful and have captured the heights dominating that valley, from the east. About the same time French airmen dropped bombs on Colmar. Beyond this the German attack in the Argonne, which the Germans claim met with success, and another German attack in the Forest of Apremont, which the French assert was repulsed, only artillery engagements have occurred along the western front.

The Italian offensive on the Isonzo continues and Rome reports further progress, particularly on the Carso Plateau.

When the South Wales miners learned of the settlement of the strike, thousands of them returned to work, and tonight all the night shifts are working.

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The United States has decided to inform Germany that further loss of American lives as the result of German submarine warfare in contravention of the principles of international law will be regarded as an unfriendly act. The discussion of principles is virtually ended.

The American government will now warn Germany of the interpretation it will place on future transgressions of American rights.

In the new note the United States assumes that Germany already has admitted the principle that passenger ships must be removed to a place of safety before destroying an unresisting merchantman at a prize.

Taking the position, therefore, that the two governments are agreed in principle, the United States views it as incumbent upon Germany to make her submarine practice conform with the accepted principles of international law. Any deviation in actual practice leading to the loss of American lives, is then, in the opinion of the United States, to be viewed as an unfriendly act.

The action which the United States might subsequently take is not indicated, but in diplomatic usage the phrase "unfriendly act" has always carried with it an implication of finality, leading often to a severance of friendly relations.

Officials generally were secretive concerning the treatment of the Lusitania case in the new note, but it was believed the request for reparation would be renewed and this issue kept before the two governments a subject of first importance in their future relations.

GERMAN PROPOSALS REJECTED.

The note will reject Germany's proposals that American vessels be given complete immunity when not carrying contraband, and for the betterment of American registry of four foreign vessels for transatlantic traffic, provided they did not carry contraband.

PAUL YATES, DIGBY

Already Planning Its Winter Work.

THE DIGBY GLEE CLUB MAY BE HEARD IN CONCERTS THIS SUMMER.

The Digby Glee Club, organized a little over a year ago, with Mr. Paul Yates as Director, now comprises about 20 male members, and two lady accompanists, with two honorary members, Prof. Spinks and Mr. MacKenzie, pastors of the Digby Baptist and Wesleyan churches, respectively, both of whom are excellent musicians. The enthusiasm of the leading members and the zeal of the Director have combined to establish the Club on a permanent footing. Its growth has been steady, its repertoire well marked, and its development of hidden talent surprising

Canadian Ammunition Makers Have Not Been Snubbed, Says Curzon

LORD CURZON in the House of Lords a few days ago gave indignant denial to the assertion that Canadian munition makers had been snubbed. Offers had been received from time to time from Canadian firms and had been referred to the Dominion Government. Direct negotiations had not taken place with firms, as it was arranged that such negotiations should proceed through the Canadian Government. A contract with the Morgans had been entered into because direct dealing with firms in the States had proved unsatisfactory. The Morgans had not a complete monopoly even in the States. Lord Curzon added that the Government desired to obtain all possible material from the Dominions. Canadian munition makers, he said, had not gone to the United States for component parts. Delivery from Canada, he said, had been exceptionally bad.

The Nelson Spirit Still Lives. Scores of officers and men are recommended for promotion in the despatches concerning the fight on Heligoland the following being some of the feats performed by the men in whom the spirit of Nelson still lives. Commander Frank P. Rose (H.M.S. Laurel) commanded his vessel throughout the early part of the action, and, after being wounded in both legs, remained on the bridge until 6 p.m., showing great devotion to duty. Albert Edmund Sellens, able seaman (H.M.S. Laurel), remained at his post at the fore top gun until the vessel was disabled, and, although wounded in the arm, and then rendered first-aid in a very able manner before being attended to himself. Chief Petty Officer James Samuel Beadle (H.M.S. Liberty) remained at his post at the fore top gun for an hour after being wounded in the kidneys. Stephen Pritchard, stoker petty officer (H.M.S. Laurel), very gallantly dived into the sea to immediately after a shell had exploded there, and worked a fire hose. George H. Sturdy, chief stoker, and Alfred Britton, stoker petty officer (H.M.S. Laurel), showed great coolness in putting out a fire near the centre gun after an explosion had occurred there. Several bright shells were lying in the immediate vicinity.

"Here Lie Five White Men." In the valley of the Aisne there is a grave that bears this inscription: "Here Lie Five White Men." They belonged to the East Lancashire Regiment, and were out on their duty one night when they lost their way in a fog. They were conscious of the enemy moving all around them, and they were busy in making a row that would warn their countrymen. They fought like men, but they never had a chance, and the whole lot went down. Only one was alive, and he was badly wounded. It was from him that we heard the story when we came there, attracted by the firing. He only lived for a few hours, and as he passed away he had only one message: "I am glad we didn't surrender." (A story told by a corporal of the Cameron Highlanders.)

German Life Belts. Each of the German survivors picked up after the North Sea battle in which the Bluecher was sunk was provided with special life-saving apparatus—a cork belt and an inflatable suit. The latter was fastened to the shoulders. The latter is made of rubber, and is about 24 inches long by 10 inches wide; it can be inflated by the wearer in a moment, and is so made that when in use the air-filled pipe comes opposite the mouth. The Germans declare that any sailor who leaves this article is liable to a fine of 11s.

Guarding Bakeries. The Berliner Tageblatt announces that the Mayor of Greater Berlin has appointed 12,000 special constables to guard the bakers' shops against "irregularities" by the public. There is apparently a fear on account of the shortage of flour and bread in Germany. Hundreds of these guards have already returned, as many shops have closed their doors.

Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria Earning Name Of Worst of the Huns

THE statement published by the British Foreign Office—that British prisoners have been deliberately and callously shot in obedience to formal military orders—proves on investigation to be correct, then Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria will go down to perpetual infamy as a common murderer of the deepest dye. The proper treatment for him, if he should fall as a prisoner into the hands of any of the allies, would be a drumhead court-martial, followed by a volley from a squad of British recruits. His name will be forever coupled in popular imagination with that of the Austrian General Haynau, whose barbarous treatment of the Italian and Hungarian patriots after two-thirds of a century, an otherwise high military reputation. Haynau was, in 1850, dismissed ed from the Austrian service, and while he was making a tour of Europe his life was several times in danger from mobs. In London he was assaulted and beaten by a number of infuriated draymen, and for this insult the British Government of the day refused satisfaction. Only the vigilance of the authorities prevented further treatment in France and Belgium.

The charges against Prince Rupprecht are based on sworn statements sent to the British Foreign Office by two Rotterdam journalists, and these contain accounts of interviews with three different soldiers who had deserted, and who told their stories as matter of fact, without knowing whether the views of the journalists were friendly or hostile to the German cause. Two of the soldiers alleged that Prince Rupprecht's troops had orders to shoot British prisoners, and that they had done so, and the third stated that he had himself shot five of them. These allegations are so circumstantial that Prince Rupprecht is not at all likely to be charged with any of the real facts of the case from coming to light. It is a fallacy to take notice charges all fair-minded people the world over will take for granted that he makes no defence because he has none to make.

Both Duellists Killed. The story of a duel with bayonets, in which both contestants were killed, is told in a Red Cross report from one of the field hospitals in France. "Two miles south of the hospital," says the writer, "a French Zouave got separated from his fellows when they retreated after an unsuccessful effort to take a German trench. A German soldier, leaping out of the trench and charged the Zouave, bayonet fixed. The Zouave met his end in like manner and an extraordinary duel took place. Neither man dared fire for fear of killing his own men. It was about nine at night and the moon illuminated the grim contest. Round and round the men circled. The contest lasted for nearly five minutes, when suddenly both gave desperate lunges which went home. For a second each stood transfixed by the other's bayonet. Then they fell dead."

Hardy Italian Soldiers. The Italian soldier undergoes a more severe training in some respects than any friend or enemy in the armies of Europe. His day begins at 4.30 a.m., and drill and routine continue, with a two-hour's break on "compulsory repose," until 5 p.m. After that he has four hours' freedom, but must be back in barracks by 9 o'clock, or 8.40 in winter, and is supposed to be abed when, half an hour later, the bugles sound the "silenzio." He is extremely well cared for by the authorities, but long marches are reckoned among the essentials of his training, and some regiments can cover 60 miles at five miles an hour, and consider it nothing remarkable.

Honor For Italian King. Lt.-Col. Deccauss, commanding the Third Zouaves at Constantine, Algeria, has appointed King Victor Emmanuel of Italy third corporal in the first section, first company, first battalion of the regiment, a rank which went home. The bugles sounded on the night of the battle of Palestro.

The Austrians were defeated at Palestro May 26 to June 1, 1859, by the French and Italian allies.

School Book Bureau a Great Boon

A careful reading of the announcement of the Nova Scotia School Book Bureau, which appears elsewhere in this issue, will show that the prices of the new Nova Scotia Readers for the common schools of the province are more striking than is at first apparent. When one considers that the total cost of the full set of Readers covering the eight grades of the common school course has been lowered to 59 cents, surely a great benefit has accrued to the people in at least one quarter, and that too, indeed, at a time when in almost every direction it is found that the tendency is to increase and not to lighten the burden for the consumer.

To lighten the burden for the parents, of the cost of school books, prescribed for the schools, is one of the objects aimed at by the Government of Nova Scotia in establishing the Nova Scotia School Book Bureau in connection with the Education Department in Halifax. The purpose of the Bureau is the distribution of the school books at a uniform cheap price throughout the province, and further, to accomplish this without injury to dealers who may wish to handle the books as a matter of trade. With a view to enabling the dealer to profitably handle the books the discount of 15 per cent from list price is allowed.

Reverting again to the price list of the Readers, it will be seen that the saving to the people is further augmented by the extending of three of the books over the work of six grades. The Second, Third and Fourth books each covering the work of two grades. This means that the call on the pockets of the parents is once in two years, and thus the outlay for school books is lessened per year. The prices obtaining in the past years were as follows:

|--------------|-----------|
| Reader No. I | 15 cents. |
| " No. II     | 20 "      |
| " No. III    | 25 "      |
| " No. IV     | 25 "      |
| " No. V      | 30 "      |
| " No. VI     | 30 "      |

Readers for Grades VII & VIII. This makes a total of $1.83. Offset this with the new cost of Readers for eight grades and the difference—$1.25 for all purposes—means a saving of some thousands of dollars to the people of Nova Scotia.

From the above it will be seen at once that the Government of Nova Scotia has launched the Nova Scotia School Book Bureau in the most effective way, by beginning with the Readers and Arithmetics, the books by far the most widely used and of greatest interest to all. Still further will the direct benefit of the Bureau be felt, since it is planned that arrangements will have been made to handle all the school books, both for the Common and High schools, by August 1916.

"Farewells" to Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Timpany.

[From the Mission News.] Dr. and Mrs. Timpany left Hanamakonka, Wednesday, April 7th, and are going directly to the Pacific by the Pacific route. The high esteem, respect and love in which they are held by the people of Warrangle District was plainly shown by the elaborate farewells accorded them.

The first of these was given by the people of Ingonson, at the Ingonson station. Dr. Timpany established a branch dispensary there three years ago in charge of one of the young men whom he had trained. This work has grown and evidently is much appreciated for the Christians, Mohammedans and Hindus joined in a cordial farewell meeting and spared no expense or effort to make it a success.

The second of the series of Farewells was held at the beautiful home of the wealthy Khamti in Warrangle, and was given by the many Hindu and Mohammedan friends whom the doctor has made in that vicinity. The following evening the people of all classes and creeds joined in a big farewell meeting held on the Mission compound in Hanamakonka. A large open tent was pitched on the tennis court and about three hundred people gathered under it, around it. The Chief Magistrate of the District presided during the long programme, in which Christians, Hindus and Mohammedans took part. The people vied with each other to see who could get up the best farewell addresses and the finest presents. Addresses printed and read in English, Telugu and Hindustani were numerous. Several were printed on silk, nicely framed and presented to Dr. and Mrs. Timpany. Hundreds of rupees collected by subscription (mostly from Hindus and Mohammedans) were spent for presents, refreshments, etc. for these three occasions. Among the presents were a handsome gold medal watch chain, a pair of beautiful gold bracelets, a loving-cup, a silver pencil holder, and a beautifully made large silver casket to hold the roll of farewell addresses. Refreshments were served on all three occasions and included fruits, cakes, sweets, aerated waters and ice, brought mostly from Secunderabad.

It is this way the people have clearly shown their great appreciation of the self-sacrificing service which Dr. and Mrs. Timpany have cheerfully rendered during the past twenty years in this community. [Dr. and Mrs. Timpany spent several months in Digby about eight years ago, the guests of Mrs. Timpany's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Harvey, and have many friends here who are interested in their welfare.]

Left in his motor boat on Saturday 31st ult. for Yarmouth Mr. Glavin with about 30 quintals of fish, accompanied by Frank Moore, Esq. of Graham, Frank Gower, Lloyd Denton and others. Mr. Osborn Welch and Fred Denton left on same date for a cherry excursion to Weymouth, each boat having a nugget of excitement.

We received a card from Mr. Harry Pugh last week, giving a description of St. Anne de Beausse. Mr. Pugh is one of the crew of the S. S. Westport which has been leased to the Govt. for a patrol boat for the season. He states that they have painted the boat grey, the usual U. S. color. Mr. Dean Pugh is also one of the crew of the S. S. Westport and they state that their duties are not arduous.

Petitions are being circulated at Westport and in different parts of the province asking the government to repeal that part of the Dominion statute bearing upon the taking of pollack by the purse seine. This Statute was passed July 31st, 1891, for the protection of the mackerel and herring fisheries and was never at the time intended to interfere with the taking of other fish. In other parts of the Dominion we understand that it is not observed, but pollack is taken wherever they can get it.

The Statute was passed originally at the instigation of the weir owners of the Southern Shore of N. B., who did not wish the fishermen to have the privilege of taking small herring for the purpose of canning as sardines.

This was a selfish move on their part and should never have been passed. It has been a great loss to the fishermen of the Maritime Provinces and with out benefit to the fisheries.

Miss Vera Slocum, of Port George, and Mr. A. E. Ward, of Port George, are visiting at the home of Capt. John Snow.

Messrs. Charles Parks, Frank Snow and Percy Kendall have gone to Black Harbor, N. B., to engage in carpentry work for the season.

The ladies of the Methodist church held an entertainment and social in the hall on Saturday evening. The night was very warm and business was very brisk, so in a short time the little sum of about $12.00 was taken to help pay expense of abiding the church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pigott, of Grandville Ferry, are occupying their summer cottage. One day last week Mrs. Pigott while bathing was taken suddenly with an attack of faintness and just succeeded in reaching land where restoratives were immediately applied. We trust she will soon feel quite herself again.

An Up to Date Summer Resort.

THE PROPRIETOR OF "SEA BREEZE" ERECTS A PAVILION.

MR. R. V. DITMAR, proprietor of the popular Sea Breeze House, Deep Brook, has this season erected a pavilion situated on a bluff overlooking the basin. It is 55 ft. long by 25 ft. wide and on the water side has an extensive piazza.

The pavilion is used for dancing, card parties, etc., and adds much to the pleasure of the guests.

That the Sea Breeze is popular is evidenced by the return of many of the same guests each season. July has been a busy one at Sea Breeze and August is looked to its full capacity.

That strangers may identify Sea Breeze Mr. Dittmar has thrown to the breeze a new blue pennant bearing in white letters the words "Sea Breeze". These improvements are fully appreciated by the townspeople of Deep Brook as it shows progress and enterprise.

American Sailors Encounter Resistance.

Mrs. J. F. Crippa New Boat

A VALUABLE ADDITION TO THE WESTERN NOVA SCOTIA YACHT CLUB.

The fastest boat ever owned in Digby made her trial trip on the Basin last Friday morning. We refer to the open launch, "Crippa," owned by Mr. Commodore J. F. Crippa, of W. N. S. Y. C. She was designed by Wm. H. Hand, Jr., of New Bedford, Mass., and built by Evan E. Dunn, of Digby. She is of the V bottom type, 30 ft. long, 5 ft. 7 in. wide, with a draft of 13 inches, her shaft running somewhat deeper than a stern.

The building material is of mahogany and white cedar with nickel and brass fittings. The workmanship cannot be surpassed. The power plant consists of a model H. B. 1915 series Scripps 35 h. p. four cycle four cylinder jump start gasoline motor, with electrical starter, bilge pump, and other modern improvements. The boat has a Kona yon top, wicker chairs, electric lights, Claxton horn, marine clock and in fact about everything that money can buy for a craft of this size. Her speed is 18 miles per hour, or 16 knots.

Mr. Crippa is installing her for her use on steam or gasoline that has so far given us our harbor since the Migrace was launched, including a race with the S. S. Yarmouth in the Bay Fundy yesterday morning.

The Migrace's tender was manufactured by the Gidley Boat Co. of Toronto, in their factory at Penstang, Ont., and arrived here Tuesday.

The Digby Glee Club at "The Pines."

Sixteen male voices from The Digby Glee Club, assisted by fine talent among our summer visitors, will give a concert at "The Pines" hotel, Digby, some evening next week, but owing to the absence of the Director during the past week, the program and the exact date are not yet determined.

Announcement will be made by circulars, if before the issue of next week's COURIER.

No admission will be charged, but those who find the concert enjoyable will be expected to show in a substantial way. Contributions will be collected at the concert, and subscriptions may be left with any member of the Club or at the office of "The Pines."

The Club is permanently established and needs a piano and more music. One of the main objects of the present concert is to raise $500.00 fund for that purpose. The Club is entitled to the hearty support of our people. Their frequent concerts have given us much pleasure, and will give more.

They have always been ready to assist any public or patriotic cause. Mr. George McNeill, proprietor of "The Pines," assures us that our townspeople and the guests of our hotels are cordially invited, as there is ample room in the large parlors and on the wide verandas for all who come. It is probable there will be a large attendance, and it is hoped that liberal contributions will give the boys a good start with their music fund.

The Appeal for Razors

(Hardware and Metal)

The hardware trade is responding splendidly to the "appeal for razors" for the soldiers at the front. Already the razors have been coming in fairly fast.

Old or spare razors are accepted with as much thanks as a new razor, and every razor forwarded will be put into first class condition by the Master Cutter at Sheffield before being sent to the soldiers at the front.

Hardware and Metal representative was visiting Mr. Leach's office this week, and came in for a well known hardware merchant at Sarnia, Ont., containing 26 razors, this being the fourth parcel sent in by this merchant, numbering in all over 100 razors.

Any hardware dealer who has collected razors should send them as soon as possible to B. Lee, 30 Front Street East, Toronto.

Patriotic Day in Digby

A GOOD PROGRAMME OF ADDRESSES AND PATRIOTIC MUSIC.

Last Wednesday was observed as a patriotic day throughout the British Empire and the citizens of Digby are to be congratulated on the success of the demonstration here.

Mayor Hayden declared a half holiday, and all places of business closed at one o'clock.

Early in the morning flags were displayed from every available flag staff and nearly every building in the town. Business blocks and private residences were draped with bunting.

All the shipping in the harbor and the yacht squadron, accompanied by a yachting appearance with their display of colors.

At 2.30 a programme of patriotic addresses interspersed with music by the Bear River Brass Band, was commenced from the steps of the Court House. Digby's beautiful municipal building.

Mayor Hayden, who presided at the meeting, called on Rev. Wm. Driffield, rector of Trinity Parish, who gave a splendid opening address. This was followed by B. Haves, Esq., who moved the following resolution:

Resolved, That on the anniversary of the declaration of a righteous war, the citizens of Digby record its inflexible determination to continue to a victorious end the struggle in maintenance of the rights of Liberty and Justice which are the common and sacred cause of the Allies.

The above was seconded by Mr. H. B. Short. Addresses followed by Rev. Robt. MacArthur, pastor of Grace Methodist church; Clarence Jameson, M. P., Rev. Guy MacKenzie, pastor of the Digby and Bay View Presbyterian churches; Rev. Father Orosz, of Glasgow, Scotland, (in the absence of Rev. Father Grace, Parish Priest) and Mr. C. McKay, recruiting officer for Digby county.

The resolution passed unanimously. All the speakers proved very interesting and held the closest attention of the large audience in attendance.

At the close of the meeting a subscription list was opened for a machine gun for Digby and a large sum of money was immediately subscribed.

The list is now in the hands of Mr. H. L. Dennison, C. C. town clerk, who is ready to receive additional amounts, a list of which will be published in the Courier.

The interest displayed and the money given in support by our summer visitors demonstrate the support of the British by the United States.

Special patriotic services were held during the day in Holy Trinity church and in the evening in Grace Methodist church.

Isaiah E. Kenney

WELL KNOWN IN LEATHER TRADE, DIES AT BEVERLY HOSPITAL.

(Beverly Times)

Isaiah S. Kenney, well known in the leather finding business, died at the Beverly Hospital yesterday, at the age of 64 years. He had been at the hospital for some time for treatment.

He was born in Digby, N.S. but has been for many years a resident of this city. He was engaged in the leather business in this city for many years. He had long been a resident of Ward Four and at one time was a candidate for alderman from that ward.

He resided at 11 Madison avenue, and leaves a widow and one son.

Captain J. E. MacKinnon Returns Thanks.

St. John Globe:—Captain J. E. MacKinnon (formerly of S. S. Westport III), who has been incapacitated for some time by the effects of injuries received while assisting in the rescue of the passengers and crew of the S. S. Coburg two winters ago, has written the Board of Trade from Waterville, N. S., thanking its members and other business men of St. John for their efforts in his behalf and for the practical evidence of their sympathy which was recently forwarded him by the secretary of the board.

He says that he hopes his health is gaining and that he may be able to return to service so that he may do something for the port of St. John.

Trap Shooting at Yarmouth.

At the monthly shoot of the Yarmouth Gun Club, last Saturday, John Bos, of the Dominion Cartridge Co., gave an exhibition of fancy shooting with shot gun and rifle. This marvelous shooting was greatly enjoyed by the large number of sportsmen and spectators present. In the regular 25 bird event the competition narrowed down to Mr. Bos and Sheriff Smith, of Digby. These men tied with a score of 23 out of 25 birds and in the shoot off Mr. Bos won with a single bird to spare. Score 23 Bos, 22 Smith. The Dominion Cartridge Company's new "Canuck" shells were used by both the above men.

August Rod and Gun

The August issue of Rod and Gun in Canada, published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor, limited, and now on the news stands, makes good reading for the sportsman. Its stories of hunting and fishing and "teen there" descriptions of various outings in Canadian woods or on Canadian waters are in line with the season and the magazine is on well worth tucking into the club or den bag when setting out on the annual summer vacation.

Letters from the Front

HOW A DIGBY COUNTY BOY WAS WOUNDED WHILE ON DUTY

June 10th, '15.

DEAR MADAM:—I am writing to acquaint you with the fact that my son, 85227, was slightly wounded last evening. He and I were on duty at our observation post on the front line. A trench was hit by a shell exploded very near and a piece of shrapnel struck him on the side of the face, inflicting a flesh wound about 4 inches long. He was sent to hospital but no fears need be entertained as he is sure to be well again very shortly. He is now in the neck under the ear the others in the face. I told him I would write you in case he should not have an early opportunity of so doing.

We were quite lucky in escaping so lightly as we were wounded and nearly all the time bullets and pieces of shell fell like rain.

I joined the 8th Battery, G. F. A. Can. Exp. Force, France, the same time as his draft came from Shorecliffe, so that I was not very intimate with him.

Hopeing he will be amongst us again very quickly.

Yours truly,
(Signaller) A. PALLET, 48780.

On Active Service With the British Expeditionary Force, June 18th, '15.

DEAR MADAM:—I have been very deeply seen my name on the list of wounded I'm writing at first opportunity to set you at ease in case you have been worried by all the talk.

In this last engagement I received a very slight cut in the neck from a piece of shrapnel. It was so slight that I would not have come in hospital if it was not absolutely compulsory for every soldier to have his wound treated.

It is not a serious wound and I am feeling just as good as before the engagement.

Please don't worry over about me especially when there is absolutely no need, as if there is anything that bothers me it is the thought that you may possibly be worrying about me.

Having received no mail since leaving England, but expect by this time there will be some back at the Battery for me.

I am enjoying the life tremendously and it is far beyond my expectations, indeed it's worth all the training, etc., we've been through to actually be here at last.

I hope everybody is in the best of health at home. Give them all my love.

St. John's Hospital, Sittlingborne, Kent, England, 23rd June, 1915.

DEAR MOTHER:—Back to England once more and I don't really know whether I'm pleased or sorry. We were treated fairly well at St. John's Hospital (General) at Camiers, France. There was a French nurse in charge of my ward who was more than kind to me and about the nicest lady I've seen since I came over from Canada. Her name is Miss Constantine. Digby, and if you have a few moments to spare kindly do me a great favor by writing her a line and telling her how much I love her, it is not too much trouble.

I received my very slight wound at Festenberg, and quickly, when we were trying to take or rather advance as far as possible toward LaBasse on June 15th.

Our artillery opened fire in a fierce bombardment of the German lines at 6.30 p.m. of that date and the damage was great. I can get a good idea of what it was like when I tell you we had 200 guns of all sizes in action concentrating their fire on the German trenches for a length of about 1000 yards, and within the next three hours my battery (the 8th) I know for a fact had 200 rounds per gun and the other batteries I think about the same amount. (No wonder England needs them.)

Then at 8.55 we exploded the mines we had tapped along the German line and the result was a tremendous explosion that large chunks of earth landed in our line, burying large numbers of our own men. (All Canadians, who had been placed in the front line as usual, they are some good fighters.)

Then at 9 the Canadians charged taking the German trench and the result was a tremendous explosion that large chunks of earth landed in our line, burying large numbers of our own men. (All Canadians, who had been placed in the front line as usual, they are some good fighters.)

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER
Digby, August 13, 1915

DIGBY'S MACHINE GUN FUND.

Digby's machine gun fund wants about $300.00 additional contributions to reach the $1,000 required. We are not publishing the list of contributors this week to enable all those who wish to give, to send their names and amounts to Mr. H. L. Dennison, K. C., at the town office before next Wednesday.

Messrs. F. W. Nichols and O. S. Dunham spent a few hours last Friday afternoon and an hour Saturday morning in calling on a number of business men and others around the town whose names were not already on the list. These collectors met with good success. As they could not see everybody during the short time at their disposal, those who have not already subscribed should send in their amounts at once. Mr. Clarence Jameson, M. P., had already personally subscribed a sufficient amount to purchase a machine gun before Digby's list was opened.

Another Visiting Yacht.

DR. CHRISTABEL SPENT SEVERAL DAYS AT DIGBY.

Dr. Roderick Terry, of Newport, who was in Digby two years ago on the Truxa, re-visited our charming harbor again this year on the steam yacht Christabel, which has been chartered of the owner Mr. Irving T. Bush. Dr. Terry on the former visit went north from here to Halifax and Sydney, but this year has contented himself with visiting the upper Bay of Fundy, and a couple of days were spent in Minas Basin, where the remarkable tides occur, and automobiles were taken to the Hantsport to Windsor and to the Evangeline country. The yacht stopped at Digby a second time to give opportunity to the party on board to visit the Annapolis Royal, and will continue the cruise, which started from New York on the 10th, by visiting St. Andrews and Campbellton, before returning to Newport. The guests on board the Christabel include Mrs. Eugene Hale of New York, Miss Elizabeth Miller of Campbellton and Boston, and Mr. Harold Goldwin of New York. It has been generally noted that those on board Digby are as charming a set as any they have met in the cruise. "It seems to have one of those places in the sun" they said, "which appeal with peculiar emphasis to those who have been in the dog."

The Christabel is a steel flash deck steam yacht 164 feet over all, 22 feet beam with a draft 11 feet 3 inches. She was designed by G. L. Watson and built by J. & W. Henderson at Glasgow, Scotland, in 1893. Her present owner, Irving T. Bush, of Bush Terminal, Brooklyn, N. Y., was here three years ago on his yacht Admiral.

The Christabel was under charter for a year by the Kaiser, and was also chartered five years by Krupp, who furnished her with a quick-firing gun, which is still mounted on her deck. Dr. Terry, however, who is a very enthusiastic yachtsman and a very genial gentleman, carries only blank cartridges.

This handsome yacht carries a crew of 18 and is commanded by Capt. Nickerson, of Cape Cod, who made a host of friends during his short stay at this port.

Mrs. Man For the Front.

McKay, recruiting officer for this district, reports the following names of men who have been enlisted: Guy Adams, Frank Pinkney, Herbert Barthelemy, Deep Brook, Ivan Dutton, Eric Burton, Andrew McLean, Clifford Tiverton, Willis Smith, Clifford Borden, Carl A. Brooks, Donald D. Brooks, Edward Albert Campbell, Weymouth Edwards, Muller, Havelock, Stanley Muller, Riverview.

The town of Weymouth is certainly doing something well in furnishing men for the front. Out of Mr. G. G. Campbell's family of seven sons, five have enlisted, and the following: John Denton and Thomas at the front, John Denton at Barrington, Kenneth with the 40th at Valcartier and Albert, who has just enlisted as stated above.

Germans Still Hope

A SWISS lady who left Berlin late in May, writes as follows from Paris:
When I left Berlin early this week everyone was full of the approaching capture of Milan and Venice. The Berliners had made up their mind that war with Italy was inevitable, and their hatred for the Italians exceeded even that which they have for the English.
Apart from the fact that the city is shutting up earlier than usual, Berlin is just as gay as ever. I have never seen it, and at places of entertainment any reference to Italy is greeted with as hostile cries as are directed against England.
Russia is practically finished," said a wounded officer of high rank to me on the morning I left for Switzerland. "Von Hindenburg has been so quick as we expected, but the Russians are absolutely and entirely annihilated for this year. They have no ammunition, and their troops are demoralized in consequence. Therefore a war with Italy is not worrying us at all."

Last week the American note was received (the first note in regard to the case of the Lusitania), and some of my American friends were very nervous at the changed attitude of the Berliners. A great many Americans have left Germany, knowing that in the event of war they would be immediately interned and that in the case of grave friction, as is expected, their position would be very unpleasant.

Two chief differences I noticed at late in the streets of Berlin. One was the increase in the number of wounded. Whereas two or three months ago one saw only two or three, one now finds them in twos and threes, one now finds them in groups. The other difference is the vast number of people wearing the Iron Cross, chiefly that of the second order, which is in the button-hole, whereas that of the first rank is worn across the heart. The Germans know nothing of this lavishly distributed decoration, and if they did it would make no difference to them, they are so completely satisfied that everything German is best.

I also observed checked on the walls in one or two places, words which, in my opinion, "William the First Kaiser of all Europe by August." That, indeed, is the spirit of the people. French and English friends, who were in the morning in the truth, but I must tell them the truth. There is absolute and unadmitted confidence among all the Germans I met.

While I was in Berlin I was driven out by friends to call upon some people who are interned at the camp at Ruhleben. Ruhleben is an old racetrack, and except for the extensive barracks, experienced that nothing to complain of in the treatment of the interned English prisoners. I noticed some English playing football while I was there. Until I went I was under the impression that our party would be allowed to talk freely, but this was not the case, as the whole time we were in conversation with our interned friends, officials were standing near enough to listen.

My conversation was confined to family matters, but in the course of remarks I learned to my astonishment that the prisoners at Ruhleben know absolutely nothing at all of the news of the outside world. Such happenings as the coming war with Italy and the sinking of the Lusitania were quite unknown to them.

A friend of mine told me something about one of the imprisoned officers who are kept in captivity as the result of the English treatment of German submarine prisoners, and it was not pleasant hearing. The officer in question is treated practically as a convict and is in absolute solitude. As far as I could learn he has two hours a day in the open air and for the rest he is only allowed to pace a little passage outside his cell. The Germans were extremely indignant at the English treatment of submarine prisoners, and I am sure will relax no restrictions until that treatment is altered.

There still seemed to be abundance of food in Berlin. In the cheap hotels men waiters have been entirely replaced by women, but in the larger establishments I was considerably surprised to find that military age, who have not yet been called to the colors.

Food generally is quite cheap, with the exception of meat, and German women friends grumbled bitterly at the increased expenditure shown in their housekeeping books. Bacon and butter, wearing tire price, and even the commoner parts of beef are three francs (2s 6d) a pound.

There are in an extremely exuberant frame of mind, as they always are, and I did not at any time feel any of the French views, very freely, and even when I expressed them, at all I did so only among intimate friends. The general impression in the circle in which I moved was that England will win, and peace some time early next year. She is considered to have begun an impossible task in the Dardanelles, and neither her soldiers nor her ships in France are thought to be in any way a match for the Germans.

Berlin, never a pretty city, is, however, at its best now, wearing its early summer foliage. The city is so much further from the war than Paris or London that the conflict is really a thing apart from the Berliners. Were it not that every child all his life looks forward to being a soldier, and that every man is or has been a soldier, I do not think they would take any more interest in the struggle than the English do.

CAMPS ARE ACTIVE.

Latest Call For Men May Result In Special Appeal.

Because Canada has called for 35,000 more men for service abroad, there is great activity in all the camps and headquarters. Now that the sunny days have come, the men are able to do their training in the open. Even the Valcartier Camp, although further north than others, is a warm, attractive spot. Therefore, from Vernon, B.C., to Aldershot Camp, N.S., there is activity and earnest work.

When these 35,000 men are recruited, Canada will have more than 100,000 men who have gone or are going to the front. This does not include the regular militia, the home guards, and other forces not enlisted for service abroad. Up to the present there has been no slackness in recruiting. Whether this next 35,000 will be hard to get remains to be seen. So far, the militia authorities have not had to resort to posters and processions, as they have done in England since the beginning. Probably it will be possible to get this new levy without a special appeal. Certainly there will be no difficulty in getting officers, since thousands of young men have been making the course during the past six months.

Should the war last another year, there is little doubt that further levies will be made. Canada must recruit at least 10,000 a month. The estimated wastage in two divisions is about that amount.

Some twenty-seven regiments of infantry and six batteries of artillery will comprise the new force. There will be four new Highland regiments, one from the West, one from Ontario, one from Quebec, and one from the Maritime Provinces. There will be three French-Canadian regiments, including the 57th and 68th, raised in Montreal by Lieut.-Col. Gascoigne, is included in this draft. The new regiments will include two from Western Ontario, four from Toronto, two from Eastern Ontario, two from Maritime Provinces, and two from each of the western provinces.

The six batteries of artillery will be divided in the same way across the continent, in the centre, one in the west, and one in the east. Presumably they will be four-gun batteries.

From now on, no one will be able to claim that Canada should do more. Seventy battalions of infantry and thirty batteries of artillery, with all the auxiliary units, is a fair contribution for a country which knew little about military work until August. Even if more men could be recruited, the equipment of them would have been almost impossible. Our Militia Department naturally lacks a system capable of undertaking such a huge task. Even recently, there were men in Niagara Camp who could not go on parade because they lacked boots. True, the shortage was not great, but it shows that there is not an over-supply of equipment.

Barrie, Ontario, Kingston, and occupied at present by more than 3,000 soldiers. With the exception of not more than 400, all will go overseas as soon as the weather improves. Col. T. D. R. Hemming, officer commanding 3rd Division, is Camp Commandant, and Col. G. Hunter O'Neill, A.A.G. 3rd Division, is Adjutant.

There are two thousand infantry men in camp. The 38th Battalion numbers twelve hundred, and the 48th is in the latest organized 59th (Provisional) Battalion. Lieut.-Col. Edwards, Ottawa, is in command of the 38th, and Lieut.-Col. G. L. Lindsay, of the 59th. The 7th Regiment, C.M.R., is under the command of Lieut.-Col. Munro, Ottawa, and numbers slightly over 500 men. The 7th Artillery Brigade is under the command of Lieut.-Col. Stewart, Lethbridge, and numbers about 500 men. This brigade consists of the 28th Battery and Ammunition Column, which was organized in Ottawa, and the 26th Battery, organized in Kingston.—Canadian Courier.

Has Many Duties.

The Italian soldier is not only severely drilled, but he is also expected to perform a good many duties not usually required of a soldier in the requirements of military service. It is considered incumbent on every man wearing the King's uniform to render aid whenever and wherever it may be needed for the protection of life and property, against crime, accident, or disaster; and whenever a calamity befalls such as the recent earthquake—the first move is always to send troops to assist the suffering. That is one reason why Italy regards her army with affection as her protector at home as well as her defender against foreign aggression.

Half the Zepps. Gone.

It is admitted in Berlin that since the beginning of the war Germany has lost half of her fleet of zeppelins. It is further stated that two of the airships which took part in the raid on the British east coast have not returned to their base, and that their fate is still unknown.

Air Is Free.

There are no rules which give a country the right to claim jurisdiction of the air above its territory, and in the present war aviators can fly over neutral countries without committing a breach of law. The use of the air miles from the coast is included in the territory of a country.

He Has Three Kitchens.

The Kaiser, though he declared that he subsisted, like his soldiers, on "bread," is followed throughout his movements along the front by twenty motor-cars, three of which are fitted up as kitchens and two as dressing-rooms.

Copper and Zinc to be Refused in Canada.

GENERAL SAM HUGHES WILL HELP CANADIAN REFINERIES.

OTTAWA, August 14.—As a result of arrangements now completed it was announced by General Bertram today that Canada will not only manufacture shells for the allies, but will produce and refine for the first time in this country the zinc and copper required for this ammunition. These arrangements represent the fruition of the desires and efforts of General Hughes, minister of militia. It was not long after Canada had commenced the manufacture of shells for Great Britain before the securing of copper and zinc for their production became a problem. Altho Canada produces both these metals she has not hitherto had facilities for refining them. Consequently every ton of such ore produced in the Dominion had to be sent to the United States and there refined before being brought back again by Canadians.

United States refiners took advantage of this situation shortly after Canada commenced the manufacture. It is understood that, by forming a combination among some Canadian capitalists, and bucking the monopoly men, General Hughes succeeded in getting the price reduced somewhat. However, it became apparent that if the Dominion was to continue seriously into the manufacture of munitions it must have refineries of its own and efforts towards that end were initiated.

Several conferences have been held between the shell committee and the cabinet. The result is contained in the statement of General Bertram today that arrangements had been made and were now closed up for the refining at Trail, B. C., and other points, of both copper and zinc. Canada's production of empty shells has now risen to 25,000 per day. Owing to the difficulty of obtaining cordite and other explosives the turnout of charged shells so far has not approached this mark, so the empties are being stored here until they can be filled, no empty shells now being sent to Great Britain. A Plans are underway, however, as a result of which difficulties in the way of producing the charged shells will be surmounted.

D. A. Thomas, representative of the minister of munitions, returned from New York tonight and the shell committee and Mr. Thomas' party expect to leave next week to visit shell plants in Ontario and the west.

Cotton on Contraband List

INTENTION OF ALLIES COMMUNICATED UNOFFICIALLY BUT AUTHENTICATIVELY TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The Allies' intention to declare cotton contraband has been communicated unofficially but authoritatively to the state department. The department advises are that the decision has been reached, and the delay in making an announcement is due to the necessity of arranging uniform treatment of the subject by all the Allies.

The step has been agreed upon by Great Britain, France, Russia, Italy and Belgium, but Japan's attitude has not been defined, and she may decide that no action is called for from her at this time, because of the designation of the only German colony in the Far East from the military problem and the absence of any reason for a block ade.

The Allies contend that American cotton shippers, in many cases, have been backed by German capital, have been shipping cotton to Germany through neutral ports. Under the through in council such a cargo, if captured, was merely taken into a British port and paid for by the British government.

The Allies contend that under those conditions a great deal of the cotton sent through Sweden, Denmark and Holland into Germany. From the Allies point of view the orders in council were ineffective, because they obliged the British government to buy cotton and at the same time offered an incentive to blockade runners.

According to the advice reaching Washington the pressure in England and France has compelled a change. The British government originally regarded cotton as non-contraband, and expressed a desire to avoid inflicting hardship upon the southern planters and to avoid development of an anti British feeling in the cotton belt. The change to contraband will be defended as authorized by international law. Great Britain protested against the American blockade of outgoing cotton from the South during the Civil War, and had refused to recognize it as contraband during the Russo Japanese war, but will now contend that radical changes in the conditions of warfare since that time justify a change in attitude.

Foreigners Not in Danger.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—General Canada issued from Vera Cruz today through Washington agents a denial that any outrages either committed against or contemplated against foreigners within his jurisdiction. His message said:

"You may deny through the press that foreigners of any nationality are in danger in this country. The Constitutional Government of Mexico will give every sort of guarantee to the citizens of other nationalities, exactly as to Mexicans; themselves, for the protection of their lives and property,

Two Zeppelins in Raid On England.

SIX KILLED, TWENTY THREE WOUNDED ALONG EAST COAST IN SECOND RAID IN ONE WEEK.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—Official announcement was made today of an airship raid last night on the east coast of England.

The official announcement says that six persons were killed, twenty three were injured and fourteen houses were damaged seriously by bombs.

One Zeppelin, the announcement says, was damaged, but escaped. The text of the announcement follows:

"Two Zeppelins visited the east coast last night, between 9 30 p. m. and 11 45 p. m. dropping incendiary and explosive bombs in various places, resulting in the following casualties: 'Dead—Four men, two women. 'Injured—Three men, eleven women, nine children. 'All were civilians. 'Fourteen houses were seriously damaged.

"The Zeppelins were engaged at some points, but succeeded getting away from our aircraft patrols. One of the Zeppelins was probably damaged by the mobile anti aircraft section."

Last night's raid of Zeppelins was the second this week. On Monday night Zeppelins flew over the English coast and with their bombs killed fourteen persons, mostly women and wounded fourteen others.

These raids mark the renewal of the Zeppelin attacks on England after an interval of several weeks. The last previous raid with the exception of a minor attack on Harwich early in July, was on June 15th when sixteen persons were killed and forty injured. In all there have been nearly a score of these attacks, resulting in the death of more than 100 persons.

Brilliant Work by French Airmen.

PARIS, Aug. 15.—French aviators reported to have distinguished themselves recently in several aerial combats with German machines. A French craft, reconnoitering above Colmar, Thursday, was attacked by a German machine, which it forced to descend within the German lines in Alsace, evidently damaged by shots.

The same day two German planes were chased back from above French positions in Artois, while two French patrols attacked and apparently damaged another German aeroplane. An Albatross machine was forced to the ground in the same way on Wednesday.

A squadron of ten German aero planes, which attempted a bomb attack on Toul and Nancy on August 12, was forced to retreat by French machines.

No Disarmament.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—The Dean of Durham does not believe that the war will result in general disarmament and universal peace. "When the war drums throb no longer and the battle flags are furled."

In an address at West Hartlepool he predicted that in England the certain consequence of the war would be "The universal obligation to military service" on the Swiss model.

"Never again," he said, "can we run the risk of having the whole fortunes of our land and Europe left to voluntary effort, however widely distributed and magnificently rendered."

No Explanation Yet.

LONDON, August 18.—No explanation of reported cancellation of orders for wheat from America by the entente allies has so far been obtainable here. Persons connected with the wheat market, including a government professor on the Baltic Exchange, professed ignorance on the subject.

It was suggested that there is touch with the market that the report, if correct, might be connected with the fact that the India wheat crop was much larger and of better quality than anticipated, or the improved prospects of Russian wheat getting out thru the Dardanelles.

Germany Can Do Without Cotton.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Announcement that Germany is now able to dispense with cotton in the manufacture of military supplies is made by the Frankfurter Zeitung, quoted by the Reuters correspondent at Amsterdam. This newspaper asserts that the designation of cotton as contraband of war would not solve Anglo American difficulties, and adds:

"In the present condition of our technical science no cotton whatever is any longer used for war purposes."

Sent Sympathy to U. S.

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Austro Hungary has expressed her sympathy for the United States on the occasion of the staggering disaster of the steamer Eastland as Chicago with the loss of more than 900 lives, according to a statement issued today at the Austro-Hungarian Consulate here.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one effective remedy, and that is by constitutional treatment. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous membrane of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear, or it is stuffed, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation is taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed.
Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous membrane.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular.

GRAPHIC SCENES FROM NEWS OF GREATEST WAR

Picturesque and Thrilling Events on the Battlefields of Europe.

MANY a paragraph in the news from Europe's theatre of war is a story in itself. Some of the best of these graphic hits are given here:

Details received of the fighting near Verdun show that it was an African battalion that checked a recent attack of the German imperial guard. A survivor of the battle, who has arrived in Paris, told the following story of the fight:

"The sun was just rising when our outpost came back on our main force and informed us that the imperial guard was coming. Soon afterward we could see pointed helmets glittering in the sun rapidly advancing."

"Deceived by our silence the guard had come on even to the barbed defences and began cutting them before our trumpets sounded an order for volley firing. The first line of the enemy seemed just to melt away under our fire. The second line appeared to be shaken for an instant, but on it came.

"We could plainly see the officers in the lead waving their swords and encouraging their men to the assault. Another volley and the second line thinned out, but a third line came on, and the mass crossed the line of wire defences."

"When 'Charge!' was sounded we rushed forward to meet them. Then our boys commenced to fall, but our impetus was too much for the guard, which was mowed down and dispersed."

"Of our regiment only a single company remained. It was led by a tall lieutenant, with a boyish face. He wore a monocle and carried a revolver. This company stood to the last man and that last man was the lieutenant. He refused to surrender, and stood his ground alone until the bayonets of the victors beat him down."

Air Scouts Save Brigade.

General Gough's of Curriah fame saved his dashing cavalry brigade from annihilation by his lightning-like last moment decision. Three times his hussar lancers formed to a subordinate. "Stop them! There is barred you just ahead!"

Those who had rode ahead, heard the wild shout and turned in their saddles just in time to save themselves. The brigade had been warned in the nick of time by air men who had seen the wire glimmering in a sudden burst of sunshine.

A story is told in England of a farmer boy who came from the field to be informed by his father that his brother had been killed in action. "Well, I must take his place," said the boy. Then he walked to the recruiting station, enlisted, and is now at the front.

Friendship Greater Than War.

Among the wounded arriving at Petrograd were a Russian, teacher, and a German, likewise a teacher. The two men lay side by side, unconscious on the battlefield of Tannenberg. The Russian teacher had lanced the German with his sword, severely wounding him, but himself had received a bullet from another German soldier. They were put into the same ambulance. When they regained consciousness the Russian finding in the German the soldier whom he had severed was seized with a sudden emotional compassion for the victim of his sword and started speaking to him in a friendly and remorseful tone.

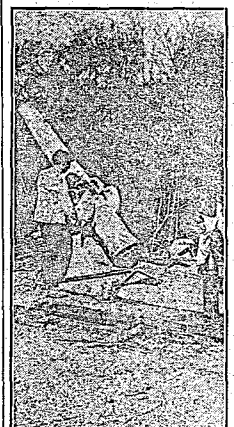

The German, at first reticent and morose, did not answer the Russian, but eventually yielded to his kind, winning attitude and entered into conversation. The foe was brought to the same hospital in Petrograd and placed in the next ward. The German was overjoyed at this, and said to his fellow professional in excellent Russian:

"War is war, but friendship after the war is a totally different thing. I never dreamed that Russians were such nice, generous people. I cannot help loving them now after the kind treatment received at their hands. We are fighting with them in vain."

Spared For By Russia.

The London Standard prints the following anecdote sent from Petrograd and having for its setting the fighting which recently took place at Filipov, near the Russo-German frontier:

A German Pole of Posen came up to a Russian and raised his bayonet. While he was about to pierce it through the heart of the soldier the latter, who was a Russian Pole, addressed him in Polish.

"Aren't you afraid of God to kill one of your own?"

The Pole of Posen answered, likewise in Polish:

"Well, what can we do? Here they are coming, my comrades. They will catch me in the act of speaking to an enemy in Polish. We are both lost. You lie still and pretend to be dead."

In order to complete the deception and give no cause for suspicion the German raised his bayonet and struck the ground, crying out loudly to the approaching German soldiers: "I have killed three Muscovites. Now there are no more here. Let us go a bit higher up."

When complete darkness enveloped the battlefield the German came, made a close search and managed to find the Russian Pole whose life he had spared, thanks to the racial bond existing between the two foes.

Carrying the wounded man on his back, the German Pole got away from the battlefield unobserved, and after a long journey on foot, brought his wounded comrade to the Russian front lines just after midnight, where he left him, wishing him a friendly farewell, and returned to his own camp.

Disguising Motor Wagons.

Motor-wagons used by the Allies on the Continent have their hoods painted in a gigantic check design of violent and garish colours, thus making them less easy to "spot" from aeroplanes.

TWO NERVOUS WOMEN

Made Well By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headache, dizziness, noise in my ears, tired, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness."

"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicine the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."

Another Bad Case. Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysterical spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."

"If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence."

Beaver River.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Carly, of Boston, are visiting their niece, Mrs. Charles Durkee.

Mr. Clyde Saunders and daughter Grace left on the 27th for their home in Georgetown, Mass.

Mr. J. L. Milles, son Percy and daughter, Miss Irene, left on Monday night's boat for their home in Swampscott, Mass.

Mr. Newman H. Raymond, who is at the head of large real estate and building operations in Jersey City, N. J., and Brooklyn, N. Y., with offices in the Building, New York City, said a flying visit to his family at their summer home in Bear River, and by pre-arrangement on his return enroute the 20th inst, he was met at Hibernia on arrival of train by his mother and sister, Mrs. Newton Wyman, and motored to the home of Capt. James Raymond, Beaver River, where the party had supper. After supper Mr. Raymond gave an impromptu talk on the lines of temperance in Memorial Hall, the home of the oldest Total Abstinence Society in British North America, and during his talk he expressed great pleasure for the privilege of being once more in the home of his boyhood and again standing upon the platform erected upon the very spot where the departed Patriarchs drew up and signed the pledge of April 28th, 1828. The influence of those old Temperance Society meetings had shone out like a beacon guiding many from pitfalls and destruction. He, for one, could praise the workers, for helping make him what he is, a staunch teetotaler, having signed the pledge with many of his young friends. His talk dealt largely with the cause of prohibition, for which he has been a devoted and untiring worker, during his entire business career, having recently been a candidate for office of Mayor of New York City, on the prohibition ticket. He came out strongly on the cause of local option and presented figures to prove his assertion, that the baneful influence of the liquor saloon is not only degrading, but detrimental and necessary to the success of modern society. Mr. Raymond's talk was very inspiring and appreciated by all present, and after spending the night with his mother, Mrs. Susanna Raymond, he returned by Saturday's boat to his home in New York.

The Frederickton, N. B. Brass Band has volunteered to enlist as a unit and will report for duty at any time their services are accepted.

THE WAY JOHN

APPLIED IT

(By Frances J. Delano, in the Congressional List and Christian World.)

"Wasn't that glorious?" Julia turned a glowing face toward her brother.

"Pretty good stuff," remarked John.

"Do hear this blue youth!" cried Julia, turning to a group of girls.

"I know he never heard a better sermon in his life and he calls it good stuff."

The girls laughed at the scorn in Julia's voice.

"He's a Boston man, isn't he—up here on his vacation?" John asked the question indifferently.

Julia refused to notice him. "I just feel as if I want to go right out somewhere and do something," she exclaimed.

"You don't need to go out at all," remarked the Sunday school superintendent, addressing the scene at that moment.

"Several of our teachers are away on a vacation and we need some of you summer people to help us out. Will you take a class of girls? And I've a nice class of boys who will lend a helping hand," turning to John.

"I think you, my boy, this morning, I must be getting out to camp. Good morning, Mr. Maynard. You'll be out in time for dinner, Julia?" to his sister.

"Yes, I suppose so, but tell mother not to wait dinner for me; I really do not care whether I have anything to do or not. I can think of something else occasionally."

John laughed, and, lifting his hat, left the church.

"I think boys are made of different stuff from the rest of us," declared Julia, turning to the girls; "nothing but a good deal of good nature, eating is everything, a good dinner, a good morning, Mr. Maynard. You'll be out in time for dinner, Julia?" to his sister.

There is more of a cold in this section of the county than at any other time, and until the last few years was supposed to be a local disease. It is now, however, pronounced a local disease and is not contagious. Science has proven that it is a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Halls Cough Cure is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is safe and sure. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the throat and lungs. It is a cure in every case it falls to cure. Send for circulars and samples.

A Wonderful Discovery

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam Buk is applied to a wound or sore, such injury is insured against blood poison! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam Buk does not kill! As soon as Zam Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut, or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

Again, as soon as Zam Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This is why Zam Buk is so effective in the treatment of skin diseases. It is the only ointment that has been used for over twenty-five years that has been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months he cured him. To-day, three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty-five years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

All druggists sell Zam Buk at 50c. box, or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 1c. stamp (to be returned postage). Address Zam Buk Co., Toronto.

A FORMER SMITH'S COVE BOAT, TO HOLD REVENUE SERVICE IN HIS MYSTIC HOME.

Rev. Charles Lafayette Snow, B. A., who was a boy of 17 years of age, left his home in South Cove, and who is now a Baptist pastor in one of the New England States, is to hold two weeks' Evangelistic services for his church at his old home. Mr. Snow has many treasured memories of his early life in this place, which will make these services doubly interesting. ## What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make out a list of the most careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it, and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription. All druggists have D. D. D.
$1.00.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription. Ask also about D. D. D.
Soap.

Concert at Westport.

A very successful concert was given by ten of our young school girls in the
I. O. O. F. Hall, Monday evening, the 6th inst.

One of the prettiest features was the opening chorus, in which the girls looked very charming in their pretty costs of blue and pink velvet, trimmed with silver tinsel. The bright, blazing sparkles which they held in their hands, added much to the effect and made it one of the prettiest numbers on the program.

Another number which deserves special mention was a flag drill, ending in the popular chorus, "We'll Never Give Up on You." A grand and a pretty tableau, "Britain and Her Allies."

The concert was repeated at Tiverton on the following Tuesday evening, the 7th inst. and was much appreciated by those who attended.

After defraying all expenses, the young ladies were much pleased to place in the hands of the treasurer of the local Red Cross Society the nice little sum of five dollars. Three or four of these girls also collected about twenty seven dollars last day, which went to the Red Cross fund, and one and all of the members of the Society felt a hearty vote of thanks should be given to these girls for helping so generously in the good work being carried on here.

The following was the program:

ZAM-BUK

MRS. A. SAICH, of Canington Manor, Sask., writes: "My brother suffered severely from Eczema.

The sore was very extensive, and burned like coals into his flesh. Zam-Buk took out all the fire, and quickly gave him ease. Within three weeks of commencing with Zam-Buk treatment, every sore had been cured."

This is but one of the many letters we are constantly receiving from people who have proved the healing powers of Zam-Buk. For Eczema, Piles, sores, burns, cuts and all skin troubles there is nothing like this wonderful balm.
No sore can be cured unless it is considered incurable until Zam-Buk has been tried.

Sock-Making

A USEFUL RECIPE FOR VARIOUS SIZES.

[From the London Evening Standard and St. James's Gazette.]

Sock-making is the form of knitting which has survived the early summer. We had then regretfully to lay aside the long bone pins on which so many scarves had grown to their old-time magnificence, and put away the thick khaki wool in mothproof bags.

What we really have to work just now is to keep up the supply of socks, which are so much wanted at the front. It is necessary, however, to knit intelligently, for the socks are needed for general use and not for individuals whose size and tastes are known. Socks, big and small, should be made in order that a bundle which reaches a company or platoon should not be arbitrarily suited to only big men or small.

The following directions may be followed, using 12 needles and 4-ply super-fine or wheeling worsted.

Cast on 60 stitches.

Work in rib of knit 2 and purl 2, for 30 rounds, 4 in.

Work 5 in. plain knitting with no shaping, 12 in. from top.

MAKING THE HEEL.

For the heel, put 30 stitches on the first needle, then equally divide the remaining stitches (required for the instep) on the second and third needles, both of which should be left until the heel is finished.

On the 30 stitches knit, alternately plain and purl, 30 rows, always slipping the first stitch. To turn the heel, knit 18, slip 1, knit 1, pass the slipped stitch over the knitted, turn, knit 8, slip 1, together, turn, knit 8, slip 1, knit 1, pass the slipped stitch over the knitted, turn, knit 8, slip 1, knit 1, pass the slipped stitch over. Continue working in this manner until all the stitches are worked in, leaving nine stitches on the needle under the heel.

HOW TO TURN THE INSTEP.

For the instep, follow on with the first needle and knit up 15 stitches on the side of the heel knit on to the second needle the 30 stitches which were left for the instep when commencing the heel. Then, with the third needle, knit up 15 stitches on the other side of the heel while adding 4 from the first needle.

Knit 2 rounds plain, then begin the decreases; knit the 3rd and 4th stitches together from the first needle, and on the third needle, knit 2, slip 1, knit 1, pass the slipped stitch over the knitted. Do this in every third round until there are 15 stitches on each of the first and third needles. Knit without shaping until the work measures from the heel.

Size 1. 7 1/2 in., making length of foot plus toe 2 1/2 in.—10 in.
Size 2. 8 1/2 in., making length of foot plus toe 2 1/2 in.—10 1/2 in.
Size 3. 9 in., making length of foot plus toe 2 1/2 in.—11 in.
Size 4. 9 1/2 in., making length of foot plus toe 2 1/2 in.—11 1/2 in.

KNITTING THE TOE.

For the toe, (x) knit to the last three stitches on the first needle, knit two together, knit one on the instep needle, knit one, slip one, knit one, pass the slipped stitch over the knitted, knit to the last three stitches on the needle, knit two together, knit one on the third needle, knit one on the instep needle, pass the slipped stitch over the knitted, knit to the end of the needle.

Knit one round plain. Repeat from (x) until the toe is reduced to twenty-four stitches. Break off the wool, leaving about half an yard, with which to thread the needle, pass the darned needle through the twenty-four stitches, turn sock inside out, draw the hole up to give the toe a round appearance, oversew, and finish off.

A useful sock measure, which may be obtained at the least expense, is the M. I. K. (Man in Khaki). This has been devised to enable knitters to gauge the right proportions in sock-making according to the feet, and give the correct length in inches when toe-reducing, etc., has to be begun.

Potato Inspection.

Inspection of the Truro and Corn walls districts Guelph, Ontario, potato fields is being done this week by Mr. E. J. Wortley, Director of Agriculture for Bermuda, Prof. W. H. Brittain, representing the Provincial Government, and Messrs. S. J. Moore, Dominion Seed Inspector, and Paul A. Murphy, Dominion Plant Pathologist, representing the Federal Government. According to Mr. Wortley, the inspection so far reveals the fact that the Nova Scotia potato growers have learnt a lesson from past experience, and that by the use of rigidly selected seed and regular spraying they can save their potato crops from being condemned. The Nova Scotia growers have not yet fully realized the importance of spraying, and what losses they may have this year will be due to a lack of thoroughness in this matter. But it must be said that the growers have been much more thorough this season than in any previous year.

Schooner With Monster Fare

GLOUCESTER, September 10.—Halling for the magnificent fare of 475,000 lbs. of salt cod, the schooner Tatler, Capt. Alden Geelie, did not leave for the Cape until nearly five months' absence, bringing one of the largest trips in his career.

The Tatler arrived yesterday afternoon, loaded right to the top with codfish. She looked every inch the amount for which she hailed, it being the largest dory handline fare since 1909, when the craft weighed 475,433 pounds, the stock being $15,277.51, and the second largest in Captain Geelie's career. Captain Geelie has established an enviable reputation as a "killer" in this particular branch of the fishery. In addition to the fares above mentioned, the craft has done well in other years. In 1905, the vessel had 331,640 pounds, stocking $16,574 and last year, 379,000 pounds, which the stock was $14,332.

Provincial Fall Exhibitions

The annual series of provincial fall exhibitions began with the fair at Port Hood, N. S., which opened Sept. 1st. The series will close with the fair to be held at Little Brook, Digby, Oct. 12-13. These fall exhibitions have always been successful, and have annually shown progress. In spite of the war, the 1915 fairs promise improvement over those of former years.

A Very Important Matter

AN APPEAL ON BEHALF OF NATIONAL CANADIAN PATIOTIC FUND.

We have now entered upon the second year of the war, and the end seems as far off as ever. No one imagined, a year ago, that by September of 1915, Canada would have sent across the Atlantic nearly one hundred thousand men with as many more to follow if necessary. This insignificant enlistment, while primarily due to the loyalty of our people, has been, in a large measure, made possible by the Canadian Patriotic Fund.

This greatest of all the national benefactions is now assisting twenty thousand families of men who have enlisted for overseas service. These men have gone forward with the full assurance that the people of Canada will see to it that during their absence, their wives, widowed mothers and little children shall be maintained in comfort. We hear that the drafts upon the Fund is assuming large proportions, that to meet the needs of July and August $700,000 was expended, and that the reserves are being materially decreased and that the national Executive Committee now find it necessary to make a further appeal to the Canadian Public.

There are many funds, most of them worthy, but of them all the Patriotic Fund is the one we cannot allow to fail. It is the duty of the Government to arm, equip and maintain the troops. Not a dollar do the Federal authorities give to the Patriotic Fund. This work depends solely on the patriotism and generosity of our own people. Thousands of brave men are fighting our battles, believing that we meant what we said when we told them as they went forward: "Go and we will care for the wife and kiddies." It would be our everlasting disgrace if our pledge were broken.

The national organization, with headquarters at Ottawa and branches or affiliated associations in every part of the Dominion, is worthy of our most generous support in the tremendous and ever-growing task that it has undertaken.

San Jose Scale.

TRURO, Sept. 16.—Only 6 cases of the dreaded San Jose Scale in Nova Scotia orchards have been located this year by the provincial inspectors, according to Prof. W. H. Brittain, of the College of Agriculture and Provincial Entomologist. This shows the value of the being accomplished by the Entomological Department in keeping the Nova Scotia fruit farms practically free from the presence and ravages of this pest. It is a noticeable fact that the six cases were found on stock imported previous to the inauguration of the government inspection of nursery importations in 1912. Not a single case of the San Jose Scale has been found on stock imported subsequent to that date. The comparative figures are very striking. In 1912 there were discovered 750 cases; in 1913 61 cases; in 1914 only 1 case, and in 1915 so far, only 6 cases, and all on stock imported prior to 1912.

New Science Hall

"A fine building for a great purpose" is the way in which the new Science Hall, of the College of Agriculture, was signified by David Fairchild, of Washington, D. C., Agricultural Explorer in charge of Foreign Plant Introduction for the United States Department of Agriculture. He spent a day investigating the curriculum and resources of the College and stated that following the close of the current year, science, including agricultural science, would be paramount in education. "In Nova Scotia," he said, "you have a small college with short-term courses, beginning in a month when farmers' work is done and this, I believe, is the right ideal." The new Science Hall which is being built of brick and freestone and finished inside with oak, at a cost of $100,000, will be ready for the opening in November.

Death of Sir William Van Horne

MONTREAL, September 12.—Sir William O. Van Horne, formerly president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and one of the best known financiers in America, died in the Royal Victoria hospital, Montreal, yesterday afternoon. He was operated upon for abdominal distress on August 23rd, and was supposed to be on the way to recovery until three days before his death, when an unfavorable change in his condition suddenly took place, and the end came at 2:10. He is survived by his widow, a son, R. B. Van Horne, and a daughter, Miss A. Van Horne. Mr. Van Horne was born at Will county, Illinois, February 3rd, 1841.

The Veteran Actor Ill

[From the Daily Kennebec Journal, Augusta, Maine.]

The many friends of H. Price Weber, the veteran actor, who since a week ago last Friday has been seriously ill at the home of his brother-in-law, D. Frank Moore, No. 21 Seavall street, will be pleased to learn that the physician Tuesday pronounced his condition as improved. He has been a very sick man and is still on the disabled list, but all will end in wishes for a speedy recovery. The role of sick man is a new one for H. Price and is pleasing neither to himself nor his friends.

How France Keeps Her Pledges.

PARIS, Sept. 11.—The minister of war gave orders today that sixty-one stretcher-bearers who, while serving with the auxiliary forces, were captured and subsequently were released, in accordance with international sanitary conventions, shall not under any pretext, be put into the armed service. They are to remain neutralized, under the protection of the Geneva Convention.

Death of an Aged Yarmouth Truckman

John MacLaughlin, the dean of Yarmouth truckmen, died last week after a few weeks' illness of heart trouble. He was 78 years old and has lived in Yarmouth for nearly 40 years. He was born in Weymouth. He kept in his work up to the time of his last illness, and Johnnie, as he was known by the young and old, will be missed. He leaves a widow.

Superlative Quality

plus the money-back guarantee

WHEN KING COLE TEA first issued its protective guarantee to the purchaser, three years ago, offering to refund the whole of the purchase money for any package of KING COLE TEA returned, there was a very good reason for this radical departure from usual sales methods.

We greatly desired a very general trial of KING COLE TEA. Our faith in its quality was unbounded, for we knew the constant care given to its preparation, but we realized the possible doubt the public might have of a TEA then comparatively new, and so we decided to assume the risk of every trial, and pay back the full purchase price of every package of KING COLE TEA that failed to please. No stronger surety of our good faith could be offered, and we felt confident because of the quality of KING, COLE TEA that practically every trial would bring us a permanent customer.

Things have turned out just as we expected. Not one package has been returned. We have never had a request for "Money Back"—we have never heard of a complaint of "King Cole" quality, while "King Cole" sales have been growing steadily larger year by year. Only exceptional quality could have made such a record, and to-day with more confidence than ever, we invite you to give this tea a test.

The "Money Back" offer is still open; every package is sold on that understanding! What better assurance of Tea value could you have, and what better encouragement to buy your first package of KING COLE TEA?

THE EUROPEAN WAR

Would be in Bad Position if Germans Should Get Petrograd Railway.

GERMANY'S PRESSING ANXIETY TO SECURE THE PETROGRAD RAILWAY IS THE MOST EVIDENT OF THE FACT THAT THE GERMAN ARMY IS IN THE MOST DANGEROUS POSITION OF ITS HISTORY.

LONDON, Sept. 14, 11 P. M.—The German drive toward Petrograd goes forward according to the Berlin official statement issued today, and Field Marshal von Hindenburg's army has captured ten thousand prisoners in the capture of the last twenty-four hours, and is expected to reach within thirty miles of the Russian fortress.

At the time being, it is left to the German to decide whether it should make a direct attack, but should it be decided to proceed in setting off a series of attacks, the Petrograd railway would be a serious developing move.

At the mid-Poland fighting, the German is progressing in their favor, the Russians are still on the offensive, and the Austrians are still on the offensive. The latter part of last winter, the German drive in the west, as yet, has not been decided, and the German drive in the east, as yet, has not been decided.

Poisoning the Children.

To the Editor of the Digby Courier.

The following is from the Ottawa Citizen. "The sincere temperance advocate has the greatest consideration for people who have used alcoholic liquors more or less all their lives not knowing that the practice was harmful to themselves or to the children that might be born to them. But the truth in respect to alcoholism must be declared again and again that people may free themselves from this great menace to the individual and the nation."

What is the truth, and where may it be found? Great government commissions in many countries have spoken; science has spoken with no uncertain sound; church conventions of all denominations have spoken and the great employers of labor have spoken and all agree that alcohol in any form is used frequently is poisonous to the drinker and his offspring.

Read and weigh the following sentences from the report of the French commission and determine for yourself whether the Citizen attaches too much importance to this matter:

"Sins of alcoholic parents are visited on the children. If they survive, in fancy they are threatened with idiocy or epilepsy and many are carried away with tuberculosis. For the health of the individual, for the existence of the family, for the future of the nation alcohol is one of the most terrible scourges."

These are serious words from a source that should command respect; if the newspapers generally would print and reprint them as an antidote to the false statements contained in liquor advertisements which appear day after day the problem will gradually solve itself. So long as the truth concerning this evil can be kept from the people the liquor traffic will thrive and the race will degenerate. And it is because this result is inevitable that the Citizen holds that every effort should be made by governments, municipalities, newspapers and other educational channels to spread a knowledge of these facts."

H. AKNOTT, M.B., M.C., P.S.

A Call we Must Heed

Under the above heading the Toronto Christian Guardian says: It is the call to carefulness, to economy, to thrift in public life, in private life, everywhere. And we must heed it, heed it now, and seriously, for if we do not we will have to pay for our folly and neglect in hard and bitter ways in the days to come. The London Telegraph puts the matter forcibly and well: "The call comes from every practical person, including the very poorest, who realize that the gigantic additions now being made to the nation's financial burden mean, and how vitally necessary it is to apply, impartially and universally, the simple principle of doing without. Very many people, it is remarked, have not yet submitted themselves to that necessity. So much the worse for them; time will be their teacher; but the Government knows well what the position is. There is no question of crippling the nation, the apparatus of civilization, no question of effecting any economy which could result in diminishing the increased health, the increased social wellbeing, the increased intelligence, and fitness for the work of the world, which have been attained by the nation through the vast extending of the sphere of administration in modern times. Nothing of those things can the country afford to sacrifice if it is to win back the fullness of its depleted strength. It is simply a question of eliminating the waste of existing down superfluities, of rooting out jobs and sinecures, of sternly discouraging carelessness of cost, down to the very smallest detail, in every branch of departmental work; of pursuing, in a word, precisely the same policy that the best, the most enlightened, type of business man pursues in the conduct of his business. The Government is not asked to do more; there is no longer a shadow of excuse for its doing less." This is the word for governments and individuals alike, the word that we must not neglect.

Marshalltown

Mr. Eugene Comeau has gone to Church Point to resume his studies. Our visitors are gradually leaving us—another sign of approaching fall. Master Guy Marshall, son of Arthur Marshall, went to Church Point on Tuesday to enter the College there.

Mrs. Phillip Christion, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. Craig Hinxman, left Wednesday for her home in Boston.

Miss Jessie Covert, who spent the summer at Mrs. Edward Marshall's, is visiting in Digby a few days before returning to her home in New York. Miss Miller, of West Scamville, and Miss W. of Newbury, Mass., left on Saturday after spending the past few weeks at Mrs. Edward Marshall's, Glenmore Cottage.

He Knew Alright

Uncle Bob came over for a visit and during his visit he let little Billy know his knowledge of the value of money. So he held out on his hand a nickel and said to Billy: "Now Billy, take the one you like the best." Much to his surprise he took the nickel. "Well, Billy, I am ashamed of you, uncle said, 'I thought you would know the difference alright.' " "You let me, uncle," Billy said. "This nickel I can keep in my pocket and the quarter I have to put in my bank."

A Letter from Our Boys

From the Editor of the Digby Courier.

DEAR SIR:—A few lines to give you some idea of how the 40th Battalion C. E. F., is getting along.

Since the Battalion was mobilized, we have had very little sickness, practically none, in comparison with the thousands of men in Canada. Besides the regular companies, I wish to speak chiefly about our own company, "D." Company, of which the Digby and Annapolis county boys are well represented. The chief worry of the boys is that our general old friend, Quartermaster, Mr. S. is getting too much weight, as he is now verging on the 300 mark. But we are proud to be able to say that he certainly clothes and feeds us like Royalty, and his discipline is excellent.

Another friend of the "boys" is our Acting Company Sergeant, Major, A. J. Levy, who helps us all in securing our passes home, and is a special friend of us all, when in trouble and discouragement. His interest in us is so far-reaching that we cannot all help but always hold dear the memory of him while in training at Valcartier. Sergeant, Archer Turnbull, one of our company's noble sons, has recently been promoted as Sergeant, and Quartermaster. The general appearance of "D" Coy., proves to find favor with Colonel Vincent, who is proud of this Annapolis County boys.

We are glad to have Lieutenant R. C. Phinney, our former Recruiting Officer with us. Lieutenant Phinney is second in command of our company, and the boys of "D" Coy. wish him every success, knowing he shall in time be one of our foremost officials of the 40th Battalion.

General speaking, "the boys" are well satisfied, with the exception of a few who have returned home with "Cold Flu," to which we wish to say that we hope no one will be foolish enough to be guided by their "cheap talk," as these "sneakers" makes it very hard for all concerned up here, and anyone who has the least desire of enlisting is warned not to pay any attention to them.

Thanking you for your valuable space, Mr. Editor.

Methodist Notes

The delightful camp grounds at Berwick, were open for two weeks during the month of August. First came the 44th Annual Camp Meeting with an attendance on Saturday and Sunday of at least 1,000 people. Lectures of Prof. Bland and sermons of Rev. C. A. Williams were both inspiring and practical. "Get right with God" was the key note and testimonies at the close proved that the messages had not been unheeded. From 12 to 12:30 the summer school of Sunday school methods was in session. This is now the Methodist hygienic or Baptist and needs best to be better known to secure a larger attendance. Exposed from the United States and Canada—Lutheran, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist—gave of their best and the Sunday Schoolers gathered in but a greatly helped. On the register of students were 10 from Kings Co., 4 from Annapolis Co., and 10 from Digby. At least three times that number attended some of the sessions. The school is now an established annual event and should be looked forward to and planned for by all Sunday schools and churches, especially by those in Kings, Annapolis and Digby Counties.

A garden party on the grounds of Mr. J. H. B. Clark, of the Government, 12th, netted $11.00 and the material for a barn near the church at that place for the minister's horse has been secured.

The membership of the Methodist church in Canada, Nfld. and Bermuda for 1914, on the increase of the last year of 1700. All the 12 conferences reported an increase, the largest percentage being in Nfld., where the membership is 14,023, the increase 1,107.

At the Panama Pacific Exposition, in a competition open to all, the Methodist Book Concern of New York, won a gold medal for the most comprehensive, up-to-date and widely distributed International Uniform and Graded Sunday School lessons. It also won a grand prize, the highest award given by the exposition, for the printing and binding of books and general book making.

Rev. E. E. Graham, of N. S. Conference and Chaplain to His Majesty's fleet, is now the guest of the Annapolis. Rev. H. B. Clarke, last year of Springfield, has received his commission as Lieutenant and is doing recruiting work in Nova Scotia. Rev. J. S. Allen, Senior Missionary and one of the lieutenants at Niagara and one of them is immediately proceeding to the front.

25 Years Ago

[From the Yarmouth Times files] The Florida, ashore at Westport, was being stripped of all moveables. The ship was now the property of the Government. She had been captured a few days previously at the mouth of the St. Lawrence River. She was registered 900 tons and was owned by Wm. Law & Co., Blackhead, N. S. Capt. Baker was to command her.

Kardale.

Bartis Anthony returned to Lynn on Saturday.

Reggie Bishop, of Paradise, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams, of Bridgetown, spent the week end with friends here.

The Baptist Sunday school held their annual picnic on Thursday last at Bay View. Dr. Bogart, with his usual generosity conveyed the party to the Life Saving Station in the Evangelina, towing a dory load as well. The day was an ideal one, clear skies and not a breath of wind. Arriving at Bay View a delegation was dispatched to secure the necessary grounds. Interviewing Charles Adams, who had the best S. 3 picnic ground, the return trip was a delightful one. At 7:30 all were safely landed and after a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Bogart for making such an enjoyable outing possible, all wended their way to their homes with the general feeling that it was the best S. 3 picnic ever enjoyed. On Saturday evening another picnic was held on the grounds of Howard Cressup. A large party assembled and after enjoying all the good things placed upon the tables by the ladies, a most delicious clam chowder, prepared by Mrs. Cressup, formed a very important part. The company amused themselves in various ways, until about 8 o'clock, when a dance started, which the young people thoroughly enjoyed.
