The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of St. Mary's Bay. This laid out from the water's edge, partly on level ground and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having with an eastern aspect a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in where it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New York in 1763, the most of whom went early to farms, or, moving to other countries, left the whole

There was a taste of trying to sell job printing outside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for printed personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it, made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular (small) town, spent much time and got an order, but

THE LILLY SILVER & BLACK BEAUTY FOX CO., LTD., AGAIN PAYS LARGE DIVIDEND.

At the annual meeting of the Lilly Silver & Black Beauty Fox Co., Ltd., held in Boston, Mass., on Saturday, April 9, 1916, the directors declared a cash dividend of 30 per cent on the basis of the capital stock of the company, amounting to $100,000. The directors also authorized the payment of a dividend of 30 per cent on the basis of the capital stock of the company, amounting to $100,000. The directors also authorized the payment of a dividend of 30 per cent on the basis of the capital stock of the company, amounting to $100,000.

The entire increase of foxes for 1915, were sold at an exceptionally high figure under the existing war conditions, and the shareholders were fortunate in receiving this large dividend. The company has never before paid a dividend of this magnitude. The company has never before paid a dividend of this magnitude. The company has never before paid a dividend of this magnitude.

Death of William E. Dunn. Mr. William E. Dunn died at his home on Prince William Street at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. He was the last of the family of the late Richard Dunn, of Bear River, and was born at that village 71 years ago. He leaves a widow and family of five, Richard L. Germaine and Rose at home; Frank in Boston, and Mrs. P. H. Dunn in Quebec. His wife was Miss Annie S. Grouse, of Bear River. Mr. Dunn was a well known farmer and at one time a lumber merchant, having been connected years ago with the firm of Dunn & Welch of this town. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held from his late home Tuesday morning with interment in Bear River. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. C. W. Robinson, pastor of the Digby Baptist Church, and by Rev. R. B. McArthur, pastor of Digby Methodist Church, and by the Rev. H. C. Crandall, pastor of the Bear River Baptist Church.

H. Price Webster Welcomed Back. WILL OFFER MARITIME PROVINCES ENGAGEMENT MAY 21.

The announcement that Price Webster, after a long illness, is again to see in the Maritime Province territory, will delight many thousands, as probably no other theatrical actor has quite reached that peculiar niche in the affections of the public as enjoyed by the estimable Mr. Webster. Various newspapers throughout the Maritime Provinces noted what was practically a weekly bulletin concerning Mr. Webster's sickness, and of corresponding interest was the news of his coming back to the stage. Mr. Webster, with his excellent company, will be in Fredericton May 24th, and will spend the entire season in the lower provinces, doubtless receiving in every place visited a hearty welcome.

Windsor Boy Receives Promotion. Mr. D. A. Richards, who for the past two years or so has been in charge of the telephone exchange here, has been transferred to Sydney, N. S., in charge of his new post in the course of a few weeks. He will be succeeded by Mr. J. H. Richards, of Windsor. Mr. Richards is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Richards, of Digby.

Bishop White Coming. On Tuesday evening next, the 11th inst., the Right Rev. C. W. White, Bishop of the Diocese of Antigonish, will give an address in Holy Trinity Hall at 9 p. m. Bishop White has been in Canada nearly 20 years, and was well known for his self-denying work among Chinese laborers before his elevation to the episcopate. His address is sure to be of great interest and instruction, and should be heard by a large number.

D. A. A. A. The annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Association was held at the Freeman's hall, town building, Monday evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: O. D. Dunham, president; A. L. M. Swabey, vice president; F. L. Anderson, secretary; W. J. Gibson, treasurer. Finance and auditing commit.tee: H. E. Jones, C. F. McBride and N. W. Hogg. The president and vice president were appointed a committee to collect the dues.

A Good Theatrical Company. The young Adair Company gave three good shows in Digby last week. The Lion and the Mouse, "The Black Fox" and "The Lion and the Mouse" were the specialties between the acts were especially good. H. Wilcox Young, Marie Adams and the company were very popular in Digby and throughout the Maritime Provinces and are usual, meeting with good success in the various towns visited.

Pto. Bain Wounded. Word was received here Saturday that Pto. E. H. Bain, of Digby, had been wounded in the foot. Pto. Bain is a member of the 25th Battalion. In a letter to his mother, Mr. H. H. Bain, he wrote that he was wounded in the foot. Pto. Bain is a member of the 25th Battalion. In a letter to his mother, Mr. H. H. Bain, he wrote that he was wounded in the foot.

The change of train service reported in our last issue took effect last Monday as the time tables had not yet been published. It is expected that it will take place however, during the present month, probably beginning the 17th.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Aymar. Our Methodist correspondent writes that Mrs. Wm. Aymar (nee Emilie Comeau) calmly breathed her last at the age of 94 years. Deceased had been suffering with heart trouble for several years, but since early last fall had been almost constantly confined to her bed. It can be said that Dr. M. H. Aymar, her son, a tender care she was, did everything that nature could be done toward her recovery. The late Mrs. Aymar had always been a devoted wife and a loving mother. She died fortified with all the sacraments and blessings with which the Holy Eucharist in that supreme hour. During her long illness she frequently received her God in the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. The funeral took place at eight o'clock on Tuesday morning, March 21st, last, at the home of the deceased. The Rev. F. Comeau, vicar at Meteghan. The members of the Ladies of the Loyal Orange Association, of which Mrs. Aymar had always been a devoted member, turned out in procession with banner and full insignia. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. F. Comeau, of Meteghan River. She leaves to mourn her absence, a loving husband, seven children, an aged father and mother and six brothers. To the members of the bereaved family we offer our sincere sympathies and tributes of condolence in their great affliction. Mr. Wm. Aymar and family gratefully thank those who help and aid them in their days of affliction.

Relief for the Belgians. Mrs. Eber Turnbull, president of the local Red Cross Society, has been somewhat lengthily, circular yesterday, dealing with the great assistance which is now required for the Belgians, from which we publish the following paragraph: "We were fortunate enough last week to receive a consignment of relief goods, five full cargoes of relief goods besides other separate consignments. Since that time we have been busy distributing the various financial resources not having enabled us to carry out our anxious wish to fill a sixth steamer. The goods received during last summer are insufficient. We need about three times as much money as is available at present to buy a cargo of goods. It is a pity that the Red Cross is in such a position. We are sorry to state that in the meantime, far from diminishing, needs in Belgium have kept increasing."

The ladies of the local Red Cross Society as reported last week will hold a sale of odds and ends, cake, rolls, etc., at the Red Lion building on Prince Albert's birthday, April 8th, for the benefit of the Belgian refugees. The sale will be held during the afternoon following, and will be a very important affair will be largely attended. Price of tea 25 cents.

Entertainments at Marshalls. An interesting social event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchinson on Saturday evening when a number of their friends met in the form of a surprise party to celebrate Mrs. Hutchinson's birthday, which occurred April 2nd. The evening was pleasantly passed with games, music, etc., and was accompanied by Mrs. Stephen Marshall and Mrs. Hutchinson on other instruments. Refreshments were served and the birthday cake occupying a prominent place on the table. Useful gifts were given and the evening was a very pleasant one. The health of the hostess, who in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for their thoughtfulness.

In the same village Tuesday evening, April 4th, a number of friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Bell. Luncheon was served and the guests were very pleasantly entertained. Meeting of Retail Merchants. Nearly all the merchants of Digby were present at a meeting held in the Town Council chamber last Monday evening. Mr. H. B. Shaw was in the chair and after a few appropriate remarks introduced Mr. J. Doyle, of Halifax, who gave a lengthy address on the interest of forming a Digby branch of the Retail Merchants Association. A resolution was passed to form an association if a membership of 25 could be secured. A half dozen signed the membership roll. Mr. Doyle's meeting and another half dozen signed the following morning. Mr. Doyle was accompanied by Mr. C. L. Kent, also of Halifax.

Bijou Dream Theatre. Mr. J. F. Cripps, the enterprising proprietor of the Bijou Dream Theatre, has installed a medium globe three screen machine in New York. This together with a new lighting system and a new machine, produces pictures second to none in the province. Owing to the being under quarantine, business has been very dull at the theatre for the past few weeks. Tonight the theatre will run for soldiers only. Saturday night the general public will be admitted.

The change of train service reported in our last issue took effect last Monday as the time tables had not yet been published. It is expected that it will take place however, during the present month, probably beginning the 17th.

Death of Mrs. Wm. Aymar. Our Methodist correspondent writes that Mrs. Wm. Aymar (nee Emilie Comeau) calmly breathed her last at the age of 94 years. Deceased had been suffering with heart trouble for several years, but since early last fall had been almost constantly confined to her bed. It can be said that Dr. M. H. Aymar, her son, a tender care she was, did everything that nature could be done toward her recovery. The late Mrs. Aymar had always been a devoted wife and a loving mother. She died fortified with all the sacraments and blessings with which the Holy Eucharist in that supreme hour. During her long illness she frequently received her God in the sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. The funeral took place at eight o'clock on Tuesday morning, March 21st, last, at the home of the deceased. The Rev. F. Comeau, vicar at Meteghan. The members of the Ladies of the Loyal Orange Association, of which Mrs. Aymar had always been a devoted member, turned out in procession with banner and full insignia. Deceased was the daughter of Mr. F. Comeau, of Meteghan River. She leaves to mourn her absence, a loving husband, seven children, an aged father and mother and six brothers. To the members of the bereaved family we offer our sincere sympathies and tributes of condolence in their great affliction. Mr. Wm. Aymar and family gratefully thank those who help and aid them in their days of affliction.

Relief for the Belgians. Mrs. Eber Turnbull, president of the local Red Cross Society, has been somewhat lengthily, circular yesterday, dealing with the great assistance which is now required for the Belgians, from which we publish the following paragraph: "We were fortunate enough last week to receive a consignment of relief goods, five full cargoes of relief goods besides other separate consignments. Since that time we have been busy distributing the various financial resources not having enabled us to carry out our anxious wish to fill a sixth steamer. The goods received during last summer are insufficient. We need about three times as much money as is available at present to buy a cargo of goods. It is a pity that the Red Cross is in such a position. We are sorry to state that in the meantime, far from diminishing, needs in Belgium have kept increasing."

The ladies of the local Red Cross Society as reported last week will hold a sale of odds and ends, cake, rolls, etc., at the Red Lion building on Prince Albert's birthday, April 8th, for the benefit of the Belgian refugees. The sale will be held during the afternoon following, and will be a very important affair will be largely attended. Price of tea 25 cents.

Entertainments at Marshalls. An interesting social event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchinson on Saturday evening when a number of their friends met in the form of a surprise party to celebrate Mrs. Hutchinson's birthday, which occurred April 2nd. The evening was pleasantly passed with games, music, etc., and was accompanied by Mrs. Stephen Marshall and Mrs. Hutchinson on other instruments. Refreshments were served and the birthday cake occupying a prominent place on the table. Useful gifts were given and the evening was a very pleasant one. The health of the hostess, who in a few well chosen words, thanked her friends for their thoughtfulness.

Meeting of Retail Merchants. Nearly all the merchants of Digby were present at a meeting held in the Town Council chamber last Monday evening. Mr. H. B. Shaw was in the chair and after a few appropriate remarks introduced Mr. J. Doyle, of Halifax, who gave a lengthy address on the interest of forming a Digby branch of the Retail Merchants Association. A resolution was passed to form an association if a membership of 25 could be secured. A half dozen signed the membership roll. Mr. Doyle's meeting and another half dozen signed the following morning. Mr. Doyle was accompanied by Mr. C. L. Kent, also of Halifax.

Bijou Dream Theatre. Mr. J. F. Cripps, the enterprising proprietor of the Bijou Dream Theatre, has installed a medium globe three screen machine in New York. This together with a new lighting system and a new machine, produces pictures second to none in the province. Owing to the being under quarantine, business has been very dull at the theatre for the past few weeks. Tonight the theatre will run for soldiers only. Saturday night the general public will be admitted.

Father's Capabilities.
Little Nelly told little Anita what she termed a "little fib".

Anita—A fib is the same as a story, and a story is the same as a lie.

Nelly—No, it's not.

Yes, it is, because my father said so, and my father is a professor at the university.

"I don't care if he is. My father is a real estate man and he knows more about lying than your father."

The Ship Tipped.

It was her very first voyage, and of course she was nervous. Moreover, she had made herself hated by the officers, because of her foolish questions. It fell to the lot of the steward to silence her finally. "Doesn't this ship tip a good deal?" she remarked timidly to that official.

"The vessel, madam," he replied suavely, is merely trying to set a good example to the passengers.

British Bank Ship by Submarine

GIRL COULD NOT WORK

How She Was Relieved from Pain by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Taunton, Mass.—"I had pains in both sides and when my periods came I had to stay at home from work and suffer for a long time. One day a woman came to our house and asked me my mother why I was suffering. Mother told her that I suffered every month and she said, 'Why don't you buy a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' My mother bought it and the next month I was so well that I worked all the month without staying at home a day. I am in good health now and have told lots of girls about it."—Miss CLAUDE MOIN, 22 Russell Street, Taunton, Mass.

Thousands of girls suffer in silence every month rather than consult a physician. If girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, headache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a safe and pure remedy made from roots and herbs, much suffering might be avoided.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for name of free advice which will prove helpful.

HER DAVID.

"Send and fetch him, for we will not sit down till he comes here." Mrs. Penruddocke started, sat up, and began to listen with sudden interest to these words of Holy Writ. It was the chapter of the Maccabees, and she, a mother herself, had read it.

"Send and fetch him," What was David doing? "Fetch him?" That was the word. Was it not enough to have sent him? "Fetch him?" That was the word. Was it not enough to have sent him?

It must be her boy they were men talking. "Now he was ruddy and with a beautiful countenance, and goodly to look to." She was not quite clear what ruddy meant, but it was not given on his face, and he was the finest of the lot of 'em, standing six feet in his stockings, and he was goodly to look to—he could lean on him. Never never had she said an unkind word to her, and yet—

The old lady pressed her handkerchief tight against her eyes. "There remaineth yet the youngest," and oh, it was true. He was keeping the sheep on yonder down. He was a young man, and all the farms were short-handed. She poured herself out in voluble and excited speech, as the came face to face with the old Vicar in the crowd. David, the youngest, was the service. It took time gathering her import, though he was used to racy speech and quaint dialect.

He heard her out very patiently, learning again a lesson he knew by heart, for it was not given on his face, and he was the finest of the lot of 'em, standing six feet in his stockings, and he was goodly to look to—he could lean on him. Never never had she said an unkind word to her, and yet—

"I never said to you of 'em if it were the Lord's will and the Lord's doing, I would not send you to church 'Send and fetch him,'" she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed.

And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed.

And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed.

And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed.

And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed. And then, "Send and fetch him," she sobbed.

TOPICS FOR MOTHERS

Even making the excuse of youth, it is still incomprehensible how many mothers ever have the heart to bring up their children in the way that should be. With a great many of them their sole idea seems to be to let the children grow up with the least bother to themselves. Any method which will keep the youngsters quiet is considered legitimate by such mothers.

Under this head come the women who make their children afraid of the dark in order to get them to bed with the least bother. In many cases, however, children whose mothers are really devoted to their education are put to bed by nurses, who instill this fear of the dark and its many imaginary creatures into their small charges.

This proceeding is one of the most outrageous of all the many mistakes made in the rearing of children. No one can know or appreciate the agony of the little one who has been taught to be afraid in the dark. Grown men and women who have experienced this in childhood remember it, still in maturity and probably will remember it to their dying day.

Yet this fear is far from uncommon, which only goes to show how many mothers unconsciously maltreat their offspring. A woman who would be horrified at the idea of striking a child thinks nothing of saying, when she turns out the nursery light for the night, "Now be good and quiet or the Boogey Man will come and get you." It would be hard for him to whip the child then to flay his imagination in this way. He suffers infinitely more through his terror of the dark and the imaginary vision of the awful Boogey Man, standing ready to grab him, than he would move a finger, even he could possibly suffer through physical punishment.

Fear is naturally alien to child nature. No child thinks of being afraid by himself, but once the idea of the Boogey Man and all the other things that the darkness has been impressed on his mind, it will take years of loving care to remove the effect.

Mother, it is actually criminal to threaten your children with the imaginary Boogey Man, and all the other things that the darkness has been impressed on his mind, it will take years of loving care to remove the effect.

ANOTHER MINK STORY

FROM THE LIFE-SAVING STATION AT BAYVIEW.
(With compliments of the fishery.)
The other day, I just the keeper of the Life-Saving Station at Bayview, I asked him how it was going. Mink getting along?

Well, he said, she kept me busy, but she never got away again. I had her all winter in a box and fed her regularly and studied her habits closely. When March came around, I began to see these chintzy eyes and a far away look she had. She was not eating much, seemed exceedingly restless. Then I made up my mind it was time to give her her freedom. I had a lot of trouble to get her out of the box, but I did it.

I ran something like this: "I had a good deal of hard work to get Mink out of the box. She was something like a Black Box, you see, and she was very stubborn. I had to get her out of the box, but I did it. I had a lot of trouble to get her out of the box, but I did it."

Value of the Tourist Traffic

QUANTIFIED BY DOMINION ATLANTIC R.V. TO THE CONFERENCE OF VALLEY BOARDS OF TRADE, AT KENTVILLE.
Canda's tourist traffic for 1913 took fourth place in her national sources of income.

First: Canadian Field Crops, $508,487,000.
Second: Forest Products, 161,093,000.
Third: Minerals, 102,000,000.
Fourth: Tourist Traffic, 50,000,000.
Fifth: Fisheries, 45,607,000.

In analyzing the local situation along the Dominion Atlantic between Yarmouth and Halifax, in 1915, we found that there were 271 hotels and boarding houses with accommodation for 6,198 guests at one time. Our tourist season, (including the Spring and early Summer fishing totals about 1915) was 1,000,000. In normal years, we have 20,000 American guests. The average time each person stays is 20 days. The daily expenditure made by each person is placed at $3.50, which means that everyone who is conservative—based on these figures for the total season, we receive $1,400,000—more than our farmers will realize from last year's apple crop.

The following figures show the value of the tourist traffic to the Maritime Provinces. In 1913, the daily average being 537, spending $3.50 per day meant a daily income of $1,880,000. In normal years, this totals $13,560,000. There are many industries in our valley towns making a weekly turn-over of that magnitude. $800,000 of this would produce $105,000,000. In this connection, please note that 90 per cent of the income from tourist sources goes to the trader, the farmer and to the merchant—and from them flows to the four corners of the entire industrial organization. No money circulates more broadly than does that spent by these visitors.

Our figures, however, look small in comparison with the wealth derived by the New England States from the tourist. There is no question in that country that the tourist trade is a money-making industry—everyone recognizes its importance. In 1914 along the lines of the three great New England Railways were 4,214 hotels and boarding houses, which would accommodate, at one time, 100,000 guests. There are a million and a half people summered in New England and spent upward of $110,000,000. Let us examine the records of the State of Maine alone, as an actual condition in that State.

Maine has 1,265 hotels and boarding houses that cater exclusively to tourists. These places accommodate 69,000 people (compare with our 6,198). The records show that 478,000 people spent their vacations in Maine in 1914, there being about 4,000 new registrations each day, each guest spent an average of $75.00, having in that State, for the season, a magnificent total of over $1,500,000.

We can bring our revenue in this valley from $1,400,000 to $500,000, but we must first show our belief in our tourist industry is real, so real that we must try to lay it back to with normal and sane investments of money to bring our resort places up to date and, if we follow the trend of events, we cannot but realize it is going to be needful to increase, in some way, the earning capacity of this country.

Lord Reading's French Story
The mixture of optimism and pessimism which effects us at the present time reminds one of a good story that Lord Reading told not long ago about pessimists and optimists in the trenches.

"Two soldiers at the front were smoking under a tree somewhere in France," said his lordship.
"This war will last a long time yet," said the first soldier. "Our company has been in the trenches for a long time now." "Oh, you jolly optimist," said the other Tommy. "We've planted ourselves in front of our trench."

Keeping Black
Stockings which are not a good black often fade to an ugly gray, and while it is no error to buy expensive stockings for the children's play wear, still many mothers do not like to buy the cheap grade.
However, if the war keeps up much longer we shall be glad to get any sort of black dye at all. The price of most of the warblers is so high that a little ordinary bluing in the water which stockings are washed, will keep them black.

Taken Prisoner
A Canadian soldier in Belgium was one morning wandering in a way to find a farm where he could get a good meal. He was stopped by his colonel to know he had been stealing chickens.
"No, colonel," was the reply. "I saw the old fellow sitting on the wall, and I looked him over for a long time. He wouldn't—no I just took him prisoner."

Life Unbearable from Indigestion Health Restored by "Fruit-A-Diet"

MELLE C. GAUDREAU
Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible Indigestion and Constipation. I became thin and weak. I had frequent dizzy spells and became so run down that I never thought I would get well again."

"A neighbor advised me to try 'Fruit-A-Diet'. I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and I continued this medicine and all my Indigestion and Constipation was relieved. I consider that I owe my life to 'Fruit-A-Diet' and I want to say to those who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation or Headaches, try 'Fruit-A-Diet'. Give this lovely fruit medicine a fair chance and you will get well the same as I did."

LOCAL MILITARY NOTES

10.1117/1.1142400

Pte. Gordon Costly, of the 112th Digby, is spending a few days in Halifax.

Pte. Roy Whynacht was a passenger to Halifax Tuesday to join the Regimental Orderly Room Staff of the 219th.

Lieut. R. S. Asher has returned from

More than a hundred men from Roblin, Man., enlisted in the 170th Battalion and only old men are left in that place to do business.

The latest additions to the Digby detachment of the 219.h are: Ernest Sarty Parker's Cove; Reginald Young, Hillsburn; Wm. Robinson and Fred Parker Digby.

The members of the 219th. were made happy April 1st, by receiving their pay to March 31st and again pleased on April 19th by receiving their pay in advance to April 30th.

Among the recent callers at the office of the Agent General for Nova Scotia in London were Lieut. C. D. Shreve, 36th Battery, C. F. A., of Digby; Lieut. G. E. Crag, 23rd Battalion, of Bridgewater.

Rev. Jabez Appleby, formerly of the Digby Neck Methodist church and during which pastorate he married a Sandy Cove lady, one of his parishioners, has volunteered for duty as a chaplain for overseas. The reverend gentleman has two sons at the front. In June his four years' term at Brunswick street Methodist church will close with him married.

Since the war began 290,000 Canadians of all ranks have been enrolled. There were approximately 112,000 in England and at the front and approximately 135, 000 still in Canada. Casualties of ever description amounted to 22,000 and wastage accounted for 21,000 men more. The total expenditure of Canada for war purposes up to the end of February, 1916 was approximately $187,000,000.

Corporal Frank Robinson and Pte. John Hersey, Edgar Handspeak, Dominick Melanson, Ross Bell and Wm. Hazelton left here Friday for Windsor for special training at the headquarters of the battalion. Corp. Robinson and his men wish to publicly thank the officers and members of the Digby Fire Co., M. J. and Mary M. Stoen.

The 4th Pioneer (Overseas) Battalion is now being recruited in Canada. The class of men required for this unit are roadmakers, linemen, smiths, railway construction men, bridge builders, men accustomed to using explosives, tradesmen and men of good general labouring experience. Pay and allowances are same as in other units of C. E. F. M. may remain at home until further order. If interested inquire for particulars from Sergt. G. W. Connell, R. O., Digby. Men are urgently needed for Home Service in Infantry and Canadian Garrison Artillery. Particulars as to pay, allowances, etc., gladly furnished on request.

The Digby Glee Club Concert

A new military drill by men or 112th led by Corp. Rosencranz, and an interesting military tableau "somewhere where in France" will be features of the Digby Glee Club concert, the last of the season, at Holy Trinity Hall on the evening of the 28. h inst.

An unusually good program including some old favorite songs, patriotic selections, humorous reading and instrumental compositions. A group of choruses and a quartet will be featured.

identical numbers. Among the choirs is a fine concert waltz "Arion", and a splendid selection from Donizetti "Lucrecia Borgia".

Home-made candy will be sold during intermission.

112TH BATTALION

Will March From Windsor to the Camp at Aldershot.

THIS FORCED MARCH WILL BE MADE JUST AS IF THEY WERE AT THE FRONT—LIEUT. COL. TREMAIN'S BATTALION IS NOW 500 OVER STRENGTH.

OTTAWA, April 17.—Lieutenant Colonel Hadley Tremain, M. P. for Hants, commanding officer of the 112th overseas battalion, who has been in Ottawa for a couple of weeks—attending the sessions of the commons, conferring with the militia department on details connected with his regiment, and looking after the business of his constituency generally, has returned to Nova Scotia. While at the capital, Colonel Tremain was the recipient of the warmest congratulations of the chief military officials, also of his fellow members, on the great success achieved in the rapid recruiting of his regiment. Without any special assistance or spectacular campaigning, and in a comparatively short time, while whirlwind recruiting was being carried on for other battalions, with an organized effort and success, and surpassed if attempted, by any other part of Canada, Colonel Tremain quietly succeeded in not only recruiting his battalion to full strength, but actually has 500 men over strength. In this achievement he has been admirably supported by an excellent staff of officers, and especially by Adjutant Bremner, a veteran North west Mounted Policeman, and an officer of long military experience.

In view of the simultaneous recruiting for so many other battalions and units and of the scientific, spectacular and drag net efforts made to obtain the 4,000 men for the Highland Brigade, Col. Tremain's success in recruiting 1,500 first class men for the 112th, is little less than phenomenal. The men of the 112th were contributed by the following centers in western Nova Scotia:—

Windsor (headquarters).....	387
Kentville.....	145
Midleton.....	145
Digby.....	123
Norwich.....	54
Yarmouth.....	54
Shelburne.....	101
Liverpool.....	68
Bridgeport.....	68
Lunenburg.....	53
Chester.....	80

Meteghan's contribution of 54, being all French Canadians, were transferred to Colonel D'Aigle's French Canadian regiment with headquarters at Moncton. A draft of 25 of the 112th recruits was also transferred to Colonel Miller's Forestry battalion.

The detachments have been in training where they were recruited, above. Instructors in musketry and other lines of fighting were obtained from Montreal and distributed among the various centers; and a special class in bayonet fighting and physical drill organized at Yarmouth.

Colonel Tremain has obtained permission of the department to concentrate the 112th at Windsor for several weeks training preparatory to camping at Aldershot; and he will immediately detach himself to his duties. The addition of 1,500 men to the population of Windsor will create stirring times in that historic town, for a century or more famous as the seat of King's university.

One of the first problems to be solved is what to do with the excess 503 men. The colonel is strongly in favor of making the 112th into a two battalion regiment.

This would be the only two battalion Nova Scotia regiment to date and would, of course, vastly add to its prestige and popularity. Unless this is done, the surplus 500 men will necessarily be transferred to bring other battalions up to strength, or sent overseas as drafts.

A great deal of publicity has been given to the bands of other Nova Scotia regiments. Through the efforts of the Halifax Herald and the Evening Mail the people of Nova Scotia contributed money to purchase a splendid band for "the Fighting Fortieth", now a reserve battalion in England. Through the same public spirit, added to the splendid personal gift of $10,000 from T. S. Rogers, K. C. Lieutenant Marshall Rogers and George Henderson, a magnificent band was given to the 6th King's Own Canadian. The 80th, the 106th and other regiments have been handsomely furnished with bands. But little, if any publicity has been given to the good fortune of the 112th in this respect. As a matter of fact, the 112th will be second to none of their rival battalions in the possession of that martial music which thrills and inspires the soldier. A splendid set of instruments, costing $1,000, have been ordered—in the face of popular support with funds to pay for same—and with a galaxy of specially trained musicians under the expert leadership of Sergeant Bandmaster Lyle, of Lunenburg, the 112th will be in the very forefront of Canadian regiments. And not only with its splendid brass band, but also with a bugle and drum band, under that veteran soldier Drum Master Walters, who has already seen service at the front, and is going back again to "fight it out to the bitter end." And besides its full brass band and bugle and drum band, the 112th has the good fortune to possess an orchestra, under the leadership of Sergeant Mitchell—who gave up a good position as leader of an orchestra in the state of Maine and came to Nova Scotia to enlist in the 112th. "Talk about the bands of the other Nova Scotia regiments—the 112th is going to excel them all!" said an enthusiastic friend of the battalion.

But the thing that is going to rivet the attention of the people of Nova Scotia and of the whole maritime provinces on the men of the 112th—until they become still more famous on the battlefield—is the "great hike" of the fitness, the training, and the endurance of the men that Colonel Tremain proposes to give the soldiers and the people of Canada, in a "GRAND HIKK" from the Windsor headquarters to the Aldershot camp—25 mile "hike" to be a taste of real war conditions. The battalion will be outfitted exactly as they were on the battlefield.

The exact date of the "great hike" has not yet been determined, but it will likely be early in June. The route will, of course, be thru Falmouth, Mount Denison, Hantsport, Ayrtonport, Horton, Grand Pre, Wolfville and Kentville to Aldershot. Col. Tremain is confident that his men can do the 25 mile "hike" comfortably in one day; but others are of opinion that two days should be occupied in the march; and that the men should bivouac overnight on the historic battle of Fort Beauséjour. This "great hike" the first seen in Nova Scotia since the march of the British troops overland to Quebec during the Trent affair half a century ago—will attract thousands of ex-curlers and autoists from various parts of the province to witness the spectacle. The towns and settlements along the line of march will turn out en masse to cheer the gallant soldiers, and great picnics will probably be organized at Grand Pre—where the "hike" will certainly rest for dinner. If the "hike" was made in one day, the tent for the night if two days were occupied—and money enough realized from the proceeds to pay for the band. Whatever other regiments may do to complete their organization and training, this thing is very certain—that the eyes of all the soldiers of the maritime provinces and of the people of Nova Scotia for the next sixty days will be fixed on Colonel Tremain's 112th Battalion.

Following is a list of the officers of the 112th Overseas Battalion, C. E. F.:—Lieut. Colonel—Hadley B. Tremain, Senior Major—W. H. Muirhead, Junior Major—W. F. D. Bremner, Adjutant—Major Bremner (acting) Assistant Adjutant—Lieut. Robert, Quartermaster—Capt. P. E. Tans, Paymaster—Capt. H. A. MacDonaid. Company Commanders—Major Seely, Mullock and Parker. Platoon Leaders—Capt. R. Martell, Medical Officer—Capt. J. McKay, Second in Command of Companies—Captains Dwyer, Dauphine, Churchill and Judd. Bandmaster—Sergeant Lyle. Lieutenants—Ralph Parsons, Leslie, Elder, Fred, Reid, Spurr, Longley, Banks, Lunham, Foster, Hughes, McGregor, Larder, Hebb, Wilcox, Swanson, Smith, Crosby, Parsons, Gates, Henshaw, LePage, Bell, Logan, Creighton, Litwog, Dill, Sangster and Howe.

OFFICERS OF DIFFERENT DETACHMENTS:—Chester—Lieuts. Hebb, Wilcox and McGregor. Lunenburg—Lieuts. Foster, Hughes and Larder. Bridgeport—Major Mullock, Capt. Dauphine, Lieutenants Lunham and Swanson. Midleton—Major Parker, Lieuts. Smith, Crosby and Parsons. Digby—Lieutenants Gates and Henshaw. Meteghan—Lieutenant LePage. Yarmouth—Major Seely, Capt. Dwyer and Lieut. Dill. Shelburne—Captain Churchill and Lieutenant Comstock. Liverpool—Lieuts. Sangster, Harmon and Bell.

Officer in charge of bayonet fighting and physical drill carrying on special class at Yarmouth—Lieutenant Morris.

I consider MINARD'S LINIMENT the BEST Liniment in use.

What is Going on Outside the Town in Neighboring Villages

PICKED UP BY CORRESPONDENTS IN DIGBY COUNTY AND ELSEWHERE—MARRIAGES, DEATHS, PERSONALS AND OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Westport.
A number of our ice cream parlors are opening for the season.

Mr. Francis A. Leab, of the 112th Battalion, Digby, is spending a few days with his parents.

Mr. Harold Pugh has accepted a position as 3rd engineer on the cruiser Dillard, now at Montreal.

We wish him success.

A number of our young people spent a sociable evening in the I. O. O. F. Hall, April 14th. Various games and music were the form of entertainment.

We are glad to see the S. S. Westport III on the route again. The Westport has been rather unfortunate in the past, but we hope for the best in the future.

Among the passengers to Yarmouth Wednesday on the Westport III were: Miss Gertrude, Daisy Swift, Ella Payton and Agnes Leab.

Capt. E. Lewis and family will move to Bridgetown where it will be more convenient for the Captain, who is filling the position of Captain of the S. S. Valinda. We feel sorry to have them go, but wish for their success.

Smith's Cove.
Mrs. Annie Smith spent Sunday in Digby.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckner have arrived for the summer.

Mr. C. Weir returned from Boston on Wednesday.

Mr. N. R. Westcott, of Brighton, spent Saturday at Mr. Burton Frude's. Miss Stella Austin is spending a few weeks at Windsor and Halifax.

Mr. O. T. Morgan left for Digby Neck last week on his usual business trip.

Pte. Harry 'Solia' of the 112th Battalion, is spending a few days at his home.

Miss Bessie Woodman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Melville Woodman, at Kentville.

Capt. Robert Austin, our Post master, is erecting a new post office which will soon be ready for use.

Princeton.
Mrs. Leslie Baird and children, of Clementville, visited her sister, Mrs. Elder, Friday.

Mr. David B. Wright, who spent the past winter here, returned to his home at Clementville last week.

Ptes. Fred Wright and Norman Sanford, of the 219th Battalion, of Bedford, spent the week end at their homes here.

The following articles were forwarded from the Princeton Red Cross Society this week, 2 white quilts, 1 pillow, 2 pillow cases, 5 pairs bed socks, 1 pair day sock, 6 knit face cloths, 600 mouth wipes, and five dollars in money.

Lower Granville.
Miss Amy Litch went to Port Wade on Saturday to attend the funeral of her sister Winifred, of Granville Centre.

A long felt want has been attended to the past week by putting up a new picket fence around the Episcopal cemetery.

Mrs. George E. Anthony, of the River View Cottage, Bridge town on Friday, via H. S. W. R., returning on Tuesday.

Mr. J. V. Calnek visited this section on Friday and bought a fine yoke of oxen from Mr. Silas Balsom. On the same day Mr. Albert Williams, of Bridgeport, was in this section and bought a drove of beef cattle for his meat market.

North Range.
Mrs. Jane Andrews, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Perry Porter, Hill Grove, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wright and little daughter Lila spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vess Spittle, Bloomfield.

Mr. Wiswell Heigh who has been to New Brunswick working in the woods, has come home for the summer.

Mrs. Beechman Heigh, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Covert Wright, Hill Grove, has returned home.

Mrs. William Devore and daughter Bertha, of South Range, called on her daughter, Mrs. Henry Marshall, one day last week.

Fired Torpedo, Which Missed.
London, April 15.—The steamship on which Baron Chelmsford, the viceroy and governor general, was proceeding to India, was unfortunately attacked by a submarine, which fired a torpedo, but which missed its aim.

Lord Chelmsford was accompanied by his wife and his four daughters and the steamship had on board an unusual number of women and children.

A dispatch dated April 14th said that Baron Chelmsford had arrived at Bombay and had been received by the ruling chiefs and the naval, military and civil authorities.

The War's Effect on Paints

Every one is familiar with the abnormal conditions existing in the business world due to the war, to the European conflict. Few lines of merchandise have been affected more than paint products.

Messrs. Dakin Bros., who have again made arrangements for placing Broadman Henderson paints, varnishes and leads on the market in Digby, stated to the Courier that, while the paint markets had been greatly disturbed, with the exception of a few special colors, all supplies could now be obtained and offered at reasonable prices.

"While practically every one is interested in paint," said Mr. Dakin, "few realize that the raw materials for their manufacture come from the end of the world, and with the world wide war, the supply of the raw material market has come about."

"B. H. 'English' Paint," said he, "is our leading paint line. It is made on a pigment base of 70 per cent white lead and 30 per cent zinc oxide. Previous to the war, this paint was manufactured from pig lead obtained from the smelter at Trail, B. C., and the zinc came from the zinc mines of Belgium and France; but this supply of zinc has now been cut off, and the lead from Trail is now used entirely for munitions, so that both zinc and lead products are now being imported from the United States."

"When one realizes that so many of the tinting colors come from the Eastern coast, the 'chemicals' from Italy, the umbers from Turkey, and many chemicals for color making from Germany one can appreciate the effort required in the paint industry to keep the Canadian market supplied with paint of standard quality."

What Haleson Got.
HE WAS DUCKED IN MUNDY WATER, HIS NYRVS WERE SHAKEN AND HE SPENT A NIGHT IN JAIL.

Toronto, April 14.—A mob comprising a few soldiers and about 500 men, women and children, residents of Toronto, last night attacked the home of Robert Haleson, of that village, who wrote a letter to Senator Chubbuck, which the senator had mailed, casting reflections on the men enlisting in Toronto. The house was stoned, doors broken and windows shattered. Haleson was taken out and after the result had commenced was dragged out and placed in an impromptu cage. He sprang out, and the mob, with his back to the wall, a steel collar, was taken back to the house. A constable, with drawn revolver, arrived on the scene and threatened to shoot the mob. In the meantime city police had been summoned, but before they could take over, Haleson was dragged from the custody of the constable and thrown into a pool of muddy water. The constable dragged him out, and before the crowd could repeat the attack a squad of five city police arrived. The mob and their victim, being aided by fifteen soldiers who were spectators, Haleson was then placed in the patrol wagon and taken to the Pape Avenue police station, where he spent the night. Today he was returned to his home, under police escort, with blackened eyes and severely injured.

Open to All Traffic.
PANAMA, April 18.—The Panama Canal was reopened to traffic yesterday, with the passage of sixteen ships, seven northbound and nine southbound. The channel throughout the day was in excellent condition and the passage of the vessels was without incident.

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and not me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCH JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Do Moines, Iowa.

Poor Chitchee
(Written for the Courier.)
A chitchee is a kind of a frog. As such, it is a little odd, and a little queer. It is a creature of the night, and it is a creature of the mud. It is a creature of the mud, and it is a creature of the night.

THE CORPORAL'S TENDER HEART

"This isn't a healthy road for travelling in daylight," said Pinkerton. "Sw w!h! There goes another!"

With will like that of a lost spirit, suffering a very bad attack of toothache, and Pinkerton and his companion walked in the mire for a brief spell, they were found.

"No!" replied the Engineer. "I should think it isn't! But we ain't—what?"

He spat out a mouthful of germinous flanders grit, and then raised his head, cautiously surveying the landscape.

There were only two of them on this trip—Pinkerton, because he was supposed to "know the road," (there wasn't any road, but that didn't matter), the young Engineer, his companion.

Pinkerton, travelling light, and the few pounds of ammunition only with him.

The Engineer was unarmed. He was a pallid slim young man, with a face sickened over with a pale cast of thought, a tight hair, showed gray, and his hair was thinning.

But there was nothing unusual in that; many of the sappers and miners of the R. E. in this war were like that.

He was a pallid slim young man, with a face sickened over with a pale cast of thought, a tight hair, showed gray, and his hair was thinning.

of being Pinkerton and the child, sitting in the middle of the room, at a small table was a mild featured speckled German, bald, fat and beaming. Though he was wearing the familiar grey uniform and the high boots of the Saxon regiment, he was a soldier.

On his knee was a small child, extravagantly dressed in black, with a big bow in her yellow hair. The sight of her, the child of orphan war, was a laughing gale, as the fat, fatherly old German jiggered her up and down on his knee to the gallop, no doubt, of something akin to the ancient refrain:

"Baby, baby Bunting,
Baby, baby Bunting,
Baby, baby Bunting,
Baby, baby Bunting."

The amazing, unexpected picture photographed itself indelibly on Pinkerton's brain. It had been the merest lightning flash of a snapshot, but he remembered every tiny detail of it.

He remembered the merry light in the child's blue eyes, the flash of baby teeth as she laughed, the reflected beam of gaiety in the old German's countenance, his tracheal chime, the glossy gleam of his immense glasses, the shine of his bald head, the precious time already wasted on the table, even the huge signet ring on his finger.

In a few more seconds, according to the widest calculation, that farmhouse would be a splintered smash of ruin. Anstruther was not a man to waste precious time. Already doubt the fuse was laid and he was ticking off the faithful seconds.

The problem was, what to do; the best thing, the quickest—not an instant could be lost.

He remembered the flash of the child's head; one tumbling over the other in confusion so confused. But it was instinct which sent him round to the other side of the house to meet Anstruther wriggling back out of the little window.

"Good!" said the Engineer. "Best foot foremost, or it will be Kingdom Come! Why, what's up, man? You look as though you've grasped a ghost."

"Quick—quick!" hissed Pinkerton, fighting for words which would not come. "For God's sake! There's a kiddy in the house!"

"You don't say?" muttered the Engineer jerking up his left arm, and looking at his dial. "I might just do it!"

He made a wild dive for the little window, like a swimmer—hands up, Pinkerton saw his legs quivering as he wormed his body through the aperture, and himself rushed round to the other side of the house.

The latch of the door which was closed, would not yield to his fumbling fingers. He hurried himself upon it, shouldered forward. He gave way with a crash. He staggered and fell, and the little German was still fumbling the latch of the door.

At this moment a devil's dance of shell and shrapnel was going on overhead and all round; for some reason or other the German guns were suffering from a very angry attack of nerves. Presently there was a lull and Pinkerton and the Engineer took advantage of it to advance in a succession of desperate crawls to the ridge.

Here another fusillade opened, and the two took shelter under the lee of a huge recombent German. This elephantine Hun advertised, very unpleasantly, the fact that he had been dead many days.

"Blow!" ejaculated Anstruther, from his side of the body. "Kindly pass your good stoppered bottle of ammonia salts, Pinky. I'd rather be punctured than poisoned any day. Let's get a move on, and chance it!"

So they crawled and crawled and crawled, crawling under the lee of the farm house.

"There's somebody on the roof," said Pinkerton, as a bullet pinged past his ear.

"Sniper," replied the Engineer. "Wait until I get underneath him with this little steel of tricks." He patted his canvas bag lovingly—"then he'll wish he hadn't!"

The grim curve of his resolute mouth straightened out almost to a grin.

Thanks to the broken ground in the vicinity, they reached the farm house without further adventure, and Pinkerton's job, according to his instructions, was over. But he intended staying to see the game through—a safe device.

He watched Anstruther crawl toward a small lean to, with a sloping roof of corrugated iron, built on the northern end of the house. Carrying his precious canvas bag in his teeth, the Engineer wriggled through the small window, and disappeared.

From his hiding place behind the manure bin Pinkerton watched the house, and particularly the roof, with the keen eye of the trained observer.

Nothing moved, above or below; the farmhouse appeared to be empty and desolate—even the sniper had vanished.

Then, very gradually, he crept round to the other side of the building, found an abandoned window pretty high up, hoisted himself by a shelf of masonry until his eyes were level with the sill, and looked into the room for an instant and no more.

At the sight which confronted him his grip gave way upon the edge of the window sill, and he fell head first.

He felt his hair rise. A sudden suffusion of cold sweat drenched him like a shower bath.

Sitting in the middle of the room, at a small table was a mild featured speckled German, bald, fat and beaming. Though he was wearing the familiar grey uniform and the high boots of the Saxon regiment, he was a soldier.

Red T Shoes

are never found on bargain counters, or at so-called "slaughter sales." They cannot be made to sell at a sacrifice price. Footills and shoddy service are too expensive a price to pay for bargain shoes. Examine the new models which are now on display at your dealers.

Men's Shoes from $1.50 to $1.50
Women's Shoes from $2.50 to $4

Ford Touring Car
Price $530

Most men can afford the first cost of a car. Few can afford the after expense of most cars. Like its first cost, the after cost of a Ford is lower than that of any real motor car. The Ford has made walking an extravagance.

The Runabout is Now $480.
The Town Car $780.

Italian Steamer Sunk By German Submarine

LONDON, April 26.—The Italian steamer Joseph Agost Tcherzee has been sunk by a German submarine. The crew was landed.

Lloyd's announces that the French bark Charnal, of 2,475 tons gross, was torpedoed on Saturday morning. The crew is believed to have been saved.

The captain and sixteen hands of the British steamer Feliciano, have been picked up by a steamer, according to a Lloyd's report. Search is being made for the remainder of the crew. The Feliciano is a total loss. Another report says that all of the crew have been saved.

St. John's New Post Office

St. John, April 27th.—This city is now reeling in the possession of one of the finest post offices in eastern Canada.

The removal from the old to the new building took place a few days ago. The new building occupies a site on the eastern side of Prince William Street almost opposite the old building facing the harbor. The general entrances are on Prince William Street, while the mails enter from Canterbury Street in the rear. The front of the new building is of granite and free stone, ornamented with large columns which give it an imposing appearance.

Ship Building Enquiry

St. John, April 27th.—There has been some enquiry respecting the construction of wooden vessels to supply the demand that has arisen for ocean tonnage. It would not be surprising as a result if there should be a revival of life in some of the old wooden ship yards that have been silent for the past quarter of a century. Such a revival would be of the greatest benefit to the maritime section of Canada, and it would serve to stimulate the desire for the establishment of a steel shipbuilding and repair industry in this section.

Germany May Be Getting Ready to Crawl

BERLIN, April 26.—The German press in its comment on the American note says the Oversas News Agency states "days stress upon the seriousness of the situation. The prevailing tone of the comment, however, is one of calmness."

"All the newspapers unite in showing confidence in the German government, and express the conviction that it will act along the line of national dignity and respect for neutral rights and international law as well as for vital German interests."

St. John Adopts Daylight Saving

St. John, April 27th.—The City Council has enacted a by-law putting the Dominion Standard Time in effect in this city from midnight, April 23rd, until the same hour on September 29th. It is thus the first city in the Maritime Canada to adopt Daylight Saving as it was the first to adopt the commission form of city government and the town planning system. The provincial legislature will be asked to pass an act making the daylight saving movement effective throughout the province.

Production and Thrift

"GAIN or no gain the cause before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made, and I believe this to be especially true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which will be particularly affected in this vast struggle."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS ARE BASED ON REPORTS CONTAINED IN "THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK, 1916," PUBLISHED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, OTTAWA, ONT.

LIVE STOCK—The herds and flocks of Europe have been greatly reduced. When the war is over there will be a great demand for breeding stock. Canadian farmers should keep this in mind.

MEATS—In 1915 Great Britain imported 651,508 tons of beef, mutton and lamb, of which 364,245 tons came from without the Empire. Out of 430,240 tons of beef only 104,987 tons came from within the Empire.

The demands of the Allies for frozen beef, canned beef, bacon and ham will increase rather than diminish. Orders are coming to Canada. The decreasing tonnage space available will give Canada an advantage if we have the supplies.

DAIRYING—Home consumption of milk, butter and cheese has increased of late years. The war demands for cheese have been unlimited. The Canadian cheese exports from Montreal in 1915 were nearly $6,500,000 over 1914. Prices at Montreal—Cheese: January 1915, 1914 to 17 cents; January 1916, 18 1/2 to 18 1/2 cents. Butter: January 1915, 24 to 25 1/2 cents; January 1916, 32 to 33 cents.

EGGS—Canada produced $30,000,000 worth of eggs in 1915 and helped out Great Britain in the shortage. Shippers as well as producers have a duty and an opportunity in holding a place in that market.

WRITE TO THE DOMINION DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND TO YOUR PROVINCIAL DEPARTMENT FOR BULLETINS ON THESE SUBJECTS

Tens of thousands of Canada's food producers have enlisted and gone to the front. It is only fair to them that their home work shall be kept up as far as possible. The Empire needs all the food that we can produce in 1916.

DIGBY, N. S.

DROWNING ACCIDENT.

William Smith, of New Aberdeen, C. B.
Lost His Life at Theriault's Cove.

GASOLINE BOAT WEDNESDAY AFTER-NOON—ONE LANDED AT CULLODEN—ENGINE STOPPED—BOAT DRIFTED ASHORE—ONE, SAVED AND THE OTHER TWO RECOVERED YESTER-DAY MORNING.

Word reached Digby yesterday morning that Reuben Raymond's motor boat had been wrecked at Theriault's Cove and that "Billie"
Smith, a fisherman well known around
Digby, had been drowned.

Mr. J. B. Edridge, immediately offered the free use of his automobile and in a prompt, but careful manner, conveyed over the rough roads to Gulliver's Cove, Major John Daley,
Coroner, Mr. Fred Cook, Digby's
Chief of Police, and a coroner's representative.

At the home of his father was found Reuben Raymond, the owner of the wrecked boat. He was in bed and in an exhausted condition, but was able to tell the story of the trip and its ending. It appears that, late Wednesday afternoon Reuben Raymond, son of Matthew Raymond, of Gulliver's Cove, William Smith, of New Aberdeen, C. B., and Douglas Campbell, of Culloden, left Digby in a motor boat owned by Raymond, bound for Trout Cove. The boat also contained three bags of clothes and a lot of fishing gear to be placed on board the Lila G. Boutillier at that port, in which Smith intended to go fishing.
Raymond had more or less trouble with his engine from the start. The gasoline pipe appeared to be clogged, preventing the flow of fuel from the tank to the motor.

A stop was made at Victoria Beach, but the men decided to continue on the trip. The boat passed Point Prim Light at 6:30 and at seven o'clock Campbell was landed at Culloden break water. This was about half past five. The wind was north east and the water rough.

All went well until off Unquah's
Ledges when the engine again stopped.
Raymond once more succeeded in getting fuel to the motor and the boat proceeded. Gulliver's west point at eight o'clock.

Again the motor stopped. Raymond worked with it for an hour. It now became dark and a sudden change of wind from the northward rolled in a big sea, on the shore. Raymond used his compass, which had been pumping, to help him with the oars.
This he did not do, but continually asked Raymond if he was afraid.

Raymond kept the boat off the rocks until nine o'clock, when in a big sea, she rolled over. Raymond, who knows swim, washed up on the beach in the surf. He says he never saw Smith after the boat upset or heard any sound from him. He waits all around the rocks for about twenty minutes, or half an hour and then started through the woods for his father's home at Gulliver's Cove, about two or three miles distant, where he reached at five o'clock yesterday morning, it being then daylight.

He was so exhausted that his father learned with difficulty of the accident.
Some eight or ten men immediately left for the scene of the disaster.

Smith's body was found on the beach considerably bruised about the head where he had crashed against the big boulders. The boat was broken up, but its contents, including the engine,
had washed ashore.

The body was removed on an ox sled to the home of Mr. Raymond where it was viewed by the coroner, who, after interviewing those who were present, decided that an inquest was not necessary.

Mr. E. A. Gidney, of Mink Cove, placed the remains in a casket and conveyed the same to Digby, arriving here last night.

William Smith has fished out of this port for some time. During the past winter he was a member of the crew of the scho. Dorothy M. Smart and her shipper, Capt. William Snow, says that when the vessel was hove down in a gale last winter, or when in a very rough weather, Smith was one of the best men he had aboard the vessel.

There were no letters or papers in his pockets to indicate the address of his relatives. He was 39 years of age, about 5 ft. 10 and weighed 240 lbs.
It was said that he had a sister, Mary
Smith, residing at 25 Church street,
New Aberdeen, C. B. A telegram sent by the Courier to that address yesterday noon brought the following reply:

GLACEY PAV, April 27.—My desire is that my brother's remains be sent home for burial.
MARY SMITH

It is also said that he is survived by several brothers.

He told a companion Wednesday
he was a member of the Episcopal church and the only one of his family who followed the sea.

His remains are at Rice's Undertaking Rooms awaiting further advice from his sister.

Brought Home For Interment
The remains of Charles R. Lewis, who died at Salem, Mass., on Wednesday, April 19, aged 86 years, arrived in Yarmouth on Saturday morning and were forwarded to Sandy Cove, Digby, Co., for burial. His daughter, Miss Evelyn M.
Lewis, accompanied the remains.

A reading and recreation room has been opened for the men of the 219th in the building owned by the Sons of Temperance. The citizens have donated daily papers, magazines, games, punching bag, boxing gloves, etc., and the Bear River Electric Light Company is lighting the room free of cost.
On Sunday afternoon the men held a service of songs after which they were served with a lunch by Mrs.
Jones of the Bear River Hotel.

WE regret to record the death of Miss Annie Wade, daughter of the late Seth Wade, of this place. Miss Wade was an honest member of the Baptist church, having been converted when about fourteen years of age and baptized by the late pastor Cox. She spent much of her life in the United States engaging in nursing in Malden, Cambridge, Woburn and other Massachusetts cities. About eight years ago she returned to Bear River and has since made her home with her sister, Mrs. F. Chalmers, of the Commercial house. During her long illness she was visited by a large number of affairs of the church and community, and endured her suffering with Christian patience, looking forward confidently to the life to come. An aged mother, her brother George and sister, Mrs. Chalmers, are left to mourn.
The funeral services will be held on Friday, the pastor, Rev. I. H. Crandall, assisted by Rev. J. W. O'Brien, pastor of the Methodist church.

I. O. O. F. Anniversary at Tiverton.

ENTERTAINMENT, PRESENTATION AND AD-DRESSES TO MEMBERS OF RAINBOW LODGE
EXCLUDED FOR OFFICIALS.

The officers, members and guests of Rainbow Lodge, No. 10, of Tiverton, spent a very pleasant evening in honor of their members who have existing for overseas service. It also being the fifth anniversary of the lodge.

Supper was served in the Temperance Hall followed by a very interesting program in the lodge room.

1. A little comedy entitled "Initiating a Granger."

2. Song by Ralph Outdoors, entitled, "The Granger."

3. Presentation and address to seven members of the lodge who have enlisted in the overseas service. The following is a copy of the reply.

To the I. O. O. F. of Tiverton:—

This being the fifth annual commemoration of the organization of the I. O. O. F. it is appropriate that the members of the lodge who have enlisted in the overseas service be honored on this occasion. It is a privilege in which you have rendered the service of your country and your lodge.

It is a privilege to have you here to-

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING

Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio. "I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 178 pounds I went down to 115 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says he knows your medicine has saved my life." Mrs. J. S. HANCOCK, 1624 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains just the virtues of roots and herbs needed to restore health and strength to the weakened organs of the body. That is why Mrs. Barlow, a chronic invalid, recovered so completely. It pays for women suffering from any female ailment to insist upon having Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THE BIG HOUSE

Janie set the pie to cool on the broad porch rail. The kitchen was shimmering, but outside a gentle breeze, cool and refreshing, fanned her cheek.

She stood a minute to look longingly across the valley to the place where workmen were busy upon a new house. Katharine, her life-long friend, was marrying a rich man from the city, and the house was to be one of their homes. Janie sighed. Katharine had always been lucky and had every thing she wanted.

Janie walked toward the orchard where she could view a better view of the house, and dream for an hour before getting dinner.

An empty wagon drawn by a team of big brown horses under the bend in the road, and the driver saw instantly the little black figure on the hillside and accented the valley at the big house. A shadow crossed his face, but he called cheerily: "Hello, Janie! What's the news?"

She turned at his voice. "Hello, Tom!" His heart contracted at the sight of her pale face.

"What's the matter, Janie?"

"Don't—oh, don't talk about hogs, Tom! Please!"

"Why not? It's the one way I make my living. And to me that is the most pleasant thing in the world just now," meaningly.

But she kept her eyes on the house across the valley. If the married Tom and settled down to farm life, Katharine's friends would move, and stop the dreamy where the Janie would have to out-butter him to them.

She shivered. "Oh, Tom! I am sorry, but I can't! I just can't! I don't want to marry you at all!"

He tried to stop her, but she broke from him and ran toward the house. "I can't! I can't!" she sobbed on her bed. "When we went to college I thought he would come home a lawyer, or something different from a farmer, and would live in town and have everything fine! I will not marry a farmer!"

Tom did not bother her after that. The world had turned black for him with the bright, pretty house across heart gone out of his life. But Janie never guessed the void that was in his heart.

Katharine married, went to Canada and returned with her husband to live in the city. Janie was left alone in the country. Janie lived the big, roomy place, with its real, excellent furnished rooms and broad porches.

Then a uncle decided to send her to the nursing school at the city, and at the same time a letter came from a relative in the city urging Janie to enter a training school for nurses.

She accepted at once. Anything was better than the deadly mill of her work. Besides she felt that she needed a change.

For three years she devoted herself to the hospital. The first summer she had a week at home, but Tom was away. This year she spent her week at home with Katharine in Canada.

"We sold our house, you know, Janie. Gerald had a good lot for it and he sold it at a good price. He kept two houses going, and Gerald told me that he was going to keep two more."

"What a pity!" exclaimed Janie, and Katharine thanked her for her sympathy, although Janie was thinking of the house.

Toward the end of her third year a sad, lonely, lonely life. She longed for home with all the passion of her soul—the big, homey sitting room with the worn chairs, the dining room and its big clock, the kitchen with the white oak floor and shining stove. She wanted her mother and a woman and a man. And there was something else she wanted. As she stood in the operating room handing things to one of the surgeons her mind refused to stay on her work. She saw a turn in the road and a man and a woman and a man. And the man said: "Hello, Janie, what is the news?" And the only news she had for him had broken his heart! And she wanted to go back and tell him that she had made a mistake. But she was all wrong. She knew that living consisted of deeper things than a few parlor tricks that had turned her silly head and spoiled her life. So much could happen in three years, and it was likely he no longer cared.

She came home after New Year's to stay. Across the valley, among the bare trees, was the house she had coveted. But while she looked with a different look this time in her own eyes a team came around the curve in the road. The man in the wagon was Tom.

"Hello, Janie! What's the news?" he called when he saw her and hurried up the orchard hill with out stretched hands.

This time she went to meet him. "It would take me three years to tell it, Tom!" she laughed. The principal thing is—I am glad to be home and glad to see you!"

He looked at her an instant—deep into her eyes. Then he held out his arms. And together they looked across the valley at the house.

"It was responsible for the trouble,"

CANADIAN YOUTH TELLS HOW SERIOUS OF WOUNDS STILL LIE LOOSER IN DEATH GRIP IN FRANCE—WAS BORED BY A "DUM DUM."

[From the New York Evening Sun]

Vaughan L. M. Henshaw of Canada's 26th Battalion, the "Fighting Twenty-sixth," is back from the war with a limp and a smile.

Wounded in France—so desperately wounded, indeed, that he was borne to three hospitals before a surgeon was found who saw the slenderest chance of saving him, and his grave was dug while he lay under the knife—Private Henshaw was not the least damaged in spirit. He is going to return to the front.

Struck by a dum dum bullet which miraculously was deflected on a rib in the chest, the Canadian, who he had been badly torn up. Four operations were necessary, in the final one of which, lasting an hour and a quarter, he was too weak to receive anesthetics. Twice all hope for his life was given up, but he was saved.

Of his own volition, he said to the doctor, while his brow rested upon his pillow as steadily as on the night of a ride: "Yes, I'm going up to Halifax to get my commission. I've started to get a thing and I'm going to get it through."

Of such, it appears, is the stuff of the "Fighting Twenty-sixth."

MOTHER NURSED HIM BACK. Private Henshaw, 20 years old, stocky, broad shouldered, weather beaten, in spite of his wounds, is a fine fellow, with hair of reddish brown, is the younger son of Capt. H. A. Henshaw of the steamship Pastors and commodore of the United Fruit Company's line. His older brother, 22, is a Canadian soldier in England. Mrs. Henshaw was across when her sons started for the war and was on hand to help nurse Vaughan back from a help of eighty pounds to his normal 150. When he was able to walk, he was sent to the hospital, Costa Rica, where the two joined Capt. Henshaw on the Pastors. All three are now at the Maritimes.

Among the extraordinary things which young Mr. Henshaw has to recount is the fact that, in the infernally desolate "No Man's Land" between the trenches, wounded bodies are still piled up from the very beginning of the war. Though many remain locked in the death grip they grasp, their bones and remnants of clothing now.

One foggy day, when he with his trench mates ventured out for a look around, they found a letter on a dead French officer, written eighteen months ago, addressed to his mother in England and in sending his love to his children, which—if a boy—was besought her to bring up as an officer of France.

On the body of a German officer, also, they found a letter, in which he described their "triumphant march" and declared that the Germans would enter Paris within a few days.

THE FIGHTING 26TH. This is Mr. Henshaw's story: "As a private in the Twenty-sixth Battalion of the Canadian Overseas Force, I left St. John, N. B., on June 13, 1915. We remained in a camp in the south of England, and in September, we were sent to the Continent. I was in France two months.

"One was the first battalion of the second division to attack the Germans. We drove them out of a mine crater one day. That was all we set out to do, but it was hard to hold the fellows in. They wanted to chase the German clear back to their trenches. Major Brown directed the attack. He was a cool one, let me tell you. He went out between the lines in a pair of carpet slippers, a cardigan jacket, a cane, and no hat, and took charge of things as undisturbed as if nothing were happening."

WHILE I WAS THERE it was raining most of the time and the trenches were flooded with water. We had hip boots, but the water came higher than that and when it got up nearer the chin we would have to pull out altogether. While I've slept, I've been with nothing but my head sticking out.

"But the rats were the worst thing we had. They bothered us a good deal more than the Germans. When the trenching got so that they were a run along the tops and out to front."

"Yet the men back from the first line had good dogs. And the spirit was excellent. Everybody was cheerful and there was always something to do. The Canadians were very reckless and independent crowd, and the French in particular, thought a lot of our men. The Canadian has a very warm place in the French heart."

Clean Up and Paint Up Week

A good beginning in this movement was made last year and the work done made a decided improvement in the appearance of the town. The Paint Up and Clean Up yearly campaign is becoming a country wide movement and many more towns and cities are enthusiastically taking hold of it this year. Being a tourist town the neat appearance of the properties is an added attraction and increases the value of the real estate. Making a thorough cleaning up of the rubbish piles will add to the safety of all properties. A little paint here and a raking up there will work wonders. We have the supplies for this good work and of course want to sell them but, more than that we are interested as loyal citizens in the appearance of our beautiful town. We carry a big line of Brandram-Henderson and Economy Paints for the house, barn, woodshed, store, fence, etc.; also Rakes, Hoers, Forks, Weeders, Shovels, Lawnmowers, etc. for the lawns and paths.

Red T Shoes

All shoes look pretty much alike when new. Only wear will reveal their true qualities. The difference you could not see between the $2.25 shoe and the $3.00 or $4.50 pair will often become annoyingly plain after a short while. Since we do not make "cheap" footwear, we can afford to put that sterling quality into Red T Shoes which ensures good wear, and to secure that kind of workmanship which produces good fit and style.

The new models are now being shown at your local boot shop.
Men's Shoes from $3 to $4.50; Women's Shoes from $2.50 to $4.

Clergymen Moving Away

(The New Glasgow Evening News.)
The senior clergyman of the town of Stellarton are surely on the move this year. Rev. W. A. Cunningham has not much more than left us when we learn that Rev. R. B. Patterson, rector of Christ Church, has resigned and in a couple of months will move back to his old diocese of Toronto and will be located in the parish of Havelock, near Peterborough, Ontario is the home of both Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and while the Rev. gentlemen and his good wife have won for themselves a high place in the esteem of the people of Stellarton, it is quite natural that a call from their old home province is strong enough to induce them to break the pleasant friendship in their parish home and move nearer the aged parents of Mr. Patterson and the sailing mother of Patterson. Both will be missed in their parish and Mr. Patterson will be missed by our townspeople as well for took a deep interest in the affairs of the town. Both will be missed in the regular work in connection with the congregation, she has indeed taken more than ordinary interest in Red Cross and Hospital work. It is the removal of such makes their departure felt. May they all be spared to continue their good work in their new field.

Weymouth Women's Institute.
At a meeting of the Institute on Friday evening, April 28th, it was decided to change the evening of the monthly business meeting from the second Monday to the second Wednesday of the month. The President urged a larger attendance at these meetings.

On March 25th, April 8th and April 22nd parties were held, making altogether a very successful evening was held on Wednesday evening, proceeds not known as yet.

On March 11th $250.00 was sent to the Provincial Red Cross Society and on April 13th, a similar amount was sent.

Production and Thrift

CANADA'S CALL FOR SERVICE AT HOME

Produce More and Save More

The Empire needs food. If you are not in the fighting line you may be in the producing line. Labour is limited—half the more reason to do more than ever before. Grow food for the men who are fighting for you. The Allies need all the food that you can produce. Every little helps. You are responsible for your own work. If you cannot produce as much as you would like, produce all you can. Work with the right spirit. Put fighting energy into your effort and produce now when it counts. The more you produce the more you can save. Producing and saving are war-service.

Make Your Labour Efficient

In war-time do not waste time and energy on unimportant and unproductive work. Economize labour. Put off unproductive work till after the war, if possible, help in producing something needed now. Let us not waste labour. Canada needs it all. If possible help to feed the Allies. Make your backyard a productive garden. Cultivate it with a will. Make your labour count for as much as possible.

Do Not Waste Materials

There should be no waste in war-time. Canada could pay the annual interest on her war expenditure out of what we waste on our farms, in our factories, in our homes. Every pound of food saved from waste is as good as a pound of increased production. The way for a nation to save is for every individual to save. Frugality is strong to-day because of thrift in time of peace. The men and women of Great Britain are not only "doing" but are learning to "do without."

Spend Your Money Wisely

Practice economy in the home by eliminating luxuries. Wasting our dollars here weakens our strength at the front. Your savings will help Canada to finance the war. Save your money for the next Dominion War issue. There can be no better investment.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen years old, I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and quite a number of other ailments. I was almost double every month. I did not know what it was. I was very weak. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month." Mrs. HAMILTON, 121 South 12th St.

"When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare that their health to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit."

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., 233 Central Bldg., Lowell, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Why They're Sold

In the autumn of 1911, I suffered with a continual pain in the back. As a druggist, I tried various remedies without any apparent result. Having sold GIN PILLS for a number of years, I thought I might be good in them, otherwise the sales would not increase so fast. I gave them a fair trial and the results, I am glad to say, were most satisfactory.

Capt. Melanson will send cargoes of lumber out to the West Indies in these vessels. The former will load at Meteghan River for Cienfuegos and the latter at Belliveau's Cove for Arroyo, Porto Rico. The new owners of these two vessels will engage them in trading around the West India islands.

Captain McDonald Given A New Command.

[Yarmouth Times.]

Captain Andrew McDonald, who for several years has been in command of the steamer Yarmouth on the St. John Digby service was sent to Prince Edward Island last week to bring the steamer Empress, which has been pur-to St. John. Before going on St. John Digby service Capt. McDonald was chief officer of steamer Boston and has many friends among the travelling public of the Boston-Yarmouth route who will be pleased to hear of it.

who will be pleased to hear of the change. He is yet a very young man and the record he has made for regularity of service could be envied by many. His many friends throughout the maritime provinces as well as the New England states will join in wishing him success in his new position.

Death of Mrs. G. B. Lutz
Her many friends will regret to learn

The news of the death of Mrs. G. M. Lutz, which occurred at her home in Moncton on Wednesday, May 31, after only nine days' illness. She was a member of the First Baptist church of that city and a very earnest worker in all religious movements. The deceased was born in Moncton 72 years ago, and is survived by her husband.

ago and is survived by her husband, one son, Albert J., of Moncton, and one grand son George, a student at McGill University, Montreal. The funeral took place on Friday, the services being conducted by Rev. M. Lawson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Crook.

The floral tributes were beautiful. The funeral services were very large, attended, among those present from out of town being Mr. and Mrs. G. Vye, Digby. The COURIER extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved.

SUBURBAN NOTES

What is Going on Outside the Town in Neighboring Villages

PICKED UP BY CORRESPONDENTS IN DIGBY COUNTY AND ELSEWHERE—MARRIAGES, DEATHS, PERSONALS AND OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Bellefleur

Mr. Louis A. Walker returned home from Boston last Saturday. Miss Carrie Dodge is visiting friends in Bridgetown and Lunenburg.

Miss Sadie Troop, who has been in Boston for several weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Balcome, of Paradise, returned with Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Troop.

Mr. and Mrs. Iddis Austin spent Sunday at Granville Ferry with Capt. and Mrs. Sam Mills.

Mrs. Lawrence Willett's many friends will be glad to know he is recovering from his recent serious illness.

Miss Jennie Parker returned home Saturday after a visit of several weeks with her sister, Mrs. LeMert Nichols, Annapolis.

The death of Mah, the eight year old little son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Kearns, occurred at his home here Monday evening. The little fellow, who had been in school on Friday, complained of not feeling well. Dr. Smith was summoned on Sunday and pronounced the disease diphtheria. On Monday Mah seemed better, but Monday evening he passed away. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, interment being at St. Mary's.

The Rev. E. W. Underwood conducted the service. The flowers were many and beautiful, sent largely by the scholars of Bellefleur school and members of the Silver Thread Band of Hope. Mah was a bright little chap and general favourite with his school mates, as well as the older people. Much sympathy is extended to his parents, sister and brothers.

Kardale

Mrs. Fred Bishop and son Reggie, of South Williamson, spent Sunday among friends here.

Miss Margaret Schaffner and friend, Pte. Alfred Berry, of Lunenburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Schaffner.

Your correspondent has for some time been very much interested in the columns in the Boston Post entitled "Observant Citizen," especially so in the paragraphs devoted to "Spry Old New Englanders" and wishes to mention something concerning some "Spry Old Nova Scotians."

On Sunday last, May 7th, two ladies aged 78 and 74 years respectively, walked over a mile to attend divine worship in the Baptist church here. The ladies referred to are Mrs. James F. Morrison, Sr. and John B. Corbett. After resting the hour of service they were quite able to make the return trip and did so. Among the congregation was Mr. William Nelson, who that day observed his 85th birthday and he also walked to and from service being quite a distance. There were also several other persons who had reached the three score mark. Would like to hear if any other small community can beat it or even equal it.

Milford Corner

The Red Cross met at Mrs. Will Harris'. Sorry to report Mrs. M. Marshall on the sick list.

We are glad to see Miss Gladys Young out again.

Miss Lennie Balcom spent Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Botsford Rice spent Sunday with her daughter.

Mrs. H. Smith spent Sunday with Mrs. Ruben Alcorn.

Miss Hazel Robbins has gone to Smith's Cove for the summer.

Mr. Ruben Alcorn had the misfortune to hurt his face very badly.

Mr. Frank Journeay spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. W. E. Harris.

Miss Edith Rice, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Gray Thomas drove to Digby one day last week.

Weymouth North

Mr. Sidney Jones has gone to New York.

Miss O'Brien spent Sunday with her sister at Annapolis.

Mr. Kemp left last week on a business trip to New York.

Mrs. Holland Taylor and Mrs. Hyde returned from Halifax on Saturday.

Mr. F. Sweeney is improving his residence by enlarging the veranda.

Mrs. Hamilton Muldon and son Charles Willis have returned to their home in Freeport.

The Flora M. arrived in port on Saturday and is taking in cargo of lumber for Jones Bros. at Mr. D. Campbell's wharf. A vessel is at the same wharf loading pulp for Mr. G. D. Campbell.

Port Wade

Miss Emma Parker is recovering from the measles.

Mrs. Andrew Keans arrived here from Boston to spend the summer.

Mrs. Frank Crosby, of Yarmouth, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Sloan.

Miss Grace Wilson, who spent a few days in Digby, returned to Port Wade this week.

Mrs. James White, who has spent the winter with her sons in U. S., returned home last week.

Mr. Fred Parker and brother Albert left on Monday for Bridgeport to attend the funeral of their uncle, the late Mr. Charles Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilson and Privates William and Frank Wilson came from Digby by motor boat on Sunday to visit Mr. James Sloan, who continues very ill.

Mrs. Edward Johns, of this place, has a flock of hens for which it will be difficult to find an equal. These hens, consisting of 12 numbers, have laid during the first four months of the year as follows: Jan. 374 eggs; Feb. 375; March 493 and April 590 eggs. Can anybody catch that.

Southville

Farming has commenced in this place.

The Misses Comeau spent a few days last week with relatives in Ohio.

Mr. Oliver Rose, of Colliodon, has been spending a few days with friends in this place.

Mrs. Howard Steele and little daughter Flora are visiting friends and relatives in Danvers.

Mr. Cyril White was in this place Sunday on his way to Danvers where he is employed with Mr. Harry Wagner.

Mr. Frank White, Mrs. Stanion Gaudet and little daughter Marie, spent the day with friends in Hillsdale quite recently.

Miss Sadie Steele, of Annapolis, Me., who has been spending a few weeks with her parents, has announced her intention of remaining for the summer on account of ill health.

Freeport

At last our small army here really looks like an army. Our boys of the 219th drilling here have received part of their uniforms, and are acquiring quite a martial appearance.

Mr. George Foster, of Boston, arrived Saturday for his annual fishing trip. Mr. Foster is accompanied by a party of friends. They left in the afternoon for his camp at Cedar Lake.

The social evening for Red Cross held at the Women's Institute last Wednesday night was a great success. The sum of $22.35 was realized.

People who no doubt thought the enlargements on Dr. A. F. Hogan's house completed must have been very surprised to look suddenly upon the building in the N. W. corner of the house. It puts a finishing touch to an already much improved building.

A Khaki wedding took place on Tuesday morning in St. Joseph's church, Annapolis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bonenfant, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Pte. William Dugas, of the detachment of the 219th, drilling here.

There was great excitement last Wednesday afternoon over a fire which started along the railroad and ran along to the shed containing machinery and cement, belonging to Messrs. Powers & Brewer. In spite of the gallant efforts of the soldiers, the fire was run out to light the configuration, the whole building was destroyed, causing a loss of about $10,000.

Lower Granville

Building and repairing appear to be the order of the day.

Mrs. R. L. Gagnier is building a new barn for Mr. Stephen E. Thorne.

Mrs. William Robles is quite ill with heart trouble. Dr. Smith is in attendance.

Capt. J. V. Robles is having an "A" put in the front of his house and the roof shingled by Mr. George Littlewood.

J. K. Healey is putting extensive repairs on his house. His brother in law, Mr. Percy Greener, of Bridgetown, is doing the work.

The Helping Hand Society will hold their monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Farns on Tuesday evening, the 16th.

Polsters are being put in place for a dollar a bushel and very scarce at that. Every article of produce is on the raise, but is a luxury or necessity.

Goulds

Mr. Barton Stark spent Sunday with friends in Gulliver's Cove.

Mr. Emdon Stark spent Sunday with relatives in Gulliver's Cove.

Mrs. William E. Handspiker spent a few days last week with relatives in Digby.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Daley spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Vantassel, Mount Pleasant.

Miss Bina Vantassel, of Mount Pleasant, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Hickey, on Monday.

Mr. Milton Bain, of the 112th, Battalion, Digby, spent the week's end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bain.

Parker's Cove

Schr. Lloyd, Capt. Loran Clayton, sailed for St. John the 8th.

Mrs. R. L. Gagnier is building a new barn for Mr. Stephen E. Thorne.

Mrs. W. H. Anderson visited friends over the week end in Hillsboro.

Mr. Harry and Lloyd Longmire called on Mrs. D. Milner quite recently.

We are very sorry to report Private Murdoch Clayton seriously ill at his home here.

Mrs. Edward Hudson was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Milner, May the 3rd.

Mrs. Frank Hickey and daughter Thelma, of Granville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rice on May the 7th.

Weymouth

Miss Lucille Bellevue is also away from business home with the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melanson went to Yarmouth on Wednesday, returning Friday.

S. S. Mikado comes now in place of the S. S. Sianbow which has been put back by the government.

Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. Holland Taylor, who spent the winter in Halifax, arrived Saturday for the summer.

We are sorry to report Mr. Earl Wagner, of the Royal Bank staff, confined to his bed with the measles.

Mrs. J. Duncan Campbell returned home last Friday, having spent some time in Truro and Stellarton, visiting friends.

Master Emile Stehelin, of Church Point, spent a few days in town last week visiting his grandfather, Mr. Emile Stehelin.

Miss Nan Simmonds, who spent the winter months in town, staying with Mrs. Forbes Jones, has moved back to her home in Weymouth.

Mrs. J. F. Blagdon and daughter Grace, formerly of Arichat, arrived here Wednesday to take up their residence in our town.

Mr. H. P. Surette and T. F. Bond came, spent Sunday in Lunenburg, P.E.I., having gone there Saturday evening to attend a pig sale.

In St. Joseph's church Tuesday morning was celebrated the marriage of Mr. Robert Deveau, of this town, to Constance Saulnier, of Corbiere.

We are sorry to report Miss Odette Doucet confined to the house with mumps. Her sister Emma, is taking her place in Mrs. Jones' store.

Mr. Karl Elderkin came home Thursday, leaving again on Tuesday for New Glasgow, where he has a position in the ammunition factory.

Mr. Felix Gaudet is the busy man of our town. Mr. Gaudet was named candidate for the Conservative party for the local house at the coming election.

Mr. Milton Sabean has moved into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Charles Gaudet, vacating his house for Mr. J. F. Blagdon, who purchased it some time ago.

At last our small army here really looks like an army. Our boys of the 219th drilling here have received part of their uniforms, and are acquiring quite a martial appearance.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

Proceedings of Half Yearly Meeting Held in Digby Last Week.

REPORTS OF VARIOUS COMMITTEES—AP-POINTMENT OF OFFICERS—TWO THOU-SAND DOLLARS CONTRIBUTED TO THE CANADIAN PATRIOTIC FUND TO BE COLLECTED IN ASSESSMENT OF 1917.

On Tuesday, the 2nd day of May, 1916, the Council met at the Court House in Dig-
by. Present: The Warden, Councillors Cossaboon, Marshall, Warner, Nichol, Grisson, Young, G. H. Cossaboon,
Sunder, Ruggles, Leat, Bowers.
The Warden took the chair and called the Council to order at two o'clock in the afternoon.

Upon reading petition of Byron
S. Small and others for a new road at East Ferry, ordered to be referred to Road and Bridge Committee.

F. W. Nichol, Esq., addressed the Council in reference to making a By Law regulating the erection of buildings within the Municipality.

Upon reading tenders for attending Victoria Bridge, six in all, ordered that Edward G. Winchester be and he is hereby appointed keeper of Victoria Bridge for the balance of present year or until his successor is appointed in accordance with his tender, the same to be done under his personal supervision.

Ordered that the tender purchasing tools and supplies for use at the Joggin Bridge, be referred to Councillor W. M.
Cossaboon.

Ordered that the matter of a By Law regulating erection of buildings in the Municipality be deferred until the annual meeting of Council in January next.

allowed to take her mother, Mrs. Augustine Amers, from the Alma House on giving a suitable bond for her maintenance. The balance of eighty dollars remaining from Fenian Road Bounty of Augustine Amers to be paid to said Mrs.
Charles Tebeau.

Ordered that the Warden confer with the Warden of Annapolis Municipality and prepare and present an address of welcome to Music Grand Lodge, upon the occasion of their visit to Bear River.
Councillor Marshall, from the committee on Roads and Bridges, report of same, which upon motion is received and adopted. By your committee on Roads and Bridges hereby recommend the following: That the returns of highway labor named, pass as correct. No. 5, Westport; No. 6, Smith's Cove; No. 9,
Pymouth; Numbers 7 and 8, Culloden;
No. 8, Freepoint.

Councillors Saunders and Ruggles appointed in January last to examine into the matter of proposed new road at East Ferry, on petition of Byron S. Small and others report progress, further consideration to be deferred until further information furnished. That John O'Neal, of Mr. Pleasant, be allowed to perform one half of his Statute Labor on the road leading from his house to the main road, under the supervision of the Surveyor of Highways, Road Section 5, Culloden.

Whereas the report of the Commissioner in reference to a certain road at Smith's Cove, running from the new road (or Faulkner road so called) to Digby Bay was confirmed by this Council in May 1910 and whereas the said Commissioner's report was confirmed by this Council on the 13th day of April, 1910, is incorporated in the report of the Commissioner on the 14th day of March, A. D. 1916, in which said report is properly described as an act.

Therefore Resolved, that said agreement dated on 13th day of April, 1910, be considered as changed in no far as the description of the land and said agreement concerned so that said description shall conform to the description in said deed, dated on the 14th day of March, A. D.
1916, and said deed be substituted for said agreement.

That Byron Small perform one half of his Statute Labor on his private road from his house to the main road under the supervision of the Surveyor of Highways for road section 12, Sandy Cove district.

Ordered that the list of officers be received and adopted and that the persons named therein be, and they are hereby appointed to fill the offices set over or against their respective names, in accordance with provisions of the Statute, or any Municipal regulation. William Jefferson, Surveyor Highways No. 2, Hill-burgh. Harold Ray, Surveyor Highways
No. 2, Hillburgh, in place of Clarence Adams. Ralph Mullen, Surveyor Highways No. 2, Hillburgh, in place of McKay. Surveyor Highways No. 5, Roseway, in place of James A. Robbins, resigned. Samuel Woodman, Surveyor

"The Red Circle"

NEW PATHE-BALDWIN SERIAL FEATURES
RETH ROLAND—PRELIMINARY EPI-SODE FORESHADOWS MUCH THAT IS INTERESTING

"Nevermore," the first of the fourteen episodes into which the above named serial is to be divided, is not a lost look in at the starting point of the story, or what might be termed its inspiration. The two reels of preliminary episodes lay a deep impression and start the ball rolling with considerable force.

Reth Roland is the star of the serial.
She is supported by Frank Mayo, who gives promise of good things. Daniel Gilfother as "Jack" Jim Borden does effective work, but passes out of the story before the end of the episode, then he kills himself and his death there may be an end to the criminal career of the Borden.

The idea of the serial, we are told,
is to show that the instincts of heredity can be overcome by proper training and education. The scenarios are being written by Will M.
Ritchey and produced by Sherwood Clay.

At the close of this particular episode a woman's hand protruding from beneath the curtain of an automobile displays again the red circle, leaving the audience surprised and wondering.

The story of "The Red Circle" has been novelized by Albert Pavson Rehune, and has appeared in leading magazines throughout the country.
The "Red Circle" makes its debut at the B. J. Dream Theatre, Digby, Friday evening, May 12th.

Film Notes

A number of requests and inquiries have been received from the Motion Picture Department of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, regarding the film shortly to be exhibited showing the cur-renting of the Australian continent by Mr.
Francis Birtles in a Ford car.

The film in this film is taken throughout Canada. It has been shown with great success in Australia and New Zealand and has been seen in Canada or United States and the exclusive exhibition rights are held by the Ford Motor Company.

This fact is most interesting because of the fact that Mr. Birtles was able to get pictures of the native life and customs showing them in a very natural way lacking the usual posed appearance of such pictures.

One of these natives had never before seen a white man, and as for an automobile it was to them an object of mystery and wonder.

The film, in three reels of one thousand feet each, will be exhibited throughout Canada and practically every Canadian will have the opportunity of seeing it.

Maine Has a Post Card Day

There has just been a big conference in Boston, attended by the governors of all the New England States. The finest intellects in that country are scheming to bring a tremendous tur-ist trade to New England this summer.
One feature just pulled off this week was "Post Card Day." The Boston Globe states:

"Two hundred thousand post cards were sent out of Maine on Wednesday, and it is a permanent advertisement as a Vacation State is sure to be of incalculable value. Post Card Day is to be made a permanent institution.
The Portland Chamber of Commerce sent out 20,000 cards alone and Lundon business men mailed 5,000."

HOW LONG WILL THE WAR LAST?

The War Against Health Is Quickly Ended By "Fruit-a-tives."

MRS. DEWOLFE

"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefit I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. For years I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way.
Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally 'tried' 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person and I am deeply thankful to have relief from those seking headaches."

"FRUIT-A-TIVES", the medicine made from fruit juices, has relieved more sufferers from Headaches, Constipation, Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Skin Troubles than any other medicine.
10c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c.

Wednesday's Ball Game

OUR MILITARY REPORTER AGAIN ON THE JOB

In a game replete with sensational plays, lightning calculations and horrible arguments, the 112th and 219th battalions put the Digby town baseball team to the tune of 14 to 8, Wednesday afternoon.

The game started with the soldiers at the bat and things began to move immediately. Bishop retired the side in about ten minutes, and Digby started the scoring, the first inning closing with the score, Digby 3, soldiers 0.

But the baloon went up in the second, and before Bishop came to earth the 112th had tallied six times.

The game was very good in spots, and pretty ragged also, but considering the lack of practice the boys played a fair game.

For the winners, Cousins pitched a very good game, having good control at all stages of the contest. He received very good support, especially from the infield.

Hillman, on first was very busy most of the time, but he did the rest of the military team, suffered the disadvantage of having to play without uniforms or ball shoes.

Curly on second, and Wilson on third held down their positions in fine style and both men batted well. Maise showed some class as a batsman, reaching in grand style. McFetridge handled every thing that came his way and the outfield and an easy job.

For Digby, Dinkin on first was about the busiest man.

Walker on second and Chabon left field led the batting for Digby but the rally of the soldiers were too much for them and the 112th had played a winning game.

Mr. Webster and Mr. Jordan officiated and "Cal" sang "Vimy," take it from him, "Cal" says "Vimy" is the best man in town and that settles it. But the chills are good "Cal" got out at the end of the third inning "Cal" sent for his first-aid kit.

Billy Chabon climbed a tree in the third, and a high fly, but missed it. He had a hair, but Billy said he would do it. He did it. No flowers by request.

Norman Paris enlivened the proceedings by throwing his hat on the ground and challenging any man in the world, Joe Robinson. Special mention must also be made of the dinky little boys Mr. Walker spotted.

Some soldiers were with them. Bill Hayden's mustache grew six inches longer during the game and Bill made it known in an untimely manner which team he was pulling for. Billy, who is some baby when you start, said McFetridge had a frown on his face, which was white, and was betting the third person who shouted for Digby. Al had his eye on them and not a least stirred when Mac would frown.

Maude Dakin appeared on the field in the fifth inning and he and George Condon peddled ice cream and salted peanuts during the remainder of the game.

Capt. Gages offered five dollars to the soldier who would hit a home run, and the fence for a home run, and how the play was did it.

Several of the boys had as high as 4.50 of the 5.00 and one time Bishop went as high as 3.00 but they could not stretch it any further. At 10.15 p. m., the sun glared to get clear of it all, sent in the west with a sickening thud, and Seymour Barton rolled his eyes, pulled down his nose and fapped his ears and croaked. Return match in Berlin 1917.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Family Bottle

To The Editor of The Courier: As Prohibition approaches, a good many who still believe in the virtues of alcohol as a family medicine may be disturbed as to how they can have the bottle replenished. To all such I address this letter, asking them to examine the matter fairly and candidly.

Alcohol as medicine is rapidly being given up in all our large hospitals. This is shown by the collated reports of seven of the largest hospitals in England. In 1912, $748,000 was spent for alcohol and only $110,750 for milk. In 1912 only $18,860 was spent for alcohol and $488,100 for milk.

It is now beyond dispute that alcohol even in moderate quantities, lessens efficiency, lessens power of endurance, weakens the memory and brightens the intellect. It requires great intelligence to understand that what does all this must lessen the power of a soldier to do his duty. If a soldier is given of beer lessens a man's endurance by seven per cent and his power to recover from fatigue by ten per cent. It follows that it also weakens his power of recovery from disease.

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, May 19, 1916

An Important Notice

During the next few days bills will be sent to all our advertisers and to all patrons of our job printing department. We expect payment of these accounts on or before June 15th, as our financial year ends next month and it is important that all accounts be balanced at that time. Subscribers in arrears will also take notice of the date on their address labels and remit promptly, thereby saving trouble and unnecessary expense.

The 112th's Official Farewell

A BIG CROWD WAS AT THE COURT HOUSE AND RAILWAY STATION FRIDAY MORNING

Digby said an official good-bye to her detachment of the 112th Friday morning. The detachment, which had been in Digby for several days, was accompanied by every available staff. The 112th detachment, under command of Capt. H. L. G. Denton, was in front of the Court House at 9:30, accompanied by the Digby detachment of the 210th, under command of Major M. C. Denton.

Mayor Hayden gave a short address, followed by speech of Mr. Rev. Robt. McArthur, pastor of the Digby Methodist Church; Rev. C. W. Robbins, pastor of the Digby Baptist Church; and Rev. Wm. Driffield, rector of Holy Trinity church.

The school children sang the "Maple Leaf" after which the men marched to the station where the 112th banded on a special train for Windsor at 10:30.

This train also contained the Yarmouth detachment of the 112th, under command of Capt. W. E. VanDyke, and the Digby detachment of the 210th, under command of Major M. C. Denton. The men were accompanied by their wives and families.

The crowd of people was one of the largest ever seen at the station. A half holiday was declared in the schools and business places were closed until after the train left Digby.

The people of Digby are proud of this detachment which is now in Windsor. Their brave and noble town was excellent. The officers as well as the men, made many friends who regret their departure. The COURIER takes this opportunity to thank the officers for the favors extended to the press.

Death of Mrs. C. A. Lindstrom

The whole community was shocked on Sunday morning by the death of Mrs. C. A. Lindstrom, wife of Mr. C. A. Lindstrom, one of Digby's well known jewelers. She had been ill for some time and died at her home on Sunday afternoon.

The deceased, who was 32 years of age, had been in the hospital for some time. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is deeply mourned. Her husband, Mr. C. A. Lindstrom, is survived by two sons, Mr. W. E. Lindstrom and Mr. C. A. Lindstrom, Jr.

The funeral took place from her late residence Tuesday afternoon with interment in the Methodist cemetery. The services being conducted by Rev. Robert McArthur, pastor of Grace Methodist Church.

The funeral was the largest ever in Digby for some time and the burial was a beautiful one. Many wreaths, sprays and many pretty arranged bouquets, a complete list of which would be difficult to compile. The COURIER extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones, all of whom we feel that they will find their friends whose place will be hard to fill.

Killed in Action

GUY K. ADAMS, OF DEEP BROOK, KINGS A SUBMERGEE SACRIFICE FOR JAPAN AND COUNTRY.

Official word reached Digby a few weeks ago that Pte. Guy Kinsman Adams, of Deep Brook, had been seriously wounded in the letter from a comrade said he had been killed in action. On Tuesday his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Adams, received an official telegram stating that their son had died from wounds received while on active service. Pte. Adams was aged twenty-two years and was very popular with a large number of acquaintances. He was employed for several years by the local electric business firm, and later with the Dominion Steel Company. He enlisted the 7th day of April, 1915, and died the 11th day of April, 1916.

Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Mildred teaching at Parkville, and Nina at home, all of whom have our deepest sympathy in the great sacrifice they have made for King and country.

Death of a Former Summer Tourist

MRS. JEROME B. WHEELER DIED IN MANTO, COLORADO, MAY 17TH.

Word reached Digby this week of the death of Mrs. Jerome B. Wheeler, which occurred in Manto, Colorado, after an illness of one week and two days of pneumonia. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Jerome B. Wheeler, and her two sons, Mr. Hiram S. Cable and Mrs. Daniel H. Rupp. Mrs. Cable is at the present time and her son, Mr. Rupp, is at the hospital at Colorado Springs. It will be remembered that Mrs. Wheeler and Mr. Rupp were formerly among Digby's summer tourists, having last winter in this town in 1912. They had been in the town for some time for a time in the residence occupied by Mr. R. M. Robertson, Queen street, and after the one year they moved to F. W. Nichols. Her many friends will feel regret to learn of Mrs. Wheeler's death.

Died in Boston

Mr. Leigh Richard Harris, of Bear River, who went to Boston for medical treatment, died in that city on Wednesday, May 10. He was 60 years old and leaves a widow and one brother in Bear River. He was an uncle to James Dunn, Yarmouth. His remains arrived in Yarmouth accompanied by his widow, on Saturday morning and were forwarded to Bear River for burial, the funeral taking place on Sunday afternoon.

OF A LOCAL NATURE

Nova Scotia's provincial parliament closed Wednesday.

The regular session of the County Court was held in Digby this week, Judge Pelton presiding.

The second and third degrees will be conferred on candidates in St. George's Lodge, I. O. O. F., tonight.

The local Red Cross Society wishes to thank Mrs. Geo. VanTassel and the other ladies who have donated a lot of clothing for the Red Cross.

All finished socks to go forward in the next box of Comforts, sent from the Red Cross headquarters at the Court House, not later than next Wednesday.

Next Wednesday being a public holiday, the Court House will be closed. All advertising and correspondence copy should reach us a day earlier than usual.

Alarms were rung in Monday and Tuesday for small fire near the wharves of the Nova Scotia Company, Water street. Fortunately the damage in both cases was slight.

Mr. Edward Budd, who resides at St. Brool, saw four handsome deer cross his road on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. W. DeLong saw a moose cross his pasture at Acadiaville.

Elder M. O. Burt, Evangelist from Dover, Maine, will hold a revival at the Court House at 9:30, accompanied by the Digby detachment of the 210th, under command of Major M. C. Denton.

Mayor Hayden gave a short address, followed by speech of Mr. Rev. Robt. McArthur, pastor of the Digby Methodist Church; Rev. C. W. Robbins, pastor of the Digby Baptist Church; and Rev. Wm. Driffield, rector of Holy Trinity church.

Yarmouth Times says: The schooner Dorothy M. Smart, Captain Arthur Casey, called from Digby last week for the Banks, her crew of twenty-two men all being on wages for the summer's fishing. Casey is a native of Boston and William Snow in command of the vessel. Captain Snow, after the hard winter's fishing, will remain ashore until next fall for a permanent berth.

Captain Wilkie, who took the torn schooner Catherine from St. John to Boston, arrived here Tuesday on the way to highlands in Lunenburg county for the summer's fishing. He is a native of Boston for a transatlantic port, but Capt. Wilkie may not take her across, although he will be glad to do so. He has been in the service of the Catherine for several years, ever since she became the property of her late owners, Olark Bros. Bear River.

Travel Exhibit. DIGBY GETS A LOT OF GOOD ADVICE. (Special to the Courier) BOSTON, May 18 (1916). Digby was decidedly in the limelight at the notable Travel Exhibit held in one of the buildings at the corner of Main and Commercial streets, the big Boston department store, this week, and visited by thousands of people.

One of the most striking exhibits of the many given by leading transportation companies was the exhibit of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the chief feature of which was a large panoramic painting of Annapolis Basin, showing the incomparable scenery as viewed from the vantage-point of Smith's Cove, and measuring about 100 feet. It was mounted on a wall of red velvet and it is safe to state that the summer attractions of Digby and vicinity were never so well advertised as this fine pictorial representation of Nova Scotia's most charming vacation resort, with the accompanying exhibits, was installed under the personal supervision of Mr. E. C. Parker, General Passenger Agent of the Dominion Atlantic Line, who made a special trip to Boston for this purpose.

Views of Digby and other parts of the D. A. R. territory were also shown in the exhibit. The exhibit was a most interesting one, and there were also stereoscopic lectures on the history of the Dominion Atlantic Line, by Byron White Hatfield of Deep River, Conn. The literature distributed included the original "Acadia" written by Betty D. Thorneley and illustrated from water-color sketches reproduced in the original colors, by Bertha Des Claves. Several of the Digby photos were represented by posters by the same artist.

The only hotel manager from West Nova Scotia at the exhibit was Mr. William Gassanow, proprietor of the Hotel New Hotel, South Cove. Mr. Gassanow talked with hundreds of prospective summer visitors to the province during the day, and was particularly pleased to enjoy a few days fishing there.

That the people here believe that vacation travel to the Maritime Provinces this summer will show considerable increase over last year, though it will be out of the question to look for a normal business while the war continues, is T. F. A.

A Big Tree Mr. L. D. Wade recently cut down a big tree on his place. It was a DeLong's property, which measured 3 ft. 4 inches in diameter at the base, 10 ft. in circumference at 10 ft. from the base, and it contained 17 lengths of 4 ft. sticks of good wood, which amounted to two cords of wood, and also three feet of roughage.

Acaciaville

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Reed is quite ill. She is boarding with Mrs. Ernest Andrews. We are glad Miss Ruggles is able to be out to her school after being home for a few days by a severe cold.

Quite a number of our young folks attended Advent service in Bear River on Sunday.

The Roll Call in the church on Thursday was well attended. We were pleased to have with us in the service Rev. Mr. Cromall of Bear River, and Rev. Mr. McFadden, of Smith's Cove.

MUDDY PIMPLY SKIN?

Many people with disfigured complexions never seem to think that they need an occasional cleansing inside as well as outside. Yet neglect of this internal cleanliness shows itself in spots and sallow complexions, as well as in dandruff, headaches and biliousness. It is because the liver becomes sluggish, and waste matter accumulates which Nature cannot remove without assistance. The best remedy is Chamberlain's Tablets, which stimulate the liver, gently cleanse the stomach and bowels and tone the whole digestive system. Safe and reliable. Take one at night and you feel bright and sunny in the morning. It is because the liver becomes sluggish, and waste matter accumulates which Nature cannot remove without assistance. Salvation Army.

COMMISSIONER W. J. RICHARDS WILL VISIT DIGBY NEXT WEEK.

Commissioner W. J. Richards, the recently appointed Leader of the Salvation Army, will visit Digby on June 6th, and will be accorded a Public Welcome in the Bijou Theatre next Tuesday evening. Deputy Mayor O. S. Dunham has been asked to prepare the program for the evening. The new Commissioner has had a very lengthy, varied and successful career.

Since that time Commissioner Richards has held important positions in the Salvation Army in various parts of the world, including Governor of the Army's social operations in Great Britain, South Africa and New Zealand.

The Commissioner is a very efficient and capable administrator, and withal is reputed to be a fluent and eloquent speaker. He is being very highly spoken of in the Press of the Dominion. His addresses abound with striking illustrations, illuminating, humorous, passages, combined with forthrightness, lucidity and seriousness. Commissioner Richards stands at the very forefront of public speakers.

Since coming to Canada the Commissioner has addressed huge audiences in the principal cities throughout the Dominion.

Commissioner Richards will be accompanied by Brigadier Green, of Toronto; Major Barr, the Divisional Commander, and Captain Keith, Private Secretary.

What Price Do You Pay For Tea?

THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT ON ACCOUNT OF CHANGED CONDITIONS.

Conditions in the tea markets of the world have changed considerably since the war. On account of Russia prohibiting the sale of Volga and France putting the ban on Aleutian, these countries have become larger consumers of tea. In fact, France and other countries have followed the English custom of serving tea to the troops instead of coffee, and this takes an enormous supply of tea.

These largely increased demands for tea would be sufficient in themselves to have caused a rise in tea values. But, in addition, ocean freight rates are three times normal and insurance rates are very high, and over eighteen million pounds of tea have been lost on vessels which were sunk by German cruisers and submarines since the beginning.

The foregoing facts explain why tea is higher in price than before the war. If you are still paying the same price for tea as you were eight months ago you are getting a lower grade than the tea you formerly used. For example, if you are paying 40 cents a pound you are getting the quality that sold at 30 cents a year ago. The old 40 cent quality is now selling at 50 cents, in fact, has been selling at this price for months. If anyone has not been enjoying their tea they will no doubt find that they have been getting the same grade or label, consequently it has not tasted so good. But tea at 50, 60 and 70 cents a pound is not dear. In fact, it is the cheapest hot drink obtainable when you consider the great number of cups of tea a pound will make. At 50 cents a pound the cost per cup is only 1-5 of a cent, so small that it is hardly worth considering.

There are more people enjoying tea today than ever before, as what other beverage can give so much enjoyment at so small a cost. And while tea sells at anywhere near its present moderate price there is no reason for not enjoying our due share of this delightful beverage.

Correspondence.

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR:—I was very much interested in Mr. H. Arnold's letter entitled "The Family Bottle" which appeared in your issue of May 12th. As a result I carried out a resolve made long ago and hunted up my "family bottle" and emptied its contents forthwith.

I wish Mr. Arnold had accompanied his letter with what he proposes to give us later on, i. e., what to use in place of alcohol.

It seems to me that one of the criticisms that can be made against reformers in general is an active determination to tear down or destroy without doing what to seem very essential and that is to build up that which is better to take the place of that which is destroyed.

I wrote ten or a dozen letters to various temperance advocates and organizations asking them to suggest what could be used in times of emergency as a substitute for alcohol and have just lately been successful. From time immemorial people in times of exhaustion, exposure, fainting and the like, have turned automatically to alcoholic drinks.

As Mr. Arnold states, the overwhelming consensus of opinion amongst scientists today is that alcohol doesn't do the good which for so long has been attributed to it and on the contrary does harm.

Two of the most illuminating and most interesting books recently issued are "Drink and the Sinner" by Vance Thompson (Moffat, Yard & Co., New York, publishers, $1.00) and "Anti-Alcohol Movement in Foreign Lands" by E. G. Gordon (H. R. Ryce Co., New York, publishers, $1.50).

If Digby has a public library and you will so advise, it will give me a sure to present to it a copy of each.

Yours truly,
CHAS. F. CHASE.

New York, N. Y., 17th May 1916.

Pte. Ben Douce, of the 16th, left Monday morning for Halifax on a visit to his wife.

Mr. Aug. N. Saulnier and his friend, Mr. J. A. Davaud, drove to Weymouth by auto Saturday night.

Two four men are in course of construction here, one by Dr. P. H. Mac Donald and the other by Mr. John F. Davaud.

Miss Beatrice Comeau, of Comeau's Cove, left Saturday for a few weeks' visit in Wilmington, Mass., and other American cities.

Sgt. Annie, Capt. Moses Trahan, Gullion Bros., of Salmon River, props, is here to go on John F. Davaud's marine railway to be overhauled.

News from Pte. Corl Pothier to our representative who is taking a Sergeant course at Halifax, says that there are twenty-four French Academics taking up the different courses. Ptes. John L. Comeau and Desiré Comeau are also taking up the Sergeant course.

Lieut. LePage left last week for Weymouth, N. S. Lieut. LePage, during his sojourn here, has endeavored himself to all in (losing him our soldiers are losing a true friend, one who was always looking for their welfare. He was a man who understood the dignity of his position and the responsibilities of his position in military and civilian life. Though of the 112th Battalion in his private life and on the street he did not blush to express himself in French. He may be replaced by others equal in merit, but he will never be excelled.

It is with pleasure that we welcome in our midst Mr. John F. Davaud and his fair young wife. They were married at Church Point, Monday, the 22nd inst., and immediately left for St. John, N. B. Mrs. Davaud, nee Emma Comeau, is a daughter of Mr. Louis P. Comeau, of Comeauville, and a sister of the Hon. J. W. Comeau, M. P. During his maiden days Miss Comeau, now Mrs. Davaud, was one of our best and efficient public school teachers. To the newly married couple we extend our best wishes for joy and happiness in their new state of life.

Weymouth North.

Mrs. Omer Denton is visiting her mother, Mrs. Brooks.

Mrs. Henry Taylor, after an absence of several months, has returned.

Mr. Donald Mullen and bride, of Barrington, paid a visit to his parents last week.

Mr. Walton Tibert has been the guest over Sunday of his sister, Mrs. Capt. Fitzgerald.

Much praise is due our school teachers for the patriotic songs recitations and readings which were prepared for Empire day and appreciated by those who attended. Rev. M. Taylor gave an interesting blackboard sketch on the growth of the Empire. An essay on the war written by Misses Hilda Hogan and Eleanor Journey read by the former, is worthy of mention.

The 24th of May was the quietest day. Weymouth has had for a long time; all of our citizens, who own homes or cars have taken to the woods to try their luck with the rods. The weather was just what was needed and all reported a pleasant holiday.

Last Sunday morning, St. Joseph's church was the scene of a very impressive service, when the boys of the 219th headed by their Lieutenant, Kenneth Campbell, marched to the church to attend Mass. Although they have not yet their full uniforms, our boys presented a splendid appearance and are a credit to their officer and Reverend Father Dion in a short and eloquent sermon, specially addressing the boys, gave them kind words of advice, and expressed the sentiments of all in wishing them God speed and assuring them that the prayers of his church and his congregation would follow them on their perilous duty and "with God's help bring them safely home."

"The Education of Billy Stream"

Mr. Frederick William Wallace, editor of the Canadian Fisherman, has written an interesting story for the June issue of Adventure, a popular New York magazine.

The story is an exceptionally vigorous one, filled with action and interest. "Billy Stream" was young and untamed, but he was a brave and resourceful fellow, who was determined to control the fishing markets of Canada, and to do so he had to face the wrath of his own father, because he believed himself right.

Death of James Daley

A FORMER DIGBY MAN PASSES AWAY IN NEBRASKA.

(From the Merna, Nebraska, Postal Card.)

A wave of sadness passed over this community Monday evening when the news was spread of the sudden death of one of our best citizens, James Daley. Mr. Daley had been working in the garden, and was called for dinner by his wife. There was no response to the call and investigation he was found to be dead.

James Daley was born at Digby, Nova Scotia, May 8, 1837. He was of a large family, three sisters of whom are living.

Mr. Daley was married to Miriam E. Hadd, December 18, 1872. To this union were born two sons, Ernest and Bud. Ernest passed away in December, 1880, at the age of eleven years.

Mr. Daley moved from Nova Scotia to Villisca, Iowa, in September, 1879. In the spring of 1880 in company with James Wood he came to Gustar county and filed in a timber claim. He drove from Villisca four times and in the spring 1882 moved to live in the claim. He has since that time been very fond of beautiful and fragrant flowers.

Mr. Daley united with the Episcopal church in young manhood and was a temperance worker in the early days. Those were times when the prohibition movement was not looked upon with favor at the present time. He has continued to be on the side of prohibition all through the years. His manner of life has been upright. He has been a regular attendant at church and at public school gatherings.

The latter portion of his life has been very suddenly 1910, at his home in Merna, Nebraska. He has left a well rounded life of 78 years and 2 days.

He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and one son, and three grandchildren besides a host of friends. He was a considerate husband, a good father and a humble and unpretentious in his life.

May rest be to his body and joy to his soul as he leaves his home here to dwell in the great Home beyond.

The funeral services were held from the 21st inst. to the 23rd inst. at the residence of Mr. Daley, conducted by Rev. J. W. Fair, pastor of the church. This was one of the largest attended funerals ever held in Merna, and a large number of friends followed to the last resting place in the Merna cemetery.

Mr. Daley, once mentioned, was a brother of Mrs. Oscar Dakin, Digby, and a son of Mr. J. W. Daley, of Digby, N. S., and Mr. Oliver Stark, of Oulden.

NOTICE

I have a notice in the COURIER that Joseph Melanson, my husband, has announced that I have severed relation with him. On August 25th, 1915, he went away and he would never send me a cent, and he never said anything to me and I have been for 12 and one half years. The last 11 years he paid to rent a house for a home for me. I thought I had to place this advertisement in the Digby Courier to let this date I notify him to stay away from my children.

Mrs. Oressa N. Hardy and little son Carroll, of Boston, Mass., arrived Monday, via St. John, and are visiting at the home of Mr. James L. Warner.

We are sorry to say Mrs. Warner is at present confined to her room. We wish her a speedy recovery.

As stated in last week's issue of the Courier the clergy and students of St. Anne's college, Church Point, were here last Thursday having come by S. S. Mikado. They numbered about 150 and the music rendered by the band was excellent. A large number of people from this place and the neighboring villages gathered at St. Croix church to celebrate the services of Ascension Day.

Stephen, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Comeau, of this place, met with what might have proved a more serious accident, one day last week, by falling from the public wharf to the beach a distance of about fifteen feet. Fortunately the young lad only received injuries to his right wrist and knee, beside a bad shaking up. Dr. Dickie was summoned and we are glad to see Stephen getting out again.

DOES THIS MEAN YOU?

Are you one of the many who are suffering with eczema, obstinate sores, ulcers or any other skin trouble? If so, lose no time in trying Zambuk, and you will be amazed at its curative power.

The healing power of any ointment is in proportion to its medicinal ingredients. Ordinary ointments have not sufficient healing power to overcome a bad case of skin trouble. Zambuk on the contrary, is purely herbal, and is of medicinal value, which explains its superiority over other ointments, and its many marvelous cures.

Besides being best for eczema, ulcers, and skin diseases, of all kinds, it is equally good for blood poisoning, piles, burns, cuts, heat rashes, sore and blistered feet, insect bites and stings, etc. It is also the best for all skin diseases, and is the only one that will cure them.

Come in and ask for a bottle today. You will be glad to see it. It is also about D. D. D. Soap, that keeps the skin healthy.

ZAMBUK
Why Shamed by Blotchy Skin

If you are a sufferer from Zambuk or unsightly pimply skin, you know just what it means to have that humiliating or awkward feeling about meeting strangers and attending to your work. Many a time you have looked into the mirror and thought, "What a skin!" You would be like other people, that you could, "without a blush." This skin sore is the result of impure blood, and will go to the drug store and procure a bottle of D. D. D. the greatest of all skin remedies, apply it according to directions, in a short time, your skin will be as soft as velvet.

Come in and ask for a bottle today. You will be glad to see it. It is also about D. D. D. Soap, that keeps the skin healthy.

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS

Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry

and where he is now studying massage. The men who survived were, of course, greatly shaken and were taken back for a long rest where they were joined by new drafts to bring it up to strength. Shortly after this the Twenty Seventh Division was ordered to Sault Ste. Marie and the 18th Brigade of the Third Canadian Division. Instead of British regulars, they are now brigaded with the Royal Canadian Regiment, formerly stationed at Halifax, and two western battalions. Being now almost entirely composed of Canadians, most of whom have been recruited from different University companies, it is fitting that the Princess Pats should be taking its place in a Canadian Division.

During the year that has elapsed, the regiment has been moved about from place to place along the line, and while it has taken part in no heavy engagements, it continues to hold its position of the line under all conditions, with the same tenacity and spirit. It is deployed in the "cold days" which week after week and month after month, it kept up its end alongside the crack regiments of the British army.

Little more remains to be said. Of the original drafts from 1914, there are now but a handful. Perhaps thirty or forty are now doing duty at the front. The district between Ypres and St. Eloi is strewn with the graves of many of our old comrades, and wherever it was possible, a little rude cross was erected giving the name, number and date. A good many of the old boys who have been wounded and have "done their bit" are still in England employed in the Pay and Record Offices and at different base camps on light duty. A considerable number have already been invalided to Canada, unfit for further duty. When the Pats finally return to Canada there will be few indeed, if any, who can look back to the time they sailed down the St. Lawrence River that bright October afternoon, when with high hearts they set out for the unknown.

MANY PEOPLE HEARD ABOUT DIGBY IN MELROSE, MONDAY EVENING

(Special to the Courier)

MELROSE, Mass., June 8.—Before 20 members of the Melrose Canadian Club and their friends Monday evening, June 8, at the Melrose Hotel, there was an interesting reception lecture, "Through Evangelina's Land and the Canadian Rockies." The lecture was in aid of the club's raising for the purpose of sending delicacies to the Canadian "boys" in the trenches. There were a number of ladies in the audience.

As a preliminary to his illustrated description of the Land of Evangelina Mr. Anderson read a letter issued by Mr. O. S. Dunham, editor of the Digby "Courier," setting forth a compelling vacation-season charges of "Digby the Delightful" and cordially inviting every one in the land to come and visit the place this summer. The views of Digby and vicinity lately projected on the screen abundantly verified Mr. Dunham's encomiums. Besides the well-known scenic features of the town and the fishing, the included views of Digby's fish-curing industry, the visit of Sir Wilfrid Laurier during the election campaign, the arrival of the "Flying Blonnie," the picturesque annual O'Connell picnic, the Melrose River Carnival and other interesting features.

Mr. John F. Masters, New England Superintendent of the Boston & Yarmouth Steamship Company, was introduced after the close of the lecture and gave an effective talk in the course of which he lauded the Canadian character and congratulated the Melrose Club that it was doing its duty. Mr. Anderson has been giving his "Land of Evangelina" lecture in New England for a number of years, bringing his views up to date each year.

Increasing Business Larger Quarters

From Toronto World
Plummer & Company of 108 Bay Street are feeling the effect of moving activity as a result of the sound foundation and conservative policy adopted by them when the company was instituted. The service given their patrons is perhaps unequalled in Canada, and an enviable reputation for careful attention to the interests of their clients has built them a business which is beginning to assume pretentious proportions. The activity is not alone confined to the Toronto office, but is being felt in their agencies in Detroit, Ottawa, Montreal and Boston. The Toronto office is now being enlarged and a new quotation board installed for the accommodation of clients and additional wire service provided. The statistical and information department is given particular attention by Plummer & Company. The Toronto correspondent from time to time has seen some very interesting advance reports on the merits and demerits of the various Cobalt and Porcupine prospects and mines.

Their weekly letter is most reliable and conservative, and the letters received in the office for the past few weeks have been of unusual interest. The manager of the Plummer Company's mining department spent five years in the various northern camps and is a practical mining man.

Metaphor

Mr. Walton Tibert, of Bear River, and Mr. Felix Gaudet, of Weymouth, Conversative candidates for the local house were here last Friday.

Mrs. Ambrose Maillet (nee Paul Lombard) of Mavillotte, arrived Saturday from Boston where she had been on a visit to relatives and friends.

Pte. Carmille Comeau, of Sault Ste. Marie, who is on a leave of absence for harvest seeding purposes, was here Saturday as well as Pte. Augustus Amireault, of Plympton.

Capt. Raymond V. Comeau, of the 10th Bn. M. A. Battalion, of Bellevue's Cove, left last week for Barbadore, W. I. We wish our genial friend a prosperous voyage and a speedy return.

Mrs. Dakin (nee Zee Saultier) and her sister, Miss Lucy Saultier, daughters of Duette Saultier have arrived from North Carolina where they had spent the winter months after a couple of weeks Mrs. Dakin will join her husband who is in the 112th Battalion at Windsor.

Thursday 1st inst., Mrs. Hilaire Deveau, breathed her last at the age of 78 years. The late Mrs. Comeau, notwithstanding her advanced age, was in fairly good health and, with only sick two days with pneumonia. She was a daughter of the late Timothy E. Deveau, of Mavillotte. Her husband had predeceased her for a number of years. She leaves four children, one son and three daughters. She belonged to the Society of the Ladies of St. Ann, the members marching in procession before the hearse with banner and insignia. The funeral took place Saturday at 8 o'clock, amid a large gathering of relatives and friends. She is gone to the repose in the dark and cold sepulchre. But her soul is in the regions above in the presence of her God. Sleep in peace where you have been deposed with tears in awaiting the great day but from the heights of heaven watch over those dearest to your heart. To the bereaved family we offer our most sincere condolences in their bereavement.

THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Summer Tourist Travel.

The United States railway authorities are now expecting a big tourist travel to New England resorts this year and the many ready travellers in their optimism in this respect. They cite the facts that war conditions have closed the doors to European resorts that the San Francisco Exposition which last year led thousands to spend their vacation on the Pacific coast, over, and that the extraordinary prosperity in the United States has provided many ready money for extended trips. Another indication is the large number of requests received for summer literature. The numerous enquiries received by the Canadian Government Railways is a sure index that great interest is being taken in the summer resorts of the Maritime Provinces, and all its principal passenger representatives in the United States and Canada have been provided with a large supply of 1016 descriptive literature.

With the unlimited possibilities that Maritime Canada possesses for summer enjoyment—conditions as enjoyable as the in the most favored part of the world that may be chosen for comparison—sunny skies, delightful temperatures, invigorating air, an endless variety of picturesque beauty—nature evidently intended the "provinces by the sea" to be the most favored part of the world that may be chosen for comparison.

The value of summer tourist business to the New England States is estimated at $10,000,000 a year. It is the time for our Maritime people to take advantage of the fact that the Maritime States are now in the midst of a golden harvest.

A Short Trip to New York.

EASTERN S. S. CO.'S SHIPS WILL USE THE CAPE COD CANAL

The Eastern Steamship Corporation formally announces the use of the Cape Cod Canal for the steamers of the Metropolitan Line. All The Way By Water route between Boston and New York.

By the use of the Canal thence via beautiful Buzzards Bay and Long Island Sound the All-The-Way-By-Water distance between Boston and New York is reduced from 337 to 269 statute or land miles and the Steamship Massachusetts and Buckle Hill, which are in this service, will hereafter leave India Wharf at 6 o'clock instead of 5 o'clock in the evening, and scheduled to arrive in New York at 39 the following morning, running time between the two cities being fixed at 13 1/2 hours.

THE BLESSING OF A HEALTHY BODY

Has Not Had An Hour's Sickness Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

MR. MARRIOTT

73 Lees Ave., Ottawa, Ont., August 9th, 1915.

"I think it my duty to tell you what 'Fruit-a-tives' has done for me. Three years ago, I began to feel run-down and tired, and suffered very much from Liver and Kidney Trouble. Having read of 'Fruit-a-tives', I thought I would try them. The result was surprising. During the 21 years past, I have taken them regularly and would not change for anything. I have not had an hour's sickness since I commenced using 'Fruit-a-tives', and I know now what I haven't known for a good many years—that is, the blessing of a healthy body and clear thinking brain."

Last Sunday evening the Rev. George Bryant, a former pastor of this place, preached in the Methodist Church to a large congregation, who were delighted to have him with them again and listened with much interest and profit to an admirable sermon delivered by him. On Monday evening in the same church he gave to a good sized audience one of the best lectures which has been given in the village of Sandy Cove. His subject was the "Aftermath of Battle" in which he gave us the benefit of his experiences in hospital work in connection with the present war. For an hour and a quarter he held the rapt attention of his audience, who gave a unanimous expression of their appreciation of the lecture in supporting a resolution, moved and seconded by Rev. Mr. Hale and Dr. Ball. Mr. Bryant exhibited several souvenirs of the war.

Bedford

Visitors at Raiting Beach this week were: Mr. and Mrs. Egan, Mr. W. J. Gowan, Mr. E. P. Master, Geoffrey duVerges, Edward duVerges, and Victor Turnbull.

Last Friday noon three full grown deer were quietly grazing in the orchard, one of the deer chased them. They were seen half-way to the beach, but did not get too close to the house. They were too strong so they returned to their shore landing near split rock and after running, trotted off in the woods. Sunday deer were seen again in the vegetable garden. Some damage has been done by them to small apple trees.

A remarkable quick hatch has been done by a turkey hen, who brought her setting in three weeks. Four weeks is usually taken four weeks the hatch over and under. The new Marling Silver Cocker have a record for laying. This is a stock which has been exhibited at San Francisco world's fair and received highest honours. One egg a day from each hen is the record.

Wedding Bells at Plympton

EVERETT-WARNER
A pretty, but quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Warner, Plympton, Wednesday morning, when their eldest daughter, Arlene Frederica, was united in marriage to Leon O. V. Everett, son of Mr. E. Everett, of Bridgetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry Burgess, pastor of the St. Mary's Bay Methodist church, in a room especially decorated with apple blossoms and lilacs. The bride, who was attended by her bridesmaids, wore a gown of white silk, trimmed with point-de-silhouette and shadow lace, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bride has a large circle of acquaintances, both in Nova Scotia and Massachusetts, and is well known in Digby, having for nearly a year been a stenographer in Mr. F. W. Nichol's Law Office.

The groom is chief clerk of the S. S. Vaux, Limited, and holds S. S. Co., which sails between New York and South America.

After the wedding which was attended by only members of the immediate families, the happy couple left by auto for Yarmouth, where they boarded the west bound express for Yarmouth, enroute to Boston and New York.

The Courier joins their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Everett a long and prosperous wedded life.

Married at Church Point

THIBAUDT-DEON
A fashionable wedding took place at St. Mary's church, Church Point (N. S.) on Wednesday morning, May 31, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Margaret Thibault, of Haverhill (Mass.), was united in marriage to J. Eugene D'Eon, of Meteghan River. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Dore, who celebrated nuptial high mass. Miss Celeste Lombard, an intimate friend of the bride, was bridesmaid and Joseph LeBlanc, of St. Ann's College (teaching staff), supported the groom. The choir, under the direction of Professor O. J. Comeau, rendered special music. After the ceremony the bridal party left for St. John, where they will spend a few days before leaving on an automobile tour through the Annapolis Valley. The bride was very popular in Haverhill, where she will be greatly missed in social circles. Mr. D'Eon is the Nova Scotia representative for George S. deForest & Sons, of St. John. On their return they will reside at Meteghan River.

Dredging For Digby

The Government dredge fielding, commanded by Capt. C. F. Lewis, now at St. John, is expected to arrive at Digby next week to commence dredging at this port. We understand that Mr. Clarence J. Mason, M. P., is arranging to have the railway people place a suitable embankment along the water front at Battery Point, near the head of the government pier, to prevent the further washing away of the sand and mud, which for many years has been filling up our harbor. This is a move which should certainly be appreciated by all our citizens.

Pacific Coast for nine years, and in that time has become an enthusiastic Westerner. He will visit friends in Yarmouth before proceeding to his former home in Freeport, Nova Scotia.

Mr. A. H. Britain, of Montreal, general manager of the Maritime Fish Corporation, arrived here Tuesday from St. John, accompanied by Mr. W. J. Vhay, of Detroit, one of the Company's largest customers. Wednesday they motored to Centreville, accompanied by Capt. Howard Anderson and yesterday left for Canada.

Mr. John Tunnelcliffe, a prominent business man of San Francisco, accompanied by his wife, left here last Wednesday for St. John, where they intend remaining several days. They are touring Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and came here from Boston by the way of Halifax. Mr. Tunnelcliffe told a newspaper man that the visit of himself and wife to Canada was the direct result of the Canadian exhibi-at the Panama exposition, and that there were other 'Frisco people of prominence coming this way this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Tunnelcliffe think that the maritime provinces are O. K. so far what they have seen, and they will have nothing but words of praise for the provinces by the Atlantic when they arrive home.

GAVEL'S GARAGE

FOR OVERSEAS CONSTRUCTION

GIANT steam shovels weighing sixty-five tons each, capable of eating up the earth at the rate of 150 to 200 cubic yards an hour, and self-propelling excavation track pile drivers, are part of the equipment recently purchased by the Government for Col. C. W. P. Ramsay, of the Canadian Overseas Railway Construction Corps. This plant was selected by Col. Ramsay's colleagues in the Engineering Department of the Canadian Pacific Railway and is being prepared by that company at the request of the Government for shipment abroad. The Canadian Overseas Railway Construction Corps has already built many miles of track at strategic points and is all the while engaged in surveys for further construction. The work has often to be done under fire, and though there have been so many narrow escapes there have been no serious casualties. Out of the non-commissioned officers and sappers that enlisted on the foundation of the Corps 18 have already received commissions in the Royal Engineers, a remarkable tribute to their efficiency, while Col. Ramsay and Major Harvey have been mentioned in dispatches. The splendid work of these Canadian engineers has been highly appreciated by the allied commanders.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Canada's Record

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR:—Before I had received the news of the splendid success of the Prohibition movement in the Province of Ontario, the New Republic which is the official organ of the American Anti-Saloon League, had an editorial entitled "Canada's virile response" in which the situation, this side of the boundary line, was referred to in the following terms:

Canada as an integral part of the British Empire, is in the midst of a struggle to the death for National existence.

The best blood of the Dominion is being spilled all over the hills of northern France. The fathers and mothers gladly give up their sons; girls give up their sweethearts, and wives give up their husbands. The tax payers dig deep into their pockets and all wonder what else they can do.

While Patriotism is a noble from Vancouver to Quebec what are the rum sellers doing? They are intervening to balk their country's efforts.

Did Canada survive and cringe and stutter and wriggle and crawl concerning this? Not much.

Alberta led off by wiping out the saloons of the entire Province.

Then along came Saskatchewan with an anti-bar law, closing every dram shop in her boundaries.

Then the people of Manitoba enacted a state wide prohibition law with a two to one majority.

Then the Legislature of Nova Scotia met and enacted a state wide law for that Province.

Now British Columbia is planning to out the disloyal traffic from her boundaries.

Calloiden.

Miss Sadie Steele, of Weymouth, is visiting her cousin, Miss Ruby Daley.

The worst rain and thunder storm of the season passed over this village Tuesday morning.

Measles and mumps are visiting our village at present. We are in hopes their stay won't be long.

Mrs. Benedict VanTassell, of Mt. Pleasant, spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hersey, who has been quite ill with measles.

Belliveau's Cove.

Mr. Hilariou C. Theriault has returned to Hartford, Conn.

Schr. Alvin Theriault is loading at St. John for Barbados, B. W. I.

Died on June 20th, Mr. Emillion C. Belliveau, aged 55 years, after an illness of several months of jaundice, leaving a wife and three daughters to mourn their loss.

Just received a lot of Choice Groceries. A trial order solicited.

Arthur Bond is Dead

A FORMER BARTON BOY KILLED IN THE WEST.

[From the High River, Alberta, Times]
Mr. Arthur Bond, a prominent member of the Buffalo Hills District died on Wednesday morning from injuries received on Sunday afternoon, last while riding one of his ponies. It appears that while returning home with one of his riders, a race was suggested and in pulling up sharply at the gate near his home his horse tripped and in falling rolled twice over Mr. Bond, causing injuries about the head and body, and rendering him unconscious. He was carried to his home and medical aid was immediately summoned from High River and Vulcan, but efforts were in vain to restore consciousness. An operation was performed but the injuries were such that he could not recover.

The deceased was a son of our townsman, Mr. W. M. Bond, and a brother of Mr. Jas. Bond of Tongue Creek. The latter left immediately for Buffalo Hills, on hearing of the unfortunate accident. Mr. Bond suffered from concussion of the brain, and passed away on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Bond was a very successful horse breeder, and an excellent and fearless rider. He could ride the wildest of bucking bronches, and it seems strange that he should meet his death in such a simple manner. He was very active in political and municipal politics, and since the establishment of the Municipal Council he has been on the council board either in the capacity of reeve or councillor. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his loss. In the community he will be sadly missed, for he was always ready to assist in any cause that meant the betterment of his fellow creatures.

[Mr. Arthur Bond was a native of Barton, Digby county, where a number of his relatives still reside.]

Relief for the People of Poland

BRITAIN WILLING TO AID IN GERMAN CHANGES HER OUTRAGEOUS POLICY.

LONDON, June 29.—Lord Robert Cecil, British Minister of War Trade told a representative of the Associated Press today the Great Britain was ready to resume the negotiations, if a basis could be secured, by which the Relief Commission the opportunity to extend relief to Poland. The negotiations have been suspended since the refusal to accept the British stipulations (which called for the provisioning all of the Austrian-occupied districts of Poland and of Serbia, Montenegro and Albania) and although the officers of the Commission, with the assistance of Ambassador Page and Ambassador Gerard in Berlin, have done their utmost, they have been compelled to abandon all hope of success.

"But," said Lord Robert, "I consider the German refusal an outrageous proceeding. The action does not appear accidental, but is in accord with the German principles of warfare, which they boldly publish. This matter is a result of a calculated policy, just as their striking medals to commemorate the sinking of the Lusitania. There has been horrible suffering in Poland, but the starving outcries in behalf of humanity is merely designed to get to look for their own army."

Battle Raged All Night

PANIS, June 24.—The French official statement issued today is as follows: "On the left bank of the River Meuse there has been continued fierce activity on the part of the enemy in the vicinity of the village of the Avescourt wood, at Hill 304, and at Dead Men's Hill, A German attack, with hand grenades upon our position at Hill 304 has been repulsed. "On the right bank of the river the battle continued with ferocity all last night on the western portion of this front. Our counter-offensive movements, conducted with vigor, made it possible for us to recapture in the vicinity of Hills 320 and 321, a large portion of the ground recently lost there by us and to drive the enemy back as far as the outskirts of the Talaumont work. This the Germans still hold.

"The fighting became particularly violent in the village of Feury.

Aircraft Active

LONDON, June 21.—The British official statement issued to-night reads: "Yesterday hostile aircraft again were active in the vicinity of our machines, which attempted to cross our lines, was attacked by our scouts and driven back. One of our aeroplanes, descending to a height of 10,000 feet, attacked with machine gun fire some horse transports and caused a stampede."

Big Plant Destroyed

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 23.—Explosions in the plant of the Liquid Carbonic Company here today, caused a fire which destroyed the factory building and extended to the plant of the British American Chemical Company, which also was destroyed. John Palmer, a fireman was buried under falling walls and seriously injured. The loss is placed at $300,000.

Say OSTERMOOR

—and STICK TO IT!

If you called Henry Smith on the telephone, and the operator said "line's busy," you surely wouldn't say, "Give me any other Smith who has a telephone!"

It's the same with Mattresses—there's only one OSTERMOOR. Ask for it and look for the name in the binding. You pay only once for

Ask your dealer to show you your size in a Red T Shoe

WHEN you put your foot into shoes that were never intended for you—nature rebels. It doesn't help to have shoes a size or two larger—chafing is just as bad as squeezing. The remedy is to choose from a line that considers the natural needs of the human foot—not just one perfect foot—but all kinds of feet.

Red T Shoes offer comfort, and ease, and that true style that follows when your feet are properly fitted, because in the complete line there is probably a last and a style for every pair of feet that enter a shoe store.

Why is Beer Worse Than Whiskey?

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR:—Over twenty five years ago Sir John A. McDonald appointed a Royal Commission to enquire into the liquor problem. The chairman of the Commission, Judge Clark, stated that nearly all the doctors said that beer was worse than whiskey, but at that time we could not tell the reason why.

Some years after that the great investigator, Von Noorden, discovered in beer an acid to which he did not give a name, which wrought havoc on the kidneys, heart and liver. So the matter stood until Prof. Reinhold of Graz, discovered that the Lupulin Glands of the hops secreted not only this acid which he calls lup acid, but also a peculiar resin, bearing a close resemblance to the resin secreted by the Indian Hemp, from which comes the dreadful poison Hashish.

The Basins Anti Alcohol Congress concluded that, while whiskey and brandy make a man crazy, beer tends to make him stupid. Dr. Forel, of the University of Zurich, says "The drinking of beer has killed the ideals and ethics and has produced an inextinguishable fire." The reason for the brutal selfishness is that each pint of beer contains besides a small glass of pure alcohol, a percentage of Lupulin, the active principle of hops, which acts very much like the poison principle of the Indian Hemp. At one time Indian Hemp was used as a medicine, but it had to be given up on account of its varying and poisonous characteristics.

Prof. Forel, of the University of Zurich, the first great Institution in Europe to give up alcohol as a medicine, reported that the beer drunkards outnumbered the spirits drunkards by 9 to 1. Dr. Delbruck says that beer and wine countries such as France, Germany, Belgium and Holland are more alcohol soaked than the whiskey and brandy countries, and concludes that the beer danger is much greater than the spirit danger.

A pamphlet entitled "Alcohol and the Power of Resistance," directed widely among the German soldiers says "There is no justification for calling beer, liquid bread, a glass of heavy beer, costing 25 Pfennings contains less nourishment than a piece of chaff costing only 1 Pfennig. Almost all excesses and disturbances in the army, are traced to drink, and it is mostly beer that causes the mischief. Beer is not the harmless drink it is supposed to be."

Women and Thrift.

Upon the women of the land will rest the greatest burden of success in the campaign for thrift that has been inaugurated. As heads of the household they are the cancellers of domestic extravagance. It is for them to bear in mind that expenditure upon articles that are not actually needed is not alone lessening their own resources but also depriving the country of something that might be more profitably applied. The majority of men will agree that so far as the household is concerned their women are pretty thrifty. But stinginess, or miserliness is not thrift. The thrifty woman combines with a natural aptitude for economy the wisdom of selection and utilization. She knows when to save and when to spend. She knows what is necessary and what can be done without and she makes the best use of everything. Neither does she do all these things herself. When help is at hand she utilizes it with discretion.

The great aid to thrift is thoughtfulness. In fact without that element thrift is utterly out of the question. The thrifty woman, too, not only exercises wisdom herself but sees that her children do the same thing not by indulging them but by delegating to their sturdy offices of which they are capable, by making them self reliant. But the woman cannot do all these things by herself. She must enjoy the support, countenance and influence of her menkind. The greatest enemy to thrift is the promiscuous doling out of the money. It is not to boys and girls a sign of good nature, it is death to the recipient. It poisons their disposition and sows seeds of weeds that can never be eradicated. For that sort of thing women are but little responsible, but where their fortune is in allowing nothing to go to waste, in making use of every thing, and in exercising ingenuity in food, dress, household labour and the bringing up of children. An incentive to the accomplishment of these things is a reflection upon the times, upon the luxury and extravagance of every male relative at the front, and upon the fact that every ounce saved is a contribution to the welfare of the country and perhaps to winning the war.

Regulate Kidneys AND Relieve Constipation

Gin Pills are acknowledged to have the largest sale of any proprietary medicine in Canada—an achievement solely due to their remarkable virtue as a Kidney and Bladder remedy.

But users of Gin Pills have discovered that this invaluable remedy also acts as a mild cathartic. The evidence is that the very logical fact that in compensating the kidneys and bladder certain of the ingredients have a stimulating effect upon the organs, especially the bowels. It is important to know, in the case of constipated patients, that Gin Pills do not act harshly on the bowels; there is no griping, and no undue stimulation of the bowels. In this regard the bowels are safeguarded against possible kidney trouble.

Gin Pills are the best and most reliable for all cases of constipation.
