Silver Wedding at Westport

MR. AND MRS. E. C. BOWERS MARRIED TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

A most interesting event occurred at Westport on Friday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bowers celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The rooms were decorated with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers. The mantel and also the bay window were festooned with garlands of flowers. The rooms were decorated with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers. The mantel and also the bay window were festooned with garlands of flowers. The rooms were decorated with potted plants, ferns and cut flowers. The mantel and also the bay window were festooned with garlands of flowers.

The dining room, where refreshments were served, was decorated with huge bunches of flowers, lighted in the evening by the Masonic candle which was used in the first Masonic Lodge at Westport sixty-five years ago. Although Mr. Bowers has been an invalid for five years, his wonderful mind and courage, his ready smile and pleasant ways make all glad who go within his room.

Large quantities of flowers were sent from friends in Yarmouth and Westport. Cut glass, silver, and many books and boxes of sweets were received from friends in Boston, St. John, Halifax, etc., which brought much gladness. Refreshments were served in the afternoon and evening over sixty of the friends who called to extend congratulations. Music, both by gramophone and piano, added much to the entertainment. In the evening several addresses were read and an original poem by E. H. Davis, written for the occasion, brought spontaneous applause, also one by Mr. E. C. Bowers was much appreciated. Numerous letters from old friends testified to the high regard and respect felt for them. We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Bowers may live to enjoy many returns of the year. Among those present were Warden Purdy, of Bear River, and Miss Grace Murray, of Yarmouth, who both came especially for the occasion. G. N. G.

The Brown-Tail Moth

"We have had during 1914 and 1915-16 two very successful seasons in controlling the Brown Tail Moth in the Province. In 1914, the year following the highest from the New England States, the inspectors found 24,150 nests in the Province. The following year they cut this down to 18,154 nests and this winter they made a further reduction finding only 14,153 nests in the Province.

One of the reasons that they have been so successful is that they know most of the infested orchards and go to them early in the season before the drop of the nest begins.

Many infested orchards, however, could not be located until quite late in the season and thorough work was of course impossible in them on account of the drop of the nest.

The Brown-Tail is very easily located by apple pickers during October. The winter nests are now being found and a circle of skeletons of leaves surrounds each nest to a distance of from six inches to two feet. These spots of brown skeletonized leaves are now very conspicuous against the dark green of the trees and the nest containing a number of very small caterpillars in the center of these leaves will identify the work with certainty as that of the Brown-Tail. Damage is done by keeping their orchards free from the Brown-Tail. Do not destroy or keep their orchards free from the Brown-Tail. Do not destroy or keep their orchards free from the Brown-Tail. Death of Mrs. Eunice Frost

The friends of Mrs. Eunice Frost, widow of the late Capt. W. T. Frost, and mother of the late W. G. Frost, formerly of Digby, will regret to hear of her death which took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Strickland, Westport, Sept. 27th, aged 93 years. Seven weeks ago she fell and fractured her hip bone from which she never recovered. She was born in Plymouth, England, Feb. 17th, 1823. She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother, three sons and four daughters, and eight great grandchildren. She was a devoted member of the Methodist Church.

Acaalaville

Mrs. Wallace Denton, of Barton, is the guest of Mrs. E. A. Bell. Mr. John Murley visited his home at Pleasant River last week.

Miss Jennie Shortliffe, of South Range, is visiting at Mrs. Joe Foster's.

Mrs. Ralph Marshall has been visiting her mother for a few days. Mr. Marshall came home on Saturday.

On Thursday evening after the regular prayer service, an informal meeting was held in the church, it being the occasion of Mr. J. A. Nichols' birthday. On behalf of the members of the Sunday School, Rev. C. W. Robbins presented him with an umbrella as a reward for faithfulness as Supt. of the Sunday School and other church relations.

Although taken by surprise Mr. Nichols responded in his usual apt way. After a little time spent socially and wishing Mr. Nichols many more birthdays and singing "God be with you," the folks retired to their homes, feeling that it was good to have been there.

Central Grove

Mrs. Beatrice Shaw, who has been visiting her son, has returned home. Mr. Fred Sypher, of Sandy Cove, spent the week end with Mr. George DeLaney.

Mr. and Mrs. Holland Pyne and two children have gone to Waterville to visit her parents.

Mrs. Frank Cobb, who spent the past two weeks with her mother, has returned to her home Hartford, Conn. Private Lyman Elliott, of the 210th, is spending a few weeks with his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott. Miss E. B. Tibert and son Earle have gone to Ipswich to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Gidney.

South Range

Mr. Wm. Mallette is among the list of successful moose hunters. Accompanied by Mr. John Marshall, he pitched his tent Thursday evening, Sept. 21st, at 7 o'clock, and at 8 o'clock Friday morning he shot a very fine specimen. The moose had a handsome head and horns and according to the general theory was eight years old.

Gentle. A customer of ours cured a very bad case of diphtheria in a valuable child by the use of MINARD'S LINIMENT.

Yours truly, VILANDIE FRERES.

The Late Mrs. William S. Ross.

Mrs. William S. Ross, of Rossville, whose death occurred in that village on September 12th, which was reported in the Courier at the time, was a daughter of the late Capt. and Mrs. Reuben Crowell, of Sandy Cove. She was born at Constantinople, Turkey, September 21st, 1868. Her father and all the crew, were lost on a voyage to the West Indies, in the late Edmund, of Digby, about November 30th, 1890. She was educated at Sacred Heart Convent, Church Point, and later was a very successful school teacher. She was stricken with paralysis of the brain, at 4 p. m. and remained unconscious, until the time of her death at 8 p. m. in the same day. She leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband, and three children, the youngest being only nine years of age, and one sister, Mrs. Walter Collins, of Sandy Cove. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones.

Streets of London

There is not a single man living who knows all London, who has been through every street or into every corner, square and terrace. This seems a hard saying, and it is one which visitors from abroad or the colonies find it impossible to believe, but nevertheless it is absolutely and incontrovertibly true. Let any one take a map of London and try to mark in red ink all the streets which he can honestly say he has visited and he will have to confess that he knows but little of the metropolis of the world and that the red marked streets are but as nothing compared with those which he has had to leave untouched.

Dellious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, fidgety, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

Pretty Women Prefer Plain Walls

Why? Because walls of solid shades provide better backgrounds for beautiful faces, figures and frocks than those which are "cluttered up" with intricate wallpaper patterns.

One important reason for the rapidly-growing popularity of

FRESCO-TONE

The easily applied, artistic wall finish is the artistically-inclined women have discovered how well it sets off their beauty and that of their dresses, pictures, curtains, and furniture. Its soft, velvety, colors may be selected to harmonize with any style of furnishings, and, being non-fading and washable, Fresco-Tone walls preserve their original beauty for many years.

And the most gratifying fact of all—to many women—is that Fresco-Tone, in spite of its superiority, costs less than ordinary qualities of wallpaper.

For beauty, cleanliness, durability and economy, use Fresco-Tone.

DAKIN BROS. - Digby, N. S.

Beer or Near Beer.

To the Editor of the Courier:
The Hon. Mr. J. H. Adams has been investigating the working of prohibition in Georgia, West Virginia, North Carolina and Kansas. Prohibition has not been successful in Georgia as in the States named, and that is because the law allowed the sale of beer while prohibition in the other States is against all intoxicating liquors.

The investigator says "If at the very first Georgia had passed a law such as it will have after May 1st, 1916, a law prohibiting the sale of beer as well as whiskey, and dealing with the liquor question as a beastly thing that must be met unflinchingly at every turn, prohibition would have succeeded in Georgia as it has in N. Carolina, W. Virginia and Kansas."
It is true that prohibition of whiskey decreased arrests at Atlanta and that Georgia, but the failure to prohibit beer resulted in a corresponding decrease in the other evils attendant upon the sale and consumption of alcoholic liquors. Whiskey involves more violence than beer but beer decreases much more than whiskey the aggregate property, efficiency and happiness of the community. The beer trade ten times more than the whiskey trade produces the evils peculiar to the sale of beer. The beer trade ten times more than the whiskey trade produces the evils peculiar to the sale of beer. The beer trade ten times more than the whiskey trade produces the evils peculiar to the sale of beer.

382 YEARS AGO

Jacques Cartier, the famous discoverer, used the crude essences of roots and herbs to cure a skin disease which broke out amongst his crew.

TO - DAY

his descendant, Mr. J. Cartier, of 2912 Clarke Street, Montreal, has been cured of eczema by the use of the essences of roots and herbs. These, however, instead of being crude as used by his ancestor, were prepared for modern use and put up in the form of Zam-Buk. Mr. Cartier, who is Justice of the Peace and Assistant Clerk of the Circuit Court of Montreal, says there is nothing that can compare with Zam-Buk for the treatment of skin diseases. He goes on to say: "Allow me to express to you my gratitude for the benefit I derived from the use of Zam-Buk. It is the best remedy obtainable for eczema. I always keep it in the house as our family doctor's healing and curative power is immense. I have no objection to its use."

MORE AND BETTER HOTELS

Mr. George E. Graham Points to Pressing Need in Development of Tourist Business.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1916

From the Halifax Daily Echo

"More and better hotels to care for the increasing tourist and commercial traffic in this province" was the subject of a most interesting and timely paper presented by Mr. George E. Graham, President of the Maritime Hotel Association, at the annual meeting of the Association held last night. The paper is in part as follows:

If the forces of nature had combined to produce an ideal summer resort, a beautiful, healthy, and comfortable place, it would not have been possible to obtain a more ideal location, with all the necessary conveniences, than the location in the Annapolis Valley, and, further, if the question of population and its concentration were taken into consideration, the location in the Annapolis Valley would be the most ideal place for a summer resort. The location in the Annapolis Valley is ideal in every respect, and it is only the lack of adequate hotel accommodation that prevents it from being the ideal place for a summer resort.

The ideal location for a summer resort is in the Annapolis Valley, and it is only the lack of adequate hotel accommodation that prevents it from being the ideal place for a summer resort.

Our rivers, teeming with fish and our woods with game, for those whose vacation runs in the direction of fishing, rivers and bays for boating, canoeing or yachting cannot be excelled. The facilities of our forests for the solitude and the most relaxing. Our sunsets and our scenic effects of valley and mountains are so delectable to the eye of the artist and make his heart of the landscape painter.

But this is not a vacation day pamphlet, we are preparing a paper that we wish to call to your attention to the pressing need for more and better hotels in this province.

The advantages of the territory in question from a tourist standpoint.

1. The most important factor in inducing tourists to visit the country.

2. The transportation to and from and through the Annapolis Valley.

3. The care, entertainment and instruction of the tourists while in our province.

First—The advantages of the country from a tourist standpoint.

As before stated, and I repeat, without fear of successful contradiction, we have the most delightful all-round vacation land to be found anywhere in the world.

But one of the reasons brought home to me as a result of our 1916 business is that none of us appreciate to any extent, the possibilities in this respect and the golden opportunity that is continually thrusting itself before us on all sides.

We should not, drive to the sea, live and dream Nova Scotia, eat more of her products, drink more of her pure air of the woods and valleys, take more of her neighbors and acquaintances of the grandeur, live close to the glorious traditions of her past, bring into being the dreams of the fathers of the past, and dream dreams for future realization.

We are not now enthusiastic. We are like an attendant in an art gallery, living among and surrounded by pictures beyond the possibility of any artist to portray, and yet indifferent to their beauty. What is there that will quicken our minds to an appreciation of our most glorious heritage?

Second—The methods in effect to induce tourists to visit the country.

The lesson I learn from this is that enough of the truth has not been told in advertising. This may sound strange, but it is a fact, nevertheless. Sufficient stress has not been laid upon many of the items that really count. We do not engage sufficiently upon the matter of climate. To me the past summer has been a large number of continuous, bright sunny days, cool nights, no fog, no oppressive heat, to be closed in by a September like of which I have never before experienced. Who is there whose eye is so dull and blood is so sluggish that the heart will not quicken at the sight of the woods today? With the right of color, ever changing, ever presenting a new and more glorious view. A walk through and about the woods at this time is an inspiration.

By telling more of the truth in our advertising and in our daily intercourse and our correspondence, we will get more closely in touch with the territory from whence come our tourists, and with the people of Ontario and the service who are known in our own country. The people of Ontario are not in possession of the right kind of truth information regarding our many advantages. Let us tell all the truth. Let us advertise.

Third—The transportation to and from the territory.

The lesson to be learned from the above is the necessity for increased and improved steamer and rail accommodation.

The boat people assure me that they have in mind a greatly improved service, with the possibility for larger vessels, more frequent sailings, etc. So far as our own line is concerned, I have already concluded arrangements for additional and improved equipment for next season.

Arrangements are being made whereby the train service will be put on a modern and up-to-date basis. We will continue to improve the physical condition of the line; we are lengthening many of our platforms. Arrangements are under way for the placing of new and better stations this fall. Many garden plots are being planned for next season. Our aim is to give our patrons the best service and to do everything possible to harmonize our surroundings with the beauty of the country.

Fourth—The care, entertainment and instruction of the tourists while in our province.

The successful carrying out of the above is really the crux of the whole situation and we can draw many lessons, and acquire much food for thought, from the consideration thereof.

It is not the question of the cost of the accommodation provided the tourist at our various resorts, but that of service, and stability of rates, with which he is most concerned. It will avail us nothing that we have the finest vacation ground in the world, and that we continue to improve our transportation facilities, if we do not place ourselves in the way of providing adequate accommodation for the people who wish to visit our shores.

If we look abroad and consider what other localities, with nothing like our attractions, are doing in the way of enlarging and improving hotel accommodation, we cannot but appreciate the fact that we are in the very rear of the procession. In fact I have some doubt as to whether we are entitled to a place or not. Do not misunderstand me. I am not isolated. I am not alone. There are many others who are doing the same thing, and the results have always been made, and the results have always been made, and the results have always been made.

I do not know of any organization capable of securing the necessary influence and of carrying the matter to a successful issue, but the Halifax Commercial Club, composed of it is of men having real red blood in their veins. You must appreciate the necessity for concerted action. It is a real local matter, not affecting the interests of the whole province. It is a well known fact that modern hotel construction along up-to-date lines, stimulates all the other hotels in the community to greater activity. After having given the matter some study from a tourist and commercial point of view, I am convinced that in order to properly serve the interests in question several new hotels are of immediate necessity, one modern summer hotel at Digby, one summer hotel on the Nova Scotia coast, and one modern hotel in the business district.

A great deal of thought has been given to this matter, but if it were really thought must be stimulated into action. One of the lessons continually brought home to me during the past season was the necessity for additional and improved hotel accommodation.

Important Gains by the British

LONDON, October 14—The official report from British headquarters in France says: "In local attacks today south of the Ancre we improved appreciably our position in the neighborhood of the Schwaben Redoubt (Briquet region) and have taken about 200 prisoners. Elsewhere there is nothing to report."

Enterprises undertaken yesterday by the British troops in the neighborhood of the Staff Redoubt and Schwaben Redoubt, in the river Somme region, were highly successful, says the official statement issued today by the British war office. More than 300 Germans were taken prisoner. The text says:

Further reports show that the enterprises undertaken yesterday in the neighborhood of the Schwaben Redoubt were highly successful. North of Staff Redoubt two lines of the enemy communication trenches were cleared for a distance of nearly two hundred yards. Nearly 300 men were taken prisoner in the course of these operations, which were carried out by a single company. At the Schwaben Redoubt, our gain was greater, and our line was advanced well to the north and west of the redoubt. Heavy losses were inflicted on the enemy. The total number of prisoners taken in both operations, including those reported last night, is two officers and 303 of the other ranks.

The enemy blew up a mine in the neighborhood of the Schwaben Redoubt. During the night the enemy's trenches were entered west of the Schwaben Redoubt, and the enemy's position of Festung and north of Neuve Chapelle, prisoners were taken, and considerable damage was done to the enemy's defenses.

The source of the reports on which he acted or the places where the fleet would search for submarines were said to have been discovered.

Secretary Daniels made it plain to his staff that he was determined to find his own initiative in sending out the scouting craft on this mission, although the fleet was being sent out by general orders were issued to the fleet commanders to take all necessary steps to safeguard American neutrality.

German Attack on Canadians Falls
COUNTER-ATTACK ATTEMPTED BY ENEMY NORTH OF COURCIETTE BROKEN BY ARTILLERY.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The official communication from British headquarters in France, issued at midnight, reports heavy shelling of the Canadian front north of Courciette, particularly at Hessian trench and the St. Hubert redoubt lately captured by the heroic second division. Infantry attacks on the Canadian lines were also attempted but were checked at the enemy's parapets by British artillery fire.

The statement follows:
"All day long shelling was directed against our front south of the Anstr, especially north of Courciette, at the Hessian trench, around the St. Hubert redoubt, and in the neighborhood of Piers and Gundeourt."
"North of Courciette the enemy attempted an attack, but was caught on his parapets by our barrage and stopped. Our guns also dealt effectively with bodies of hostile infantry assembling in the rear of the enemy lines. The prisoners reported in the past twenty four hours from the Somme numbered two officers and forty five men."
"At Neville St. Vaast this morning the enemy attacked a crater occupied by us, but was caught by our machine gunfire and suffered considerable loss. A similar attack near the Hobezeulere redoubt was also repelled."
"Yesterday our aeroplanes destroyed, by bombing, two enemy battery positions and damaged many others. They penetrated well behind the enemy's front and bombed railway stations, trains and billets with good effect. There was much fighting in the air, and in one case two of our machines engaged seven hostile aeroplanes and drove them or dispersed them. One of these enemy machines was seen to be destroyed; two others were severely damaged. Four of our machines are missing."

"Disaster generally serious; estimates $2,000,000. Two thirds of the population need food and clothing, one third shelter. Relief required for 50,000 which should include building material, food, clothing and money."

Coal 850 a Ton in Rome

ROME, October 13.—The resumption of Austro German submarine attacks is causing grave concern in Italy, where the price of coal, wheat, lumber, resins, and other imports have been troubled within a year, owing to the prohibitive freight rates. Buckingham, Que., May 2nd, 1915.
For seven years, I suffered terribly from severe flatulencies and indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stool would come up into my mouth after eating, and at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-lives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-lives" and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach. I say take "Fruit-a-lives", and you will get well.

A British Hymn

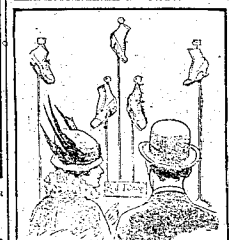

Ode of our fathers, 'neath whose feet
We kneel before the Lord of Hosts;
Who gave us life and made our nation strong
Through love of right and hate of wrong;
In this dark hour we plead with Thee
For Britain's cause on land and sea.

Not for the lot of war we fight,
Not for the triumph of the right;
The strife we have on us as a nation,
Our aims are pure; our hearts are true;
So strong in faith we stand with Thee
For Britain's cause on land and sea.

ON RUGGLE'S RECOMMENDATION

As Wade Burton passed out of the office building into the street he could hardly realize that he was leaving the place for good. Entering the office of the State Realty Company when he left the high school he had in three years made himself, as he thought, almost indispensable to Mr. Wellman the manager. And now he was—discharged.

Mr. Wellman had criticized the way in which Wade had handled a certain matter. Wade had defended his action; then came impatience on Mr. Wellman's part and a hasty return on Wade's, then abrupt dismissal. Wade must begin hunting for another job.

He was opposite the office of H. J. Ruggles & Company, Mr. Wellman's most formidable business rival. The chance of obtaining employment there might be small, but such as it was Wade determined to take it; and in a few minutes he was in the presence of Mr. Ruggles.

"So you have left the State Realty Company, and would like a place with us," said Mr. Ruggles. "Have you a recommendation from Mr. Wellman?"

"No Sir," replied Wade, "I was suddenly discharged. It wasn't for anything reflecting on my honesty or my efficiency thought. It was something I said to Mr. Wellman when he—here Wade hesitated.

"Was making himself disagreeable," suggested Mr. Ruggles. "See here, Mr. Wade," he continued, smiling encouragingly, "between you and me, just what do you think of Wellman?"

"Not especially so," answered Wade slowly. "Not if you take him right."

"Well, he was to blame last time, wasn't he?" asked Mr. Ruggles a little impatiently.

Until this minute that was what Wade had thought. But now he considered a little, and then said, "Not so much as I was, I guess. He had been bothered and fretted. I ought to have made allowances and kept my temper."

"It's all right as far as I know," he replied. "Keep for business, but don't let your temper get the best of you. Along with, eh?" said Mr. Ruggles.

A Monk's Prophecy—Fulfilled as Ant-Christ.

AMAZING ACCURACY OF A MONK OF THE SIXTEENTH CENTURY.

(Varmouth Light, Jan. 18th, 1815.)

Below we publish a curious prophecy by Brother Johannes, a monk living in the 16th century. It will be noticed that many of the predictions have already come true in the great war, and some capable writers are of opinion that the whole prophecy is in course of fulfillment.

"TO BE 'CRUSHED LIKE A STRAW'"

In deciphering the allegory it must be remembered that France is represented by a cock; England by a leopard; Russia by a White Eagle; Germany by a Black Eagle; Austria by the "Other Eagle." The Lamb stands for "Justice, Mercy and Truth. The prophecy is divided in 31 paragraphs or "items," and is as follows:—

1. Several times one has seemed to recognize him because all the slayers of the Lamb resemble each other and all the wicked are the precursors of the Great Wicked One.

2. The veritable Anti Christ will be one of the monarchs of his time, a son of Luther; he will invoke God, and call himself his messenger.

3. The prince of lies will swear by the bible; he will call himself the Arm of the Most High, chastising corrupted people.

4. He will only have one arm, but his insupportable weight will take as his motto, "God is with us," will seem like infernal legions.

5. For a long while he will act by ruse and treason; his spies will spread all over the earth, and he will be the master of the secrets of those in power.

6. He will have theologians in his pay to certify and prove his celestial mission.

7. A war will furnish him with the reason for lifting the mask. It will not be one which he will make against the French monarch, but another which will be easily recognized by the fact that in two weeks' time it will have become universal.

8. It will call to arms all Christians, all Mahomedans, and even other very distant peoples. Armies will be formed in the four parts of the world.

9. For men's minds will be opened by several wars; he will check them by several wars; he will show monks and old people. He will show no mercy; he will pass along holding a torch like the barbarians but without the name of Christ.

10. His false words will resemble those of Christians; but his acts will be those of Nero and the Roman persecutors; there will be an eagle in his coat of arms and there will also be one in that of his confederate, the other wicked monarch.

11. But this one is a Christian and he will be cursed by the Pope Benedictus, who will be elected at the beginning of the reign of the Anti Christ.

12. Priests and monks will no longer be seen confessing and absolving the combatants; because for the first time priests and monks will fight with the other citizens, and also because Pope Benedictus having turned the Anti Christ it will be proclaimed that all those who wage war against him will be in a state of grace, and should they die, will, like martyrs go straight to heaven.

13. The Pope's Bull proclaiming these things will make a great sensation, and will cause the death of the monarch, the Anti Christ's Ally.

14. In order to conquer the Anti Christ more men must be killed than Rome has ever had. It will require a fire from all lands, for the cock, the leopard and the white eagle will not suffice to overcome the black eagle if they are not helped by the prayers and devotions of all the human races.

15. Never before has humanity been in such peril, for the triumph of the Anti Christ would be that of the Demon, in whom he is incarnated.

16. For it has been said that 20 centuries after the Incarnation of the Word the Beast in his turn would be incarnated, and would threaten the earth with as many evils as the Devil had brought in the first.

17. The Anti Christ will be crowned, like straw on the threshing floor.

times ask for peace, but the seven angels who precede the three animals, defenders of the Lamb, have declared that victory shall only be according to the condition that the Anti Christ be crushed, like straw on the threshing floor.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton:

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it and now I feel like a new person. I can suffer any more."

—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 322 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influencing and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Britain's New Ships.

CAPABLE OF WINNING ANY SEA FIGHT IN WHICH THEY MAY BE ENGAGED.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 31.—The Journal, in a cable from London says: British Admiralty officials are delighted with the new battleships that have been done in British dockyards in the building of new dreadnoughts. Wonderful results which have not to this time been made public, have been accomplished in this direction.

Twelve new battleships of the super-dreadnought type are now practically ready for sea. Four of these—the largest and most powerful weapons of defense that have ever been placed on the water—are 320 feet long, with a speed of more than thirty knots, and are armed with twelve 18-inch guns. No such armament as this has ever before been contemplated in the history of naval architecture and it is considered that ships of this type are capable of winning any sea fight in which they may be engaged.

GAIS IN MERCHANT SHIPPING.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Lloyd's register of shipbuilding for the quarter ended on Sept. 30 shows there were 493 merchant vessels of 1,789,054 tons under construction in the United Kingdom at the close of that quarter, against 410 vessels of 1,502,215 tons in the June quarter and 432 vessels of 1,538,177 tons in the September quarter of 1915.

Of the vessels under construction 133 are under 200 tons and 5,000; forty-seven between 200 and 5,000; twenty-three between 5,000 and 10,000; sixteen between 10,000 and 20,000; nine between 20,000 and 25,000; one of 25,000 and two between 25,000 and 100,000 tons.

English as Tea Drinkers.

WHY THE ENGLISH HAS DRUNK IS A FEW YEARS.

One remarkable feature of English domestic life has been the increase in tea-drinking. In 1874 the consumption for tea per head of the population in the United Kingdom was four and a half pounds. In 1913 it was six and three-quarter pounds. The tea has been all the way to the point of view of the nation's sobriety. It represents a real change in habit.

Formerly it was customary for business men to clutch a bargain over a glass of wine or ale. Now this custom is fast being lost in the tea-drinking of the observance. In busy cities tea is the beverage. The clock, the forerunner, the executive, the working woman, all drink tea, greatly to the advantage of health and pocket.

The great increase in the consumption of tea is largely due to the efforts of British planters in India. Formerly all tea came from China. Fortunately, however, it was discovered that the tea shrub is a native of Assam, one of the Indian provinces. Energetic Britons started planting in Assam. The present-day Indian planter is a very different individual from the luxurious gentleman of "Tom Cringle's Log" and the romantic of Marryat. His life is one of assiduous toil, sweated by all too brief through.

Luxury and extravagance are very far from being inevitable concomitants of his existence. In the jungles of Kotehr he enjoys that sweet half-English air of which the poet sings. In the Terai which stretches at the foot of the Himalayas, he has to contend against all the difficulties of a hot climate. Always and everywhere he is the same cheerful and resolute fellow, facing with equal ease the risks of disease, the difficulties inseparable from the management of native labor and the many plant diseases which are the enemies of all cultivation in the tropics.

The pioneer planter had before him the task of reclaiming those jungles, of replacing their futile extravagance of vegetation by well-ordered gardens; of repopulating these bare tracts, supplementing the scanty and inert inhabitants by larger numbers of orderly and industrious workers from other provinces.

The planter is a man conversant with modern science and uses ingenious machinery, well adapted to the purpose it serves. Large gardens carefully planned, are cultivated by experts. After picking, the leaf undergoes many processes. It is withered to condense the sap. It is rolled to squeeze the juice on to the leaf and to develop the delicate tea flavor and aroma. It is finally dried. It is packed in clean, lead-lined, air-tight chests.

All these processes are performed by clean automatic machinery. Thus the tea from India are pure and free from all contaminating admixtures, come from healthy, well-natured plants, they contain all the essential elements in rich abundance.

Saluting The Quarter Deck.

One of the first things taught to the Naval recruit before he goes on board his ship is that he must "salute the quarter deck" when passing onto it when on board, and that he must salute the gangway as he passes on board. This is an ancient custom and is carried out by every officer and man who boards the commander-in-chief in his own flagship or the ship cook's youngest boy assistant.

It survives from the time when a statue of the Blessed Virgin—or a Crucifix—was prominently placed on the quarter of every ship when the sailors "uncovered" their heads as they passed. Civilian and soldiers alike are required to do so when passing the same ceremony.

The Naval salute is different to that used in the Army, the upper arm is not raised at right angles to the body, but to an angle of about 45 degrees from the perpendicular, while the palm of the hand instead of being turned towards the face, the forefinger nearly touching the peak of the cap in line with the eyebrow. In the Army the "off hand" is used for saluting.

The "able-bodied seaman" (or A. B.) is established in rank to the private in the Army, and is expected to salute all officers (Naval and Military) in uniform, the same respect being paid to the sister service and all soldiers should salute Naval officers when in uniform.

A Pleasing Surprise.

If you are sore and aching from a sprain, strain, burn, bruise, or muscular rheumatism, it is extremely pleasant to learn that you have secured something advertised to relieve your particular affliction, that not only have you obtained a preparation that is excellent for external use, but also one you can safely and unhesitatingly take inwardly for colds, croup, sore throat, cramps, chills, etc., if necessary to have its soothing and healing qualities go direct to the source of an internal trouble. Most liniments, for example, have only one value—external use—and are of no more use than the well known Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, the double value—internal and external use—of the more splendid preparation, from the prescription an erubescence, old family medicine, has been improved, and its great army of users, thankful for ever, it was discovered that the son's Anodyne Liniment—the double value liniment—is "an angel in disguise."

Death of Mrs. Sarah Sherman

(From the Canadian Herald)

Mrs. Sarah A. Sherman, widow of Edwin L. Sherman, daughter of Benjamin F. and Lydia Hall, died of a lingering and painful illness, on Oct. 17, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Mansfield, of Cambridge, who has tenderly cared for her for the last 10 months while she made her home with her.

She was a woman of unblemished character, domestic by nature, devoted to husband and family, quietly and unostentatiously helping the poor around her until failing health some years ago made it impossible for her to do more. The funeral services were held at the residence of A. A. Mansfield, Mountain street, on Sunday, Oct. 22, at 2 o'clock, by the Rev. Charles F. Smith, of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiating. She leaves to mourn her loss, one brother, Benjamin F. Hall, of Isleboro, and two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Walworth, Camden, and Mrs. Sanford Dyer, of Lincolnville, two sons, George L. Sherman, of Northport, and Leonard E. Sherman, of Deep Brook, Nova Scotia; five grandchildren and many nephews and nieces. If she had lived until Feb. 1917, she would have been four score years.

Eminent Artist Passes Away

MELBOURNE H. HARDWICK, F.R.S. NATIONAL FAME

(Boston Globe)

Melbourne H. Hardwick, one of Boston's foremost artists, died yesterday at Belmont, where he was 62 years of age.

After a illness of several months, a nervous trouble.

He had an international reputation as a painter of landscapes and general subjects in oils and water colors. He was born in the 25 years of the Boston artists whose work was always in demand in the best exhibitions, and as a leading member of the Boston Art Club his influence was healthily felt in this city.

His artistic training was in what was that of a student, ready to accept what seemed sound in many theories of painting that prevail, and hesitant about going to extremes. He was one of the first of Boston artists to rise to a full appreciation of the modern school of painting, which he was one of the leading spirits of. Of late years he had devoted himself to the "plein air" theory, especially the illuminant qualities of light on color.

As a water color painter he had few equals. He was one of the few who worked in the transparent wash, and dyed his colors, real water color painting. In his Dutch genre he was particularly fortunate in the use of water color, getting that which the modern school of painting has lost. He had a school in famous. The landscape he has painted the past few years have been remarkable in poetic feeling, beauty of subject and completeness.

Mr. Hardwick was born in Nova Scotia in 1857, and was educated in a law and worked at jewelry carving, as which he became very proficient. It gave him an eye for detail, and a certainty of touch that was remarkable.

He studied drawing at the Lowell Institute, and later drew from life in the old Zeph Club. At the same time he studied water color paintings with Mr. Driscoll, in which he became so skillful in a short time that he became an instructor in this delicate medium.

After studying in France several years he made a trip to Holland, which completely changed his art ideas. He felt deeply the poetic and atmospheric in the Dutch school, and he decided or more when he was caught by the passion of the best French impressionists, which he combined with his own convictions about painting. He was a sound draftsman and had a sense of proportion that who seemed to be indifferent about truth of construction.

His Boston studio was in the Studio Building, but he painted during the summer—when he was not in Europe—at Ann-quon near Gloucester. His work included an occasional portrait, and there were always full of character. Of late years he had been fascinated with New England landscape and scenery. His exhibition at the Yoke Gallery last year was one of the art events of the season. Mr. Hardwick died at his home in Belmont.

(The deceased was born in Anna polis County. His mother was a sister to the late E. M. Marshall, of Digby.)

The Deutschland in New London

CAPTAIN KÖNIG TELLS OF THE TRIP ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

NEW LONDON, Conn., November 1.—A letter to Count Von Bernstorff, German Ambassador, which was brought here by the German ship Deutschland, was sent to Washington by special messenger this afternoon.

On her trip of 21 days to this coast the Deutschland submerged only 120 miles, near the English coast. If the crew saw any British or French warships on the trip the captain would not admit it.

Within a few days it is expected that the Deutschland will officially enter her cargo. The cargo is said to be valued at $2,000,000. When the submarine came into the harbor, in a blanket of fog, she did not take a pilot aboard. The captain said the harbor here is especially adapted for her boat, and she believed, if necessary, he could safely submerge at the dock and leave the harbor without anyone knowing it. A short time after the Deutschland had docked her crew he ran pumping seventy five tons of oil into the harbor from a large tank at a siding near the pier.

Captain König, in an interview this afternoon, said that he did not know where the other submarines, the Bremen, was. It sailed Sept. 26, and had sixty days' supplies on board. The captain said they were only two merchant submarines, the Deutschland and Bremen. The America did not exist.

Captain König said that while approaching the coast he saw a British patrol boat long way off, and submerging for a time. The course from Bremen was, was off the Scottish coast and to the North of the Orkney Islands. It was uneventful, and submergence was not much more than a matter of habit.

He said that the ship was not on incident, he claimed. The captain thought he would begin his return trip within a fortnight.

Killed in Action

On the 26th September, somewhere in France, Sgt. Donald L. King was killed in action, aged 17 years.

He was born in Bear River, where two brothers still reside. Two more are in the trenches in France, and the other has just gone over with the 5th N. S. Highlanders. One sister resides in London. Early bereft of his parents, he came in a strange, unaccountable way into the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Churchill, of St. John.

Yarmouth Co., where he was 10 years old. Here he quickly endeared himself to his hosts, and by his cheerful, happy disposition and winning smile won for himself many friends, who bear with sympathy the loss of their young nephew.

Although young, his brave, patriotic spirit could not be kept back and he enlisted in the 11th B. Co., on August, 1915. Later he was transferred to the 26th Battalion and has been in France since June 22, 1916, at the first of the village and also of Bear River to give his life for his King and country.

On the 26th September, he was killed in action, and his body was found by his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Churchill in their sad bereavement.

Another Letter From One Of Our Boys

Brimsford Camp, Oct. 11th, 1918.

DEAR FRIEND, MR. DEXHAM.—Once more I write you on the pages of the good old Courier. Since I wrote you last, there have been a few incidents which I must tell you of.

On the 1st of October at 12 o'clock at night the officers came to our hut door and woke us from our sleep, telling us to get out immediately as there was an alarm on. Well, it wasn't a little excitement for a while. We got out doors as quick as we could through the darkness, for the orders rang out to put the whole camp in total darkness. We got out just in time to see one of Germany's largest Zeppelins coming to the earth in a mass of flames. There were at that time 20,000 soldiers in Brimsford, and every man as well as the officers were out in the open. It was a startling scene but then it was a real one to know it was a Zeppelin. There were 22 men in it and they were all burned alive. We don't have to go any further than England to see a bit of the war. I have seen several airplanes since I came here, but none of them as yet have done any damage. However, they were once within eight miles of us. The 4th of October they bombed us at a Company, which was the remainder of the 2nd and 3rd and 4th and 5th. They were taken from us and sent to France, where they were to be used as a base of operations. The 10th they called away C and D Companies, which caused a clamor to hang over the whole of Brimsford. They were taken to the 10th and 11th of the bunch there was not one and a half. Every one seemed very cheerful, but it makes us

The tracts which Pastor Russell published in a dozen different tongues were circulated throughout the world. He wrote most of them himself, and also bought largely of space in American papers in which his sermons were printed.

One more detachment has taken its place in the movement, led by His Majesty the King and his advisers, for universal total abstinence during the war as the Empire's shortest road to victory and an enduring peace. The Vaux withdrawal "Not Pleasant"

LONDON, November 8.—German newspapers declare that they are not surprised by the evacuation of Fort Vaux at Verdun, says a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam, as the intention to abandon it already had been communicated in advance to some representatives of the press. The emphasis that the German retirement was purely voluntary, and that the authorities no longer considered the fort worth retaining at the price of further sacrifices.

The Berlin Tageblatt, the dispatch adds, says—"The measure, of course is not pleasant, sentimentally, but militarily it is justified."

MURDERED NEAR BOSTON

A Bear River Girl One of the Victims in a Triple Tragedy in Dudley, Mass.

Frank E. Deon Kills His Son Robert and Robert's Wife. The Latter Was Formerly Lena Cosby, Daughter of the Late Lenley Cosby, of Bear River.

A despatch from Dudley, Mass., Nov. 13th, says: Frank E. Deon, town collector and town tax collector, who this noon shot and killed his son, Robert Deon, and the latter's wife, while suffering a temporary spell of derangement, said to have been induced by heavy drinking, is dying at the Memorial Hospital, Worcester. Mrs. Deon, the wife of the town collector, is prostrated at her home.

STORY OF THE CRIME
Crazed with liquor and armed with an army rifle, Deon at noon went into the carriage shed in the rear of his estate on Dudley Hill, after having told his wife he was going to "get" his son, Robert. Without uttering a word, he raised the rifle and fired at his son. Robert, shot through the right lung, fell to the floor. Deon, hastily reloading the rifle and fired at his son's wife, who fell dead at the feet of her husband. Deon then attempted suicide by shooting himself through the chest. The wounded men were rushed off to the Memorial Hospital, Worcester. Robert Deon died on the way. The father in the late afternoon regained consciousness.

He asked for his wife, saying he was sorry for his deeds and would like to see her if she were willing to see him. The hospital authorities reported Monday night that he could not live through the night.

Robert Deon and his wife, each of whom was 23 years of age, had just returned from Webster in their automobile and were putting up their machine when the shooting occurred. The rifle used by the eldest Deon was carried by his son when he was in the army several years ago.

Deon had been town collector and tax collector for some time. He had presided as town moderator of the town meetings for 10 years. He was graduated from the Boston University of Law, but had not been actively engaged in the practice of law for some time. He had charge of many large estates in Webster.

THE MURDERED WOMAN
Mrs. Robert Deon was, before her marriage, Lena Cosby. She was the youngest of 11 children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lenley Cosby of Bear River. She was born at that place 23 years ago and came to Boston about six years ago. For a time she worked in and around Boston and three years ago met young Deon. They were married two years ago last June and for some time kept their marriage a secret.

Deon secured a position in Sharon and the couple went there to live. Later Deon's father urged him to return to the home in Dudley to aid him about the farm and on the milk route. He consented to do this and since that time the younger Deons have made their home with Deon's parents. It was believed by the relatives of the young woman that all was happiness in the Deon home, with the father practicing law in Webster, the mother taking care of the household with the aid of the daughter in law, and Robert Deon, the only son, taking care of the farm and the milk route.

Mrs. Deon's father is dead. Her mother is residing in Massachusetts. Her brother Charles lives in Deep Brook, Annapolis Co. She has two brothers living in Digby. One is William Weston, a lawyer, and Mrs. Leonard Hatfield, Bridgeton. She also has two sisters and a brother living near Boston. They are Mrs. Marvle Cotter, 17 Robey street, Roxbury; Mrs. Cyrus Appt and Mrs. Niles Stein, 100 South street, Roxbury; and George Cosby, of Charleston.

Mrs. Cotter was in a state bordering on prostration when a newspaper representative called at the house. She refused to make any statement. Mrs. Appt, who is considerably older, was more composed. She said: "Lena was the youngest of the family and there for some time a pet to us all. She was of a jovial and happy disposition and made friends rapidly. We knew, particularly by her marriage, that she and Robert Deon were keeping company, but were not informed of their marriage for some time afterward. All of her letters to us contained assurances of happiness and that everything was well at the Deon home. We were at a loss, therefore, to account for Mrs. Deon's act unless he went suddenly crazy."

Asked if she had ever heard that Deon's father opposed or resented his marriage to Miss Cosby, Mrs. Appt said: "We never heard anything to in-dicte such a thing. So far as we knew everything was happiness at the Deon home."

The families of Mrs. Deon's sisters are all in moderate circumstances. Mrs. Cotter is a widow.

When the relatives were last interviewed, they were undecided about the funeral arrangements and as to where interment would take place.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY FOLLOWS
DUDLEY, Mass., Nov. 15.—Sad-rig ill health and brooding over the Deon tragedy enacted near her home Monday, Mrs. Adelaide (Davis), wife of Mr. W. L. Wilber, jumped into a mill pond near her home yesterday noon and drowned herself. Her body was found some time later by her husband, who, with two sons, were searching for her. She has been in feeble health for a number of years and has made previous attempts upon her life.

She seemed particularly interested in the tragedy yesterday when at noon Frank E. Deon shot and killed his son and daughter in law and critically wounded himself with a heavy army rifle. Her already shattered nervous system gave way and she was left alone for a few moments, she fled to the water's edge and jumped in. Mrs. Wilber was 55 and for several years has suffered from a stomach trouble. She leaves, besides her husband, three sons, Carl, Claude and Rudolph Wilber, and a daughter, Mrs. Daisy Stone, all of Charlton.

A Wise Selection
It is highly improbable that any physician could be found who would deny there is a great big legitimate field wherein a good flintstone proves a welcome and powerful ally. When need arises, therefore, it is only a question of wise selection on the part of the purchaser. If he obtains a list of such a double value flintstone, coughs, colds, sore throat, cramps, chills, etc., and externally for sprains, strains, muscular rheumatism, various aches, pains, and almost any soreness, he is twice fortified against many of the common ailments that all flesh is heir to. For over 100 years Johnson's Anodyne Liniment has proved to be such a double value flintstone. This prescription of Dr. Abernethy, an old-time old family physician, has attained its enviable record of more than a century of success purely on its wonderful merits. As a rubric to its remarkable healing, soothing and penetrating qualities thousands of grateful users speak of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as "an angel in disguise."

Are You a Croaker?
A croaker is — the grumbler's hench and croaker that the town dead and no'er did once he lift his toe to push his town ahead. He cursed and swore with all his might—such a town he ne'er did see—the times were dull, the croakers were hum, as hum as hum could be. And so he sat from early morn, each bright and happy day, and croaked and croaked with all his might till the summer passed away. And then one night while the wind blew cold, when the winter time had come, he croaked his last and closed his eyes upon his earthly home. But when he reached the other shore—the city bright and fair, it was no good, 'twas dull and dead, and the winter time had come, he croaked his last and closed his eyes upon his earthly home. But when he reached the other shore—the city bright and fair, it was no good, 'twas dull and dead, and the winter time had come, he croaked his last and closed his eyes upon his earthly home.

The Movie Idea.
Mrs. Fry—I don't see how you can make a husband who stays up every night. Why don't you divorce him? Mrs. Sharp—I would, my dear, but you've no idea what dandy movie scenarios his explanations make I sell every one of them.

Doesn't Rise.
Theorist—Our house ought to be encouraged to make their own bread. The home made article would not be liable to go up.

Practical Friend—No, if it's all like the kind my wife tried to make, it would be too heavy to do any rising with it.

What an Explorer Is.
"Father," said the small boy, "what's an explorer?"
"An explorer, my son, is a man who discovers some place that nobody wants to go, and that he wouldn't be able to find anyhow."

SIGHT-SEEING IN THE ROCKIES

THE enormous height of the mountains through which the Canadian Pacific passes is such that passengers are apt to miss the majesty of the scenery unless they are able to look up and see these snow-capped peaks. Mount Sir Donald, for instance, is a mile higher than the railway track over which it towers. Those who sit on the platform of the observation car of course see everything, but the space here is limited. A great hit has therefore been made with the new type of open observation or sightseeing car which was placed on all through trains this summer on certain of the most picturesque districts in the Canadian Pacific Rockies and on the local trains between Banff and Lake Louise.

Why Lt.-Col. Bullock Put on Khaki.
THE PREACHER SOLDIER FEELS A PUNY IN LONDON AND HAS SOMETHING TO SAY ABOUT THE WAR.

LONDON, November 15.—Lieutenant-Colonel F. C. Bullock, the only clergyman to command a battalion of troops, is now in London, where, without donning his khaki, he has been preaching in a Unitarian church. He is in command of one of the American legion battalions raised in Canada. In answer to a question why he, an American minister, had joined the British army as a combatant, the colonel said:

"I hold it is wrong to tell another man to go out and shoot without you go and do likewise. The men I have the privilege of commanding and more, came voluntarily. They realized, as I did, that this was a war of principles, not of nations, and that the United States was affected by the outcome just as much as the allied nations.

"It was a question whether the mailed fist should rule civilization or whether the principles of the Man whose fists were nailed to the cross should prevail. But the sinking of the Lusitania was the casting of the die. Then I announced I had taken my flag, that it never again should be carried by the breezes until the country which had been so long my home should declare itself against such a damnable outrage."

"I then took a commission and combatant rank and helped to raise a battalion of Americans to fight. That one battalion grew into eight," added the colonel with a satisfied smile. "In answer to the question as to whether there is any sign, 'safer first' there is no more ignominious unless it may be 'too proud to fight,' as Homer once wrote, than to fight, as honor comes, before you are ready when it comes to a question of pride and fighting."

To the Editor of the Christian Guardian:
DEAR Sir,—Before going overseas I wish, through the columns of your paper, to place on record the good work done amongst the men of our battalion by the minister and members of the Digby Methodist church.

In route overseas we came to this town, a bunch of strangers from Saskatchewan. The Methodist church here placed their schoolroom at the disposal of the men for reading and writing purposes; they appointed one of their number as custodian; above all they received us with a big, open heart. We leave this place, one of the proudest spots in a province of fine scenery, leaving many kindly thoughts of its sympathetic and sterling people.

I am requested especially to say how grateful our men are for the fatherly interest and kindness of Rev. Mr. Croft, your minister at Digby. The boys have come to love him. Here's three and a tiger for our venerable friend. May his shadow never grow less!

Yours sincerely,
FRANK G. FOISTER,
Chaplain 20th Overseas Battalion,
Digby, N. S., Oct. 18, 1916.

One of the above is a Presbyterian minister, so that what he has to say will be doubly appreciated by our brethren of that faith. Of course it is just what we would expect from friend Croft. —The Editor, Toronto Christian Guardian.

Death of Mrs. Charles Wilbur Titus.

The remains of the late Mrs. Charles Wilbur Titus and her newly born infant arrived yesterday from Port Wade via ferry boat, and were taken to the church on board S. S. Empress for burial. The death of Jennie, wife of Mr. C. W. Titus, occurred at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Atty, in Port Wade on Tuesday, also the death of her infant child. Mrs. Titus, who was about twenty years of age, was highly respected by a large circle of friends both in her native village and here in Digby.

Besides her husband, she is survived by her mother, three sisters and three brothers. One of the latter, Ralph, is overseas in the Canadian army. She had resided in St. John for about a year after her marriage but returned to Port Wade where her husband was born.

The funeral will be held today from the home of Mrs. Angus McLean, 208 Douglas Avenue, with interment in Fernhill cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. (Dr.) Hutchinson, pastor of the Methodist church.

The Coroner exercises its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

A Narrow Escape.

COINCIDENTAL CHUTE OBLIGED TO TAKE A COLD DIP IN RIVER WATERS.

Mr. W. A. Chute, the well known building mover and contractor, who is an enthusiastic yachtsman, had a very narrow escape Tuesday. He says he left port on board his boat in a small punt, but had a case of wind blowing a short, but bad sea, in the river. All went fairly well until he got within a mile of the town wharves, when he was overtaken by a heavy swell.

Chute caught beneath. He managed, however, to get under, swim ashore, and walk the remainder of the way to his home in wet and frozen clothing.

He arrived at his home, "but I do not look looking in the direction of the water," he says, "but I do not look looking in the direction of the water."

A large party of friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Porter gave them a genuine surprise on Saturday evening, the second anniversary of their marriage. On motion of A. W. Chisholm, David M. Foster was appointed chairman, who called upon Capt. S. V. Melanson to make the presentation. Shortly after, he appeared with a handsome water set, which he handed to Mrs. Porter. Mr. Porter acknowledged the gift in appropriate terms referring to the fact that he was the only one except the chairman, in the house who attended Mr. and Mrs. Porter's marriage 13 years ago. Mrs. Porter thanked the company for their handsome gift, after which the ladies served refreshments and at a late hour the company dispersed.

Baxter, one of our most highly respected young men. The ceremony took place in the parlor under the auspices of the groom being supported by Daniel Nelson, whilst Mrs. Avery Johnson acted as bridesmaid. Rev. J. H. Markham tied the nuptial knot in a most impressive manner, the ring service being used. Mrs. E. H. Porter, reading the wedding march on the organ. Congratulations followed the ceremony after which a sumptuous collation was served. Music by Mrs. Frank Cover and others and amusing selections on the phonograph. The bride was dressed in white with the conventional veil and orange blossoms and carried in her hand a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern and presented a very charming appearance. The wedding presents were numerous, useful and valuable (one envelope containing ten dollars) all fully attesting the popularity of the bride. We extend hearty congratulations and trust a long and happy married life await them.

The Popular Laurentians

LOVERS of beautiful mountains and valley scenery, towering cliffs, thick forests, pleasant shaded flower-clad valleys and plains, rushing and placid rivers, roaring waterfalls and babbling streams could not do better than to select the Laurentians, as reached by the Canadian Pacific, as their holiday resort. So prettily situated are all the spots where the holiday-makers make their headquarters that it is embarrassing to choose the one that might be best suited to the tastes of the individual. But all are enchanting, from Shawbridge—the first of them—to Mount Laurier—the last. Within easy reach of any of the resorts there is excellent trout and bass fishing to be had. The rivers and lakes are clear and sand-bottomed generally, and are well suited to the requirements of the swimmer and the fisherman. Now boating, motor boating, and canoeing are favorite pastimes, and on a fine calm evening it is exhilarating to sit by the waters and listen to the laughter and merry chat of the parties who are on the waters.

We were very much pleased to extend a cordial welcome to our esteemed friend Pte. Hilare Thibodeau, of the 165th Battalion. Pte. Thibodeau has been away since June last, and this is his first visit since leaving on the 25th of June. He arrived Saturday on a six days' leave. He is a son of Mr. Martin Thibodeau, of this place, but has been brought up by his uncle, the late John T. LeBlanc, of Mavillette.

Sgt. Thomas Gaudet, of Meteghan, Pte. Willie Doucet, of Cape St. Mary, Pte. Charlie Deveau, of Mavillette, and Pte. Joseph Maillet were also with him. To all we extend a warm and affectionate welcome.

Wednesday, 15th inst., Mr. Joseph Thibodeau, of Meteghan Centre, was united in marriage to Miss Edith B. Saulnier, of Cosman's Cove, Meteghan. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Cote. The bride wore a travelling suit of blue velvet trimmed with white silk. She was attended by Miss Minnie Thibodeau, sister of the groom.

The groomsmen were Mr. William Saulnier, brother of the bride, A. Mande Thibodeau, father of the groom, to which were invited the near relatives and friends of the happy couple. Several costly presents were received, including a beautiful rocker in rattan work from Mrs. A. P. Deveau, costly table linen from Mrs. Edmond Deveau, a sister of the groom; china from J. A. Deveau, etc. To the happy couple we heartily extend our best congratulations on the happy event, and we wish them joy and prosperity in their new state of life.

What might have been a disastrous fire occurred at the Meteghan shipyard, Saturday, 18th inst. Several of the men were at work assembling oakum in the loft of a shed owned by Mr. Eve Sullivan. One of the party accidentally dropped a match in the oakum, which was spread all around. Instantly the blaze started, spreading all around. The men tried to put out, throwing the burning matter on the ground floor, trying to smother the flames. But the flames, soon spread above and below, and the men had to rush for their lives, being nearly suffocated. One of the party in his effort to save another, got his foot caught in the ladder and fell head downward in the fire, burning himself very badly. One or two bicycles were burned, outfits and gear belonging to Mr. Sullivan, in fact, nothing was saved of the contents. In about forty minutes everything was consumed. The loss all told, will round about three hundred dollars.

Mr. Isaiah Wallace, son of Rev. Isaiah Wallace, gave a lecture in the hall on Friday evening, the 17th, relating his experiences of nearly two years in the war. Mr. Wallace was in New York when the war broke out and while taking a glass of beer in a saloon one evening, saw German trampolines down the English flag. He threw his beer in their faces and at once a fight was on; but as there were twelve to one, he was badly beaten that night and as soon as he was able he came to Nova Scotia to enlist, to have his revenge. As he was past fifty years of age he found some difficulty, but at last he succeeded and from Nov. 1914 to Dec. 1916 he has been doing his part, until sent home for three months' rest from shell shock and shrapnel wounds.

The Mayor's Son.

A small boy, who afterwards proved to be a nephew of one of the Mayor's stenographers, was wandering about in the city hall, where one of the officials then happened on him.

"Well, sonny," inquired the manager, "for whom are you looking?"

"For my Aunt Kate."

"Can't you find her?"

"I can't seem to."

"And don't you know where she is?"

California Result
BUT HUGHES ACCEPTS DEFEAT AND SENDS THAT LONG DEFERRED MESSAGE OF CONGRATULATION.
SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 22.—Secretary of State Frank C. Johnson announces that unless certain mistakes and omissions discovered in returns of the election from Yuba county and Oregon county are corrected, he will withhold the certification of election to presidential electors from California.
Should this be done there undoubtedly will be delay, if not a serious situation, possibly affecting even the re-election of President Wilson, since the election depends on the vote of the thirteen presidential electors from California.

HUGHES GIVES UP HOPE
LARK WOOD, N. J., Nov. 22.—Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for president in the recent election tonight sent to President Wilson a telegram congratulating him upon his re-election.
"Because of the closeness of the vote I have awaited the official count of California and now that it has been virtually completed permit me to extend to you my congratulations upon your re-election. I desire also to express my best wishes for a successful administration."

The following information on the Macedonian front follows:

Deutschland Clear American Waters
NANTUCKET, Mass., November 22.—The German submarine Deutschland was believed today to have left American waters in safety.
Darkness, which set in soon after she started from New London, Conn., prevented observation of the submarine's progress west of here, and there was no word of her since she passed Watcht, R. I., at sunset last evening, a barely distinguishable object ten miles off shore.
It is maintained here speed of ten miles an hour is figured for the following day passed Nantucket Sound Shoals Lightship in the darkness early this morning.

Big British Ship Sunk
ATHERTON, Nov. 22, via London.—The White Star Line steamship Britannia, serving as a hospital ship for wounded soldiers of the Entente Allies, has been torpedoed and sunk, according to an official announcement made here today.
The Britannia was sunk off the island of Kea (Keos, southeast of Attica in the Aegean). She carried 1,000 British sick and wounded men.
The Britannia was equipped with 35 life boats, and the loss of life incident to the sinking is supposed to have been small.

She Destroyed 1,500 Bottles of Wine of Rare Vintages
LONDON, Nov. 22.—The action of Rosalind, Countess of Carlisle, in pouring into the ground about 1,500 bottles of wine, as evidence of her strong temperance views, has aroused a storm of criticism in letters to the newspapers. The countess is president of the British Women's Temperance Association. She has been a life long abstainer and temperance advocate.
The wine was of old vintage, and was stored in the cellars of Castle Howard, the York-hire estate of the countess. She is believed to have said to have kept the cellars sealed for the last thirty years. A few days ago the wine casks were opened and a large hole was dug near the countess' mansion, and the caretaker poured the contents of the casks into the hole.
The countess' action has been criticized on the ground that while it is commendable, and the whole was presented would be very acceptable in military hospitals for the use of convalescing soldiers.

Steamer Rappahannock Torpedoed By the Germans.
GERMANS ADMIT SINKING ARABIA AND BELIEVE IT THAT ATTEMPT IS BEING MADE TO FORCE ISSUE.
HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 22.—According to a cable received by the local agents tonight, the Furness Withy steamer Rappahannock, which has been missing for several weeks, was sunk by a German submarine. The local office of the company called that a wireless report had been received from Germany that the German had sunk the steamer.
There is no word of the captain and crew of the ship, and it is believed that all have been lost. The steamer sailed from Halifax for Liverpool on October 17, with a full cargo of wheat and 20,000 lbs. of apples. The steamer registered 3,500 tons.

ANOTHER NORWEGIAN GONE
LONDON, Nov. 22.—A Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says the government has released the Norwegian ship, the Rappahannock, which was torpedoed. Up to the present there has been no report of the rescue of the crew. The steamer was carrying 3,500 tons.

CHINA SINK ARABIA
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Announcement by the semi-official Overseas News Agency tonight that the British liner Arabia had been sunk in the Mediterranean sea by a German submarine. The British admiral said the Arabia was torpedoed without warning, but none of the central powers would admit responsibility for it.
Officials were loath to discuss the matter in the absence of official information, which is understood to be coming from all sources. Some of them expressed surprise, however, that the attack upon the Arabia had been officially admitted. It was suggested that the Overseas despatch might mean that the Arabia was sunk by a German submarine. The British admiral said the Arabia was torpedoed without warning, but none of the central powers would admit responsibility for it.

NOT CONSIDERED ARMED.
The contention that the Arabia was an armed merchant ship, and was carrying a 15-centimetre gun and had workmen and war munition is not regarded here as being based on fact. The ship was a passenger liner, with many passengers aboard. There was one American, on his way to India. He has made an affidavit which has been forwarded to the state department.
So far as can be learned the department has heard nothing in reply to its request for Germany's version of the sinking of the Arabia. It is pointed out which six Americans lost their lives, nor has sufficient official evidence been given to show that the Arabia was an armed merchant ship.

They can be purchased as usual at McHugh's news stand, Sydney street, until further notice, at 3 cts. per copy.

Death of Mrs. Thomas F. Knight

There passed away last Friday at Bedford, Halifax County, at the great age of ninety-one years, Mary Augusta, wife of the late Thomas Frederic Knight, a member of the late Methodist Church, D. He wrote largely for the press and was the author of a prize winning Nova Scotia history, published in 1892.

Mr. Aranda L. Belliveau arrived at Weymouth Saturday, coming from Nome, Alaska, where he is interested in gold mining. Mr. Belliveau, who is a son of the late Capt. J. B. Belliveau, of Church Point, has been absent from the country for the last 30 years with the exception of a few visits. He will spend the winter with his family in the city of Weymouth.

Three brothers of Mr. Belliveau accompanied him from Alaska. They are Joseph, Bernard and George, who will also spend the winter at their home in Church Point.

Another Hint to the Merchants

We think the merchants of Digby, who in the past have been liberal Christmas advertisers, are making a big mistake in neglecting their country. It is not until the times are the duller that it requires a lot more advertising to do business than when times are good. The merchants almost constantly refusing big mail order advertisements which would mean cash in their pockets. We sometimes think that only a few of the local merchants appreciate the protection given them by the local newspaper.

Good for the whole family

A good cough remedy is one that can be depended upon to cure coughs. Not one that cures some particular cough, but coughs in general.

While the causes of all coughs are primarily the same, yet the condition of the patient is what makes the difference in the nature of the cough itself. Coughs of healthy persons are easier to cure than the coughs of invalids. The more powerful convulsive cough of a big man is harder to cure than the cough of a baby. If you get a remedy that will cure a big man's cough and yet not be too powerful for the baby, you have a good cough remedy.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"Gummy" Chamberlain is just this kind of remedy. It is good for any member of the family. It relieves coughs of all kinds. It is composed of things which cure easily and soothingly without harming the delicate tissues of the throat, and is the ideal remedy for coughs, colds, croup, influenza and whooping cough.

Moose in Northern Ontario

(1) Moose Hunting Party in Camp. (2) A Trophy. (3) Calling the Moose.

MOOSE perhaps not so famous for its big game as British Columbia or New Brunswick. Ontario possesses many valuable wild animals, which the hunter loves to pursue in the fall and early winter. Some of the game of this province is more interesting than the moose. He is to be found in many haunts, such as the favorite haunts of the hunter in the region stretching from Port William to Vabogon Lake. This season the hunters in Northern Ontario are sure to have an exceptionally good time, for the great forest fires that have recently occurred there have driven the big game from their secure homes in the recesses of the vast woods, and now they are forced to shelter themselves under scantier cover than would satisfy them formerly. Furthermore, the season has been extended from November 15 to the end of the month.

Not long ago, the delightful sport of hunting big game was confined to the male sex, but now it is quite fashionable to see ladies with rifles in hand out on the hunting grounds, and often their aim is steadily as that of some of the members of the sexes. As there is something of an accomplishment about a skilled shot, there is also something of an accomplishment about a competent moose hunter.

There are two methods of hunting the moose—the "calling" and the "still hunting." The "calling" is done early in the season, and in five falls.

In the cold weather the "still hunting" is adopted. The details of these methods, and particulars as to how the moose feed "down wind" and how the hunters pursue their prey "up wind" should be taught by many novices in the bracing and beautiful atmosphere of the woods of Northern Ontario during the present hunting season.

Freezing loss of bees

ONE OF THE BIGGEST EXPORT OPERATIONS EVER CONDUCTED IN BOSTON

Boston, Dec. 4.—One of the biggest export operations ever conducted in Boston is in progress. It involves the freezing of hundreds of tons of medium and heavy beef for shipment abroad, to be used by the British Government, principally in large part for the army. Some thing approximating 1,000,000 pounds are in storage today, which means fifty carloads, and the quantity is being added to all the time.

This operation is in charge of S. F. Washington, M. S. C. of way of 3 Quincy row, receivers of beef from various parts of the world, and as rapid as it is extensive is being put in cold storage warehouses. The supply is being stored in a number of places, wherever space can be obtained, and later on it is to be shipped abroad, going to Liverpool and being distributed from there to such points as the British Government desires to go to.

Every quarter of beef, whether a hind or a fore, has to be carefully prepared before it is put in cold storage, and the preparation is under the eye of an inspector of the British Government.

The meat comes from the slaughterhouses, many in the West, to be packed. When it is received here each quarter is carefully wrapped in cheesecloth. The cloth covers every part of it. Then the quarter is sewn up in burlap, and is ready to be frozen. When the time comes the vessel comes, this huge supply of meat will be shipped and will stay for some time afterwards. Space has been dug out for it in steamships that are due to sail in January and February. While this is a very large operation, it is only a part of the meat export business that has been going on since the war started. All the big packers are shipping abroad through Boston, and there have been times when the cold storage warehouses were more crowded than they are at present.

Speaking of the effect on the local beef market of this huge export business, a wholesale beef dealer said today that unquestionably if this supply were released locally it would send down the price. But the way he looks at it is that this country has an obligation to help feed the armies of the countries that are at war, and also the people who are at home, and even though this involves a little higher cost to the people of America, they should be willing to stand it, in order that the people of Europe may not starve. As a matter of fact, he claims, beef has the least rise in price of any of the staple articles of food, and the price is less than it was a year ago, which cannot be said of most things.

Another Market.

The Great War

Until the youngest among us are grey-headed, and for many long years are past, the story of the great war will be a great war. We may still continue to use the old chronology, but events of modern history will be divided into those before and those after the present year. It has been a great testing time for nations and individuals. The best of civilization in some countries has been found to be a thin mask of others to have shown itself. For the British Empire, judged by its enemies to be decadent, money-loving, rest by this period, it has proven a time of great war. It is with nations so left with individuals. Hereafter the one question that will be asked regarding every man will be this: "How did he stand the test of the great war?" Those who cannot stand to fight, and those who cannot stand to die, and those who cannot stand to live, are unworthy the liberties they enjoy, for which men by the thousands are dying.

Undoubtedly the most important of all the "War Funds" is the Canadian Patriotic Fund, which is for the wives and children of the men at the front. When the Fund made its first appeal to the public, it was believed of an idea and everybody admitted that the duty of caring for the soldiers' dependents was one that could not be left to the Government. For two years its directors have endeavored, as trustees of the people of Canada, to maintain the money so freely given to the Fund now appears to the public for money to enable the work to be continued along well tried and established lines.

Additional Steamboat Service

S. S. ROYCE, GOES ON THE ROUTE TODAY BETWEEN YARMOUTH AND BOSTON.

The Yarmouth Times is informed that the S. S. Boston will go on the Yarmouth-Boston run on an additional freight trip on Dec. 15th. The ship, which arrived in Boston on Monday, from New York, was handled over to a large number of workmen who went to work to load and greatly enlarge her freight capacity. The cabin will be torn out and the space added to her hold, which will accommodate her cargo space. All unused passenger accommodation will be made for freight. The ship will be used for freight and passengers. The changes are effected the Boston as a passenger ship will cease to exist and she will be known and used as a freight ship. She will arrive here next week in time to make her first outward trip on the 16th. Whether or not she will make one or more trips per week has not yet been decided. This will depend on the ability of the Company to secure coal. Yarmouth ought to take this as evidence that the Boston & Yarmouth S. S. Co. is not unimpaired of the development of Yarmouth and the service to the coast of Nova Scotia. It is said that no passengers will be carried but it is reasonable to believe that the Company will arrange a mail service to and from Boston.

Red Cross Notes

The officers and members of the local Red Cross Society wish to thank the ladies of the Catholic Church for the sum of $10.00, proceeds from the sale of a quilt and also Mrs. Vernon Reed, a winner of the quilt, for presenting the same to the Society.

The enemy, thinking they were surrounded, surrendered. Sixty-two prisoners were taken, and 40 yards of enemy trench captured."

"Before carrying out this very plucky deed, he was hit in the hand by a bomb. Later with two other men he escorted back the prisoners to the trench, and he was severely wounded himself for duty before having his wound dressed."

A Popular Publication.

No publication issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway is better known all the way over than the "Annotated Guide," describing every station along the line. Issued originally at the suggestion of Sir William Van Horne, it has passed through many editions, the greatest increase in the extent of the railway system. It is interesting to look over the early issues to see how Canada has progressed. In 1888, for instance, Winnipeg had a population of only 25,000, Fort William 1,400, Regina 800, Calgary 2,400, and Vancouver was proud of its 5,200. Indian head was famous for the Bell Farm, of which the "Annotated Guide" remarks: "The furrow on this farm was usually trenched four miles long, and to plough one furrow outward and another returning is half day's work for a man and team. The work is done with an almost military organization, ploughing, by brigades and in regular divisions." Toronto is described as "distinctly Western in its activity and energy."

What are Peps

Peps are the new treatment for coughs, colds and lung troubles. They are little tablets made up from fine extracts and medicinal essences. When put into the mouth these medicinal ingredients turn into healing vapors, which are breathed down direct to the lungs, throat and bronchial tubes. The Peps treatment is direct. Swallowing cough mixtures into the stomach, to cure ailments and disorders in throat and lungs, is indirect. Peps are revolutionizing the treatment of colds, as their price is within the reach of all. Peps, box all druggists, or Peps Co., Toronto.

New Type of Engine.

"2800," MIKADO LOCOMOTIVE ARRIVES DRAWING: TRAIN OF 2800 TONS.

The Montreal Times says that the chief topic of interest in the railway town on Sunday, was the arrival of No. 2,800, the first Mikado type engine on the Canadian Government Railways and one of the most powerful freight engines in Canada. The 2,800 arrived Montreal under her own steam, from the Upper Canadian works where she was built making the last lap of the journey over the N. E. R. and hauling a train totalling the enormous weight 2,800 tons over the heavy grades which exist between Montreal and Edmundston.

The Times in describing the monster, says that No. 2,800 will haul 2,800 tons over the N. E. R. at speeds about 2,200 tons for the next largest engine on the line. The new locomotive weighs 225 tons of which 107 are on her driving wheels, four to a side. In this particular she does not gain much on the "battleship" which have about 102 tons on their drivers and equal in number. The excess weight of the Mikado, due to her greater size is largely carried upon the trailing wheels under the fire box.

The tender of the Mikado will carry fourteen tons of coal and the tank will hold 7,500 gallons of water. The driving wheels are sixty three inches in diameter with twenty seven inch cylinders and a piston stroke of thirty inches. The boiler is built to stand an enormous pressure but pops at 180 pounds. The fire box is fitted with a special brick arch, which had been used on previous designs but had been discarded, only to reappear on the Mikado. The engine is intended for super heated steam, the Shmit super heating device being used. A feature of the new locomotive, which is now making its first appearance on the road, is the compound air pump which compresses the power to operate the brakes, etc. In the compound pump the steam is used twice, once in high pressure cylinder and once in a low pressure cylinder, thus ensuring economy in operation. The Mikado is seventy eight feet, two inches long or ten feet longer than the largest of the "battleships."

"When she stands in the ordinary round house of the Times," she is at the front and sticks out like the head of a dog which has outgrown its kennel. The new engine is fitted with the vast fuel coal which has proven success on large passenger engines. She has also a tall light and the smokestacks at the front and rear, are also wired for electric lights doing away with the troublesome oil lamps which have been used heretofore for these red and green signals. The injector is of the latest type.

The Times says that there are thirty more Mikados like the 2,800 on their way to Montreal. But large as they are the C. G. R. has also on route some freight locomotives which are very much larger still. These are of the "Santa Fe" or 2-2-2 type, and were originated on the road from which they take their name. Ten of them are on their way east, but none will come to Montreal. The last to be used around St. Rosalie, Jct., and between that point and Montreal.

As the type symbol signified, these monsters have five big driving wheels on each side. They weigh 253 tons, against the Mikado's 225, and their weight on their drivers is 130 tons as against 107 tons for the Mikados. They are 21 feet 5 3/8 inches in length (three feet more than the 2800), and their tenders carry seven teen tons of coal and 5,300 gallons of water. The driving wheels are also larger, being sixty seven inches in diameter, or almost as large as those of a Pacific type passenger engine. The cylinders also give more power, being twenty six inches in diameter with a thirty two inch stroke. In the matter of equipment, they are similar to the 2,800, excepting that they are fitted in the fire box with a different type of brick arch—the Galloway type. These Santa Fe's for the C. G. R. are the largest main line freight engines in Canada. There are one or two Mallet compounds kicking around somewhere but they are only used for pusher service for short distances on steep hills.

THE "A. B. C." OF RAILWAYS

WHY IS A BOX CAR?

A BOX car and a barn are both built to hold wheat and other grain, etc.; there the resemblance ceases, for the barn is intended to remain where it is put, whereas the box car's purpose in life is to keep moving and to travel as many times and as quickly as the railway companies are permitted to keep it moving from shipper to consignee.

Sometimes it happens that the consignee becomes a warehouseman, and consigning the box car into a temporary warehouse, keeps it in it all or part of the shipment of goods, for a considerable time, sufficient in the aggregate of all box cars of the temporary warehouse variety to cause a general car shortage for a time—thus creating much annoyance and inconvenience to the public that could have been avoided entirely had team work between shippers, consignees and the railway companies been the general practice.

The result might be quite well expressed as a sum in arithmetic, thus: Loading car to capacity + quick loading by shipper + quick transit by railway = quick unloading = prevention of car shortage, anywhere, any time.

THE ANSWER IS WEAR RUBBERS

Many People Will Don Goloshes Early This Season to Combat the High Cost of Leather Foot-wear

"Buy rubbers," says the shoe-man, the dealer who plays fair with his customers.

Leather is up and shoes are up to such an extent that the buying of a pair of shoes is almost on a level with the acquiring of a new suit of coat. Shoes must be worn, but the economical person will don rubbers as soon as the weather gets the least bit "damp under foot"; not only for the protection to the health that the rubbers afford, but to save the costly shoes he or she wears.

There was never a problem in economics that was not solved sooner or later, and rubbers and overshoes seem to be the answer to the augmented price of shoes this winter.

Western Nova Scotia's Boards Are Uniting

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB HEARS ABOUT THE EFFORTS BEING MADE ON BEHALF OF THE RETURNED SOLDIERS

HALIFAX, December 8.—The Commercial club at the weekly luncheon in the Halifax hotel yesterday heard interesting addresses on a subject of moment to Nova Scotia and her sons at the front who are to return. This was the problem of how best to put those men on the land and give them a fair start for their own good and that of the province. F. G. J. Coman, general freight agent of the D. A. R., was in the chair.

The chief speaker was George E. Corbett, of Annapolis Royal, who told of the federation of the Western Nova Scotia boards of trade undertaken in order to benefit that part of the province in particular, but to work for the good of all. These boards of trade are arranging for a delegation to the government to advocate a policy of settlement on the land by returned soldiers and to join in which Mr. Corbett suggested that the Commercial club add a delegate.

George E. Graham, general manager of the D. A. R., who was present added a valuable part to the discussion which followed. He said the transportation companies should keep more closely in touch with the agriculturalists—the producers of the soil. No element of suspicion between the farmer and the merchant should exist and nothing should be left undone which would enable the farmer to increase his production. Mr. Graham, showing that opportunities there are for the home producer, mentioned that at the recent camp at Aldershot there had been brought in for the troops no less than 80,000 pounds of beef and 55,000 lbs. of butter. Why could not this and a vast quantity more, be produced at home? Nova Scotia, to, must have more men and these will come.

Mr. Graham made the pleasant announcement that the D. A. R., looking ahead, would give the members of the Commercial Club an excursion at a time when the country could be seen at its best. The train would reach Annapolis Royal in time for dinner and he thought it was Mr. Corbett's turn in regard to that part of the program.

There were remarks by R. H. Murray, K. C. J. T. Wilson and A. C. Barnard and the club did not forget a vote of thanks to Mr. Corbett.

A feature of the luncheon was a short speech by Lieutenant John Finlay, of the 5th Brigade, a returned soldier who was at Corneilleville and the taking of Regina train and was twice wounded. He is a son of John Finlay, real estate man of Montreal and a fine soldier. He told of the capture of Corneilleville and the taking of 200 prisoners in which a maritime man named Evans had a good part. The Boches when it came to hand to hand work at Corneilleville would not have been taken by the 5th Brigade, a band of A. S. Mahon, was given a fine reception.

In the course of his speech, Mr. Corbett said he considered the Commercial men the backbone of the community. Then he proposed to speak of the work of the board of trade, particularly that of the western boards of the province. The well being of the returned soldiers was taken up by the western board and the work of George E. Graham, general manager of the D. A. R. was mentioned as being valuable. The amalgamation of the western boards had been undertaken, in order to advance the interests of transportation and increase the tourist and commercial travel. The resolution adopted by the western board of trade was read and the determination to interview the government in reference to the taking up of vacant land was described. What he proposed was that the government erect buildings, stock the farms and set out five acres of orchard for returned soldiers who would settle upon this land, work it and make a living. Mr. Corbett thought such a plan highly important and worthy of the most careful consideration.

There were details he said, which would be given after the interview with the government and Mr. Corbett hoped that the Commercial Club would be represented on the delegation. He believed by the working out of this scheme we would be able to make better citizens and help the province.

D. S. Will Not Accept Han Views of Arabia Sinking.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Germany's acceptance of responsibility for the sinking, without warning, of the British liner Arabia, with the explanation that her submarine commander took the vessel for an auxiliary warship, has brought the issue over submarine warfare to a more serious and clear cut basis than anything that has happened since the threat of the United States, last April, to break diplomatic relations after the torpedoing of the Channel liner Sussex.

Such information as the American government now has tends to show the Arabia to have been a passenger ship of the P. & O. line, passing through the Mediterranean on a regular voyage. Among the many passengers was an American citizen, who was rescued.

In official quarters the German explanation is regarded as weak and unsatisfactory, no weight being attached to the statements that the Arabia was painted like the transport, and was following a route usually taken by transports, and that the submarine commander saw many Chinese, but no women and children aboard her.

While Secretary of State Lansing refused all comment today beyond the mere publication of the note, it is known authoritatively Germany's admission in the Arabia case, her similar admission in the Marina case when six Americans were drowned, and the early facts in the sinking of the American steamer Chemung, have combined to create much anxiety.

Double Proof

A tramp knocked at a farmer's door and called for something to eat. "Are you a Christian?" asked the good hearted countryman. "Can't you tell," answered the man. Look at the holes worn in the man's coat of many pants. What do they prove?

The farmer's wife promptly brought out the food, and the tramp turned to go.

"Well, well," asked the farmer, "What made those holes in the back of your pants?"

"Backsliding," replied the tramp as he hurried on.

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" — The Wonderful Fruit Medicine — will Protect You

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continued or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the kidneys and skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Disturbed Stomach. It may produce Headaches and Sleeplessness. It may irritate the kidneys and bring on Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, and Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema — and keeps the whole system unhealthily by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Auto-intoxication or self-poisoning — as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system. A box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ontario.

The Sign of the Christmas Tree.

Ho, for the ancient holiday.

Whose golden days were wide and free

Whose guests, when the first snow crystal-fall

Outstretched its arms to greet the cold

From North and from South, and from West to

East

Big folk, down to the very least

Thriving, fast as the eye can see,

To lodge at The Sign of the Christmas Tree

The guests are known by their carious white

Teeth, and not by their names, and not by Numbered hands behind fastened doors.

There's a noise of hammer, and click of keys

And, whenever "Hello," said soft "Hello,"

"Hello," said soft "Hello,"

Oh, a wonderful day of mystery

In the ancient Inn of the Christmas Tree

There guests sit apart, and each and every

On worn faces as white as snow

Flowers bloom bright on cheeks and nose

And fresh, crisp, clean, and white as snow

And the room where they sit is like a dream

Where carols ring of holly gleams

And over the hearth, in olden days

Is a picture of "The Christmas Tree"

GRILSE IS SAFE

Terrific Battle With the Seas by the Torpedo Boat

LOSES HER WIRELESS AND ALMOST SINKS IN THE TEMPEST — A TERRIFIC BATTLE WITH THE SEAS BY THE TORPEDO BOAT

HALIFAX, Dec. 15.—H. M. C. torpedo boat Grilse is safe, but six of her gallant crew have been drowned. At half past ten o'clock last night she arrived in Shelburne under her own power, and able to make eight knots.

The following men were drowned in the terrible storm in which it was believed the Grilse went down with all hands:

A. J. Harris, Mayo, Ireland.

G. A. Harris, London.

Harry MacCallister, 615 Robie Street, Halifax.

Walter Tremble, Toronto.

Robert Wilkinson, Wellington, Ont.

E. Clements, Hamilton, Ont.

Fred Clusdner, of Worthington, England, has one leg broken and suffered severe internal injuries.

Sgt. Louis, Cyril N. Fry, of Ottawa, had wrist and leg broken.

Bad weather was encountered on Monday night and it was decided that it would be advisable to put in to Shelburne for shelter. At night advanced the storm became more severe.

The Grilse began leaking and commenced to settle dangerously by the head. Wireless calls were sent out for assistance. Tremendous seas piled over the little craft, smashing her masts, and flooding the engine room.

Her engineers and artificers worked up to the waist in water and were violently thrown about among the engines.

The Grilse carried three boats. Two of these were smashed and carried away. Her life rafts also washed drift.

Hope was given up and while power remained the wireless flashed out S. O. S. signals and the news that the vessel was sinking.

By this time she had reached what they thought was the latitude and longitude sent out in the final call. It was evident that there was some inaccuracy and the Grilse had not reached quite so far to the northward as the waters searched by the vessel, which called to her assistance.

The torpedo boat drifted off the sixty mile an hour gale, but to the surprise of those on board, kept above water. A tremendous sea smashed on board, destroying a deck house and carrying away the masts.

The six sailors who lost their lives, went over under that terrific weight of water and her wireless outfit became a hopeless wreck.

Shortly after midnight the storm broke and although there were occasional gusts and a succession of heavy seas it became evident that the weather was moderating and the men took heart and exerted tremendous energy in an effort to do something to save their vessel.

Although the steamer settled heavily by the head it was evident when daylight came that her tanks were saving her and that the leak could be controlled. Before noon the vessel was again afloat and the men took heart.

The wind had gone down. The sun shone brightly. The cold was less severe and all that was lacking to bring comfort was food and drink.

Every drop of fresh water was gone. The ship was a hulk and the men were weak and weary.

Twenty Eight Killed on Transport

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Seventeen American soldiers who had been killed and eleven of the British horse transport ship Russian, which was sunk by a submarine in the Mediterranean sea on December 14. The British Admiralty makes the announcement as follows:

The empty British horse transport ship Russian was sunk by a submarine in the Mediterranean on December 14. Eleven of the crew were killed, including the chief officer,
the first officer and the second officer.

Twenty American soldiers were killed. Their names have been communicated to the American consul.

The transport Russian referred to is probably the British steamer of that name which sailed from Newport News,
November 10, for Alexandria,
Egypt, and would be about due to return. Her net tonnage was 5,753.

For 15 days in the month of January I was afflicted with pain of rheumatism in the foot. I tried all kinds of remedies but nothing did me any good. One person told me about MINARD'S LIN-IMENT; as soon as I tried it the Saturday night, the next morning I was feeling entirely well. This remedy is very good; I could give you a good certificate any time that you would like to have one.
If any time I come home about any result of rheumatism, I could tell them about this remedy.

Yours truly,
ERNEST LEVEILLE.

Christmas Legend

The legend of St. Boniface and the first Christmas tree has been beautifully told. The scene lies before us—the wintry night, the swelling hillock crowned with the great oak tree, the "thunder oak," sacred to the pagan gods Thor; the tongues of ruddy flame, the ranks of white clad warriors, women and children facing the altar; the hoary high priest and kneeling child, the victim doomed to die by the blow of the hammer, a sacrifice to Thor, the hammerer.

Then the coming of Boniface, the blow from the hammer turned aside by the cross,
the rescue of the boy, the fall of the oak beneath the mighty blows of the apostle; the story of Jesus simply told and how sin, not human life, is the sacrifice he asks.

"And here," said the apple as his eyes fell on a young fir tree, with its top pointing toward the stars, amid the divided oak—"here is the living tree, with no stain of blood upon it, that shall be the sign of your new worshiping."—Parish

British Penetrate Enemy Lines and Come Back With Prisoners

ENEMY'S PATROL CAPTURED AND LEAD KILLED—FRENCH VICTORIES AT VERDUN—GERMAN SENDS PEACE PROPOSALS WHICH EXTENSIVE POWERS HAVE TURNED ASIDE.

LONDON, Dec. 21.—The official statement from British headquarters in France reads as follows:

"During the night the enemy's lines were entered by us in the neighborhood of Gommecourt, and considerable damage was done. A number of prisoners were taken in the course of another successful raid carried out by us early this morning against the enemy's trenches North of Arras."

"In a patrol encounter this morning north of Noyon, Chappell, the leader of the hostile patrol was killed. His men were taken prisoners. The enemy exploded a camouflage south of Ypres."

"The enemy's artillery was particularly active on the right of our line north of the Somme and in the neighborhood of Festubert and Ypres. Our artillery vigorously replied."

"Enemy trenches at Gommecourt and in the neighborhood of Loos and Houthulst were also bombarded by us."

FRENCH VICTORIES AT VERDUN

During the past few days news of a very cheering nature has been received from the Verdun front. Here the French have been assuming the offensive, succeeding in putting to rout the forces of the Crown Prince, gaining the occupancy of a number of important villages and positions. They are continuing to advance and have regained possession of the Chambray farm. A distance of about two miles was penetrated along the entire front north of Douaumont and between the Meuse and Woëvre rivers east of Verdun.

The prisoners taken exceed 11,000 of which 200 are officers. About 100 guns and an equal number of machine guns have been either destroyed or captured; 44 bomb throwers most similar.

PEACE PROPOSALS

Germany has ventured forth with her proposals of peace, but needless to say the Entente Powers have turned them aside. England and her associates have a purpose to accomplish and not until that end is attained will Germany's feelings be hearkened unto.

Germany is not on the verge of the closing of another year she will have realized that her destiny will not be of her own choice.

Francis Palmer says that little is known of the cause of this sudden Hun onslaught, but in his opinion the great pressure at the Sedan is wholly responsible for Germany's first grandiose plan.

The worst storm of the season took place Saturday morning, Dec. 16, when high winds and heavy rain, changing later to the southwest, caused a great disaster along the water front.

The telephone line from Tiverton to Grand Passage is a complete wreck. This way of connection will be greatly missed by the people of these islands.

HALIFAX PEOPLE INTERESTED IN THE INMATES OF OUR ALMS HOUSE.

The following was copied from a letter received by Mr. J. Arthur Marshall, matron of the Digby County Alms House at Marshalltown:

DEAR MRS. MARSHALL: I am sending this afternoon by Dominion Atlantic Express, all charges prepaid, a box for Rex and Wilfred Sabers. It is addressed Mrs. J. Arthur Marshall, Marshalltown, and I understand from the express authorities that it will be delivered at Jordantown, three miles from where you live, your nearest express office. It will be necessary for you to call for it there, which please do as soon as possible. I have also the Philadelphia Class of girls in Robie St. Methodist Church, in the two little boys. Each parcel has the child's name on it, for whom it is intended. God bless the babies and may the parents be reconciled again if this is possible. I trust, I hope that they may get good homes ere long. I will keep my eyes open in their interest.

One of the nurses of whom Rex was very fond was Miss Wade. He used to call her "Weggie." This is likely the person whom you thought he called "Weggie."

I will be very glad indeed if you will drop me a line on receipt of the box so that I can tell the friends that it reached you safely.

May God richly bless you in the good work that you are doing for the children in the institution. "In as much as ye have done it unto one of these, ye have done it unto me." The reward of self-sacrifice is always sure and sweet.

Trusting that the baby boys may have a good time on Xmas Day as well as all the other inmates, and with sincerest wishes for a very Happy Xmas to you and your good husband.

I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

ERNEST P. WEBBER.

Appreciation.

The following letter appeared in a recent issue of "Church Work."

Editor Church Work:

Halifax, N. S.

DEAR SIR:—As chaplain of the 209th Battalion, C. E. F., I would place on record through your columns the appreciation of the men of our Battalion of the manner in which they have been treated by the factor and members of the Church in Digby. En route overseas it was our good fortune to be for a time in that town. The treatment we received from the citizens in general and from every church in the place has been that of open-hearted hospitality.

To me and a bunch of men to do their stern duty with a lighter heart, and in these dark days it is fitting to know that the bonds of our Dominion Brotherhood are strengthening.

Yours truly,

FRANK G. FORSTER,

Chaplain 209th Batt.

School closed for the Christmas holidays on Dec. 22nd with a pleasant celebration enjoyed by both chilren and grown ups present. The schoolroom was decorated with evergreen and holly berries, and a Christmas tree loaded with presents occupied one corner. Altogether things proceeded a very "Christmasy" appearance when Santa Claus arrived in full dress, and after the children had entertained him with a very song, he proceeded to distribute the gifts from the tree. When he had finished his task, Santa made a few appropriate remarks,
and Miss Campbell, the teacher, expressed her appreciation of the many useful and pretty gifts which she received from her scholars. Miss Campbell certainly deserves the gratitude the parents feel for her interest, and untiring efforts for the benefit of the children.

Monseigneur
For 15 days in the month of January I was suffering with pain of rheumatism in the foot. I tried all kinds of remedies but nothing did me any good. One person told me about MINABUS LIN-IMENT, as soon as I tried it the Saturday morning, the pain was gone. I feel very good. I tell you this remedy is very good. I could give you a good certificate any time you would like to have one.
If any time I come to hear about any person's rheumatism, I could tell them
about this remedy.

Yours truly,
ERNEST LEVILLÉ.

Christmas in Bear River with Miss Shurman's mother. A family party of thirteen spent a very pleasant day together.

The Episcopal church was appropriately decorated for the Christmas evening and the rector preached a good Christmas sermon Sunday morning and Christmas afternoon.

The Christmas decorations at the Baptist church were very pretty. A beautiful bouquet of roses were placed on the altar, a gift from Miss Minnie McLeod in memory of her mother.

The pastor, Rev. A. W. McNichol, preached a strong sermon from the story of the four wise men. At the close of the service the pastor in a few well chosen words presented Miss Ethel Dittmars with a piece of gold in recognition of her faithful services as organist.

In the evening the Baptist
Sunday School gave a sacred concert.
The programme was well arranged and the programme a collection of the offering and teachers of the School, Mrs. L. E.

spending the Christmas and New Year holidays with relatives in Massachusetts.

It has been said, "That no man liveth to himself alone, but each unto another." No doubt many of us regret past failures in the swiftly passing year, but look forward to exerting a greater spirit of helpfulness in the New Year, and trust for speedy Peace in the only sense in which our Empire desires it.

The Christmas festivities which were held under the auspices of the North Range Baptist church, at the home of Mr. Cyrus B. MacNeill, on Saturday evening, Dec. 23rd, proved very satisfactory as well as profitable.
The tree, which was very beautifully decorated, held many nice little gifts, which harmonized well with other decorations. Perhaps the most entertaining feature of the evening was the singing of songs, which were arranged and donated by "Miss Villa Treffy" who is spending her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Treffy, at Bloomfield, who very graciously rendered her services and programmes in connection with the evening's entertainment. Miss Treffy is a graduate of Malden High School, and we are pleased to have her with us again.
The proceeds of the evening will go toward church repairs and expenses.

Public, is taking a vacation at the

Saturday evening.

Mrs. Corcoran, from Halifax, is spending her holidays with her daughter, Mrs. McWilliam.

Mrs. Albert Angus arrived from Montreal on Saturday to spend his Christmas holidays with his family.

Friday evening proved such a boisterous stormy one that the closing of celebrations of "Miss Chute's" school was not as well patronized as if fine, but there are rumors of another at the beginning of the New Year.

10 CENT "CASCARETS"
IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

For Stomach, Bad Taste, Indigestion,
Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels. Cascarets cause your stomach to become filled with undig-ested food, which causes a headache, indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental depression, everything that is unpleasant and disgusting. A Cascarets night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.
