CANADA'S PROSPERITY

Through Us Or In Spite Of Us?

When the war was on and this country was putting forth every effort, at home and overseas, to aid the allied cause, a great spirit of confidence and faith, of willingness to work, economize and sacrifice, filled every class of the community
from the highest to the lowest.
As a result, Canada's honourable war record has set her high among the nations, with a place at the Imperial Council table and a voice in international affairs.

Canada must and will come, with equal honour, through the troublous times of post-war adjustment. The only question is, will all of us help —or some of us hinder, by pessimism apathy, or class jealousy?
To the Canadian farmer this question comes with a peculiar force. Agriculture must be the economic balance wheel of this or any nation. It is an occupation where nature herself demands energy, courage, economy, and efficiency.

These sturdy qualities radiate from our farms to industries in other walks of life, where so many leaders were country born and bred.
The farm home and farm life, as the source of what has been and is the strongest and truest in our national character is interwoven with the history of Canada from its infancy. The settlers on the shores of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, tilling to clear a patch of forest and sowing their grain among the stumps;
Herbert and the pioneers of New France, fighting Indians, enduring privations, wrestling merely a rude living from their small clearings, but full of faith in the future; if not for them, then for generations yet to come; the men who rescued Upper Canada from the wilderness, the Red River colonists, who after two years of complete destruction of their crops, sent a party to the Mississippi for seed grain for the next year and won! These men made possible the Canada of today.

The farmers of Canada, then,
have a rich history and a noble tradition to live up to. Upon them Canada's progress has always depended, and upon them it will always in the future depend.
What, then, is necessary for the farmers of today? Simply the application of those qualities we have referred to—energy, courage, economy and efficiency, and under present-day conditions the return is sure and speedy. A very high percentage of the farms owned by farmers in this country have been acquired and paid for in the farmer's own lifetime. For the present and future generations there is exactly the same opportunity. True, with each generation, and perhaps oftener, we may have to change our type of crops to meet changing market requirements, but surely that is a trifling task compared with that of those who had to establish themselves in a new country, create their farm, their community, their markets, and their civilization.

During the war years, the farmer, like most others, became unreasonably optimistic. As in other industries, he over-capitalized, tied up too much money in extravagant buildings and expensive machinery, bought tractors to get the crops in more quickly and easily, without considering whether the actual earning power of these warranted the investment. With the depression, which has followed, this over-expansion has been a serious burden and has shaken the faith of some in ultimate success.

We must get back the indomitable courage and untiring effort of Canada's early days. The farmer must remember that in the last analysis he is infinitely better off
—the wage-earner of the city.
True, his cash income may sometimes be small, but he can, at the very worst, gain his living from the soil, while in the city the larger wages soon melt away in paying for things which on the farm involve no cash outlay. The farm products are necessities of life and must always command a market.
The product of city industries must often create their market and their sale is subject to wide fluctuations.
Sure, of a market, then, the farmer's main problem is simply the lowering of cost of production to permit of a fair margin of profit even at present prices. This can be done and is being done.

We may call attention to the advertisement placed in this issue by the Federal Department of Agriculture. It is more than an advertisement; it is a call to united and cheerful effort, a summons to the Canadian spirit of the "will to win" which has burned so brightly throughout Canada's history—a spirit which is so well shown in a message received in Ottawa only a few days ago from one of the foremost farmers of the Province of Alberta. He says: "It started to rain the last part of the week, and this coming after the recent heavy rains has put the soil in a condition that it has not been in at this time of the year since 1916; the farmers consequently very jubilant and in optimism as to the pay debts the Southwest Alberta could by next fall cancel our National Debt."

ONE BOTTLE BRINGS WONDER- FUL CHANGE

"Dreco Is Sure The Right Thing," Says John Flanagan,
After Experiencing Benefits From One Bottle of this Famous Remedy.

Stomach, kidney and liver trouble were making life a misery for Mr.
John Flanagan, of 33 1-2 Lucknow
Street, Halifax, N. S. The symptoms he describes are common ones and as is always the case, yielded promptly to the corrective influence of Dreco.

"My kidneys and liver were in very bad condition," says Mr.
Flanagan. "I was bothered with terrible pains across my back and would often get dizzy spells and have spots before my eyes. My appetite was very poor and whenever I ate any heavy food I would be troubled with indigestion. Gas would form around my heart until I could hardly do my work."

"I have only taken one bottle of Dreco, but the improvement it has worked in my health is wonderful.
My kidneys are working fine and I have no more trouble with my liver or stomach. My appetite is excellent and I feel more energetic than I have for many a day. Dreco is sure the right thing for anyone suffering as I did."

"To anyone in need of a reliable tonic and corrective, there is nothing like Dreco. It is made from roots, herbs, bark and leaves and acts upon the vital organs, relieving constipation, gastritis, dizzy spells, headaches, pains in the back and other ailments of a run-down system.
Dreco contains no mercury, potash,
or habit-forming drugs."
Dreco is being specially introduced in Digby by W. W.
Holdsworth, and is sold by a good druggist everywhere.

THE HENSLEY CONCERT

The Barton concert was a great success. In spite of bad weather the hall was filled with an appreciative audience, and for two hours and a half they were busily entertained. The famous Chinese costumes illustrated a scene of dramatic and sentimental interest. Mrs. Hensley, Mrs. Tilley and Mr. Tilley were absolutely lost in their Chinese characters. Miss Perry outdid herself in her dainty recitations. Mrs. Dickie and Mr. Mallett charmed the audience, as they always do, with their dramatic duets. Miss Fream appeared in a well rendered recitation and Schenectady household tribulations. One of the features of the evening was "Two Sisters and a King" something entirely new in these parts, depicting the power of chance in the life of a king. Mrs. Dickie made a charming change, while Mrs. Tilley and Mr. Tilley with the clever Mrs. Hewett completed the interesting cast. Gallacher and Sloan evoked torrents of laughter and Mrs. Dickie and Mrs. Hensley's vaudeville double act brought down the house. This was voted one of the best, if not the best concert yet given. Dr. Johnson was unavoidably absent through illness and was much missed. Dr. Dickie announced the numbers as a most satisfactory selection. Mrs. Hensley, Miss Rosemary Hewett and Miss Elaine Tilley charmed everybody with their graceful barefoot dancing.

ELECTRICITY ALONG ST. MARY'S BAY.

Why not? Are we not worthy of it? We have natural sources enough to have at least three dynamos which would give a voltage strong enough to illuminate all the villages from Yarmouth to Digby. What a great utility it would be to have all our churches, our convents, our hotels, our homes and the roads all lighted with electric lights and that would cost less than any other source of light. Salmon and Meteghan Rivers and Sissiboo Falls are sufficient to give all the power needed to run any dynamo.

These are only a few suggestions to the many Acadia villages of St. Mary's Bay. I hope that these ideas will not be of no effect, and if any one wishes to inspect the rivers he will be welcome at any time. Now that the roads are quite convenient, would it not be more pleasant if we had electric cars running from Yarmouth to Digby?

Let us all join together and we will have what we are longing for since a long time.

HURRAH FOR THE ACADIANS.

Wedding Bells

The Methodist parsonage was the scene of a very quiet wedding on Wednesday morning when Miss Jessie T. Wallis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Wallis, became the bride of Gordon A. Robinson. Rev. W. H. Watts officiated. Mrs. Mrs. Robinson left on the morning train for Halifax to spend a few days.

Obituary

Mrs. Annie A. Welch died on Sunday morning after a long illness at the advanced age of ninety years. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon.

ELEANOR P. DENTON

Mrs. Eleanor P. Denton, widow of the late John E. Denton, passed away at her home in Little River, Digby County, on Friday evening, June 29. She was under 74th year and was all her life a resident of Little River. She was converted when very young, baptized and became a member of the Baptist church about sixty years ago. She was deeply interested in all the work of her church and her home, after the death of her husband became the paragon. The funeral which was conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. F. McWilliam, on Sunday afternoon was very largely attended. She leaves to mourn their loss one sister, two brothers and a large circle of relatives and friends.

On Thursday evening of last week,

the officers and teachers of Grace Methodist Sunday School surprised Miss Morash at the home of Mrs. J. J. Wallis. Miss Morash has been a most devoted church worker during her stay in Digby, particularly in connection with the G. L. F. groups, and it was felt that she could not leave Digby without some tangible expression of the high esteem in which she is held by all who have been associated with her. After a very pleasant evening in which games of various kinds were indulged in, and dainty refreshments served, Rev. W. H. Watts on behalf of the officers and teachers presented Miss Morash with a gold mounted fountain pen. In making the presentation regret was expressed at Miss Morash's prospective departure, and also the heartiest good wishes were extended for her success in her new sphere of labour.

The monthly meeting of the V.O.N. will be held in the town hall, Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

Thirty Years Ago

From the Courier files of July 7, 1893. Louis Deveau commenced the construction of a brigantine of 400 tons at Meteghan River. Rev. A. T. Dykeman gave a lecture on "Is Christianity Advancing or Declining?" Charles and Albert Cain, of Westport, aged 28 and 23 respectively lost their lives while fishing. Dominion Day was "bright royalty" celebrated in Digby and an immense crowd was present. Wm. McEwen and Clara Beatrice Sullivan, of Smith's Cove, were married by Rev. A. T. Dykeman.

The sale of Watkins' farm and stock advertised for last Saturday, was postponed on account of the weather. It will take place next Wednesday. Nothing was disposed of and the sale will be in every respect as advertised.

The steamer "Centreville", Capt. Lewis is making her regular trips between here and St. John with almost railroad regularity, and is carrying large freights, in fact she is full on every trip. The service is growing in popularity.

The tea held at the Golf Club house under the auspices of the V. O. N., and which proved to be so popular last season will again be resumed. The first will be tomorrow afternoon, and will continue every Saturday during the summer.

The Courier has received several verbal complaints and one written in reference to the reckless driving of one of the local garagemen. The written complaint comes from Deep Brook and tells of a very bad row escape only last Monday. We know from observation that the man referred to is one of the most reckless drivers in the country.

The women of the Maritime Provinces know good tea, there is no doubt about that. If there was any doubt how would you explain the sale of such a large quantity of MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE as was made last week. MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE is a tea for particular people, a people who demand the best there is in flavor: it is this class of people that is calling for this tea.

Methodist Church: Minister Rev. W. H. Watts. Services for Sunday at 11 and 7.30. Morning subject: "How Will the Next Revival Come?" Evening subject: "Joseph's Great Coat." Bright and helpful services are anticipated and a warm welcome awaits townspeople and visitors alike. Good music, free seats, preacher the minister. Divine service will also be conducted at Smith's Cove at 8 o'clock, Sunday afternoon.

The W. C. T. U. held a parlor meeting at the home of Mrs. H. T. Warne, on Friday afternoon June 29, in honor of the Prov. President, Mrs. Morrison, of Halifax who gave the members an interesting talk on the various departments of the W. C. T. U., and showed the good that can be accomplished by working these departments. An initiation of a new member took place after which dainty refreshments were served and a most profitable afternoon was spent.

The parsonage at Freeport, was struck by lightning during the terrific electric storm which passed over that place last Wednesday. The chimney in the front of the house was split, the plastering torn off and the floor timbers of the first floor broken: three holes were made in the floor and ceiling of the parter and the study door and frame were wrecked. The house suffered a lot of other damages also but fortunately the occupants, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Brooker were not injured.

Miss Rosemond D. W. Archibald, of Wolfville, will speak tonight in the Bijou Theatre on "Our English and What Is To Be Done About It." This event is under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club who are fortunate in being able to secure her. This subject is of great interest and Miss Archibald has been greeted by large audience wherever she has spoken. One feature of tonight's entertainment is a sketch entitled, "A Challenge to the Audience" by a number of school girls. The Digby Orchestra has kindly offered its services for the evening and there will be a short program of readings and songs. Admission 25 cents; children 10 cents.

THE LISTENING POST

In response to the suggestion

In our issue of June 22nd.

A citizen who has recently Returned from a fishing trip

Hands in the following:-

We started off in one of Those small cars-you know the Kind-and after leaving

Digby about 100 miles in

Our rear we turned due

South from the Valley and Drove 27 miles over the

Roughest road in North America. The hills were

So steep that one of us

Had to sit astride the Engine hood to keep the Car from falling over

Backwards. We reached our Destination in a shaky

Condition and immediately

Started fishing from a Boat that LEAKED.

When not engaged in bailing

We fished for short periods.

The first one I hooked was

So large he yanked the rod

Out of my hand and headed

Across the lake with my

New bamboo rod trailing

Behind and throwing up the Spray like a torpedo.

We started after it and Rowing 10 miles around that

Lake before we ran our fish

Down, as every time we ceased

Rowing to grab the rod the Fish put on a fresh burst

Of speed and the chase was

On again. My companion's

Language was awful.

We finally captured the rod

And after reeling in 75 yards

Of line hauled our fish into

The boat. In the meantime

The water was so deep in

Our boat that the fish swam

From side to side and

Threatened to capsize us.

We eventually reached the Shore in an exhausted

Condition and on weighing

Our fish found he was Only 3 1-4 pounds.

This story sounds quite Reasonable and true like

All such experiences.

Wishing you many of them.

SUMMER SERVICE ON THE YARMOUTH LINE

Announcement is made by the Yarmouth Line that commencing July 1st, steamers will leave Yarmouth for Boston every day except Sunday and return, leave Boston every day except Saturday. Present indications point to a very heavy travel both to and from the Province this summer. The steamship PRINCE ARTHUR and PRINCE GEORGE will perform the service. At Boston, connection is made with the Metropolitan Line steamers for New York via the Cape Cod Canal.

The International Line steamer GOVERNOR DINGLEY will continue the two trip service from St. John, leaving on Wednesdays at 8 a. m. via Eastport and Lubec and on Saturdays at 6 p. m. (Atlantic Time) for Boston direct.

"For Home and Country"

"For Home and Country"

YEAR'S WORK OF BEAR RIVER INSTITUTE

Report As Sent to Convention In Truro—June 20th, 1923

The Bear River Branch of the Women's Institute of Nova Scotia has held eleven regular meetings since June of 1922, and one special meeting, held on February 10, 1923. At present writing we have 47 members, and have had an average attendance of 30 at regular meetings. The working members of the organization are nearly all present and ready to do their utmost to further the work of the Institute. We sent two delegates to the Convention in Truro last June, who upon their return gave as splendid accounts of the work reported there from other branches, and expressed themselves as delighted with the kindness and hospitality shown all the delegates.

In August Miss MacDougall visited us at our regular meetings and gave a most interesting and instructive talk on the value to us of our "Provincial Standing Committee," particularly in regard to Citizenship—a subject dear to all our hearts.

In September Mr. Down was present at our meeting in the interest of the "Halifax School for the Blind" and "The Maritime Division of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind." They were endeavoring to raise $100,000.00 to better finance their schools and institutions.

The Institute took charge of the campaign here: had a film shown in the movie hall; held a public meeting in the Baptist Church; and during the next week canvassed the entire district with splendid results, the sum of $180 being secured for this worthy purpose.

Women took an interest in the boys of the town, and presented to our baseball team socks to match their uniforms, believing that proper physical exercise is one of the safeguards of the youth of today.

The Institute provided for their own use in entertaining three and a half dozen cups and saucers and several cake plates. These have been of great use in serving tea, as before we had borrowed from one of the Churches.

A Committee from the Institute approached the Wardens of our two counties with respect to unsafe approaches to our central bridge, there being large spaces where a small school child might fall through. In Annapolis County this was at once improved, another safeguard for which the Institute is responsible.

At our meeting in March a member responded to her name in roll call by giving a tested recipe and all benefited by receiving new ideas in cooking.

Miss Sybil Barrington of the "Infant's Home of Halifax" was with us at our April meetings, and gave us most touching and eloquent advice on the work done there for babies and their mothers. We have helped this worthy cause before, and intend doing more to show our realization of the great need along this line.

In November we held a "Poverty Party" taking each person who wore silks or satins or fur of any kind, and giving a prize to the most poverty-stricken looking person there. From this source we raised $22.18.

This past week on Saturday, May 19th, we held our first Rummage Sale—a new venture—but one which proved most successful, as we realized almost $60.00 from the sale of goods sent in.

Our standing Committees have worked faithfully and well.

Our Library Committee has consisted of three members (one being added each month) who open the library each Saturday afternoon from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock for exchange of books. We now have 142 books on our shelves and are hoping to add more very soon.

Our Publicity Committee has published weekly news in the Digby Courier and Halifax Chronicle. This Committee also consists of three members (a new one being added monthly) making each person a member for three months.

The four members of the Entertainment Committee have provided music, reading and very often tea or home made candy.

Two School Visitors have gone to the school each month, who visited each of the six departments as well as made a sanitary inspection. We feel this most beneficial to school and parents, as it brings more people in contact with the teachers and helps keep up the interest.

Our Sick and Convalescent Committee has visited a number of members, and we have sent flowers to others who were ill at home or in hospital.

Our Charity Committee has reported several cases, in one instance we spent $10.00 on a box of Xmas Cheer for a returned soldier's family who sent a pair of blankets and fourteen yards of shawl.

Handel made into arguments to another party. As usual we sent $10.00 each to the Digby and Annapolis County almshouse at Christmas time.

The Health Committee took charge again of serving hot cocoa in the school during the winter months from Jan. to March 2nd, inclusive.

124 lbs. of milk were used, 31.2 lbs. of cocoa, $1.50 of sugar, $3.75 paid for cost of making same.

1500 pupils were served at a total cost to the Institute of $19.91, or nearly 13¢ per pupil. The hot drink was greatly appreciated during the severe storms of the winter.

The Home and School Committee undertook to raise a prize list for Oakdale School with a resultant list of $60.00 donated from various organizations and individuals. These were divided into seven prizes to be given in the various departments of the school.

The "Better English Week Drive" which was held from May 20th, to June 1st. Three book prizes have been offered to the three departments including grades 6-11. Miss Archibald, the Authoress of the K. E. D., will speak here under the auspices of the Institute during the week of the contest.

Our Institute has tried to live up to our motto, and has done nothing selfishly, as all our funds are used for the benefit of the community.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. A. G. MacINTYRE, Sec. Sec.

ORION MASONIC CHOIR, HALIFAX

Very many people are asking just now, who and what is this Masonic Choir.

This Masonic Temple Choir was started in November 1921 by a few of the musical brethren of the Halifax lodges.

Shortly after its commencement the Services of Professor, Horace Wilson, Organist and Choirmaster of St. Paul's, Halifax, and conductor of many renowned choral Societies and prize choirs in England and Ireland were secured.

The Choir's first public appearance was at Keegan's Hall, in the Albert Church on St. John's Day, December 25, 1921, at the Annual Masonic Service. Their performance on this occasion creating quite a sensation in musical circles.

Since then it has been very much in demand by the different churches for concert work, so much so that prices had to be raised, but still the demand kept up, until now they have given performances at practically every church in Halifax and vicinity.

The Orion Masonic Choir is composed of some of the best of the Masonic Temple Choir in special training by Professor Wilson himself for this tour of the various cities and towns in the Province to raise money for the New Masonic Temple in Halifax, in which every Nova Scotian is deeply interested and which is run under the auspices of Freemasons Hall Limited.

The Orion Masonic Choir is remarkable for its brilliant tone, dynamic power of attack and finish and true artistic expression of the various and varied members of this programme.

Also included in the Company is the famous Massey Organ Quartet, whose beautiful singing is always very deeply enjoyed.

Bro. W. Tapp is inimitable in his Canadian habitant impersonations and Bro. Boleau and Colwell are sure to provide plenty of fun in their numerous songs and dances.

A really splendid programme of their best work is provided for the visit to this town on July 12, in the Oakdale Hall at 8.15 p. m.

SMITH'S COVE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss A. B. Cummings with good attendance.

After regular routine came discussion along various lines of activity including the report from health representatives, who attended the public meeting at Digby, conducted by Dr. Walker, Red Cross commissioner. Our home and school committees have succeeded in purchasing what is considered the most suitable water container for the public schools, a necessary stand for its location will be arranged for during vacation with hope of filling this long felt need.

The service class was brought to a pleasing close on Saturday by an exhibit of work done and an Ice Cream treat at the Baptist Ice room previously arranged for by the Institute. The instructors thoroughly appreciate the good attendance and attention of these small girls during the three months of organized class.

Our Institute has much pleasure in knowing that Miss Cecile Thomas has been appointed provincial coordinator of the agriculture standing committee at the Convention of Women's Institutes held at Truro last week. Institutes throughout the Province will find Miss Thomas very much at home on this subject.

The play "Nightingale Over" will soon be staged in the Temperance hall. A fine evening and a generous income is hoped for to recompense the work it involves. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Jagger.

The Ladies of St. John's Church of England Guild will hold a Bazaar and Fancy Sale on the Band Stand, Bear River, Saturday, July 7th starting at 2 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Milledge Rice, of Weymouth, Mass., arrived on Monday. They are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Manning Nicholas.

Miss Margaret McClelland returned home from Annapolis on Saturday. She has been writing the grade twelve examinations.

Bruce McClelland wrote the grade ten examinations in Bear River last week.

Miss Blanche Spurr of Central Falls, R. I., arrived last week, she will spend her vacation here.

How to Make Red or Black Currant Jelly

Crush well about 3 1/2 lbs. ripe fruit. Add 1 cup water, stir until boiling, cover pan and simmer 10 minutes. Place in jelly bag and squeeze out juice. Measure 4 1/2 cups juice into large saucepan. Measure 1 1/2 level cups (3 1/2 lbs.) sugar in separate pan. Bring juice just to boil, and begin to add sugar slowly, with constant stirring, taking about 5 minutes to add sugar, keeping juice nearly at boil. Then bring to boil, and at once add 1/2 bottle (containing 3 cups) Certo, stirring constantly, and bring again to a full boil, for 1/2 minute. Remove from fire, let stand 1 minute, skim and pour quickly.

KARSDALE

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Johns, of Port Adelaide, entertained a large number of their friends at the marriage reception of their sister, Elizabeth Clark Johns and Robert H. McGrath, who were united in holy matrimony on the evening of June 10th, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. B. Clark, 127 Broadway, W. Somerville, Mass. The bride and groom stood before a large white bell to receive the congratulations of their friends and in this they were assisted by Miss Lena McWhinnie, a friend of the bride and Archie McGrath, brother of the groom. The bride wore a dress of coral silk, both carried bouquets of green and white. The bride party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march rendered by Miss Hattie Aik. The home was very daintily decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being white and green. The bride received many nice gifts, including linen, cut glass, silver and more. Refreshments were served at 10:30 after which the party broke up wishing Mr. and Mrs. McGrath many years of wedded bliss. Mr. and Mrs. McGrath are spending the summer in Port Wadsworth and intend returning to Mass. in the autumn. They are occupying the home of Deacon and Mrs. Edward Johns, parents of the bride.

Mrs. A. W. D. Parker, of Belleville, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Covert Jr.

Underwriters Endorse Chevrolet

Now rated as Class "A" Insurance Risk

Less than a dozen motor cars—all much higher in price—have similar insurance rating, which is the lowest possible.

The fundamentally sound construction of Chevrolet Superior Models has again been proved by the fact that the Underwriters have given to Chevrolet, Class "A" Insurance Rating. This means that the Chevrolet owner gets the lowest possible rate of insurance, which means a saving of from 30 to 40%.

Less than a dozen cars are rated as Class "A" insurance risks, and these cars are all much higher in price.

This new ruling is further evidence of the attention to detail which our engineers have given to the production of the Chevrolet car, and which is reflected in the increasing popularity of Chevrolet.

Chevrolet is the lowest-priced, fully-equipped car in the world and the lowest in cost of operation.

Here is a City That Has Thrived on War. When taken over by the French there will be feelings of satisfaction in not a few breasts in allied countries, in view of the relation of that city to the war, as the chief scene of munitions making for the past generation or more. It is a great steel city, thriving on war itself, and epitomizing the very spirit of war making and munitions. When Essen flourished it was a sign that the war lords in one country or another had a big campaign ahead. The measure of its relation to such conflicts may be seen in the growth of its population, which, after several centuries' existence, was but 115,000 in 1854, had risen to 115,000 in 1909, and to 439,000 in 1920.

Coming down the Rhine in one of the palatial steamers of the Neder-Rheinische Schifffahrt Co., the sloping banks of the river remind a Canadian of the shores of the St. Lawrence. Dotted all over the landscape are villages and small hamlets, with their church spires silhouetted against the azure sky. The meadows seen from the boat are rectangular patches of an astounding green color set off with white fences. The villages appear with such regularity that the whole scene looks like a pantomime setting in bright colors, waiting for some beneficent ceremony.

The scene changes as the boat approaches Essen. Residential suburbs built on the hills overlooking the Rhine are the first sign of the great industrial center which, in appearance, resembles, probably more than any other locality in Europe, some of the big American factory cities, for instance, Pittsburgh. Over the city itself hangs a dense cloud of smoke. At night flames shoot up through the chimneys of the huge blast furnaces. The air in the town is audible on the river. Street cars clang and come right to the river's edge. Trailers of the iron ore are loaded with workmen coming and going to ever-changing shifts of work. Far up the hills in the distance are the residences of the Krupps, the Herders, the Bokers and the other industrial magnates. In the distance there is the incessant boom of big guns as the army and army engineers test the products from the factories.

In the city itself there is a cosmopolitan population as in large American towns—Italian and Austrian laborers, boarding houses and American bars. The outbreak of a new war in Europe was always a signal for a new boom in Essen. In 1904 a representative of the Friedrich Herder Co. was seeking building materials and bricklayers in Belgium and Belgium. Asked by a Hollander whether an extensive building program was anticipated in Essen, he answered in the affirmative:

"We need more houses and more workers, for the firm of Herder has received an order for twelve million barrels, and they are to be sharpened on both sides."

Six months later the Russo-Japanese war broke out.

Prince Needs a Successor. Japan had a crisis recently. It was not a cabinet affair, for cabinets are not of so much importance in that most monarchistic of all countries. The health of the Prince Regent was in peril. If he had died his younger brother, Prince Yasuhiro, would have succeeded him as the future of Heaven and of Nippon.

When one has for king or regent a descendant of the sun god, why should one worry about earthly things as ministries and diets? The royal family matters in Nippon. And so, when the Prince Regent, who had visited England and had also entertained the Prince of Wales, fell with measles, then indeed there was consternation. But it was suddenly remembered that there was a second son of the king, namely the Prince Yasuhiro, still with his regiment and a slender, spectacled youth, but none the less a son of the sun and worthy of worship and reverence.

Tourist Printers.

Brooklyn Joe is known all over the United States as the last of the tourist printers. Brooklyn Joe was working in New York when the first linotype machine was manufactured. For thirty years Brooklyn Joe has traveled from coast to coast, seeing thousands of these typesetting machines. Long years ago scarcely a week passed that some tourist printer didn't come along who wanted to throw in a case of type, set up a column or two for a dollar, a feed and a bed, and then drifted onward. Most of them are gone now. There was the immortal J. N. Red Doolin. Thin Space Jones, so named because he was so thin, and Puss Reynolds.

Seeing Our Breath.

As a matter of fact, we don't see "our breath" on a cold day. What we see is the water vapor with which it is charged and which has become condensed in contact with the cold air. All that happens is this. We breathe in a certain amount of air, and expel the rest, charged with moisture picked up from the inside of our bodies. When the air is warm it can absorb or "hold" the moisture in our breath, but when the air is appreciably colder it condenses this moisture into tiny globules which we see as vapor or mist, exactly as steam from a kettle is condensed on the colder outside air.

An Old Saying.

The expression "a pretty kettle of fish" was originally a "kiddle" of fish, the kiddle being a very old word for a sort of wicker tray, which was temporarily laid down in a river to catch anything that might be passing. The result would naturally be a very mixed bag, and so "a pretty kettle of fish" came to be used as a term for a general mix-up or muddle.

YOUNG DAUGHTER MADE WELL

Mother Tells How Her Daughter Suffered and Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Vancouver, B.C.—"My daughter is a young girl who has been having severe pains and weak and dizzy feelings for some time and had lost her appetite. Through an older daughter who had heard of a woman who was taking it for the same trouble, we were told of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My daughter has been taking it for several months and is quite all right now. It has done all it was represented to do and we have told a number of friends about it. I am never without a bottle of it in the house, for I myself take it for that tired, worn-out feeling which sometimes comes to us all. I find it builds me up and I strongly recommend it to women who are suffering from the same troubles."—Mrs. J. McDonald, 2347 25th Ave. East, Vancouver, B.C.

From the fact of twelve girl needs all the care a thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time. If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make life easier for her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions.

PUPPY OR CALF LOVE.

Easiest Thing in World to Laugh at, Serious Crisis.

Calf-love is the easiest thing in the world to laugh at. That it is less easy to endure was revealed by a boy criminal, recently, in a strange letter to the magistrates who tried him. In that document he described the phases of his downward slide, and at the moment when he realized that his first love could not be reciprocated.

Supply most boys and girls receive the shock of their first love affair without ruining themselves in the process. Yet no one who has studied the saddest mind can deny that at a moment, that, as a rule, the struggle is a severe one. The first love affair is far more serious, far more anxious than people who have grown up are ready to admit.

Nor are its dangers made less, or its burdens lightened, by the attitude of sympathy adopted towards the victim by those who should be his friends. Almost invariably they laugh and deride when a word of sympathy is most eagerly desired and most urgently needed.

The wretched boy or girl is shamed into silence about an aspect of his emotional life which, after all, is perfectly natural, and must, in any case, exercise a profound influence on his or her whole attitude to life. The shamelessness of marriages are ultimately spoiled by that cynicism which brands first love as a joke or dilutes on its grotesque and silly character. The wild freshness of the dawn is but seldom recovered once it has been lost.

This does not mean, of course, that boys and girls are to be encouraged in sentimentalism.

But their feelings, however exaggerated, must be accepted as genuine for the moment, and honest as such. They must be taken, if not seriously, at least respectfully.

If they feel that their strange emotional experience is being understood and regarded sympathetically, their own common sense will come to the rescue. If, on the contrary, they are laughed at, common sense becomes the ally of emotionalism and the enemy of their critics.

Thus, instead of being "laughed out of" their feelings, they are effectively laughed into it. Their best weapon of defence is struck, as it were, from their hands.

France's Birth Rate.

The high cost of living, lack of apartments and homes for newly-married couples, selfishness, too many women employed in industry, and too much pleasure, are the general causes assigned for the alarming decrease of the birth rate in France, now the lowest in Europe.

This is a condition that has been accentuated by the war, which took many men to the front, whence many never returned. The war also created new conditions of living for women, gave them work, made them independent, and disinclined to marry readily, and less inclined to have children.

This situation is set forth at length by the National Alliance for Increasing French Population. In comparison with 100 years ago, each French marriage brings less than two children, instead of four children, whereas England's marriages now produce three children instead of nearly five 100 years ago. In Germany in 1841, the average marriage brought four and forty-four hundred children as compared to two and two-tenths in 1921.

The birth decrease does not result from high mortality, or relatively few marriages. France's population of 39,000,000 in 1922, is practically that of 1900. The number of marriages for that year was 289,000, or about the average since then, with the years following the war showing a larger number, which is now returning to the average. For 1921, the number of marriages was 458,000, and for 1922 it was a little higher.

Until 1914, the number of births averaged 800,000 yearly. During several of the years the number dropped to fewer than 700,000. The first six months of 1922 showed 386,726 as compared to 421,180 for the first six months of 1921.

It is argued that if France is to hold her place in the world and send emigrants to her colonies, she must pass laws, as already proposed in Parliament, to give the voting majority, to married men, reduce family taxes, and give bonuses for each child born. Already, families enjoy lower railway fares.

Kuwait.

Kuwait is situated at the head of the Persian Gulf, and is famous as yet only as a proposed terminus of the Bagdad Railway, of which we have heard so much during recent years. It is an ordinary Arab border town, built of mud and plaster, a few houses more than one story high, and only the sheik's palace marks any pretensions to elegance. One room in this palace is decorated with a large and beautiful Persian rug on the floor, and a ceiling covered with the fact that the foreign notabilities, in gift frames, picked up in the Bombay bazars. Only an Arab would have thought of that place for the pictures.

Swedish Carbons.

Carbons of high grade are, it is said, obtained from tar by a Swedish process. The powdered carbon is pressed to form electric light carbons, or larger sizes for electrochemical work. The method is based on the fact that every divided carbon makes up a large percentage of the composition of tar and is what gives the black color, this being due to the carbon particles suspended in an otherwise dense and transparent yellowish brown liquid.

Deserts cover twenty-four per cent. of the earth's surface.

TOO MANY THEORIES AND NOT ENOUGH PRACTISE

Representative Nova Scotia Lumberman Sounds Clarion Call in Getting Down to Business at Once in Forest Conservation

Canada Lumberman
H. T. Warne, of Digby, N. S., is well known as a successful manufacturer of lumber and box shooks. He has been in the lumber game for over 35 years and has had a sound, practical experience in all its branches. Mr. Warne, thoroughly believes in the industry in which he is engaged, its progress, influence and usefulness.

An ardent advocate of the conservation of our natural resources and upholding the best traditions and practices of the forest products line, Mr. Warne contributes a few timely observations on present-day tendencies and incidentally relates some lively reminiscences.

After repeated requests on the part of the "Canada Lumberman," Mr. Warne, who is of a retiring disposition, consented to tell something of his acquaintance and insight in the lumber arena. His remarks, which follow, are well worth reading.

So many changes have taken place in lumber activities one hardly knows what feature to specialize upon. Perhaps it would be all right for me to commence with my first trip in the woods as a woodman. In 1886 I began my career, and the first thing I did was to gather fir boughs for a field bed to lay my part with twenty-five others and a comfortable bed it was. I will enumerate some of the unknown equipment that forms a part of our outfit to day: stoves, lamps, butter, potatoes, cash, pay days Workmen's Compensation, Stock Companies, overalls, section 38 of the Banking Act, logging engines, ice roads, double cutting hand saws, edge grain flooring, Chartered Accounts, Sinking and Reserve Fund accounts, Game Wardens, etc.

Here are some of the things we did have: plenty of pork, beans, twenty-one times a week, good bread(?) cooked in a bake kettle, molasses and good it was. I remember well as it came from Cuba and cost 17 cents per gallon, and the lumber we cut sold in Cuba for $17.00 per M. But, best of all, we had a jolly crew who at night planned their roads and cutting for the next day so that we might do a good winter's work and thus secure a job for the next winter.

I could go on and enumerate, for those were the days when life was real and things were more on an equal than they are to-day. Some one will say this may be true, but we have few who know. What about conditions during 1923 and on?

This brings one to the danger zone, and as it is no doubt a fact, it is so much easier to find fault than it is to do right, one should be very careful. It is equally true that it takes a bigger man to reveal a thing than it does to conceal it. ARE TOP HEAVY WITH THEORIES

I have attended a few conventions and from thought offered, we are top heavy with theory without practice. I believe many times if the preacher could get a good expression from the pews, he would know better how to feed his people. The average man to-day spends from $6.50 to $8.00 per month for cigarettes, and it is not only the extravagant waste to the consumer's mind, body and pocket, but it is the most disastrous article that forms a part of the woods outfit. It has been long conceded that fire has made greater inroads than the axe.

I am prepared to state that in 1914, a fire started on the limits where I am now writing. It looked at first to be a wipe out, but with the use of two hundred men and personal effort, it was burned to a peak, the forest saved and every man was convinced that such a fire could be controlled. The circumstance was so marked, we traced the origin to a man, who had for

OUR BOYS PUT UP GOOD GAME

Alfie Allbon, hero of last year's Nova Scotia championship game between the Miners won a 14 inning battle, opposed Digby in the second High School League game at Halifax Wednesday. It was a fine game to watch and Digby looked like the winners until the final inning. The Valley boys have a splendid team and they played brilliantly.

It was the timely hitting and an error that paved the way for the Springfield victory, plus the great pitching of Allbon who allowed only five hits. Followers of local baseball were loud in their praise of the game put up by both teams. The score:

convenience stayed over night in one of our camps and, as a result of smoking, set the fire. I have carefully kept in touch with these limits and I am convinced there is an annual growth of seven million per year, with the far point not more than ten miles from the town in which I live.

I believe that every wonder on personal owned forest land should be as promptly prosecuted as it found going through the company's store, also that no employee should either sell or smoke cigarettes in the woods. Our game law should be revised and every man severely penalized found with gun or fishing rod sporting in the woods without a guide. Why should the stranger or town folks have the right to travel our forests without a permit or guide any more than through our plant or office? What will be the use of the game law when the forest is gone? The real hunting game is gone by like that done by natives and land owners.

Though I am speaking for myself, yet I know I am voicing the sentiment of others when I say every lumberman is glad to have a sportsman come into his camp and enjoy freedom. It is the party going into the woods to have a drunk, dodging behind the game law, who is unwelcome. There is no one patrolling the forest, so no proof is to be had and one is forced to complain.

To see British Columbia settlers and ranchers burning up good Douglas fir trees with from two to three thousand feet in them, looked just like burning up $15 bills. In a great many cases ignorance is the cause of crime. Education of a conservative nature promotes honor and honor suppresses evil. Let us have a half tone cut of some forest grove on the front page of the school book and let the significance of forest conservation be impressed upon the minds of the children.

SHOULD STOP PULPWOOD EXPORT.

Let us stand shoulder to shoulder with men like Mr. Frank Barnjum, who is on the right trail when he is trying to prohibit the shipment of pulpwood. It only takes a few thousand acres of land if well cut and manufactured to sustain a settlement of two hundred people, provided the owner is not too mercenary.

A great idea is given in the June issue of the "Canada Lumberman" about pulpwood. In my opinion the farmer is the one who would benefit most. He cannot afford to cut young growth any more than he could afford to sell all his planting of beets and greens. There is no one nature assists more than the farmer and he should let the product reach maturity. In 1902 I sold a farm that contained about ten acres of good apple orchard with some twenty-five acres of

"BETTER ENGLISH" CAMPAIGN OPENED IN DIGBY

Miss Archibald, of Acadia, Addressed A Large Audience in Bijou Dream Last Friday.

Under the auspices of the Canadian Club and the presidency of Mrs. Eber Turnbull, in the Bijou Theatre on Friday night, Miss Rosamond DeVolve Archibald, M. A., gave a thoroughly interesting address on "Our English and what is to be done about it."

The lecturer, who is the head of the Department of English at the Acadia Seminary, Wolfville, is an enthusiast on her subject, and has recently attended the National Council of Women of Canada, held in Halifax, where representatives from all the Provinces in the Dominion heartily endorsed her ideas, and expressed their eagerness to assist in forwarding them throughout the Dominion.

Miss Archibald, who has received many calls to other fields of labour is first and foremost a Nova Scotian, and deeply anxious that her native province should lead in the matter of the betterment of the spoken English—her motto for students being—"To think clearly and to speak the King's English."

In her address Miss Archibald stated that as the flag of the empire was worth fighting for and upholding, so was the language which contained the purity of the Anglo Saxon, the beauty of the Greek, the strength of the Latin and the facility of the French and because of its mixture of its grammar, its difficult and its rules of syntax, rhetoric, as well as its exceptions hard to memorise.

Faulty diction appeared even amongst educated classes, and the aim of her crusade was to inculcate the correct uses of pronouns, verbs and phrases by memorising, and by systematic drill to implant, correct memory on the suggestions to the eliminations of errors which unfortunately are so common.

The kind of drill adopted was exemplified by a number of Grade VI girls from the Academy, and Florence, Wallis, Shirley Haines, Hazel Baxter and Phyllis Dakin in an afternoon tea scene instanced some fifty common errors and their proper corrections, and showed how superior the latter were in all respects.

The good effects of Miss Archibald's methods were discernible through her address, and it would appear that a very marked improvement in speaking the King's English is bound to result from their general application. Three thousand letters were recently mailed to the lecturer to the teachers of Nova Scotia, asking for their co-operation, and in some instances "The Better English week drive" a short time ago was productive of great good. It is hoped that these drives will become general next year, and that Nova Scotia will lead the other provinces as well as the English speaking nations of the world in an endeavor to think clearly and to speak the King's English.

I wish I had time to cite just such other cases. Why not sell our little pigs, lambs, calves, chickens, to the Americans and throw in the boys and girls for good measure?

A. Boden, Secretary to the School Board, welcomed an attempt to improve existing conditions, and thought Miss Archibald's methods tended in the right direction, and if persistently applied must produce good results.

Dr. Conner endorsed and suggested that the newspapers give a week of king's English.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded the lecturer on the motion of Mr. H. B. Short, seconded by E. Turnbull, and thanks were given the Dakin Orchestra for selections of music.

Mrs. H. B. Short entertained Miss Archibald and the ladies of the Canadian Club did all possible to make her visit a pleasant one. A repeat visit is looked for in the near future.

The members of the Canadian Club wish to thank the Digby Orchestra for their services during the evening.

APPRECIATED THEIR TRIP TO DIGBY

The Mayor has received the following letter:

"DEAR SIR:—The Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association have not forgotten the splendid manner in which you received them on their trip to your town."

"The kindness, yourself and your officials and the hospitality of so many of your citizens made our stay in your place most enjoyable. We are sure that no member of our party will ever forget the friendship and hospitality shown them."

"It is the sincere wish of every member of our Association that prosperity and progress may be the good fortune of your town and your people. Will you please extend our good wishes to all those who have assisted you in any way?"

"Yours sincerely,
E. ROY SAILER."

AN INSECT DESTROYING TURNIP CROP

Last year hundreds of acres of turnips were almost completely destroyed by a pest that made the leaves turn first light green, then yellow, and then brown, and oftentimes caused the whole plant to die. Some, at first, thought the cause was drought and made no effort to effect a cure, but gradually it was learnt that the trouble was due to small green plant lice that could be seen in almost innumerable quantities on the under side of the turnip leaves. These were afterwards found to be Turnip Lice or Aphids.

Specimens of turnip leaves affected with these lice have already been sent into the Agricultural College which leads to the fear that the lice may again become widespread and cause serious loss. Hence a description of the pest and method of destruction is herewith given.

These plant lice suck their food from the interior of the plant leaf. Hence poison sprays like Paris green or Lead arsenate, which only poison the surface, do not destroy them. Each plant louse must be hit with the spray that will destroy it and this is no easy task in the case of the turnip crop. However, it can be done and may be regarded as practical, especially in small fields.

The most effective spray to use is "Black Leaf 40" (nicotine sulphate) used in the strength of one pint to 100 gallons of water, to which 1 lb. of finely shaved laundry soap or soft soap has been added. Spray the plants with this mixture just as soon as the first insects appear. Do not wait until the leaves have curled. As practically all the lice are on the under side of the leaves, that is where the spray must be applied.

This spray must be applied with a force pump similar to that which is used for spraying the Bordeaux mixture on potatoes. Be sure to secure nozzles with elbows, so that it may be easy to apply the spray under the leaves.

"Black Leaf 40" may be obtained from the United Fruit Co., Ltd., Kentville, N.S., who will ship it to any address, providing cash accom-

Admired Hair Is Shampooed This Way

Hair that gleams with life and color

Women admired and envied for their richly beautiful hair know this secret. Hair specialists agree that it beautifies hair. Olive oil for the shampoo! It has been used since history began. For its gentle cleansing action removes all dirt and oil from scalp and hair. Dandruff is dissolved and washed away. And the bright sheen of life and color is greatly increased. It leaves hair fluffy—never dry or brittle. It leaves hair silky and pliant as a baby's—with the inimitable gloss so much desired. Thousands of women now regularly treat their hair this beneficial way. They use PALMOLIVE SHAMPOO—olive oil in its most perfect form for the shampoo. Easy to use. And very economical. You can get full-sized bottles at your dealer's. Or, by mailing coupon, you may have a 15c trial bottle free. Get some at once. Use it. See the results that follow even one shampoo.

PORT WADE

Ernest Reid, of this place, had the misfortune of being thrown off the pier falling a distance of about 15 feet down on the rocks as the tide was out, his right arm was quite badly sprained and his side considerably bruised. He is hoping to be about again in a few days.

The schooner Westway, Capt. Brooks, loaded her deck the past week at this pier from stock of the Port Wade Lumber Co., and sailed Saturday for the American market.

The members of the United Baptist church held a picnic festival on Saturday evening (21st) resulting in the collection of $80.00 for church purposes. The evening was all that could be desired, and proved to be a very enjoyable occasion.

The outer end of the wharf is being filled with pulp wood, shipment is to take place this month.

Hayling is being started here, and general opinion is that the crop is heavier and of better quality than for some years.

M. W. Graves, of Bridgetown, the president and manager of the Antelope Vinegar factory, visited this place last week.

O. S. Jones, of Hantsport, was here the past week working on the Ore Loading Plant, the loading of lumber on the Westway.

Gilford Haynes and family, of St. John, including Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and Mr. Haynes, of London, Ont., and Mrs. (Capt) Hilton are occupying the Haynes cottage here.

Owen Orde, of Annapolis Royal, spent a few days here last week surveying lumber for the Westway, making his home at Chestnut Cottage.

Mel Langille, of Bridgetown, has rented the Nelson house of the Port Wade Lumber Co., and moved his family in.

The first night in their new abode their little child, three months of age passed away. The little one was interred in the Port Wade cemetery, Rev. W. C. Heller officiating.

The Matheson Iron Co., of New Glasgow, are taking away all the iron work of the Ore Loading Plant. Quite a number of men are employed, Charles Kehoe of New Glasgow, is the agent.

H. T. Warner of Digby, has purchased the wood shed of the Ore Loading Plant, and has a crew of men engaged taking down and rafting same to his mill at Digby.

panies the order. It is supplied in one-gallon tins and two-pint tins, which sell for $13.75 and $4.00, respectively. The former is sufficient to make 800 gallons and the latter 200 gallons of dilute spray. One hundred gallons will cover about an acre of turnips.

Another spray which may be used is Kerosene Emulsion, which may be made at home as per the following formula:

Hot water, (soft) 1 gal.
Kerosene, 2 gals.

Prepare by shaving up the soap into the water, which must be boiling hot. As soon as this is dissolved, remove the solution from the fire and add the kerosene. At once agitate the material violently until a smooth, creamy emulsion is formed without any free oil. This is the stock solution and must be diluted with 12 to 15 parts of water before being applied to foliage.

Directions for making this material must be adhered to closely, otherwise, burning may result. It is better to apply same on a sunny day.

The foregoing applies to aphids found on potatoes, although the application must be made more promptly than in the case of the turnips, as the leaves curl more readily. Instead of making up a separate spray, the Black Leaf 40 may be added to Bordeaux Mixture, should this be used.

Mrs. Edward Southern has been visiting relatives at Yarmouth.

We received a very pleasant call last week from H. Jones and P. W. Holdsworth, of Digby, and their wives. We regret the call was so short, but they not knowing that Westport now boasted of a road and bridge, made arrangements for supplying the inner men at Reepert, hence the cutting short of their call. Also had a very pleasant call from an old friend of years, Samuel McCormack, of Weymouth, Register of Deeds. We have had many calls from old and young friends the past week and it was a good rainy day in these notes please forgive.

D. B. Kenney is beautifying his residence by enclosing the two southern sides by a rock wall.

Frank Ringle and Chas. Bailey are the two high life trailblazers this spring.

Capt. Ralph Welch and Capt. Chas. Hicks are now on the war path, as to who is going to make the best showing this summer.

We have three Autos now on our streets and although the distance to travel is not great, by engine, many of them can use up the Gasoline just the same.

Edgar McDormand has been enjoying his for a few days at St. John with his friend Capt. John Long. No doubt but that the Capt. will favor his return visit later on.

The E. C. Bowers Co., Ltd., have purchased the Government Patrol Boat which was laid up at Clark's Harbor. When this boat is put in shape and engines repaired she will make a splendid house boat for some family on the St. John River or some inland waters.

We note the arrival and departure of Mrs. Ina Woodhead, of Vancouver, and child, to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gower.

Mrs. Andrew Walker and her daughter Mrs. Woodward were calling on Mrs. Emaline Clarke on Sunday.

Miss Margaret Shaffer from the West where she has been teaching for the past two years has come home to spend the summer with her parents, W. C. and Mrs. Shaffer.

Miss Julia Crook returned from Bridgetown on Sunday.

Mrs. Mazie Belle Bogart and son Edg. came from New York on Thursday and are the guests of Mrs. Frank Covert for the summer.

Canada Faces the Future With Confidence

CANADIANS have always been noted for courage, optimism and faith in their country.

Canada was not built up by pessimists, nor will Canada continue to develop if her people allow themselves to become croakers and grouchers. Canada is fundamentally an agricultural country. We have a soil and climate which can grow the world's finest agricultural products.

Canadian farmers who have earned the capital invested in their farms out of profits in farming are numbered in thousands. These successful farmers have paid off their mortgages, stocked their barns and stables, bought their machinery, made a good living and brought up their families. It meant hard work, but today they are independent.

The quantity and the quality of the products and the cost of production in competitive countries is beyond our control. Prices of agricultural products are regulated by world supply and demand.

Hence, decreasing production will not help the Canadian farmer.

Money in Mixed Farming
In recent years, at different points on the prairies, oats fed to steers have brought from 70c to $1.07 as against the Fort William price of 42c per bushel, while barley used for the same purpose has brought as high as 99c as against the Fort William price of 57c per bushel. Farmers marketing their coarse grains in this way lower marketing costs, have a sure market and make money on their grain, while at the same time they market their roughage, otherwise often wasted. The cattle embargo is now off. Steers are worth more money and certain to make good money for the Canadian farmer from now on.

Money in Pigs
The Dominion Experimental Farms have proved by actual test that there is a profit in feeding pigs. Last year at the Central Farm, Ottawa, after paying for feed, labor, interest and depreciation, the net profit per pig was still $4.63.

Profits from Sheep
As money-makers, sheep are hard to beat. In every Province from Prince Edward Island to British Columbia are found many flocks returning generous profits to their owners.

Poultry Pays
Poultry makes money for those who adopt modern methods, whether East or West. Little Prince Edward Island produces co-operatively in carlots, shipping annually upwards of one million dozen eggs. The British Columbia Co-operative Poultry Men's Exchange markets in the same way, thus saving ruinous glut in their local market.

Grow Seed
Canada's Northern grown seed possesses extra vitality. There is a large market for it to the south. Canada exports seed potatoes, but imports other seeds. She has the opportunity to grow seeds for herself and for export.

The Future
Ten years from now the pessimists of today will have been forgotten. Britain has removed the embargo against our cattle. She wants our beef and bacon, our cheese, butter, eggs and apples, our wheat and flour. As the population of the United States increases, she will compete less and less against us on the British market. Eventually, she will herself be an importer of many other foodstuffs besides wheat from this country.

Canada has the men, the climate, the land, the stock and the potential markets necessary for agricultural success. Let us farm with all the industry and science we can muster. Let's get to work and pay our debts. Canada is moving forward with confidence in its future. Let us keep going ahead.

Have Faith in Canada
Authorized for publication by the Dominion Department of Agriculture

Severe Kidney Trouble

Mrs. F. Rinehart, Campbellville, Ont., writes:

"I had trouble with my kidneys and very frequent urination. This was followed by pains which at times were very severe. The doctor said I had inflammation of the bladder and that an operation might be necessary. To this I refused, and began using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. From the first few doses I felt the benefit. The pains left, urination was corrected, and I have had no recurrence of these ailments."

RED AND RIPE CHERRY KING OF CARNIVAL

Bear River's Annual Celebration, in Honor of Luscious Fruit, Draws Throngs of Visitors.

Bear River's great annual event—the Cherry Carnival—took place Tuesday under ideal weather conditions. All day and all night auto parties were arriving, some from considerable distances. The Valley was well represented and there were several cars from the Capital City. At an early hour the people from Amnapolis and Digby, and the country near at hand, commenced to pour in from every direction by land and water until by the time the land power started at 6:30 o'clock, fully five thousand people were there and this number was being constantly augmented.

The Cherry Carnival is a community affair in every sense of the word. Whether that has always been the case or not, it has been Bear River's annual event for two generations and over, but for many years it has been managed yearly by some society or association and the profits accruing from it go to swell the funds of the body conducting it.

Last year the Oddfellows who were building a new hall had it; the year before the G. V. V. A. and so on. This year the Bear River Amateur Athletic Association which is in need of funds to finance the ball team, etc., managed the carnival, and at seven o'clock with several events yet to come off, it is said they had receipts of over $1,000.

SATISFACTION

A seemingly low price for an article is always attractive, but unfortunately frequently misleading. How often is heard the remark—"I would rather have paid a little more and got the quality I wanted."

As a matter of fact that "little more" was necessary to obtain the better quality. Good goods require a higher price to be good.

There are cheaper teas than "KING COLE"—but would you be satisfied with their quality?

"You'll like the flavor"

The Economic Value of a Chevrolet

IN the business, professional and family life of Canadians, the automobile has proven an important economic factor.

No other means of transportation is so rapid, so flexible, so economical.

In business the savings effected are readily counted in actual dollars and cents. In the professions, money, time and often human life are saved. In the family, the benefits, no less real, come in the form of health-giving pleasures and relaxation. Your friends are brought closer—distance is eliminated.

To enjoy these benefits and effect these savings, you must have a quality car, low in first cost and economical in upkeep.

Chevrolet is the world's lowest-priced, fully-equipped automobile. It is strongly built for Canadian conditions and is the most economical car in the world to operate.

EATERS OF WOOD BEFORE MY BABY CAME

Odd Dietetic Habit That is by No Means Rare.

On North Coast of Siberia the Natives Prefer It to Other More Natural Foods.

In several places on the north coast of Siberia the natives eat wood, not because they must, but because they like it, says the Lancet (London). Wood is generally eaten even when fish is plentiful, their favorite dish being prepared by scraping off thin layers immediately under the bark of larch logs, chopping them fine and boiling them up with snow.

It generally turns out that dietetic habits which at first sight seem curious have a rational basis. The virtues of cod-liver oil no longer rest on empirical experience and a vague idea that its efficiency was proportional to its nastiness; the reputation of fresh vegetables was gained in the days before the Dutch taught us to grow turnips, and hardy cabbages, and when something like scurvy was an annual experience of the early spring.

It is interesting to guess the reason for wood eating. The cellulose which forms so large a part of a herbivorous diet is now recognized as being a subsidiary source of energy through the fatty acids produced in the stomach and bowels by cellulose-splitting bacteria. But the modified forms of cellulose which form the mass of tree trunks are hardly attacked by the bacteria of the alimentary canal. It is possible that the Siberians have by practice and habit so altered their intestinal flora that they can deal with lignin with advantage, but this seems a tenuous reason for eating wood. Energy when fish and milk are available, and it appears hardly likely that the explanation of wood-eating lies along these lines.

But if the habit suggests at the moment to rationalize, it is curious to note that it falls in line with the tastes of some other animals. The fondness of rabbits for bark and the immediate subjunctive tissue is well known. It is, perhaps, worth noting, too, that these same invaluable experimental animals are peculiarly fond of hard, woody leaves—as, for example, holly, gorse or hawthorne, and sometimes seem actually to prefer them to cabbage or lettuce. Some other animals are apt to be possessed of a devil or some curious appetite, and will set to work on big forest trees and kill them by clearing off the bark and conducting the sap down to the hard wood. These and other examples of similar tastes suggest that there is something particularly good in the outer layers of trees, and it is natural to think that it probably resides in the young conducting tissues rather than in the outer bark. Of its precise nature it is idle to speculate.

Orchestras in the Steerage.
"Times have changed," said Antonio, as he tried his partner to the rhythm of music. "When I come over five years ago I, too, can wait till ship land. Now—music twice each day—this good ship!"

Anyone with a discerning eye would see that times have changed in the third class section, remarks the New York Sun. Instead of the old listless, halfhearted attitude of those who knock at our gates, there is gaiety and spontaneous fun in the steerage now. Improvements in accommodation and deck sports on the big liners account to some extent for the change. But the greatest of these changes is music. This innovation is a potent factor for friendship, common interest and happiness.

Youngsters from villages in Czechoslovakia, dark-eyed bimbos from Sicily; chattering, bright, quick little citizens of France—all of them listen to the music with a kinship of spirit. And when the orchestra turns from "pieces" and the decks are enlivened by dance music, their elders show their appreciation and enjoyment.

Fasting to Cure Fits.
Epilepsy may be cured by fasting, Dr. Hugh Conklin told the 26th annual convention of the American Osteopathic association. Epilepsy, according to Dr. Conklin, is caused by the improper functioning of certain glands in the bowels. By fasting for 22 days, taking only water, a cure may be effected, he said.

"Many people," said Dr. Conklin, "fast 30 days and are never afflicted by fits again. The longest fast which any patient ever took under my direction lasted 60 days. Out of 37 tests in which children were used as patients only two still are affected by the disease. The children all were under the age of eleven years, but we effect cures in older patients in from 50 to 60 per cent of the cases we undertake."

"Caution."
The psychology of New York state's highway warning signs is interesting. Instead of saying "danger," "sharp curve ahead," "bridge," etc., the signs simply read "Caution." This isn't a very exciting warning, either on paper or on the signpost, but it excites the curiosity. The driver doesn't know whether he is coming to a washout or a steep roller and he knows he doesn't know he is interested. Being interested he is in doubt. The road may develop nothing in particular; yet, on the other hand, he may get fooled if he tries to defy the warning. Consequently he treads lightly on the accelerator. He obeys the sign without meaning to.

As a result of a crop failure in Japan last year, that country imported $9,213,900 pounds of rice from California alone during the first five months of 1922.

I Was Greatly Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sydenham, Ont.—"I took your medicine before my baby was born and it was a great help to me as I was very poorly until I had started to take it. I just felt as though I was tired out all the time and would have vomited, faint spells. My nerves would bother me until I could get a little rest, night or day. I was told by a friend to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I only took a few bottles and it helped me wonderfully. I would recommend it to any woman. I am doing what I can to recommend this good medicine. I will tell that little book you sent me to any one of pleasure who may be in regard to the Vegetable Compound if it will help others take it."—MRS. HARVEY MILLIGAN, Sydenham, Ont.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many women are poorly at such times and get into a weakened, run-down condition, when it is essential to the mother, as well as the child, that her strength be kept up.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother at this time. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It may be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

How To SLEEP 3-IN-A-BED

YES, it CAN be done—but not like this.

The trouble is, most people go to bed with "something" on the mind—or ON THE STOMACH!
The answer is, no matter what the day has brought forth to upset your mind and digestive organs, take Beecham's Pills when you retire.

Though in no sense a "sleeping powder," this age-famous household medicine harmonizes the system that you can sleep in quiet and perfect rest, even in two feet of space.

Beecham's Pills are as efficient and harmless for children as for adults—sweetening the stomach, invigorating digestion and stirring liver and bowels to natural activity.

Thousands of people everywhere have learned of Tanlac through the statements of others and have taken the treatment with such splendid results that they in turn deem it only fair to relate their experience for the benefit of suffering humanity. Such is the case with L. Desormeaux, well known Electrical Contractor, living at 1066 Berri St., Montreal, who says:

"I couldn't do otherwise than publicly endorse Tanlac for I was lucky to find out about the medicine the same year myself. For nearly a year I suffered from indigestion, and also had rheumatism in my legs. About a month ago I was laid up in bed for two weeks with this rheumatism and a bad case of grippe. I lost about eight pounds and felt miserable."

"Three bottles of the Tanlac treatment, besides greatly improving my rheumatism, has made my eating and digestion better than they ever were. I have regained my lost weight, and am feeling extremely well. Tanlac is great!"

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. A Coffin will substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Certo, used along with the required amount of sugar, will make delicious jelly, with fruit juices you will get wonderful flavor and color undreamed of by the use of the old wasteful methods. You can use the juice of any fruit you like and use sparkling jelly, with the natural color and the full richness of flavor of the fruit. You can also make jams with all fruits and the flavor will be fruit flavor, and not that concentrated sugar taste so noticeable in many home made jams.

It is wonderfully satisfying to succeed the first time and every time with a new product. You never fail, with Certo, because you make your jellies and jams by the same principle as you always did, but with all the handicaps removed. You make it the natural way without gelatin, and you get natural flavor.

FIVE YEARS' AGONY ENDED

When He Took "Fruit-a-lives" For Rheumatism

The Medicine Made From Fruit "Fruit-a-lives" is the long sought remedy for Rheumatism and Lumbago. From all over Canada come letters testifying to this fact.

Mr. John E. Gulderson of Parryboro, N.S. writes: "I suffered badly with Rheumatism for five years—tried different medicines—was treated by doctors in Amherst—and here at home—but the Rheumatism came back."

In 1916 I saw an advertisement for "Fruit-a-lives" and took a box and got relief, so I took them for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt since. So, a box for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

OIL ELECTRIC PLANT OPERATES AT VERY LOW RATE

The delegation [which went to Parrsboro last week to inspect the oil electric plant in that town] went at the invitation of the Canadian Fairbanks Morse Company. It was not an official delegation although it was organized by Coun. Peck. The Mayor and Coun. Carthy were invited but other matters kept them home. The delegates divided their work. Fritz Dakin reporting from the technical standpoint and J. J. Wallis from the financial standpoint. Out of courtesy these reports were first submitted to the town council, but that body, from lack of courtesy, refused to hear them read. We are publishing them for the information of the general public.

To the Ratepayers of the Town of Digby
Ladies and Gentlemen:—

Having been invited by the Canadian Fairbanks Morse Co., to inspect their installation of an Oil Burning plant at Parrsboro I think it is only due them that my impression of this excellent job be given a little publicity. In the year 1922 the town of Parrsboro found themselves up against the real live and progressive problem of cheaper production of electricity. They had a so called 75 h. p. steam engine driving a 40 k. w. Generator or dynamo and were going behind at the rate of $3,000.00 per year. After considerable investigation they installed a 100 h. p. semi crude oil engine, driving directly a 60 k. w. generator. They are now taking care of the overhead and sinking fund of the old plant and of the new also and still have a little surplus. They, in order to do this had to leave the rate for current at 16 1/2 cents per kilowatt less 10 per cent. but in time will have very cheap current. The colossal mistake that Parrsboro made was in purchasing all their power in one unit as they have to operate at a loss on light loads and this fact confines their running hours. Most of the time they are now only carrying half a load and in that respect are like ourselves with our steam plant although our problem all round is much worse. Had they purchased a 7 1/2 and 50 they would have been able at all times to operate at a profit using the 75 for the regular loads, the 50 for the peak summer load and the 50 for the early morning and day loads. I might say that when this was brought to their notice on Monday night they quickly realized it. It is quite true that the first cost of the two would be more than the cost of one big unit but the operating, which is, he part that counts, would soon offset this first cost. They could not give me a kilowatt cost but their cost for fuel and lubricating oil is on an average $6.00 for 9 hours. Compare that with our $15.00 or $19.00. One of the greatest surprises to me was the exhaust. I expected, from what I had been told, that the racket would be terrible and when I did not hear it, asked if they had the exhaust in the stack. No, they said, it was out in the open air and any folks it didn't make as much noise as our old steam wagon. This summer hotel business makes it necessary to have equipment to carry a short term high peak load and to swing machinery the year round for this short period is the height of mechanical folly. Now before I say down to write this I dug out my rubber boots and slicker as the last time of writing on the town's electricity problem I received considerable mail but would like all round is much worse. Had they or parties who have said and will say that a rake off is coming to me from an oil engine deal for the town of Digby, lied and will lie.

FRITZ DAKIN.

As one of the party invited to go to Parrsboro to inspect the new oil electric plant. I took the opportunity of looking into the town's books to get figures and costs regarding the operation of the present plant as compared with steam, and through the courtesy of Harley T. Smith, the town clerk, I secured these figures for the past three years. I found that in 1921, Parrsboro which is only a few miles from the mines, and is in a position to get coal at a much smaller figure than Digby, paid for fuel, $6620.12; for supplies $368.74, and for labor $2710; a total of $10,658.86.

In 1922 coal had dropped a little, and their fuel cost was $7396.31 (coal at $7.25 a ton); supplies $746, and labor $2671.38—$9213.89 in all. The deficit in 1921 was $2566.91, and in 1922, $2671.38. After considerable of a fight in the town council, during which several councillors resigned, it was decided to install an oil plant, the 100 h. p. direct connected engine was ordered and installed at a total cost of $11,992.80. It was started on the 19th. of December, 1922. On December 15th, a tank of oil was received, containing 5270 gallons, the invoice price of which was $637.67; the freight was 3 1/4 cents per gallon, making the total cost $535.85. On February 26, another tank containing 6614 gallons invoiced at $800.29 was received, on which the freight was $222.23, the total being $1022.52. At the rate of consumption since December 19, this oil will last until September 15—nine months—which will make the cost for fuel about $6.35 per night, and they have an all night service the year round. The lubricating oil will cost about $500.00 for the year, a little heavier than with steam. That is, the total cost for fuel and lubricating oil for the year will be about $3000.25 as compared with the cost of coal above in 1922 of $7396.31. The cost of operating will be much less, as there is only one unit—the

WHEN AND WHERE TO FLY A FLAG

Some Rules Which Govern The Flying of Our National Emblem

So many comments have been made upon our editorial upon the improper use of our flag that we herewith print some regulations respecting the proper time and place to fly same.

(War Department Bulletin.) Many inquiries concerning the proper method of displaying, hanging, and saluting the flag are being received in the War Department with the evident object of securing some authoritative statement relating to the subject. In this connection it should be remarked that while it is within the province of the War Department to prescribe rules and regulations governing the matter in question for observance within the Army, yet it is beyond its province to prescribe any such rules or regulations for the guidance of civilians or to undertake to decide questions concerning the subject that are presented by civilians.

There are, however, certain fundamental rules of heraldry which, if understood generally, would indicate the proper method of displaying the flag. There are also certain rules of good taste which, if observed, would preclude the improper use of the flag. The matter becomes a very simple one and the answers to the various questions which arise, will be evident if it is kept in mind that the national flag represents the living country and is itself considered as a living thing.

The flag is the heraldic device or right edge. When the nation's flag is carried, as in a procession, with another flag or flags, the place of the national flag is on right, i. e., the flag's own right. When the national flag and another flag are displayed together, as against a wall from crossed staffs, the national flag should be on the right, the flag's own right; the observer's left, and its staff should be in front of the staff of the other flag. When a number of flags are grouped and displayed from staffs the national flag should be in the centre or at the highest point of the group.

International usage forbids the display of the flag of one nation above that of any other nation in time of peace. When the flags of two or more nations are to be displayed, they should be flown from separate staffs, or from separate halyards, of equal size and on the same level.

It should not be fastened over doorways or arches nor tied in a bow knot nor, fashioned into a rosette.

When used on a rostrum it should be displayed above and behind the speaker's desk. It should never be used to cover the speaker's desk nor to drape over the front of the platform. For this latter purpose as well as for decoration in general, bunting of the national colors should be used.

Under no circumstances should the flag be draped over chairs or benches, nor should any object or emblem of any kind be placed above or upon it, nor should it be hung where it can be easily contaminated or soiled. No lettering of any kind should ever be placed upon the flag. It should not be used as a portion of a woman's costume nor a man's athletic clothing. A very common misuse of the flag is the practice of embroidering the flag on cushions and handkerchiefs, and the printing of the flag on paper napkins. These practices, while not strictly a violation of any precept of Federal law are certainly lacking in respect and dignity and cannot be considered as evidence of good taste. The war department sees no objection to flying the flag at night on civilian property, provided it is not so flown engine—to keep up, as compared with the engine and boiler in the steam plant. As pointed out by Mr. Dakin, their mistake (and it was a mistake) is that they were putting in one large engine instead of two smaller ones. Their load is not so large as that of Digby; they have about 225 services, and they probably do not average more than for rights each until 11 or 12 o'clock. Even at its peak, it is not a load for their plant, and, after 11 o'clock, at night, a 37-1-2 could easily carry it. But even with their large plant, they are saving money, and after they have retired the flag, it is inclined under the old plant, they will be able to sell current at a comparatively low rate. The saving above will pay for the plant in four years, and that would also be the case in Digby.

WESTERN FARM HELP

As a result of the conference held in Winnipeg on the seventeenth inst. by representatives of the Government and the railways in the matter of farm help to take care of the harvesting of the forthcoming enormous Western crop, it has already been announced in the press that the opinion of the conference regarding requirements was set at 61,000 men. When it is remembered that the railroads had difficulty last year in securing even the 33,000 men they transported, it will be appreciated that to secure the number required this year calls for unusual efforts.

To this end the Canadian Pacific Railway, who this spring originated the Farm Help Bureau under the jurisdiction of its Department of Colonization and Development, to bring necessary and competent farm helpers from European countries to fill applications received from Western farmers, and which plan was later taken up by the Canadian National, has brought forward a plan which has received the endorsement of the White Star and Cunard lines, whereby as many farm helpers as possible are now being secured in Great Britain and will be transported to Canada at rates, approximately 50 per cent. reduction over the ordinary third class fare. As a matter of fact, the rate will be 12 pounds from British ports to Winnipeg to male farm laborers who agree to work at least one month in the harvest fields. Upon securing a certificate from the farmer to whom he worked that he has worked the required 30 days, the helper will be entitled to a return rate of $20 to seaport and a 25 per cent. reduction ocean fare. The usual reduced rate of one-half cent per mile from Winnipeg to points West in the Prairie Provinces will apply. The plan is effective only for sailings from British ports to Quebec and between the dates August 1st and 15th.

Although the scheme will not bring out all the men that will be required, by any means, advices from the Company's headquarters in London indicate large numbers may be secured.

WATERFORD

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. William Walker on the arrival of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dukeshire accompanied by Mrs. William Robicheau, spent Sunday with the former sister, Mrs. Orla Spence, of this town.

Mrs. John Robicheau spent one day last week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Timothy Robicheau.

Mrs. James Rideout and two children and sister, Laura Robicheau have left for Salem, Mass.

Mrs. James Parry, of Digby, spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Charles Robicheau.

Mrs. Annie Robicheau spent one day last week in Centerville.

Quite a number of mackerel are being taken in the Sea Wall wharf.

A steam shovel, which weighs, with coal, 60 tons has been built in England for irrigation work in the Punjab, India. It is ten times the size of those usually employed in such work. Lifting twenty tons a minute, it does the work of 600 men.

for advertising purposes.

When flown at half mast the flag is always first hoisted to the peak, the honor point, and then slowly lowered to the half-staff position in honor of those who gave their lives to their country. But before lowering the flag for the day it is raised again, to the head of the staff, for the Nation lives and the flag is the living symbol of the Nation.

When flags are used in connection with the unveiling of a statue or monument they should not be allowed to fall to the ground but should be carried aloft to wave out, forming a distinctive feature during the remainder of the ceremony.

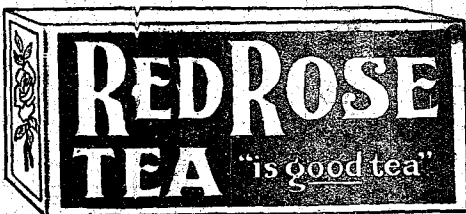

The flag should be flown on all national holidays but can be flown upon any patriotic occasion, a town celebration.

Weymouth was honored Monday by a visit from the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Dominion Leader of the Liberal-Conservative Party, and W. H. Hall, Provincial Leader, accompanied by H. W. Corcoran, M. P. of Yarmouth. The party arrived from Yarmouth via motor and guests at the Goodwin during their stay here.

After partaking supper at the hotel, the two leaders met many friends and supporters of the conservative party. At eight o'clock an informal reception to the two leaders was tendered at the residence of J. F. Bigdon, which was attended by many friends of the party from the town and the country districts.

After introducing both leaders Mr. Bigdon, acting as Chairman, called upon Mr. Meighen to address the gathering. Mr. Meighen responded willingly and in a splendid address told his hearers that he was pleased with the situation, the party has met with during his visit to Nova Scotia.

The garden party held Tuesday afternoon on the church grounds in aid of St. Joseph's R. C. Church, was a splendid success despite the disagreeable weather, which on account of threatening rain kept a number of outsiders from being present.

Supper was served from 5 to 7.30 and the cake was delicious. The various booths attracted a great many of the people and the sales from each individual place swelled the total amount of receipts for the afternoon to $430. Rev. Father Thibault the pastor wishes to thank all and everybody who contributed to the magnificent success of the social, those who brought materials and those who helped by their aid to attend to the wants of the people, as well as all who patronized the party.

EDITORS VISIT MARITIME PROVINCES

Superior players visited by Weekly Newspaper Association on the way to convention at Halifax: (1) The Atlantic City Hotel; (2) The recently completed Front Street, where the travellers were entertained at lunch; (3) The Evangeline memorial chapel at Grand Erie, N.S.; (4) Point of the editors and their wives at Halifax.

ONE of the important annual events of the year is the convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association when the editors of the weekly papers gather from all parts of the country, hold their annual meeting, and travel together to the convention city. Two years ago they went to Vancouver, a year ago to Ottawa, and this year they journeyed to the Maritime Provinces. They not only had a convention tour more completely successful than any previous one, but they also explained the eastern attitude in reference to national questions of the day.

The trip was arranged by E. Roy Smith, Manager of the Association, and from Toronto to Halifax the party was accompanied by W. B. Howard, Assistant General Passenger Agent, and J. Harry Smith, Press Representative of the Canadian Pacific Railway. On the return journey a stop was made at Quebec where the party was entertained at the Chateau Frontenac where they had an opportunity to inspect the new tower wing of the famous hotel. Next year it is expected the convention will be held at Quebec, and after it is over as many of the members as can will go to France to visit the British Empire Exhibition, and perhaps to France to see the new flying wing of the famous hotel.

BEAR RIVER WINS FROM YARMOUTH

Bear River won the ball game from the Yarmouth team Friday afternoon at Yarmouth by the score of 3-2, the game being in doubt to the last. The first run was made by Bear River in the first inning as the result of a single and a direct base hit. Bear River scored again in the fifth and eighth innings. The last run was allowed by the Yarmouth team on a questionable decision at the home plate.

This run was the deciding one of the game and the visitors were given the benefit of it. It was a pitcher's duel all the way through with Billy Richardson opposing Bob Forward. In the battle Richardson was shaded by Forward in every department excepting strike-outs.

Richardson had seventeen strike-outs while Forward had thirteen. Richardson walked eight and hit two while Forward proved steeper walking and hitting none. Four hits were made off each pitcher. Richardson worked a slow ball with a drop which was very effective while Bob used his speed and curves.

The Bear River team is strong in the battery. Aspin playing at shortstop. The Yarmouth team did not play their usual game behind Forward and as a result the three errors charged up against them were costly. The teams lined up as follows:

Bear River:—Hittle, ss; B. Reed, 3b; Austin, c; Alexander, 1b; K. Kenyon, 2b; S. Reed, rf; Seeler, cf; Richardson, p; Evans, lf; Rice, cf.
Yarmouth:—Comeau, 2b; Barton, 3b; Saunders, 1b; White, rf; Forward, p; Boyd, ss; Clements, rf; Cosman, cf; McDevitt, cf; Allen, lf.

BALL CLUB STAGES SUCCESSFUL CARNIVAL

The Ball Club wish to extend their sincere thanks to all the friends from Bear River and vicinity for the hearty support accorded their efforts in putting on the Cherry Carnival this year.

The ladies of the community were very generous in the contributions of food and other things in connection with the feeding arrangements at the Dining Hall. The business men contributed liberally to an advertising campaign that brought in a great number of strangers for the day, and the beneficial effect of this campaign should be felt in Bear River during the coming season.

The Brentwood Choir Company and the Women's Institute also assisted very materially in making the day a full and complete success. Thanks also due to the Churches and Lodges for the use of dishes and tables.

It was intended to present a full financial statement this week showing the expenditures and receipts for the day, but there are some accounts not yet fully adjusted to this statement will be given next week.

OFFERED TO IDOL

Maidens and Children Unhappy
Victims of Baal.Archaeologists Have Unearthed, in Ruins of Carthage, Temple Where Infamous Rites Were Practiced.

Unearthed among the ruins of Carthage, in northern Africa, according to official notification received by the French government from Count Byron Prokhor, famous archaeologist, is the great temple of Baal, where pagan priests practiced their indescribable human sacrifices centuries ago.

Count Prokhor has sent word to his government that a set of sacrificial rites believed to contain the bones of maidens and children sacrificed to Baal have been unearthed and identified.

Identification of the temple of Baal beyond any question of doubt is possible through the discoveries already made. Baal, or Baal-Hammon, is the monstrous deity mentioned hundreds of times in the Bible and in other ancient writings. Students of the Bible and children who attend Sunday school remember passages in the Old Testament telling how the Israelites were warned against this idolatrous worship and its infamous practices.

The chief characteristic of the Baal-Hammon worship was the sacrifice of human beings in cruel and varied forms. Each temple of Baal contained a huge and monstrous idol, usually of bronze, but sometimes of stone, and it was to this idol that the victims were sacrificed. Occasionally young children were offered up, but usually it was some beautiful maiden who was chosen to become the "bride of Baal."

Sometimes the victims were consumed by fire. Frequently they were subjected to longer and even more atrocious tortures. When the victim was to perish by fire, three different methods were used. In every case, however, the maiden was first placed "in the arms of Baal" or, rather, on a sort of platform on the knees of the seated idol between the arms.

By one method fire was made to spout from the mouth of the overhanging head. By another the platform itself was heated red-hot. By a third the platform was tipped backward by a mechanical contrivance and the victim was hurled into a seething fiery furnace in the interior of the idol.

More cruel even than the death by fire was the placing of the "bride" on luxurious cushions laid in the lap of Baal. When the priests departed, sealing the great stone doors after them, lions or other savage beasts were turned loose to roam the temple floor. The terror-stricken maiden could then remain on the cushions slowly to starve to death or might choose to die quickly by casting herself to the beasts below.

Nothing for Nothing.

It was said by all the neighbors of Mr. Tightleigh that he had never been known to give away anything in his life. He never sold or demanded anything in exchange.

On one occasion he was making a long railway journey. The seat directly in front of him was occupied by a man who had been coughing and sneezing at frequent intervals for more than an hour. At last Mr. Tightleigh leaned forward and spoke to him.

"That's a pretty bad cold you seem to have," he said.

"Worst I ever had in my life," wheezed the other.

"Well, I know of a simple and harmless remedy, absolutely sure, that will cure it inside of two days."

"Soundest nostrum?"

"I can make it up at home."

"I'll be very grateful if you will tell me what it is."

"It is," said Mr. Tightleigh, narrowing his eyelids, "if you'll tell me what'll drive away these warts I've got on my left hand."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Dog Cures St. Vitus Danes.

Curing St. Vitus Danes by having a poodle dog sleep with the patient has been announced by a Denver woman as the most effective remedy she has found yet for her two daughters.

The woman, Mrs. C. C. Morris of 2004 South Grant street, declared that for six years she has kept a French poodle dog that alternately sleeps with her young daughters, both of whom are afflicted with St. Vitus Danes. One of the daughters, the elder one, now is virtually cured of the disease, according to Mrs. Morris, and the other is showing rapid improvement.

"An old time physician told me about this remedy," Mrs. Morris said, "and as an experiment I tried it and found it more soothing to the nerves of a St. Vitus Danes patient than any medicine ever prescribed."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Bernard Shaw's Manners.

"Host by his own petard" was the fate the other day of Bernard Shaw. To a woman of London's best society who had invited him to lunch he answered with this telegram: "Never in my life! What have I done that you want me to change my cherished habits? The woman replied with a veritable 'tit for tat' in the following dispatch:

"I do not know what your cherished habits are, but I am sure that they are not worth more than your manners."

To this G. B. S. ventured no rejoinder.

A Letter from Mrs. Smith Tells How
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Trenton, Ont.—"I am writing to you in regard to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have four children, and I have found it a great help. I have taken it before each of my children was born, and afterwards, and find it a great help. Before my first baby was born I had shortness of breath and ringing in my ears. I felt as if I would never pull through. One day a friend of my husband told him what the Vegetable Compound had done for his wife. He advised him to take a bottle home for me. After the fourth bottle I was a different woman. I had four children now, and I always find the Vegetable Compound a great help as it seems to make confinement easier. I recommend it to my friends."—Mrs. Fred H. Smith, John St., Trenton, Ont.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for expectant mothers, and should be taken during the entire period. It has a general effect to strengthen and tone up the entire system, so that it may work up every respect effectively as nature intended. Thousands of women testify to this fact.

A RARE TREAT

A trip on the S.S. "Prince Albert" between Kingsport and Parrsboro, can be enjoyed by everyone. He be visitor or native, with a few hours' leisure, as it takes less than two hours sail across the landlocked Minas Basin. Wolfville is also a port of call, adding further interest to the trip.

At this season Nature's handwork is everywhere evident, but for real loveliness the view from the deck of the "Prince Albert" as she steams out of the busy little ports of Wolfville or Kingsport, is unsurpassed anywhere on the Continent.

CANADA.
THE EMPIRE'S
WOODYARD

Of the total area of forests in the British Empire, Canada holds over 50 per cent. India has 14 per cent. and Australia and New Zealand about 8 per cent.

Seventy-five per cent. of the forest area of the Empire belongs to the people and only 25 per cent. to corporate bodies and private individuals. In Canada alone more than 85 per cent. of the forest area is public owned.

The Canadian people gain from their forest possessions the enormous revenue of $500,000,000 a year, representing the production of all branches of our forest industries.

More than 100,000 men are engaged in Canada converting forest products into wealth in some form or other. Nearly 400,000 other people depend on this "forest army" for their food and shelter.

In the pulp and paper mills are 33,000 men, drawing $40,000,000 a year in wages. The lumber industry pays $3,000 men $60,000,000 wages annually. These are but two industries out of a score that are directly dependent on a forest supply.

The Canadian people cause 4,000 forest fires a year through recklessness. The burned material represents many times what is utilized by all the industries from coast to coast.

DIGBY EN FETE IN WELCOME TO BYNG OF VIMY

Governor-General Makes Splendid Appeal For Preservation Of Wartime Ideals.

The town was en fete for the visit of the Governor General and party Saturday. Long before the special train arrived the streets were decorated with flags and bunting and were full of people. It was not only the local people that showed great interest, but the hundreds of summer visitors in town turned out in force to welcome Baron Byng.

The weather was ideal, and Digby at this time of the year is one of the prettiest spots on earth. The civic officials met the party at the station where they were officially welcomed by Deputy Mayor F. L. Anderson, and where the guard of honour was reviewed. Dr. L. J. Lovett, the constituency's representative in parliament, and Mrs. Lovett, of Bear River, joined in the hearty welcome extended. After the official welcome the party were taken to the hand stand in cars, and the following address was delivered by Alfred Boden, town clerk, in the absence of the mayor, who had left a few days before for Vancouver:

ADDRESS TO BARON BYNG
To His Excellency,

General Lord Byng of Vimy, G. C. B., K. C. M. G., M. V. O., Governor-General of Canada, May it please Your Excellency:

The citizens of Digby through their Town Council, desire to extend to Your Excellency and Lady Byng a true and loyal welcome to this western shore of Nova Scotia, and trust that your stay, although short may favorably impress you with the natural beauty of the location and the warmheartedness of its people.

It has not been our privilege to have a personal acquaintance with Your Excellency until today, but we have noted with admiration your splendid efforts on behalf of the Empire and to uphold Right against Might in your work on the battle fronts of Gallipoli and Flanders and some of the Canadian forces—of whom you were the indomitable leader, have formed your guard of Honor today. These Veterans of the Great War retain a tender place in their hearts for the man whose steadfastness never wavered, whose kindness never altered, and whose courage never faltered, and whose recollections of Vimy and the Somme will ever be associated with Your Excellency.

Later when the terrible war machine of the Germans was being shot to pieces, and the all-conquering envelopment of October and November, 1918, was in progress, the Canadians under yourself and General Rawlinson formed no small or insignificant portion of the grand united army which eventually brought the war to a conclusion. The entry into the Rhine district over the bridge-heads of Cologne and Bonn was accompanied with the strains of the "Maple Leaf," and we fail to think that Your Excellency ever had cause to feel that your command of "Byng's Boys" of the Canadian Overseas Forces brought you any discredit.

We rejoice that His Gracious Majesty, King George, has recognized your meritorious services by the appointment as Governor-General in the Dominion of Canada, where you have so many friends; and the same tact and discrimination displayed in matters of a more peaceful nature, will, we trust, result in the further attachment of the people of Canada to one who has already achieved international distinction.

The inhabitants of Digby are indisputably loyal, having inherited lands and holdings originally granted to those who, in the troublous times of the eighteenth century, chose to leave their homes in the New England States and as Empire Loyalists sought peaceable habitations under the Union Jack; and their efforts were decidedly aided by Admiral Digby who afforded means of transport, and assisted them to found a new colony in 1765.

The town of Digby was incorporated in 1890, and although it has not developed into a large industrial centre, yet it has made progress, and possesses its own water and electric light systems. With the products of the seas around our coasts, our estimable forests and the cultivation of the soil, employment is found, and the wants of the community are met as well as providing a residue for exportation. The natural beauties of the district, which are perhaps unsurpassed in the province, draw a large number of visitors during the summer months, and the additional attraction of a golf links induces the stay of many adherents of the ancient game.

The residents of Digby and tran-

POST OFFICE SOLVES A LABOR PROBLEM

Among the many problems confronting the present Government on taking office, was the re-establishment of returned soldiers, particularly those who through disabilities sustained on Active Service, were unable to follow their previous occupations.

Especially was this a vital question as regards those Departments which require large numbers of employees to carry on the work both at Ottawa and throughout the Country.

Since the conclusion of the Great War returned soldiers have been given preference in the matter of employment in the Civil Service. One of the most extensive and wide-spread channels of employment has been the Post Office Department.

A great number of returned men were taken on in the several City Post Offices and other branches of the Postal Service to replace permanent employees who left the Service for various reasons. In addition, a large number have been afforded temporary employment from year to year during the holiday period—April to October—relieve members of the regular staffs on annual leave.

Heretofore, temporary men taken on for holiday relief purposes were, with very few exceptions, totally untrained in Post Office work. Moreover, their services were dispensed with at the end of October—a very unfavourable time of the year owing to the difficulty of securing other work to tide them over the winter months. From a labour standpoint this was most unsatisfactory.

Representations were annually received from numerous organizations of all classes asking the Government to retain these temporary men for the winter months.

This was done by recalling those whose services had been dispensed with and retaining those still on duty with the result that the offices were overmanned for a part of the year; unnecessary expenditure in the way of salaries was incurred; the working output of the staff individually was lessened; and the efficiency of the staff thereby impaired.

With a view of obviating the necessity of releasing the annual leave help at the end of the holiday period and to increase the efficiency of the Service, the Postmaster General directed the officers of the Department to go into the whole matter thoroughly. A proposition has now been approved by Postmaster General Murphy whereby the annual leave will be spread over a period of ten months—February to November—instead of six months as formerly and by the establishment of what is known as a Postal Pool.

The Postal Pool will constitute a permanent relief staff to take care of annual leave, sick leave, Christmas rush work and other emergencies. This will mean that a full staff of trained employees will be available at all times. Also the taking on of green hands at the beginning of each holiday season will be eliminated and the temporary help required at Christmas will be materially reduced.

The Postal Pool will virtually provide a training ground for Post Office employees from which they will be drafted to the regular staff as vacancies occur. All new employees entering the Service will be first attached to the Postal Pool and will be assigned work suitable to their capabilities. While undergoing the training they will enjoy all the privileges of Civil Servants.

Employees in the Postal Pool giving a satisfactory service will be advanced to the regular staff as vacancies occur. In this way continuous employment will be given instead of annual temporary employment as in previous years.

The officers of the Department are unanimously of the opinion that the morale of the staffs of the City Post Offices will be improved, and that a more efficient as well as a more economical service will obtain.

The Vice-Regal party were then taken on a drive around the town and vicinity. So impressed were the party with the beauties of the town that they changed their schedule so that instead of leaving here at noon, they decided to stay the day, and in the afternoon were guests of the Digby Golf Club, where they played golf, met the citizens, and had a thoroughly enjoyable time.

At noon Mrs. Lovett, of Bear River, wife of Dr. L. J. Lovett, M. P., entertained Lady Byng at luncheon at the Pines Hotel.

The Vice-Regal party took part in four games on the golf links on Saturday, two in the morning and two in the afternoon. In the morning the players were Baron Byng and W. E. Tupper, of Digby, against Major Hodgson, aide-de-camp, and F. L. Anderson, of Digby; Major Erskine and Alfred Boden, of Digby, against Dr. Read, of Digby, and Major Willis O'Connor. In the afternoon Baron Byng and Major Erskine played W. Withersbee, Boston, and W. E. Tupper, and Major Hodgson and Major O'Connor played F. L. Waterson and W. H. MacKenzie. There were a large number of spectators at the play-off and finish of each game.

LADY BYNG ENTERTAINED AT LITTLE RIVER

Lady Byng accompanied by her lady-in-waiting, Miss Vaughan, and Major Schellme, crossed in a fishing boat from the Point lander to Little River about noon Tuesday. Her Ladyship was on an outing and desired to visit the mountain and from here view the river. She walked to the top of the hill overlooking the village and bay. After having lunch on the hill they returned to the village where they were met by a number of the citizens. Her Ladyship rested a few minutes at the Hillcrest House then proceeding through the village was met by Rev. T. F. McWilliam, pastor of the Baptist church, who was overseas with the 1914 battalion. Her Ladyship seemed deeply interested in the returned men and after a conversation with us accepted an invitation to go on a short motor trip. Immediately the cars of B. P. Collins and Rev. T. F. McWilliam were placed at her disposal and the party motored through the village as far as the "Cove" where her Ladyship called on E. A. Gidney, whose son was overseas. After presenting her Ladyship with a bouquet, Mr. Gidney placed a fishing rod in her hand and she proved herself an expert when she caught a trout in his brook with her first cast. Returning to the village her Ladyship called on Kelsey Trask, whose son, Robert, was overseas. She inspected Mr. Trask's son's house and accepted a choice fanny huddle from him. From here she visited the factories of W. S. Trask and the Anglin & Trask. Here her Ladyship met Mr. and Mrs. Fielding, who are here overseeing the construction work of the new factory. She seemed deeply interested in the fishing industries of our village and freely conversed with our fishermen in their business. At the wharf she was presented with a beautiful bouquet of roses by Mrs. W. M. Denton.

WE MADE A MISTAKE

The Courier made an error last issue, in fact two of them, and both in connection with the Odeffolles. We announced the memorial service to take place on Sunday at 3 o'clock (instead of 2) and we said the Rebekahs would meet on Monday when it should have been this Sunday. Another error was that we drew our attention to it. On Sunday we heard a sermon in the Baptist church. It was a good sermon but closing it, the preacher told the story of the Rebekahs. He referred to him as sitting in front of his residence looking over the Atlantic. As the story of the Rebekahs cost that would be impossible; on Monday a member of our household bought six pairs at a local grocery and on taking them home found only five had been put in the bag; the same day two pieces of mail addressed to some one else got into our box at the office and the next day a paper addressed to us but put in the wrong box was handed to this office; this week we got a remittance for a subscription which was for the wrong paper. The Courier made two mistakes last week and about thirty people told us about it.

GARDEN PARTIES

There were four garden parties in the vicinity of Digby Wednesday afternoon. They were all favored with fine weather and were well patronized. That at Weymouth North was held at the house of St. Peter's church, took in $254.17; another at Plympton in aid of Holy Cross church—the first event under the management of the society—instilled a large number of priests from the nearby parishes, including Fathers Melanson, Walsh, Tibbault and Blinn. At Clement's there was another big party in aid of the Church of England, which realized $337 and the Baptist party at Hillgrove $317.

V. O. N.

The afternoon tea at the Golf Club House which was to have been held on Saturday, is postponed to Monday afternoon next. This change was thought to be advisable owing to so many attending the Golf Tournament in Yarmouth. It is now the tea will be held at the City Parish Hall. Mrs. J. H. Robertson is the convener.

On Sunday evening immediately after the church service, the V. O. N. will exhibit a film and pictures of the V. O. N. work in the River District. These pictures are very interesting and instructive and when shown in other places have drawn large and enthusiastic audiences. We would therefore expect a large attendance here in Digby. A silver collection will be taken to defray expenses. A meeting of the V. O. N. will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the town hall. Everyone is invited to attend.

Last Friday's west-bound express from Halifax was an exceptionally heavy train. It arrived at Digby with nine passenger cars, all crowded. The majority of the passengers being young men bound west for the harvest season. They had here and took the steamer Empress for Yarmouth. Several cars were dropped here after which the train proceeded to Yarmouth.

The W. M. S. of Grace Methodist church held their regular meeting in the form of a picnic at David Ellis' on Tuesday afternoon. The party were conveyed to the grounds in cars from Woodman's garage. A very interesting meeting was held, the Rev. W. H. Harvey, of Digby, was held in the house; after which a delightful lunch was served on the piazza. Haylet Syda very kindly went for the ladies to the grounds and conveyed them to their homes by auto.

The Barton concert scheduled for Wednesday, promised a fund of amusement, had the Rev. W. H. Harvey, of Digby, as the featured attraction. The program was a fine one, in every respect, and an evening of good fun and musical talent will be enjoyed by all.

The congregations worshipping in Grace Methodist Church on Sunday were very highly favored by the weather. A special service Miss Heckman of New York sang a solo entitled "The Lord is my Shepherd" most effectively. At the evening service the audience was delighted to have the privilege of hearing the voice of Miss Evelyn Ellis again in the solo entitled, "The Streets of the Hills". Her accompanists were Miss Hall of New York and Miss Lillis Adams of Bay View.

After twenty-six years in the coal and insurance business, Mr. F. Van Buren has decided to leave Digby to go into business in Toronto and yesterday sold his business to A. R. Turnbull. He is sorry to see Mr. Van Buren go, but we wish the best of success in his new home. At the same time we wish to say that every success in his new enterprise. One of the last business deals put through by Mr. Van Buren was to charter the schooner Nellie to load coal at Farnboro for Mr. Turnbull.

The residence of Hugh Vincent, Acadia Valley, was totally destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Vincent had spent Saturday evening in town visiting friends and on their return at midnight found their home on fire. The residences in that vicinity are very scattered and all the help available was from a young man and a boy "stuck" close to the rest, including the sum of money, was lost. Mr. Vincent had no insurance.

BOY'S SCOUTS

The Digby Scout Troops spent a most cheerful week under canvas from July 31st to August 7th. The weather conditions were almost perfect, although cold and threatening at the first, the sky soon cleared and bright sunshine prevailed every day. The only rain we had was for 10 minutes on Sunday morning. The heavy and cold tent pitched was borne by Mr. Jamieson who went down with a party of boys on Monday and greeted 7 tents and a large forest, which was used as a dinner tent. Fred Heigh gave us the use of his shack for a cookhouse. No trouble whatever was experienced in keeping the boys occupied. They made out of themselves many rafts, (dreadfully and wonderfully made) and spent most of their time in or on, or under the water. Several boys learned to swim during the week. They greatly enjoyed water-polo, and on the beach the punch-bath was hardly ever still. Other amusements were fishing, rambling through the woods, peanut races on land and in the water, volleyball, not to mention tent raising, and especially stove tent. On the whole we had a very fine bunch of boys in camp and it was a real pleasure to note the unselfish spirit of many, and the brotherhood of all. It is doubtful whether any real quarrelling took place at all, and the behaviour and discipline of many of the boys was exemplary.

We took their share of orderly duties with a good grace and smiled or whistled under all circumstances. A number of friends visited the camp and many brought or sent little treats for the boys. Among the visitors were: H. T. Warne, family and friends; Mr. Walker and family; Mr. Whitman and party; Willie Westhaver who brought Mr. Hannant to help over the week end; Mrs. Tupper arrived at 7.45 a. m. and spent the day with us; Mr. Harris and family; Dr. Livingston and party.

Owing to the generosity of the following friends kindly lent either trucks or the boys were motored to and from the camps free of cost. Messrs: Anderson, Jones, Keen, G. Morehouse, Shortlife, A. R. Turnbull, Walker, and Warne.

We thank all these heartily, also those who kindly loaned tents and the tradesman who donated gifts of mail.

The weekly scout meetings will be closed till early in September. Band practice will be held on Friday nights at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Dan Otto, of Stratford, Ont., sent 38 eggs and hatched 24 chickens from them. One egg was apparently of the double yolk variety and both yolks were hatched.

A new direct passage service between Canada and northern Ireland has been inaugurated by the Canadian Pacific Steamship line. Three steamers have been assigned to the route.

James Edwards, of Port Robinson, declares he has a chicken out of this year's hatch which out-breeds most chicken flocks. This one has four legs, four wings, two heads, three necks but only one head. It has been preserved in alcohol.

One hundred and fifty families are to be brought into British Columbia and settled under private enterprise in the valleys east and south-east of Port George. A. Lewthwaite announced, following his return from England recently.

A Swedish scientist claims to have perfected a process for the manufacture of "artificial wood" from 60 per cent sawdust and the balance chalk and chemicals. The product is as hard as oak, and can be planed, sawed, bored, nailed, painted, stained or polished. It will not deteriorate in water.

A start on the actual work of electrifying sections of the Canadian Pacific Railway's main line through the Rockies may be made next year. D. C. Coleman, vice-president of the company, says that traffic demands and financial conditions would determine when a start would be made.

The decision of the Government of the province of Quebec to grant a bonus of $4 per acre for land cleared will result in an approximate outlay of $250,000. Clearance in the past few years has amounted to approximately 40,000 annually, but for this year is expected to be 60,000 or more.

Speaking to the Canadian Club in London, Eng., recently, W. H. West, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, contrasted the "irritating" sort of talk about the "Canada's population policy" with Australia's "progressiveness." "We Canadians would be wise to keep our gates open for brains as well as brawn," he said.

One hundred and fifty delegates of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association will meet at the British Isles next summer, and hold their annual convention in London, according to the decision reached at a meeting of the convention here. The party will leave about the first of June, and will attend the British Empire Exhibition. The tour will last about six weeks.

Up to the end of 1922 dividends paid by the gold and silver mines of northern Ontario amounted to over $123,135,000. Cobalt mine began paying dividends in 1906. Dividends paid out of Cobalt mines amount to $93,863,820, which represents practically 50 per cent of the gross value of production. Porcupine mines have paid $25,472,983.

George E. Buchanan, of Detroit, head of the "On to Alaska with Buchanan" movement, will have 52 boys and 24 adults or members of the boys' families who are personally conducting his party from Vancouver July 18 via Canadian Pacific "Pac-Man" steamer. Buchanan thinks, with President Harding, that a trip to Alaska is a liberal education to any boy who takes it. He puts up one-third of the expense of the trip, and the boys' parents put up the remaining third.

CHERRY CAR-NIVAL REPORT

In presenting a report on the financial results of the Cherry Car-nival the committee wish to refer to several matters which may be of some assistance and guidance to those who may be connected with the management of this event at some time in the future.

Several new departures were made from previous celebrations and several of these proved to be an advantage and some did not.

The committee thought that the first requisite for success in a Carnival was a policy campaign to advertise Bear River thoroughly and to attract the attention of visitors to the Province to our delightfully little community.

There were not as many tourists as usual in the country this year but there were a large number of "Old Hands" who are spending a short time in Nova Scotia and an endeavor was made to tell as many of these as possible about the attractions of Bear River. And we believe our efforts along this line were successful, and the advertising done should prove a permanent benefit to us.

With the day properly advertised and an attendance assured the committee considered their third task was to provide sufficient entertainment to fill the day and to suit the various tastes that had to be catered to. The R. A. has always been an attractive feature but this year in spite of larger prizes offered than ever before, the community as a whole took little interest in it, and it proved a great disappointment to everyone. The quality of the floats which did enter was excellent, but the number of entries was so small that the Parade as a whole was a failure.

A number of side shows similar to those to be found at all the Exhibitions and Fairs throughout the Province were ready to perform but were prevented from doing so. This was one possible source of income which was entirely cut out.

During recent years there has been an absence of Bear River, passed away Sunday morning and was buried Monday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Carl Wick.

It was decided to have a Cherry Car-nival and then provide everything else except the Cherris. Small boxes were put up on sale in all the hotels, and while some of these sold the great demand seemed to be for the larger boxes which could be carried away easily. For this reason there was a loss on the cherris handled.

In anticipation of having a thirsty crowd to cater to the booths were supplied with water, ice cold lemonade far superior to the ordinary bottled drinks, but this too seemed to be in small demand and a number of barrels were practically wasted after having been prepared for the occasion.

The catering in the Dining Hall was excellent, thanks to the generous donations of eatables by the ladies of the entire community and also to the efforts of the ladies who gave so unselfishly of their time to make this feature of the Carnival a success. A slight shortage of food was noticeable in the evening but this was due to the fact that when we consider the large number of people fed and also consider the uncertainty of the size of a crowd on a day such as this it is generally agreed that the holding of the Water Sports in the evening was distinct success. In other years the crowd has begun to disperse by the middle of the afternoon, but on this occasion there seemed to be as many people lining the waterfront at eight o'clock in the evening as had been present at any time during the day.

The statement of expenses and revenue which follows is complete to date except that there are a few small supplies on hand which can be disposed of and which will realize a few dollars besides the amount shown.

THE LISTENING POST

Writing in the Dalhousie Review,
Basil King states that the reason
Why Maritime Province cities are Spoken of as "sleepy" and "dead"
Is because the people lack Imagination, and fail to perceive Opportunities that others were Wide awake and alert would Rapidly grasp.
Does this criticism apply equally
To Digby?
Everything worth while that has Ever been accomplished in the World was first merely an image
In the mind of someone of Creative imagination.
Unless we can create in our Minds a picture of the Bight Crowded with shipping, with Steamers at the docks loading
Pulp, apples and lumber, an Esplanade along the open Waterfront; hundreds of Tourists playing golf on a Permanent course owned by the Town or Golf Club; a cheaper
And continuous electric light
Service; several more large
Summer hotels; a few industries;
A new Modern schoolhouse;
A cottage hospital or health
Center and other things that Smack of progress and Enlightenment, we shall never
Attain any of them.
If we have creative
Imagination coupled with energy
And push and faith, all these Things are possible.
Without it Digby will still Have a population of Approximately 1300 in fifty Years time, and we will be Making envious and grumpy
Remarks about other nearby
Towns that have grown while
We stagnated.
If you have the germ of Imagination, propagate it.
Even germs have their uses.
Wishing you many of them.

AN EARLY WINTER? PRESS MUST BE IMPARTIAL IN HANDLING NEWS

Wild ducks and cranes up north are beginning to fly south almost two months ahead of the usual time. This is announced by the Canadian National Railways, relaying word received from their agents.

Old settlers in Ontario say that never within memory have they known the ducks and cranes to start their southward migratory flights so early.

The settlers believe that an early winter is coming.

Hudson Bay fur trappers report that the wild rice, favorite food for wild ducks and geese, matured very early this year. The trappers say this is another indication that winter is not far away.

The weather this year has been so queer all over the world, due to the sun's giving off about 5 per cent less heat than usual, that winter might arrive any month ahead of its customary schedule without amazing us.

Spring was late in most parts of the earth. Summer came in hot waves, working double to make up for lost time.

The maple leaves in the tourist country of Ontario started turning red and yellow in mid-August, nearly a month early. That looks like an early fall, forerunner of an early winter.

Ojibway Indians on the other hand, insist that all the seasons are three weeks late this year and that winter will arrive late instead of ahead of schedule. They base their prediction on the fact that in August they have had to fish 200 feet deep to catch genuine salmon trout, whereas normally they would find these red trout "floating" 100 feet below the surface of the lakes.

The Indians figure that the salmon trout will be three weeks late in rising to spawn on the shoals this fall. Which, say the Ojibways, is a sure sign of a late fall and a late winter.

The controversy narrows down to this: Which is the better weather, prophet, a wild duck or a deep-water fish? Both are guided by instinct of a mysterious sort that enables them to sense the weather months ahead.

Even old Mother Nature seems to be contradictory this year, as civilization have not the sixth sense possessed by wild ducks, salmon trout and to a lesser extent Indians.

DALHOUSIE SCHOLARSHIP

In connection with the Course in Public Health Nursing offered to graduate nurses by Dalhousie University, there are eight scholarships available to accepted conditions. Five of these, each of $400 are offered by the Victorian Order of Nurses, to candidates from the Maritime Provinces who will agree to take up the work of the Order for at least a year. Nurses desiring to receive one of these scholarships should communicate with Miss Campbell, Superintendent of Victorian Order of Nurses, Halifax.

The three remaining scholarships, each of $350 are offered by the Nova Scotia Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society, and carry an obligation to engage in public health nursing in Nova Scotia for at least a year. Particulars relative to the conditions of award may be obtained from the Red Cross Commissioner, Dr. S. L. Walker, Halifax. Registration for the course must be made not later than September 18th, with the Director, Course in Public Health Nursing, Forrest Building, Dalhousie University, from whom forms for application may be received.

The Saving Habit

Anything which will encourage the habit of saving, this extravagant age is a blessing. The temptations on every hand are so alluring that it is very difficult for a young man of ordinary self-control to resist them and to save his money. Thousands of young men who are receiving good salaries, some of them very large, never think of laying up a dollar for a rainy day. They never see anything in their salaries but "a good time" and they never develop the habit of saving. You ask them how they are doing and they will say, "Oh, just getting along." Just making a living. "Just holding my own." Just getting on. The difference between what you earn and what you spend is power. It often measures the distance between success and failure. In many minds the economy faculties are not developed, or are so weak that they are not a match for the passion of spending for pleasure.

acts of public policy. This relationship cannot exist where favors are asked and granted. Honesty is the only policy for a newspaper.—Fourth Estate.

No Place For Murderers

Accused of being slow in some ways, the British people surprise their detractors quite often by the manner in which they move on occasion. One thing in their favor is that they have acquired the secret of enforcing the law, in which respect they possess an enviable reputation. According to an annual report just issued, 26 murders were committed in the London area last year. Thirteen persons were convicted, of whom three were found insane, and the other ten hanged. In the other thirteen cases the murderers all anticipated the police by committing suicide. Not one escaped. In the same period 327 motor cars and cycles were stolen. Of these 314 were recovered by the police and the thieves arrested and convicted. Prompt and certain justice is the lot of the British wrongdoers, and naturally they think twice about committing crime.

Where World's Record Speckled Trout was Taken

FOR a distance of 880 miles, between Sudbury, the junction of the two main lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the Manitoba boundary, there are only two points with a population of over 200. This means that for 880 miles there are only twelve points at which civilization has to any extent encroached upon what is one of the last few remaining accessible wilderness regions of the North American continent. From the French River, north of the Georgian Bay and Lakes Huron and Superior to west of Kenora, a tract of land 880 miles long and of unknown depth is practically unexplored, and yet this part of Northern Ontario is one of the most richly endowed sections of Canada in natural beauty. Sylvan lakes, streams and larger waterways form a network through the country and almost incredible stories are told of the size and quantity of fish, particularly red and speckled trout to be found there. It is a well known haunt of big game.

That this country is sparsely populated is alone responsible for the fact that it is not known to more tourists and sportsmen. Each year hundreds more are absorbed by the country, but the lack of accommodation has kept many more hundreds away. Three of the most fascinating districts of this glorious tract will therefore be rendered more attractive than ever by the erection this summer of comfortable bungalow camps at French River, Nipigon River and Kenora (Lake of the Woods). These camps will be similar to those which have proved so successful along the line of the Canadian Pacific in the Canadian Rockies. A well built central club house, where meals will be served and facilities provided for social diversions, will be surrounded by many little bungalows, designed for one, two or four persons, equipped simply but comfortably with a camp bed and a few other accessories. The simple construction and low cost of maintenance will enable the management to charge much lower rates than are possible in the standard hotels.

The French River bungalow camp is located on an elevation which commands a magnificent view of the main channel of the French, within 200 yards of the railway station. The scenery is characteristic of the Georgian Bay region; rocky islands, deep waterways, and dense pine forests in which all kinds of game abound.

The Nipigon is called the home of red and speckled trout, and with some truth for it is undoubtedly the most prolific breeding place for these sporty fish in the world. The world's record speckled trout came from there in 1915 when Dr. J. W. Cook, of Fort William, Ont., took one out weighing 14½ pounds and measuring 31½ inches from head to tail and 11½ inches across. What need to say more, unless it be that the scenery is equal to any seen at the French River or Lake of the Woods.

Next Monday's Meeting

The ratepayers will be called upon to decide a very important question on Monday evening—a question on which the industrial future of the town depends. Whether the town will take the plunge and authorize the purchase of a modern electric plant, or whether it will still stick to the old plant which is running it head over heels in debt, is the question to be decided. We believe the purchase of a modern plant is the only solution. Such a step would be followed eventually by a considerable reduction in our rates, and this reduction would have the effect of inviting industries which are now kept at a distance by the excessive price of electric current. Let everyone who can go to the meeting and support by their voice and vote the step which would be most advantageous to the town.

The House Fly

It is now being borne home to every householder that the campaign against the house fly has produced very results, and that this former pest of the home is now practically no more. Such has been the effect of the crusade against the fly that to-day the presence of one of them in the house leads to an onslaught which is not content until death has overtaken the disturber of the peace. How different from the days when a few flies were accepted as the ordinary course of events. The hint should not be lost on the vendors of fruit and other wares which attract flies. Proper precautions and unceasing care will keep down these pests and it is the duty of every vendor to see that what he offers the public is clean and untainted.

FAREWELL TO POPULAR RESIDENTS

Deaths and funerals in the past few days have been a sad event, to bid God speed to Mr. and Mrs. R. Jamieson, who on Wednesday left the town to reside in Lawrenceville. A time of sorrow and social intercourse was much enjoyed, after which the pastor, Rev. L. N. Nunn, on behalf of the choir presented Mrs. Jamieson with a small gift as a token of their esteem and affection requesting Mrs. Jamieson not to measure the respect alone in which she was held by the choir and friends but the little gift with which she was being presented. After lunch had been served J. L. Peters on behalf of the friends in the town and church, expressed the general regret of all at the departure of such worthy neighbors and loyal citizens, and devoted church workers as Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson. The company then arose and sang "Bless Be The Tie That Binds," after which the pastor closed with prayer. A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Jack to Miss Ross for providing a delightful lunch.

BE A BOOSTER

Do you know there's lots of people setting round in every town, looking for a broody chicken. Knockin' every good thing down. Don't you be that kind of a chicken. Cause they ain't no use on earth. You just be a booster, rooster. Crow and boost for all your worth. It's things just don't seem to suit you. And the world seems kinder wrong. What's the matter with a booster? I want to help the town along. Cause if things should stop a-goin' 'We'd be in a sorry plight. You just keep that horn a-blowin'! Boost 'em up with all your might. If you know some feller's failings, just forget 'em 'cause you know. That same feller's got some good points. Them's the ones you want to show. 'Cause your leaves out on the water. They'll come back, 's a saying. Maybe too, they'll come back buttered. When some fellow boosts for you.

HELP WANTED

The S. P. C. is in urgent need of funds. It has many friends in town who are willing to help, but they are few, and unfortunately it is almost impossible to get a collector at this season of the year, and it has been decided to ask, through the Courier, for contributions, which may be left at the Courier office, or with C. A. Corbett, Mrs. Merle, Mrs. J. B. Corbett, Mrs. Chesire, or at the Royal Bank.

An American lady, Mary E. Mathews, formerly without notice, has been reported for the S. P. C. last week, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged.

BOY'S SCOUTS

The members of the Scout Committee are asked to attend the social evening to be held tonight in the Baptist vestry to meet the boys and their parents. Band, refreshments, games, refreshments.

Boy Scout parade Sunday night in the Baptist church at 7.30.

In the Baptist church on Sunday the services will be: Morning at 11; Sunday School at 12; Hill Grove at 3 p. m. Ordinance of the Lord's Supper at close of service. The church will be open for the Boy Scout Troop will parade at the evening service and the pastor will give illustrated address on "The British Flag." All heartily welcome.

The Bear River Advent Christian church will hold a revival campaign from Sunday, Sept. 9, to Sept. 23. Meetings will be held at 8 o'clock, and at 10 o'clock, except on Monday night, Sept. 10, and at 3 p. m., also on Sunday. This revival campaign will be conducted by Philip J. Cleveland, residing pastor, and his brother, L. Roy W. Cleveland, of Beverly, Mass. The increasing congregations and the interest in the church, the large attendance and a successful revival campaign in this part of the Master's vineyard.

PLAYED WITH TORPEDO, LOST HIS FINGERS

A young boy, "Alphy" VanTassel, who has been employed by A. J. West-haver recently in running errands, met with a serious accident on Friday evening. A chum, son of one of the railway employees, had secured a railroad torpedo and had taken it to the beach. During the day in the evening he was holding this torpedo in his hand when another boy, somewhat older, came along. This boy remarked, "If a match to it, it won't hurt you," and VanTassel did so, with the result that the thumb and the end of the middle finger were blown off and the hand mangled.

METHODIST APPOINTMENTS

During the vacation period granted to Rev. W. H. Watts, by the official Board of Grace Methodist Church the following appointments are made: September 9th and 16th, Rev. J. W. Freestrom M. A. B. D. of Hantsport, Mr. Freestrom is a former pastor of Grace Church and an eloquent preacher.

September 23rd—Rev. W. H. Heartz, D. D. also of Hantsport, will be at Grace Church, and now the pastor of Maritime Methodist, who has recently completed six years of active service in the ministry.

September 30th—Rev. John Astbury of Windsor, N. S. The address delivered by Rev. Astbury during a recent visit will not soon be forgotten and large audiences are sure to greet him when he re-visits Digby.

Wedding Bells

BERRY-ISLES

Miss Francis R. Isles of 36 Montague Road, Greenfield, whose home is in Bear River, and Elburne Lerne Berry, of Water Street, Wakefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berry, of Deep Brook, were married at Greenfield, Mass., a few days ago at the home of the bride's father, the Rev. John B. Leaman, Baptist pastor in that city. A reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Isles, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. The couple will live at 19 Water Street, Wakefield.

The bride wore ivory crepe de chine looped with white roses and a white crepe de chine hat to match. She carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums with maidenhair fern.

The number of tourists from the United States entering the province of New Brunswick this year is reported to be far in excess of the number in preceding years, largely due to the fact that the rule of the road in the province has been changed, and that the roads have been considerably improved.

The woman who is not satisfied with her bread making should try a baking with Regal Flour, the best flour for bread making sold in any market.

The Importance of Being Pretty

Many a girl's fortune is determined by her face. A skin which is fresh, smooth and alluring with the radiance of health, predicts a happy future, because this is the greatest of all womanly charms.

Every girl can have a beautiful, attractive skin if she will only learn to give it proper care.

The constant application of cold creams, lotions, powder, and rouge tend to make the skin sluggish and inactive. Dirt accumulates and blackheads and other blemishes appear.

Thorough cleansing once a day prevents such a condition and keeps the complexion fresh and smooth. Cold Cream is beneficial when applied to a clean skin and rouge and powder are harmless beautifiers—only—used fresh every day on a clean foundation. Keep your skin active and it will be clear, fresh, youthful and attractive.

Soap to be thorough, need not be harsh. The mildest, toilet soap made is the most thorough of all cleansers, as you will know after you have once tried Palmolive.

SATISFACTION

A seemingly low price for an article is always attractive, but unfortunately frequently misleading. How often is heard the remark—"I would rather have paid a little more and got the quality I wanted."

As a matter of fact that "little more" was necessary to obtain the better quality. Good goods require a higher price to be good.

There are cheaper teas than "KING COLE"—but would you be satisfied with their quality?

Obituary

WILLIAM HENSHAW

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mr. William Henshaw, of Bear River on the 24th inst. in the 72nd year of his age. Mr. Henshaw spent all his life in Bear River and leaves to mourn his loss a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Burton Morine and Mrs. George Cortis, both of Bear River and two sons, Roy, of Anheist and Clarence at home, also one sister, Mrs. Alice Pierce, of Keene, N. H., and one half brother, William, of Deep Brook and five grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted at the home and grave by Rev. Gregg assisted by Rev. S. H. The choir sang and impressively rendered three selections "Does Jesus Care," "Come Unto Me" and "Abide With Me." A large attendance of relatives and friends gathered both at the house and grave to pay the last tribute to one who was deeply loved and respected by all who knew him. There were a great many beautiful floral tributes. His passing has left sadness in many hearts—Bridgetown papers please copy.

Buffalo in Wainwright reserve increases at the rate of about 2,000 each year.

The output of coal from Canadian mines during January, 1923, amounted to 1,743,800 tons.

The total wheat production of Canada in 1922 was 399,786,400 bushels of which Saskatchewan produced 250,167,000 bushels.

The Eskimos give the doctor his fee as soon as he calls. If the patient recovers he keeps it and if not it is returned.

Heads of large implement and machinery firms in Edmonton and Calgary state that for every acre of corn that was sown in Alberta last year ten will be sown this year.

1923 will be the greatest prospecting year known so far in Northern Ontario. The largest rush of prospectors is in the district extending from Swatara for a hundred miles east into the Province of Quebec.

Grain men and others in Calgary already forecast the probable yield of wheat in Alberta this year at something in the neighborhood of 100,000,000 bushels. This estimate is based on the 55,000,000 bushel crop of last year.

The total wheat production in Canada has grown from 16,330,000 bushels in 1871 to over 399,000,000 in 1922. The number of elevators in 1905 was 326 with capacity for 18,320,352 bushels. Today the capacity of 6,824 elevators in Canada is 231,633,420 bushels.

The Canadian Pacific Railway have further reduced the freight rate on horses from prairie stations to all eastern Canada points. The old rate on horses from Moose Jaw to Montreal or Toronto was $1.39 1/2 per hundred pounds. The new rate will be $1.20 1/2 or a saving to the farmer of $38 per car.

"Will Summers," owned by His Majesty the King, was recently brought to Canada on the Canadian Pacific Steamer "Marburn" and will be kept at the Prince of Wales ranch near Calgary for breeding purposes. This famous five-year-old gelding pedigree back to Ormsby and Galopin, the former sire of Flying Fox and the latter a Derby winner.

It is reported that the head of the textile department of Leeds University, England, has invented a process for the making of artificial wool from cotton waste. The basis of the process is cellulose acetate. The product wears well as wool, it is said, will take the dye of any desired color and is considered a better insulator than natural wool.

During the last fiscal year Canadian exports of tobacco amounted to 471,991 pounds with a value of $176,823. Of this value the United Kingdom accounted for $138,794, United States $5,215 and other countries $4,826. There are 125 tobacco factories in Canada, Quebec and Ontario being the principal producers.

Running on schedule the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Canada," Captain A. J. Halley, again demonstrated her right to the claim of "Queen of the Pacific." The Canadian vessel left Vancouver 24 hours after the American liner "President McKinley" and arrived in Yokohama five hours in the lead.

The British Government is completing at Chatham the largest and most wonderful under-water craft in the world. On the surface she will displace 2,780 tons and when submerged 4,600 tons, this displacement being 1,400 tons greater than that of the largest German submarine. With a twelve-inch gun the new submarine will be able to bombard any object and then quickly disappear under the sea.

A decision to proceed with the formation of a provincial organization for the promotion of the production of seed potatoes was reached at a meeting of potato growers of the various potato belts of the province, held at Fredericton, recently. Over two hundred potato growers were in attendance.

present, but it is not to be neglectful of its remote past. Claims are made that the city, formerly called Quebec, was founded by a Canadian, Quebecus, every Canadian reader of school histories knows, was founded by Champlain in 1603, and that the name of the city is evidence to support the claim, to a particular year, it is maintained by Mr. J. W. Curran in an address to the Legislature of Ontario, that the origin of the name was Indian settlement at the site of the Sault at least as early while the name "Sault" first appears on Champlain's map in 1622. The speaker, Mr. Curran, further claims that no other community in Ontario at least can claim—that for almost 300 years our name has been on an official map. It is true Champlain's map is not a map of the rapids and not to the com-

Chimplain's map showed seven cabins in 1632 on the Canadian side of the St. Lawrence river. The population of around 200, and Mr. Curran said that, as a matter of history, it was recorded there in 1641 there were 200 people.

Another important statement is that, in 1632 the north, or Canadian, side of the river had a population of about 100 as it has to-day.

Mr. Curran's proposal is for the erection of a series of tablets in the Sault in honor of the outstanding men of the place. Jean Nicolet, the first white man to visit the Sault, 1634; Father Louis Joliffe, 1636; Father Louis Remy, 1641; the first Jesuit mission, 1641; the first settlement, 1641; Louis Joliffe, the French explorer, who first placed the name Sault Ste. Marie on the map, 1652.

NEIGHBORHOOD CORRESPONDENCE

(The Picton Gazette)

I have before me as I write a letter written to the editor of this paper from a far off town in Saskatchewan. The writer is speaking not only for herself but on behalf of that great number who once made this country their home. They are scattered to the four corners of this continent but they still think of us as the home folk, and the part of the paper which possesses the greatest interest for them is the local news, sent in week by week by our staff of faithful correspondents from the different parts of the country.

These patients, untiring, often much abused news gatherers are building better than they know. They are like the ancient prophets "not without honour save in their own neighbourhood." It seems so trifling to say that Mrs. A. called on Mrs. B., or Mr. W. is killing hogs or threshing his clover, or that Mr. and Mrs. N. have gone to town. But now look at it from the viewpoint of the readers of this paper living in different parts of the country. They have gone away for various reasons but they are building for themselves homes as their fathers did, faced with the same conditions, perplexed by the same problems and they are anxious to keep the old-time traditions and transplant the old-time ideals in the new places to which they have gone. The hope of our great new land which is opening up in many things—the church, the schools, the class of settlers which they are getting. But not the least among the influences which will make this land an ideal place to live in, is the preservation and transplanting of the home ideal which the boys and girls who have left the older portions have had instilled into them in their youth. Anything then which keeps the spark of the memory of the old home from going out, anything which binds them to the things of the past, is playing a big part in keeping Canada a land of the best ideals.

Now for some years after these people went away the weekly or monthly letter followed them. No one can estimate the inspiration or restraining forces of these letters, but one by one the writers laid aside the pen or their eyes became dim and their fingers cramped with age, and the letters grew less frequent and finally ceased altogether. Those of the boys and girls who have been absent from this country for twenty, thirty or forty years have not had a written letter from the place of their birth for years. Is the inspiration of this sacred memory to be allowed to die out?

Here is where the home paper comes in. It comes as a weekly letter freighted with the fragrance of the memories of bygone days. The first bit of news they look for is the news of their old neighborhood. There they see that Mrs. A. is visiting Mrs. B. and they smile and say, "Well, well, she is still on her rounds, is she?" Mr. D. has just cut his clover, and they see again the field where as boys they picked berries from the fence corners, and the hollow rails where they had many a losing fight trying to rob the bumble bee. They read that Mr. W. is dead. "Well, well, he seemed an old man when they were still young." They remembered his rugged, honest and the homely advice which from his desk as superintendent of the Sunday School he gave them. And so he is dead, but his words and influence which can never die come back to them and they live over again their Sunday School days, but now realizing what they did not as boys and girls, how necessary, how important, the need of a character built upon the ideal of the Holy Word. So we could go on. The weekly paper with its neighborhood news has brought before the people the doings of the home folks, their work, their play, their social joys, their sorrows, little unimportant happenings to those who live in the neighborhood, but to those absent a link that binds them to the best in the past. A drink of cold water to a thirsty heart, like a drink from the old spring at the foot of the hill at home where as boys we were wont to refresh ourselves. And in the strength of that refreshment they can go on to do continually better work—and so they are thankful for the home paper and the neighborhood correspondents, who, by much sacrifice, constitute themselves a link which binds them to all the best in the past.

CABINS IN THE CLOUDS

To climb 5,875 feet above Lake Louise and to enjoy a cup of tea in the delightful surroundings is one of the attractions offered visitors to Lake Louise, Alta. Tea houses on mountain peaks were unheard of a few years ago, but to-day there are at least a dozen of them situated in the Canadian Rockies.

Two of the most picturesque are the "Beehive" on the shores of Lake Agnes, about two miles and a half from the Chateau and the other a rustic log cabin on the top of Mount Fairview. Walking and pony excursions over the mountains in the vicinity of this picturesque lake are among the popular pastimes of visitors from all parts of the globe to "the lakes in the clouds."

From the "Beehive" one can get a perfect view of Mirror Lake and Lake Louise, which, with Lake Agnes, are known as "the lakes in the clouds." This cozy little tea room is owned by Miss B. Dodd and is operated during the season by Miss Goddard. Its furnishings are quaint and rustic.

The foodstuffs are delivered every morning by pack pony from the Chateau Lake Louise—even fuel for the cook stoves is transported in this way.

In addition to the tea room there is an attractive assortment of appetizers from various parts of the globe, collected during the winter months by Miss Dodd, who usually goes abroad.

There are many surprises of scenic beauty along the trail to the tea room, but perhaps the most interesting fact is that one can obtain a delicious cup of English tea, with equally delicious home cooking within sight and sound of whistling martlets and scurrying chipmunks that leap from bough to bough, and often within sight of friendly bears who come close to the kitchen door in search of tasty food.

One of the most interesting trips at Lake Louise is by a narrow, winding path on Mount Fairview to Saddleback Tea Room and Rest House, which is 2,500 feet higher than the Chateau. This quaint little log cabin, situated on Mount Fairview, overlooks Saddleback Mountain, so called because of its rock formation being similar to a saddle. It takes almost two hours by foot to make the trip over a steep zigzag trail, from which can be seen winding streams and rushing brooks thousands of feet below.

This tea room and rest house, like "Beehive," is owned by Miss Dodd and operated by Miss A. E. Whymant. Its surroundings are most artistic and restful. The view of Paradise Valley and Mount Temple from the tea house is one of the finest in the Rockies.

Daily supplies of food and fuel are transported by pack ponies from the Chateau to serve approximately 25 guests a day, who are all rewarded for their journey to the "highest tea house in Canada."

Nerves So Bad That She Would Sit and Cry

Mrs. Mary Hocking, Madoc, Ont., writes:—
"Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a wonderful lot of good. I suffered from general weakness and was so run down and my heart and nerves were in such bad shape that I would sit down and cry and not know what I was crying about. I also used to have weak spells. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am real well now. I shall always keep a box of the Nerve Food in the house, and recommend them to my friends; they are a wonderful medicine."
(Mr. J. W. Vince, Druggist, of Madoc, Ont., says: "I have sold Mrs. Hocking your Nerve Food, and the medicine has done her much good.")

THE SEARCH FOR GOLD.

Scientist Recalls One of the Romances of History.

One of the many romances of mining was referred to by Mr. J. B. Tyrrell in an address before the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

In 1578, three years after the rich gold mines of Brazil had been discovered, Martin Frobiisher, one of the great sailors of the Elizabethan period, sailed from London in quest of a northern passage to Asia, where fabulous stores of metallic riches were believed to exist. He was stopped by ice in the east end of Baffin Island, since called Frobiisher Bay, and returned to England. One of the sailors brought home a black rock, which an Italian alchemist named Agnolo, in defiance of the London goldsmiths, pronounced to contain gold. Thereupon preparations were made for a second voyage the following year, Frobiisher being "more specially directed by commission for the searching more of this gold ore than for the searching any further discovery of the passage."

A charter was issued to the Company Cathart and a number of ships were collected, including a large one provided by Queen Elizabeth. The fleet left the Thames on May 27, 1577, and after a severe storm reached that portion of Frobiisher Bay where "was found good store of gold to our thinking plinity to be seen, whereupon it was thought best to load here than to seek further for better." Frobiisher loaded his ship with 200 tons of this material and returned to England. Most of this "ore" was stored in Bristol Castle, and the rest in the Tower of London. The Queen commanded four ships to be placed on the doors of the treasure, the keys of which were to be handed over to Frobiisher, Michael Lock, Warden of the Tower, and the Master of the Mint. But the experts differed about the value of the rocks. One assayer claimed that it properly "treated and coed" the ore would yield £40 to the ton, but Sir W. Winter wrote that he could not get a furnace hot enough to bring the rock to the desired perfection. Finally it was admitted that the ore was "poor in respect of that brought last year and which we know may be brought next year." Popular interest was roused in this gold discovery, and it was decided to send out a third expedition. The Queen, besides other good gifts and greater promises, bestowed upon the general a fair chain of gold, and Frobiisher sailed with six ships in May, 1578. Having arrived near the site, one of the captains discovered a great black island with plenty of gold ore on it. Some of the ships were loaded with this "ore" and the fleet returned, but it was found to be worthless.

The search for gold in the mining operations was unavailing for nearly three centuries until the American explorer, Captain G. P. Hall, found the rock in 1881. Mr. Tyrrell thinks that it is possible that the black rocks referred to by these old sailors were the same as the Keswatin or pre-Cambrian series, which is yielding such large quantities of gold in Forebush at the present time. The Bay of Fundy, in Nova Scotia, is north of Hudson Strait, and if Mr. Tyrrell's conjecture is correct, the pre-Cambrian formation which surrounds the lower portion of Fundy Bay and extends to a depth of hundreds of miles also extends away to the north. It is this formation which geologists and mining engineers believe will make Canada the richest mining country in the world.

Have a British Flag.

Talk of exchanging war trophies has a strange echo in the death at Waltham, Mass., the other day of Mrs. Amelia Fowler, who many years ago captured the British flag captured by the United States army at the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, in 1813, and latterly treasured at Annapolis Naval Academy in Maryland as a precious relic. Though English by birth, Mrs. Fowler had made her home for many years in Boston. One of the principal streets in Liverpool, Bold street, was named for her family.

When she was only four years old she had demonstrated her skill with the needle by embroidering a collar so neatly that a woman said: "This child is an artist. If she does not use brushes and paint some of the world's greatest pictures, she will make the needle the expression of her art."

When her grandparents died she went to the United States, and, having to earn her own living, started as a teacher of needlework in Boston. She made all the important flags of Massachusetts regiments, and in 1815 was given a commission to repair the collection of famous flags at Annapolis. Her master piece in flag restoration was the British flag captured at Toronto by Commodore Chace and Gen. Pike.

Not Worth Having.

Mr. Higginson was bragging about his newly-acquired automobile. He ended his eulogy by declaring: "It runs so smoothly that you can't feel it, so quietly that you can't hear it, it has such perfect ignition that you can't smell it, and as for speed, my boy, you can't see it!" His friend John started. "Bless my heart!" he exclaimed, anxiously, "how do you know the car is there at all?"

Warm Rain.

When a warm rain occurs over a snow-covered region it is not the rain so much as the warm wind that melts the snow. An inch of rain at 50 degrees F. could melt only three inches of light new snow or one inch of old snow.

Adam Again.

A clay tablet, dating from 2100 B.C., gives a fresh version of the story of the Garden of Eden. It states that Adam was thrust out, not as a punishment, but to prevent him becoming immortal.

Chicago women, who have made a habit of reserving the bills of fare of dinners, have been found to have a collection of nearly 4,000 of them.

Yours to Enjoy

"Thank God for Tea! What did the world do without it—how did it exist? I am glad I was not born before Tea."

Thus wrote the brilliant Sydney Smith in the early days of the nineteenth century, and countless thousands have echoed his sentiments since. But if Sydney Smith could so enthuse over Tea as it was then, what would he say of it to-day, when science in growing and art in blending have brought your cup of Tea to such a high point of perfection.

And what would he think of to-day's cost? At an incomparably lower price you are able to enjoy Tea of a deliciousness Sydney Smith never knew or imagined.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE PULP WOOD STORY

To The Editor of The Courier:

Sir—I have been reading with interest the letters in your paper of F. J. D. Barnum, re: the pulp wood of Canada, and I think it is time for something to be said to the contrary. We will take for instance Annapolis County, as they are the two counties we are most interested in. There are thousands of cords of pulpwood and there are no sawmills in our neighbors to the south of us offered a market, which, if not turned down, is and will be a blessing to some of our back districts where there is lots of pulpwood for sale. Most of the people are leaving their farms and going to the United States, and if the embargo goes on they will all have to leave this country as there will be no market here for pulpwood from farmers. There are farms of 100 acres with pulpwood for sale, that are offered for $500; also acreage covered with pulpwood for $2 per acre.

I, Mr. Barnum, is so interested in the people of our country and the forest product and wants to see the wood manufactured in our own country why doesn't he build pulp mills and have the wood manufactured here, before it is too late and all the young people have left the country? Or come down to Bear River and give the people an order for 100,000 cords of wood, and he can then do as he likes with it. They would give us a chance to clean up some of the pastures. As far as we know all Mr. Barnum is doing is talking, but that does very little to help out the condition of the country.

ONE INTERESTED.

Here and There

An addition to the Canadian Pacific Montreal-Toronto train service is a nightly train each way, making the round-trip time between the two cities. The increase was found necessary on account of the heavy tourist traffic to Montreal from the West.

The opinion of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands of British Columbia, is that "Canada has lost a forest of 300,000 people annually, and this number can come on indefinitely unless we have no more of the requirements of the country, as many as we can get are wanted."

Nov Scotia is endeavoring to arrange an "old home" month during July or August of 1923, and it is expected that many from distant parts of Canada and the United States will visit the towns of their origin during the festival period set apart.

Incomparable Lake Louise has achieved new fame. The makers of the Gray-Birth car have put out a model in a new color with the name "Lake Louise Blue." It is of a lovely green-blue, and if it has caught the eye of the glorious gleam of Canada's most beautiful mountain lake it should be a popular color for other than motor cars.

Big Bill, the last surviving buffalo at the Pinaford Park Zoo, St. Thomas, has been recently shot. The animal had been suffering for some time from the same malady which carried off his mate a few months ago. Big Bill was said to have been the finest specimen of Buffalo caught by the Government Park at Wainwright, Saskatchewan.

Albert Steedwell, Canadian Pacific Railway engineer at Fort William, has an alibi for a dog that is a wolf in sheep's clothing. He has a farm at Upsala, and while visiting the farm the dog routed out a brush wolf and chased it. During the subsequent battle one could hardly tell which was dog and which was wolf.

Mr. Steedwell went to the assistance of his pet and together they finished the wolf.

T. V. McKenzie, Canadian Pacific Railway agent at Rossmore, Alberta, has received letters patent on a device for the purpose of locking automobiles. It is so constructed that when the car is locked the car is automatically locked, thereby eliminating the possibility of an owner leaving his car unprotected. The device cannot be operated nor the car started by an unauthorized person without causing an alarm.

The number of persons killed or injured while trespassing on railroad tracks was 50 in 1922, less in 1922 than the average of the preceding fifteen years. The figures are 5,000 for nine months of 1922 compared with 10,000, the average for the previous year, according to an announcement made by the Safety Section of the American Railroad Association.

From September 1 to March 31 inclusive, the Canadian Pacific Railway has transported to Vancouver 7,884 cars of grain, representing 1,659,328 bushels. Last year during the same period the movement was 2,202 cars or 2,407,622 bushels. From the beginning of the crop season 13,571,320 bushels had been exported from Vancouver, of which 1,123,620 went to the United Kingdom, 2,242,300 to the Orient and 200,000 to South America, leaving the same period export amounted to 5,000,000 bushels.

Miss Hattie Clark returned to Boston on Monday, after a week's visit after Mrs. Ernest Clark for two months.

Frederick Crouse has been laying a hard wood floor in the new hall and has done a first-class job.

Shipment of 4,000 gallons of 65 over-proof alcohol shipped to a fictitious address at St. Leonard's, N. B., from the United States as denatured alcohol, and thus added to the Canadian supply of alcohol, is reported there. The seizure was made by Preventive Officer Robinson and is the largest seizure of denatured alcohol in New Brunswick. The alcohol is valued at $50,000 according to current market prices for legalized sales.

After spending a couple of months visiting at the home of her husband's parents, Mrs. Ernest C. Ruggles and son Harry, returned to their home in Brighton, Mass., on Wednesday of last week. They were accompanied by Miss Marie Ruggles who will spend the winter visiting relatives in Annapolis.

ARE WE DOWN HEARTED? NO!

(The Sydney Post.)

The Post has been with concern the disposition on the part of a not unconsiderable number of people in the Maritime Provinces to belittle our progress and present conditions. We know of no portion of the world which is not carrying a heavy burden in these years; and we are not convinced that the disadvantages of these sections of the Dominion are greater than those of others.

One cannot compare times which have only a slight resemblance, the living conditions, for example of New York city and of a Nova Scotian town. But we can compare to assure those areas which are nearest in geographical position in soil and climate and the pursuits of the inhabitants.

We find such a basis of comparison in the nearer New England States, Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont as compared with Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. We leave out P. E. I. for its conditions are different, but one will travel much farther afield than our near neighbors before one finds a population of less than one hundred thousand which produces annually something like forty million dollars.

We also leave out of the comparison, fisheries and metal mining for these are unimportant in the states named.

Taking population, we find that between 1860 and 1920, Maine increased from 628,279 to 768,014, or 22 per cent.; New Hampshire from 326,073 to 443,083 or 35 per cent.; Vermont 315,098 to 352,528, only 12 per cent.

In the same period Nova Scotia increased its population by 192,980 or 35 per cent.; New Brunswick by 135,829 or 53 per cent., an actually greater increase in number than either of the larger States—while the increase in Vermont is trifling.

Taking a shorter period of twenty years 1900-1920 we find our population increase 15 per cent.; these States 7 1/2 per cent.

In this period our provinces doubled the value of our farm lands and buildings, our field crops increased in value four times while the compared States increased theirs three times. And in many factories ours increased six times and those of these States only three times.

This comparison shows that collectively we have a country with resources and a people which is developing them. The individual who goes abroad, or elsewhere in his own country, goes to a place which has special advantages for his capabilities and inclinations. He may find greater prosperity than at home, but because many do go away, and they go to the U. S. and Eastern Canada, it is no reason to despair of conditions at home for those who are building up their native land.

In recent editorials we indicated in dealing with export trade possibilities of increased business which had scarcely been touched. Their development will increase the attraction of home. Another thing which by bringing us in touch with the outside world is the establishment of Sydney as a port of call for mail steamers the benefit of which will be felt by every section of these provinces. It will promote immigration, it will make life here wider—and this with benefit to other sections of the Dominion.

There is no reason for being down hearted, our chances are as good as any one's. It will require co-operation and energy to make those chances realities.

Chas. Butler Rogers and Miss Urath Cromwell, Cockeys, of Baltimore, have just been married after being betrothed for 30 years, during the last 21 of which each has thought the other was dead. After they became engaged they postponed the marriage for some years because of the illness of Miss Cockeys' father. Then Rogers went west and each received word of the death of the other.

Probably the greatest theatrical benefit ever given was the Ellen Terry benefit at Drury Lane Theatre, London, in 1906. There were people waiting in line to buy tickets for thirty-six hours—a day and a half before the curtain went up. Altogether, nearly $50,000 was realized for the greatest. More than $5,000 was derived from the sale of programmes alone.

Some of Austria's newest small change "money" is to carry the advertising of merchants. It consists of postage stamps of various denominations, placed in celluloid disks with one side of the stamp visible. The advertisement appears on the other side of the disk.

There are 30 different kinds of Moir's Chocolates in the Week-end Box alone. It's a fine thought on Saturday night—five pounds of delicious chocolates.

Perhaps you too have friends afar.

Say it with sweets.

Here and There

Russia has more differentials, and at the same time, more bookshelves than any other country in Europe.

The largest consignment of silk from the Orient for many months, consisting of 5,000 bales, valued at $2,000,000, formed part of the cargo of the "Empress of Russia" recently.

A shipment of silk from China, consisting of ten carloads, valued at two million dollars, went forward from Vancouver to New York under special guard over the Canadian Pacific lines recently.

The first of a series of six new temples being constructed for the Chinese Government has just been dedicated. The new temples are to be used in forest patrol for the prevention of destruction by fire.

Following the disastrous earthquakes and fires which devastated large areas in Japan, the Canadian Pacific has been asked to transport "Empress of Australia" were shown open to the accommodation of thousands of refugees, while the officers and men of the vessel did splendid work in organizing and assisting rescue parties.

The rapid increase in the export butter trade of Saskatchewan during the past year or two, has been the cause of the features of the Saskatchewan dairy industry. Recently the Saskatchewan Co-operative Creameries made a shipment of 25,000 lbs. of butter to China.

For almost two decades the major portion of the supply of cobalt has been derived from the silver-cobalt-nickel arsenides of the Cobalt district, according to figures compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The cobalt production of Canada in 1922 was 569,960 pounds, which, at 25¢ a pound, would be worth $1,424,900.

Canada's trade within the Empire is increasing. For the twelve months ended July, Canada exported to other parts of the Empire goods amounting to $153,437,830. This is in comparison with $154,992,074, a figure for the corresponding twelve months previous. Imports from British Empire countries during the twelve months period were: Ended July, 1923, $195,811,190; ended July, 1922, $165,185,581.

A wheat crop of 332,514,000 bushels is forecasted in a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The report is based upon the condition of crops at the end of July, and indicates that the Prairie Provinces will produce 332,514,000 bushels of wheat. Manitoba, it is expected, will have a total wheat crop of 14,688,000 bushels; Saskatchewan 211,051,000; and Alberta 101,776,000 bushels. Alberta is the only province to show an increased yield as compared with 1922.

A party of five journalists, representing the leading newspapers of Switzerland, who recently arrived at Quebec, are the guests in Canada of E. W. Beatty, President of the Canadian Pacific Railway. They will tour the Dominion in the interests of Swiss colonization. Stops will be made at different points where the people are farming, and opportunity will be given to members of the party to converse with them and get first hand knowledge as to the desirability of Canada as a place for Swiss colonists.

In a letter on "Canada and Land Settlement" published by the Morning Post, Sir Geo. McLaren Brown, Dominion manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, says that the agricultural settlement of Western Canada lies in mixed farming, which calls for smaller and more numerous agricultural holdings than wheat growing alone. It results in closer settlement and better communication. The bigger and more densely settled rural population, more social amenities there are and greater advantages generally, he says.

Probably the greatest theatrical benefit ever given was the Ellen Terry benefit at Drury Lane Theatre, London, in 1906. There were people waiting in line to buy tickets for thirty-six hours—a day and a half before the curtain went up. Altogether, nearly $50,000 was realized for the greatest. More than $5,000 was derived from the sale of programmes alone.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT NOVA SCOTIA

There is one spot in Nova Scotia where you can lie on the ground with your head in one county, your feet in a second, your right arm stretching into a third, and your left arm into a fourth.

If you take the map of our Province you will see the junction of Halifax, Guysboro, Colchester and Pictou counties. The boundary lines of all four intersect about two miles due west of Trafalgar, on the St. Mary's River.

This is the only place in Nova Scotia where this can be done, although there are several places where you can stand with one foot in one county, the other in a second, and have your shadow fall in a third.

The nearest approach to the first instance is the junction of Shelburne, Yarmouth and Digby Counties, just north of Roseway Lake; the fourth county line in this case is just four miles from the intersection of the other three.

Cumberland is bordered by only one Nova Scotian county, Colchester. The Northumberland Straits and Bay of Fundy are its northern and southern boundaries respectively, while on the west it abuts on New Brunswick.

Halifax County has the greatest area, with Richmond the smallest. The island of Bouladerie in the Bras d'Or Lakes is divided between Cape Breton County and Victoria.

A line drawn due west from Halifax would run through the town of Digby, so that, strange as it may sound, Annapolis Royal and all other Valley towns are actually north of the capital city.

There are less than eight miles of railway in Guysboro County—Ex-

Cleopatra Washed Her Face This Way

She used Palm and Olive oils, the same rare oils which are blended in Palmolive. She knew that to keep her skin so soft, thorough cleansing was necessary. The crude combination of Palm and Olive oils which was the best—heretofore even royalty could then obtain it—now brought to perfection in Palmolive.

The girl of today, if she would be beautiful, follows Cleopatra's practice. Every day she cleanses her skin thoroughly with mild Palmolive Soap. Never does she permit cold cream, rouge and powder to accumulate and clog the pores of the skin. She knows that this starts irritation and blackheads, pimples and other blemishes result.

Palmolive with its mild creamy lather is lotion-like in its action. It cleanses, revives and stimulates and leaves the skin delightfully fresh and rosy.

This a great luxury may be enjoyed at the price of ordinary soap. You can pay more, but you can't get a finer, milder cleanser.

You can buy Palmolive Soap at all first-class dealers.

Idy—Have you a nice, creepy hook?" Clerk—"Yes, ma'am. Are you a book worm?"

CONSULS IN TORONTO

FOREIGN COUNTRIES LARGELY REPRESENTED.

J. Enoch Thompson, Who Represents Spain, Has Done Much Good Work For His Country, But There Are Others Who, Although Less conspicuous, Are Nevertheless Active When Occasion Requires.

Seventeen foreign countries are represented in Toronto by consular agents. This is an imposing record for a Canadian city of half a million population. In certain instances native-born Canadians act as the representative of the foreign country, and in other cases the positions are filled by natives of the countries served, or by honorary consuls.

All these officials require permission from the King of Great Britain to exercise their functions, which is given in a formal document called an exequatur, signed by his Majesty personally. Consular-generals have the right to import anything for their own use free of duty, without being opened. Consuls of a lower rank as a matter of course generally receive the same privilege. Several of the consuls have very gay uniforms to wear at official functions, while others attend in ordinary tweeds and worsteds.

The United States has more consular representatives in the Dominion than any other country, the number being about fifty. The American consul in Toronto has been there several years and has the reputation of being a hard worker. His duties are more numerous than he would probably care to admit.

While Japan has a consul-general at Ottawa and native Japanese as representatives in the Maritime Provinces, in other parts of Canada, Sir Edmund Walker acts as honorary consul-general for that country in Toronto.

While the hand of the rising sun is well represented the Chinese have no consular office in Toronto although there is a considerable Chinese population in that city.

Brazil has for many years had a well-known Toronto broker acting as consul. The duties are comparatively light and participating consuls are drafted of reports to the Brazilian Government and advise to passport.

The consul for Honduras is another official who is not overburdened with consular duties.

Mexico has had a vice-consul in Toronto for a great many years. There was a recent change in the country's representation in Canada and several new officials have arrived during the past few months.

Spain has a very active consulate in Toronto where there is a preponderance of growing Italian colony. During the war many important officials of the Spanish government came to the consul and Italy's reservists went overseas in great numbers to fight for the land of their birth.

The Netherlands has been given consular representation by a well-known Toronto citizen in a manufacturing and retail business.

Norway has had the services of a Norwegian who has resided in Toronto for more than twenty years.

Spain is represented in Toronto by Mr. J. Enoch Thompson, and in length of service and age he is the senior member of the consular corps. He was appointed honorary vice-consul of Spain in 1889. Next year he arranged the first exhibition of foreign products at the Toronto Industrial Fair, by procuring a large consignment of Spanish merchandise direct from the exporters in Spain.

His queen's country was represented this enterprise of her Toronto counterpart by creating him a Chevalier of the Order of Isabel.

For services rendered during the Spanish-American war the "Toronto vice-consul was awarded the Order of Charles III, and promoted to the grade of consul for Ontario. After twenty-five years service, he was made a Knight Commander of the Order of Isabel, and last year was made a knight of the Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit.

Germany has been represented in Toronto for a considerable time and carried on a manufacturing business. It was several days after the outbreak of war, August 4, 1914, before instructions were given by the German Government to close the German consulates at Toronto.

The German consul was always active in promoting Canadian-German trade relations. He died on board ship last year on his way to England.

Greece has an official at Montreal. When the British Minister at Athens took his departure from that city a protest against the execution of the Cabinet Ministers, the question arose as to what would happen to the Greek consul at Montreal. It was stipulated that if Great Britain severed her relations with Greece there would be nothing else for the Greek consul to do but depart.

The Average Pace.

"Wife: "It says here that the average walking pace of a healthy woman is about seventy-five steps a minute."

Husband: "And the average talking pace of a healthy woman is about seventy-five words a second!"

Taking No Risks.

"So Shytle is a man of his word?" "I don't know. I've always trusted him, but I can't say when dealing with him."
