The Landau

CHEVROLET has added another beautiful model to its line—the Landau—a handsome five-passenger car, with Fisher Body finished in Arizona Grey Duco.

The Landau reaches a new pinnacle of small car luxury, having a steel grain leather top, with distinctive Landau lines and smart D-shaped windows in the rear. It is upholstered in rich velvet, which harmonizes with the exterior finish, and is provided with a folding foot-rest and a robe rail. Pockets are built into the rear doors and the rear compartment is supplied with a smoking set.

Possessing the economy, ease of operation, quick acceleration and abundant power for which all Chevrolet models are famous, the new Landau represents a combination of value and quality never before presented in a car in its price class.

Band Needed In Digby

Editor of The Courier,
Dear Sir:—

I am glad the matter of a band for Digby has reached the stage of lively discussion in your columns. Few towns in the province have more urgent need of a band than Digby has. Unfortunately we have very few advanced players in town, but many who would soon make good. It would take a year or more to get a band of beginners ready to play in public, but it would be good training in music, and new members could be constantly added. If properly managed such a band would become a permanent feature. It would take patience, time and money, but it can be done if leading citizens put their shoulder to the wheel and keep pushing. Some of our beginners might become stars. I will remember when Jamie Dillon made horrible noises with his horn, and there are several youngsters now here who play a clarinet or saxophone better than Gordon Robinson did when he joined the Digby Band, but these two boys became our best two players.

However, I am afraid that the present attitude of the former band members as expressed in last week's Courier will effectively prevent any efforts to start a new band for many years to come. A new band would require money at its very start, but no one could be asked to contribute money for a new band while there is already a band in town with money in the bank. It appears to me that this subject should be fully discussed, and when the public has decided to have a band and has become enthusiastic about it, a public meeting should be called, efficient officers selected and a business committee of level-headed and progressive citizens chosen to establish a sound policy. With energetic and interested men in these places the best things can be done for our town.

There are many young people (and older ones too) who are ready and anxious to get into a good band.

It also strikes me that it would be a fine act for members of the former band (which is now "all in" like a 1916 Ford) to do our very best to encourage young players, and strive to get a new band, a good permanent one to fill the place we used to hold, but can hold no longer.

If a discussion continues, it is to be hoped that the aim of all who take part will be to speak in perfect fairness, keeping personal prejudices out of sight, avoiding feeble attempts at sarcasm, and uniting in their efforts to do the best things they can do for our town.

Yours truly,
PAUL YATES.

Digby, April 19.

Weymouth

Mrs. Harrison Jones returned Thursday from Digby. She was accompanied by Charles Powers returned Friday to St. John having spent a few days here on business.

Mrs. F. J. McGrath and two children, who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) H. J. Pothier, left on Friday for her home in Kentville. She was joined here by her husband Dr. P. J. Pothier, who returned that day from New York.

Rev. Louis LeBlanc returned on Friday evening's train from a few days visit to his parents at Belleville, Yarmouth Co.

Miss Vic Cormier returned Friday morning from Digby.

Miss Emma Saultier arrived Friday from Digby and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saultier.

Miss Rosalie Comeau, teacher at Groves Coques, spent the week-end with her brother Léger Comeau.

Dr. H. J. Pothier motored to Yarmouth Sunday evening, taking with him a patient to the Yarmouth hospital, and returned Monday afternoon.

Agno Comeau left on Tuesday for Boston where he will visit his father, Miss Comeau.

Mrs. Ira Blinn, of Belleville's Cove, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Fred M. Melanson.

Cyril Comeau who spent the past six months in Boston returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Melanson and Miss Sue O'Brien are visiting relatives at Cobierie for a few days.

Charles Walsh arrived Tuesday from Boston and will take over the trucking business of his brother Ernest Walsh, who has been engaged by the Weymouth Creamery to transport cream from the many villages of the country that supply the Creamery.

The Green Lantern Theatre which for the past 12 years has been conducted by Charles Power, of St. John, changed ownership on Monday. It has been purchased by a group of Weymouth men, and will be conducted by them at a Community Theatre. The new owners intend making considerable improvements in the building.

SERIOUS STORM STRUCK COUNTY TUESDAY LAST

Traffic At A Standstill—The Country Roads Blocked By Huge Banks of Snow

A real winter blizzard, with a strong northeast wind, struck Digby county early Tuesday morning. It was one of the most serious snow storms of the season, and business was at a standstill. Trains arrived here late, and the S. S. Express was obliged to cancel her trip to St. John owing to the high wind and seas in the Bay of Fundy. Mail drivers from outlying districts found it difficult in getting to town and it was impossible for them to make the return trip, owing to all roads being blocked with snow.

In some places the snow was piled four or five feet deep. Old time citizens declare it was one of the worst storms ever experienced in this Province, even in the middle of the winter season, and will go down as a record breaker. The schools opened in the morning, but the storm became so serious that the children in all departments were sent to their homes, and the school closed for the day. Many commercial travellers, who had arrived in Digby by auto for the first time this year, were stormstruck, and even with fine weather it will take a good while before the roads will be open to traffic.

Fishermen, along the Bay of Fundy shore, suffered heavily and many lobster traps were destroyed. This is the second loss, to the fishermen, this month, and many of the men will be unable to continue in their work.

The winter of 1926 will go down in history as being one of the worst ever experienced in this country. People in the country districts have been the heaviest sufferers, they being unable to get their supply of timber out of the woods, owing to the huge banks of snow. And this present storm arriving, just as they were planning on doing some work for the first time in months, will be a disastrous blow to them.

Obituary

HARVEY LEE SULLIVAN
There passed away at the Mass Homeopathic Hospital on April 12th, 1926, Baby Harvey Lee Sullivan, age 10 months, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sullivan, 48 E. Dedham St., Boston.

All that medical aid could give was done but he passed away after one week's illness with Bronchial Pneumonia.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Harvey's home, being conducted by Ensign Smith, of the "Peoples Palace" Salvation Army of Boston, Baby Harvey being a member of the Cradle Roll of the Palace Sunday School.

His little body was laid to rest in Mount Hope Cemetery, beside that of his little sister Ella, who passed away March 30, 1924.

He leaves to mourn his bright sunshine, his parents, two sisters, Anna and Kathleen, also one brother Ewart, and his grandmother, Ella M. Banks, of Centreville, Digby Co., and many relatives both in U. S. A. and Digby County.

"Citizen" Replies

Editor Digby Courier,
Sir:—

Well we started something, didn't we? "Citizen" cried them out, and "A back with a long history of the land" and "Citizen" gave much credit for its contribution to the band, for he wants us to think that most of the $500 collected on two days came from outsiders and circus performers, but he will admit that our Digby girls worked hard and did the collecting, and so dozens of us were wondering where the money was. Now at last we know where it is. Member answered one of my questions and told us that.

It took an entire column to answer that one question, but if it will not over-tax your space nor over-tax his pencil, he might answer the other two questions we asked: Who are the members? Are they going to do anything for Digby with the money?

I am sorry "Member" failed to get the main purpose of my letter which was to inform him and other members that I was by no means satisfied with the way it started. Our first appeal should properly be made to the old band that in Digby history has been the best. They should show enough local interest to boost it, but we haven't heard of one old member trying to do a thing for it. That's why we asked if the band was dead, or only full of dead men. Are there any old players who would play in a new band if we had one? Who could they be? Member can give us a lot of good stuff if he tries. Will he answer some of these questions? When they are settled we will know where we get our money from, and we will be able to do the old story of the dog who couldn't eat the hay.

What weakness brought me down to the place where I am now? I have been a cheap practice of twisting quotations to dodge a simple fact? There is how he got me back.

My exact words were—"Digby" people gave money to a Club called the Digby Band."

And here he quotes it—"Citizen" says—"Since they were the recipients of vast sums of money showered upon them by the appreciative public, they should have got it straightened out." Let us hope he got his figures straight.

Member seems to have it in for luck. I believe a toy can play hockey and horses too if he is equipped with a proper balance wheel.

Citizen.

My Pansy Is Dead

By G. L. Letteney

My Garden Pansy is dead, is dead. It leaves a void in my glory, has died. As I watched it die, I was moved to ask—Longer stay that I in thy beauty may tarry.

Thy colors and shadings are really sublime. No glorious are they that the vagrant eye is arrested and held by thy magical tie.

The Sun has blessed thee with its smile. And peace and beauty a distant isle. Have poured their charm into thy heart. So man in his poverty can have a part.

Yes thy beauty doth traverse the way to the soul. Thy thoughts in its passage that vibrate and roll.

With music so sweet that the angels above. Are charmed from their mission of duty and love.

Oh I have drunk from thy fair chalice. I am rimed from fountains both fair and dim. And thoughts out of thine own self here.

Which find their rest in Eternal morn. And the Pansy made answer, and this it did say.

Oh I would love to stay longer, for many a day. And commune with my friend and admirer, man. Feel the warmth of his breath and the touch of his hand.

I know no requiem will be sung in a Cathedral Grand. By a choir and music played by some master hand.

No marble that will mark the lonely spot. Where my frail body will die and lie. But let no doubt or sorrow rest on thy poor troubled mind.

For like you, a wonderful a wonderful future will find. For within my nation a voice doth continually say. Thou shalt rise more glorious on next Reckoning day.

MRS. MARY M. LEBLANC

The death of Mrs. Mary Madeleine LeBlanc occurred at the residence of her son, John, at Weymouth on Friday evening, following an illness of one day's duration. Deceased was the widow of the late Centurion LeBlanc, was 80 years of age and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Comeau, Townsville, Mrs. Agnes LeBlanc, Church Point, one son, John LeBlanc and one sister, Mrs. Kate Saultier, Saint-John. The funeral was held on Sunday morning at St. Joseph's church where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated. She was well known and her death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. Burial was in St. Joseph's C. Cemetery.

Card of Thanks

Dear Mr. Editors:

Through the columns of your paper, I should like, if possible, to express the thanks and appreciation I feel for the kindnesses and hospitalities shown, to both my drivers and self, by the people of Digby Neck and vicinity, throughout this long, hard winter.

Now that our winter is over and the roads open to summer travel, I wish to solicit their kind patronage and assure them that I am at their service as always. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for this valuable space in your paper, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Mr. MacPhee's wife asked him to keep track of the number of times that he lay in a room of golf.

After eighteen holes he came in and emptied a handful of stones out of each pocket, saying: "Here are the dimes, the rest are coming on the truck; you count them."

NATIVE OF DIGBY COUNTY DIED FROM INJURIES

Mr. L. C. Mallett, of Gilbert's Cove, Crushed By Fall of Stone At Cambridge, Mass.

Word has been received in Digby of the death of L. C. Mallett, a native of this county, which took place at the Docketon City Hospital, Cambridge, Mass., on Monday, from injuries sustained Friday when a block of cast stone fell from a building and crushed him. The weight of the stone caused a staining to collapse, and pinned the deceased to the ground. An examination at the hospital showed he suffered internal injuries.

L. Mallett was born in Gilbert's Cove, Digby county, in 1855, and was the son of the late Capt. Geo. A. and Mary Mallett. During the past few years he has made his home in Cambridge, Mass.

Deceased leaves to mourn their loss a wife, one son, two sisters, Mrs. Grace Brant, of Lewiston, Maine; Mrs. Estella Connor, of Lynn, Mass.; two brothers, Roy Mallett, of Plympton, Digby Co., and Xavier Mallett, of Waldoboro, Maine.

Ingersoll's Address

We have had several letters asking for the text of the famous Robert G. Ingersoll's address at the grave of his brother and read the other day over the grave of Luther Burbank. It is good enough to serve as editorial in all newspapers of the Dominion, because it opens the door of hope of the agnostic and the unbeliever. It is as follows:

Dear Friends: I am going to do that which the dead old promised he would do for me.

The loved and loving brother, husband, father, friend, died where manhood's morning almost touches noon, and while the shadows still were falling toward the west.

He had not passed on life's highway the stone that marks the highest point, but, being weary for a moment, he lay down by the wayside, and, using his burden for a pillow, fell into that dreamless sleep that kisses down his eyelids still. While yet in love with life and raptured with the world, he passed to silence and patetic dust.

Yet, after all, it may be best, just in the happiest, sunniest hour of all the voyage, while eager winds are kissing every sail, to dash against the unseen rock, and in an instant hear the billows roar above a sunken ship. For whether in mid-sea or among the breakers of the farther shore, a wreck at last must mark the end of each and all. And every life, no matter if its every hour is rich with love and every moment jeweled with a joy, will at its close, become a tragedy and deep and dark as can be woven of the warp and wool of mystery and death.

This brave and tender man, in every storm of life was oak and rock; but in the sunshine he was vine and flower. He was the friend of all heroic souls. He climbed the heights, and left all superstitions far below, while on his forehead fell the golden dawning of the grander day.

He loved the beautiful, and was with color, form, and music touched to tears. He sided with the weak the poor, and wronged, and lovingly gave aims. With loyal heart and with the purest hands he faithfully discharged all public trusts.

He was a worshipper of liberty, a friend of the oppressed. A thousand times I have heard him quote these words: "For justice all place a temple, and all season, summer." He believed that happiness was the only good, reason the only torch, justice the only worship, humanity the only religion, and love the only priest. He added to the sum of human joy: and were every one to whom he did some loving service to bring a blossom to his grave, he would sleep tonight beneath a wilderness of sweet flowers."

Life is a narrow vale between the cold and barren peaks of two eternities. We strive in vain to look beyond the heights. We cry aloud, and the only answer is the echo of our wailing cry. From the voiceless lips of the unreplying dead there comes no word; but in the night of death hope sees a star and listening love can hear the rustle of a wing.

He who sleeps here, when dying, mistaking the approach of death for the return of health, whispered with his latest breath, "I am better now." Let us believe, in spite of doubts and dogmas, of fears and tears, that these dear words are true of all the countless dead.

And now, to you, who have been chosen from among the many men he loved, to do the last sad office for the dead, we give his sacred dust.

Speech cannot contain our love. There was, there is, no gentler, stronger, manlier man.

Bishop Fallon Foresees Another World-Wide War

Speaking before the London Canadian Club in 1913, Bishop Fallon predicted a World War. He is a close observer of world affairs and paid a visit to Europe during the past summer and from what he saw and from what he can gather from the political movements of the nations, he predicts another World War within the next ten or fifteen years. There seems to be a mutual lack of trust and honesty of purpose among all the nations and all the representatives of the nations today, he says. He believes in action, in taking some definite step forward on the high road to international peace in preference to a plethora of theories, and a world of wordy laziness and voluble immobility. For that reason he holds the Italian dictator, Benito Mussolini, in spite of some offending remarks and actions, as "the only statesman in Europe who does things." The Bishop of London believes the time has come when actions count more than words in attaining world peace and laying the foundation of international harmony, and when the supreme need of the world is constructional effort and rehabilitation. Mussolini, he says, is the only man in a high position who sets out with a definite programme, and gets things done. Sometimes it is true that he says things that offend us, but at least he says them openly, and often what he says is something we should realize. Too many of the statesmen in Europe think along the same lines but never give vent to their beliefs in public as Mussolini does.

The Small Town

Every town cannot be a manufacturing centre, although every town having cheap power is entitled to regard itself as a potential hive of industry. For industrial purposes it is necessary to consider not only power, but labor supply, transportation facilities, accessibility to raw materials and markets. The municipalities which meet these requirements—and most of them can with respect to certain lines—should seek industries, not only in their own interests, but for the general welfare of the Province. The centralizing of industry in a few large places is not a healthy form of development. Capital is looking for an opportunity today. This is the opportunity for the local Boards of Trade. They should get their field-glasses and survey conditions again. And, doing so, they should cast modesty to the winds, join the "go get" class, and do it with mighty shouts. Nor should they forget, when "selling" their town to outsiders, to "sell" it also to the folk at home.

Two Sides to Police Court Publicity

Occasionally one hears criticism of the practice of avoiding as far as possible, police court news. The view is held by some that the publication of the records of the Police Court acts as a deterrent to others. Perhaps it does, but it has the far more serious result of branding as a criminal the young man who has to run the gauntlet of the courts. Once given publicity there is little chance for him where he is known.

Luther Burbank

Luther Burbank, widely known and loved as the plant wizard, is dead at the age of 77. No man has been more loved and respected. We all owe him a great debt for his plant discoveries. He has enriched us all. The story of his life work delving into the secrets of plant life have been very appealing. In the last year of his life the aged man left the field in which he was an expert, and widely proclaimed that he did not believe in a future life. The protests and acrimony aroused over this pronouncement shortened his life.

Luther Burbank today knows whether there is any future life, or not. He has made the Great Adventure and settled the question of immortality in which all living men are so much interested. It seems a pity, however, that he should at his advanced age have broached an opinion which did him so much harm. He had a perfect right to his opinions, but at his age he should not have suddenly left the field in which his word was law, and entered the field of psychics. The result was a storm of protest. He was besieged with letters and telegrams. They disturbed the

Banish The Blues

By Observing Nature's Basic Rule

Those who suffer from despondency, listlessness and headaches can usually trace the cause of these conditions to constipation.

They are frequently brought about by overwork, nervous strain, lack of outdoor exercise or sleep, or improper food, or more frequently by the non-observance of nature's basic rule—regular thorough bowel elimination.

Nujol, the scientific internal lubricant, corrects constipation in nature's own way by augmenting the supply of nature's lubricant.

quiet of his existence, engaged him in turmoil and dispute and hastened his death. However, it is not the first time that an aged man has lost his grip and departed from good judgement.

Although in the minds of men Burbank's fame as a plant wizard is marred by his late championship of infidel beliefs, it is his wonderful service to humanity which we should remember and not his eccentricities. He produced the Burbank potato and wonderful rose which bears his name. He invented, if that is the proper word, a pineapple quince which combines the good points of both fruits. The spineless cactus was one of his greatest discoveries. He was thus able to raise a valuable product on the desert land of which the southwest has so much. Genius and patience such as his are rare. He made the human race his debtor.

Our Golden Nugget

MOTHER LOVE.—When I think of that I see a face, smiling mistily and bent above a little blanket-wrapped body. A face sweet and tender with the beauty of the ages: a face radiant with the blessing of all of earth's dreams come true. I see hands, slim white hands, clasped above the small bundle of wool and softly crumpled nainsook. And I hear the words of a prayer—a mother's love prayer. These are the words:

"Dear God—
"Make me worthy of this new responsibility.

"Keep me strong enough to make easy the paths that this little baby, growing older, must tread.
"Make me firm to show him the right way in which to meet the sorrows and temptations of the world.

"Make me tender always, and understanding, when he has need of me.
"Let me love him so gently, and yet so wholly, that my faith in him shall never waver. Amen."

House-cleaning is the order of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Sypper were pleasantly surprised on April 7th, by a number of young friends, the occasion being Mr. Sypper's birthday. A very pleasant time was spent by all present. After serving refreshments the guests departed for their homes wishing Mr. Sypper many more happy birthdays.

On Friday evening a few invited guests met at the home of Mrs. Carrie Mitchell. After a social time, ice cream was served to the guests.

Miss Florence Jeffrey entertained several of her young friends to tea, the occasion being her sixth birthday.

Royd Jeffrey spent last Friday in Centreville.

Mrs. "Capt" William Burns left for Marblehead, Mass., to visit her sister, Mrs. Cora Coleman.

Roseway

Mrs. Matthew Raymond, has returned home from Centreville, after spending a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Nesbitt.

We are glad to know that Mrs. David Peters is greatly improving in health.

Julie Haight has returned to Boston, after spending a few weeks here with friends.

Percy Holmes, of Centreville, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Henry Taylor is on the sick list.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Deblasto, during their sad bereavement.

Mrs. Roy V. Gillatt has returned home from Joggins Bridge, where she has been spending the past two months.

Culoden

Verning Handspiker, Edgar Handspiker and Miss Pearl Handspiker, of Mount Pleasant, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Stark, on Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Post went to Yarmouth on Monday to visit friends.

James Trohon, of Digby, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Murphy.

Bad Advice to Motorist

"Never pay attention to your driving or where you are going." The girls on the six-cylinder with four gears—one pair to hold up their stockings and the other pair to hold up traffic—are much more interesting than safety zones or other cars.

Just Talks--On Common Themes

On "The New Mysticism of M. Faure"

THIS is for the high-brows only—not that I care especially. But you among my readers who follow the trail of the lonesome pinner for the latest thing in art and literature, will bear a lot of Elie Faure, who is being touted as the last word in intellectual mysticism.

There's a word to you, comrade. Mysticism You are going, perhaps, to be stoned in it if you have been in jazz—which is fast passing. For jazz is merely a hundred yard dash of civilization. It is high-speed which can't be maintained. So mysticism is next on the schedule—perhaps; and to be mystic means a dilettante dreaming outside the immediate pale of your own understanding. It combines with rest after jazz.

In other words, you get into a state of mind where you do not exactly know what you are about in your thought and then you are mystical. It is a sort of intellectual jag. It is a poking of your nose into ears or some other sensory organ, into the fourth dimension.

We had forerunners of it—shadows cast before especially in art—cubism, da-da-ism, fundamentalism, Conan Doyleism, all sorts of beliefs that scorn the idea that things are as they seem to be. To this end artists have created pictures that look like nothing and naming them ask you to see beneath their face and understand their mysticism. It substitutes feeling for thought or form. It draws a lot of cubes falling around a sphere and calls it Anarchy or War or Death, or anything else it pleases. So even a straight line becomes a palpitating emotion.

Low-brow friends, companions, let us pause. We are distinctly not in it and are accordingly unworthy to be mystic. We poor mutts who cannot understand Mysticism may wait until our children's children do understand, hoping by re-incarnation to participate in the wonder. So I come to Elie Faure who has written the new book just issued by Harper's on this new mysticism movement. All things new are movements—more often wavelets.

M. Faure is called France's most stimulating thinker—whereas we thought that M. Briand was. He has written the book that has been translated under the name "The Dance Over Fire and Water." It is lucky it was not written in the Dominion of Canada and issued by some enterprising commercial publisher or he would have dedicated it to the Legislature and called it "The Dance Over Fire-Water."

Mysticism is the only true source of progress—according to M. Faure. And Mysticism comes only after great Wars—great world tragedies; hence we must always have great bloodthirsty war in order to attune ourselves to the rhythm of what he calls our "lyric exaltation."

Now I am not talking about a mere charlatan or a mere accidental book-writer. I am speaking of a great intellectual force in France and in a measure throughout the whole of Europe—not a mere passing whim, but an alleged thinker of philosophic power. Whole pages of the book are unintelligible to me. I read pages and it passes from me—having found no lodgment. But that is supposedly because I am not in rhythmic attunement to its mystical meaning. I do not yet see.

Here is a sample paragraph which has been used more or less as fundamental Faureism—

Art, and art alone is moral, because it is the obedience to the rhythm and it cruelly makes use of everything, even war if necessary, to refine rhythm which may have lost it. Rhythm is that secret agreement between the beating of our veins, the sound of our feet, the periodic demands of our appetites, the regular alternations of sleep and waking, impose upon us with the cadence of our days, the immovable success of seasons, the movement of descent and ascent of waters, the inflexible return of the stars, across the changes in appearance which our modes of association, our interests of the hour, and our conquests over things inflict upon societies. The obedience to the rhythm unifies lyric exaltation which is the highest morality by flooding his heart with the giddy feeling that, suspended in the night and the confusion of an eternal genesis, he is alone seeking the light and desiring liberty.

As the teacher said to the boy in the Scotch school: "If ye can guess it, I'll give it to ye." In short, it seems that there is no definition of M. Faure's Morality that fits our understanding and so we turn to the old-fashioned Morality that is taught by a certain solitary, remote, yet accessible being, Man of Sorrows, named Jesus.

M. Faure insists that the arts flourish only after periods of strife. But how else could they flourish, since strife has always been on earth always intervening; always interfering. Yet the arts in Scandinavia: as has been pointed out flourished best in unbroken peace and there was a golden age of 400 years of peace in Rome when the world advanced most rapidly.

Faure will insist, therefore, that war breeds mysticism; mysticism breeds arts; arts breed rhythm; rhythm in life. M. Faure says, with Voltaire, that history is merely a record of crimes. But there seem to be discoveries other than crime and war and emotional crises; mystical revelations of this "Dance above Fire and Water" that have done some good—such as the compass, the printing press, the locomotive; the electric combinations of today.

This Mysticism! O, you will hear a lot about it; for it is to be an attempt to exalt the emotions and the self-expressive elements of life in pure self, in isolation with little regard to altruism or for Society as such this mysticism is going to pay little attention to pure reason or to a world ruled by reason.

Perhaps I am getting out of range of common understanding, in clucking my own, but it seems to me that in that day, we shall see exaltation of passion, love, adventure, self-will; free-love, morality, as expressed in mysticism, not in altruism.

For read what M. Faure is teaching about the intellect. He says that the day may come when the sole conception of this great collective phenomenon will triumph, and permit only method, mechanism, social automatism to have their say, and to constitute a society analogous to that of the bees, and freed alike from catastrophes of enthusiasm and intuition. At the same time individuality, and all that conditions it—image, nation, nervousness, restlessness, the taste for adventure, love, and in consequence revolutions and wars—will disappear. And art at the same time, doubtless, this state to be hoped for? I do not know, as I am living in the future.

That which I know, and FEEL ABOVE ALL, is that such a civilization seems to me hardly thinkable.

Now I know that this may interest but a few readers—yet it deserves understanding, because it makes a decided step along in what may be a decided movement of modern thought. All come; all go; only Truth endures.

Port Wade

An epidemic of grip has been prevalent the past few weeks.

Mrs. Ernest Ellis, of Digby, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison.

Other recent visitors in the place were Mrs. Charles Barry, of Digby, and Miss M. Adams, of Bay View.

Overshadowing all the minor events of the week the community has been plunged into deep sadness due to the sudden death on Sunday morning of Claude Hayden the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hayden. Having just completed his 17th year he was a promising youth, just budding into manhood, and a general favorite among the young people.

The immediate cause of his death was tubercular meningitis, but he had contracted measles a few months previously, followed by a severe cold from which he never fully recovered. Much sympathy is felt for the parents and other members of the family and especially for his grandfather.

Cap. David Hayden who is seriously ill at this time. There are left also to mourn two sisters; a younger brother, besides a sister-in-law. The funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon by Lieut. C. A. Mason, pastor of the Baptist church, at which the deceased was a member. During his last conscious hours, he sang "There's a land that is farther than day," after which he bade his dear ones adieu. The pall bearers were four of his boyhood friends, and the many beautiful floral tokens were lovingly placed about the casket.

"Sleep on beloved, sleep and take thy rest, We loved the well, but Jesus loved the best. Good Night."

Great Interest Shown In First Aid Study

Twenty-six blue-coated, brass-buttoned, be-medalled, Canadian Pacific Railway policemen were on hand to greet Lord Edmund Allenby, conqueror of Palestine, when the famous soldier visited Montreal recently. They stood smartly at attention while the English general laid a wreath on the monument to the fallen soldiers in the Windsor Station and acted as his escort after his tributes.

Every one of these constables is a certified St. John Ambulance Association First Aid graduate. They are among the best first aid teams in the country.

Since the inauguration of the Canadian Pacific Railway Council of the St. John Ambulance Association over 25,000 employees have been instructed in the art of rendering first aid. This includes every branch of the service.

Exclusively employed on Canadian Pacific Railway trains, some two hundred and sixty-two employees of the sleeping, dining and parlor cars recently passed the first aid examination prescribed by the St. John Ambulance Association. This group of men consists of conductors, stewards, chefs, waiters, porters and others who are employed on C. P. R. trains.

Start the Week With a Smile

"Yes, Rupert," said mother, "the baby was a Christmas present from the angels." "Well, mamma," said Rupert, "if we lay him away carefully and don't use him, can't we give him to somebody else next Christmas?"

"Poor old Bill! It's so short sighted's working himself to death." "Well, it's short sighted to do with it?" "Well, it's not to see when the boss isn't looking, so as to keep on shoveling all the time."

Mr. MacFee's wife asked him to keep track of the number of times that he swore in a round of golf. After eighteen holes he came in and emptied a landfill of stones out of each pocket, saying, "Here are the damns the rest are coming on the truck; you count them."

A man dining in a fashionable restaurant, and not wishing to exhibit his ignorance of French, beckoned to a waiter, and, pointing to an item on the menu, said, "Walter, I think I'll try some of that." "Very sorry, sir," replied the waiter, "but the orchestra happened to be playing that just at present."

"Are you sure this handbag is genuine crocodile skin?" the woman asked the shopkeeper. "Absolutely," was the reply. "I shot that crocodile myself."

"But it is badly soiled."

"Well, yes, of course. That's where it hit the ground when it fell out of the tree."

At a conference of Negro preachers a visiting bishop was told at the various examination papers and came upon one marked 101 per cent. "See here, Brother Jones," he asked of the worthy who was conducting the test, "What does 'yo' base yo' answers on?" "One hundred per cent," advised the minister. "But how does this man come to be marked 101 per cent?" "Oh, 'yo' see, suh, he answered one question we didn't ask him."

All Canada Has Taken The Incomparable Chrysler To Its Heart

The Chrysler "70" sells itself every time it exhibits its dashing appearance on road or highway. The contrast between it and other cars is so marked that the desire to own one is bred then and there.

But that desire is as nothing compared to the delight induced later on. For the Chrysler is just as far beyond comparison in performance, roadability, ease of handling and durability as it is in looks.

That Canadians have taken the Chrysler to their hearts is no surprise at all—it is a very natural thing.

They are almost extravagantly enthusiastic about the Chrysler because the Chrysler has shown them long-lived motoring delights beyond all comparison.

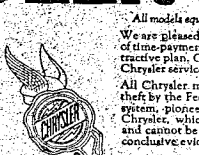

We are eager to demonstrate the Chrysler's many advantages.

CHRYSLER "70"

CHRYSLER "58"—58 miles per hour—30 miles to the gallon—25 to 26 miles in 8 seconds.

CHRYSLER "70"—70 miles per hour—35 to 36 miles in 7 1/2 seconds—68 horse-power—hydraulic four-wheel brakes.

CHRYSLER IMPERIAL "80"—As fine as any car can build—100 miles per hour for a 7 passenger—90 horse-power—60 miles per hour.

All models equipped with full balloon tires. We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan. Chrysler dealers and superior Chrysler service everywhere. All Chrysler models are protected against theft by the Federal patented car numbering system, pioneered by and exclusive with Chrysler, which cannot be counterfeited and cannot be altered or removed without conclusive evidence of tampering.

Are Reading
Advertisements

The purchasing public is daily becoming greater readers of advertisements. The reason of this is that they profit by so doing. They find the goods they want described in the right manner. It is news to the purchaser. That being the case, it behooves the wide awake and straight-dealing merchant to study his advertising matter carefully, so that when the customer comes in to buy, he or she will find that the goods are as represented. Those who do not read advertisements are losers. Make it a part of your reading to go over the advertisements of the merchants. By so doing you will know where to find the best bargains. Also you will know whether the goods are as represented. Merchants are studying the needs of their customers. Buy from the man who advertises and you will not go astray.

DRAGGING-DOWN PAINS RELIEVED

Woman Suffered Nearly a Year.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Brought Her Health

Moose Jaw, Sask.—"I am going to try to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered very badly with dragging-down pains and inflammation, also pains in my right side over my hip and down my whole side into my leg. I had it nearly a year when I went to a doctor and he said I would have to have an operation. But my mother said to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it saved her life years before. I took two bottles and I found I was better. I kept on taking it and also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I had had two more children since then and am perfectly well. I used to have to lie down two or three times a day, and now I do all my housework without trouble. I always keep the Vegetable Compound in the house as I find a dose now and then helps me. I am writing for you to use this letter any way you see fit and I will answer letters. It can help any other woman I'd be only too glad to try."—Mrs. ERMENEGILLO, 712 Athabasca W., Moose Jaw, Sask., Canada.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all women.

The Ford

I bounce from unknown paths and turn,
I make a sudden ally,
And dart atop the highest hill,
Then rattle down the valley.

By thirty hills I hurry down,
Or skirt between the ridges,
For forty gallons of gasoline
I'll cross some hundred bridges.

'Till last to Henry's plant I go
To be treated with hook and lever,
For cars may come and cars may go,
But the Ford goes on forever.

I shiver over stony ways
In little sharps and trebles,
I clatter into great highways,
I clatter on the pebbles.

With many a jump my folks I fret,
By many a field and fallow,
And many a man on the ground I set,
His anger he does not swallow.

I clatter, clatter as I go
To join the big cars ever,
For cars may wait and cars may go,
But the Ford goes on forever.

I skid about and in and out,
With here an iron railing;
With here and there a steep high bank
And here and there a fallow.

And here and there a squeaky place
Within me as I travel,
With many a "busted" inner tube
Upon the golden gravel.

I go to places where they desire
And some they thought never,
For cars may come and cars may go,
But the Ford goes on forever.

I tear by lawns and grassy plots,
I whiz by hazel covers,
I turn the sweetest happy thoughts
That are born to happy lovers.

I skid, I roar, I knock, I glance,
Among the muddy hollows,
I make all active horses prance
My path they cannot follow.

I rattle under moon and stars,
In brambly wilderness,
I stall when folks don't want me to,
I loiter when they tease.

Then on again I puff and blow,
To join the big cars ever,
For cars may come and cars may go,
But the Ford goes on forever.

Fighting the Flu

Does it pay to fight the "flu"? The type of influenza that has been going the rounds in Digby and many other places the past few weeks is virulent, like the disease encountered a few years back, but it has many familiar symptoms, and, if not taken in time, may lead to a weakening of the constitution that is dangerous.

A man who fought off the disease for something like a week, by remaining at work, and who declares he won, admits he lost 12 pounds in weight in six days, almost constant sneezing in the daytime, sweating while in bed, and lack of appetite and demoralization of the digestive organs racking his system. He did not win that fight. He lost, and also ran the danger of incurring more serious ailments, as a result of his lowered vitality.

The proper way to win against the "flu" is to go to bed, and stay there until the symptoms depart. This can usually be accomplished in twenty-four to forty-eight hours. To stay on one's feet and fight takes at least a week and leaves the fighter poorer in health than he would be at the end of a stay in bed. Besides, when he is in bed, he is not endangering the health of his fellow-workers or those with whom he comes in daily contact.

Mrs. E. Emmerson, Now Recommends
Dodd's Kidney Pills to Any of Her Patients Who Suffer with Kidney Trouble.

Lunenburg, N. S., April 19th (Special)
"I cannot praise Dodd's Kidney Pills too highly to anyone. I have suffered a great deal with a weak back and rheumatism. I used a lot of doctors' medicines but they did me no good. I could hardly lift a patient alone. I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills; used a number of boxes and soon got relief. It often thank the good friend who gave me the advice about Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"I was very much pleased that I did not have to give up my profession of nursing. I am bound to praise them for relieving me and will always recommend them to any of my patients who suffer from the same trouble as I did. I am very thankful to write this testimonial for Dodd's Kidney Pills."

This letter comes from Mrs. E. Emmerson (nurse) of Lunenburg, N. S., and tells of the benefits to be derived through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

North Range

Mrs. Charlie Cosman is quite sick at time of writing.

Eugene White is confined to the house with rheumatism.

Edward White is very sick with a cancer on his hip.

Magnesia best for Your Indigestion

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestents

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness, and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods, and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines, and artificial digestents, and, instead, following the advice so often given in these columns, take a teaspoonful or two tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisurated Magnesia need dread the approach of meal time because

The Radio Bug

Before his radio he sat,
And fiddled with the rheostat,
With admirable patience he Sought stations far across the sea
London, Madrid and gay Paree.

In vain! He caught no distant tones
Of violins or saxophones;
Only the static's wails and moans.
Was he downhearted? Nay, not so,
"I'll try for Scotland ere I go,"
He murmured to his radio.

Once more he clamped about his head
The harness of the ear-phone keen,
And fished and fished for Aberdeen.
A static scream, to wake the dead,
Burst suddenly about his head—
"Buggipies!" he cried, and went to bed.

they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, which can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and without the slightest pain or discomfort. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get pure Bisurated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

Mr. Miller Sleeps Like Log, Eats Anything

"After taking Adierika I can eat anything and sleep like a log. I had gas on the stomach and couldn't keep food down or sleep." (Signed) R. C. Miller. ONE spoonful Adierika removed GAS and often brings surprising relief to the stomach. Stops that full, bloated feeling. Often brings out old waste-matter you never thought was in your system. Excellent for chronic constipation. H. E. JONES.

A Word To The Unwise

The last word of many a driver this summer will be these:
He will turn to the back seat and say to his frightened wife and children: "Shut up. I know what I am doing." And then the train will crash and there will be another family funeral.
For the sake of yourself and your beloved can we not impress on all our automobile drivers, before the season opens that a railroad crossing is no place for you to have YOUR way.

Horrible the record. And will motorists also remember that there are such things as automobiles. Don't dash over the highway crossings.

Obituary

What's It Going To Be,
Wet Or Dry?

Over eighty thousand adults in Nova Scotia—4 out of 5—have been asked their opinion about Prohibition by The Halifax Herald and The Evening Mail.

They're giving it.

The result is astonishing.

It upsets many solidly established opinions. It floods with light one of the most contentious questions that has ever agitated Nova Scotia.

$100 If You Answer

Every day the results of the Prohibition Plebiscite—most comprehensive ever launched by any newspaper in America—are appearing in The Halifax Herald and The Evening Mail.

What conclusion do you come to from reading them? Is Nova Scotia going Wet or Dry? To the one sending in the nearest estimate of the total number of votes cast for and against the sale of liquor in this great Prohibition Plebiscite, $100 in cash will be awarded. There are no strings, stipulations, conditions attached to this offer. What's your estimate of how the vote is going? Mail it to.

THE HALIFAX HERALD
THE EVENING MAIL

Each issue contains news of the latest voting figures. Estimates on the final results must be mailed bearing postmark not later than May 15, 1926.

Prohibition Editor, Halifax Herald

I estimate there will be votes cast FOR the sale of liquor under government control and votes AGAINST such sale.

Outhouse, 33-31p

IN loving memory of Mary Alice Bell, who passed away April 11, 1926, Dearest, thou wert mild and lovely, Gentle as the summer breeze, Pleasant as the air of evening, When it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber, Peaceful in the grave so low, There no more will join our number, Those no more our songs shall know.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is dead, Then in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.

Gone but not forgotten by her sorrowing husband. 38-11p

Mrs. Jabez Appleby has returned from Boston, Mass. and Washington, D.C., where she has been visiting for the past month.

This is the time of the year when more damage can be done to the crops than can be repaired during the whole season, by the people who carelessly trample across the lands leaving foot prints and mud in the way. The householder finds it hard to fill up. The soil is easily broken and the roots destroyed. Take a minute longer and keep to the paths for the sake of future beauty.

A large cold storage plant is likely to be erected at Halifax this summer when finished will cost the victuaries of the city. The site of the proposed plant is at the ocean terminals adjacent to the grain elevator. The project by fixing the assessment of the buildings and land at $300.00 for a period of ten years.

The "Flu" has struck Digby, and there are many of the citizens complaining of their homes. In some cases whole families are sick, but it is of a mild type, and nothing of a fatal nature is expected. Many cases are reported throughout the county, in one home, with a family of thirteen, ten of the number are down with it. The unpleasant weather adds to the general discomfort and is a breeder of the "Flu".

A meeting of the Digby School Board was held in the Town Chambers Wednesday evening, C. Fred McBride, Chairman, in the chair. Miss McLaughlin, Vice-Principal of the Digby School, tendered her resignation. Also Miss McCabe, both were accepted and Town Clerk Bodeau was instructed to get in communication with several applicants who have applied for these positions, and to report at next meeting.

Your neighbours, too, may have had the Flu, but none of them quite so bad as you. From the top of your head to your big-toe point, your whole blessed system is out of joint. Your back aches and your limbs we are sore. Your head was heavy as a lump of ore, you had pains and aches in every pore where you never had pains or aches before and felt as mean if your thoughts were seen as a five cent piece in a jewelry store.

A citizen informed the Courier that he recently observed a crane flying north, which he noted, was a sure indication of warmer weather. We have never heard this one before, but we are all the crane family will follow their leader's example and stay north for the summer. These birds annually slaughter brood and young river trout in large numbers, and apart from their grace and beauty, little good can be said of them.

IN MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER

Bertha A. Outhouse

Tiverton, who passed away April 26th, 1926

Oh how we miss you mother dear, When the shades of night are falling, There comes a longing to have you near, Just to hear your sweet voice calling.

Dearest Mother, how we need you, Since from earth you passed away, And our hearts are aching sorely, As we think of you today.

Inserted by her family in fond remembrance of her great love

When people tell you that a thin liquoring tea is as economical as a thick liquoring one, do not believe them, for a thick liquoring tea like MORSE'S will make almost double as many cups of good tea as its thin liquoring competitor. There is real economy in using MORSE'S thick liquoring tea.

Advertising is being more carefully and widely read every day. People are realizing more and more how advertising is doing them good and the wide-awake merchant gives just as much thought to his advertising as he does to any other feature of his business. Intelligent advertising backed by service will get the business.

S. S. Keyingham, Capt. Elliott, sailed yesterday morning from Digby with a cargo of 5,500 tons of pulp for Becker and Co., Ltd., England. The ship, a 10,000 ton vessel, arrived here on Friday last from Sheet Harbor with 3,500 on board, and the balance, 2,000, was shipped here, the pulp coming from the Clyde Sigsbee Pulp and Paper Co., mill, located at Weymouth.

The steamer Keyingham, after loading a part cargo of pulp at Sheet Harbor, arrived in Digby and is completing the cargo here, where about five hundred tons of pulp from the Clyde and Sigsbee Pulp and Paper Company's mill at Weymouth has been shipped by rail. The loading of the steamer has given employment to about seventy men.

George Peoples, accused of the murder of his aged wife, jumped to his death from the steamer Westport, 11, as he was being taken from Miramichi to Guysboro, Peoples, giving evidence of an epileptic condition, was unable to stand for assistance, when Peoples dashed over the side of the steamer into the water. Rescued by a tug, Peoples was taken to the hospital. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was a sudden drowning.

The stern schooner Rose Ann Bellevue, Captain Raymond Comeau, has arrived from Boston after a passage of three days. Referring to this Weymouth vessel, a Boston paper says: "Comeau, one of the youngest, yet most successful skippers out of Nova Scotia, ranks as commodore of the Bellevue fleet, and in four years of service has never missed a trip, lost a man, nor figured in any serious mishap."

The automobile manufacturers are registering a protest against the change in the tariff as it affects their business. They will admit that automobiles command too high a price in Canada and the reduction brought about by the recent tariff changes will be welcomed throughout the land. The tariff on farm implements has been reduced considerably in recent years, yet we find these industries doing a greater volume of business than ever. Therefore it is reasonable to suggest that while the profit per car may be lessened the lower price per car will induce more sales thus increasing the volume of business which means also the employment of more workers.

"Some people are very much alarmed lest the banning of undesirable American magazines from entry in Canada should make the Dominion appear foolish in the eyes of the neighbors. It would take some assurance for our Yankee friends to laugh at Canada for banning their salacious or otherwise undesirable magazines, while they themselves are having rumormongers over the action of their immigration authorities in excluding the works of the "Baptist" Church, which don't approve. Magazines that come by the thousands can do more harm than any individual."

There has been considerable comment in the local press as to the departure of the schooner Mary T. Fallon for mackerel fishing. The vessel has been laid up all winter and was hauled out on the railways on Saturday for overhauling. Schooner Wesley W. Sinner, Captain Patrick Murphy, bound after mackerel, returned to Gloucester Saturday with her engine broken down. The schooners Sunapee, Minola and Fishburne left for Gloucester on Saturday for mackerel fishing. Latest fresh mackerel receipts reported by Gloucester vessels are as follows: At New York, the Helene, Captain John Matheson, was in with 22,000 pounds; Killarney, Captain Wallace Walker, 35,000 pounds; Constellation, Captain Alonzo Smith, 3,000 pounds; at Cape May, the Catherine Burke, Captain Wallace Parsons, 18,000 pounds; American, Captain George Hodgson, 24,000 pounds; Annie and Mary, Captain Joseph Frontier, 20,000 pounds; Orion, Captain John Dunnington, 15,000 pounds; Lucia, Captain Ambrose Fleet, 14,000 pounds; the Julia, 11,000 and Hoop-La, 13,000 pounds. Prices were 20 cents per pound both at New York and Cape May, offered by Boston, Gloucester, New York and Philadelphia fish firms who have representatives to meet the vessels as they make port.

Rural Deacons Meeting At Round Hill

The Clergy of the Rural Deacons of Annapolis met in chapter at Round Hill on Monday and Tuesday, April 12 and 13, 1926. The members were present at some time during the sessions except Rev. A. W. L. Smith, who is just recovering from a cold.

Three of the Clergy were obliged to shorten their attendance owing to parish duties.

After the opening service and the reading of the Annual Report, a paper was read by the Rev. M. Taylor, entitled "What is the matter with Canada?" dealing largely with the conduct of our young people to the United States. This gave occasion for an interesting discussion. This was followed by a lengthy consideration of matters relating to "The Deacons Magazine," which led to a vote of thanks to Rev. R. Miller, the editor, and to Wm. Randall, the business manager. A special resolution was passed, with sympathy with the Rev. Dr. Moore, President of King's College, in his illness, and of hearty co-operation with him in the service for that University. It was also voted that four pages of free advertisement be given to the King's campaign in "The Deacons Magazine." The itinerary of Dr. MacKenzie, Bishop of Coadjutor, was arranged tentatively, for his visit to the Rural Deacons next October.

The Rev. W. Driffield, Rural Dean, was unanimously re-nominated for a fourth term of three years as Rural Dean, this appointment has since been made by the Archbishop of Nova Scotia.

On Monday evening Evenson was again in St. Paul's Church, Rosette, the preacher being the Rev. Canon Underwood. On Tuesday morning the official Deacons service was held in the same church, the Rural Dean celebrating the Holy Communion and also preaching the sermon at clerum. On the resumption of business the appointed portion of the Greek Testament was considered, and a critical and devotional paper thereon was read by the Rural Dean.

In the afternoon the Rev. Canon Underwood read a very interesting paper on the Annapolis Rural Deacons: its past and its future. This was so full of interest and contained so many practical suggestions, that it will be considered at greater length at the next meeting.

The Rural Dean welcomed the Rev. S. J. Woodroffe as a new member of the Deacons.

Heavy thanks were awarded to the Rector and Mrs. Townshend, as well as to the parishioners who so hospitably entertained the visiting clergy.

In the evening service was held at St. John's Church, Moschelle, when the Rev. S. J. Woodroffe preached an excellent sermon. On Wednesday morning, a all departed home with a feeling that an enjoyable and profitable meeting had taken place.

HYDRO DEVELOPMENT DISCUSSION POSTPONED UNTIL THIS MORNING

Special Session of Municipal Council Will Not Be Called to Consider

Whether County Will Become a Member of Commission—
Majority of Councillors Opposed Scheme

Previous to closing the meeting of the Municipal Council last evening a notice of motion was moved to rescind the motion moved by Coun. Hillman, calling a special session of Council, and it was decided to take a vote on the Hydro question this morning.

The discussion was resumed at noon yesterday when Coun. P. W. Holdsworth, Chairman of the Hydro Committee of the Town of Digby, addressed the Council, urging the members to approve the Bill which had passed the last session of the Local Legislature, so that the hydro may become a reality and the work started at once.

In the afternoon, Mr. Snooks, Electrical Engineer, St. John, outlined a plan which had already been drawn up, and promised to sign a contract to construct the lines, etc., as outlined, for a sum less than $50,000.

Several other citizens also spoke on the subject, urging the Councillors to stand behind the movement in order to try and do something for the County of Digby.

A special session will cost the Municipality upwards of $100.

declared Warden Saunders, but Coun. Hillman thought that the money would be well spent and moved the above resolution, which was seconded by Coun. Andrews and carried.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Councillors Wednesday afternoon, when Warden Saunders called upon H. H. Marshall, Chairman of the Committee appointed by the Council at its annual session in January, to present his report. Coun. Marshall gave a review of what had been accomplished up to the present time by the joint committees of the Town of Digby, the Village of Weymouth and the Municipality. Last week the Power Commission at Halifax had sent Chief Engineer Johnston to investigate the Sissiboo proposition and a report had been received which was read at Wednesday's meeting. The report had been favorable and if development took place at Sissiboo Falls no shortage of water would occur as a surplus supply could be had from Porter's lake, where a dam could be built at a cost of $7,000. Coun. Marshall also outlined plans whereby the town of Digby would take 50 p. c. of the supply of power, the Village of Weymouth 20 p. c. and the Municipality 30 p. c. "One fact must be borne in mind," declared Coun. Marshall, "and that was that the ratepayers in the outlying districts would not be called upon to bear any expense in connection with this development, and only users of electricity would be called upon to pay their share."

T. E. G. Lynch, of the Digby Board of Trade hydro committee, who called upon to present a report, and Mr. Lynch stated that certain opposition to the scheme was noticeable in the country districts, and this was due to the fact that the people really believed that a tax would be levied upon them. Such was not the case, as the proposition must be self-sustaining, otherwise nothing would be done. Several of the Councillors, who wished to be enlightened upon the matter, called upon Mr. Lynch to explain certain sections in the Bill as passed by the Legislature, which was done.

Dr. A. F. Hogan, of Weymouth, said that Digby County was going backward instead of forward, and the only salvation was hydro. If industries are to locate in this county then we must have electricity to offer them, declared Dr. Hogan. The speaker said that Clare Municipality was anxious to go into the scheme and the matter was up for discussion at the present session of the Clare Council.

Dr. Pothier, of Weymouth, explained the proposition, stating that Weymouth had backed the movement and the people were doing everything in their power to bring the issue to a successful conclusion as speedily as possible.

Others who spoke on the proposition were Mayor Anderson, G. I. Lettney, Judge Taylor.

Warden Saunders, before calling upon the Councillors to express their views, stated that, personally, he was in sympathy with the move, and the reason why people in the districts were opposed to the scheme was that they were not familiar with the matter. "When I thing to develop this county will receive my hearty support," declared Warden Saunders. "People in my district were opposed to the development, but since receiving information that it would not be a direct tax on the people, I believe that the majority will hold up both hands for the immediate development. Every man with good reason should take hold of the proposition," declared the Warden in closing.

Coun. Cossaboom, who owns the Smith's Cove summer colony, was of the opinion that if we are to go ahead and expect people to come to this county, we must have hydro, and that very soon. He had a $6,000 Delco plant on his property at the present time, but he was willing to scrap this hydro would more than pay for his plant in three years. Coun. Cossaboom believed that if he did not get hydro he would not be able to make further developments on his property, which at present comprises fifty bungalows, a main hotel, two dwellings and a church.

Coun. Lent, of Freeport, was opposed to the scheme because the people on the Island would not be benefitted and were opposed to any expenditure. He felt that he must fall in line with the people's wishes.

Coun. Hankinson of Weymouth, was in favor of the scheme, and would give his hearty support. Coun. Fitzgerald also promised to lend his support in the development.

Coun. Chisholm and Outhouse, while sympathetic towards the scheme themselves, were obliged to fall in line with the majority of the ratepayers of their district and oppose the development.

Coun. Hillman, who until today had been a strong advocate in Hydro development in this county, created a surprise when he opposed the Bill. He had approached the Digby Board of Trade to give this development more publicity, but they had failed to do so, declared Coun. Hillman. He himself had no opportunity to read the bill, and believed that a Plebiscite should be held so that the County would have a chance to voice their opinion.

Coun. Pugh, of Westport, and Coun. Andrews, of Barron, opposed the Bill as they did not know enough about the proposition to Coun. Marshall claimed that he had been in the Municipal Council for upwards of 25 years and during that time had always used his own judgment. He was sent to the Council to do that, and anything which came up for discussion, he would oppose or reject as he saw fit. His people may be opposed to this bill, but they had sent him to look after their interest, and in voting for the proposition he believed he was doing so for the best interest of the County. Hydro would certainly be a great benefit. The future possibility of this county meant something to him, and as there would be no direct tax upon the ratepayers, he was going to hold up both hands for the development. Coun. Marshall also remarked that he could not understand the attitude of Coun. Hillman on this question. The matter had been discussed in Hillman's presence many times.

G. I. Lettney, a prominent retired merchant of the town, remarked that every Councillor should have the courage of his convictions, and he was more than surprised to see the attitude taken by Coun. Hillman, a man in whom he had the utmost confidence. Councillors were elected to use their best judgment in all cases, and it was silly for them to say that they must go by what the ratepayers in their district had to say. If that was the case all matters of trivial importance would have to be referred back to the ratepayers. He admired the stand taken by Coun. Marshall, which was a stand that all men of intelligence should take.

-Trout Bait-

The fish seem to bite much better when you bring along some Camp Chocolate. It helps over rough spots, being picked with energy that is "efficient" inside twenty minutes, satisfies hunger, the craving for something sweet, serves to make a hot beverage for supper, packs into small space in the kit and in fact has so many virtues that you would expect to cost several times its price. And while we are on the subject of chocolate of the solid type, have you noticed the drop in price of Moirs' Blossom? Each makes a nibble and costs next to nothing.

Lovely Drives In Digby County

Of all the scenic drives in the wonderful tourist centres of Nova Scotia, especially those that are near the ocean, it is no exaggeration to say that those of Digby surpass in variety of scene, in beauty of prospect and in historical interest any that may be suggested to the tourist.

Leaving Digby Town, the Shore Road winds its way along the edge of the beautiful basin, a way cut through the primeval wilderness, running around the base of the mountain, crossing beautiful streams, ascending to the very top of the range, winding down again through the blackbarns and pines, returning again to the water's edge, it rides four miles until a junction is formed with the Lighthouse Road. At the end one mile farther is Point Prim. There the Lighthouse stands on the rugged point of the mountain range above it into the Bay of Fundy.

At the end of that trail the tourist lingers in the evening and the soul is feasted on the most gorgeous sunset scenes in North America. At the end of that trail the visitor is shown where many, many years ago, the bones of the dead and burning embers after the visit of a war party of redskins.

The cliffs are still there, one hundred feet high, where the Indians when rounded up, found no escape and were driven by the outraged pioneers over the cliffs to complete extermination. The road to Bear River leads through valleys, past smiling farms, ever skirting one of the most beautiful rivers of Nova Scotia.

The Acadia Valley road is a drive of several miles through scenic beauty unexcelled. One of the most beautiful and popular drives is on the main highway from Digby Town through the Acadia Valley of Clare. No better highway is found in Canada, where this road skirts St. Mary's Bay for about twenty miles through that marvelous country where dwell thousands of sturdy, home-loving descendants of the French race, and of which the history is closely associated with the wonderful "Evangeline."

Making Tourists Comfortable

Summer time in Nova Scotia means long days of rest and refreshment. The very air is saturated with life giving vigor. Under the azure blue of the skies the sun is hot but not languorous. The land is redolent with the perfume of new-mown hay and the salt tang of the sea. Vista of wonderful attractiveness appear at every turn of the road. The green hills and valleys, the ocean in her changing moods, the wild rose and the hawthorn blossoms make of it a veritable poetic land of beauty.

Rich also in historical traditions which mark the early settling of this continent, it opens up a fascinating glimpse into the past for the traveller. Here may be found the oldest town ever settled by Europeans on the American continent, with the possible exception, of St. Augustine in Florida; here is the land of romance made immortal by the gifted Longfellow; here the spot where Colonel Noble and his gallant band of seventy followers were surprised in the early hours of a morning snow storm, and massacred; here still exists the oldest university on the continent established by royal charter. Nova Scotia is indeed a land where tradition, legend, romance, poetry and history intermingle with the charms of nature in one delightful whole.

And Nova Scotia is hospitable. She opens her doors to the tourists with glad good will for he is a welcome guest. Material prosperity follows in his wake. He also brings a glimpse of the outside world. The small boy takes pride in instantly recognizing an auto number plate from a distant State. Many of the thousands who cover hundreds of miles to visit our shores are our own native sons, called either by childhood memories and the love of the home land. But whatever the lure that furnishes a reason for their coming, one common desire unites tourists and home-comers alike—they want comfort. Scenery, historic lore, remembered childhood scenes all fade to nothing, if the bed is hard and the cooking poor.

The essentials are so few compared to the non-essentials. Airy, clean rooms with single comfortable beds, and lights arranged for reading in bed are essential. These points are necessary. To leave one out causes discomfort. Plenty of hot water in the boiler is another. Too often it happens that the owner of the home does not appreciate the feelings of the travel-stained guest and is in accord with the Cape Cod lodging keeper, who when asked for hot water, replied, "Why, it isn't Saturday night yet!"

The food essentials are equally as few. Cleanliness with attractive service and simple, well-cooked food with plenty of it. Nova Scotia products should be used as much as possible. Fish in all varieties should be constantly served. What is more delicious than a good fish chowder, yet how seldom it is found on the menu. Clams are to be had for the digging, but where can one buy fried clams or ever eat them? It may be easier to open a can of something, than to prepare clams, but it won't pay in the long run. Meats should be carefully selected, for too often they are tough. A "round steak" served as steak is an atrocity, and should be banished.

Abundance of cream, eggs, small fruits, hot rolls and brown bread are always delicious to the tourist and appreciated. The art of making coffee does not come naturally to the Nova Scotiac, but can be acquired. Strong coffee thinned out with rich cream is a rare avis.

Longfellow says that when Evangeline passed it was "like the ceasing of exquisite music." Would that the traveller through our Province would catch the same note.

He: "And did you see Monte Carlo while you were at New?"
She: "No. Papa called on him, I believe, but from his disappointed appearance, when he returned to the hotel I think Mr. Carlo must have been out."

Tommy, very sleepy, was saying his prayers.
"Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep—keep—keep!"
"If his mother prompted."
"If he beller, let him go, seny meeny, miny mo!"

Just Talks--On Common Themes

Lincoln According to Carl Sandburg

CARL Sandburg lives in my memory as a man of exquisite accomplishment and rare poetic power. He links us with romance, imagination, peace of the broad plains, that undeviating Faith that rests broadly on the bosom of eternal things.

I shall never forget his appearance or his revelations therein and also through the media of his voice, his speech. And so I make no apology for writing from his marvelous two-volume life of Lincoln, recently issued. He says broadly of Lincoln at the time when Lincoln was "growing up":

"He lived with trees, with the bush wet, with shining raindrops, with the burning bush of autumn, with the lone wild duck riding a north wind and crying down on a line north to south, the faces of open sky and weather, the ax which is an individual one-man instrument, these he had for companions, books, friends, talkers, chums of his endless changing soliloquies.

"His moccasins feet in the winter time knew the white spaces of snowdrifts piled in whimsical shapes against timber slopes or blown in levels across the fields of last year's cut corn stalks; in the summer time his bare feet toughened in the gravel of green streams while he laughed back to the chatter of bluejays in the red-haw trees or while he kept his hands in the sough quack-grass for the cow-snake, the attler, the copperhead.

"He rested between spells of work in the spring time when the upward rustle of the coming out of the new grass can be heard, and in the autumn weeks when the rustle of a single falling leaf lets go a whisper that a listening ear can catch.

"He found his life thrown in ways where there was a certain chance for a certain growth. And so he grew. Silence found him; he met silence. In the making of him as he was, the element of silence was immense."

Throughout all of the Biography, Sandburg stresses this element of the germinating influence of Nature and loneliness upon Lincoln. "What a wonderful thing to have a bosom such as Nature's to rest one's head upon—the woods, the mountains, the deeps, the peaks, the rainbows, the seed in the ground, the falling leaf, the leaves of grass.

In summing up the effect, on Lincoln of the remote, nature surrounded life he lived in his growing period, he remarks that it seems there are people who breathe with the earth and take into their lungs and blood some of the hard and dark strength of its mystery. And it appears particularly to have been the case with Lincoln. "During six and seven months each year in the twelve fiercest formative years of his life, Abraham Lincoln had the pads of his footsoles bare against clay of the earth. It may be the earth told him in her own tough gypsy shag one or two kinds of living world keeping. To be organic with running wildfire and quiet rain, both of the same moment, is to be the carrier of wave-lines the earth gives up only on hard usage."

From flatboat trading for Offat, Lincoln, on reaching his majority, goes to Salem to keep store for this same drink-addicted merchant, and his change helps also to open vistas. Offat's admiration for his new clerk has the prophetic note. "He knows more than any man in the United States. Someday he will be President of the United States." And as to the physical man. "He can outrun, outfight, outwrestle, and throw down any man in Sangamon County." And plenty of chances is given Lincoln to prove his employer's boast. There were the Clary Grove game, where Bill Clary, who kept a saloon near Offat's store, put up a bet of ten dollars with his owner that Lincoln can throw the Clary Grove champion, Jack Armstrong. The account of the fray is animatedly described.

Lincoln held him out with long arms, wore down his strength, got him out of breath and out of temper. Armstrong then fouled by stamping on Lincoln's right foot and instep with his boot heel. This exasperated Lincoln so that he lost his temper, lifted Armstrong up by the throat and off the ground, shook him like a rag, and then slammed him to a hard fall, flat on his back.

The gang swam on Lincoln, with hot Kentucky and Irish epithets. Lincoln, bracing his back against the wall, tells them he is ready for them, when Armstrong, breaking through the crowd, shakes Lincoln's hand, declaring, "He's the best feller that ever broke into this settlement."

Passing the mere fables of Lincoln and the many incidents of his pioneer life, the poet soul of Sandburg finds its answer to many of his own strivings in the career of Lincoln. Sandburg seems somehow like Lincoln as one watches his imperturbable countenance rugged as a dry desert swept by storm.

A debating society forms and Lincoln makes his first speech, and James Rutledge, the president, goes about saying there is "more wit than fun" in Abe's head; that he is a fine speaker; that all he lacks is "culture to enable him to reach a high destiny which was in store for him." So he goes on making friends, impressing people, and, despite his gaucheries, his gangling figure, taking the sentimental fancy of little Ann Rutledge. Here Mr. Sandburg looks into Lincoln's breast.

The name "Ann Rutledge" would come to him and he would pronounce it softly to the shadows in the blacksmith shop where he is burning wood shavings to light the pages of Kirkham's Grammar. He knew the Rutledges branch back out of South Carolina and the Revolutionary War Rutledges, one of whom signed the Declaration of Independence their names were in high places: her father was a southern gentleman of the old school; and he, Abe Lincoln, was from the Kentucky "linkers" who had a hard time to read and write. His heart would be hurting if he hadn't learned long ago to laugh at himself with a horse laugh.

The tale of their brief and tragic love affair as Mr. Sandburg relates it is among the most affecting things in the work. When ever has burned Ann's life almost out, Lincoln and she left together, a last hour in the log house, with slants of light on her face from an open clapboard door. And a week after her burial Bill Green finds Lincoln rambling in the woods along the Sangamon River, mumbling sentences that Bill cannot make out. They watch and try to keep him safe among New Salem friends. But to no avail. "He rambled darkly and idly past their circle to the burying ground seven miles away, where he lay with an arm across the one grave." Slowly, as the weeks pass, an old-time order of control comes back to him. "Only it was said that the shadows of a burning he had been through were fixed in the depths of his eyes, and he was a changed man keeping to himself the gray mystery of the change."

And finally Lincoln's law-partner, Herndon, said, quotes Mr. Sandburg: "Sometimes it appears as if Lincoln's soul was fresh from his creator." In one of their conversations in 1859 bearing on what would happen if conflict broke out between North and South, Lincoln said: "If war is inevitable and will shake the country from center to circumference, you will find that the little men will fall out of view in the shaking. The masses will rest on some solid foundation, and the big men will have climbed to the top. Of these latter, one greater than all the rest will lean forth equipped—the people's leader in the conflict." And he implies that Lincoln was not only conscious that he would be that leader but was aware of the tragic penalty he was to pay. Like the forest oak, tough, solid, knotty, gnarled, standing out with power against the storm, almost defying the lightning, time had been required to grow Lincoln. And as he stood on the verge of his greatest work he "knew." Mr. Sandburg remarks, "what folks knew, and murmured out of the shadows, I shall meet with some terrible end." And it is in this maturity, mantled with a melancholy prescience, that the biographer eaves him.

Chrysler "70" Royal Sedan

All Canada Has Taken The Incomparable Chrysler To Its Heart

The Chrysler "70" sells itself every time it exhibits its dashing appearance on road or highway. The contrast between it and other cars is so marked that the desire to own one is bred then and there.

But that desire is as nothing compared to the delight induced later on. For the Chrysler is just as far beyond comparison in performance, roadability, ease of handling and durability as it is in looks.

That Canadians have taken the Chrysler to their hearts is no surprise at all—it is a very natural thing.

They are almost extravagantly enthusiastic about the Chrysler because the Chrysler has shown them long-lived motoring delights beyond all comparison.

We are eager to demonstrate the Chrysler's many advantages.

CHRYSLER "70"

CHRYSLER "58"—58 miles per hour—30 miles to the gallon—5 to 25 miles in 8 seconds.

CHRYSLER "70"—70 miles per hour—5 to 25 miles in 7 1/4 seconds—68 horse-power—Hydraulic four-wheel brakes.

CHRYSLER IMPERIAL "80"—As fine as money can build—Ultimate luxury for a 7 passenger—92 horse-power—80 miles per hour.

All models equipped with full balloon tires.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan. Chrysler dealers and superior Chrysler service everywhere.

All Chrysler models are protected against theft by the Redco patented car numbering system, pioneered by and exclusive with Chrysler, which cannot be counterfeited and cannot be altered or removed without conclusive evidence of tampering.

The Telephone Enables you to Make your Bargains by Word of Mouth

Who wouldn't rather make a bargain by word of mouth than by letter writing.

It's so easy to say in a talk what is difficult to put precisely in a letter.

In a talk one can convey good will and inspire confidence a feat difficult of accomplishment to most of us by letter.

By word-of-mouth things are speeded up, and a bargain may be struck in a few minutes which, by correspondence, would take weeks to complete. That's why most people prefer bargaining by word-of-mouth.

The Long Distance Telephone makes it possible to employ the word-of-mouth method in bargaining with anyone, anywhere in the Province and in many places outside of it.

Who Is To Blame?

Editor of Courier:

Let us suppose a vessel is foundering at sea. We know the vessel is sinking, is sinking fast, and so leaky that she is filling fast, that it must shortly go down. The ship's utter ruin is a matter of time. The lifeboat, with capacity to hold every person on the sinking ship, is launched. The mariners pause a moment to look at the sinking ship. The Captain of the lifeboat begs every one on board to let go the old rotten ship, and jump in the lifeboat and trust himself in the hands of the crew. The crew, however, refuse the invitation. One says, "the old ship is not so bad she only requires a little mending." Another old salt says, "Away with you and your lifeboat. We have a carpenter of our own, whose business it is to mend old ships. Who do you think is going to leave this fine old ship and trust to that poor looking lifeboat? The ship dille and sinks. Now tell me who is to blame. The lifeboat was sent to them and they refused to get in."

But, my reader, may I ask you a home question. "Where are you in the lifeboat or the old ship?" "Are you in Christ or trusting to the self righteousness of old human nature?" Perhaps you do not care for these things. Are you filling up the measure of these iniquities. You know when the old ship gets full it sinks and when your last sin on earth is filled up and you sink into endless perdition you will remember "Who is to blame?" Plainly themselves. The lifeboat was sent to them and they refused.

But are you trusting to outward forms and ceremonies of religion? The ship is sinking fast, the pumps will not keep her afloat and you are on the board of her you will go down with the paint brush in your hand. Oh, you say they are many opinions, how am I to tell which is right? Whoever points you to Christ, the lifeboat is right. Whoever keeps you in the old ship is wrong. Do you not see that? Oh give up the vain attempt to mend the old ship. Own yourself a lost ruined sinner. Trust Him with all your heart, confidence Him with your lips and life. You cannot be in both. If you are in the old ship no matter how self-righteous you are, you are sinking fast. There is not a moment to be lost. It is indeed great presumption for anyone on the old ship to say, "I know I am a sinner, but if you are in Christ the lifeboat, you cannot be too sure. He never did and never will lose those who put their trust in him."

Tennis Club

Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the South End Tennis and Quilt Club was held in the Town Hall on April 21 (21 people present).

The following officers were elected:
President—Dr. V. G. Turnbull.
Vice President—Miss Mildred Cartwright.
Sec'y-Treas.—Dr. W. F. Read.
Asst. Sec. Treas.—Miss Carolyn Jones.

The following Committees were appointed:
Grounds Comm.—C. R. Tibert, T. A. Pringleton.

Ten Committee—Miss Gertrude Oliver, Conveyer, Miss Mildred Cartwright, Miss Carolyn Jones, Miss Vivian MacNutt, Miss Ellen Rannburn.

P. R. MacIntosh and C. R. Tibert were appointed Auditors for the year.

Owing to the fact that there are but two courts at present available for players it was decided to limit the membership of the Club to seniors only, and the age limit was fixed at 14 years.

Later, if the Club is in funds and it is thought advisable the court now unused may be fixed up for the use of juniors.

Work on the courts and grounds is being started immediately and it is hoped the courts will be open to members in about a week's time.

As the Club is in need of funds to meet the usual expenses and pay for work on the courts, it was decided to strictly enforce the By Law requiring all members to pay their dues before being allowed the privilege of using the Club.

Obituary

MRS. ELIZABETH WHITE
Digby County loses one of the most beloved of its older citizens in the passing of Mrs. Elizabeth White, whose death occurred last week at her late residence in Culloden.

Born in New Edinburgh, Scotland; she came to Canada about fifty years ago, and settled at Milk Cove, Digby County.

During the period when a diphtheria epidemic was scouring the community, this noble lady carefully nursed many of the stricken ones and was one of the factors in checking the dread disease.

She carried the heartfelt gratitude of the people among whom she lived, and was remembered as a true and loving friend.

She later moved to Culloden, where she has of late years resided with her daughter, Mr. Wallace, Hanstjerna. She was in active work as a member of the Baptist church, and had always taken a prominent part in charitable and social affairs. Always a great lover of children.

She especially enjoyed the company of her grandchildren and was a great help to them in their studies. She was a member of the Baptist church, and had always taken a prominent part in charitable and social affairs. Always a great lover of children.

Back hurt? Can't straighten up without feeling sore? Now listen! That's Rheumatism - or maybe from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes old sores, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back and out comes the pain. It is harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and after that, it's just once you'll forget that you ever had backache, lameness or stiffness, because your back will never hurt you again.

It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years.

Maple Syrup Time in Old Quebec

Maple sugar sap is flowing now through the many forests of the ancient province of Quebec. Every train coming into Windsor Station, Montreal, from the Eastern Townships brings increasing supplies of maple syrup. In assorted containers, in cans, kegs, cream bottles, jars, crates, gallon tins, in every conceivable shape or form, the delicious liquid comes pouring through the gateway of the Canadian metropolis. Similar shipments pour into the Place Viger Station from the famous Laurentian mountains during the months of March and April every year. This spring the cold winds slowed up the supply early in April, but by the end of the month larger amounts were received, the peak being reached usually about the last week of April.

Sugaring parties make the mountain wildernesses ring with their shouts every week-end during the second month of spring. Men and women, boys and girls, wrapped in mufflers and arrayed in sundry woollens, stand around the trees and drink maple syrup from huge cups sampling the first of the season's output. "Ah-h-h-h-h! It's good," floats out the unanimous verdict. Expressions of delight flood the faces of the participants of the sugaring bees as they dip wooden ladles into the flowing syrup, raising them hastily to their lips so as not to lose even a drop.

According to Dominion Express officials at Montreal the quality of the syrup leaves little to be desired while the quantities being received are well up to the average of former years. Most of these shipments go to produce dealers in Montreal, but quite a quantity is sent direct to retailers and a fair amount is shipped to connoisseurs who look forward every spring to this dainty sweetener from the Quebec maple groves. Out West, too, where maple trees are not found, former inhabitants of the province of Quebec get the maple sugar feeling every year and a considerable number of small shipments go forward to satisfy it.

While the picturesque method of spiking the trees and gathering the sap in an iron pot or in a boiler drawn by horses on a sled still prevails in many parts of rural Quebec, the Townships adopt a more scientific plan. They use the evaporator system under which the sap is poured into containers which are subjected to high temperatures. The water goes off in steam and the sap is left free of all impurities.

Not a Sign of Backache Since

Saskatchewan Lady Took Dodd's Kidney Pills and Her Trouble of Three Years' Standing Disappeared

Mrs. R. Kolas was unsuccessful with all other remedies.

Willow Brook, Sask., May 3rd (Special)

"I have been troubled with backache for almost three years. I have tried all kinds of medicines but they didn't help me at all.

"I sent for some Dodd's Kidney Pills and they did me good. I have not had a sign of backache since."

This statement comes from Mrs. R. Kolas, a well known resident of this place. That Mrs. Kolas's trouble was caused by the kidneys is evidenced by the immediate relief she got.

Weak kidneys are not confined to grown people only. They are too often found in children, sowing the seeds of future ill unless the kidneys are strengthened and put in condition to do their full work.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have been tried and found to be an excellent kidney remedy. They will do you good at once, and, better still, time will prove that the good they do is lasting.

Women's Institute

The Women's Institute held their monthly meeting in the Masonic Reading Room on Monday afternoon May 3rd.

Although the attendance was small it was a very interesting and instructive meeting. Committees were appointed as follows:

Library Com—Mrs. J. H. Cunningham, Miss Beatrice Anthony, Miss Robina Romans.

Publicity Com—Mrs. L. V. Harris, Mrs. A. G. MacIntyre, Mrs. W. M. Romans.

School Visitors—Mrs. J. L. Warren, Mrs. W. M. Romans.

Entertainment Com—Mrs. L. J. Lovett, Mrs. Green, Mrs. J. H. Cunningham.

Arrangements were made for a special meeting on May 15th when Miss Helen J. MacDonald, Sup't. of W. I. for Nova Scotia will be present, and address the meeting. Each Institute member is requested to be present, and to bring a guest.

A very delightful shower was given on Tuesday evening last week at the home of Mrs. Harris, in honor of Miss Marie Thompson, who is to be one of the principals this week in an interesting event. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many lovely gifts of linen and china.

Bear River Tennis Club

The initial meeting of the Bear River Tennis Club was held Wednesday evening with a very good attendance. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, plans for the coming season were discussed. A number of our members voted on and the following were elected.

Bear River East

Mrs. Milton Long and daughter, who have been spending the past three months with her parents, and other relatives, have returned to their home in Lynn, Mass.

Elva Buckner has gone to Bridgetown for a short time.

Maurice Zwicker is spending a few days in the woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jefferson and sons, Cleveland and George, have been confined to the house with the flu. Glad however, to report them improving.

Acid Stomach is dangerous

Acids in the stomach irritate and inflame the delicate stomach lining, sour and ferment the food, prevent proper digestion and lead to ailments of all kinds.

Stomach acids should be neutralized daily, and the stomach kept sweet and clean after eating by drinking a glass of pure Magnesia water made from a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisulphate of Magnesia, obtainable at any reliable drug store, and to food fermentation, and your meals digest naturally and without pain. By following this plan you may eat almost anything without fear of indigestion.

Harris and Silver received on Saturday their third consignment of Ford cars since opening up for business here.

McLaughlin-Buick

Performance is Better

At zero, McLaughlin-Buick Automatic Heat Control means easy starting and smooth running immediately. In every temperature, this exclusive McLaughlin-Buick feature insures gasoline economy, automatically, and at all speeds. McLaughlin-Buick mechanical 4-wheel brakes make secure, footing that is insecure. From experience through winters and summers McLaughlin-Buicks have proved the all-year dependability of the McLaughlin-Buick type of brakes. Their direct, mechanical action is not affected by weather changes.

And not even a blizzard will harm the McLaughlin-Buick Valve-in-Head engine. Every point where metal would rub metal is lubricated under pressure. A flood of oil is forced everywhere, as soon as the engine starts.

You will not find another car today, regardless of its price, with its performance so perfectly protected. Winter or summer, a McLaughlin-Buick is better!

The new low GMAC financing rates are available to purchasers of McLaughlin-Buick on time.

Start the Week With a Smile

Mother: "And what did you learn at school today, darling?"

Elsie: "Oh, Mother, do I have to educate you all over again?"

She: "I wonder if you remember me? Twenty years ago you asked me to marry you." "Absent-minded professor: 'Ah, yes, and did you?'"

Rasmus: "Here's that quatah ah borrowed from you last year." "Sambro: 'You done kept it so long dat ah don't know if its wuff while for me to change mah pinion of you to jes two bits.'"

A Scotch wife nagged and nagged her husband until the poor fellow died. Then she was sorry, very sorry, so she erected a fine stone over his grave on which she had carved the following inscription:

"Rest in peace until I join you."

A colored woman demanded a refund on a pair of shoes recently purchased. The floor walker asked:

"Did you not come up to your expectations?"

"Lordy, no," she answered, "De' hardly come up to my knees."

"Do angels have wings, mummy?" "Yes, darling."

"Can they fly?" "Yes, dear."

"Then where is austin going to fly, 'cause Daddy called her an angel last night?"

"To-morrow, darling."

"What do you think of that new brand of cigar I gave you? It's 'The Colonel,' you know."

"Well, Well, how appropriate! There's something about that cigar that's suggestive of a colonel."

"What's that?" "It's rank."

One day General Berry gave orders to let no one into the camp. The same day his wife and daughter came to see him. When the guard refused to admit them the indignant daughter said, "Why, we're the Berryes!"

"Well," replied the guard, "I don't care if you're the Berryes, you can't get in."

"What's this," said the editor. "Mr. Longhouse is lying at death's door."

"What?" exclaimed the reporter in surprise. "That's not correct."

"No," replied the editor, "but it's better to make a grammatical error than offend Longhouse's relatives. His reputation for veracity is notoriously bad."

A Scotchman got a position in a large commercial house in London; a friend meeting him, shortly afterwards asked:

"Well, how are you liking England?" "All right," he replied.

"But how do you like the English?" "Oh, well," said the Scot. "I haven't met many of the English yet. We see a 'dealing' are wif the heads o' the departments."

The Gentleman: "No, my man, this is not mine. It was a five pound note I lost."

Faddy: "It was a five pound note before I got it changed for a five pound note."

Gen: "What did you get it changed for?"

Faddy: "Och, sure, so the owner could conveniently reward me."

A Clergyman met one of his parishioners in a country lane one night.

"It's pretty damp for a man with rheumatism to be prowling about at night, eh, William?"

"Well, sir, I'm following the doctor's advice."

"Why did he tell you to be out at night?"

"Not exactly, sir; but he said that I needed chicken."

An Irishman was sitting in a station smoking, when a woman came in and sitting beside him remarked: "Sir, if you were a gentleman you would not smoke here."

"Mum," he said, "if ye was a lady, ye'd sit farther away." Pretty soon the woman burst out again: "If you were my husband, I'd give you poison."

"Well, Mum," returned the Irishman, as he pulled away at his pipe, "if you was my wife, I'd take it!"

After working a week, the new hired man notified the farmer that he was quitting.

"What's the trouble?" the farmer inquired.

"When I came here," replied the hired man, "you promised me a steady job."

"Well, haven't you got it?"

"No. There are four hours every night from ten to two o'clock when I don't have anything to do but fool away my time sleeping."

John is a small boy, youngest of a minister's family.

As a punishment for some misdemeanor at the table, it was decided that John must not eat with the family at the next meal.

So his dinner was placed on a small table at the end of the dining room.

When all were seated, the Minister said: "Now John, you should ask a blessing before you eat."

This was a new duty for John, but he bowed his head and said reverently: "Our Father in Heaven, thou hast prepared a table for me in the presence of mine enemies. Thanks for the food, Amen."

Duty On Fresh Herring

Editor Courier:

Reverting to my letter of March 9th last, advising that the United States General Appraisers had given a decision that fresh herring, bottled so far and admitted in the United States free of duty, I am now to advise that the Treasury Board appealed from the decision of the General Appraisers to the United States Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals reversed the decision of the General Appraisers, so that fresh herring, artificially frozen, are not admitted free of duty.

We regret to report Miss Beyea and Elgdon Mitchell on the sick list.

Keeping Fit! A Matter of Habit!

Good Health Is Within Reach Of All Who Observe This Healthful Habit

There is a very good reason why so many people find themselves subject to rheumatism, headache, biliousness and weakened vitality. They have failed to acquire that healthful habit of regular daily bowel evacuation, with the result that they find themselves victims of constipation.

Modern living conditions tend to decrease the amount of natural lubricant in the intestines, making regular easy elimination of the bowel contents difficult.

Under such circumstances poisons from the waste matter that remains behind, are picked up by the blood, absorbed by the system, resulting in undermining the general health and vitality.

Reggie, the scientific internal lubricant augments nature's lubricant, and makes elimination safe and easy.

Reggie softens the waste matter and permits thorough and regular elimination, without overtaxing the intestinal muscles.

Reggie is not a laxative, and may be taken for any length of time without ill effects. At all drugists.

Reggie Sypher, Mr. and Mrs. George Morrell, motored to Smith's Cove on Sunday.

Mrs. R. H. McKay is visiting friends in Yarmouth.

Mrs. Melba Saunders arrived home from Yarmouth where she has spent the past six months with her son R. V. Saunders.

Reggie Shaw, of Centreville, spent Sunday with his friend Stella Morehouse.

Scott Sypher left on Monday to join the sch. Radio.

Two Women Owe Health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Adolph, Manitoba.—"I was very weak and had great trouble during my periods so that I could not sweep the floor. The pains were in the right side and extended to the left and then down towards the feet. It seemed as if the body was heavy and upside down. It is for these troubles I took the Vegetable Compound."

I saw about it in a paper and one woman prevailed on me to try it. It has helped me in every way. The pains are less, and I have more appetite. It is a pleasure to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to other women."

LEOLA DE LOURIE, St. Adolph, Manitoba.

Found Great Relief

Toronto, Ont.—"I am the Change of Life with hot flashes, dizziness, weakness and nervousness. I had head noises and was short of breath. I was very about six months when I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspaper."

I have taken eight bottles so far and found great relief."

Ash Buys Porter Jewelry Business

The jewelry store owned for many years by the late Richard A. Porter, which was purchased from his widow, Mrs. Jennie Porter, last October by Alfred Gover of Port Jefferson, has just been resold by Gover to Guy A. Ash of Port Jefferson, who took over the store this week. Ash is a close friend and neighbor of the former owner in Port Jefferson. Complicated interests in other fields caused Gover to curtail his activities, and led him to sell out to Mr. Ash in order to give himself a free hand in his Port Jefferson affairs.

Mr. Ash, like the late Mr. Porter, is fortunate in possessing a wife who also takes a deep interest in the business, and he will be assisted in the work of running the store by Mrs. Ash. Richard Schaeffer, for many years employed in the store, remains as assistant to the new owner.

The new proprietor has had wide experience in watchmaking and jewelry work. He is a native New Englander, and has had much experience in the factory of the famous Waltham Watch Company at Waltham, Mass. He had charge of a section of the work in the factory there, and knows watches intimately, with a specialist's training. He has had experience also in the retail selling field, and has been on Long Island as a jeweler for the past five years or more, coming to Port Jefferson from Port Jefferson. A very successful business is being projected for the new proprietor.—E.S.

Mrs. Ash was formerly Miss Nettie L. Merritt, daughter of Mrs. John Smith, of Smith's Cove.

Nova Scotia

Poets sing of the southern cross, And the beauty of southern lands. They tell of the West, and the way it was built.

By the touch of the Creator's hands. Do they know of Nova Scotia with her spruce and birch and her hills?

Her thousand lakes and sparkling rills? Do they know the glory of a Nova Scotia sunrise?

And the wondrous beauty of the eastern skies?

Do they know the call of our northern spring. When Heaven and Nature seem to sing. With the melody and joy of the spring-time birth.

And the return of life to the frost-bound hills? Do they know the wonder of a perfect night?

And the sight of the sea in the moon's soft light. Or the storm swept waves as they toss and roar.

Only to break on the rugged shore? Do they know the charm of some sheltered bay?

Touched by the sun on its western way. Or the brilliant glow of the old shore. Making the way 'thru the silent night? Do they know the thrill of those who wait.

For the call of the moon to his timid mate. Or the rest by some lake shining crystal clear.

To listen and watch for the coming deer? Do they know the lure of the mountain stream?

Where the salmon leap in the sunshine gleam. Or the shadowy pool lying still and deep. Where the speckled trout their sight keep. Do they know the song that the night wind sings.

As its message of comfort and peace it brings. And then goes murmuring on its way To meet the dawn of another day.

Oh, they may sing of the lands of the South and West. They may tell of their glories and how they are blest.

But, they sing to me in words that are vain. For they know not the peace and the beauty of Nova Scotia.

"Land of Evangeline" Colonization Board

In an interview with a family, recently arrived from England and settled by the Board, some interesting news was gathered.

They were the only settlers for Nova Scotia on board ship, all the rest being for the West. Very few of the other settlers knew that Halifax is a port of disembarkation, was in Nova Scotia. Over 50 per cent thought that Nova Scotia belonged to the United States.

They stated that the general public in England, the people who buy and eat our apples, know nothing of Nova Scotian apples. The arsenic scare did frighten the public of American apples, under which heading Nova Scotians are known to the general public. The only others being Virginians and Columbians, both understood to be free from arsenic.

The fruit trade of course knows all about our apples, but the price depends on the demand, and the demand comes from the people who buy and eat apples. To them, Scotians are unknown, and even the smaller retailers do not know that our apples are Empire grown.

"Did your last employer give you a reference?"

"Yes, but it doesn't seem to be any good."

"What did he say?"

"He said I was one of the best men his firm had ever turned out."

A RADICAL CHANGE! UPSETTING AN OLD NOTION!

It is an old belief that COMPETITION WILL REDUCE PRICES, but I am going to upset that idea by reducing my prices, with few exceptions, BELOW PRE-WAR FIGURES, because I now have LESS COMPETITION than heretofore.

My lowest priced FOLDER PORTRAITS have been $4.00 per dozen. Hereafter they will be $3.00. Higher priced Folders drop 10 per cent and more.

In AMATEUR FINISHING my price for developing 2A Brownie size and making 6 prints has been 50c. The new price is 45c. Other sizes are proportionately reduced. Of course these are cash prices.

PICTURE FRAMING is reduced 10 p.c. NOVA SCOTIA VIEWS in Sepia and Oil Tints are correspondingly lowered. SOUVENIR POSTALS formerly $1.00 per dozen are now 85c, though single copies remain at the old price of 10c each.

I believe this general reduction will please the public and bring enough new business to increase my profits. By courtesy, prompt delivery, lower prices and better work, I hope to merit and secure your patronage.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my husband Wm. H. Melanson and my dear son Roddy, who died on Monday, May 3, 1926. Call not back the dear departed. Anchored safe where storms are o'er. On the border land we feel them. Soon to meet and part no more.

When we leave this world of changes, When we leave this world of care, We shall find our missing loved ones, In our Father's mansion fair.

Inserted by his wife Mrs. Arabell Melanson.

IN MEMORIAM

In memoriam of Lewis Weir who passed away April 22nd, 1925.

One year has passed since that sad day, When from us he was called away. In silence he suffered, in silence he bore. Till God called him home to suffer no more.

Only to know him was to love him. No one knows how much we miss him. No one knows the bitter pain, We have suffered since we lost him, He has never been the same.

His weary hours, his days of pain, His troubled nights are passed, His ever patient worn out frame, Has found sweet rest at last.

Inserted by his loving mother, sister and brother.

"Tweedles" Will Be Popular Success

When Socrates—or was it Shakespeare?—said "All the world loves a lover," that wise old owl must have anticipated the popularity of the play which is now being presented at the Digby Theatre.

"Tweedles"—the rollicking farce-comedy which will be at the Digby Theatre on Friday of next week. The play which comes direct from a record-breaking run on the New York stage, has been selected by the Digby Theatre for its latest offering.

Halifax—who will be remembered for their dramatic success of former years—as part of their programme of presenting popular drama to the people of the Maritimes. After their appearance in Halifax, the Evening Mail of that city held it as "one of the finest purely dramatic performances seen in this city for many years."

And indeed their reputation for popularity and historical ability seems to have followed the Varsity Players on their every appearance, for they have been greeted with "bumper" houses throughout the Maritimes.

"Tweedles" is a comedy in three acts by Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson—a priceless combination of writers. Who and what "Tweedles" is, the complications and predicaments which restrict the course of true love, all provide a plot which has never failed to have people literally laughing with laughter.

"Tweedles" has been played in many of the best of the theatres and is difficult to conceive action and situation out of which the humor has been more completely wrong than those introduced into "Tweedles."

The story is concerned with the efforts of two lovers to overcome the unending hostility of two families and the ridiculous social barriers which are thrown up to separate them.

These roles are taken by Miss Alice Prowse and H. E. Dyar supported by an excellent company of six. Of Miss Prowse, the winsome and popular leading lady, The Morning Chronicle of Halifax said: "There has not been a more charming and vigorous heroine on the Maritimes stage for a long time than Miss Prowse."

While of Mr. Dyar who plays the ardent but hopelessly impractical lover, to perfection, the Mail of the same city said: "Mr. Dyar more than once brought down the house. He was natural and easy and his delivery was delivered with the right suavity and assurance. His infectious humor scored throughout."

"Tweedles" which will be in Digby on Friday night will be one of the best attractions seen here in a long time. No one should miss it. Follow the crowd to "Tweedles."

OPPOSERS OF HYDRO

In Three Classes

Class I.—Those with selfish reasons for opposing.
Class II.—Those opposed to everything new or progressive.
Class III.—Those not correctly informed, but honestly fearing that Hydro will be a burden to the town.

The last class is the one to be considered. They are sincere, and are trying to GET ALL THE INFORMATION they can. The present issue of "The Courier" in other columns contains information which this class will read with interest and profit, and further discussion will appear next week. Meanwhile let us caution you against the arguments of I and II, and warn you against figures and flat statements made by those who have not studied the subject thoroughly, and whose knowledge is shallow in spite of their pretense, though their tongues wag fast enough to "talk the legs off an iron post." NO THOROUGH STUDY, DON'T CAN QUESTION THE SOUNDNESS OF HYDRO AS A COUNTY INVESTMENT. But nothing is absolutely certain on this terrestrial globe. A cyclone may blow down our county court house. The Sissiboo River may rise and sweep Weymouth off the map. Hydro may fail. In either case our taxes might rise. We should worry.

Class I.—That's a hard nut to crack. You can't argue with a man who has a fat job which he might lose if Hydro comes. You can't convert the sinner who hates to see another fellow get pie when he has to eat porridge.

Class II.—That's easy. Their fathers opposed building the missing link that joined Digby County with the world. They opposed gasoline motor boats for the fishermen. They tried to keep the automobile out of Nova Scotia.

To these last two classes we can only say "For heaven's sake, and for the benefit of your own community, TALK HYDRO favorably. Thus you can fool the people and, perhaps they will never know the truth about you."

MINUTES OF MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

Semi-Annual Session 1926

The Council in and for the Municipality of the District of Digby met at the Court House Digby on Tuesday May 11th at 2 p. m. present Lagan Saunders, warden, and councillors Chisholm, Marshall, Pugh, Leat, Andrews, Fitzgerald, O'Rourke, Cornwall, Cossaboom, Hillman, Hamilton.

The minutes of the January meeting were read and approved.

The report of H. B. Wagner was read, and on motion received. "Your Arbitrator appointed on behalf of the Municipality in the matter under dispute, re Educational portion of the Joint Expenditure account between the Municipality of Digby and the Town of Digby, begs to report that after several meetings of the Committee we have arrived at a final settlement—The Town to pay 62 1/2 p. c. of the amount under dispute, viz—62 1/2 p. c. of $825.82—$517.83.

In arriving at this settlement I have been with the district understanding that it is not to prejudice any future arrangements and I do not in any way agree that the amount payable by the Town in future should be less than the one fifth in accordance with the old agreement between the Municipality and the Town. I have arrived at this decision because of the fact that our Arbitration Committee saw fit to reduce the proportion of the Town's liability, re the Educational portion of the Joint Expenditure account from one fifth to one eighth and accepted the one eighth in full settlement for two years, reverting the one fifth without giving the Town proper notice in writing.

Again it is the arbitrator's mistake to go to the arbitrator's decision which would be much in excess of the difference we would hope to obtain, as anything we may do in that direction would only have bearing on the matter under dispute, and would not in any way determine future arrangements. But should any dispute arise between the Town and the Municipality, in future, I would strongly advise that a thorough investigation in the matter of assessment be made, and I cannot refrain from recommending, as I have already done, that there should not be more than three assessors appointed for the whole Municipality, thus enabling you to arrive at a more uniform assessment, which I believe it is impossible to do under the method now practiced, and I think a careful perusal of the various assessments in the Municipality, in their relation one with another, will bear me out in this contention."

(Signed) H. B. Wagner.

A letter from O. J. Johnson was read, stating that they could not accept this position as auditors for less than $100.00 per year.

It was moved and seconded that O. J. Johnson be appointed auditors at $100.00 per year. Moved and seconded in amendment that Belyea and McNeice be offered the position as auditors at $75.00 per year. The amendment carried, it being agreed that if Belyea and McNeice did not accept this offer the Committee on Tenders & Public Property are to make the best possible agreement with Chartered Accountants for the audit of 1926.

A letter from S. L. Killam was read, stating that on account of ill health he could not accept the position of Chief Assessor for the Municipality. On motion this was received and left on the table.

Mr. F. W. Nichols read some proposed changes in the by laws, as returned by the Governor-in-Council. On motion the by laws as read were accepted.

On Wednesday morning the Council proceeded to the County Home. Wednesday afternoon the report on the proposed Hydro development was read by Councillor Marshall, chairman of the Committee. Delegates from the Town, the Village of Weymouth were present, Mr. T. E. Pugh, Dr. Scholl, and Mr. F. W. Nichols, members of the Council, making the great need of cheap power for the development of the County. The Warden and Councillor Nichols stated their position in regard to this question.

granting the Village of Weymouth power to issue debentures for the purpose of supplying the Village with Hydro power.

It was moved and seconded and passed that the report of the Committee on Hydro, as read by Councillor Marshall be received and left on the table.

Moved and seconded and passed that the Committee on Tenders & Public Property be authorized to secure expert advice on the best method of heating for the County Home and after doing this to proceed to install a heating plant.

On Friday morning Councillor Chisholm moved a resolution asking that the motion passed the previous day for the calling of a special meeting of the Council on June 1st be rescinded this motion not being seconded no action was taken.

Councillor Pugh withdrew his notice to ask for the rescinding of the motion granting power to the Village of Weymouth to issue debentures for the development of Hydro.

Councillor Hillman moved the following resolution, which was passed: "Resolved that this Council urge upon the Minister of Highways the need for widening the approach to the overhead railway bridge, known as Keen's bridge, on the road leading to Weymouth, some three miles from Digby. This Council considering that the present condition, owing to the narrowness of the road and the obstructed view, is extremely dangerous."

The Warden thanked the Councillors and the Clerk for their attention and co-operation. With the Council closed sine die.

DIGBY BOARD OF TRADE DISCUSS HYDRO PLANT

At the monthly meeting of the Digby Board of Trade last evening, interest in the matter, and all are requested to send full information, in writing, to J. F. Wallis, secretary of the Board of Trade.

H. T. Warner, who has recently returned from Florida where he is interested in real estate and other enterprises, gave an entertaining and informative address on Board of Trade activities, publicity, and industrial enterprises in the south. He stressed lack of co-operation among all the people of any section as the most damaging factor in hindering general progress. Team work is necessary if any small community is to accomplish anything, as illustrated in his story of the bees who were able to kill a mile only by being well "organized."

The Fight Is On

The most tragic problem challenging the energy and conscience of the people of this Province is the problem of Tuberculosis. The death rate from Tuberculosis in Nova Scotia continues to be appalling; this despite the fact that specialists in the disease continue to assure us that its ravages can be checked and hundreds of valuable lives can be saved every year.

The Digby Courier has great admiration for the work that has been carried on in Nova Scotia by a small number of earnest men and women who have been fighting the spread of the White Plague. That the death rate from Tuberculosis is still high, is no fault of theirs; it is the fault of every citizen of Nova Scotia who has failed to co-operate with the leaders of the movement.

The people of this Province are not unmindful of this dread scourge, neither are they callous in their attitude toward those who suffer from it. It would be impossible to find a province or a country where the people respond more readily or more generously to appeals to alleviate suffering. The failure to focus public attention on this great problem must be charged to the fact that there has never been a general, concerted Province-wide effort to meet and discharge a great duty to Humanity. The problem has been left largely with those who come into daily contact with it. The majority of us have gone on, realising the existence of the scourge, but not mobilised in the service.

Hundreds Can Be Saved

Money will be required to conduct such a program, a portion of which the people of the Province will be asked to provide.

Dr. Miller, Superintendent of the Nova Scotia Sanatorium, in endorsing the proposed work, felt that $50,000 a year should be spent in carrying out the campaign. "Under these conditions," he said, "I am convinced we should be able to reduce the Tuberculosis death rate in Nova Scotia AT LEAST FIFTY PER CENT. Instead of 700 deaths a year, we should have about 300."

Than Dr. Miller, no person has done more to fight Tuberculosis in this Province, and no one knows better what the requirements are. Fifty thousand dollars a year seems a small sum when there is a possibility of saving between three and four hundred lives. Dr. Miller states that while good work can be accomplished with $30,000 a year, the larger sum should be secured. And we know that the people of Nova Scotia will agree with him, and will be prepared to co-operate to the fullest possible extent.

The formation of the Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Commission is a great move forward in the interests of Humanity. It will mobilise the thought and action of the Nova Scotia people against Disease and Death. We are confident that the objective in the necessary funds will be reached and passed every year.

A Joining of Forces

It is with a realization of these facts that the leaders in the movement to combat Tuberculosis have organised the Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Commission. This Commission bands together in the common cause all agencies and organizations with the common aim and purpose. In other words, it is a pooling of efforts—a welding together of the forces that have been active in the fight. Whereas, these forces have been carrying on largely by their own initiative and as individual units, they are now being brigaded into one formation to present a united front to the Enemy.

The purpose of the new organization of organizations is "to consider, and if it is thought advisable, to act upon any or all measures calculated to reduce the Tuberculosis losses of the Province."

The Provincial Anti-Tuberculosis Program, proposed by the Commission, may be outlined generally under seven heads:

1—The utilisation of the existing Sanatorium equipment as an integral portion of the control effort. It is to be anticipated, however, that accommodation for additional patients may be, in the future, necessary.

2—The extension of the County Health Nursing System to include all counties of the Province.

3—The development of a number of Tuberculosis wards in local hospitals.

4—The extension of the present system of Tuberculosis Clinics by a more regular service.

5—The careful consideration of the extent to which bovine infection is a factor in the Tuberculosis mortality of the Province.

6—An educational campaign to be carried on through the press, by speakers and writers, lectures and pictures at churches, factories, schools, etc., and society meetings. This educational effort, while it may be aimed especially at the control of Tuberculosis, should be broadened to include all aspects of Public Health work.

7—Provision for increased laboratory facilities which will be needed.

institutions and commenced to formulate national aims in keeping with her peculiar conditions and limitations. Have we, for instance, any rational ideas in respect to our population requirements? Should we aim at the status of Russia with 15 per cent. urban and 85 per cent. rural population, or should we strive to reach the standard of the United States with 67 per cent. urban and 33 per cent. rural population? At what point lies the normal equilibrium for Canada. Obviously such questions as these must be answered approximately before we can attempt to construct intelligent, national development policies. Some years ago an "Economic Commission" was created to give us the answer. It never made a report and died on the job!

Upon one point, however, thinking persons can all agree, namely, that our present agricultural population is ridiculously out of proportion to the vast area of our agricultural lands, east as well as west, fairly fit for settlement. There can be no manner of doubt that this condition must be remedied as promptly as humanly possible. It constitutes, in fact, our great, national tragedy. Canada's best brains should be commandeered for public service and focussed on correcting this lopsided, uneconomic state of affairs, because we can have no lasting prosperity until increased agricultural production overtakes our present greatly over-extended industrial, governmental and transportation plants.

There is, however, a deplorable absence of intelligent opinion in Canada on the vital question of colonisation. Important occupational groups are at present even in violent hostility to public expenditure in this direction, their judgment being founded largely on superficial premises. The press of Canada has a patriotic task to perform in bringing the actual facts before their readers, and creating a vigorous and militant public opinion on this issue. Because governments in democratic countries move only in obedience to the will of the people. The initiative, therefore, must come from the great body of Canadian citizens rather than from their government.

The "Land of Evangeline" Colonization Board

A local Committee has been formed at Berwick to co-operate with the Board.

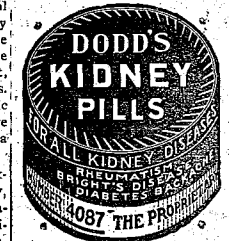

The Board have arranged for advertising to begin about May 15th in some London papers and hope that by the end of June there will be some tangible results. The advertising has for its main objects the formation of small groups of 5 or 6 families, who will leave England together with the idea of settling near each other. In two places listings of farms near each other have been obtained, and special attention is being given to getting these groups of settlers to take up these farms.

The Department of Natural Resources are co-operating with a view to securing settlers for the Board.

The C. P. R. Colonization Department have expressed their satisfaction over the formation of the "Land of Evangeline" Colonization Board. They state that now that the Board are forwarding a regular weekly list of farms for sale, and other openings, and as satisfactory arrangements have been made for the reception of settlers, the C. P. R. Emigration Office in London will begin the work of securing settlers.

Obituary

HENRY J. WOODMAN

Henry J. Woodman, a well known and highly respected resident of Smith's Cove, passed away at his home on Wednesday morning, May 5th, in the 70th year of his age. He had been confined to his home for five years or more owing to failing health, but was confined to his bed for only a short time before his passing away. Although his sickness brought to him severe suffering, especially toward the last, yet he bore it all without a murmur, and his strong and abiding faith in the promises of Christ made him look forward with glad joy to his departure to be with God, in the home beyond. He loved the Gospel in song, even as he did in story, and as long as consciousness remained, he would have his Pastor and other friends who could sing to sing for him, joining in himself as long as strength remained, so that the gloom which usually surrounds the room and the death bed was changed into that of brightness and joy.

The late Mr. Woodman was the very efficient postmaster of that part of Smith's Cove, known as Jogala Bridge for upwards of 27 years, being appointed in 1893 and filling the position up to the time of his death. He was a kind and obliging neighbor, and was known to him as many friends. He filled the position of polling clerk for the Smith's Cove polling district for many years. He also served in the Municipal Council for a term.

Like most of the Woodman family in this community he was a strong Temperance Advocate, and was for the most of his life a member of Home Division, Sons of Temperance, also a member of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon, and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Frank Smith, of the United Baptist Church, which service was a solemn one. The members from the Orange Lodge, Deep Brook, of which the late Mr. Woodman was a member were present, marching in the procession, and performing their burial service at the graveside. The burial took place in the Woodman cemetery.

The deceased was the son of the late Capt. and Mrs. Crocker Woodman, and he was the widow, who was formerly Miss Willie Warren, of Granville, Vermont, who leaves two sons, William C. and Orrin F., both residing in Smith's Cove, and who have one brother, Herbert B. Woodman of this place, to all of whom the Courier extends its deepest sympathy.

THERE is a fresh unfolding of the wonders of nature in the new scenic areas opened up by the Lake Louise-Field Highway through the mountains. The glories of the Yoho National Park in British Columbia, the Yoho Valley and Emerald Lake are now accessible to the motorist.

From Lake Louise, the gem of the Rockies, the road proceeds west through avenues of pine and fir, up to the Great Divide as Stephens. By easy grades the motorist glides down to Lake Wapta, the centre of a romantic and picturesque region.

The descent continues through the Kicking Horse Pass to the Yoho Valley. Here, in British Columbia, a piece of the abandoned right of way is used and some of the finest scenery in the world is unfolded.

There is a marvelous view of the Yoho Valley ending in its glistening glacier.

At Field, the natural bridge is one of the points of interest. A lake under construction from the junction to the western boundary of Yoho park. Then it will be linked up with a highway now being built from Golden.

These roads will give the motorist a scenic trip, probably without parallel in the world, which will include the finest scenery in the Rockies. From the prairies, by way of Banff and Lake Louise, down to Field and Golden, the road turns south by way of the Columbia, to Windermere valley, Turquoise, its western gateway to the Banff-Windermere road, the return to Banff and on to the Prairies, is made.

The Banff-Windermere highway is already completed on the west, by the Columbia River road, with the 4000 loop, known as the Grand Circle tour, which stretches down the Pacific coast to southern California and returns by way of Arizona, Utah, Wyoming and Montana.

The whole highway touches, though, out its length, on national parks in the United States and Canada. The beauties of the Canadian section, so recently opened to the world, are rich in promise for the motorist.

BUNNELL-THOMPSON
In the United Church on Tuesday evening May 4th, in the presence of a large congregation, Rev. Carl Mack united in marriage, Marie Lenk Thompson daughter of Andrew and the late Mrs. Thompson, of this town, and Wernick Douglas Bunnell, son of Candell Bunnell, of Penobscot, N. B. The church had been decorated by friends with flowers and plants.

The bride who was given away by her father, was dressed in navy blue crepe-de-chine with sand bar, and wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Dakin in pink silk, was bridesmaid, and little Margaret Mack in an embroidered net dress over pale blue silk slip and a basket of may daisies. Crawford Bunnell brother of the groom was best man; Mrs. Harry Harris and Mrs. Richard Baxter acted as bridesmaids.

Mrs. Mack played the wedding march. A reception was held at the bride's home, about fifty invited guests.

On Friday, May 4, Mrs. Bunnell left for Sussex, where the groom is a successful farmer.

Thirteen in All - But Not Superstitious

The Smithers family of thirteen, of all ages, recently arrived in Quebec on the Cunard liner "Ansonia" to settle in the Eastern Townships of Quebec.

Mr. Smithers was born in Quebec but went to England twenty years ago. He is firm in his belief that the future in Canada offers splendid prospects, and this spirit was keenly displayed by all of the happy thirteen.

Bell Blessed At Weymouth Church

Solemn Ceremony Attracts Large Crowd From Digby And Yarmouth

Besides parishioners of St. Joseph's, Weymouth, many others came from distances as far away as Yarmouth and the several parishes of Digby and Yarmouth Counties, to assist Sunday at the solemn ceremony of the blessing of the new bell for St. Joseph's Church, Weymouth, a ceremony seen but once in a lifetime.

The new bell, a bronze one, was made in France, and weight twelve hundred pounds. It will replace the old iron bell which has sounded from the belfry for the past thirty-three years, and which became damaged, and whose tones for the past year have been stifled.

The new bell, which bears the name St. Joseph, after the patron saint of the parish, has mounted on the outside the figures of the crucifix, the Virgin Mary, St. Joseph and Pope Pius XI. The following inscriptions are wrought on one side, in French: "St. Joseph, Patron de la paroisse, 1925." On the other side, in English: "St. Joseph, Patron of the parish, 1925." The bell was blessed by Rev. P. C. Thibault, C. S. C., of Weymouth, N. B.

Owing to the inclement weather the ceremony of blessing the bell was performed in the porch of the church, in full view of the hundreds of people who were present.

Rev. Father W. Young, of Yarmouth, officiated, assisted by the clergy, at the ceremony, which consisted of recitation of Psalms, blessing of salt and water with which the bell was washed and christened, of one unctio followed by seven unctio on the outside of the bell and four unctio on the inside. After the ceremony, the bell was placed beneath the bell, which for the event was garbed in the papal colors. When the incense was used the cantor was placed beneath the bell, which for the event was garbed in the papal colors. When the incense was used the cantor was placed beneath the bell, which for the event was garbed in the papal colors.

The clergy took their places within the sanctuary. Just before the sermon the choir rendered the hymn "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

Rev. Father Young preached the sermon, on the uses of the church bell, tracing its history down through the centuries. The speaker described the various kinds of bells, and referred to the church in Mexico where, he said, an infidel Government was endeavoring to silence the bell, and thus deprive the people of the church's services and sacraments.

Concluding, Father Young said: "May the church bell always send forth its clear, clarion call to the faithful to come to church to assist at the sacraments, to commemorate the communion between the living and the dead, to render homage to God and devotion to His Holy Mother."

After Benediction, Father Thibault addressed the people, thanking, in his and their name, Rev. Father Young, the visiting clergy, the many strangers who came from far and near, and the large number of non-Catholics who by their presence, aided and confirmed the spirit of good-will and friendship which exists between them and the Catholic friends in this parish. The priests present were Fathers Young, Weymouth; Sibley, Superior of St. Anne's College, Church Point; Hamilton, Amherst; Hill, Devon; Wedgwood, Melanson, St. Bernards; Coates, St. Anne's College, Bourneville; Ed. Poirer, St. Bernards; West Pubnico; Maillet, Salmon River; Blinn, St. Bernards; E. L. Blanc, Meteghan; A. LeBlanc, Plympton; C. C. Thibault and L. LeBlanc, of St. Joseph's, and Rev. Adolphe Deveau, of Merville.

Citizens Urge The Development Of Hydro Power

Discussion Of Scheme In Council Attracts Large Number Of Citizens—Need Is Stressed

After discussion of hydro for upwards of two days, and the passing of a resolution calling a special session of the Council for June 1, to definitely decide what action the municipality should take, the large number of citizens from all parts of the County who were present at Friday's session of the Municipal Council were surprised Friday afternoon to hear, shortly before adjournment, a new motion made rescinding the motion to call the special session, and calling for a definite decision to-morrow morning.

The present session of the Municipal Council has been one of the most interesting since incorporation, and the debate today was exciting, especially the discussion concerning hydro. Citizens from the town and different districts were present.

Mr. Snooks, electrical engineer, of St. John, and F. H. Hough, proprietor of the Winchester Poultry Farm, at Smith's Cove, addressed the Council, urging upon the members the necessity of acting in the development of hydro in order to try and stop the large exodus of citizens who are daily forced to leave this county for the United States. Hydro meant industries, and industries meant the return of former citizens, declared the speaker.

It was decided, last evening, to take a vote on the question this morning, but Warden Saunders asked the Councilors to clear up several matters on the order paper before entering into the hydro question. Several resolutions were presented to the Council in regard to snow-shovelling in the country districts on the main highways.

Councillor Hillman moved a resolution calling upon the Provincial Highways Board to take over the roads during the winter months, paying the men for shovelling snow, and keeping the main roads open.

This was seconded by Coun. Marshall, but only Coun. Hillman voted for the resolution, which was declared lost.

Later, Coun. Hillman moved a resolution which was passed, to the effect that the delegates to the Union of Nova Scotia Municipalities Convention be authorized to introduce a resolution urging the Local Government to take over the roads for the entire year and pay the expense for removing the snow from the highways.

Coun. Chisholm, of Hillsborough, presented a petition from these districts, 6 and 12, asking the Council to pass a by-law that taxpayers be taxed equally for snow-shovelling, and those engaged on the roads be paid so much per day for their labor. This created considerable discussion, but finally the resolution to that effect was passed.

S. L. Killam of Weymouth, who was appointed assessor for the Municipality, refused to assume these duties, and Warden Saunders urged upon the Council the necessity of appointing a chief assessor to take the place of Mr. Killam. Coun. Cossaboom, of Smith's Cove, moved

NOW IS A GOOD TIME TO GET YOUR TELEPHONE PROBLEM SOLVED

Perhaps you live in a section of a city or town where hitherto it has not been possible for you to get the class of telephone service you want, or where, perhaps, telephone service of any class has not been available.

Or perhaps you live in a rural district so far removed from the Telephone line that, while anxious to have telephone service, you have not thought it possible that it could be furnished you.

If you are faced by such a problem let us know, we are very anxious to meet your views.

Write or Telephone us just what you want, and we shall go into the matter with you.

There could not be a better time than this for taking the matter up, for the roads will soon be open and it will be a simple matter to transport men and material to where they are needed.

"In Every Way—Better"

PEOPLE who look for and appreciate comfort in a motor car are invited to try the added comfort in the Better McLaughlin-Buick.

The Better McLaughlin-Buick is big enough and balanced correctly to carry itself well on any road, but not too big to be ungainly or hard to handle. Seating space is generous. Leg room is ample enough for tall people to relax. Cushions are deep and yielding and tilted to a restful angle.

Rear springs are McLaughlin-Buick cantilevers, which smooth out road inequalities far better than any other type. Low-pressure tires are standard equipment on all models. Your first long ride in the Better McLaughlin-Buick will show you how restful miles can be.

The new low G.M.C. financing rates are available to purchasers of McLaughlin-Buick on time.

AN INTERNAL BATH DAILY RECOMMENDED

A prominent physician made the remark recently that if people were half as particular in regard to internal cleanliness as they are about external appearance three-quarters of our ordinary ailments would be eliminated. This medical man said people did not stop to think of the importance of keeping the system just as clean as one is careful to keep hands, face and body. The result is that the intestinal tract becomes clogged and waste material which should leave the body daily stays there for an indefinite period doing a harm few people realize. So many ills are traceable to these clogging poisons. An internal bath sounds novel, but it is much easier to take than any other kind! A spoonful of Sal Laxol before breakfast (or any other meal), dissolved in a glass of tepid water acts as a gentle cleanser of the bowels and restores a soothing internal bath that rids the body of dangerous toxic poisons and gives one that feeling of freshness, vigor and well-being. A further advantage of the internal bath lies in the fact that a healthy bowel ensures an alert and active mind which makes for greater efficiency and happiness in one's daily work.

Self-Poisoning Takes Huge Toll

Many Fall in Life Through Slothful Rule of Fundamental Rule of Health.

Thousands of men and women are to-day victims of their own neglect. Crouching sicknesses, suffering from headaches and biliousness, they spend enormous sums in medicine and surgery, and would give much to regain their old vitality.

Can it be done? Yes! How? Simply by recognizing the importance of one fundamental rule of health—the proper elimination of the bowels contents. Poisons that are allowed to remain in the system quickly lower the stamina, weaken the nerves and thus pave the way to ill-health. Stop this self-poisoning by taking Nujol—the scientific lubricant that completes the work of Nature's lubricant when, through stress, living conditions, the natural supply fails.

Nujol can be taken indefinitely without injury to the system. Try Nujol to-day. Ask for it at your nearest drug store, but remember there is only one Nujol. Watch for the name "Nujol" in red on the label and package.

Chatham, Ontario. "I want to tell you how much good your medicine has done me. Before my baby came I felt weak and run-down and that I could hardly do my work. My head ached continually and I was so discouraged that I could cry from my heart. I had another baby just one year ago. So I thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I found a difference right away as my head was relieved and my tired feelings gone. My stomach had been doing my washing and she continued doing it, as she said it might set me back. I started to do it again. I sure did help me and had taken just two bottles when my baby came. He is a fine big boy, now nearly a month old. I am taking your medicine again and I am able to do my work all by myself now. I always recommend the Vegetable Compound to women, and especially to expectant mothers, as I believe every new mother should use it. Mrs. OLIVER MENARD, 64 Center St., Chatham, Ont."

Farewell and Presentation to Rev. Fr. Cosman, P. P. St. Anne's Church Blairmore, Alta.

Thursday evening April 15th, 1926, will long be remembered by the parishioners, and people in general of the town of Blairmore, as an eventful day of this parish. It was with the keenest sorrow, and deep regret that the congregation learned, on Sunday last that their beloved Pastor, Father Cosman was, owing to ill health, resigning. "He has suffered greatly during the last five years, and the doctors advised him that it was imperative for him, to move to a lower altitude, in order that he might regain his health.

On Thursday p. m. he formally said good-bye. At 7.30 his congregation and several friends of the town and vicinity, many who are not members of his flock, assembled in the beautiful little church, when benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given; after which Father Cosman was led to the Altar. First when an address was read by the Rector of Calgary, and then by Albert Thibodeau, and presented with a beautiful sterling silver cigarette case suitably engraved for the occasion, on behalf of the Altar Boys. After which on behalf of the congregation, and friends of Blairmore, and vicinity, J. E. Gillis read an address, and E. McDonald presented the Rev. Father with a good substantial purse of gold.

"Rev. P. J. N. Cosman, Blairmore, Alberta.

Dear Father Cosman: It is with a heavy heart that the parishioners of St. Anne's have heard of your resignation as their parish priest. You have been with us since 1917, and the interval has been a most profitable and material growth of the Catholic church in Blairmore. The result, under your guidance, has been the result of your untiring and persistent effort.

Nine years ago you found Blairmore an unpopulated outpost of Catholicity. Despite the zeal and fervor of those who preceded you, but you leave it a well-organized and well-equipped parish, practically free from debt. Your well-known modesty discourages us from recalling how much at this is due solely to you, but we should be doing little justice to this occasion if we did not recall your unwavering zeal for the spiritual good of those who have been committed to your care, your happy faculty of obtaining and keeping the deep respect of all, irrespective of their vision or belief, and your fatherly interest in the children of the parish. This will ever be remembered by those who realized by your endeavors or had the blessing of co-operating with you in their achievement.

We must also recall that our beautiful church, our Catholic residence and our excellent church equipment are the result of your unremitting devotion to the service of God and the welfare of your people. These, we trust, will stand as a memorial of your nine years pastorate in Blairmore. St. Annamunite, require, circumstances.

In parting, we ask you, wherever you may be called to serve as a minister of God to pray for the spiritual and temporal good of your old Blairmore flock as thoughtfully and assiduously as you have done since your coming here. We feel sure that you will always remember us when offering the Holy Sacrifice, and when you find it possible to revisit the field of your nine years' service, we trust that you will give us the opportunity of extending to you a grateful welcome.

Please accept this small gift with our warmest love. You may be spared for many years to serve our Holy Church with the same unselfish devotion as you have served her here.

Signed on behalf of the Parishioners.

(Bl. Enterprise)

To the two addresses the Rev. Father replied very feelingly, which showed his keen sorrow, in having to sever such pleasant connection, and during his reply, there were many a tear dimmed eye, which told of his deep sorrow, and regret of his flock, and friends. He laid stress on the fact that he could bless God, that such a demonstration was ample proof that no barriers could mar the happy bond of friendship, not even of nationality, race or creed; but all had come to do him honor.

Father Cosman referred to the spiritual and material growth of the Parish since his coming here nine years ago, and felt sure that the miraculous growth of the Parish and other good works, was ample proof that Almighty God had abundantly blessed his labour. In closing he asked all to remember him in their prayers, as the life of the priest is no bed of roses, and also that he may be restored to health, and so have many years of labor for his Divine Master. At the close of his reply the congregation all knelt and Father Cosman gave them his final blessing.

Father Cosman leaves at once for Holy Cross H. Spital, Calgary, where he will undergo an operation on his throat, also on his nose. After which he will go to the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, for a major operation and expects to reach his old home in Weymouth N. S. sometime during the summer to rest, and build-up.

A RADICAL CHANGE! UPSETTING AN OLD NOTION!

It is an old belief that COMPETITION WILL REDUCE PRICES, but I am going to upset that idea by reducing my prices, with few exceptions, BELOW PRE-WAR FIGURES, because I now have LESS COMPETITION than ever before.

My lowest priced FOLDER PORTRAITS have been $4.00 per dozen. Hereafter they will be $3.00. Higher priced Folders drop 10 per cent and more.

In AMATRUR FINISHING my price for developing 2A Brownie size and making 6 prints has been 56¢. The new price is 45¢. Other sizes are proportionately reduced. Of course these are cash prices.

PICTURE FRAMING is reduced 10 p.c. NOVA SCOTIA VIEWS in Sepia and Oil Tints are correspondingly lowered. SOUVENIR POSTALS formerly $1.00 per dozen are now 85¢, though single copies remain at the old price of 10¢ each.

I believe this general reduction will please the public and bring enough new business to increase my profits. By courtesy, prompt delivery, lower prices and better work, I hope to merit and secure your patronage.

Hydro Development Will Bring Prosperity

Now that there is a possibility of undertaking a HYDRO scheme for the Municipality of Digby, the Town of Digby and the Village of Weymouth, the writer is of the opinion that those who become responsible should make it clear to themselves and the general public how the cost is to be defrayed. If there is to be a charge on the RATES we ought to know—if not we should be shown where the money for the development will come from, and how the future liability will be met.

Middleton and Annapolis both had HYDRO in operation for some time, and the writer has been inquisitive enough to look up the records as published by the Provincial Secretary every year, and he finds that the revenue at each place is sufficient each year to pay for the operating expenses, the interest on bonds and an adequate Sinking Fund to care for the bonds at maturity.

From enquiries made, the writer is informed that the cost for the scheme to develop HYDRO to supply Weymouth, the line through to Digby and Smith's Cove with all necessary equipment will be about $50,000.

This estimate of a private Engineer has been submitted to the Provincial Hydro Engineer and his opinion warrants those who have the matter in hand to proceed on the lines laid down. If these estimates are nearly right the initial cost will be met by the issue of thirty year Bonds bearing interest at 5 per cent and the working expenses as outlined are as follows:

Int. on bonds at 5 p. c.	2,500
Sinking Fund at 1.2 p. c.	750
Maintenance of line and plant	500
Salary of Elec. and Operator	2,500
Secretary and office expenses	1,000

$7,250

This expenditure will be met by monies received from the USERS of the ELECTRICITY, and as already applications have been received for sufficient energy to bring in an income large enough to meet this expense, there can be no possibility of failure to be self-supporting.

It is not easy for the ordinary individual to understand terms used by electricians, but it will be within the scope of any of our readers to understand that the energy CAN BE MEASURED BY METERS, and the unit is called a KILLOWATT HOUR 'kw. hr.' Some districts pay as much as 20 cents per kw. hr. and the writer believes that Westport was arranging to pay 25 cents. Now if 100,000 kw. hrs. are purchased and the cost to the producers is $7,250 it will be seen that the rate will not be more than 8 cents to be paid to the Power Board. If the purchasers should reach 200,000 kw. hrs the cost will be decreased to 4 cents, which is low.

After the scheme has been in operation a few years there does not appear to be any doubt that this latter figure will be exceeded.

Each distributing center will have its own local expense for Meter reading etc. and will have to add to the rate mentioned above sufficient to meet its own liabilities, for instance the Town of Digby will have to charge its customers a rate which will bring in enough to continue to pay for the present plant, but with the addition referred to the new cost of power will be less than the present price.

The point the writer wishes to make clear is THAT THE USER OF THE POWER PAYS ALL COSTS, and there can be NO CHARGE ON THE NON-USERS. An all-day service of electricity will be a great boon to the district, and can be obtained now MUCH CHEAPER THAN IT EVER WILL BE POSSIBLE AGAIN.

It seems that the time is NOW for the Municipality to get in the line of progress and bring CHEAP LIGHT and POWER into the villages along the route at present planned, and in the future extensions will assuredly follow.

Employment For Prisoners

The legislation recently enacted in the federal parliament at the instance of Miss Agnes McPhail M.P., fully justifies the presence of her sex in the deliberations of Canadian lawmakers. It is of a class that is none too frequently in evidence, and which is very much needed. Miss McPhail's resolution was to amend the administration of our penitentiaries so as to enable the inmates to perform productive work and share in the proceeds for the benefit of themselves and families. Its passage by the unanimous vote of parliament is an important step along the path that leads to a more enlightened penal system in this country, and should receive the approval of Canadian citizens.

The agitation for the removal of the disabilities suffered by the dependents of prison inmates began some years ago, and one of the most persistent advocates has been the superintendent of penitentiaries himself. In his last annual report he set forth arguments in favor of the provision of useful labor in sufficient volume to keep all inmates employed. He showed that annually the government spends many thousands of dollars for articles which could be profitably made in the penitentiaries, the revenue from which would materially assist not only in paying the expenses of the institution but also of those whose natural support they have been deprived of by the strong arm of the law. Such employment and pay, he holds, would form a powerful incentive to industry, good conduct and self-respect on the part of the prisoners.

The Courier should be very glad to see such a policy adopted, not only in the penitentiaries of the country, but in all our prisons. It is, perhaps even more necessary in our county jails and lockups, where prisoners are confined in none too

AN INTERNAL BATH DAILY
RECOMMENDED

A prominent physician made the remark recently that if people were half as particular in regard to internal cleanliness as they are about external appearance, the number of our ordinary ailments would be eliminated. This medical man said people did not stop to think of the importance of keeping the system just as clean as one is careful to keep hands, face and body. The result is that the intestinal tract becomes clogged and waste material which should leave the body daily stays there for an indefinite period doing a harm few people realize. So many ills are traceable to these clogging poisons. An internal bath sounds novel, but it is much easier to take than any other kind! A spoonful of Sal Lulohol before breakfast (or any other meal), dissolved in a glass of tepid water acts as a gentle cleanser of the bowels—provides a soothing internal bath that rid the body of dangerous toxic poisons and gives one that feeling of freshness, vigor and well-being. A further advantage of the internal bath lies in the fact that a healthy body ensures an alert and active mind which makes for greater efficiency and happiness in one's daily work.

good surroundings in idleness for maybe months at a time. We believe in prison sentences for law offenders, but they should be so carried out as to result to the benefit and not injury to those upon whom they are imposed. It is neither sound nor good ethics to continue the present unsentient methods employed in the conduct of our penal institutions.

Stamp Out
the Scourge!

"Making Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Free," is the motto of the newly organized Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Commission, in which is brigaded the units that individually have been carrying on the fight against the White Plague in this Province. For the first time these forces present a united front to the enemy, and they have launched their offensive with vigor and determination.

Declaring that "the disease to a great extent is controllable," the first circular of the commission emphasises the need of support "both morally and financially of every individual in the Province," the plans of the Commission cannot be carried out without this support. The Commission "is convinced that the measures it has outlined for itself will bring about material changes for the better," and "it will be the aim of the Commission to procure with the money entrusted ed to it the greatest amount of service which can be obtained."

The appeal of the Commission is direct: "If you think the Provincial need is great; if you think that the confidence of the Commission is justified; if you think that the scheme outlined is worthy of support we ask for that support."

And we are certain that generous and ready support will be given the Commission. It is a great fight upon which this new organization has entered—a fight worthy of the moral and practical support of every citizen. The problem to be solved is a tragic one. It goes to the very roots of public well-being. And now there is an opportunity to pool our efforts and reduce to a minimum the ravages of this dread scourge.

Freeport

Edward Eaton was a recent arrival from Lynn, Mass.

Coun. F. S. Lent, who attended the regular session of the Municipal Council held at Digby last week was a passenger to Middleton on Friday, to spend the week end with his daughter, Mrs. Harold Ray, before returning home.

Sunday was observed as Mother's Day when special services were held in the church, at which there was a large attendance who enjoyed the messages brought by the pastor who paid high tribute to the memory of "Mother." Music suitable to the occasion was rendered by the choir. Preceding the morning service the second baptism was attended by the Girl Guides, boys scouts and club. At 2:30 P.M. the Men's Class and Sunday School of which there were 175 present, united in the church where a programme was carried out. The eldest mother and Sunday School scholar, who was Mrs. Tabitha Prime of Mrs. F. S. Lent's class, was presented with a bouquet of flowers. Mrs. Prime is in her 86th year but is still an active member of the class. Many beautiful flowers were placed in the church for the day.

On Thursday evening April 29th the visiting members of Sunset Rebekah lodge at Westport entertained in a pleasing manner the members of Fair Isle Rebekah lodge in their hall at Freeport. After the programme—which consisted of music selections and readings, the members were all invited downstairs where a lobster supper had been prepared by the sisters of Fair Isle lodge. We trust there will be many gatherings of this nature during the summer months.

A number have lately visited the fox ranch owned by Carman Nasas to see the new pups which are being so carefully nursed and cared for by a mother cat.

The regular Oddfellows and Rebekah service was conducted on Sunday May 2nd when the members of Chippewa and Fair Isle lodges accompanied by the Juanita and Sunset Rebekah lodges of Westport paraded in a body to the Freeport Baptist Church. The gathering was the largest seen in years.

Beautifying the "Garden Railway"

Living up to its title as the "Garden Railway," thousands of trees, shrubs and perennials were shipped out over the whole Canadian Pacific Railway system early in May this year. These included willows, poplars, lilacs, spirea, honeysuckle, yucca, weigela, caragana, hydrangea, and many others. The perennials include roses of the climber and rambling variety and of all shades of color, tiger lilies, Iceland poppies, aquilegia, dianthus, Sweet William, pyrethrum, delphinium.

Every year the floral committee of the C.P.R. has the stupendous task of supplying the seeds, trees, shrubs and plants to thousands of stations from Saint John to Victoria. Barks are supplied and planted in the fall, rearing their jaunty heads with the melting of the snows in the spring.

The seeds are propagated under glass by experienced gardeners with a view to being transplanted when valued. In addition the committee sends out many thousands of seed packets to station agents and also for use in section foremen's gardens, hulk houses and around shops. Enormous quantities of bedding stock are also provided and among these are pansies, carnations, nasturtia, salvia, petunias, overalls.

marigolds, githyrium, phlox, kochias, zinnias, verbena and abacus.

Railway gardening was introduced in Canada by the Canadian Pacific Railway about thirty-five years ago. The majority of the gardens are laid out and looked after by employees of the system. Locomotive firemen, signal workers, watchmen, bunkhouse attendants and others take great interest in the gardens with the help of horticulturists. Every employee is alive to the importance and the pleasure of making the railway stations blossom. Each one of them is filled with a healthy sense of emulation and the desire to make his own garden the beauty spot of the railway. The men treat the whole plan as a hobby. All make the summer months their own and the general manager's cup, a worthy trophy emblematic of the best floral display along C.P.R. tracks. But the prizes are not limited to this. Every general superintendent offers a prize for his own district, each superintendent gives one for his division and every roadmaster offers one for his sub-division.

During the Great War about 2,000 gardens were converted into vegetable-raising grounds and produced large quantities of food supplies for the men.

FROST-ROSS
The marriage took place at Boston last week of Miss Ada Frost, of Yarmouth, and Capt. Wiley Ross, of this town. The marriage was performed at the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. Bertha McLeod, Boston, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends.

After the ceremony the happy couple left on a motor trip to New York, Quebec and Cape Breton, after which they will motor to Digby where they intend to make their home.

The large number of presents received testify to the popularity of the couple. The groom's present to the bride was a seven passenger Chrysler Sedan.

Obituary

C. WATSON HEIGHT

The death of C. Watson Height which occurred Sunday night will be felt with keen regret by all who knew him. He was seventy-nine years and four months old, and leaves to mourn his wife, who was formerly Miss Emily Sabean, of New Tuxton, and he left four sons, longer they would have been married fifty-seven years. From this union were ten children, namely: Edward F. Height of Manchester, N.H.; Clayton of Barton, Chas. A. Tidwell, Bruce B. of North Range, Jesse L. of Digby, Alden B. of New Brunswick, N.S.; Howard Gorman Plympton; Mrs. Adolph Specht, Barton; Mrs. Herman Height, South Range; and Mrs. Elmer Elmer of Digby, also brothers and sisters who are Doran, James and William Height, all of North Range; Mrs. Benj. Sabean, of Digby, and Mrs. John Farnsworth of Melrose, Mass.; and thirty-eight grand-children.

Mr. and Mrs. Height moved to Plympton from Northville twenty-five years ago, and two years ago moved to Barton to live with their daughter, Mrs. Specht, where he died.

Mr. Height has been a life long sufferer and for the past few years he has been failing, so his death was not unexpected. All that tender hands and loving kindness could do was done and death came to claim his own with all his family around him. He was a life long member of the Baptist Church, loved and respected by all who knew him.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon May 19th, at Barton. Let gentle patience smile on paid. Till dying hope revives again. Hope yields the tear from sorrow's eye, and faint peace up to the sky.

DEACON J. BEALER DE LONG
Deacon J. Bealer DeLong of the Maplewood Baptist church was laid to rest yesterday afternoon at Forest Hill cemetery and the services were attended by a large number of relatives and friends including four clergymen, who took part in the service.

Rev. H. C. Abbott, the Maplewood Baptist pastor, said prayers at the grave at 1:30 and also officiated at the church services in which he was assisted by Rev. Harold Hanson, pastor of the Charlesburg Baptist church, and Rev. Wm. Pratt of the Stoughton St. Baptist church, Digby, and Rev. R. M. Rushton of the Yarmouth Baptist church.

Mrs. Peter Mall rendered, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." The committal services were conducted at Forest Dale by Rev. Mr. Abbott and the pall bearers were four other deacons of the church, Wilbur Bishop, Duncan Dunlop, Percy Wilson and Fred Tucker. The large number of beautiful floral tributes expressed the high regard in which the deceased was held by his large circle of friends—American Exchange.

Colds Are Not Necessary Evils

Observance of One Fundamental Rule of Health Protects Against Them

Whether one catches cold easily is largely a question of physical condition. If the general vitality is low, resistance to disease is weak and at such a time a cold is easy to contract and difficult to cure.

Constipation is frequently the cause of such a state of health, with its attendant listlessness, biliousness, headaches and a general lack of vitality. Poisons from the waste matter that remains behind after imperfect, irregular bowel elimination are picked up by the blood and carried to every part of the body. They weaken your resistance to disease.

If you take cold easily, ask your druggist for Nujol to-day—and remember, look for the name "Nujol" in red on both bottle and package.

Nujol softens the waste matter and permits thorough and regular elimination without overtaxing the intestinal muscles. Nujol can be taken for any length of time with no ill effects.

Weddings

RICE-KENNEDY
An interesting event was celebrated at St. Joseph's R. C. Church this morning when at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Gladys Marion Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kennedy, of Hortonville, was united in marriage to Clifford Rice, of Bear River, Manager of Caldwell-Verya Limited, Kentville. The wedding was celebrated by Rev. A. R. Dapshire, in the presence of a large number of friends who had gathered to witness the joyous occasion. The bride looked very lovely in a navy blue ensemble with lawn lace and carried a white nosegay. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell were in attendance. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rice left by motor to Halifax on a trip through the Province, and on their return will reside in Kentville.

Both bride and groom are well known and respected people. Miss Kennedy has been a valued member of the staff of James Sully Dry Goods Merchant for the past three years, and Mr. Rice has for some time been the efficient Manager of Caldwell-Verya Limited. He was a member of the 31st. Batt. Nova Scotia Highlanders and volunteers in the war. The numerous and beautiful gifts received evidenced the high esteem in which they are held and the value which will be placed on the congratulations and give them a real welcome back to Kentville.

Obituary

E. V. HUTCHINSON
The body of the late E. V. Hutchinson, who died recently at Framingham, Mass., some three weeks ago, was brought home Friday for burial.

On arrival of the train, the Orange Lodge of Deep Brook, and a large service was held in the Baptist church there at two o'clock. After this the funeral service was held at Framingham, where it was not by the officers and members of the Keith Lodge A. M. and A. M. who conveyed the body to Mount Hope Cemetery where it was laid to rest in accord with their ritual, with full Masonic honors, beside his only daughter, Ruth, who predeceased him about four years.

Besides belonging to the Masonic and Orange orders, Mr. Hutchinson was a prominent Oddfellow, of Framingham, Mass. He leaves his wife, formerly Ella Rice, daughter of the late Norman Rice, who with her brother-in-law accompanied the remains; his father and two brothers—John and Leonard, all of Vermont.

Suffered from Kidney Troubles for Years

Nova Scotia Man Affirms
Dodd's Kidney Pills a Truly Wonderful Medicine

Mr. Wm. L. Whitman Suffered from Kidney Complications and Found Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills. Beaver Harbor, N. S. May 17th (Special) "My trouble started from a cold and strain. I have suffered for years from kidney trouble. Rheumatism, Backache and Lumbago being some of my chief troubles. My head used to ache and my eyes were inflamed. I have tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and found them very satisfactory. I think they are truly a wonderful medicine. Really they are used half enough by a good many people."

This statement comes from Mr. W. L. Whitman, a well-known resident of this town. Bright's Disease is one of the most serious forms of kidney disease. It can be successfully treated with Dodd's Kidney Pills. But the better way is to guard against such disease as rheumatism, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's Disease by using Dodd's Kidney Pills when the kidneys first get out of order.

Smith's Cove

Mrs. John Smith who has been spending the winter with friends in U. S. A., has returned home.

Those who are acquainted with Rev. C. L. Snow now of U. S. A. will be interested to know that he has accepted the pastorate of the Pancoak Island and expects to take charge of the work at once.

For some time Mr. Snow was provincial organizer for the Sons of Temperance of Nova Scotia, but during the past five or six years has been residing in U. S. A., where he has spent the most of his life.

Quite a number from here attended the Second Quarterly Session of the Grand Division of Nova Scotia, which was held at Acadia on Tuesday May 11th. Miss Kate Macdonald of permitted to go ahead with the development. This is a very vital point and must be made absolutely clear to the people. In my opinion it is the outstanding issue in the whole issue. If the Hydro Board requires that guarantee before it allows the development to proceed, that is the fact the people want to know. That in my opinion would be the safeguard. That I believe would remove the doubt and suspicion. If anyone has any more information, shoot it along. Doubt and suspicion have always been the only real obstacles on the path of progress, and the doubt that exists in the minds of the people can only be removed by the light of knowledge. If I am wrong in what I have written, tell me. If I am right, back it up.

 The death occurred a few days ago at Sussex, of Captain William J. Phipps, in his day one of the best known skippers of lumber carrying schooners out of the Bay of Fundy. He principally sailed out of Saint John but was no stranger at ports on both sides of the bay. Captain Phipps was sixty years of age, following his retirement from the sea, he resided on a farm near Sussex. Interment took place in Saint John.

A General Clean-up Is Badly Needed

Dear Mr. Editor:

I noticed in a recent number of The Courier an urgent call by Digby's popular Mayor upon all citizens to make a general clean-up during the week May 17 to 22. I see many places greatly improved as a result, BUT I wonder if the Mayor can coax the Town Council to take a dose of its own medicine and fix up the miserable shack used as a town electric power house. It is a disgrace. The point is half off, the yard is full of rubbish, the big doors of the wood house apparently hang by on hinges, Pa-sengers passing through on trains will think the town is on the bum. I wonder if the Council is waiting in the hope that hydro will enable them to junk the whole business. If so that is some excuse. But meanwhile I think the electric lights earn enough money to pay for decent upkeep of the building as far as its outside appearance goes.

Yours,

A KICKER

Digby County Be Warned!

Your boys are leaving. Ambition calls where Progress points the way.

Give them a chance right here. Keep them home, we need them.

Industrial Development is the only solution, and that is impossible today without Hydro.

Fall in line with Progress and forge ahead.

Rejection of Hydro today will set Digby County back many years.

Hydro is a sure paying proposition, and only users pay, while everybody benefits.

Country prosperity and town progress go hand in hand.

Councillors should be LEADERS, not FOLLOWERS.

A man of vigorous thought and progressive ideas can do wonders for his district.

There never was any real progress without an aggressive leader, fearless and independent.

House Destroyed at Clementsvalle

Driving into his home at Clementsvalle, Sunday morning, after spending a visit with relatives at Bay View, John Ellis was shocked to see smoke issuing from the roof of his dwelling. He rushed into the house and got out his wife and children, who had been unaware of the danger. Mr. Ellis and A. D. Sully, who had accompanied him, did their utmost to put the fire out, but the wind was too strong and they began to save the household effects. Several other parties, attracted by the fire gave great assistance and succeeded in saving most of the furniture. The house was a total loss. Mr. Ellis and family removed to Bay View for the present.

DEATH OF POPULAR DIGBY COUNTY CITIZEN

H. E. Jones, Well-Known Druggist, Passed Away Early Wednesday Morning—Was Known Throughout Province

A deep feeling of sadness went over the town on Wednesday morning, when it was learned that H. E. Jones, one of the town's most popular citizens, had been suddenly summoned to his long home. Mr. Jones sustained a shock about a year ago, and although he has been an invalid ever since, he seemed to his friends to be improving. He was bright and cheery and able to be around, although he had not resumed active business. On Tuesday he spent the day in his store, his head clerk being away, and the junior clerk having sustained a broken shoulder blade in an accident the day before. No doubt the unusual strain his system was called upon to sustain that day hastened the end. He retired quite early, and later his wife heard a slight noise from this room, and going to him found that he had gone.

H. E. Jones was 56 years of age. He was born in Digby, and was a son of the late Dr. Jones, always a prominent citizen of the town. He succeeded to the drug business on his father's death and has carried it on ever since. Although repeatedly approached he never entered public life, except to sit in the Town Council. He was an Anglican in religion and a Conservative in politics. He was an enthusiastic Mason and Odd-fellow and took great interest in the work of both Orders. In the Odd-fellow he was a charter member of St. George's Lodge, and was the youngest to join when it was instituted. He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow, one son, Edgar, now in the United States, and one daughter, Miss Carolyn, at home.

The funeral will take place this afternoon under Masonic auspices.

Hydro Development

The question of hydro which is before the people today is an important one in which many citizens should be interested, as it is something which will affect each one of us. The question in my mind is not, do we want it? Certainly we want it but can we have it? Let us consider for a minute some of the advantages of hydro.

They are many. First: it furnishes light and power for the homes. How convenient it is to simply turn the button and have your room, cellar, barn or garage flooded with light. In the modern home today, the washing is generally done by electricity. Electricity runs the vacuum cleaner, cleans your floors, pumps the water, and in many cases does the cooking.
All these conveniences can be had in the country home if electricity is available. The cost will be within the means of nearly every family.
Street lighting is another advantage. What an improvement it would be to have our highways and streets lighted at night. This would be possible if our hydro is developed. Another big advantage of hydro is cheap power for industrial use. Industries cannot be developed without power and our country cannot prosper without industries. Here is a real chance to bring our boys home. One of the chief difficulties with this province is lack of industries. Wherever you see industries you see prosperity. Don't let us forget that point.

The question next arises: Can we have hydro? Yes we can have it.
Competent experienced engineers have gone over our waterways and they tell us that we have the power if we wish to develop it.
They have given the approximate cost of the development and they have gone into the matter thoroughly. Our business men have considered the matter and they advise us that the question is a practical one and hydro can be developed and run on a practical paying business basis and it will not be a charge on our municipality. It has been tried in other parts of the province and has been a complete success.

Citizens of the Municipality opportunity is knocking at our door right now, harder than it has knocked for a long time. Let us have some of the conveniences that other people have. Let us harness some of the power within our doors that God has put there for us.
Let us try to get some industries in our end of the province and let us try to get some of our boys back home. Don't let us sit down and say well, it might fail or it might be a charge on the municipality some day, or it might affect our taxes.
Supposing it did cost more than the estimates and supposing you did have to pay a little something for it the advantage of having it would ten times more than offset any cost that one would possibly have to pay. Let us not let this opportunity go by. Let each one of us stand up with both hands and make sure that our Councilor votes for Hydro when the question next arises in the Council.

The Annual Conference of the Advent Christian Church will take place beginning June 3rd, Thursday, and continuing over the following Sunday. Among the ministers expected to be present are Revs.

Quick Relief From All Kidney Trouble

Dodd's Kidney Pills Are Excellent for Backache, Lumbago, Gravel, Bladder Trouble, Sciatica and Rheumatic Ailments

P. E. I. man used them for pains across the back and found relief.

Tigass, P. E. I. May 24th (Special)
Just why Dodd's Kidney Pills are so popular all over the Dominion is shown by the statement of Mr. J. F. Perry, a well-known resident here.

"For a couple of years I was troubled with a pain across the back. When I stopped down I had a hard time straightening myself up again. After taking a few boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, I feel a whole lot better."

That Mr. Perry's trouble came from his kidneys is evidenced by the relief he got from Dodd's Kidney Pills. They are purely and simply a kidney remedy.
They strengthen the kidneys and put them in shape to strain all the impurities from the blood in a natural manner.

Dodd's Kidney Pills relieve kidney trouble, no matter where or in what form it is found.

Miss Kathrine Marshall, a student at Mt. Allison College, returned home on Friday.

B. C. Clark went to St. John on Monday and returned with Mrs. Clarke on Wednesday.

Arthur Rice entertained the Aid Society of the United Church on Tuesday afternoon.

D. M. McGuire of the Royal Bank
Wolfville, spent the week end at the Grand Central Hotel.

AN INTERNAL BATH HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

A prominent physician made the remark recently that if people were half as particular in regard to internal cleanliness as they are about external appearance these quarters of our ordinary ailments would be eliminated. This medical man said people did not stop to think of the importance of keeping the system just as clean as one is careful to keep hands, face and body. The result is that the intestinal tract becomes clogged and waste material which should leave the body daily stays there for an indefinite period doing harm to the people. So many ills are traceable to these clogging poisons! An internal bath sounds novel, but it is much easier to take than any other kind! A spoonful of Sal Lihofos before breakfast (or any other meal), dissolved in a glass of water, cleanses the entire digestive tract—provides a soothing internal bath that rids the body of dangerous toxic poisons and gives of freedom of freedom, vigor and well-being. A further advantage of the internal bath lies in the fact that a healthy body creates an alert and active mind which makes for greater efficiency and happiness in one's work.

A man named Arnold, who was placed in the cooler on Saturday for creating a disturbance on Water Street, appeared before the Magistrate on Tuesday morning and was fined $5 and costs. Sentencing Judge, who had been accused a severe lecture, and had the man bound over to keep the peace. Arnold is a war veteran, but served the South African war, as well as serving four years in France. He was shell shocked during the late war, and it is claimed that he became a trouble maker in the streets of the late war. Citizens who are responsible for the incident on Saturday last should endeavor to use a little better judgement in future and assist the unfortunate man instead of tormenting him.

Fourteen parrots brought home as souvenirs for their friends by members of the crew, arrived at Boston on the Lamport and Holt after a voyage which is in company with Mr. Captain W. O. Everett of Digby, by the ship having previously been reported in this column arriving from Buenos Aires after a voyage of 45,000 miles, 1,000 cases of corned beef, 1,000 bags of quinquina extract, 1,000 coffee and 1,300 bags of cocoa. In the care of Captain Everett, was a sealed packet containing a number of diamonds in the rough, valued at $5,000 and consigned to one of the Boston banks. The diamonds were found in the hold of the other half of her cargo and from there sailed on June 5th to South America.

Bear River Players Score a Success

On Thursday evening May 26th in Oakdale Hall, the Bear River Players presented "It Happened in June," to a large and enthusiastic audience. This comedy-drama was well chosen as it is as sweet as its name, contains a number of intensely dramatic movements, has a strain of wholesome fun running from beginning to end, and distributes the honors fairly evenly between the members of the cast. Miss Louise Jones as Betty Barton, played a difficult role with historic art and charming manner. Mrs. Robert Cook as her close friend, Sue Crumley, pleased the audience with her natural dramatic ability and unflinching merit. Miss Margaret Purdy as Nell Crumley, was the irrepressible youngster during every moment of the play. Mrs. Fred Harris as Mollie Jessop, the capable Irish cook, sharp of tongue, and big of heart simply captivated her audience. Mrs. Wm. Morice, as Evelina Scroggs, stirred up the fun every time she appeared. Richard Baxter took a leading position with dignity and skill. Joseph Langley was the typical college boy ready for any adventure but rather shy at making love. Harry Purdy as Jarvis Sneed, the headmaster of the village interested his party in a masterly and accomplished manner. Jesse Harris as the lazy man around town, with a big grin, kept the audience in fits of laughter. Mrs. Fraser and Miss Louise Jones were heartily cheered in their vocal solos between acts. Mrs. C. M. Mack presided at the piano with her usual grace and a small orchestra rendered an excellent program. The harmonious selections by V. T. Barr, brought down the house.

At the close of the evening the players were heartily congratulated upon their excellent work and the success of opinion was that the play was a splendid success. In the near future "It Happened in June" will be presented in Digby, Barton and other towns.

Famous Park Where Indians Once Gathered

"Tame Teddy" taking his daily dip. Right—S.S. Siskiwit, one of the magnificent Canadian Pacific passenger steamers plying the Great Lakes from Port McNicoll to Fort William and Chippewa Park.

Night after night on the shores of Thunder Bay, long ago, were heard weird chanting laments of Indian braves. Hundreds of members of various tribes then made this inlet in Northern Ontario ring with their shouts and songs, and the running sound of wooden sticks thud-ding with monotonous regularity on buckskin tom-toms. There the Indians went to hunt and that was the rite of many a tribal rendezvous.

For three miles the water front looks out over the spreading waves of the Bay at the Sleeping Giant.
The Welcome Islands lie in that entrance while beautiful, picturesque Pie Island is on the southern side.
In place of the laboriously handmade, intricately decorated war

On the sandy beaches of Thunder Bay has magically arisen a park called Chippewa. Camping grounds, attractive lodges, long, shady lanes overhadowed by towering giants of the forest, and a real, honest-to-goodness, live-animal zoo are among the features which have contributed to the popularity of Chippewa Park.
The three hundred acres of forest lying under the shadow of Mount

McKay were originally part of an ancient National Reserve and rarely and rarely saw the foot of a white man. Now, on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, adventurously situated close to Fort William, the park is visited by large numbers of men, women and children throughout the year.

Canadians are beginning to find that in addition to numerous natural resources Canada possesses unvalued sites for summer playgrounds, parks and other resorts. Instead of going to other countries Canadians are learning to appreciate Canada first. The changed condition is due argely to improved travelling conveniences by steam, rail and automobile.

Start the Week With a Smile

Teacher—Who were the three wisest men?
Willie—Stop, look, and listen.

He—"I have an idea."
Place—"Be good to it; it's in a strange place."

Willie Willis—Pop, what is a mortgage?
Mr. Willis—Oh, it's something that comes with an automobile, my son.

"Does marriage interfere with a woman's career in art?"
"Apparently not, if she marries often enough."

He (ardently)—"Have you ever met a man whose touch seemed to thrill every fiber of your being?"
She—"Oh, yes, once—the dentist."

He tried to cross the railroad track before a rushing train.
They cut the pieces in a sack.
But couldn't find the brain.

"What have you in the shape of automobile tires?"
"Furrier wreaths, life preservers, invalid cushions and doughnuts."

Haste—That was some wreck up the street—a man in a revere ran into a woman in a tantrum!

Waste—So? And were the cars badly wrecked?

Vicar—"What would happen if you were to break one of the ten commandments?"
Willie—"Well, then there would be nine."

"The boss offered me an interest in the firm today."
"He did?"
"Yes, he said 'that if I didn't take an interest in it pretty soon he'd fire me.'"

CARRIED WIFE TO BED

Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mining, Ontario.—"I am a practice nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three months I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to drink a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed. I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering like I did who got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so we went and got it for me. When I had taken three bottles
I was just like a new woman and have had splendid health ever since.
When I feel any tearing-down pains
I always take it; sometimes a half bottle or whatever I need. It is my only medicine and I have told many one about it. Any one wanting to know more about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I will gladly write to her. I do all I can to recommend it for I feel I owe my life and strength to it."—Mrs. E. L. LAL-BOURNE, P. R. 1, Mining, Ontario.

Do you feel broken-down, nervous, and weak sometimes? Do you have this horrible feeling of fear which sometimes comes to women when they are not well? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently will relieve this condition.

doctor bent over, placed his ear on his breast, and said, "Poor man! Circulation almost gone!" the dying editor shouted
"Your a liar! I have the largest circulation in the country!"

She—Why do you call your car
"Flapper?"
He—A medical body, swell paint job, quick pick up, all kinds of speed, warm quick and is always ready to go.

He and his sweetheart were wandering around looking for a good movie.
Over the entrance of one theatre was displayed a huge sign, "The Woman Pays."
"Oh," says Ike, "let's go in here Sadie!"

Superintendent Weber—"Are you one of them individuals who get a kick out of blows?"
Applicant for job—"Not me. Why I sometimes have to wait five minutes after I have put my tools away before the whistle blows."

In the middle of a performance of a certain play the audience burst into violent hissing, all except one man, who applauded like mad.
"What!" said his neighbor. Have you the nerve to applaud such rot?"
"Certainly not, sir," he replied. "I'm applauding the hissing."

Unquestionably the man ahead was drunk, so the officer gave chase and after some manipulation forced the reeling car to the curb.

Little River

Mrs. Arthur Reed and little son, who have been spending a month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Denton, while her husband was visiting his parents in California, has returned to her home in Halifax.

Rupert Trask left last week for his work in connection with the Geodic Survey, taking in another route.

Messrs Shirley Tidd and Ernest Denton, who are employed in Digby, spent Sunday at their homes here.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Curtis Denton, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Roy Trask, who has been seriously ill with the flu, is improving. Her sister, who was called here, has returned to Westport.

Mrs. Hugh Collins and family, who have been spending the winter at her old home in Westport, have returned home for the summer.

Hugh Collins who was employed all winter in Detroit, U. S. A., has returned home and left for Annapolis as engineer on the "Lottie Marguerite," where she was sold last fall after giving up her ferry service between here and Weymouth.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs.
Wm. Frost on the birth of a girl,
Flora Marie Frost.

Nelson Kelly left last week with his men, Harry Frank, Earnest Frost and Wilfred Frank, for his summers work in connection with the Geodic survey work.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Denton and son, who have been spending the winter at Halifax, have returned home for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Trask and Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Trask have been spending a week at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryon Trask have returned to Boston.

Mrs. Burpee Frost and daughter

A negro woman of mammoth proportions and inky complexion was in an automobile accident. She was transported to the hospital, where she soon regained consciousness. The doctor, seeking to comfort her a bit, said to her:
"You undoubtedly will be able to obtain a considerable amount of damages."
"Damages?" said Mrs. Johnson.
"What are want damages? Ah, got enough damages now! What are repairs."

"My dear," remarked the young husband, "did you ask the milkman why there is never any cream on our milk?"
"O, the carb."

"What do you mean by driving a car in this condition?" he demanded.

"S all right, Ossie," he boomed one replied. "I'm gonna have ter overhaul son's I get sober."

Digby Municipal Council Approve Of Hydro Development From Sissiboo

Vote For Proposed Development Was Seven to Four at Special Meeting—H. H. Marshall To Act As Commissioner—Industries To Be Sought

The Municipal Council which met in special session, Tuesday, by a vote of seven to four declared in favor of the immediate development of hydro in this County, and that they would join with the town of Digby and the village of Westmouth in developing hydro on the Sissiboo. At eleven o'clock, Tuesday morning, Warden Ingram Saunders called the special session of the Municipal Council to order and asked each Councillor to express his opinion of the development of hydro, and also explain the attitude of the electors in their district.

Coun. Hillman, the first to speak on the question, stated that several meetings had been held in his district and also a canvas made of the electors, and he had come to the conclusion that hydro would be a great benefit to the County and he would give it his hearty support. The people wanted information and since the last session had received the necessary information and now they realized that hydro was the only salvation for the County.

Coun. Andrews, of Plympton who opposed Hydro at the last session of the Municipal Council, also changed his views and was ready to support the development. Coun. Pugh, of Westport; Coun. Leary, of Freeport; Coun. Chisholm, of Bear River; and Coun. Outhouse, were of the opinion that the development would not mean anything to their districts, and could not see their way clear to support the bill as brought before the Council.

Coun. Pugh claimed that, personally, he had no interest, whatever, in the proposition and was doing what he deemed the majority of the ratepayers in his district wanted, and that was to oppose the development. Coun. Cossaboom of Smith's Cove, was heartily in support of the scheme; and Coun. Hanksinson, of Weymouth; Coun. Fitzgerald, of Weymouth North and Coun. Cornwall, supported the bill.

Coun. H. H. Marshall, Chairman of the Hydro Committee, appointed by the Municipality, strongly supported the bill and explained fully the benefits to be derived. Warden Ingram Saunders had explained his position, stating that he was heartily in sympathy with the movement.

The vote resulted as follows: For development—Marshall, Hillman, Fitzgerald, Hanksinson, Cornwall, Cossaboom, Andrews; against—Chisholm, Pugh, Leary and Outhouse.

The matter of appointment of a member on the Hydro Commission caused considerable discussion. Coun. Cossaboom moved that H. H. Marshall be the member to represent the Municipality. This was seconded. Coun. Andrews moved an amendment that H. W. B. Warner be the member to represent the Municipality. This was also seconded, and on being put to the meeting the motion was carried seven to four and Mr. Marshall was declared the successful candidate. A hydro committee, consisting of Coun. Chisholm, Andrews, Pugh and Hillman was appointed to look after the interest of the Municipality.

Coun. Hillman asked the Council to appoint an industrial committee, to look after the question of seeking industries for the County, and this request was granted, after which the Council adjourned.

Opening of Digby's New Hotel

Digby's new summer hotel, The Excel Inn, opened its doors on Tuesday evening with a sumptuous dinner, which was partaken of by one hundred citizens of the town.

The Excel Inn, formerly the Columbia House, was purchased some months ago by G. B. Cossaboom, a well known citizen of Digby. Since assuming charge Mr. Cossaboom has had the property completely renovated, the interior re-decorated and painted, until it is claimed to be one of the prettiest hotels in town, and the location one of the best in the Province, overlooking the Digby Basin.

The new owner is known throughout the Maritime Provinces having for some years been connected with the Excelsior Life Insurance Company. He has had considerable experience in hotel work and his many friends join with The Courier in wishing the genial proprietor every success in his new venture.

MISS ROSE DUNN

The late Miss Rose Dunn was born in Bear River 43 years ago. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Dunn. Her father died when she was ten years old. Twenty-six years ago, after Florence Mildred, at the age of five years passed into the Great Beyond.

She leaves to mourn her loss a devoted mother, three brothers, Richard, Frank and Oswald. Also a sister, Mrs. F. A. Grant, of Queens. She had been married for at least seven years and put up a noble battle with a disease that baffled the skill of physicians. She spent the last weeks at the Cottage Hospital, where she received the greatest care and nursing; but she quietly fell asleep on the evening of the Sabbath May 30th. She was a member of the Baptist Church and was a consistent and quiet Christian.

The funeral service was conducted at the house by the pastor Grace United Church, Digby. Eulogies being put on the tenderness of God's great heart toward His suffering children. Interment was at Bear River, where the Rev. Mr. Barras conducted the body to the care of mother earth. Her soul is in charge of the Great Shepherd.

ENSLEY HENSHAW
The death took place on Thursday morning, at the age of 83 years, of Ensley Henshaw, a son of the late William Henshaw of this town. His wife, who was Miss Phoebe Graham, pre-deceased him about eight years ago, since which time he has resided with his son William. Four sons survive him, Harry, John, William and Charles. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon.

JAMES WOOD
The death occurred on May 29th of James Wood of Lacombe, aged 71 years. Mr. Wood, who was an Englishman, had been farming here for the past twelve years. He leaves a wife, one daughter Ethel, a trained nurse in Boston, who was home for the funeral; one son George at home, and three sons in England.
The funeral service was held on Saturday afternoon in St. John's Church of England, Rev. A. W. L. Smith officiating. The interment took place in the church burying ground.
Vicar—"What would happen if you were to break one of the ten commandments?"
Willie—"Well, then there would be nice."
"The boss offered me an interest in the firm today."
He did?
"Yes, he said that if I didn't take an interest in it pretty soon he'd fire me."

Banish The Blues
By Observing Nature's Basic Rule
Those who suffer from despondency, listlessness and headaches can usually trace the cause of these conditions to constipation.
They are frequently brought about by overwork, nervous strain, lack of outdoor exercise or sleep, or improper food, but more frequently by the non-observance of nature's basic rule—regular thorough bowel elimination.
Poisons from waste matter left behind are picked up by the blood and absorbed by the system, weakening the nerves and lowering the vitality.
Nujol, the scientific internal lubricant, corrects constipation in nature's own way by augmenting the supply of natural lubricant.
Nujol by softening the waste matter thus permits thorough and regular elimination without overtaxing the intestinal muscles. It is gentle, safe and natural in its action, and can be taken for any length of time without any ill effect.
Ask your druggist for Nujol today and remember—look for the name "Nujol" in red on both bottle, label and package.

Weddings
YORKE-LYNCH
A quiet wedding took place at the Baptist parsonage, Digby, on May 31st, when Gladys Viola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Yorke of Bear River, and John Lynch of Perrotte, were united in marriage. The bride was charmingly gowned in cream georgette. The happy couple will spend their honeymoon in Yarmouth, and later will reside in Dalhousie. Owing to the illness of the bride's father, only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony.

Here and There

Eighteen fishery overseers from the Maritime Provinces and Quebec recently took a two weeks' course at Halifax, in the latest methods of preparing dry and smoked fish at the Dominion Biological Station and at Dalhousie University.

A crowd of citizens and officials gathered at the Canadian Pacific depot at Vancouver recently to welcome the Canadian Pacific special mail train when it pulled in after having completed the journey from Winnipeg in six minutes over the record of thirty-two hours. The journey across Canada from Quebec occupied less than three and a half days.

Regardless of the great strike in the British Isles, Windsor Station in Montreal was filled to overflowing with travellers towards the last few days of the first week in May. They were all taking the hot train to sail on the Canadian Pacific liner Minnedosa from Quebec. Two special trains were made up carrying five hundred passengers from all parts of Canada.

Revenue of the Prairie Provinces, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, last year from all sources is estimated at $1,050,000,000 representing a huge increase over the sum of $800,000,000 for the previous year. The returns were derived as follows: agricultural, $725,000,000; industrial, $150,000,000; tourist, $50,000,000; mines, fisheries, etc., $40,000,000.

Figures issued at Ottawa show that employment at the beginning of April was practically unchanged compared with the corresponding month while the situation was more favorable than on April 1 in any of the last five years, in four of which a downward trend was indicated on that date. Manufacturing showed improvement and construction registered greater expansion than usual.

Recent improvement in Oriental trade is being indicated by the heavy cargoes carried by the last few liners sailing for Japan and China from the Port of Vancouver. Vancouver merchants view the partial recovery in the volume of business being done with China as a sure sign that the country is coming back to normal. This improvement is noted especially in the recent heavy bookings of the Canadian Pacific steamers.

Whole families of Indians on the Island of Manitowaning, in Georgian Bay, work all winter making twelve-inch bark canoes which are sold as ornaments. A shipment of four thousand eight hundred of these passed through Dominion Express yards at Montreal recently for a New York destination. The old-time Indian canoe is represented in every detail and every one of the tiny vessels is beautifully decorated.

A passenger on a Quebec train was suddenly stricken with an epileptic fit and collapsed in the Windsor Station, Montreal, recently severing an artery in the neck. Constable W. W. Peterson, of the C.P.R. investigation department rendered first aid immediately until the ambulance was called. On arrival at the hospital the house surgeon complimented Peterson on his clever work. Constable Peterson is a member of the C.P.R. Police First Aid team.

Weymouth

The annual ceremony of the crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary, was held at St. Joseph's Church on Sunday evening. This beautiful and impressive ceremony brought to a close the devotion in honor of the Mother of God, which since the first of the month of May, have been held three weekly. The church was filled to overflowing by the people who came from outside the parish to witness the touching tribute and the procession of the children of Mary, and to assist at the religious devotion held in connection with the ceremony. Fifty members of the society dressed in white and wearing a flowing white veil with wreath of evergreen and a blue sash across the shoulders, assembled in procession form at the rear of the Church. As the girls took their respective places, Miss Eunice Melanson played Bugle Note, by which a prelude to the evening's devotion. Four young ladies, the Misses Juliette and Mabel LeBlanc, Marion Halliwell and Vic Cormier, bearing across the shoulder a white sash with the word Mary in gilt letters, headed the procession and carried the frame on which rested the crown which was later placed on the statue. Following these were the flower girls, each carrying a pretty basket of flowers and behind these marched the main body of the procession. During the procession the children sang the hymn, "Bring flowers the fairest, bring flowers the rarest," played by Miss Eunice Melanson. Down the aisles and around the church the procession wended its way until it reached the place where the statue of the Blessed Virgin was placed on a pedestal in front of the side altar. To the words of the chorus "O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today" (little Miss Evelyn Melanson, garbed in light blue robe de chambre with white wings, representing the Angel Gabriel, who stood during the procession beside the statue, placed the crown of waxed orange blossoms on the head of the statue. Then the flower girls two by two deposited their baskets at the foot of the statue. When Fire on Sunday destroyed the large barn owned by Arch Keen at Marshalltown. A man named Barton started a brush fire near the Keens homestead, and sparks lodged on the roof of the barn, destroying it completely. The loss is a severe one to the owner, who carried only $400 on the building and nothing on the machinery, which was totally destroyed.

The leading grocers of Digby have shown a fine spirit of co-operation with the Digby Publicity Committee in carrying out the latter's suggestion for a "Seeing Digby" auto ride for travellers passing through, but not stopping here.

They have set a very low rate of $1.00 for a party of four people. The trip will take less than half an hour and give plenty of time after arrival of the "Empress" before train leaves. The trip will traverse the hill top along the Gold Links and cover part of Queen and Water streets extending from the Joggins to the Race quette. This will give travellers a glimpse of Digby's charms from the best vantage points. The Publicity Committee is placing Digby folders in envelopes on the Empress for distribution to travellers. The envelopes bear printed information and a description of the "Seeing Digby" ride. Later this idea may be extended to the trains as well. It is a good publicity stunt.

The funeral of the late H. E. Jones took place last Friday afternoon under Masonic auspices, and was very largely attended. From his late residence the remains were escorted to Holy Trinity Church by the Oddfellows and Masons. The building was filled with friends who had gathered to pay their last tributes of respect. The service was taken by the rector, Rev. Mr. Driffield. From the church the cortege slowly wound its way to the cemetery where another large assemblage was gathered and an impressive service of the Masonic order was carried out, after his brethren of the Oddfellows, had silently deposited their slips of evergreen. Guy Morehouse, the Worshipful Master of King Solomon Lodge, assisted by Rev. Mr. Driffield, P. D. G. M., as chaplain, conducted the service. Among the Masons present were many visiting brethren, from Bear River, Farnsboro, St. John, and lodges in other places all of which knew and respected the late Bro. Jones.

Canadian Nurses In U. S. A. Are Lauded

"One of the chief industries of Canada is the export of brains and character to the United States," declared Dr. George Vincent, President of the Rockefeller Foundation, addressing the evening session of the annual meeting of the Board of Governors of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada, at the Chateau Laurier.

"An export tax upon these precious but intangible products would add substantially to the revenues of the Dominion, and we, on the other side, would deeply deplore the operation of an embargo," continued Dr. Vincent.

"Our debt to Canadian nurses is already a large one, which it is a pleasure to acknowledge. I recently addressed a graduating class of nurses in New York, and more than a third of them were from Canada. I am glad, however, that Canada protects itself by keeping at home a fine group, and organizing it for efficient work."

Dr. Vincent congratulated the order on its broad conception of the nurses' function, the flexibility of the organization, loyalty to high standards, and its readiness to turn over the task of nurse training to university schools.

Mrs. Dennis, Halifax, was elected a member of the executive council.

With heavy winds prevailing during the past several days, boat fishing has been practically at a standstill. The fishermen fared poorly last week, many of them going behind and a few clearing less than one dollar, after paying expenses, including board, gasoline, bait, etc.

The scallop fleet was idle for some days on account of the wind. In a few days the extension of time for lobster fishing will be over and the patrol boat will be put into commission. Patrol Boat A is being overhauled in Digby.

Summer Hotels Now Open For Record Business

Improvements Made in Hotel Accommodation—The Pines to Open June 25th

With the approach of summer plans are being rushed in the vacation centres throughout the country in preparation for a very busy tourist season. The Public Pavilion in the town has been hired by interested parties and is being renovated. The new boat slip that leads from the Pavilion to low water mark has just been finished.

And will be an accommodation for landing parties.

A fleet of pleasure boats and canoes have just arrived and will be put into the water in a few days. Owing to the cold weather, preparations have been generally delayed and work on the Digby Golf Course is being rushed. The lawns, gardens and tennis courts at all the tourist hotels are being put in shape and quite a number of the summer staffs are already on the job.

The Columbia House, for some years under the management of C. Jordan, has changed hands and will be conducted this year by B. Jordan, of Digby. Mr. Jordan sold out, is at present in Vancouver. A number of summer bungalows are being built by American visitors and will be ready for occupation this summer, and in Bay View, Smith's Cove and Sandy Cove, new log cabins are being rushed to completion.

The automobile travel is expected to far exceed that of last year, especially across the Bay from St. John to Digby and it is reported a special boat will run on that route to accommodate the increased traffic during the busiest period of the tourist season.

New Yacht on Digby Basin—Owned By Coun. J. W. Merkel

Coun. J. W. Merkel's trim little yacht, "Iva," which he purchased last week, was seen on the harbor for the first time on Saturday last. This is the first yacht to be brought to Digby this year, and Coun. Merkel is to be congratulated on the interest he has taken in trying to revive yachting in Digby. Some years ago this town enjoyed one of the most up-to-date yacht clubs in Western Nova Scotia, and an attempt is again being made to start a similar club, in Digby, providing a number of citizens can be induced to become interested.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY WALK

Mrs. Horn Tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Hamilton Ont.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and would not be without it now. I had a female trouble so badly I could hardly walk and I was all run-down and could hardly get around to do my housework. I would be in bed three or four days at a time. I was told by a friend to try your Vegetable Compound. I did, and by the time I took two bottles I was beginning to get around again. I took ten bottles in all, and now I am all right again and doing my own work. I have six grown-ups to work for, so have plenty to do. I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash, and I think it is good. But I owe my health to the Vegetable Compound, and I think it more of it was used women would be better off. I would not be without it if I could reach it."

Mrs. MARGARET HORN, 28 St. Matthews Avenue, Hamilton, Ontario.

Do you feel broken down, nervous and weak sometimes? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly it positively will relieve this condition. O

Better

REGARDLESS of the model or the price, McLaughlin-Buick has always been a good car and an outstanding value.

The underlying principles which make McLaughlin-Buick in every way Buick are the result of years of experience—the standards developed by the Vast Research Department of General Motors—proved by the most exhaustive tests at the General Motors' Proving Grounds—and finally incorporated as standard features essential to McLaughlin-Buick performance.

Today—as in the past and as we confidently believe, in the future—McLaughlin-Buick is the basis of all automobile values—the standard, for the entire continent, to which motor cars of every make seek to measure up. There is a McLaughlin-Buick model to meet your needs and at a price to suit your purse.

The new low GMAC financing rates are available to purchasers of McLaughlin-Buick on time.

ENTERTAINMENT IS GREATLY ENJOYED AT BELLIVEAUS COVE

The entertainment given Sunday evening at the Belliveau's Cove school house, and at 25, Belliveau's Cove, was enjoyed by a large crowd of people who were given one of the finest shows that the party has yet produced. For over two hours the people were treated to an interesting program and the voices of the actors and actresses were rewarded with the rapt applause. The trip dancing by two young girls, the piece de resistance of the evening's entertainment. Musical selections, piano and vocal solo, interested the program. The program was given in the afternoon for the children and in the evening for adults. Following is the program presented:

At the end of the evening concert Rev. Father Atkinson tendered his thanks and that of the participants in the entertainment and to all who helped by their presence at both sessions. The proceeds amounted to one hundred and fifty

Myrtle House Opened Wednesday For Tourist Trade--Large Bookings

Considerable Improvement Made In Property This Season--New Suites And Baths Installed--Interior Re-decorated And Furnished

Considerable improvement is noticeable in the different summer hotels in Digby this season, but none so great as the Myrtle House, which opened to the travelling public on Wednesday. A. T. Spurr, the genial proprietor, has made some wonderful changes in his hotel, and the writer was surprised when shown through this popular hostelry on Wednesday evening, at the many improvements made over last season.

Manager Spurr has spared no expense in renovating the interior of the hotel from cellar to attic. The diningroom, with a seating capacity of 150, has undergone many changes. The walls have been redecorated, the floor re-varnished, and many other improvements made, and today it presents a very neat appearance.

But the greatest improvement is noticeable in the number of new suites which have been provided for special parties who are planning to visit Digby during July and August. No expense has been spared in equipping and redecorating the rooms, and it can be said without contradiction that this one feature alone will be the means of drawing many prominent people to Digby, and will be a great advertising stunt for the town.

During the past winter, Proprietor Spurr, accompanied by the proprietress, visited Florida for the purpose of getting some idea of the way hotels were catering to the tourist traffic. Many towns and cities were visited, and improvements in the different hotels were noted. Today the Myrtle House is somewhat similar to the leading hotels in Florida, and the improvements made have been from information gathered from the best hotel men in the world.

A landscape artist has been busy for several months getting the grounds, surrounding the Myrtle House, in proper shape. Last year Spurr had a new Japanese barbe hedge, about 500 feet put around the grounds, and it is growing rapidly. In a few years considerable improvements over the old hedge will be noticeable.

The experience gained by Mr. Spurr during his trip to Florida will mean a great deal to Digby. Bookings this year are above the average at this well known hostelry, in fact much improvement is noticeable over former years, and when the season is completed the Myrtle House will have enjoyed one of the greatest years in its history.

One special feature about the Myrtle House, is the capable staff of workers employed by Mr. Spurr. Year after year, the same staff is employed, some being in the service since the Myrtle House was purchased by the present proprietor six years ago.

The Myrtle House today is a credit to Digby, and citizens in all walks of life should boost it.

Boating On Digby Basin A Big Feature For Summer Visitors

Boating and yachting is going to be a big feature for tourists in Digby this summer, and for the first time for a number of years, an opportunity will be given visitors to take a delightful trip on the beautiful Basin.

Frank Hayden, one of Digby's energetic young men, has been working during the past three months fitting up the Pavilion on Water street, until today this spot is worthy of a visit from every citizen in town, as well as from every visitor who arrives in Digby. Several large row boats, sailboats and canoes have been purchased and are placed at the disposal of tourists and citizens for a small fee. A visit to the pavilion on Wednesday evening, found both Mr. and Mrs. Hayden busy engaged in making all preparations for a busy season. The lower end of the pavilion contains an elaborate line of fruit, candy, etc., while the second floor, well lighted and with artistic trimmings, will be used as a tea room and ice-cream parlor. When weather warrants, radio music will furnish visitors, and a large modern set has been installed.

This is a new feature, and one which should be well patronized. It has meant a big outlay of capital, and Mr. Hayden is to be congratulated on his efforts to provide amusements for visitors and citizens and that his efforts will be appreciated by all is beyond question.

Michael McKinnon, who is employed in Weymouth, spent the week-end in town with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Syds and child, of Boston, are spending a few days in town guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Syds.

Port Wade

Miss Lena Keans left on Monday for a visit in New England.

Mrs. Wat. Ryder and Mrs. W. W. Cover of Everett, Mass. left here on Tuesday last for a visit in Middleton.

Mrs. McLaren of Shelburne, is for a few weeks the guest of Mrs. F. R. Parker.

Mrs. Mary McGrath, with her daughter, Mrs. Murray Rourke, and little grand-daughter arrived home from Lynn, Mass. for the summer months.

Henry Milbury and Dan Robinson of Litchfield are in the vicinity building a boat for Ansel Casey, which when completed will be used in the scallop-fishing industry.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Dodge of Siding, also Blanchard Dodge and Miss Margaret Dodge of Middleton, were recent guests at the home of Edward Keans. Benj. Gullison of Wolfville, was a week end guest at the same home.

Miss Margaret Mussells spent Sunday with friends at Granville Ferry.

Sch. Valdere sailed this week for Boston.

Harry Beaman, who has been spending a few days in town with relatives, returned to St. John on Saturday.

Mr. E. Hart Nichols K. C. of Halifax and if there is any further information you would like I would be happy to give it to you. Emigration isn't 100 p. c. bad when our sons stick by the old home like that.

Self-Wounded Man Sent to Y. Hospital

Suffering from a serious gunshot wound in the head, which it is stated by relatives, was self-inflicted at his home early Wednesday evening, Walter Sprague, of Weymouth Mills, was taken to Yarmouth Hospital, Wednesday night by Dr. Fother.

Sprague, it is understood, fired three charges from a 12 gauge shotgun at his head, in the backyard of his home shortly after he had eaten supper, but only one took effect. This charge entered the head, at a point just below the chin, and some of the shot penetrated the mouth, and emerged through the left cheek. Neighbors administered restoratives, and Dr. Fother's examination revealed the fact that while Sprague is seriously injured, his wounds are not dangerous, and the operation is expected to assure his recovery.

Tiverton

Miss Lulla Blackford, who has been teaching at Hales City, Florida, for the past year, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Blackford.

Miss Mildred Outhouse of the General Public Agency, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Roy Small.

G. E. Torri, Fishery officer of Digby, was a guest at the Blackford House for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Haines of Freeport and Mrs. Spencer of Boston, are the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Outhouse.

Becher Mooley of Boston, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Outhouse.

Cleveland Elliott and family have moved to Black's Harbor for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Outhouse and sons, Darrell and Holland, who spent the winter at Wolfville, have returned home for the summer.

Master Harold Eaton, of Vancouver, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Outhouse.

Ethelene Clifford of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Freeport, was the Sunday guest of his father, Capt. John Clifford.

This has been a very good week for the fishermen, some of the boats bringing in from two to five thousand pounds a trip.

The one man smack Loco Foco, Capt. Nick, from Pan Cake Shoals, reports fair fishing.

Edgar Cosaboom, of White Head, N. B., is in town for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Morse, of White Head, N.B. are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. B. Outhouse.

Radio 2nd, Capt. John Clifford, is in port waiting for freight.

Yacht "Katrina" owned by J. B. Outhouse, has been rebuilt and is as good as new, and presents a fine appearance.

Emma D. Capt. Sam Foote, has sailed for Freeport.

Sch. Levine, Capt. Haines, arrived from Farnborough with a load of coal for Blackford and Clifford.

Capt. D. Barkhouse, of Weymouth, was in town Tuesday on business.

DIGBY COUNCIL ELECT MAYOR ANDERSON ON COUNTY POWER BOARD

Town Council Proposes Joint Action With Village of Weymouth And Municipality--Decision Is Called For Next Week

A special meeting of the Digby Town Council was held in the Council Chambers Monday evening, being called for the purpose of preparing a resolution to be submitted to a meeting of the ratepayers to be held on Tuesday evening, June 22, to consider joining with the Municipality and village of Weymouth in the development of hydro electric; also appointing a member on the Digby County Power Board.

All the Councillors were present, and Mayor Anderson presided. A resolution was adopted unanimously. That the Town of Digby participate in the undertakings of the Digby County Board to carry into effect the purpose of the Digby County Power Board Act, and that the town of Digby authorize and empower the Board to borrow a sum of money not exceeding $25,000. Mayor Anderson was appointed the member from the Town Council on the Digby County Power Board.

Hydro is a live topic throughout the County, and the ratepayers are deeply interested in the project. As soon as Weymouth appoints a member on the Power Board, hydro development will commence on the Sissiboo River at once. Plans have been prepared, and the proposed cost of plant will be about $70,000, and the line will be extended to Westport and Freeport.

Weddings

MC CORMICK--DALEY
A very pretty wedding took place in Lynn, Saturday evening, June 5, at 7 o'clock, when Miss Ruby L. Daley only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hartford Daley, of Marshalltown, Digby Co., N. S. and Mr. Harry S. McCormick, of Mr. J. Decker McCormick, Bear River, N. S. were united in marriage by Rev. E. F. Francis, Pastor of the W. A. Baptist Church at the residence on Park Street.

They were attended by Miss Pauline G. McCormick, sister of the groom and Mr. Vernon Rice an intimate friend of the groom.

The bride was charming in a dress of powder blue tulle with picture hat to match, while her attendant was handsomely gowned in Bois de Rose of the same material.

At 7.30 a reception was given at 6.30 Western Ave. Lynn. Mass. where Mr. and Mrs. McCormick will reside.

There were about fifty guests present from Lynn, Boston, Brookline, Belmont, Chateaufort, Rowley and Newburyport.

After receiving congratulations and partaking of dainty refreshments, served by Mrs. Vernon Rice and Mrs. John Meuse, the happy couple left on a short wedding trip in a shower of rice and confetti.

Mr. McCormick is employed at the General Electric in Lynn, the young people are very popular both in the Acadia home and with their associates in Lynn and vicinity as evidenced by the numerous gifts of linen, china, glassware and silverware.

Rev. Father Graham held services in St. Patrick's Church on Sunday morning last, and led in the afternoon for Annapolis. From there he proceeded to Halifax to attend the funeral of Rt. Rev. Mr. Foley, which was held on Tuesday.

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowles Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small list from any good druggist.

Chateau Frontenac Complete Again

The famous Chateau Frontenac at Quebec has been entirely recovered from the fire which on January 14th destroyed the old wing. Work has been going on night and day to see the fire with the result that the rebuilt wing entirely reconstructed in steel and concrete looks as though it had never known a conflagration. The opening took place on June 5 which was made the occasion of a celebration. On June 16, 17 and 18 the weekly newspaper editors of Canada held their annual convention at this hotel.

The new wing of the hotel contains 180 guest rooms, bringing the total accommodation up to 678 guest rooms. Throughout it maintains the old French Chateau spirit in its public rooms. The famous old central lounge is re-done in marble and carved oak, and its chief decorations are 34 colored shields bearing the coats of arms of some of the principal personages who had to do with the founding of Quebec, and a fine carved fireplace of which the chief ornament is a reproduction of Jacques Cartier's ship.

Weddings

BAILEY-LETTYNEY

A pretty event of the season of brides was the wedding which took place yesterday at the home of Mrs. F. M. Letteney on Mainland street, when her eldest daughter, Sarah Dorothy, was given in marriage to Mr. William Francis (Frank) Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bailey, of Baker street, this city.

The drawing room, where the ceremony was performed, was decorated with quantities of "delicately tinted tulips, white lilies and apple blossoms, were arranged in tall standards. Palms were used as a bank for the bridal arch, from which fell an occasional petal of the fragrant apple blossoms during the ceremony.

Music was played by Miss Mildred Pocock, and as the bride came downstairs Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus was played, continuing until the bride took her place beside the bridegroom. During the ceremony, soft music was played by Miss Pocock, and Mr. Edward Grant played a number of violin selections.

Rev. Edwin A. Pearson, of Dundas Centre United Church, was the officiating minister.

Radiantly lovely was the girlish bride in her bouffant frock of white tulle, with large medallions of white tulle adorning the skirt. Very short were the sleeves, banded over the upper arm with narrow widths of tulle, piped at the edge, and a ruffled collar, about three inches high, added a smart touch at the back of the neck. The graceful wedding veil was of embroidered net, with high ruching at the back of the head, and it was held in place with a band of tiny pearls and silver leaves. While a cluster of orange blossoms fell from the side White kid slippers and hose, long white kid gloves and a pearl necklace completed the bridal toilette. A large shower of lilies of the valley and pink roses was carried.

The bride chose as her bridesmaid her sister, Miss Letteney, who wore a girlish frock of rose-pink tulle and georgette and lace hat in matching shade. Silver shoes and hose were also worn, and Miss Letteney carried an arm bouquet of roses.

Mr. Bruce Beam acted as best man.

The ceremony was followed with a reception, when the bride and groom were assisted in receiving some sixty guests. Mrs. Letteney, mother of the bride, and Mr. Bailey, the groom's mother and an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Bernard Mill, of Kingston. Mrs. Letteney wore a becoming gown of purple blue crepe, created with a slightly flaring skirt, and long sleeves with dainty frilled tulle cuffs, and a corsage of tea roses was worn. Mrs. Bailey was also modestly gowned, while Mrs. Bernard Mills wore a gown of black georgette and tulle, and large black hat.

In the dining-room, where a buffet lunch was served, a large white bell was suspended over the bride's table, adorned with sweet peas. The bride's cake rested in deep folds of billowy pink tulle and silver confetti, and about it were placed tall pink candles in silver holders.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey left for Toronto and other points, the bride traveling in a smart costume of blue and gray. Her modish frock was of blue, with touches of gray and silver buttons, while her coat and chic little hat were of gray with touches of blue, and her gray gloves also had touches of the blue. Grey shoes and hose were also worn, and the bride also wore the groom's gift, a handsome Isabel fox fur.

On their return to London in about two weeks time, they will take up residence at 2 Sycamore street--Lundon Out. Ex.

A bower of flowers was Mrs. F. M. Letteney's home on Mainland street yesterday, when she entertained at a trousseau tea in honour of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Letteney a bride-elect of early June. In the living-room, where Mrs. Letteney and Miss Letteney received the guests, tulips in red shades were arranged in silver baskets. Mrs. Letteney was gowned in sand crepe, while the bride-to-be was pretty in a silver-crepe bouffant frock of blonde satin. Mrs. Bernard Mills of Kingston, wearing black and a large black hat, also received with the hostesses. Mrs. Angus McLean invited to the tea room, where the tea table was centred with pink blossoms; about the rooms were many purple lilies and as in between color tone pink candles were used on the table. Mrs. W. A. Bailey and Mrs. J. Parnell Morris presided over the tea cups, and they were assisted by

Bear Hunting In Rockies Best In Spring

In the Big Bend district of the Upper Columbia River in British Columbia lies the largest tract of grizzly bear hunting territory in the Dominion. On the two hundred mile stretch between Beavermouth and Revelstoke, both on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, there are approximately thirty creeks, some large enough to be classed as rivers. Of these at least twelve are known to be the habitat of the grizzly while many of them have not heard the sound of a rifle in years.

This spring a systematic effort was made to place the hunting possibilities of this great district within the reach of prospective visitors in search of the thrill which only close quarters with Ursus Horribilis can produce. Through the co-operation of all the best known Rivermen on the Upper Columbia, trips can be made in comfort. Game and fish are plentiful and the scenery is sufficient to satisfy the desire of the most exacting mountaineer. At low water such as exists up to about the end of May it is possible to run in safety such well known waters as Surprise, Kimbasket, Gordon, Priest and Death Rapids, as well as the far-famed Canyon of the Columbia itself. This trip appeals to many as fully as the actual hunting.

As far as is known, no party of non-residents has ever made such a trip. The last pair of local hunters, who spent twenty-one days en route, brought in a bag of over fifteen bears, including several very large grizzlies and three live grizzly cubs. This happened several years ago when the present bag limit of three bears per sportsman was not in effect.

According to J. H. Munro, of Revelstoke, B.C., the bears in this district are on the move from April 20. While there are more to be had later on, the earlier the bear is killed the better condition his carcass and pelt are in. Arnold Barton, one of the best known Banff guides, also advises that April and May are the best months for hunters seeking bearskins as trophies.

The river, flowing a mile through the box canyon, comes to a second break and drops another fifty feet, this time forming the Louise falls. The proper direction from which to view this lovely cataract is down stream, on a fine afternoon, with the sunshine playing on the water and spray. Then, as you come up the beach of the lower gorge, you walk around a point, and in front of you, between two huge walls of darkly wooded cliffs, is a bit of fairyland, a band of silver pouring out of darkness into light. The beauty of these falls holds one spell-bound, but the soon wants to get closer, the better to view this marvel and, indeed nearer approach only adds to the loveliness of the picture.

Louise falls, of horseshoe shape, but of convex form, the bend downstream. The centre is a straight drop, but at the sides the cliff has broken down, and the water pours over a series of terraces. Having so much edge, the water of course is spread out and shallow in places, so that many rock tips jut through, cutting the face of the falls into ribbons, but this does not in any way lessen its beauty. The spray formed is not so dense as at the Alexandra falls. The whirpool below Louise falls is in the west corner, and at the time visited had in it two great old logs, that slowly moved round and round in a ceaseless circle, ever striving but never succeeding in breaking away and being swept by the five to the great lake fifty miles below.

It is impossible adequately to describe the beauty of these falls and the reactions upon one who views them for the first time.

The Folly of Taking Digestive Pills

Warms Stomach Sufferers. Neutralizes Dangerous Acids in Stomach with Hot Water and Magnesia

"Never force the digestion of fermenting food from your stomach simply to get temporary relief from indigestion," says a well known authority. "The habit of taking digestive pills after meals makes chronic dyspepsia of many thousands of men and women because artificial digests, drugs and medicines have practically no influence upon the excessively acid condition of the stomach contents which is the cause of most forms of indigestion and dyspepsia. When the stomach pill merely lessens the sensitiveness of the stomach nerves and thus gives false sense of freedom from pain. If those who are subject to indigestion, bloating, gas, sour stomach, bad chills, heartburn, etc., after eating would get a little pure Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form) from any reliable druggist and take a teaspoonful of the powder or two of the tablets in a little water after meals, there would be no further necessity for drugs or medicines because the Bisulphate of Magnesia instantly neutralizes stomach acidity, stops food fermentation and thus restores normal, painless digestion by enabling the stomach to do its work without hindrance."

AN INTERNAL BATH DAILY RECOMMENDED

A prominent physician made the remark recently that if people were half as particular in regard to internal cleanliness as they are about external appearance three quarters of the ordinary ailments would be eliminated. This medical man said people did not stop to think of the importance of keeping the system just as clean as one is careful to keep hands, face and body. The result is that the intestinal tract becomes clogged and waste material which should leave the body daily stays there for an indefinite period doing a harm few people realize. So many pills are traceable to these clogging poisons! An internal bath sounds novel, but it is much easier to take than any other kind! A spoonful of Sal Liniflores before breakfast (or any other meal), dissolved in a glass of tepid water acts as a gentle cleanser of the bowels—provides a soothing internal bath that rids the body of dangerous toxic poisons and gives one that feeling of freshness, vigor and well-being. A further advantage of the internal bath lies in the fact that a healthy body ensures an alert and active mind which makes for greater efficiency and happiness in one's daily work.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANT VALUED AT $15,000 FRIDAY

Loss estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000, and at least temporary unemployment for some fifteen men, resulted at Bear River, Friday, from the burning of the mill machinery and considerable material owned by J. H. Cunningham, and known as the Imbert Mill, situated on the Bear River, within the village.

The blaze, which originated in the drying room, from an unknown cause, broke out at the noon hour, when all the employees were away at dinner, and when notice was attracted to it by the clouds of smoke that issued from the building, the fire had made such progress that the limited fire-fighting equipment proved inadequate to stay the flames, and within an hour, fanned by a smart breeze, they had razed the entire plant to the ground.

The mill and machinery were valued at from $10,000 to $12,000, and the destroyed stock, consisting of staves, lumber and rough timber, had a value of from $2,000 to $3,000. The property was partially insured.

The Imbert Mill was one of the landmarks of Bear River, having been established half a century, or more, ago, by the late James Franklin Rice, who subsequently formed a partnership and the firm became known as Rice and Mallin. After Mr. Rice's death, the mill was operated by his son, B. H. A. Rice, for a few years and three or four years ago, the property was purchased by Mr. Cunningham, who practically rebuilt the mill, and enlarged it, by adding machinery of various sorts, and made the business into a sawmill, planing mill, stove factory and grist mill enterprise. The plant was operated by water power, with a steam engine auxiliary.

It is not known whether or not the plant will be rebuilt, but as Mr. Cunningham owns other mills, it is expected that some, if not all the working force of the destroyed plant, will be absorbed by his other mills.

The intensity of the heat from the burning mill caused the bridge nearby to catch fire, and considerable damage was done to it before the blaze could be extinguished by the volunteer fire brigade which had formed to fight the fire at the mill. Two houses occupied by Tilly Comeau and Charles Stewart, caught on fire, but were put out. The mill, known as Thelbert Rice Mill was also threatened.

Unanimous Vote Of Ratepayers Tuesday For Hydro

Ratepayers Give Support to Action of Digby Power Board

Largely Attended Meeting Held In Court House—Power To Be Developed On Sissiboo

By a unanimous standing vote, the ratepayers of the town of Digby, at a public meeting held in the Court House Wednesday evening, passed the following resolution and decided to join up with the Municipality and Weymouth in the development of hydro.

Resolved that the Town of Digby participate in the undertakings of the Digby County power Board to carry into effect the purpose of the Digby County power Board Act.

And further resolved that the said Town of Digby hereby authorize and empower the said Power Board, from time to time, to borrow a sum of money not exceeding $75,000 and make and issue debentures therefor, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act.

Despite the inclement weather, about one hundred citizens were in attendance. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by His Worship Mayor Anderson, who acted as chairman. In the absence of Town Clerk Alfred Boden, who is confined to his home through illness, Coun. Fritz Dakin acted as Secretary.

Chief Engineer Johnston, of the Nova Scotia Power Board, was the first speaker called by the Chairman. Mr. Johnston explained the Sissiboo Falls proposition, outlining the amount of power which could be developed on the Sissiboo after a number of dams, etc., had been erected. It was the most feasible place of development in his opinion. Several reports had been made by himself and Mr. Snooks, of Saint John, and both had come to the conclusion that a 24 hour service, 365 days in the year, could be secured. The Power Commission was prepared to lend all assistance possible in developing hydro in this county.

Coun. P. W. Holdsworth gave a short address, stating that as he had been the father of the movement he would like to see the development proceeded with at once. Other speakers were T. E. G. Lynch, Coun. Aymar Dakin, Merkel, etc., after which the above resolution was put to the ratepayers and carried unanimously by a standing vote.

Everything is now ready for the immediate development of hydro in Digby County. The Board of Commission have been appointed, Mayor Anderson acting for the town of Digby, Coun. H. H. Marshall for the Municipality of Digby, and the Weymouth Commission appointing the third party. Authority has been given the three parties jointly interested in the proposition to go ahead and borrow a sum not exceeding $75,000. It is expected a contract will be signed within a few days and Mr. Snooks of St. John, will be given this contract to proceed at once and start extension.

With good weather the people in the country are expecting to have hydro by the end of the present year. It will be necessary to rewire the town of Digby, and the present steam plant will be used only as an auxiliary in case of emergency. At present the town is operating the steam plant, and a rate of 20c is being charged for electricity. This rate is said to be the highest in Canada, and with the promised rate of 11c for hydro it will mean a big saving for the people. Several firms will also make preparations for the installation of motors, etc., their plants at present being operated by gasoline engines. At Smith's Cove, Mr. Cossaboom, owner of the summer colony in that district, will have his fifty bungalows lighted by hydro. Some months ago Mr. Cossaboom installed a Delco plant costing in the vicinity of $2,000.

Permanently Appointed to Custom Office

The position of Customs Officer for the town of Digby has at last been filled permanently, and the present officer in charge, Wm. McMahon, received his appointment from Ottawa a few days ago.

This position was made vacant some months ago owing to the resignation of Collector Cousins, through illness. Mr. McMahon was given the position temporarily, while applications were being called. Seven applicants applied for the position and were examined personally to the last Dominion election.

In the meantime several business men in Digby urged upon the department and Civil Service Commission at Ottawa the necessity of offering the position to Mr. McMahon, as he had proved himself a capable officer and was well-liked by all with whom he came in contact.

Nothing was heard about the appointment until a few days ago when Mr. McMahon received word from the Commission, and his many friends in Digby and vicinity are offering him congratulations on his permanent appointment.

We are very sorry to report the sudden death of Capt. Jas. W. Moran. He was on his way East from Tacoma, Washington, and while visiting his nephews, Robert, Arnold and Joseph Moran in Philadelphia was taken sick with colic and although everything was done that seemed possible he passed away Saturday, June 19th. He is survived by one daughter, Evelyn Moran Halston, of Tacoma, Wash., to which place his body was taken for burial. Capt. Moran was well known in Digby county and especially in Freeport. His former home, where he will be buried by his many friends.

Strange Disappearance of Weymouth Man And Suicide Of Another

William Comeau Has Been Missing For Three Weeks, Leaving Five Motherless Children, and Walter Sprague, with whom Comeau was Last Seen, Died in Hospital Last Saturday from wounds which were said to have been Self-Inflicted

Hints of the eternal triangle, of a strange disappearance under dramatic circumstances, and a supposed suicide, have provided the beautiful village of Weymouth with a sensational mystery. For three weeks family and neighbors and friends have waited in vain to hear some word from William Comeau, mill-hand, and father of five children, but since he left the home of Walter Sprague in the early dawn one morning three weeks ago nothing definite has been heard of him. He has simply disappeared. And last Wednesday Walter Sprague, who apparently had reason to dislike the missing man, was shot three times through the head with a gun, presumably by his own hand.

A great deal of the story is involved in rumor. The authorities have taken no keen interest in the disappearance of Comeau, but an attempt is being made by the business men in the district and by Comeau's friends to have the mystery cleared up.

In the meantime, Comeau's five motherless children are being looked after by kindly neighbors, who are of the opinion that the missing man will never be found alive.

It is nearly three weeks since William Comeau left his home in Weymouth, clad in his working clothes. He told his family that he intended returning in a few hours. Next morning he was seen about four o'clock when he left the home of Walter Sprague in company with the latter. Since that time no certain clue has been found as to where he went or what was his fate. Enquiry of train crews and conductors fail to verify the reports that he took the train at any point near his home. In the garage at back of his home the car he owns still stands.

Last Saturday in the Yarmouth Hospital Walter Sprague died from the result of gunshot wounds, said to be self-inflicted. This eliminates one actor, but does not lessen the mystery, so long as Comeau is missing.

Comeau was a mill-hand and lived with his five motherless children in Weymouth. He was 38 years of age. He had, reports say, been in the habit of frequenting the Sprague home where Sprague, his wife and their three children reside.

Sprague was absent on a lumber drive and returning home unexpectedly. It is stated, however, that he was found by the two men left the house together. As far as can be definitely ascertained, Comeau has not been seen since. Whether he met with foul play in the early hours of the morning, and his body is hidden away in some desolate and lonely swamp or woods, is not known. He may have decided to leave town, and may have gone at once without any thought of his children or home, but it is strange if that is the case that he did not return and secure the car which it is in his garage.

Last Wednesday Sprague was shot, the gunshot wounds from a gun, blowing off part of his jaw and the right side of his face. Relics state that the wounds were self-inflicted. The injuries were inflicted in the yard of his home and Sprague was reported to have just finished his supper and then made the attempt to kill himself.

He was rushed to the Yarmouth Hospital where despite the terrible nature of his injuries, physicians pronounced his case far from hopeless, but complications set in and Sprague died on Saturday. His body taken back to his home where the funeral was held early this week.

In the meantime rumors that Comeau was seen in Yarmouth en route to Boston were investigated and found to be without foundation. Reports that he is working in Yarmouth County have not been verified, and a statement that he had sent for his car which his family refused to give up, as they did not believe Comeau was the author of the message, appear also to be without foundation. Comeau has a son boarding in Lower Sackvilleville, and the man with whom the son is stopping has been making every effort to secure the father's address in order to obtain board for the boy. The latter has no knowledge of the whereabouts of his father. Indeed the family are strongly of the opinion that William Comeau met with foul play.

McLean's Magazine

Canada's National Magazine has a first class article in its June last issue on Maritime conditions and problems. The author, William Boyd MacDermid, sketches conditions before Confederation, sets forth the promises of that pact, shows disparities between promises and performances, lists some definite drawbacks, in railway tariffs and otherwise, and then offers suggestions. Incidental reference is made to Moirs, among others as having "accomplished miracles with odds set heavily against them."

Weddings

ROBINSON—CRONIN

An event of more than usual interest to citizens of Digby occurred at St. Cecilia's Rectory, Brookline, on the 28th of May, when Helen Agnes, daughter of Fred A. Cronin, of Boston, was married to Arthur D. Robinson, of Boston. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Monsignor Cronin, uncle of the groom, assisted by the Rev. of the parish. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the Copkey Plaza Hotel by the Honorable John Grady, C. M. G., Vice-President of the General Accident and Fire Insurance Company of Canada. The groom is probably one of the best known insurance brokers in Massachusetts, and in collaboration with the Rev. of the parish, the author of a standard text on foreign exchange in relation to insurance.

The honeymoon was spent at Capital Island, Booth Bay Harbour, Maine, the summer home of Chief Justice Rutledge, who is an uncle of the groom, and who lent his cottage for the occasion. Upon their return to Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson will reside at 3 Brewster Terrace, Brookline.

An Advisory Board On Colonization

At the last Dominion Board of Trade Convention in Winnipeg, a resolution was unanimously passed urging a vigorous immigration policy as a means of solving Canada's industrial, transportation and taxation problems. This resolution recommended the immediate creation of a small non-political advisory board or commission on colonization and agricultural development, composed of Canada's leading experts on the subject and skilled executives, such persons to be invited to contribute their time as a matter of public service and without compensation other than expense allowances.

When this request was presented to the Federal Government, the Prime Minister is said to have expressed some doubt as to whether the right type of men would be willing to render national services on the basis suggested. The functions of such a body would not be administrative, but purely advisory, and it can scarcely be doubted that Canada's most outstanding men would cheerfully accept this responsibility without compensation. In fact, the services of such men could never be obtained by the Government on any salary basis within the customary limits of Governments.

The average Canadian voter, while tacitly agreeing that energetic immigration effort is highly desirable, is very far from an adequate realization of the vital importance of ending the present "waiting on Providence." The problem of population is by far the greatest that faces Canada, and an advisory board, bringing fresh minds to bear on the subject, could render services of incalculable value to the state. Government "commissions" have never been popular in Canada. But one finds it difficult to understand what objection could be raised to "commandeering" our best brains and experience to focus its efforts on our most vital national problem. Australia has recently followed this sensible and efficient course.

Character Building

Who can see a troupe of Boy Scouts on the march and not feel a desire to have a part in this great movement? There is something so wholesome and fine about Scouting; it makes better boys—and better men.

A great many people, one may believe, would be supporters of the Boy Scouts movement if they knew more about it. They see these mainly, little chaps going and coming in their activities, but too often only in a detached sort of way. For our part, we wish some plan could be evolved whereby the majority of the citizens of this Province would be brought into closer, more practical touch with these lads and the remarkable work they are doing, not only in building character and proficiency for themselves, but in general community usefulness. It would be a great help if the annual report of the Nova Scotia Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts Association, just issued were given a much wider distribution, for this report gives in condensed form an excellent idea of what is being accomplished. Particularly, we think, would it be a fine thing to secure the interest and co-operation of a much greater number of young men—Big Brothers—who seem to be wasting a great deal of their spare time.

There is invitation and advice in the report that has a direct appeal: "Invest a few dollars today in Character, Building and Citizenship Training for Boys, and you will get a better Manhood for your Dividends."

Support these little chaps and help them along—they deserve it.

The Agricultural Demonstration Train

Our visit to the government agricultural demonstration train last week impressed us most favorably. The men in charge of the different departments evidenced not only their knowledge of the work but their keen interest in it. Their addresses showed that they knew what they were talking about and also an evident desire on their part that information of a helpful character should be obtained by the visitors.

The result of their contact was to create a spirit of optimism in regard to an industry which is of prime importance and which has never really had a fair chance. Farmers who were able to spare the time necessary to thoroughly inspect the demonstration and to get in touch with the men in charge must have benefited, while the effect upon the young people of the community who attended must have been beneficial.

We could not but feel that it would be a fine thing if every boy and girl in our province might enjoy the privilege which a visit to the train provided. For too long in Nova Scotia our young people have been instructed along lines calculated to fill their minds with very erroneous ideas regarding the premier occupation of this or any other country.

STRATFORD WOMAN

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Stratford, Ontario.—"After my first baby was born I started to work on the tenth day and did a big washing on the twelfth day. Being so young (I was married at 19) I did not know what was the matter, so let it go until I was as run-down, weak and nervous, and had a bad displacement. For nearly two years I could not sleep and I would always complain of having 'not a head-ache, but a brain-ache.' My mother is taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during the Change of Life and she recommended it to me. After taking two bottles I began to get a little sleep and to feel better and I have never left off since then, except for about three months ago. I can safely say I have taken thirty bottles since my second baby was born. I think it makes child-birth easier. I had terrible pains with my first three children and very few with my fourth as I was so much stronger. I am now able to do my work alone, but I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and am nursing a baby."—MRS. OMER PAUL, 49 Cherry Street, Stratford, Ontario.

If you are suffering from any weakness which causes such symptoms as pains in the side and back and nervous feelings, get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial now.

Law Enforcement

Recent notions appear to indicate that more attention is being directed to law enforcement than formerly. This is an encouraging feature in our provincial life, and is bound to operate to the public advantage. It testifies to an awakening of the public conscience and a demand that more regard should be given to setting in operation the wheels of justice. For entirely too long acts of lawlessness have been allowed to pass unproved, because what was everybody's business was nobody's business.

In too many cases the public have failed to recognize that to be a good citizen one must not only be law-abiding himself but see to it that others are law abiding also. Until all good citizens regard this as their duty we shall not attain to the highest ideal of Christian civilization and respect for law. If this duty of citizenship were fully realized the majesty of the law would be much more highly respected than is yet the case.

On June 13th a house owned by Judson Mullen and occupied by Arthur Hill was burned to the ground. The family being away, neighbours assisted in saving the household goods. Next everything was saved except a cow which was burned in the barn. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Mullen and Mr. Hill in their loss.

Here and There

S. Janowski and B. Stanhauser, the former Polish immigration delegate and the latter a delegate from the Polish Minister of Agriculture, are in Canada for a six-week study of farming conditions in western sections of the Dominion. They will also look into the distribution of work among the Polish colonies in Canada.

Four fishermen from the United States went fishing on the Cains River, New Brunswick, for 13 days recently, and caught 340 fish. State Senator Bradford, of Indiana, caught a 42-inch salmon weighing 27 pounds. Others in the party were: Fred N. Peet, Dr. E. R. Zimmerman and D. H. Faxon. Only barbed hooks were used so that no fish were either killed or injured.

The second largest outdoor swimming pool in Canada has been opened at Lake Louise on the Terrace between the dining room of the Chateau and the Lake. The new pool is 100 feet long and 40 feet wide. It is surrounded by tall concrete columns between which there are gigantic sheets of plate glass, providing a wind break against cool breezes.

Approximately 120,000 live fish, fresh from American hatcheries, passed through Dominion Express Yards, Windsor Station, Montreal, recently, on their way to Beauharnois, Quebec. They will be used to stock private lakes in northern Quebec owned by wealthy citizens of the U.S.A., who prefer the virgin hills and forests of Canada to the densely populated summer resorts of their own country.

Norman E. Wilkinson, London, England, inventor of camouflage paintings which was used extensively during the late war, arrived in Canada on the Canadian Pacific liner "Montcalm" with his wife recently, for a tour of the Dominion. Sir Clifford Sifton, prominent Torontonian, and Sir Stephen Prunton, M.L.M.E., famous mineral geologist, also arrived on the same vessel.

Col. C. H. D. Ryder, C.B., C.I.E., D.S.O., chairman of the Air Survey Company of London, England, interviewed Premier Mackenzie King and the prime ministers of the various provinces with regard to finding out the prospects of surveying practically the whole of the Dominion by air. He also wishes to know about the possibility of combined federal and provincial action for these surveys.

On his return from a recent tour of inspection of the Company's Western Lines, Grant Hall, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, stated that exports to the Orient in the form of grain, flour, dressed meats and motor cars were steadily increasing in volume and that trade with Australia had been considerably stimulated by the trade arrangements with that Dominion. Mr. Hall added that conditions were good in the West. The mining industry in British Columbia showed up well, while lumber shipments were heavier than last year.

All roads led to Windsor Station, Montreal, for three days prior to the opening of the tenth annual international Kiwanis convention, which was opened on June 8. Not only was the C.P.R. station the gateway through which an army of Kiwanians passed into Montreal, but, every one of the delegates, their wives and friends, about 7,000 in all, congregated there as the station had been constituted registration headquarters of the convention. A force of 32 station greeters was specially engaged to handle the work.

Self-Poisoning Increasingly Common

Modern Living Habits Promote Self-Poisoning—Thousands are Victims

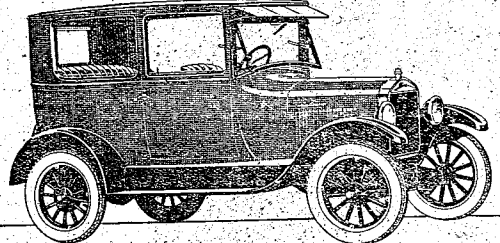

The average man or woman does not enjoy consistent good health. Loss of appetite, headaches, biliousness and a lack of enthusiasm for either work or play are constant complaints.

Scientists have ascertained that such a condition is usually caused by self-poisoning resulting from constipation. Due to modern living habits, the natural secretion which promotes bowel elimination by softening the bowel grows, is often deficient—especially among middle-aged people. The poison from waste matter remaining in the systems of people thus affected is the insidious enemy of good health.

Such people need Najol, because Najol softens the waste matter and permits thorough and regular bowel elimination without overtaxing the intestinal muscles. It helps Nature help you.

Ask your druggist for Najol to-day—and remember, look for the name "Najol" is red on both bottle label and package.

Far Off Fields Are Green

While a considerable number of our young people, and some older, have transferred their residence from this vicinity to the neighboring republic during recent times, it is a matter for congratulation that many of the best of these have returned home this spring after spending the winter abroad. It is strange that so much zeal is exhibited in certain quarters in the matter of reporting the outgoing and so little is heard regarding the home-coming of our people under these conditions.

Far fields have their attractions and the spirit of adventure is all ways a lure to the young, but so far as we are able to discern those who remain at home appear to be just as well off as either those who stay away or go and return. Our experience is that in a number of instances those who have taken their departures without informing their creditors of their intention seem no better qualified to pay their bills after a time spent in that land that flows, figuratively speaking, in milk and honey, than they were while domiciled in Nova Scotia. To those who are willing to undergo at home anything like the hardships which they experience willingly in a strange land there is just as good opportunity in this favored part of Nova Scotia as exists elsewhere.

JUDGE FREES ACCUSED IN THE COUNTY COURT

Hamilton Catty, of Kentville, Given Honorable Discharge in Old Case

The case of the Motor Protective Association vs. Hamilton Catty, which has been in the courts during the past year, and one which has created interest throughout the Maritime Provinces, was concluded in the County Court Friday afternoon before His Honor Judge Grierson. Mr. Catty was represented by F. K. Matheson, K. C., of Kentville, and Frank Jones, K. C., of Digby, while E. Hart Nichols, of Halifax, looked after the case for the prosecution.

The prosecution Counsel called no witnesses, and after Mr. Nichols, in summing up the case after the evidence of the defence had been heard, informed His Honor that he was agreeable to a dismissal of the case if, in the Judge's opinion, such was agreeable after the reading of the evidence.

His Honor, in reviewing the evidence, stated that the only thing he could do was to give Mr. Catty an honorable dismissal, but Judge Grierson remarked that some steps should be taken to reimburse the County for the expense incurred in bringing this case to the Courts. The Plaintiff was severely criticised for his action.

Mr. Catty is a well-known business man of Kentville, being in the jewelry business in that town for a number of years. He is well known throughout the Maritime Provinces, and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he has been honorably dismissed from all charges laid against him by the Motor Protective Association.

Obituary

WISWELL W. COVERT
Wiswell W. Covert of Middleton, N. S. had been residing in Everett, Mass., for the past two years. He suffered recently from an acute heart attack. On Wednesday, June 2nd, after returning from a call to his doctor's office, attended by his wife, he died suddenly, while crossing the room in his brother's (Herbert C. Covert) home, in Malden, Mass. His death was as a great shock to his wife, family and many friends.

A short funeral service was held at the home of H. Covert, Hanson St., St. John's, on Friday, June 4th, at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Arthur Mittman, pastor of the Glendale Methodist Church, Everett. The deceased was then taken to Port Wade by his wife, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. Ryder. A large number of friends gathered at the church to pay their last tribute of respect to one who had for many years sojourne among them. The service was conducted by Rev. Thompson. Interment in the family burial lot at Port Wade.

The floral tributes showed the esteem in which he was held by relatives and friends.
Mr. Covert was 66 years of age, the son of Capt. David Covert. He gave his life to the master's service. When very young and was a prominent member of the Methodist Church many years before moving to Middleton. He had a friendly genial disposition which won him a wide circle of friends. He will be sadly missed by his fellow workers at the Elm Co. of Somerville, Mass.

He leaves his wife, a sister, Mrs. Helen Bogart, and two brothers, Herbert of Malden; and Fletcher of Waverley, Mass., to mourn his loss.

The heartfelt sympathy of their many friends is extended to the lonely wife and relatives.

BARLOW MCCAUL CROWELL
The funeral of the late Barlow McCaul Crowell took place at the Baptist cemetery, Sandy Cove on Saturday.

The deceased passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Boyd, Lynn, Mass., at the age of 73 years. He was a native of Sandy Cove and lived there most of his days, and was much respected by the people. He leaves two sons, Cutler Crowell, of Westfield, Mass., and Warren Crowell, Sandy Cove; also two daughters, Mrs. J. Boyd of Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. William Crowell, Sandy Cove.

The funeral service at Sandy Cove was conducted by Rev. Arthur Hurn, assisted by Rev. Mr. Bryant. The floral offerings were very beautiful, consisting of wreaths, etc., which testified to the love and esteem in which the deceased was held.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked, and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite suitable, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mossy mixing-at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifying darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

To Friends Of Memorial Fund

The Bear River Women's Institute is desirous of making an effort in the near future to enlarge the Soldier's Memorial Fund and has appointed a committee to formulate plans to that effect.

Last year on Carnival Day, a Gift Shop was conducted under the auspices of the Institute, with marked success and the proceeds devoted to said fund. Beside the hearty support received locally, many beautiful pieces of work were received from out-of-town members and friends. In the event of a Cherry Carnival being held this year, the committee is advising that a Gift-Shop be again conducted and efforts will be made to have this plan carried out. Otherwise a Sale will be held on another date.

Therefore contributions of suitable articles, either fancy or useful, are earnestly solicited from all Institute members and friends.

By order of Committee,
Mary H. Marshall, Convener.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is tedious and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

An undertaker in a town called Bloomfield had given the people notice that he was retiring from business, and that all the brought in the next ten days would be sold at half price.

In the next ten days eight Scotchmen committed suicide.

The Agent: "Of course, you have no children?"
The Prospective Tenant: "No."
"Dogs or cats?"
"No."
"Piano or gramophone?"
"No; I've got a fountain pen that squeaks, but I promise to get rid of it."

Teacher: "Could a fellow get punished for something he didn't do?"
"Why, no, of course not."
"Well I didn't do my arithmetic."

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost, you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears; and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Witch's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

B. R. Scouts Win 12-2

On Saturday the Bear River Scouts played a match game with the Digby Scouts on the School Ball Ground and won out with a score of 12 to 2.

This is the first occasion on which there has been a match between two Scout teams and with the class of ball that was played there is no reason why there should not be a number of matches through the season provided the boys can be given proper support.

A good ball game is the cheapest and healthiest entertainment that the public can receive but it takes little money to keep a team going. Every match game requires several balls and then bats will sometimes break and have to be replaced, and it costs money either to bring a team here to play or to go away for a match with another team.

The Scouts are now playing as good ball as the first team played a few years ago, after being organized for a year, and with a little chance for practice with other teams, Bear River can develop a first line team in a couple of years composed of home players.

At Saturdays game there were about seventy-five spectators, mostly juveniles, and the collection amounted to $1.20. The boys deserve better support than this, and unless they get it they will never have a chance to do any more than play "scrub ball."

If you want Ball, give them a Boost.

Rev. E. J. Barrad of Bear River. Rev. Mr. Smith of Deep Brook and Rev. Mr. Durkee of Clementsville attended the meetings of the Baptist Association which met this year at Mahone Bay.

Mother sent John and the baby into the garden. Before very long the baby set out on his own.

"John, who is the matter with the baby now?" inquired the mother from the kitchen window.

"I don't know what to do with him, ma," replied little John. "He's dug a hole and he wants to bring it into the house."

A Practical Prescription For Sour, Acid Stomach

Nine-tenths of all cases of stomach trouble nowadays are caused by too much acid. In the beginning, the stomach itself is not diseased, but if this acid condition is allowed to continue, the acid is very likely to eat into the stomach walls and produce gastritis with stomach ulcers. This may render a radical surgical operation necessary even to prolong life. Therefore, an "acid stomach" is really a dangerous condition and should be treated seriously. The excess acid or stomach hyperacidity can easily be neutralized by Bisulphated Magnesia taken in teaspoonful doses in a glass of water after each meal. Larger quantities may be used if necessary as it is absolutely harmless. Be sure to ask your druggist for the pure Bisulphated Magnesia, especially prepared for this purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hannam and family motored from Dalhousie West to spend Sunday with Mrs. Hannam's brother, John Morgan.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of very eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rashes mentho-sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.

FOR BEST RESULTS LET US DEVELOP AND PRINT YOUR FILMS

What's the sense of taking pictures and going to the expense of having them finished if they are going to fade out in a few years. Most pictures are more highly valued years after taking than at the time of taking. Particularly is this true of pictures of your children, your family, your friends, and home and vacation scenes. We are only the very best of materials, our work is done by skilled and experienced workers. If the first print we make fails to come up to the high standard we set, we keep on making them till we get one that does. The prints we make must be the best quality. The best that is in your picture is brought out. Every care is taken to very thoroughly fix and wash both negatives and prints, thus assuring permanency. The people of the Maritime Provinces are partial to thick leaved teas. They do not like a wispy-washy thin tea no matter how good its flavor. MOR-SE'S TEA not only has the flavor, but it is thick leaved as well; in fact it is the ideal tea for our people.

The new three-masted schooner Mary
B. Brooks, of Weymouth, has just completed a maiden voyage from Saint John River, Digby County, to Portland, Me., and back to Weymouth, making the round trip in five days and ten hours.
Her master, Captain George W. Brooks, is to be congratulated in making such a quick trip on this his first voyage in the new schooner.

L. M. Trask, Inspector under the Nova Scotia Temperance Act for the Counties of Yarmouth and Shelburne, was in Digby several days this week. It is said Mr.
Trask was assisting Inspector Cox in looking after conditions in this county. An investigation was made of affairs, but no raids were made. Chief of Police Cowans is Inspector for the town of Digby and since his appointment the law has been strictly enforced. Less liquor is sold in this town than in any town in the Maritime Provinces. Only two arrests have been made for drunkenness during the past six months, and these were for minor offences.
