Welcome to the Digital DIGBY COURIER

1877-1978

100th Birthday

The hundredth anniversary of the Digby Weekly Courier has brought to mind some fond memories as contained in the following historical chapter of the writer. But first, I wish to congratulate the current editor of the Courier, Mrs. J.M. (Edith) Wallis, for a job well done over the years and still being well done, good service rendered with great fortitude.

According to any record, I have at hand, the Digby Courier, in one hundred years of publication, was controlled under the same family management for 42 years, 1931 to 1973, under the control of Wallis Print Limited. The late J.J. Wallis became editor of The Courier the second time, in 1929, and at the same time of the business, which he had been running for some time previously and which became Wallis Print Limited sometime between 1929 and 1931.

I well remember the last year of the twenties when I worked in the office of the son with the husband and father of the late J.J. Wallis, the Courier. Sometime in 1928 or early 1929, the late J.M. Wallis (Mac), son of "J.J." engaged me to work every day after school hours, Saturdays, and for some months after finishing school. The place of work was in the building of the present Digby town hall on First Avenue. J.J. Wallis then worked occasionally at the print shop but mostly across the street at the Courier office which was then located on land in the general area where The Royal Bank of Canada is now.

Wallis Job Print operated in 1929 with a staff of four consisting of J.J. Wallis, J.M. Wallis, Miss Eva Haynes, who later became Mrs. George Kicup, and myself. I was engaged as a printer in the left

Eva's job was to run the printing plant but mostly at the Courier office. "Mac" worked nearly full time at all the different jobs at the Job Print, and I worked at various duties, most of the time being spent at operating printing presses.

We worked ten-hour days, six days a week. "J.J." and "Mac" sometimes worked overtime. I worked only the regular hours being paid a weekly wage which was comparatively good for those times and my lack of experience. I received four or five dollars a week for working after school hours to six o'clock and on Saturday all day, and nine dollars a week for full weeks after finishing school. A two or three dollar a week raise was offered to me in the fall of 1929 for me to stay on at printing, but I had made up my mind to enter a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, starting salary of $300. The bank salary figured out about the same per hour as for the printing job. Nevertheless, the congenial atmosphere of the printing plant those days, and, experience however short, were helpful and appreciated by me.

"J.J." was very jovial in his occasional trip to the Job Print and did considerable kidding all in good fun. "Mac" was a witty person who mixed in a good natured sarcasm now and then for one reason or another. Eva most always had good answers to all the kidding she was called upon to take, and, generally held her own in a quiet sort of way, always busy setting type. We four all got along very well indeed. However, I do remember that some days did seem long and weary because of the monotony of some repetitious jobs.

In spite of the great demand for printing those last boom days of the twenties, business generally being brisk, it looked to me that people had to work long and hard to make any decent profit. There was including treatment of the hands. However, nails and finger ends were used and I was soon back to work.

Now and then a printing job had a dose on parchment paper which required a special kind of printers' ink which smelled very bad those days. I always dreaded it when "Mac" would do that job on the largest press, in spite of the fact that we always opened an outside door to lessen the effects on the constitution.

One of the jobs I had to do, being the junior and printers' devil on the staff, was to clean up now and then. One day not long after I started my job at the printing plant, I decided to clean the floor that apparently hadn't been cleaned in some considerable time.

"J.J." came along and said, "how are you making out Vince?" I assured him that I thought I was beginning to see the floor. "J.J." laughed very heartily, he thought the remark pretty good and suitable.

Sometimes the gasoline engine or a piece of machinery would refuse to work, and after "Mac" the fix-it man had patiently worked for a certain length of time to get it going again, without results, "Mac" would then stand back and cuss quite strenuously, then he would immediately start working. "See," he would say, "all it needed was a bit of cussing."

On other occasions when some gadget refused duty for me and, seemed to be broken, "Mac" would say, "use a little oil," and sure enough, often that is all it took. How often since, have I thought of the value of that remark and the actual need of "oil" in many life situations, applied at the right time, right place and, in the right way.

Other things that sort of stick in my memory and come to mind now and then are, like the time I told "Mac" of four teenage boys who in the spring season of 1929 got together just before dark one evening and decided to initiate the newly built outdoor Pines Hotel swimming pool which had just been filled with water. Clothes were taken off near the road just east of the pool; nobody else seemed to be around except the four boys; no thought or time for bathing suits up to the pool they went. They stood on the edge of the pool and looked at the chilly water, one soon jumped in, the rest quickly followed and across the pool they swam. "Mac" listened to the story and hardly said anything, but the next "Digby Courier" had a good story on the episode. The heading of the story went something like, "Four Boy Scouts Officially Open Pines Hotel Swimming Pool." Who were the four? Many years later they are known as: the late Dr. Earl H. Anderson, veteran of two wars (second world and Korean), was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sidney L. Smith, now prominent druggist for many years in Digby; Clayton D. Snow, Digby wholesale lobster king merchant; and myself.

As a young teenager I used to like doing some writing about different events interesting to myself and mostly for myself. One day "Mac" said to me "how about writing your version of the story told about 'The Marooning of Jerome'." I had heard and read at least two somewhat different stories about the man who was found marooned on a beach at some point on the French Shore of St. Mary's Bay, Digby County. When found this man's tongue had been cut out and his legs quite freshly amputated, were surgically well dressed and bound. He was presumably left by some vessel before dawn one morning, all for some mysterious reason.

"Jerome" appeared to have been a man of some considerable social standing and possibly of some considerable wealth. However the only thing the man could or would ever say after being found and cared for by some family in the French shore was, something that sounded like the word "Jerome". He either could not, or, would not, write anything about who he was or why he was left the way he was. Well, it was, and is, one of Digby County's mystery stories, and, different ideas have been expressed over the years concerning this man. However my response to "Mac" was, I felt no urge to write anything more or different about this man. The mystery seemed to have been very well explored in the mind of many people, and, he was a sort of curiosity for many people who visited where he lived for many years.

Three years later I was quite a young man, and I was back in the street that I had lived in, and I was clanking my powered up car, and I was thinking of "Jerome", and as I remember it, I was thinking of "Jerome". "J.J." was noted for his sense of humor and his ability to make people laugh. In 1928 during the time Mr. Wallis was editor of the Scott Act (Prohibition Law) he was about and advocated by some people, and he was a very popular figure in the community.

Digby 172 Years Ago

Compiled by David Sanford

From the files of the Courier of January 23, 1867, the following account has been copied concerning Digby in 1800.

"Among a number of old newspapers kindly sent to us by friends is a copy of the Saint John Gazette of May, 1802, says the Telegraph and among other advertisements contained in the issue before us is one describing the town and township of Digby, and offering for sale certain lots in the town. In this area we are told the township of Digby extends from the Gulf of Annapolis westward to the extremity of the province of Nova Scotia, and contains about 130,000 acres." The town plot is thus described:

"The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of St. Mary's Bay. This laid out from the water's edge, partly on level ground and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having with an eastern aspect, a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in where it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New York in 1783, the most of whom went early to farms, or, moving to older countries, left the whole side to be bought proved by about who now reside detached, built dwellings with orchards, and some fishery and. It has communal parts of the common provisions in a cheap, built readily to be from many circumstances, probability of place of some shipbuilding, the West India a cheap and of residence.

free trade with the U.S.A., especially with the New England States. The question was then debated by some Digby High School students one of which was some Digby's daughter, Florence (now Mrs. Melvin O. Tibert, Freeport, Digby Co.) Some days after the debate a man from some part of Nova Scotia came to the printing shop looking for Florence, one of the successful debaters; I had the impression that this man was interested politically but, maybe I was wrong.

Well, I felt that I had learned considerable from my short experience at "The Wallis Job Print". I was learning to do beginner jobs, receiving some knowledge about things like: embossing, stapling, perforating, counting, cutting and trimming paper stock, mixing inks for certain desired colors, and so forth, but, the only experience I had at setting type was just enough to make a "pi", the printers name for a confused mess.

There was a taste of trying to sell job printing outside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for printed personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it, made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular house, and got an order, but, it was much time and got an order, but,

Years and experiments with. The last time I saw him of personal interest, was after one day when he sent and talked with him was, after one day when he had a week he wanted me to visit him at his home. He had recently returned from the Novascotiath after a long absence. I made the visit and stayed for a week and experienced with him. Enjoyable Concert In Aid of the Hospital

Those who were unable to attend the Hospital Show at the Bijou Dream Theatre, on Wednesday evening, missed a real treat. We are sorry that there was not a bigger house. The concert was, for the most part, put on by the pupils of the Digby School, under the direction of Miss Margaret Stewart, Mrs. Bowby and Miss Munroe, all of whom deserve our highest compliments for their efforts.

Every number on the programme was excellent, although we feel safe in saying that little "Ninkey" Woolaver and Miss Leota Surrette were the general favorites of the audience. Both of these youngsters "brought down the house." Bernard Baxter with his recitation and mandolin was well received and everybody enjoyed the duet by Audrey and Marjorie Holdsworth.

The three numbers put on by the older young people, namely, the Minuet; the Gypsy Chorus and Dances and the Chorus, "Listen to the Band" were no exceptions to the rule. We understand that Frances MacNutt directed the Gypsy Chorus and Dances. Good work, "Puss"—we knew you could do it. Mrs. Dominic Melanson and her well trained cello took an important part in that act.

The three-act pantomime, "The Making of a Movie" with five "girls" and one boy in the cast was a big success. One could hardly believe that the girls were all boys. Before we know it, the Digby Academy will be able to stage their own "Dumb-bells."

Following is Wednesday evening's programme:

Opening Chorus—"Oh, Canada" and "The Maple Leaf."
Ninkey Woolaver—"Oh! There Once Was a Puffin".
Fairy Drill and Song.
Leota Surrette—"Down in the Meadow".
The Cuckoo Clock.
Statue Dance.
Bernard Baxter—"A Goblinade".
Minuet.
Duet—Audrey and Marjorie Holdsworth.
Gypsy Chorus and Dances.
Chorus—"Oh! Listen to the Band".
Song—"Ninkey" Woolaver.
"The Making of a Movie."
God Save the King.

Question—"When you purchase a pound of MORSE'S TEA, what do you get?"
Answer—"You get full 16 ounces of the purest and finest flavoured tea obtainable in the Canadian market."

UNITED CHURCH NOTES

The Easter Services were well attended, the Communion Service being the largest in recent years. At the morning service two were baptized and five persons received into membership. At the evening service about fifty very fine pictures of the Passion Week were shown on the screen, along with scripture readings and hymns. The special Easter music was well rendered, the morning choir and the Brotherhood choir each providing special numbers. The Sunday School session was an open one, and there was a large attendance. The programme was a Missionary one, with songs, readings and dialogues. The Sunday School also attended the morning service of the church. The floral decorations were very tasteful and a large electric cross hung with flowers added to the beauty of the chancel.

Sunday Services: Digby, 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Bay View, at 3 p. m.

On Wednesday evening, April 6th, the W. M. S. will hold their Easter Thank-Offering Meeting in the church hall. A short missionary play will be presented by some of the members of the Y. P. S. Miss A. L. Jaggar, of Smith's Cove, will speak on the customs and costumes of the Holy Land, and there will be special musical numbers.

Introducing New Features

Our readers will remember that we ran a contest a few weeks ago on "What I Would Do If I Were Editor of the Courier." We received a lot of suggestions but almost all of them were beyond the financial power of a country newspaper to carry out, in fact to do some of them would have involved an expenditure of thousands of dollars. We awarded the prize to Mrs. Hillyard Barnes, because her suggestions took into consideration the financial condition of the paper. One of her suggestions was a weekly comic strip, and to-day we are starting that feature with "The Family Next Door." We also have several other features which we intend to add during the next few weeks.

Mrs. Watson (nee Amy Westhaver) who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Westhaver, has returned to New York.

Funeral of the Late James Purdy

The funeral of the late James Manning Purdy was held from his residence on Queen Street, Saturday afternoon. It was one of the largest attended funerals we have had recently, and was under military auspices. The procession wended its way to St. Patrick's R. C. Church, of which he was a respected and devoted member. Father Leo Murphy officiated and delivered a most touching and appropriate sermon. By special request of the family there was no music or singing. He was laid to rest in the family lot beside his son, James, Jr., and two infant daughters. The beautiful floral offerings and spiritual bouquets (Mass Cards) testified to the high esteem in which he and his family are held. The pall bearers were soldier pals who had served overseas with him, namely, Fred Thibault, Clifford Beaton, Dominic Melanson and Jerry Surette. (The deceased was 38 years old, instead of 36, as previously mentioned.)

Digby Joins Opposition To Proposed Act

Endorsing the attitude of the mayor, the Digby Town Council went on record Monday night as opposed to certain sections of Bill 35, in reference to the proposed Department of Municipal Affairs which is before the local legislature. The Council is opposed to that section of the bill which provides to shift the town sinking funds to Halifax, opposed to paying the department the proposed 5 percent for taking care of the sinking funds and opposed to that section which proposes to elect by possible order-in-council, the Council, which may be dismissed by the department for cause stated in the bill.

Dr. W. R. Dickie representing the Digby Hospital Board, requested a grant from the town that would offset certain assessments against the Digby General Hospital. A representative of a street paving company addressed the Council giving statistics on the work over the summer, the preparatory work suggested to be done this year, if the Council viewed the suggestions with favor.

The matter of charging non-taxpayers a license to operate temporary services was discussed, but no action was taken.

The death occurred at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, on Monday, of Donald Kemp, formerly manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Weymouth, from pneumonia following an operation. Mr. Kemp was a native of St. Esprit, Cape Breton, and learned his banking experience in the Sydney branch of the Merchants Bank of Halifax, as it then was, and from there went to the head office in Halifax. A few years later he was sent to open a new branch at Richibucto, N. B., and in 1884 he was placed in charge of the branch at Weymouth, where he remained until his retirement. He was capable and obliging in his business, doing his best both for the bank and the community and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. His wife, who was a daughter of the late Colin Campbell, of Weymouth, predeceased him several years ago and he leaves one daughter, Jessie, wife of the Rev. C. A. Simpson, of the General Theological Seminary, New York. The funeral will be held in Weymouth, today, on the arrival of the morning train from Yarmouth.

Miss Mina Collins

The death of Miss Mina Collins took place on March 20th, at the Victoria General Hospital, in Halifax, at the age of 26 years. The remains were taken to Westport for burial. The funeral was held Thursday, March 24th, from the home of her uncle, Stewart Hicks, conducted by Rev. H. P. Phinney. A large number of friends gathered for the service, especially of the younger people. The hymns, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Rock of Ages" were sung.

Miss Collins, who was a native of Sandy Cove, had for a number of years resided in Wolfville, but the last few months had been living in Halifax. Her many friends will learn with great regret of her early death. We wish to publish a letter received by her father, from one who had sought to bring comfort to her before she died. The letter follows:

Mr. Walter Collins, Westport, N. S.

Dear Sir:

Allow me to express my sincere sympathy in the death of your daughter, Mina. I called to see her in her last illness and she professed her faith in Jesus Christ as her Saviour, and her readiness to die if such was God's will, and we had prayer together on Sunday night. I thought you would be glad to know that she faced the end with courage and resignation and faith.

I remain, Yours sincerely,

J. A. Pae-Gil-Christ

A TRIBUTE

It was the editor's sad duty to attend, on Tuesday, the funeral of a friend of almost half a century, Gilbert H. Langtry, newspaper man of Yarmouth, who lost his life in that town on Sunday through over exertion in fighting a big fire there. We became friends as very young boys in a class in Holy Trinity Sunday School in Yarmouth, taught by Miss Florence Baker, (now Lady Stotford, of England). We became almost inseparable companions, enjoyed the same pleasures, and entered the same office—The Yarmouth Times—to prepare for our life's work. This companionship continued until the winter I left that town, in 1903, to join the Halifax Herald staff. After that, with the increasing duties of life and separation, we drifted apart, but always continued our friendship. Gilbert loved Yarmouth—his native town—and never wanted to leave it. He worked for it, boosted for it, and finally gave his life for it. He was a retired fireman—it was not necessary for him to take any part in fighting Sunday's fire, but his friends' homes were in peril, and he did what he thought was his duty. "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." We are proud to pay this tribute to a real man, and to know that we enjoyed his friendship through life.

A number of friends of Miss Lois Hartman, met at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Boyers, Westport, on Friday evening, to give her a little surprise party, as she will soon be leaving for her home at Newfield, N. J. A splendid time was enjoyed by all present. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening, and all left for their homes at a late hour, hoping Mrs. Hartman will come to Westport again in the near future.

There will not be Mass in St. Patrick's R. C. church next Sunday, owing to the condition of the roads. There will be Mass the following Sunday (April 10).

The monthly business meeting of the Hospital Aid, postponed from last week, will be held at the Court House, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

AUTO LICENSES

The price of automobile licenses in Ontario has been increased, and according to Ontario papers the increase is a sore touch, although motor licenses are still much cheaper in Ontario than they are in other provinces, the license for Ford and Chevrolet cars in Ontario being $7.00 while it is $21.60 in Nova Scotia. More than one Ontario farmer has declared that for the year 1932 his car will stand right in the barn or garage and old Dobbin will be made to earn his keep when there is occasion to travel from place to place. "A few of them may do this," says the Aylmer Sun, "but we strongly suspect that when the good old summer-time arrives, and family reunions and picnics are the order of the day, the majority of them will lose their courage to make good their threat, and get out the old bus, even though the gas tax may be further raised by the government."

OLD-FASHIONED DOCTOR

A Pittsburgh physician, known for many years as "the doctor who never sent a bill," died the other day and left an estate consisting of $800 in the bank, and $25,000 in unpaid accounts. The wonder is that he had the $800.

There are a lot of these old-fashioned doctors left, too, than you might think. They are usually general practitioners, though some of the specialists are just as "reasonable"—meaning unreasonably lenient—in their charges and their efforts to collect. And this in spite of the long, expensive years of preparation and waiting until the doctor can acquire a sustaining practice.

All in all, it is doubtful whether any other class of modern society spend themselves so freely for so little return.

SPLASHING PEDESTRIANS

A Glace Bay magistrate has fined an auto driver for splashing a pedestrian. It is pleasing to learn that pedestrians still have some rights and we trust that the action of the Glace Bay magistrate will have effect on careless auto drivers. The majority of Digby auto drivers proceed carefully in slushy or muddy weather, but there are some of the younger ones who have no regard for the rights of pedestrians.

DARE MORE AND DON'T DEPRESS

The jingle given below came in from a friend in Chicago who got it somewhere else. It is offered as the week's best medicine:

Wipe more and whine less.
Hustle more and holler less.
Work more and worry less.
Boost more and beef less.
Give more and grab less.
Dare more and not depress.
Business would be a damned sight better!"

WHY SUBSCRIPTIONS TO NEWSPAPERS CONTINUE

Newspaper subscribers often wonder why a publisher keeps sending a paper when the subscription has expired. An exchange thus explains the matter: When a subscription is paid to a certain time, and time expires and the paper stopped, it looks as if the editor doubted the integrity of the subscriber, and nine cases out of ten the subscriber will give the editor a calling down for insinuating that his credit was no good. Rather than cast any reflection against a neighbour's honesty to pay a small debt it has been customary for newspapers to continue sending the papers after the time has expired. The city weeklies and dailies do not generally follow this rule as their subscribers are at a distance and do not know their financial standing. One should deem it an honour to know that his credit is not doubted when the publisher continues to send the paper. Should the subscriber desire to have his paper discontinued he should inform the publisher and remit to date, if any is owing.—Ex.

SLOOP AGROUND AT CHURCH POINT

Louis H. Comeau's sloop, sailed by Captain Stanton, on her first trip of the season with lobsters from Tiverton and East Ferry, was caught on a large gravel bar that has formed at the entrance to the Church Point wharf and only escaped serious damage because the sea was smooth. At low water the sloop was raised ten feet, her stern on top of the bar and her bow down to an angle of about 45 degrees.

HOW SHE KEEPS HER WEIGHT DOWN

"I do secretarial work, and therefore lead a more or less sedentary life," writes Miss L. M. A. "I find a small dose of Kruschen Salts every morning keeps me perfectly fit and in good condition. My normal weight is 116 lbs., and having taken Kruschen Salts regularly for three years, I never put on surplus weight. You cannot put on surplus weight when you are so healthy and active as you must be if you take Kruschen Salts. Activity is the enemy of fat. When you take vitalizing Kruschen Salts for a few days that old indolent arm-chair feeling deserts you—it doesn't matter how fat you are—the urge for activity has got you—and you're 'stepping lively.' And best of all you like this activity—you walk a couple of miles and you don't think you'll ever dance again, but you find you're getting as spry as ever—the old tingling, active feeling is back in your feet. One bottle is enough to prove to you that Kruschen will make you feel younger—spryer—more energetic. You'll enjoy life—every minute of it."

occupied several important positions.

STEWARDESS' CAREER AT SEA UNFORTUNATE

Miss Alma Boudreau, rescued Stewardess of the wrecked C. N. S. Prince David, has had an unfortunate sea-going career. She has been wrecked thrice.

The 25-year-old native of Church Point has followed the footsteps of her father, Captain Fidele Boudreau, and made her first trip to sea on his tern schooner, the Peter McIntyre, of Saint John. The schooner was sliced in two off the Delaware breakwater, by the steamer Herbert L. Pratt in 1922.

Two years later she was aboard the schooner H. A. McLellan, bound from Albert, N. B. to New York. The vessel encountered such stormy weather that it required 22 days to make the trip, and reached port with her sails gone, and her deck load missing, and her hold filled with water.

After that Miss Boudreau spent two years on the S. S. Majestic, a Saint John River boat, and then sailed on the S. S. Farnorth between New York and St. John's, Newfoundland. She transferred to the Prince David, and was on her when she grounded on Bermuda Island.

ACID STOMACH

Excess acid is the common cause of indigestion, results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acid. The best corrective is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. Harmless, and tasteless, and yet its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods, once you learn how quickly this method acts. Be sure to get the genuine.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia, a superior tooth-paste that safeguards against acid-mouth. (Made in Canada.)

Try Miss McFarlane's Favorite Recipe for BISCUITS

1/2 teaspoon salt 4 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder (or 1 1/2 cups shortening)

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in the chilled shortening. Now add the chilled liquid to make soft dough. Roll dough onto a floured board and do not handle more than is necessary. Roll or pat out with a floured biscuit cutter. Place on slightly greased pan or baking sheet and bake in hot oven at 450° F. 12 to 15 minutes.

"For Light, Flaky Biscuits use Magic Baking Powder,"

says Miss M. McFarlane, dietitian of St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto

"I RECOMMEND Magic because I know it is pure, and free from harmful ingredients."

Miss McFarlane's opinion is based on a thorough knowledge of food chemistry, and on close study of food effects upon the body. On practical cooking experience, too.

Most dietitians in public institutions, like Miss McFarlane, use Magic exclusively. Because it is always uniform, dependable, and gives consistently better baking results.

And Magic is the favorite of Canadian housewives. It outsells all other baking powders combined.

You'll find Magic makes all your baked foods unusually light and tender, and gives you the same perfect results every time.

Free Cook Book—When you bake at home, the new Magic Cook Book will give you dozens of recipes for delicious baked foods. Write to Standard Brands Ltd., Fraser Avenue and Liberty Street, Toronto, Ont.

SCOUT NOTES
Much interest is being shown in the progress of the Sleeping Bag and Blanket roll now being made by members of the Troop. This is the outfit that is shown in the Official Handbook, and it requires considerable skill to make it up just right. The principal material required is waterproof khaki duck of light weight—about 14 yards in all. Other materials are four dozen brass eyelets or grommets, one-half inch size, two fathoms of rope and four one-and-one-half inch iron rings. The insertion of the eyelets so as to get them properly placed is one of the most particular parts of the job, and then the fastening of the ropes in the rings requires a knowledge of rope splicing. When completed this outfit has a variety of uses for scouts and can be used as a hammock in addition to Sleeping Bag and Blanket-roll and Hold-all.

Winter hiking closed on Saturday, March 12th, with ideal conditions for tracking. A light fall of snow the previous night furnished all the material necessary and considerable skill was shown by the boys in reading the signs and identifying the different tracks. Cooking tests were also carried on by those who are qualifying for their Camp Cook's Badge for the summer camping trip.

Tuesday's hike was called off on account of unfavorable weather conditions, but it is expected to hold it on Saturday, April 2nd, instead.

VOLUME LVIII, NO. 36

Medical Health Officer, John R. McCleave has received the following communication from the Department of Public Health, Halifax: "The specimen of water submitted for examination contained a few of the common so-called water fleas. They are not pathogenic to man, in fact they rather improve the quality of the water by using up organic material. They are objectionable only by their presence."

The regular monthly meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses will be held Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in the Court House.

The Condition of the Roads

Interviewed this week the Honourable Percy C. Black, Minister of Highways, made the following statement with reference to the highways.

"Frost conditions on our highways this spring are the worst in years. Formerly the highways during this season were closed by Statute to all classes of motor vehicle traffic. This restriction has been removed and the highways at the present time have only been closed to heavy truck traffic. During the present year, the lack of snow and the mild weather in January and the severe weather in February and March have affected the roads more seriously than for many years. Today, particularly in the central and western part of the Province, there are more 'frost boils' and impassable spots than there have been for years. To keep the highways passable during the next few weeks, even for the lightest class of traffic, will not be possible in many sections. This special expenditure at this time would at best only serve a temporary purpose and the Department is not able to undertake such work. Trucking of road materials would destroy pieces of nearby roads where the crust is not yet broken. The situation can be greatly helped if everybody uses discretion in the use of the highways for the next few weeks. The public generally in their own best interest will not use the highways unnecessarily at this season."

"We have closed the roads to the heavier class of traffic and persons who operate passenger vehicles do so at their own risk. We cannot state definitely what further steps may be necessary to protect the roads."

"Gravel highways cannot be considered 'all season' highways, and they must necessarily be bad during the period when the frost is coming out. To provide highways which would not have this defect would involve an enormous expenditure of capital moneys with consequent heavy annual interest and sinking fund burden."

On Monday evening the H. S. basketball team played the town team. The first period started very fast with Bent scoring for school; Walker followed with a great field goal also for the school. The town team got under way with a score from Keen. After a few moments of fast play Morehouse scored for school and Daley scored for town on a free shot; Daley again scored, this time a field goal. In the next few minutes Smith scored twice for town, followed by Keen and the lead ended 11-6 in favor of town. In the second period the school rallied and in the first few minutes of play Walker scored three goals. Keen followed, followed by two snappy fields for the town. After a few minutes of hard play Bent scored from centre. Daley and Keen scored for town and the period ended 21-15. (Snow got free shot goal at last of period.) During this period Bent was using the "when in doubt toss up method" that is when he wasn't sure whether it was a foul or not he would call for a toss-up.

In the third period Bent scored two field goals, and Walker on a free shot. For the town, Keen scored two fields; Daley and Smith each fields. During the fourth period the school had another rally and Snow led off with two goals, one on an assist from Morehouse. Play was scoreless for a time, then Morehouse scored. Keen followed with a fast one; Snow scored again. Watkins got a snappy one off centre. Turnbull scored a free shot for town, followed by Daley. The game ended with a score of 38-32 in favor of the town team.

Easter Concert at Acacville

The Easter Concert of the Hill Grove Baptist Church, after having been postponed twice on account of bad weather, was held in the church on Sunday evening. The seats were well filled and the whole performance justified the highest expectations. The program did not start until Rev. Mr. Bishop had arrived from Digby, after his regular evening service there. Deacon John Nichols read the program, which consisted of several beautiful themes by the choir, and recitations and songs and exercises by the children and young people.

The choir is indeed to be congratulated on their splendid singing which showed excellent and extensive training. The children, too, took their parts well and the whole program was carried through smoothly. Mr. Bishop gave prayer and a short address on the Easter lesson, and Deacon Nichols read with the aid of his Bible, the Scripture lesson. A collection of over $17.00 was received which will be used for Mission purposes.

Mrs. Hector Barr spent a day recently at Weymouth North.

QUEBEC SEAWAY OBJECTIONS

With Canada and the United States supposedly agreed about the St. Lawrence waterway, the province of Quebec is trying again to make trouble, says the Gloucester, (Mass.) Daily Times. Premier Taschereau offers these objections:

1. "Invariably we have come out second best in dealing with the United States."

2. "Montreal has been made the head of St. Lawrence navigation, and I think it is the duty of the citizens of Quebec to see that it goes no farther."

3. "The railroads tell us that the project would be ruinous for them."

4. "To give the United States her 1,000,000 horsepower on the International Rapids section—where the States would build two new canals—would make it unnecessary for the United States to come to Quebec with her factories, to purchase power and set up industrial development."

The first three objections sound curiously like those still heard in some parts of the United States, especially in New York, but are not taken very seriously.

The fourth objection is especially interesting to Americans. There is doubtless some force in the premier's argument, as regards his own country—and by the same token, an argument for New York State's approval of the seaway plan.

Even so, Quebec, like Ontario, has little reason to worry. American industry is moving in to Canada quite rapidly enough as matters stand, thanks to the Canadian tariff which pulls our factories over the border to save their Dominion market and get the advantage of preferential rates throughout the British Empire.

Lifeless Body Found at Victoria Beach

The lifeless body of Sadie Apt, 44, who was missed from her home at Victoria Beach, about one o'clock yesterday morning, was found on the shore by her brother, Stephen Apt, at an early hour yesterday morning after a search had been instigated by the missing woman's people. An inquest conducted by Dr. Braine, of Annapolis Royal, with Stewart Mills as foreman, was held later in the day, and a verdict of "death by suicide" was returned.

Miss Apt, who kept house for her father, has suffered physical deformities since birth, and was subject to melancholy spells.

Mother was telling Frank how to behave at the party.

"Now," she said, "if they pass the cake a second time you must say, 'No thanks, I've had plenty,' and don't you forget it."

All went well with Frank until the hostess said, kindly, "Won't you have another piece of cake?"

"No, thanks. I've had enough, and don't you forget it," was the astonishing reply.

"Two Years ago I'd have said it Couldn't be Done"

WALTER P. CHRYSLER TELLS ABOUT HIS NEW PLYMOUTH

I PRODUCED the first car that ever carried my name in 1924—only eight years ago. It sold for $2700 and caused a SENSATION.

The New Plymouth that I am introducing this week is exactly the same SIZE. It is just as POWERFUL. It is FASTER. It is ten times as SMART. And it is priced as low as $695.

Two years ago, if anyone had told me such a thing could happen, I would have said it couldn't be done.

The depression has made men THINK. And being forced to think, we have found new ways to overcome obstacles.

In creating the New Plymouth we had the problem of incorporating many new and important engineering improvements in a bigger and better automobile—of creating greater value.

In prosperous times we never could have done it. But under the pressure of adverse conditions we discovered necessity was the mother of INVENTION and that the seemingly impossible COULD BE DONE.

When you see this car, I ask particularly that you note its larger, roomier body. It is a BIG car, a more beautiful car, with longer wheelbase, with increased power, speed and performance. The 1932 Plymouth includes every feature that the most modern car can have. Above all it has one advantage found in NO OTHER car in its price class... Floating Power... a revolutionary engine mounting that does away with vibration completely. I think you will be impressed by the easy-riding qualities of the New Plymouth. In my opinion it is the most comfortable car anyone ever drove.

Also, you can't help but be impressed by its extreme ease of handling. With the new Automatic Clutch it is almost effortless to drive. The Hydraulic Brakes make you safer and surer.

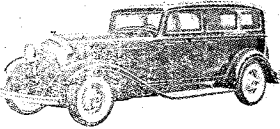

But I am publishing this advertisement to get you to SEE this car. Seeing is believing, and like myself you never would have believed it possible.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

We all are blind until we see That in the human plan Nothing is worth the making if It does not make the man.

Why build these cities glorious If man unbuilt goes? In vain we build the world, unless The builder, also grows.

—Edwin Markham.

CAPE ST. MARY BOATS MAKE SEVEN HAULS

Only One-Fourth of Regular Fleet Have Traps Set

The month of March is over, with meagre results to lobster fishermen. So far, about one-fourth of the regular spring fleet of boats have any traps set, and the owners have been able to go to them only seven times during the last month. On three occasions they could take one haul only, a breeze setting in and preventing a return to the traps the following slack.

During the last week, two mornings found the fishermen out for the early slack, returning with only a partial haul on account of a breeze on.

The twenty-eight hour gale which commenced on Monday morning, March 28, rushing the boats back to port, left such a swell that the fishermen did not do much hauling of traps before the end of the week. The price is 30 cents a pound.

The flowers were distributed among friends and sick people after the funeral service. OBITUARY

Rev. James W. Smith
Mrs. James W. Smith

It is with deep regret that we record the passing of Rev. James W. Smith and Mrs. Smith, at their home in Bear River this week. Mr. Smith was born at Clark's Harbor, Shelburne Co., the son of the late Parker Smith and Mrs. Smith, seventy-six years ago. He was ordained to the Baptist ministry a number of years ago, and had several pastoral charges throughout the province, where he made many friends who will mourn his passing. Mrs. Smith, formerly Miss Elta Warner, was born at Barton, Digby County, a daughter of the late Captain Robert Warner and Mrs. Warner, seventy-four years ago. Mr. Smith was taken with a severe attack of influenza which developed into pneumonia. During the worst stage of his case Mrs. Smith was taken with "flu" and despite everything that medical skill could do, both patients passed away. Mr. Smith on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and Mrs. Smith on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. Though Mr. and Mrs. Smith had no family connection, neither than the United States, friendly neighbors have been careful that they wanted for nothing in the way of loving care. Mr. Smith retired from the active ministry some years ago and purchased a home about a mile out of town, but the habits of a life-time were strict, and he always remembered his mission in life. He made innumerable friends wherever he went, and those were always glad to meet him, with a kindly word or deed. We mourn our loss, yet we are glad that in death they were not separated. The double funeral was held from the Baptist Church, on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. A. MacLeod. Interment was in Mount Hope cemetery.

Mrs. Dora Morgan

Mrs. Dora Morgan, of Bear River, passed away April 3rd, after a lingering illness of over a year. Mrs. Morgan was born in 1858, at Clyde River, N. S., a daughter of Harding and Phoebe Crabbe. One of a family of four sisters and three brothers, whom two sisters, Mrs. Dan Crowell, of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Ann Mailman, of Danforth, Me.; and one brother, Edward Crabbe, of Ottawa, Ontario, are now living. She is also survived by her husband, William Morgan, in Bear River; one son, William, in Western Canada; and a daughter, Clara Wentzell, who has been with her in her last sickness; two grandchildren, William and Wentzell, of Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Frank Reynolds, also of Lynn; and six great grandchildren. Mrs. Morgan has been a life-long member of the Bear River Baptist Church and interested in all church affairs. She was also an active member of Rebekah Lodge, Alta. No. 82. The funeral was held at the Baptist Church April 5th, conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. A. MacLeod, her Rebekah sisters, assisting.

Peter Donohue

There passed peacefully away on Friday afternoon last, an aged and respected citizen, Peter Donohue, in his 80th year. Up until November the deceased enjoyed excellent health, when it began to fail. Since then he was able to be about, only being confined to his bed four days. Coming to Bear River forty years ago, he has spent the entire time in this community, where he was missed by his many friends. He leaves to mourn his passing, his widow, two daughters, Mrs. L. Litchfield, Mrs. R. H. Purdy, and three grandchildren, Geraldine, Cereceno and Hoyt Purdy. Also his wife, friend, who found in him a loving friend. The funeral service was held on Sunday afternoon from his late residence, conducted by the Rev. C. P. Henderson, pastor of the Advent Christian Church, who spoke words of comfort to those who mourn. The hymns, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Abide with Me" were beautifully rendered and the favorite song of the deceased, "Think of That Home" was sweetly sung by Mrs. L. Sanford and Mrs. E. E. Harris. Mrs. Carol Clarke, the bereaved daughter, the pall bearer, accompanied. The pall bearers were E. C. Davis, H. E. Harris, F. Purdy and V. L. Harris, with interment in Mount Hope cemetery.

WORD OF THANKS—We wish to thank those who by their many acts of kindness expressed their sorrow and sympathy during the illness and death of our dear one. Especially we thank the singers and all who assisted at the funeral—Mrs. Donohue, Laura, Maud and Hattie. 36.1

COMFORT

for COLICKY BABIES

... THROUGH CASTORIA'S GENTLE REGULATION

The best way to prevent colic, doctors say, is to avoid gas in stomach and bowels by keeping the entire intestinal tract open, free from waste. But remember this: a tiny baby's tender little organs cannot stand harsh treatment. They must be gently regulated. This is just the time Castoria can help most. Castoria, you know, is made specially for babies and children. It is a pure vegetable preparation, perfectly harmless. It contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. For years, it has helped mothers and children suffering with colicky babies and children suffering with digestive unctions, colds and fever. Keep genuine Castoria on hand, with the name:

LOSS IS $105,000 AS TWO BUILDINGS ARE DESTROYED IN SYDNEY

A twisted mass of scarred timbers strewn in all directions is all that remains of the plants of Snell's Bakery Limited and the Sandau Bottling Company, Pitt Street, Sydney, as a result of fire which swept through both buildings at an early hour last Thursday morning with a resultant loss of approximately $105,000.

Chester Snell, 21, brother of L. Snell, manager and secretary-treasurer of the bakery, is a patient at the City Hospital, suffering from painful face and head injuries, sustained when he jumped to safety from a second storey window to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet. James McDougall, another bakery employee, who occupied sleeping quarters with Snell on the second floor, also made a hasty exit but escaped unhurt.

Losses suffered in the fire follow: Snell's Bakery Limited, plant, stock and equipment, estimated at $50,000, partially covered by insurance; Sandau Bottling Company, operated by Samuel Sadosky, loss $10,000, partially covered by insurance; Philip Cohen, owner of the Bottling Company building, loss $40,000, partially covered.

The origin of the blaze is unknown but it is assumed that it started around the bakery ovens. It had gained considerable headway before it was discovered by young Snell, who was awakened by the crackling flames. A call was put through to fire headquarters after which the two young men made their escape from the building.

Lawrence and Chester Snell are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snell, of Bear River.

ADVERTISE IN THE COURIER.

"Oh, it was ever so long ago!"

this dainty lady said. "Dry Cleaners were unknown. The very finest materials had to be laundered. It was no small task to wash the heavy fabrics of those times. It was a problem over which we sought advice. At times, I even made soap from carefully tested recipes. "I don't remember the exact year when I started using Surprise but I do know that once I tried it I never made my own soap again. "I gradually became accustomed to the gentle way Surprise cleansed frail or very soiled clothes. But when I found that it wouldn't injure fine woodwork, I thought I had discovered the safest soap in the world. "I've used it ever since, of course, and I have always found that whatever cleaning task I have to cope with Surprise can be depended upon."

"Quality first" was the policy adopted when the first bar of Surprise Soap was made in St. Stephen, N.B., forty-six years ago. This policy has never been altered and the quality has improved with advancing knowledge, keeping pace with modern requirements.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

After all the food in which we have indulged during the Holiday season, lighter foods are very welcome. Fish for an entree is a good choice for it is as flavorful as meat, but not as heavy.

A very new and appetizing fish recipe is Fish Steaks Baked in Sweetened Condensed Milk. The milk gives the fish the right hint of sweetness to be delectable and makes the fish more tender. It was formerly thought that to use milk and fish at the same meal was unwise, but that belief has been definitely disproved.

In college fish was always highly recommended to the Freshman as a brain food. This Sophomore joke probably had its beginning when a well known nutritionist was asked in the course of a lecture how much fish should be eaten to develop brain power and she replied, "At least a whale!" Fish does, however, build firm flesh and strong muscles and should be served as often as your family enjoys it.

For a well balanced meal in which fish is to be served the following menu is suggested:

- Tomato Juice Cocktail
- Baked Fish Steaks Maitre d'Hotel Sauce
- Baked Potatoes
- Fresh Vegetable Salad, French Dressing
- Magic Lemon Cream Pie
- Condensed Coffee

The recipe for Magic Lemon Pie given below with the recipe for Fish Steaks is very easy to prepare. The filling is made of sweetened condensed milk, eggs and lemon juice. The lemon juice thickens the sweetened condensed milk in an instant and no further thickening is required for this pie filling. When the Uncooked Pie Crust is used this pie requires only as much time in the oven as is needed to brown the meringue. It practically "bakes" in the refrigerator.

Fish Steaks

Fish steaks: Bacon strips; Salt; Pepper; Sweetened Condensed Milk; Cut fish steaks (any type of boned fillet—cod, halibut, etc.) about 3/4 inch in thickness. Place these in a dripping pan. Place two strips of bacon in a cross shape on the steaks. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. (Any of the meat sauces—Tobacco, etc.—may be used to good advantage.) Nearly cover the steaks with sweetened condensed milk. Place in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) Allow to become thoroughly done.

Magic Lemon Cream Pie

1-3 cups sweetened condensed milk; 1/2 cup lemon juice; Grated rind of 1 lemon; 2 eggs; 2 table-spoons granulated sugar; Baked pie shell. Blend together sweetened condensed milk, lemon juice, grated lemon rind and egg yolks. Pour into pie shell which was baked in an eight inch plate or use Uncooked Pie Crust. Cover with meringue, made by beating egg whites until stiff and adding sugar. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until brown. Chill before serving.

Uncooked Pie Crust

Roll enough graham crackers to make one cup crumbs. Mix with 1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk. Line buttered pie plate, packing mixture well. Pour in filling and bake until meringue is browned.

THE MAKING OF FRIENDS

If nobody smiled and nobody cheered and nobody helped us along. If each every minute looked after himself and good things all went to the strong. If nobody cared just a little for you, and nobody thought about me. And we stood all alone to the battle of life, what a dreary old world it would be!

If there were no such thing as a star in the sky as a symbol of comradeship here.

If we lived as the animals live in the woods, with nothing held sacred or dear.

And selfishness ruled us from birth to the end, and never a neighbour had we.

And never we gave to a neighbour in need, what a dreary old world it would be!

Oh! If we were as rich as the richest on earth and strong as the strongest that lives.

Yet never we knew the delight and the charm of the smile which the other man gives.

If kindness was never a part of ourselves, though we owned all the land we could see.

And friendship meant nothing to all of us here, what a dreary old world it would be!

Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made and the things which in common we share.

We want to live not because of ourselves, but because of the people who care.

Its giving and doing for somebody else—on that all life's splendor depends.

And the joy of this world, when you've summed it all up, is found in the making of friends.

—Edgar A. Guest.

To our mind the making of true friends is of more importance than the gaining of wealth or fame, for after all is said and done, the gold of friendship and the understanding friend remain what we each one seek for most of all in life. To have advancement in position and salary, to look into the future, to be thrifty and save for a rainy day in money matters is a wise plan; but our happiness depends upon more than this—it depends to a large degree upon our friends.

Those unpretending few, or as Stevenson puts it, "Those without our capitation."

What wonderful people those few are, with whom we can lay aside our masks and dare to be ourselves. You can abuse them, neglect them, tolerate them.

Best of all you can keep still with them. It makes no matter. They like you. You can weep with them, laugh with them, pray with them. Through and underneath it all they see, know and love you.

There is a Scotch saying to the effect that nobody can be happy without a friend, nor sure of him until unhappy. Truly there is no such test of friendship as trouble. The friend who sticks by when you have not even a smile to give, who insists on a share of your hard knocks, is the sort of friend you are looking for. From our friends we get the inspiration to plan and achieve. They furnish sunlight to our lives when the dark days come, the sorrow and loneliness which nothing else seems able to heal.

The best possible assurance against unhappy days are the friends we have made and kept.

Perhaps the quality which stands out more than any other when applied to friendship is—LOYALTY. We do not want to hear of the bad traits of our friends, we want only to know the good in them.

How very fine is that old saying, that next to having a friend the greatest thing is to BE one.

What finer task could we ask? Giant ocean liners sailing out of New York will continue to make Nova Scotia their chief port of call during the 1932 summer cruise season and "stop-over" privilege enabling the passengers to remain in Nova Scotia for some weeks before returning home will greatly enhance the value of these cruises to the Province.

For? After all to have lived and made but a single genuine friend, is to have lived and been a success. If we have been fortunate enough to have been given a place among those unpretending few, let us be worthy of our place; because the wounds from a friend heal slowly—and the scars remain forever. As George Matthew Adams has said: "When a friend fails you, the stars in the heavens never seem the same again!" Surely none of us would want the sorrow of knowing that we have failed our friends, or that our "Castle to Friendship" has become only a memory, as Joseph Morris has so clearly pictured in his little poem, of which we quote two stanzas:

"I had a friend. Golden hours we spent in a fellow-ship. That bound our souls together. In a beautiful Castle of Friendship we dwelt."

Where naught, but the noble and true could enter. We held for each other aloft in our hands. A torch of ideals, and youthful eyes beheld it.

As a star to lead us on. Thus we shared our lives in the dream days of youth. But the crowding years of manhood came apace.

And the merciless pressure of things. Stilled the yearning of our hearts. Less and less we dwelt in the Castle of Friendship.

And finally it was but a memory. —N. K. F.

She was pretty, short-skirted and pink checked. As she tripped lightly down the stairs from the station many admiring glances were cast in her direction.

"Some girl!" exclaimed one youth to his companion, as they trailed in her wake. "Wonder who the lucky chap is she is going to meet?"

As she emerged from the station, a handsome broad shouldered man, fully six feet tall clasped her in his arms and kissed her. "Altogether!" he exclaimed fondly, "I thought I'd missed you."

Baseball in Digby County, 1932

To the Editor of the Courier:—Sir: With the first sign of spring the old horse-hold covered sphere, namely the "Baseball" is taken out of the moth balls where it has been in repose ever since its strenuous season of 1931. With every warm day you may see the young boys testing out their throwing arms and limbering up themselves in readiness for a good baseball season. Many a sore arm will be rubbed and bandaged before the first game can be played but gradually the player brings himself to form and before many days are over he has recovered his old time control of this little magic sphere.

Great interest has been taken in baseball these last few years by the people along St. Mary's Bay. In places where baseball was heard about but seldom seen, they gathered up their young men and formed a baseball team, which though unable to perhaps win the Nova Scotia Championship, could show some of the other places a few tricks in baseball. It is surprising how quick the young boys are adapting themselves to the game. Baseball has been in a slump in Western Nova Scotia for the last ten years, but last year it took a leap and numerous games were contested along the shore. Church Point alone played 36 games during the baseball season; a thing never surpassed before in that village and perhaps never in any other small town of Western Nova Scotia. Meteghan, Meteghan Centre and Meteghan River each had a team. These villages never had a team before and they trotted out a fine aggregation. Freeport, Westport and Tiverton also had good teams.

Plans are gradually taking form and it is expected to form a "Baseball League" composed of teams from Digby County. A notice to all teams in the county letting them know when the league meeting is to be held will be inserted in the Digby Weekly Courier at an early date. Those wishing to join the league would be advised to write to A. P. Melanson, of Church Point. With the baseball season close at hand it would be advisable for teams to get organized.

Yours very truly,
A. P. Melanson.

Present Pageant At Westport

The pageant "The Uplifted Cross" was presented in the Christian Church of Westport on Easter Sunday night, and was very much appreciated by those present. Upon invitation it was presented again on the following Wednesday night, to a most eager audience.

The pageant itself carries a great message, incorporating as it does the three essential truths of the Christian faith—the Crucifixion, the Resurrection and the Christian obligation of Cross-bearing.

On Sunday night the program began with a solo, "In the Garden," by a tiny tot, Joyce Welch. Then, after appropriate Scripture and prayer by the pastor, Malcolm Outhouse, the Pageant was presented. On Wednesday night a few other features were added. A violin solo, "The Old Rugged Cross," rendered by Mr. McGray, of Yarmouth, and was very much enjoyed by all, as was also "A Child's Prayer," sung by Blair Titus. Just before the Pageant the pastor played his guitar and sang "Christ is King."

The musical accompaniment was sung by the choir, with Miss Maida Peters as organist, and Mr. McGray, violinist. The hymns sung by the choir included such old hymns as "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "Crown Him with Many Crowns," "In the Cross of Christ I Glorify," "Love Divine," "O Master Let Me Walk with Thee." Two duets and a solo also formed part of the musical accompaniment of the pageant.

Miss Alice Cousins and Malcolm Outhouse sang "Take My Life and Let It Be," and Mrs. Fred Gower and Malcolm Outhouse sang "Speed Away." The solo, "Christ Arose" was sung by Mrs. Melbourne MacDormand.

The meeting of the Y. P. S. will be held on Thursday evening next. Programme: "Reading of Newspaper."

The service on Sunday evening will be of interest to all who have to do with the sea. The Brotherhood choir will be in charge of the music, and will sing some of the old favorite hymns of the sea.

The building formerly owned by J. L. Peters, next to Yates' Studio, and which last year was occupied by the Farmers' Co-operative Store, is undergoing extensive repairs, and we understand will be occupied as a barber shop. It is now owned by Elmer Weir, of Smith's Cove.

The annual spring cleaning is in progress all over the town. Some of the hotels have fairly large staffs at work, both in the buildings and on the grounds.

The roads are drying up fairly well, but there are still some very bad spots.

ACADEMY NOTES

On Wednesday evening the Girls' Athletic Society held their regular weekly meeting. The girls did some indoor track work and played basketball. It was decided that the basketball team would not go to Annapolis on Friday, as was previously intended, but would wait until the roads were in better condition.

On Thursday morning a surprise fire drill was held, and although the pupils have had very little practice in fire drill, the building was cleared quite quickly.

The teachers of the Academy held a meeting on Friday afternoon, after school.

20 YEARS AGO

Shortly after 2 o'clock in the morning, in the ice fields off the coast of Newfoundland, just 20 years ago today, the largest and most perfectly equipped passenger steamship the world has ever seen, supposedly unsinkable, and costing $10,000,000—the Titanic—striking an iceberg, slowly tipped on end and disappeared, carrying with her the captain and 1365 of the passengers and crew. Many great men and world celebrities were among the lost.

Detroit Gangster (?) Given Shelter in Digby Jail

Man Said to Answer Description of Fleischer Being Searched for in Lindburgh Kidnapping Case in Town This Week

A man perfectly fitting the description of the Detroit gangster Harry Fleischer, believed to be implicated in the kidnapping of Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., was given shelter in the Digby, Nova Scotia jail on Tuesday night, according to information given out by Chief of Police Cowan and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The man gave the name of LaFontaine, and left for Yarmouth yesterday, from where he intends crossing to Boston tonight. LaFontaine, who was questioned here yesterday, without any thought of any connection in the famous Lindbergh kidnapping case, gave his address as Charlottetown, P.E.I.

A hobo answering the description of Fleischer was identified by his picture in Wednesday evening's papers, by four persons in the city of Halifax a few days ago. Local Police are positive that LaFontaine is the same man who was recently in Halifax. It is alleged that he, under the name of LaFontaine, had once before made an attempt to cross to the United States and was turned back. Immigration officers at Yarmouth are now on the watch for this man, according to the police.

Howard, Manager, Tourist and Convention Bureau, Canadian National Railways, on his return to the Ocean Limited, from Moncton to Montreal, speaking with regard to fishing and hunting, Mr. Howard said that he has received many enquiries from sportsmen in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New England States inquiring as to fishing and hunting in the Maritimes and he anticipates a great influx of sportsmen this season.

Besides her sorrowing parents, she leaves an older sister, Harriet, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gates, of Acadiaville.

People in the Maritime Provinces may have had fears of a return of the ice age during some of the severe winter weather experienced during the past Winter. Their fears, however, would seem to be groundless as, according to the Natural Resources Department of the Canadian National Railways, the climax of the last great glacial period in Eastern Canada was reached some 35,000 years ago.

On Monday evening the High School basketball team again played the town team. The town team won the match 36-25.

Two, Nearly Lose Lives in Fires

On Friday evening last, the boat shop and carpenter shop of Evan Dunn, at the Racquette, was totally destroyed by a fire, which is supposed to have originated from a grass fire in the afternoon. The blaze was discovered about nine o'clock by Edward Barnes, and an alarm sounded. Mr. Dunn, in an effort to save some of his valuable belongings, rushed into the blazing shop and became lost in the smoke. It was with difficulty that he was able to find his way to the open again, and not before he received severe burns about the head and face.

All of his tools and equipment fell prey to the flames as well as a small boat under construction, and stock being made up for local parties.

On Monday afternoon fire destroyed the home of Wilfred Murphy, Culloden. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Murphy, who was hanging out clothes at the time. She noticed smoke issuing from the roof, and rushed into the house to save her baby sleeping in one of the upstairs rooms. The smoke was so thick that she was forced to crawl on her hands and knees to rescue the infant. At the time her husband and most of the men of the village were attending to their lobster traps. The house became a total loss.

There was no insurance in either case.

Tea drinkers of Nova Scotia no doubt were delighted last week to learn that the price of MORSE'S TEA (Crimson label) in one-pound packages, had been reduced to 45 cents per pound. Three years ago this tea was selling at 75 cents per pound. Its quality today, as always, is at the very top. Ask your grocer to supply it.

Caught in Winch, Man's Leg Crushed

Percy Harris, 36-year-old resident of Sandy Cove, met with a severe accident, Wednesday evening, when he was caught in a winch, used for hauling boats and had a leg crushed, and was otherwise very badly injured. He was brought to the Digby General Hospital.

His left leg was almost amputated above the ankle; broken between the knee and hip, and almost pulled away from his body.

The accident occurred Wednesday evening while hauling a boat up by means of a winch, the rope had slipped and Harris attempted to kick it on the drum with his foot which became caught in the coils, winding his body about the drum. His condition was reported as "fair" last evening.

"Elizabeth Cann" Sheltered Here

The Yarmouth steamer "Elizabeth Cann," one of the Eastern Coastal Lines ships, put in to Digby for shelter on Tuesday. The "Elizabeth Cann" carries a load of fertilizer from Windsor. Her captain is Ray Hall, one of the survivors of the wrecks of the "Ruby L. II" and "Grace Hankinson," off the Digby Neck coast, near Tiddville, in January 1930.

The "Valinda" Captain Merriam, also sought shelter here. She carries a general cargo for Saint John.

PARDON OUR ERROR

It seems that our arithmetic needs brushing up a bit. Our attention has been drawn to a mistake made in our calculations as published in an editorial under the heading "The New Tax Rate" in last week's issue. We figured the new expenditure to meet the interest and sinking fund for the debentures issued for the breastwork and sewer construction at $3,139, where it should have been $2,339—quite a difference, isn't it?

THE FAIRY STENCILLED WAY

By L. Weldon Mosher
Beneath our snowshoes heavy tread,
The crunch of tiny frosted flakes
Attune with Nature's minstrelsy Strange tinkling music softly makes.
Across the surface of the lake,
Full myriad flakes a carpet neat Spreads out to cover where once speed
The skaters swift with winged feet.

In Winter's stately garb arrayed, Asleep lake Mic-mae lies to day,
As round the isles and in the cove
We track our fairy stencilled way.

Britain paid its emergency loan in six months before it was due.

A PICTURE

He called himself a man, and yet
Small irritations made him fret.
And he was often heard to chide
The children romping at his side.

Honest he was in debts of trade,
He never left a bill unpaid.

But still he seldom made a gift
Which broke the iron rule of thrift.

He never felt the weight of care,
But what he thought it most unfair.

When little blunders caught his eye,
Into a towering rage he'd fly.

He'd do for strangers, as a mask
Favors his own folks feared to ask.

And fancied gain was quicker made
By keeping clerks of his afraid.

If this be manhood—Son, I pray, You'll shape your life some other way.

—Edgar A. Guest.

SPRING

Some morning soon we'll wake to see
The tracings of a mystery.
The tender blades of grass just showing Through leaves pressed down by Winter's snowing.

Sweet violets in shady nooks,
And hear the babbling of the brooks.

We'll see the crocuses so fair,
In rainbow colors growing there;
And now are pressing through the sod,
The lovely handiwork of God!

DOLLARS

Dollars can't labor
Hidden in socks,
Or fastened up tight
In an old tin box.

Give them an airing, Scatter a few,
That will help others
And they will help you.

Worse Than Death

Aimed Semple McPherson,
the evangelist said in an interview in Los Angeles:

"The way the highbrows talk about marriage reminds me of a story.

"Two boyhood friends met after a long separation.

"How's old Bill," said the one.

"Don't speak of old Bill," said the other.

"What, the dear old chap isn't dead, is he?"

"Worse, far worse than dead."

"Goodness, what has happened to him?"

"He's run off with my wife."—Springfield Union.

CANADIAN NATIONAL'S INCREASED W. I. LIST

A challenge to depressed conditions is contained in the Canadian National Steamships freight schedule, Number 57, outlining spring and summer sailings from Montreal for the eastern and western groups of the West Indies. Some notable features of the schedule are that there will be more departures for the West Indies than last year, with quicker dispatch enroute and improved cold storage accommodation.

From Montreal there will be weekly freight sailings for Hamilton, Bermuda, Nassau, the Bahamas; Kingston, Jamaica, with frequent connections between the latter port and Belize, British Honduras. In the case of one freighter, the Cathcart, St. Georges in Bermuda is noted as a southbound port of call. Formerly this freighter omitted Bermuda southbound.

Another route to the West Indies from Canada this summer will be the regular service of the Canadian National Steamships from Saint John, N. B., and Halifax to Bermuda, St. Kitts, Nevis, Antigua, Montserrat, Dominica, St. Lucia, Barbados, St. Vincent, Grenada, Trinidad and British Guiana. This will be maintained, as last summer, by the Lady Nelson, Lady Hawkins and Lady Drake. There will be fortnightly departures from Montreal for Bermuda, Porto Rico, St. Kitts, Antigua, St. Lucia, Guadeloupe, Martinique, Barbados, St. Vincent, Grenada, Trinidad and British Guiana.

The opening departures of this summer programme from Montreal will be that of the Lady Rodney, April 22 for the western group of the West Indies; the Cavalier, April 29 for the eastern group of the West Indies; the Colborne, April 29 for the eastern group.

20 YEARS AGO

Sam Langford, the Nova Scotian pugilist, defeated Sam McVey in a 20-round bout at Sydney, N. S. W. McVey protested against Langford using the kidney punch in the second round and the police interfered and had them barred. Both men put up a savage fight and after the seventeenth the pace began to tell. Langford was in the better condition in the end. There were 15,000 spectators who cheered the decision and were delighted with the hard-fought battle.—(Editor's Note—Sam Langford is a native of Weymouth Falls.)

When PAIN Comes

WHAT many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been overstimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes the acid instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water neutralizes instantly many times that much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go, get a small bottle to try.

A very truthful observation is that of the New Glasgow Evening News: "A newspaper is in a more difficult position than any other business when there is a wide-spread business depression. It can only curtail its costs by curtailing its service to the public, and the moment it starts to do that it is inviting disaster. A newspaper is built on Service. It holds its place in the confidence and affection of the public because of the week in and week out service which it gives. It must give this service whether it gives it at a profit or at a loss."

LIFE insurance benefits . . . can be Proved while you are still ALIVE!

LIVING policyholders of the Sun Life were paid in benefits during 1931 $68,000,000—THREE TIMES as much as beneficiaries of deceased policyholders.

This was due, partly, to the fact that trained Sun Life representatives, when selling insurance, counsel their policyholders how to secure a dual advantage—the maximum benefit to THEMSELVES, and the greatest protection to their DEPENDANTS.

The insured no longer have to "die to win."

The wisest insurers vigilantly protect their policies and allow nothing to impair them. The Sun Life enjoys a remarkable record for the persistency of its business—largely the result of sound advice and expert service to its policyholders, by its representatives.

Sun Life representatives sold $528,000,000 new paid-for insurance last year, making the Company's total business in force over Three Billions—an impressive reflection of public confidence.

To-day prudent men are not only taking on MORE life insurance; they are doing so after consultation with competent representatives of such a company as the Sun Life.

IN BED WITH BACKACHE

"Two years ago I suffered with severe pains in the small of my back, and could with difficulty hold myself upright. At times I had to go to bed for a week at a time. I went to and from hospital for 6 months, and they certainly did me good, but they told me they could not keep giving me medicine, but that I needed complete rest for 6 months, away from the children. I could not bring myself to be parted from the children, so I did not go to hospital any more. I started using Kruschen Salts and have had no trouble with my back since."—Mrs. W. Kruschen contains vital salts that go right down to the root cause of backache. Soon after you start on Kruschen, the sharpest pains of backache cease. As you persevere with the "little daily dose" the twinges become less and less frequent, until finally you hardly know what an ache or pain is. Then, if you're wise, you'll prevent the possibility of a relapse by continuing the tiny, tasteless pinch of Kruschen every morning.

She Now Knows What to Do for Her Backache

Nova Scotia Lady Uses Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. S. Weatherbe Took Her Friend's Advice And Received Great Help.

Thomson Station, N. S., April 13.—(Special.) "For years I was awfully troubled with a backache," writes Mrs. Stewart Weatherbe, a resident of this place. "One day I was telling a friend of mine about my back aching and she advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I did and have never found any medicine that has helped me so much. I would advise all sufferers from Kidney trouble to use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Ninety per cent. of the ills from which women suffer come from weak or diseased Kidneys. They are the organs that strain all the impurities out of the blood. If they fail in their work, the impurities remain in the blood and are deposited all over the body.

Dodd's Kidney Pills have restored friend health to thousands of troubled women and men. Give them a trial at once.

OBITUARY

Miss Minnie Raymond

The people of Marshalltown were shocked on Monday morning to hear of the death of Minnie Raymond, known more familiarly by young and old as "Min". The deceased was, as nearly as can be reckoned, 65 years old. About 26 years ago she was taken out of the Alms House by the late Mrs. Robert Marshall to whom she was untrusting devoted until her death. Since Mrs. Marshall's death Min has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marshall, and was always ready and willing to do any chore that she could for the family. She, in her capacity of janitor of the schoolhouse, was known and beloved by all the children. The deceased went to bed as usual Sunday night, but hardly had the household become quiet for the night when she called to them that she was ill. The doctor was called, but before he arrived she had passed away. The remains were interred on Tuesday afternoon in the Marshalltown cemetery, after a short service at the house and a service at the church, Rev. A. E. Gabriel officiating. She had no known living immediate relatives. Harry Raymond, of the Life Saving Station, is a half-brother.

John B. Beaudro

We regret to report the death of a well known citizen of Harlem, Digby County, John B. Beaudro, at the age of 85 years. He was a cook by trade and followed the sea for 25 years. He has resided in Harlem for 61 years. Surviving are his widow, Ambrosine Amoro Beaudro, and five children—Mrs. Eugene Farrow, of South Easton, Mass.; Mrs. Joseph Hench, of Waterville, Conn.; John A. Beaudro and Everett S. Beaudro, of Harlem, and Mrs. Nell Shea, of Buffalo, N. Y. Also eighteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The old reliable MORSE'S TEA (Crimson label) which for the past year has been retailed at 50 cents per pound, is today offered at 45 cents per pound. This tea was never more worthy of your confidence than it is at its new price.

The rooms are now in the hands of carpenters and painters, and when completed will be very attractive quarters.

The many friends of Mrs. C. L. Hynes, of Newton Centre, Mass., (nee Sadie Sullivan, of Deep Brook) will be interested to know that her son, Douglas, now a student at the John W. Weeks Junior High, has been chosen as first drummer in the school band which consists of 80 pieces. In a recent Operetta and Concert given by the school, he led the drums for the first time in public, and is receiving much praise for the marked ability shown.

SUMMER IS HERE?

Summer is here! It must be for Hardy Bent, Digby's well-known boot black opened his sidewalk shoeshining stand in front of the Courier building, yesterday, where he has been shining shoes every summer for the past thirty-six years. He started this shining business in his long before that, away back in 1891, his first stand being in front of the old Royal Hotel which stood on the site now occupied by the Royal Bank of Canada.

Hardy is a friend to every tourist who comes to Digby, and is well thought of by the citizens of the town. He has a splendid memory, and has the faculty of remembering the faces of all his customers after once meeting them.

In the early days of railroad-ing Hardy lost a leg in a wreck on the Grand Trunk Railroad, near Toronto, and since that time, like Old Sol himself, he has kept shining right along.

American Farmers to Visit the Province

Several large groups of representative United States farmers will tour Nova Scotia this summer as a result of arrangements completed by the Bureau of Information of the Provincial Government with leading United States Agricultural publications. Each party will comprise about 150 farmers and a period of from four to five days will be spent in Nova Scotia. It is probable that three such parties will come to this Province during July and August.

Digby Kiwanis has made a wise choice in selecting Mr. George E. Graham, Vice-President of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, as speaker at the "United States-Canada Week" luncheon. Mr. Graham is always an entertaining speaker, and it would be difficult to find anyone better qualified than he to handle this topic. Among the invited guests will be the members of the Council of the Board of Trade, as well as the mayor and all members of the Town Council.

Oddfellows Hear Very Interesting Address

During the present winter some very interesting evenings have been enjoyed by the Oddfellows at their regular sessions. Quite a number of evenings have been taken up with the regular work of the Lodge, in carrying degrees and other ritualistic ceremonies, but on the occasions when there has been nothing of that nature, talks have been given by various members on their business or profession and these talks have been very interesting. But last Friday's talk was a corker. A. D. Daley gave an account of his trip to the Klondyke, in 1898 and 1899. He had quite a large audience and he entertained them for almost three hours. He took his hearers from Digby, across the continent to Vancouver, and then to the Klondyke. Then in fancy they accompanied him over the Summit, and down lake, river and stream, through the White Horse Rapids and others, into camp and town, in the woods, in the ground, then back to Seattle and home. It was a wonderful talk and his hearers were delighted.

UNITED CHURCH NOTES

There were forty at the meeting of the brotherhood this week. An interesting and humorous travel talk on British Columbia was given by Mr. John Russell. This was accompanied by some finely colored slides. There will be one more meeting of the brotherhood in the middle of May. At this meeting the speaker will be Rev. Howard Outerbridge, of Japan. He will have an interesting story to tell of this country and the war. There will also be a presentation of a challenge shield to the winners in the Red and Blue Contest.

A three-act comedy, "Hiram Slick of Punkin Creek" is being prepared by members of the Y. P. S., and will be put on by the Y. P. S. about the end of May.

The Sunday School has set the date, May 17th, for a social and entertainment to raise funds for the school. Each scholar is earning something to be handed in at that time, and part of the programme will be telling how the money was obtained.

Sunday services: Digby, 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Smith's Cove, 3 p. m. Brotherhood Choir in the evening. The songs of the sea by the male choir last Sunday evening were well sung by a large choir.

ASSISTING HERRING MEN IN ORGANIZATION

Dominion Fisheries Department Helps Grand Manan Fishermen in Joint Action Plan.

Acting on requests made by fishermen, the Dominion Department of Fisheries is assisting the men engaged in the smoked herring industry of Grand Manan Island, New Brunswick, in working out a plan of organization whereby they hope to put their marketing effort on a more efficient basis.

In rendering this assistance the department is meeting the expenses of Rev. Dr. M. M. Coady, a Maritime Province authority upon work of this kind, whose advisory services the Grand Manan men desired to obtain. In company with the department's Supervisor of Fisheries for the district including Grand Manan, Dr. Coady went to the island some days ago to help the fishermen with their organization plan. A year or two ago Dr. Coady, a college professor who has made a close study of Maritime Province rural problems and of methods of organization among farmers and fishermen, was engaged by the department for some months to act as promoter of fishermen's organization and at that time he successfully aided the fishermen on different parts of the Atlantic coast in carrying out steps which lead to the formation of the United Maritime Fishermen, an association of the commercial fishermen of the Maritimes and the Magdalen Islands.

Grand Manan is the biggest producer of smoked herring on the Atlantic coast. Its annual output in 1930, for instance, the production was more than 27,700 hundredweights—is sold largely in the West Indies and the United States. Satisfactory marketing of the output is, of course, exceedingly important to the island. A few years ago a number of the producers set up a co-operative marketing organization, which, for a time, had very beneficial results. A combination of factors, however, subsequently created difficulties and the organization ultimately broke up. Lately, with world economic conditions so unfavourable, the smoked herring men have had a good deal of trouble and a short time ago they took up again the question of organization. Requests were made to the Supervisor of Fisheries, on behalf of a large number of the fishermen that Dr. Coady be called in to assist them.

SCOUT NOTES

The Scout meeting opened on Friday evening with 18 Scouts and one officer present.

After the study and game period the essays were read. The Fox Patrol won the competition with an essay on "The Development of Water Travel."

The following is the winning essay.

"In Canada the first means of travel before the white man came was the birch bark canoe. These canoes were very fragile and were easily capsized. When the first wooden vessels came and discovered the new land, the Indians thought them very wonderful, but they were soon to see something much more wonderful. In 1807 Robert Fulton invented the steamboat, and in 1819 the 'Savannah' made the first successful steamship crossing of the Atlantic. The first steamboat in England was the 'Comet,' which appeared on the Clyde in 1812. Since the invention of the first steamship, rapid developments have been made in that field and now great palatial liners are seen on all the seas of the world."

With the six per cent. sales tax, lower income tax exemptions, and so forth and so on, the next thing the government will have to consider is something in the way of employment relief measures.

FRIGIDAIRE'S WILL BE MANUFACTURED
IN CANADA

Entrance of Frigidaire Corporation, world's largest maker of electric refrigerators, into the Canadian manufacturing field was announced at Toronto on Monday.

Definite decision to establish the Canadian factory was made recently in Dayton by E. G. Biechler, president and general manager of Frigidaire Corporation after a thorough investigation into the Dominion field.

Frigidaire Corporation, a General Motors subsidiary with headquarters and manufacturing plants in Dayton, Ohio, and world-wide distribution, will open a plant in Toronto immediately, W. G. Wright, manager of Frigidaire's Canadian operation, said.

Installation of tools and machinery for equipping the Toronto plant is being rapidly completed, Mr. Wright said, and actual production will begin at once. The plant has been tooled for operations to supply the entire Canadian market, he said.

The manufacture of Frigidaire products in Canada will benefit other Canadian industries, Mr. Wright said. Initial orders for motors and other parts to be used in the building of the Canadian Frigidaire have been placed with Canadian manufacturers.

Production schedules for the present, Mr. Wright said, call for the building of complete household Frigidaire cabinets, ice cream cabinets, cooling coils and compressors for both home and commercial use.

The first of the new Canadian-built products to come off the Toronto assembly line, Mr. Wright said, will be three new household models designed expressly for Canadian homes. They will be known as the Moraine line and will sell at the lowest prices in Frigidaire history.

"In general principles and design, these new Canadian models follow the established specifications of Frigidaire engineering and will be built to the same exacting standards of quality and performance that have already met the approval of over 2,000,000 satisfied users."

The output of the Toronto plant will be handled through the present Canadian distributing organization, plus a considerable number of new dealers to be named to handle the increased business anticipated for 1932, Mr. Wright said.

Establishment of a Canadian plant is regarded as another manifestation of the vigorous administration policies Mr. Biechler recently announced for the 1932 period.

At that time, Mr. Biechler said:

"Frigidaire's advertising and promotional program for 1932 will be directed toward surpassing 1931 when it built and shipped a very much larger volume of household models than it did during the preceding year. Our line has been expanded to meet wider market requirements. The economies and conveniences of electric refrigeration constitute a popular and logical buying urge in both the household and commercial fields. We are expecting Frigidaire's business to show a decided increase over 1931."

Frigidaire Corporation is one of the pioneers in the electric refrigeration business. It was the first to engage in extensive advertising and merchandising activity, the first to put its manufacturing on a low cost, mass production basis and so pave the way for the tremendous popularity of electric refrigeration.

The electric refrigeration industry, due to the increasing demand for its products, and wide general acceptance as an economic necessity, has been one of the bright spots in the business world for the past two years.

TITLED VIRTUOSOS TO GREET SOUTHLAND DAWN

To greet the dawn operatically and with better quality, 96 pedigreed roosters and pullets bred in Nova Scotia, left Halifax recently by Canadian National Steamships for Trinidad, reputed Land of Robinson Crusoe.

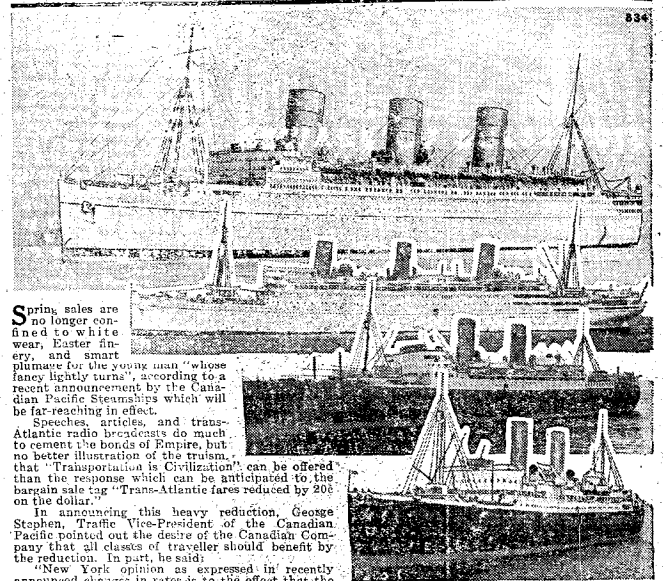

Since all things Nova Scotian are "Bluenose," the poultry is "Bluenose." Also travelling southward recently were a score of thoroughbred Canadian pigs, to supply bass and alto in the new barnyard opera. Local Trinidad talent, in the form of macaws and other native birds, will be greatly enriched by the sturdy voices from Canada and the tropical climate is expected to mellow the tones of these new arrivals.

Spring sales are no longer confined to white wear, Easter finery, and smart plumage for the young man "whose fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love," according to a recent announcement by the Canadian Pacific Steamships which will be far-reaching in effect.

Speeches, articles, and trans-Atlantic radio broadcasts do much to cement the bonds of Empire, but no better illustration of the truth than "Transportation is Civilization" can be offered than the response which can be anticipated to the bargain sale tag "Trans-Atlantic fares reduced by 20¢ on the dollar."

In announcing this heavy reduction, George Stephen, Traffic Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific, pointed out the desire of the Canadian Company that all classes of traveller should benefit by the reduction. In part, he said:

"New York opinion as expressed in recently announced changes in rates is to the effect that the higher classes of travel should get most advantage to the detriment of the large volume of passengers who cannot afford under present conditions to pay the higher grade of fares and who desire to take advantage of the up-to-date Third Class rooms, appointments and service at their disposal in modern ships."

"The comprehensive reductions in rates to cover all classes of passengers which are announced today by the Canadian Pacific Steamships indicate an interpretation of the present situation which will be appreciated."

This sentiment was amplified by the statement last for as small a sum as $50, passage to or from Europe can be obtained on Canadian Pacific ships with a round trip for only $108.

Other specimen reductions are, Empress of Britain, first class, minimum $250 to $200.

Duchess, Cabin minimum $160 to $128.

Montcalm, Montclair, Montrose, Cabin minimum $140 to $112.

Round trip Tourist rates show a drop on the Empress of Britain from $216 to $172. On the Empress of Australia and the Duchesses from $194 to $155, and on the Mont class ships from $185 to $148, while in the Third Class the Empress of Britain Round Trip rate drops from $145 to $116, the Empress of Australia and the Duchesses from $140 to $112, and the Mont class ships from $136 to $108.

HURRAH FOR TIVERTON!

For the eleventh successive year, the Municipality of Digby has spent nothing for poor relief in the fishing community of Tiverton, on the eastern end of Long Island. Tiverton is a village of some four hundred inhabitants, all dependent on the fishing industry, which, for the past two or three years has not been so good.

On February 16th., 1930, Tiverton was hard hit by a big storm which washed away seven of the ten wharves in the village, destroying hundreds of lobster pots piled on the wharves in readiness for the approaching lobster season, and the fishing gear of the fishermen. The public flocked to the relief of the people of Tiverton, subscriptions coming in from everywhere. Nearby fishing communities shared their lobster pots with the Tiverton fishermen.

Last year and the year before the Tiverton fishermen, as well as most of the fishermen everywhere, for that matter, got practically nothing for their catch. 25 and 30 cents a hundredweight was the average price paid for hake, the chief catch, and most of the catch is still unsold. The lobster seasons have been poor, and this year has been the worst in years.

There are Tiverton fishermen who tell us they haven't seen a dollar for months! Most of them grow some of their own produce. Most of the merchants are wholesale fish dealers to whom they sell their catches, and who are willing to carry them over "hard times."

The homes in Tiverton are well kept. Many of them enjoy the modern conveniences of electricity—some are equipped with modern plumbing facilities—almost every home has a radio. The homes are well kept and well furnished. Tiverton supports two churches, has an up-to-date three department school and a few years ago the Odd-fellows' Lodge erected a modern hall, a portion of which is used as a motion picture theatre.

Tiverton is a village of which Digby County and Nova Scotia are justly proud. The people of this village have had their "ups and downs"—they are separated from the mainland—they are feeling the depression perhaps more than any of the villages of the Province, for they depend solely on the fishing industry, yet you never hear any complaints from Tiverton, and in eleven years, they have not called on the county for one cent of outside poor relief.

MARITIMES TOPPED THE LIST

Statistics which have been prepared show that the provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island have withstood the economic pressure consistently throughout and that they topped the list of provinces of Canada as regards percentage of business for the years 1930-31 according to the Industrial Department of the Canadian National Railways. Nova Scotia tops the list with an index number of 116.0, Prince Edward Island comes next with 103.2 and New Brunswick 104.4. The index is made up on the basis of the average business conditions for the years 1924 to 1928 inclusive. During 1931 Nova Scotia moved from second to first place, Prince Edward Island showing the greatest percentage for the year previous. Saskatchewan and Alberta show the biggest drop, 1931 as against 1930, with 31.5% and 31.9% respectively. Prince Edward Island dropped 25.9%, New Brunswick 20.4%, Nova Scotia 10.1%. Canada as a whole for the year 1931 was 92.3% over the basis of the years 1924 to 1928. The index figure for 1930 was 110.3.

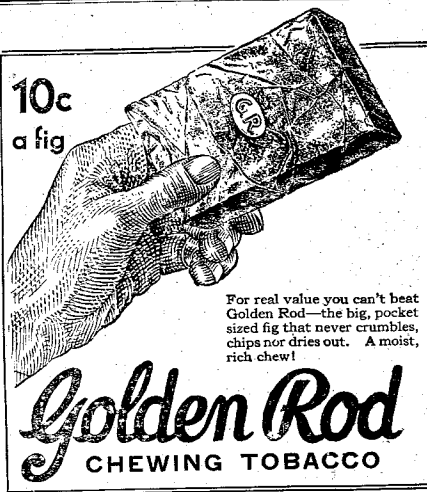

SOCIAL SYSTEM CHANGING?

At a recent public meeting at Trenton the following resolution was passed:

"Resolved that this public meeting of the citizens and unemployed of the town of Trenton would respectfully ask the government to consider very seriously some co-operative system whereby our natural resources and necessary machinery of production will be used to provide for the needs of the people and not for the profit of the few."

There is no question but that it will only require so much longer of this depression until we will have a demand for at least a modification of our present social system. We may be all wrong but it looks to us as if we were coming to the stage when the unduly rich would not only be envied but when a great part of their wealth would be confiscated as it is in Great Britain, where super income taxes and death duties put a crimp in even the biggest estates.

Auctioneer: "Ladies and gentlemen, these are genuine tapestry carpets. I got them from old Tapestry himself."

For real value you can't beat Golden Rod—the big, pocket sized fig that never crumbles, chips nor dries out. A moist, rich chew!

USE YOUR LOCAL PAPER

Speaking at a dinner tendered to a large group of Kingston, Ontario, men, H. E. Stephenson, of the McKim Agency, told his audience some simple but important truths regarding the building of business. In an informative address, he stated that the best way to sell a product was to tell the truth about it, because the public read newspaper advertising as a guide to the daily purchasing. Then he went on to give some advice to these Kingston business men, advice which is applicable to the business men of any community. He said:

"If you have a local newspaper use it, even if you are located in one corner of the county and can only get value from a part of the circulation. Tell your story from time to time and you will profit by it. The newspaper is an important factor in knitting together a community, and to the extent that you can strengthen it you will be making the paper a stronger medium for your own and the manufacturers' advertising."

"Too many merchants endeavor to sidestep seeing a newspaper advertising man or publisher for fear that they expect them to cough up for some advertising; and too many publishers keep away from the merchant because they feel that that is the merchant's attitude. This is absolutely wrong, as the interests of the two are so bound up with the growth of prosperity of the district that they should work together at all times."

HORSE VS. AUTO

According to the Estevan Mercury it is reasonable to believe that the next few years will see a revival of the breeding and use of draft horses on the farms of western Canada. With the probability of continued low market values of all classes of feed horses can be reared cheaply and earn their own overhead expense. There is no outlay for depreciation, fuel and repairs, for the self-oiling machine has nothing whatever on the self-repairing heavy draft horse. With western granaries filled with oats the market value of which is from five to ten cents per bushel, while western farmers are paying from 25 to 30 cents per gallon for gas to run their tractors, it looks as if the Mercury's argument were soundly based.

IN THE DOLDRUMS

(Hanna, Alta., Herald) Right now we are in the doldrums—work lost, money lost, hope lost. Some think we will never get out of this condition. But if our civilization dies it will die of fright. We're plumb scared stiff and can't get over it, apparently. Oh, we've not reached the end of our tether yet, by any means. We have still to go places and do things. Humanity is resourceful, even if it is unconsciously stupid at times.

STILL ALIVE

Exchange: A $10,000,000 issue of stock by the port of London was over-subscribed 20 times. And the Metropolitan Railway of London wanting $7,500,000, was offered $375,000,000. There's a lot financial kick in old John Bull yet.

The tax rate for the town of Glace Bay for the year 1932 has been set at $6.50 per $100 plus .50 per $100 for school tax, making a total of $7.00 on $100. "How's them fer taxes?"

Our Equipment is valued today at seven times its value eleven years ago, proving our continual growth. We are constantly adding new equipment as it demonstrates its value to the public. We employ no agents, entirely soliciting patronage by the merits of our service. The new Red Rose Tea BROWN LABEL 40^c. lb.

Thousands of users of Red Rose Tea remember the good old BROWN LABEL blend of Red Rose.

A few years ago BROWN LABEL had the largest sale of any Red Rose blend. Gradually, however, it was displaced by Red Label Red Rose Tea, because there was very little difference in the price.

Today every cent is important, so we introduce afresh Red Rose BROWN LABEL tea at 40c lb.

Our tea-tasters and blenders have produced, in BROWN LABEL, a tea that gives greatest possible value.

We are proud of this new blend and guarantee it as completely as any Red Rose Tea.

Like all Red Rose Tea, it is packed in clean, bright aluminum.

You can tell it by the Brown-colored label and it is called Red Rose BROWN LABEL.

Ask for it just that way, "Red Rose BROWN LABEL."

the time" . . .

this charming lady told us.
"My father wasn't very prosperous. Mother watched every item of expense. Appearances had to be maintained. No extravagance, however small, was allowed to pass."

I well remember Mother checking up on the comparative value of laundry soap. She liked Surprise. But such was her rigid code that she didn't intend to cater to her whim if Surprise was less economical than other soaps.

But trial after trial showed that a cake of it washed more tubful than most soap. And Mother was satisfied that the things were cleaner. She always used it after that. I still use it to this day. I find it most economical and by all odds the most satisfactory soap I have ever bought."

COUNTRY EDITORS' PROBLEMS

Country Editors have problems of their own and their own fine devices for solving them. One is indicated by the following fable which is going the rounds of the press just at present:

"Once upon a time a nickel nurse sent his kid to borrow the neighbor's paper and the kid upset a hive of bees and soon was covered with lumps. His father ran to help him and caught his chin on a clothes line and sprained his back, fell and broke a $25 watch. The clothes pole fell over the car and smashed the windshield, and mother, rushing out to see what occasioned all the excitement, upset a five gallon churn of cream into a basket of kittens, drowning all of them. The electric flat iron burned through the ironing board, setting fire to the house, and firemen broke all the windows and chopped a hole in the roof. The baby ate a jar of pickles and got cholera morbus and the doctor's bill was $15. The daughter ran away with the hired man during the excitement, the dog bit a neighbor's kid and the calves ate the tails off of four night shirts on the clothes line.

Moral—Subscribe to your home paper. Don't borrow it!"

BELLIVEAU'S COVE

Miss Elizabeth L. Doucet, for the past 45 years a resident of Haverhill, Mass., is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Theriault.

A Professor was in the habit of letting his dog sit by his side at meals. On evening when out at a dinner, a woman next to him, wishing to attract his attention, gently touched his sleeve.

The Professor mechanically transferred a bone from his plate, and said, "Oh, get away. Take this out on the mat."

That big game conservation pays is abundantly evident from the case of the Province of Nova Scotia. From an original herd of nine introduced into the province in 1896 and supplemented by five more in 1910, about 4,500 were taken during the past hunting season by hunters according to the Fish and Game Department of the Canadian National Railways. One of the buck deer killed last season was found to be one of the original herd liberated in the province. 9,594 deer were killed in New Brunswick during the same period. The number of moose taken in Nova Scotia was 1,567. New Brunswick reports 447. The partridge bag for New Brunswick for the season totalled nearly 45,000 birds.

Reduce the Acid

SICK stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are overstimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. For 25 years the standard with physicians everywhere. Take a spoonful in water and your uneasy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful chemicals will never appeal to you. Go, prove this for your own sake. It may be a great many disagreeable hours. Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians in correcting excess acids.

RECEIVE HIGHEST MARKS IN EXAMS

"Peg Milligan and Phyllis Burrows have received information from the Toronto Conservatory of Music to the effect that they received the highest first class honor marks given to any student in Regina for the recent examinations in primary rudiments. This includes both the Regina and Regina College centres. Peg Milligan obtained 95 marks and Phyllis Burrows 89 marks. GEORGE PECK RESIGNS POSITION

When the steamer "Rio Tinto" returned from her first trip last week, George Peck resigned his position as chief officer, which position he has held the entire time the steamer Bear River sailed on the Bay route, a period of twenty-five years, except one year which he spent in Oregon, U. S. A. Mr. Peck began his life as a sailor when quite young, and helped navigate the schooner packet, Citizen, with Captain Alfred Winchester in command, until she was replaced by the steamer Bear River. Principals in Heroic Sea Rescue

On the afternoon of Saturday, March 12, there was replete with all the best traditions of "those who go down to the sea in ships." The salvage ship Reindeer, herself on the way to aid a vessel in distress, became a wreck and sent out an S.O.S., which was picked up by the Canadian Pacific liner Montcalm, bound from Liverpool to Halifax. Captain A. Rothwell, her commander, at once altered course and raced to the sinking Reindeer. When within two miles, volunteers who witnessed the Reindeer's plight, and a silver cigarette case, high seas for nearly four hours to reach the stricken ship. Captain Rothwell handled the Montcalm so as to make a lee for the rescuers and kept oil going in their track. Captain Featherstone and his crew of 27, to say nothing of a police dog, were safely taken off and the return trip to the Montcalm made in about 15 minutes, thanks to the wind. The shipwreck victims were given a rousing welcome and their rescuers cheered to the echo by the Montcalm's passengers, who witnessed the entire event. Later, a purse was taken up for the volunteers and a silver cigarette case presented to Second Officer Knight. A telegram was also sent to E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, commending the Reindeer, with Captain Rothwell and Second Officer Knight in uniform. Beside Captain Rothwell and Second Officer Knight, the lower picture shows the brave men who manned the Montcalm's lifeboat. In (Seamen J. Carr; H. Addicott; L. Page; H. Pearce) the foreground are Second Officer Knight and Captain J. Lawry and W. Hughes; Boatsteward W. Doyle and Rothwell. Left to right from top are: Able-Bodied J. Smythe, lamp-trimmer,

FISHERMEN MOVE TO CAPE ST. MARY

With the advent of fairly good weather, the lobster fishermen of Salmon River, have once more been obliged to exile themselves to Cape St. Mary to carry on their pursuit. Out of a fishing fleet of 25 or 30 boats of a few years ago there are now only six engaged. They are skippered by Charles L. Deveau, Eddie Martin, Inos C. Deveau, Emedee Deveau, Theodore Deveau and Jacques M. Deveau.

Joseph M. Deveau is still busily employed in the building of motor boats. He has one on the stock nearly finished and also several others afloat.

SPRING

Warm air breathes softly through the scarlet maples;
A starting call;
With tender spring notes in his liquid whistle;
A challenge falls
In rocket sparks to the sea, the marshes.
From where, on high,
Mad meadow larks have sprung in new born gladness Against the sky.
A host of many iridescent dancers,
In magical
Brief midlife life, again respite existence Ephemeral.
The roadside ditches and the swampy thickets,
Where sparrowgrass grows,
Are vocal with a surging Grecian chorus
Gummed sheaths unclose
Of earnest buds; and fluffy pollen
For Hyemen's sake;
Invite the wooing winds of gentle April Their gold to take.
—May Folwell Hoisington.

THE MEANING OF SPRING

I love the looks of the world in Spring;
All silver and rose and gold and green.
When the sun and rain together come,
And the world is washed and warmed and clean;
I love the looks of the world in Spring.
I love the feel that comes with Spring;
The surge of life that is in the air,
The lift of the heart like new fledged wing.
The beauty and softness everywhere,
I love the feeling that comes with Spring.
But most I love the meaning of Spring;
The sweet assurance that comes to you,
There is no age, and there is no death,
But life eternal and strong, and new;
Ah, most I love the meaning of Spring.
—Frances M. Kinnon Morton.

SPRING

The south wind is driving
His splendid cloud-horses
Through the fields of blue.
The woods are singing
The brooks in their courses
Are bubbling and springing
And dancing and leaping.
The violets peeping
I'm glad to be living;
Aren't you? —Gamaliel Bradford.

HABIT

Every time we see anything either ugly or beautiful we see something which is a direct result of habit. Our whole lives are ones of habits—habits which grow stronger and stronger as the years go on, and as we gradually form fewer and fewer new ones. The things which we do are practically all done through habit and it is the habit of doing things over which perfects them. At first we do things clumsily and crudely but we should always try to do them as well as we know how as in the doing of things over and over and each time bettering them a little, we are finally able to do things expertly.

There is the habit of thought, which habit suggests intellectual character. It is for us to control our thoughts and choose only the best habits for them because through habits these thoughts may become as clean running streams reflecting the sunlight or as muddy stagnant pools.

There is the habit of realizing, enjoying and loving nature and the beauties of nature. The habit of cheerfulness and happiness. No matter how many responsibilities and burdens we bear, if we cultivate this happiness habit everything can be lightened with it—even other people's worries.

After all it is habit which makes us to be just what we really are in life for we are cultivating these habits every minute and hour of each day.

Habit is a strange thing—Habit's very funny;
Sometimes it takes time and strength, sometimes it costs money!
Sometimes it can hold us tight, in relentless arms,
Sometimes it can fill a world with miracles and charms.

Habit is a strange thing—Habit's very queer,
Sometimes it can make our lives, sometimes it costs dear!
Sometimes it can order days in a splendid way,
Sometimes it can poison us, struggle though we may.

Habit is a strange thing. Habit old and new Break apart our fixed ideas, make our dreams come true.
Worry us, and shelter us from the storms that break—
Hurry us to bed at night. Make us yawn and wake.

Habit is a strange thing. Habit's very funny.
It can cost us very dear—both in time and money—
It can build our futures up, tear our pasts away—
"Habit is a cable and we weave its strands each day!"

THE WAY OF A PILGRIM

All of us travelling along the pathway of life, are on Pilgrimages. Years ago the Pilgrims had a psalm that they always sang when starting out on a journey, and we too when starting out on our journey along life's pathway each morning, should "Lift up our eyes unto the Hills," for our help like theirs, "Cometh from the Lord, which hath made Heaven and Earth."

No Pilgrim in the Middle Ages would start out without a staff and scallop shell, and we too have ours, as the interests we have, and take with us through life are our staffs and scallop shells. Thus in choosing our interests we all need God's help that our lives may be filled with noble and worthwhile interests.

Another thing these Pilgrims enjoyed along the road was, "Friendship," which is one of God's best gifts and one which we on our Pilgrim journey can also enjoy. Everyone needs friendliness, and if we honestly try to be friendly with everyone we will be sure to find the treasure of some deeper Friendships.

It often seems as if our Pilgrim Journey is continually winding up hill, but this should not discourage us, because we know that in walking along a road, although the uphill climbing is the harder, yet when we reach the hilltops our view is so much larger and more beautiful that we feel well repaid for our climb. In the same way, each hill of difficulty that we surmount on life's journey will make us stronger to climb the next one.

These other Pilgrims were roadmenders, which is something that we are likely to think of as unnecessary or to look upon as not needful in our journey; but we must never forget, that we too are needed as roadmenders and that true pleasure can only be found by sharing what we have with others and helping them in every way we possibly can. We also must not forget that we are fellow Pilgrims with all races and not just our own.

Thus through all of our Pilgrim Journey we should ever look to the greatest Pilgrim of all Pilgrims, for help and guidance; and not just dream of life and the kind of person we would like to be, but strive to give of our best and to each day live our dream and make it come true. Then we will be able to say with the poet:

"Life—I am really,
Not baffled and dismayed.
I met him on the highest hill,
No more am I afraid.
A heart for my fate is mine:
There were thorn-prints on His brow.
And nail-scars on His tender hands.
Life, I am ready now!"

—N. K. F.

"Unless you pay up soon," wrote the blackmailer, "the gang will be instructed to kidnap your wife."
"I have no money," came the reply, "but I am interested in your proposition."

DAYLIGHT SAVING

Editor of the Courier:—
Some of us agree with that visitor who said that Digby people are sluggish and wasteful—sluggish because they lie abed too late, and wasteful because they waste an hour or more of sunshine every morning during the summer. Sunshine is the vital force energizing all living matter and it's a shame to waste it in bed and then stay up an hour later at night before getting sleepy. What are we going to do about it? I say let's have Daylight Saving from June 1st to October 1st, and I'd like to hear what others think. I've never heard a sensible objection to it yet except from farmers who have to deliver their produce in town an hour earlier, but how many are there of them? Think of the delights of an extra hour daily for recreation after work, especially in these glorious Nova Scotia afternoons! Storekeepers, workmen, clerks, children, golf players, sweaters and everybody else would find more joy in living. For myself I would get a great kick out of that extra hour of daylight after supper; why I could drive to Bridgetown, have a game of tennis there, and get back before dark.

Early Bird.

STEAMSHIP REPRESENTATIVES MEET TO INCREASE TOURIST BUSINESS

Looking toward ways and means to increase coastwise tourist business this spring and summer, and coming from as far south as Georgia and as far north as Nova Scotia, the Passenger and Traffic Representatives of the Eastern Steamship Lines met in New York this month, with Colonel J. A. Coates, First Vice-President of the Lines, presiding.

Attractive all-expense tours by sea and land, at remarkably low prices, will be offered this season by the Eastern Steamship Lines to Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Virginia and the Old South, Historic Massachusetts, and Maine—including Montreal, Quebec and the White Mountains. The representatives discussed methods of drawing more tourists to their territories; and felt especially optimistic because of the recent launching of the new ocean liners, "Saint John" and "Acadia" which will lead the Eastern Fleet to vacation lands.

The two-day meeting went exhaustively into the various problems of tourist traffic, and special advertising and publicity will be used on a large scale in each territory with the result that the company looks toward an even greater increase over last year's successful season.

A tourist was crossing on the ferry. Near him an Irishman was puffing at an old pipe. Some gulls were following the boat. The Irishman looked over and said, "Nice flock of pigeons."
To avoid an argument, the tourist made no reply. But when the Irishman repeated his remark, the other said: "Those are gulls."

Whereupon the Irishman replied, "Well, gulls or boys, they're a darned fine flock of pigeons."

A resume of lamb marketing in Nova Scotia for the past year shows that the best results were obtained from the months of June, July and August and the view is expressed that this is a splendid time for a person who is thinking of going into sheep to get his breeding stock while prices are low.

A satisfactory egg market is anticipated this year but high prices are not probable and producers are urged to bear in mind the importance of marketing a high-grade product.

OBITUARY

Beatrice Laura Gates
(Published by request)

Beatrice Laura Gates, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Gates, of Needham, Mass., passed away, recently, of pneumonia. She was born in Needham, Mass., October 17, 1928. Possessing an unusually sweet and lovable disposition she endeared herself to all who knew her. Though young in years, she had learned to love Jesus, and the last hymn she sang was "Jesus Loves Me." The funeral services were held at the home, 91 Page Rd., and were conducted by Rev. George E. Harris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Needham. He spoke very comforting words of the love of Jesus for little ones, and concluded with a poem of consolation:

Then be content, dear heart,
God's plans like lilies pure and white unfold.
We must not tear the close shut leaves apart:
Time will reveal the calyxes of gold.

And when through grace divine we reach the land
Where tired feet with sandals loosed may rest,
Where we shall clearly see and understand,
I know that we shall say, "God knew the best."

Mrs. Helen Courtney sang beautifully, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Sometime We'll Understand." Lovely flowers which banked the room where the little white casket lay, bore the silent message of sympathy of many friends. The tokens included sprays from the First Baptist Church and Sherwood Lodge. Besides her sorrowing parents, she leaves a sister, Harriet and a brother, Ronald, interment was in Needham cemetery. (Mr. Gates is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Gates, of Hill Grove.)

Philip Burke

The death of Philip Burke, an old and respected citizen of Weymouth, occurred suddenly on Friday morning, April 15th, from heart failure, he having been in fairly good health until then, and was down town just a day or two before his death occurred. Deceased was for thirty-five years a faithful and trusted employee of the Campbell Lumber Company of Weymouth, and retired from active work in 1919. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burke, of Meadow Brook, N. B., and was the last surviving member of that family. He is survived by his widow, who was before her marriage, Miss Catherine Doty, of Weymouth; also four daughters. Mrs. William Ambrose of Bloomfield, N. S.; Mrs. Leo Leger, of Moncton, N. B.; Miss Margaret, of the Truro New staff, Truro; and Miss Elizabeth, at home. Two sons, Andrew and Frederick, predeceased him. The former, who was a member of the 52nd Battery, was killed in active service during the World War, and the latter who died in 1918. The funeral service was held in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church on Tuesday morning, with Requiem High Mass by Father D. C. Melanson, Parish Priest, with interment in St. Joseph's cemetery. The large number of Mass cards, beautiful floral offerings, letters and cards of sympathy attest to the high esteem in which he was held by all who knew him.

The difficulty about some seaside boarding houses is to tell which is bed and which is board.

THE JOB SEEKER

He let him sweep the sidewalk and he let him paint a wall,
He might have done these tasks himself, but this man chanced to call.
And though he came dejected at the ending of the day,
With some money in his pocket he went whistling on his way.

He heard the bright coins clinking in his pocket as they turned,
And pride was in their music since he knew them truly earned.
And home he went elated, with his head once more erect,
For the man who works for money still retains his self-respect.

There are countless thousands like him, weary now of arm and leg,
Who are faced by grim privations and are still too proud to beg.
So it is for them I'm pleading, 'tis not alms but work they ask,
For their own sake and their children's they would welcome any task.

—Edgar A. Guest.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"Not in the clamors of the crowded street,
Not in the shouts and plaudits of the throng,
But in ourselves are triumph and defeat."

—Longfellow.

BELLIVEAU'S COVE

The mills back of here are now doing the usual spring sawing. The output is railway ties and lumber.

Mrs. S. A. Gaudet has been among those ill with the flu. Louis Belliveau is now able to be out and about his work after having been confined to the house with an injured knee.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Gaudet, of Ohio, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isail Belliveau.

Mrs. Emilie LeBlanc, who has been quite ill, is now much improved.
Miss Hilarion B. Comeau is a patient at the Yarmouth Hospital.

A judge was having tea with some friends who had recently been married.

"Have you tried one of my cakes?" asked the young wife.
"No," replied the judge; "but I dare say they deserve it."

A SPRING SHOWER

Oh! you could not help but listen
All the mild soft day;
And your eyes might chance to glisten
In the old dim way.
When you heard the warm rain falling—
And the April robins calling.
Knowing Spring was disenchanting
All the world from Winter's sway.
Now the land will lose the leanness
Of the cold white snow;
All the fields will burst to greenness,
And the wild flowers blow.
In the woods fresh life is waking,
And the swollen buds are breaking—
Watch for apple blossoms flaking
Where the orchards stand a-row.

Life at last—the grass upthrusting,
Makes the sad sod sing;
By the little grave, till trusting,
You may hear Love's wing:
Cleanse your hearts of all things hateful,
There's a new day, strong and fateful;
Winter's grudge is gone, be grateful
For the miracle of Spring.

A. E. S. Smythe.

SONNET

(With apologies to the author)
There have been many dogs I loved
And lost,
And most of them were of the mongrel breed;
Stray puppies have a mighty power to plead.
Especially when chilled by snow and frost,
No matter if by cares I am engrossed
Somehow I feel that I should intercede.

They seem so much like human folk
In need,
Life waits by winds of hardship Roughly tossed.

I think that I should not be satisfied
In Heaven with harps and wings and streets of gold,
If I should hear by chance a noise outside
Like some lost puppy whining in the cold—
How could Saint Peter think my act a sin,
If I should tip-toe out and let it in?

DISCOVERIES

When a person is sweetly reasonable, they make it very difficult for others to remain sourly unreasonable.

It is almost as bad to be a gloom-carrier as it is to be a disease-carrier.

It takes daily exercise to make a person's sense of right and wrong function properly.

The person who gives only skimmed-milk service has no right to look for cream on their wages.

There Is Power Enough—Your Job Is to Apply It

When an electrical engineer stands in front of a great waterfall he doesn't ask himself:

"I wonder if there's any power in that fall."

What he asks himself is this:

"How can I apply that power to my needs?"

He knows there's power; he knows it can be used; the only question is how to use it most effectively.

When a modern business man surveys the field he longer asks himself whether advertising pays. His question is: "How much can I make it pay me?"

He knows there's power in advertising; he knows it can be used in the service of any business.

Canadian housewives, too, prefer Magic. In fact, Magic outsells all other baking powders combined.

For luscious layer cakes, light, tender biscuits, delicious pastries—follow Miss Dutton's advice. Use Magic Baking Powder.

SOUR STOMACH

JUST a tasteless dose of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in water. That is an alkali, effective yet harmless. It has been the standard standard for 60 years. One spoonful will neutralize once many times its volume in acid. It's the right way, the quick, pleasant and efficient way to kill all the excess acid. The stomach becomes sweet, the pain departs. You are happy again in five minutes. Don't depend on crude methods. Employ the best way yet evolved in all the years of searching. That is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. Be sure to get the genuine. The ideal medicine for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia, a superior toothpaste that safeguards against acid mouth. (Made in Canada.)

SCOUT NOTES

Hike number two in the "See Bear River First" series took the boys out South of Bear River and up the East Branch. They followed the river up to the Sam Harris Bridge, where it is joined by Sandy Bottom Brook, and then got out their fishing lines and started to travel up the brook.

About this time snow began to fall, but the hikers kept on travelling until noon. Then they prepared to make themselves comfortable for the mid-day meal. A sheltered place was picked out in the woods and a fire started. This was not any too easy because every bit of wood was wet and covered with snow, but soon a blazing hardwood fire was going and the kettles put on to boil.

For more comfort a wind-break of brush was set up, and although it was stormy outside, everything was cosy around the camp-fire. And the home provisions were helped out with some of the speckled beauties eaten hot out of the frying pan.

After lunch the hike continued in spite of the storm, and followed the brook up to Labrador Road and after that it turned homeward by way of the road to the Indian Hill.

Another group of hikers started to follow the main gage in the morning, but when nearly up to them they lost the "signs" on account of the snow-storm and failed to make a connection with them.

INSTITUTE MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Bear River Women's Institute will be held on Monday, May 2nd, at 3:30 p. m. Every member is asked to attend. Business of importance will be taken up.

PHILATHEA CLASS MEETS

The Philathea Class of the United Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Clarence Henshaw, on April 14th. A large number were in attendance, with the President, Mrs. Roy Snell, presiding.

The meeting opened by singing "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," in memory of one of our members, Mrs. William Morgan, who has recently passed away. The class poem was read by Mrs. Harry Harris. The business of the meeting was then disposed of, after which the Entertainment Committee took charge. The program was as follows:

Vocal Solo — Mrs. Waldo Chute.

Reading — Miss Hiseley.

Violin Solo — Miss Buford.

Reading — Mrs. Leary.

Choruses were then played which were enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served.

The meeting closed by singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

J. W. Maxmer, of Windsor, Superintendent of Indian affairs was a guest at the Commercial House, on Wednesday. He was here to take over the management from the previous agent. In future there will be no local agent, but all such work will be done through the superintendent. This will, we understand, throw out nineteen local agents in the Maritime Provinces.

Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Lovett arrived on Tuesday night from Lockport, where they had spent ten days. The Doctor is gaining strength every day, and will be very heartily welcomed to his home in Bear River, where he will complete his convalescence.

MEN'S PROGRESSIVE CLASS HOLDS MEETING

The Men's Progressive Bible Class of the Bear River Baptist Church met at the home of John Harrow, on Tuesday evening of last week. By special invitation many lady friends of class members were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent. High class vocal and instrumental music was rendered, all of which showed careful preparation, but the high light of the program was a paper by Rev. C. L. Blanchard, of the Bear River United Church, his subject being "Soviet Russia" as seen by an outsider. Mr. Blanchard is a pleasing speaker, and presented his facts in a very entertaining and instructive manner. We are hoping to hear him again in the near future. The meeting closed with a chorus by the class, after which an excellent lunch was served by the hostess Mrs. Harrow, assisted by the ladies present.

The annual meeting of the Bear River Tennis Club was held on Thursday afternoon, last, with the president in the chair. Reports of committees were received and general business transacted. Too Sick for School

Mrs. Dow Says Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Restored Daughter to Health.

My daughter was run down in health, took weak spells and could not go to school," writes Mrs. Asa Dow, Port Daniel, West, Quebec.

"While visiting her aunt, a friend told her about a little girl in similar condition who had been completely restored to health by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. My daughter has since been taking the pills, and they have certainly made her stronger. She has lost that tired, sluggish feeling and has never missed one day's school since September. The pills also have her a good appetite; her nerves are better and she has more pep. I recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to mothers of daughters with similar troubles."

Don't let anemia rob your growing daughter of health and vigor. Give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are an invigorating, health-giving tonic.

CONSTIPATION

Banished for 20 Years

No one could have had more experience of constipation than this man, his method of correcting the trouble would surely put right anybody who suffers in a similar way.

"I am now approaching my 49th birthday and have used Kruschen Salts for many years. As a boy and youth I suffered at frequent times agonies from constipation. This was, after a time, somewhat relieved by a special pill compounded to a prescription, but which, at times, led to a weakening effect. On someone's recommendation I tried a bottle of Kruschen Salts, and since then—a matter of at least 20 years ago—have used nothing else. My daily dose I take in hot water at 7.45 a.m."

—E. A. D.

The six salts in Kruschen are Nature's own prescription for keeping the organs of elimination working properly—gently but surely expelling all poisonous waste matter every day. Start on "the little daily dose" of Kruschen-to-morrow and so take the first step along the royal road to perfect health.

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation, to get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Castoria, you know, is made specially for children's delicate needs. It is a pure vegetable preparation; contains no hard drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

UNITED CHURCH NOTES

The Oddfellow's Service on Sunday evening was well attended in spite of the weather. The music by the men's choir added much to the interest of the service, and the quartette was especially good. The flowers were very attractive. The subject of the sermon was "Brotherhood"—the need of the hour applied to every-day conditions of life.

The closing meeting of the season of the Men's Brotherhood will be held in the Hall, on Thursday next. The special speaker will be Rev. Howard Outerbridge, a missionary of the United Church, on furlough from Japan. A Challenge Shield will be presented to the winning side in the Reds and Blues Contest.

Practices are being held for the Y. P. S. Play "Aaron Slick of Pumpkin Creek," which will be presented at the end of the month. It is a comedy in three acts, and is full of fun and interest.

A Mother's Day Service will be held next Sunday morning. Wear a red and white flower in honor of your mother. Sunday Services—Digby, 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.; Smith's Cove, 3 p. m.

Mrs. Beare Thankful For Way in Which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Helped Her Back to Health

"I can truly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they did wonders for me," writes Mrs. Mabel R. Beare, New Westminster, B. C. "After a long and very trying illness, I was down to 90 lbs. in weight, I could not eat a hearty meal. In fact, I had to go away from the table hungry from a dinner I dared not touch. I was also very pale. I had often read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so thought I would give them a trial. I soon found I was able to eat with any one, and life began to look brighter. My weight came up to 113 lbs. and my lips and cheeks had lots of color. I am more than thankful I ever took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I only hope others will try them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually create an abundance of new red blood, which is the reason they have given new vitality and strength to thousands of such nervous and exhausted women. Equally helpful for growing girls. Try them. At your druggist's in the new glass container. 50c.

Miss Graham's friends, while feeling that the cake was really too good to be eaten, testify that it tasted just as good as it looked, and the Courier joins in wishing her Many Happy Returns of the Day.

MOTHER'S DAY

"God made you, dear Mother, and then broke the mould.
When he gave you to me with your heart of pure gold;
A lifetime of love at my feet you have laid;
You're the best little Mother that God ever made."

Next Sunday, May 8th., will be Mother's Day. The one day of the year which has been set apart by all, to send a special word or gift, to en-noble their thoughts by a memory as divinely ineffaceable as life itself. The keeping of this day was first suggested by Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia, who, when asked to arrange a memorial service for her mother, had the inspiring thought that the day should be kept for the commemorating of the loving service of all mothers. The suggestion was at once adopted, and has continued to grow ever since. It is a day designed to teach one of the most beautiful lessons of life.

On this day the lives of the mothers whose love and care still sweeten existence, are brightened by expressions of love and respect, and the memory of the mothers who have "journeyed on" are honored. A beautiful symbol is observed on this day in the wearing of a carnation, a red or pink one if the mother is still living, or a white one if she is dead. Its fragrance stands for love; its form beauty; its lasting qualities faithfulness; its wide field of growth, charity; and its whiteness stands for purity—all true mother qualities.

Kay Boyle, in her book, "Plagued by the Nightingale," has beautifully dedicated it to "For My Mother and Her Undying Flame." What a tribute of love and understanding. We are not all authors, we cannot all write and dedicate books to show our love to our mothers, but each of us through our lives can show our love and devotion. Longfellow once said: "Even he who died upon the Cross, in His last hour, in the unutterable agony of death, was mindful of His mother, as if to teach us that this holy love should be our last worldly thought, the last point of earth from which the soul should take its flight for Heaven."

Let us on this day at least, obey the promptings of our own heart, and show our mothers what we really and truly think of her.

"As you sit in your chair, little lady,
And dream in your wistful way,
Are you visioning all in a moment,
The gold of a lost yesterday—
When your hair was bright as the sea;
And your eyes as blue as the sea;
When you sang of the Little Tin Soldier
To the wondering child at your knee.

Oh, the years are swift, little lady,
And it seems but a year and a day,
Since you left your task for a moment
To join in our childish play—
The years held their measure of sorrow
Their hours of gladness and cheer,
But the day was always the fuller
And brighter, when you were near!

And now, as we bring you flowers,
It's little our lips can tell,
But our hearts are filled with the beauty
And charm of a magic spell.

Again we are clustered about you
And your arms are about us fast;
And our dreams meet yours as to —H. Reginald Hardy.

We walk in the days long past!"
—N. K. F.

If the Institute of Women Drivers launched in Detroit spreads to this country, the gentler sex in Canada will be able to take an official course in both front seat and back seat driving. The Institute, which has the sponsorship of safety organizations, declares that there is more to back seat driving than nagging. The educated back seat driver is a sort of alarm clock, often arousing attention to violation of rules of safety.

Smilin' Charlie Says

THE TRUTH ABOUT PROHIBITION

The following is taken from "The New Outlook," Toronto. It is the statement of Col. George H. Davis, in charge of the Salvation Army forces in Chicago. It is the word of a man who knows:

"Out of more than a million cases we have dealt with in the last sixteen months there were only seventy-five bad cases of drink, and of moderate cases only 500."

"From October 11th., 1930 to February 3rd., 1932, we helped 1,102,545 unemployed men. Of this number, we found 99.92% drink free. Having nothing to do these men would have drunk to excess if they could have got the liquor."

"I did not realize the small percentage of drinking men that pass through our doors until I personally checked it up."

"The number of women coming to our doors with the tale of being ruined by drink is less than one percent. of the entire number, whereas in former days it was a considerable proportion."

"In our family welfare relief work in these days we seldom find need arising from strong drink on the part of one or other of the parents, whereas in the old days it was 90 out of 100 cases. In fact poverty from drink has almost disappeared."

"The old-time drunkard, the wets of the country notwithstanding, is gone. "Before prohibition the Salvation Army could gather drunks by the truckload and busload from the saloons and park benches. Today one would have to search high and low in every American city to find at one time 100 men and women of the type the Salvation Army used to gather by the thousands under the rule of John Barleycorn."

THREE CENTS A WEEK

(North Hastings Review)

If we were endeavoring to advertise a newspaper and secure subscriptions, we should make much of the fact that every newspaper pays its own way in to the subscriber's home and really costs him nothing. The point is that it returns him more in dollars and cents than he pays for it. We cannot imagine a publication so worthless that some item of information in it, some bargain advertised or some service performed, is not worth more to the subscriber in real money than the cost of his subscription.

Almost every newspaper puts money into the pockets of non-subscribers. This is continuously the case when the newspaper lends or supports any movement which brings trade to the town in which it is published. It is the case when the newspaper hammers for local improvements—the spending of a dollar that two may grow in its place tomorrow.

The weekly newspaper at one dollar and fifty cents a year costs the subscriber three cents an issue. We defy anyone to point out where the subscriber can spend three cents and get an equal amount of pleasure, and real value. Three cents will not buy much of anything else, but it will buy the week's news of the community and supply other information and service that is likely to be worth many dollars to the reader. No other institution in the world expects so little and returns so much as does the newspaper.

MOTHER'S LOVE

I've lived to learn that friends grow weak
When trouble marks you for its own;
The ones you love oft turn aside,
And leave the fight to you alone.
I've stood on many scenes of strife,
I've stood where care and pain assailed.

And though friends oft turned away,
Yet mother's hand has never failed.
As in that childhood far removed
She smoothed my brow and dried each tear.

Still, in young manhood's troubled hour,
With loving words she hovers near,
Oh, feeble love and friendship false,
Oh, glittering dreams and hopes bewailed.

You weakened in life's darkest hour,
But mother's love has never failed.
Whatever God shall choose to do
With this frail tenement of clay,

Whatever use he finds for it Along life's dark and dreary way;
That much shall be a monument
To tell mankind whither assailed.

A mother's love, a mother's prayers,
A mother's hand has never failed.
—Louise E. Thayer.

MOTHER

The light, the spell—word of the heart,
Our guiding star in weal or woe,
Our talisman—our earthly chart—
That sweetest name that earth can know.

We breathed it first with lisping tongue,
When cradled in her arms we lay;
Fond memories 'round that name are hung,
That will not, cannot pass away.

We breathed it then, we breathe it still,
More dear than sister, friend or brother;
The gentle power, the magic thrill,
Awakened by the name of mother.

Too Much ACID

MANY people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion—they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quick, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and it once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Get a bottle—any drug store.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia tooth-paste.

"We were still wearing bustles!"...

said this charming lady, "when I first used Surprise Soap."

"I can remember that quite distinctly because we had just moved from the country into town, and that Spring mother bought me a wonderful new dress complete with a stunning little bonnet and muff to match."

"In the country, in my young days, we had always made our own soap, but once we came into the city my mother tried Surprise and after that she never boiled soap any more."

"She found Surprise much more effective and just as economical, and throughout the intervening years she continued to use it."

"From time to time she tried other soaps, of course, but always came back to Surprise. She found it gave clothes a better colour and lasted longer than other soaps."

"I use it in my own home to this day, and I find it excellent not only for washday but for cleaning paint work too. And Surprise is wonderful in the dish pan and for a hundred odd jobs around the home."

"Quality first" was the policy adopted when the first bar of Surprise Soap was made in St. Stephen, N.B., forty-six years ago. This policy has never been altered and its quality has improved with advancing knowledge, keeping pace with modern requirements.

FLOATING POWER

"THE RIDE of Your Life!"

I invite you to take it tomorrow"

"That's the Floating Power Ride," says W.P. Chrysler. "The biggest thrill in motoring today."

I WANT you to ride in a Floating Power car.

I want you to know the amazing things that Floating Power does to an automobile.

That's why I join with every Plymouth, DeSoto, Dodge and Chrysler dealer in Canada in inviting you to take a Floating Power Ride.

I can't describe a Floating Power Ride to you. Nobody can. It's something you have to feel and experience.

But I promise you a surprise and a thrill. Imagine, if you can, a car without vibration. Think of the smoothest car you've ever driven. Multiply that smoothness by two or more. Then you'll have some idea of Floating Power smoothness. The flexibility of Floating Power. A handling ease beyond your dreams.

A Nationwide Demonstration of FLOATING POWER

Starting tomorrow and continuing throughout next week, thousands upon thousands of Canadian motorists will participate in the greatest and most spectacular of all automobile demonstrations—the Floating Power Ride.

Of course, you're invited. Cordially invited. You and your family and your friends.

Merely ask any Plymouth, De Soto, Dodge or Chrysler dealer for a Floating Power Ride. Or, if you prefer, ride with a friend who owns a Floating Power motor car.

You can enjoy performance like this in only four cars—the Plymouth, the DeSoto, the Dodge and the Chrysler. Because Floating Power is exclusive.

Of course, competition is making lots of claims about riding smoothness. But can they prove their claims? Find out for yourself.

Ride in a Floating Power autombile. Then ride in any motor car without it. You'll find there's a world of difference. I've said repeatedly that any car that hasn't Floating Power is out-of-date. I mean just that. I know you'll agree with me after you've ridden in one of our Floating Power cars.

So I urge you to take a Floating Power Ride during Floating Power Demonstration Week in Canada. Take the wheel of any Floating Power car as my guest. Ride for fifteen minutes and you'll want to ride for an hour. For a day. That's how Floating Power gets you. Just take a Floating Power Ride. You'll see.

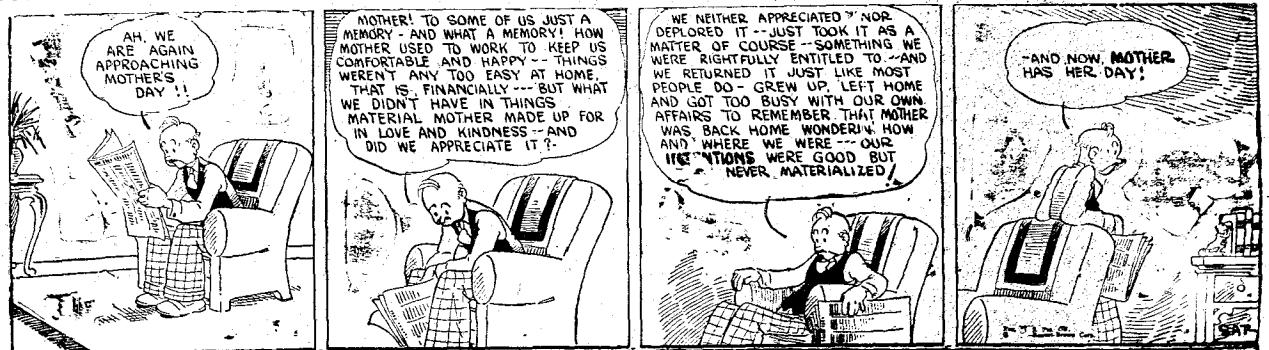

"I agree with Mr. Chrysler 100 percent. And every Plymouth, De Soto, Dodge and Chrysler dealer in Canada is ready to prove the truth of his statements. Take a Floating Power Ride—and discover things!"

SOCIAL EVENING

The social evening held under the auspices of the Bear River Women's Institute on April 26, in the Oddfellow's Hall, was very successful, both socially and financially. The decorations were simple and effective. The refreshment table, set at one side of the room, was especially attractive, centred with a beautifully decorated cake, flanked by antique Georgian silver candelabra each carrying three lighted candles; and with silver coffee services at each end. Mrs. A. B. Marshall and Mrs. W. M. Romans poured, assisted by other members. The attendance exceeded expectations, and an enjoyable evening was afforded to all. The officers and members of the Institute wish to thank those who assisted in making the evening a success, by their presence and in other ways. The net proceeds were $28.00. The programme was as follows:—

Chorus—Members of the Institute.

Short Address of Welcome—The President.

Vocal Solo—Mrs. Waldo Chute.

Piano Solo—Miss Harriet Marshall.

Reading—Miss Vera Hiseley.

Violin Solo—Miss Marguerite Baird.

A TRIBUTE

The re-painting of the "Rio Tinto" is completed and very smart she looks lying at the wharf. Working quietly in his garden, and looking down on her, Captain John Woodworth, now retired, thinks back over the days gone by. For forty-seven years Captain Woodworth sailed from here, seven years along the coast, and forty years from this port. During the forty years from this port Captain Woodworth was four years on the old "Bear River," twelve years on the "Citizen" and twenty-four years on the "Bear River," which was replaced by the "Rio Tinto." In all the years spent in charge of vessels, Capt. Woodworth never touched ground to cause damage to ship, men or cargo. When one stops to think that the Bay of Fundy, under certain weather conditions, is known as "the dirtiest piece of water in the world," according to many deep sea men, this record is indeed one of which Captain Woodworth may be justly proud, and Bear River may be proud to have as one of its citizens a man of such sterling worth.

A Quick Way to... Restore an Estate

ARE you among the thousands who have suffered from the great depression? Have you had to make a hurried survey of your financial position only to find that you are worth less by thousands of dollars than you were? Do you realize that death compels a liquidation of securities at current values?

How can that situation be met?

You can instantly restore your estate to a healthy basis by taking out more insurance. The sane way is to insure to the point of safety . . . at least.

Over five hundred million dollars of life insurance was taken out in the Sun Life Company last year—much of it by level-headed men who balanced their accounts by this simple method.

Apple Dumplings with Magic Baking Powder

WHEN a young housewife asks me what baking powder she should use, says Miss De Both, director of the famous De Both Home Makers' Cooking Schools, this is my advice: Use the best—one that is pure, uniform and invariably dependable. You can't use second-rate baking powder and expect first-rate results.

"My experience with Magic has been particularly happy. I find that it never varies—that it is consistently reliable. And I know it is pure, and free from harmful ingredients."

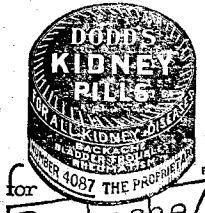

Statements by other well-known cookery authorities give whole-hearted support to Miss De Both's judgment. In fact, the majority of dietitians and cookery teachers throughout Canada use and recommend Magic exclusively.

Apple Dumplings

1 quart flour 1 1/2 cups milk
2 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder 1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt 1 tablespoon butter

Sift into a bowl flour, baking powder and salt. Rub in the butter. Add cold milk to make soft dough. Turn out on to a floured board and roll into a sheet. Cut in squares. Peel and core the apples. Place an apple on each square of dough. Fill the core with a small piece of butter, sugar and a little cinnamon. Fold the dough over, tucking corners that there are no openings, as the steam inside dumplings cooks the apple while dough is baking. Brush dumplings with a little cream, and place in greased pans. Bake in moderate oven at 400° F. about 40 minutes. Serve with cream or hard sauce.

FREE COOK BOOK—When you bake at home, the new Magic Cook Book will give you dozens of recipes for delicious baked foods. Write to Standard Brands Ltd., Fraser Ave. & Liberty St., Toronto, Ont.

CHILD need REGULATING?CASTORIA WILL DO IT!

When your child needs regulating, remember this: the organs of babies and children are delicate. Little bowels must be gently urged—never forced. That's why Castoria is used by so many doctors and mothers. It is especially made for children's allments; contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. You can safely give it to young infants for colic pains. Yet it is an equally effective regulator for older children. The next time your child has a little cold or fever, or a digestive upset, give him the help of Castoria, the children's own remedy. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

CASTORIA
CHILDREN CRY FOR IT!

WEYMOUTH MILLS MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING

Stanley Williams, of Weymouth Mills, had a narrow escape from death on Saturday, when the motor truck in which he was riding with two com-pansions, Joseph Thibault and Douglas Parker crashed through the highway bridge, known as Gaudet's Bridge and situated between the upper hydro dam and G. O. Hankinson's mill, and dove into fifteen feet of water.
Thibault and Parker managed to reach the shore uninjured, but Williams was nearly drowned before he was rescued. Doctors H. J. Pothier and E. O. Hallett, of Weymouth, were immediately summoned and worked over him for several hours before he was finally revived.

The truck was owned by George Thibault and driven by his son Joe, who was accompanied by Williams and Parker. The vehicle, a new motor truck, was carrying a heavy load of logs, and crashed through the bridge, turning on its side as it slid into the Sissiboo River. The truck was badly damaged.

THE WORD "NEGRO"

The Courier is in receipt of a very interesting letter from John J. E. Samuels, of Acaciaville, objecting to the expression "Negro Spirituals," used in an advertisement which appeared in this paper last week. Unfortunately the letter is a little too lengthy for publication, but the Courier is not apologizing for the use of the word "Negro." The copy was handed us by a prominent member of the race—a member who has the respect of the whole community, both white and colored, and if he was satisfied to use the word "Negro" we have no right to object. The editor has met very many prominent colored people and has interviewed many of them—prominent crown officials from the West Indies, several bishops and a number of the clergy, as well as educationalists and business and professional men, and has enjoyed the friendship of several of them.

He has talked over this point with a number and has yet to find the first to object to the word "Negro." They certainly do not like the word "Nigger," and that is a word which is "taboo" in our office. We object to it as strongly as the colored people do and will not allow it to be used in our columns.

The peony is the national flower of China.

What is Behind Your Doors?

When you close a door that is usually standing back against the wall do you find it a creamy shade compared with the white of the rest of the woodwork? Very few white paints will remain pure white except where they get the full strength of the Sun. As a rule the better grade you use the longer it will stay white. In point of cost there is an exception to this rule and this is

Old Water Pipes Found in Excavation

A section of an old water-main one hundred and fifty years old was dug up Monday by workmen digging the trench for Digby's new sewer line. The pipes were made of logs, hollowed out and telescoped together and were in as good condition as they were the day they were put down. The pipe line is supposed to have led from the King's Well (sometimes known as the Admiral Digby Well) on Battery Point. The water from this system was used to supply vessels lying at the wharves in Jew Cove. As near as can be estimated the old pipe was put down sometime about 1783. Another old pipe line used for the same purpose was also unearthed. This line led from the Holdsworth well on Prince William Street. In this case, the pipe was of a more modern variety, and equipped with a shut-off valve. It has not been so many years since the latter line was used to supply vessels, but it had been forgotten.

Lindbergh Baby Found Dead In Brush Pile Near Father's Estate at Hopewell, New Jersey

Remains of Kidnapped Baby, Missing Since March 1st, Found

Radio bulletins coming through last evening told of the finding of the remains of the famous flyer in a pile of brush, about four and one-half miles from the Lindbergh estate, at Hopewell, N. J. The baby had been dead for a long time, and was identified by its clothing.

The kidnapping of the 20 months old son of Charles A. and Anne Lindbergh startled the world when it was made known on March 1st. Police the world over have been on the watch for the baby and its abductors. At the time of going to press we are unable to learn of any further details.

The members of Hope Division, Sons of Temperance, Acadiaville, presented a minstrel show in the Division Hall on Tuesday evening. The proceeds were to aid the Division.

The colored people of Acadiaville, presented a successful concert at Smith's Cove, last Friday evening. The proceeds were for the benefit of the Digby General Hospital. The same talent presented the show in the Acadiaville African Baptist Church earlier in the week in order to raise money to assist in the building of their hall.

In the Acadia Class Title Sports held at Wolfville on Saturday last, the Juniors came second with 29 points, twenty-five of which were due to the individual efforts of Earl Anderson, of Digby, who won first in the high jump, discus, hammer throw, and seconds in the hop step jump, broad jump and shot put.

On Friday next, a District Meeting of delegates from Odd-fellows' Lodges in Digby and Annapolis Counties will be held at Digby. Meetings will be held both afternoon and evening for conducting any necessary business. The initiatory degree will be conferred in the evening by St. George Lodge, Grand Master E. H. Munro, of Kentville, will be present. Supper will be served the delegates at the Ocean Gardens. It is hoped to have a good representation present when matters of interest to members will be taken up.

"Mother and Daughter" Banquet at Freeport

On Saturday evening last, the Senior Group of C. G. I. T., of Freeport, held a "Mother and Daughter" Banquet in the Baptist Vestry. The tables were prettily decorated in the Group colors, yellow and green. Supper was served at six-thirty, and after this the following toasts were given: To the King, the Church, the Mothers, the School the Guests, and the C. G. I. T. Then followed a short program consisting of two playettes, "When Women Get Their Rights" and "Married in Haste" two choruses, "My Mom" and "There's Only One Pal After All" and a duet, "Mother Mac-hree." Songs were sung around an artificial camp-fire, and a very interesting debate followed, "Resolved That It Is More Profitable to Read than Travel." The evening was enjoyed by all present.

On Sunday evening, the same group of girls, assisted by local talent, put on a pageant entitled "An Ideal Home," in the Baptist Church. The Scripture lesson was read by the Leader and an interesting talk was given by one of the deacons, who presented palms to the church, on behalf of the C. G. I. T. A note of thanks was given to the friends who helped with the pageant, and the meeting closed with the singing of "My Mother's Prayers Have Followed Me."

Freeman Barton Acquitted By Supreme Court

The jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty" Tuesday afternoon in the case of Freeman Barton colored, who was tried by Justice Graham of the Supreme Court on the charge of manslaughter. The charge against Barton arose out of the fatal shooting of Mrs. Alice Tasco, 27, colored, and mother of two children, on December 11, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Addie Barton, Conway.

Witnesses heard were Lloyd Barton, Mildred Barton, Clarence Bailey, and Allen Taylor, who were in the house at the time of the shooting, also Sergeant Joseph Heatherington, of the R. C. M. P. and Dr. W. R. Dickie. The evidence given was very much the same as that given at the coroner's inquest and at the preliminary hearing. The three men, Freeman Barton, Clarence Bailey, and Allen Taylor had called at the Barton home to borrow Lloyd Barton's gun to go rabbit shooting. Mrs. Tasco was washing dishes at the kitchen sink. Freeman went over and "carried on" with her for a while when his shot-gun held only about a foot and a half from her head, she was killed instantly.

At the inquest a verdict of "accidental death through the careless handling of fire-arms" was returned. Barton was later arrested on a manslaughter charge and arraigned for trial. Frank Jones, E. C., of Digby, acted for the prosecution and R. W. E. Landry, of Yarmouth, and E. J. Theriault, of Digby, for the defence.

In the civil suit of Sibley vs. Seeley, a settlement was made and no decision was given.

Many Teachers Apply for Positions

Teachers have been appointed for most of the school sections in Digby County. In every section the school secretaries have been flooded with applications and in some of the smaller sections as many as sixty applications have been received and many more in the larger districts. Many of the school sections in the county have reduced wages this year.

SOCIAL SERVICE COUNCIL

The Annual Meeting of the Digby County Social Service Council will be held in the Court House, Digby, on Wednesday afternoon, May 18th, at 3 o'clock. Rev. H. R. Grant, D.D., Secretary of the Nova Scotia Social Service Council and Temperance Alliance, will be present. All churches and temperance organizations throughout the County are asked to send at least two delegates to the meeting.

ACADEMY NOTES

On Friday morning Mr. Bodin gave the High School a very interesting talk. The subject was the "Canadian Pacific Railway." The history of this railway was completely dealt with from its first beginning up until the present time.

The members of the Junior Red Cross Society in the Digby Academy are going to stage a drive for money on Saturday (tomorrow). The proceeds will be used for aiding sick or crippled children.

The School Board has advanced a sum of money to have the field in back of the school converted into a recreation field. The field is to be levelled and a track built around it. The members of the Athletic Societies will repay the School Board the money advanced. This is to be done by holding suppers, dances and plays.

Mrs. F. A. Robinson has taken over the business formerly operated under the name of "Art's Spa."

Early Morning Blaze At Racquette

An early morning fire yesterday, destroyed two buildings belonging to the property of Floyd Snow, wholesale fish merchant, at the Racquette. The buildings were Mr. Snow's ice house and warehouse. When the alarm was given about 1.15, the flames had made considerable headway and both buildings were a mass of flames. They were used for the storage of fish, but at the time of the fire there was very little in them. The origin of the fire, is unknown.

New Sewer Being Laid

A number of men are now at work on the new sewer being laid in the town of Digby. Work commenced on this job last week. The new sewer will be a continuation of the sewer laid after the big storm last year, and will run along Water Street from just north of the Odd-fellows' Hall to the outlet near the government pier. W. H. Farnham is foreman of the job. At present the men are working on Prince William Street, working up from the outlet.

Trout Plentiful In Digby County

So far, trout fishing appears to be better than it has been for the past few years. Local disciples of Isaac Walton manage to bring home a good string after each trip, and many nice ones have been caught. The brooks and streams are still full, but not too full for good fishing. Last year trout were quite scarce, but this was blamed on the drought of 1930.

Blair Says Farmers Are "Up Against It"

"The farmers of Nova Scotia cannot make enough off their lands to insure them a proper living," was one of the statements made by Professor W. Saxby Blair, of the Dominion Experimental Farm, Kentville, in his address to the Kiwanis Club of Digby, on Monday.

Professor Blair in his address made comparisons of the average land per farm under cultivation in Nova Scotia, Ontario and Saskatchewan. In Nova Scotia he said the average cultivated land per farm was 21 acres, bringing an average gross revenue of $24 per acre; in Ontario, the average acreage was 70 acres, but the average gross revenue was but $17, while in Saskatchewan the average acreage was 210 per farm, with a gross yield of $10 per acre. He went on to say that the Nova Scotia farmer with 20 acres under cultivation, growing crops of hay, grain, roots and potatoes could not do the best only realize about $500.00 per year, not allowing anything for his labor or other expense.

The apple orchards in Kings County, he said, were the best revenue producers the farmers of this country have, but the average apple orchard cost the grower from the time it is set out until it is able to produce fruit about $200 per acre, then, in addition there is the cost of spraying to control insect pests and diseases, the cost of harvesting and packing, and last, but not least, transportation. In order to make any showing at all, he pointed out, the apple grower has to get a pretty good price for his crop.

He also cited other farmers' problems in regard to the prevailing low prices for eggs, butter and livestock, and urged the business men to co-operate with the farmer.

Monday was "Agricultural Day" with the Digby Kiwanians, and officers of the various Agricultural Societies throughout the district were invited as guests of the Club.

Speights—At Centerville, on May 3, 1932, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Speights, a daughter.

Kiwanis Clubs Hold Joint Meeting at Meteghan River

On Thursday of last week the Kiwanis Clubs of Digby and Yarmouth held a joint meeting and supper in the Riverside Inn, at Meteghan River. There were about sixty Kiwanians in attendance. Most of the evening was taken up with the singing of songs. P. W. Holdsworth, Vice-President of the Digby Club and V. L. Pottier, President of the Yarmouth Club, who presided over the gathering, both gave short addresses. Dr. Morton of Yarmouth, sang a song of his own composition full of "cracks" at each member of the Digby Club. The text of this song may be printed in the Courier at some future date.

COMFORT for COLICKY BABIES . . . THROUGH CASTORIA'S GENTLE REGULATION

The best way to prevent colic, doctors say, is to avoid gas in stomach and bowels by keeping the entire intestinal tract open, free from waste. But remember this: a tiny baby's tender little organs cannot stand harsh treatment. They must be gently urged. This is just a fine Castoria can help most. Castoria, you know, is made specially for babies and children. It is pure vegetable oil preparation, perfectly harmless. It contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. For years it has helped mothers through trying times with colicky babies and children suffering with digestive upsets, colds and fever. Keep genuine Castoria on hand, with the name:

THRILLING BASEBALL GAME

The Young Men's Bible Class baseball team of the Baptist Church played a match game with the other boys of the town last Saturday afternoon. The struggle was replete with thrilling plays, nerve-racking decisions and big league pitching. After a strenuous battle of nine innings the bible class emerged the victors by the narrow margin of two runs. Contrary to the usual procedure it was not the dangerous seventh but the lucky eighth which decided the contest. The young men's class first tying the score and then getting a margin of two runs. Clayton Hirtle dashed the hopes of the town team when in the first of the ninth he pitched airtight ball, retiring the side without a safe hit. V. Dittmars unpinned the game with entire satisfaction.

Digby Now Has Most Up-to-Date Hearse

The Courier representative was this week shown the latest addition to the Keen Funeral Service equipment, which has always been noted for its up-to-date plant—a large Cadillac limousine hearse, of the most modern type. When questioned, Mr. Keen said, "We have been aware for some time past that this part of our equipment was not all that could be asked for—that the old-fashioned, ornately carved side motor hearse had become antiquated, in fact, was becoming obsolete, and is now only seen in the smaller centres."

"This one defect in our service has been happily remedied and Digby now has one of the best hearses obtainable." Asked if this high-priced equipment would mean any increase in funeral costs, Mr. Keen emphatically said, "No! The charge for service will be the same as in the past."

This new hearse is fitted with all the latest appliances. It has 165 inch wheel base; both side and rear doors, automatic loading device; latest type of flower rack; is upholstered in taupe colored plush velour and is finished in two tones of grey and black. It is probably the most up-to-date hearse in the Maritime.

We are pleased to see this forward step on the part of the Keen Funeral Service.

THE DUST MENACE

The dust menace—what's going to be done about it this year?

Driving through the country even now one sees nothing but dust. Breathes dust and eats dust. Every car on the highway is hidden in a cloud of dust, and the summer season and summer traffic is weeks away yet.

Something must be done about it, for safety's sake if for no other reason. These dust screens are bound to cause accidents, possibly loss of life. We are urged to drive sanely, but the most careful driver is apt to become muddled and lost in dust.

Our dusty roads always have been one of the drawbacks to the summer tourist trade. We can't blame the tourists who are accustomed to driving on hard cement roads, for having a dislike to driving in clouds of dust and arriving at their destination feeling like a sheet of sandpaper. It's bad enough for us who have become hardened to it.

SUMMER HOTELS PREPARING FOR TOURIST SEASON

Although the season is still early, summer residents are already arriving in Digby and the surrounding country, and to date there has been several summer homes in this vicinity opened for the season. The summer hotels are all busy preparing for the tourist season, and some of the larger ones will open this month.

Digby people are looking forward to a fair season under existing conditions, but are not looking forward to as big a tourist season as in 1929 or 1930. However, they are fully as confident that the season of 1932 will be as good, if not better than last year. Bookings are very good so far, and one of the Sandy Cove hotels is pretty well booked up for the whole season.

Hotel bookings these days, do not, however, throw the same forecast on the season as they did a few years ago as the bulk of the summer hotel trade is now transient. Most of the tourists travel by automobile, and stop at the end of the day's journey. There are only a few comparatively, who book their reservations weeks ahead of time these days.

SPRING'S HARBINGER

By L. Weldon Mosher

Across Long Tusket's mirrored lake
As darkness falls along its shore.
A repertoire of silvery notes
Re-echoes from a lone bird's store—
"Dear Canada—Canada—Canada!"

Thy rapturous soul with freedom blest,
O minstrel of this land so fair,
Transports thy song "Dear Canada"
In plaintive whistles sounding clear—
"Dear Canada—Canada—Canada!"

Ten thousand stars in Heaven's dome
Bespeak their all-Creator's fame.
As you—sweet white-throat of the North
In minstrel homage laud the name—
"Dear Canada—Canada—Canada!"

THE SPRING OF HUMAN LIFE

A robin's bewitching notes—a soft grey pussy willow—a greening grass blade under leaf mould—a wisp of smoke threading its way through broken clouds—a thirsty fall-ploughed field yearning for rain—the throbbing of maternity in bird-breasts, the reddening cheeks of play-intoxicated children—the glowing anticipation of winter-wearied adults—behold, what mystic whisperings of a coming Spring these are!

Human life has its harbingers of a coming Spring. Sometimes it may be the song of a forgotten hope; the budding of a seeming dead enthusiasm, or the distilled joy from a great sorrow. Manifest life's possibility of renewal. When least we expect it, a blue-bird will return to sing at the open window which a secret love could not shut. How often the best happens in spite of our anticipation of the worst!—W. W. N. Argow.

OH, WELL!

The Farmer sells a load of wheat
And all the world grows fair and sweet:

He starts off humming cheerful
Lines

And pays the Grocer for his prunes:
The Crocker who has had the blues

Now buys his wife and children shoes:

That ten the Shoeman thinks God sent

And runs and pays it on his rent;
Next day the Landlord hands the bill

To Dr. Bolus for his pill:
The happy Doctor tells his frau

That business is improving now
And adds: "My dear, you need a rest."

You'd better take a trip out West.
So in a week or so the wife

Is on the farm enjoying life.
She pays her board to Farmer Howe

Who takes the ten and says: "I

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Dark never was no sunshine made
So generous an' warm.

It didn't one day have to fade
Into a storm.

Dark never was a storm that blew,
An' shook the cabin door.

De old sun couldn't travel through An' shine once more.

of abstraction, "Owing to a crowd of other matters, we are unable to find room for it."

Notice to Readers

It is our aim to print news while it is news. We ask our correspondents to send in their items as quickly as possible.

We appreciate any signed contribution sent in by any reader, correspondent or otherwise, and will do our best to make room for such articles in our columns, but—

Space is our stock in trade—we cannot duplicate items in one week's paper which have appeared in a previous edition.

For several weeks past we have been asked to publish Obituaries which had appeared in some previous issue which had been covered by a member of our staff or one of our regular correspondents.

In future we feel that we shall have to make a small charge of $1.00 for each 200 words for any item we are asked to reprint. Cash must accompany the item.

"In Memoriam" notices are charged at 50 cents for the notice and ten cents for each line of poetry. In future cash sufficient to cover payment of same must be enclosed with the notice—otherwise they will be ignored.

Again we wish to remind the clergy especially, that we cannot publish advance notices for plays, concerts, socials for which an admission is charged unless the same are to run as paid locals—10 cents per line, or are accompanied by advertising.

We have always printed church notices free of charge and will continue to do so, but we feel it unfair to us to be asked to publish free advance notices for the above, which are given us as advertising disguised as news.

COURIER REMINISCENCES

Aeroplane can't be so modern after all. We were looking over an old issue of the Courier yesterday, published April 26th, 1907, and read in the Westport items where "Charles Gower made a flying trip to Saint John". Other Westport items of interest included the arrival of the schooner Ismael, Capt. Hicks, from Yarmouth; the purchase of the sloop Kicpa-poo, by Capt. George Bucknam; Capt. William MacDormand; Capt. Albert Bailey bought the sloop Maple Leaf from H. Denton; the schooner J. E. Collins had arrived from Halifax with a cargo of salt, and, as usual, the lobster fishermen were having tough luck on account of the weather being rough and cold.

Then to turn to items of interest from other villages, we learn that Rev. J. T. Eaton, who had been the pastor of the New Tusket Baptist Church for the past six years, had preached his farewell sermon on that field.

James Trevo, of Brighton, pierced his hand with a pitch fork. An operation was performed by Dr. MacDonald, of Barton, and Dr. Ford, of Digby, to prevent lockjaw.

A reprint article from the Chatham, Ont., Daily Planet, tells of the transfer of "Jim" Merkel from the Bank of Montreal in that city to Halifax. He was given a good send-off.

There is also an account of the wedding of Bertha Maud, youngest daughter of Charles R. Van-Tassel, to Luther D. Stark.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Turnbull had leased the Myrtle House for the tourist season of 1907.

Deaths recorded were those of Mrs. B. D. Carter, Smith's Cove; Sylvester Schofield, of St. Paul, Minn., and a native of Kentville, who dropped dead at the Digby station; Josiah C. Porter, at Springdale, Digby Co.; Mrs. Agnes Cossaboom, Tiverton; and Benjamin F. Day, Marblehead, Mass.

Danger in Printed Paper

"Say, mon, when is Annie MacTavish goin' to let you marry her?"

"It's vera uncertain, mon. Some fool gave her a big box of letter paper with her name printed on it. She won't get married till it is all used up, an' she writes very few letters account of the postage."

Alphonse Thibeau, of Digby, was a week-end guest of Miss Grace Gaudet.

GROSSES COQUES

Mrs. Dosithe Saulnier, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Leander Dugas, has returned to Meteghan.

Mrs. Ambrose Saulnier is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Maximilien Melanson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Doucet and family, of Cape St. Mary, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Dugas.

Members of Mary Sodality and the Guardian Angel Society are preparing for a special celebration in honor of the Blessed Virgin, which will take place at Church Point on the 15th.

LITTLE BROOK

Resther LeBlanc recently called on Fred Deveau, at Mavellite.

Miss Madeline Comeau, of this place, who is now attending Normal College, at Truro, has accepted the Advanced Department of the Amiraute Hill school in the place of Miss Emile Blinn, who is resigning.

Mrs. Dennis Amiraute, of New Edinburgh, spent one day recently with her aunt, Mrs. Hilaire Saulnier.

Married

Flack—Cumming

The marriage took place at noon, Saturday, April 30th, at Christ Church, Dartmouth, of Laura French, daughter of Canon and Mrs. Cumming, and Geoffrey Wilfred Flack, of Guildford, Surrey, England, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Flack of Canterbury Road, Margate, Kent, England. The bride and groom were unattended. Canon Cumming officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Stanley Cumming, wore a smart travelling suit of fawn beige, with hat and shoes to match. She carried no flowers. Following the wedding ceremony, the young couple left on a motor trip through the Valley, and on their return will take up residence in Dartmouth. Mrs. Flack was born in Weymouth, where Canon Cumming had his parish, and later lived at Bridgewater, and at Sydney, Cape Breton, before going to Dartmouth. Mr. Flack is an officer on the Cyprus Field.

Comeau—Saulnier

A marriage of interest to a wide circle of friends, took place on Monday morning, May 1st, at Stella Maris Church, Meteghan, when Rev. Father Deveau, P. P., united in matrimony, Miss Eva Saulnier, of Meteghan Centre, to Joseph Comeau, of Meteghan. The bridesmaid was Miss Irene Saulnier, cousin of the bride. The groom's brother, Denis Comeau, acted as best man. Mrs. Joseph LeBlanc was organist of the Church. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Comeau.

Good Advertising

A business man was near death. In distating his will to his lawyer, he said:
"And to each of my employees who has been in my employ for 20 years, I give and bequeath $50,000."
"But," remonstrated the lawyer, "you have been in business only 19 years."
"Ah, I know that, but it will be good advertising!"

An actor was appearing in a play in which a thunderstorm played an important part. One night in the middle of a speech he was interrupted by a terrible peal.

The annoyed actor looked up into the flies and said, "That came in the wrong place."

And the angry stage-hand replied, "Oh, di di? Well, it came from 'heaven'."

Lady—"Don't be impertinent, my man."

THE GREAT CANADIAN VALUE

THESE REASONS make it wiser than ever TO CHOOSE THIS SIX TODAY!

1. Chevrolet pioneered the six-cylinder engine in the low priced field because this is the one type of power plant that strikes a perfect balance of smooth performance and maximum economy. It is necessary to have six cylinders to get multi-cylinder smoothness.
2. Drivers of sixes never want less, and anything more than six cylinders means a sacrifice of economy! The Chevrolet Six costs less to operate than any other full-size car. Naturally, more than six cylinders would mean greater expense for gasoline, oil and upkeep.
3. The 1932 Chevrolet Six is a proved car. It represents the fullest development of the basic multi-cylinder principle which has resulted in highest satisfaction to more than 2,000,000 Chevrolet Six owners.
4. The Chevrolet Six is the lowest priced car combining Silent Synchro-Mesh shift and Free Wheeling.
5. Bodies by Fisher are exclusive on Chevrolet in the lowest price field. Fisher hardwood-and-steel construction is the safest and most durable.
6. New, reduced prices and easy terms over a period of months. Immediate delivery of any model.
7. The Chevrolet motor is mounted on thick rubber blocks, utilizing the most modern and efficient method of preventing vibration.
8. 109-inch wheelbase. Strong frame. Four long springs, with four Lovejoy shock absorbers.
9. Stabilized front fender design. Insulated driver's compartment. Fisher non-glare VV windshield, easily adjustable with one hand for ventilation.
10. Down Draft Carburetion with heat control. Harmonically balanced, counterweighted crankshaft.
11. Powerful, enclosed four-wheel brakes. Separate emergency brake system.
12. Built in Canada, of Canadian materials by Canadian workers.

ACID STOMACH

EXCESS acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and flatulence about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acid. The best corrective is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. Harmless, and tasteless, and yet its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods, once you learn how quickly this method acts. Be sure to get the genuine.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia, a superior toothpaste that safeguards against acid-mouth. (Made in Canada.)

WEYMOUTH COMMUNITY BUNGALOW COLONY

Blue print plans of a proposed "Weymouth Community Bungalow Colony" are now on display in the windows of William Comeau's barber shop. Two outside parties are very much interested and are getting local parties interested to build the proposed Bungalow Colony at Weymouth North.

Negotiations are under way for purchasing the piece of land situated between the homes of Rev. J. H. Copeland and Major Glidden Campbell, at Weymouth North.

The plans are generally understood here are to have two main buildings, having dining room, garage, filling service, etc., situated near the street, and the fifteen bungalows or cabins to be in a semi-circular position, near the river.

Similar bungalow colonies are being carried on successfully at different places throughout the Province and no reason can be seen why it could not be made a success here, as the place is one of the most ideal in the Province for such a colony. Beautiful views of land and sea; shady nooks; good beaches with salt and fresh water bathing; good boating, fishing, motor and hunting facilities—in fact everything that makes for an ideal vacation spot.

Miss Gladys Sullivan

The death of Miss Gladys Sullivan, only daughter of Mrs. Judson Mullen and the late Stanley Sullivan, occurred at her home in New Tuskent, on Friday, after a long and painful illness which was borne with great patience. Deceased, who was only seventeen years of age, was one of the most charming girls of the place and her death has thrown a gloom over the whole community. Funeral services were held from the Reformed Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a member, on Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. H. Mullen, assisted by Rev. Hartley Mullen and Rev. Sears officiating, with interment in the Baptist Cemetery. Deceased is survived by her heart-broken mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Mullen, and two younger brothers at home.

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE AT NEW TUSKET

Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the house at New Tuskent known as the Brenton Mullen Place, and now owned by E. Sullivan of Easton, on Monday about 6 o'clock. Mr. Sullivan and another gentleman had had supper there about 5 o'clock, and before leaving to return to their home in Easton, had gone completely over the house to see that everything was alright before leaving it. The only solution to the fire which might possibly have been the cause of it is that a cigarette butt may have been dropped somewhere near it. The fire was first discovered about 5.30, but as the house is off on a road quite by itself, had gained great headway before the alarm was given and a volunteer fire brigade could get there. The barn was saved.

Rastus was dead. A wonderful funeral was in progress. The preacher talked at great length of the good traits of the deceased brother; what a good honest man he was; what a good provider for his family; what a loving husband and father.

The widow grew restless. "Johnie" she whispered. "Go up dar and look in dat coffin and see if dat's yore pa."

FLOATING POWER

"We Can't Put It In Words

—but we can show you by a ride," says Walter P. Chrysler

"CANADA, by now, is filled with Floating Power boats. The thousands who have accepted our invitation to a Floating Power Ride have had the thrill of their motoring life. Don't miss that thrill."

President, Chrysler Corp. of Canada, Limited

Don't Miss Your Floating Power Ride!

To be up-to-date in motoring matters, you must know about Floating Power. Everybody is talking about it. You'll, too, after enjoying a Floating Power Ride.

For a surprise and a thrill, call on any Plymouth, De Soto, Dodge or Chrysler dealer and tell him you want a Floating Power Ride. Or, if you prefer, ride with a friend who owns a Floating Power car. Let the car speak for itself.

If you want to know what Floating Power really is, you'll get the best answer behind the steering wheel of a Floating Power car.

I can't describe Floating Power for you. Neither can my engineers who perfected it. Nor the advertising men who write about it. And that goes for the thousands of owners who are enthusiastic about it, too.

I'm told that competition says their cars have Floating Power. That convinces me they don't know what it is. If they did, they wouldn't make such a statement.

Only four cars, you know, have Floating Power. They are Plymouth, De Soto, Dodge and Chrysler. For Floating Power is exclusive.

All I can tell you about Floating Power is that it will give you the smoothest performance and the easiest ride you've ever had.

If I went any stronger than that, you'd think I had no respect for the truth, I'd rather have you find out for yourself.

Again, I invite you to take a Floating Power Ride this week. It will surprise you. Thrill you as you haven't been thrilled since the day you first drove an automobile.

25 lbs. of FAT GONE

Rheumatism Went With It

A threefold benefit came to this woman when she lost unwanted fat. "Up to a few months ago I was always troubled with rheumatism. My joints were getting so swollen it was misery to walk. I was then 155 lbs., which is a great deal, seeing I am only 5 ft. 2 inches in height. I thought I would try Kruschen, although I did not then believe it would reduce weight, but I thought it would ease the pain. I took half a teaspoonful in a tumbler of hot water each morning, and to my great delight, started to lose weight, also pain. This week I was weighed and was 130 lbs., which I think is proof positive. My friends are all asking me what I am doing to lose weight, so it is very noticeable. Also I look and feel a lot better in health."—Mrs. M. H. The six salts in Kruschen assist the internal organs to throw off each day the waste and poisons that encumber the system. Then, little by little, that ugly fat goes—slowly, yes—but surely. The pains of rheumatism and neuritis cease. You feel wonderfully healthy, youthful and energetic—more so than ever before in your life!

CHURCH OF ENGLAND NOTES

Excellent congregations were present in the Anglican Churches on Sunday. At the service of Matins at St. Peter's, Esther Joan, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Ruggles, received the rite of Holy Baptism. At the evening service at St. Thomas' the Rector preached a special Mother's Day sermon, basing his thoughts on the example of Mary the Holy Mother of Christ. "We are today," said the speaker, "to consider not only the example of Mary, but we are to think of the countless thousands of Mothers who have and who are manifesting the same love, setting the same glorious example in their quiet unassuming way." Mr. Mosher quoted statements from well-known characters such as Michelangelo, Benjamin West and Thomas Edison. It was Benjamin West who said, "A kiss from my Mother made me a painter."

"That power," said the speaker, "which has been at work to raise the standard of the Christian home; which has raised life to its highest level, we can today place it at the feet of the Mothers in all the ages, as their gift to the world."

The Rector in closing quoted some of his own lines which were in keeping with the thoughts of the day:

My tongue lends not of chosen words
To win the world with oratory,
Like Cicero, Demosthenes or Burke.
My soul has not that gift of God
To praise by voice or instrument,
Like Schubert, Handel or a Holt.
Nor does my pen with ready flow
Pen magic words of poet's art,
As Milton, Browning or a Keats.
Nor does my hand wield artist's
To splash "Madonna," or a "Venus Birth"

As Botticelli, or a Rembrandt did.
But I have that which silvery words
Are useless to express —
And Master's "wisdom, harmony Lends words of melody —
And Artist's brush cannot attain — But only image that which it would be.

And Poets flowing harmonies,
Are but the poorer parts
Of that which they sing.

The audience was large and enthusiastic. Rev. L. W. The three scenes were laid in the living room of Professor Wise's home.

The three acts of the play were laid in the yard of the Raleigh home, the stage and scenery being very prettily and attractively arranged for this purpose, the ploughing sponsored by Dr. H. J. Pothier, owner of the theatre.

Act I. A Country Auction. The deacon arrives from Sorghum Center, Manitoba. The Deacon takes a drink of water.

FOUR OF CREW RESCUED BY S. S. DEERPOOL

Managing Owner Who Sold Craft in France Reviews Vessel's Career

Captain L. F. Barkhouse, of Westport, has been advised through Lloyds, London, England, of the loss of the former Nova Scotian term schooner "Donald and Keith," which was renamed "Reuzic" when sold to French owners in 1919. The vessel foundered in a severe storm in the Bay of Biscay on April 9th. Four of her crew were picked up by the British steamer Deerpool and the remaining number of 25 men were missing.

Built under the supervision of Captain Barkhouse, who was also managing owner, the "Donald and Keith" of 285 tons register, was constructed by the Westport Shipbuilding Company at St. Bernard, Digby County.

Captain R. McD. Barkhouse, son of the managing owner, commanded the vessel on her maiden voyage from Saint John for Barbados which began on February 17th, 1919. She made the run in 13 days under short sail. The vessel proved speedy, and once registered 94 1-2 miles in 8 hours.

On arriving at Barbados the vessel closed through New York on deadweight capacity—$40 per ton—with option Bordeaux or LeHavre, calling at Cherbourg for orders.

In Bordeaux the vessel was sold for $47,500 in Canadian funds to Messrs. Potet-Lemere and Co. So well had the vessel been kept that an agent wanted to know if the vessel was a yacht of merchant carrier.

In recalling the above account of the vessel Captain Barkhouse said that the rate of freight mentioned, indicated war time prosperity in marine circles, and that present offerings compared very favorably in trans-Atlantic and West Indian business. The vessel which under the Canadian flag was named after his two sons.

The closing Banquet of the Grace Church Y. P. S. was held on Tuesday evening with an attendance of sixty. The Centreville Y. P. S. were present, and a good time was spent together. The guest of the evening was Rev. Russell O'Brien, of Sackville, the Field Agent of Religious Education of the Maritime Conference of the United Church. He gave a fine address on the Youth Conference held in Toronto in 1930 which was full of helpful suggestions for Young People's Work. The Group which won the largest number of points in the contest during the winter was presented with "Contest Winner" Pennants. Their names were as follows: Oakley Turnbull, Leader; Doris Webber, Assistant Leader; Gertrude Budrow, Sec'y; Jabez Appleby, Lillian Mount, Elizabeth Eldridge, Alvin Pyne, John Russell. Group One was only three points behind. A return visit is to be paid next Thursday, when the Digby Y. P. S. will visit the Centreville Society. The Banquet was in charge of Groups Three and Four, and was well carried through by the young people themselves, the hall and tables being very prettily decorated with daffodils and spring colors. It was decided that an Arts and Crafts Exhibition will be held in the Fall by the young people of the church with exhibits of Craftsmanship, Collections, Natural History Exhibits, Flowers, Needle-Work, Art-Work and other things.

Captain George Denton Killed in Accident

Westport was the scene of a tragedy Wednesday afternoon, which cost the life of one of its citizens, Captain George Denton, 80 years of age, who gave his life in an attempt to rescue his son-in-law, Neil Curry, who had fallen off the end of a wharf to the beach below. The son-in-law suffered a broken leg above the ankle.

The two men had been fishing all day, and returned this afternoon with a good catch of codfish which they were dressing on Captain Denton's wharf. Curry, in some manner, stepped backward over the end of the wharf, falling on the beach below, the tide being out at the time.

Captain Denton, realizing his plight, rushed to his assistance and presumably in his haste stepped on a loose plank and fell headlong over the wharf, striking his head on a rock on the shore. He lived but a few minutes after the accident. So far as the Courier was able to learn in telephone conversation with Westport, the two men were alone on the wharf at the time.

Captain Denton is survived by four daughters, namely, Mrs. Neil Curry, Mrs. Gerald Bailey, and Mrs. Frank Shaw, all of Westport, and Mrs. James Gesner, of Somerville, Mass.; also one son, Floyd Denton, of Westport.

The Bear River Jersey Calf Club and the Junior Farmer Garden Club held their monthly meeting at Harold Harris' Lansdowne, at 3.30 p. m., on the 11th. The points of a dairy cow were discussed and a talk given on conserving the humus content of the soil.

The cherry trees throughout the whole countryside are now in full blossom, making one feel positive that summer is with us again. Apple blossom Sunday is set for May 29th, this year, which is an indication that the season is a little in advance of recent years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carty and Mr. and Mrs. V. A. VanBlarcom motored to Bridgetown on Sunday, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. VanBlarcom's daughter, Mrs. Frank Ruddick. Mrs. Herbert H. Woodman, of Smith's Cove, is visiting her son, H. L. Woodman.

Those going into the woods on fishing trips over the 24th, should be particularly careful with fires. The woods are dry and a forest fire could start very easily, and spread over a great tract of land in very short time, causing heavy losses of property and endangering homes and lives, and destroying the haunts of fish and game. Don't forget to get your permit.

The Digby County Farmers' Association held a meeting at Little Brook, recently, at which Harvey Chisholm, President of Digby County Farmers' Association; Fulton Parker, Secretary of the Bear River Agricultural Society; J. A. Steele, Federal Livestock Promoter, and R. A. LeBlanc, Agricultural Representative, discussed farm problems, before a large crowd.

Annual Convention of Social Service Council

The annual Convention of the Digby County branch of the Social Service Council and Temperance Alliance was held in the Court House, Wednesday, with James J. Wallis, President, in the chair. There was a fairly large attendance with delegates from Weymouth, Bear River, Digby and Digby Neck.

Reports of the finance committee and of the treasurer, were received and adopted. Dr. H. R. Grant, general secretary, gave a complete report of his work, which was accepted with thanks and appreciation.

Resolutions were passed supporting the educational campaign of the Social Service Council and Temperance Alliance of Nova Scotia, recommending that a systematic visitation of the schools be continued and that the distribution of literature be continued. Another resolution supported the legislative programme. The campaign to secure a county plebiscite on the sale of liquor should be continued and the local representatives in the House asked to give their support.

In another resolution the convention expressed itself in the opinion that the Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett at the Provincial Premiers should take action as did the Dominion Government during the war to suppress the liquor traffic, in order as then the Dominion Government said "to prevent waste, promote thrift, conserve resources and thus increase national efficiency."

The convention lodged itself to work unceasingly for the securing of prohibitory legislation recognizing the utter failure of the Government's sale system to promote temperance. It also pledged support to municipal authorities in enforcing laws relating to gambling, the Lord's Day Act and legislation of moral character.

The following officers were elected:—President—J. J. Wallis (re-elected).

Vice-President—Mrs. C. H. Carty, Digby.

Secretary-Treasurer—Rev. C. L. Blanchard, Bear River.

Rain is greatly needed throughout the province. The roads are much too dusty for safety, farmlands are becoming parched and need moisture to aid vegetation. Forest fires are raging in all parts of the Province. The government of Nova Scotia has issued a proclamation closing the woods from the 19th, inst. until further notice, that is, no person, excepting the owner of the property will be permitted to enter any woodlot without a permit issued by a fire ranger or some other official given authority to issue same.

Ball League for the Town of Digby

For the first time in many years, Digby sport fans seem to have been bitten by the "baseball bug". The Ravens' Athletic Club have organized a team and will play their first game with Church Point on Thursday next.

Four town teams have been organized for the purpose of forming a town league. They are the "Old Timers", the "High School", the "Old Timers and Bankers" will play their first game tomorrow.

The field back of the Academy has been levelled off for a diamond and is in good shape for any game.

The personnel of the Ravens' team has not yet been decided on, although the boys are putting in some steady practice. A twelve weeks' schedule has been drawn up by Church Point, Weymouth, Barton, Digby, Ravens and Bear River. At a recent meeting of the Ravens Athletic Club the following officers were appointed:

President—Dr. G. V. Turnbull.
Business Manager—Douglas McNeill.
Coach—David Wald.
Secretary—R. Woodburn.

Laborer Saved by Fellow Workmen

Rescued by fellow workmen after a cave-in, Delbert Tidd, laborer on the town sewer, had a narrow escape from being buried alive on Tuesday. The long trench now running up the Main Street was filled with workmen who were working in places at a depth of 10 feet. Tidd and several others were engaged in their work when one of the men noticed the bank was not looking just as it should be so he clambered out, telling the others of the probable danger. The bank began to slip and although the men darted quickly up the trench, Tidd was caught by the falling earth and buried nearly up to his neck.

Kiwanians to Open Myrtle House

Major Rutland, Chief Fire Marshal of Nova Scotia, was the speaker at the Digby Kiwanis Luncheon on Monday. He gave a short history of the progress of fire fighting from the days of the Roman Empire down to the present time; of the birth of fire insurance after the great London fire of 1666; of the beginning of the campaign for fire prevention which grew out of the great Chicago fire. He also told of the steps taken by the provincial governments to educate the public in fire prevention. His address was greatly appreciated. Several communications were read by the Secretary, among them a letter from the Kiwanis Club of Yarmouth, urging an inter-club meeting of all the clubs of the province, to be held at the Pines Hotel, sometime about June 21st, and another from the Kiwanis Club of Liverpool, suggesting a joint meeting of the latter part of this month, of the Liverpool, Digby and Yarmouth clubs.

The next meeting of the Kiwanis Club will be at the Myrtle Hotel on Monday evening next, when the Kiwanians and their Queens will open this popular summer hotel for the season of 1932, with a dinner dance, at 7 o'clock.

"Andy" won 17 points and took first in high jump and hammer throw. Norman Laidlaw, of New Glasgow, representing Mount Allison, was the highest individual scorer, winning 23½ points. Acadia University's team of 13 men won 82 of the 152 points awarded in 16 events, thus retaining the cup which has been an object of competition since 1911. The University of New Brunswick took second place with 37 points, while Mount Allison was third with 33 points.

United Church Brotherhood Closes for the Season

The closing meeting of the Brotherhood was held on Thursday evening last, with an attendance of forty-eight. Rev. Howard Outerbridge, D.D., on furlough from Japan, was the guest of the evening. He gave a very interesting and instructive address on present conditions in Japan, telling of the progress of missionary work and the causes that led to the present war with China. Dr. Outerbridge also spoke to the women of the church at a meeting at the parsonage in the afternoon. A feature of the meeting was the presentation of a challenge shield to the "Reds," who were the winners of the recent attendance contest. The shield is of oak and was presented to the Brotherhood by Mr. Evan Dunn. Miss A. L. Jagger also received the thanks of the Brotherhood for the decorations on the shield.

A BIGGER AND A BETTER DIGBY

To the Editor of the Courier:

Sir—The scholarly, comprehensive and progressive address of Mr. George E. Graham, Vice-President and General Manager of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, which I had the pleasure of hearing at the weekly luncheon of the Digby Kiwanis, on Monday, April 25th, has focused in my mind a subject to which I had given considerable attention and thought during the four months of my residence in Digby.

Having spent my childhood and youth on the opposite side of the Basin and been a frequent visitor at irregular intervals since, I have watched Digby with sympathetic interest, and wondered at its slow development. The purpose of this communication is first, to endeavor to discover the cause, and second, to suggest appropriate remedies.

If I were a novelist instead of a surgeon, six weeks would have been ample to qualify me to write a book telling you of all your faults, and if sufficient space remained, something of your virtues. But such is neither my ambition nor my aim. I shall, therefore, as closely as possible, confine myself to an effort to find the answers to two questions: (1), What is the Matter with Digby? (2), What Would I Do To Improve Digby? Why not "A Bigger and a Better Digby"? The answer to that query is at least suggested by the title chosen. "A Better Digby", would naturally result in "A Bigger Digby."

Let us begin our study by listing (1), Digby's Assets; (2), Digby's Liabilities, concluding with suggested Remedies and Improvements.

Assets
(1)—Digby's natural advantages as a tourist resort are unsurpassed, especially as regards location, climate and scenery.

(2)—The Annapolis Basin.

(3)—For many years, before the advent of motor cars and better rail and steam connections, Digby was practically isolated. That handicap has now been so completely overcome as to convert a liability into a very considerable asset.

(4)—With the completion of the new Pines Hotel and cottages a long-felt need of first class hotel accommodation has been supplied in a most satisfactory manner.

(5)—The construction of an eighteen-hole golf course removes another serious handicap.

(6)—The new, up-to-date pier which redounds to the credit of whoever is responsible for it.

(7)—The completion of the long delayed Water Street sewer.

(8)—The storm of last year, resulting in the widening and bulkheading of a considerable portion of Water Street and the acquisition by the town of a part of the abutting riparian rights, was a blessing in disguise.

(9)—The beautiful old trees that line many of Digby's principal streets.

(10)—The attractive cottages, and well kept lawns, hedges and flower gardens of many of your well-to-do citizens.

(11)—A modern hospital with a competent superintendent, nursing and attending staff of physicians and surgeons.

(12)—The well earned reputation of your women as home makers, housekeepers and cooks.

(13)—An intelligent, industrious, ambitious and aggressive mayor, supported by a devoted hard working, conscientious town council; and a town clerk the value of whose education, intelligence, industry and foresight it would be impossible to over-estimate.

(14)—A Board of Trade composed of the best brains of the community and thoroughly representative of the town, lacking only the necessary aggression to make Digby's dream come true.

(15)—A Kiwanis that in the short space of its existence has united all the disruptive factions of the community into a fellowship that makes every member

realize that every man is his neighbor, and that no chain can be stronger than its weakest link. What more inspiring slogan for a Better and Bigger Digby than its motto, "We Build."

(16)—An experienced partner, possessed of ample resources with vision, courage and boundless faith in the future of Digby—The Dominion Atlantic Railway, a subsidiary of the Canadian Pacific, one of the largest and best managed corporations in the world, which has already blazed a trail in the building of the new Pines Hotel and cottages and an eighteen-hole golf course, and now stands ready to co-operate with you in every forward movement.

(17)—Finally, The Digby Courier, in the hands of a public spirited editor, whose sole ambition is to further the best interests of his constituency by telling the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, about Digby and its environs.

Liabilities

(1)—Unpaved Streets and Sidewalks, at least five years behind those of similar provincial resorts.

(2)—A Natural Sea Side Park of incalculable value given away to be converted into a Public Nuisance.

(3)—The Closure of Prince William Street.

(4)—The railroad occupying one of the principal streets with numerous level crossings in the centre of the town.

(5)—The Maritime Fish Corporation's Water Street Plant.

(6)—Various Nuisances, among which may be mentioned

(a) Houses and Porches projecting onto the sidewalks; (b) Telephone and Telegraph Poles running through the centre of Water Street; (c) Undeveloped Properties abutting on the principal streets littered with unsightly rubbish.

Suggested Remedies and Improvements

(1)—Digby should immediately secure the services of a competent town planning architect and engineer whose duty it would be to advise the correction of past errors and make provision for the future growth and development of the town to the greatest advantage of all concerned. Under his or other competent direction the town should take over and conduct the planting and care of trees, shrubs and flowers on the principal streets and parks.

(2)—Immediate Pavement of Water Street and Sidewalks with Concrete, with appropriate parking of the centre of the widened area and the removal of all poles and wires from the centre of the street, to be followed as soon as practicable by paving of the other principal streets.

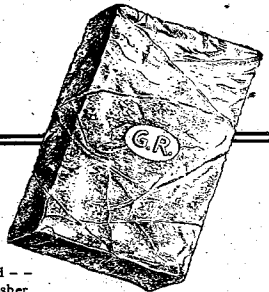

(3)—Immediate steps should be taken to Recover Possession of Sea Side Park—the tract bounded by Water Street, Maiden Lane and the Basin—which should forthwith be laid out as a Public Park and Play Ground, including a baseball diamond and tennis courts, under the direction of a competent landscape architect.

(4)—The Maritime Fish Corporation's and all other fishing plants should be transferred to the Racquette, and as opportunity offers, the town should acquire all remaining riparian rights on Water Street, which as rapidly as possible should be converted into an Esplanade similar to those at Atlantic City, Ashbury Park, and other seaside resorts in this country and abroad, with a Board Walk and other appropriate accessories.

(5)—All sidewalk obstructions should be removed from Water Street.

(6)—Steps should be taken to revive the Boating and Yachting interest, which formerly occupied the front rank of Digby's attractions for tourists, and which still flourishes at Chester and other Nova Scotia resorts.

(7)—A Modern Academy with adequate play grounds conveniently located should be constructed without further delay.

(8)—A Public Library.

(9)—A combination Community Hall and Moving Picture Theatre, large enough to accommodate such political and other conventions as may be attracted to a Better and a Bigger Digby, should replace Oddfellow's Hall.

(10)—Digby should have a modern artificial Ice Palace provided with adequate dressing and locker rooms with hot and cold water shower baths, and proper seating capacity for spectators.

(11)—An Omnibus Nuisance Ordinance should make it possible for the town to order the removal of unsightly litter, etc., on undeveloped or vacant properties within the town limits, with special reference to the principal streets.

(12)—A comprehensive Taxi Ordinance defining the rights, privileges, and restrictions of all taxis and other vehicles operating within the town and limiting their charges should be enacted.

(13)—Licenses should be required of all persons conducting any business for profit within the town, and graded fees established at rates sufficiently high to protect local merchants.

(14)—The Board of Trade should establish and maintain an information Bureau in a convenient locality where, during the tourist season, a Digby Guide Book with a weekly revision should be distributed gratis to all applicants.

(15)—Bill Boards should be erected at pivotal points on which should be posted daily schedules of coming events.

(16)—A concerted effort should be made to attract visitors to an earlier opening and a greater prolongation of the tourist season.

(17)—The Repatriation of First Avenue and Prince William Street by the transfer of the railroad tracks and station to the rear of the town with an elevated spur running to the wharf.

 The staff of this bureau should be selected with the greatest care to represent Digby at its best in Personality, Intelligence, Education, Courtesy and Service. It should be equipped with telephone service to respond at all reasonable hours, day and night, to enquiries respecting everything a stranger might wish to know, and especially pains should be taken to ensure that no favoritism be

The value of a refined personality and a cultivated speaking voice in such a position cannot be overestimated.

(18)—"It Pays to Advertise."

Conclusions

Digby should lay all its cards on the table, and in this connection I cannot do better than to quote the words of Mr. Graham in his inspiring and forward-looking address:

"The volume of tourist or summer visitor business that can be brought to Digby is, and will continue to be, determined solely by the nature of the service with which it is furnished. Hitherto this matter has, in many instances, been approached and considered in a spirit altogether too calculating. The first and most important matter is that of Service, not only on the part of those whose business it is to minister directly to the requirements of the tourists, but also on the part of the town of Digby itself."

If that statement means anything, it means that hitherto Digby has failed in that all important particular. Perhaps it is not too much to say that Digby has acquired a reputation for unfair dealing with tourists, in his extemporaneous remarks Mr. Graham elaborated his thesis by saying that tourists expect to pay for service and do not complain of fair charges, but invariably resent anything savouring of extortion, the bane of short season tourist resorts. Human nature being what it is, how is that to be prevented? The answer to that question has been found and applied in various other resorts by the enactment and enforcement, without fear or favor, of ordinances directed against it. Not said this charming lady. "My children were still babies, I know. Wash day meant a six o'clock rising and a sort of endurance contest between you and the soiled clothes. If the dirt was defeated, you were hogged. If the dirt won, both you and the clothes were bedraggled."

"Surprise changed all that. It gave suds easily and spared a great deal of rubbing. Then besides, the clothes came out so clean that they were fragrant. They still do, of course, but the outstanding quality I like about Surprise is its safety. In spite of its effectiveness, Surprise has never injured any garment; no matter how frequently it was washed."

"Quality first" was the policy adopted when the first bar of Surprise Soap was made in St. Stephen, N.B., forty-six years ago. This policy has never been altered and the quality has improved with advancing knowledge, keeping pace with modern requirements.

satisfied with wiping out what in general terms is a false accusation, it should be the aim of Digby to achieve a reputation for fair and honest dealing. Why should the good name and fortune of a community of honest men and women be allowed to suffer because of the dishonest cupidty of a few individuals?

On my arrival to seek my fortune in the neighboring republic many years ago, I regret to feel obliged to confess that I was struck by the lack of courtesy and respect for age and position almost universally prevalent, and as time passed, especially during and since the advent of a large influx of foreigners with alien or no traditions, that condition has steadily grown worse. On my first visit abroad, no sooner had I set foot in England than I noticed a difference. The prevalent use of "Sir" and "Thank you," even when proffered assistance has been declined, increases the visitor's self-esteem and puts him in a happier and more receptive frame of mind, prepared to be pleased with everyone and everything he comes into contact with. Many of my readers who have enjoyed similar experiences will bear me out in saying that, far from being imaginary, it is a very real conception of the power of courtesy to contribute to happiness and contentment. When so much may be gained by so little effort, why should not Digby aspire to a reputation for those twin virtues—Service and Courtesy?

In conclusion, while offering no apology for anything I have written, and confessing my inadequate preparation for the role I have voluntarily assumed, fully realizing your financial

THREE GOOD RULES

To quote from an article by Bruce Barton in a late issue of the American:—"Mrs. Ralph Waldo Emerson is said to have observed all of the Ten Commandments and to have set up three or her own in addition:

1. Eat it up.
 2. Wear it out.
 3. Make it do.
- Such guided conduct were not popular three years ago, when we were all running our selves breathless in the race to get rich. But an economic earthquake shakes us out of our ruts. At first we are dazed. We think that the jobs we used to hold, and have lost, are the only jobs in the world. Then we begin to get a grip on ourselves, and look around. After all, the greatest single benefit that comes to us out of these periods of depression is a different attitude toward change—we are born with a dread of change, instinctively we resist it; our impulse is to do everything possible to keep things as they are.
But many changes are changes for the better. Without shakups and danger there has never been any progress. What a triumph if we can once form the habit of expecting change and danger and glorying in it, instead of being numbed by the fear of it; if instead of feeling that life is merely comfortable repetition, we can come to regard it as a great adventure in discovery and faith."

Let us adopt Mrs. Emerson's three rules for home economics, and take courage, and hold on—

1. Eat it up.
2. Wear it out.
3. Make it do.

Forests Faced With Fire Menace

Due to the very slight snow fall this winter the water table was exceptionally low this spring. The early spring rains helped some but due to the fact that the ground was frozen the rain did not seep through.
On this account the province is today faced with a very serious Forest Fire situation. During the last week fifty-six forest fires occurred throughout the Province. The Forest Rangers were able to put them out however, before they did any damage. Today there is a very serious Forest Fire raging near Trenton in Picot County and the country is so dry that the utmost precaution of all travellers in the woods is necessary.

For these reasons the Minister of Lands and Forests has decided to close the forests for travel without permit. This measure starts Thursday, the 19th, and will continue if necessary until June 19th.
Any person wishing to enter the woods must obtain a permit to do so from the office of the Department of Lands and Forests, the Forest Rangers or the Municipal Councils.
The permits are free but the permittee undertakes to observe meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.
To look on the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and to expect only the best.
To be just as enthusiastic

AN APPRECIATION

To the Editor of the Courier:
Dear Sir: We wish through the columns of your paper to express our appreciation to two of our friends, Benjamin Ruggles, of Digby, and Nathan Askhins, of San Francisco, who have so kindly contributed a gift to our team recently. A short time ago our correspondent mentioned in Tiverton items, that we had re-organized our baseball team, naming it
"Mohawks." One of our home town boys, B. Ruggles, now residing in Digby, reading this, sent us a large number of gloves and balls.
Another of our Canadian boys, Nathan Askhins, away out in San Francisco, who chanced to pick up your paper, and on reading same items, immediately sent us a cheque.
We appreciate these gifts and we feel sure that the thousands of readers of this great journal will join with us, especially our home town readers, who now reside in different parts of the world, in thanking our two friends. A little help from all who feel like giving, means much to us.
Thanking you for space in your valuable paper.
We remain gratefully yours,
Tiverton Mohawks Baseball Team.

Obituary

Maleleel MacLean

Maleleel MacLean, 76, one of Mt. Vernon's (Wash.) most highly esteemed citizens, passed away at his home, Friday evening, after an illness of only two weeks' duration.

The deceased was born in Lunenburg County, N. S., November 30th., 1856, and was one of a family of six children. His first twenty-one years of his life were spent in Bear River, and then hearing of the opportunities of the great Northwest district, he crossed the continent, and has made his home in that country ever since. For the past two score years Mr. MacLean has taken an active part in the progress of his community, and was prominently identified with the Avon I. O. O. F. Lodge from the time of its organization. Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Nellie MacLean, two step-children, Mrs. J. N. Parker, of Mt. Vernon; and Harry Harvey, of New Brunswick; a sister, Mrs. J. H. Berry, of Bear River; and a brother, Norman MacLean, of Grand Manan, N. B. Funeral services were held Sunday, in the I. O. O. F. Hall, in Mt. Vernon. Casket bearers were brother members of that Lodge. Lamentation was made in the local mausoleum in the presence of a large assemblage of sorrowing friends.

Gerald Reginald Rice

Gerald Reginald Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Rice, passed away on Tuesday evening, May 10th., after an illness of over three weeks. He was a bright, winsome little lad of 10 years of age, and will be greatly missed at home and at school. He is survived by his parents, three sisters and two brothers. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon from his late home, the service being conducted by Rev. A. A. MacLeod, assisted by Rev. P. C. Henderson. The Grades III, IV and V pupils of Oakdene School marched. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. Interment was made in Mount Hope cemetery.

A broken promise is hard to mend.

All who attended the service on Friday last were delighted with the address of Dr. Outerbridge. Miss Ethel Chapman makes this novel LUXOR CAKE with Magic Baking Powder

"My advice to all housewives, both skilled and inexperienced, is: Use Magic Baking Powder. Then there is no uncertainty about your baking," says Miss Ethel Chapman, Editor of the Home Section in the Ontario Farmer.

This unqualified statement is particularly impressive because thrifty Canadian home makers have learned that Miss Chapman's advice is invariably practical.

Other well-known food experts and cookery teachers in the Dominion share Miss Chapman's high opinion of Magic. In fact, the majority of them—and housewives, too—use Magic exclusively. No wonder Magic outsells all other baking powders combined!

Miss Chapman's recipe for "LUXOR CAKE"

1 cup fine granulated sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/2 cup egg yolks
1/2 cup lukewarm water
1/2 teaspoon Magic Soda
1 1/2 cups pastry flour (or 3 tablespoons less of bread flour)
2 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

Sift sugar. Measure out 2 tablespoons, pour on vanilla extract and set aside. Add water and soda to egg yolks: beat with egg beater until foamy. Add sugar a little at a time, beating in well. Add flavored sugar and beat. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Fold carefully into mixture: pour in ungreased cake pan. Bake in moderate oven at 350° F. for 40 to 45 minutes. Invert pan and let stand until cake is cold, when, with the aid of a spatula, it will slip from pan. Remove all crumbs and moist crust from surface and cut in three layers. Spread Lemon Cream Filling between layers. Top and sides with Marshmallows. Seven Minute Frosting. (Recipes for filling and frosting are in the Magic Cook Book—see free offer below.)

FREE—Send for the Magic Cook Book to use when you bake at home. Address: Standard Brands Ltd., Fraser Ave. and Liberty Street, Toronto, Ont.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT AT WEYMOUTH NORTH

A bad automobile accident occurred at Weymouth North, on Saturday morning, when a Plymouth Sedan, owned by William Westhaver, of Digby, and operated by Gerald Tupper of the same place, crashed through the bridge railing in front of the Post Office and took a nose dive into the brook. The car was proceeding down the Church Hill when it got out of control, and after zig-zagging across the road several times, finally crashed through the Bridge railing, and went down into the brook, a drop of about 10 feet. The car turned completely over, smashing it badly. Mr. Tupper was cut severely by broken glass, but escaped serious injuries. He was given first aid by people residing nearby and Dr. E. A. Fergusson was called, who took him to his office, where he received medical attention to the wounds. Later in the day the wrecking car came from Digby and removed the wrecked car.

The Ashmore team was considerably weakened due to the absence of one of its prominent members.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

When a bit of sunshine hits ye
After passing of a cloud.
When a fit of laughter gits ye
And ye're spine is feelin' proud,
Don't forget to up and fling it
At a soul that's feelin' blue.
For the minute that ye sling it
It's a boomerang to you!
—Capt. Jack Crawford.

Obituary

Mrs. George J. Walsh
The death of Mrs. George J. Walsh, one of the oldest residents of this place, occurred at her home in Weymouth, on May 2, after an illness which had confined her to her bed for nine months, during which time she had been a great sufferer, but had borne it with great patience. Deceased who was in her 91st year, had good use of all of her faculties until the very last. She was before her marriage Anne Lovitt, daughter of the late Catherine Roberts Lovitt, and James Lovitt, of Weymouth. Her husband, George J. Walsh, predeceased her twenty-five years ago. She is survived by four daughters and three sons, Sister Frances Borgia, of St. Mary's Convent, Halifax; Mrs. David Mallet, of Malden, Mass., who came here for the funeral; Mrs. J. D. Thirau, of Long Beach, California; Grace, at home, who cared for her during her illness; Ernest, at home; Rev. Father George J. Walsh, of Sioux Falls, Dakota; and Charlie, also of Weymouth. Also several cousins. The large number of Mass cards, beautiful floral offerings, as well as the letters and cards of sympathy received, attested to the high esteem in which she was held by her large circle of friends.

RAISIN CAKE

First take one cup of butter.
All golden pure, and sweet,
Then two cups of white sugar,
And these together beat.
Three eggs all lightly foaming;
Of good, sweet milk one cup.
Put in a little soda
To lightly raise it up.
Then two teaspoons cream tartar.
And give a lemon rind—
Twill give a pleasant flavor.
I'm sure that you will find.
Then add one cup of raisins,
And just four cups of flour.
And set it in the oven.
And bake it just an hour.
I know 'twill be a nice one,
If but just right it bakes;
I know 'twill please your husband
When he shall taste the cake.

COLLEGE CHAPEL DEDICATED BY BISHOP LEBLANC

With traditional pomp and ceremony, the new chapel of St. Joseph's University, St. Joseph, N. B., was dedicated May 3rd, by His Excellency Rt. Rev. E. A. LeBlanc, Bishop of Saint John, formerly of Weymouth, assisted by other dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church. Numerous prelates of the church, as well as clergymen from every section of the province and from Quebec and other places outside the immediate diocese, were in attendance.

W. R. Harris, of Weymouth, Digby County's dealer in Fords, told us this week that, contrary to all reports, the new Fords are being received by the dealers and that he has some on the way now and expects delivery this week. On a test made in Saint John last week, a Ford V-8 Coupe did 44.2 miles on two gallons of gas, which proves conclusively that Mr. Ford has maintained the economical operation of his new cars, as well as giving wonderful values in prices.

BOIL IT DOWN

Whatever you have to say, my friend,
Whether witty, or grave or gay,
Condense as much as ever you can
And say in the readiest way.
And whether you can write of rural affairs,
Or particular things in town,
Just take a word of friendly advice,
Boil it down.
For if you go spluttering over a page
When a couple of lines would do,
Your butter is spread so much, you see,
That the bread shines plainly through.
So when you have a story to tell
And would like a little renown,
To make quite sure of your wish,
My friend,
Boil it down.
When writing an article for the press,
Whether prose or verse, just try
To utter your thoughts in the fewest words,
And let them be crisp and dry.
And when it is finished and you suppose
Its done exactly brown,
Just look it over again, and then
Boil it down.

One Sunday morning a member of a Church that could not boast of a new organ met a friend who belonged to a church that had just purchased one. "I hear you've got a new organ," he said, "Now all you need is a monkey."
"And all you need is an organ," his friend answered with a smile.

"So Bill married the girl, eh? Well, I'm not surprised; he used to say she was his aspiration."
"Now she's his ex!"
"What, his ex-wife?"
"No, his exasperation."

Magistrate — "So you and your wife have been fighting again. Liquor?"
Prisoner — "No, sir. She licked me this time."

For editors do not like to print an article lazily long;
And the general reader does not care
For a couple of yards of a song.
So gather your wits in the smallest space.
If you'd win in the author's crown;
And every time you write, my friend
Boil it down.

—A. U.

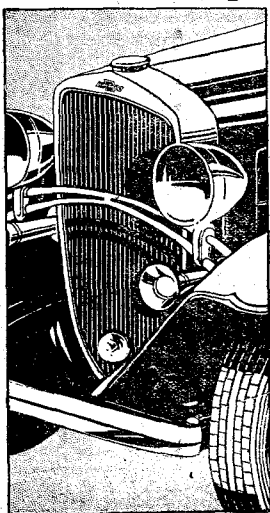

BALANCED

Smoothness and Economy!

... the reason why
"It's wise to choose this Six"

ONCE you really study the Chevrolet Six, you'll know immediately why so many motorists are saying "It's wiser than ever to choose this Six". Study the engine, for example. Long ago Chevrolet pioneered the six-cylinder engine in the low price field because this type of power plant strikes a perfect balance of smooth performance and maximum economy. It is a fact that the Chevrolet Six costs less for gasoline, oil and upkeep than any other full-size car! In addition, the Chevrolet Six gives you more actual horsepower in the normal driving range—balanced power, for quick acceleration and effortless speed. And this six-cylinder engine has been proved reliable by more than 2,000,000 owners in billions of miles of driving.

Ask your friends about the Chevrolet Six; come to our showrooms and drive it. Remember, you can have immediate delivery of any Chevrolet model—at new, reduced prices—and on easy monthly payment terms.

Friday morning last the pupils of the High School planted a number of Scotch pines in celebration of Arbor Day.

On Friday evening the Digby High School Girls' Basketball team defeated the girls of Annapolis High, by a score of 22 to 20. The game was very fast and clean throughout. Both teams played a wonderful game, although the Annapolis girls were rather handicapped because of their unfamiliarity with the hall. In the first half of the game the Digby team kept well ahead, but towards the last Annapolis was playing a much better game and for awhile it looked rather bad for Digby, but however, Digby rallied and they were still in the lead when the game ended.

Able to go to all the Dances

"When I was 16 I was 52! my people thought I was going to die," writes Mrs. Annie Wilson, Sussex Ave., Toronto. "I had scarcely any blood, and was so weak I could hardly walk. Had no appetite and I lost ground every day for a long time, until a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got them, and before I had finished the first box I was feeling much better. I continued taking the Pills until I was completely well. I went to all the dances and had the time of my life again. I certainly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any one who is anemic or run-down in any way, for they certainly rebuilt my health."

Don't let anaemia rob your growing daughter of health and vigor. Give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They banish the condition by creating new blood which imparts health, vigour and vitality. Equally good for all run-down or nervous conditions. At your druggist's. 50c. a package.

Digby Man Injured At Bear River Bridge

Carroll Barr, of Digby, an employee of the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Company, met with a painful accident on Tuesday morning, while working with a submarine cable which crosses under the Bear River, at the Victoria Bridge. Barr had one end of the heavy cable in his hand, when in some way it sprung, striking him in the face and breaking his cheek bone.

2,500 Circulation, Our Aim

Just at present the Digby Courier is conducting a quiet subscription drive with the aim of bringing up their subscription list to the 2,500 figure. Since the first of the year more than 300 new subscribers have been added to our list. As an inducement to new subscribers we are making a special offer for the next few weeks—a four month's subscription to the Courier to any address in Canada for twenty-five cents. Can you beat that?

We have been particularly pleased of late to hear how our readers are enjoying the paper. Almost every mail brings letters commenting favorably on our efforts, and we assure our readers we are doing our utmost to make the Courier one of the best country weeklies published.

The Princess Helene on the 24th of May, brought over a number of passengers to spend the day in Digby. We hear rumours that regular Sunday excursions will be run on this boat this summer.

Summer Tourist Season Opens In Digby

Digby's summer tourist season for the year 1932 has opened. On Monday night the Myrtle Hotel, one of the most popular of summer resorts was formally opened by a dinner and dance with the Digby Kiwanis Club in attendance. Other smaller hotels have also opened for the season and already a few tourists have arrived and American cars are more or less in evidence.

In the Bear River district sportsmen are arriving every day to spend a few days in the woods. Trout fishing and big game hunting is one of the greatest assets this section of the country has to draw tourists from "across the line."

NOVA SCOTIANS ARE PRIN- CIPALS IN DEATH CASE

Bear River Woman is Found Dead from Strangulation in Her Home in Montreal

A few words slipped by a child and a piece of string were expected to play an important part when an inquest opened in Montreal, on Wednesday into the death by strangulation of Muriel McLeod, 30, also known as Edith Glode.

She was found dead Saturday in the home which she shared with Phillip Frank Kane, 36, colored, and her four year old adopted son, Albert Giroux. The couple were originally from Nova Scotia, the woman who is an Indian from Bear River, and the man from Halifax. Kane was taken into custody and ordered held as a material witness for the inquest.

Police officials announced that the child had told them he saw his mother's death. He spoke with difficulty, making gestures to show detectives what he meant.

Early Saturday morning Kane summoned Dr. Romeo Boucher informing him that his wife was unconscious. The doctor pronounced her death from strangulation. The woman, dressed in an out-door costume, was lying on a bed, her neck showing a deep groove. There was no blood and no indication of a struggle.

Kane, according to the police, stated the woman had collapsed upon entering the apartment, complaining that someone on the street had tried to strangle her.

Searching for the means of strangulation detectives discovered a piece of parcel string hidden under a cement slab in the yard at the rear of the house. Dr. Rossaire Fontaine, provincial medico-legal expert, was out of the statement that the string fitted the woman's neck. He was positive it was the cause of death.

The boy, who was in a cot in the same room, was then questioned by detectives.

ACADEMY NOTES

On Thursday evening of last week the Girls' Basketball Team played the girls of Annapolis High in Annapolis Royal. The game ended in a win for Annapolis by a score of 34-28 points.

It was a very fast game, well played by both teams. Digby's weak point lay in the changing of the lineup; the subs were not so well versed in the combination plays as the regular players. In all however, the Digby team made a very good showing and all the players are to be commended on their fine work. The speedy plays and fine combination work of the Annapolis team were admired by all who saw the game and certainly reflect credit on the coach, Mr. Dunbar.

On Friday morning Mr. Boden addressed the High School on the development of learning from the earliest age of man up until the present time. One very interesting part of this talk was the description of how man first learned to talk and to use fire for warming himself and for cooking. A prize has been offered for the best essay on any one or any series of Mr. Boden's talks and many of the pupils are planning to compete. The essays are to be handed in to Mr. Purdy before the first of June.

Tennis Club Opening Tomorrow

The Tennis Club will be officially opened on Saturday of this week. Players from outside points will be here. Digby, Annapolis, Bear River and Weymouth will be represented at this grand opening day on the Digby Tennis Courts. Paul Yates will be on hand to photograph the group for the Halifax Herald. Don't miss this good time. Tea will be served from 4 to 6 at a cost of 25c.

The school kids are already counting the days between now and summer vacation.

No bulk tea available today at so-called bargain prices compares with MORSE'S (red label) 25 1-pounds packages at 45 cents per pound, or 23 cents per half pound. MORSE'S (red label) not only tastes better but it will spend better by about 50 per cent.

Church Point and Weymouth Win

The schedule of the Digby County Baseball League opened yesterday afternoon, when Digby entertained Church Point, on the Academy Grounds, and the Weymouth team journeyed to Barton. Church Point defeated Digby by a score of 8-3 before a large crowd. At Barton the boys from Weymouth won 24-8.

Building Operations Numerous in County

One has only to take a drive through the county, especially along the Saint Mary's Bay shore and back of Weymouth, to see that, in spite of the depression, many new buildings are under construction—nothing large or startling, but nevertheless. The frame work may be going up for someone's new house, a new cellar may be being dug, or an ell or other additions added. New barns and garages are quite numerous.

Kiwanians Meet

A happy opening to the holiday took place last Monday night, when the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club was held to coincide with the opening of the Myrtle Hotel, Augustus Spurr, proprietor, having suggested that date so that the holiday plans should not be interfered with. The dining room was gaily decorated with the Kiwanis colors and flags. Major Maynard Denton, president of the club, presided, and Alfred Boden gave the toast, to "The Ladies." Music was supplied by the Digby orchestra. After dinner three bridge tables were set up in the lounge, but the big dance floor was crowded until a late hour.

The signature of the President of the bank which issued the note was that of J. W. Merkel, grandfather of J. W. Merkel, of Digby.

This story is told by G. C. Murray in the May issue of "Port and Province," a monthly magazine which has just been launched at Halifax.

The incident is used to illustrate the stability of the Canadian banking system.

Eric VanTassel and Fraser Handspeiser spent the week-end in Yarmouth.

Digby Golf Course To Open June 1st

The Digby nine-hole Golf Course will be opened to the public on Wednesday, June 1st. The grounds are in excellent condition, and it is expected that many of the local golf enthusiasts will be chasing the ball over the greens on that day. This course, which is one of the best known nine-hole courses in the Maritimes, will be under the management this year of Vernon Franklin and James Franklin, who have leased it from the Digby Golf Co., Ltd.

Stability of Canadian System Is Illustrated

A $20 note issued by the Merchant's Bank of Halifax in 1864 turned up recently at The Royal Bank office in that city. When the banknote appeared, no one knew anything about the issuing bank, but it was subsequently discovered that it was the predecessor of the banking institution incorporated under that name in 1869, and which was succeeded some thirty years later by The Royal Bank of Canada. The Royal Bank, therefore, recognized its liability and redeemed the note at its face value.

The signature of the President of the bank which issued the note was that of J. W. Merkel, grandfather of J. W. Merkel, of Digby.

SUGGESTIONS WELL RECEIVED

We regret that in our last week's issue the two key words of the title of Dr. Bogart's letter were inadvertently transposed. It should have read: "A Better and A Bigger Digby." The asterisks should have been omitted from the concluding paragraph of column three, which should be read in connection with section (14) of "Suggested Remedies and Improvements."

While the major improvements suggested await better times, we are already pleased to note the inauguration of a Clean Up Digby campaign, as one after another of our citizens, under the inspiration or stimulus of their women folk, gathers up and disposes of unsightly rubbish.

We may have to wait until next year for the paving of Water Street and associated improvements, but in the meantime we are pleased to note the inauguration of a Clean Up Digby campaign, as one after another of our citizens, under the inspiration or stimulus of their women folk, gathers up and disposes of unsightly rubbish.

Certainly the thanks of the community are due to Dr. Bogart for his comprehensive review of our fundamentals and his forward-looking suggestions, most of which we heartily endorse, and which we are already endeavoring to put into effect. We are also indebted to him for his commendable attitude, let us rather accept his letter in the spirit in which it was written, look around and see what can be done toward carrying some of his less expensive suggestions into effect.

REIGNS OF BRITISH SOVEREIGNS

When King George observed the anniversary of his accession last week it was the 22nd year of his reign and by strange coincidence made him 22nd annual British sovereigns in length of his reign, his grandmother having the longest. An exchange has made up the following showing the number of years other British sovereigns occupied the throne:

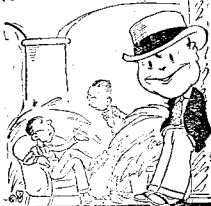

- Victoria, 63 years
- George III, 59
- Henry III, 56
- Edward III, 50
- Elizabeth, 44
- Henry VI, 39
- Henry VIII, 39
- Edward II, 37
- Charles II, 36
- Henry I, 35
- Henry II, 35
- Edward I, 35
- George II, 33
- Alfred the Great, 30
- Edward the Elder, 24
- Edward the Confessor, 34
- Henry VII, 24
- Charles I, 24
- Richard II, 22
- Edward IV, 22
- James I, 22

Canadian weather experts predict for 1932 an unusually high number of lightning storms under such dry conditions as invite forest fires. This means that forest fire rangers, greatly reduced in numbers during 1932, will have to depend more than ever upon the public for active aid in reporting and subduing outbreaks.

Investigations have shown that trout lakes and streams must have a low temperature to successfully breed fish and that trout waters in a deforested area are soon barren of sport. The cool waters that come from tree-covered lands are a prime essential in successful fishing.

Out in the National Park, a little fellow, seeing a deer that had lost one of its antlers, exclaimed, "Oh, look, mother, that deer has only one hat rack."

Smilin' Charlie Says

"Let me tell you—our ancestors didn't get that way sittin' back and talkin' about their predecessors!"

AN ANCIENT DEPRESSION

Many people are asking whether there was ever a time like this. Apparently there was. A life insurance president, delving into history, produces the following passage:

"The laws are cast out, and men walk upon them in public. The law-breaker is lord of wealth; the rich man has lost all. Scanty is gold; craftsmen are without work; the reaper of the harvest gets nothing, while he who plowed profits not. The land is depleted. I show thee a land turned upside down."

The language is a bit old-fashioned, but one easily gets the idea. This woe-filled wall was written in the Egyptian city of Memphis 5000 years ago. And did Egypt go completely to the dogs? Not at all. A few years later, the records show, it was abounding in prosperity again, the righteous making money as well as the wicked. And probably it will be the same way with us.

AUTOMOBILE MORE FATAL THAN WAR

New York Herald-Tribune:—In all the more civilized countries there is a war going on today which because it is a war without banners, trenches, generals, spectacular sieges, gallant attacks and stubborn defenders, receives virtually no attention from the public, all of whom are themselves potential, frequently actual, victims. Measured by the number of these victims, this unknown, secret and uninteresting warfare is far more deadly than many of the struggles that have made history and shaken nations. Last year four times as many citizens of Great Britain were killed and maimed by automobiles as there were casualties in the entire Boer War; and every year since the armistice almost as many Americans have been run over or hurled through windshields as died fighting against Germany.

Yet people in general are not at all excited about the chronic, universal slaughter, and seem to accept it as one of the penalties that must be paid for being civilized. There are, curiously enough, no pacifists among us to demand safety for the pedestrian at any price; no anti-automobile societies to invoke the Sixth commandment and form leagues against the god of the machine—who, in the long run, may turn out to be more merciless than Mars. If the 6,691 English men and women who were killed last year, had the empire, Cabinets would have lost their lives for the glory of fallen; if the 30,000 Americans who were killed by their own or somebody else's sedan, had perished in uniform, we should have had—at the very least—several hundred million words of anti-militaristic protest. But the war of attrition, waged by the automobile against its own creators, goes on day by day; the theatre of that war is the public highway, its casualties are quiet, ordinary people, so no one rises to agitate against its horrors. For horrors to a headline society do not seem horrible unless they are sensational, and on this front there will probably never be any armistice.

PLANT FOR PRODUCTION OF TUNGSTEN

Shareholders Indian Path Mines Limited Decide on Action

That sufficient quantities of ore had been discovered in the Indian Path Mines, Lunenburg County, to warrant the establishing of a plant this summer for the production of tungsten, was the decision of the shareholders of the Indian Path Mines Limited during their third annual meeting held in St. Paul Building, Halifax, and during which E. Hart Nichols, K. C., was again elected president of the company.

The annual report showed progress during 1931. The work during the past year consisted of diamond drilling during which seven holes were dug proving chert deposits to a depth of 150 feet and in one place 200 feet wide. In addition a new shaft was sunk 50 feet and proved two leads, one of five feet in width and the other seven feet. The shareholders considered the outlook very bright and decided to proceed with further developments during 1932.

Large Market

The new plant will be used for gathering the ore and producing tungsten concentrates. The finished product is used in large steel industries for hardening steel. United States uses more than half the tungsten produced in the world while ready markets are also found in England and Germany. The substance sold in New York last year for between $1100 and $1200 per ton. It was decided during the meeting to put up for sale a number of shares of stock in the mines.

Figures show that there are more than 200 shareholders at present. These reside in all parts of the Maritimes. The only new director appointed was A. W. Schwartz, ex-mayor of Lunenburg, who will replace W. K. McKean.

The other directors are A. B. Wiswell, vice-president; Gerald P. Flavin, secretary-treasurer; Harold Oxley, W. A. Watt, Albert Wisdom, and the president.

The body of Angus McDonald, Westmont boat-builder, who disappeared on Jan. 30, was found floating in the Sydney Harbor waters last week. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by drowning when medical examination revealed no evidence of foul play.

IN THE INTEREST OF TROUT

To the Editor of the Courier:

Sir:—Would you kindly allow space for me to express my opinion in regard to the practice of some sportsmen (if we may call them such) of catching more trout than they need for food, when they happen to find good fishing, and returning them to the water again. I was very much surprised a year or so ago to hear a guide say that he was with some sports from outside of our country, and that after they had caught in a few minutes, all the party wanted to make use of, that they still kept on fishing half a day and returned them to the water.

Personally, I do not believe this should be allowed by law, and I do not see how any real sportsman would want to do it. If they are not satisfied to take what they need for their eating and some to take home with them, then let them stay away altogether.

There is no doubt but what a large percentage of these fish die after being returned to the water. After being half drowned in bringing them to net, and then being handled and held to extract the hook, and then held up awhile in the sunlight to be admired and compared with the last one caught or the one just caught by a companion, the poor fish is pretty well past the surviving stage before it gets back to its native element.

I have inquired into this matter a good deal, and most all guides and naturalists agree that a percentage of these fish will die, and especially if caught in the gills or if roughly handled with dry hands. I have been more than once reminded of the fact that at the hatchery, trout are handled and still survive. I took the trouble to ask the proprietor of the Government Hatchery in Yarmouth County, and he said that if handled carefully they may not be injured, but agreed that where handled so as to take off their scales, or when badly hooked they would die. Anyway, I don't have to ask anyone, for I know some things by experience. Many times I have put back small trout, too small to keep, and have done it with the greatest care, and perhaps when I first put back they would go off with a dart, leading one to believe that they were no worse for their experience, when perhaps, in ten minutes' time I would see the fish a few rods away floating belly up, half, or quite dead.

Trout are very scarce in most of the streams in this vicinity, where thirty years ago there were hundreds of them. Incessant fishing, both winter and summer, has about exterminated them, so there are not many times that sportsmen can get many to throw back, but this practise should be forbidden by law, and is already forbidden by common sense.

Oddfellows Gather at Digby for Parley

The first meeting of Oddfellows District No. 10, comprised of the ten lodges from Middleton to Westport, was held here Friday afternoon with a fair representation. D. D. G. M. A. A. Shortliffe, of Digby, presided, and J. J. MacKinnon, of Charlottetown, the Grand Secretary, was present. The session was an interesting one and much business was dealt with. On the whole the lodges in the district are not feeling the depression as much as could be expected. The finances are keeping about up to the average but the membership is showing a slight decline. At the close of the afternoon the delegates were guests of St. George Lodge, of Digby, at a chicken dinner.

Many of the visitors remained until evening, when St. George Lodge conferred the initiatory degree.

She will be named "Nashwaak."

Motor vessel Baronet, which was built by the Meteghan Shipbuilding Company last winter, was launched from railway No. 1 last week after having undergone repairs, and sailed for Yarmouth.

Motor vessel Alva J. Kenney, of Westport which has undergone repairs at Meteghan, has returned to her home port.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

When you go out in the morning, To begin the work of the day, Don't neglect the little chances You will find along the way; For in lifting another's burden, And speaking a word of cheer, You will find your own cares lighter, And easier far to bear.
—Mrs. F. S. Lovejoy

Tommy (to father)—"Say, dad, what's a hypocrite?" His father—"A hypocrite, my son, is a man going to work at four o'clock on a wet, cold morning, singing, 'All the world will be jealous of me.'"

The salmon run in the river this year promises to be large, if indications shown by the first pursing of fish traps can be taken as a criterion. The Burn Point trap made the first pursing of the season on Friday, the 20th., and took a good catch of salmon and shad, a few mackerel and a large take of gaspareaux and herring, besides the usual mixture. On Tuesday of last week, the Cranberry Head and Sandford traps made the first time this year, and their results were similar to the catches at Burn Point. All traps have since shown an increase in the number of mackerel taken.

But Chevrolet Also Gives You

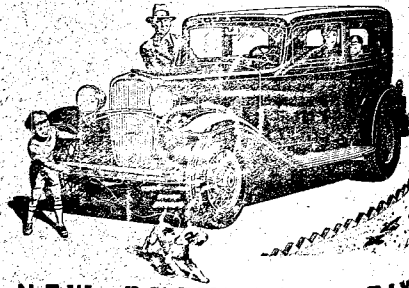

PROVED DESIGN

Of course, you want the new advancements in the car you buy today—easy gear-shifting—free wheeling—smoother, more powerful performance—better riding qualities! And you get them all in the Chevrolet Six—plus proved design. That is why the Chevrolet type of "economical transportation" is so much more enjoyable and satisfying.

Chevrolet is the lowest-priced car on the market combining Silent, Syncro-Mesh Shifting with Free Wheeling! Chevrolet gives you easy-going speed, and more power for acceleration, when you need it most. The Chevrolet engine is mounted on thick rubber blocks, utilizing the most modern method of preventing vibration of body, fenders and doors! Only the Chevrolet Six in the low price field offers you the extra roominess and style of body by Fisher! The sturdy foundation of Chevrolet riding comfort is a long, strong frame with four modern, lengthwise-mounted springs and four Lovejoy shock absorbers!

And Chevrolet's balanced six-cylinder design—as well as every other vital part of the car—has been proved reliable by more than 2,000,000 owners, in billions of miles of service! Chevrolet long ago pioneered the six-cylinder engine in the low price field because this type of power plant strikes a perfect balance of smoothness and economy.

Nothing less than six cylinders can give multi-cylinder smoothness—anything more than a Six would mean a sacrifice of economy. It is a fact that the Chevrolet Six costs less for gasoline, oil and upkeep than any other full-size car! It costs less to own, too—at its new, reduced prices. Your present car will probably take care of the down payment, and you can pay the balance in easy installments over a period of months.

"My age is 48—which every woman knows is a critical time of life—when I derived such benefits from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that I felt so tired and depressed, could not sleep; my appetite was impaired; my skin and lips were pallid. I could not make any headway with my housework. I got discouraged, as tonic after tonic did not better my condition. My sister, a graduate nurse, advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking a few boxes my condition greatly improved. My sleep was restful and my natural color and appetite returned."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills rebuild health by creating new blood and increasing the red blood cells, which restore the wasted tissues and revitalize the exhausted system. SERIES OF BREAKS AT WEYMOUTH

A series of breaks occurred here at some time during Wednesday night last by burglars evidently in search of money only, but which they were unsuccessful in getting.

At G. O. Hankinson's store the window of the office at the back had been broken and the glass was strewn all over the floor. The front of the cash register was badly smashed and a small sum of money in silver amounting to about $2.00 taken from two of the drawers in the register, while the drawer containing the remainder of the money had been untouched. The post office, next door had also been entered by a back window, but with the exception of a few pennies, nothing had been taken. H. M. Mullen's store, directly across the street from Hankinson's, also had the office window at the back broken but as the shutters inside the window were securely fastened no entrance had been gained. Had the burglars been successful in entering this store they undoubtedly would have had better luck as Mr. Mullen had been in the store late in the evening and had unintentionally left the safe open. L. W. Jones' store, next door to Mullen's, looked as if an attempt to enter had been started but not completed; possibly the offender had been scared away by someone approaching.

The post office and the stores are all situated in the centre of the business block, and as there are no people living very near, the nearest being Edmund Comeau, at the extreme south, and A. J. Smith, at the north, the break could have been accomplished without much danger of the breaking glass being heard.

Constables Hetherington and Kiggins, of the R. C. M. P., of Digby, were sent for as soon as the breaks were discovered, and they are investigating.

Bear River, A Beauty Spot

To the Editor of the Courier, Sir:—Joseph Howe, the poet, statesman, orator and prophet, had a great love for his native province, a profound and unbounded enthusiasm for its interests, its lovely beauty and its outstanding opportunities.

Could he but see the glories of the hills in and about the young Switzerland of America this day as I pen these words, resplendent with the touch of God's beauty, enshrined amongst the hills, cradled as it were in the hollow of His hand, he would realize as never before that which no pen can describe, no tongue can recite, and which no fiction can indite, the sublime beauty of "A magnificent Country."

This short yet genuine tribute from a citizen of Weymouth passes in all its sincerity to our neighboring community Bear River.

Did people but know; ah! there's the rub, for they do not know, they do not realize their opportunities, otherwise there would be a Cherry Blossom Day that would commit Bear River to an outstanding place in the beautiful sight seeing places of this province that is unique in its magnificent splendour.

A recent winter visitor to Florida and the Southern States said to me but yesterday that she saw absolutely nothing in her ten thousand miles of journey throughout that section of the United States to compare with that which her eyes beheld as she gazed from the high hills across the valley to the steep rising slopes on the other side. We need to get away from home often in order to appreciate fully the beauties that lie near at hand. How true.

Lloyd H. Potter, Weymouth, N. S., May 24, 1932.

SCOUT NOTES

Last week the Bear River Scouts, accompanied by the Scoutmaster, held their first summer camp, lasting from Friday until Monday morning. Very few of the Scouts had been in the Big Lake Country, so it was decided to have a trip there and make headquarters at the "Dingle" at the head of Big Lake. The party, consisting of ten, drove in car out to the Lake and from there finished the trip by boat and canoe.

The weather was ideal and continued fine, so this active bunch were on the move all the time from daylight until dark. Fishing, boating, canoeing, swimming, hiking and eating during the day and a rally around the open fire in the evening, and then a few hours in bed before starting again.

Each pair of Scouts were responsible for preparing and serving two meals and the way the grub disappeared showed that their efforts must have been successful.

All of the inlets into both Big Lake and Long Lake were explored and their fishing possibilities tested—the North East, John William Meadow, the Mississippi, Hatt Cove and South Stillwater. The North East seemed to be the favorite, although South Stillwater looked good, but no fishing was done there since it was only visited during a Sunday afternoon ramble.

On coming down the Lake on Monday, to return home, the Scouts were met at the Boat Landing with a barbed wire of black flies, so they decided that their trip had taken place a just the right time, and also finished at just the right time to escape the early crop of flies and mosquitoes.

PHILATHEA CLASS SOCIAL

The Philathea Ladies' Bible Class of the Bear River United Baptist Church, held their monthly business meeting and social in the Church vestry, the second Thursday evening in May, about 65 members of the class and their friends attended. Following the business meeting, the convenor of the programme committee, Mrs. Carol Clarke, announced the following programme:

Refreshments were served by the committee in charge of Mrs. Elvin Darras. The thoughtfulness of the class in remembering the mothers was greatly appreciated and the ardent wish was expressed that this meeting be held annually on the Thursday following Mother's Day.

HIGHEST CREAM PRICES

Our returns for April were 22 cents per pound butterfat.

It is the average price for the month that counts and not the price for any one week.

Yarmouth Creamery

Miss Campbell's Recipe for Cup Cakes

3/4 cup butter 2 cups heavy flour
1 cup sugar (or 1 1/2 cups bread flour)
2 eggs 3 teaspoons Magic 1/2 teaspoon vanilla 3 teaspoons Magic
1/2 teaspoon salt 1 cup milk
Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar a little at a time, beating well. Add yolks of eggs and vanilla; beat well. Sift flour with baking powder and salt, and add, alternating with milk, to first mixture. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in greased cup cake tins, or in paper baking cups, in moderate oven at 375° F. for 25 minutes. Serve warm from the oven, sprinkled with powdered sugar. Or cool, and frost the tops. You will find many delicious frosting recipes in the Magic Cook Book.

"Cup Cakes are delicious when made with Magic Baking Powder," says Miss Helen Campbell, Director of The Chatelaine Institute

"Good baking goes hand in hand with good materials," Miss Campbell will tell you.

That's why Magic Baking Powder is used and recommended by The Chatelaine Institute. Magic meets all the Institute's rigid requirements of fine quality—repeated tests have proved it absolutely pure, uniform and dependable.

The majority of dietitians and teachers of cookery throughout Canada plan their recipes for Magic. They use it exclusively because they know it gives consistently better results.

And 3 out of 4 Canadian housewives say Magic is their favorite. It outsells all other baking powders combined.

Remember—substitutes are never as good. Do as the experts do. Use Magic Baking Powder.

Free Cook Book—When you bake at home, the new Magic Cook Book will give you dozens of recipes for delicious baked foods. Write to Standard Brands Limited, Fraser Avenue and Liberty Street, Toronto, Ontario.

When

PAIN

Comes

WHAT many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sour. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes the acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water neutralizes instantly many times that much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go, get a small bottle to try.

EXPORT MEN IN GREAT

"GET-TOGETHER"

The Export Managers' Club, of New York, recently held their annual "Get together" convention. This club is made up of the heads of the export departments of many of America's greatest industries, and calls together representatives of the wealthiest and largest corporations to consider the export business of the United States. The Export Trade and Finance, the leading journal for exporters, published in New York, says:

C. E. THOMAS

Treasurer, Export Managers' Club of New York

"After a season of unparalleled advance, the export trade of the United States as a whole met with a check that was sudden and severe and unusually prolonged. To this in isolated commodities there were noteworthy and gratifying exceptions. The situation now confronting the nation's foreign trade presents in many formerly profitable sections of the world market novel and unforeseen obstacles which require the devising of carefully planned measures on the part of American exporters before they can successfully cope with them.

"The widespread unemployment throughout the country, more than tons of literature or scores of mass meetings, has brought close to the minds of the people of the United States the importance of foreign trade to the average American family and individual and to the country as a whole.

"And for this reason the 1932 'Get-Together' was not only a great event among those directly concerned with foreign trade, but also commanded the serious attention of the captains of industry, directors of corporations, the business world in general, and the people at large."

One of the leading officials of this very important club is C. E. Thomas, formerly of Barton, a son of Mrs. Elsie Thomas, of that village. He holds the important position of treasurer and is considered as one of the leading export experts in America. Through the kindness of "Export Trade and Finance" we are enabled to use his photo-

Tiverton Players Present Play

The three act drama, "The Path Across the Hill," was presented in the I. O. O. F. Hall, at Tiverton, on Saturday evening, by Tiverton players. The parts were all well taken and it would be impossible to say that one character excelled the other.

Lloyd Outhouse, as Grandpa Crawford, who had labored for fifty years with a guilty conscience, but who was repaid by his granddaughter, Ruth, ably played by Miss Freelove Outhouse. Ruth's erring brother was strongly played by Miss Gertrude Elliott, as Grandma Davis, who proposed, and carried her part with such a sunny manner. Other characters were Dr. Jimmie Reed, the untrue lover, played by Elbourne Clifford; Robert Post, the summer visitor full of vengeance, played by Chester Outhouse; Filo Gray, Ruth's flapper cousin, played by Miss Margaret Cossaboom; Lutie, a neighbor, who had a bad cold and in love with Walter, played by Miss Barbara Pyne; Zuzu, the colored cook, played by Mrs. Ruel Outhouse, and Zuzu's husband, Salamander Alexander John Henry Jones, played by Otis Outhouse, who all took their parts exceptionally well.

Specialties between the acts were:—

Duet—"In the Valley Where the Blue Bells Grew"—Margaret Cossaboom and Otis Outhouse.

Violin and Piano Selections by Mrs. Ruel Outhouse and Reginald Titus.

Step Dancing—Hampton Outhouse.

Solo—"Lonesome for You"—Otis Outhouse.

Recitation—"Nobody" followed by a Negro Song—"Little Old Log Cabin in de Lane"—Otis Outhouse.

Recitation—"We Were Born in Canada," by Barbara Pyne and Free-love Outhouse, who were dressed in Canadian flags.

This recitation was followed by a chorus, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall" by the players.

Solo—"I Don't Work for a Living"—Otis Outhouse.

God Save the King.

During the specialties Otis Outhouse and Hampton Outhouse were heartily encored.

Following the play a dance was enjoyed by the young folks.

Lobster Fishing Season Ends

The lobster fishing season in the Western section of Nova Scotia closed on Friday of last week, May 20th. The catch this year was not much to brag about, and prices generally were lower than they have been in years. Many of the fishermen, especially those along the Saint Mary's Bay ports hauled up their boats earlier in the season, because, they said, they lost money every time they went out to haul their traps.

Shore fishing is reported to be a little better now than it has been for a few weeks, and many fishermen are selling their catches to local dealers. Prices, however, are still low.

This last week-end and the 24th of May saw many sportsmen in the woods in quest of trout. Many splendid specimens of these sporty fish were brought to town.

Mrs. Sydney Denton, of Little River, won the prize of a con-goleum Rug recently offered at B. J. Roop's.

Thousands Attend Church Procession

On Sunday afternoon the parish of Church Point celebrated the Feast of Corpus Christi. The Church was beautifully decorated by Rev. Father Drean, P. P., with the assistance of Jean Thibodeau. After vespers, sung by the choir of St. Anne's College under the direction of R. P. Guillemain, the procession headed by the Cross, carried by M. Comeau, started through the college ground to the first Altar of Repose, in front of St. Mary's Convent, erected and decorated by the ladies of Little Brook and Comeauville, where Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was celebrated, then winding its long way alongside the college fields to the Altar of Repose of the Ladies of Church Point, and coming back by the Altar of Repose of Grosses Croques and of the college itself and after to the Church itself where a final benediction was celebrated.

Rev. Father McGlesley, superior of St. Anne, carried the Blessed Sacrament, Rev. Father Bourneuf assisting as Deacon and R. F. Herbert as sub-deacon. Preceding the host were the small boys with their banners, the Children of Mary and the congregation of the ladies of St. Anne with their insignias and banner, then the College Band under the direction of Father Kennedy, and the little flower girls followed by the men of the parish and visitors. The procession was about three-quarters of a mile in length and thousands of visitors were present; about 500 automobiles and trucks stretched along the highway.

DEREME AND ARCADE COMEAU MEET DEATH BY DROWNING

Tragedy struck at Clare over the week-end when Dereme Comeau, 35, of Lower Saulnierville, and Arcade Comeau, 32, of Meteghan Station, were drowned in Beaver Lake some time Saturday evening. An overturned dory told the story of the disaster to the two other members of the same fishing party, Elie Comeau, brother of Dereme, and Walter Saulnier, who found the two bodies at the mouth of a brook early Sunday morning.

A coroner's jury on Sunday pronounced a unanimous verdict of accidental death. Elie Comeau and Walter Saulnier were witnesses at the hearing, and Dr. Doiron testified after performing an autopsy on the bodies. Will Comeau was foreman of the jury; the other jurors were Alcide Comeau, Henry Thibodeau, Camille Comeau, Vincent Theriault, Ernest Mallett, Desire Comeau, E. C. Stehelin, Simon Belliveau, Rudolph Comeau, Elisse Saulnier and Delisle Comeau. Coroner Arnold S. Comeau presided.

The four young men started out on the fishing trip about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, arriving at Beaver Lake in a motor launch at five o'clock. Dereme and Arcade took a dory and went to fish at the mouth of a small brook. Elie and Walter made their way to a camp about a quarter of a mile from the lake, and remained there overnight. Since there was another camp near the lake, no alarm was raised when the two failed to return.

Starting out to fish early Sunday morning, Elie Comeau and Saulnier came upon the overturned dory. Nearby they spied the body of Arcade Comeau, who was floating, with his hair showing above the water, in about six feet of water. At the bottom of the lake, about three feet from the body of Arcade, the two located the body of Dereme with a pole. Both bodies were brought to shore and taken to the mill of Moses J. R. Comeau, on Meteghan River, about eight o'clock Sunday morning and the coroner was notified at once.

Dereme Comeau was the son of John J. B. Comeau, of Lower Saulnierville. He is survived by his father, four sisters, Ernestine, Mrs. Desire Comeau, of Haverhill, Mass.; Regina, married in New York, and Margaret, at home, and four brothers, Elie, at home, Dennis and Camille in Haverhill, and Charles, at home.

Arche Comeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse J. B. Comeau, of Meteghan Station, is survived by his parents, five sisters, Zita, Mrs. Edmund D'Entremont, Jeanne, Rosalie, Precilla, and Eva; and seven brothers, Elie, Benjamin, Camille, Isaac, Bernard, Emile and Gustave.

Obituary

Mrs. Edwin Haines

Mrs. Laura E. Haines, wife of Edwin Haines, of Freeport, died Friday evening at the residence of her daughter and son-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. P. M. Hamilton, 43 Peters street, Saint John, N. B., after a lengthy illness. Mr. and Mrs. Haines, who had resided in Freeport throughout their married life of more than 40 years, had come to Saint John to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton. Mrs. Haines was taken critically ill on Feb. 12 and she had been in steadily failing health since that time. She had given devoted service to the Freeport Baptist Church. During the months in which she had been in Saint John she had endeavored herself not only to the members of Waterloo street Baptist Church congregation, of which Mr. Hamilton is pastor, but to all with whom she came in contact. Besides her husband, Mrs. Haines is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary McLean, of Weston, N. S., now 96 years of age; three daughters, Mrs. George McLean of Lakeville, N. S.; Miss Sadie Haines, who has been caring for her mother, and Mrs. P. M. Hamilton, and two sons, Percy E. Haines, Aylesbury, and Captain Ralph Haines, Freeport.

Mrs. Haines leaves also five sisters and two brothers — Mrs. Bessie Wood, Woodville; Mrs. Ray Clark, Lakeville; Mrs. Samuel Gidney, Mink Cove; Mrs. Joseph Keen, South Sudbury, Mass.; Miss Scott McLean, Weston; George McLean, Lakeville, and Malcolm McLean, Weston. A funeral service was held on Monday evening at the residence, 43 Peters street, at 8 o'clock. The service was conducted by Rev. L. B. Colwell. The body was taken on the S. Keith Cann on Tuesday morning to Freeport, where burial took place. Rev. and Mrs. P. M. Hamilton accompanied the body.

Victim's Body Is Found By Farm Worker

The body of John Melanson, 67, of Plympton, was found in a field on the property of Roy Mallett of that place about five o'clock Monday afternoon. Melanson had been digging clams on the beach near the Mallett property earlier in the afternoon later returning to do some work on the grounds of the Plympton Public Library. He left there shortly before five and took a short cut through the fields on the way to his home on the Plympton Station road carrying a bucket of clams on his hoe handle.

The body was found by a laborer on Mr. Mallett's farm when returning from his work after bringing the cows from pasture. He summoned Mr. Mallett. Melanson had evidently stumbled over a rock and fallen. The bucket of clams, suspended on his hoe struck him on the back of the head, it would appear. Dr. Pothier and Dr. Melanson pronounced his death due to heart failure as the result of the shock. No inquest was necessary.

V. O. N. Health Tea In Court House

On Saturday afternoon the town was enveloped in mist, but in the Council Chamber of the Court House there was a real Spring atmosphere, as the decorations of blooming flowers and blushing maidens testified. Mrs. Sturgeon, Victorian Order Nurse and her Mothercraft Class were hostesses at a Health Tea. A model farm showed a house constructed of health giving foods, while the garden produced fruit and vegetables, with a well with "the old oaken bucket" to draw refreshing drinks, demonstrating their value in an attractive manner. After tea had been served, the Rev. F. E. Bishop, President of the Board of Management of the V. O. N., presented the members of the Mothercraft Class, who had completed the course, with certificates, making pleasant remarks to each member. Audrey Holdsworth received a prize for the best essay on the instruction given. As all had done good work and it was very difficult for the judges to discriminate, Mrs. Sturgeon presented each of the girls with a small copy of "Evangeline". The members of the class were Audrey Holdsworth, Mary Hayden, Maxine Bailey, Lucille Cormack, Mary Baxter, Helen Hazleton and Rena Tinker.

The Mayor, P. W. Holdsworth then spoke in appreciation of the work done by the Victorian Order of Nurses in town, emphasizing the importance of the instruction given to the Mothercraft Classes. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Sturgeon for her untiring efforts in the Public Health Work of the town, through the V. O. N. The proceeds of the Tea amounted to $10.80, which is to be devoted to work in the Clinic Room.

Mrs. Sturgeon left on Wednesday for her home in Ontario, to enjoy a month's vacation. During her absence Miss Dorothy Smith, R. N., will take the work of the V. O. N.

Man Dies Suddenly At Wheel of Car

Victim of a sudden seizure, T. L. Harvey, 62, of Wolfville, passed away while seated in his car, Monday afternoon, on the Myrtle Hotel grounds, at Digby. Mr. Harvey, who is a member of the Nova Scotia Board of Censors, had arrived in Digby in company with his wife, enroute to Yarmouth to meet his daughter, who left Pittsburgh, Pa., Monday morning for Nova Scotia. Mr. Harvey had transacted some business at Digby in his official capacity in the afternoon and had been in the Canadian National Telegraph office at four o'clock. About half an hour later Dr. W. R. Dickie was called to the Myrtle Hotel and outside in his car at the wheel sat the late Mr. Harvey. Mrs. Harvey was holding him and it appeared that he had fainted. The physician could do nothing and the unfortunate man passed away in a few minutes.

Always an active citizen, of Wolfville, Mr. Harvey's interests were varied. He served several terms on the town council and was once mayor of Wolfville. He was very active in politics as a strong supporter of the Conservative party. He had long been a member of St. George's Lodge, A. F. and A. M. and was a former past master of that lodge.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Sofie Sherwood, of Wolfville; one daughter, Mrs. MacClaren, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and four brothers, Dr. Ted Harvey, George Harvey, Grand Pre; and J. W. Harvey, Port Williams; by two sisters, Mrs. Mary E. Hamilton, of Wolfville, and Miss Margaret Harvey, of Wolfville.

Will Speak at Kiwanis Luncheon

Dr. A. C. Fales, of Wolfville, will be the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis Club on Monday. Dr. Fales will speak on the re-stocking of streams with salmon and trout. He is one of the best known hunters in the Dominion, the fine collection of heads exhibited in the Annapolis Royal Town Hall, was loaned to the town by Dr. Fales, and these animals were shot by him in Alaska and all parts of the Dominion.

A GOOD MOVE

According to announcement in Fort Fairfield Review, the town of Fort Fairfield, Maine, in an effort to cut down the amount of back taxes owing the town will establish a town farm. The farm, it is hoped, will serve a twofold purpose.

First, anyone owing the town any money in taxes in arrears will be asked to contribute anything needed in the farm. Anything from seed to animals will be accepted and will go to help cut down the donor's tax bill.

The other point of the new project will be to supply Fort Fairfield poor people with food next winter. A five-acre garden and ten pigs will contribute greatly to making the local pauper account a smaller problem. The garden will include one acre of potatoes. The pigs should supply about 2500 pounds of pork in the fall.

There are 200 cords of wood at the park. This is in two lengths and will be delivered accordingly.

The farm will be worked by paupers. A foreman will be in charge during the daytime, and a night watchman will be on the property every night to see that it remains town property. The town manager will have supervision over all.

Here in our opinion is a really constructive move on the part of this neighboring town to help relieve present conditions.

Weymouth Band
Making Good Progress

The Weymouth Band, composed mostly of beginners, made a creditable showing at the Field Sports held by the Weymouth Baseball Club, on Victoria Day. George Burgoyne, a trombone player of exceptional ability and experience is the leader, and he has done wonders with these new players, considering that his home is in Riverdale, some distance away and he is frequently unable to attend practice. It takes a lot of pluck to play an instrument that is in poor condition, but the boys under his tuition manage to get good tones, and have formed the nucleus of a first class band if the townspeople back them up loyally and help them in getting a few new instruments and a few more players. It is an acknowledged fact that a band is an asset to a town, not a liability, because it is sure to bring more money into town than it costs to maintain it.

overhead,
And far out, miles on miles,
Beyond the smoke of the mighty town,

The blue Thames dimples and smiles,

Not yours alone the glory of old,
Of the splendid thousand years.

Of Britain's might and Britain's right,

And the brunt of British spears,
Not yours alone for the great world

round,
Ready to dare and do,
Scot and Celt, and Norman and

Dane,
With the Northman's courage for blessing or bane,

Are England's heroes, too.

And if ever the smoke of an alien gun

Should threaten her iron repose, Shoulder to shoulder against the world,

Face to face with her foes,
Scot and Celt and Saxon are one

Where the glory of England goes.
Saxon and Gaul, Canadians claim

A part in the glory and pride and aim

Of the Empire that girdles the world.

(By Rev. Roy L. Smith.)

Faith—
—Makes highways out of obstacles.

—Makes character out of hardships.

—Makes monuments out of criticisms.

—Makes courage out of difficulties.

—Makes fact out of visions.

—Makes molehills out of mountains.

—Makes God seem nearer than trouble.

LIFE IS TOO SHORT

—To spend time hunting for the disagreeable.

—To waste one's strength fighting unnecessary battles.

—To worry over troubles that never happen.

—To lose sleep over things that cannot be helped.

—To spoil even one day by envying someone else's prosperity.

—To try to shut the mouths of all the gossips.

—To refight the battles that have been already won.

this dainty lady said. "Dry Cleaners were unknown. The very finest materials had to be laundered. It was no small task to wash the heavy fabrics of those times. It was a problem over which we sought advice. At times, I even made soap from carefully tested recipes."

"I don't remember the exact year when I started using Surprise but I do know that once I tried it I never made my own soap again."

"I gradually became accustomed to the gentle way Surprise cleansed frail or very soiled clothes. But when I found that it wouldn't injure fine woodwork, I thought I had discovered the safest soap in the world."

"I've used it ever since, of course, and I have always found that whatever cleaning task I have to cope with Surprise can be depended upon."

BABY FRETFUL, RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and is unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say. Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. You know, it is made specially for children. It is delicate, it is a pure vegetable preparation, contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Yet it is as effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxed comfort and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand. Genuine Castoria always has the name:

Try Miss McFarlane's Favorite Recipe for BISCUITS

1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups pastry flour
2 cups (or 1 1/2 cups) baking powder
1/2 cup milk or half milk and half water

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in the chilled shortening. Now add the liquid to make soft dough. Toss dough onto a floured board and roll out with hands to about 1/4 inch thickness. Cut out with a floured biscuit cutter. Place on slightly greased pan or baking sheet and bake in hot oven at 450° F. 12 to 15 minutes.

"For Light, Flaky Biscuits use Magic Baking Powder,"

says Miss M. McFarlane, dietitian of St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto

"I RECOMMEND Magic because I know it is pure, and free from harmful ingredients." Miss McFarlane's opinion is based on a thorough knowledge of food chemistry, and on close study of food effects upon the body. On practical cooking experience, too. Most dietitians in public institutions, like Miss McFarlane, use Magic exclusively. Because it is always uniform, dependable, and gives consistently better, baking results. And Magic is the favorite of Canadian housewives. It outsells all other baking powders combined. You'll find Magic makes all your baked foods unusually light and tender... and gives you the same perfect results every time.

No trouble to do my housework. The Pills built me up and put me in first-class condition." Mrs. Richard Rusk, Robin, Man., writes: "Diphtheria left my daughter, Bess, a nervous wreck. She was unable to continue at school. I gave her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and the change in her was marvelous. She is enjoying splendid health—and we do feel that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved her life." Don't allow yourself or your daughter to be robbed of health and vigor. Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are no temporary relief. They banish run-down or nervous conditions by creating new blood, which imparts health, vigor, and vitality. 50c—at your druggist's.

FIRST TRIP THURSDAY, JUNE 16With many prominent Nova Scotians and Americans on board as guests of the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc., that concern's new 10,000-ton liner Acadia will leave New York at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, June 16, for Yarmouth, on her maiden trip.She will arrive in New York from the shipyards of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, at Newport News, Virginia, where she was built, on June 9th, and for several days there will be a series of receptions on board.The ship will be welcomed to New York by heads of the city and state governments and some of them will be on board of her when she enters Yarmouth Harbor for the first time.The Acadia will be the largest ever to engage in the passenger and freight traffic between New York and Yarmouth. She cost $3,500,000. She was given the name borne by Nova Scotia in the days when France and England battled over its fertile land as a tribute to that province with which the Eastern Lines have had cordial relations for many years, and it is predicted that she will carry more tourists to Nova Scotia than any ship since the establishment of a service between the United States and that province.She is to be commanded by Captain William F. Lakeman, formerly of the Evangeline, which was in the New York-Yarmouth service, and among his officers will be many men who are well known in Nova Scotia and who were with him on the Evangeline. That splendid ship will, this summer, be on the Yarmouth-Boston route, with the well-known Yarmouth Capt. Lakeman is very proud of his new command and is eager to place her alongside the dock in Yarmouth where she can be visited by his many friends in Nova Scotia."She is a marvellous ship," Captain Lakeman told our correspondent, "and I am confident that the Nova Scotia people will be as proud of her as I am.
That province, the home of some of the finest sailors who have ever sailed the seas, will recognize in the Acadia a shipbuild-er's creation that will compare favorably with any ship in the world."The Acadia is 402 feet, 9 in.
in length, 61 feet broad, and has a depth of forty feet. She is fitted with Sperry gyroscopic cock steering gear, with tele-compasses, has double mechanical motor and electric control. Even the kitchens have in them everything that is modern. All cooking will be done on electric ranges and everything that is in any way identified with food or its preparation, is surrounded by sanitary devices which have theapproval of the United States health officials.The engines and machinery of the new ship are, like the hull and interior fittings, the best and latest that can be built.
There are two sets of single reduction geared turbines of the newport News Parsons type, underslung condensors, shaft horsepower of 11,400, four Babcock and Wilcox oil burning watertube boilers, a working pressure of 375 pounds, with 210 degrees super heat or a total temperature of 650 degrees, and the ship is equipped with electric motor-driven auxiliaries, Lux fire extinguishing and Rich fire detecting systems, with steam smothering lines in all cargo compartments, and an automatic fire alarm in each compartment and stateroom.In the saloon there are twelve sliding steel doors.
Apparently nothing has been overlooked in the construction of the Acadia. In the pilot house, for instance, is a small machine which reports to the officer in charge if a fire appears in any part of the ship. It is so efficient that if anyone in the engine room or cargo spaces lights a cigarette the pilot house is notified immediately.Officers in the pilot house can get in telephone touch with any part of the ship at any time, during day or night, and three intricate machines unusual noises on the sea, perhaps miles away or under the surface, reach them.When it was decided to have some historic incidents of the early life of Nova Scotia painted on the walls, the contract was given to Carroll Bill, one of New England's most famous artists, and Mr. Bill passed months in the Land of Evangeline delving in the archives of museums and in personal study of the section of the province where the heroine of Longfellow's great poem lived.The original sketch for Mr.
Carroll's mural was on exhibition in the Casson galleries in Boston for many weeks, and attracted much attention. The mural is on the stair landing between the promenade and boat deck of the Acadia. The painting is in reality a reconstruc-

"Baby was awfully fretful," writes
Mrs. H. A. Bell, Ripley, N.B.,

BABY'S OWN TABLETStion of the ancient village of Grand Pre, where the officials of the Eastern Lines sent to get a bottle of water from Evangeline's well to christen the Acadia.There are three panels in the mural. The large central panel is a panoramic view of the village, with broad meadows and a level valley stretching to the sea, to the headland and to a distant shore beyond. In its architecture the village is reminiscent of those little coast villages of Normandy from which the Acadians came originally—a hardy, God-fearing peasantry with primitive carts, drawn by oxen. There is an air of peace and happiness over the whole place, which the artist has well expressed.In a more intimate way the panel on the right shows a little of the village street with the little church on one side and the priest's house on the other. The priest is seen with a group of children. The panel on the left shows the landing of the French at Port Royal from one of the picturesque vessels of Sieur de Champlain's time. There is a fine harmony of line, composition, color and historic sentiment in the whole mural.Writing of the mural in the Boston Globe a short time ago, that newspaper's well known artist, Mr. Anthony J. Philpott said, "The mural is another evidence of the extent to which art has entered into the business life of today. Of course an up-to-date passenger steamer like the Acadia, which is a floating palace, must meet this artistic requirement in every detail of its architecture. In fact, to balance the refinement of its interior decoration, it was necessary to have such a mural painting—one that would be both appropriate and artistic. Certainly, in this particular mural, Carroll Bill meets the requirements of the Acadia fully, not only in its artistry but in the subject which it illustrates."The Eastern Lines has succeeded in having the lower pried staterooms on the Acadia made attractive and comfortable. On this ship every room, be it inside or outside, is well ventilated through a movable gadget in the ceiling which the occupant can manipulate without a set of directions, and in every room is a telephone.Altogether there are 255 staterooms which will accommodate 756 passengers, and there are berths for 80 persons who do not care to engage staterooms.
Besides, there are sleeping spaces for a crew of 176.In the deluxe rooms are twin beds, sofas, shower baths, bathrooms with hot and cold water, writing desks, massive arm-chairs, table and bed lamps, and ceiling and wall lights, all in a space considerably larger than the bedroom in the most modern shore hotel.The dining room, in which Nova Scotia citizens will be entertained, is unlike anything on a coastwise steamship. Costly linens, heavily cushioned chairs of mahogany, and marvelously designed silverware, with a wonderfully concealed lighting system, remind one of the huge banquet hall of an English palace. Built in the wall at the head of the room is a radio set, powerful enough to keep in touch on the trip from the New York coast to the Nova ScotianReduce the AcidSICK stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach serves are over-stimulated.
Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' less dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. For 50 years the stand-

HIT BY MOTOR CYCLE

Miss Dora Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Smith, of Wear-settlement, had the misfortune to get run into by a motor cycle, operated by a young man from Annapolis County, while attending the Field Day held by the W. A. A. A. on the 24th.
Miss Smith and some companions were standing watching the ball game between the Weymouth and the Barton teams, and the motor cycle was being driven down the field between the people. Miss Smith, apparently not seeing it, stepped back just as the machine swung towards her. She received a bad cut on the leg, also a slight one on the thumb, and a severe shaking-up. She was taken to the refreshment booth and Dr.
Hallett, who was on the grounds,
had her removed to his office,
where the wounds were dressed.
Her injuries were not serious as she afterwards returned to the sports.More than 1,000,000 people each year, for the last decade, have left towns and cities to go to farms, says President F. D.
Farrell, of Kansas State Agricultural College.Hiram—Going to the circus,

United States and Canada.There are other radios all through the ship and she carries an orchestra of carefully chosen musicians. The ballroom forward on B deck has a veranda terrace, something unique on shipboard, and that will prove one of the most attractive of the Acadia's passenger spaces.
Directly aft of the ballroom are the smoking and beverage rooms and aft of them a lounge and music room. Further aft on B deck, are glass enclosed promenades on both sides and at the stern an observation deck.The ship has seven decks, four of which are devoted to public rooms and staterooms.

The prospects of a substantial volume of tourist traffic to Nova Scotia this year are very bright in the opinion of H. W. Aslin, Manager of the Nova Scotian Hotel, Halifax, who has just returned from New York. Mr. Aslin spent two weeks in the United States and during that time was in contact with approximately 150 tourist agencies and on every hand he found a feeling of optimism insofar as business to Nova Scotia is concerned.

Ocean Gardens Has Moved to New Quarters

The Ocean Gardens restaurant moved this week to its new quarters in the Dunham Building, Birch Place. This building which up to a year ago, has been occupied by R. C. Smallie for some time, has been completely renovated. The several rooms which occupied the ground floor have been thrown into one large room with the corner partitioned off as a kitchen. Lunch counters and "silent salesman" cases have been installed as well as a number of stalls and tables. In many ways the restaurant is in a better position than ever to cater to its patrons, and the service will probably be much improved as the girls will have much less space to cover. We wish the new Ocean Gardens every success.

A new fast freight service between Canada and Europe from Halifax, is being inaugurated by the Furness, Withy & Co., Limited, according to traffic officials of the Canadian National Railways. The service will take the place of a similar one discontinued twelve years ago owing to lack of cargo and is being restored on account of the large amount of overseas cargo now offering from Canadian sources as well as the increased trade between the West Indies and Great Britain now routed via Halifax.

Dr. H. W. Kirkpatrick, of Halifax, will be at his office in Middleton, for treatment of diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, on Tuesday, June 14th, and Wednesday, June 15th. Glasses fitted.

Obituary

Mrs. Charles I. VanTassel
Mrs. Alice I. VanTassel, wife of Charles I. VanTassel, died on Thursday of last week, after a long illness. Mrs. VanTassel was a daughter of the late James Farnham, and was 68 years of age. She is survived by a brother, Thomas Farnham, and a sister, Mrs. George Woodard, both of Jamaica Plains, Mass.; one son, Harry L. Denison, of Andover, Mass.; four daughters, Mrs. John James, Mrs. Fred Lawrence and Mrs. Paul Yates, all of Digby, and Mrs. Claude Bairt, of Boston also ten grandchildren. The funeral took place on Sunday and was conducted by Rev. A. E. Gabriel.

Lawrence W. Frost
The remains of Lawrence W. Frost arrived here from Kentville, on Tuesday, and were interred in Woodlawn cemetery. He was 36 years of age and was a son of Mrs. M. Frost, of Halifax. As a child he lived in Digby with his parents. In the house now occupied by James Rice, and his father died while a citizen of this town. The remains were accompanied by his brother-in-law, E. L. Stalling, also a former resident here.

Capt. Herbert Johnson
It is with regret we chronicle the passing of Capt. Herbert Johnson, whose death from cancer of the stomach occurred at Port Wade, on Thursday last. Besides a sorrowing widow, he leaves one brother, Charles, at home, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Morrissey, of Lynn, Mass. The deceased, who was 71 years of age, was highly esteemed by a large circle of friends. The funeral from his late residence on Friday afternoon, was conducted by Rev. H. S. Hartin, assisted by Rev. G. T. Bryant, of the United Church. A duet entitled "That Beautiful Land," was sung very effectively by Mrs. Horace Snow and Bertha Carty. Interment amid beautiful floral tributes, was made in the United Baptist cemetery.

Grace United Church Players Present Play

The three act comedy, "Aaron Slick from Punkin Creek" was presented by the Grace United Church Players to an appreciative audience in the Church Hall on Tuesday evening. It was two hours of wholesome fun, and was well staged and well acted. Following was the cast:

Aaron Slick, not as green as he looks—Oakley Turnbull.
Mr. Wilbur Merriwell, a crooked speculator—John Russell.
Clarence Green, a mysterious young man—James Appleby.
Mrs. Rosy Berry, a warming widow—Mrs. James Appleby.
Glady Merriwell, a sweet young thing—Dorothy Dunn.
The Girl in Blue—Elaine Tilley.
Little Sis Riggs, a regular tomboy—Florence Keen.
Hotel Guests — Fred Turnbull, Rufus Connor and Ada Turnbull.

During the intermission a solo was sung by Rufus Connor and a duet by Ada and Fred Turnbull. Mrs. Frank Hayton acted as accompanist. The young people of the church prepared the play to secure funds for an improvement on the church property, and it will be repeated about the middle of July to raise the balance of the amount needed.

The play was presented in the Centreville Hall on Wednesday evening to a large audience.

Dr. Fales Urges Re-Stocking of Streams

Dr. A. C. Fales, of Wolfville, was the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the Digby Kiwanis Club Luncheon, Monday, urging the re-stocking of Nova Scotia's lakes with game fish. The State of Maine, he stated, derived upwards to $80,000,000 annually through the tourist industry chiefly through the stocking of her lakes and streams with choice species of game fish. In that State there are 31 hatcheries in operation and 206 rearing establishments which planted last year 4,000,000 speckled trout, 3,500,000 land locked salmon, 2,000,000 salmon trout, 200,000 rainbow trout and 200,000 small mouth bass. These fish when distributed averaged about six inches in length.

He stressed that Nova Scotia with its innumerable lakes and streams offered like opportunities for development. The Federal Government, he said, is willing to co-operate to the extent of furnishing experts to advise on the section of sites for rearing establishments, supply departmental engineers to survey and lay out the plants including the superintendence of construction, supply all fry needed free of cost, instruct as to the care and feeding of the fish, and finally, when ready to liberate will distribute them to their destination. Our part, he said, will be the construction of the plants and the feeding of the young fish.

Two rearing plants are projected for this year, he explained, one at Grand Lake, Hants County, for the propagating of land locked salmon, and the other at Nine Mile Lake, Lunenburg County, for salmon trout. 100,000 land locked salmon eggs and 250,000 salmon trout eggs are now hatching at the Bedford Hatchery.

WESTPORT B. Y. P. U.

The last meeting of the season for the Westport Baptist Young People's Society was held May 29th, under the leadership of Miss Blanche M. Hicks. After a sing-song of familiar hymns and the usual devotional exercises, the leader gave an interesting talk, basing her remarks on the topic for the evening, "Making the World Friendly." A special program had been prepared by a class of Junior and Intermediate Girls, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. H. H. Phinney. This program consisted of a missionary play, entitled "Waiting for the Doctor." Those taking part in this number were Muriel McDormand, Dorothy Phinney, Lois Gower, Geraldine Hicks, Dorothy Swift, Dora Titus, Rita Denton, Verna Thompson and Thelma Phinney. Other numbers were a reading by Verna Thompson; duet by Lena McDormand, soprano and Dorothy Phinney, alto; a reading, "Our B. Y. P. U." by Thelma Phinney.

Local & Personal

F. Courteney Purdy spent the week-end in New Germany. Miss L. O'Brien went to Halifax on Thursday, returning on Sunday.

Constable L. Kiggins, of the R. C. M. P., left on Monday for Regina.

Dr. T. R. Ford and family, of Liverpool, were in town Wednesday.

Mrs. J. M. Sabine, of Weymouth, is a patient in the Digby General Hospital.

Take advantage of the week-end bargains at Miss Chisholm's.

M. C. Burns, of Yarmouth, arrived in town yesterday to reopen his vulcanizing establishment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Comeau arrived from the United States last Friday to spend the summer here.

Miss Kate A. Tobin, who has been on a trip to New York, Boston and Saint John, returned home on Monday.

The Misses Louise and Violet Barnes spent the week-end at Culloden, the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Oscar Starke.

We understand that flower beds are to be laid out along the new fill from Westhaver's store to the boat slip. This will do much to beautify our town.

Miss Blanche Goudey, linotype operator on the Yarmouth Herald, was a visitor to the Courier's office yesterday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Wilson.

Dr. and Mrs. Penchard, Mrs. Calvin Cann, Miss R. R. Campbell and Mrs. Percy Corning arrived in town on Tuesday and spent the day here before proceeding up the valley.

Miss Bernice Roop, who is attending the Maritime Business College, at Halifax, was the married guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roop. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Zwicker.

John Russell left yesterday for Ottawa, where he is to be married on Wednesday next. Mr. Russell has purchased the Capt. Edgar Jones Farm at Barton, where he and his bride will reside upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. MacGregor, of Kentville, are visiting Mr. MacGregor's sister, Warwick Street. It will be remembered that Mr. MacGregor, who is a railroad man, met with a serious accident a few months ago, and is now recuperating.

The lower end of Water Street is now being dressed with a coating of "rotten rock," which comes from Digby Neck. This surfacing material has been used on the lower end of the Neck road with excellent results, and makes a road which is hard to beat.

Sypher Morrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Morrell, was graduated on May 26th, from the Terrill School for Boys, Dallas, Texas. After visiting friends in Massachusetts he returned to Digby for the summer. He plans to return to the Terrill School next year, where he will be in the Junior College.

Mrs. S. M. Hensley, after several years' absence, is planning to visit Barton this summer, and will leave New York on the first trip of the "Acadia" next week. She purposes to stay in Yarmouth for a day and then drive to Barton in her car, which she has just driven to New York from Florida. Mrs. C. B. Dunham, now living in Yarmouth, will likely accompany her to spend a few weeks.

The "Health House" displayed in P. W. Holdsworth's window has caused a great deal of attention this week. This house, built by the V. O. N. Mothercraft Class, is made of good wholesome eats—"oatmeal" "stucco" frame, milk bottle chimneys, cracker shingles, jelly bean decorations and many other eatables are used in the construction. The house is certainly a credit to the class and to the nurse.

Home Team Is Beaten, 8 to 7

Digby entertained Bear River for the first time in the newly formed Digby County Baseball grounds, on Friday last, and League, on the recreation were defeated by a score of 8-7. It was an evenly fought game with both teams showing good form. The Digby boys hit their stride in this game and the fans are looking for some real action in future games. Robinson, Digby's pitcher, having fourteen strikeouts to his credit, set a record that is hard to equal, not having walked a man on and this being his first game of the season. Errors were costly for Digby as Bear River scored four runs on Digby's errors.

THE VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES

Members of the Board of Management of the V. O. N. are visiting the homes of Digby this week and next, soliciting the annual membership fees. Will you kindly be ready to meet them and be as generous as possible? The minimum fee is fifty cents, but it can be and often is much larger.

The V. O. N. is doing a large benevolent and helpful work in Digby through the ministry of the nurse, and in its supply work. The need is greater than ever, but notwithstanding the earnest efforts of the Board of Management, receipts are falling off and are not equal to the demands. So please help them in this direct way as much as possible.

Have you noticed the Health House in the window of P. W. Holdsworth's Drug Store? It was made by the Mothercraft Class and is constructed entirely of good food materials. It is certainly unique and represents one aspect of the work done by the V. O. N.

F. E. Bishop, President.

Sentenced to Penitentiary

Bernard VanTassel, of Digby, was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary at Dorchester, N. B., by County Court Judge J. A. Grierson, at a session of the County Court, Monday morning. VanTassel was convicted of stealing a suitcase from the D. A. R. Station.

Mrs. W. E. Daley, of Paradise is a guest at the Excel Inn.

Mrs. H. S. Hoyt, of Weymouth and Mrs. S. W. Titus, of Digby, were visitors to Bridgetown, on Thursday.

Mrs. Cecil Smith, of Winnipeg, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Torrie, at Hemlock Lodge, at South Range.

A number of railway maintenance men held a supper meeting at the Excel Inn last Friday evening. An excellent supper was served.

The fire department was called out Wednesday noon for a chimney blaze at the home of Capt. Willie Tower, in the south end of the town.

We understand that the Royal Department Store, of Yarmouth, is to open a branch in the building formerly occupied by the Ocean Gardens.

The Editor took a trip down to Centreville this week, and would suggest that someone take a wheelbarrow load of gravel to fill up at least a few of the pot holes.

How often must we remind our readers that we will not publish unsigned letters, or letters signed or unsigned of a political nature. A few weeks ago we were asked to publish a letter having to do with unemployment road work in a certain section of the country. Owing to its political nature we laid it to rest in our waste paper basket. This week the gentlemen who wrote the letter visited our office, and very indignantly demanded why the letter had not been published. He was told, and left our office with the threat that we would lose a lot of subscribers in his district as a consequence. We would like to remind our subscribers who discontinue for that reason that the Courier sells at four cents a copy at the newsstands, or can easily be borrowed from the next-door neighbors.

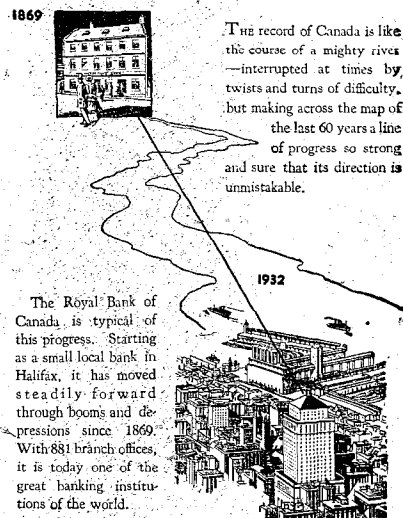

New Sewer Is Nearing Completion

Work on the new sewer is nearing completion. Yesterday morning workmen were digging the trench in front of E. J. Roop's store, with only a few feet more to go to the point where they will join up to where the sewer was completed last year. This sewer will be a great asset to the town in many ways. Last year after the big

A storm it was laid from Montague Row to the Oddfellows' Hall, and this year the work is being completed to the outlet near the "long wharf", doing away with many unsightly private outlets along the beach.

In One Direction for over 60 years

This record of Canada is like the course of a mighty river—interrupted at times by twists and turns of difficulty, but making across the map of the last 60 years a line of progress so strong and sure that its direction is unmistakable.

The Royal Bank of Canada, is typical of this progress. Starting as a small local bank in Halifax, it has moved steadily forward through booms and depressions since 1869. With 881 branch offices, it is today one of the great banking institutions of the world.

Married

Ellis—Holdsworth
A quiet, but very pretty wedding of interest to many friends was solemnized on Thursday of last week, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Bowles, Waterville, Kings County, when Mary Elizabeth Holdsworth, only daughter of W. L. Holdsworth, of this town, was united in marriage with Charles Gordon Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis, of Bay View. The bride, who looked charming in a gown of rose flowered chiffon voile, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and maiden hair fern. The bride and groom were unattended. After the ceremony a supper was served with the immediate relatives in attendance. Both bride and groom are very popular among the younger set in Digby, where the groom holds a position on the staff of Yexxa's Ltd. The happy couple, who motored through the province on a honeymoon trip, will reside in Digby.

THE ASSOCIATION DID NOT BENEFIT

To the Editor of the Courier:
Sir:—In the account of the Field Day held by the Weymouth Amateur Athletic Association, which appeared in a recent edition of your paper, we notice that it read: "In the evening a very enjoyable dance was held in the Community Theatre by the Weymouth Orchestra, of which the W. A. A. received one-fourth of the profits."

We would like through the columns of your paper to make a correction to this. The W. A. A. was promised, and expected to receive part of the proceeds of the dance held at the Community Theatre on this occasion. However, after advertising it on all the posters and in the paper, as a benefit dance for the Association, it turned out to be a benefit for individuals instead.

A Member of the Association.

TOURISTS' HOLIDAY ENDS WITH CRASH

On June 2nd, about two miles from Church Point, opposite Joseph Doucet's residence, Simon LeBlanc's mail truck, driven by his son, was in collision with an U. S. car, both being badly smashed. In the visiting car were Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran and Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield. Newport, R. I. They arrived from Boston Thursday morning with the intention of visiting the Annapolis Valley and Halifax. Mrs. Corcoran sustained grave injuries to her leg and Mr. Sheffield was deeply cut about the face. In the mail car a passenger, Joseph Doucet, Bellevue's Cove, was thrown through the windshield and deeply cut in the face, arms and legs. A child in the truck was also cut in the face. Dr. Melanson from Weymouth was immediately summoned. Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran and Mr. and Mrs. Sheffield have returned to Boston.

Lower Prices for Well-Known Product

Radical Reduction to Public Will Take Effect June 10

In keeping with the prevailing low price trend, the President and Directors of Tip Top Tailors Limited today announce a change in the price of the well known Tip Top suits and overcoats.

For the past two years the quality of Tip Top clothing has steadily advanced. This higher quality has been made possible, first, by the quantity buying of the company and, in the second place, by improved custom-made tailoring features.

In this price reduction the Directors have determined rigorously to maintain the high standard of quality already achieved. Indeed, in effect, the lower price of Tip Top garments will bring to thousands of Canadians higher value than ever before.

Special showings have been arranged for at all Tip Top stores.

The recent Dominion regulations applicable to the oyster fisheries off the coasts of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island are expected to assist materially in maintaining the high standard of Canadian oysters in the market. The minimum sized oyster that may be retained by the fishermen is stipulated, namely, anything over three and one-half inches in diameter or any long oyster of greater size than four inches in length of the outer shell.

The candidate was relating some of his experiences in the house extolling the work of his party to the audience.

"And now, ladies and gentlemen, I am going to tax your memory—"

"Great snakes! Has it come to that?" interrupted a voice from the rear of the hall.

Smilin' Charlie Says:

"These things will all work themselves out—th' men will quit smokin' & keep from bein' effeminate an' th' winner will soon follow suit—"

THE EGYPTIAN OVEN AND THE MODERN INCUBATOR

(Experimental Farms Note.)

A glance at the up-to-date incubators now in general use would lead one to believe that this descendant is a long way removed from its ancestor, the old Egyptian hatching oven that was in operation thousands of years before Christ and is still used in that Old Land.

The ancient incubator is really a mud house in which everything is done from the inside, the eggs are placed in a separate room, the heat is applied from within, and the operator does his work from the inside as well. The modern incubator has the heat automatically applied from without, and instead of a smudge burning for days to raise the temperature high enough so that the eggs may be put in, a button is pressed and electricity quickly heats the egg chamber to the desired temperature.

The Egyptian, sweltering in a temperature of 103, and crouched in a very uncomfortable position, turned the eggs by hand, one by one. The modern attendant touches a lever and the whole lot is turned in an instant.

Nor has the attendant today to guess at the temperature of the egg chamber as was the case—and still is—in the old style; a thermometer in plain view indicates the exact temperature and a thermostat keeps it at any given point by automatically turning the electricity off and on. In the old incubator humidity was introduced by means of moist straw or by sprinkling water on the floor and walls. Humidifying is modernized to the reservoir and the electric fan.

Yes, it's long way from the incubator of adobe, without light or ventilation, with heat supplied by smouldering manure, where the almost naked attendant, in a sweltering heat, crawls around to do his work, to the modern and efficient incubators of today controlled and managed in ease and comfort. Yes, it's a long way, except in the percentage of healthy, living chicks hatched. For full information on modern methods of incubation apply to your nearest Dominion Experimental Farm.

A shipment of Atlantic salmon eggs was made recently by rail from Miramichi, N. B., to the State of California, the shipment proving a success. These salmon eggs are being exchanged with the State of California by Dominion authorities for a corresponding number of steelhead salmon eggs, to be used in stocking British Columbia waters.

"ACADIA" IS CAPABLE OF MAKING 22 KNOTS

Sea trials on Wednesday of last week of the $3,500,000 liner "ACADIA," built for the Eastern Steamship Lines at the shipyard of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company at Newport News, Virginia, demonstrated that she is capable of making twenty-two knots an hour.

The trials lasted all day and when the new liner got back to her dock at the shipyard at night it was announced by officials of the Line on board that she had proved satisfactory in every way.

Among those on the trial run, besides officials of the Shipbuilding Company, were Captain Eugene E. O'Donnell, President, and William K. Irving, Vice President of the Eastern Lines and her designer, Theodore E. Ferris. Weather conditions were ideal, which gave the 10,000 ton liner a real shake down.

"She is a marvellous ship," Captain O'Donnell said at Newport News, "I do not believe they can build them any better."

The "ACADIA" left Newport News for New York on Wednesday, there to receive an official welcome from the City at ten the following morning. On June 16th, she will start on her Maiden Trip for Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, between which port and New York she is to be in the passenger and freight service during the summer.

In the winter she and her sister ship, the "SAINT JOHN," now running between Boston and Saint John, New Brunswick, will run between New York and Boston.

The "ACADIA" will be commanded by William F. Lake-man, formerly of the "EVANGELINE," which is to be transferred from New York to Boston for service between there and Yarmouth.

THE TOWN BOOSTER

In all of my many travels, and I've ridden the rails for miles, I've noticed in town or in city there is always the man who smiles. Some one with an eye that twinkles, though humble his place and dear.

And signals the worried stranger that counsel and help are near.

That smile is the same land over. 'Tis friendly and warm and true. As though Boston and San Francisco the ways of the other knew.

It is seen at the railroad station, it brightens the steamship pier. As it flashes the cheering message: "Come in, you have nothing to fear."

Oh, whether it's town or city, the man with the smile is there. As if the good name of his people had become his particular care.

Though many may pass unheeding, and at strangers the thoughtless frown.

There is always that smiling native to welcome them into town.

—Edgar A. Guest

WATER TEEMING WITH POLLOCK; HUGE CATCHES

A unique and beautiful phenomenon at Cape St. Mary for the past few weeks was a large flock of gulls. In the early morning the water was literally covered with them, just a few yards from the breakwater. Old fishermen knew it to be a sign for pollock, which proved true, as the water was fairly alive with them. Amateur fishermen in dories, or punts tried their luck, and many a youngster hauled his first fish. Expert fishermen also got busy and one boat landed 1500 pounds of fine pollock in two hauls, caught on a few hundred yards from shore. It is twelve years since pollock have been caught so near shore at Cape St. Mary.

Pollock fishing at Weymouth North has also been causing exciting sport the last few weeks, although they have not been as plentiful as at Cape St. Mary.

Ontario is going in for soya bean growing, according to the Agricultural Department of the Canadian National Railways. This is a new industry for Canada and the experiment will be centered at Chatham, the soil in this district, it is claimed, being especially well adapted to the growing of the soya bean and successful establishment of the industry. Machinery is being installed in a mill in the locality for crushing the crop and the by-products, it is expected, will have a wide sale in Canada.

The stranger entered the barber's shop with a little boy and asked for a haircut, shave and shampoo.

"By the way," he said, after his toilet had been completed, "do you sell tobacco?"

"Sorry, sir, I'm afraid I don't," replied the barber. "but there's a tobaccocon opposite."

"All right," said the customer. "I'll slip across the road and get some. Meanwhile you can give the lad a haircut."

Twenty minutes went by and the barber began to get uneasy. "Your father's a long time," he said at last. I suppose he's coming back?"

"That wasn't my father," the boy replied. "That man stopped me in the road and asked me if I'd like a free haircut."

The World's Greatest Playground

Wide Variety of Recreational Attractions
Canadians Fortunate in Holiday Advantages Their Country Offers

THE majority of Canadians probably do not realize what a wonderful choice of vacation opportunities this country offers. How many of us in any one province have first-hand knowledge of the wide range of attractions of our neighbouring provinces? Many no doubt have gone abroad to seek a holiday, forgetting that our own Dominion is unequalled in the exceptional variety and range of its recreational resources. Surely a country which attracts visitors from other countries by the tens of millions must have recreational features of interest to its own citizens.

Recreational Areas Easily Accessible

It is so easy to travel in Canada that an interprovincial tour is a recreation which every Canadian vacationist may well and profitably undertake. All the developed and much of the undeveloped part of the Dominion is easily accessible by train, boat, or automobile. Canada is served by two of the world's greatest railway systems and a number of smaller lines. The equipment and service are of the highest standard. Steamers built specially for pleasure cruising afford many pleasant trips along the coast and on the extensive inland water system of lakes, rivers and canals. A cruise from the head of the Great Lakes to the Maritime provinces is nearly equal, in distance, to an ocean voyage. Good roads lead to practically all scenic and sporting territories. Canada's road system includes many thousands of miles of surfaced highways, well equipped with direction signs and danger signals. Tourist accommodation from campsite to hotel, is available almost everywhere.

National Parks Cover Large Area

National and provincial parks in Canada cover nearly 25,000 square miles. They are areas which have been withdrawn from exploitation and are being preserved in their virgin beauty and wildness, for purposes of pleasure and recreation. The largest national parks are in the Rocky Mountains section of Alberta, a region of unsurpassed scenic splendour admirably equipped by nature for all forms of sport and recreation. There are also important parks in British Columbia, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec. Accommodation ranges all the way from large modern hotels, to log cabins and tents. Fishing is one of the chief attractions in the parks, but game animals and birds are rigidly protected and their fearlessness never fails to interest visitors.

Summer Resorts Numerous and Varied

Throughout the Dominion there are many summer resort districts which offer a wide range of attraction and variety of accommodation. On the Atlantic coast, in the provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, are typical sea-shore resorts, where salt-water bathing, sailing and deep sea fishing are the principal attractions. The rugged beauty of this coast and the picturesque charm of the fishing villages, at the head of every inlet, cannot fail to enchant the summer visitor.

Quebec's summer playgrounds are of the most varied nature including as they do, sea-shore, mountain, lake and forest resorts. Along the lower St. Lawrence, summer colonies have been established at many points. North of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa rivers the Laurentian mountains, clothed with pine forest and dotted with lakes, constitute a vast summer and winter playground. The Eastern Townships, which adjoin the international boundary, also have a number of well-established resorts, on picturesque lakes and rivers.

Ontario has perhaps the largest number and greatest variety of developed summer resorts of any of the provinces. The Thousand Islands, Lake of Bays, Muskoka lakes, and Georgian bay are known throughout America, but there are in addition equally attractive, only slightly less known, districts. Accommodation includes everything from campsite to palatial hotel, and cottages may be rented, in any district.

In the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta many attractive resorts are located along the shores of the lakes and rivers. The Canadian Rockies are world famous for scenic beauty and contain some of the most highly developed tourist resorts on the continent.

British Columbia, with varied and splendid scenic attractions, is a tourist wonderland. The province has majestic mountain ranges, and extensive lake area, stately forests, an imposing coast line, and many attractive resorts in settings of exceptional natural beauty.

Government Bureau Free Information Service

For a number of years the Department of the Interior at Ottawa has been engaged in the promotion of the Canadian tourist industry, more especially the development of tourist travel from the United States to Canada. It is also endeavouring to influence Canadians to spend their vacation in the Dominion. The National Development Bureau of that Department will gladly furnish interprovincial road maps and other information for the use of those planning a Canadian tour, and where necessary will refer enquiries to provincial and local tourist organizations. Applicants should be as specific as possible as to the section of Canada in which they are interested, in order that available information may be supplied.

WITH THE JUNIOR SCHOOL CLUBS

Caroline Kennedy of the Deep Brook 4-H Club reports that their former president, Vivian Claybourne, has moved away and Kathleen Spurr was elected as the new president. The boys made window boxes for the school and in these plants will be grown.

The Granville Ferry "Walk Straight" Band of Hope sold tickets amounting to $14.00 and thus aided the Sons of Temperance Division when they staged their play, "The Adventures of Grandpa." At a recent club meeting two pupils of the Primary Department gave a dialogue as part of the program.

The Queen of the Basin Branch at Clementsport, sell the "Red Cross Junior" each month. Regular meetings are held each week and the members put on a short program of entertainment.

The Junior Red Cross Club at Hillsburn school gave a pageant "Gifts to the Empire" on Empire Day. The meeting was held out of doors and was in the nature of a picnic. The girls have completed some garments for the Junior Red Cross and expect to send them to Halifax to Miss Browne. The president of this club is Muriel Halliday and the secretary is Mary Halliday.

Elaine Logan of the Granville Ferry Band of Hope reports that on April 8th. they received their charter. On May 13th., they all enjoyed their tree planting expedition to Lake La Rose in company with nineteen other schools. Earlier in the month some of the members went mayflowering and gave their flowers to Mrs. Bogart, Mrs. Calneck and Mrs. Chisholm.

You will be interested to hear that in Lower Granville 4-H Club they have a school orchestra. The instruments played are: Piano, autoharp, harmonica, kettle drum and bass drum. On Monday, evening, May 30, the orchestra played at a social given to raise funds to finance a trip to Grand Pre, on the holiday, June 3rd. The girls of the school are busy sewing the garments for the school Fair while the boys are planning some projects to carry out through the vacation. One member mended the school flag and the boys were to raise it for the holiday. The club bought a new water container and paper cups for the school.

May we remind you that it will soon be time to complete your exhibits for the County Exhibition and send them in to the office of the Agricultural Representative. We refer, of course, to the exhibits of school

HOME SURROUNDINGS COUNT

"We are influenced to a greater extent than we realize by our surroundings," observes F. C. Nunnick, chairman of the More Beautiful Canada Campaign Committee of the Canadian Horticultural Council. As he points out "children are particularly responsive to home surroundings and where these include lawns, shrubs, trees and flowers they make a much better place in which to bring up children than in a home where no attention whatever is paid to these friends of the plant kingdom." Environment is an important factor with children. The constant contact with the beautiful things of nature which well-kept home grounds affords is too important in the welfare of the home and the child to be overlooked.

ANNOUNCING—

a new low price on Tip Top Clothes

For twenty-one years the welfare of Tip Top Tailors has been closely interwoven with the condition of Canadian men.

As you have prospered and your numbers have increased, we have been able to build up a great tailoring organization on the policy of giving finer tailored to measure clothes for $24 than you could buy anywhere else.

Due to present economic conditions we believe that great numbers of men are now finding it difficult to pay even this price of $24. Yet they need more than ever the good appearance and long wear of Tip Top Clothes.

Millions of Canadian men have helped us build up Tip Top Tailors. Now, when you need it, we show our appreciation of your help in a practical way and ask your support in return. Effective June 10th the price of Tip Top Clothes is reduced to $22.50 for any suit, topcoat or overcoat, tailored to your measure.

There will be absolutely no lowering in quality in any way. The same fine fabrics, the same skilful tailoring. The same smartness and style will be maintained without exception.

We depend on Canadian men to extend us the increased volume of business that will be needed to continue this price. You will benefit as well as us. For Tip Top Clothes at the new price will be a still better buy than they have been before.

See the wonderful range of Tip Top samples at your dealer's. You couldn't go wrong in buying Tip Top Clothes before—your money spent with your Tip Top dealer will buy still more now. But act today.

Obituary

Estelle L. Aymar

Digby people were shocked to learn of the passing of Estelle L. Aymar, wife of S. S. Aymar, at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, on Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Aymar left Digby on a motor trip a short time ago, and while on the road between Saint John and Halifax on Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Aymar was stricken with a paralytic stroke and taken to the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, where she passed away. She was well known in Digby social circles, and was born in this town 65 years ago, the daughter of the late Timothy and Catherine Titus, at the Titus homestead on Birch street, where she and Mr. Aymar have made their home. Besides her three brothers, J. E. Titus, of Chester, N. H.; Kirk H. Titus, of Boston, Mass., and Stanley W. Titus, of Digby; also two sisters, Sadie, in the United States and Mrs. J. A. Russell, of Digby. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. E. Bishop, of the Digby United Baptist Church, with interment in the Baptist cemetery.

Samuel Gidney

The death of Samuel Gidney, one of the best known business men in Digby County, occurred at his home in Mink Cove (Digby Neck), shortly before midnight Tuesday. The late Mr. Gidney was 84 years of age last November, and up until a very short time ago, has been actively engaged in conducting the Telephone Company. He was one of the late Edward and Lydia Gidney, and was born in Mink Cove. He was the owner of what is perhaps the longest privately owned telephone line in the Maritimes, namely the Digby and Westport Telephone Line, which comprised the whole of Digby Neck, Long Island and Brier Island, with central exchanges in each of the principal villages along the route, forming one of the important links of communication in the province. This line has cables crossing both Petite and Grand Passages, and was acquired by Mr. Gidney about thirty-two years ago. He is survived by his widow and three sons, Omer, of Sanford, Conn., who is now at Mink Cove; Herado and Wilfred, both of Mink Cove, and one brother, Howard, of Wolfville. The funeral took place from the Sandy Cove United Baptist Church at 2 o'clock, yesterday afternoon.

Selby Garland

Selby Garland died suddenly at Berwick, on Sunday morning, aged 57 years. He was a native of Harbor Grace, Nfld., and came to Digby about nine years ago. He was a cooper and was in the employ of H. T. Warne. About six weeks ago he entered the Digby Hospital for treatment. For the past few weeks he showed considerable improvement, and on Thursday, went to Berwick, to visit his son, Herbert. On Sunday morning at 6 o'clock, he called his son, but before he could get to the bedside, Mr. Garland had died. He leaves a widow and twelve children, Florence (Mrs. Howell), in Georgia; Stella (Mrs. Moir), Dartmouth; William, of Digby; Herbert, of Berwick; Violet, Carboneau, Newfoundland; George, of Digby; John, Harbor Grace, Nfld.; Margaret, in Georgia; Ralph, Boston; Helen, Digby; Eric, Digby; Kathleen, Dartmouth. The remains arrived Sunday, and the funeral took place on Tuesday. Interment was in the Church of England cemetery.

Mrs. Fred J. Coggins

Very many friends will learn with deep regret of the death of Maude, wife of Fred J. Coggins, which occurred at her home in Westport on Friday afternoon last. Her illness, which only lasted a few days, was borne with remarkable Christian faith and fortitude. Her death, at the age of 64 years, causes sincere regret among a wide circle of friends throughout the community, and elsewhere. She was possessed of a bright and genial disposition and will long be remembered by her many friends. Her beautiful Christian life was an exam-

Mrs. O. A. Eisner Heads Rebekahs

The annual meeting of the District Association of Rebekahs was held at Annapolis Royal, Tuesday, with Mrs. Grace Hebb, Lunenburg, instructress. The afternoon session was occupied with business, followed by supper served by Unity Rebekah Lodge, Annapolis Royal. In the evening a degree was put on by Unity Lodge with 100 members present. Officers were named: President, Mrs. O. A. Eisner, Lawrencetown; Vice-President, Miss Vivian Stevens, Freeport; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Hetty Rice, Bridgetown. Delegates were present from Sunset Lodge, Westport; Fair Isle, Freeport; Olive Branch, Weymouth; Zelma, Digby; Elta, Bear River; Autumn Leaf, Bridgetown; Unity, Annapolis.

ple to all. She leaves to mourn their loss a sorrowing husband; three daughters, Mrs. Wm. Potter, Peterborough, Ont.; Mrs. Wm. Neish, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Mrs. Wm. Plummer, Syracuse, N. Y. A service was held from her late home on Sunday afternoon, Rev. M. Outhouse, pastor of the Christian church, assisted by Rev. H. H. Phinney, pastor of the United Baptist church, officiating. A large number attended the service. The remains were taken to Saint John, Monday, accompanied by her husband, daughter, Mrs. Wm. Potter, and stepdaughter, Mrs. John Mott. Mrs. Coggins was a member of the Coburg Street Christian Church, and the burial took place from that church on Tuesday afternoon. The floral offerings, which were many and very beautiful, showed the love and esteem of the many friends.

Kiwanis Clubs to Hold Field Day

The Kiwanis Clubs of the Maritime Provinces will hold Field Day at the Pines Hotel, on Friday, June 24th, and on the day they will officially open the Pines Hotel for the season of 1932. Kiwanians and their Queens from Saint John and Saint Stephen in New Brunswick, and from Yarmouth, Liverpool, Truro, Sydney and Digby, in Nova Scotia, are expected to be at this get-together Field Day in Digby. For the day the use of the Pines Golf Club and Swimming Pool will be given to the Kiwanians and their guests. The management of the Pines have made a very reasonable rate which includes luncheon for the day. On account of the field day on Friday the local club will not hold their weekly luncheon meeting this Monday.

The Centerville Hockey Club are already making preparations for this winter's season. They are planning a series of dances and pie socials throughout the summer in order to raise funds, and hope to be able to build some sort of an open air rink in the village this winter. The Centerville squad were a pretty fast bunch last year and we hope to see them get somewhere in the game. There is no reason why some of the Digby Neck teams should not hook up with the Western N. S. League, or form a league of their own. Everybody knows there is good stuff down on the Neck and the Islands.

LAKES STOCKED WITH FISH ATTRACT TOURISTS

To the Editor of The Courier,
Dear Sir:—Recently, I made a visit to Grand Lake, Maine, for the purpose of a careful study of the fish hatchery there and the rearing establishment for land-locked salmon and speckled trout.

The adult salmon are trapped in the lower narrow part of the lake, just above the dam, where they are stripped of the spawn, and the eggs are hatched in the hatchery nearby.

The young fry are taken from the hatchery when about one inch or one and one-half inches in length and placed in the rearing pools where they are fed and otherwise cared for until of an age, when they can safely be placed in the lake to look after themselves.

Upwards of one million land-locked salmon are placed in this lake annually and two hundred thousand speckled trout, with the result that the lake is so heavily stocked that the fishing is unsurpassed, resulting in a large influx of tourists, whose expenditures there have resulted in the building up of a prosperous community affording employment to a large number of guides at good wages and a corresponding increase in business to the merchants and farmers who supply the local needs.

A large number of up-to-date bungalows have been built to house the tourists, many of them fully equipped with hot and cold water, good bathrooms and electric lighting. Larger buildings are devoted to dining rooms and kitchens, where a service is maintained equal to that obtained at a modern hotel.

What I saw there is only one example of the tourist colonies, which are scattered all over the state of Maine, every suitable lake being heavily stocked with choice game fish to attract the thousands of people who resort there to enjoy the splendid angling privileges thus provided.

The manager of the fish cultural establishment told me that were it not for the efforts of the state in keeping up the supply of fish in the inland waters, Maine would be very badly off, indeed! The timber has been all cut away, and the supply of pulpwood is steadily diminishing, making it necessary to close down pulp and paper mills or greatly curtail production. He said the tourist business was now the principal reliance and no state legislature could survive that did not amply support the programme of thoroughly stocking the lakes and streams.

Thirty-one fish hatcheries are now in operation there and two hundred and six rearing stations. The state of Maine was six or seven years ahead of the federal government at Washington in planting advanced fingerlings, yearlings and two year old fish. This method of stocking inland waters is now spreading to other countries and the Dominion government has drawn up a cooperative programme whereby it will aid local agencies in carrying out this method.

Working in close cooperation with the various Fish and Game Protective Associations I am striving to raise funds to supplement the aid of the federal government in building two of these rearing establishments, one at Grand Lake, Halifax county, for land-locked salmon and speckled trout and another at Nine Mile Lake, Lunenburg county, for salmon trout or as commonly called, grey trout or togue.

The Dominion Government agrees to do the following:

1. Furnish experts to pronounce upon the suitability of sites.
2. To send departmental engineers to survey and lay out the works and superintend construction.
3. To furnish all the fry needed of such species as are desired.
4. To instruct as to care and feeding of the young fish.
5. When ready for liberation will distribute the fish to desired location.

Local agencies are required to raise the funds necessary to construct the plants and supply food and necessary care.

Such a programme is in operation in Maine and many anglers' clubs, fish and game associations and others are taking full advantage of it.

The two stations projected for Nova Scotia are now being examined by the expert and in a few days the sites will be selected. It is hoped that these two will be only the forerunners of many others, one or more in each county.

I trust that I have not misjudged the temper of our people, when I appeal to them for

FINE NEW EVANGELINE TOURIST BOOKLET ISSUED

Four Pages Larger than Last Year, New Scenes and a Striking Color Arrangement Show Signs of Progress.

The new issue of the Land of Evangeline Tourist Association booklet is now being distributed. The size of this booklet has been increased by four pages this year. A new and very attractive color scheme with fresh scenes on the cover, which is in three colors, makes a very pleasing presentation of the Land of Evangeline. A worthwhile addition is a page containing the executive officers of the Association, with the advice that prospective tourists may apply to these members for desired information concerning their respective localities.

In looking through this booklet one will find many splendid illustrations and timely bits of information covering the territory from Digby to Windsor, presented in a concise and interesting manner. Faded's printing of Evangeline occupies a prominent place facing the first page. The Traveller's Guide Post is more complete this year and this, along with various other nicely displayed advertisements, make up a really valuable piece of tourist publicity which is being given wide distribution through effective channels.

funds to forward this endeavor. The situation as I discovered it in Maine has prompted me to urge our people to support a similar programme to put our fair province on the tourist map, and I am certain that we will reap an abundant reward.

Fishing for the land-locked salmon with light tackle furnishes a thrill that only those who have experienced it can fully appreciate. It can be enjoyed by young and old of either sex, with equal delight.

In the short space of a newspaper article I cannot begin to depict the enormously useful results that can follow. Let me conclude by stating that in 1931 the state of Maine received over $80,000,000 from her visiting tourists.

Thanking you for your valuable space, I am,
Yours truly,
A. C. Fales.

WEYMOUTH FIELD DAY AND DANCE

To the Editor of The Courier,
Sir:—Criticism when honest, well deserved, constructive and helpful is praiseworthy. When otherwise, it tends to no good purpose and should be avoided.

The remarks made in your editorial column of the 10th, inst., make it necessary for me to correct the impression which you and doubtless many others possibly may hold in connection with the field day sponsored by the Weymouth Amateur Athletic Association as a result of which, our small organization came under the fire of criticism.

The statement made that we promised a portion of our receipts to the field day committee is not true.

Their action in advertising a benefit dance under our leadership was presumptuous, uncalled for, and without authority. Not only that, it was unsolicited by us. We advertised this dance and sponsored it before any mention of a field day was made known either to us or the public.

Not one member of the Weymouth Amateur Athletic Association attended this dance or contributed in any financial way to its success, a fact alone which demonstrates beyond question, the spirit of grab rather than helpful co-operation, the latter of which being the basis of all true sportsmanship.

Mr. Editor, I thank you, C. H. Brittain, Mrs. F. R. Potter, Weymouth Orchestra.

EDITOR'S NOTE.—We notice Mr. Brittain says the remarks were made in the Editorial column, but he is mistaken; they were in a letter from "A member of the Association" and were published as such.

MORE people are buying CHEVROLET SIXES than ANY other car

because Chevrolet gives more for the money

The new Chevrolet became Canada's largest selling automobile because it offered the public outstanding value in a low priced car. Today, Chevrolet is maintaining its lead in sales because, with prices reduced and quality unchanged, Chevrolet has increased its lead in value. For the first four months of 1932, Chevrolet has outsold the next leading car more than two-to-one.

Drive a Chevrolet—how much more it offers than you can find elsewhere in the lowest price field. Smarter styling—Chevrolet emulates the modern lines and modern fittings of expensive custom cars. Finer construction—for Chevrolet, alone in its field, has bodies by Fisher, with their lasting, quiet hardwood-impregnated construction. More advanced features—because of Chevrolet's Free Wheeling, silent Synchro-Mesh gear shifting and many other up-to-date advantages. A more economical engine—because with its built-in smoothness, its speed and acceleration, the Chevrolet six cylinder power plant costs less to operate than any other automobile engine of comparable size and power. A more thoroughly proved product—because no other 1932 motor car is backed by the satisfactory road experience of so many thousands of owners.

A Greater Value than Ever—because you can enjoy all these advantages today in any of thirteen big, quality models—at reduced prices—and on small payments spread over a period of months.

In addition to getting the news quickly, one can save several times the subscription price by watching the advertising announcements of the merchants and taking advantage of the bargains there offered. In this way one can keep the household expenses many dollars below what it would cost per year if they did not know of these specials.

COMFORT

... THROUGH CASTORIA'S GENTLE REGULATION

The best way to prevent colic, doctors say, is to avoid gas in stomach and bowels by keeping the entire intestinal tract open, free from waste. But remember this: a tiny baby's tender little organs cannot stand harsh treatment. They must be gently urged. This is just the time Castoria can help most. Castoria, you know, is made specially for babies and children. It is a pure vegetable preparation, perfectly harmless. It contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. For years it has helped mothers through trying times with colicky babies and children suffering with digestive upsets, colds and fever. Keep genuine Castoria on hand, with the name:

CANADA TO OPEN FRUIT-VEGETABLE PUBLICITY DRIVE

A "five-year plan" of national advertising, for the purpose of telling Canadians which, when and how to eat more fresh fruits and vegetables, will be launched in a few weeks' time by 40,000 Canadian growers, in co-operation with jobbers and shippers of these commodities in all parts of the Dominion.

The campaign will be prosecuted vigorously the year round, through the daily press, leaflets and other channels of publicity.

This decision of growers and jobbers to work together to push the sale of fresh fruits and vegetables, through advertising, marks the culmination of more than 10 years' steady educational work on the part of the Canadian Horticultural Council and private individuals.

These agencies have endeavored to impress upon growers and jobbers alike that publicity is as important for moving their commodities, getting them on the market and into the hands of the consumer in the best possible condition, as it is in promoting the sale of manufactured products.

TO PRODUCE HISTORICAL PAGEANT OF DIGBY - ANNAPOLIS CO'S

Sponsored by The Digby Kiwanis Club.

A Cast of About Three Hundred to be Selected from all parts of Digby and Annapolis Counties

Greatest Yet

The Digby Kiwanis will present on July 26th. and 27th., an Historical Pageant and Revue of Progress in Digby and Annapolis Counties.

This will be the greatest theatrical production and the most elaborate entertainment ever attempted in Western Nova Scotia. To make the affair an assured success, the Kiwanis Club has secured The Bourque Producing Company of Perth, Ontario, and Moncton, N. B., and the Club was fortunate in making special arrangements to have Mr. Desire J. Bourque, head of the Company, to personally direct the Pageant. Besides having several years on the professional stage, Mr. Bourque has had eight years experience as a producer of Home Talent Theatricals, and has made a specialty of pageantry. He holds certificates from three leading American Schools of Dancing, and General Stage Arts, so those taking part will receive a most valuable training.

The Pageant will be presented out-of-doors, on grounds specially prepared. The Bourque Producing Company furnishes all scenery, lighting equipment and costumes, and a colorful array will be displayed.

This presentation will be of great interest to all in the two counties, and it is hoped that everyone will help in making it a decided success. It is undertaken by the Kiwanis Club to raise funds for carrying on their great work of providing for underprivileged children, especially during the coming winter.

Further information and details will be given each week in these columns.

HANDICAPPED CONFERENCES

If a man were terribly ill and his physician called other physicians in for consultation, they would consider him crazy if he said, "Now I want you to confine your remarks to the patient's fever. We will not discuss at all the causes of his illness or any of the symptoms except the single one of fever."

If a building were showing signs of collapsing, and the owner called in a builder to see what could be done to save it, he would be considered crazy if he said to the builder, "I do not want you to examine the foundations or general structure of the building. Please confine your attention to this one crack at the northeast corner."

Is not that the sort of thing the nations are doing now? They agree to hold conferences, supposedly to find out what ails the world and what can be done about it. Then they ruin all chance of success at the start by saying, "We will talk about just this one phase or one symptom or one condition. If any of the rest of you take the liberty of bringing up any allied matters, we will leave the conference, or we won't go in the first place."

Thus a disarmament conference is restricted to talk of the size of guns, and an economic conference must above all things, avoid the subject and reparations, and so on. No wonder world confusion grows no better fast.

John to substitute for Captain McMurtry, who had been taken ill. This was Capt. Peters' first trip with the Rio Tambo on the Bay of Fundy route, although he had command of her all last summer while on another route.

The Rio Tambo suffered some damage about the bow, and is leaking slightly. When she struck she listed on her side, but her crew were not in danger at any time. In fact, members were able to get ashore and send word of the mishap to St. John and to notify the Life Saving Station, at Bay View, at the entrance to Digby Gut.

The life boat at the Bay View station was launched at about three o'clock this morning, and arrived alongside until the vessel floated and was able to proceed to Digby.

During the war the Rio Tambo was a submarine chaser, capable of making 28 knots an hour. After the war she was converted into a freighter and crude oil engines installed.

Grateful Testimony to the Way Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Tide Them Over Danger Period

Soon the Picture of Health

"My daughter, at 15, was a thin, nervous child, 24 lbs. underweight—I gave her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Pills with the result that now, at 16, she is a healthy, lively girl," writes Mrs. G. Stimpson, Winnipeg.

Jean J. Brown, Calgary, writes: "When I was 11 years old, I had a nervous breakdown. Had to be put to bed. Mother knew about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and at once started to give them to me. After taking three boxes I was myself again. Mother thinks there is no medicine like Pink Pills for run-down, high-strung girls."

Don't let anaemia rob your growing daughter of health and vigour. Give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are the temporary relief. They banish the condition by creating new blood which imparts health, vigour and vitality. Equally good for run-down or nervous conditions. At your druggists. See a package.

Too Much ACID

MANY people, two hours after eating, suffer indigestion—as they call it. It is usually excess acid. Correct it with an alkali. The best way, the quickest, harmless and efficient way, is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained for 50 years the standard with physicians. One spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in stomach acids, and at once. The symptoms disappear in five minutes.

You will never use crude methods when you know this better method. And you will never suffer from excess acid when you prove out this easy relief.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 50¢ a bottle—any drug store.

The ideal dentifrice for clean teeth and healthy gums is Phillips' Dental Magnesia tooth-paste.

On Wednesday evening the losing side in the contest—and there must always be a losing side—"treated" the division and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

On Tuesday evening next this division will pay a fraternal visit to Hope Division, of Acaciaville.

TO NATURE LOVERS

It seems to me I'd like to go Where bells don't ring nor whistles blow.Nor clock don't strike, nor gongs don't sound
And I'd have stillness all around.Not real stillness, but just the trees
Loy whispering, or the hum of bees.
Or brooks faint babbling over stones
In strangely, softly tangled tones.Or maybe the cricket or katydid.
Or the songs of the birds in the hedges hid.Or just some such sweet sounds as these
To fill a tired heart with ease.What could be more ideal on these glorious spring days or in the still more glorious summer days which are now fast approaching, than to take a trip into the woods and there, at one's self upon a fallen log which was once a strong tree, or on the mossy earth, and then listen to the songs of the birds, the murmur of the trees, the scampering of the squirrels, the whisper of the wind, the lapping of the waters of a lake or stream, the crackle of fallen branches, or to sun through the trees, or crush the fragrant pine or cedar twigs between one's hands and inhale the fragrance and stimulating scent.To the true lover of nature, in all its visible and invisible forms, the scent and song of the open is the most effective medicine;
this breath and scent of beauty seems to be the one thing in the world that is eternal. This quiet and solace of the out-of-doors brings people to themselves as nothing else does, and as we find the material giving place to the spiritual it mellow our hearts, broadens our mind and makes us more tolerant and liberal; melts away the pettiness of our natures and makes us very humble.Out in the heart of Nature one cannot help but grow large in thought and heart. To the human beings who can appreciate it, the philosophy of the world flows through just the ordinary, commonplace things so many fail to understand or appreciate. But to those who really do appreciate the quiet solace of the out of doors, they too can say, like Henry Van Dyke, in his charming poem:These are the things I prize
And hold of dearest worth.
Light of the sapphire skies,
Peace of the ancient hills, Shelter of forests, comfort of the grass,
And after showers,
Music of birds, murmur of little rills.
Shadows of clouds that swiftly pass;
And after hovers
The smell of flowers,
And of the good brown earth.
And best of all along the way,
Friendship and mirth.

AUTO UPSETS

Wednesday afternoon a car, owned and operated by Sinclair Therault, of Belliveau's Cove, went in the ditch near Little Brook, and overturned. The car was proceeding from Yarmouth at a moderate rate of speed, when suddenly a tire on the front wheel gave way. The operator tried to stop the car but the momentum carried the car into the ditch, where it overturned. There were four occupants. Mrs. Sinclair Therault suffered injuries to the side, and Mr. Therault to his arm.
The others were badly shaken up.MOOSE STRANGLED
IN FORK OF TREEHow a fine moose was strangled to death as his head was caught in a fork of a tree, evidently when it leaped high up on its hindlegs reaching for a tempting piece of twig; how a bear in a trap at the scene put to flight a party of four woodmen; and how two bears fought, with a large raven caught in a trap set for their own catching as the prize, are the stories told at Barton by "Archie" Amero.After told by the boys about the bear in his trap, Mr. Amero and Stephen Smith went to the spot and the former with one discharge of a 22 killed the bruin. Leaving there they came upon a second trap, sprung by a raven, over which a pair of bears were fighting. Both animals escaped.Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Potter and family, accompanied by Mr.
and Mrs. F. T. Potter, motored to Annapolis Royal on Saturday, returning Sunday.

Obituary

Mrs. Samuel McCormack

After a brief illness, Mary, widow of the late Samuel Mc-Cormack, and daughter of the late Capt. Thomas B. Tooker, passed away at her home in Weymouth, on Wednesday, June 15, aged 81 years. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Benjamin Waitt, of Lynn, Mass.; three daughters, Mrs. J. H. Greene, Boston, Mass. (Mrs. S. C. Matthews, Morston, N. B.); and Mrs.
P. H. Young, of Quincy, Mass.; two sons, John, with whom she resided, and Roy, in Ontario; also six grandchildren and one great grandson. The funeral was held from St. Peter's Anglican Church at Weymouth North, on Saturday afternoon, with interment in St. Peter's cemetery, Rev. L. W. Mosher, Rector of the church conducting the ceremony.

John Thibedeau

John Thibedeau, of Ashmore, who was 87 years old, passed away at his home on Saturday, June 11th. He left to mourn his wife, five daughters and three sons. Two of his daughters came home on Tuesday, one from Massachusetts and the other from New York. His burial took place at Plympton on Wednesday, June 8th.

CONCESSION

L. A. d'Entremont, inspector of schools, visited the school here on Wednesday.Bernard LeBlanc, who broke his leg some time ago, is now able to go about on crutches.Miss Judith Boudreau arrived Saturday from the United States on a three-day excursion. She came especially to visit her sick turned on Tuesday.Mrs. John Belliveau, Miss Rose Belliveau, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Therault and Miss Cecile Ther-ault were visiting friends here on Sunday.Mrs. Disa LeBlanc went to Weymouth Saturday, on business.Mr. and Mrs. Edward Comeau, Lower Saultville, were visiting friends here on Sunday.W. R. Harris, Ford Dealer, of Weymouth, whose advertisement appears in the Digby Courier this week, staged rather a unique advertising stunt last Saturday evening. Mr. Harris was expecting a carload of new Fords and wanted to advertise the fact in the local press, but due to unavoidable reasons, was unable to do so. He had to let the Digby public know about it somehow, so he organized a parade at Weymouth and brought it to Digby. Leading the procession was a 1905 "Lizzie," then came the 1928 "Elizabeth," with 50,780 miles chained up on the speedometer and good for many more; these were followed by later models including the new V-8 Model.

The Weymouth Band came along with the parade, and while in town, put on a band concert which was much appreciated.

ASHMORE

A spelling match was held in the Ashmore school Friday afternoon, between the Weymouth grades I, IX and X, and the same grades of this school, IX and X, of Weymouth, and I, of Ashmore being the winners.William Kinney, Renetta and Louise Kinney, were visitors to Acaciaville on Sunday.Victor Doty, who has been a patient in the Digby General Hospital, returned home on Thursday, very much improved in health.Kenneth Manzer, who for the winter months has been working in Wolville, has been spending a few weeks with his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Manzer.Rev. F. C. Amery and Mrs.
Amery were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Marshall on Wednesday.Mr. and Mrs. George Sabean were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Doty, on Sunday.Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sabean have received the sad news that their little grandson, Warren MacDonald, who was only nine years old, was drowned in Waltham, Mass. last week."That's a nice looking fellow at the next table," said a young man who had taken a girl friend to lunch in a restaurant. "Is he a friend of yours?"

"Yes, indeed," said the girl.

"Well—I think I'll ask him to join us."

"Oh, this is so sudden!"

"Why—why, that's our minister," said she blushing.MacGregor had just arrived in America after a weary journey across the Atlantic. As he walked off the ship he saw a man in a diving outfit climbing up from the harbor to the deck of a near-by boat."Mon! Mon!" he exclaimed.
"I wish I'd known about that sooner: I'd have walked across myself."

Cash Prizes Offered

A striking series of newspaper advertisements will shortly announce an offer of $1000 cash and 182 other cash prizes for the best fifty word description of a Floating Power ride.
The reason for the Contest,
according to Mr. Jno. D. Mansfield, President of the Chrysler Corporation of Canada Limited, is that a great many people do not yet know what Floating Power means to the performance of an automobile."Floating Power is being confused with free wheeling, automatic clutch and many other features that are not even remotely connected with it," declared Mr. Mansfield. "It is believed specially confused with the conventional type of rubber engine mounting which was introduced by Chrysler years ago and which is still widely used.""We have entirely abandoned this conventional type of rubber mounting," continued Mr. Mansfield. "Floating Power involves not only a new type of mounting but an entirely new principle giving quite different results.""We are therefore inviting the public to take a Floating Power ride and at the same time offering an opportunity of winning a rich cash prize for the best description of what we claim to be a new experience in motoring," concluded Mr. Mansfield.

INSEPARABLE TWINS ARE NOT TWINS WHEN PAYING RAILWAY FARE

Siamese twins, always an attraction at fairs and exhibitions, have now given rise to debate among railway companies as to the number of tickets required for their transportation. The Canadian National Railways Passenger Department was required to submit its views on the subject to various passenger associations with headquarters in Chicago, who point out that there are conflicting legal opinions held by United States lines. One railway through its Law Department, says Siamese twins, although two persons and possessing individual faculties, are one inseparable human entity. They are so joined together, competent medical authorities have ruled, that when one dies the other must die. Wherever one goes the other must go, therefore, one fare is valid for their transportation. The Legal Department of another railway holds that two tickets are required and rules the subjects are designated as twins and have all the physical characteristics of separate individuals. Many suggestions might be advanced to indicate they are two persons or entities. For instance, records show the original Siamese twins were married. They could and probably did own separate property. A merchant furnishing apparel for two would not be satisfied with the price for one, nor is it likely that a restaurateur or railway dining car department would supply meals for two at the price of one. Passenger fares are not based on lineal or cubic measurements or weight; age is the only governing factor. So far as service is concerned they require what is rendered to adults and service for two is what is rendered in seats, berths and meals. Therefore two tickets are required.

About 95 per cent. of all rivers in North America flow south or into streams flowing south.

The land of the Pharaohs will soon be eating New Brunswick spuds and King Tut will probably turn over and sigh that he was not able to be in on this epoch making event, bringing potatoes from a land some six thousand miles away of which he never heard. A trial order for a ton of New Brunswick table potatoes has been received by the Saint John Board of Trade from the Canadian Trade Commissioner at Cairo, Egypt, Yves Lamontagne.

Canadians are addicted to tea to a greater extent than coffee according to figures showing the annual consumption in a bulletin. About 40,000,000 lbs. of the former and 30,000,000 of the latter are consumed annually.

There were 423 more factories in Canada in 1930 than in the previous year according to the Industrial Department of the Canadian National Railways. The total number of manufacturing establishments in Canada in 1930 was 24,020. The investment in Canadian manufacturing industries during 1930 increased by $120,302,006, making a new record total for all industries of $5,302,316,760.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith, of Windsor, visited at the home of Jeffery Veno, Deep Brook, on Friday of last week.

The Misses Winterburn, of Montreal, are staying at The Elms.
Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Akerley, Mrs. George Boushish, of Freeport, and Mrs. Irving Ruggles, of Tiverton, were in town on Monday on their way home from the United Baptist Association at Lawrencetown.

Why Not Place Out a Few Seats?

Most of us, either directly or indirectly make our living from the summer tourist trade. Without the summer visitors business here would be pretty much at a standstill, much more so than it is now.

Are we doing all we can to make our town as attractive as possible for these summer visitors, or are we just doing the least we can do in the hope of getting all we can out of them—"taxing them to the limit" so to speak?

The season is hardly under way for this year, but only the other day, Monday, to be truthful, we heard some strangers bemoaning the fact that there was no place for them to sit unless they parked themselves on someone's doorstep, and they asked why it was the town did not supply benches along some of the spots overlooking the Basin.

Surely, this is a small matter, but yet it was the cause of one complaint, and, well, a few nice comfortable benches placed here and there wouldn't take much out of the taxpayers' pockets and would add much to the comfort of the tourists. It is done in other tourist centres, and Digby, with its reputation of being the leading summer resort in Eastern Canada cannot afford to lag behind even in this small matter.

ROME BANS BURNING OF CANDLES IN CHURCHES

"Tends to Give Appearance of Superstition," Declares the Pope's Vicar-General.

Burning of candles before statues and sacred images in Catholic churches has been forbidden in the Diocese of Rome as "tending to give the appearance of superstition."

Issued by the Vicar General of His Holiness Pope Pius XI, the order says that the candles do not contribute to the cleanliness or neatness of churches and the simultaneous burning of many tapers often smokes the walls and vitates the atmosphere.

Photographing of sacred functions and the use of artificial flowers in devotions are also banned by the order, which will cause considerable change in Catholic churches throughout the world if other dioceses follow its ruling on burning of candles before images. The custom is one centuries old and if it were generally abolished the appearance of churches would undergo noticeable alteration.

A valuable four-weeks-old colt belonging to Louis Boudreau, Mavillette had to be killed a few days ago to end its sufferings. Colt and mother had been led to a brook for a drink when a cow on the same farm began to fight the colt and gored its side, which was not noticed till later in the day.

The potato crop at Mavillette has all the earmarks of a failure and farmers are busy at a second planting, the first planted potatoes having rotted in the ground, due to the long dry spell. Neighboring villages report the same trouble, and also Yarmouth County. One farmer had a field of 20,000 hills of which he had to replant 18,000.

BASEBALL

On Tuesday of last week, in one of the best games seen here this season, played under adverse conditions, Bear River defeated Weymouth 12-9 in ten innings. Before the finishing of Tooker, and the excellent support accorded him, excellent support accorded him, Bear River was helpless up to the seventh. Weymouth seemingly had things all their own way at the time, leading 7-0. Bear River, however, came from behind to even up. Hollowell and Campbell, who relieved Tooker did not fare so well, Bear River scoring 9 runs off them in three innings, making nine all at the end of the ninth, Bear River scoring 3 runs more in the tenth inning.

Weymouth was defeated 8-4 by Bridgetown in a well played exhibition game on the W. A. A. Grounds, on Wednesday last. G. LeBrun and Ackland pitched for the visitors while Campbell, Jones and Tooker for the home boys. Good fielding was featured by both teams.

From Weymouth Bridgetown went to Church Point, where they played a scoreless tie exhibition game. Both teams played well and the game developed into a pitchers' battle from the start. Ackland of Bridgetown, pitched a nice game allowing but one hit, walked one and hit one batter. Louis Thibodeau, the opposing pitcher, allowed but five hits, struck out seven, and walked one, batter. Bridgetown's five hits were mostly made on errors. A large crowd of fans witnessed the game and kept interest was high.

Church Point "Les Acadiciens" defeated the Weymouth A. A. 9-1 in a game played at Church Point, on Friday. Louis Thibodeau, "Les Acadiciens" star pitcher, pitched the entire game, striking out fifteen batters and allowing but four hits. Mullen pitched a steady game for Weymouth until the 8th, striking out 3. Tooker finished the game in good style, striking out 5. Good fielding was featured by both teams.

Church Point "Les Acadiciens" defeated the Digby baseball team on June 12th, by a score of 10-9 in an interesting game, played before a large crowd of fans, at Church Point. Robinson, Digby's star pitcher, did some remarkable work on the mound by striking out fourteen batters. After a slow start the Church Point boys found their stride in the fifth, seventh and ninth. With the score 9-7 in the first half of the ninth, in favor of Digby, Church Point got a man on base and Edward LeBlanc poled out a home run to tie the score. With another man on base, Felix Boudreau brought the winning run across the plate.

The Weymouth School Baseball team defeated the Weymouth North School team 11-5 in a game played on the W. A. A. Grounds on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Brockbank Tells Why She Recommends Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to Women of 40 to 50

"My age was 48—which every woman knows is a critical time of life—when I derived such benefits from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills," writes Mrs. Brockbank. Hamilton. "I felt so tired and depressed I could not sleep; my appetite was impaired; my skin and lips were pale. I could not make any headway with my household work. I got discouraged as a tonic after tonic did not better my condition. My sister, a graduate nurse, advised Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking a few boxes my condition greatly improved. My sleep was restful and my natural color and appetite returned."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills rebuild health by creating new blood and increasing the red blood cells, which restore the wasted tissues and revitalize the exhausted system. They remove the cause of run-down or nervous conditions. Try them. At your druggist's in the new protective glass containers, 50c. a package.

WE ARE A NATION OF BOOBS

Not until we stop being a nation of boobs will we see the end of depression.

Making more laws and levying more taxes will not provide the way out, but there are certain things that Parliament and the legislature can and should do without further piddling.

Procrastination, uncertainty, shifty political dodging, etc., add fresh complications to our troubles with each passing day. Lawmakers loll in their seats or make long winded speeches and then abuse with epithet and calumny those who dare suggest that they display a little backbone and courageously tackle their problems.

We are tired of praying for the end of the depression and then lifting our eyes to see our chosen leaders, both inside and outside the halls of legislation, doing everything they can to prolong it through acts of omission and commission.

We have elected men to transact public business whom we would not for a moment think of trusting with the transaction of our private business, and then utter loud and indignant shrieks when they fall down on the job.

We are disgusted with the bungling of domestic problems, foreign problems, business, the stock market, governmental expenditures, tariffs, taxation, and a variety of other subjects that affect our well being.

It is time to cut out the tommyrot, get rid of our emotions, and operate with a little soundness and sanity.

We fuss and fiddle around collecting war debts, blame Europe's dilatory tactics for all of our financial ills, listen to the childish propaganda of pacifistic preachers, hysterical college professors, peanut politicians, street corner economists, and flannel mouthed demagogues, while we actually lose in national prosperity many times over the actual dollars and cents involved in war debts.

Talk about Nero fiddling while Rome burned! In this country we have about 11,000,000 fiddlers, all working on different tunes, with Parliament and our legislative bodies alternately waving the baton.

We scream our heads off demanding that the war debts be paid, making it possible to reduce the tax burden and we erect higher and higher tariff walls to prevent their being paid.

An absurd system of distribution causes us to form bread lines for the unemployed within a few miles of where farmers are feeding good vegetables and apples to the hogs. Thousands have shivered through icy blasts of winter while both cotton and wool are selling at far below the cost of production.

We jump with glee at the prospect of placing surtaxes of 50 and 60 per cent. on the incomes of the rich who no longer have incomes, and therefore will not pay anything into the treasury.

We do our utmost to force the rich man's money out of business through punitive legislation, forcing withdrawal of capital from the industries on which the poor depend and cause the capitalist to put his money into tax-exempt securities.

We refuse to buy goods of other men which we actually need and are able to pay for and then wonder why other men do not buy our goods.

We buy securities of any and every flimsy little corporation that prints bonds with gold ink on linen paper regardless of their price, and then frantically sell them when the bottom falls out of the market.

We found no price too high to pay for stocks in 1929 and no price too low to sell them short in 1932.

We enthusiastically purchase stocks at the height of the boom for 25 to 50 times the biggest earnings they have ever shown, but we will have nothing whatever to do with those

THE TONGUE

"The boneless tongue, so small and weak. Can crush and kill," declares the Greek.

"The tongue destroys a greater horde," The Turk asserts, "than does the sword."

The Persian proverb wisely saith, "A lengthy tongue — and early death!"

Or sometimes takes this form instead, "Don't let your tongue cut off your head."

"The tongue can speak a word whose speed," Say the Chinese, "outstrips the steed."

And Arab sages this impart, "The tongue's great storehouse is the heart."

From Hebrew wit the maxim sprang, "Though feet should slip, ne'er let the tongue."

The sacred writer crowns the whole "Who keeps his tongue doth keep his soul."

TAXATION

(With apologies to Denver Post)

Tax the people, tax with care. To help the multi-millionaire, Tax the farmer, tax his fowl.

Tax the dog and tax his howl. Tax the hen, and tax her egg. And let the bloomin' mudshell beg.

Tax the pig and tax his squeal. Tax his boots run down at heel; Tax his horses, tax his lands.

Tax the blisters on his hands. Tax his plow and tax his clothes. Tax the rag that wipes his nose; Tax his house, and tax his bed.

Tax the bald spot on his head. Tax his ox, and tax his ass. Tax his "Henry," tax his gas. Tax the road that he must pass.

And make his travel over the grass. Tax his cow, and tax his calf. Tax him if he dare to laugh.

He is but a common man, so Tax the cuss, just all you can. Tax the laborer, but be discreet. Tax him for walking on the street.

Tax his bread and tax his meat. Tax the shoes clear off his feet. Tax the pay roll, tax the sale.

Tax all his hard-earned paper kale; Tax his pipe and tax his smoke. Teach him govment is no joke. Tax their coffins, tax their shrouds.

Tax their souls beyond the clouds. Tax all business, tax the shop; Tax their incomes, tax their stocks; Tax the living, tax the dead.

Tax the unborn, before they're fed. Tax the water, tax the air. Tax the candles if you dare.

Tax them all, and tax them well. Tax them to the gates of hell. But close your eyes so you can't see. The coupon clipper go tax free.

—Don Lupton.

"Oh, well, it's great to be livin' anyway. The poor man always did have a hard row to hoe—he's the guy that pays the shot."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

There are bridges to cross And the way is long, But a purpose in life will make you strong;

Keep on your lips a cheerful song, And always look up, look up!

Mrs. Gabbins—"Here is an interesting article on 'What a woman should weigh.'"

Husband—"Does it by any chance, mention her words?"

stocks when they are selling for next to nothing at all.

We actually pass up government bonds selling below par when if there is anything on God's green earth that ought to be worth 100 cents on the dollar, it is a government bond.

We hail every demagogue and rabble-rouser with glad acclaim and jeer at every man who tries to pour a little common sense in our ears.

At the height of a boom we could not see a depression and at the bottom of the depression we see no more booms. We are sure the whole world is going to hell a-whooping.

WE CAN ONLY HAVE ONE MOTHER

We can only have one mother, Patient, kind and true. No other friend in all the world. Will be so true to you; For all her loving kindness She asks nothing in return; If all the world desert you, To mother you can turn.

Many tears you've caused her. When you were sad and ill, Maybe many sleepless nights, 'Tis true you cause her still. So every time you leave her, Or where'er you come or go, Give her a kind word and a kiss, 'Tis what she craves you know.

We can only have one mother. None else can take her place; You can't tell how you'll need her, Till you miss her loving face. Be careful how you answer her. Choose every word you say. Remember, she's your mother, Tho' now she's old and gray.

We can only have one mother. Oh, take her to your heart; You cannot tell how soon the time When you and she must part. Let her know you love her dearly, Cheer and comfort her each day. You can never get another When she has passed away.

A Chinese walked into an East Side New York jewellery establishment and asked to be shown some "welly good watches."

The proprietor being absent, the customer was waited upon by the daughter, who placed three timepieces marked respectively $25, $20, and $15, in a row in that order on the counter.

The Chinese, after looking at them, called attention to a watch on the shelf behind the young lady. As she turned he put the highest priced watch in place of the lowest priced one, and not caring for the watch then shown him, said: "No like that! I take cheap watch," paid $15, and departed.

Soon the girl discovered the deception and told her father upon his arrival.

"Never mind," he said, with a smile, "those watches cost me all the same price, $25. But wot a scoundrel dat Chinaman must be."

"What is the name of your car?"

"I call her 'Shasta.'"

"Because she's a daisy?"

"No, because she has to have gas, she has to have oil, she has to have air, she has to have something all the time."

The men whom I have seen succeed best in life have always been cheerful, and hopeful men who went about their business with a smile on their faces and took chances and changes of their mortal life like men, facing rough and smooth alike as it came; and so found the truth of the old proverb, that good times and bad times and all times pass over.—Charles Kingsley.

The honeymoon couple were about to alight from the taxi. "I feel so nervous," George, she whispered. "They are sure to know."

But George was resourceful. "Here," he said. "You carry the bags."

"I was just a girl at the time" . . .

this charming lady told us. "My father wasn't very prosperous. Mother watched every item of expense. Appearance had to be maintained. No extravagance, however small, was allowed to pass.

I well remember Mother checking up on the comparative value of laundry soap. She liked Surprise. But such was her rigid code that she didn't intend to cater to her whim if Surprise were less economical than other soaps.

But trial after trial showed that a cake of it washed more tubfuls than most soap. And Mother was satisfied that the things were cleaner. She always used it after that. I still use it to this day. I find it most economical and by all odds the most satisfactory soap I have ever bought."

NERVOUS BRAVADO AT THE WHEEL

More automobile accidents asserts the Montreal Herald, are caused by nervous bravado than by almost anything else. Take accidents at intersections:

A driver pulls up at an intersection where there is a stop sign.

If he is a good driver he waits until the through traffic has passed and then proceeds unhurriedly.

But not so the driver afflicted by nervous bravado. He sees a short gap between passing cars and suddenly decides to shoot through.

Why? Because he is a poor driver, and a fool driver at that, and knows it. He is afraid that waiting will stamp him in the eyes of others for what he is. So he wants to show that he really can drive and he shoots ahead.

There are screeching brakes, and if an accident is avoided by the driver with the right of way, not by the fool who is showing off.

When he gets away unscathed, "the poor driver thinks he has indicated his skill. What he has done is to show himself for what he is—a weak-minded simpleton."

"You never see a good driver showing off at intersections, or anywhere else."

HANDICRAFT SKILL HABITANT'S PRIDE

Down in lower Quebec Province where customs have changed but little in the past three hundred years, the whir of the spinning wheel and the rattle of the hand loom are still familiar sounds in almost every Habitant home. Here are created the famous Murray Bay blankets and fine homespun that are known throughout the world for their charm and simple beauty.

For centuries the handicraft industry thrived in Quebec almost unknown to the outside world. Then visitors to Murray Bay and other lower St. Lawrence River resorts recognized the charm of these quaint products and their fame quickly spread.

Now each year the Provincial Government holds an exhibition of handicrafts at the Manoir and visitors to this great Canadian summer hotel see the finest products of the Habitant people. The handicraft festival, from humble beginnings, has come to be one of the outstanding events of the year at Murray Bay and the interest in the workmanship of the Habitant people has extended far beyond the borders of this province.

Northwestern University finds there is no scarcity of precocious children, a conclusion which fond parents will readily affirm.

"Quality first" was the policy adopted when the first bar of Surprise Soap was made in St. Stephen, N.B. forty-six years ago. This policy has never been altered and the quality has improved with advancing knowledge keeping pace with modern requirements.

"Bear" Gave Real Surprise to Friends

It was a case of mistaken identity. Last season Oscar, so named by the Locomotive Foreman, was a regular visitor to the Canadian National roundhouse at Jasper, Alta., and made a practice of shaking the boys down for a feed at noon when lunch boxes were opened. A too eager visitor at Jasper Park Lodge sought Oscar's photograph and invaded the roundhouse. That was all right with Oscar but in doing so the visitor shut off Oscar's lines of communication, which so well trained bear will tolerate, by closing the door with the result that Oscar, as the amateur photographer approached, ducked for safety under the carpenter's bench. In an endeavor to accommodate the visitor, the roundhouse crew tried to dislodge Oscar from under the bench. Oscar made a bee-line for a window, scattering tools right and left, hit the window a mighty swipe with his paw and the last the roundhouse crew saw of the flying bunch of thoroughly scared and wrathfully indignant bear was a hind-foot disappearing thru the window. On the opening of the summer season this year, doubts were cast upon Oscar's returning but the other day the Locomotive Foreman spied Oscar and his face wreathed in smiles. Then it happened! The Locomotive Foreman could hardly believe his eyes for, trailing behind Oscar, were two cubs. They are now trying to find a new name for Oscar.

There is a possibility of a new market being opened for quahaugs from Prince Edward Island, a soup company in Toronto having recently purchased a quantity. The quahaug, a species of clam, is much used in the Maritimes in the making of clam chowder, a favorite dish with tourists, and is put up in cans for export.

In the demand for foods containing a high value of vitamins, halibut livers are now being collected regularly at both Atlantic and Pacific Coast ports. This followed a scientific research which demonstrated the richness of these fish livers in vitamins A and D and their value for medicinal oil.

Obituary

Catherine J. FitzRandolph

On Monday morning, June 20, at the home of George Tupper, Mrs. Catherine J. FitzRandolph passed peacefully away at the age of 74 years. Her husband, Frederic FitzRandolph, of Bridgetown, predeceased her some 40 years ago, his death having occurred at Omaha, Nebraska, to which place he had gone for his health. Mrs. FitzRandolph since then has resided in Massachusetts, New York, and of late years Weymouth and Bridgetown, N. S. She has been a partial invalid for some ten years. Last November she came to Bear River to be cared for by her niece, Miss Fraser Tupper. During her stay here, Mrs. FitzRandolph has endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact. She was a loyal member of the Anglican Church. A short service at the home was conducted by Rev. A. W. L. Smith, assisted by Rev. C. L. Blanchard, on Wednesday afternoon, following which a funeral service was held at St. James' Church, Bridgetown, conducted by the Rector, Canon Underwood. Interment was made in the family lot, Church of England cemetery of that town. Mrs. FitzRandolph was the daughter of the late Charles J. Hoyt, of Bridgetown. Two brothers, Henry, of New York, and Charles J., of North Sydney passed away during 1931. One sister, Mrs. Eliza Tupper died in Bridgetown, in 1913; another sister, Mrs. Catherine Crowell, of Somerville, Mass., some years previous to that and one sister, Sarah Alice Hoyt died in childhood. Mrs. FitzRandolph is survived by a number of relatives and a host of friends in the Province, to whom she was much attached.

If Samuel de Champlain could visit Western Canada at the present day he would be astonished at the vast areas of wheat which he would see growing when compared with the efforts of the expedition of which he was a member which sowed the first wheat in North America on the mainland near St. Croix Island, in the Bay of Fundy, in 1604. The first shipment of wheat from Western Canada was made from Winnipeg in October, 1876, and was a consignment of Red Fife to seed dealers in Toronto, Ont.

In line with the old rhyme, "Big fleas have little fleas upon their backs to bite 'em; little fleas have bigger fleas; and so on ad infinitum," a search is being made for a parasite to combat the balsam woolly aphid which threatens to considerably damage the extensive stands of balsam fir in the Maritime Provinces, according to the Natural Resources Department of the Canadian National Railways.

Yarmouth Creamery

Why

Miss Lillian Loughton's

Strawberry Shortcake

is famous

"I use Magic Baking Powder," says Miss Lillian Loughton, Dietitian and Cookery Expert of the Canadian Magazine. "My successful baking results are due in large part to its freshness, uniformity, and consistent high quality."

"My own recipes are planned for Magic, and I recommend it for all recipes calling for baking powder."

Miss Loughton's high praise confirms the judgment of other Canadian dietitians and cookery experts. The majority of them use Magic exclusively, because it gives consistently better baking results.

Magic is first choice of Canadian housewives, too. It outsells all other baking powders combined!

*STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE

2 cups pastry flour
(or 1 1/2 cups bread flour)
4 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons shortening
2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg
1/2 cup milk

Sift together the dry ingredients; rub in shortening till very fine; add sugar. Beat egg and pour with the chilled milk to make soft dough (but not too soft to hold its shape when baked). Turn the dough onto a floured board, roll lightly to one-third inch thickness. Cut out with a round cutter. Brush one round with melted butter; place another round on it; bake in hot oven. Split, fill with fresh berries slightly sweetened. Put top round on and pile whipped cream over it, decorating with whole berries.

A NATIONAL FOREST POLICY

To the Editor of the Courier:—Sir—All readers of Canadian newspapers will readily recall the time when such stocks as Laurentide Paper Co. and Price Bros. were considered investments, and I urged our Governments to time and time again not to grant any more pulp-wood concessions for further paper mill promotions, for the two-fold reason of insufficient wood reserves and because it would result in an over production of pulp and paper.

The reply made at that time was that pulp and paper was one of Canada's basic industries with no cost wood and water power and that this development was being carried on by our great captains of industry who probably knew what they were doing better than I did.

How little heed was paid to these warnings is proved by the fact that nearly four hundred million dollars have been lost by the people in paper stocks during the past two or three years. Except for the folly of our Governments in not only permitting but even encouraging this enormous over-development, these old legitimate, reliable companies would still be paying their regular dividends.

My only reason in calling attention to this episode is to suggest a remedial measure for the present deplorable situation in the paper industry, with the hope that it may this time be heeded. A remedy so simple that any Government declining its adoption is not functioning in the interest of the Canadian people. The remedy is to reduce the cut on Crown lands to a sufficient amount to provide a market in Canada for all farmers' and settlers' wood, as we need every available cord of wood for our own mills. In any event, a reduction in the amount of cut is imperative. The welfare, yes, the very solvency of the Dominion depends upon the conservation of our remaining forests. These simple measures would add materially to the life of our forests.

Anything that will stabilize our paper and lumber industries will do more to speed up the prosperity that is now definitely under way than any other measures that can be adopted. Not only our wood-using industries, (and all industries are dependent upon wood in some form) but our water powers,

Grocers Say:—

"The Best New Thing in a long while"

from the House of KING COLE

drinking water supplies, fish, game and bird life, even our climate, and our largest industry, agriculture, are dependent upon the preservation of the forests; hence the subject is too far-reaching and vital to be considered as a provincial matter, and leadership must come from the Federal Government at Ottawa. In other words, a National Forest Policy must be formulated.

In addition to a reduction in the amount of the cut, better fire prevention must be provided. It will not do to depend upon rain to extinguish the flames in the millions of acres of slash that lie awaiting the dropping of a spark. We might as well depend upon the elements to extinguish fires in our towns and cities—buildings that can be replaced in a few weeks—while it takes 50 to 100 years to build a forest.

Markets

The Empire requires every thousand feet of lumber that Canada can legitimately produce, and one of the important functions of the coming Conference at Ottawa will be the making of an arrangement that will give the British Dominions the preference on wood products over any other country, up to a safe limit of our output. Herein lies a great opportunity for the coming Imperial Economic Conference.

Our forests must be husbanded and cut under careful supervision, as the devastation that has already taken place has brought about dangerous fluctuations in our climate. We have already experienced extremes within comparatively short distances and on the same day, droughts, deluges, forest fires, snow and hail, killing frosts and extremes of heat have occurred.

Are our governments going to continue to fail to heed these serious warnings of outraged Nature?

One of the most important things you can do to make a teething baby comfortable is to see that little bubs do their work of carrying off waste matter promptly and regularly. For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure vegetable preparation specially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for other children, too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics—it is absolutely harmless. HISTORICAL PAGEANT AR-
OUSING CONSIDERABLE INTEREST

Judging from the interest shown and the co-operation received by the various committees and the Director, there isn't any doubt that the Digby and Annapolis Counties Historical Pageant will be a decided success.

Mr. Desire J. Bourque who is directing the production and organizing the cast, has already visited several centres and is meeting with great success. Several towns and villages have not yet been organized and it will probably be a couple of weeks before all of the county groups will be formed.

The most prominent part in a Pageant is the "Pageant Queen." As this presentation is an affair of two counties, every section thereof has a right to the appointment of this person. To elect the "Pageant Queen" a contest will be conducted by members of the cast in all parts of the two counties. The candidates must be members of the Pageant cast and will be nominated by the members. This contest will be explained by Mr. Bourque, to the different groups, and further details given in this paper next week.
