

Welcome to the Digital DIGBY COURIER

100th Birthday

The hundredth anniversary of the Digby Weekly Courier has brought to mind some fond memories as contained in the following historical chapter of the writer. But first, I wish to congratulate the current editor of the Courier, Mrs. J.M. (Edith) Wallis, for a job well done over the years and still being well done, good service rendered with great fortitude.

According to any record, I have at hand, the Digby Courier, in one hundred years of publication, was controlled under the same family management for 42 years, 1931 to 1973, under the control of Wallis Print Limited. The late J.J. Wallis became editor of The Courier the second time, in 1929, and at the same time of the business, which he had been running for some time previously and which became Wallis Print Limited sometime between 1929 and 1931.

I well remember the last year of the twenties when I worked in the office of the son with the husband and father of the late J.J. Wallis, the Courier. Sometime in 1928 or early 1929, the late J.M. Wallis (Mac), son of "J.J." engaged me to work every day after school hours, Saturdays, and for some months after finishing school. The place of work was in the building of the present Digby town hall on First Avenue. J.J. Wallis then worked occasionally at the print shop but mostly across the street at the Courier office which was then located on land in the general area where The Royal Bank of Canada is now.

Wallis Job Print operated in 1929 with a staff of four consisting of J.J. Wallis, J.M. Wallis, Miss Eva Haynes, who later became Mrs. George Kicup, and myself. I was engaged as a printer in the left Eva's job was to run the printing plant but mostly at the Courier office. "Mac" worked nearly full time at all the different jobs at the Job Print, and I worked at various duties, most of the time being spent at operating printing presses.

We worked ten-hour days, six days a week. "J.J." and "Mac" sometimes worked overtime. I worked only the regular hours being paid a weekly wage which was comparatively good for those times and my lack of experience. I received four or five dollars a week for working after school hours to six o'clock and on Saturday all day, and nine dollars a week for full weeks after finishing school. A two or three dollar a week raise was offered to me in the fall of 1929 for me to stay on at printing, but I had made up my mind to enter a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, starting salary of $300. The bank salary figured out about the same per hour as for the printing job. Nevertheless, the congenial atmosphere of the printing plant those days, and, experience however short, were helpful and appreciated by me.

"J.J." was very jovial in his occasional trip to the Job Print and did considerable kidding all in good fun. "Mac" was a witty person who mixed in a good natured sarcasm now and then for one reason or another. Eva most always had good answers to all the kidding she was called upon to take, and, generally held her own in a quiet sort of way, always busy setting type. We four all got along very well indeed. However, I do remember that some days did seem long and weary because of the monotony of some repetitious jobs.

In spite of the great demand for printing those last boom days of the twenties, business generally being brisk, it looked to me that people had to work long and hard to make any decent profit. There was including treatment of the hands. However, nails and finger ends were used and I was soon back to work.

Now and then a printing job had a dose on parchment paper which required a special kind of printers' ink which smelled very bad those days. I always dreaded it when "Mac" would do that job on the largest press, in spite of the fact that we always opened an outside door to lessen the effects on the constitution.

One of the jobs I had to do, being the junior and printers' devil on the staff, was to clean up now and then. One day not long after I started my job at the printing plant, I decided to clean the floor that apparently hadn't been cleaned in some considerable time.

"J.J." came along and said, "how are you making out Vince?" I assured him that I thought I was beginning to see the floor. "J.J." laughed very heartily, he thought the remark pretty good and suitable.

Sometimes the gasoline engine or a piece of machinery would refuse to work, and after "Mac" the fix-it man had patiently worked for a certain length of time to get it going again, without results, "Mac" would then stand back and cuss quite strenuously, then he would immediately start working. "See," he would say, "all it needed was a bit of cussing."

On other occasions when some gadget refused duty for me and, seemed to be broken, "Mac" would say, "use a little oil," and sure enough, often that is all it took. How often since, have I thought of the value of that remark and the actual need of "oil" in many life situations, applied at the right time, right place and, in the right way.

Other things that sort of stick in my memory and come to mind now and then are, like the time I told "Mac" of four teenage boys who in the spring season of 1929 got together just before dark one evening and decided to initiate the newly built outdoor Pines Hotel swimming pool which had just been filled with water. Clothes were taken off near the road just east of the pool; nobody else seemed to be around except the four boys; no thought or time for bathing suits up to the pool they went. They stood on the edge of the pool and looked at the chilly water, one soon jumped in, the rest quickly followed and across the pool they swam. "Mac" listened to the story and hardly said anything, but the next "Digby Courier" had a good story on the episode. The heading of the story went something like, "Four Boy Scouts Officially Open Pines Hotel Swimming Pool." Who were the four? Many years later they are known as: the late Dr. Earl H. Anderson, veteran of two wars (second world and Korean), was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sidney L. Smith, now prominent druggist for many years in Digby; Clayton D. Snow, Digby wholesale lobster king merchant; and myself.

As a young teenager I used to like doing some writing about different events interesting to myself and mostly for myself. One day "Mac" said to me "how about writing your version of the story told about 'The Marooning of Jerome'." I had heard and read at least two somewhat different stories about the man who was found marooned on a beach at some point on the French Shore of St. Mary's Bay, Digby County. When found this man's tongue had been cut out and his legs quite freshly amputated, were surgically well dressed and bound. He was presumably left by some vessel before dawn one morning, all for some mysterious reason.

"Jerome" appeared to have been a man of some considerable social standing and possibly of some considerable wealth. However the only thing the man could or would ever say after being found and cared for by some family in the French shore was, something that sounded like the word "Jerome". He either could not, or, would not, write anything about who he was or why he was left the way he was. Well, it was, and is, one of Digby County's mystery stories, and, different ideas have been expressed over the years concerning this man. However my response to "Mac" was, I felt no urge to write anything more or different about this man. The mystery seemed to have been very well explored in the mind of many people, and, he was a sort of curiosity for many people who visited where he lived for many years.

Three years later, I was quite a young man, and I was back in the street that I had lived in, and I was clanking my powered up car, and I was thinking of "Jerome", and as I remember it, I was thinking of "Jerome". "J.J." was noted for his sense of humor and his ability to make people laugh. In 1928 during the time Mr. Wallis was editor of the Scott Act (Prohibition Law) he was about and advocated by some people, and he was a very popular figure in the community.

Digby 172 Years Ago

Compiled by David Sanford

From the files of the Courier of January 23, 1867, the following account has been copied concerning Digby in 1800.

"Among a number of old newspapers kindly sent to us by friends is a copy of the Saint John Gazette of May, 1802, says the Telegraph and among other advertisements contained in the issue before us is one describing the town and township of Digby, and offering for sale certain lots in the town. In this area we are told the township of Digby extends from the Gulf of Annapolis westward to the extremity of the province of Nova Scotia, and contains about 130,000 acres." The town plot is thus described:

"The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of St. Mary's Bay. This laid out from the water's edge, partly on level ground and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having with an eastern aspect, a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in where it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New York in 1783, the most of whom went early to farms, or, moving to older countries, left the whole free trade with the U.S.A., especially with the New England States. The question was then debated by some Digby High School students one of which was some Digby's daughter, Florence (now Mrs. Melvin O. Tibert, Freeport, Digby Co.) Some days after the debate a man from some part of Nova Scotia came to the printing shop looking for Florence, one of the successful debaters; I had the impression that this man was interested politically but, maybe I was wrong.

Well, I felt that I had learned considerable from my short experience at "The Wallis Job Print". I was learning to do beginner jobs, receiving some knowledge about things like: embossing, stapling, perforating, counting, cutting and trimming paper stock, mixing inks for certain desired colors, and so forth, but, the only experience I had at setting type was just enough to make a "pi", the printers name for a confused mess.

There was a taste of trying to sell job printing outside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for printed personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it, made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular house, and got an order, but, it was much time and got an order, but,

The first time wireless telegraphy was used in Digby was in 1914. The equipment was sent from the U.S. and was used for the first time on December 23, 1914. The new light house was put in January 15, 1915. The old lighthouse was dismantled and the new one was built on the same site.

Loss of the ship "W. Coombs" is a tragedy. The ship was a 100-ton schooner, built in Digby, and was on its way to the U.S. when it was wrecked on the rocks near the lighthouse. The ship was carrying a large amount of cargo, and the loss was a great blow to the community. The ship was owned by W. Coombs, a local merchant.

Do They Eat It Or Wear It?

Sales of a certain breakfast food have skyrocketed in Digby in the last few days and most storekeepers report an inability to keep sufficient supplies to meet the demand.

Secret of the salability of this particular breakfast food is that each box of it contains a metal button or pin showing such well known characters as Superman, Dick Tracy and other well known comic strip characters.

So anxious are the youngsters to get these pins they are buying the breakfast fodder three or four boxes at a time. Most of it is dumped and only the pin is retained. Some youngsters we have seen are sporting a full row of these pins around their row and if they had eaten all the breakfast food they bought to get these we feel sure they would have the strength, endurance and abilities of superman.

Could It Be Kilroy?

Residents of Digby are beginning to think Kilroy may be loose in their midst. On two occasions during the past week townspeople have been awakened in the wee small hours of the morning by the prolonged blowing of the fire siren. Investigation failed to produce any fire or any visible cause for the sounding of the alarm.

The first occurrence took place between four and five o'clock on Sunday morning when hundreds were awakened by the high pitched scream of the siren sounding on one note. The telephone office was flooded with calls asking the location of the fire but all Central could say was that the alarm had been sounded from the Town Hall. When the fire truck driver arrived at the fire station the whistle was still sounding. No tracks were visible in the new fallen snow to indicate the alarm had been touched off by human hands. The whole thing was put down as "one of those things."

Yesterday morning again at 5:30, the town was aroused by the prolonged shriek of the fire siren. Again firemen and truck driver rushed to the hall and again no reason for the alarm was apparent. This time, however, the authorities were determined not to be taken in so an electrician was called. His explanation of the occurrence was that the switch was faulty and was set off by the vibration from the early morning train which passed the fire hall shortly before the alarm sounded.

While this may be so, it does seem peculiar this vibration is not effective during daytime when several express trains pass the fire hall and when the shunting engine is constantly passing and re-passing (anyone who has attended a meeting at the Town Hall knows how it passes and re-passes). It seems more exciting and interesting to think that perhaps an invisible Kilroy who leaves no tracks in the new fallen snow and who is equipped with somewhat a perverted sense of humour, pulled the alarm as an ill timed April Fool joke.

Six Rural School Sections Support High School Plan

Sixth consecutive rural school section in the Digby area to support the Rural High School Plan and to select the town of Digby as the site for the proposed new Central High School. Marshalltown last night went on record as unanimously favouring the proposition.

The rural school sections of Smith's Cove, Bay View, Children, Acaciaville and Mount Pleasant had previously voted unanimously in favour of the plan and the Digby site.

Meetings will now be suspended until after the Easter holidays when they will be resumed. Eight more sections have still to vote on the proposition. Ratepayers of the Town of Digby will also be asked to vote on a borrowing resolution to cover the town's share of the construction cost of the new school if decision to locate this in the town is finalized.

Richard Titus, who is at present a student at Mount Allison University, returned to his studies Monday after spending the week end with his aunt, Mrs. Oscar Lane, of St. Louis, Mo., who has been visiting Miss Gertrude Oliver. Mrs. Lane left for her home Tuesday.

Cornwallis Rink Goes to North Sydney

The huge skating rink at the former naval base, "Cornwallis" has been sold to the Athletic Association of North Sydney, N. S., and is now being torn down in preparation for shipment to its new location. It is understood between twenty and thirty railway flat cars will be needed to transport the material from the rink to North Sydney.

This big building, which was built and equipped in 1944 from the Canteen Fund of the naval base, was a familiar sight to travellers along the Annapolis Valley route. Its huge, rounded roof, like the top of a giant Nissen hut stood out among all the other buildings, big and small, which went to make up Cornwallis, the largest naval training centre in the British Empire.

During the war years it was the scene of many thrilling hockey matches when squads from all over the Dominion journeyed to Cornwallis to match their skill against the ever victorious Navy lads. The Cornwallis team, the pride and joy of Captain Edwards, the Commanding Officer of the huge naval establishment, was seldom defeated and often swept the opposition before it with winning scores that were often in the realm of astronomical numbers.

Much speculation has been indulged in as to the probable fate of the big rink and the Digby Rink Committee at one time made enquiries relative to possible purchase by Digby. The artificial ice plant installed in the building when it was constructed, was removed shortly after the naval base closed last year and sent to the Esquimalt, B. C. naval base.

To Start Highway Reconstruction

The Nova Scotia Department of Highways and Public Works has called for tenders for reconstruction work on 134.7 miles of trunk and county highways. Practically all of it is preliminary to paving. Tenders for more than 60 miles of road building were called earlier, bringing the total for the season to date to near 200 miles.

Halifax, Guysboro, Richmond, Cape Breton, Victoria, Inverness, Colchester, Cumberland, Digby and Yarmouth counties all figure in the latest announcement. Highways on which work is planned include routes 2 and 4 between Springhill and the New Brunswick border, 6 between the Pictou county line and Wallace River, 7 from Liscombe to Marie Joseph, 5 from Ross Ferry to Baddeck, 17 from Rossway toward Sandy Cove, 13 between Dunvegan and Margaree Forks, 22 from Albert Bridge toward Louisburg, and two sections of the Cabot Trail.

Tenders are asked for reconstruction of the Shore highway between Dartmouth and Bedford, 5.4 miles of road which will give the Harbor Town quick road connection with the provincial trunk highway system. Motorists must now use the Dartmouth Ferry System or the more roundabout Highway 18 to Waverley. This road eventually will be paved according to present plans.

Reconstruction of subgrade is planned this year on the following sections of road:

Highway 22 (Sydney-Louisburg) 5.7 miles between Albert Bridge and the end of grading done in 1939 near Louisburg.

Highway 17 (Digby-Westport) 10.5 miles from Rossway toward Sandy Cove.

Highway 7 (Eastern Shore) 10 miles between Liscombe and Marie Joseph.

Grand Anse-Archat Road, 10 miles from Archat through D'Es-cousse to the end of grading done last year at the Middle Archat road.

Yarmouth county, from Pubnico Head to Lower West Pubnico, 5.5 miles and from Arcadia to Wedgeport, 5.5 miles.

Completion of grading, base course and underdrainage is planned on a 22 mile stretch of Highway 6, the Sunrise Trail, between the Pictou county line and the Wallace River bridge, and on Highway 2 between the New Brunswick border and Springhill, a distance of 15.8 miles. This highway is already paved.

Completion of grading and application of bituminous surface coating will be done on two sections of the Cabot Trail, one between Big Harbour and North River Centre, Victoria County, 10 miles, the other between Margaree Forks and Friar's Head, Inverness County. Similar work will be done on Highway 5 between Big Harbour and Baddeck and on Highway 19 from Dunvegan to Margaree Forks.

Red Cross News

The Women's Work Committee of the Digby Red Cross Society heard an appeal at last week's meeting that they continue their relief sewing, knitting and quilting for another year, or until the need in war-torn countries is lessened. This appeal had been issued through National Office to all the Divisions, and was favorably received by the Digby Branch, the workers of which agreed to carry on. An extra effort is being put forth at the present time to finish all work on hand by the end of April in order to comply with a special request for an early shipment to headquarters.

Three more 20 pound food parcels were packed at last week's meeting and mailed to the names "adopted" by the Digby branch. Further contributions of food are earnestly solicited during the next few weeks in order to be prepared for our April boxes. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following donations received last week: Mrs. J. H. MacDonald and Mrs. R. B. Lent, Food; Mrs. E. DuVernet, $1 in cash.

Kiwanis Entertain Young People

"Religion has been left out of the curriculum of life" said Rev. George Bell of Yarmouth in his address to the Kiwanis Club of Digby last Thursday evening. The occasion was Kiwanis Youth Night, and each member of the Digby club was accompanied by a son or daughter (they borrowed one if they did not have one of their own). C. M. Levy, president of the club, was chairman of the meeting. The speaker was introduced by Kenneth Beckwith.

During the course of his address, Mr. Bell declared that in these days being young was a unique opportunity in itself and that the young people of this age are learning how to carry on with the responsibilities with which they have been entrusted. He pointed out there was a marked change in preparation, and that vocational guidance was now enabling young people to see their goal and thus plot a course and work straight toward it. Nevertheless, he pointed out that through this specialization on one goal there exists the danger of young people losing many of the things that go to make up life.

He went on to say "Religion has been left out of the curriculum of life, and the world is suffering as a result—world leaders, instead of working side by side to work out a solution of the world's problems, are suspicious of each other's motives." He declared that as long as there is this attitude of suspicion and distrust satisfactory agreements between nations cannot be reached.

At this meeting Rolland Crouse was inducted a member of the club by past president J. J. Wallis. The induction of Mr. Crouse brought membership of the Digby club to 40. E. J. Theriault, Gordon Turnbull and J. W. Merel were inducted as members the previous week.

Marshalltown Youth Killed in Truck Crash

Inquest hearing into the death of Harley Ryan of Marshalltown, who was instantly killed Monday night when the truck he was driving was involved in a collision with a truck driven by George Rogers of Kentville, has been postponed until last night due to the absence of Crown Prosecutor E. J. Theriault. The Coroners jury met Monday morning and viewed the body and the scene of the accident. No details regarding the verdict were available at press time.

The accident which claimed Ryan's life took place at Marshalltown on the main highway some four miles from Digby in the direction of Yarmouth. Ryan with three friends in the cab of his half ton truck, was proceeding towards Digby when he became involved in collision with the Rogers truck, a heavy former army vehicle. Rogers was proceeding toward Meteghan from Kentville with a load of furniture. He had as passengers Bowman Saulnier, George Saulnier and Joseph LeBlanc, all of Meteghan. Riding in the Ryan truck were Gordon Van-Tassel of Digby, Lloyd Robicheau and Harry, a brother of the dead man, of Marshalltown. Robicheau suffered a bad cut on the forehead and was hospitalized for several hours following the accident.

The Ryan truck was almost completely demolished in the crash which turned it completely over on the pavement. Wheels were torn off, the engine cracked and the windshield destroyed. Ryan suffered a fractured skull and multiple cuts and bruises. He was dead when taken from the wreckage.

No one was injured in the Rogers truck and the truck itself was little damaged, although its load of furniture was scattered for some distance over the pavement and into a field along the roadside. The truck came to rest with its nose buried in the ditch on the left hand side of the road facing Yarmouth. A little pup in the cab of the truck also was uninjured and remained sleeping on the cab floor all through the accident and refused to leave the truck while police investigated the accident.

A peculiar feature of the accident is that, although the Ryan truck was so badly damaged, its drive shaft, torn out, bumpers off and frame twisted and broken the headlights were not damaged in any way. Lenses and bulbs were unbroken and the headlights themselves hardly out of shape.

Harley Ryan was a son of Mrs. John Ryan and the late Mr. Ryan of Marshalltown, where he was born and educated. He was employed in the box factory of H. T. Warne Limited, Digby.

He was married to the former Barbara Doucette and had one daughter, about a year old.

Surviving, in addition to his wife, daughter and mother are two sisters Mrs. E. Dexter (Edna) and Lucy, Marshalltown, and brothers, Robert Dartmouth, Harris, Yarmouth; William of Digby Neck; Frank, Harry, Edward, Charles, Samuel and Donald, all of Marshalltown.

Badminton Club Adds Compensation for Tennis To Program

Decision to add tennis to the program of the Digby Badminton Club was reached at the regular business meeting of the club. It was decided to close the badminton playing season at the middle of the month and make plans to continue through the summer months with tennis.

Dudley Brimble was appointed chairman of a committee to make arrangements for tennis and to secure courts. Appointed to this committee were Clayton Snow and Ernest Tufts. It was decided present club officers would remain and the club would be known as the Digby Badminton and Tennis Club.

Plans for a banquet to mark the close of the badminton season were discussed at the meeting and Peter Humpherson and Jean Robinson were appointed a committee to arrange details. Vice-President Ernest B. Tufts presided over the meeting.

Hold Going-Away Party

A surprise going-away party for Mrs. Raymond Winchester, who leaves shortly to take up residence in Saint John, was held Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Raymond Lent. The party was a joint celebration for it was also a surprise birthday party for Mrs. Ralph Berwick, one of the guests.

Following a most enjoyable evening, Mrs. Winchester was presented on behalf of those present, with a lovely table. When refreshments were served a beautiful, decorated birthday cake appeared on the table in honor of Mrs. Berwick. Both ladies expressed their appreciation of the honor shown them and Mrs. Winchester said she would long remember her many friends in Digby.

Baptist Cleric Addresses Y's Men

Rev. E. C. Churchill, new pastor of the United Baptist Church was guest speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Y's Men's Club which was held at the home of Vincent Snow.

In a most stirring address, Mr. Churchill complimented the club on their activities in sponsoring the Boy Scout and Wolf Cub movement in Digby. He stated he had a very high regard for this movement in the training of youth and felt training received by boys in the scout movement had great effect on their future conduct. This movement, he stated, inculcates in the youth the two main characteristics of Christ's religion, love of God and love for all their fellowmen.

Following Mr. Churchill's address, Jack Brittain expressed the thanks of the club and expressed the hope Mr. Churchill would see fit to become a Y's Man after he became settled in Digby.

Land at Meteghan River Shown in House Return

Compensation paid private individuals in connection with land expropriated by the Dominion in 1943 at Meteghan River, district of Clare, Nova Scotia, was made the subject of a return tabled in the House of Commons. This information was sought by Hon. P. C. Black (P.C.) Cumberland.

The land in question, containing approximately 11½ acres, adjoined the premises of the Clare Shipbuilding Company, Limited which carried on shipbuilding and outfitting operations during the war, and the purchase was arranged by the Department of Munitions and Supply, under the direction of Hon. C. D. Howe.

Representatives of the Canadian National Railways acted as agents for the department in negotiating a settlement with individuals who had interests in the area taken over.

Purpose of acquiring these lands, according to the order in council which authorized it, was "for the expansion and re-arrangement of the shipbuilding and outfitting facilities of Clare Shipbuilding Company Ltd., to enable it to carry out its contracts and eliminate fire and other hazards to the said facilities." Total amount paid out in this connection was $4,661.00.

Heavy Losses In St. Mary's Bay

The strong winds that thrashed the Nova Scotia shores recently have again played havoc among the lobster traps of St. Mary's Bay.

Extent of the damage can be approximately judged by the wrecked traps scattered along the shore at different points.

As many as twenty-five tangled buoys have been found with no traps attached.

With heavy losses in January, small catches in March, and again heavy losses in the gales of this month, the outlook for the lobster fishermen looks disastrous.

Digby To Have Modern Tourist Bureau

Arrangements regarding sale of a piece of land on the waterfront of the town to the provincial government as a site for a modern tourist bureau were completed last week between the Commons Commission of the Town of Digby and representatives of the Tourist and Publicity Department and Department of Highways of the Provincial Government.

The new bureau, which it is hoped to have in operation by June 1st, will be located on the water side of Water Street opposite to the old Manhattan Hotel site. The bureau, it is understood, will be a most attractive building and it will contain quarters for an exhibit of Nova Scotia handicraft work.

It is understood the agreement of sale, which will have to be ratified by the government before becoming final, contains a provision that if found necessary to move the Band Stand, this will be done by the government.

Representing the government at the meeting last week were W. R. Bird of the Department of Tourist Publicity and A. C. Crawley of the Highways Department. Commons Commissioners C. W. Smith, J. W. Merkel and A. D. Daley were also present.

Youngster Hurt While Flying Kite

Little Kelly Barnes, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barnes, suffered a painful accident on Tuesday afternoon while flying a kite with a number of young friends.

While running with the kite rope, Kelly crashed into a wire clothes line which caught him in the throat. He suffered painful bruises, lacerations and shock but was able to be out around again a few hours after the accident.

Like an air cushion, there may be nothing in courtesy, but it eases the joits.

About This and That

At a public house in Bromley, just outside London, a quaint custom is kept up. Every year at Easter time, since 1770, a bun has been put into a basket hanging from the ceiling over the bar. The first one was put there by a widow who would not believe that her sailor son had been lost at sea and saved a Good Friday bun for him. Year after year, she went on saving one, and after she died, the practice was still kept up, until now it forms a clause in the lease of the public house, the name of which has become "The Widow's Son."

Each year a sailor adds a bun to the basket and has a drink "on the house." This year bun one hundred and seventy-six was added to the collection, a collection so unique that during air raids on the capital, it was taken to a special place of safety.

The old English name for April was "Easter month" so named after Easter, the Saxon goddess of the spring and the dawn. The season was not kept as a religious festival in Britain until Christianity spread across Europe and even now some of the ways it is celebrated there dates from long before the birth of Christ.

All through the war people in Britain have eaten their Good Friday buns, the buns which had their origin in little cakes of wheat flour in the dim past when they were part of the festival of the spring goddess, though the buns of the last six years have lacked most of the fruit and spices and peel of pre-war Easter, but still they appeared "shiny and hot", and marked with a cross.

Gems of Thought

PATIENCE

Patience is not passive; on the contrary it is active; it is concentrated strength. — Bulwer-Lytton.

There is as much difference between genuine patience and sullen endurance, as between the smile of love and the malicious gnashing of teeth. — Plumer Patience does not mean indifference. We may work and trust and wait, but we ought not to be idle or careless while waiting. — Gail Hamilton.

It is wise to be willing to wait on God, and to be wiser than serpents; to hate no man, to love one's enemies, and to square accounts with each passing hour. — Mary Baker Eddy.

It is not necessary for all men to be great in action. The greatest and sublimest power is often simple patience. — Horace Bushnell.

Do not think that nothing is happening because you do not see yourself grow or hear the whirl of machinery. All great things grow noiselessly. — Drummond.

A returned soldier in Michigan built himself a car out of two front ends of two 1929 autos, according to a press item. That man should never have any trouble to make both ends meet.

40 Yachts To Race To Halifax

At least 40 yachts are expected to enter the International Ocean Yacht Race from Marblehead, Mass., to Halifax next July. Dr. Douglas L. Cooper, rear commodore of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron, reported today. The race, jointly sponsored by RNSYS and the Boston Yacht Club, is scheduled to begin at Marblehead on July 19.

About 35 United States entries are anticipated, the remainder coming from Canada. A variety of trophies and prizes is offered for the contest, first to be held since 1939.

Travel authorities say the yacht race will bring upwards of 500 American visitors to Nova Scotia, making it one of the major events of the 1947 season. In addition to yachts participating in the race, there are indications a convoy of between 25 and 30 power boats will accompany the racing craft on the trip to Halifax.

One or more ships of the United States Coast Guard will escort the yachts over the 3666 mile course. Aircraft of the Royal Canadian Air Force will provide reports on the progress of the race at sea.

The race will start from Marblehead Station of the Boston Yacht Club at 3 p. m., Saturday, July 19. Faster yachts are expected to cover the course in 60 to 75 hours under average July weather conditions. This would bring them across the finish line between the RNSYS breakwater and Ives Point in Halifax Harbor, late the following Monday night or Tuesday.

OBITUARY

Mrs. H. A. DeVoe

The death of Mrs. Henrietta DeVoe, widow of Hubert A. DeVoe, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Wanamaker, Nauwigewauk, N. B., on Thursday, has caused sorrow among a wide circle of family friends. Mrs. DeVoe had been ill for some time but prior to her illness had been associated with the various church groups attached to the Nauwigewauk Christian Church of which she was a devoted member.

Mrs. DeVoe was the last surviving member of a large family. She was a daughter of the late Joseph and Phoebe Hill, well known Kings County residents. Following her marriage, Mrs. DeVoe had lived at Digby for several years but later returned to New Brunswick to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. DeVoe was in her 91st year and had enjoyed good health until a few years ago.

She is survived by two sons, William of South Range, N. S., and Leigh of Saint John; three daughters, Mrs. Wanamaker, Mrs. Percy Henderson of Nauwigewauk, and Mrs. Robert R. Russell of Digby, also by 16 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held from her daughter's residence with service conducted by Rev. W. L. Outhouse, pastor of Coburg st. Christian Church, Saint John. Interment was at the Rural Cemetery, Hampton.

Self pity is a stagnant pool which breeds resentment.

Ashmore

Mrs. Ronald Kinney and daughter, Judy Ann, spent a day recently with Miss Ruth Mullen, Weymouth North.

Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Amery and children of Weymouth North visited friends in this place on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Prime and Children of New Tusket visited Mrs. Prime's mother, Mrs. Etta Doty, on Friday.

Mrs. Herbert Kinney spent the week end at Round Hill, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Goldsmith and Mr. Goldsmith.

Louis Thibault spent the week end with his wife and family. Mr. Thibault is taking an auto repair course in Windsor.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Etta Doty on Friday, it being her birthday. Mrs. Doty received some nice presents and many cards. Refreshments were served by her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Prime.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Doucett and family of Digby spent Sunday with Mrs. Doucett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kinney.

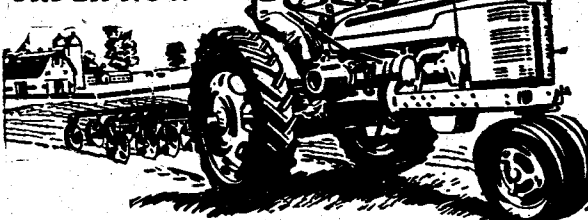

Home and School Meeting At Church Point

A very interesting meeting of the Church Point branch of the Home and School Association was held at St. Mary's School last Thursday evening with a fair attendance. Due to the extreme cold weather and heavy gales, many others were unable to attend.

The feature of the evening was the showing of several short films which were loaned by the Film Library of the Department of Education. The shorts shown were "Leningrad Music Hall", "The House I Live In" and "Kitchen Come True." The latter film depicted what could be done with an old fashioned kitchen to bring it up to date and save many weary steps for the housewife. The women enjoyed this picture very much.

A discussion took place in regards to organizing a sports meet for the schools of Comeauville, Grosses Coques and Church Point, all in the same parish. Vincent F. Melanson, Edmond and A. P. Melanson were appointed as a committee to look after the sports portion of the meet and tentative plans were made to hold the first meet about the last of May. The American Writer Comments on Stories That Dulse is Poisonous

The following article by William McNulty is taken from the American magazine, "Yankee", and is entitled "It's Poison, My Sweet."

Dulse, succulent seaweed, is getting its first black eye and the blame is being laid in the laps of Canadian Army brass bonnets.

Dulse (Rhodymenia Palmata) is claimed to contain more iodine than any other product of the sea. Also, to be a digestive tonic and to be specifically effective for glands that are troublous.

A number of people have been taken ill after eating dulse. One young girl died. Stomach pumping saved four. All five had been seized with severe pains. Although claims were made that the close calls and the death were from another cause, the damage was inflicted. The grape vine convicted dulse.

The Canadian Army has been dumping shells, bombs, shrapnel depth charges and poison gas into the sea. Just why the area at the junction of Fundy and the mother Atlantic was picked, has not been explained. Or, why, at least, the stingers were not removed from the explosives before they were dumped.

The theory is that the explosives gas, etc., have poisoned the water and thus affected the dulse as well as the fish.

Despite denials that the dulse has been the cause of recent illnesses and death, and also that it has been affected by the wholesale dumping of the explosives, there is no question that the "underground" effect has been bad. People who had been keen on dulse are admitting that there may be no more foundation to the gripes on the grapevine than to a message from Moscow, but they add they can't afford to take a chance. They point out the dulse on the rocks, submerged at flood tides, is right in the line of attack.

The most effective action against the floating ammunition has been not by the Canadian authorities, but by the U. S. Coast Guard. Patrols have been set up along the Maine coast, and prevailing across the Fundy mouth, and paralleling the New Brunswick and Nova Scotian coasts.

For those who don't know, dulse has been a special for years. At ebb tides, the dulse is picked from the rocks, (you see it being unloaded in the photograph) and taken in motorboats to the bases of fishermen on both sides of the border. Or sold to processors located on both sides. After being dried, it is packed in barrels or boxes, for bulk sales in food stores, or put up in cellophane and paper bags, of small sizes for wider distribution.

Vacationists from all over the world, and particularly from the U. S. Metropolitans, make sure of getting some dulse soon after arriving in eastern Maine, and Western New Brunswick at or near the salt water. Most of the visitors take some back to the home folks.

It has been only recently that the dulse has been offered in the small cellophane bags.

The cellophane packing was introduced at Eastport, Me., but now has spread to a half dozen other locations on the Canadian side as well as the U. S. The distribution, originally concentrated in the county of Washington, Me., and Charlotte and Saint John N. B., has been broadened by use of the sealed cellophane bags to states and provinces over most of North America.

With the scarcity of candy, nuts, gum some operators of the Silver Wedding Celebrated

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John VanBlarcom, Lower Granville, congratulated them on their 25th wedding anniversary which they celebrated on Saturday, March 25.

Mrs. Van Blarcom is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Shaffner, Lower Granville. On Saturday evening some 25 friends of this highly esteemed couple gathered at their home for a social evening which was very pleasantly spent playing progressive 45's. Ladies' first prize went to Mrs. H. B. Pulsifer of Annapolis Royal; Consolation to Mrs. A. D. Merkel. The Gents' prizes were awarded to Carey Thorne and Morse J. Brown.

Delicious refreshments were served including a three tier beautifully decorated silver and white cake made and decorated by Mrs. Albert Augers, with a miniature bride and groom on top.

Mr. Andrew Merkel, on behalf of those present, presented the bride and groom of 25 years with some very lovely gifts, including a silver serving tray, smaller silver tray with salt and peppers, brooch and earrings made of dainty shells for Mrs. Van Blarcom and etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Van thanked the guests for their kindness in a few well chosen words, bringing to a close a very delightful evening. The guests on their departure wished this very fine couple many more years of wedded happiness.

Joggin Bridge

Mrs. C. E. Jones was hostess to the Society of Friends last Friday evening, when the proverbial good time was had by all. To add to the enjoyment, Miss Ruby Woodman treated the members with a box of chocolates purchased in New York.

Mr. Barteaux of Port George was a recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster. George Winchester who has been home for two weeks was able to return to work Friday.

Miss Ruby Woodman has returned from a three weeks vacation to the United States.

Gift Counters For Digby Crafts

Three Gift Counters selling handcraft, one in Wright's store, one in the Myrtle House and one at Mrs. Ted Dakin's home, to be opened June 1st, was the decision reached at a business meeting of 'Digby Crafts' held this week. Arrangements for this commercial project are in the hands of a Business Committee comprising Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. F. L. Anderson, Mrs. H. J. Anthony, Mrs. Guy Morehouse Jr. and Mrs. Basil Porter. Mrs. E. Scott Eaton President of 'Digby Crafts', has offered the use of her home as a collection depot for the work, before it is priced, labelled and distributed for sale by members of the committee.

Ways and means of obtaining a large volume of handmade articles for sale were under discussion at the meeting. It was decided to make the 'Digby Crafts' organization county wide thus giving all Digby County residents an opportunity to share in the contact with the tourist trade to be had through these three proposed gift counters. The regular membership fee of $1.00 will be collected from all those wishing to sell through 'Digby Crafts', and it will be the duty of the craft workers to arrange for delivery of their own articles to the depot, but the committee will assume all further responsibility for placing the articles on sale and collecting the receipts from same. Those in charge of the Gift Counters have agreed to operate them on a 20% basis.

With the fine quality of craft work which has been done by Nova Scotians for generations, there should be no lack of articles suitable for sale. Everyone is familiar with our native hooked rugs and hand made quilts, while the recent handcraft exhibit brought to light the volume of knitting, crocheting, and cutwork which have been done locally. Added to this are the revived arts of weaving, netting and shell work, together with the crafts using leather, metal and wood which are being taught by the government instructors. Visitors to Digby will find an added attraction if this

SMITH'S "FOLLY"

According to an article appearing in the February number of the American magazine "Yankee", Robert E. Smith of the Texaco Oil Company made a good trade when he bought the thirty-four foot edition of the famous Bluenose and took delivery of her in Digby in June, 1946.

The article entitled Smith's Folly, is reproduced in full below:

Robert B. Smith made a good trade! He found the two-masted schooner "Folly"—a thirty-four foot edition of the famous Bluenose, at Digby, Nova Scotia, in October 1945 and bought her by mail from her Montreal owner. Last June Mr. Smith and a friend, A. D. Chesterton of Mar-biehead, took delivery of the schooner at Digby,—destination Lake Winnepesaukee in New Hampshire.

First attempt to cross the Bay of Fundy was unsuccessful, due Mr. Smith says, to their ignorance of the effect of a strong south-west wind and an outgoing tide. After waiting two days for the weather to improve, they left Digby early one Friday morning and arrived at the Portland Yacht Club on Sunday afternoon, after stopping overnight at Cutler, and at Stonington en route. At Portland the schooner was appraised and "Entered" at the customs in Portland, where a duty was paid of fifteen per cent of the purchase price.

Next day they sailed to Portsmouth, N. H., where the masts were taken out and the schooner loaded on a trailer to Lake Winnepesaukee. And on Saturday morning, eight days after her departure from Digby, the schooner was at her mooring off the Winnepesaukee Yacht Club, Guilford, N. H.—having travelled a distance of approximately 280 nautical miles. The whole trip was made under power provided by a six-cylinder Chevrolet motor, helped by the sails whenever the wind was fair. Average speed was six knots—with a gas consumption of a gallon an hour.

"Folly" is thirty-four feet overall, eight foot six beam, and draws four foot six inches—built at Tanook Island, Lunenburg County, Nova Scotia, in 1935 from a design by Langille. She is built entirely of oak fir and pine. The ballast is all inside. Forward, under a cuddy cabin she has two bunks and a small stove. Between the masts she has a large fish well which Mr. Smith is converting into a four-bunk cabin. So if you know anything about the price of an American built schooner of comparable size you'll see why "Folly" was a good trade—including purchase price, duty, hiring a trailer and the cost of the trip to Digby and return. "Folly" cost one thousand dollars in the water at Lake Winnepesaukee—as you see her in the photographs.

coin machine vendors have been turning to the packaged dulse as a replacement. The dulse should be welcome to all larger ladlers for nothing could generate a thirst so quickly and one that would be so hard to appease. It is more effective than the "Digby Chickens" that promoted thirst and business at suds stations in ye old years (little salted and smoked herring.).

But apparently, it will be some time before dulse recovers from the setback it has been dealt by the public impression the Canadian ammunition dump has poisoned it.

Fisheries Conference

At Charlottetown

Problems attending the reconversion of the fresh, frozen, salted, smoked, pickled and canned fish industries to peace time operation and matters dealing with expansion, production, processing, and marketing of fisheries products will be discussed April 1, 2, and 3, when representatives of the industry from the Atlantic and Gulf of St. Lawrence areas meet in conference at Charlottetown.

The first of its kind ever to be held in Canada, the conference will be under the sponsorship of the P. E. I. Fisheries Federation and with the patronage of the P. E. I. provincial government.

Upwards of 100 delegates representing organizations in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Quebec, all affiliated with the Fisheries Council of Canada, will be in attendance. Officials of federal and provincial departments of fisheries as well as of other departments of government along with representatives of associated industries are also expected to be present.

The three-day conference will bring about discussions on problems confronting the Eastern Seaboard fisheries generally. Deliberations of the Charlottetown meeting will form the basis of submissions to be presented by the respective member bodies of the Fisheries Council of Canada at the Second Annual Meeting of the Council to be held at Ottawa, April 22, 23.

More than two hundred samples of fish canned in Canada and in several foreign countries will be used in a cutting and grading demonstration for the purpose of comparing quality, appearance of product, packaging and methods of merchandising.

Keep Bacterial Ring

Rot In Check

Bacterial ring rot of potatoes is one of the most important diseases affecting the potato industry in Canada today. Until last year, the disease was unknown in Nova Scotia and it was due only to the vigilance of the federal and provincial Departments of Agriculture that few isolated cases were discovered and completely eradicated.

Since the disease is spread mainly through the use of contaminated seed, or by planting potatoes that have come in contact with the disease through the medium of bags, barrels or machinery that have previously been used for handling diseased potatoes, it is quite apparent that the easiest solution of the disease problem is in the hands of the growers. Unless the disease is kept in check the seed potato industry in Nova Scotia is faced with annihilation, and the industry is of sufficient importance that growers should take all precautions necessary to ensure complete control of bacterial ring rot.

One of the surest ways of keeping clear of the disease is to plant only certified seed potatoes. Under no circumstances should table stock be used for seed, especially since there is no scarcity of certified seed stock in the province. The potato industry of Nova Scotia is a valuable one and its future should not be placed in jeopardy through the use of potatoes for seed purposes from any other than reliable sources.

Take Care

Burning Grass

Don't burn that grass on a windy day. Take precautions to keep the fire under control at all times. If possible do the burning job before April 15.

That was the gist of a warning issued today by Lands and Forests Minister J. H. MacQuarrie, who announced that after April 15 the burning of brush and other refuse in or near the woods anywhere in Nova Scotia will require a permit from the district fire ranger.

"Clean up time is with us again," he said, "and every spring considerable damage is caused by grass fires spreading to buildings. Anyone burning grass would be well advised to burn only at night or on calm days.

"In order to avoid inconvenience and as an added safety measure, everyone is urged to

Stations

Maritime Fishermen are showing considerable interest in the Lobster Rearing and Hatching program as being carried on in the State of Maine. At the Fisheries, young lobsters are usually hatched from "Berried" females and later released to the sea. This operation can be somewhat likened to raising chicks from hens' eggs and tending them until they pay off financially, the workings of the lobster hatcheries was discussed on Fishermen's Broadcast March 27 by Dr. D. G. Wilder of the Atlantic Biological Station at St. Andrews.

Lobster Rearing Stations in Maine go one step further than the Hatcheries. They hold the young lobsters until they are at the stage in their growth when they normally go to the bottom and begin life as every other self respecting lobster does. Whether these transplanted lobsters have any definite overall effect on increasing the lobster populations of the coastal regions is a matter of conjecture. To get an expert's opinion on the effect of the Rearing Station on increased catches, cost of operation of the station, and the method of handling the young lobsters, the CBC Fishermen's Broadcast Commentator Bob Graham will interview Dr. D. G. Wilder on Fishermen's Broadcast on Thursday, April 3rd. This program is heard Monday through Friday at 5 o'clock AST over CIBC, Sydney; CJFX, Antigonish; CHGS, Summerside; CKNB, Campbellton; CBA, Sackville; CHSJ, Saint John; CJSY, Yarmouth; CJCH, Halifax and SBH, Halifax.

In 1946 brush fires out of control resulted in 22 forest fires in the province.

Soluble Salts Destroying Brick — The above picture gives some idea what weather does to brick and stone buildings in Nova Scotia, according to a survey of masonry decay being conducted in the Maritimes by Dalhousie University and the Nova Scotia Technical College. The survey and laboratory work is being carried on with the object of finding underlying causes of building leakage and a way of improving materials and construction methods to eliminate unsightly wet walls.

Survey of Masonry Decay

Is your office building falling apart? Are bricks and mortar disintegrating due to weather damage?

According to experts at Dalhousie University, who are assisting in a survey of masonry decay in the Maritime Provinces, leaky masonry is most common in buildings hastily erected in boom times and in buildings directly exposed to driving rain in bad weather.

It is revealed also that of a total of 15,763 buildings in the City of Halifax, only 1,062 are of masonry construction.

As part of the survey, started last May and designed to track down the cause of wet walls, long a course of expense and vexation alike to owners, architects, masons and occupants, more than 1000 inquiries have been sent out to owners of masonry structures in the Maritimes, including Halifax, Saint John, Moncton, Truro, Amherst, New Glasgow, Yarmouth and elsewhere.

Personal detailed inspections of many buildings have been made and laboratory investigations are being conducted at Dalhousie University and the Nova Scotia Technical College. Both institutions are spearheading the survey and are being aided by the National Research Council of Canada.

A great deal of literature on the subject of moisture penetration through masonry has been reviewed and a large amount of practical information collected, all of which will be forwarded to the authorities having the problem in hand.

OBITUARY

Gerald L. Jones

The sudden passing of Gerald L. Jones, 51 years of age, at his home in Louisville, Kentucky, on March 22, due to a heart attack came as a shock to his many friends throughout the province.

The late Mr. Jones was a graduate of King's College and the N. S. Technical College from which he graduated with a B. Sc. At the time of his death he was an electrical engineer at the DuPont plant at Louisville. He was a veteran of World War I; the experiences left its mark on his health.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE THIS EASTER

"He is Risen"

In the end of the Sabbath as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And behold there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from Heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning and his raiment white as snow: And for fear of him the keepers did shake and became as dead men. And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus which was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen as He said. Come and see the place where the Lord lay.

At present time there are at least seven food boxes going to needy families in England each month. The Ladies' Aid of the United Church have had some worry over theirs as their second box was returned to Canada. Some time later, a letter was received from a relative stating Miss Lowe, to whom the box was addressed, had died, but that the first box had been opened and distributed to needy neighbors. Meanwhile, before the receipt of the letters, two more parcels had gone forward. St. John's Church has sent their fifth box and included in it was a small cake nicely wrapped as a birthday cake, as Mrs. Voice, the recipient, will celebrate her 87th birthday early in May. The Women's Institute have now undertaken to send a box for six months and these are being packed by Mrs. Harry Harris. The first box went in March to Mr. Bartram.

EVERYBODY'S

I never stop wondering at the remarkable economy and efficiency set up by the co-operation of millions of individuals in life insurance.

Government figures on the Canadian companies show that 75¢ of every dollar received by these life insurance companies came from policyholders' premiums; 24 1/2¢ from investments and 1 1/2¢ from sundry sources.

But the amazing thing to me is that for every dollar received by the companies 84¢ was paid to or held for policyholders; 2¢ went to governments for taxes; 13 3/4¢ covered all operating expenses; and 1 1/2¢ went to shareholders. No wonder that people in 64 other countries buy Canadian life insurance, because it is so well managed.

Life insurance is a business built for everybody, a great enterprise which protects the future of more than four million policyholders and their loved ones. Life insurance offers a systematic and easy way to save. Consult an authorized agent about a plan best suited to your requirements.

The locomotive can be used singly or in connected units of two or three, developing full 4500 horsepower in the latter case. Future of the steam powered "iron horse" in the system.

Canada may well depend upon results of these tests. The Canadian Pacific is already turning heavily to use of diesel locomotives for yard use throughout the system.

This chart, published by The Letter-Review, Fort Erie, Ont., is based on the amounts of income tax payable in 1947 by persons in the income groups indicated, but the tax is translated into days worked per year for the Ottawa Government, on the basis of a 300-day working year. It should be noted that the amount of time worked to support the Dominion expenses is an understatement as income taxpayers are also subject to many other Federal taxes, such as sales tax, luxury taxes, excise taxes on tobacco, cigarettes, alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, candy, etc.

Milk Price Stays

Harassed housewives in Nova Scotia got a measure of relief in the latest decision handed down by the Public Utilities Board on milk prices. The board decided there would be no increase in the retail price of milk in the province. Producers, however, will receive an additional 22 cents per hundred pounds retroactive to last October.

Water Spaniel Goes To Sea

Biff Korhaski, a lovely water spaniel owned by Boyd Stark, had a most enjoyable Easter holiday trip aboard the Princess Helene to Saint John. He was taken away from home one day last week and was last seen aboard the Princess Helene as she sailed away from the port.

He was camped for while aboard by members of the crew and returned safely to his owner in Digby next morning. It is reported that, except for being slightly seasick, Biff had a most enjoyable Easter trip to Saint John. We don't know whether he bought a new Easter bonnet or not but it is reported that he was heard giving a most interesting talk to his fellow dogs about the latest in doggie fashion in the New Brunswick port.

Celebrates 95th Birthday

Mrs. Katherine Comeau of North Range celebrated her 95th birthday on Friday, April 4th. Mrs. Comeau's many friends in this community and in the state of Massachusetts, remembered her on this occasion with congratulations, cards and gifts. Among the gifts was a beautiful birthday cake from a neighbor.

Despite her advanced years, Mrs. Comeau or "Aunt Katie", as she is known to her close friends, is in excellent health, and enjoys almost perfect vision and normal hearing.

Mrs. Comeau doesn't believe in laziness and attributes her longevity to hard work, experienced in her younger days. Braiding mats is her specialty now and during the winter she made many beautiful rugs. She likes to average one rug per week and quite often realizes her ambition. In the summer she spends many happy hours in her flower garden. When friends call she always has a delightful story for them, as she recalls her experiences of the past.

Mrs. Comeau resides in her old home with her son, John and his family, who care for her lovingly.

James Howard Burke, highly respected citizen of Port Wade, Annapolis, observes his 99th birthday today.

Mr. Burke has been a life-long resident of Port Wade and on January 18th, he and his wife, who was formerly Annie Cronin, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Casey Cronin, celebrated their 66th wedding anniversary.

All his early married life Mr. Burke went to sea. After retiring from his sea career, he was the lighthouse keeper for twenty-five years, and for twenty-five years he was janitor of the Port Wade Baptist Church, of which he has been a valued member since youth.

He has one sister living, Mrs. Emma J. Morrison, residing in Swanton, Mass. From a family of eight children, he and his sister are the only surviving members.

Mr. Burke has six children, three daughters and three sons. Eva (Mrs. John Flemming) of Bear River; Frances (Mrs. Fred Ramsey) Marlboro, Mass.; and Elizabeth at home. Robert of Arlington, Mass.; Lealand of Lynn, Mass.; and John Vernon at home.

A very pleasing fact in the celebration is the fact that his son, John Vernon, celebrates a birthday, too, both on the same day. Last year was the first in thirty-five years that they had been able to spend their birth-days together, as John Vernon was a resident of Lynn, Mass., until the fall of 1945, when he decided to return to Nova Scotia and make his home with parents and sister, Elizabeth.

Four Huge Eggs

Mrs. Frank Hazelton has a most unusual Light Sussex pullet. This bird lays about every three days, but when it lays, it lays big.

Today, Mrs. Hazelton brought in four eggs laid by this bird. These huge eggs weighed five ounces each or a total of twenty ounces for the four of them. Their measurements were 8 1/2 in. x 6 3/4 x 6 1/2, 7 1/2 x 6 and 7 1/2 x 6.

It is understood Mrs. Hazelton's customers will be able to order their eggs in future either by the foot or by the pound. Trucks will be sent to deliver them if ordered by the dozen.

Mrs. George Donnelly was the winner of a lovely towel recently sold in aid of the New Conway School.

Election Petition Hearing Tomorrow!

Excitement is mounting rapidly here this week as the date for the hearing into the civic election protest petition approaches. This hearing, which is scheduled for 11 a. m. Friday morning, promises to be one of the most largely attended court sessions ever held in Digby.

Hearing the petition, which alleges certain irregularities in the civic election of February 4 and asks that the election of Victor G. Cardoza and Albert S. Warner be set aside as null and void on the grounds that Cardoza's nomination papers were not in proper form and were improperly received by the Town Clerk and that Warner is allegedly receiving remuneration from the Town as a Fireman, will be County Court Judge Kenneth L. Crowell of Bridgetown.

The petitioners in this case are Frank L. Anderson and Hubert M. Warner, both of Digby. E. B. Richardson and F. P. Eisner have provided sureties for the petitioners. Representing the petitioners will be M. S. Leonard, Digby Barrister, who filed the original petition on behalf of Warner and Anderson. V. J. Pottier, K.C., of Yarmouth will represent Cardoza and Warner.

Named in the petition which filed some two weeks after the election, were Town Clerk C. W.

Smith Councillor-elect Dr. E. D. Dickie and Candidate Patrick J. Comeau. The Town Clerk and Dr. Dickie have filed notice of their intention not to oppose the petition in which it was alleged Dr. Dickie's election was not valid because at the time of his election he was Medical Officer of Health for the town and in receipt of a salary.

The petition claimed the nomination of Patrick J. Comeau, an unsuccessful candidate in the election, was invalid on the grounds that he was a fireman and receiving remuneration from the town. It is understood the petitioners will not proceed with their case against Comeau.

Churches Crowded For Easter Services

Despite inclement weather the churches of Digby were crowded on Sunday for the traditional Easter services marking the Resurrection of the Saviour.

In Trinity Anglican Church large numbers turned out for the celebration of Choral Eucharist at 11 o'clock. Special music was rendered by the choir. The altar of the church was banked with beautiful Easter lilies and other flowers emblematic of the season.

Among the flowers on the altar were several sprays placed there in memory of Driffield Woodman, a former member of Holdsworth Drug Store, killed in action. These flowers were given by Mr. C. M. Levy.

Special music and a most stirring Easter address featured the service at the United Baptist Church where the newly arrived pastor, Rev. E. C. Churchill, told again the story of the Resurrection and stressed its significance to the world of today. Mr. Churchill, an accomplished singer, also rendered a solo at the morning service.

A most stirring and inspiring sermon marked the Easter morning service at Grace United Church. Special music by the choir including special Easter Anthems also featured the service. Music was supplied by Mrs. H. A. Nichols on the Hammond Electric Organ recently purchased and installed in the church.

In St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church the traditional services of the Mass marked the High Festival of Easter. These services marked the joyful ending of the mourning period of Lent which reached its climax with special solemn services on Good Friday.

Find Death Accidental

A verdict of "accidental death with no blame attached to the driver of the former Army truck, George Rogers, of Kentville, was the decision of the coroner's jury empanelled to enquire into the death of Harley Ryan.

Ryan was instantly killed last Monday night when the truck he was driving was in collision with a former army truck loaded with furniture and driven by George Rogers of Kentville. The accident took place on the main highway near Marshalltown.

She was treated at Hospital at Springhill and later discharged.

The other members of the party also suffered from shock.

Deputy Chief of Police MacDonald and Officer Bonnyman investigated the accident, which was one of many that has occurred at this point where a checkerboard sign has been erected.

Lobster Season Extended

A three-week extension of the lobster season in some parts of the Maritimes and changes in lobster fishing and district boundaries around Cape Breton were among amendments announced by the Department of Fisheries.

The amendments to regulations governing lobster fishing in several Atlantic areas were recently made by order-in-council, the Department said and relate to sections of Cape Breton Island and to Quebec.

Under one of the amendments, the lobster fishing season, in waters off Albert County, N. B., and in the Nova Scotia area consisting of Hants, Kings and Annapolis Counties and that part of Digby County east of Burns Point, as well as the Bay of Fundy, side of Cumberland and Colchester Counties, has been extended three weeks.

It will close July 20 instead of June 29 as in the past and the department said the lengthening of the regular season has been made to offset earlier restrictions to lobstering because of spring ice conditions at the head of the Bay of Fundy.

Judson Hudson Falls 200 ft. Lives to Tell the Tale

Judson Hudson of Lower Granville had a miraculous escape from serious injury or death while driving a load of stove wood to Victoria Beach from Annapolis Royal.

At Victoria Beach, which is noted for its winding road and steep hills, the truck left the highway, overturned and pitched over an embankment.

Mr. Hudson was accompanied by Miss Eleanor Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hudson, Port Wade, who after the truck went over once and the door fell open, jumped to safety and escaped with several bruises and a severe shaking up.

The truck turned over several times with the driver still in the cab and landed some 200 feet below the level of the highway, crashing into the yard of Mrs. Almida Casey who lives on the waterfront.

Dr. I. R. Sutherland of Annapolis was called and Mr. Hudson who was suffering from several cuts about the face and head and from severe shock, was given medical attention.

Mr. Cronin, who is well known in Digby, is president of the Boston Executives Association, Inc., and is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Children's Hospital. During World War II he was deputy director in the protective division of the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety. Mrs. Cronin is the former Helen Robinson of Digby, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. F. A. Robinson.

A public campaign is being conducted this month to raise funds for the proposed Medical Centre for Children—the first of its kind in the world—for which the Children's Hospital in Boston will be the nucleus.

Splendid Display Of Portraiture

A really splendid display of portrait work features the windows of the Yates Studio this week. These portraits reflect the effects of the recent extensive course in portrait work recently taken by Mrs. Yates under the tuition of one of Canada's foremost portrait artists in Montreal.

The pictures, both tinted natural, show most pleasing new departures in lighting effects, tonal quality and posing. Mrs. Yates is using a new paper that gives much better results than any previously used. The new lighting system recently installed in the Yates Studio also contributes largely to the splendid effects being obtained by Mrs. Yates in her portrait work.

The exhibition of portraits now on display is well worthy of a visit and is a credit to the work of a fine portrait artist.

Taxi Driver Gets Minimum Sentence

Lawrence Andrew Anderson of Digby, local taxi driver, was sentenced on Saturday morning by Magistrate G. H. Peters, to spend seven days in the County Jail on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

The offence with which Anderson was charged occurred on the evening of March 31st, when he was apprehended by the R. C. M. P. while operating his car in the vicinity of Smith's Cove some five miles from Digby.

Placed under arrest, Anderson elected summary hearing by Magistrate Peters and pleaded not guilty to the charge when brought before the court on April 3rd. After hearing the evidence, Magistrate Peters adjourned the case for decision until Saturday morning when he pronounced the accused guilty and imposed the sentence.

Geese Flying North

To the best of our knowledge the first flock of wild geese to pass over Digby en route north were seen Friday afternoon. Robins appear to be late in making their northward migration this spring, although a few have been seen. We have not yet spotted the woodpecker we have heard hammering away in the south end of the town the past few mornings, but from the sound of things there is no doubt he has arrived at his summer home.

Relates Origin of Red Deer in Nova Scotia

Contained in the report of the seventeenth annual convention of the Nova Scotia Fish and Game Protective Association, recently published, is an article by A. D. Daley, well known sportsman of Digby, relating the origin of Red Deer in Nova Scotia.

According to this article the first red deer ever imported alive into Nova Scotia, were brought here in 1884 by John Daley, Game Warden for the province and father of A. D. Daley. These deer, seven does and four bucks, were captured in New Brunswick and brought to Nova Scotia. All except two were released on the south side of Lake Jolly, about twenty miles from Digby. The remaining two were sent to Yarmouth to be shown there and after a few days let go to join the rest in the adjoining Digby County.

From this small beginning made by a pioneer sportsman, the red deer have spread all over the province until now thousands are shot each year.

In Western Nova Scotia these deer are known as "Daley's Deer" and the article says that this is no misnomer when the facts are known. They are now and have been for years the property of the game society of Nova Scotia. This document is their title: "John Daley, Game Warden in Nova Scotia since 1872, memo To Eleven Deer at $15.00 each—$165.00.

About This and That

We are wondering if the southern portion of Water Street, including the Montague Row extension, has been made sort of an unofficial speedway. We have heard nothing to this effect, but judging from the rate of speed some motorists drive through this section of the town, caution appears to have been altogether forgotten. If this speeding continues serious accidents are sure to happen, for all along this section of the road numerous children are to be seen playing on the edge of the highway at practically every hour of the day, and automobile traffic in this section is about the heaviest in the town of Digby outside of the main business section of Water Street. We suggest that our traffic authority make every possible effort to put a check to reckless driving in this portion of the town and make an example of all those who insist on being in a 'H—!' of a hurry to go wherever they are going.

Radio receiving set owners, particularly in the south end of the town, are wondering just what is causing all the daytime interference—particularly on Sundays. Sunday interference usually begins about ten in the morning and continues intermittently throughout the day until nearly six in the evening. From that time the reception is splendid. During the day there is scarcely a program anywhere on the dial that is not interrupted by a loud crackling noise that sometimes continues for a few seconds and on other occasions for several minutes at a time. While we don't have much of an opportunity to listen in to programs during week days, we have been given to understand week day interference of this sort is barely noticeable. We do know that on Sundays most of our favorite day time programs are ruined.

HERE'S ANOTHER in the series of monthly posters issued by the Motor Vehicle Branch of the Nova Scotia Department of Highways and Public Works in a campaign for greater safety on the streets and highways of the province. It is displayed in schools and similar buildings throughout Nova Scotia. Many schools this year re-organized schoolboy safety patrols, who supervise the movement of pupils near school buildings.

High Costs Holding Up Road Construction

High construction costs plus a shortage of road building material have put a snag in the Nova Scotia government's 1947 highway program. Nevertheless, despite difficulties, the Department of Highways and Public Works hopes to proceed with a large volume of road improvement work in many parts of the province.

Premier Angus L. MacDonald, who is also minister of highways said recently that of four road construction jobs in Halifax county for which tenders had been sought, it had been possible to award only one. That was for reconstruction of the Peggy's Cove road between Glen Margaret and French Village Station, a distance of 9.4 miles. This contract was let to Ralph and Arthur Parsons of Windsor. In all four tenders were received.

Two tenders were received for work on the Prospect Road between the junction with Highway 3 and the White's Lake Bridge, 9.7 miles, and only one tender for a nine mile grading job on Highway 7 west from Sheet Harbour. All bids were considered too high and no contracts have been awarded.

No tenders were received for construction work on the Purcell's Cove road from the Arm Bridge at Halifax to Purcell's Cove, 4.3 miles.

At the present time, the premier said, tenders are pending for another 13 road building projects in various districts. The Department of Highways hopes for satisfactory tenders, but with road building machinery in short supply and contractors still working on projects unfinished last year, the outlook is doubtful.

The department itself has a large amount of equipment on order, he said, and hopes to obtain delivery early in this year's working season. Every piece of road building machinery in Nova Scotia whether owned by the department or by private owners, will be pressed into service.

Highway department officials believe that in spite of the problems involved 1947 will see considerable progress made in the government's province-wide road improvement program. However, many projects planned for this season, will probably have to remain untouched.

OBITUARY

Captain L. F. Barkhouse

A colorful life packed with the intense drama of conquest over gigantic barriers, came to an end on April 3 with the passing of Captain Lewis Frederick Barkhouse at the residence of his daughter, Frances B. Poole, in Halifax, N. S.

Captain Barkhouse was born in Upper Falmouth, N. S., on March 2, 1864, a son of the late Charles and Mary (Hurley) Barkhouse. He left home at the age of 16 to start his sea-going career, in the days of "Wooden Ships and Iron Men", and for well over half the century that followed, he sailed in square-rigged ships and schooners, rising successively through experience and navigational study to his master's certificate, which took him during his sea-going career to many foreign and coastal ports, all of which qualified him as an expert in the knowledge of ships and mercantile affairs. In 1888, he married Jessie Mae Lent of Freeport, N. S., at which time he established a home in the adjoining village of Westport, a home which he maintained until the time of his passing. His wife predeceased him on August 15, 1941.

From 1900 until his retirement from the sea forty years later, he owned and sailed as master, several tern schooners both in foreign and coastal trade. Moreover, he could not only sail ships; he could build them. In 1905 he built the "Donald and Keith", a tern schooner named after his two sons, which he sold the following year in France. On this voyage to France, he accompanied the master of this vessel, his son, now Cmdr R. MacD. Barkhouse, R. C. N. R. (Retired).

Thirteen years ago, at the age of 70, Captain Barkhouse organized a shipping company which he managed; also on several occasions he sailed as master of his company's tern schooners in the West Indies' lumber and salt trade. Four years later, he again retired from the sea. This was his third retirement because of ill health, but he retired only to engage vicariously in business as a marine insurance broker, a marine surveyor, fish processor and exporter, as well as an importer of salt cargoes.

Three years ago, at the age of 80, he again retired, this time with the intention of enjoying a well earned rest at his Westport home and visiting among his children. However, this life of inaction was irksome to that inner urge to continue doing something constructive and creative. So he conceived the idea of establishing a chain of fish-processing plants on the Bay of Fundy's Nova Scotia Coast. Two of these plants he built and operated with outstanding success, giving them his personal attention until a few months ago when, early in January he suffered a heart attack from which he failed to recover.

Captain Barkhouse was an Anglican by faith and throughout his life he practised sternly those virtues which earned for him the deep respect accorded a Christian gentleman. He was a member of A.F. & A.M. Lodge at Freeport and the I.O.O.F. Lodge at Westport.

He is survived by two daughters and two sons, Iva (Mrs. Fred Phinney), Yarmouth, N. S.; Frances (Mrs. Wylie Poole), Halifax, N. S.; Cmdr. R. MacD. Barkhouse of Kentville, N. S., and Dr. C. Keith Barkhouse of Melrose Highlands, Mass. Also surviving are three sisters and one brother, Mrs. Amelia Young and Mrs. Henry Kisker, both of Dorchester, Mass. Mrs. Sarah Boyd of Upper Falmouth, N. S., and Reuben Barkhouse of Brookline, Mass. In addition, there are three surviving granddaughters and one great-grandson.

The funeral service was held at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, April 6, from his late home at Westport, with Rev. T. W. Howard of the Westport United Baptist Church officiating. Interment was in his burial lot by the side of his late wife in the Westport Cemetery. Many floral offerings testified to the esteem in which he was held.

Greatness is a spiritual condition worthy to excite love, interest, and admiration; and the outward proof of possessing greatness is, that we excite love, interest and admiration.—Matthew Arnold.

If any man seeks greatness, let him forget greatness and ask for truth, and he will find both.

Larger than former cars of this type with extra wide loading doors, 620 of these cars are being added to Canadian Pacific Rolling Stock this year with 204 received up to yesterday on a 25-day delivery schedule. In the car can be seen the loading arrangements which places one auto above the other to make the best possible use of space.

IN MEMORIAM—In loving memory of my dear sister, Hattie York, who passed away April 5, 1946. Peacefully sleeping, resting at last. The world's weary troubles and trails are past. IN MEMORIAM—In loving memory of our dear son, Pte. Joseph Lewis, who was killed in action on March 3rd., 1945. In Flanders' field in a soldier's grave Lies our dear son among the brave. He never shunned his country's call. But gladly gave his life for all. He died the helpless to defend. A faithful soldier's noble end. You went it seems but yesterday And now by crosses row on row You linger where the poppies grow. Not dead, but just away; Today recalls sad memories Of our dear son gone to rest. And the ones who think of him today. —Are the ones who love him best. We often sit and think of him When we are all alone. For memory is the only friend The grief can call its own. Like ivy on a withered oak, When all other things decay, Our love for him will still keep green. And never fade away. —inserted by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Watson Lewis. 30:1ip

BUSINESS

Some of us were talking the other night about all the money that's needed to keep up progress in Canada.

"Who's going to pay for all this progress?" one of my friends wanted to know.

Jack Henderson answered that one, and hit the nail right on the head.

"Progress either pays for itself and grows into more progress, or it isn't progress at all," he said. "The money to pay for present and future improvements should come from successful planning in the past."

That reminded me of how for each Canadian man, woman and child there's about $300 of life insurance money invested, in thousands of private and public enterprises. It's creating jobs which lead to more jobs (and that's real progress) while it's waiting to be paid out on policies bought in the past by people who planned for progress!

Life Insurance is a business built for everybody, a great enterprise which protects the future of more than four million policyholders and their loved ones. Life Insurance offers a systematic and easy way to save. Consult an authorized agent about a plan best suited to your requirements.

New Plant Handles Lobsters by The Thousands

Thousands of pounds of lobsters weekly are passing through the modern lobster packing storage plant of C. D. Snow here in Digby as the spring production season gets under way. These lobsters which are bought all along the coastline of western Nova Scotia are trucked to Digby, stored and graded at the Snow plant and then shipped to markets as far away as Kentucky and North Carolina.

In the packing and storage plant, a large two storey modern building which was recently completed, are to be found long, commodious tanks capable of holding 10,000 pounds of live lobsters. Through these tanks thousands of gallons of salt sea water are pumped daily from the nearby Annapolis Basin.

Before being placed in the tanks the lobsters are graded for size and condition and are put in special compartments of the tank according to their grade. These vary from jumbos to selects, chickens, quarters and culls. At the present time the lobsters only stay in the tanks a short time and hundreds of pounds are shipped daily to the American and Upper Canadian markets. Only enough are kept on hand to supply local, over-the-counter trade.

For shipping, the lobsters are packed in crates containing from fifty to one hundred pounds. The live lobsters, whose claws are plugged, are packed carefully in an inner section of the crate. After they are topped off with wet seaweed a lid is put on this section. The outer portions of the crate are then packed with chopped ice and the fish are ready to ship. Last year between 400,000 and 500,000 pounds of live lobsters were shipped from the Snow plant to the markets in Upper Canada and the United States.

At present buyers for Mr. Snow are working throughout Digby, Annapolis and Yarmouth counties. In this district the season will close in about two months. Shortly before the close of the season quantities of live lobsters will be placed in floats or "pounds" where they will be kept for sale during the closed season. In conjunction with his packing and storage plant Mr. Snow has four of these large pounds each capable of holding some 18,000 pounds of live lobsters. At the close of the season last year over 80,000 pounds were in the storage in these floats which are anchored off the shore at some distance near the Snow plant at the head of the government wharf.

During the closed season in this locality Mr. Snow buys and ships lobsters from New Brunswick fishing centres and along the shores of the Northumberland Straits. At his plant in Digby, which employ five men beside a number of buyers, are kept supplies of bait, rope, tar, floats and lathe for the manufacture of lobster traps. These are supplied to the fishermen who manufacture their traps and gear.

In the plant is a large freezing locker where a quantity of frozen bait is kept for the fishermen. At present fresh bait is being supplied but a store of the frozen is kept for emergency use. In the upper sections of the building are located the offices and storage rooms. A large work shop is also located on the second floor and here shipping boxes are made and the buying crates are assembled. The buying crates are of an open work construction so the lobsters, when placed in the tanks still in these crates for overnight storage, will not suffocate.

Last week lobster prices reached a peak of over 70 cents per pound on the American market but present prices are below that level and it is expected a decline in prices will continue as spring production continues heavy.

Mill Accident Claims

Life of Reid Thibault

Hold Election Probe Over Until May 20

Reid Thibault, 60 year old employee of H. T. Warne Ltd., died on the operating table in Digby General Hospital early Tuesday evening, about one half hour after his battered body had been removed from the shafting under the rotary mill at the Warne plant. The accident which cost Thibault his life occurred a few minutes before six, shortly before the mill was to shut down for the day.

Details as to what happened are meagre. It is said that Thibault, an experienced mill worker, had gone under the mill to shift a four inch auxiliary belt and in some manner became entangled and was whirled around the shafting.

Medical aid was summoned as soon as possible and Thibault was removed to Digby General Hospital by Ramsay's ambulance. Dr. W. R. Dickie, who arrived at the plant immediately after the accident, supervised the transfer to the hospital where they were met by Dr. J. R. McCleave. Thibault passed away on the operating table a few minutes after his arrival. His injuries included a compound fracture of the left ankle and grievous wounds about the chest and head. The last rites of the Roman Catholic Church were administered by Rev. Leo Day of St. Patrick's Church, Digby.

Reid Thibault lived at Lewiston, near Ashmore, about 16 miles from Digby, where he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Theresa Doucette. He leaves a wife and a family of adult children.

Tuesday's accident occurred near the same place, and apparently under somewhat similar circumstances to an accident last October which took the life of 23 year old Desire Amoro of Concession.

Hall Given

Acclamation

Sydney Joseph Hall, Digby Theatre manager, was on Tuesday nominated for town council for the term ending 1949. There being no other nominations, Hall will be declared elected by acclamation. He will fill the seat to which Dr. E. D. Dickie was elected during the Civic Election of February 4. Dr. Dickie's election was protested on the grounds he was Medical Health Officer for the town of Digby at the time of his nomination and election, and was therefore not eligible to serve, and for that reason he did not take the oath of office and his seat was officially declared vacant.

Hall's nomination papers were signed by Victor Cardoza, Fred J. May, Dr. John R. McCleave and Albert S. Warner. He was an unsuccessful candidate for town council at the time of the February 4 election.

Dr. E. D. Dickie was one of several named in an election protest petition filed at Digby in February and posted notice he would not oppose it. The hearing into the alleged irregularities regarding the election of Councillors Victor G. Cardoza and Albert S. Warner opened at Digby on Friday of last week. Briefs and arguments respecting the case will be heard at Little Brook on May 20.

Y's Men To Sponsor

Boxing Matches

Decision to sponsor a series of boxing matches in Digby to secure funds to promote the work of the local Boy Scout Troop was reached at a meeting of the Y's Men's Club held on Monday evening. The club, which has sponsored the Cub and Scout movement in Digby since its revival last year, is in need of funds to finance a summer camp for the boys and it was felt the boxing matches would meet this need.

A feature of the first match, which will be held sometime late in May, will be a challenge fight between Y's Stan Paxton and Y's Fred Cookson. Cookson is a former Golden Gloves Champion and Paxton has fought both as an amateur and professionally so this promises to be a good scrap.

Arrangements were made for a committee from the club to meet with the Scout Hall Management Committee to iron out certain difficulties that have arisen.

It was decided to purchase six tents to be used by the Scouts at their summer camp and arrangements were made to secure other equipment for the camp.

Celebrates 80th

Birthday

On Wednesday evening, April 9, a number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George VanTassel. Light house Road, to celebrate Mr. VanTassel's 80th birthday.

Following an evening spent in card playing a presentation was made to Mr. VanTassel on behalf of those present. Among gifts received were slippers, pipes, tobacco and many other valuable and useful items.

Mr. VanTassel is an ardent gardener and specializes in the production of choice vegetables. Although somewhat crippled with rheumatism, he is looking forward to the time when he can get out in his garden again and plant those early potatoes for which he is so famous.

To Set Up Recreation Commission To Build

And Operate Skating-Curling Rink

Preliminary steps to set up an Act to incorporate the Digby Recreation Commission were taken at a special meeting of the Town Council Tuesday evening when Town Clerk, C. W. Smith and Town Solicitor E. J. Theriault were named to take the necessary action to have the Act of Incorporation piloted through the House of Assembly in Halifax.

Named in the Commission are the Mayor, the Town Clerk, the President of the Board of Trade and the Chairman of the Board of School Commissioners (all at the time being); and C. M. Levy, J. J. Brittain, F. C. Purdy, G. E. Sanford and Dr. E. H. Anderson—the last five commissioners to hold office until their successors are elected at the first annual meeting of the Commission after the passing of the Act.

The objects of the Commission will be to erect and maintain a skating rink and curling rink; to provide other facilities for healthy exercise and play and to provide funds for this purpose. The Commission will have power to purchase and acquire property both real and personal but may mortgage or sell or otherwise dispose of the same only provided that any sale of real estate must be approved by a majority vote of the Town Council of the Town of Digby.

The Commission has power under the Act to issue bonds and debentures which shall not exceed in the whole the sum of $20,000. This Commission shall also have power to enact, amend and rescind by-laws for the government of the said Commission, the administration of its affairs and the use and control of its property.

Under the Act the Commission may receive subscriptions and contributions for the purposes of the Commission and keep proper records thereof. Every person who subscribes annually the sum of two dollars, or upwards, to the Commission, shall be entitled to vote at all general meetings of the Commission.

It is understood the Digby Board of Trade will turn over all its assets now held in trust for the rink project to the Commission when incorporated. This will include the real property now known as the "Athletic Field" property.

Briefs and arguments arising out of Friday's election protest petition under the Municipal and Town Contraverted Elections Act, alleging irregularities in Digby's civic election of February 4, 1947, will be heard at Little Brook, Tuesday, May 20. The hearing opened in the Digby Court House last Friday morning before County Court Judge Kenneth L. Crowell. The Petitioners, F. L. Anderson and Hubert M. Warne were represented by M. S. Leonard, Digby barrister. E. J. Theriault, Digby, was solicitor for Patrick J. Comeau, named in the petition, while V. J. Pottier of Yarmouth was solicitor for councillors Victor G. Cardoza and Albert S. Warner.

At the hearing the petition was amended at the request of M. S. Leonard to withdraw any and all allegations respecting Patrick J. Comeau, and also where the words "Digby Fire Department" appear in the petition, the words "otherwise known as Digby Fire Company" be inserted.

It was pointed out Patrick J. Comeau, who was an unsuccessful candidate in the election of February 4, had resigned from the Digby Fire Department prior to his nomination, and was not at any time a member of the Fire Department during 1947.

Named in the petition filed February 19 were Victor George Cardoza, E. Dudley Dickie, Albert S. Warner, Patrick J. Comeau and Town Clerk C. W. Smith. Shortly after the petition was filed Dr. E. D. Dickie and Town Clerk Smith posted notices they would not oppose the petition.

The petition declared the nomination papers of Cardoza, Dickie, Warner and Comeau were not in proper form and were improperly received by the Town Clerk. It further declared Dr. E. D. Dickie was disqualified in that at the time of his nomination he held office as Medical Health Officer for which a salary was paid out of the funds of the Town of Digby, and that Albert S. Warner and Patrick J. Comeau were both members of the Digby Fire Department and were paid an annual remuneration out of the funds of the town. The complaint in regard to Town Clerk Smith was to the effect that while on the morning of the election he notified candidates that Dr. Dickie was not eligible, he failed to notify the public to this effect either before the polls remained open, and that he failed to give any notice regarding candidates Warner and Comeau.

As the result of the February 4 election, V. G. Cardoza, A. S. Warner and Dr. E. D. Dickie were declared elected. Cardoza and Warner were sworn into office. Dr. Dickie did not take his seat. There were seven candidates in the field.

Dr. E. D. Dickie was the first witness to take the stand. He gave evidence he was medical health officer for the Town of Digby in 1946 and was appointed to that post in March of that year at a salary of $200 per year. He testified he was nominated to be a candidate in the civic election of February 4 and was elected. He was not sworn into office because he was not qualified to take the oath. He had not been asked to serve and was medical health officer at the time of his nomination.

Cross examined by Mr. Pottier, Dr. Dickie declared he was not aware he was ineligible until notified by the Town Clerk about 11 o'clock on the morning of the election. He was shown his nomination papers, and ad-

"Verandah Rest" for many years operated as a summer resort and Cabin Colony by O. F. Woodman, Smith's Cove, has been purchased by "Penny" Gott and Jo Currie, who arrived last week from Canton, Ohio. The new proprietors plan to open for business in the near future and will operate under the name of "Hedley House." We understand "Hedley House" will be open the whole year 'round.

On April 30, a dance will be held as the opening gun in the fund raising campaign. The Troubadors Orchestra of Annapolis will provide the music. Funds will be needed to ready the tennis courts, provide racquets and playing equipment will be provided by the players themselves.

Mrs. Zilpha Hayden left yesterday for Yarmouth from where she will fly to Boston to visit Mrs. Helen Cronin. She was accompanied to Yarmouth by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wyman and Mrs. Harold Nichols.

Roland H. Sherwood's

"Story Parade"

Highly Acclaimed

Congratulations are indeed due to Roland H. Sherwood of the Pictou Advocate for his splendid new book "Story Parade."

Readers of the Advocate and listeners to radio station C1FX at Antigonish have long enjoyed the wonderful historical anecdotes told in inimitable style by Sherwood. Now the reader has a collection of fifty of these splendid stories gathered together in "Story Parade."

Included in the pages of Story Parade are such favorites as the ever new story of the beautiful sailing brigantine "Mary Celeste." No one yet has explained away the mystery surrounding the finding of this crewless ship 300 miles west of Gibraltar in 1872 and it still remains as the most outstanding of all the unsolved mysteries of the sea.

Another famed mystery of the sea narrated in the pages of Story Parade is the weird yarn of Jerome who was found legless on the beach at Sandy Cove in the year 1850.

Truly, Story Parade is crammed with stories of the Maritimes whose history contains anecdotes unrivalled in any other land. Sherwood has presented these with a deft touch and a skill that proves beyond a doubt truth is stranger than fiction and also that it is more fascinating and interesting. The reading of his story of the Petrified Woman, the tragic story of an Irish girl; "John Mullen's Ears" and "Maiden's Cave," the story of a pirates revenge, just whets the appetite for more.

Story Parade has been illustrated by James DeGeste, also of Pictou, and employed by the famed Fergusson Industries there.

Teeners' Activities

Special speakers and the dance to raise funds for food parcels to British youngsters highlighted the activities of the Teeners for the Easter season. Speaking in defense of the Italian people; and of wartime conditions in Italy, Dr. Earl H. Anderson started off a series of speeches which we know will be an attractive part of our meetings.

Everyone seems to have had a most enjoyable time at the dance last Wednesday evening and we hope to satisfy the needs of more than one British family with the $70 raised.

On April 14th., the newly inducted pastor of the Digby United Baptist Church, Rev. E. C. Churchill, continued a series of speeches by giving a most thought-provoking address on the subject, "What are you looking for in life?" Mr. Churchill was successful in convincing his listeners that the hard, the difficult way of life is often more profitable than the soft, easy

Roy Carpenter Heads

Hospital Fair

Roy Carpenter, manager of Hants Wholesalers (Digby) Ltd., was named as manager of the annual Digby Hospital Fair last night. The fair will be held on August 20th this year. A meeting of concession operators and others interested in the fair will be held later to finalize arrangements for the fair.

A request from the Ladies' Aid presented at the meeting by Mrs. E. S. Eaton for twenty-five per cent. of the Fair proceeds to provide the Aid with working capital, was acceded to by the Board. Mrs. Eaton pointed out this money was needed to finance purchases of linen and other supplies for the hospital.

Exception was taken by Mrs. Eaton to the delay in securing government approval of recent changes in the by-laws of the Hospital Trust. These changes increase representation on the Hospital Board from the Ladies' Aid to three from the present one member. She pointed out the members of the Aid were becoming anxious to secure their representation on the Board, especially as matters concerning the Hospital Fair, a subject of vital concern to the ladies, were being decided. It was decided to write the proper government authorities asking for speedy action in the approval of the by-law changes.

In a splendid detailed report the Hospital Superintendent, Miss Margaret Graham, R.N., told of recent changes and improvements made in the hospital. From her report it was learned the nursery had been greatly enlarged and improved, six new beds had been added to the wards and several new mattresses secured. The need for a bed pan sterilizer for the first floor of the hospital and an incubator was stressed by Miss Graham. Without these, she said, our staff is greatly handicapped. The need for a modern properly equipped incubator has been demonstrated recently and this should be secured. Miss Graham stated.

The Board decided to have the bookkeeper write concerning prices and delivery dates of the items Miss Graham had mentioned, and also a floor polisher.

In his report, Mr. Crouse, the bookkeeper at the hospital, stated patient days in March had amounted to 834. Since he had arrived, Mr. Crouse stated, the most of the books of the hospital had been brought up to date and a start made on the Patients' General Ledger. An inventory of X-Ray equipment had been made by Miss Cossett, X-Ray Technician, Mr. Crouse said.

Mrs. Sara Nichols, who has been spending the winter in the U. S., returned home this week.

way. In concluding his address he expressed his willingness and desire to work with the youth of the town, especially the Teeners' Club.

Bridge Visits

Theatre

Even the feathered denizens of the forest are becoming modern minded and include theatre among their recreational pastime. As a proof of this a bird was seen early last morning roosting quite comfortably on the roof of the Capitol Theatre in the heart of Digby's business section.

The bird was still quite happily engaged in roaming about the roof shortly before noon. It is understood he was waiting for the afternoon matinee which opened at 3:30.

Saves Pup,

Breaks Leg

Little Jimmie Theriault, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Theriault of Ashmore, suffered a broken leg Monday morning when he was struck by a car on the main highway near his home. The car was driven by Adrien LeBlanc of Concession.

It is understood little Jimmie was crossing the road with his dog when he saw the car approaching. Fearing for the safety of his puppy, he turned and ran almost directly into the oncoming car in an effort to save the pup which was not hurt.

Rushed to the Digby General Hospital, it was found he had suffered a broken leg and minor injuries about the head. After treatment he returned home.

Westport Shipping

Heavy

Westport, quaint little fishing village at the extreme end of Digby Neck, has been a very busy port these last few days. A number of craft made port, some to discharge cargo, others for refuge from the storm.

Arriving from the south, the "O.K. Service" discharged part of her cargo of salt at Westport. The government supply boat "Dollard" and the "Standard Coaster" also made port on Friday. Owing to rough weather, the Coaster was unable to leave port on her scheduled run to Yarmouth until Saturday, while the Dollard remained in port over the week end.

Two of the boats which have been scalloping out of Digby have also been taking refuge at Westport at nights while fishing for scallop off Briar Island during the day.

The streets of Westport have these days felt the tread of many strangers, all of whom have been impressed with the quaint beauty of the little village.

New Conway Favors

Digby Site

New Conway School Section joined the ranks of rural school sections in Digby County favoring the Rural High School Plan and Digby town as the site for the proposed new Central High School Tuesday night in an enthusiastic meeting held in the New Conway School.

Tuesday night's meeting is the seventh meeting held in rural school sections near the town of Digby concerning the Rural High School Plan. Each of these meetings has enthusiastically supported the plan and voted in favor of Digby as the logical site for the new school.

The purposes of setting up the Rural High plan in Digby County by the Municipality was divided into several areas. One of these includes fourteen school sections near the Town of Digby. Each of these sections have all voted in favor of the plan and the Digby site and meetings will be held in the remainder during the balance of this week and next.

About This and That

There are rumors that cigarette and tobacco prices are to take another jump in price. According to some reports cigarettes are to go up ten cents a pack. Such an increase would bring the price of a pack of 20 of the standard grade of cigarettes to 43 cents—over two cents a piece!

The cost of smokes in Canada is already prohibitive and there is no logical reason why the smoker must be penalized every time the government needs to increase its revenue — or needs to supplement a more direct taxation.

It is understood that without federal taxes of various kinds, cigarettes could be profitably retailed at ten cents a package. The present price is 33 cents—and if there is any truth in current rumors, we may soon be paying 43 cents a pack!

"The Circus is coming to town."

To many youngsters that was the news highlight of last week. It has been many years since a circus has visited Digby, the last time was in 1933, and for that reason there are a great many youngsters who have never seen what goes on under the big top—or who have never seen the big top itself. Their only knowledge of the circus is through the movies and story books.

We hope they won't be disappointed this summer. We hope these kiddies will see a real circus, for, we believe at least one exciting circus day—beginning with the unloading of the circus train, and of course including the parade, the three ring show, and the taking down of the tent, should be part of a child's education.

Of course the circus makes little difference to we older folk. We have all heard the old saw, "to see one is to see them all"—but when circus day comes many fathers and mothers, grandfathers and grandmothers, will find time, some way or another, to take the kiddies to the circus.

A wide variety of canned goods and packaged foods was collected by Digby Kiwanians at their regular supper meeting at the Myrtle Hotel last Thursday evening. For this meeting each member had promised to bring a food package. These packages were later turned over to Rev. T. W. Food packages are being mailed out at regular intervals to British families who have been "adopted" by the Digby Red Cross.

The speaker at this meeting was Rev. E. C. Churchill, pastor of the Digby Baptist Church. In his address Rev. Churchill stressed the need of a true and readable Canadian History—a history that will be of interest to the common man and would help dispel much of the ignorance displayed by Canadians regarding the history and geography of their own country.—a history that will help break down existing barriers of language and religion—a history that will help Canadians become acquainted with their own background, for, he emphasized, until we become acquainted with our own background and alive to our own culture, we cannot be in a position to adjudge World Fellowship.

being served with the protest petition signed by F. L. Anderson and H. M. Warner. He testified the signature of F. L. Anderson was the first to appear on his nomination paper and the first to appear on the petition seeking to disqualify him. The doctor stated he did not wish to run for town council and was nominated without his knowledge or consent. His reason for not taking his seat was that he was not qualified to take the oath.

The second witness was fire chief George Humphrey who testified Albert S. Warner was secretary-treasurer of the Digby Fire Company and had been for a number of years. At the request of Mr. Leonard he read a portion of the minutes of the firemen's meeting of January 4, 1941, instructing a letter be sent to the town council asking the fire chief be paid $35 a year, the secretary-treasurer $30 and individual firemen $25 per year, the fire company to have full control over personnel and internal management. Other minutes read by the fire chief were from the minutes of the Dec. 6, 1944 meeting which asked the town for an increase of $10 per year to each member of the fire department, and of the meeting of March 5, 1947, when Albert S. Warner resigned from the fire company, and a further motion by which Warner would remain as a member of the company and as its secretary-treasurer without remuneration. Firemen's payroll sheets for a number of years were also exhibited. He testified Warner was secretary of the fire company on nomination day (January 28, 1947) and civic election day (Feb. 4, 1947), and that the money for the fire company was paid through the office of the Town Clerk, who made deductions for any taxes and other rates due the town by members of the company.

Cross examined, he testified Warner would not receive any money from the fire company in 1947. He did not know how the money was voted by the Town Council. He believed the reason the pay roll sheets were given to the town clerk was in order that deductions could be made by the clerk. The town had nothing to say with regard to naming or appointing members of the fire company.

Town Clerk Smith gave evidence that nomination papers for Warner and Cardoza were received just prior to Nomination Day and that in all nomination papers for seven candidates had been filed with him. He testified Dudley Dickie was appointed Medical Health Officer on March 4, 1946 at a salary of $200 per year. Excerpts from the town council minutes dating back to July 2, 1940, were read. In most instances these had to do with firemen's salaries, and regarding action taken by the town council late in 1940 when the company threatened to resign in a body effective from December 31, 1940. According to these minutes the town was to supervise the formation of a new company, name its fire chief and members, but at a later date these motions were rescinded and the fire company carried on as in the past.

Regarding election day notices, the Clerk stated he had prepared six notices and posted one on the town hall bulletin board. The chief of police posted the remaining five. On the day of the election he was advised by E. J. Theriault, town solicitor, that Dickie was not eligible as a candidate owing to the fact that he was medical health officer for the town. He informed Dr. Dickie and notified other candidates to this effect. No notice was given to the public, and he instructed presiding officers they were not to take notice of rumours.

He testified there were 1066 names on the voters' list; 539 voted.

Cross examined, he testified one of the signers of Comeau's nomination paper was H. M. Warner, who was also a signer of the petition in which Comeau was named and that the certificates attached to the nomination papers of the elected candidates were the same form as had been attached in previous years. There had been no objections on other occasions. Both Cardoza and Warner received more than half of the votes polled—out of 528 ballots Cardoza had 368 votes and Warner 272. According to records the 1947 poll was the heaviest in 12 years. He also testified the town of Digby had no liability to Dr. Dickie after January 1, 1947; that Warner had been a councillor for four years and he was now entering his third term; that Cardoza had been a councillor continuously since 1939.

Final witnesses heard were F. R. Eisener and Chief of Police F. J. Thibault. Mr. Eisener testified he was chairman of the fire and water committee in 1941 and at that time suggested the fire department be reduced to 15 firemen, thus making it possible to pay individual firemen more money. Firemen were paid for their services to the town, he testified.

Cross examined by Mr. Pottier, he said at that time the fire truck driver was the only member of the fire department appointed by the town. He denied that during his term there was any disagreement between the fire company and himself and that he tried to have the fire chief replaced. Relations between himself and the company were good. He had been asked by the council to contact Fred Barr as possible fire chief. Chief Thibault testified regarding the posting of election notices.

Life and goodness are immortal. Let us then shape our views of existence into loveliness, continuity and freshness, rather than into age and blight.

—Mary Baker Eddy.

THE TREAD IS FLAT

Older tread designs are curved—only part of the tread is in contact with the road.

NEW B. F. Goodrich tread design is FLAT—the entire width of the tread grips the road. That means greater safety—longer mileage.

Older Tread Designs are inclined to spin on fast starts.

With greater road gripping surface, the NEW B. F. Goodrich Tire hugs the road—drives you forward! AND NON-SKID STARTS MEAN LONGER TREAD LIFE!

TRY THIS TEST. Push two fingers across the top of a smooth desk. They slide with only moderate resistance. That's because there isn't much "contact area" on the finger tips.

New—use the whole palm of your hand! Resistance is great, because there's much more "contact area." That's why the NEW B. F. Goodrich Tire with Flat Tread stops faster when you hit the brakes!

This tire is completely new and different. It's designed . . . engineered . . . built . . . differently! It's new in performance and record-breaking mileage!

To make it, B. F. Goodrich developed cooler-running, longer-wearing rubber compounds. The tread was made flat. That puts more rubber on the road—distributes weight better. It means longer wear . . . greater safety!

The massive body of the NEW B. F. Goodrich Tire is 35 per cent stronger than older type tire bodies. On the road the combination of stronger body and flat tread reduces sidewall flexing. This tire runs cooler . . . wears longer. It gives you extra safety!

The NEW B. F. Goodrich Tire has been thoroughly proved. In more than 21 MILLION miles of the most gruelling road tests, this great new tire easily outwore the best pre-war tires. It's the longest mileage tire ever made by B. F. Goodrich.

This is the wonderful new post-war tire you've waited for. See your nearest B. F. Goodrich dealer today!

Comments on EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

My neighbor John Williams was talking the other day about how important our export trade is to us.
"You know, Don," he said, "a lot of Canadians don't realize what it means to have world markets for our grain and hogs. But history shows now that not even the strongest countries can get along without selling to others."
Well, I agreed with John all right, but I reminded him it isn't only a matter of produce like grain and hogs. Especially to us, the things called "invisible" exports like the tourist trade and life insurance are vital too.
Did you know that about 40 per cent of all the life insurance with Canadian companies has been sold to people outside Canada—in 64 other countries? No other country "exports" that much life insurance. Our companies must be pretty famous for their efficiency and their safety.
Life insurance is a business that everybody, a great enterprise which protects the future of more than four million policyholders and their loved ones. Life insurance offers a simple, safe and easy way to save. Contact an authorized agent about a plan best suited to your requirements.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Therese Deveau

Meteghan was saddened by the unexpected death of Mrs. Therese Deveau, formerly Comeau, LeBlanc, who passed away on April 9th, aged 83, and left in deep sorrow five sons and three daughters by her first marriage with the late Symphonian LeBlanc, as follows: Joseph, Louis and Fred LeBlanc with whom she lived and Mrs. Patrick Thibideau (Marie), all at Meteghan Centre; Charles and Denis LeBlanc of New York; Mrs. Louis Comeau (Lena), of Lynn Mass.; and Mrs. Amadie Maillet (Emilie) of Boston. Her second husband, Severin L. Deveau, predeceased her several years ago. She was the last surviving member of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Comeau, of Meteghan River.

Funeral service with solemn Requiem High Mass took place at the Stella Maris Church at Meteghan Saturday morning, April 12th. The pastor, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Bourneuf, officiated, being assisted by Rev. M. J. LeBlanc of St. Alphonse, as deacon, and Rev. Fr. Castonguay, C.J.M., Saulnierville, as sub-deacon. Mrs. Joseph LeBlanc was the organist and the singing was rendered by Arthur Robichaud and Religious of the Convent. There was a large gathering at the church and at the grave, among whom we noted Hon. Senator J. L. P. and Mrs. Robichaud, the Rev. Sisters of the Sacred Heart Academy with their students, Mrs. Lena Comeau and Mrs. Emily Maillet daughter, from the United States.

E. P. Deveau had charge of the burial and the pall bearers were all nephews of the deceased, Camille and Leger d'Entremont, Ben and Louis Comeau. She was a very devoted mother to her family, very charitable, always ready to give a helping hand to the poor and a good Christian who contributed largely to religious and social purposes. She will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Dora E. Floyd

There passed away at her home in Virginia East on Tuesday, April 8, Dora E. Floyd, widow of the late James E. Floyd. She was 79 and was born at Caledonia, coming here to live as a young girl, and remaining here until her death. She had been in failing health for some time following a fall and broken wrist, and was tenderly cared for by her daughter. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Left to mourn their loss are three daughters, Sadie (Mrs. Earl Drew) of Lansdowne; Lena (Mrs. Harry Milner of Virginia East, and Elizabeth (Mrs. Truman Fraser) of Princesdale. One sister, Mrs. Norman McLeod of Ipswich, Mass., also survives.

Funeral services were conducted at her home on Friday afternoon by Rev. C. S. Young of the Clementsvalle Baptist Church and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Interment was in the Clementsvalle Cemetery beside her husband.

Reports On Athletic Field

Dr. Earl H. Anderson, President of the Digby Athletic Association, reporting at Tuesday night's meeting of the Board of Trade, stated the ball field had been surveyed and lined up for grading and levelling. Plans for building the field were progressing and it was hoped to have the same shortly. It was also noted, Dr. Anderson stated, to get a fence around the field this year so that games played would produce a revenue to defray operating expenses of the Digby's athletic plant is complete and can be made as good as any in a town of its size in North America," Dr. Anderson stated in concluding his report.

Mr. McBride reported to the Board that Travellers' Cheques had been refused by Digby merchants. He felt this was not a practice especially in a town. It was pointed out that travellers' cheques are perfectly safe, a precaution that should be observed, however, is that they be signed in the presence of the cashier.

The resolution from the Gloucester Board of Trade calling on the Dominion Government to bring a halt to the current coal strike was ordered tabled by the Board as it was felt the Board was not well enough informed as to the issues under dispute to take action in the matter.

C. F. McBride reported that an engineer from the Department of Public Works had been contacted regarding the Spurr Pier. The brief recommending certain changes and alterations to this pier, prepared by the committee, had been given him. Present plans of the Department will be retopping, spilling and repairing the pier to this pier, it was stated.

Delegates were appointed to attend the Annual Meeting of the Annapolis Valley Affiliated Boards of Trade to be held in Kentville, April 30th.

No Further Work On Digby Neck Road

Only two contracts were awarded and both were considered too high no contract has been let covering further work on the Digby Neck Highway on the section leading from the station of Gulliver's Cove road toward Sandy Cove, a distance of 10 1/2 miles. R. W. McLaughlin, executive assistant to the Minister of Highways and Public Works, announced this.

It was added that in all probability there will be no new construction work undertaken on the highway during the present year, but that tenders would be called for the work on the Digby Neck Highway early next year. The work at present under contract to Ralph and Aron Parsons will be completed. The Department, said Mr. McLaughlin, had been unsuccessful in getting contracts on a number of other highway projects advertised for tender.

VOLUME LXXIII, NO. 32

Former Yarmouth Drill Hall To Be Bought For Rink

Decision to purchase a former R. C. A. F. Drill Hall located in Yarmouth for use as a skating and curling rink in Digby, was reached at Tuesday night's meeting of the Board of Trade.

The motion governing the purchase was moved by H. A. Fillmore and passed unanimously. It stated, in part, that the proceeds from the Board of Trade's July 1st. Fair, which are presently held in trust to be turned over to a company formed to own and operate a rink in Digby and which amount to approximately $6500 are to be turned over to the town of Digby for the purchase of Building No. 15 East Camp, Yarmouth.

The motion also stated the cost of incorporating the Digby Recreation Commission be paid from this money and the balance turned over to the Commission.

M. S. Leonard stated, although he was as anxious as anyone present to secure a rink for the town, he felt the Board was moving too fast and usurping the functions of the Commission. He stated the Commission might not wish to be saddled with this building and questioned whether any effort had been made to ascertain cost of demolition, removal and rebuilding, etc.

W. L. Troop stated a number of Board members and members of the Rink Committee had journeyed to Yarmouth to see the building and were satisfied it was a good buy. "If I could buy it myself, on speculation, I would jump at the chance," he stated.

It was stated it was understood, the group from North Sydney who have purchased the Cornwallis Rink estimate it will cost some $7000 to demolish the building following which it will be shipped by rail and re-assembled at North Sydney. Mr. Warne stated he had contacted M. A. Condon, Kentville Contractor, who was going to inspect the building with a view to establishing an approximate figure as to cost of demolition and rebuilding.

Members present stated they felt the move to secure this building was a wise one and that it would be impossible to buy a comparable structure for anywhere the figure it will cost to secure this. It was pointed out the building, which has a hardwood floor and is equipped with heating system, electrically wired and other facilities, may be used throughout the year for a great variety of functions.

Summer Visitor Appears In Film At Capitol

Making his first appearance in films, stage actor John Rodney will appear in the Warner picture, "Pursued", starring Teresa Wright and Robert Mitchum and showing at the Capitol Theatre Monday and Tuesday.

John Rodney is well known in Digby and vicinity under his real name of John Flynn. With his mother he has been coming to Bear River for the summer months for a number of years and was a summer visitor here last year. His mother, Mrs. Ruth Raymond, lives at present in Alexandria, Virginia. She has a summer home at Bear River.

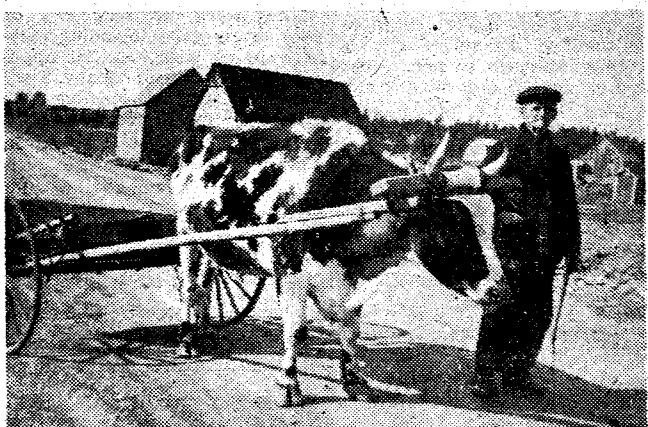

Bad Fire Averted

Prompt action by the Digby Fire Department Wednesday afternoon prevented what might have been a serious fire at the home of Mrs. Annie Cummings.

The fire, which was first noticed by William McNeill, a boarder at the Cummings home, had eaten through between the ceiling and floor around a stove pipe which passed through the ceiling. A few moments delay would have meant the whole area between the floor and the ceiling would have caught, causing a disastrous blaze.

Some damage was caused to the house by smoke and water.

"THE" MAILS MUST GO THROUGH

Louis Gaudet of Concession is probably the only mail carrier in all Canada who carries his mail with an ox team. This familiar figure with his dagen ox and cart may be seen every afternoon at Church Point Station as he calls for the mail which is dropped from the D. A. R. train passing through that station.

Concession is a small village one and one half miles from Church Point Station toward the interior of the Clare section of Digby County and Mr. Gaudet has carried the mail over this route for over twenty years. In all that time he has always managed to get the mail to the station on time and, except for a period of two weeks, personally handled the mail with his ox and cart. He spent eight days in hospital a few years ago and was absent from his duties for two weeks. During his absence, his son, Jeremiah, replaced him. Well known and liked by the mail clerks and trainmen on the D. A. R., Mr. Gaudet will retire on expiration of his present contract due to ill health. Over 74 years of age, his health has not been good in late years and he has decided to take a well earned rest.

A farmer, he has resided in Concession with Mrs. Gaudet. He is a son of Pierre Gaudet of the same village.

Province May Purchase Big Base At "Cornwallis"

The possible purchase by the Nova Scotia Government of the navy's multi-million dollar training base at Cornwallis, N. S., for conversion into a tourist and convention centre has been under discussion with War Assets Corporation it was disclosed in Trenton.

Alfonso Murray, financial secretary of the Trenton local of the United Steel Workers (CIO-CCL), said he has been informed in a letter from Industry Minister Connolly that the provincial government and WAC have been negotiating the sale of the wartime base on Annapolis Basin.

The minister's letter was a reply to one which Mr. Murray had written on behalf of his local petitioning the government to inquire into the possibility of purchasing the $12,000,000 base and, with the support of Nova Scotians, convert it into a convention resort.

Mr. Connolly's letter said a purchase price had been fixed by WAC but he did not disclose the amount noting that the government had considered it too high. He estimated cost of conversion for the government's purpose would be about $2,500,000.

"We suggested to War Assets," the minister said in his letter, "that we be allowed to purchase the set-up for the purpose indicated, pointing out that we would thus be able to provide facilities beyond the capabilities of any other Canadian city to provide, and on the basis of this representation, War Assets commenced negotiations and have refused to permit purchase of any part of the plant by other plants."

The minister said "a price was eventually fixed by War Assets and presented to the Nova Scotia government."

"In our opinion the price was too high and we made an alternative suggestion which is now still under consideration."

"The conversion of Cornwallis into what might be said to be a very ordinary tourist and convention city lay-out would cost immediately approximately $2,500,000, the letter said. "This, of course, would be in addition to the purchase price and does not include the many extras that might well be involved."

"It is questionable whether we could justify the expenditure of $3,000,000 for such a purpose but as I have already said the matter is still under discussion and we might still be able to carry out the original plan."

To Abandon Deep Brook Gypsum Operations

The gypsum storage shed at Deep Brook, which has been used by the Canadian Gypsum Company for winter shipments of productions from its Windsor quarries, is soon to be abandoned according to the annual report of the Department of Mines tabled in the Nova Scotia Legislature last Thursday. The company is building a new storage shed and loading plant at Hantsport.

Two new 11,000 ton gypsum freighters are now under construction to replace those lost during the war.

Annual Meeting Of "Digby Crafts"

Mrs. E. Scott Eaton was re-elected president at the first annual meeting of "Digby Crafts" held at the Court House Thursday evening, April 17. Other officers elected were as follows:

1st. Vice-Pres. — Mrs. John Russell.
2nd. Vice-Pres. — Mrs. H. J. Anthony.
3rd. Vice-Pres. — Miss Margaret Purdy.
Secretary — Mrs. John Mockett
Asst. Secretary — Mrs. H. M. Warne.
Treasurer — Mrs. Hicks.

The various craft convenors were re-appointed for another year.

Reports presented by the president and by the retiring secretary, Mrs. A. J. Dillon, showed much progress to have been made by the newly formed organization during its first year. The exhibition of old and new crafts held in February was the outstanding feature of the year's activities. Classes had also been held in metal craft and wood-carving, with advanced instruction being given in both crafts at the present time by the government instructor, Miss Ruth Eisenhauer. Fish netting had also been undertaken locally and is being taught to a Digby group by Mrs. Basil Porter.

A Business Committee, headed by Mrs. John Russell, is now preparing for the opening of three Gift Counters in Digby during the summer months and a canvass of the county is being made to secure new members for "Digby Crafts" and saleable articles of all kinds suitable for the tourist trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Combeau of Bear River East spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Trimper at Greenland.

School Board Backs Fire Escapes

Decision to carry on with the original plans to have fire escapes installed on the old section of the Digby Academy was reached at Tuesday night's meeting of the Board of School Commissioners.

This decision was reached following receipt of a letter from the Provincial Fire Marshall who had recently inspected the building. Col. Wright stated he felt present means of exit from the building were sufficient provided that the stairway leading to the basement was strengthened and the door between the basement and first floor kept closed at all times.

The meeting felt, despite the Fire Marshall's assurances, every possible effort should be made to avoid loss of life should a fire break out in the building. It was pointed out the stairway in the old section of the building were of wood and that some two hundred pupils would be using the exit from this section of the building as a fire exit with pupils from both second and first floor meeting in the main hallway to make exit through the main doorway and then down more steps to the ground.

It was further pointed out that, with the building of the new Central High School in Digby, the second storey of the present building would be used by younger pupils than formerly, thus increasing the panic hazard. The chute type of escape was favored by the Board who felt stairways were a menace particularly with young people who were likely to fall and be trampled upon in the event of panic.

From the Supervisor's report presented at the meeting it was learned attendance at the Academy had increased to 92%, an increase over last month's average attendance of 83%. Poor attendance last month was attributed mainly to illness.

Daylight Time Starts Sunday

Daylight Saving Time will come into effect in most of the larger centres at midnight Saturday night. Radio programs on Sunday will be heard in Digby, which is remaining on old time, one hour earlier. This includes that popular Sunday morning program, Neighborly News, Listeners in Digby will hear Jerry Redmond at nine o'clock on Sunday morning instead of the usual hour, 10 a. m.

Bus travellers are also reminded of changes announced in bus schedules which are effective on Sunday. An announcement regarding this appears in another section of the Courier.

"All superstitions have elements of intelligence," said Dr. D. B. Hemmeon of Annapolis Royal, who addressed the Kiwanis Club at their regular supper meeting on Thursday. The subject of Dr. Hemmeon's address was "Superstition and Reason" in which he classed superstitions myths as the ABC's of science, pointing out that most superstitious beliefs were originally intended as preventative and deterrents to immoral conduct.

The meeting was well attended, thirty-three members being present. Chester Levy, club president, who has been absent on vacation for the past few weeks, was chairman.

Ray Underwood outlined plans for the Kiwanis Minstrels to be staged in May. Following the meeting several club members went over a few of the tentative choruses at Community Hall.

Progress was reported on the Racquette Project.

Marion Ramsay, who has been spending the past six months in the United States, is visiting her brother, C. W. Ramsay and Mrs. Ramsay.

Sydney Hall Sworn In As Councillor

Sydney Joseph Hall, local theatre manager, was Tuesday afternoon sworn in as a member of the Digby Town Council. Swearing in ceremonies were conducted by Stipendiary Magistrate G. H. Peters with the full Council present. Mr. Hall was welcomed to the Council by His Worship, Mayor James W. Merkel.

Councillor Hall replaces Councillor-elect Dr. E. D. Dickie whose seat was declared vacant following his failure to appear to be sworn into office after the civic election of February 4th. Dickie was also named in the protest petition filed following the February 4th election. This petition alleged his election invalid because of his position as town Health Officer. Hall's election to the Council was by acclamation, there being no nominations to oppose him.

Discuss Educational Opportunities For Vets

J. H. MacKenzie, Director of the Veterans' Department of the Adult Education Service, Department of Education, was the speaker at Thursday night's regular monthly meeting of Branch No. 20 Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. Mr. MacKenzie outlined the various educational courses open for veterans and explained that all these courses were completely without charge to the ex-service man or woman.

A thorough discussion of educational matters followed Mr. MacKenzie's address. It was decided to take steps to organize study groups in the fall with the Executive of the Branch as an Educational Committee. It was pointed out that the department will provide instructors for study groups of eight, ten or more members.

Arrangements were made for the Branch to attend the memorial service being held in Smith's Cove on Sunday for the Francis brothers who were lost on the gypsum freighter, Nova-loc. Both these boys were veterans of World War II.

Plans for the sponsoring of a Minstrel Show to aid branch funds were also finalized at the meeting. It was decided to hold this show between May 13 and 16.

Summer Residents Highly Honored

Dr. Alexander Hamilton Leighton, professor of Sociology at Cornell University, and his wife, Dr. Dorothea Cross Leighton, were among those receiving fellowships totalling $310,000 from the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation, it was announced recently from the foundation's New York headquarters.

Dr. Leighton and his wife, who are well known in Digby and vicinity, spending their summers at their summer home in Smith's Cove, received their award for a joint comparative study of cultural and personality data dealing with Navaho Indians, Eskimos and Japanese.

The Guggenheim Foundation Awards are one of the most coveted awards in the United States. The Foundation was established in 1925 by the late Simon Guggenheim, United States Senator from Colorado, and his wife, as a memorial to their son who died in 1922. The fellowships are awarded to scholars and artists in any field to provide opportunities for furtherance of their work anywhere in the world.

Liquor Store Catches

The Digby Fire Department was called out Saturday morning for a fire at the Nova Scotia Liquor Commission Store here.

The blaze, which was small and was quickly extinguished, was confined to the roof of the building and is thought to have been caused by a flying spark from a nearby chimney.

About This and That

Despite recent action by the Town Council to curb speeding in town, there seems to be little improvement in the situation along Water Street from the Band Stand around the corner by the Myrtle Hotel. In fact it would really be hard to say there has been any noticeable improvement in the situation anywhere in town.

While we know civic authorities are busy people and our Police Chief has a lot on his hands with the ever increasing number of "drunks" who clutter our streets, we do feel some definite and tangible effort should be made to curb this speeding in Digby.

A great deal of the speeding and, what almost might be termed "reckless driving", takes place at hours when the traffic is not particularly heavy along the street. Certain drivers seem unable to curb their desire to "see how fast she'll go" and the traffic-free highway ahead seems most inviting for their purpose. One of these days, however, a little child, or perhaps an adult, is going to make his way across that "traffic-free highway" as the speed test is in progress. The result can only be disaster.

Surely we are not going to wait until some life is sacrificed on the altar of speed before taking definite and positive action to halt the practise of using our main street as a speedway. We suggest a few stiff fines handed out to offenders caught. Hit in the pocketbook, they may consider twice before trying their speed again, at least in Digby.

THE Smart LOOKING, Smart HANDLING 1947 OLDSMOBILE

Three full lines to choose from all offering

GM HYDRAMATIC DRIVE

The 1947 Oldsmobile is smart in more ways than one. Smart styling... certainly. But it's a smart investment, too. An investment in the dependability and quality for which the Oldsmobile name is famous. An investment in the riding comfort of Quadri-Coil Springing and 4-Way Stabilization. An investment in the matchless driving ease of GM Hydra-Matic Drive*—the only drive that shifts gears automatically and eliminates the clutch pedal entirely. Choose the low-priced Oldsmobile "60" (either a six or an eight)—or the popular-priced "70" (also with a choice of engines)—or the luxurious "98" Custom Cruiser. Whichever it is... you'll be making a smart choice!

The demand for new cars is still so great that it may be some time before you take the wheel of your new Oldsmobile. Make sure your present car keeps rolling. The better its condition, the safer you are... and the higher its potential trade-in value.

Mrs. E. J. Stehelin, a very well known lady, Mrs. Stehelin of Church Point, was called away by death Saturday morning at 8 o'clock after a long illness. She was paralyzed for the last five years, though she was able to get around with difficulty for some months ago. Her affliction changed for the worst the last year and she has been bedridden for nearly a whole year.

Mrs. Stehelin was of English descent, having been born in Leicester, England, and was Anne Marie Stehelin before her marriage to the late Major Emile J. Stehelin of France. She met the Major while in Europe and he preceded her to Canada. Some time later, Mrs. Stehelin ventured to Canada where she married Mr. Stehelin in Halifax in 1894 and they settled in the New France area.

At that time New France was a busy settlement and a large volume business was transacted in the lumbering trade. About thirty-eight years ago, the Stehelins moved to Church Point where the Major did an extensive business buying pulp and lumber for New Brunswick interests and later was appointed postmaster which position he held up to his death several years ago.

Mrs. Stehelin was greatly admired and esteemed by the people of this district, as well as in Clare. She is mourned by two sons, Emile C. of McLellan, Alberta, who is inspector of schools and Paul H. (Major) who is Regional Director of Family Allowances in Halifax; three daughters, Mrs. Walter Merritt, Agnes, of Halifax, Anne Marie at home, and Rev. Sister Jacqueline of Jesus, mother superior of the Good Shepherd of Toronto.

Funeral services took place at St. Mary's R. C. Church with Rev. O. Hebert officiating at a requiem High Mass. Interment took place at the Weymouth Roman Catholic Cemetery where the Stehelin family are laid to rest.

Earl E. Prime

There passed away suddenly in Conquest, Sask., on March 30, 1947, Earl E. Prime, formerly of Freeport, N. S. The late Mr. Prime was born at Freeport on August 18, 1892, but has lived in Saskatchewan for the past twenty-four years. Since 1943 he has been the proprietor of the Merchants' Hotel, Conquest. He is survived by his widow, one son, Raymond (two years old); an infant daughter, Gloria Anne, just a few weeks old; his mother, Mrs. Prime, living in Digby; and sister, Mrs. B. H. Rugger (Daisy) at Digby. Two brothers also survive, Arthur of Hanna, Alta., and Oswald of Kyle, Sask. The funeral service

Do you like a Fashion Show? Of course you do, everybody does. A very fine one it to be given by the Entertainment Committee of the Digby General Hospital at the Baptist Church Hall on May 7th.

This will be the hit of the season and will be presented both afternoon and evening so that everyone will have a chance to come. We want every lady in town to be present and we hope she will bring her family, especially her husband, who, after all, should be most interested in the season's latest fashions for his wife.

Our Digby stores are co-operating wonderfully in supplying Ladies' and Children's clothing, including dresses, hats and accessories. These will be shown by the most attractive models imaginable.

There will be music, of course and what is more, there will be refreshments served during the showing of the fashions.

An interesting feature will be a demonstration of facial make-up which will show us all how with paint, powder and cream, we ladies can make ourselves more beautiful.

Watch for the posters about town. These will give you information in detail. Also watch for next week's Courier and don't forget to reserve the date, May 7th, for the finest Fashion show ever held in Digby.

The proceeds from this show will go to the Digby General Hospital.

Firemen's Card Party Nets $80

The sum of eighty dollars was raised to help a sick fireman at last week's card party sponsored by the Digby Volunteer Fire Company. The affair was a most successful one and was very well attended.

Prize winners were: Ladies' High, Mrs. Ambrose Doucett and Mrs. Clifford O'Neill; Ladies' Low, Mrs. E. B. Richardson; Gents' High, Ken W. Smith; Gents' Low, Ross Harlow; Chair Prize, Mrs. Kenneth Turnbull; Door prize, Carl S. Winchester, ticket No. 165; Lucky Ticket winner, Gerald Sanford.

The Fire Company extends their sincere thanks to all who aided in making the party a success, and especially the merchants who so generously donated prizes for the evening.

was held in the United Church at Kyle and interment was in the Clearwater Cemetery. The late Mr. Prime, accompanied by his wife and son, visited his mother and sister in Digby last summer and also visited relatives and friends in Freeport.

The Minister of Veterans Affairs recently pointed out the War Service Grants Act provides for heavy penalties for the misuse of re-establishment credit, and advised against attempts to obtain or divert this form of aid to veterans to purposes other than those provided in the Act.

To emphasize his remarks Mr. Mackenzie cited the case of a veteran who was recently sentenced to 15 days in jail after being found guilty of using his credit to purchase furniture, then disposing of it to another person for cash before it was even delivered.

Re-establishment credit is designed primarily to assist veterans to provide a home or to earn their livelihood through business ventures, said Mr. Mackenzie.

"This veteran traded this assistance for $250 less than the amount of his credit and, for a temporary cash advantage, gave up his job, left his family, was sought by the RCMP, arrested and jailed," the Minister commented. "Certainly a very unwise choice."

Mr. Mackenzie also called attention to the fact that equally severe penalties were provided for individuals who advised, aided or abetted veterans in the misuse of re-establishment credit.

CANADA'S TEXTILE INDUSTRY is not generally regarded as being anything very exciting. It is true that in normal peace-time years textiles led all other industries in employment and wages paid. But that means we are just a part of regular daily living in Canada. It makes us about as exciting as a kitchen table.

DURING THE WAR, Canada's hundreds of textile plants turned out millions of yards of urgently-needed supplies. Today we are working hard to catch up with the heavy and growing civilian demands of the post-war. We provide thousands of jobs to Canadian citizens at new high wage levels. True, these factors do not seem exciting but it is nice to know that we have a place in Canada's way of living. A kitchen table may not be exciting but it is important to the household.

Letter to the Editor

I. J. Wallis,
Editor Courier,
Digby, Nova Scotia.
Gentlemen:

After Readers Digest described my procedure of assisting confused and distressed people in their personal problems, I was swamped with requests for additional information. Consequently, I compiled a small booklet which explains the self analysis technique that is used here in the Court to aid all emotionally ill people who feel insecure, fearful, nervous and the like.

As all the requests were accidentally destroyed, would you print this letter so your readers will know they can now secure a free copy by writing to me?

Sincerely yours,

Home and School Meets

The Grosses Coques branch of the Home and School Association was held at the school house Thursday evening with Mrs. Leger Muise presiding. Since the last meeting, paper cups and a water cooler have been purchased. Electric lights have been installed in one of the class rooms where the regular monthly meetings are held.

Mrs. Leger Muise was appointed as delegate to attend the Rally at Church Point on May 5. Mrs. Muise was also elected as delegate to attend the provincial rally later on in the season.

Rev. O. Hebert congratulated the branch on accomplishing so much in such a short time. He urged the women members to try to make the menfolk attend the meetings. He stated that he noticed a great change in the schools of Clare that has taken place during the last ten years and this can be attributed to the Home and School Associations.

A basket social is planned for next week to raise funds to be used in improving the school and recreational facilities.

Weymouth C.G.I.T.

News

The weekly meeting of Wenogi C. G. I. T. Group was held at the Guild Hall on Thursday afternoon. Regular business was conducted. Plans were made for future entertainment. Worship was conducted by the leader. Interesting reports were given by Madeline Elliott and Emily Sabine who attended the Senior Provincial Conference held at St. Andrew's Hall, Halifax. The motto of the conference was "Onward and Upward." They outlined the important steps needed in order to become a leader in Christian education, and also gave the qualification of a successful leader. The girls, who spent a very enjoyable week end returned home on Monday. The meeting closed with taps.

The Victory C. G. I. T. held its meeting at the United Church parsonage on Wednesday afternoon. President Freda Gates was in the chair. Routine business was conducted and a game of table tennis was scheduled for the following week at the home of Mrs. Cereno Jones. Mrs. R. K. Foster, one of the leaders, continued the book, "In His Steps." Worship was conducted by Lillian Height. Following the worship, wedding gifts were presented to Elinor Dunkley, whose marriage is to take place soon, and Mrs. Parker Moore, whose wedding took place recently. They were former C. G. I. T. girls and the gifts presented by Mrs. Calvin Granville, their leader at the time of their "training." Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. A. Thorpe, and the meeting closed with the friendship circle and taps.

Memorial Service

Smith's Cove

A Memorial Service for John and William Francis, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Francis, was held Sunday afternoon in the Smith's Cove Baptist Church. Both boys were crew members of the freighter "Novadoc" which was lost early in March

Members of the Canadian Legion B. E. S. L., of Digby and Bear River attended the service.

John, who was a member of the Canadian Army, served both in Canada and overseas, and William was formerly employed at Cornwallis. Both boys were well known in the community.

Special music was rendered by the church choir. A quartette consisting of R. Chesley, C. Robins, E. Weir and A. Berry sang "Good-night and Good Morning". Deacon William Barton of Acadville was guest soloist and chose as his selection, "God Will Take Care of You."

MARRIAGE

Morrell - Prouse

St. Andrew's Church, Halifax, was the scene of a pretty wedding last week when Rev. Harvey Denton united in marriage Miss Sarah Eleanor Prouse, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Prouse, Great Village, to Glenn MacNeill Morrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Morrell, Freeport, N. S.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor length gown of white satin with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves pointed over the wrists. Her long veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Her sister, Mrs. Muir McLachlan, was matron of honor and wore a gown of blue sheer with a matching shoulder length veil held in place by a halo of pink flowers. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses and pink carnations.

Larry Irving was the best man and the ushers were John Cameron and David Nichol.

Miss Betty Duff, R.N., was soloist and sang, "I'll Walk Beside You," accompanied at the organ by Ethyl Hicks.

Mrs. Prouse was attired in a soft grey ensemble with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of pink roses while Mrs. Morrell was attired in a costume of blue crepe with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

A reception was held later at the Lord Nelson Hotel where Mr. Denton proposed the toast to the bride.

Driving along the lovely roads of Bear River, we see so many places where dumping rubbish such as cans, paper, old boxes and rags is allowed. This should not be allowed. Will those who own the property, have this matter looked after and cleaned up and then place a sign "No Dumping Allowed". Try and beautify the town and not make the banks a dumping place.

Of Interest to U. S. Citizens in Canada

Halifax, Nova Scotia.
April 17, 1947.

The Editor,
The Digby Courier,
Digby Nova Scotia.

Sir: In view of the fact that there are many persons with American citizenship, or with a claim thereto, residing in the vicinity of Digby, the Consulate General is taking the liberty of submitting the following information which will be of undoubted importance to many of them.

The United States Nationality Act of 1940 contained the provision that any American citizen, either by birth or naturalization, would automatically lose his American citizenship if he should vote in any political election in a foreign state after January 13, 1941.

Many American citizen residents of Canada lost their citizenship, either knowingly or unknowingly, since that date. When such persons attempt to return to the United States, either to visit or remain, they are frequently subjected to delay, embarrassment, and actual hardship due to the fact that, having lost their claim to American citizenship, they have no right to enter the United States without proper documentation as aliens.

An Act of Congress, dated August 7, 1946, established procedure through which former American citizens, who had become expatriated by voting in a foreign country, might regain their American citizenship. Applications for this purpose may be made to this, or to any other American consular office, up to and including August 6, 1947, after which the privileges extended by this law will be withdrawn.

It would be greatly appreciated if, through the use of any or all of the above information, your readers be advised of the deadline beyond which no application for repatriation can be accepted from former citizens who have become expatriated by voting in Canadian elections.

Looted Or Lost In Digby Fire

An aftermath of last Thursday's fire, which for a time menaced the south end of town, was the reporting Friday morning of a considerable number of articles, particularly jewellery, lost from several of the houses menaced by the flames.

Mrs. M. K. Raymond, whose home was among those in the path of the fire, reported the loss of several earrings and other articles valued at about $50. It is thought they were lost when furniture was moved out of the house.

A valuable winter coat was among the articles missing from the Bishop house. The fire at this home was quickly extinguished but it was thought wise to remove as much of the furniture as possible.

Several rings and a wrist watch, lost by Mrs. Roy Carpenter, one of the occupants of Orchard Cottage which was completely gutted by the fire, were recovered some time after the blaze in a field adjoining the house where much of the furniture salvaged from the building was piled.

Several valuable articles owned by Tracey MacFarlane, also one of the tenants of Orchard Cottage, which were salvaged from the building, were later reported as lost. These included a number of valuable carvings done by Mr. MacFarlane's father.

It is understood every effort is being made to recover the lost belongings and a thorough search of the fields where salvaged furniture and personal belongings were piled is being made.

Bernard Trohon Technician At CHSJ

Bernard L. Trohon, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Trohon of Digby, is presently employed as radio technician at the new 5000 watt transmitter of CHSJ, Saint John, N. B.

A graduate of Digby Academy, Bernard has always been interested in radio, and during his student days conducted many experiments and did a great deal of radio work in his own "lab" at his home. Shortly after graduation he went to Saint John where he was employed by the Bligh Radio Services. During the war he served with the R. C. N. V. R., also in radio work. Following his return from the services he became a radio technician at CHSJ.

Part of Bernard's work includes monitoring all of the radio programs before they go to the transmitter. He operates from a master control desk at the Coldbrook transmitter building where he handles the console that takes care of the final "mixing of all programs emanating from CHSJ.

Fire Department Called To

Warne Residence

The Fire Department was called out shortly before 11 a. m. Sunday to the residence of H. T. Warne, President of H. T. Warne, Ltd., whose cook-house and dormitory were destroyed in Thursday's fire. On arrival, the Warne house was found to be filled with smoke but no evidence of fire could be found. It is thought the heavy wind caused smoke from the furnace to backfire through one of the fireplaces connected to the same chimney.

Calling All Lobsters

Ellsworth and Scott Kinney, lobster fishermen of Gilbert's Cove are rather puzzled as to the identity of a lobster they caught in their traps several days ago. This lobster, although medium in size and mediocre in appearance, had one distinguishing feature that set him apart from his fellows.

On one of his claws there was a tag bearing the number, 5983. Both Ellsworth and Scott are wondering where this lobster was tagged and for what purpose. Anyone knowing anything about this is asked to contact these fishermen regarding the matter.

Roxville Turns Down Rural High

The only one of the 14 rural school sections in the Digby Area to vote against the Rural High School Plan, ratepayers of the Roxville district last Friday night turned down the plan by a vote of 8 to 4.

Chief objection to the Rural High set-up at the meeting was the fact of the increase in the tax rate which would result from adoption of the plan. It is estimated a 1 1/2% increase would be required to finance the rural sections' 25% share of the operation and transport costs.

Out of 14 sections involved 12 have voted for the plan with Digby as the proposed site of the school, while one section, South Range East, some 18 miles from Digby and with a total school enrollment of 13 pupils did not take a vote at a meeting in their section.

P. H. Durland of the Canadian Gypsum Company, at Deep Brook, is on a business trip to the U. S. A. He will visit the various gypsum plants there before returning.

Arlington Mader of Chester, who has been employed in the Holdsworth Drug Store, left on Sunday for Halifax where he will enter Dalhousie University School of Pharmacy.

Eight Fires in Digby in Less Than a Week

Two More Fires In Digby

The Digby Fire Department was called out twice on Tuesday for chimney fires. First of these was at the Royal Hotel which is now occupied as an apartment house. This fire was a most stubborn one and took over an hour to extinguish.

The second alarm was for a chimney blaze at the home of Theodore G. Roberts, which was quickly extinguished. Mr. Roberts, brother of the late Charles G. D. Roberts, is occupying the residence of Miss Margaret Stewart who is spending the winter in British Columbia.

Oddfellows Mark Anniversary

Members of St. George Lodge L. O. O. F. and Zelma Rebekah Lodge marked the one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of their order on Sunday last by attending divine service at Trinity Anglican Church.

In a very inspiring and impressive address, based on the text, "of the residue he made a God," the Rector, Rev. F. B. Gaskill urged upon those present at the service to give more of their lives to God. He stressed the fact that, today, as in years gone by, people are too prone to give God merely the residue of their lives. We give to God, he said, only that much of our lives and resources as is left over when all our other wants and desires have been satisfied, and we are sometimes reluctant to give God even that portion.

Mr. Gaskill urged a re-awakening to the true meaning and intent of the Christian life. "Let us go forward," he said, "living up to those cardinal principles laid down by our most blessed Lord and giving unto Him the full measure of loyalty and devotion, not stintingly, not grudgingly, but freely and willingly. Thus shall we realize the full measure of benefit from life."

Music and refreshments will be a feature of the show.

Rural High Area Set Up Definite

Decision to set up a definite area comprising twelve rural sections in and around Digby as Consolidated High School Area and to go before the municipal Council asking them to assume their share of the costs of administration of this area and levy these on the taxpayers in the area if and when this becomes necessary was reached at a meeting of the Municipal School Board of the District of Digby here Tuesday morning.

This decision was reached following the report by the School Inspector, T. A. M. Kirk, concerning meeting regarding the Rural High School policy recently held in fourteen rural sections in the Digby area. Mr. Kirk reported that, out of the fourteen sections concerned, one section, South Range East, had decided not to vote on the matter, and one other section, Roxville, had voted 8 to 4 against the plan.

Mr. Kirk stated the plan had been most favorably received, taking the area as a whole, and the meetings, with one or two exceptions, were much more largely attended than any of those for the larger school unit. In the Roxville section which voted against the plan, there was only one pupil who would be affected by the plan while in South Range East there were only four pupils concerned.

The motion governing the setting up of the consolidated area which was moved by W. C. Woodman, read as follows: Whereas the school sections of Smith's Cove, Culloden, Mount Pleasant, North Range, Bay View, South Range West, Hill Grove, Plympton, Barton-Brighton, Acaciaville, and Marshalltown have all voted in favour of the Rural High School Policy and in favor of the location of the school in Digby, therefore be it resolved that the Municipal School Board of the District of Digby form the above named sections into a Consolidated High School Area. This motion was seconded by Dr. A. F. Weir and passed unanimously.

This motion will now go to the Municipal Council which meets on May 6th. This body will be asked to assume their share of the cost and levy this upon the sections concerned if and when such becomes necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Brooklyn, Queens Co. and Mr. Reginald Hiltz on Indian Point, Lunenburg Co. spent the week end with Mrs. Mabel Elson and family, St. Marys St.

Fire Renders Three More Homeless

Three more persons were rendered homeless in Digby Monday evening when fire gutted the residence of Mrs. Idella Dakin on First Avenue. Made homeless by the blaze were Mrs. Dakin, her daughter, Josephine, and son, Daniel. Another daughter, Eleanor, who made her home with her mother, is at present a patient in the Kentville Sanatorium.

The fire, which broke out shortly after eight o'clock, struck while all the occupants of the house were away from home, the daughter at the movies, the son at work and Mrs. Dakin visiting a neighbor. It is thought the blaze started from sparks from a nearby grass fire.

Before being noticed, the fire had gained such headway that it was found impossible to extinguish it before the house was completely gutted. Valiant efforts of firemen and neighbors succeeded in saving a good deal of the furniture but many personal belongings were lost in the fire. Many of the articles of furniture saved from the blaze were badly damaged by water.

It is estimated loss in Monday night's blaze amounted to some $3000 with no insurance. The residence was among the oldest houses in Digby, some four generations of the Dakin family having made their home there.

Scallop Fleet May Operate Year Round

Possibility that Digby's scallop fleet may operate on a year round basis was expressed here yesterday, the closing day of the official October to end of April season.

Reason for the possible extension of the season was a Department of Fisheries ruling that boats may fish scallop beds outside of territorial waters without restriction.

This announcement was received with varied feelings by local scallop fishermen who have experienced one of the poorest years in the history of scalloping in this port. It is not yet known how many of the boats will continue to fish in an attempt to recoup losses suffered during the past season.

The department ruling permits scallop boats to operate outside territorial waters from a line drawn from Cape St. Mary Digby County and Western Head, Maine, westerly in the Bay of Fundy.

Miss Grace Robichaud of Centreville, returned from V. G. Hospital, Halifax, by motor on Saturday evening. She was accompanied by James Kinnear and sister, Miss Marion Kinnear and Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Lewis, all of Halifax.

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Embree B. Morehouse quietly celebrated at their home here, the 54th anniversary of their wedding, which took place at Digby, April 27, 1893, the ceremony being performed by the Methodist Clergyman, Rev. J. M. Fisher. Mrs. Morehouse was the former Ada Chamberlain of Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse had thirteen children, all of whom are living. Those present at the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Atkinson (Viola) and family, Yola, Carl, Flora, and Vera of West Head, C. S. I.; also George Brannen of Centreville, C. S. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Atkinson (Ethel) and family, Joyce, Louise, Carol Dene and Ruth of Digby; Dr. Charles Morehouse and Miss Grace Lafleur of Noel, Hants Co.; Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Morton (Yola) and family, Gladys, Virginia and Daniel of Centreville; and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Morehouse and family, Sandra, Glen and Elizabeth, who live with them.

AS FIRE THREATENED SOUTH END OF DIGBY

was taken the walls collapsed. The bunk house, which housed 20 men, was at one time known as "The Dingle", the residence of the late C. E. Walker, and was once one of the finest homes in Digby. Meals were furnished to more than 100 employees in the Warne cook house.

The middle picture shows the Digby firemen fighting some of the numerous fires which started in the Warne lumber yards opposite the blazing buildings. Flaming embers driven by a forty mile an hour wind started several small fires in the lumber yard and elsewhere.

The third picture shows firemen fighting the blaze at "Orchard Cottage" or the Kirkus House, owned by Mrs. H. J. Anthony. This fine residence was completely gutted. The fire was set by firebrands carried by the gale for a distance of approximately a quarter of a mile. The burning of this house left two families, those of Roy Carpenter, manager of Hants Wholesalers (Digby) Ltd., and Tracy MacFarlane of the staff of H. T. Warne Ltd., homeless.

About This and That

Last Thursday morning's fire threw a scare into many Digbyites, particularly those living in the south end of town. The blaze was one of the worst Digby had witnessed in many years, and was fought under extremely difficult conditions. A forty mile an hour gale carried embers for hundreds of yards. These firebrands started numerous small blazes which were extinguished before causing any serious material damage.

For a time the entire south end, including some of the most valuable real property in Digby, was in danger of going up in a huge conflagration. Our firemen who handled the blaze while the danger was greatest, deserve highest praise for their efforts. Digby should be thankful to them, and to the firemen from neighboring Cornwallis and Annapolis Royal who rushed to our aid.

And now the fire has become another chapter in the history of Digby. It pains us to listen to some of the ugly criticisms and insinuations regarding "what should have been done"—"what might have been done"—"why wasn't it done" and "who done it." To hear some critics, one would almost believe the efforts of the Digby, Cornwallis and Annapolis firemen was little more than a series of inexcusable errors.

However, the fact that the south end is still almost intact is ample evidence the firefighters were on their job. The fact the destruction was not greater was a matter of good management and not a matter of good luck. Undoubtedly errors and blunders were made. The excitement was intense and the nervous strain severe. It was impossible to keep an absolutely cool head while pouring water into a raging inferno during a forty mile an hour gale while blazing embers were starting new fires in a dozen or more places. Firefighting apparatus could not be everywhere at the same time and all major fires were underway before help arrived from out of town.

We have every reason to be proud of our fire department. We know they are glad to receive any constructive criticisms regarding their fire fighting methods, but at the same time they are fully justified in resenting some of the unfair criticisms that were directed against them—however, they are also well aware their worst critics have done little else for the town but pass their criticisms.

Stricken In Boat;

Death Follows

The death of Milton Harris Wade, highly respected citizen of Parker's Cove, Anna, Co., occurred at his home Thursday, April 24, following an illness of several days duration. The previous week, while tending his lobster traps, Mr. Wade, who had left his home in apparently good health, suffered a severe shock while alone in his boat, some distance from shore. Mr. Wade laid helpless and suffering in the bottom of his boat until discovered by other lobster fishermen who became alarmed when they noticed Mr. Wade's boat aimlessly drifting with the tide, and could see no sign of the owner. On investigation they found Mr. Wade in a serious condition. He was quickly taken ashore and a doctor was summoned from Annapolis Royal. Mr. Wade passed away as a result of the shock.

He was born at Parker's Cove 52 years ago, son of the late Allen Wade and Eugenia Guest Wade. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Nellie Rafuse; one son, Harris Wade of Young's Cove and two daughters, Misses Florence and Cora Wade at home; also a grandchild: two brothers, Russell Wade, of Annapolis Royal, and Leo Wade, who came from the United States for the funeral; and one sister, Mrs. Aubrey Gregory, Young's Cove.

Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon from his late home, Rev. A. H. MacIntosh officiating at the service. Pallbearers were his nephews, William Wade and Fred Hudson, Robert Hudson, Harold Sarty, Raymond Graham and Clifford Sarty. Interment was held at Parker's Cove.

A. V. Cook, of Waterville, a breeder of purebred Herefords, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Andrews at Rossway on Sunday.

Bible Group

Leads Services

A quartet from Cincinnati Bible Seminary had charge of the services last Sunday at South Range and Southville Churches of Christ.

In the morning at South Range the speaker was Jack Ballard, who brought a challenging message. Soloists were Dean Lankford and Kenneth Washburn, organist, Howard Mackey. The quartet sang several numbers at all services.

In the afternoon at Southville the special speaker was Kenneth Washburn, who presented a well-balanced sermon. Again in the evening, the church was packed, as these consecrated young men brought their messages. Jack Ballard, the fiery young evangelist, again captivated his audience with a ringing message.

Dean Lankford, with his beautiful tenor voice, brought two more solos, while Kenneth Washburn, in his rich baritone, pleased the audience with his special numbers.

Howard Mackey, an accomplished musician, presided at the organ and pleased the audiences with his instrumental numbers.

At all services the group presented the work of the Seminary, which trains young people for Christian service.

Art Critics Rave

The water color works of Glen MacNutt, on exhibition at Doll and Richard's on Newbury Street last month, were acclaimed unanimously by Boston's leading art critics. Several newspapers not only published lengthy reviews but also printed reproductions of the well known Donnelly artist's paintings. The following are representative excerpts:

Boston Globe: "One of the great water colorists of the day is Glenn MacNutt — there is something of the virility of Winslow Homer in his work. He is close to nature. He sees things in a big way and paints in a big way."

Boston Herald: "This artist can do just about anything with the water color medium. More than most painters he has splendid sense of composition of arranging parts to fit the whole."

Christian Science Monitor: "The exhibition shows a great deal of latitude and reveals an artist who works with enthusiasm and concentration. There's no tricks; there is no pretentiousness. It is a good legible painting."

Glenn has a water colour in an exhibition which is on tour throughout Canada, which is being conducted by the National Art Gallery of Canada.

North Range

Kelton Wagner, jr., of Weston, Mass., and Wilmon Hallis of Waltham, Mass., were guests last week of the former's aunt, Mrs. Ralph MacNeill and Mr. MacNeill. On their return on Friday, they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Wagner, who have been spending the winter with their daughter.

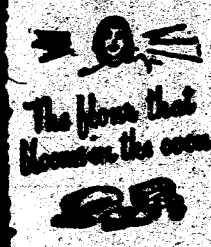

The Home and School Association met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bragg on Wednesday. The main item of business was the planning of final arrangements regarding the unveiling of the Honor Roll that is being presented to the school by the Home and School Club. After the business a social evening was spent during which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Eldon Apt of Saint John, N. B. has returned home after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Andrews.

Hold Benefit Whist

A benefit whist party was held at Melanson's hall Tuesday evening sponsored by the Men's Social Club and the sum of $80. was raised. The Social Club went to the aid of one of its members, Louis LeBlanc and family. Mr. LeBlanc, who is suffering with a severe case of rheumatism, has been unemployed for the last three weeks.

The sum mentioned above was raised by door receipts, Dart games and a cake auction. The rakes were donated by the womenfolk of the community as were also the coffee and lunch which were served after the card games. Music was furnished by local talent.

Mrs. Edmond Thibodeau won first prize for the ladies with a score of 47, and Gents' prize went to Jules LeBlanc with 54 points. Consolation prize went to Mrs. Isale LeBlanc and Edmond Thibodeau. The door prize was won by Miss Antoinette L. Belliveau and Vincent F. Melanson won a bag of flour donated by Mrs. Isale LeBlanc. A very enjoyable time was had by all. A group from Grosses Coques and Little Brook-Comeauville sections were present.

A Pair of Country A Hit

A capacity audience crowded the Community Hall last Wednesday evening for the three-act comedy, "A Pair of Country," presented by members of the Rebekah Lodge. Nearly one hundred and fifty dollars was raised at the play which was one of the most successful ever presented in Digby.

Directed by John T. Mockett, the play started April Starr, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Starr, proprietress of the Starr House, a summer boarding house. The character of April Starr was excellently well portrayed by Mrs. Keen while Mrs. Annie Allen gave a splendid portrayal of the mother, Mrs. Sarah Starr, of the boarding house.

Other characters of the play included "Sis" Spooner, a comely maid of all work, portrayed by Mrs. Ada Holdsworth; Lucinda Appleby, who was on the lookout for a first husband, played by Mrs. Helena Barnes; Susan Grimes, who was just as anxious to secure a second partner, played by Mrs. Anne Wilson. Among the male characters in the comedy, all portrayed by members of the Rebekah Lodge, were El Hawkins, who qualified as the village pest, Mrs. Mary Woodman; Ambrose Sniggins, a doctor of horses, Mrs. Zelma Turnbull; Philip West, a young and attractive lawyer, Mrs. Pauline Dunn; Arthur Roberts, a guest at the Starr House, Mrs. Lois Sanford; and Albert Roomer, still another guest, Mrs. Fannie Dakin.

All of the actresses took their parts well and some of the character portrayals would have done credit to the professional stage. The whole presentation was indeed a credit to the hard work and effort of those concerned, particularly the director, Mr. Mockett. During the intermission music was provided by the Daily brothers and piano selections rendered by Mrs. Ethel Turnbull.

Following the play Mr. and Mrs. Mockett were presented with a lovely lamp by the members of the cast as a tribute to the fine work they had done in directing and arranging the play and ironing out so many of the difficulties that seem always a part of such a production.

Appears On Drunk Driving Charge

Glendon Everett Langdale of Weymouth appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate G. H. Peters yesterday morning charged with operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor. He pleaded not guilty to the charge and will appear again next Wednesday morning when evidence will be heard.

The charge was laid by Police Chief F. J. Thibault, who apprehended the accused Tuesday afternoon on the main street of Digby, while he was allegedly operating a car carrying a wedding party.

It is understood a further charge of operating a car not bearing proper license plates will be laid against Langdale.

MARRIAGE

Thurber - Davidson

A quiet but pretty spring wedding took place at the Baptist Parsonage at Windsor, at 8 o'clock Friday evening, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom when Rev. G. Manter Wilson united in marriage Marjorie Bernice, younger daughter of Mrs. Davidson and the late Wiley V. Davidson, Windsor, and Linwood Kendall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurber, Freeport, Digby County.

The bride looked very lovely in a street length dress in a three tone effect, black and grey and white. Her accessories were of white and her corsage was of red roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. J. W. Pettipas as matron of honor. Lloyd Thurber, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. The tea table was centred by a three tier wedding cake and Miss Eva Matheson poured. Mrs. Charles Walker replenished and in the group serving were Mrs. Michael Doran, Mrs. Jack Lambert, Mrs. Arch Tracey, Mrs. Roy Tracey, Miss Shirley Walker and Miss Joan Doran. The floral decorations were of multi-colored sweet peas.

Following a short trip to Kentville where they were guests at the Cornwallis Inn, they will remain in Windsor until the completion of the groom's course at the Veterans' Training School, when they expect to make their home in Digby County. The happy young couple are the recipients of many gifts for their new home and the best wishes of a host of friends.

Veterans Credits Good For Long Period

Attention veterans: There is no hurry to get your re-establishment credits used up.

Acting to spike rumours, Veterans Minister Mackenzie said that the credits "will be available for years to come." His statement was prompted by the "unusually large numbers" of veterans who had applied in recent weeks for credits or the remainder of them, many apparently under the impression that they would be shortly cancelled.

Under the War Service Grants Act, the credits will be available "within a period of ten years from Jan. 1, 1945, or the date of discharge, whichever is the later."

The credit can be taken completely or piecemeal.

and no one would have been injured with the falling bricks

To erect a Men's Residence . . . comparable to that now available for women students.

To extend the MacDonald Memorial Library . . . and the Science Building . . . to remodel and modernize the interior of the Forrest Building for the Faculties of Medicine and Dentistry . . . to erect a new heating plant.

To establish the Faculty of Law in its permanent home at Studley.

To increase the Endowment Fund to meet the decreased revenue from lowered interest rates and so maintain and enhance the standards of teaching. Men Have More Work Don't Do It

On last Thursday evening a debate was held at the home of Mrs. Ronald Foster, leader of the newly organized group of Trail Rangers. The subject of the debate was "Resolved that men have more work to do in the church than women." Those taking the affirmative were Kenneth Smith, Jr., Byard Thurber and George Gates of the "Proweb" group of Trail Rangers; and the negative: Winnifred Bartlett, Jessie Bartlett and Freda Gates of the "Victory" C. G. I. T. Douglas Hatt was chairman. The remainder of the two groups judged the debate, which ended in a lively discussion. The following resolution resulted: "That, man HAS more work to do in the church, but isn't doing it." Following the debate, games were played and refreshments were served "camp style" in front of the fireplace. Mrs. K. M. Hankinson, C. G. I. T. Leader and Mrs. Foster conducted the worship, and the offering taken was presented to the United Church Sunday School.

Mrs. N. L. Ruggles has returned from Saint John after having accompanied Mr. Ruggles there, en route to Labrador.

Oil Development Mooted for Digby

Possibility was seen here today that a large oil concern may take over the former R. C. A. F. bulk gasoline storage depot located on the Dominion Atlantic Railway property known as the Cannon Bank.

H. A. Dunphy, manager of the D. A. R., met with the Town Council last Thursday afternoon regarding continuance of a lease given by the town on a portion of Carleton St. which passes through the storage depot property. This street was leased by the town to the government during the war and one of the four large underground gas tanks is located on it.

Located on the storage property also is the former R. C. A. F. barracks building, purchased by the town from W. A. C. at the close of the war and now used as a junior high school building.

It was decided by the Council they would continue the lease on the property to "any firm taking over the establishment as a going concern" provided an arrangement were made for the town to have continued use of that portion of the property on which the high school building stands.

Mr. Dunphy stated he would convey this information to the oil company but felt it was up to the Board of Transport Commissioners if this building would be allowed to remain in its present position after the oil depot became active.

The Council also agreed that afternoon to continue the lease on the railway's right-of-way on lower Water Street leading to the storage depot.

Mr. Dunphy stated that if the oil company took over this depot, it would probably be carried to Digby by tanker for transshipment to other points. The depot is connected by pipe line to the spur pier. During the war 250,000 gallons of high octane gasoline were stored here by the R. C. A. F.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woodman have returned from a visit to Lubec, Me.

Miss Ella Thibault of Brighton was a week end visitor of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Trohon.

Mrs. George Trohon has returned from Saint John where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Trohon.

South End Menaced by Flames -- $20,000 Loss

Flames driven by a forty mile wind levelled a bunk house and cook house of H. T. Warne Ltd., Digby lumber operators, last Thursday morning. A residential property, known as "Orchard Cottage," some 500 yards distant, became a total loss as the result of the fire which, for more than two hours threatened the entire residential and industrial sections of the south end of the town. Property loss is roughly estimated at $20,000.

Fire fighting equipment and firemen from Annapolis Royal and Cornwallis came to the assistance of the Digby Fire Department to fight this four alarm fire.

The first alarm was sounded shortly before ten o'clock Thursday morning when it was discovered the bunk house was on fire. The blaze apparently originated from a chimney fire. Within a matter of minutes the large two storey building which housed twenty men was a raging inferno. The adjoining cook house in which more than 100 mill employees were fed, soon fell prey to the flames.

Driven by winds of gale force, burning embers were carried into the lumber yards in which hundreds of thousands of feet of kiln dried lumber were stacked. Several fires were started in the lumber piles, but through the efforts of firemen, assisted by practically every able bodied man in the town of Digby, these were extinguished without causing any serious damage to the stocks. Had the lumber caught, little would be now left of the southern portion of the town of Digby. The former Navy League Hostel (formerly Lour Lodge Hotel) and annex would have been directly in the path of the flames and no doubt much of the mill property and a number of residences would also have been destroyed.

Fears that local efforts would not suffice to halt the spread of the flames, which were driven by a forty mile an hour gale, and were rapidly spreading to other properties in the vicinity, prompted the emergency call for the Cornwallis and Annapolis Fire Departments which, quickly responding, were on the scene about half an hour after the call was sent out.

By the time the outside pumps arrived the flames had set fire to the home of Hugh Vincent and were eating rapidly into Orchard Cottage. Small fires had also broken out in the walls and roofs of the Bishop and Raymond homes on Montague Row, and the large warehouse of Hants Wholesalers (Digby) Limited, causing slight material damage to these properties. Orchard Cottage was completely gutted, leaving the families of Tracy MacFarlane, an employee of H. T. Warne, Ltd., and Roy Carpenter, manager of Hants Wholesalers, Ltd., homeless.

On their arrival the Cornwallis department hooked up their pumper and soon had several streams of water playing on Orchard Cottage, which fire was brought under control shortly afterward. The Annapolis brigade devoted their attention to the bunkhouse and cook house blaze which had spread into stacks of firewood in back of these premises. Pumper hoses from the Annapolis truck drew water from the salt water of the joggin.

The Warne bunk house levelled by Thursday morning's blaze was the former "Dingle" a former residential property and "show place" of Digby, when owned by the late C. E. Walker. Orchard Cottage is also one of Digby's landmarks, and to many of the older residents of the town, it is known as the residence of the late Judge Holdsworth, years ago a leading legal figure in Digby. Before the war it was the summer home of the late Rev. F. E. Kirkus, Wilmington, Del. It is now owned by Mrs. Helen Anthony.

It is understood Warne employees made homeless by blaze will be housed temporarily in Hillcrest Hotel, a former hotel property on Warwick St. opposite Digby General Hospital. It is understood employees will also be fed in this building until other arrangements are made.

After a hard day of fighting, the Digby fire department was again called out last Thursday evening for a slight blaze at Hillcrest Hotel, Warwick Street. This property, closed for several months, was reopened Thursday to provide temporary quarters for the twenty men who were housed in the H. T. Warne Ltd. bunkhouse levelled in Thursday morning's blaze, and to serve as eating place.

Church Point & S. Meet

The Church Point Branch of Home and School Association held their monthly meeting Wednesday evening of last week with only a fair attendance. The attendance was low, less than usual due to the fact that many cases of the 'flu and colds are prevalent here at this time.

Mr. Joseph P. Doucet ably conducted the meeting, presiding in place of the president, S. Edmond Melanson, who was unable to assist due to illness. Mr. Doucet brought out many jokes from the audience with wit and humor, for which he is renowned in these parts.

Miss Adele Doucet, secretary-treasurer, was appointed as delegate to the Rally to be held May 5th.

It was decided to hold but one rally instead of three separate ones, after contacting the other schools who are to participate. The schools in question, P. Meauville and Grosses Coques will participate in the sports events as planned and each of the schools will have the field on their grounds on successive years.

Plans were made for the Rally to be held at Church Point school on May 5th., and a large attendance is expected. With an increase of five to six new associations since the last rally, and with each district sending their delegates and representatives, a large number of people are expected to be present at this rally.

CORRECTING MISTAKES

Mistakes are lessons of Wisdom. The past cannot be changed. The future is yet in your power.—Hugh White.

None are too wise to be mistaken, but few are so wisely just as to acknowledge and correct their mistakes, and especially the mistakes of prejudice.—Borrow.

One should watch to know what his errors are; and if this watching destroys his peace in error, should one watch against such a result? He should not.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Be not discouraged at broken and spilled resolutions; but to it and to it again!—Coleridge.

A man should never be ashamed to own he has been in the wrong, which is but saying, in other words, that he is wiser today than he was yesterday.—Pope.

I shall try to correct errors when shown to be errors, and I shall adopt new views so fast as they shall appear to be true views.—Abraham Lincoln.

Mallet - Comeau

A pretty wedding took place in the Stella Maris temporary church, Meteghan, on April 22, when Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. E. Bourneuf, D.P., F.V. pastor, united in marriage Marguerite Comeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Comeau of Meteghan, with Clarence Maillet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Maillet of Salmon River.

The bride was charming in a floor length gown of white sheer, with veil, and she carried a white prayer book. Vilda Maillet, sister of the groom and maid of honor, was attired in a long, pink gown with short veil of the same color and carried a white prayer book. The groom was attended by Donald Comeau, brother of the bride.

Nuptial March and High Mass was played by Mrs. Joseph LeBlanc, the organist. The choir, directed by Arthur Robichaud, was composed of religious and students of the Sacred Heart Convent, assisted by Rev. Fr. J. A. LeBlanc of Salmon River. An appropriate Ave Maria was rendered at the offertory by the choir. There was a large congregation at the church. The bride's father, F. H. Comeau, was celebrating his 59th birthday on that day.

Breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, to immediate relatives and friends, after which the bridal party motored to Yarmouth and on their return, supper was served to a large number of guests at the bride's home where they spent an interesting evening, and had the best wishes for a long and happy married life.

Previous to their wedding, the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower and was the recipient of many costly and beautiful gifts. Mrs. Maillet was formerly employed at the canteen of the Clare Shipbuilding Company, and received a silver cake plate from her employer.

Mr. and Mrs. Mallet will make their home at Salmon River.

Home and School Holds Basket Social

A basket social was held at the Grosses Coques school last Friday evening for the benefit of the Home and School Association and the sum of $75.00 was realized. The attendance was good despite the inclement weather. Games were also used to entertain the group and music was furnished by local talent.

The Grosses Coques branch, which was recently organized, has been quite successful in raising funds and plans will be made to improve recreational facilities and other health matters in the near future. A great improvement is already noted in this school and more is in store.

Showings For May

A number of interesting and educational films are included among the National Film Board films that will be shown in Barton, Plympton, Concession, Marshalltown, Acaciaville, Weymouth and various centres along the French Shore during the month of May.

Titles of these films are "Vegtable Insects", a color film depicting the various insects that attack our gardens and showing how they may be combatted; "Your Children's Ears", a film that will be found very helpful in dealing with problems of hearing.

Other films on the program are "Fishing Partners", describing the work of a Biological Station set up to study the habits of the cod and to experiment with new ways of drying and marketing this kind of fish; and "White Safari" which is the most interesting and exciting of this month's program. This film takes the audience on one of the most exciting exploring trips of modern times, last winter's Exercise Musk-Ox.

The Farm Improvement Loans Act

Loans Act

REPORT OF OPERATIONS FOR 1946

During 1946, 13,030 farmers obtained loans totalling nearly $10,000,000 under the Farm Improvement Loans Act. A report covering the first full year's operation of this Act was tabled in Parliament today by the Minister of Finance, Honourable Douglas Abbott.

Loans are made through the 3,100 branches of the chartered banks for the improvement and development of farms and for the improvement of living conditions on farms. The interest rate is 5 per cent simple interest per annum, and loans may be made for periods up to ten years. The legislation aims to assist particularly the average farmer who in the past has not always been able to obtain bank credit for farm improvement purposes.

Farm implements and farm trucks account for $7,488,347 of loans made during 1946. These loans represent an actual sales volume of approximately $12,500,000. From information available it is reasonable to assume that practically all farm implement sales requiring financing are now being financed either through loans obtainable under the Farm Improvement Loans Act or through regular bank loans. The result should be a substantial saving to the farmer, not only in the purchase price of his farm implements, but also in finance charges and interest rates previously prevailing for this type of financing.

Included in the total are loans to 1,008 farmers to clear and break an estimated 50,000 acres of new land, mostly in the pioneer sections of western Canada. Loans for foundation and breeding stock accounted for 303 loans totalling $190,937.

One of the most important classes of loans is that for the construction, alteration and repairs of farm buildings including farm dwellings and separate houses for farm help. As the supply of material and labour becomes more adequate, it is expected that loans for these purposes will be greatly expended.

As shown in the following table, the Act has been particularly successful in the three Prairie Provinces, Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Alberta: No. 4,796; Amount, $3,388,115.

Saskatchewan: No. 4,075; Amount, $3,140,157.

Manitoba: No. 1,928; Amount, $1,397,539.

Ontario: No. 1,443; Amount, $1,369,371.

British Columbia: No. 467; Amount, $343,706.

Quebec: No. 193; Amount, $146,639.

Nova Scotia: No. 76; Amount, $55,617.

New Brunswick: No. 42; Amount, $34,541.

Prince Edward Island: No. 8; Amount, $4,880.

Total: No. 13,030; Amount, $9,880,565.

The steamer Burnhope, 1700 tons, of Newcastle, England, arrived Monday morning to take a cargo of pitprops for Britis the Burnhope's third trip to Digby. Since her last trip, however, she has not only changed her name, but undergone a complete refitting.

On her previous trips to Digby the Burnhope sailed under her wartime name of Empire Seaman. She has now been acquired by the Burnett Steamship Company of Newcastle and has been re-named Burnhope. Her new skipper is Captain Cutler.

During her refitting, her heavy cargo masts, which were used during the war years to hoist aboard armoured tanks which were ferried by the ship to the invasion beaches of Normandy, were removed and lightened. The funnel has also been heightened to prevent so much of the soot from the smoke from landing on the bridge. The Burnhope carries a crew of thirty-three and expects to take on a cargo of some 1200 cords of pitprops this trip.

Boy Scouts and Cubs Progressing

The Boy Scouts and Cubs held their weekly meeting at the Community Hall on Friday with almost a hundred per cent attendance.

The Cubs are now well organized under the leadership of Mr. Arnold Trask and Harold Long. Recently ten members of the Cub Pack were formed into a Scout Troop, since they were too old for Cub work. Three of these boys, John Turnbull, Colin Purdy and George Donnelly have passed their tenderfoot tests and have been invested.

The Scouts, with the Assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. John Brittain, have been on two hikes this spring. For a community good turn project the boys have started to repair the broken chairs at the Community Hall. So far they have replaced broken parts with ten good chairs.

The Cubs and Scouts have an excellent objective as they intend to match the high standards set by the 1st Digby Troop and Pack of pre-war days. With the start they have made under the sponsorship of the Y's Men's Club they are on their way to many years of good Scouting.

Thieves Enter Snow Plant

Entrance into the lobster packing house of C. D. Snow was gained some time late Saturday night or early Sunday morning through a window on the shore side of the building.

It is believed the thief or thieves got away with a "feed of live lobsters" as a pile of bags had been disturbed and one bag was missing. It would be impossible to estimate if any lobsters were taken from the many tanks in which thousands of pounds of live lobsters are kept for shipping purposes. The visitors apparently entered the office on the second floor and broke a knob on Mr. Snow's radio. Mr. Snow was working in his office until 10:30 Saturday night. The break was discovered Sunday morning when the daily inspection of the pumps was made.

Night Policeman Sworn In

Roy Powell of Freeport was sworn in last week as night constable for Digby. Mr. Powell will be on a twelve hour shift during the night hours, while on duty he will be responsible for the fire truck and will answer any alarms with the truck.

The move to take on Mr. Powell as night constable was made in order to provide extra police service during the night hours and to guarantee twenty-four hour driver service for the fire truck. Wilbur VanTassel will continue as day time driver.

Sydney Morrell was a business visitor to Halifax this week.

Council Appoints New Assessors

A. R. Turnbull, C. F. McBride and S. S. Aymer will be Town Assessors for this year with the first named as chief assessor, it was decided at Monday night's meeting.

Rev. A. J. Mansfield of the African M. E. Church of East Street, Yarmouth, appeared before the Council asking permission to canvass the town for donations toward relief work in his district. This permission was granted.

A letter from the C. P. R. asking the town to take over the responsibility of maintaining and operating the shut off valve to the fire protection line on the Long Wharf and to turn the water on in this line during the summer months, responsibility for turning on and shutting off this line to be the town's, was read at the meeting. E. J. Morrissey appeared in support of the railway's request. It was decided to take no action on this matter. Opinion was expressed the town should take no further responsibility in the matter than that contained in the original agreement.

A resolution from the Municipal Council of Lunenburg asking that the Provincial Government take over the cost of building, equipping and operating additions to existing municipal homes for the care of poor and harmless insane so that insane tubercular cases can be properly cared for by these institutions was read at the meeting and adopted. Copies of these resolutions are to be forwarded to the Minister of Health and the Secretary of the Union of Nova Scotia Municipalities for consideration of their annual session. The Clerk read a letter from Fire Marshall, Col. S. S. Wright, concerning the Manhattan Hotel property. Col. Wright stated he had contacted Mr. Troop who had assured him a quantity of the wood had been removed from the premises and the balance would be cleared as soon as possible.

Councillor Baxter brought up the matter of renewing the water line on Sydney Street which serves some four houses. He stated this line, a half inch pipe, was clogged and the householders were not getting any water. Prices on black iron pipe had been obtained and it was estimated it would cost some $3000 to replace this line which runs a distance of some 1200 feet. The Council felt action on this should be deferred due to excessive cost and an effort should be made to get the present line operating.

Edward Murphy was given permission to erect a house on the Lighthouse Road according to plans and specifications presented.

A letter was read from Miss M. F. Doggett of Halifax requesting a license to operate a gift and handcraft shop in the former Ideal Restaurant building. It was decided to grant this on the receipt of the proper fee.

Mayor Merkel drew the Council's attention to the number of overhanging signs being placed along the business section of the town and suggested some action should be taken as a means of protection by license or rental to control these. Differences of opinion were expressed on this matter and it was decided to have the clerk write other towns for information as to how they handled this matter.

Municipal Council In May Session

Routine business occupied most of Tuesday's opening session of the May meeting of the Municipal Council of the Municipality of Digby. Warden H. E. Chisholm, in his address, stressed the need for improvements in highway facilities and the extension of rural electrification.

A letter was read from the Warden of the Municipality of Antigonish urging the Council to petition the Provincial Government to relieve the municipalities of the cost of maintenance of the insane. This letter pointed out Nova Scotia is the only province in the Dominion that places the expense of caring for the insane on the municipalities. It was decided to have the solicitor draft a resolution petitioning the government to take over this expense.

A prediction of matters to be brought before this session of the council was made by Councillor D. B. Kenney of Westport when he stated this afternoon he would introduce resolutions during the session asking for improvements to the Grand Passage Ferry service which runs between Westport and Freeport. Councillor Kinney stated this service was very poor, the boat antiquated and unsafe, and constituted a definite menace to the travelling public.

Another resolution to be introduced by Councillor Kenney at this session will call upon the provincial government to grant a pension to Byron Blackford, veteran ferryman of Tiverton. Mr. Blackford, who has now retired, took over the operation of the ferry between East Ferry and Tiverton as a boy and operated it for many years until forced to give up through ill health. Mr. Kenney stated today he felt such faithful service as rendered by Mr. Blackford for so many years and under such trying circumstances as found at Petite Passage, deserved some recognition, even if only a nominal pension.

Miss Smellie Retires As VON Supervisor

Mrs. W. F. Read, formerly of Digby, who this year represented the Digby branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses at the annual meeting of the Order, in Ottawa, has forwarded press clippings and other accounts of this gathering. Among the items of interest is the presentation to Miss Elizabeth Smellie, retiring chief superintendent, with a crest of diamonds set in platinum, a replica of the Order's crest which the nurses wear on their uniforms. This gift was from the executive council and life members of the Order.

The presentation was made by Leonard W. Brockington, K.C., who told the members in the course of his address "Your nurses go wherever there is need, and their hospital is the home of the suffering."

In her last report as chief superintendent, Miss Smellie quoted figures to show the Order spent a busier year in 1946 than in the previous year. She pointed out that in the early 20's there were 56 VON centres; there are now 103 and soon to be 105 branches.

Miss Smellie was also presented with a substantial cheque a gift made up by the various branches of the Order throughout Canada. Members of the Digby branch shared in this gift.

She has been succeeded by Miss Helen Hall of Preston, Ontario, who has a distinguished background of nursing and education and service.

Heads Valley Board Of Trade

F. W. Burns, the manager of the Kentville Advertiser, was elected President of the Annapolis Valley Affiliated Boards of Trade at the annual session held in Kentville last week. H. M. Warne of the Digby Board, was elected third Vice-President.

Fire Truck in A1 Shape To Install New Engine

Decision to replace the present engine in the fire truck with a new 1946 motor was reached at Monday night's meeting of the Town Council. It was pointed out to the meeting the present motor in the truck has been there since it was purchased in 1943. Repairs to the motor would be quite expensive so it was decided to install a new one.

The Chairman of the Fire Committee informed the Council the fire truck had recently been overhauled and was found to be in perfect condition with the exception of needed repairs to the motor. Councillor Baxter also stated he had received a request from the Fire Department for three hundred feet of hose and other equipment. It was decided to purchase this equipment immediately.

The Council decided to declare May 26th a civic holiday and a proclamation by the Mayor to that effect is to be issued at a later date.

The matter of dogs running at large within the town and destroying gardens and other property was brought before the meeting and it was decided to alter the existing by-law with respect to this matter to prohibit this. Under the new ruling dogs will not be allowed on the streets without a leash and if so found, will be impounded and the owners fined.

The Council resolved itself into a license committee meeting to discuss the matter of taxi licenses. Following this they accepted the license committee recommendation that the limit on taxi licenses for 1947 be set at thirty. Some twenty-two license applications came before the meeting and it was decided to grant these if and when the applicants complied with the requirements of the town taxi licensing by-law.

Clam Farming Possibilities

Clams are rapidly falling into a category of ocean farming. There's Oyster Farming and then there's Irish Moss farming—and Clam farming has come into its own, too. There's quite a bit of it done along the shores of the Maritimes, and as long as there's clam chowder, to tickle the palate of the consuming public, there'll always be Clam Farms.

There's more to Clam Farming than meets the eye at first glance. First of all our waters will support only certain varieties of clams on a commercial basis. Then, if you are picking out a site with the thought of going into such a venture, just any old place along the shore won't do. Clams have natural enemies and pests as do most other forms of life and these must be combatted to make the clam farm a successful venture.

One of the Fishery Research Board's Clam Experts, Dr. Carl Medcof, will be interviewed on the CBC Fishermen's Broadcast on May 15th. He will supply the answers concerning getting a start in Clam Farming. This program is heard daily Monday through Friday over the following stations: CJBS Sydney; CJFX Antigonish; CHGS Summerside; KCB Campbellton; CBA Sackville; CHSJ Saint John; CJLS Yarmouth; CJCH Halifax and CBH Halifax at 4 o'clock AST or 5 o'clock Daylight time.

Ice Situation Serious

The matter of the ice situation in Digby for this summer came in for discussion at Monday night's Council meeting. It was stated at the meeting the supply of ice in Digby was very low and it was felt some action should be taken to relieve the situation. The clerk was instructed to write to Bridgetown and find out how the situation was being handled there.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the local ice man, W. J. Franklin, did not intend to deliver ice this summer and that his supply was very limited.

It is understood he will sell ice from his plant as long as the supply lasts, but customers must take delivery at the plant in Conway.

Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Bridgetown, will confer the Third Degree in Friendship Lodge, Bear River, tonight on candidates from Friendship Lodge and St. George Lodge, Digby. The Initiatory Degree will be conferred on three candidates in St. George Lodge, Digby, tomorrow night.

The Baptist Guild meets at the home of Miss Hilda Campbell next Tuesday evening.

Fred Cookson To Manage Fair

Fred Cookson, local boxer and former Golden Gloves Champion of Canada, was named at a special meeting of the Board of Trade last Thursday night, as manager for the Board's annual July 1st fair. Working with Mr. Cookson will be Rae Underwood and W. L. Troop, last year's fair manager.

Slogan for this year's fair will be "A rink for Digby—it's bought—let's move it."

Last year the Board of Trade raised some $6600 at their July 1st fair. This money was recently used in part to purchase a former R. C. A. F. drill hall located at the East Camp in Yarmouth to be used in Digby as a skating and curling rink. It is hoped to raise sufficient moneys at this year's fair to finance the moving of this building to Digby and its erection on the Board of Trade's Athletic Field property here.

A Digby Recreation Commission was recently set up to take over the job of building, owning and managing the Board of Trade's Athletic Field and rink project and this commission will look after the job of moving the recently purchased drill hall to Digby and erecting it. Included on the Commission, which is to be incorporated by Private Bill of the Legislature, are representatives from the Board of Trade, School Board, Town of Digby, and other public bodies within the town.

Game Association Urges Rearing Ponds

Need for more rearing ponds for trout was stressed at the spring meeting of the Digby County Fish and Game Protective Association held last Thursday at the Myrtle Hotel.

It was pointed out at the meeting many thousands of young fish placed directly in the lakes from the fish hatcheries were being lost due to the depredations of other fish and other reasons. Provision of more rearing ponds to handle these fish until they reach the stage to take care of themselves was urged by the gathering.

It was decided to contact the Annapolis Game Society with regard to a joint meeting to further discuss this matter.

Methods of increasing membership in the Association were discussed at the meeting and it was decided to pay sellers of game and fishing licenses a commission on the memberships in the Digby County Fish and Game Protective Association which they sell.

A number of committees were appointed at the meeting to round out the activities of the association.

MARRIAGE

Condon - Rice

A very lovely spring wedding of widespread interest took place at the United Church of Canada, Granville Ferry, on Thursday, May 1st, at 7 p. m., when Alma Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Rice, of Granville Ferry, was united in marriage to Stewart Hartley Condon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Condon, Young's Cove.

Rev. D. C. Baird, United Church minister, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very girlish and lovely in her floor length gown of white satin with a beautifully embroidered fingertip veil arranged in sweet-heart fashion. She carried a very lovely bridal bouquet of American beauty roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Mary Helen Rice, was becomingly attired in a floor length gown of powder blue with small hat and veil in matching color and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with tulips, lilies, jonquils, daffodils and potted plants.

Sherman Rice, brother of the bride, was best man, and Donald Rice, brother of the bride, and Elmer Hudson, the bride's cousin, were ushers. Mrs. Walter Milo presided at the organ and rendered the nuptial music. Mrs. Milo also rendered a very sweet solo during the signing of the register.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Rice, which was attended by some fifty guests. The dining room was tastefully decorated in pink and white. The three tier wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, centred the table, flanked by tall white tapers. Mrs. F. Francis presided over the tea cups, and friends and relatives of the bride assisted in serving.

Following the reception the bride and groom left by motor for Kentville, leaving the following day on their wedding trip which will be spent in the United States.

The bride travelled in a smart two piece wool suit of true blue worn with black accessories and a very lovely corsage of tallis-man roses.

The bride during the war, served as private secretary in Halifax. The groom served overseas with the Canadian Army. They received many lovely and useful gifts which testified to the high esteem in which they are held.

On their return they will reside at Granville Ferry where the groom is a partner of the "Veterans' Taxi Service."

Out of town guests were the groom's mother, Mrs. Walter Condon, niece Marion Hudson, and Mrs. Mary Guest, Young's Cove. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. E. Hudson, aunt Mrs.

Though thousands of miles separate mother and child; though their opinions differ and sense of values vary, their love for each other which is the truest, purest love, unites them for all time and under all circumstances. FIRES CLAIM 43 LIVES

Fires in Nova Scotia last year cost 43 lives and destroyed property valued at more than two and a half million dollars. Fire Marshall S. S. Wright in his annual report to the Nova Scotia Legislature stated that the toll of deaths in 1946 was almost double that of the 25-year average while the property loss was up 75 per cent. The situation was described as "serious" and largely the product of poor building construction and hazardous practices by individuals in the handling of dangerous liquids and solids.

Correction!

It was incorrectly stated in last week's Courier that the fire which gutted the home of Mrs. Idella Dakin started from a grass fire. This was incorrect. According to the fire Marshall, the blaze started from a small hole near the chimney.

Mrs. C. F. Lewis has returned home after spending the winter in Halifax and Truro.

Annual Meeting Of Digby County Council H. & S. Associations

The annual meeting of the Digby County Council of Home and School Associations was held at Freeport on Thursday, May 1st.

Mrs. Charles Smith of Barton-Brighton presided and Mrs. Earle Banks of the Bear River Road Association was Recording Secretary.

Associations represented were Westport, Freeport, Centreville, Barton-Brighton, Acaciaville and Bear River Road, each of which presented favorable reports.

Rev. T. W. Howard of Westport led in prayer, and Mr. Lawrence Hersey of Freeport, in a neat and witty speech, extended a hearty welcome.

Several items of business concerning the Council were dispensed with, after which pupils of the Intermediate and Primary departments of Freeport school, with Mrs. Egbert Crocker as director, delighted the audience with a group of songs.

A panel discussion relative to Council and Association problems proved both instructive and interesting to all. L. A. DeWolfe, Provincial President, was leader and was ably assisted by Miss Dora Baker, Provincial Organizer of Home and School Associations, Mrs. John Murley of Acaciaville, Mrs. Bower of Shelburne, Gerald Morehouse, Centreville and Inspector T. A. M. Kirk.

Supper was served at 5:30 p. m. to some fifty delegates and guests, and in this, Freeport exemplified itself still further as being the accomplished host. Clam chowder and tasty pies were on the bill of fare and were thoroughly enjoyed.

Miss Dora Baker, one of the after dinner speakers, in the course of her remarks, emphasized the "Building of Better Homes", as a very important phase of the Home and School Associations. Inspector Kirk presented the report of the nominating committee, which was accepted, and then briefly outlined the Rural High School Policy.

The bride was in street length white satin gown, with veil. She carried a lovely bouquet of pink and white roses. Christie Cromwell, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She was dressed in a long white satin gown with short veil and carried a bouquet of red and white roses. The groom was attended by his brother, Harold Cromwell. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Kenneth Joseph, the organist. There was a large congregation at the church.

A reception was held at the bride's home where supper was served to a large number of guests. A very pleasant social evening was spent. The couple received many beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell will make their home in Weymouth Falls.

Council Meets

The Digby County Council meeting of the Home and School Association was held at the Community Hall, Freeport, on Thursday afternoon, with six associations represented. Mrs. Charles Smith of Barton was chairman of the meeting, opening with "O Canada", followed by prayer by Rev. T. W. Howard of Westport.

The welcome was wittingly presented by Lawrence Hersey of Freeport. Inspector T. A. M. Kirk gave the Treasurer's report, due to the absence of the Treasurer. The delegates were introduced from Acaciaville, Barton-Brighton, Bear River, Centreville, Freeport and Westport, and very favorable reports were heard from each association.

Both Centreville and Westport had organized since the last Council Meeting. A resolution was read that had been drawn up by the Barton-Brighton organization in regard to tuberculosis. It was resolved that the members should encourage those having the dreaded disease to receive immediate care.

Dr. E. Weir gave a short address on this subject and stated that tuberculosis would definitely be stamped out during the next century. He traced the developments in cures and free treatment also was mentioned. He suggested that a clause be added to the resolution that everyone should be encouraged to take advantage of the free X-Ray Clinics.

The Primary Department sang ten songs, many of which had been learned from Miss MacQuillan's Radio School Program. They also gave a recitation with much expression.

Dr. DeWolfe spoke of the advantages of the County Council. He said it gave each association a chance to exchange ideas. A panel discussion was held by Miss Baker, Truro, Mrs. Bower of Shelburne, Dr. DeWolfe of Truro, Mr. Morehouse of Centreville and Mrs. John Murley of Acaciaville.

An enjoyable supper was had by all present. Following supper, Miss Baker gave a short address. She stated that Clare and Digby Municipalities already had twenty Home and School Organizations with a membership of six hundred and fifty.

Inspector T. A. M. Kirk gave a short talk on Rural High Schools, outlining the progress made by the Digby area. A brief discussion followed. The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the King."

Eugene Handsplaker of Windsor, spent the week end at his home here. Eugene has recently been promoted to chief announcer at the Windsor Radio Station.

MORE THOUGHT FOR AGED

With a steady increase in the proportion of elderly people in Nova Scotia more thought will have to be given to the question of widening our services to the aged and careful consideration of the whole position of the aged in society. Public Health and Welfare Minister Dr. F. R. Davis, said in submitting his report on old aged and blind pensions to the Nova Scotia Legislature.

The official emblem of the world Scout Jamboree, which is being held in France next August, will be the traditional Scout fleur-de-lis in gold on a background of blue, with a carick bend in silver. Known to Boy Scouts throughout the world, the carick bend is a knot with a two-fold interlacing and in this instance is used to symbolize the World Brotherhood of Scouting.

Creative Banking

IS MONEY plus VISION

As a chartered bank, our first duty is to safeguard the depositors' money—to let it work at useful jobs where its future will be secure. That responsibility calls for critical judgment. Creative banking calls for that and something more: vision and a willingness to share the borrower's point of view... the knowledge and experience to recognize a good credit risk, and the ability to help it prosper. That's the kind of banking today's business needs—the kind of banking we like to do.

The bride looked lovely in her wedding gown of white rayon sheer, gathered at the waist and long bishop sleeves. Her veil, gathered at the top with a wreath of flowers, ended in a long train. She carried a bouquet of mixed roses, fern and heather, tied with a long satin ribbon. Myrtle Amero, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore a floor length dress of blue satin similar to that of the bride. She wore a small flower hat and carried a bouquet of roses and fern. Martin Thibault was best man.

After the ceremony, the party motored to the bride's home where breakfast was served to relatives and friends. The party then motored through the Annapolis Valley, and on their return supper was served at the groom's home to about fifty guests. Offer To Translate Greek and Polish Letters

Several persons have received letters of thanks from Poland and Greece and have wondered where and how to get these letters translated. Miss Beth Dunn of Digby was one of these persons and she sent her letter (written in Polish) to Beth Marshall, CBC commentator of Moncton, N. B. Miss Marshall, who had received other letters, asked if anyone could translate Polish and Greek and in a very short time had several phone calls, and we understand that should anyone wish similar letters translated, send them to Joan Marshall, care CKCW, Moncton, N. B.

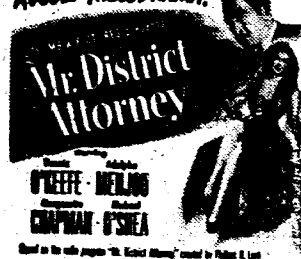

Beth's letter was from Mrs. Antoni Blazak, Nowrogeaw, Poland, who thankfully acknowledged the receipt of a coat with Beth's name and address on a piece of paper in the pocket. Mrs. Blazak, who enclosed a snapshot of her husband and their ten year old daughter, wrote of the great need for clothing in the war torn countries of Europe and expressed the hope more would be forthcoming.

Brook Store

The store of Joseph A. Compton at Little Brook was broken into Thursday evening and the value of over $80 was stolen from the premises. It is believed that the thief broke into the building early in the morning. The break was through a window in the back of the store. This is the first time that this store has been broken into in late years. Mr. Comeau had an electric light fixture installed on the front of his store and always left the light lit all during the night but on the night of the theft he had omitted to put it on. The store is on the opposite side of the main Digby-Yarmouth highway from Mr. Compton's residence, with the residence being some distance from the road. There is one other house near the store but no one heard any noise to bring their attention to the breaking into the store. The R. C. M. P. were called to the scene as soon as the theft was discovered and they are investigating.

his job today!

THE MANAGER of the furniture factory in Eddie's town landed a big order. It meant he had to buy a lot of extra lumber, increase his payroll.

He lost no time in putting the whole thing up to the manager of his local bank. Together they worked out how much money he would need to take care of wages and other costs until he delivered the goods. Then, with the backing of his bank, he got to work on the order.

And that's where Eddie came in. He was put on the payroll—given his first chance to learn a trade. Right now he's on his way home to tell Mom and Dad how much he likes his new job.

Civic Addresses

Service Club

Rev. F. B. Gaskill, Rector of Trinity Anglican Church, was guest speaker at Monday night's meeting of the Y's Men's Club which was held at the home of Miss Whitman.

Speaking on the development of British liberties, Mr. Gaskill said no system of government yet evolved in any way equals that which the British peoples have developed. This system, he said, was not the creation of any one group or generation of people but centuries of development were behind it.

Tracing the development of these liberties from the time of the presentation of the Magna Carta in the reign of King John through to the Petition of Rights in the reign of Charles the first, with its demand that the king should not impose taxes without the consent of Parliament, the speaker said the same basic desire for liberty common to all British peoples had sparked the American Revolution which had as its battle cry,
"Taxation without representation is a tyranny not to be endured."

The demands of the Americans, who after all were British people who had lived in the new land for over a century, were the same as those of the people in the reign of Charles 1st. It was only the desire for speed and promptness in accomplishment of a new people in a new land, that caused their demands to end in revolution rather than work themselves out in the slow evolutionary processes of government that had been the old country.

In concluding his address Mr.
Gaskill urged his listeners to consider well their system of government with its liberties for the individual which had been developed over centuries through the efforts of many great and glorious men. A comparison will show us this, system is the finest in the world for it prompts men with a sincere desire to serve their fellow men, to right wrongs which exist, to come forward and offer themselves and their talents in the service of the government of their country. Listening to these men and observing their efforts, he said, makes one glad to be a Canadian for we realize our leaders and the men in public life in our country need take second place to none. These are things we must remember during this epidemic of systems of government which are being advocated as panaceas to cure all the ills which affect our world.

ver, were welcomed to the district by Rev. T. W. Howard of ducted by Rev. R. S. Dunn, pas-said the convention had allotted to raise $25,000 for the reconstruction of churches in Europe. This money is to be raised by the close of the denominational year, June, 30. Another $100,000 is to be raised as a

New Telephone System Installed Mayor Makes First Call

The cut over from the old fashioned hand crank magneto telephone system to a modern common battery system, was made at the Digby Telephone Exchange at 10 o'clock Monday evening, under direction of H.
A. Duncan, Halifax. Miss M.
Naugler, chief travelling instructor supervised the switchboard operators when the change was made.

His Worship, Mayor J. W.
Merkel, was given the honor of placing the first call through the new switchboard and extended greetings from the town of Digby to Mayor J. E. Ahern of Halifax. Others present for the cut over ceremony were H.
M. Warne, president of the Digby Board of Trade; E. B. Richardson, manager of the Maritime Fish Division of the National Sea Products, Ltd.; Miss M. H. Holdsworth, who last year was retired as chief operator in the Digby Exchange after serving more than 40 years with the company in Digby; George Freeman, retired district plant supervisor, who was on the Digby staff 52 years ago, and was present when the magneto system, replaced Monday evening, was installed in 1917; officials of the Telephone Company and representatives of the press.

Just before the cut over was made, J. I. Marshall, district superintendent, introduced W. A.
Winfield, president of the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Company, who told that the company had made plans to cut over to the new system several years ago, but these plans were postponed because of the war.
He also expressed his belief the Council Calls For Ferry Improvements

In the closing session of their May meeting here Friday morning, the Municipal Council of the District of Digby passed a resolution calling on the Department of Highways of Nova Scotia to replace the present ferry boat running between Westport and Freeport on Digby Neck with an adequate and safe boat to carry on the ferry service there.

The resolution, moved by W. Woodman, stated, Whereas the Department of Highways of Nova Scotia is operating a ferry between Westport and Freeport in Digby County, and whereas it appears the ferry plying between such points is in very poor condition and actually unsafe, and whereas in view of the traffic between such points and the numbers of passengers carried, it is considered that this dangerous condition should be remedied without delay. Be it therefore resolved that the Municipal Council of the District of Digby hereby requests the Department of Highways take immediate steps to provide a safe and adequate ferry boat to carry on this service. The resolution, a copy of which will be sent to the Hon. J. W. Comeau, was seconded by Councillor Blackford and passed unanimously.

Another ferry matter was dealt with by the Council. This was the matter of pension for veteran ferryman Byron Black-ford who, prior to his retirement last year, operated the ferry between Tiverton and East Ferry for more than fifty years, starting on the run as a boy of twelve. A resolution asking that the Provincial government grant
Mr. Blackford an adequate retiring allowance was unanimously passed by the Council.

It was pointed out in the resolution that Mr. Blackford had for more than fifty years served the travelling public faithfully, and well at all hours and in all weather and through no fault of his own was forced to abandon the operation of the ferry which was taken over by the government in 1946. Since that time he has been practically unable to carry on any other occupation or pursue any gainful employment.

manual battery system which has just been installed is better suited to Digby's needs than the dial system due to the fact that Digby is an important long distance centre and because of that it would be necessary to employ a staff of switchboard operators.

Mr. Winfield also pointed out that in order to house the new system the local telephone exchange building was enlarged to twice its former size. Company investigators he said, had looked into Digby's future possibilities, with the result they installed a plant designed to meet the requirements of Digby for the next twenty years, and in so doing had made provisions for expansion to three times the present switchboard capacity.

Mayor Merkel, H. M. Warne and E. B. Richardson also spoke briefly. His Worship made references to the history of the Digby telephone exchange; Mr.
Warne told of the efforts made in the past by the Digby Board of Trade to have a more up-to-date system installed in this town, and expressed the appreciation of the Board that this had finally been accomplished.
Mr. Richardson spoke of the service that had been rendered by the telephone company in Digby particularly during the trying war days when the local exchange was terribly overtaxed.
George Freeman, veteran telephone man, told of some of his recollections of the Digby telephone exchange of other days.

Following the cutting over ceremony, visitors were shown through the plant and a buffet luncheon served.

Rural High School Approved By Municipal Council

The Municipal Council of Digby last Thursday agreed to share the cost of operation of the Rural High School Plan in the twelve section Digby area on the sections concerned when and if this becomes necessary.

School Inspector T. A. M. Kirk appeared before the Council and explained to them a definite area for school consolidation purposes had been set up comprising twelve sections around the Town of Digby. The Municipal School Board had approved this area, he stated and were asking the Council to agree to levy their share of the 25% transportation cost.

Co-operation a Necessity!

Lack of co-operation and interest on the part of the young people of Digby in the efforts being made to secure a rink for Digby came in for comment at a recent meeting which we attended.

A rink in Digby is definitely for the young people of the town—they are the ones who will derive the benefits from such a building and they are the ones who should be most vitally interested in any efforts that are being made to secure a rink for the town.

Young people, boys and girls, young men and women who are interested in sports, who are interested in healthful recreational activities, should rally round the efforts being made by the business men of Digby to provide them with a centre where they may enjoy hockey and skating and other playtime activities.

It seems to be the favorite pastime of some of our young people to bemoan the fact that "nothing is being done for the youth of Digby." Something IS being done for the youth of Digby—what are the youth of Digby doing to help and aid in what is being done?
It is true things have not gone forward as rapidly as was at first hoped—delays and difficulties have been encountered but still the business men of the town have gone forward, slowly but surely, towards their goal of "a rink for Digby". Each year, despite criticism, despite what seemed almost insurmountable obstacles, they have forged ahead. Land has been purchased, over $6,000 in cash raised and now a building has been bought. All that now remains is to move the building to Digby, and erect it here.

To do this requires a great deal more work, large sums of money must still be raised and this requires the co-operation and support of everyone, young and old. The challenge is before us and before the young people of the community especially. Let it not be said you did not co-operate, that Digby failed to get a rink because you did not help.

Cookson Resigns As Fair Manager; Asked To Re-Consider

A letter of resignation from Fred Cookson, recently appointed Manager of the Board of Trade's July 1st Fair, was read at Tuesday night's meeting of the Board. In his letter Mr.
Cookson stated the reason he was resigning as Fair Manager was because of lack of co-operation from Board members and the community as a whole. Without this co-operation, he stated, he could not carry on as fair manager.

Mayor J. W. Merkel urged the Board not to accept the resignation, but to get behind Mr.
Cookson and give him every support. He moved the resignation be laid on the table and a committee appointed to meet Mr. Cookson and ask him to reconsider. This motion was seconded by C. M. Levy and passed unanimously.

Board members present stated they felt every effort should be made to carry on the July 1st fair and support and co-operation should be given to the committee in charge. J. J. Brittain stated he felt criticism of Board members was not wholly justified. As a general rule, he stated, the members of the Board of Trade are workers in all of these things; it is the non-Board members who stand back and criticize everything that is done yet refuse to help or assist in any way in any worthy cause.

Added to the Fair Committee with Mr. Cookson, W. L. Troop, and Rae Underwood, were Dr.
E. H. Anderson, C. M. Levy, F.
C. Purdy, E. B. Tufts, J. W.
Christie and E. J. Morrissey.

An invitation from the Digby Board of Trade to the Annapolis Valley Affiliated Boards of Trade was extended to hold the semi-annual meeting in Digby in October.

A resolution calling upon the Board of Railway Commissioners to send someone to Digby to look into the matter of placing safety devices at the many level crossings in the town was passed at the meeting. A letter regarding these crossings had previously been sent to the Dominion Atlantic Railway who had replied that it was a town matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Mil-bury were week end visitors recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Fox, Granville Ferry.

Mrs. Mabel Balcom of Somerville, Mass., has returned home after visiting her sister, Mrs.
Jessie Frude, Digby, also relatives and friends in Bear River and Yarmouth.

Child Lost Five Hours Exhausted When Found

Little Sylvia Lent, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Horace Lent of Freeport is feeling more like herself again after a harrowing experience last week. It was on Wednesday morning the little girl was missed from her home. By noon a searching party was organized, but it was not until 2:30 that afternoon that Mrs. W. V. Perry found Sylvia. She was standing in a cess pool in muck and filth up to her neck.

She had been in that position for more than five hours.

The little girl was playing on the property of neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, and shortly before nine o'clock, is believed to have removed the lid over the cess pool cover and fell in. The drop was about six or eight feet. She landed in an upright position and there she stood until she was delivered from her predicament. The cess pool is about 80 feet from the nearest house and no one heard her cries.

It was during the early afternoon that Mrs. Perry noticed the cover had been removed from the pool, and went to investigate. All she could see of little Sylvia was her head which was just above the surface—she managed to get the little girl out. At that time the child was too exhausted to even speak. Taken to the nearby home of Mrs.
Charles Young, Sylvia was put to bed and a doctor called. Sylvia has now recovered and is reported as being none the worse for her experience.

Students To Hold Career Day

Doug. Ormond, Vice-Principal of the Digby Academy told the Digby Kiwanians at their regular session last Thursday that students of the Junior High School of Digby Academy would hold a "Career Day" on June 6. On this occasion, which is part of the school's Vocational Guidance Program, the pupils will give an exhibition of posters, career books and other projects. It is also hoped they will hear addresses on Vocational Training.

It was suggested at the meeting that efforts be made to have Academy pupils taken on a conducted tour through the various industrial plants in the town of Digby in order to let them see for themselves something of what goes on behind the scenes.

At this meeting the Kiwanis Club voted to give three prizes for the best June 6 "Career Day" exhibits.

R. W. Jefferson Resigns Hospital Board

Resignation of Reginald W.
Jefferson, Municipal Council representative on the Board of Directors of the Digby General Hospital, was received with regret at Monday night's meeting of the Hospital Board. In his letter of resignation, Mr. Jefferson stated ill health and the demands of his business would prevent him from acting on the Board.

It was decided to defer appointment of a successor to Mr.
Jefferson until the next monthly meeting. A committee was appointed to secure some one to take his place, preferably a representative from the Municipal Council.

No Superintendent's report was received at the meeting due to the illness of Miss Graham, hospital superintendent. Mrs.
E. S. Eaton presented the report from the Ladies' Aid.

Tennis Court In Operation May 24

At least one of the Tennis Courts at the Lour Lodge, which have been taken over by the Digby Tennis and Badminton Club will be in operation by May 24th. It was stated this week. Club members are cooperating and a great deal of preparatory work is being done on the courts.

Through the kindness of Mr.
Dares the club has been given the use of the former games room at Lour Lodge for club rooms and they are expecting a successful season. A membership drive is now in progress and an entertainment will be held at Lour Lodge Saturday for fund raising purposes.

Invasion Ship Takes Huge Cargo

Another of the famous "Empire" ships which made such a grand name for themselves during the invasion of Europe by landing thousands of tons of war material, tanks and equipment on the beaches of Normandy, made port in Digby Monday night. She is the Avisbrook, formerly the Empire Harmony.

The Avisbrook, now owned by the Aviation and Shipping Co., Ltd., of London, Eng., is skip-pered by Capt. P. Swan of South Shields, Eng. She carries a crew of thirty-four and her dead weight is 4600 tons.
She took on a partial load of boards, planks and deal in Weymouth and is completing her deck load in Digby.

Eight hundred and seventy-two standards or approximately one million, seven hundred thousand feet was loaded aboard the Avisbrook in Weymouth in fifty-two hours which is considered somewhat of a record. Total load of the Avisbrook will be 1180 standards or two million, three hundred thousand feet.
She is being stevedored by L. E.
Doucet and Harry Lewis of Weymouth.

Elect Commission Officials

Mayor J. W. Merkel was elected President of the newly formed Digby Recreation Commission at the first meeting of the Commission held in the Town Hall Monday afternoon. H. M.
Warne was elected Vice-President with C. W. Smith as Secretary Treasurer.

Dr. E. H. Anderson and C. W.
Smith were appointed to act with the Town Solicitor in drawing up a set of by-laws for the new organization.

Tenders were authorized for the job of razing, moving to Digby, and erecting here, the former R. C. A. F. building at the East Camp, Yarmouth, recently purchased by the Commission. This building will be used as a skating and curling rink following its location on the Commission's Athletic Field property.

Victor G. Cardoza was elected Chairman of the Digby branch of the Canadian Cancer Society at a meeting held in the Court House last Wednesday evening.
Mrs. Roy Wyman was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the organization. Plans for conducting a membership drive in the county were discussed at the meeting.

On Thursday morning Mr.
Cardoza appeared before the Municipal Council asking for their support and assistance in carrying out the drive in the county. Members of the council all stated they would render every assistance possible and pledge books and receipt forms were distributed to be used in the canvass of the various districts.

About This and That

Last week a branch of the Canadian Cancer Society was formed in Digby and very shortly this society will begin a campaign for membership in Digby Town and County.

Few people realize the extent of this dread disease. Cancer. From statistics we learn that 14,000 Canadians die of this disease every year. Cancer kills thirty-nine persons in Canada every day of the year. One out of eight persons in our Dominion over forty years of age falls victim to this dread scourge every year, and more children 5 to 19 years of age die of cancer each year than the deaths from the following diseases combined: Scarlet Fever, Infantile Paralysis, Typhoid, Peritonitis, Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

The work of the Canadian Cancer Society is in part to provide funds for the carrying out all important research work on the causes and preventions of cancer. For complete victory over this terrible disease, research must be conducted day after day for as many years as necessary to discover eventually the sure means of prevention or cure. The more scientists, the more dollars and the more facilities available, the quicker the discovery. A year, a day, even an hour sooner the discovery is made, the many more lives will be saved.

It is estimated that one out of three persons contracting cancer can be saved with the knowledge of cancer now possessed. Every cent contributed to the work of the Canadian Cancer Society means an increase in the chances of saving lives from this disease. Not only does the Society conduct research work on Cancer but in the search for protection for those who have not cancer, we must not forget the treatment of those who have cancer and the many thousands who will have cancer this year. Hospital equipment, clinics, patient accommodation, transportation, "prevention clinics", cancer dressing stations, X-Ray and radium, special courses for doctors and nurses—all these needs are far from filled.

The work of the Society to provide these things can only be as successful as its drive for funds is successful, so it is up to all of us to start helping now to stamp out the dread scourge, Cancer.

GEMS of THOUGHT

MUSIC

Music is the harmonious voice of creation; an echo of the invisible world; one note of the divine concord which the entire universe is destined one day to sound.—Mazzini.

Music resembles poetry: in each are nameless graces which no methods teach, and where a master-hand alone can reach.—Pope

The direct relation of music is not to ideas, but to emotions—in the works of its greatest masters, it is more marvelous, more mysterious than poetry.—Henry Giles

Although the spirit be not the master of that which it creates through music, yet it is blessed in this creation, which, like every creation of art, is mightier than the artist.—Beethoven.

The language of tones belongs equally to all mankind, and melody is the absolute language in which the musician speaks to every heart.—Richard Wagner.

Our 1st Anniversary

One year ago this Branch opened for business and we take this opportunity to express grateful thanks for the generous support accorded us during the year. The response of the trade and volume of business has exceeded our expectations.

Beginning with a staff of 5 employees a year ago, it was necessary to increase the number to 14 in order to cope with the growing volume of business.

Starting a year ago with a modest stock of merchandise in one small warehouse on First Avenue, it has been necessary to double the capacity of this building, and, in addition, we have acquired the large warehouse located on Birch Street, formerly known as the "Robin Hood" Warehouse.

It is noteworthy that our first customer of a year ago is still one of our most enthusiastic patrons.

The slogan of the parent Company in Windsor for 40 years has been

and this policy is being implemented in the operations of this Branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Murton of Beausfield spent the week end with relatives.

Charles Taylor returned from the Halifax Hospital much improved in health.

Mrs. Burton Halliday and infant son are patients in the Annapolis General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor motored to Halifax to bring back their infant son who has been a patient in the Children's Hospital for some time.

Little David George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ryan, was burned very badly about the arm and hand when he pulled over a pan of hot water that his grandmother had just placed on the table. Dr. Kerr was called and he is now resting comfortably.

The young people of the B. Y. P. U. held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Helen Ring on Friday night.

John 15:14, "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you" and stressed if we are called to a world wide evangelism and are now in the midst of a great missionary era and must be interested in missionary enterprise which includes the whole world.

At the Tuesday morning session, following a discussion of the organizing of a district B. Y. P. U., it was moved by Rev. R. S. Dunn and seconded by Rev. F. C. Amery that the responsibility for this project be given to the incoming executive. It was at this session the delegation was welcomed by Deacon John Smith of the Smith's Cove Baptist Church. Mrs. J. Vian Andrews of North Range responded to the welcome.

Rev. G. D. Brydon of the Bear River Baptist Church, in his report of the keymen, showed the churches were behind in their denominational giving as compared with last year, although pastors in the various districts felt allotments would be met.

"The Bible in the Educational Life of the Church" was the subject of an address by Rev. F. C. Amery, who stated the Bible must have first place in the church and stressed the need of more Bible study and expositional reading of the Word of God to overcome the lack of knowledge among our young people. He also urged a greater use of the Bible in the various Youth Movements.

Rev. T. W. Howard followed this with an address on "The Bible in the Devotional Life of the Church," pointing out the devotional life of the church depends upon the devotional life of the individuals. "If we know not and live not the word of God, our worship will be just a form," he said.

The afternoon session opened with a devotional service conducted by Rev. R. B. Hamilton who chose as his topic, "The Value of Prayer." The remainder of the session was given over to the W. M. S.

The session Tuesday evening made a fitting close for the meetings. The speaker, Mr. Gordon missionary on furlough from India, brought to his listeners a vivid picture of life in that country and stressed the value of work being done there by the Christian Missionaries, particularly through school and medical missions. At the close of his address Mrs. Gordon rendered a beautiful solo, "The World Is Waiting for A Bit of Love."

Rev. T. W. Howard made a special appeal for Foreign Missions, Home Missions and the European Relief with the result the congregation responded with an offering amounting to $108.00 to be equally divided for the three causes.

The final report of the Nominating Committee submitted the following names as a denominational committee: Rev. R. B. Hamilton, Rev. G. D. Brydon, and A. D. Sullis, Smith's Cove.

tation and maintenance cost against the sections concerned.

Inequalities in assessment in Digby Municipality were scored by Councillor D. B. Kenney of Westport. He stated unless some effort were made to equalize assessments in the Municipality and raise revenues, the Council would be in the same position they were in 1934 when they were forced to go to the banks to borrow money to meet their obligations.

Warden H. E. Chisholm stated the present system of assessment is largely a hit or miss affair. There is too much guesswork in our method of assessment, Warden Chisholm stated, we have no evaluating principles to go by. He said, however, Digby Municipality need take nothing off any other municipality in the province in the matter of assessment. "We are just as fair and as equal in assessment in this municipality as any in the province," he said.

The trouble is, Warden Chisholm said, that our Council does not have a full picture of assessment in the Municipality due to the method of handling exemptions for widows, fishermen and others. He felt a system should be adopted whereby all these were shown and total assessment carried forward. It may not be possible to make all the corrections that are needed overnight, he said, but a definite start should be made at once. Councillor stated he was not satisfied with assessments in his district of Westport and asked that inequalities in this district be rectified. Other members of the Council felt one district should not be singled out, but a revision made in all. Members of the Board of Assessment Revision, Elanchard Morrell, O. F. Woodman and G. O. Hankinson, felt the job of making a proper assessment was up to the local assessor who was on the ground and knew condition better than the revisors.

Underpayment of local assessors was stated by Councillor Ring as one of the reasons assessments were not being properly made. He urged an increase in pay for these men as a means of correcting the situation. Mr. Kenney stated it was up to the revisors and moved the revisors endeavor immediately to further equalize assessments in the municipality. This was seconded and passed.

On Thursday afternoon members of the Council visited the Municipal Home at Marshalltown, taking with them a treat of candies and fruits for the inmates.

March 25, 1947.

Dear Friend:

I received your parcel on March 24th, and I got a great surprise when I opened it. I had to shed a tear with joy and sorrow to think there were such kind people so far away to think of us old poor people who can't get out to get food as Leeds is having a bad time with the weather.

Today I had a meal from your parcel and I offered a prayer up for you before I had it, and I sincerely thank you from the bottom of my heart and may Almighty God reward you for your kindness. I remain

Dear Madam:

Words fail me to express my great appreciation and sincere heartfelt gratitude for the wonderful parcel of good things I received this morning so unexpectedly from Canada. It was really a very gracious act on the part of the good people of Canada toward the old folks over here you are so ready to do a kindness particularly to a person unknown to you. I sincerely hope that sending me this lovely gift will not cause any inconvenience to anyone, as in this country almost everything is on points. Last Wednesday, March 19th, was my 68th birthday and I will celebrate it again today by having a little of your good things for my tea.

Before closing, allow me to mention that I will at any time be pleased to hear from you if you care to write to me, and in

A parade of the pupils was held Saturday afternoon in the village with the kiddies carrying banners and posters lettered "We want a five cent chocolate bar", "Down with the eight cent bar" and other similar wording. All of the pupils of the school except one have taken a pledge not to buy any more chocolate bars until the price has been lowered to five cents. In a most inspiring address Mr. Graham outlined the purposes and aims of Y'sdom and gave a detailed report on several international meetings held recently with particular reference to the meeting held last month in Swampscott, Mass. Tribute was paid to the work of the clubs represented at Sunday's meeting and Mr. Graham stated the Maritime District stood second to none in the record of accomplishment. Following the address a round table conference was held. Leading this discussion were Dr. L. P. Rutherford, President of the Halifax Club; Malcolm Moores, President of the Yarmouth Club and Jack Brittain of Digby.

Interesting Meeting Of C. W. L.

The meeting of the Catholic Women's League Division of Plympton was held on May 7 at the home of Mrs. Oliver Comeau, Gilbert's Cove. Different subjects discussed during the evening were ways and means to help our church and some unfinished work on hand. A few words from the secretary, Mrs. Ray Mallett, of Plympton, gave us ten simple rules of health:

"Go less, Sleep more, ride less, walk more, scold less, praise more, talk less, think more, waste less, give more, worry less, laugh more, clothe less, bathe more, idle less, play more, preach less, practise more."

The president, Mrs. Ralph Thibideau of Gilbert's Cove, gave a few words on "House Beautiful." Where there is faith, there is love; where there is love there is peace; where there is peace, there is God; where there is God, there is no need. A social hour was spent after the business meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess who was helped by Mrs. Robert Theriault, with the coffee and Mrs. Ralph Thibideau, with the cakes.

A coming up exercise was held by the Cubs and Scouts on Friday evening, when Kenneth Farnsworth was invested into the troop. He is the fourth Scout to be invested and the Pack and Troop wish him good Scouting.

The Cubs turned out one hundred per cent attendance again, with the Scouts slipping to 71 per cent.

MARRIAGE

Graves - Goodsell

Under an arch and shield of evergreens, Miss Mary Goodsell became the bride of Kenneth Max Graves, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buel W. Graves, at a ceremony, held Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin W. Goodsell, 44 Pembroke Road.

Wearing white satin with finger tip veil and carrying a bouquet of mixed flowers, the bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. C. F. Hall officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mrs. John B. Goodfellow, the bride's aunt, played the wedding march.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Pearl Goodsell, who wore blue taffeta with matching hat, and carried an old fashioned bouquet. Donald E. Graves, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held after the ceremony with the bride and groom cutting the three tier wedding cake, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Washington, and Georgia. They will be at home on their return to 44 Pembroke Road.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. John Morgan of Bear River.

With the Churches

At the United Church of Canada, Bear River, on Sunday morning, Mother's Day was observed. Rev. James Brooks spoke to a large congregation, taking as his text, "What then shall this child be?" The Junior Choir gave a selection "My Mother's Song," and for the first time appeared in their white surplice gowns. The altar was banked in lovely spring flowers in memory of loved ones. Cut flowers were placed by Morley Wright of Brockton, Mass., in memory of his mother.

Mother's Day was observed in the United Baptist Church on Sunday morning. Rev. G. D. Brydon brought to an appreciative congregation a stirring message using as his text Job 29:5, "When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me." Stressing the need of the Bible and the family altar again taking first place in our homes.

Two appropriate selections were rendered by the choir, Mrs. Morris Dunn taking the solo part in one of the numbers.

Memorial cut flowers were placed on the altar in memory of Mrs. Burton Harris and Mrs. Ira McCormick.

At the evening service, Rev. Mr. Brydon took as his text 1 Peter, 4:16, "If any man suffer as a Christian, let him be not ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf." The beautiful hymn, "Dearest than all", was rendered by the male quartette.

Meeting Bear River Red Cross

On Monday night, May 12, a business meeting of the Red Cross branch of Bear River was held in the Masonic Building with Mrs. Charles Green, second vice-president, presiding. The minutes were read and the treasurer's report received. Then followed much discussion as regards food boxes to Britain. Letters from headquarters state that the need will be great all through this summer. Bear River is sending seven boxes but six groups have about completed their six months' undertaking and it is hoped that some of these efforts will be renewed.

The advisability of a local pool for sick room equipment is also being investigated.

The Women's Work Committee is meeting every Thursday for quilting and sewing and the provincial committee has announced that the Nova Scotia quota for 1947-48 is one thousand and layettes, clothing for four hundred boys and girls 10 to 12 years, five hundred shawls for elderly women and one thousand quilts. This means work for many hands.

The receipt for $479.65 collected in this district in the recent campaign was received from Halifax and considering that every one who paid a dollar or over is a Red Cross member, these monthly business meetings should have a much larger attendance.

Representatives of the Bear River branch also visit the DVA Hospital at Cornwallis on the fourth Friday of every month.

Mrs. Hewitt and her two children who were visiting her parents, Commander and Mrs. Thomas Hood, returned to their home in Digby on Monday night.

employ and it was felt the government should recognize his long years of untiring devotion to duty in the public interest by granting him an adequate pension or retiring allowance.

The Council unanimously endorsed a resolution presented by the Municipal Council of Lunenburg calling upon the province to take over the cost of providing, maintaining and operating additions to present municipal homes for the care of tubercular insane inmates.

While discussing the matter of care of insane patients, it was brought to the attention of the Council by the Warden that Nova Scotia was the only province in the Dominion which calls for its municipalities to bear the cost of caring for these inmates. Copies of letters were read from all of the provinces bearing out this statement.

The Council decided to pass a resolution calling upon the provincial government to relieve the municipalities of this burden and take over the care of the insane as a provincial responsibility. This resolution was moved by Councillor W. F. Cosaboon and seconded by Councillor Ernest Ring and passed unanimously.

Decision to amend the by-laws of the Council to increase the Warden's salary from fifty dollars a year to one hundred with necessary travelling expenses was reached at Friday's session. The by-laws were also amended to increase the councillors' remuneration from five dollars for each day's attendance at sessions to ten dollars with a travelling allowance of ten cents a mile once coming and going to the sessions. These amendments will come into effect at the January session of the Council. A bonus of twenty dollars was voted each member for the present session.

Warden Chisholm reported on the joint meeting with the Arbitration Committee of the Council of the Town of Digby held Thursday night. He stated that this was the first time the two bodies had met jointly in over fifteen years. It was the opinion of the meeting, he said, that a thorough study and revision of existing arrangements concerning joint expenditure of the town and municipality should be made. A further meeting would be held early in the summer he stated.

The Municipal Clerk was instructed to write a letter to Councillor Reginald Jefferson of Culloden expressing the Council's regret at his inability to at-

DOCTOR KERR

Says

April 30, 1947.

To Friends of Dalhousie:

More than a century and a quarter ago Dalhousie opened the doors of higher education in the Maritime Provinces to "all occupations and sets of religion". From that time an increasing array have studied in her classes and have brought far-reaching fame to their ALMA MATER. It is safe to say that no university of comparable size has a prouder record of graduates who have distinguished themselves in public service.

It has now become necessary for Dalhousie to ask for funds to continue her work in a manner worthy of her past achievements and present opportunities. She is attracting a body of youth of the finest quality, and quite apart from the fact that the admission of such young people to the enfranchisement of learning is itself a purpose of the highest order, we have implicit confidence that they will richly repay any provision that we now make for their education.

If Dalhousie were a state-controlled University, she could refer her financial problems to Governments; but as an independent foundation she must look to you, her graduates, her friends, and the whole company of public-minded citizens who have regard for the life of these eastern Canadian provinces and Newfoundland and the larger life of the Dominion and the Continent to which they contribute.

We appeal for your generous support on the ground that a gift to Dalhousie is an investment in youth and the future of the commonwealth.

These are the six points:
1. A kind of education that would shield one from pain (Mental).
2. An education that would provide the tools to provide success in their careers.
3. An education that would cultivate an understanding of their responsibility toward their community.
4. One that would enable them to recognize the shoddy from the real.
5. An education that would enable us to assess the price of desire.
6. An education that would give us the joy of thinking for its own sake.

Chute - Martyn
The Congregational Church, West Lebanon, New Hampshire, was the scene of a charming wedding on Friday evening, May 2, when Caroline Louise Martyn, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wayne Howland, became the bride of Charles Louis Chute, Ensign, United States Navy, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wendell Chute of Dorchester, Mass. The bride entered the church, accompanied by her father, who gave her in marriage, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Jay Kilham, with violin accompaniment. She was attended by Mrs. Robert West, sister of the groom, as matron of honor, and Mrs. Virginia Farnsworth and Mrs. Elaine Currier, as bridesmaids. Little Hildreth Cameron made a charming flower girl in her long yellow gown, with hair bows to match and her tiny basket of mixed spring flowers. Mrs. West wore shell pink and the bridesmaids' gowns were aqua. The bride's gown was white silk faille, with long train and full length veil. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. The attendants carried bouquets of mixed flowers. The bride's mother, Mrs. Howland, was gowned in floor length pink and carried a bouquet of white roses, with lavender sweet peas. Mrs. Chute, the groom's mother, wore a floor length gown of aqua, with gold accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom was supported by a former classmate, Mr. Frank Beach of Dorchester. The ushers were the bride's brother, Cadet Clifford H. Martyn, his schoolmate, Cadet Carleton A. DeRoiser, Mr. Omer Conter-march and Mr. Robert West. The church was tastefully decorated with white calla lilies, snap dragons and yellow jonquils. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Beryn Daniels, pastor of the church. Immediately following the service a light reception at the church, the party repaired to the Hotel Coolidge, White River Junction, Vermont, where an informal reception was held. The main ball room was decorated with spring flowers. An orchestra provided music for dancing. The refreshments were delicious by a beautiful bride's cake, which was cut by the bride and groom just before they made what they hoped was an unobtrusive exit. After a brief honeymoon at a White Mountain resort, they left by plane for San Diego, California, where the groom is in service on the USS Lyman K. Swenson. They will take up their residence at 431 Olive Street, San Diego. The groom is a grandson of Mrs. John Chute of Bear River. As a boy he spent his summers in that village, the guest of Mrs. Chute, and his other grandmother, the late Mrs. Charles Harris.

Cooke - Welch

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends was solemnized on April 2nd, at the Centennial United Church at Toronto, when Rev. Greenslade united in marriage Joyce Bertha, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Welch of Westport, to Edward Cooke, of Ottawa.

The bride, given in marriage by John Burns, mutual friends of the couple, was charmingly attired in an ivory satin gown with tight fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves tapering to a point over the wrists and wore a veil and she carried a white prayer book with streamers.

The bridesmaid was Gail Fowle of Edmonton, who wore a yellow print with brown accessories and carried a corsage of talisman roses. The best man was Eric Schofield, friend of the groom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hearstone Inn. The couple were the recipients of many lovely gifts including silver, linen and china. The couple enjoyed their honeymoon at St. Regis Hotel, Toronto. The bride is employed as a stenographer on the staff of Massey Harris, while the groom, who was a warrant officer with the R. C. A. F. overseas, is taking a wireless radio course at the Radio College. The couple will reside in Toronto.

Annapolis Presbytery Condemns Gambling

The Annapolis Presbytery of the United Church of Canada, in regular session at Bridgetown on Tuesday, May 6, condemned common gambling practices and gave its support to the anti-gambling move of the national council of Service Clubs, as follows:

Whereas the National Advisory Council of the Service Clubs of Canada has deplored "the now unbridled development of the sale of raffle tickets in Canada" and has appealed to all Service Clubs in Canada to refrain from further sale and advertising of raffle tickets; we recommend the National Advisory Council of the Service Clubs for this action, and urge all members of the United Church of Canada who are members of such service clubs and other organizations, to use their influence against the practise of resorting to gambling methods of raising money.

The Presbytery recorded its commendation of the public Press for generously printing, in toto, the strongly worded resolution against the liquor business which was forwarded from the last meeting.

Plans were announced for a Young People's Camp to be held at Berwick July 22 to 30, with Rev. B. R. Tupper as Dean and Rev. T. M. Cumming as Director.

An address of appreciation and farewell was given by Rev. A. D. MacKinnon to four ministers who will be leaving the Annapolis Presbytery at the end of June, namely Rev. James Brooks, Rev. Robt. Braine, Rev. D. C. Boothroyd and Rev. W. G. Dickson.

Upon motion of the convenor of the Church Property Committee, Mr. Fred Bath, consent of the Presbytery was granted to the Trustees of the Annapolis Royal congregation to lease their hall to the Dept. of National Defence. The sale of an unused church building at Clementsvalle also received due notice of Presbytery.

The report of Rev. A. Thorpe for the Records Committee led to a reminder by the chairman Rev. T. M. Cumming, that the records of all Official Boards and Sessions must be submitted to Presbytery once a year for examination.

In the matter of Archives each congregation was asked to provide the convenor of that Committee, Rev. D. C. Matheson, Berwick, with a copy of matters of historical interest which might be collected and preserved by the Presbytery.

The Missionary and Maintenance Committee strongly urged upon all congregations to have half of their allocation forwarded to Toronto by the end of June.

New officers were elected, to take office July 1st: Chairman, Rev. W. C. Picketts; Secretary, Rev. E. M. Baird; Treasurer, Rev. D. C. Matheson.

The newly organized Lay Association of Presbytery brought a highly acceptable resolution pledging renewed dedication to the church's work and calling all laymen to meet its challenge. More reading of the church papers was strongly urged.

Digby Kiwanians Present Minstrel Show

The first performance of the Kiwanis Minstrels of 1947, was presented in Community Hall last evening under direction of Ray Underwood. The show will be repeated this evening when it is expected many who were unable to attend last night's performance will be present.

Principal roles in the show are taken by Scott Eaton as Interlocutor; Doug Ormond, Gordon Turnbull, Chester Levy, Mac Wallis, Bill Troop and Ray Underwood as Endmen, supported by a large circle of black-faced minstrels. Guest artists included Stan Paxton, Junior Cromwell, Frank Comeau and Victor Jarvis.

Piano accompaniments were played by Mrs. Albert Tingley, who also assisted the Club in the direction of the show. One of the highlights of the evening was and orchestration by the Digby Teeners' Club, under direction of Jimmie McCain. Special numbers were rendered at the opening and during intermission by the Digby Civic Band.

Proceeds from the Kiwanis Minstrels will be earmarked for Kiwanis Youth Work, the chief project of the local club being the swimming pool at the Racquette. The property above the Racquette Bridge has been purchased for this purpose, and already volunteer preliminary work at cleaning up the grounds has been done by club members under direction of Dr. Earle Anderson.

Mary Had A Little Lamb

Mary may have had a little lamb, but Judy Robinson, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, has a duck that is as much of a pet as Mary's little lamb. This duck was bought for little Judy last fall by her father when it was a small duckling. Since then the duck has become such a pet that it follows her all around town, even following her to school. Residents of Digby are greatly amused by the sight of the little girl walking along the street with the duck following her, quacking happily.

When she got the duck, Judy named it Donald after the famed Disney duck, but she found last week the name was not quite appropriate, for Donald started laying eggs. As yet she has not renounced her pet, but the name Donald has been suggested as most fitting.

The Government tourist information bureau, located on the grounds of the Myrtle Hotel, opened for business this week. Miss Louise Daley and Mrs. Raymond Lent are again in charge.

Co-operation Still Needed

Last week's front page, editorial headed "Co-operation is a Necessity" seems to have caused considerable discussion in Digby.

That editorial was not directed against any organized group of young people in our town. In fact, the youth organization in Digby is the group to whom words of praise, not condemnation, must be directed in the matter of co-operation. This group has co-operated in every effort made in Digby to promote not only the welfare of youth, but the welfare of the town as a whole.

Our plea for co-operation was directed mainly to the young people of Digby who, like some of their elders, seem to take no part in community activity, who lean on their shovels when there is work to be done on community projects, and whose are the first and loudest voices raised in protest over "nothing being done for the youth of Digby."

We still feel that if Digby is to have a rink or, for that matter, to secure any of the things needed for recreation or community activity, there must be co-operation, and close co-operation between all concerned, both young and old. There must be a cessation of the bickering, the jealousies and the backbitings that have featured most efforts to organize Digby in some community effort. Young and old must work together, acknowledging mistakes, rectifying errors, and striving always to pull together for the common good.

Canadian National Telegraph Office Closes

Notification was received on Monday by business houses in Digby, of the closing on May 20 of the Canadian National Telegraphs here. It was stated this action was being taken in line with a policy the company is following with regard to offices that are unprofitable. At present there are two telegraph offices in Digby and it is felt there is insufficient business for both.

Closing of this office brings to an end a telegraph business that began in Digby in 1855. The first telegraph office, which was later to become the Western Union Telegraph Company and still later the Canadian National Telegraphs, opened in Digby on December 3, 1855. The first operator was one John Robinson and he received a salary of £75 a year. At the end of the first year's business, the office showed a net profit of one penny.

The first office was located at a site near the head of the present government pier. With the opening of the Western Counties Railway Office here, the telegraph office moved to that station and telegraph messages were handled by the station agent. It was during this time that the telegraph, was operated by Western Union.

Later the office was moved to the main street of the town and no longer handled train routings. Shortly before the office moved to main street, some thirty-six years ago, Miss Puss Winchester took over as operator, succeeding Miss Marjorie Anderson.

Miss Winchester served as manager from that time until her retirement due to ill health two years ago. During her term of office, the Western Union was taken over by Canadian National Telegraphs. The office was located in the old Warner block which was destroyed by fire. Temporary quarters were found in the Digby Garage until the office was located at its present stand, the Shortliffe Building. Present operator is Francis V. MacKenzie, who will move to Yarmouth following the closing of the office here.

Well Known Island Couple 50 Years Wed

On Friday evening, May 16, a large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blackford, Tiverton, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Blackford are known and loved not only by the people of the Islands but by a host of friends in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and the United States. For many years Mrs. Blackford has been proprietress of the well known Blackford House, at Tiverton, while Mr. Blackford has driven the mail over the twelve-mile length of Long Island from the Ferry wharf at Tiverton to the Ferry wharf at Freeport, and served as taxi driver on the Island since a young man.

Before her marriage Mrs. Blackford was Miss Ruth Delaney, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Delaney, of Central Grove.

Their anniversary celebration was attended by friends from the three Long Island villages of Tiverton, Central Grove and Freeport. Among the many gifts received was a beautiful gold bracelet from their daughter and her husband — Rev. and Mrs. Chester Sommer—who are now residing in Ontario. Lovely flowers from Tiverton friends were presented by Mrs. Arthur Powell. After wishing Mr. and Mrs. Blackford many more years of health and happiness, the guests left to return to their homes about one o'clock the following morning. A delicious treat of anniversary cake and ice cream was served.

Celebrated 90th Birthday

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. LeBaron Mills, a highly respected citizen of Granville Ferry, who on Sunday, May 18, celebrated his 90th birthday.

Mr. Mills is very busy these days, splitting his wood pile, spading up his garden and doing odd jobs of carpenter work for his daughter, Mrs. Harry Mills, with whom he and Mrs. Mills, who celebrated her 86th birthday in October, reside. On Sunday morning Mr. and Mrs. Mills attended Baptist Church where for over 28 years Mr. Mills was the faithful and very efficient organist. During the service Mr. Mills was congratulated on his 90th birthday by the pastor of the church, Rev. L. B. Wright, and he also received a cordial handshake and congratulations from each member of the congregation. Mr. Mills, with other members of the family, also enjoyed a motor trip to Bear River and Smith's Cove on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Mills was born at Granville Centre in 1857, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Mills. He was born on the same homestead that his father and grandfather were born on and where years later his own son, Gerald Mills, was born, making four generations born on this beloved Mills homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Mills came to Granville Ferry to reside about forty years ago and have many friends in this community who join in wishing Mr. Mills many more happy birthdays.

These Fish Didn't Get Away

Last week Doug Syda went on a fishing trip to Porter's Lake and at the inlet he really struck some luck. While fishing he hooked a trout—and landed it—weighing three pounds after he got it home. By actual measurement this fish was sixteen inches long and five inches through the body.

Compared to the fish that were king of Victoria Beach last week, though, Doug Syda's trout was just a minnow and a small one at that. While fishing in the Bay of Fundy he hooked a halibut weighing 25 pounds. We don't know the measurements but we'll bet he couldn't stretch his arms wide enough to indicate its length.

Several other large halibut have been caught in the Bay of Fundy. Melbourne Hudson of Victoria Beach caught one on Monday weighing one hundred and fifty pounds, while last week a Longmire of Parker's Cove got a sixty pounder. While the fish was not as large as the others, it gave Wilfred a hard fight and took over an hour to land. After he got it on the boat it thrashed about, knocking over Bob Longmire, his father, who was fishing with him. After knocking him down, the big fish jumped on top of him and some say it was a half Nelson on Mr. Longmire when Wilfred pulled it in. A little more troublesome than Doug Syda's trout.

Apple Maggot Situation Serious

The menace of the maggot to the apple industry in the Annapolis Valley was forcibly outlined by E. D. Haliburton, member of the N. S. Apple Maggot Control Board, to delegates and members attending the annual meeting of the Annapolis Valley Affiliated Boards of Trade in Kentville on April 30. Mr. Haliburton contrasted the threat of embargo held over the Valley by its greatest imported — Great Britain — in the past 15 years, with the absolute prohibition of export of fruit from any area within 300 yards of infested trees by federal legislation now going into effect.

Asserting that the whole Valley was spotted with maggot, the speaker pointed to towns and villages, church yards, and vacant orchards and farms with native hawthorne and wild apple trees, as the chief source of maggot. He detailed efforts that had been made in the past to clear up such infested areas and termed the lack of co-operation a serious threat to the whole industry.

Mr. Haliburton's address was a clearly put picture of a menace which, he said, could be cleared up very easily. Co-operation was essential, he pointed out, and I am speaking to this meeting tonight because I believe the Boards of Trade throughout the Valley can help with control of the maggot in their respective communities.

That suggestion was taken up immediately and the meeting endorsed unanimously a motion that all boards give active assistance in the work of maggot control. There was considerable discussion on the subject by delegates and President-elect F. J. Burns suggested that such action be taken in conjunction with town councils, which, he asserted, had the power to enforce regulations and compel owners of infested trees to take action.

Man Uses Knife

Bartlett Brooke Bonnell, 62 year old retired employee of a New York brokerage firm, of Little River, New Jersey, was found dead early May 7 with a stab wound under his heart. His body was found beside the garage of his suburban home, a six-inch steak knife nearby.

After an autopsy performed at the State Hospital in Marlboro, the assistant County Prosecutor, termed the death a suicide. Mr. Bonnell, who lost his right leg in action with the French Foreign Legion in 1914, was described as having been ill and depressed in recent weeks.

Mr. Bonnell is survived by his wife; a daughter, Sybel Bonnell of La Jolla, Calif., and by a sister, Dr. Muriel Randall of Jacksonville, Fla.

(A personal letter from a friend of the deceased later says that the police now consider it a case of murder.—News Editor Courier.)

Mr. Bonnell was a native of Digby and lived in the building now known as the Lour Lodge Annex—the former Bonnell family home. He visited Digby around the beginning of World War II, and with his wife spent the summer in Sandy Cove. The newspaper account above does not mention another sister, who, we think, lives in Tampa, Fla., Gertrude M., known to her friends in Digby by the pet name of "Queenie." He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Digby Bonnell.

Harris - Robicheau

A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, Digby, when Rev. Father Day united in marriage Margaret Mary Robicheau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robicheau of Doucetteville, Digby County, to Wilfred Ross Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Harris of Short Beach, Yarmouth County.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She looked charming in a suit of turquoise blue and accessories to match.

They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hersey of Centerville, Digby Co. sister of the bride, who also looked charming in a blue suit.

After the wedding the happy couple, the bride's parents and their attendants all motored to the groom's home, Short Beach where they were greeted by many friends. Upon their return in the evening a dance was held at Barton where two hundred guests enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

A beautifully decorated three tier wedding cake was cut by the newlyweds and served to immediate relatives and friends.

The gifts received were many and beautiful including some cheques.

Among the guests from out of town and community were relatives of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Harris, his parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Willis Shaw, sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Harris, brother of the groom. The happy couple will reside in Digby.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS:
....but put your camp fire out!

What Our Forests Do For You

- Shelter game animals and nesting birds and give you a grand place to hunt.
- Provide handy spots for our children.
- Control flow of water so that rivers do not dry up in summer.
- Give you a year-round supply of hydro power.
- Provide thousands of jobs in lumber, pulp wood and other forest industries.
- Insure climate so as to prevent extremes.

Nova Scotia's beautiful holiday-land of forests and streams is yours to enjoy during the coming long Victoria Day week-end... And yours to protect from its greatest enemy, FIRE.

Last year no less than 300 fires destroyed thousands of acres of Nova Scotia's forests. Much of this was fine timber-land that sheltered game and fish and so provided sport for many people, besides assuring the conservation of local soil and water values.

Play SAFE this Victoria week-end.

When you use a match, break it in two before you throw it away. Be sure your discarded cigarette is out too.

When you make a campfire, build it small and in a safe place near water. When you leave, put the fire DEAD OUT with water.

Then the forests will be yours to enjoy next day.

Enjoy your Holiday but Protect our Forests!

AT-TIME PRICES AND TRADE BOARD QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Yesterday I bought a pound of dairy butter from my neighbor and he charged me almost as much as I have to pay for creamery butter. This seems reasonable.

Apparently you were overcharged. The retail ceiling on dairy butter throughout Nova Scotia is 48 cents per pound.

Q. How much canning sugar can we receive this year?

Ten extra pounds for canning purposes have been allotted for this year. The first five coupons Y-1 to Y-5 became valid on May 15, and the second five coupons will become valid on May 17. Each coupon is valid for the purchase of one pound of sugar.

Q. We rent three rooms in a house with kitchen privileges, and share the bathroom. Our landlord has just given us a month's notice to vacate. Is he allowed to do this?

A. No. As tenants of "shared accommodation", you are entitled to a clear six months' notice to vacate. If you have any more difficulty, please get in touch with the nearest Rentals Office.

Q. When I paid my rent last month, my landlord informed me that the rent would be increased beginning next month. He didn't give me any papers from the Prices Board to sign and the increase that he mentioned was more than ten per cent. Can he do this?

A. No, he certainly can not. He first must make application to the Rentals Office of the Prices Board and they will give him special forms to fill in. They will also inform him as to what procedure he should take in increasing his rent.

Q. Under the two-year lease, has the tenant the right to break his lease on thirty days' notice?

A. Yes, by giving thirty days' notice in writing, to his landlord, the tenant may legally vacate.

Ten Ways To Kill An Organization

The following, clipped from the Norwood Press, is applicable to community co-operative endeavor, and we think there is a lot of truth in it, don't you?

1. Don't go to any of the meetings. But if you do, go late.
2. Always find fault with the work of the officers and members.
3. Never accept an office—it is much easier to criticize than to do things.
4. Get sore if you are not appointed on a committee. Should you be appointed, don't attend any of the committee meetings.
5. If asked to give your opinion on some matter, tell the chairman you have nothing to say. After the meeting, tell everyone how it should be done.
6. Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary. When others roll up their sleeves and willingly and unselfishly use their ability to help matters along, howl that the organization is run by a clique.
7. Hold back your dues as long as possible, or don't pay them at all.
8. Make no effort to get a new member.
9. Don't be sociable either within or outside the organization.
10. If you should get a good idea smother it at once.

Shrubs and Trees In Bloom

The influence of the warm, summer-like days we have been having lately is showing very plainly in the gardens in Digby. Rockery flowers are a blaze of color, forget-me-nots and other small blossoms are all out, adding their delicate beauty to the glory of spring gardens. Although the daffodils are about done, tulips and other bulbs are springing into bloom with their glorious reds and orange tints. Among the shrubs the forsythia are at their most colorful best right now while other shrubs are rapidly being clothed in the bright and shining newness of their green foliage. Cherry trees are in bloom as are the wild pears and the apple blossoms are just beginning to show their swelling buds in preparation for the fragrant opening.

"Abegweit" Being Fitted Out

A name which is older than the history of white men on Prince Edward Island is perpetuated in the new car ferry, "Abegweit" now being fitted out in the shipyards of Marine Industries at Sorel, Que. for the Prince Edward Island-New Brunswick service. The word, Abegweit was the name given the island by its original settlers, the Micmac Indians.

According to Micmac legend, Prince Edward Island owes its bright red soil and its name to Glooscap, the great Indian demigod, worshipped by both the Micmac and the Maliseet tribes. Glooscap, goes the legend, wanted to create for himself a cheerful, cosy retreat where he could retire when the cares of life on the Mainland tired him.

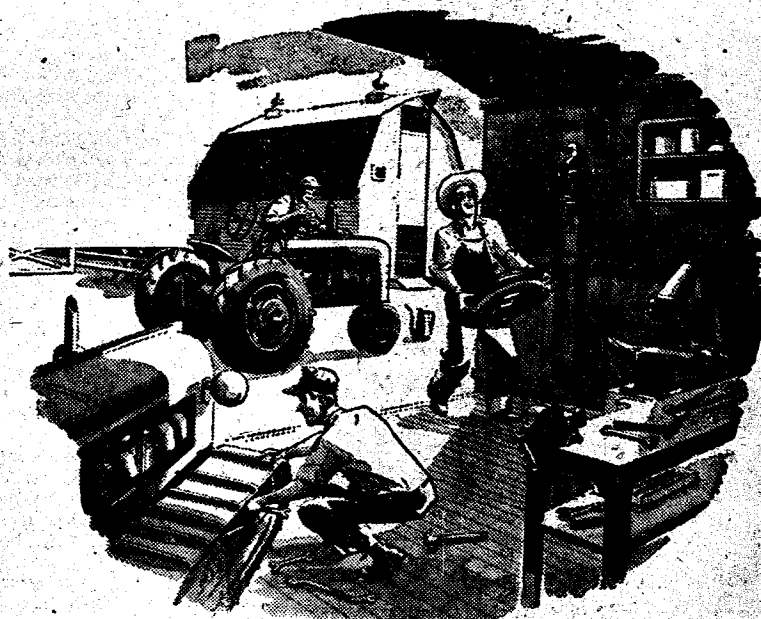

With this in mind, he chose an island some nine miles off the New Brunswick-Nova Scotia mainland, painted it red with his fairy paintbrush because red was a cheerful color, and named it Abegweit. The distinctive red island became the restful, cosy retreat he sought. And, by P. E. I. residents, "even today, as in the case of Glooscap, many folks wearied by the turmoil and hustle of modern life retire to the Island for a rest."

Construction of the Abegweit by Marine Industries recalls that what the Micmac Indians had in mind in calling Prince Edward Island Abegweit.

Quite aside from its historic background, Abegweit is a particularly appropriate name for the powerful, streamlined ferry—largest of its kind in the world—which goes into service this summer. The word, Abegweit, according to the Indian tongue, means "The Home Cradled (or resting) on the Waves."

Little Brook swamped Digby in a friendly match of five pins by a margin of 379 points. Little Brook took the jump on the Digby team by gaining an advantage of 162 points at the end of the first string and adding 264 more in the second. Digby tried vainly to overtake their opponents but their lead was too great. They did manage to cut down the lead by 47 points in the third string.

Ascension Day

Ascension Day was celebrated at St. Ann's College with religious services in the morning and a holiday for the entire student body. In the evening the students under the direction of Rev. McClusky presented the drama "Croissant ou Croix" (Crescent or Cross) in three acts which was ably acted by them.

Between the acts, the college band, under the direction of Maurice Comeau of Concession, rendered several selections, namely, "La Bonne Petite Arme", "O Canada", and "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers."

Mr. Comeau, who is a veteran of World War II, played a clarinet solo, "The Blue Bells of Scotland", with variations which was applauded generously by the audience.

The drama was well executed by all the actors with special mention to the actors, Jean-Marie Ratte, who represented Don Vasco Gomez, and Louis Armstrong, who took the role of Don Alonzo. Andre Crepeau as Pedrillo, acted his part as a young Spanish boy to perfection with his bravado and exaggerations.

Fifty-four years ago this same drama was enacted at St. Ann's and at the second showing on Thursday evening, were several of the actors of the original play. Among these were noted Hon. J. W. Comeau of Comeauville and Jean V. Thibodeau of Church Point. Most of the others have long since passed away.

The college auditorium was filled to capacity and the proceeds were donated to the building fund.

The proposed fireproof dormitory is to be built as soon as materials can be purchased. It is believed that a start on the foundation will begin around the first of June. Plans call for the building in granite and the original plans have been somewhat changed, especially the front of the building. An improvement in the looks of the frontage has been made to the plans.

Lobstermen Have Poor Year

With the lobster fishing season still two weeks from its closing, the local fishermen have already started to take up their traps. After one of the poorest seasons in years, they believe that the lobsters will not be any more plentiful from now on than they have been all season.

At no time during the season has the catch been large, and only on several occasions has it even been fair. The high price of the lobsters enabled them to get a fair return for their catch but the heavy gales of the season caused so much damage to the traps that the slight benefit that they might have reaped by the good prices was offset by the losses.

Some fishermen have lost over half the traps set out and damage to a very great extent has crippled them exceedingly hard this year. Only two boats are still fishing from Church Point wharf at the present time. Although the fishermen never lost extremely heavy in any one storm during the season, nevertheless, each succeeding storm would drive some of the traps ashore and damage them beyond repair, until it eventually had taken a heavy toll.

The fishermen are at a loss to know why the lobster catch

CANADA'S NEWEST AND LARGEST

CANADA'S ENTRY in international and trans-oceanic flying is The North Star. Largely the product of native ideas and manufacture, it ranks with the world's best and it is now in the trans-Atlantic service of Trans-Canada Air Lines. The interior accommodation of T.C.A.'s newest and largest airliner, shown above, was planned to provide the maximum in comfort and attractiveness for air travellers. The chairs were especially designed to eliminate fatigue on long flights. A ladies' powder room is located back of the main cabin and a men's wash room up forward, both equipped with modern accessories. The picture of The North Star in flight shows the four powerful British-built Rolls-Royce engines; with two stages of super charging they power the giant aircraft with 7,200 h.p. When cruising at an altitude of 26,400 feet, it has a maximum speed of 350 m.p.h., and a maximum cruising speed of 326 m.p.h.

Treat Sheep for Nodular Worms

Before nodular worms can affect the lamb crop, the pastures must be "seeded down" or contaminated by infected sheep in the spring or early summer. Contamination can be prevented by removal of the adult worms from the sheep before the pasture season. Treatment with Phenothiazine, one to one and a third ounces in tablet form, after lambing or two days before going on pasture will do the job and mean dollars in the pockets of the producers when the lambs are marketed in the fall.

Twins Popular

Twin calves seem to be the order of the day in the beef raising areas surrounding Amherst since a report from the area indicates that no less than five sets of Shorthorn twins arrived in the district in one week recently. The twins, which arrived on the farms of Earl Brooks, L. Greeno, H. Crossman, Ronald Baxter and Rupert Brooks, are sired by Invermay Drummer, a bull owned by the Amherst Head Society.

Hymns requested by families were "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" and "The Old Rugged Cross." Two selections were rendered by the choir. A male quartette rendered "Beautiful Land" and the hymn "We Are Going Down the Valley" was sung by the choir, Mrs. Cereno Purdy taking the solo part.

Beautiful memorial flowers banked the altar, placed by the two families, the staff of the local telephone exchange and the United Baptist Church.

St. Ann's Suffers First Defeat

St. Ann's College team suffered their first defeat of the new baseball season when Yarmouth (South End) won 4-2 in a hotly contested game on the college field at Church Point. Tommy Gaudet started on the mound for St. Ann's and in four innings he pitched he allowed three hits and struck out six batters. Al Gaudet, youthful finger, replaced him for the balance of the game that was called in the seventh on account of rain, and allowed but one hit in the two innings that he pitched.

Reid went all the way for Yarmouth allowing but two hits and striking five batters. Both teams played good ball with Yarmouth charged with two miscues and St. Ann's with three.

AUTOMOBILE GROUP BACKS PEDESTRIAN REFLECTOR LIGHT

Reflector lights that pedestrians can wear at night on their wrists or pinned to their clothing where motorists can see them, have the backing of the American Automobile Association.

Another form of the safety device is a reflector tape which pedestrians may fix on belts or other accessories. Burton Marsh, Director of the A. A. A.'s National Safety Division said last night. Built-in reflectors for the heels of shoes may be recommended later, he said.

Farmers Setting Out Turnip Plants

In the farm areas from Annapolis, down along the shores of the Annapolis Basin and in villages on the St. Mary's Bay as far as Plympton, thousands of seed turnips have been set out during the past few days. This area is the home of the set out during the past few days. Ditmars' Bronze Top Swede, one of Canada's best known table turnips, which was originated by R. V. Ditmars & Son, Deep Brook. For many years the growing of these turnip seeds was confined to the Deep Brook area but in recent years the restricted area has been extended from Annapolis Royal to the Annapolis-Digby county border, and in Digby County to Plympton on the St. Mary's Bay shore and Rossway on the Digby Neck Shore.

The turnips, grown from seed the previous year, are carefully inspected and stored for the winter and set out early in May. In a few weeks their yellow blossoms will be much in evidence—the seeds—thousands of pounds—will be harvested in the late summer.

The growing of Ditmars' Bronze Top Swede Seed has developed into a sizable industry in this area. The seeds, after being thoroughly cleaned and inspected, are packed in pound boxes and distributed to all parts of Canada.

Nice frosted cakes were donated by the women of the district and these were enthusiastically bought as they were put up for sale.

Ladies first prize at Whist was won by Mrs. Vincent Gennette with 39 points and Men's prize was won by Adolph Comeau. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Desislé LeBlanc and Emile Comeau. Miss Alma LeBlanc won the door prize.

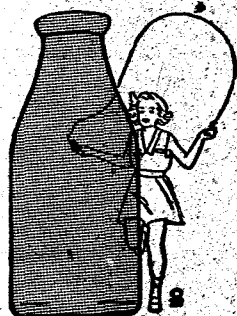

Dart and ring games aided in raising the grand total. Music was furnished by local talent. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

A number of teachers of the United Church Sunday School and also some of the girls and boys from the "Victory" Group C. G. I. T. and Trail Rangers attended the Sunday School Convention held at Ashmore on Wednesday. The worship service for the afternoon period was taken by these girls and boys.

High Commissioner To Pass Through Digby

Sir Alexander Clutterbuck, K.C.M.G., M.C., the High Commissioner for the United Kingdom in Canada, left Ottawa May 15 for a visit to the Maritimes, where he will undertake a number of speaking engagements. He will travel by train and car, and will be accompanied by Lady Clutterbuck, their daughter, Anne, their niece Miss Beryl Butt, and Mr. G. W. Tory, Senior Secretary at the High Commissioner's office in Ottawa. Although production figures are not yet available on the 1947 maple syrup run in Quebec, it is estimated that it has been one of the largest in history, Canadian Grocer reports. Consumers, however, have been deprived of a good share of the run because it is believed most of it has either gone out of Canada through export channels or is being used in the manufacture of other food items.

The High Commissioner will pass through Digby on May 24, en route from Halifax to Saint John, N. B.

Four hiking Scouts of the Brant-Ensign Troop in Alberta discovered a bridge caved in by Spring floods. They immediately took action to stop all traffic to the bridge. Two Scouts stayed behind to act as guards while the others took the information to municipal authorities, and, on their own, made signs warning traffic not to use the bridge.

DALHOUSIE

The Right Honourable
The Viscount Bennett

Few people fully realize the extent of the impression which graduates of Dalhousie have made upon the life of this Country during the past fifty or sixty years. The fact is that the reputation of Dalhousie as a seat of learning is firmly established throughout the length and breadth of Canada.

To-day, for instance, a graduate of Dalhousie sits on the Supreme Court of every Province of Canada—the Supreme Court of the Dominion and the World Court. Just as in law, so in medicine, in finance, in government, in all the applied Arts and Sciences, Dalhousie graduates rank among the leaders.

These men and women made a significant contribution to Canadian life, and brought credit to their native provinces, their parents, instructors and classmates. They proved that the money expended on their university education was a sound investment, and they encourage us to believe that an investment in the youth of to-day will produce similar results.

Church Point In One Hit Game

Behind the one hit game pitched by Benny Maillet, Meteghan defeated Church Point 14 to 0 in an abbreviated 5 inning game here this afternoon. The game was called at the end of the fifth inning on account of rain.

Maillet had 8 strike outs to his credit and received good support from his team mates who committed but one error.

The feature of the game was the heavy hitting of George Aymer, first baseman for Meteghan, who hit a triple and two two-baggers and walked once in four times at bat.

Saulnier on the mound for Church Point did not have his usual control, and was hit hard, allowing 14 hits and striking out two. His team mates could not get a run off of Maillet though they did manage to hit several hard balls that were fielded expertly cutting off probable uprisings, especially in the second and third innings.

The Poet's Corner

DON'T JUDGE TOO HARD

Don't find fault with the man who limps,
Or stumbles along the road,
Unless you have worn the shoes he wears
Or struggled beneath his load.
There may be tacks in his shoes that hurt,
Though hidden away from view,
Or the burden he bears, placed on your back,
Might cause you to stumble too.
Don't sneer at the man who's down today.
Unless you have felt the blow that caused his fall, or felt the same
That only the fallen know.
You may be strong, but still the blows
That were his, if dealt to you in the selfsame way, at the self-same time,
Might cause you to stagger too.
Don't be too harsh with the man who sins
Or pelt him with words or stones, Unless you are sure, yea doubly sure,
That you have no sins of your own.
You know perhaps, if the piper's voice
Be whispered as soft to you as it did to him when he went away,
Might cause you to falter too.

Come On Out!

The Cubs dropped a little in their attendance on Friday evening, four cubs being absent, but two new recruits put in an application as members of the Pack. Assistant Cubmaster Harold Long was in charge and the Cubs enjoyed a game of Grab the Hat and one of Rooster Fight during the games period.

The Scouts were in full attendance, and after the Eagles out-sang the Beavers, the business of getting a Troop Softball team going was worked out. The first part of the Scout hour was enjoyed in a game of softball. The Scouts are beginning to appear with part of their uniforms. They find some trouble in getting a full uniform as production was curtailed during the war and production is just beginning to place the uniforms on the market again.

The picture of things-to-come in automobile styling—long, follow-through fenders, sleek lines, broad and solid look.

The picture of dynamic action, with its bonnet jam-packed with Fireball power, equally ready, equally willing for creep-speed jaunt or quick-paced emergency call.

The picture of perfect poise—with plenty of roadweight for solidity—cushioned all around on soft coil springs for jarless ease.

The picture of precise and exacting manufacture, with engine tolerances often closer than in airplane practice—bodies floated on new Silent Zone mountings for tautness and quiet—everything from rear-axle strut rods to water pump seal all tidily buttoned up to give you the best to be had today.

You don't have to be told how eyes follow you when you're behind this wheel. You can sample for yourself the great ease of this gallant traveller, the comfort, the room, the thrill-of-a-lifetime lift that answers every nudge of your foot on the treadle.

Yes... Buick is a picture... a perfect picture of a car years ahead of the field in style, size, performance, and value.

So many people want Buick, and only Buick, that the demand continues far ahead of our ability to deliver. But this big, brawny beauty deserves your last ounce of patience... so while you wait, depend on your GM Dealer's expert service to keep your present car on the road.

The film gives you a twenty minute glimpse of life in a Canadian town, of its business life and social forces. The basic truths of the town's economy, its business, social life, the country store, the bank and school are worked into a background of good entertainment.

Prints of "The Mapleville Story" can be obtained from community film libraries and film councils; or you may ask your local bank manager for information as to the addresses of such councils or film libraries.

Retailers in both Canada and the United States are showing concern over the possibility of public buying resistance reaching a point where it will seriously curtail business, reports Hardware and Metal and Electrical Dealer. "In some lines there has been a move among retailers to encourage customer goodwill by reducing prices by 10% store-wide for a limited time," the Toronto hardware trade paper goes on. "The action has also been a protest by retailers against too many price increases. So far most of this action in Canada has been taken by the department store and clothing fields."

Besides monopolizing more moisture, many weeds use up twice as much nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash as does a well developed oat plant. Weeds also increase the cost of labour and equipment, and greatly increase the cost of preparing crop products for both animal and human consumption. Weeds in cereals not only lower the value of the grain but they reduce the value of the land. They are also hard on machinery and cause the use of more binder than is required to harvest clean crops. They harvest insect pests and fungus diseases. While, with labor shortage, it may not be possible to give all the attention needed for cultivation, it is possible not to aggravate the situation by sowing seed contaminated with weed seeds.

A simple tablet, bearing the Boy Scout and Girl Guide badges and inscribed "In Memory of Robert Baden-Powell, Chief Scout of the world, 1857-1941" was unveiled by H. R. MARRIAGE

Lemmon - Amero

A pretty wedding took place at St. Croix Church at Plympton, Monday morning, May 19th., when Rev. Father Frecker united in marriage Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Amero of Plympton, to Carl Lemmon, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Lemmon of Musquodoboit. Bridesmaid was Blanche Amero, sister of the bride and groomsmen was Vernon Amero, brother of the bride.

The bride looked lovely in a traditional white satin wedding gown trimmed with sequins and with sweetheart neckline, full length sleeves, veil, and coronet of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid was dressed in a floor length gown of pink taffeta with white accessories.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blinn. After this the wedding party motored through the Annapolis Valley. On their return a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for nearly one hundred guests.

Mrs. Otessa McGrath of Freeport is visiting her son, Fred, and Mrs. Ryan and family who have just moved into their new home.

Mrs. Harry Raymond of Digby attended the funeral of her aunt, the late Mrs. Charles Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McGrath and Frank Mussels of Port Wade were Sunday guests, of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haynes.

Miss Freda Aptt, R.N., of Annapolis General Hospital staff, recently visited her aunt, Mrs. Amos Everett.

A sudden snow storm marooned a dozen Saskatoon, Sask., Boy Scout cyclists who had been camping at their Beaver Creek grounds recently. Highlight of the trip was when they encountered several beaver which were so hungry that they ate out of the Scouts' hands. The deep snow making it impossible for the Scouts to use their bicycles, they were brought back to the city by truck. Another Saskatoon Scout, who had ridden horseback to an Indian Reservation for a branding bee, reported a tough ride home through the snow storm.

David Milberry of Bear River visited his sister, Mrs. R. E. Jefferson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank VanBuskirk of Stellarton and twin daughters, both nurses from Halifax, were week end guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Charles VanBuskirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Caledonia were guests this week of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Berry.

"I'm the Chief of Police" said a man stopped by a Boy Scout Patrol on night duty at a road block in London, Ontario's West End area during the floods there. "Oh, Yeah?" the Scout questioned sceptically, and refused to let him pass until the Chief's identity was established by another Scout who knew him. Not at all annoyed, the Chief went on his way and later remarked: "The Boy Scouts were certainly on their toes. They did a wonderful job."

FLOWER GAME

Answers to the following are names of flowers, some wild, others garden flowers.

1. The girl's name and the color of her hair.
2. Her brother's name and a descriptive adjective.
3. They punished him with a stick of precious metal.
4. What her unmarried brother often lost.
5. What her sweetheart did when he proposed.
6. What she told her small brother to do when he sat on her 'sweetheart's' knee.
7. By whom they were married.
8. At what time was the wedding.

ANS.: Marigold (Mary Gold); Sweet William; Golden Rod; Bachelor Buttons; Aster; Johnny-jump-up; Jack-in-the pulpit; Four O'clock.

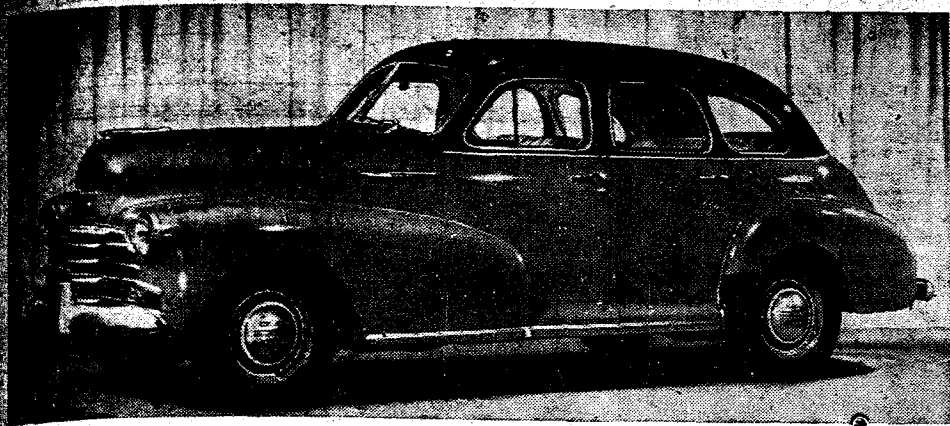

"WINDOW" GAME

One person is asked to be "it" and leave the room while a word is being chosen. When the word is agreed upon, the person being "it" is called in. He or she may ask any questions they desire, and the one to whom it is directed must answer using the catch word "window" in place of the one chosen. It is best, when possible, to use homonyms, then the different meanings will make it more difficult to guess. For example the word "lead" might be selected. These sentences could be used: "The plumber mended the can with window" or "I windowed the way across the street." The person who is responsible for revealing the right word is "it".

WORD SQUARE

1. A kind of sticky soil.
2. Part of the ear.
3. One of the first brothers of Bible times.
4. Shout.

ANS.: Clay; lobe; Abel; yell.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Two good rules to follow in picturing children are illustrated here. First, shoot close up; second, let the child do something to help absorb his interest.

SIMPLE RULES FOR PICTURING CHILDREN

ATTRIBUTE it to parental pride, if you will, but the fact remains that more pictures are made of babies and children than of any other type of subject. Everyone is familiar with the father with a wallet full of snapshots of his latest offspring. Too often, though, the offspring may be all but unrecognizable. And there's no need for this. For children offer a fascinating subject and while patience may be demanded, making snapshots of them is, on the whole, an easy job. Assuming that exposure and focus hold no mysteries for you, all that remains is to follow three simple rules.

First, shoot close up. A child's features are small and, unless you are fairly close to your subject, may not be distinct. So try to shoot from as close to your subject as your camera permits—say eight feet away with a box-type camera, closer with a focusing type or one with a close-up attachment.

In this connection, you'll find it helps when you're shooting an active baby to pre-focus your camera. For example, place a twig on the ground at a distance of eight feet from the camera. Then focus on the twig. Once the camera is focused let the baby crawl toward you—and when he reaches the twig you merely have to release your shutter.

A second helpful rule for picturing children is to pose them with either a toy or pet to absorb their attention. This will keep them from being camera conscious and at the same time keep them interested while you are focusing the camera and getting ready to shoot. In addition, a child playing with a toy or with a pet makes a more natural picture than a child who is concentrating on the camera.

And third, get down to the child's level. It's almost always best to stoop and shoot the picture at less height than if you were picturing an adult. By kneeling down, too, you get a better picture of a child's features than if you tilt the camera.

Chute - MacRae

Amid a setting of spring flowers, St. Andrew's Church at Edmonton, Alberta, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Thursday, March 8, at 10 A.M. when Catherine Mary MacRae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. MacRae became the bride of Donald John Chute, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chute, all of Edmonton. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charmingly attired in a gown of white satin and lace styled with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points at the wrist. She carried a bouquet of red roses and her only ornament was a string of pearls, gift of the groom. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Allen B. MacRae of Victoria, an uncle of the bride. The nuptial music was played by Mrs. T. Fitzgerald.

The attendants were five sisters of the bride, Miss Teresa MacRae as Maid of Honor, was gowned in mauve with coronet to match and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations.

The Misses Helen, Margo, Dorothea and Joan MacRae wore dresses of coral, moss green, Turquoise and rose respectively, fashioned with scalloped necklines, coronets to match, and carrying bouquets of sweet peas, roses and carnations.

The groom was attended by his only brother, Jack W. Chute, and the ushers were William Irwin and Jack Leeder.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to immediate relatives at the home of the bride's parents, 11030-129th St. The bride's table covered with a lace was centred by a three tier wedding cake flanked by white tapers and vases of spring flowers.

During the afternoon a reception to 200 guests, friends of the young couple, was held at the bride's home when the bride's mother and the groom's mother received with the bridal couple. Mrs. MacRae wore an ensemble of navy blue crepe, flower trimmed white hat and a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore powder blue crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses.

For going away the bride wore a gold dressmaker suit complimented by top coat and accessories of brown. After a brief honeymoon spent in Banff, they will return to Alberta where the groom has a mercantile business.

The groom, who served with the Calgary Highlanders overseas, was twice wounded, is a grandson of Mrs. W. A. Chute, Bear River. His father spent his boyhood days in Bear River and they have

Phone Girl Hit

Jean Sulis, 19 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sulis, Digby, and an employee of the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Exchange office here, narrowly escaped serious injury last week when struck by a truck driven by George Comeau.

The accident occurred last Thursday afternoon on the main street in front of the Capitol Theatre. By her own statement Miss Sulis stepped out into the street not noticing the oncoming truck and walked almost directly into it.

She was thrown to the pavement and suffered bruises and a severe gash on the leg. Fortunately the truck was slowing to make a stop when it struck the girl or the results might have been much more serious.

Accurate statistics on agricultural production are of importance to all engaged in farm production and marketing. With the exception of the decennial census years, these figures are compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics from cards sent in by farmers. Last year, according to Dr. M. Cumming, Provincial Statistician, these cards were mailed to about 25,000 farmers about June 1, and another set about December 1. Only 1,845 or 6% filled out and returned cards in 1946. The Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture and Marketing hopes that many more farmers will fill out and return the cards this year and so help in obtaining as accurate statistics of production as possible.

Pays High For Dollar Bill

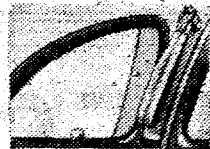

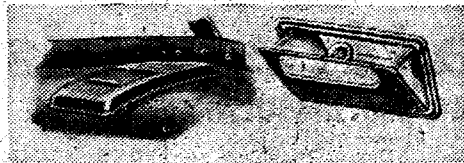

At Saturday night's Bingo game for the benefit of the Badminton-Tennis Club, a number of articles were sold at auction by E. C. Webber. While the sale was in progress, he took a dollar bill from his pocket and put it up. After some rather spirited bidding it was knocked down to H. M. Warne for two dollars.

my Husband asked my choice

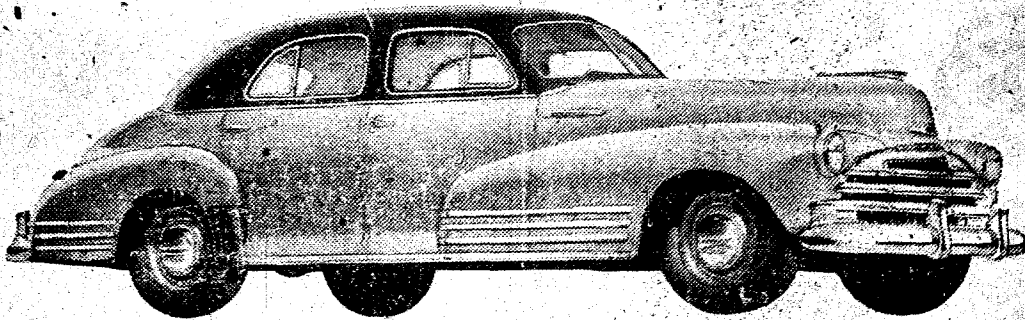

...and I said CHEVROLET

"Why was Chevrolet my choice? Because, like most women, when I shop, my one idea is to get the most value for my money—and Chevrolet is the car that gives you just that. As far as beauty, comfort, and all-round quality are concerned, Chevrolet is way up there with the big cars. Yet when it comes to price—well, the price is so much lower it's hardly believable. And another thing I like—the upkeep cost won't strain our family budget! Yes, my choice was Chevrolet, and my husband says I couldn't have chosen better."

Big-Car value in small details, too! Most Chevrolet models have retractable assist straps, ventilating rear-quarter windows, ash receiver set into the top of the instrument panel, and either one or two, in the rear passenger compartment.

Co-Operative Farming Proposed

Out in Western Canada 50 veterans have made arrangements to embark upon a co-operative farming venture. According to an announcement of the project, four veterans' co-operative farms are expected to be established in the Carrot River Valley, 200 miles north of Regina. The announcement followed a conference at Nipawin, Saskatchewan, of 50 veterans who had expressed interest in the co-operative farming.

Forty of the veterans will be employed this summer clearing land, and it is expected that 8000 acres of the 200,000 tract set aside by the provincial government for veterans' settlement will be cleared before next spring. Land will be allocated under the veterans' land act on the basis of 240 to 320 acres per man.

When Sea Cadets, Air Cadets and Boy Scouts recently took part in a new program of youth broadcasts to Great Britain over the CBC International Service, Patrol Leader Paul Barolet, a Montreal Scout was master of ceremonies, and thanked His Excellency Viscount Alexander of Tunis, Chief Scout for Canada, for officially launching the series.

Tuna Tournament At Wedgeport

Teams representing the United States, Cuba and the British Empire are definite entries for the fourth annual International Tuna Tournament to be held at Wedgeport, Nova Scotia, on September 3, 4, 5, and 6. It was announced here today following a meeting of the tournament board of directors in New York.

Entrants will compete for the Alton B. Sharp Trophy, a silver cup now held by the Cuba team, which won it in 1938. France and Belgium as well as the countries to be represented this year, sent teams to the 1939 series and the teams were actually assembled when the outbreak of war forced the cancellation of the matches.

Directors of the tournament who attended the New York meeting were Hon. Harold Connolly, Nova Scotia minister of industry and publicity; Alton B. Sharp, Boston, Mass., president of Eastern Steamship Lines; Julian T. Crandall, Ashaway, R. I., noted sportsman; S. Kip Farrington, East Hampton, N. Y., internationally known big game fisherman; and Maj. Howard G. Scott, New Glasgow, N. S. Additional members are to be announced later.

Teams will be made up of seven men, only five of whom may fish at one time. Announcement of the composition of the United States team is expected later this month. The matches will be held at Soldier's Rip, a tuna fishing ground near Wedgeport, a typical fishing town about 14 miles from Yarmouth, N. S. Competitive fishing will be done on three of the four scheduled days, beginning September 3, thus making allowance for weather.

Soldier's Rip is a swift tidal stream carrying large numbers of the bait-fish which attract tuna. It is considered one of the best tuna fishing grounds in the world. In 1946 between July 19 and September 30, the tuna catch at Wedgeport totalled 384 blue-fins, with a combined weight of

School Pupil's Letter Published

The following is a letter written by a pupil of Digby Academy, Anna Amero, Acaciaville, to "The Canadian Teacher." This magazine publishes the best letters received each month from pupils in all parts of Canada. It is quite an honor to have a letter chosen from a pupil from Digby Academy.

Acaciaville, Digby Co.,
Nova Scotia.

Dear Canadian Teacher:

My English teacher, Miss Mills read to a Grade VIII class about the letters in the Canadian Teacher magazine. I found them very interesting and thought I would like to try one.

Digby is situated near the entrance to the Annapolis Basin. Its population is about 1600 but in the summer a lot of tourists come here from the United 228,346 pounds. The fish averaged 604 pounds apiece, the largest weighing 836 pounds. Six fish of 800 pounds or over were caught during that season.

A unique method of fishing is used in the tournament. Boats remain stationary with their engines turning over just fast enough to overcome the tide. The lines are streamed astern in the current where large tuna can often be seen rolling and feeding. Each competitor may fish two lines apiece.

The winning team will be the team possessing the largest number of points at the completion of the match. Scoring will be as follows:

One point per pound for each fish caught with a 200 point bonus for each of the following: (a) the team catching the largest number of fish during the entire tournament; (b) the team catching the largest number of fish in each day's competition; (c) the team catching the largest single fish in each day's competition; (d) the team catching the largest fish in the entire tournament.

States. Many tourists stay at the "Pines Hotel." It is surrounded by tall dark pines.

De Monts sailed through the Digby Gap in 1604. The first settlement was at Port Royal in 1605. There is the habitation at Port Royal where all the things of olden days can be seen. The "Princess Helene" comes into Digby each morning and leaves at night. It carries passengers, cars and mail. In wartime the "Cornwallis Base" was very useful to our mother country. Large ships and submarines often came in. On Saturday night the town would be filled with sailors.

The main industry is fishing. Many men find "scaloping" a very useful work. It is the leading fishing industry. Lobster herring and other fish are caught. Large lumber boats come to the wharves at Digby to take loads of pulp wood and pit props to England.

I live on a farm of 120 acres. At present we have only one barn but my father is trying to get a man to build another. We have two cows, one pair of young steers, one heifer, one pig, and a pair of oxen. I suppose you have no oxen in Ontario. Many farmers in Nova Scotia have oxen. We call ours Spark and Diamond. They are reddish brown in colour with white faces. They are very quiet and stand quietly while being yoked. My father uses a hand-made wooden yoke. The straps used are 18 feet long wound around the horns and the yoke. We use them for ploughing, hauling wood to the mill and for garden work. We have no horses.

They travel along pretty well but sometimes need a light tap with the whip when they slow up. That is to let them know they must obey. When you say "Gee" they go to the right and "Haw" to the left. They also know "Whoa" and "Back."

When oxen are about two years old they are broken in. They do not like it at first but soon get used to it.

After they have been working hard they are driven to a brook for a drink. When they have had enough they come back themselves and return to the barn for good food such as hay and ground grain. They have lots of room in the stable to lie down or move around.

My father makes sure to take them to the county fairs, each fall and always wins a prize. I am enclosing two snapshots of the oxen.

I think writing letters is interesting and would like to hear from someone.

Yours sincerely,

Anna Amero, (age 14, Grade VIII)

We also had letters from the following pupils of the same school:

Patsy Matheson (age 13), Digby; Shirley Murley, (age 13).

"Chemistry?"

MEAN A THING TO ME!"

If YOU WERE a farmer it might seem that way at first glance. But take another look!

Those fine crops, which mean so much to Canada's health and economy, often depend upon chemical fertilizers. Weed and pest destroyers, orchard sprays too, are but a few of the services that chemical research extends to agriculture.

Through good times and bad, the chemical industry plows a straight furrow, ever moving forward to create better things for farm, industry and home. Look to chemistry with confidence for a finer future... and to the C-I-L oval symbol of an organization devoted to serving Canadians through chemistry.

Return From U.S.
Eber and Watson Peck, Mal-

The guides report meeting many persons who were interested in Nova Scotia and who plan to visit our province at the first opportunity. They also met many former residents of the province.

Heads Y's Men

Ernest B. Tufts (above) was recently elected President of the Digby Y's Men's Club. Other officers elected were C. D. Snow, Vice-President, Gerald Godfrey, Secretary, and Philip Dondale, Treasurer. Directors are Elton Arnold, J. J. Brittain, V. G. Cardoza and Hugh Dickie.

County Teachers Meet In Digby

Andrew Merkel, former Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Canadian Press, was guest speaker at the banquet meeting last night of the Digby local of the Nova Scotia Teachers' Union. Chairman of the meeting was Douglas Ormond, Vice-Principal of the Digby Academy. Some forty teachers from the schools of the Municipality of Digby and teachers in the Digby Academy were present at the meeting, held in the Myrtle Hotel.
At the business session held before the banquet, Agnes Mills, President of the Digby local, reported on the annual convention held in the Nova Scotian Hotel at Halifax during the winter vacation. Details of the proposed provincial pension plan were also discussed at this business meeting, with J. J. Oliver of Yarmouth leading the discussion.

Hugh Lynch's Orchestra At Pines Again This Year

Word has been received that Hugh Lynch of Montreal will be at the Pines Hotel again this year for the summer season with an entirely new orchestra. Last year Mr. Lynch's orchestra provided splendid musical entertainment at the Pines and also played for many dances about the countryside. He will arrive in Yarmouth this year on June 6th, coming to the Pines on the 20th. His orchestra will be available again this year for outside dances any evening except Tuesday, Saturday and Sunday.

To Hold Exhibition Of Work

An exhibition of the year's work of Grades I, II and III of the Digby Academy will be held at the Academy on Friday afternoon, May 30th, (tomorrow) from 2 until 3:30 p. m. All parents are urged to attend this exhibition and see the work done by the pupils during the year. The teachers will be present to discuss school problems with the parents of the youngsters.

Kiwanis Minstrel Show Well Received

Proceeds of the Kiwanis Minstrels, staged in Community Hall on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week, have not yet been announced although there is good reason to believe the show was a success financially as the house was well filled at each performance by an appreciative audience.
It is only fair that we should give the show a bit more publicity in this issue, for, because of the time element, it was necessary to prepare the write up that appeared in last week's Courier hours before the curtain raised on Wednesday night's show.
For this reason no mention was made of Victor Jarvis and his guitar in our original item. Victor (alias Andy) was down on the programme for a special dance number in which he played the accompaniment for light footed 280 pound Frank Comeau whose step dancing was one of the highlights of the show, but in addition to this, Victor strummed his guitar and sang several solo numbers.
Special mention must also be made of Junior Cromwell's role. Junior with his guitar and songs of the west, was well received at both performances, but he really went over big Thursday night when he was called to the mike on five occasions to render encores, and when he finally bowed himself away, the audience was still calling for more.
During the second part of the show the Hot Shot Minstrels appeared on the stage in female attire as the Harmonious Housewives—this was a fashion show in itself—a fashion show that revealed many of Digby's male citizens as having real matronly figures.
The surprise feature of the show was the Teeners' Orchestra under the direction of Jimmy LeCain. The Teeners did their stuff during intermission, and the public is still agog. The Digby Civic Band rendered several numbers at the opening of the show and during intermission. Stan Paxton, alias Mabel Mushmouth, made a big hit with his rendition of the Russian Lullaby and O Johnny.
Other details regarding the show were published in our last week's account.

Field Day

The May 24th Field Day, sponsored by the Weymouth branch of the Canadian Legion, No. 67, proved to be a great success.
The day began with a horse pulling contest, in which a great interest was shown by all. There were over thirty entries in this. Prizes were awarded to Frank Melanson, Plympton; Edgar Sabine, Riverdale; Arthur White, Ashmore; Demetrius Amero, of New Edinburgh; Martin Cromwell, Southville; and Bill Nesbit of Weymouth North.
In the afternoon two ball games were played. A soft ball game was played between the girls of the Weymouth North C. G. I. T. and the girls of the Weymouth School, Weymouth North taking the game by a score of 15-7. Later a baseball game was played between the Canadian Legion members of Weymouth and Church Point. Church Point took the victory with a score of 6-5. Both games were well played which added to the interest of the many spectators.
Drawing was made for an Electric Toaster and a Wool Blanket on which tickets had been sold. Mr. C. L. Longley won the toaster and Henry Wilson was winner of the blanket.
In the evening a very enjoyable dance was held at the Nu-Vet Dance Hall with the Annapolis Troubadors in attendance.
Net proceeds for the day amounted to $340.00.
The Legion members want to thank all those who helped in any way to make the day a success with special thanks to H. E. Wagner and G. D. Campbell for their donations.

Local V. O. N. to Launch June Drive

The first advertising in connection with the annual June Drive of the local branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses appears in this week's issue of the Digby Courier. The campaign, which gets under way on June 1st, is being conducted under the convensorship of Mrs. H. R. Bishop and Mrs. Winston Mullen.
It is understood the town and outlying areas served by the Victorian Order Nurse have been divided into zones and collectors appointed for each zone. These collectors will be making their rounds during the first two weeks of June.
The June campaign—or Membership Drive—is one of the most important of the Victorian Order's fund raising activities to be carried on during the year and for that reason, a special effort is being made for a thorough and successful canvass.
Donations of one dollar and over entitle donors to membership in the local branch of the Victorian Order, however, it is hoped many larger contributions will be received during this campaign as during other campaigns in the past.

15 Successful In Music Exams

Fifteen Digby pupils passed local centre examinations in music set by Mount Allison University last week.
Conducting the examinations was Prof. Harold S. Hamer, F.R.C.A., director of music at Mount Allison.
Prof. Hamer commented on the progress of the group during the past year and said their interest was evident in the excellent showing they made. Seven members of this year's group passed with honors and several others almost reached the honor mark in their performances.
Pupils writing the examinations were: Grade one, Sandra Franklin, Anne Brittain; Grade two, Beverly Webber; Grade three, Barbara Coffett, Phyllis Cook, Marilyn Marshall, Kathleen Dakin, Valerie Young, Richard Levy; Grade four, Betty Dakin, Frank Tingley; Grade five, Vera Warner, Margaret MacLean; Grade six, Muriel Levy, David Morehouse.
Mrs. Louise J. Stephen was the teacher.

Kiwanis Governor To Visit Digby

On Friday evening Digby will be the scene of an important inter-club meet when the Kiwanis Clubs of Digby and Yarmouth will be officially visited by Walter Stewart, Kiwanis Governor for the Ontario-Quebec-Maritime district, and by Al Savage, district lieutenant governor.
The visitation will take place at the Myrtle House, Digby where supper will be served at 6:15 p. m. Local Kiwanians are particularly asked to note this meeting will take place on Friday rather than on the usual Thursday.
Not only will the event be important because of the visit of both the governor and the lieutenant governor, but the Yarmouth club, who are coming to Digby for this occasion, are bringing "Oscar" with them, thus making the event a real triple-header.
"Oscar" is being carried from club to club to encourage inter club meetings, and after he is left in Digby by the Yarmouth Club, the Digby boys will have to carry him to another club to be announced later.

Opening Game Of Baseball League Scheduled

The opening game of the Nova Scotia Western Valley Intermediate Baseball League will be held at the Athletic Field, Digby, on Wednesday, June 4, at 3:30 p. m., it was recently announced.
Meeting Wednesday afternoon will be teams from Digby and Cornwallis. A good schedule of games has been arranged for the summer, and a great deal of interest in baseball should be aroused.

To Hold Boxing Matches July 1st

Plans are proceeding rapidly for the holding of boxing matches in connection with the Board of Trade's July 1st Fair, according to Fred Cookson, Fair Manager.
Mr. Cookson states fighters are being brought from Saint John, Chatham, N. E., and Yarmouth. It is expected the main event will be a bout between a Digby fighter and one from St. John. Edward Morrissey is chairman of the committee in charge of the boxing while Fred Cookson will referee the fights.

Infant Baptized on HMCS "Haida"

On the Haida—It was Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.
Thus did Judith Ann Butchart, daughter of Petty Officer and Mrs. A. Butchart receive her name, in a ceremony that was the first of its kind to be held aboard the famed warship, HMCS Haida. Her dad has been a member of the Royal Canadian Navy for the past few years, has seen much action himself and it seemed right and just that his only child, dressed in the traditional christening gown, should have such a baptism, unique and memorable to her parents.
The ceremony was performed by Naval Chaplain Bruce Peglar at an improvised, flag draped

Shown in the picture, left to right are Mrs. Claude Keayes, godmother; Miss Betty Cochrane, godmother; P.C. and Mrs. Butchart; Lieut. Commander F. C. Caldwell, commanding officer of the ship; Judith Anne and Chaplain Peglar. Present, but not in the picture, was Dr. Keayes, godfather.—(Picture by Polischuk.)—Cut courtesy Halifax Daily Star.
Judith Ann Butchart is a daughter of P.O. and Mrs. A. Butchart, nee Anne McGregor, daughter of Mrs. S. B. McGregor and the late Dr. McGregor of Smith's Cove.)

Mrs. Edward MacKay of Sandy Cove was a visitor in town last week.
Frances Woodman spent the week end with her sister in Aylesford.

About This and That

Commencing this week the COURIER will carry a series of four articles entitled "Ten Years With the Canadian Legion." We do this so that the general public, particularly those in the ranks of the ex-service men and women may have a clearer insight into the set-up and operation of this most worthy organization.

Today the Canadian Legion has a paid-up membership of 300,000 with 2,400 branches and auxiliaries in Canada and the United States. During 1946 the Legion secured for pensioners more than $500,000 in pensions. These cases were on behalf of men who in the main had been rejected previously by the Pension Commission and had applied to the Legion for assistance. The Canadian Legion shows no discrimination in dealing with veterans. The services of the organization are entirely at their disposal whether or not they are members of the Legion.

The faith that readily moves mountains is not above using dynamite and steam shovels as assistants.

The Digby Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses opens its annual June Membership Drive on Monday of next week. The campaign will continue until June 15.

We take pleasure in asking the Digby public to give their whole-hearted support to this drive, for the Digby Branch of the Victorian Order is deserving of that support. During the twenty-six years the Victorian Order has provided nursing service in Digby, thousands of patients of many races, and creeds have been cared for. The Victorian Order Nurse in addition to her regular nursing visits spends many hours in the public schools and St. Patrick's Convent where she inspects hundreds of pupils and administers minor treatments, and through her vigilance in this way many a serious epidemic has been checked in its early stages.

The maternity service of the V. O. N. includes instruction during the pre-natal period, assistance at births in the home, and daily visits to give post-natal care and instruction to mothers and babies; in addition there are the Friday afternoon "Baby Clinics" at the Court House.

Space does not permit us to go into detail regarding mothercraft classes, industrial nursing and other valuable services rendered in Digby by the V. O. Nurse, but our readers are well aware of these activities.

We are particularly pleased to note this year's campaign advertisement is sponsored and endorsed by the men of the medical and dental professions in Digby; follow their advice and give the V. O. N. your financial help in this present campaign.

When you find a girl who "knows all the answers", make up your mind that she has been travelling with lads who "asked all the questions".

During the war, when citizens were being urged to buy war savings certificates, some mild resentment was expressed by parents about the message on the billboards to the effect that four dollars equalled five.

The objections were not taken seriously and although some parents had to undertake the task of explaining compound interest to their offspring, the war savings campaigns were successful.

They may have been too successful, for government propagandists seem to have concluded that they can do anything with figures and the answers to their sums will be unquestioned. At the moment the bright brains of the War-time Prices and Trade Board are engaged in proving that three equals four.

This is in connection with the increased sugar ration which came into effect on April 1. The WPTB press release blandly states that the increase in consumer ration to eight pounds a quarter gives the consumer four pounds more sugar than he got in 1946. It is conveniently forgotten that one quarter had already passed when the increase became effective, so that only three pounds over the former ration is definitely premised for the calendar year.

It is also forgotten that consumers received an extra three pounds in the final quarter of 1946, so that the total ration for 1947 (including ten pounds of canning sugar) looks as if it would be exactly the same as in 1946, namely, 41 pounds.

Failing to return a borrowed article—especially books—is diplomatic stealing.

Eugene Comeau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waters Comeau, Digby, Neck, was one of the boys of the New Glasgow High School Boys Chorus who won high praise at the New Glasgow Music Festival for their rendition of John Massfield's "Sea Fever." Sir Ernest MacMillan of the Toronto Conservatory of Music was adjudicator.

Mrs. Vivian Jones has returned to Digby after spending a few days with her daughters at Westport. She was accompanied by her daughter, Meredith Jones.

Post Nuptial

Shower Held

A post nuptial shower was held Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Scott MacKay (nee Florence Berry) at the home of Misses Frances and Joan Weir. The gifts, attractively arranged under a gaily decorated umbrella, were presented to the bride by Rev. R. S. Dunn.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Assisting in serving were Mrs. M. S. Bailey, Mrs. G. Adams, Misses Jean Adams, Isabel Cossitt and Joan Weir.

Mrs. MacKay received many lovely and useful gifts, including silver, linen and dishes.

Smith's Cove

Captain Stanley Smith, Halifax, spent the week end visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Balcom spent the week end visiting friends at Yarmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Teale of Wolfville were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sulis.

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

There's a purpose back of Pontiac!

When you own a Pontiac you can be sure it is deliberately designed and built to give you a certain type of value.

First of all, it is designed to give you fine performance—really fine performance—performance that will give you a thrill every time you take the wheel. This applies to the engine, to the car's roominess and comfort, to its roadability and handling ease.

Yet—Pontiac is also designed to give you economy—to operate inexpensively—to be easy on service—and to last a long, long time. In short, Pontiac is designed to give complete satisfaction—at the lowest possible cost.

This is always true of Pontiac. So regardless of when you expect to get your next car—make it a Pontiac. It's a wonderful value.

The stack of orders piled up for the new Pontiac are gratifying testimonials to the quality and beauty of this facet of the famous Silver Streaks. Unfortunately, so many orders also mean that many who choose Pontiac must wait. So if your car-wise head and heart say "Pontiac"... your present car will give you better, safer service while you wait if you have it checked regularly by a General Motors dealer.

And here's what's back of PONTIAC'S extra value

BEAUTY —Distinctive Silver Strick Styling • New massive front end design • more graceful styling throughout. COMFORT —Big, roomy Body by Fisher • Famous Triple-Cushioned Ride • More Luxurious Interiors • Shock-Proof Knee-Action • Fisher No-Draft Ventilation • Remarkable Handling Ease. DEPENDABILITY —Smooth, powerful L-Head six or eight cylinder engines • Full Pressure Metrol Flow Lubrication • Permanent, Highly Efficient Oil Cleaner. BIG TOURIST SEASON AHEAD !

THE THOMPSONS are busy as bees, getting their place in shape for the tourist season. This year, with three more cabins, electricity and a modernized kitchen, they hope to do even better than before.

They were able to make these additions because last fall Mr. Thompson drove to town to see his bank manager. He knew about the nice little business the Thompsons had built up; a bank loan was quickly arranged.

Now the Thompsons can handle more tourists and increase their income. At the same time Canada will benefit from the extra tourist dollars they take in.

THIS IS ONE INSTANCE of how Canada's 3,200 branch banks play their part in the daily life and work of Canadians.

IN MEMORIAM—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. John Riley, who departed this life May 26, 1944. Beautiful memories are all we have left. Of her we loved dearly and never forget. Her loving smile and happy face A broken link we can never replace. Sad was the parting, no one can tell, So sudden on earth the sorrow fell. Memories are treasures no one can steal. Death leaves a heartache nothing can heal. —Sadly missed by her sons and daughters. 37:1ip

Church Point Home and School Meets

The monthly meeting of the Church Point branch of the Home and School Association was held at Church Point last Wednesday evening with 21 members in attendance.

Rain prevented more of the members from attending.

A discussion on ways and means to raise monies to pay for the branch's portion for the removal of tonsils already undertaken was the main feature of the meeting. It was decided to hold a Card Party at which the famous French Acadian dish, pate a la rapure, would be sold at auction.

The members will donate the pate a la rapure as well as the different prizes.

Due to illness of some of the members, it was decided to set the date for the proposed field day to next month. Plans are going forward towards organizing the field day in which the school children will participate and it is hoped that it will prove successful.

Plan Your Meals With Care

A Well Planned Meal is Already Half Prepared

One hard and fast rule in the game of eating for health is that all of the essential food materials must be provided somewhere in the three meals eaten daily. The foods which provide them are the "must" foods. Milk provides protein, carbohydrates, fats minerals, vitamins and water. Today's school children average at least two inches taller than the school children of fifty years ago — and milk has played its part in this improved physique.

"What a thrill to take the wheel of a smart new Oldsmobile..."

HERE'S an up-to-the-minute version of that grand old tune, "In My Merry Oldsmobile". In the new words you'll find one of the outstanding reasons why Oldsmobile owners are so enthusiastically singing the praises of the 1947 Oldsmobile. What a smart looking car it is! . . . Long and low and smooth in its lines—tailored just to your taste. It's a smart performer, too, and it offers all the features you want.

"You'll be fresh when you arrive thanks to Hydra-Matic Drive..."

You go places with less effort in a new Oldsmobile with GM Hydra-Matic Drive. Yet you get livelier performance, better economy, and greater safety than you did in old-fashioned driving. Hydra-Matic Drive is the only fully proved, fully automatic drive—and it's at its peak in the 1947 Oldsmobile!

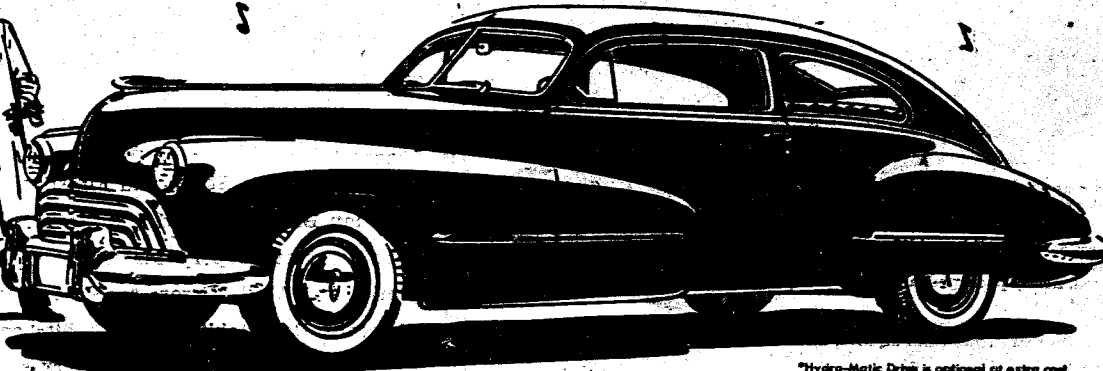

*"Just forget the clutch and gear
— all you do is sit and steer..."*

There's no clutch pushing with GM Hydra-Matic Drive—not even a clutch pedal in the car. And all gear shifting is automatic, through all four forward speeds. Just take the wheel of an Oldsmobile and sit back in comfort, enjoying the smoothest driving you've ever known!

"What a happy day it will be for you when your Oldsmobile is here!"

To you who are waiting for your new Oldsmobile—our thanks for your patience . . . our tribute to your wisdom. The demand for Oldsmobile with the new GM Hydra-Matic Drive is so widespread that it still greatly exceeds the supply. Make sure your present car carries you conveniently and safely through the waiting period by having it checked regularly by your GM dealer.

Hydra-Matic Drive is optional at extra cost.

The Steady Subscriber

How dear to our hearts is the steady subscriber, Who pays in advance at the birth of the year, Who lays down his money and does it quite gladly, And casts round the office a halo of cheer.

He never says "Stop it; I cannot afford it, I'm getting more papers than now I can read." But always says "Send it; our people all like it; In fact we all think it a help and a need."

How welcome his cheque when it reaches our sanctum! How it makes our pulse throb! How it makes our heart dance!

We outwardly thank him; we inwardly bless him, The steady subscriber who pays in advance.

—Glasgow Cathedral Magazine.

Says Meteghan Yard Not Sold

Absolute denial of a statement attributed to J. K. Bell, Secretary-treasurer of the Maritime Marine Workers Federation, that the Atlantic Shipyards Limited at Meteghan were taken over by a Boston concern, was made over the week end by J. F. Deveau, president of the Atlantic company.

The story was carried in Friday's provincial press and told of a Boston concern's plan of taking over the Meteghan yards for the building of trawlers.

Mr. Bell, when queried, said that he had been misquoted and asked that a correction be made. He had, he said, told last week's convention of the Marine Workers' Federation that the name of the South Shore shipyard had been changed on re-organization to the Atlantic Shipyards Limited, and that Boston interests were planning to have trawlers built at Meteghan.

Mr. Deveau was most emphatic in his assertion that the Meteghan yard is to continue under the present management and said that increased activity is expected by his firm this year.

Clare Man Injured In Highway Accident

Albert Thibideau of Meteghan Centre is a patient in the Yarmouth Hospital suffering from a broken leg and possible fracture of the skull as a result of a car accident near his home last Wednesday night.

Thibideau was struck down while walking along the highway about 9:45 p. m. by a car driven by Luke Comeau, also of Meteghan Centre.

Comeau was later placed under arrest by R.C.M.P. on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

A Fool!

A fool there is and he drives a car,
Even as you and I.
But he drinks and drives from bar to bar,
And tries to drive like a shooting star,
For the fool thinks he's away above par:
He really feels quite "high."

Some night he'll be crushed in his foolish skin,
When he crashes into a tree,
His friends will all say what a fool he had been,
To drive at such speed with his hide full of gin;
But all they will do is condole with his kin Aand regret that such things must be.

Oh, we waste lots of words and we waste lots of cash,
And our tears would make swimming pools.
But the taverns still flourish on every hand,
And liquor is flowing all over the land,
But this could be stopped if we'd take a firm stand:
So really now, who are the fools?

—Alice McBride (In the Independence, Mc., Examiner.)

"THAT WAY WITH WOMEN"

At Oakland, California, on Mother's Day, Mrs. Ida M. Everett was selected out of one hundred mothers to be specially honored for the day. The selection was made through the "Quiet Hour Radio Program."

Mrs. Everett was escorted to the platform of the beautiful white chapel which was arranged like a living room with beautiful flowers in evidence, and was seated in a white arm chair and presented with a bouquet of dark red carnations, baby breath and maiden hair fern.

Mrs. Everett went through the large crowd and pinned white and red carnations on everyone present.

A young singer from Los Angeles placed her arm over Mrs. Everett's shoulder, faced the audience, and sang "That Wonderful Mother of Mine."

After talking about Mothers of the Bible, Mrs. Everett was introduced as a modern, ideal mother of the present day and age.

At the broadcast previous to the Chapel ceremony, one of Mrs. Everett's poems entitled "My Mother", written for her mother, Mrs. A. Laura Graham of Centreville, was read.

Mrs. Everett is now residing with her daughter, Arlene (Mrs. Lawrence Silva) of Oakland, California. Last year she spent the summer months in the East visiting her son, Rodney G. Dakin and family of West Roxbury, Mass., and her mother in Nova Scotia.

St. Ann's Wins Over Digby

St. Ann's marked up another victory to their credit when they won from Digby by a score of 10-2 on the college diamond on Sunday afternoon. The game was closely played until the fourth inning when St. Ann's held a 1-0 edge on the play, but in the fourth they scored four more runs. In this inning Morehouse, who was on the mound for Digby, allowed but two hits in a row and after putting away the next batter on a nice play of pitcher to first, three errors in a row by Turnbull, Saulnier and Barr scored the four runs mentioned. Morehouse was in difficulties again in the sixth when four runs were chalked up for St. Ann's.

Young Al Gaudet pitching for St. Ann's, held Digby well in check, holding them scoreless until the fifth when Digby scored their first run and then in the sixth when the collegians made a miscue, Digby came through with two hits in succession to score their second and last run. Gaudet allowed five hits, struck out nine, and walked four batters.

Morehouse allowed six hits, walked six and struck out four. Digby was credited with nine miscues and St. Ann's, three.

Ten Years With The Canadian Legion

(This is the first in a series of four articles telling the story of the Canadian Legion during the last ten years)

The period under review represents a decade, during which World War II was fought and brought to a successful military conclusion. The period of reconstruction and the establishment of peace may well occupy the next decade.

From 1937 until the outbreak of war the Canadian Legion, seized with the possibility of armed conflict, prepared itself for two great war tasks:

The First, was to provide whatever aid was possible for a veteran organization to render to the Armed Forces;

The Second was to give early consideration to a rehabilitation program so that when the fighting man returned to civil life adequate preparations would be made to receive him.

In respect to the first item of policy the Canadian Legion organized and carried out the following projects:

(1)—In 1939 the Legion conducted a survey among veterans and secured some 70,000 names and addresses of volunteers who were prepared, upon call, to serve their country in any capacity, but particularly to deal with saboteurs and Fifth Column activities. Fortunately the latter did not develop to any great extent in Canada, but from among the legion volunteers thousands of security guards were secured as auxiliary to Police Forces for governmental agencies and even private corporations. The register also was useful in securing professional and skilled workers for war industries before national registration and Selective Service became effective.

(2)—A campaign was started by the Legion to urge the country and the government to organize on a "total war" basis. In this respect the Legion undoubtedly gave leadership to the country, which resulted in the Government calling a plebiscite on the question of the compulsory use of manpower for the Army.

(3)—The steps taken by the Legion to get some special work for the veterans in the war effort resulted in the formation of The Veterans' Guard of Canada, recruited entirely from among veterans of World War I. One company of the Veterans' Guard saw service in Great Britain, others in Bermuda and British Guiana. The main task, however, was the guarding of approximately 35,000 internees and prisoners of war in various parts of Canada.

(4)—A survey conducted in 1943 to estimate the enlistments from Legion sources indicated that by that time some 100,000 Legion members and their sons and daughters had enlisted in the Armed Forces. This impressive figure was undoubtedly considerably augmented during the last three years of the conflict.

(5)—The Legion developed a desire to serve the Armed Forces while they were on active service. The example of the Y. M. C. A. and Salvation Army in World War I inspired the formation of Canadian Legion War Services, which, together with the Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army and Knights of Columbus provided auxiliary services to the Armed Forces.

Members of the Legion, however, remembering the long periods when servicemen have nothing to do, conceived the idea that their time might be usefully employed in self-education. In making its representations, therefore, to the Department of National Defence to be permitted to provide some auxiliary services to the Armed Forces, the Legion included education among the types of services it was prepared to render.

The building up of Canadian Legion Education Services into a unique educational institution was brought about by securing the cooperation of the provincial educational authorities in the nine provinces of Canada and enlisting the wholehearted support of many prominent educationalists. As the training of Canada's citizen army progressed, the need for education in military subjects as an essential to that training became apparent and the Armed Services found they could meet their needs through Canadian Legion Educational Services. Thus, an educational program which was designed to meet the voluntary efforts of servicemen to educate themselves actually became essential to the training of the Armed Forces.

All these activities were carried on by a subsidiary organization known as "Canadian Legion War Services, Incorporated", and the winding up process of this organization is now being carried out. Any funds realized from the disposal of assets will be turned over to the Department of National Defence for inclusion in the Canteen Fund to be used for the benefit of veterans. It is significant that none of the auxiliary service organizations received any monetary benefit as a result of their operations. Any profits derived from Canteen operations were either made available to the Units in behalf of whom they were operated, or accumulated in a central fund which now amounts to approximately two million ($2,000,000) dollars. These funds will eventually form part of the Canadian Canteen Fund, which will be disposed of for the benefit of veterans in accordance with the terms laid down by an Act of Parliament.

The Canadian Legion may indeed be proud of its war effort. It set an example to all elements of the country; it had a steady effect when compulsory measures were being introduced and it exerted an influence on the Nation and on the Government on several important issues.

Civic Election Declared Valid

Cardoza, Warner Retain Seats ---Petitioners to Pay Costs

A written decision declaring the civic election held in Digby on February 4, 1947, as valid, and the election of Councillors Victor G. Cardoza and Albert S. Warner as legal, was handed down yesterday by County Court Judge Kenneth L. Crowell.

A petition asking that the election be set aside and declared invalid was filed shortly after the election date by M. S. Leonard acting on behalf of F. L. Anderson and H. M. Warner. These petitioners asked the election be set aside on account of certain irregularities which they alleged existed. The case was heard before Judge Crowell in Digby on April 11th., and adjourned until May 20th., when briefs and arguments were presented at Little Brook.

Dudley Dickie, who was elected on February 4th., was named in the petition which declared his election invalid because he was at the time Medical Health Officer for the Town. He did not oppose the petition nor did the Town Clerk, who was also named. Opposing the petition were Cardoza and Warner, who were represented by V. J. Pottier, K.C., of Yarmouth. M. S. Leonard represented the petitioners and security was provided on their behalf by F. R. Eisener and E. B. Richardson.

In part Judge Crowell's decision, which declared the election of Cardoza and Warner as valid and allowed them costs, which were also allowed to Dr. Dickie, stated:

"As for Dudley Dickie, I find that as medical health officer, he held an office under the Town Council within the meaning of section 53, 1b of the Towns Incorporated Act, and as such, he was not qualified to be nominated or elected a councillor, his election is therefore void.

"Since Dudley Dickie had nothing whatever to do with his nomination, and further, since he was never sworn in as councillor, and that he filed the required notice after the filing of the petition herein to the effect that he did not intend to contest the said petition, it would be decidedly unfair to award costs against him; consequently the prayer of the petitioners insofar as it related to Dudley Dickie is granted, but without costs.

"As for Albert Warner, it is contended that he is disqualified to act as councillor either by section 53, 1, b, of the aforesaid act, that he holds an office under the town Council, or by section 54, 1, c, that he has entered into a contract with the town for the performance of work and labour."

"Section 53, 1, b, is as follows:—No person shall be qualified to be elected councillor who holds an office under the town council to which any salary or remuneration payable out of the funds of the town is attached."

"Does Warner come within the above section? I do not think he does. The only office held by him is secretary treasurer of the Digby Fire Company, to which he was appointed or elected by the members of this company and not by the Town Council. Such a company is recognized by section 211 of this act, and, although by this same section this company is (Continued on Page Five)

Survivors Of The LGP Arrive Home

Eight Nova Scotia scallop fishermen, survivors of the little Scallop dragger, L. G. P., arrived in Digby Saturday morning via S. S. Princess Helene, from Saint John, en route to their homes in Pubnico. The scallopers cheated Davy Jones on Thursday morning when their little craft was rammed by the steamer, Rockwood Park, on George's Banks, about 150 miles off the Massachusetts coast.

In an interview Saturday morning, Capt. Harvey d'Eon, of the little scalloper, told the accident took place in thick fog about 8:15 Thursday morning. He and five members of his crew were on deck at the time. They heard a blast from the steamer's whistle, then her hull loomed up out of the fog. "It was too late to do anything but to try and save our lives."

The Rockwood Park, he said, struck the scalloper on the port side, just abreast of the foremast, and then came alongside. Capt. d'Eon said he managed to jump aboard, then the steamer and the little scalloper drifted apart. His crew were trying to get off in their lifeboat when the Rockwood Park came alongside again and the members of the scallop dragger were then able to hop aboard the big steamship.

At the time of the collision, five of the crew on the deck of the scalloper were Capt. Harvey d'Eon, Elize d'Entrement, Clarence d'Entrement and Harold d'Entrement and Henry d'Entrement. The captain's brother, Fidelis d'Eon and Delphis d'Entrement, were below icing the catch, while the cook, Andrew Surette, was busy in the galley. It was really merely a matter of minutes before all were safely on board the Rockwood Park. They escaped in the clothes in which they stood—their other clothes and personal possessions went down with the L. G. P.

"When we last saw the L. G. P., her port rail and spars were all that remained out of water," said Capt. d'Eon. "That was about twenty minutes after the collision."

Captain d'Eon and his crew spoke very kindly of Captain Charles Stewart of the Rockwood Park, who landed them in Saint John at 11:15 Friday morning. At Saint John they put up at the Raymond Hotel, and crossed the Bay of Fundy to Digby this morning. From Digby they went by rail to Yarmouth, continuing by car to their homes in West Pubnico.

While in Saint John they broadcast their experiences over "CBC News Roundup" via the facilities of radio station CHSJ. They were accompanied to the studio by Capt. A. E. LeBlanc of the Lady Rodney. Capt. LeBlanc is also a native of West Pubnico, and did much to assist the shipwrecked men from his home town while they were in Saint John.

Capt. d'Eon and his crew are well known in Digby from which port they operated their scallop dragger, L. G. P., during the winter scallop fishing season. At the close of the season in territorial waters, they began operations in the George's Banks area and had made two trips. They told the press that upward of fifty boats, mostly American craft, are dragging scallops in those waters.

Yarmouth Prices

Board Office To Close

In line with other Wartime Prices and Trade Board economy moves to consolidate the administration of price controls and rationing under the larger regional offices, Yarmouth, like several other branch W.P.T.B. offices is closing June 30th., according to R. F. Johnson, Regional Prices and Supply Representative. Mr. Johnson explained that the closing of the local office in Yarmouth did not mean that rental controls were removed. He said that any price or rental problems, or any matters concerning W.P.T.B. activities in Yarmouth and district, will after June 30th. be handled by the Halifax Regional Office.

Sea Cadets Have Exciting Trip

Considerable concern was felt in Digby Sunday night over the fate of some twenty-eight members of the local Sea Cadet Corps who were spending the week end on Bear Island.

The boys, under the leadership of Charles McBride, had gone to the island in two cutters and were expected back on Sunday night. Winds of gale force had whipped the Basin all afternoon and when nothing was heard from the youngsters by ten o'clock an alarm was sent to the Life Saving Station and the Life Boat put out to the Island.

Mountainous seas prevented the lifeboat landing and no contact could be made with the boys whom it was thought were still on the island. The lifeboat returned to Digby and found that both cutters with their crews of youngsters had arrived safely home.

Leaving the island about ten-thirty during a lull in the storm the boats had followed the coast line of the Basin around to Digby. Charles McBride, leader of the group, stated the boats kept within ten or fifteen feet of the shore all the way to Digby. None of the boys were frightened, he said, but all were enjoying the excitement of the trip. With Mr. McBride, and in charge of the second cutter, was his father, C. F. McBride. Eight of the younger members of the party were returned to Digby earlier in the day by motor boat, and only the cutter oarsmen, ten to a boat, were left to return at night. A little over an hour and a half was taken in crossing the Basin by following the shore line, and Mr. McBride said the boys hardly missed a stroke, even when the spray blanketed their boats.

While on the island the youngsters had a marvellous time and cleared a good deal more of the underbrush. It is planned to locate a permanent Sea Cadet camp there in the near future. At night the lads slept in hammocks slung between the trees. These were slung in three tiers, the top one being a good distance from the ground. Rations enough were taken. Mr. McBride said, to last the party at least three days, but appetites were so stimulated by the excitement and work that a lot of ingenuity had to be used to get enough together to make the evening meal on Sunday.

Hold Exhibition At Academy

Proud parents of Digby's younger pupils last Friday gathered at Digby Academy to witness a demonstration of their children's work since school opened last fall. On display were cutouts, crayon work, exercise books, plasticine modellings, classwork and seatwork of all description.

The work displayed at the exhibition, which included Grades I, II and III, was extremely well done and demonstrated the fine efforts of the teachers in training the youngsters. Some of the drawings and colourings showed signs of budding artistic talents of a high quality while examples of penmanship and other seatwork on display showed the youngsters were taking an active interest in their work.

During the exhibition teachers of the three grades met the parents of the pupils and discussed school problems with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Sypher Morrell were recent visitors to Freeport at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Morrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beckwith and family were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Phinney of Paradise.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Kirkpatrick recently were visited by H. Trinder, his daughter Marion, and L. York, all of Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. William Clayton and two children were holiday week end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Feindell of Beaconsfield.

Red Cross Medals Presented

At a colorful ceremony in the Court House yesterday afternoon Red Cross Service Medals were presented to several members of the local branch of the Red Cross Society for long and faithful service.

Receiving the medals, which were presented by Miss Elizabeth O. R. Brown, Provincial Director Junior Red Cross, were Miss Bessie Turnbull, for over twenty years' service; Miss Vera Mason, fifteen years; and Miss Dorothy Moses, fifteen years. Miss Moses' presentation was made in absentia as she is at present in the United States.

Mrs. T. E. G. Lynch, Honorary president of the Digby branch, Senior Red Cross, presented War Service Medals to Mrs. H. M. Warner, Mrs. F. J. Thibault and Rev. Dr. T. W. Hodgson. In making the presentation Mrs. Lynch paid high tribute to the work of the recipients in the Red Cross, particularly during the war years. Mrs. Lynch commented on the fine leadership given the Digby branch by Dr. Hodgson during the years he has been president.

Following the presentation of the medals, afternoon tea was served to the many who attended the ceremony. This afternoon gathering marked the closing of the branch for the summer months. They will re-open in September and have an extensive program of work laid out for the winter months.

Woman Killed In Collision

One woman was killed almost instantly, and four other women and three men narrowly escaped serious injuries, when the cars in which they were riding were involved in a violent collision on the main highway at Saulnierville at 10 a.m. Saturday.

The dead woman is Mrs. Ger Hemeon, 63, of Gloucester, Mass who suffered a broken arm, head and other injuries. She died within a few minutes after the crash.

An inquest was held Monday at 3 p.m. at Little Brook with Magistrate J. M. Comeau, acting coroner, presiding.

R. C. M. Police of the local detachment investigated the fatal crash. They said the automobile in which Mrs. Hemeon, and four other women were passengers was driven by Clifford E. Barkhouse, Gloucester, Mass., who was proceeding on Route 1 towards Digby.

The crash occurred on the main highway of this Nova Scotia village when the car containing the women crashed into another car driven by Enos Saulnier of Comeauville, who was driving out of a driveway onto the main road.

The crash was so violent, witnesses told police, that the impact threw the American car on its side and it overturned. Mrs. Hemeon was riding in the front seat and was unconscious when dragged from the overturned vehicle.

Fined On "Hit and Run" Charge

Pleading guilty to a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident, Edward Melbourne Boudreau of Church Point was last Thursday morning fined $50 and costs, or in default of payment, a term of thirty days in the County Jail by Magistrate G. H. Peters.

The accident out of which the charge arose took place on Sunday, May 25th., when the truck driven by Boudreau struck the car of Ernest C. Wright of Bear River, badly damaging it and forcing it off the road. The three passengers in the car were unhurt but damages to the vehicle are said to amount to over two hundred dollars. The accident happened on the main road to Annapolis at Conway, some three miles from Digby.

Faye Saunders, V. O. Nurse, recently visited friends and relatives in Saint John, and also her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) R. Barker of Hampton, N. B.

She Saw 24,000 Killed In Day

When the Aquitania docked in Halifax recently, it brought to Canada a very charming young lady, Miss Ursula Ruth Nafthal, who had acted as interpreter for the 500 immigrants during the voyage, and who plans to make her home in Middleton with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Nafthal.

A Lithuanian citizen, Miss Nafthal was taken prisoner by the Germans at the outbreak of war and was subjected to slavery in various concentration camps.

All of Miss Nafthal's family in Europe were victims of their captors. While in slavery she suffered unbelievable hardships and shameful indignities. The sight of seeing 24,000 innocent people slaughtered before her eyes will not easily be forgotten.

In 1945 this pretty young lady was liberated by Canadian troops and for two years she served as interpreter for the Canadian and British occupation forces.

Miss Nafthal speaks the English language very fluently and also speaks three other languages.

When Mr. and Mrs. Max Nafthal, who have been residing in Middleton for the past several years, were on a trip to England this spring, they greeted their niece when she arrived in England.

It was the first meeting in nine years.

Mr. Nafthal is well known in Digby where he operates an extensive pitprop business.

Pupils Give Recital

A recital was given by the piano pupils of Louise J. Stephen, assisted by Miss Gertrude Scilly and Mr. Murray Elliott, in the Baptist Church Hall last Thursday evening.

For most of the young pianists it was a first public appearance, and they deserve great credit for the manner in which they performed. All, even the youngest, had well established tone and an intelligent idea of phrasing, and although interpretation was not always as well defined as might be desired, that could be put down as an effect of nervousness. We look forward to future recitals, and to the development of these young artists.

Those who have heard Miss Scilly and Mr. Elliott sing before, were delighted to repeat the experience. Both were in excellent voice, and sang with deep appreciation of the meaning of their songs. They were accompanied by Miss Stephen at the piano.

MARRIAGE

Bent - Lowe

A quiet wedding of interest to many in this community was solemnized in Bridgetown on Saturday evening when Miss Shirley Margaret Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solly Lowe of Bridgetown, was married to Donald Francis Bent, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Bent, Lawrenceville, in the presence of the young couple's immediate relatives and intimate friends.

Rev. A. G. Robertson, pastor of Bridgetown Baptist Church, conducted the ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of brown wool of particularly smart styling, of the dressmaking type, with small, brown off-the-face hat, and matching accessories, with a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's brother, Harley Lowe, was best man.

Her sister, Miss Frances Lowe, was bridesmaid, wearing a black suit, with small black hat and accessories, and a white nylon blouse and white gloves. Her corsage was of pink roses.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bent left on a motor trip. Mrs. Bent has been with the Eaton Shopping Service, Bridgetown, for several years, and will continue in her present position for a time.

Mr. Bent is on the staff of Shortt's Grocery, Digby.

About This and That

One morning this week we witnessed a truck load of meat being unloaded at a local store. The result was we decided we would have fish for dinner!

In this particular instance the truck body had a none too sanitary appearance; sides of beef were piled on top of one another—with a few wrapped in osseburg or burlap bags that looked more like unwashed potato sacks; the driver of the truck who carried the carcasses into the store wore an old leather jacket that showed evidence of many a side of beef being wiped over the front of it, and a pair of dark trousers. He wore no apron in spite of the fact the meat was pressed against his street clothes in the handling.

In fairness to the store receiving the meats, the clerk who assisted in the handling of the meats, was neatly attired, and wore a clean white apron over his street clothes.

The instance we refer to is no exception. The scene can be duplicated, or nearly so, almost every day of the week. Such scenes not only cause us to lose our appetite for the home product, but cause us to wonder just what conditions are in the slaughter houses where this meat is processed—in fact, we wonder, after reading many articles on black market meats and contaminated meats, just how our local product (including slaughtering and handling conditions) would stand up under an honest and unbiased inspection.

The Cost of Bread

An open letter to our many Friends:

On the eight o'clock news broadcast on May 27, it was reported that a Buyer's Strike was being agitated against the high cost of certain foods.

This letter is to correct an erroneous impression that has been created in that BREAD was specifically included in the announcement as a higher cost food.

The above is slim return for the magnificent contribution of the long war years on the part of the Baking Industry. Perhaps, however, we have been remiss in not blowing our own horn, but the fact remains:—

The Price of Bread was frozen in early war years and has NEVER changed to this day.

Bread today is your Best and is also your most economical food at today's price.

During the past six years, everything the Baker buys, except Flour and Yeast, has advanced in cost substantially, including labour.

Check other foods in your kitchen. Try to find any, except Bread, that have not advanced in the past six years.

Your Baker has done his best with ingredients available and has maintained quality. Your generous approval and support has greatly increased volume with all Bakers, allowing them until this year to absorb advancing costs.

Such costs however continue to rise and the Baker must soon have price relief if payroll and employment is to be maintained.

Due to loss of volume in areas affected by the recent strike, every Baker, in mining districts, lost money on Bread.

The point we wish to emphasize is that the price of bread has not advanced over many years. Bread is your Best and is still the most economical food for your family.

Yours truly,

A. C. SHAW,
Secretary Maritime Bakers Association.

Concert Presented At Lr. Comeauville

The Sewing Club at Lower Comeauville School presented a very interesting concert at their school last Thursday evening with a good attendance.

Several playlets and songs made up the program.

An opening chorus made up of a group of girls sang "Bien-venu" (Welcome) and this was followed by the playlets: "Susan, la Coquette"; "The Census Taker"; "Cat Pie" in pantomime; and "The Sewing Circle"; "Little Workers"; "La Chaise Peinte" (The Painted Chair); and "Tuning In", interspersed with songs and tap dancing by the school pupils.

Members of the Kiwanis Club of Yarmouth journeyed to Digby on Friday evening for the occasion of the official visits of Walter Stewart, governor of the Ontario-Quebec-Maritime District of Kiwanis and of Al Savage, lieutenant governor of the Nova Scotia division. The Yarmouth Kiwanians were accompanied by "Oscar"—the disposal of which is now Digby's headache.

On this occasion Chester Levy president of the Digby Club, presided at the table. Before the introduction of the governor, two new members, Frank Slovitt and Karl Young were inducted into the Digby Club by past lieutenant governor, Alonzo MacLelland.

Governor Walter Stewart was introduced to the joint meeting by lieutenant governor Savage. During the course of his address Governor Stewart congratulated the Yarmouth Club on their achievements for the year to date, and the Digby Club for their increase in membership, stating both clubs led the district in the respect mentioned.

He also presented immediate past president Hubert Warne of the Digby Club with a past president's certificate from Kiwanis International.

In his address he commended Kiwanis on the work they are doing for the underprivileged, but urged special attention be paid to another group—those young people who have the aptitude to become leaders in later years. He stressed every effort must be made to encourage these young people and to train their abilities of leadership into the right direction.

At the conclusion of his address the governor was presented with a beautiful hand hooked rug, the gift of the Yarmouth and Digby Clubs.

Earlier in the meeting, C. Fred McBride and Doug Ormond reported on the Career Night to be conducted by Academy pupils on June 6. On this occasion the Director of Apprenticeship Training for Nova Scotia will be guest speaker. The local Kiwanis Club is awarding prizes to students participating in this event.

Miss Lois Porter of Kentville is visiting Miss Gertrude Oliver.

Ford's finer in '47!

For the motorist who likes to get going, the '47 Ford V-8 offers the pep and pull and rippling power of its V-type engine—the type used in the most expensive cars. Low axle ratios let the engine loaf while the car bawls. Result: smoother travelling, less strain, longer engine life.

And there's the newly styled instrument panel with big new dials for easy reading; new body colours, new front end appearance; new stainless steel bumper guards, and many other new features.

Ford is out in front in beauty—in comfort—in performance. Ask your Ford and Monarch dealer about delivery. We hope soon to be catching up with that long list of patient people who won't be satisfied with anything less than Ford V-8 performance for their money.

control of the council that such companies have the power to elect their own officers and members and to make rules, regulations and by-laws for their management, the company is responsible for Warner's election to this office.

Warner come within 54, 1, c, which is as follows: None of the following shall be qualified to be a councillor.....

person who directly or indirectly by himself or by any person as co-partner or otherwise enters into or is directly or indirectly interested in any contract, express or implied, for the performance of any work or labor to or for the town.

Warner by being a member of the Digby Fire Company interested in any contract with the town within the meaning of this section? I take it that the word 'contract' as used here means a 'binding and enforceable agreement.' Is there such an agreement between the members of this company and the town? I do not think so.

It is true that the Town Council in 1941 accepted a proposition put before it by the company whereby, inter alia, each fireman would receive $50.00 per year. This, however, is only what I term for want of a better name, a basic rate, since it was shown on one occasion at least in one of the statements presented to the Council by the said company, that this basic rate was subject to certain deductions for infraction of its by-laws and it might very well be that in some year one or more members may not get any part of this basic rate; therefore it would appear that the town is not obliged in every instance to pay each of the members this basic rate. This in my judgment, is a voluntary arrangement between the members of this company and the Council, and not a contract within the meaning of this section. The prayer of the petitioners insofar as it relates to Albert Warner is therefore disallowed, and I find that his election is valid.

As to the prayer of the petitioners that because Dudley Dickie's name appeared on the ballot when he was ineligible for election, the whole election is void, and, as a consequence thereof, the election of Victor Cardoza is also void: it would appear that under "The Municipal and Towns Controverted Elections Act," an election can only be avoided for 'corrupt practice', and, in an examination of the definition of the term 'corrupt practice' in this and other statutes of Nova Scotia relating to elections, I can find no suggestion that the act complained of herein is remotely included in that definition. Therefore since the act complained of is found not to be 'corrupt practice' within the meaning of the act, the said election is not avoided under the terms of the said act. Nor do I find that this election is avoided by the common law of Parliament. The rule under which an election may be avoided by the common law of Parliament is clearly set out by Lord Coleridge in the case of Woodward v. Samons, 1875, 10 C.P., at page 24 where he states 'we are of opinion that the true statement is that an election is to be declared void by the common law applicable to parliamentary elections, if it was so conducted that the tribunal which is asked to avoid it is satisfied, as a matter of fact, either that there was no real election at all, or that the election was not really conducted under the subsisting election laws. As to the first, the tribunal should be so satisfied, i.e. that there was no real election by the constituency at all, if it was proved to its satisfaction that the constituency was not in fact had a fair and free opportunity of electing the candidate which the majority might prefer.'

In this election, I find that it was carried on properly under the subsisting election laws and that both Cardoza and Warner were elected by a majority vote, consequently it cannot be said that there was no real election by the voters or that they had not elected the candidates of their choice.

The prayer of the petitioners insofar as it relates to Victor Cardoza will also be disallowed and I find that his election is valid. "Albert Warner and Victor Cardoza will be allowed costs on contesting the prayer of the petitioners."

Forty delegates represented four branches comprised of Meteghan River and Lower Saulnierville, Bear River, Smith's Cove and Joggin Bridge, attended the rally which opened at ten in the morning with a hearty welcome extended by Mrs. Mark Longworth of Smith's Cove. Responding to the welcome on behalf of the guests was Mrs. Daniel Tufts of Meteghan.

A highlight of the morning session was a stirring address by Mrs. Elton Smith of Caledonia, Provincial President of WINS.

Miss Mary Powers, Superintendent of WINS, spoke of the work of the institutes in Nova Scotia and elsewhere. Miss E. McGee, of the Home Economics Division of the Department of Agriculture, gave an interesting talk on food diets and nutrition and this was supplemented by a quiz on diets and food preparation conducted by Mrs. Stanley Sabine.

Miss Marion Coffey, also of the Department of Agriculture, suggested a number of ways in which members could incorporate typical Nova Scotia designs into their handiwork, and gave working demonstrations of this feature.

Fine china cups and saucers were presented to Mrs. John Smith of Plympton, by each of the four branches in appreciation of the work she had done and the generous contribution of her hall as a central meeting place for during the war years.

An attractive showing of fancy work, articles of clothing and crayonex pieces produced by each branch, was displayed in the hall during the rally, and pieces were selected for the provincial exhibition.

Ten Years With The Canadian Legion

(This is the second in a series of four articles telling the story of the Canadian Legion during the last ten years.)

Rehabilitation

The second great task undertaken by the Legion was the development of a rehabilitation program, to be ready when demobilization, after victory, should occur. As early as the Dominion Convention in Montreal, in 1940, a Rehabilitation Committee was established which brought in a report, the completeness of which is demonstrated by the fact that all the principle measures proposed therein are now, with appropriate additions, established in legislative form. This program was built up during the war years by the Department of Veterans' Affairs, formerly the Department of Pensions and National Health, in frequent consultation with the Legion. Special departmental and interdepartmental committees were set up by the Government to consider the various proposals and as decisions were reached, Orders-in-Council were passed, on the authority of the War Measures Act, so that even before the close of the war the whole program was more or less in Order-in-Council form and in actual operation, with frequent amendments being made from time to time as experience was gained.

In 1945 a Special Parliamentary Committee was set up to consider the translation of the various Orders-in-Council into legislative form. It required two sessions for the Committee to complete its work. The resulting legislation that was finally passed forms what has come to be known as "The Canadian Veterans' Charter," and covers all phases of the rehabilitation program, including pensions and treatment for the disabled, the widow and the orphan; the extension of War Veterans' Allowance to World War II veterans; provision of a substantial gratuity, and a re-establishment credit, equal in amount to the gratuity, which represents an alternative to other rehabilitation measures, such as university education, vocational training, establishment on the land, or a small holding. Provision was also made for professional and business loans to assist in the rehabilitation of men desiring to go into business for themselves. Altogether Canada has developed a rehabilitation program that is among the most comprehensive in the world, and which has fully justified the determination of Veterans of World War I, and the public generally, to avoid the mistakes of the past.

Housing

Canada also has its housing problem, which bears most heavily on the low income veteran. There are no war devastated areas in Canada but the concentration of population in war industry areas, and the return of men in the Armed Services, thousands of whom were married with small children and in immediate need of housing accommodation, created both a confused and congested post-war condition which the building industry was unable to meet. Every Legion branch found itself the mouthpiece of homeless veterans and began to apply pressure on local authorities to supply emergency housing of some kind. The Federal government established, very largely as a result of pressure on the part of the Legion, a central housing authority, known as the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. This body established an Emergency Housing Division to co-operate with local authorities in reconvertng suitable buildings into low-cost temporary shelter. It directed the efforts of Wartime Housing, established during the war to erect houses for war workers, into the building of low rental houses in co-operation with the local authorities and administers the National Housing Act, under which loans from lending institutions will be backed by the Government, thus making financial terms easier for those who wish to build houses of their own or take advantage of other housing schemes, based on the Housing Act, which are being developed by the Government.

The efforts of the Legion have been concentrated on the problem of the low income group. Without doubt pressure from the Legion encouraged the Government to build some 2500 houses on one-half acre lots, under the terms of the Veterans' Land Act. Later, when the provisions of Wartime Housing were made available to Veterans housing, Legion branches came actively engaged in establishing the necessary relations with local authorities, whose consent and active co-operation were essential before any local project could be got underway. The consequence is that today most large communities have their Wartime Housing projects either completed or underway and many thousands of veterans are established in neat little homes with all the facilities necessary to health and good living. Some 12,800 of these houses have been built and many additional thousands are under construction. Nevertheless they are not being built rapidly enough to overtake the urgent demand.

The Legion has established a National Housing Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. J. L. E. Price, prominent engineer of Montreal, who has expressed the view that the Legion will have to continue pressure for the next five years at the present rate of building before and substantial change in the low income housing picture can be brought about.

Organization and Membership

The advent of the war had an immediate effect upon Legion organization and membership. While the Legion had maintained a very substantial strength throughout the depression period, there was a tendency to think in terms of a declining membership and influence because of advancing age. Such thoughts, however, were quickly dispelled and the Legion again began to grow. New members flocked in by the thousands and new branches were formed, so that with the war work undertaken, the organization increased in stature, strength of purpose and prestige. At a time when every man with qualities of leadership was being absorbed into some war establishment, the leadership of the Legion, which has always been provided on a voluntary basis, continued to be of a remarkably high character.

We felt that with the close contact we were maintaining with the personnel of all the arms of the service, there was an exceptional opportunity to encourage the thought that one strong, united ex-service organization in Canada, after the war.

TEN YEARS WITH LEGION

would serve both veterans and the country best, rather than any attempt to set up parallel or rival organizations. It is a tribute to the common sense of the younger generation that, to date, no substantial effort has been made to create a separate organization for veterans of World War II.

Since the close of the war, the Legion has added 560 branches and 200 ladies' auxiliaries to its list, and membership to date has reached a total of well over 300,000. The total strength of all units at the time of wiring is 1,695 active branches; 725 ladies' auxiliaries; 16 junior auxiliaries; making a total of 2,436 units. Of these 227 branches and auxiliaries are in the United States.

The financial position of the Legion was never better. The bulk of the financial support is received from membership fees. Legion House, Dominion Command Headquarters, has been purchased; substantial reserves have been built up and the facilities for providing service have been increased. Altogether the financial position of the Canadian Legion is both adequate and sound. (To be continued.)

Report of Campaign And Baptism

The United Baptist Churches of Weymouth North and Ashmore held an Evangelistic Campaign from May 12th to 23rd., conducted by Rev. G. D. Brydon of Bear River, and the pastor. Excellent congregations gathered every evening, and solos, duets and quartettes were rendered by local friends and visitors from Bear River.

The Male Voice Choir of the Christian Church, Southville, and the choir of the African Church, Weymouth Falls, greatly assisted in the campaign.

On Sunday, May 25th., at 2:30 the pastor, Rev. F. C. Amery, lead eight persons through the waters of Baptism.

It was a lovely day for the occasion, the weather proving warm and bright, and a large number gathered by the water's edge to witness the performance of this sacred rite.

Later at the Communion Service, thirteen new members were given the right hand of fellowship. Thus greatly encouraged and inspired, the church steps forward in the great work of the Kingdom of God.

One of the largest congregations for some years was present on Wednesday evening last at the Riverside Baptist Church, at a B. Y. P. U. Rally conducted by the Weymouth Young People's Group. Members were present from the societies of Weymouth Falls, Barton, Digby, Hill Grove and Bear River. Special speaker of the evening was Rev. Road
Eggs
Outhouse of Tiverton has word for the Digby Neck and its present condition. It may be rough on the outside but it is sure is good for the chicks, he says.
Three weeks ago Basil moved the Digby to his former home in Tiverton. With him he took the laying eggs "setter." The setting of the eggs under her. The chicks were due to hatch the day Basil moved and before leaving Digby five little chicks had broken the shells. By the time the truck reached Tiverton 12 of the chicks had hatched and all of them lived. Only one egg out of the batch was spoiled.
The rough road not only hatched the chicks, it speeded up the laying hens in their scheduled. Leaving Digby early in the morning, not one egg was laid on the trip down. The truck reached Tiverton at noon and the hens were in their new home by twelve o'clock. By one o'clock fifteen of them had laid and others were waiting to get to the nests. Production has remained high ever since.
Basil says he plans in future to give all his birds a trip over the Neck road before putting them in the laying pens. He hopes work of paving the road will not commence too soon as it will interfere with his egg production.

This Hen Is A "Regular"
While other hens throughout the province may gain passing fame by laying the occasional large egg, Mrs. Herbert Comeau of Digby has a pullet that has established a record in this line. Not only does this hen lay large eggs, but she does it regularly.
Every three weeks, right on the dot, this bird lays an egg, brown in color and measuring 5 1/2 inches around the long end and 3 1/2 inches around the middle. These eggs contain three yolks, all of good size and quality. In between her large eggs, Mrs. Comeau lays regularly every other day an egg of average size, but every three weeks Mr. Comeau has a fried "three-decker" for his breakfast.

And Now —
It's Turtle Eggs
Who wants a dozen turtle eggs? We don't know how soon they can be purchased in such quantities, however, we do know that Barbara Rawding has a few on hand. We understand she is trying to hatch them, and at last reports had three buried in the sand.
In fact, since her little trip last week, Barbara has become quite a student of "turtleology." It happened on her return home she captured a small turtle and decided to keep it for a pet. Shortly after its arrival in Digby the turtle started to lay — its first day's production was two eggs. Two more have been laid since then, but unfortunately one of these got broken. It is expected the turtle will continue production.
The eggs have been planted in the sand, and it is expected one of these days there will be a crop of baby turtles running around.

"Miss Digby County" Contest
July First will soon be here, and on that date "Miss Digby County" for 1947 will be chosen. Interest in last year's contest was so keen that we have high hopes for even more this year. We won't go so far as to say that we want to hear from every girl of eligible age in the county, but it would be splendid if every town and village could be represented by at least one contestant.
Regulations for the contest are much the same as last year: Age of contestants—15 to 20 years.
Dress—Simple summer frocks. Hats—Don't wear any.
Footings—Wear them or not, as you please, but no bobby-sox.
Shoes—Comfortable (or you must walk well) and as appropriate as possible for your costume.
How do come along and sign up. June 27 is the deadline, but don't be a last-minute.
Telephone or come to Mrs. J. Stephen, Montague Digby.
Mrs. H. Stansfield of Digby is visiting Mrs. Stansfield's father, H. J. Campbell.
Mrs. W. E. McEwen of Fort Ontario, is spending the time with her father, Mr. J. Campbell.

Paving in Town Limits to Be Delayed

Because of sharp increases in estimated costs of replacing the Racquette Bridge, badly damaged in a storm last year, and cost of the replacement of which is being shared jointly by the Town and provincial government, it has been decided to postpone the reconstruction of this bridge, it was announced at Town Council meeting last week. Repairs will be made to the bridge under the existing maintenance contract between the town and the province, it was decided.
Work of preparing and paving the Digby Neck entrance to Digby has also been delayed because of the sharp upswing in estimated costs, it was announced.
H. M. Warne appeared before the meeting asking for relief on taxes on the former Walker property, recently destroyed by fire. This was refused by the Council when it was pointed out no provision for this is contained in the Assessment Act.
Permission was granted Robert Hersey and Lynwood Eldridge to build houses according to plans submitted. Melbourne Comeau was also granted permission to build a store on Water Street according to plans presented to the Council.

Career Week Held At Academy

An address by Harold Beaton, Director of Apprenticeship Nova Scotia Department of Labor, and the showing of several career films brought to a close "Career Week" at Digby Academy last week.
The Career Week activities, which have been under the direction of Douglas Ormond, Vice Principal of the Academy, began on Monday with the showing of the film "Student Nurse" to the Academy girls. This film was later used as the basis for discussion groups, led by the V. O. Nurse, Faye Saunders, on nursing as a career.
During the week the entire resources of the school in the matter of occupational information including university calendars, government reports, trade journals, occupational files and bound volumes on the subject have been thrown open to the students for study.
On Friday a Guidance Exhibit and Career Conference brought the week to a close. In the exhibit posters made by the pupils were on display dealing with occupation, as were "career books" which represented detailed investigation into single lines of work of interest to the students. Other items on display included career files, educational guidance charts and many other displays of guidance and career material made up the exhibit.
The Career Conference Friday evening was presided over by Dr. T. W. Hodgson and included group conferences on Nursing, Teaching, Stenography, skilled trades, R. C. M. Police work and other possible careers for the students. A number of career films were shown.

Digby Sea Cadets Highly Praised at Inspection

Fourth Annual Inspection of Royal Canadian Sea Cadet Corps "Cornwallis" was held on Thursday afternoon on the Parade Ground at the Academy with Captain F. G. Hart, R.C.N., Area Commanding Officer H. M. C. S. "Stadacona", taking the salute.
Proceedings opened with the reception of the Inspecting Officer by officers of the Corps, Lt. F. C. Purdy, O.C., and C. F. McBride, Executive Officer. Following this, Captain Hart, with his staff officer, Lieut. Commander G. A. MacPherson, H. M. C. S. "Stadacona", conducted an inspection of the ranks.
On the reviewing stand during the March Past with Captain Hart, were Sea Cadet Committee Chairman H. M. Warne and chairman of the Digby Branch of the Navy League, F. C. McBride.
Following the March Past, demonstrations of Cadet work were held. These featured really fine displays of rifle drill, signalling, boat work and knot tying.
Feature of the inspection was the demonstration by the tender division, or new entries. These young lads, who have just been taken into the Corps, appeared at the inspection and went through their drill with all the precision and smartness of the older corps members. Special tribute was paid by Captain Hart to their fine appearance and smartness of development.
Following the demonstrations, Sea Cadet chairman H. M. Warne presented the Inter Divisional Trophy to Monarch Division. This trophy, originally given to the Corps by Captain Edwards of H. M. C. S. Cornwallis, is awarded annually to the division making the best showing during the year. C. P. O. Arthur Robar received it on behalf of his division.
In his address to the Cadets at the close of the inspection, Captain Hart commended the officers, Midshipman W. G. Winfield, and the members of the Corps and the Band members, for their fine showing. He urged them to always respect the uniform they wore as one worth wearing, worth wearing properly, and one which stands for high ideals and high standards in the world of men.
He stated the Corps since its beginning some four years ago, had made marvellous progress, and he wished the officers and men every success in the future.
On Thursday evening Captain Hart was guest speaker at the Kiwanis dinner, at which he and his staff were guests.

Departing Teachers Honoured

Mrs. F. C. Purdy, wife of School Supervisor F. C. Purdy, entertained staff members of the Academy Tuesday evening in honor of Eleanor Douglas and Mrs. Rae Powell, who are leaving the staff this year. A most enjoyable evening was spent, at the close of which the two departing teachers were presented with framed pictures of Digby as a small memento of the year's association by fellow members of the staff.

Celebrate Corpus Christi

The annual Corpus Christi religious feast day was celebrated in Church Point Sunday with a modified procession due to the cold weather prevailing. The weather threatened during the entire day and it was thought that the procession would have to be cancelled, but it was finally decided to have it go as far as St. Ann's College and return to the church.
The usual large attendance from far and near marked this holy day. A marked feature, this year, was the improvement in the parking system inaugurated by the R. C. M. P. which prevented the usual congestion along the main highway.
Corpus Christi, commonly called "The French Walk" by strangers, is an annual religious celebration at Church Point. As is generally the case many strange faces were seen coming from other parishes and villages, some out of curiosity and others for religious reasons. The conduct of the strangers was excellent and the procession wended its way slowly and majestically through the college grounds where it stopped in front of the college building where benediction and praying took place, then returning to the church to finish the religious services.
The procession was headed by Alphonse LeBlanc carrying the cross, followed by a group of small boys carrying flags. The sodality of St. Ann's and of the Virgin Mary, with banners, followed next, both being composed of married women and young girls. The sodality of the Angels made up of small girls, followed by the flower girls, and other women of the parish, preceded the officiating priests with the choir and menfolk bringing up the rear.
Over 1000 persons were in the religious procession and many were spectators on the sidelines.
The procession usually wended its way up the lighthouse road a distance of half a mile, where stops were made at little chapels representing the villages of Grosses Coques, Little Brook, Comeauville and Church Point. Even though preparations had been made by decorating the pathway of the procession to the lighthouse and the little chapels prepared, this part of the procession was cancelled.
Colorful and filled with religious fervor, these processions are looked forward to with eagerness by the peoples of Clare. Only two other parishes in Clare celebrate Corpus Christi with such fervor, but the others do not compare with the one held at Church Point, namely Salmon River and Saulnierville.

Former Digby Man Sought

A 29-year-old Dartmouth travelling salesman, Churchill K. Durkee, is the object of an intensive search by Saint John city police following his disappearance from the home of some friends in that city on May 29. He had been staying at the home of D. Woodman, and had decided to take an evening stroll before retiring, and failed to return.
Police were notified the following morning and a thorough search was started. Saint John newspapers ran advertisements asking for information as to the whereabouts of the missing man.
Following the ads, a group of boys found Mr. Durkee's wallet on the bridge of the reversing falls in that city. The finding of the wallet has heightened fears for his safety.
A traveller for a Halifax plastic firm, the man, who resides at 17 Rose street, Dartmouth, had written a letter to his firm earlier on the evening of his disappearance, telling of his intentions of leaving for Moncton the following morning.
When last seen the missing man wore a dark blue suit with brown shoes. He is described as being slightly built, standing six feet, four and a half inches tall and weighing approximately 167 pounds.

Not only did she receive these awards but she was also given a Character Prize for exercising the greatest influence for good in the home life of the school, as well as an award for achieving the highest standing in Music.

July 1st Fair Plans Progressing

According to the report of Ray Underwood, Secretary-Treasurer of the Board of Trade's July 1st Fair Committee given at Tuesday night's meeting of the Board, plans for the fair are progressing most satisfactorily.
Mr. Underwood stated a meeting of the various chairmen of fair enterprises had been held last week and all chairmen had reported good results. He said a chairman had been appointed for every fair activity and all departments of the fair were being well looked after.
For this year's boxing matches fighters are being imported from Saint John and Yarmouth and the bouts promise to be most exciting. Plans for the horse and ox pull, always a major attraction at the fair, are receiving particular attention this year. Arrangements have been made by Keith Potter, chairman of this section to have grandstand accommodation provided for this event so that it will be seen by many more than previously.
C. M. Levy, Parade Chairman, stated he had contacted a large number of possible entries for the parade and all had promised to enter cars, floats, or decorated trucks. This year's parade promised to be the best ever, Mr. Levy said.
Plans this year are to have all concessions on the field open and operating when the parade which ends its route on the Athletic Field arrives. J. W. Christie has been appointed construction chairman and stated plans were well in hand for the construction of all booths needed at the fair.

To Hold Deanery Camp At Sandy Cove

The Annapolis Deanery which includes the Anglican churches from Weymouth to Middleton is holding a Girls' Camp this year at Sandy Cove. Girls from 12 to 15 years of age are being enrolled. Mrs. H. She will be assisted by Specialists in Arts and Crafts, Athletics and a Camp Nurse.

Kiwanians Take "Oscar" To Lockeport

Twelve Digby Kiwanians motored to Lockeport on Monday for an inter-club meet with that South Shore Club (one of the youngest Kiwanis Clubs in the Maritimes). They were accompanied by "Oscar" the little effigy whom they left behind with out regrets, leaving it to the members of the Lockeport Club to find the means for his disposal. Several members of the Liverpool Club were also present on this occasion. All the guests were introduced by Harold Locke, president of the Club at Lockeport.
The speaker was Andrew W. Merkel, retired Canadian Press Superintendent for the Maritime Provinces who spoke on the possibilities of the Tourist Industry. Mr. Merkel was introduced by his brother Kiwanian, James W. Merkel of Digby.
"Oscar" was presented by Mr. Scott Eaton. His pallbearers, Gordon Turnbull, Karl Young, Rolly Crouse and John MacDonaid. The sing song was directed by Keith Aitchison. The meeting was held at the Bellows, Lockeport.
Captain G. F. Hart, R. C. N., officer commanding H. M. C. S. Stadacona, Halifax, was guest speaker at the regular Kiwanis supper last Thursday. Captain Hart, who was in Digby in connection with the fourth annual inspection of the Digby Academy Sea Cadet Corps Cornwallis, spoke on the history and growth of the Canadian Navy and of the Sea Cadet organization.
Tonight's speaker will be Rev. Waldo C. Machum.

Victorian Order Nurse Resigns

The resignation of Miss Faye Saunders, Victorian Order Nurse for Digby, was regretfully accepted at the monthly meeting of the Victorian Order Board on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Saunders has been nurse-in-charge of the Digby Branch for the past two years. Miss Saunders' resignation is effective from June 30. She will leave Digby to accept a position with the head office of the Victorian Order at Ottawa.
Miss Saunders has made many friends while in Digby and has done much to promote the work of the Victorian Order in this vicinity. Industrial Nursing is one of the projects undertaken by the local branch during her tenure of office.
At Tuesday afternoon's meeting A. R. Turnbull, branch president, and others expressed regrets at Miss Saunders' intentions to sever connections with the Digby branch.

Missing Man Arrives Safely

Nelson Loomer, elderly Weymouth First Great War recluse, who early Friday morning sailed alone in a tiny boat from Tiverton in an attempt to reach North Head, Grand Manan, arrived safely early Saturday morning after a stormy crossing.
Fears were held for his safety when high winds whipped the Bay of Fundy into a sea of choppy waves all day Friday and it was feared the boat might have been wrecked along the rocky, shoal-ridden coast.
Heedless of warnings by hardy Tiverton fishermen who remained ashore in the face of gusty winds, Loomer sailed at 6 a.m. in the 17-foot "cockleshell" he had built himself, with no engine and only one sail.
On his way out he passed one Tiverton boat which reported that his craft already was "sloshing" in the heavy seas.
An alarm was sent to Halifax by Eugene Outhouse of Tiverton as sailing men in the village feared it would be impossible for the shallow-draught vessel to remain afloat on the choppy bay.
Planes were sent out by the Air-Sea Rescue Service of the R. C. A. F. in an attempt to locate the tiny craft but no trace of her was seen. It was only late Saturday that word reached Halifax of the safe arrival of Loomer in Grand Manan early that morning. Calls were put in from Tiverton to Grand Manan to verify the news as few believed his little ship could possibly have weathered the storm and made her destination safely. Loomer was reported as being little the worse for his exciting trip.

About This and That

The record of level crossings within the town of Digby is not a pleasant one. Following are a list of accidents that have occurred during the twenty years the writer has been reporting news in Digby. No effort has been made to set these accidents down in chronological order, neither have we investigated our files to determine exact dates and other details — the list is entirely from memory.

King Street Crossing (Racquette): Clean record.

Carleton Street Crossing: Truck owned and operated by H. H. Syda struck by train and demolished. Mr. Syda escaped without injuries.

First Ave. Crossing (North End): Clean record, although this crossing is one of the worst in Digby, especially for cars travelling north.

Crossing at intersection of First Ave. and Sydney St.: Car owned and operated by the late Dr. J. S. Timpany struck by D. A. R. express. Car badly damaged; Dr. Timpany escaped uninjured.

Church Street Crossing: Car owned and operated by G. H. Peters struck by train. Car damaged. Judge Peters escaped uninjured. A few years before, Mrs. Sullivan, an aged pedestrian, was struck and killed by a train at this crossing.

First Ave Crossing near Mount Street: Clean record.

Mount Street Crossing: Truck struck by car, driver injured.

Montague Row Crossing: Truck operated by a man named Williams struck on this crossing; Williams slightly injured.

Montague Row Crossing near Yacht Club: Clean record.

First Ave. Crossing near Warne Mill: Clean record.

Queen Street Crossing near Warne Mill: Scene of a fatal truck-train crash shortly before the war. Later, scene of another truck-train crash in which no one was injured.

The foregoing only include those crossings on the main line of the railroad. We have seen several near crashes on the Birch Street Crossing on the spur running from the station to the C. P. R. wharf. This crossing, practically in the business centre of the town, is now protected by a flag man who gives warning when trains approach. We have witnessed one or two minor accidents on the same line at the Prince William Street Crossing, and on a number of occasions have known of the train stopping in order to avoid an accident at this crossing.

In our opinion the most dangerous level crossing in town is the Montague Row Crossing, just north of Warwick Street. All cars going in and out of the town of Digby via Highway No. 1a, must use this crossing, which is nearly blind to outward (or southward) bound motorists. Living near this crossing, and using it several times a day, we have witnessed many near accidents here, and on one occasion, had a very close shave of our own. It is a common complaint of those who live in this vicinity that the locomotive is too close to the crossing before any warning whistle is blown. However, we strongly recommend the installation of a wig-wag at this particular crossing; warning signals should also be installed at Mount Street, Church Street, Sydney Street, First Avenue (north end), and Carleton St.

With the tourist season rapidly approaching we hear a great deal these days of cleaning up our town and countryside in preparation for the expected influx of visitors to our fair province.

Among the things that could be cleaned up and should be cleaned up are the unsightly piles of old tin cans and other rubbish found all too often along the edges of the highway. Why it is that people who will take the trouble to clean up their own yard and then take the rubbish and throw it alongside the highway, is one of the things that has always puzzled us.

How often it is you see some conscientious householder cleaning up his front yard, mowing the lawn, clipping the hedge, and then walking across the street and dumping all the clippings and other debris in the ditch. This same individual will take great pride in keeping his yard free of tin cans, ashes and empty bottles, but fails to see anything wrong with dumping these along the highway where they will greet the eye of every passerby.

If we are to properly clean up, not only in preparation for the tourists, but also for a cleaner town and countryside in which to live ourselves, we must think, not only of our own dooryard, but also of our neighbors and of the countryside as a whole, roads, paths and country lanes. It is just as important that these be kept clean and slightly as it is to keep our own lawns and yards neat trim.

FATHER'S DAY SUNDAY

In cities, towns and villages everywhere in the Dominion, Father's Day will be marked on Sunday, June 15, according to N. L. Birrell, of Toronto, chairman of the Canadian Father's Day Committee. The committee includes representatives throughout Canada who are seeking to "honor dad—builder of our children's future."

Stated three years before the first official Mother's Day, Father's Day was conceived in 1910 by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd, of Spokane, Washington. She felt the need of a special day to honor Father and "to call attention to Father's place in the home, the training of the children, the safe guarding of the marriage tie, the protection of womanhood and childhood."

Mrs. Dodd embodied her wishes in a letter to a Minn.-suffrage Alliance which received it favorably. From this humble beginning, the day of remembrance grew to national importance, gaining impetus throughout the United States and Canada. It soon became the custom to wear on Father's Day, a white rose for remembrance, and a red rose for living tribute. The Father's Day tribute on June 15 marks the first official celebration of the day in Canada since before the war, during which period, with so many men away in uniform, it was not widely marked.

As chairman of the Father's Day Committee, Mr. Birrell himself typifies an average Canadian father. He is the father of two sons and a daughter and has owned and operated his own business since he was 23. Prominent in lacrosse and hockey circles, Mr. Birrell and his son, John, are great sport fans, seldom missing a hockey game at Toronto Maple Leaf Gardens.

STAYS FRESH LONGER

"Most of my driving is through heavy traffic and manoeuvring into small parking spaces. Therefore I am very much impressed with the ease of handling made possible by the vacuum power gear shift. With a flick of the fingers I am able to shift from one speed to another."

C. W. Tapley, Montreal, P.Q.

"Of course the motor is much more powerful than any preceding Chevrolet—and we have had four, one each in 1939, 1940, 1941, and 1942—but what appeals to us most is the ease of riding. We have made over 33,000 miles, or, in other words, 120 miles per day."

R. L. Gale, Waterville, P.Q.

"It is the opinion of both myself and wife that one of the most superior qualities of our 1947 Chevrolet Stylemaster is the ease of handling. We do not hesitate to endorse it as a most valuable family car."

J. E. Simpson, Winnipeg, Man.

"In all my years of driving, I have never been so satisfied with a car as I am with this one. The smooth way it pulls away, the ease of handling, the steady sureness of the brakes, combined with the big car appearance of the Fisher body, convinces me that I have again received full value in my Chevrolet."

John H. Jardine, Toronto, Ontario

"Have just finished a 3600 mile trip from Toronto to New York to Regina in my new 1947 Chevrolet Coach. I like the get-a-way and believe me, Chevrolet is literally 'out in front' when it comes to acceleration."

Harry Bell, Regina, Sask.

"The unexcelled riding quality and the ease of control plus the effortless vacuum shift convinces me that Chevrolet is tops in performance."

H. C. Burroughs, Swift Current, Sask.

"I kept a careful check on all gasoline used which was by means of a credit card and was amazed to find on final check that my Chevrolet averaged 26 miles to the gallon. This mileage included going over the Logan Pass which takes in Glacier Mountains in Idaho, U.S.A."

Horace Thompson, Vancouver, B.C.

"Chevrolet's brakes are outstanding. You get easy, perfect stops every time with Chevrolet."

M. M. Cunningham, Red Deer, Alta.

"This being my fourth Chevrolet purchased from you, I feel that after driving nearly 5,000 miles in this car, I am in a position to say that the efficiency and comfort of operation has more than exceeded my expectations."

W. J. Bell, Toronto, Ontario

"I am so pleased with my new Chevrolet I could write a book on it. Chevrolet's new 90 H.P. overhead valve motor gives the greatest performance of any car in its price class on the road."

C. Earl Figer, Fort William, Ontario

"As the Chevrolet is in the low-priced field, I expected low-priced riding enjoyment, but to my pleasure, I found all the advantages for which high-priced cars are noted. This is especially true on rough roads, where the Chevrolet gives you perfect control when it hits ruts, pot-holes or washboard."

A. G. Holmes, Lethbridge, Alta.

"I am a traveller... and cover many thousands of miles a year over the worst of Alberta's bad roads. With my new 1947 Chevrolet I get unbelievable comfort in driving, and trips that formerly lasted an eternity are now a pleasure."

J. H. Budd, Edmonton, Alta.

"The riding quality of the Chevrolet is almost a blessing inasmuch as its sturdiness and ability to cling to the road greatly diminish driver's fatigue and make its owner glad of his choice."

Paul A. Côté, Quebec, P.Q.

"I have never driven a car that has been so free of trouble, or in which I have had so much confidence as this new Chevrolet."

John E. Lindsay, Halifax, N.S.

Ford - Cosman

A very pretty wedding took place at the parsonage in South Ohio on May 22, when Rev. Percy M. Hamilton united in marriage Phyllis Ora, eldest daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cosman Forest Glen, Yar. Co., to Wendell Meyhew, youngest son of Mr. and the late Mrs. James Ford of Havelock, Digby Co. The bride looked lovely in a floor length gown of chiffon crepe over taffeta and a finger tip veil formed in a heart shape around the crown caught up with forget-me-nots and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations, baby's breath and fern, with large bow of satin ribbon. The mother of the bride, Mrs. Cosman, wore flowered bomburg silk dress and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception followed the ceremony when about 150 friends and relatives greeted the bride and groom at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was decorated for the occasion by Mrs. Gordon Whitehouse and was centred with a three tier wedding cake, which was cut in traditional manner by the bride and groom. Those serving were Norma Cosman, Lena Harding, Deanie and Fay Nickerson, Mrs. E. P. Hanf, and Mrs. Herbert Nickerson cutting the cake.

The happy couple left amid good wishes for a trip through Nova Scotia. For travelling the bride chose an aqua wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Many gifts were received by the happy couple, including china, linen, pyrex, cut glass, silver, blankets and money. Among the guests were friends from Brazil Lake, Deerfield, Carleton, New Tusket and Havelock.

Successful Roll Call Service At Hill Grove

The Hill Grove Baptist Church, picturesquely perched on the Acacia Valley Hill, was the scene of a successful Roll Call Service on Thursday afternoon of this week. Both afternoon and evening services were well attended, and many members of the little church, living at home and in far distant places, answered the roll by a verse of Scripture—some travelling great distances to be with the home church and its congregation for this special annual service.

The Roll Call was conducted during the afternoon. This was followed by a brief Memorial Service for the members and adherents of the church who passed away during the year.

Guest speaker at the afternoon service was Rev. R. S. Dunn, pastor of the Clements-Port and Smith's Cove and Deep Brook Baptist Churches. Rev. E. C. Churchill, pastor of the Digby and Hill Grove Baptist Churches, presided over both services. The offering for the day amounted to $375.

Rev. A. S. Vincent, pastor of the Main Street Baptist Church, Saint John, N. B., was preacher at the evening service. At this service, Rev. G. D. Brydon of the Bear River Baptist Church read the Scripture Message, and Rev. C. S. Young of the Clements-Port Baptist Church, led in prayer.

Dr. Vincent, in his address, referred to this as the most treacherous age in the history of mankind and stressed that all Christians should accept the challenge to work for a better world.

Holy Communion was administered at the close of the evening service. The choir under the direction of Mrs. D'Arcy Roope, rendered special music at both services. Both Rev. and Mrs. Churchill delighted the congregation with vocal solos.

During the supper hour a delightful meal was served to the members and guests in the Community Hall by the ladies of the Church.

The first Hill Grove Roll Call was conducted in 1916, and since that time these services have been an annual event.

number of nephews and nieces. She had been a lifelong resident of the community and will be missed by a large circle of neighbors and friends. In her younger days she was well known to the travelling public and tourist industry, having held important positions on the staff of the Lour Lodge, and other hotels, both in Digby and the United States.

Since her retirement from business life, she has lived at the old home with her nephew, Orbin Minard and wife. His mother, who passed away two years ago, was a sister.

The funeral services were held from her late residence and the Hill Grove United Baptist church of which the deceased was a member, on Sunday afternoon, with the pastor, Rev. E. C.

Churchill, conducting the services, with interment at the family lot in the cemetery near the church. Favorite hymns sung were "When My Life's Work Is Ended", at the house, and at the church "When the Roll Is Called Up Yonder", "Some Day the Silver Cord Will Break" and "Abide With Me." Beautiful floral offerings testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

resa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Surette, of Digby, and Gordon Albert Comeau, son of Mrs. Albert Sulis, also of Digby.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a gown of white nylon taffeta with fitted bodice, slightly entrain, with white neckline and peplum. Her finger tip veil fell from a gardenia headdress. She carried a white prayer book with sweet peas and fern cascading on white satin streamers. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her younger sister, Alice Surette, who wore a gown of pink net over taffeta with matching head dress and a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums. Clifford Ward uncle of the groom, was best man.

The church was attractively decorated with spring flowers. During the signing of the register, Anne Surette and Joycelyn Mullen sang "Ave Maria."

Many useful gifts of silver, linen and household effects were received at a shower previous to the wedding.

Following the church ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a buffet lunch was served to about thirty friends and relatives.

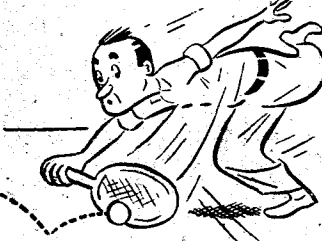

The bridal couple left Digby on the Princess Helene for a short trip through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Going away, the bride wore an olive green suit with white accessories and a black topper. She had a corsage of white baby mums and fern.

On their return the couple will reside in Digby where the groom is employed with Hants Wholesalers. The bride formerly was on the staff of War Assets Corporation at Deep Brook.

CGIT Group Holds Closing Meeting

Thursday afternoon saw the closing of the "Wenogi" C.G.I.T. for the season. It was held in picnic form on the beach at Weymouth North, with the "Victory" C.G.I.T. and "Proweybo" Trail Rangers as guests. Norma Ruggles, a leader at Weymouth North, was in charge of the meeting. Games were played, followed by a picnic lunch and weiner roast around the camp fire.

Rev. F. C. Amery gave a challenging message, using as his theme, "Following Jesus." Jennie Hayes then presented Mrs. K. M. Hankinson, C. G. I. T. Superintendent, with a lovely white wool blanket on behalf of the Weymouth North Group.

In the evening, the groups were joined by the Weymouth Falls C. G. I. T. at St. Peter's Guild Hall where lantern slides entitled "Christ Teaches His Disciples" were shown. Following this, film strips on a modern projector loaned by Miss Lois Tupper, Girls' Work Secretary of the M. R. E. C. were shown. Miss Tupper, unable to attend herself, had graciously loaned the projector and film strips, entitled "A Certain Nobleman"; "The Story of Zachaeus"; "Teaching Juniors"; and "Let the Children Come." The meeting closed with Taps.

Miss Hilda Babine was a recent visitor to her home at Sluice Point, Yarmouth Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Robie Hill and family motored to their home at Bass River on Saturday where they spent the holiday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. Thorpe left this week for Sackville where they will attend the Conference being held there. They were accompanied as far as Halifax by their daughter, Mrs. W. J. Giese and small daughter, Linda, who have been visiting at the parsonage.

To Start Work On New Wing For St. Ann's

Rev. W. Hache, president of St. Ann's College announced last Thursday that E. Babin of Yarmouth was the successful contractor who will erect the new wing planned for St. Ann's and for which an appeal has been made to former students and friends of the college to solicit funds for its erection.

The proposed building will be approximately 100 by 75 feet and will be constructed of stone and granite. Work is expected to get underway shortly. Already a large amount of rough lumber has begun to accumulate on the college grounds and soon the sound of hammers and saws will replace the shouts of the college boys on the campus.

With the closing of St. Ann's doors Thursday evening for the summer holidays the contractor will have ample room to set things in motion for the commencement of the work on the new construction. The new building will be four stories high and will house the dormitory as well as laboratory and offices. Plans have been amended and a change in the front of the building will be made which will enhance the beauty of the structure.

S. P. O. Louis Melanson, the Micmac was a week-end visitor at his home this week.

A meeting of the Catholic Women's League was held Sunday at the Glebe House with 15 members of Belliveau's Cove and St. Bernard's branch as their guests.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

Is the man who keeps informed on current affairs more likely to succeed?

I believe so. Most of the men I know who hold important jobs are interested in market trends, soil erosion, labor issues, politics and other topics of general importance. They can talk fluently and intelligently about such matters and usually their opinions are definite and well thought out.

This is not a coincidence. Rather, I think, it is an indication of a quality of mind which "thinks big."

"But I'm not interested in politics. They don't concern me," you may say.

The truth is — they do concern you and everyone interested in preserving our democratic way of life. And other vital current issues have a similar bearing on your individual world.

Enlarging our interests in these ways is not only good citizenship; judging by the examples of successful men, it also helps you get ahead.

Here is a fact which every Canadian should know: The combined investments in Life Insurance by over four million Canadians are an important factor in stabilizing the nation's economy.

Ten Years With The Canadian Legion

(This is the third in a series of four articles telling the story of the Canadian Legion during the last ten years.)

Service Work
Legion services to individual veterans is an important element in maintaining the power and prestige of the Canadian Legion.

Local authorities, provincial governments and the federal government realize its value and importance in their relations with the veteran body. The service is free and is available to anyone that at any time wore the King's uniform voluntarily or who served in an Allied Force and is now a Canadian citizen or British subject, and to their dependents.

In addition to the Service Bureau maintained at Dominion Headquarters many Provincial Commands have established bureaux at strategic points in the Dominion. While the care of the disabled and the war bereft is a first charge upon Legion Service, a great deal of individual case work is accomplished covering all aspects of rehabilitation and a variety of personal problems.

Imperialists in Canada

The ex-service men of the British armed forces who have settled in Canada have long contributed to the stability and success of the Legion. They are to be found among the membership of practically all our branches and in some areas they have formed Legion branches of their own. In 1925, when the Legion was formed as a result of the amalgamation of a number of the then existing veteran organizations, the Imperial Veterans' Association came into the Legion as the Imperial Division. This Division still functions, and has its own representative at Dominion Headquarters who deals with the problems of Imperial veterans. However, in all other essentials Imperial branches operate in the same way as ordinary Legion branches.

The improvements in British pension policy and administration have been appreciated, and many in Canada have benefitted thereby. However, there is a problem affecting the Imperial ex-service man that has been engaging the attention of the entire Legion for several years. It is essentially a problem of social security.

The Canadian ex-service man who served in an actual theatre of war is taken care of under the War Veterans' Allowance Act which provides a single veteran at the age of 60 with $30.00 per month, and a married veteran with $80.00 per month, provided income from other sources does not exceed $275.00 per annum plus property not exceeding an assessed value of $4,000.00. In addition to this the recipient may earn up to $125.00 per annum as casual earnings. This benefit is also available to Imperial ex-service men who were domiciled in Canada prior to war service. Our efforts have been directed toward securing it for the Imperial veterans who have resided in Canada for twenty years or more, regardless of pre-war domicile. There are several complications, however, which to date have defeated the Legion's efforts. The main one is that Canadian ex-service men who, during the First Great War, served in Britain only, are not eligible for War Veterans' Allowance and, therefore, it has become politically impossible to gain a benefit for an Imperial, who actually did serve in a theatre of war, before a Canadian who served outside of Canada receives consideration.

Another approach to the problem is to secure an improvement in the social security measures of the country as a whole. This can only be brought about by co-operation between federal and provincial governments. The Legion has already presented a brief to the Federal Government and many Provincial Commands have made representations to their respective governments. An Old Age Pension Bill is now before Parliament which, if passed, would be a step in the right direction, although its measures are not as generous as those of the War Veterans' Allowance Act.

Every opportunity is taken to present the problems of the Imperial veteran to any visiting official of the British Ministry. Recently the Legion interviewed and entertained the Rt. Hon. Wilfred Paling, the Minister of Pensions, and presented to him a comprehensive statement regarding Imperial veterans' affairs. He replied, indicating changes that satisfied some of the requests. Among other things, he said that the British Government has power in the Family Allowances Act, the National Insurance Act and the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act, to make reciprocal arrangements with the Dominions, and that the British Ministry of National Insurance hopes shortly to open discussions with the Dominions on the subject. We in Canada have long felt that some reciprocal arrangements should be made throughout the Empire in matters of social legislation and regard this as a promising feature that can result in improvements in the position of Imperials and their dependents in Canada.

Immigration

The problem of filling up Canada's open spaces with population is receiving a great deal of attention at the present time. The Legion is informed that some 500,000 people in Great Britain have indicated their desire to migrate to other parts of the Empire. The Canadian Government has, by various Orders-in-Council, liberalized its administration of the Immigration Act to the point where only ordinary precautions in respect to the health, care and likelihood of becoming a public charge are to be taken.

Unfortunately the main obstacle to any immigration from Great Britain is lack of shipping. The situation can only change for the better as more shipping becomes available. A small number of British ex-service men are coming to Canada and are joining the Canadian Legion. Recently Canada admitted several thousand Polish veterans who had served in various theatres of World War II under British Command, and local branches are taking these men under their wing and assisting them to become assimilated. They will be eligible for full membership in the Legion after they have acquired Canadian citizenship.

The Legionary

With the increase in membership it is natural that the subscription list of the Legionary, the National Publication, should grow. The number of subscribers now stands at over 100,000. This figure could have been augmented quite easily were it not for the fact that paper is still rationed. However, arrangements have been completed for an additional stock of paper in the autumn, which will enable us to add another 75,000 names to the subscription list.

The magazine plays an important role in the life of the Legion and, indeed, of the whole country. It is frequently quoted by daily newspapers; it keeps the membership informed upon veteran affairs generally and upon the policies of the Legion in particular; and it is proving an extremely valuable medium for educating new members. The Legionary has no financial difficulties but has transferred substantial profits from which $15,000 was used by the Legion towards the purchase of Legion

Clementsvalle Youth Suffers Face Cuts

Larry Morgan, 16, of Clementsvalle suffered superficial cuts about the face and head from flying glass Monday morning when the car in which he was a passenger was involved in a collision with a loaded gravel truck.

The accident took place on the main highway at Conway some three miles from Digby. The car, which was driven by Willis Trimper of Bear River, crashed into the rear of the gravel truck which was halted against oncoming traffic. The car and windows in the rear were broken and the rear of the truck damaged.

Trimper, pleading guilty to a charge of operating a car with inadequate brakes, was later fined ten dollars and costs by Supt. Magistrate G. H. Peters in police court later in the morning.

Hold Domestic Science Closing

Closing demonstration of the Domestic Science Department of Digby Academy was held Tuesday afternoon following the Common School Closing exercises at the Academy.

The Domestic Science closing featured a display of work done through the year by the pupils followed by an afternoon tea. Many splendid and well made articles were on display. Particularly attractive was the display of dresses made by the pupils of the department. These featured afternoon dresses of all materials and morning dresses of gingham and cotton. Aprons, sweaters, blouses and other articles of clothing made by the pupils.

In commenting on the demonstration School Board Chairman Dr. McCleave stated great credit was due the Domestic Science teacher, Miss Douglas for the splendid display of work, and to the pupils for their fine efforts and progress during the year.

School Paper On Sale Tonight

The "Fundy Light" official school paper of Digby Academy will go on sale tonight at the graduation exercises of the senior High School. This year's graduation number has been dedicated to Miss Eleanor Douglas, Domestic Science Teacher, who leaves the staff at the completion of the term.

Ask Consistency In Immigration Policy

Civic Election Goes to Supreme Court

Warne, Anderson Appeal Decision of Judge Crowell

Notice of appeal from the decision of County Court Judge Kenneth L. Crowell in the case of the petition lodged by F. L. Anderson and H. M. Warne concerning the civic election held in Digby on February 4th., was on Thursday afternoon served on Victor G. Cardoza and Albert S. Warner respondents in the case.

The appeal, which is slated to be heard before the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia en banc on November 18, seeks to have the decision of Judge Crowell, which declared the election of Cardoza and Warner to the town Council as valid and awarded them costs, reversed and the prayer of the petitioners relating to Cardoza and Warner allowed with costs of the appeal to the Supreme Court and County Court.

The petition concerning the election was first filed by M. C. Leonard, acting on behalf of Anderson and Warner, on February 19. It asked that the election of Councillors Cardoza and Warner who were elected to the Digby Town Council on February 4th., be set aside on the grounds that Warner was at the time of his nomination and election a member of the Digby Volunteer Fire Company and Secretary-Treasurer of that organization for which it was alleged he was paid a salary or remuneration from the funds of the town.

Cardoza's election was alleged as invalid by the petitioners on the grounds his nomination papers were not in the proper order and improperly received by the Town Clerk who was also named as a respondent in the original petition. It was also claimed the election of Dr. Dudley Dickie, also named, was invalid as he was at the time of his nomination and election Medical Health Officer of the town. Dr. Dickie and the Clerk did not contest the petition.

It was also claimed by the petitioners that, because the ballot used on the day of election contained names of persons not eligible for elections the whole election should be invalidated.

The petition was heard before Judge Crowell who rendered a decision in favor of the respondents. He found Dr. Dickie's election as void but stated that "since Dudley Dickie had nothing whatever to do with his nomination and further, since he was never sworn in as Councillor, and that he filed the required notice—it would be decidedly unfair to award costs against him; consequently the prayer of the petitioners as it related to Dudley Dickie is granted, but without costs."

In his decision Judge Crowell found Albert Warner's election as valid and stated it was his opinion he did not come within the meaning of the Towns Incorporation Act as regarding the holding of offices. He stated the only office Warner held was Secretary-Treasurer of the Fire Company to which he was appointed by the Fire Company and not the Town Council. With regard to remuneration he stated Warner had not entered into any contract with the town as defined by the Act and therefore his election could not be avoided on these grounds.

As to the election of Victor G. Cardoza Judge Crowell stated the only grounds upon which an election can be voided under the Towns Incorporation Act are those of "corrupt practise." In an examination of the term in this and other statutes he could find no suggestion that the act complained on in the petition was remotely included in that definition. Neither could he find any ground for avoiding the election under the common laws of Parliament. He therefore declared Cardoza's election to be valid and awarded both him and Warner costs on contesting the petition.

Representing Warner and Cardoza was V. J. Pottier, K.C., of Yarmouth and M. S. Leonard of Digby represented the petitioners. Security on behalf of the petitioners was provided by F. R. Eisener and E. B. Richardson.

West Baptists Raise $100,000

Featuring excellent summaries of church reports for the past year, the first full day's session of the Western Association of United Baptist Churches last Thursday in the counties of Lunenburg, Annapolis and Digby, held in Digby Baptist Church, was largely attended by a record number of delegates and visitors to the association.

Much of the day's session was occupied with presenting of a digest of individual church reports followed by interesting discussion, led by the clerk of the association, D. B. Wright of Middleton.

The report revealed a substantial increase in church membership during the year, with total membership within the association now numbering over 7,500 and funds raised for all purposes exceeding $100,000.

The morning session opened leadership of Rev. B. R. Hamilton, Little River, who led morning devotions. Under direction of the moderator, Rev. R. S. Hartlin, the nominating committee appointed a licensing committee with the following members: Rev. R. S. Dunn, Rev. R. S. Gregg, Rev. H. K. Grimmer and Rev. H. Y. Payzant.

The following ministers who have taken up pastorates within the association during the last year were welcomed: Rev. E. R. McWilliam, Rev. E. C. Churchill, B. R. Hamilton, R. S. Dunn, F. C. Amery, W. C. George McGray, Charles Savage and Rev. Fred Hinnett.

An illuminating report concerning the denominational paper, the Maritime Baptist, was presented by Rev. Aubrey Murphy, stressing the significance and importance of maintaining a religious press, and outlining the policies and aims of the paper. Rev. Mr. Murphy called for an enlarged subscription list.

Rev. W. Harper led afternoon devotions.

Rev. W. C. Machum, general secretary of the Baptist convention, spoke on denominational enterprises.

Rev. A. J. Langley, Saint John led a social service session, in discussion of immigration, housing, liquor problem and race problem.

Rev. H. S. Hartlin, Moderator,

Mrs. H. Grimmer Named Mission Head

Attended by delegates from most of the United Baptist Churches in the counties of Digby, Annapolis and Lunenburg, the Women's Missionary session of the western Association of the United Baptist churches was held in the auditorium of Digby Baptist Church Friday afternoon with vice-president Mrs. Harold Marshall of Hill Grove presiding.

Beginning with an inspiring service led by Mrs. E. C. Churchill, Digby, the session was next led in a devotional service by the Bear River Society with Mrs. G. D. Brydon as the speaker.

A special feature was a splendid duet given by Miss Jeanne Brydon and Mrs. Purdy.

A sincere welcome to the visiting delegates was given by Mrs. Hugh Vincent of Digby and responded to by Mrs. Rhodenizer of Bridgewater. Mrs. Landers reported for Annapolis County, Mrs. Rhodenizer for Lunenburg county, and Mrs. Vian Andrews for Digby County.

Officers elected for the coming year—Mrs. Harry Grimmer, Middleton, president; Mrs. G. M. Durling, Springfield, vice-president; Mrs. Rodenizer, Bridgewater, second vice-president; Mrs. T. H. McWilliam, Secretary-Treasurer and Mrs. Willis Buckler, Bear River, assistant secretary treasurer.

Led by Mrs. Saunders Young of Clementsvalle, the annual memorial service was most impressive. Mrs. Harry Grimmer sang a solo.

The feature of the afternoon's session was a lucid and highly inspiring account by Mrs. Warren Eaton, Canard, president of the United Baptist Women's Missionary Union, of her recent trip over the territories of our Indian Missions.

Dr. Walsh To Address Graduates

Rev. Dr. H. H. Walsh, Ph.D., of the General Theological Seminary, Montreal, and former rector of Christ Church, Dartmouth, will be guest speaker at the closing exercises of the Senior High School tonight at the Community Hall.

Dr. Walsh is spending the summer at Weymouth with his wife and family. He was at one time rector of Weymouth and is conducting services in the parish during the summer months.

Digby League Banquet Successful

About 50 persons attended the annual banquet of St. Patrick's Bowling League at the Myrtle House last Tuesday evening. Albert Warner, president of the League, was chairman.

A toast to the league proposed by Mrs. Alice Keen was responded to by the president. Gladys VanTassel gave a witty response to the toast to the ladies, proposed by Fred Tarves. A reciprocal toast to the men was proposed by Grace Richardson and responded to by Gregg Gilliat.

At the conclusion of the dinner cups and prizes were awarded to team and individual winners during the season.

Winning team in the men's section was captained by Malcolm S. Leonard and was comprised of Lyman Morehouse, Whit Germain, Murray Mount, Whalen Morehouse, Gerald Wilson and Eric VanTassel. In the ladies' section the Rookies, captained by Gladys VanTassel, carried off the cup. With her on the team were Allison Morrissey, Lottie Doucette, Babe Rosenthal, Cis O'Neil and Laura

Send Parcels to Descendants of Admiral Digby

Regular monthly food parcels are being sent by a group of Red Cross workers in Digby under the convensorship of Mrs. G. W. Connell to Mrs. Gwendolyn Winifred Digby, Sherborne, Dorset, England, a descendant of Admiral Robert Digby for whom the town of Digby is named. These food parcels are used by Mrs. Digby for the care of old people in Sherborne and for tea parties for these old people.

In a recent letter Mrs. Digby tells of the work of the Red Cross in her village and of efforts being made to have a Red Cross Hut erected there. She states the food parcels being received from Digby are most welcome as it is becoming increasingly difficult to arrange for supplies of food for the aged. No extra rations are allowed by the government for the monthly tea parties and the food must be saved from the ration of the donors.

Mrs. Digby also states it was her mother, Mrs. Hamilton Fletcher of Lewiston Manor, Dorset, who founded Red Cross work in the county hence Sherborne is the number two branch in the county and the first Women's Detachment organized. Mrs. Digby, through the urging of her mother, joined shortly before World War I, took her examinations, and became first vice-president, which office she has held for thirty-eight years. During the first world war, Sherborne Castle, home of the Digbys, became a hospital of 27 beds nursed by V. A. D.'s of No. 2 division, and altogether they had 520 beds in the Division.

The Digby family have a most interesting history. Admiral Sir Robert Digby, whose ship, the "Atlanta", brought refugees to Nova Scotia from New York in 1783, landing them at the hamlet of Conway, later named Digby in his honor, was a son of Edward Digby, Sherbourne Castle. He was a great-grandson of William 5th., Baron Digby, and younger brother of Henry, 1st Earl Digby. At the time of the Revolutionary War he was senior officer in command of His Majesty's naval forces in American waters.

In 1787 the people of Digby wrote Admiral Digby stating they felt the town to be under his immediate patronage and "from which circumstance we are emboldened to beg your honor to bestow on the infant settlement something toward enabling us to build a small but decent church." The Admiral responded with a gift of £100 and a fine bell which is still in use in Trinity Anglican Church.

Rector of the church at the time of the Admiral's gift was Rev. Roger Viets who, for his loyalty to the British cause had been sentenced to a year's imprisonment at Simsbury, Conn. After the building of the church in 1790, a letter was sent to Admiral Digby that three handsome pews had been allotted in the church: "Yourself one, one for the Governor of the Province and one for the Bishop. We would be very happy to have your coat of arms to put on it, if you would be pleased to bestow it on us, about three and one half feet square." This supplication of the vestry was granted and the Admiral was frequently able to worship in his pew during the winter of 1797 when his ship "Wye" was prematurely frozen in the harbor at Digby. The Admiral and Rev. Mr. Viets were also hunting companions during his stay in Digby.

CIRCUS DAY IS COMING SOON

Sparks 3 Ring Railroad Show

The announcement of the coming to Digby of the World Famous Sparks three ring railroad Circus on Wednesday July 9th, exhibiting on the Jersey Farm show grounds will be greeted with delight by thousands of circus fans—children of all ages, eager to welcome the first big circus of the 1947 season.

For over fifty years the world famous Sparks Circus has been a favorite with outdoor amusement patrons and this year travels by railroad for the first time since the advent of World War II. The big show is presented in three rings and elevated stages by a galaxy of international arenic stars, with performing elephants, daring acrobats, funny clowns, Liberty horses, dogs, ponies and goats, high wire artists, and other talented stars of Spangleland.

A complete menagerie of wild animals is another feature of this year's Spark's Circus. Two performances will be staged on circus day with a matinee show at 2:30 P.M. and the night performance at 8:30 P.M. The doors to the menagerie will open at 1:00 P.M. and at 7:00 P.M. to allow patrons to view the wild animals and zoological display before the big show program.

Ends 50 Years Of Teaching

An estimated 100,000,000 words were used in a half century's service in the teaching profession by Kelsey C. Denton of 4242 Old Orchard Ave, N. D. G., who is going to celebrate his retirement with a year in California.

A native of Little River, Digby Co., and a graduate of Acadia University in 1908, Mr. Denton started his teaching career in Montreal High where he spent 31 years, the last 20 of which were as head of the department of mathematics.

This lengthy term in teaching, which more than entitled him to a pension, did not sicken him of teaching. He joined the staff of the provincially and federally supported Arts and Crafts school which has its headquarters in the old William Lunn School and which is planning to move to a new building at the Glen and St. Antoine Street.

Mr. Denton taught for a year at Lower Canada College where he was head of the department of mathematics and then returned to the Arts and Crafts School where he was head of the department of cultural studies.

"Teaching is a fine career for young men to enter if they like boys," Mr. Denton declared, adding, "I am glad to see that teachers' salaries are being moved upwards. We need more men teachers and we should pay them well. Teaching is too important a profession to be neglected by the public."

Miss Digby County Contest

For the benefit of those girls who were out of luck by being only 14 years old last Dominion Day, our committee has been asked to give more detailed information concerning what all the would-be Miss Digby Countys should wear.

Last week's Courier told you: "Simple Summer Frocks." Frocks meaning dresses, of course, not the coveralls we all on (if we are lucky enough to own them) when we do the dishes. Too much stress cannot be laid upon that word "simple." Nearly all of us look better in things that are not all fussed up.

Color is probably the most important factor for you to consider. We look and feel, our best when we are wearing a color that does something for us, not to us. Surely, among your this, last, or year-before-last summer dresses, you have one in which you feel just a little more beautiful than in any other. That is the one for you to wear.

Materials needn't worry you in the least. While my own taste runs to cottons, I can't think of one material which, if made in a becoming style, and of a becoming color, would not be quite all right for the occasion.

Does this clear up the dress problem?

Our list of contestants is growing, but there is room for many more. Not nearly enough of the communities outside Digby town have been heard from. Remember, this is not a BEAUTY CONTEST, and you need have no fear that you will be thought conceded if you sign up. We are merely looking for a generally attractive girl on whom to bestow the title: Miss Digby County of 1947. Those three nice men out in front are going to be much more impressed by your smile and whole personality than by your perfect nose and teeth.

Don't let another day go by without getting in on this. It is going to be lots of fun.

Prizes will be the same as last year: $25.00 to Miss Digby County and $10.00 to each of her attendants.

FREE SERVICES FOR FARMERS

For the purpose of assisting the farmers of Canada to meet the economic problems with which they are constantly confronted and to carry on the industry of Canadian agriculture to the advantage of the nation as a whole, the Dominion Government has several millions of dollars invested in free services and facilities.

No other industry has at its disposal such a wide and varied range of services and facilities provided by the Government. They include the Dominion-wide system of Experimental Farms and Stations, the divisions of Dairy Research, Botany, and Plant Pathology, Chemistry, Entomology and Plant Protection, of the Science Service, the divisions of Health of Animals, Plant Production and Livestock with their field services of the Production Service, the Marketing Service, in which is centralized the administration of all grading services of livestock and livestock products, dairy products, poultry, eggs, fruit, vegetables, canned goods, maple products and honey, and the Division of Agricultural Economics, which serves as a fact-finding body concerning production and marketing.

Results of the research work and experiments of all these services of the Dominion Department of Agriculture are made known to farmers and the people of Canada generally through free publications, the press and radio, exhibits and other ways directed by the Publicity and Extension Division.

Those engaged in the industry of Agriculture, whether directly or indirectly, are invited to make full use of the services and facilities as outlined. They are free.

Portland Fighter Features July 1 Boxing Card

The fight card scheduled for the July 1st Board of Trade Celebration was announced Tuesday morning by E. J. Morrissey, chairman of the boxing committee.
 Main bout will be between Al Leaver, welterweight, of Portland, Maine, and Bobby Donovan of Saint John, N. B. Both these boys are outstanding pugilists and this bout promises lots of excitement.
 Semi-finalists will be Art Robar, Digby, who scored a K.O. in the opening rounds of his first fight here last year and J. Praymon of Chatham, N. B.
 Also on the card will be bouts between Frank Gordon, Maritime Bantamweight champion, and Ron Cowan of Digby. Cowan is a very flashy flyweight and indications point to a peppy scrap. Fred Hogan, New Brunswick Welterweight champion, will fight Rit Daley of Digby. Daley has much of the style and ability of his father, Winfield Digby, DSO, DL, JP, MFH. He is a direct descendant of the famous family but is not titled because, in the dim, distant past, one of his ancestors backed the wrong horse. In some civil war a Sherborne Earl backed a pretender against the king or vice-versa. Whatever it was both titles and estates were taken from the family. Some years later a Digby distinguished himself in the right cause and the estate was returned but not the title.

 Sherborne Castle today despite its name, is not a castle with turreted walls, a fortress with drawbridge and moat, but a fine old Elizabethan mansion set in a beautiful park of over 470 acres. There are two castles on the estate—the old castle and the new. The old castle, now in ruins, was built in the 11th century by a Norman knight who came to England with William the Conqueror and later became the first Bishop of Salisbury.

 The Digby fighters are being trained by Fred Cookson, former Golden Gloves Champion of Canada, who, while fighting in the United States, scored a win over the noted Johnny Greco. According to Cookson, the Digby lads are shaping up well and should give a good account of themselves on the first.

Ten Years With The Canadian Legion

This is the last in a series of articles telling the story of the Canadian Legion during the last ten years.

Remembrance Day and Poppy Day

The commemoration of Canada's war dead, as in other parts of the commonwealth, takes place on November 11th each year. This day was established by Act of Parliament in 1931 as an annual national holiday, known as Remembrance Day. During and since the close of the war of 1939-45 our commemoration ceremonies have included the dead of both the First and Second Great Wars. The Legion for many years has undertaken the responsibility for the organization of the National Remembrance Day service, held in Ottawa at 11 a.m. This simple service, lasting about ten minutes, is broadcast all over the Dominion and draws large crowds. It is attended by the Governor-General, the Prime Minister and other dignitaries church and state. In addition each command and branch holds similar ceremonies in their respective localities. The spirit of the day is rather that of a holy day, and while all business does not close down as in the case of a bank holiday, it is generally recognized that time out should be taken to attend a Remembrance Day Memorial Service.

Poppy Day in Canada has always been linked with Remembrance Day. The poppy is re-

Roll of Honor Placed In School At North Range

An outstanding event in North Range took place on May 22, when the local Home and School Association unveiled and presented a Roll of Honor to the School in commemoration of the thirty ex-pupils who served in the four branches of the Service during World War II.

Near relatives of the boys whose names appeared on the Roll were special guests of the evening.

A splendid program under the direction of Mrs. H. A. Shortliffe, special convenor, was carried out. After the singing of "O, Canada", followed by the Lord's Prayer, and a short song, the president, H. A. Shortliffe, presented the Roll of Honor to the School. It was accepted by the principal, Robie Gilliatt.

The unveiling ceremony was conducted by Mrs. J. V. Andrews, who in a few well chosen words, told of the service rendered by those who had been so willing to serve Canada and the Empire when the call had come.

After the unveiling a moment's silence was observed in memory of one of the number who had made the supreme sacrifice.

Rev. R. M. Johnston of South Range, the guest speaker of the evening, based his remarks on patriotism. During his inspiring

The rooms were tastefully decorated with pink and blue streamers and an arch of apple blossoms. The table was centered with a three tier wedding cake cut by the bride and the groom.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton motored to Liverpool where they will reside. The groom is employed with the Atlantic Construction Company.

Special Services At Church Point

The two weeks mission preached by the Rev. Levesque and LeBlanc of the Redemptorist religious Order of Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Que., terminated on Sunday afternoon at an impressive and touching ceremony at 3 o'clock in St. Mary's Church.

New members were admitted into the sodalities of St. Anne and of the Blessed Virgin Mary and The League of the Sacred Heart was organized with over 50 of the male members of the congregation being admitted during the services.

Fifteen young girls and 18 young boys renewed their vows made at their first communion in a ceremony at the foot of the altar.

The mission, which takes place every ten years, was largely attended. One week was set aside for the women and last week for the men. Services were held at 7:30 A.M. and 7 P.M.

The church was decorated and lighted up for Sunday's services. Services were held at 7:30 and ten o'clock in the morning and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The church was filled to capacity both in the morning and afternoon services.

Acadia Has Largest Enrolment in History

Acadia University, which is 109 years old and has just graduated its 101st class, had 911 students last year to make the largest enrolment in the history of this promising Maritime seat of learning. Dr. R. S. Longley said in an address Friday night at the closing session of the Western Baptist Association conference held in Digby Baptist Church.

Dr. Longley, Dean of men and head of the department of history at Acadia, enlarged upon the progress of the university to the most largely attended session of the conference.

The first graduating class was composed of only five young men while this year's class had a total of 158, he said. The founders had two major objectives: First, an educated ministry; Second, to keep the constituency up to the times, a modern outlook.

The university is meeting always the need for expansion of work, strengthening older departments, adding new emphasis and has turned out over 3000 graduates.

The speaker said there was a growing need for scholarships to assist high quality students to begin and continue their work if their own means were slim.

Dr. Longley pointed out that more than 50 men were now preparing for the ministry at Acadia. A new step on the spiritual path is being taken with the establishment of a course in Bible for first year students in conjunction with emphasis on religious life on the campus.

In an opening statement before delivering the final address of the closing session Dr. W. Machum, general secretary of Maritime Baptist Convention took exception to recent press accounts attacking the Canadian Council of Churches at attempting to organize organic union of all Protestant denominations. The Council is an organization for fellowship and co-operation where possible.

Taking Evangelism as the theme of his address Dr. Machum said there is no other effective technique of keeping the knowledge of Christian truths to the front and extending the spiritual power of the church. The evening session began with a devotional service led by the retiring moderator, Rev. H. S. Hartlin, supported by full choir of Digby and Hill Grove United Baptist Churches and assisted by the newly elected moderator, Rev. T. W. Howard. An official welcome to the new moderator was extended by the conference to which he made a fitting response.

"The Perils of Prejudice" was the subject of an excellent address delivered to the Kiwanis Club by Rev. Waldo C. Machum, Denominational Secretary for the Baptist Church in the Maritime Provinces. In his address he emphasized the deterring effect of prejudice upon the growth of the church and that the handicaps that have been encountered by science and education are usually nothing more than prejudices, and pointed out that it is prejudice that is making it impossible for the countries of the world to come together in a common agreement to discuss common problems that will lead to a permanent peace.

Rev. Leo Day, rector of St. Patrick's Church, Digby, will be the speaker at tonight's meeting. On Monday, June 23, local Kiwanians will be hosts to the Kiwanis Club of Saint John at an inter-club meet in Digby.

On Monday evening, June 18 friends representing the three churches of Barton and Brighton met at Vista Cottage, the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Welch to welcome to the community Mrs. John Branscombe and to offer good wishes to the newly married couple. Mr. Branscombe, a student at Acadia, has been pastor of the Baptist church during the winter, and has now brought his bride to live in the parsonage in Brighton. Besides their good wishes these friends brought a shower of lovely gifts which were received and responded to in a happy way by Mr. and Mrs. Branscombe.

Refreshments provided by the Women's Society were served by Miss Florence MacNeill assisted by Mrs. Harris Andrews, Miss Leslie Bacon and Miss Phyllis Cosman.

Parcels Sent To Descendants Of Digby Founder

Much of the old castle survives. The best ruins are those of the main gate, the chapel and the keep. It covers four acres in the civil war one of the Digby held it for Charles 1st. After a siege of 16 days Fairfax captured it and demolished part. The stables are fine old buildings with three wings surrounding a courtyard. In peacetime some fifty horses were kept in these had to be sold during the war.

Members of the Red Cross particularly the workers who as an individual effort, are assisting Mrs. Connell in preparing the food parcels for Mrs. Digby have become deeply interested in the romantic associations of ancient Sherborne and its famous family who gave the town of Digby its name and hope the connection may be renewed and continued.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

To capture the spirit and life of the circus, try getting "backstage" shots. A picture such as this would be hard to make during an actual performance.

THE CIRCUS IS COMING

JUST about this time a year ago one of my neighbors routed me out of my bed a little before 4 a.m. to watch the circus pull in. He figured, and rightly so, that half the fun of a circus was to be had in the railroad yards.

Fortunately, I had brought my camera to the railroad yard with me. While flash must be used with caution lest it startle animals, I was able to get a number of shots in the darkness as the train was first unloaded, then as the circus procession started to move from the railroad to the fair grounds.

And once dawn had come to the circus lot I began shooting pictures in earnest... pictures of some of the performers picking up breakfast at the snack stand... pictures of men straining at the ropes and antics which anchor the tent... pictures of the wagons, of boys watering the elephants, of the clowns getting ready for the show.

There's almost no end to the picture possibilities a circus affords. And backstage snapshots like this—unlike pictures made during the circus performance which call for ultra-fast lenses and fast shutter speeds—can be made with the simplest cameras.

Animal pictures, as trainers will tell you, should be made when the crowds are thinnest. Often feeding time is best. And while elephants and horses can generally be snapped without any danger, some of the animals should be treated with respect. Polar bears, lions, tigers, zebras, camels—all are apt to be treacherous. The best course to follow is to ask permission of the trainer or keeper before you attempt to shoot any of the beasts.

Where clowns are concerned, follow the same rule you follow for any good portrait: work close up and let your subject fill the negative. And be careful here as elsewhere to pose your subject against an uncluttered background. The very profusion of picture subjects which you find on a circus lot tends to make for confusing backgrounds unless you select your shots with considerable care.

Common School Closing Most Colorful

The most colorful and impressive Common School Closing ever held at Digby Academy was held Tuesday afternoon on the Parade Ground at the rear of the school. This was the first time in the history of the school the closing has been held as an outdoor ceremony.

Feature of the closing was group singing and folk dancing by pupils of the lower grades. The group singing was led by Miss Bessie Turnbull and included O Canada, Union Jack and Vacation Song. Particularly impressive was the singing of Union Jack. During this number the pupils stood against a background of flags and each pupil held in his hands a Union Jack. The effect was most stirring and the number was greeted with thunderous applause from the hundreds of parents and guests gathered to witness the closing exercises.

The sight of little pupils of Grades I, II, and III going through the intricate movements of lovely English folk dances was one that brought a definite thrill to the onlookers. The young dancers went through the routines like seasoned troopers although quite a few could not resist the occasional look to see if their proud parents were watching with sufficient interest.

Among the dances were "I'll See You" an English folk dance for the very young; "Dance of Greeting" a Danish folk dance; "Ribbon Dance" a particularly lovely number, the dancers carrying streamers of coloured ribbons; and "O Come Be Joyful", a round dance.

Following the exercises School Board chairman Dr. J. R. McCleave addressed the gathering. He complimented teachers and pupils on their splendid performance and cautioned the pupils during the summer months and at all times to obey safety rules in order that their vacation would not be marred by accident.

Would Change Festival Time

The use of Sunday in the programs of the annual apple blossom festival was protested last week by the Western Association of United Baptist Churches in session here. The session, which was under the chairmanship of Rev. B. R. Hamilton of Little River, passed a resolution condemning the use of the day as part of the festival proceedings, and suggesting the festival be held in mid-week with one of the days set apart as a full holiday.

Sloop Total Loss By Fire

The sloop "Nina L" became a total loss by fire at Westport early Saturday morning. The Nina L., skippered by Captain Melvin Melanson, had discharged a load of hardwood cordwood shipped from Plympton to E. C. Bowers and Co., Ltd., at the Brier Island port. At 7:30 Saturday morning Capt. Melanson and his son were about to clear for home when a backfire from the engine set the craft on fire, and within a few minutes the little ship was enveloped in flames.

The Nina L. was owned by Vaughn Wagner of Plympton, and was used principally for carrying cargoes of fuel wood lands.

Breaks Arm At Wharf

Loran Handspiker of Mount Pleasant, an employee of the Department of Public Works at the Government pier here, suffered a painful accident Monday morning when his left arm was fractured when a heavy timber fell against it.

The accident happened while a crew of men were rolling heavy timbers into place on the deck of the wharf, which they are repairing. One of the huge timbers slipped while being put into place and, falling against Handspiker's arm, badly crushed it and broke a bone in his forearm. He is reported as resting comfortably.

Hand Crushed In Door

Little Richard Germain, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Germain, Mount Pleasant, had one of the fingers on his right hand badly crushed Saturday when he caught his hand in a door at his home. Flesh was torn from the first joint of the finger exposing the bone.

It was feared that amputation of the first joint of the finger would be necessary but an attempt is being made to save it.

Ashmore Children Visit Habitation

The school children enjoyed a picnic with their teacher, Mrs. Cordelia Thibault, on Friday. They went by truck to Habitation Champlain at Lower Grandville, then to Fort Anne at Annapolis Royal. Mrs. Stanley Brooks and Mrs. Walter Doucett went and helped entertain the children. A picnic lunch was very much enjoyed by all. All reported having spent a very interesting and enjoyable day.

Peter McGregor of Bear River has shipped the first strawberries to Halifax; one crate on Monday and Tuesday and four on Wednesday.

What then remains? Courage, and patience, and simplicity and kindness, and last of all, ideas remain; these are the things to lay hold of and live with.—A. C. Benson

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

"Milk bottles don't have to be round!"

In some such words a progressive young man challenged tradition and devised a new, space-saving square milk bottle recently adopted by several leading dairies.

This reflects the kind of restless, creative thinking that makes for greater success in any line of business.

Time-saving, money-saving ideas are often surprisingly simple. And they may occur to anyone. But chances are they won't occur to you unless you look for them, and develop a habit of seeing something "as is".

No matter where you work, there are countless articles, products, systems, methods capable of improvement, and needs for new inventions and ideas.

When looking for things to improve, it's best to start with those most closely related to your job. Your first idea may not succeed. But keep on trying. Your efforts will be appreciated and eventually rewarded.

Most of us are invariably busy in life. But we can use it as the most systematic way to live and also provide for our loved ones.

On the road, the flat tread and powerful sidewalls of this great NEW tire reduce sidewall flexing. That means less friction and less heat. This tire runs cooler—wears longer. The mighty flat tread puts more rubber on the road—for better weight distribution, and surer, safer stops and starts.

More than 21 MILLION gruelling test miles have proved this the longest mileage tire ever built by B. F. Goodrich. It outwears the best pre-war tires with ease!

Digby Team Wins Over Bridgetown

In a regular game of the western Valley league played in Bridgetown, Digby Ravens handed Bridgetown Hawks their first defeat of the 1947 season 10 - 8, scoring three unearned runs in the top of the ninth to break of 7 - 7 deadlock.

LeCain on the mound for the visitors pitched a good game giving up only two hits, but he walked five and hit one batsman. The local boys took advantage of every break to score their 8 runs. LeCain also fanned sixteen men.

Dodge on the hill for Bridgetown for the first time in many years, pitched a good game until the sixth when he gave up five hits and a base on balls for five runs to tie the game 7 to 7.

In the ninth the Digby boys got to Dodge for a single and a double to put men on second and third with two out. A costly error in the infield on an easy pop fly sent both runners over the plate. Bridgetown tried in vain to tie the score in the last of the ninth, but could only put one run over. Barnes led the Digby attack with a double and two singles in four times at bat.

ADDRESS

aged lack of initiative and on the part of both provincial and federal governments the matter of housing was last Friday at a session of the Western Baptist Association.

Resolution calling upon these to give priority in all building materials to providing dwelling houses and apartments was unanimously adopted. The association pledged its wholehearted support to the program of the convention Board of Social Service and the Nova Scotia Federation of Temperance which was advocated by the Rev. A. J. Langley at Thursday night's session.

Member churches were asked to set in motion machinery fulfilling these purposes.

The Temperance Federation was asked by the association to work for legislation for obtaining better methods of testing drunken drivers.

Use of the chemical blood test and alcohol meter was advocated.

Resolutions thanking the Digby church for so royally entertaining the association and for providing choir and organist for passed as was a resolution thanking special speakers for their inspiring message to the assembly.

Rev. T. W. Howard of Westport, was elected Moderator. He succeeds Rev. H. S. Hartlin, present moderator.

Vice moderator for the forthcoming year will be Rev. E. A. Robertson, Granville. D. B. Wright, Middleton, was re-elected Clerk and Treasurer with Rev. Aubrey Murray, Springfield as assistant Clerk. Preacher of the association sermon at the 1948 sessions will be Rev. G. D. Brydon, Bear River, with Rev. E. C. Churchill, Digby, as alternate. Sunday School young people's work will be in charge of Rev. R. S. Dunn, Deep Brook and Rev. G. E. Huestis, Mahone Bay.

Social service work in the western association will be headed by Rev. H. K. Grimmer of Middleton and Rev. L. B. Wright of Annapolis for 1948. The examination council will be Rev. A. G. Robertson, Bridgetown, Rev. L. B. Wright, Annapolis, and Dr. J. E. Morse, Lawrence town. Obituary committee was named as Rev. Fred Hinet, of Freeport and Rev. C. E. Amery of Weymouth.

Several young men were granted association licenses. They included L. G. McGray, Centreville; Harold Telfer, Port Lorne; Charles Savage, Annapolis; Arthur Eddle, Port Williams; and John Branscombe, St. Mary's Bay.

The morning session, following an inspiring devotional service conducted by Rev. D. L. Kennedy of Bridgewater, featured a fitting memorial service, led by Rev. A. G. McClure of Nictaux, assisted by Rev. A. G. Robertson.

An open forum conducted by Dr. W. C. Machum, general secretary for the convention, revealed many interesting features of Maritime Baptist work and progress. Speaking of the temporarily encouraging situation concerning adequate supply of ministers, Dr. Machum estimated that it would still be some three years before there would be a sufficient supply of ministers to man Maritime pastorates, as at the moment, some 25 churches, desirous of having pastoral leadership, are without ministers.

In this connection, the convention has been engaged in a definite recruiting campaign, and is confident of a measure of success.

In speaking of the field of Christian education, Dr. Machum stressed the growing importance of the work, advocated more far reaching influence in Sunday School and young people's work, but was encouraged that the situation at the present time is far better than it has been in the past. Special note was then taken of the Canada-wide campaign for increased membership under the sponsorship of the Baptist Federation of Canada, attempting to make, during the next three years, a considered drive for active members for the United Baptist churches.

The previous evening was an inspiring and informative one, the leaders being the veteran missionary, beloved throughout the Maritimes, Dr. A. J. Glendenning, whose discourse on the Indian situation was illuminating in his description of the complexities and conflicts among the Indian groups. Dr. Glendenning led the large congregation to a greater appreciation of the difficulties and uncertainties which mission work now faces.

The preacher of the association sermon, Rev. C. S. Young, of Clementsvalle, in a forceful and earnest presentation of the subject of partnership declared that unless the churches and individual members in this age, feel more strongly their partnership with God, they can easily fall in their mission. By descriptive illustration, and earnest appeal, he gave inspiration and conviction to the whole of the association sessions.

The association sessions were brought to a close with a banquet followed by an evening service in the United Baptist Church. The worship was conducted by the moderator Rev. T. W. Howard and included an address on Acadia University.

The closing address of the session was given by Dr. W. C. Machum, general secretary, of the Baptist convention.

ferred to as the "Emblem of Remembrance." The poppies are made by Veterans shops, operated by the Department of Veterans' Affairs and the Legion is the distributing agency throughout the Dominion. This relationship is established by an annual contract with the Department. Poppy campaigns are conducted locally during the week of November 11th, and the moneys raised through the sale of poppies and wreaths go to make up Local Poppy Funds which are used to relieve hardship or distress among ex-service men. Dominion Command in paying the annual account submitted by Veterans Shops, which last year amounted to $136,245.70, is conscious that many severely disabled veterans are thus being maintained in continuous employment.

A tribute should be paid to the women's organizations in each community that turn out despite inclement weather to assist in the street sale of poppies while the campaign is in progress. Theirs is indeed a conscious and practical "Remembrance" that of the living and the dead.

Patriotic Public Service

The aims and objects of the Legion embrace other fields of activity than those which are for the immediate advantage of veterans. Indeed we are all learning that what is good for the veteran is usually good for the community, and vice versa, that what is good for the community is also good for the veteran. The consequence is that ex-service men are thinking more than ever in terms of their country's welfare and are studying the responsibilities of citizenship. Under the direction of Lt. Colonel the Hon. Wilfrid Bovey, Counsellor of Education to Dominion Command, committees have been established on education, in each province for the express purpose of developing leaders who can take their place on school boards and municipal bodies, and in provincial legislatures and in the Dominion Parliament. Problems of government peculiar to Canada are being studied and it is hoped that in course of time this effort will bear fruit in a larger number of veterans entering these fields of public service. This action, of course, is non-partisan politically.

Consideration is also being given to National Defense. The Legion is determined that Canada shall not drift into the uneasy pacifism that followed the First Great War and proposals have already been made to the Government which we hope will keep public attention focused on the necessity for preparedness in mind, manpower and material, as a war deterrent as well as a safeguard in the event of future aggression.

The Canadian Legion as a member of the British Empire Service League is also conscious of the great part the British Empire must continue to play in world affairs, and has pledged itself to work for a closer understanding between Empire countries. The Legion is also conscious of the necessity for maintaining close understanding with our neighbor, the United States, and realize the power for good that co-operation between these two great political groups can be in endeavoring to carry out the same principles of freedom and justice, in world affairs.

Relations With Empire Headquarters and Other Member Organizations

A splendid service relationship exists between the Canadian Legion Dominion Command and Empire Headquarters of the British Empire Service League. Over a period of many years, including the war years, Empire Headquarters and the British Legion have continued to deal with a variety of individual cases of veterans requiring service of some kind. The Legion is deeply grateful for the manner in which the various benevolent Funds in the United Kingdom have assisted the Imperial servicemen in Canada through the channel provided by Empire Headquarters.

From time to time correspondence has been carried with other member organizations on matters of mutual interest and in respect to individual cases. The Legion is particularly indebted to the British Legion for excellent service they are giving to the cases we submit for appeal. Certainly any success that has been attained is due to the splendid co-operation of the Pension Department.

An exchange of public opinion keeps the Legion abreast of what ex-service men are doing in other Commonwealth countries. The Legion has drawn inspiration and much useful information from the reports of activities in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Great Britain and hopes that through the medium of the Legion our sister organizations will come to know a great deal about how we deal with our service men's problems, and endeavour to make our influence felt in Canadian affairs.

Conclusion

In the foregoing an effort has been made to give a general outline of Canadian Legion activities during the war years and the immediate post-discharge period. Much more could be said but it is hoped that sufficient has been set down to indicate that the Canadian Legion is expanding rapidly, and endeavouring to conduct its affairs in a manner worthy of the cause for which it fights, that of the watchdog of veterans' rights.

Big Card Games Great Event

Events of Digby and surrounding countryside are in for a big treat on July 1st, when the Fred Cookson, manager of the July 1st Fair, will bring the cream of Digby's fighters to oppose the New Brunswick welterweight champions. The event will not only create a competitive atmosphere but will be a treat for the local lads who have been undergoing strenuous training for the last few weeks.

The feature bout promises to be a humdinger from start to finish when the Maine, U. S., champion, Al Leaver, tackles the New Brunswick welterweight champion, Bobby Dono-

fr. The semi-final will feature Digby's top-notch slugger, Art Baker, against the pride of Chatham, N. B., Jim Braymon. Both fighters are in razor edge condition and odds are even on this lightweight clash.

Bit Daley, Digby's flashy, hard hitting welterweight who exhibits much of the style and ability of his father who, in his younger days was a force to be reckoned with in boxing circles, will tackle Floyd Hogan who has a marvellous record of fights back of him.

Digby's bobbing bantamweight, Ben Cowan, who is showing great promise as a boxer and who is a master at weaving and feinting, will meet the Maritime Bantamweight Champion, Frankie Gordon.

The opening fight will be a return bout between Bob Vincent, local clever lightweight, and tough southpaw, Rit Thomson. The whole card promises lots of thrills and excitement and spectators are advised to be on hand early. The fights are scheduled to begin at 8:30 and both people and rush are available. A digby cup for the best fighter of the evening has been awarded by Hoods Limited.

To Lay Corner Stone On Rink July 1st.

A meeting of the Digby Recreation Commission held over the week end, Thomas L. Deane, local contractor, was given instructions to dismantle, load on freight cars, and re-erect in Digby the building recently purchased in Yarmouth by the Commission. This building, formerly No. 15 Drill Hall, East Camp, Yarmouth, will be used by the Digby Recreation Commission as a skating rink.

Corner stone for the new rink will be laid on July 1st as part of the Board of Trade's July 1st activities. It was decided by the Commission. His Worship Mayor J. W. Merkel, will be in charge of the ceremonies in connection with the laying of the corner stone. It is understood that Digby County, who will be chosen from among contestants from all over the county, on July 1st, will perform the actual laying of the stone.

Taking a well-earned rest from his official tour of duty, President Truman informally met Canadian and United States newspapermen at the Seignior Club, Montebello, Que. In this picture, left to right, are President Truman, J. Hugh Campbell, manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's department of public relations and Prime Minister Mackenzie King. The informal gathering followed a luncheon for the parliamentary press corps of the two countries at which Mr. Campbell was host for the C. P. R.

Missing Bear River Girl Found [by Dog]

Exhausted and starved, her face and hands badly swollen by insect bites, Margaret Forrester wandered out onto the Shelburne road Tuesday morning shortly before nine o'clock near the Syda's Lake Bridge where she was found by searchers who had been combing the woods for her since early Friday morning. After being given food and stimulants she was rushed to the Digby General Hospital where she is reported as resting comfortably.

Miss Forrester, 34, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Banks, Bear River, disappeared Thursday night after leaving the home of Miss Ethel Woodworth on the Lansdowne Road where she was employed. She was last seen walking along the road in a downpour of rain.

A search was started for her early Friday morning and, with the aid of the famed police dog, "French", who has already nearly 150 lives to his credit, she was traced to the vicinity of Syda's Lake on the Shelburne Road some fifteen miles from Bear River. All trace of her was lost at this point, but actions of the dog indicated she was somewhere in the vicinity. Hundreds of searchers under the guidance of R. C. M. P. officers combed the woods for her and dragging operations were carried out in the lake Sunday.

According to searchers full credit for finding the girl must go to "French" who refused to give up his task and kept constantly circling the area for a trace of the missing woman. When found she seemed to have little realization of her plight and stated she had spent a comfortable night bedded down in a fern covered hollow. The district where she was lost is crisscrossed with a multitude of streams and brooks so she suffered little from thirst. Handled a sandwich by one of the searchers, she wolfed it down and asked for more. She was given a glass of milk and then rushed to the hospital where doctors reported her condition as good considering the ordeal she had undergone.

Name New V. O. Nurse

Miss Margaret Whebby was named at a special meeting of the board of the Digby Branch of the Victorian Order, held on Monday afternoon, to succeed Miss Faye Saunders as nurse in charge of the Victorian Order Branch at Digby.

Miss Whebby will take over her duties here on July 1st, and Miss Saunders, whose resignation becomes effective on June 30, will remain in Digby a few days to acquaint Miss Whebby with the district.

The new V. O. Nurse is a graduate of the Halifax Infirmary, and has served on the Dartmouth Branch of the Victorian Order. This year she completed a course in Public Health Nursing, having received a scholarship the year previous.

Miss Saunders, who has been nurse in charge at Digby for some time, has been appointed to a position with the central office of the V. O. N. at Ottawa.

Rev. Leo Day, rector of St. Patrick's Church, Digby, was the speaker at the regular supper meeting of the Digby Kiwanis Club on Thursday last. Father Day's splendid address on the theme of Youth Training was well received.

Movie Actor To Crown "Miss Digby County"

John Rodney, well known movie actor who recently appeared in the film, "Pursued", will be one of the judges of the beauty contest to be held in connection with the Digby Board of Trade's July 1st fair, it was announced here today. Mr. Rodney will also crown the winner of the contest who will receive the title of "Miss Digby County."

The movie actor, who is under contract with United States Pictures Inc., is well known in Digby and vicinity, having spent many summers at his family's home in Bear River. Before going into the movies, he starred in several Broadway productions. His mother, Mrs. Ruth Raymond, is presently living in Alexandria, Va.

It is understood Mr. Rodney has the starring role in a picture to be released shortly by United States Pictures. He is spending some time at Bear River, resting, at present.

Autograph hunters are looking forward to a field day on July 1st, as it is understood Mr. Rodney will sign several albums on that occasion.

Members Of King Solomon Lodge Attend Divine Service

The members of King Solomon Lodge, A.F. and A.M., attended divine service at Trinity Anglican Church Sunday evening in celebration of the Festival of the Nativity of St. John Baptist which takes place June 24th.

In a stirring and inspiring address based on the text "For I say unto you, among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist," the rector, Rev. F. B. Gaskill, urged the members of the Order to truly live the great faith in which their belief was expressed. He compared the days in which John Baptist lived with those of modern time and drew several parallels with those days.

Hymns appropriate to the service were led by the choir and

Saint John Kiwanians Visit Digby

"Falling in Love" was the unusual title of an excellent address delivered at a Kiwanis Club luncheon at the Myrtle House at Digby Monday by Judge L. M. Pepperdene of the Saint John Juvenile Court. The address was delivered before a joint meeting of Saint John and Digby Kiwanians, which was presided over by C. M. Levy, president of the Digby Club.

Visitors from Saint John were introduced by their club president, Charles Dearborne, who also introduced the speaker of the day.

In his address Judge Pepperdene said we must face the facts—youth must be given proper sex instruction in the schools in order that they may have a real understanding of what falling in love involves.

He emphasized that without love, life would be a cold matter of fact thing, a thing without enthusiasm, and to get the best out of life, it is necessary to fall in love with someone, or fall in love with one's task. The thanks of the club were extended to Judge Pepperdene for his excellent address by Rev. F. B. Gaskill, rector of Trinity Church of Digby.

The fifteen Kiwanians who crossed the Bay of Fundy from Saint John Monday morning were met at Digby pier by members of the Digby Club and taken on a short motor trip before the lunch hour. They were officially welcomed at the luncheon by Kenneth Beckwith, vice-president of the Digby Club.

A hand made quilt, raffled off at the luncheon, proceeds of which are to be used for the Digby Kiwanis Swimming Pool Fund, was won by Charles Fales of the Saint John Club. Mr. Fales re-donated the quilt to the Digby Club on condition it be auctioned off at this meeting. It brought $16.75 at auction.

the office was conducted by Lay Reader Victor Cardoza.

At the morning service in Trinity the speaker was Rev. A. S. Hart of the British and Foreign Bible Society. Mr. Hart, a former rector of Weymouth and Army Chaplain, gave a most inspiring address and called upon the congregation to support the work of the Bible Society.

Saint Patrick's Academy Holds Closing Exercises

Closing exercises of St. Patrick's Academy were held last week in the auditorium of the Academy. Highlight of the program was the presentation of the operetta, "Ever Faithful, Ever True." This operetta told the beautiful and touching story of Sunny, a lovable little orphan girl who was the prime favorite of the other orphans at the Home. Returning from the hospital where she has been recovering from injuries received in saving the life of another orphan, she finds the children excited over the news that a wealthy patroness of the home, Mrs. Raleigh, is planning to adopt one of the girls as a companion for her niece, Eileen. Sunny, however, finds plenty to do settling disputes among the orphans. She reassures Paul, the new boy, who is afraid that his tough brother will drag him away from the Home and compel him to steal. She tries to comfort Jimmie, the crippled orphan, whose one absorbing passion in life is to be cured. Bitterly disappointed over the failure of Mrs. Raleigh to send him to a doctor, Jimmie steals the purse off the table. He confesses the theft to Sunny, who, to shield him, shoulders the guilt herself, thereby imperiling her chances of adoption. The purse, stolen in turn from its hiding place by Amos, finds its way into the hands of bullying Slim, who is prowling around outside the Home looking for Paul. Slim's efforts to kidnap the terrified younger brother, is bravely thwarted by Sunny, who thereby is kidnapped herself. Her escape from her captor and her success in clearing her name, recovering the twice stolen money, and finding herself in a real home with Mrs. Raleigh and Eileen, complete the stirring cycle of her adventures.

Adding to the excellent entertainment of the play, was a fine program of musical numbers specially adapted to the plot of the drama.

Following are the members of the cast:

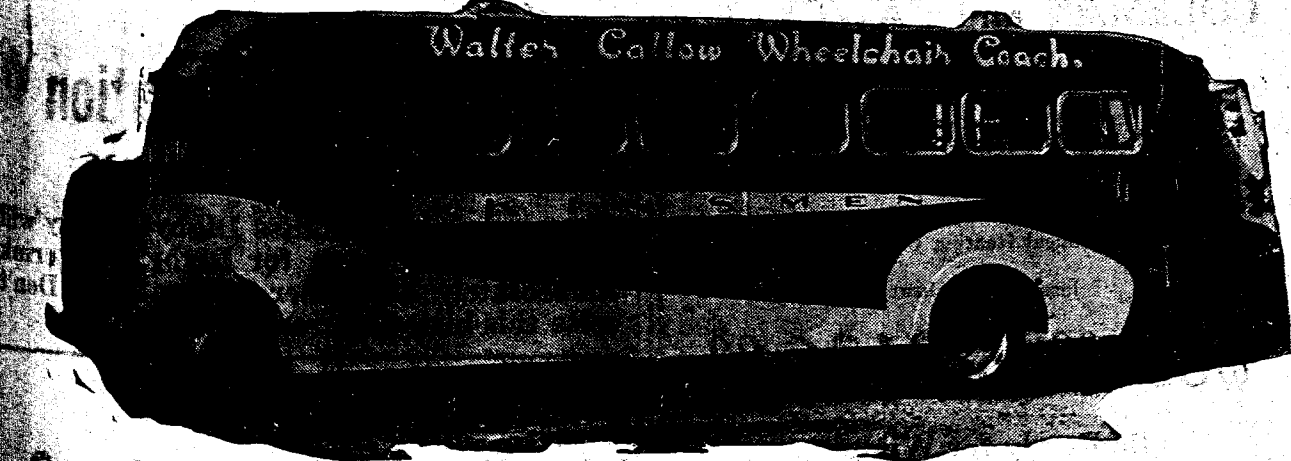

Sunny, Joan Comeau; Eileen, Antoinette Richards; Nan, the oldest orphan, Jocelyn Mullin; Slim, Donald Rohlehand; Paul, Donald Hattie; Lella, Suzanne Marshall; Billie, Edythe Amos; Reddy, Howard Kirkpatrick; Twins, Margaret Wilson and Norma Mullin; Amos, Charles Theriault; Heck, John Comeau; Phil, Dick Milberry; Betty, Juanita Rafuse; Howard, Joseph Hattie; Horace, Douglas Donnet; Harriet, Louise Doherty; Jean, Addie VanTassel.

Between Acts I and II of the operetta, Graduation Exercises were held. The Valedictory Address was delivered by Margaret Ann Thibault. Following this Diplomas and certificates of promotion were awarded.

Those receiving diplomas, having successfully completed the prescribed High School Course, were John Doucet, Dorothy Gaudet, Margaret Thibault, Junior High Diplomas were awarded to Arthur Bennett, Dorothy Doucet, Joe Doucet, Hughena Rafuse, Anthony Saulnier.

Walter Callow Wheelchair Bus Visits Digby

Walter Callow wheelchair bus, in Digby Monday on board the bus each chair is braked into position so there is no danger of movement. Comfort facilities are provided on board the bus for long trips and everything is arranged for the maximum comfort of the passengers.

Walter Callow, blind, paralyzed, who has lain abed in Camp Hill Hospital, Halifax, since 1930 considers his handicaps an added incentive to his work for fellow war veterans. Not content with raising more than $12,000 during the war years to supply 3,000,000 cigarettes to Canadians overseas, and the many other efforts he sponsored and put through in aid of Canadian servicemen, he is now working hard on his plan to provide these wheel chair carriers for incapacitated veterans in order that they may have an opportunity to get out in the air and travel about in comfort in the land they fought to save.

To the people of Digby Walter Callow and his efforts for veterans has a special appeal. Before World War I Walter Callow was in business here. Together with a Harry Chittick of Saint John he operated a garage here for a short time. To all who knew him he was known as a "regular fellow" and a good sport. Serving with the Royal Flying Corps in World War I, he was badly injured in a crash during a test flight in 1917. Through thirteen years of difficulty and suffering his stout spirit kept him living an almost normal life. But for sixteen years he has been bedridden and for seven years he has been blind. Hospital comrades have somewhat crudely nicknamed him the "Human Log." Despite his condition his heroic spirit carries on and every energy and effort is bent to help his fellow sufferers. Anything that can be done to aid and assist him in this work is greatly appreciated.

Walter Callow wheelchairs are carried and a ramp is lowered at the rear of the bus to assist them aboard. The seats are most comfortable, padded head rests and foot rests. The legs are adjustable so that they may be

About This and That

Efforts toward securing a skating and hockey rink for Digby are progressing most satisfactorily. A building has been purchased in Yarmouth and the contract let for dismantling and re-erecting this in Digby.

All and more of the proceeds of the July 1st Fair will be needed to put this building into shape for use next winter. It is up to the people of Digby if this rink is to be erected here. Support—and whole-hearted support—of the Board of Trade's July 1st Fair, by every man, woman and child in this community and the surrounding countryside will mean that a long stride can be made in the job that lies ahead.

For years we have "beefed" because Digby had no rink although efforts to secure a rink have not always met with a too favorable response. Now, however, the whole matter has been put on a sound basis with the formation of the Digby Recreation Commission and the goal is in sight. It is up to us if it is to be achieved this year. The corner stone is to be laid July 1st. If that day is the success we can make it we can look forward to a rink for next winter. It is squarely up to us—how about it? "We've bought it—let's move it!"

Contest

This year's contestants are really going to have something to remember: John Rodney, of New York and Hollywood, will be one of the judges, and will also crown Miss Digby County and present the prizes. Can you think of anything more wonderful than to have a honest-to-goodness movie actor on hand at such a time? That Mr. Rodney is not only willing to help us, but is looking forward to his part in the contest, proves that he is just as nice as he looks—which is very nice indeed! You will find it a delightful experience just to meet and talk with him, as of course, all the contestants will want to do. Better bring your autograph albums with you too.

We should all feel particularly happy about having Mr. Rodney as, in a way, and as he himself feels, he rather belongs to us. He has spent many a summer at his grandparents' home (you all know Raymond's Point and the lovely old house high up on the hill) near the mouth of Bear River. He loves our neck of the woods, and has a soft spot in his heart for anyone who can finish their address with "Digby County, Nova Scotia." You are probably all wondering just what is the program for the contestants this year, so here it is in full. In the morning we will have a float, and of course, we want as many of you girls as possible to appear on it. You needn't wear your contest dress for this—just anything you have that is colorful and gay.

The contest is scheduled for four-thirty in the afternoon but you should be up at the platform not later than four, so that you will have time to meet Mr. Rodney, and to give yourselves those vastly important last-minute touches.

When the contest is over, and the prizes and gifts (beautiful gifts for Miss Digby County from some of Digby's generous merchants) have been presented, our new Miss Digby County will be asked to put her magic touch on the object for which we are working at this time, THE RINK. She is to lay the cornerstone. Isn't that exciting? After this ceremony, all the contestants will be taken to one of our hotels for dinner.

Yes, ALL of the contestants. You should have a barrel of fun. And after the dinner you will all be taken back to the fair grounds for an evening of dancing and good time.

By the time you see this there may be other things planned for your pleasure. The citizens of Digby seem to have taken Miss Digby County very much to their hearts, and are doing everything they can think of to give her a day which she will long remember.

We still have plenty of room for more girls, so come along and join up for all the excitement and fun.

Louise J. Stephen,
Phone 186-L, Montague Row.

Amateur photographers and railway fans, including the general public, all the way from Montreal to Halifax had a field day when a massive streamlined diesel-electric locomotive made a test run over the Canadian National Railways with the Ocean Limited from Montreal to Halifax and from Halifax to Montreal. As the latest in railway motive power passed through the various railway stations along the way, people were gathered on the platform to get a view of the giant. At the larger centres, where stops were made, an eager crowd gathered around the diesel taking everything they could. Officials in charge were besieged with questions. The giant locomotive was in three units and weighed 345 tons. Each unit develops 1,500 horsepower. Photographs show a view of the diesel-electric locomotive during the stop at Moncton, N. B., and He is Roy McAulay of Moncton, a close-up of the driver sitting who handled the streamlined giant at the controls inside the cab. ant from Moncton to Halifax.

More Canning Sugar

Available On July 3

The validity date for the remaining five canning sugar coupons has been advanced from July 17 to July 3, it has been announced by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The first five canning sugar coupons became valid on May 15. These coupons will provide the 10 pounds of sugar per person for home canning under the ration system.

The validity date was moved forward to enable women to use the sugar during the berry season. However, it is pointed out, there is no reason for buying the sugar until it is needed as the coupons will remain valid throughout the canning season.

A large number of country leaving senior high school the completion of the was commented upon at High School Closing Exercises here tonight by School Supervisor Purdy. He stated that of country pupils attending Senior High in Digby have before the term's end a 1 over that of town pupils. This high casualty rate is Mr. Purdy stated, to lack of well trained and experienced teachers in the rural schools.

Grade XI students coming from these schools are unable to with the higher standards in the urban centres. After an almost hopeless struggle they leave, returning home saddened and disillusioned by their experience. Development of the Rural High School plan would do much to correct this evil, Mr. Purdy felt it would improved teaching conditions. He expressed the hope that many of the talented graduated from the schools of the province this year would turn to teaching as their life's work. In teaching, he said, there is a splendid challenge for service in a field where money returns are not large but where joy and satisfaction of achievement are unsurpassed.

The graduating class prophesied was read by Florence Larramore and the class will by Vernon Warner. Ronald Cowan delivered the Valedictory address. Presentation of an award to Mr. and Mrs. Craig was made by Florence Larramore and Ray Marley. Mr. Craig has coached the boys and girls' basketball teams during the year.

Dedication of the graduation issue of "Fundy Light", the school paper, to Miss Eleanor Douglas, Domestic Science teacher who is leaving the staff at the end of the term, was made by Helen May, who also presented Literary D's to fellow students earning this award.

Piano solos were rendered by Vera Warner, Dorothy Saunders and a vocal solo by Barbara Marshall. William Winfield acted as Class Chairman at the evening.

Guest speaker for the Convocation exercises was Rev. Dr. H. E. Walsh, Ph.D., of the General Theological Seminary, Montreal, and former rector of Christ Church, Dartmouth. Dr. Walsh was introduced by the Chairman of the School Board and thanked by School Commissioner Victor Carson.

The Mayor's Prize, awarded to the Grade XII student showing Personality and Leadership during three years in senior High School, was presented to William Winfield. Hilma Worley was winner of the prize for Highest Standing, Junior and Senior years, while Ramona Vincent was prize winner for efficiency in French.

Efficiency prize in Mathematics was awarded to Harriett Allen and Vera Atkinson won a prize for excellent work in History.

In Grade XI prize for outstanding cheerful co-operation was awarded to Beth Dunn. Highest average prize went to Donald while prize winner for consistently good work and conscientious effort was Charlotte Vincent.

Grade X prize winners were: Best Citizenship and all round student, Annette Mulise; Highest average, Joan Ryan; Good work, Muriel Nichols; Home Economics, Jean Handspiker.

Senior High

E. C. Churchill of the Baptist Church was the speaker at the closing exercises of the Junior High Digby Academy, held Wednesday night in the County Hall.

A most inspiring address Churchill urged the students to temptation. For every temptation that is bad, he said, is a corresponding good temptation. During the school he stated, the teachers had been tempting the pupils to good habits of studiousness, play, appreciation of music, ic, literature and art. These were temptations to which all should succumb.

Giving in to good temptations builds up resistance to temptations that are evil, Mr. Churchill stated. He cited an instance of a young boy whose pleasure seemed to be in stoning birds and small wild life. Through the efforts of a noted educator this youngster became interested in the habits of these creatures and soon became an authority, eager to impart his knowledge and respect for the wild life of his rural home to friends. By succumbing to the temptation to learn, he overcame his temptation to destroy.

Previous to the address by the guest speaker class exercises were carried out by members of the graduating classes. Group singing was conducted by boys' and girls' choruses. Piano solos were played by Marilyn Marshall, Ella Franklin and a piano duet by Connie Jones and Margaret McLean.

In his report Supervisor Purdy stated the school year had been a most successful one and paid high tribute to the work of Miss Agnes Mills, teacher in charge of the Junior High and members of the staff. Average daily attendance throughout the year was over 90%. This year credit toward a passing certificate had been awarded pupils taking music from a recognized teacher outside the Academy.

Prizes for Career Day books were presented to Barbara Perry, Marilyn Campbell and Connie Jones. Poster prize winners were Donald Fleet and Carolyn Forrest. These prizes were donated by members of the Digby Kiwanis Club.

Certificates and class prizes were presented to the pupils by members of the School Board. In bringing the proceedings to a close School Board Chairman Dr. J. R. McCleave, complimented the students and teachers on their efforts and urged the pupils to continue attending school until matriculation. We are living in an age of specialists, he stated, and education is becoming more and more necessary if we are to be successful in life. There is little room in the world of today for the uneducated and untrained person, Dr. McCleave stated.

Mrs. Norval Morehouse, Sandy Cove, has returned from Westport after visiting her sister, Blanche Hicks.

MARRIAGE

Burrell - Dukeshire

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist Church at Clementsvalle on Monday, June 16 at 4 o'clock by Rev. C. E. Young, when Mildred Janette daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Dukeshire of Waldec, became the bride of Edwin Herbert, son of Capt. and Mrs. W. W. Burrell of Clementsport.

The church was decorated with lilacs, honeysuckle, hawthorne and potted plants, and the wedding music was played by Mr. Alden Walker. During the signing of the register, Mr. W. W. Sanford sang "Till Walk Beside You."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked very lovely in her wedding gown of white nylon with long veil falling gracefully from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white lilies and fern. Mrs. Corey Long attended her sister as matron of honor wearing a floor length dress of brocade. Miss Freda Ring in pink taffeta and Mrs. Albert Mackenzie in blue taffeta acted as bridesmaids, all three wearing shoulder length veils and carrying an arm bouquet of flowers in colors to match their gowns.

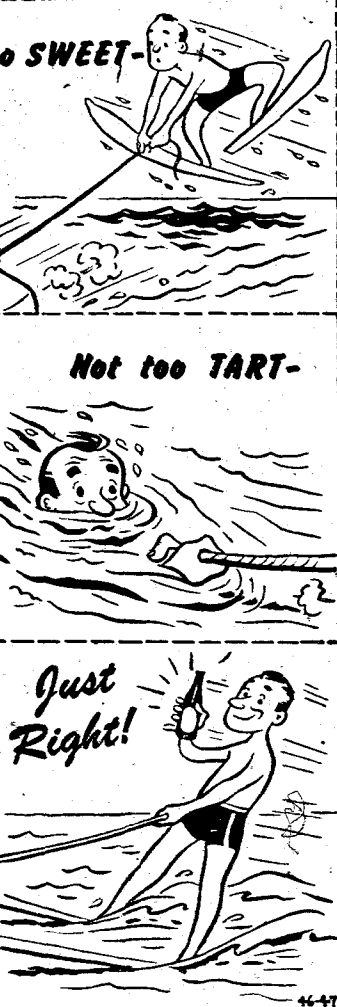

Alden Dukeshire, brother of the bride, acted as best man, and Vernon Elliott and Ernest Dukeshire were ushers.

A reception for about one hundred guests followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dukeshire, Waldec. The bride's mother in flowered jersey received with the wedding party. Mrs. William Ring and Mrs. Howard Potter poured. Mrs. Sable McNinch cut the cake and Misses Marian Woodland, Helen Potter, Mrs. Walter Sari, Mrs. Percy Turnbull and Mrs. Fred Stevenson assisted in serving. The dining table was centred with a three tier wedding cake and cut in traditional manner by the bride and groom.

The honeymoon will be spent at Evangeline Beach. The happy couple will live in Clementsport. The groom served overseas for four years in World War II. The bride has been a successful teacher for several years. They received many beautiful gifts.

Hudgins - Theriault
Merritt - Theriault

The United Baptist Church at Rossway was the scene of a very pretty double wedding on Saturday evening, June 14, at 8 o'clock, when Rev. B. R. Hamilton united in marriage Elsie Hilda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Theriault of Rossway, and Nelson Sinclair Hudgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Hudgins of Young's Cove, Annapolis Co., and Thelma Eunice, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Theriault, and Alison George Merritt, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. George Merritt of Mink Cove.

The brides, who were given away in marriage by their father, Charles Theriault, and Willard Wentzell, an uncle of the brides, looked lovely in floor length gowns of white rayon sheer, with long sleeves and fitted bodice. Their long trained veils were caught with orange blossoms and both carried bouquets of sweet pea and fern. Their only ornaments were a string of pearls. Mrs. Theriault mother of the brides, wore a navy white flowered silk dress with navy accessories. Mrs. Rebecca Sabean, grandmother of the brides, wore a two piece brown silk dress with brown accessories.

The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Vinald Theriault, sister-in-law of the brides. Ushers were Victor and Vaughn Haight.

The church was tastefully decorated with lilacs, apple blossoms, hawthornes, narcissus and fern, and the ceremony was performed under an arch.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Roy Stanton sang "Till Walk Beside You."

Immediately following the ceremony a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with over sixty invited relatives and friends of both brides and grooms were present. After receiving congratulations a beautiful three tiered wedding cake and others were placed on the brides' table which was trimmed with pink and white streamers. A telegram of congratulations was received by Mr. and Mrs. Merritt from a friend, Mrs. Robert Foster of England.

They were recipients of many lovely gifts, including pyrex, linens, bed accessories and a substantial sum of money. During the evening singing was enjoyed and at the refreshment period cake and liquids were served by the Misses Ruby Hutchins and Phyllis Hudgins and Mrs. John McBride, Mrs. Clinton Robinson, Mrs. Vinald Theriault and Mrs. Oswald Mullen, while Mrs. Theriault, mother of the brides, and Mrs. Thomas Sabean poured.

The happy couples left on honeymoon trips to Middleton and Saint John, N. B. On their return they will reside at Mink Cove. The best wishes of all their friends are extended to them.

Out of town guests included relatives from the United States, Young's Cove, Middleton, Digby, Little River, Mink Cove, Sandy Cove and Culloden.

Vets To Get Full Building Priority

Reconstruction Minister Howe told the House of Commons that arrangements which he had announced earlier had now been completed to give full building priority to veterans who want to start building homes.

Until now the priority was restricted to those who had homes 50 per cent completed in order to steer building materials to completion of projects.

Veterans may not get priorities by showing evidence that they have land and intend to build. They must detail building materials required and priorities will be given only for the minimum quantities required to complete a reasonable type and size of home.

The priorities will be confined to veterans building single homes for their own occupancy and not covered by the small holdings plan of the Veterans' Land Act. Other machinery has been set up for priorities under group schemes.

Boat Breaks Down; Flares Used To Attract Rescuers

Captain Arlston Pyne and his mate, Avard Dakin of Centreville, had a narrow escape from death last Thursday when their fishing boat encountered engine trouble while fishing in the Bay of Fundy.

Leaving Centreville early in the day, their engine broke down when out of sight of land and they drifted helplessly in the Bay with a heavy sea running. When they had not returned by early evening residents of the village became worried and the Digby Life Saving Station was called.

A search by the life boat failed to reveal any trace of the missing craft, a 38 foot motor boat, and the lifeboat returned to Digby. Later two motor boats from Centreville, one captained by Isaiah Haight and the other by Harold Raymond, put out in search of the craft.

Some time after putting out, flares were seen in the distance and the two boats made in that direction. Tow lines were put aboard the Pyne boat and she was towed in. First tow line put aboard by the Raymond boat parted and the towing job was completed by Isaiah Haight and his crew, Robert Raymond and W. Raymond, who arrived back in Centreville with the Pyne Boat and crew shortly after 1 a. m.

- Distinctive Silver Streak Styling.
- Big, roomy Body by Fisher • Triple-Cushioned Ride • Shock-Proof Knee-Action • Fisher No-Draft Ventilation • All-Weather Engine Temperature Control.
- Smooth, powerful L-Head Engines • Full-Pressure Metered Flow Lubrication.
- Scotch-Mist Quick Warm-up Manifold • Gaselector • Vacuumatic Spark Control.

We sincerely believe that no car is more generally satisfactory to its owners than a Pontiac.

Year after year, Pontiac offers all that's good and all that's new - plus outstanding economy of operation and upkeep. It really leaves nothing essential to be desired - in performance, in comfort or in handling ease. And, always, it is one of the most beautiful cars to be seen on the streets and highways.

The 1947 Pontiac Silver Streak is an example of what we mean. People who get it need envy no one - and the same will be true of those who get their Pontiacs in 1948, 1949 or 1950. Year after year, Pontiac is a fine care - in every respect.

The stack of orders piled up for the new Pontiac are gratifying testimonials to the quality and beauty of this finest of the famous Silver Streaks. Unfortunately, so many orders also mean that many who choose Pontiac must wait. BEAUTIFUL CIRCUS GIRLS ON PARADE

Beautiful girls, and many of them, are to be seen performing under the mammoth "Big Top" of the world famous Sparks three-ring railroad Circus when the big show exhibits here, afternoon and night at 2:30 P.M. and 8:30 P.M. on Wednesday, July 3, on the show grounds at Jersey Farms.

Living a clean wholesome life in the great outdoors, these beauties are versatile of talent and enjoy the "trouping" as well as playing important roles such as performing in the "Aerial Ballet" high in midair in the dome of the "Big Top." Many of them are accomplished equestriennes, others are daring trapeze artists, acrobats, wire walkers, elephant trainers, and all appear in the glittering, glorious, scintillating opening spectacle "Americana," attractively gowned in gorgeous costumes, the prelude to two hours of entertainment under the billowing canvass of the "Big Top" as the main tent is termed by the showfolk.

Sparks Circus, this year, for the first time since the beginning of World War II is transported on its own train of double length railroad car with palatial sleeping coaches as the travelling homes for the performers and other attaches while on tour. A complete menagerie is another 1947 feature of this year's Sparks Circus.

A happy party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Potter, Clementsport, Monday evening, June 9th. The occasion was a shower for Miss Mildred Dukeshire, who has been the popular teacher in the Primary School this year.

More guests arrived including the groom-to-be who carried her over the threshold to the sun room where a large table decorated with ink streamers and white bells was laden with nicely wrapped boxes which when opened by the happy couple, were found to contain gifts of pyrex, glass, china, linen and many kitchen articles.

The guests of honor thanked their friends for their kind thoughts of them, after which delicious refreshments were served by Misses Helen Potter, Freda Ring and Carol Marshall.

VLA Homes Built Total 2,511

Veterans Minister Mackenzie in a Commons return said 2,511 homes had been built for veterans on Veterans Land Act subdivision projects and that 2,129 had been sold. Another 152 were under construction.

By provinces, British Columbia had had 576 homes completed. Alberta had 280, Saskatchewan 80, Manitoba 227, Ontario 1,043, Quebec 187, New Brunswick 73, Nova Scotia 30, Prince Edward Island 15.

In British Columbia, 528 homes had been sold, in Alberta 279, Saskatchewan 72, Manitoba 109, Ontario 924, Quebec 110, New Brunswick 71, Nova Scotia 23, Prince Edward Island 13.

The return said 104 veterans had made deposits on proposed purchases and later declined to go through with them. Various reasons were given, including price fixation being too large to assume, moving to other places, dissatisfaction with price, construction or location.

Build 10,000 Vet Homes This Year

Reconstruction Minister Howe predicted in the Commons that 10,000 homes for veterans will be built this year under the integrated housing plan, through which the contractor is guaranteed a sale.

Another 7,000 to 8,000 houses will be built under the Wartime Housing Plan, the minister added.

Mr. Howe also announced that steps were being taken to decrease the proportion of lumber being exported to provide more for domestic construction and said further announcements would be made.

He also placed the 1947 production of nails, one of the most critically short of the building materials, at 1,400,000.

Mr. Howe explained that all available nail wire could not be used in the production of nails because this would affect the output of other products, such as agricultural implements. Nail wire was being used the best way possible.

The minister spoke as the House continued debate on a section in the main government control bill which would continue for another year certain war-induced priorities on building materials.

He said it was planned to retain controls on steel and timber until supply could meet demand. Steel production was 20 per cent higher under controls than it would be if this industry were control-free.

Earlier Mr. Howe said he had been advised by the Canadian Legion that the "only satisfactory housing" being built for veterans in Canada was Wartime Housing and that the hope of the veterans depended on this type of construction.

God is able to meet the need of all and fulfill every desire; it is just a question of your hunger for righteousness.—R. A. Butler.

THE BIG BEAUTIFUL DODGEGIVES YOU THESE TRADITIONAL DODGE QUALITIES...*DEPENDABILITY

Dodge from the first insisted on "Dependability". It was the guiding principle when the first Dodge was planned and produced more than 30 years ago. Year after year Dodge engineering improvements give Dodge owners Extra thousands of miles of troublefree operation — add to the traditional Dodge reputation for Dependability.

SAFETY

In 1922 Dodge scored a "First" in automobile safety with an all-steel sedan. Two years later Dodge again led with equal-pressure hydraulic 4-wheel brakes for quicker, safer stops. Regularly, Dodge has added new safety features such as safety glass, and Safety Rim wheels which provide protection in case of a blowout — until to-day there is no safer car on the road.

COMFORT

The thrilling Dodge Full Floating Ride results from more than 20 important factors including Floating Power engine mountings; independent front wheel springing; balanced weight distribution; placing the rear seats ahead of the rear axle. In 1942, Dodge Custom was first in its price class with Fluid Drive — the greatest motoring advancement since hydraulic brakes and floating power.

ECONOMY

Dodge cars have always been economical to operate — BIG cars — real value in every price class. The powerful Dodge L-Head engines have fewer moving parts. Among the many wear-resisting features are "Superfinish"; an oil bath air cleaner which protects moving parts from grit; and four rings per piston for gas and oil economy.

DODGE STYLE AND BEAUTY, throughout the years, has matched Dodge engineering and design. Each new Dodge is acclaimed as "more beautiful than ever" — each new Dodge has added new enthusiastic owners to the ever-growing list of satisfied Dodge buyers.

TIME-TESTED DODGE ENGINEERING — FAMOUS FOR OVER 30 YEARS
