Now and then a printing job had a save in parchment paper which required a special kind of printers' ink which smelled very bad some days. I always dreaded it when "Mac" would take you to the largest press in spite of the fact he always opened an outside door to lessen the odors on the constitutent.

One of the jobs I had to do, besides putting and printers devil on the staff, was to... I cleaned one and then... (one day not long after I started to get to the printing plant, I decided to clean the floor that apparently hadn't been cleaned for some considerable time.)

"J.J." came along and said, "how are you making out Vince?" I assured him that I thought I was beginning to see the floor. "J.J." laughed very heartily. He thought the remark pretty good and sensible.

Sometimes the gasoline engine, a piece of machinery would refuse to work, and the "Man" fix-it man had patiently worked for a certain length of time to get it going again, without results. Man would then stand back and come over dramatically then he would immediately start working. "See," he would say, "all it needed was a bit of coaxing."

On other occasions when some guests refused duty for the and seemed to be brokenhearted, I would say, "use a little oil" and state another idea that is in the value of that remark and the actual need of oil in many life situations, applied at the right time, right place and in the right way.

Other things that sort of stick in my memory and come to mind now and then are, like the time I told "Mac" of four teenage boys who in the spring season of 1948 got together just before dark one evening and decided to mutilate the newly built outdoor Pease Hotel swimming pool which had just been filled with water. Clothes were taken off near the road just out of the pool, nobody else seemed to be around except the four boys, no thought or time for bathing suits, so in the pool they went. They stood on the edge of the pool and looked at the chilly water, one soon jumped in. The rest quickly followed and across the pool they swam. "Mac" listened to the story and hardly said anything, but the next "Digby Courier" had a good story on the episode. The heading of the story was something like, "Four Boy Sepsis Officially Open Pease Hotel Swimming Pool." Who were the four? Many years later they are known as: the late Dr. Earl H. Anderson, veteran of two wars (second world war), was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sidney L. Smith, now prominent druggist for many years in Digby; Clayton D. Snow, Digby wholesale importer of hardware and myself.

As a young teenager I used to like doing some writing about different events interesting to myself and mostly for myself. One day I was asked to me how about writing your version of the story told about "The Marooning of Jerome". I did it and read at least two somewhat different versions about the man who was found marooned out on a beach at some point on the French Shore of St. Vincent, Barbados County. When found this man's clothes had been cut out and his legs quite freshly amputated. He was surgically well dressed and bound. He was presumably left by some vessel before even one morning all for some mysterious reason.

"Joe" appeared to have been a man of considerable social standing and, possibly, of considerable wealth. However, the only thing could or would ever say after being asked about it by some family in the French island was something that sounded like "the name of the father, could not, or, would not, were," who he was or why he was left there, as it was, and, in, one of Digby County, Ireland, and different ideas have been passed down years concerning this man. However, "Mae" was, I felt so sure he was, something different about this man. The fact that I have been very well explained in my mind, surely, such, his work at work, and

From the files of the Chamber of January 22, 1960, the following account has been copied concerning Dwight D. Davis:

Among a number of old newspapers kindly sent to us are items in a copy of the Saint John Telegraph of May, 1887, says the Telegraph and among other advertisements contained in the issue before us is one describing the town and farming of Digby, and offering for sale certain lots in the town. In this area we are told the township of Digby "extends from the Gut of Cansuque westward to the extremity of the province of Nova Scotia, and contains about 124,000 acres." The town plot is then described.

The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and extends miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of W. Mary's Bay. This land not only has water's edge, partly on level ground, and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having on an eastern aspect a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in extent, it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth at that name. It was secured by Loyalists from New York in 1782, the point of which went early to Britain, or, moving to other countries, left the shore free trade with the U.S.A., especially with the New England States. The question was then debated by some Digby High School students, one of which was "J.J.'s" daughter, Florence (now Mrs. Morton of T. B. Proctor, Digby Co.). Some days after the debate a man from some part of Nova Scotia came to the printing shop looking for Florence, one of the successful debaters. I had the impression that this man was interested politically but, maybe I was wrong.

Well, I felt that I had learned considerable from my short experience at "The Wallis Job Print." I was learning to do beginner jobs, receiving some knowledge about things like embossing, stamping, perforating, counting, cutting and stitching paper stock, mixing inks for certain desired colors, and so forth, but, the only experience I had at setting type was just enough to make a "go," the printers name for a confused mess.

There was a taste of trying to sell the product inside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it. I made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular house, and much time not getting an order, but Today's homemaker can salt with assurance by following this simple guide. Slightly larger amounts of salt should be used during hot summer days as a health measure to prevent heat fog which results when excessive perspiration depletes the body of necessary salt.

Year End Report

Minister of Education

Pupils and Teachers

An additional 4936 pupils enrolled in the public schools of Nova Scotia during the last school year, bringing the total enrollment to 146,358. In the last ten (10) years the enrollment has increased by almost 30,000 and in that period more than 1200 new classrooms have been opened. Over 100 classrooms were added during the past year. The number of teachers employed during the year, exclusive of substitutes, increased by 71 to a total of 5096. The percentage of attendance increased by 0.3 per cent to 96.5 per cent of actual possible attendance.

School Construction

Incomplete figures on the cost of new construction, machinery, furniture and equipment during the school year 1953-54 show a total expenditure of more than two and a half million dollars; repairs and maintenance of buildings and equipment during the same period cost approximately half a million dollars. School construction in most school sections is keeping pace reasonably well with the increasing enrolment.

High Schools

Since September, 1953, five rural high schools and two regional high schools have begun operation.

Of the former, Baddeck Rural High School serves a large number of school sections in southern Victoria County; St. Mary's Rural High School at Sherbrooke provides junior and senior high school instruction for all school sections in the municipality of St. Mary's; North Hants Rural High School at Kennetcook, New Germany Rural High School at New Germany and North Queens Rural

High School at Caledonia provides high school facilities for the school sections of their respective areas.

The high schools in the towns of Oxford and Amherst are now functioning as regional high schools, providing instruction at the high school level for pupils in these two towns and in the non-urban school sections of their immediate neighborhoods.

A new junior high school in New Glasgow and three new junior-senior high schools in New Waterford were opened during the last school year; and a new senior high school, St. Patrick's, has recently begun operation in Halifax.

In addition to the rural and regional high schools, some 80 other schools provided secondary educational facilities and qualified for high school grants from the Department of Education.

One hundred and seven departments in household science were operated by 89 teachers. Sixty-four of the departments were full time and 24 half time.

Fifty school boards provided mechanic science departments as part of the program in their schools, and instruction in these departments was carried on by 70 teachers.

Curriculum Developments

During the year the Curriculum Advisory Committee studied problems concerning the organization of courses at the high school level. It has commenced work on a comprehensive statement of the philosophy and principles underlining its proposed organization of junior and senior high school courses.

At the beginning of the present school year revised syllabi and teaching guides were introduced in Social Studies for Grades 1-5, Arithmetic for Primary - Grade 3, Health for Grades 7-9 and in Latin.

Outlines are in the final stages of completion in English.

Social Studies, Science, Mathematics and History at various levels; and work is being done in French, Chemistry, Physics, Economics, Mathematics and English of the high school grades.

Adult Education

The regional representatives of the Adult Education Division, and the central staff of the Division, keep regularly in touch with citizens and organizations in 500 or more communities who are active in educational activities for young people and adults and in projects for local development.

Two-week residential folk schools were sponsored last year at Caledonia, Kennetcook, Mabou and Tatamagouche. The total attendance of 105 persons was the largest to date.

Thirty-eight local short courses were attended by 1380 persons in 15 counties. Those attending generally belong to organizations carrying on study groups and are concerned with program planning, committee and organizational leadership, and action projects in their communities.

Teacher Education

Earlier this year a new plan for the education of teachers was finalized and made public. Important features of the program include (a) increased participation by the local universities and colleges in teacher education, (b) a new system of classification of teachers' licenses, (c) payment by the provincial government of students' tuition fees for professional training in education at university and (d) formation of a Council on Teacher Education.

The plan provides for affiliation of the Nova Scotia Normal College with the universities, so that professional training courses taken at the Normal College may be credited towards the requirements of a university course in education.

The new program will come fully into operation in the fall of 1955 when the participating universities (Dalhousie, Acadia, Mount Allison, Mount St. Vincent College, and St. Francis Xavier) will inaugurate professional courses in education for students who have completed the sophomore or junior year in Arts, Science or Commerce. In the fall of 1954 the universities offered for the first time newly aligned courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Education for students already holding the degree of Bachelor of

The Pottier Report

The report of the Pottier Commission, a Royal Commission appointed in March, 1953, to inquire into all matters related to the financial support of the public schools, was handed to the Lieutenant Governor on November 25, 1954. Among the chief recommendations of the Commission are (1) the establishment of a "foundation program", characterized as "the highest type of program which all resources available can finance and in which every child can participate"; and (2) equalization of assessment throughout the provinces, town and municipal rates set a fair basis for payment of the cost of the foundation program. A reassessment at the provincial level is set forth in the report of the full net values real estate and personal property in each city, town and county in the province. The report suggests standard scales for expenditures in which the provincial government would participate towards the cost of instruction, transportation and classrooms; and it suggests that the provincial government should contribute to capital expenditures in the (Please turn to page six)

Canada's Largest Bank first to report assets over $3 billion

During the year just closed, Canada and the Royal Bank matched strides on a path of solid progress. In many significant areas of the bank's operations new high records were reached, thus reflecting the vitality and growth of Canada itself.

Marking an historic milestone in Canadian banking, assets surpassed the $3 billion mark while deposits of over $2,797,000,000 and loans of $1,888,022,047 were also new records-making "highs". The bank now has more than 2,450,000 deposit accounts on its books.

To keep pace with the demand for banking service, new branches were built, while many others were renovated and modernized. Today, The Royal Bank of Canada operates some 813 branches — 71 of them beyond Canada's borders — each geared to offer facilities in step with the needs of all Canadians in this era of exciting national progress.

Among the benefits of Branch Banking...

Your local bank is an essential link between your community and the whole banking world.

In remote areas, Canadians enjoy the same broad range of bank services, the same sense of security.

As communities develop, banking services are made available to meet new and growing needs.

Banking in Canada works in such a way that your local branch manager brings you all the resources, knowledge and experience of the bank he represents. It has branches throughout Canada and provides contacts the world over. The benefits of this branch banking system, developed to meet Canadian needs, are demonstrated every day by the quality and scope of your local banking service.

Tuxis & Older Boys' Parliament Meets

For four days during the Christmas vacation the Maritime Provinces' 32nd Tuxis and Older Boys' Parliament was in session in Trueman House on the Mount Allison university campus at Sackville, N. B.

The parliament opened on December 27 with a record enrollment of 77 boys, who were welcomed to Mount Allison by the university's president, Dr. Flemington. After this welcome each boy in turn introduced the boy on his right to the assembled house. Earlier in the day the boys were given a tour of the campus.

On Tuesday morning the first chapel service was conducted by Rev. Wilbur Howard of Toronto, associate editor in the United Church's department of Sunday school publications. The theme of his address was: "What do you expect to happen at parliament?" He went on to suggest that what we find is largely determined by what we expect to find. The explosive power of the presence of God can be ours if we expect to find Him. Following the devotional, Rev. Mr. Howard led us in a group discussion about group work.

Tuesday afternoon was the occasion for the traditional "oath of allegiance" ceremony, the oath being the following: "I hereby promise that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the King of Kings, and furthermore that I will do all in my power to promote fourfold development of boys' life in the district of the Maritime provinces." After taking the oath each boy signed the roll containing the same. Following this, the lieutenant-governor, Rev. J. Judson Levy of the First Baptist Church of Moncton was ushered into the house where he delivered the "speech from the throne". Rev. Mr. Levy is himself a former boys' work secretary of the Maritime Religious Education Council who sponsored this parliament. Following the speech from the throne every boy spoke in the debate on it.

The house approved a resolution by Don Mosher of Wolfville, minister of devotional affairs. It pledged the parliament to "encourage the sanctity of Sunday" and to "demonstrate by example the proper observance of Sunday", adding: "We feel that organized sports are out of keeping with the observance of the Lord's Day".

Rev. Howard addressed the boys Wednesday on "discipline". Later in the day an interesting debate was touched off by a resolution approving use of the revised standard version of the Bible, especially for young people. In the debate, the Premier, Dave Hamilton, of Campbellton, said "young people should study and compare as many versions of the Bible as can be obtained, to get at the truth the Bible contains". Following this the young parliamentarians were taken on a tour of C.B.A.

In another resolution the boys urged enforcement of laws governing lotteries and games of chance, and the use of lotteries for charitable organizations as a means of raising funds was criticized. This resolution

On Thursday evening at 11:00 p.m. we began the most impressive service of the week — the annual Watchnight Service. "This has been the greatest experience of my life" was the sincere witness of many boys, all of whom testified that parliament had brought them closer to God. The Communion of the Lord's Supper closed the service, which ended at 2:00 a.m.

On Friday morning parliament was dissolved by the lieutenant-governor, and another parliament, under the capable leadership of Rev. Garnet Sherwood, M.R.E.C. boys' work secretary, had ended.

Representing Digby County at the parliament was Ernest Haight, of Brighton.

also called on authorities to enforce laws relating to profanity, indecent and obnoxious literature.

The finance committee passed a bill in which the parliament proposes to raise $3,400 for the M.R.E.C. by selling shares in boys' work, plus $100 to give leadership camp scholarships. Last year, more than $4,100 was raised.

In the evening a delegation from the C.G.I.T. council was introduced by Miss Joan Windsor, M.R.E.C. girls' work secretary.

Legislation was introduced on Thursday concerning sports and sportsmanship. The resolution, which received hearty endorsement, reads "that the boys of this parliament attempt to do something about the tendency of some sports to become a means of deceit and fraud... that as spectators and players we encourage good sportsmanship by precept and example."

The parliament also got behind a resolution to promote M.R.E.C. camps, conferences and model parliaments and to encourage attendance at them.

One of the last pieces of legislation was a resolution that the boys of parliament seek to strengthen their Christian faith through their activities on Sunday and throughout the week; and that the members of parliament attempt by God's guidance to create Christian understanding between people of various faiths and races.

Also passed on Thursday was the following resolution: "Resolved that the parliament go on record as advocating that religious education be included in the curriculum of the public school, and that letters concerning this matter be sent to the various churches, to the departments of education of the three Maritime provinces, and to the parliamentarians."

On Thursday evening at 11:00 p.m. we began the most impressive service of the week — the annual Watchnight Service. "This has been the greatest experience of my life" was the sincere witness of many boys, all of whom testified that parliament had brought them closer to God. The death of G. Church Gates, well known resident of Weymouth Mills, occurred at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, where he had been a patient for the past four weeks. Following an operation, he was apparently making a good recovery when he unexpectedly passed away.

Mr. Gates was the eldest son of the late Gorham Gates and Carrie Belle Greene and was born at Weymouth Mills in 1886. When 14 years of age he entered Horton Academy, Wolfville, as a student where he remained for three years after which he entered Mt. Allison University, Sackville, to study engineering. He spent three years at Mt. Allison, changing his career while there, to one of music. He entered the Boston Conservatory of Music in 1912 and remained there until 1918, when he received his teacher's license in harmony and theory. He returned to Weymouth in 1924 to make his home here permanently and in 1925 was married to Miss Grace Harlow, of Halifax and Weymouth. He had taught music for more than forty-five years altogether, and had pupils up until the time of his illness.

Surviving him are his wife and three brothers, Harold, of Salt Lake City, and Perley and Ephram of Weymouth Mills.

One sister, Gladys, predeceased him.

The funeral service was held in the Nichol Funeral Home, Weymouth North, the Rev. R. M. Cameron of the United Church, officiating. Interment was in St. Peter's cemetery, Weymouth North. Pall bearers were Ephram and Perley Gates, Victor MacNeil and Donald Ruggles. Numerous floral tributes testified to his popularity as a teacher of music in his home village.

OBITUARY

Howard Ellis

The community of Victoria Beach was deeply shocked on December 28th by the sudden and unexpected passing of Howard Ellis at the age of 53. Mr. Ellis was at his usual work the day previously and passed away in his sleep.

A life-long resident of Victoria Beach, Mr. Ellis was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Ellis of the same place. He is survived by his wife, the former Minnie Weir of Parker's Cove, and by ten children: Leland, Granville Centre; Alvin and Albert, Victoria Beach; Gordon, of the R.C.N. Halifax; Marie (Mrs. C. Cook), Labrador; Irene (Mrs. Gilbert Steele), Preston, Ont.; Della (Mrs. Kenneth Hudson), Port Wade; Vella (Mrs. Paul Zarecki), Halifax; June (Mrs. Vernon Storey), Alberta; and Oriole (Mrs. Robert Titus), Saint John, N.B.

Surviving are also a number of grandchildren and three sisters: Mabel (Mrs. George King), Digby; Lucy (Mrs. Douglas Sydal), Digby; and Myrtle (Mrs. Roy Casey), Victoria Beach. Three brothers also survive: Burton, Digby; Arch, of Lynn, Mass.; and Edward, of Galt, Ontario.

Funeral service was conducted from the Victoria Beach Baptist Church on Thursday, conducted by the Pastor, Rev. R. W. Lindsay. Hymns were "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me." Floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Dr. Thomas Melanson

A practicing dentist in Western Nova Scotia for approximately 50 years and for many years one of the prominent residents in Yarmouth, Dr. Thomas (Tom) Melanson passed away early Monday morning at his home in Weymouth.

Dr. Melanson moved to Weymouth a few years ago after retiring from business in Yarmouth and had been in ill health for the past couple of years.

Born 73 years ago in Corberrie, Digby County, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Etienne Melanson, he is survived by one brother, Charles, of Corberrie; and one sister, Mary, in Boston. His wife, the former Marguerite Surette, predeceased him several years ago.

He received his formal education at St. Anne's College, Church Point, and later graduated from Tufts Dental College, Boston. Following his graduation he started his dental practice in Yarmouth, occupying the Main Street offices where Peter L. Judge, Q.C., is now located. When he retired his offices were in the Studio Block. When he first started practicing there he also visited patients in West Pubnico, Barrington and Clyde River. Then during World War II he held weekly office hours in Meteghan and Weymouth.

During his long stay in Yarmouth, Dr. Tom Melanson made many friends who will deeply regret the passing of a most genial personality. A strong supporter of St. Ambrose Church and St. Anne's College, he was also very active in Community undertakings. A former member of the Yarmouth Kiwanis Club he served for some time on the Yarmouth Town Council and was a School Commissioner for several years. He was a Past President of the Yarmouth Curling Club and for years one of its most active members, taking part in bonspiels in many parts of the province.

He was very active in the Order of the Knights of Columbus. A charter member of Council 2181, Yarmouth, he was a Past Grand Knight and also a Fourth Degree Member.

Funeral services were held in St. Ambrose Cathedral, Yarmouth, yesterday morning at 10 a.m. with Solemn High Mass of Requiem.

MARRIAGE

Boppe - Gaudet

A wedding of interest to many friends was solemnized in St. Joseph's Church on Tuesday morning, December 28, when Rev. D. Comeau united, in a double ring ceremony, Emilda Marie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Resthere Gaudet, of Weymouth, and Donald Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hoppe, of Lunenburg, Ontario.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in a suit of grey gabardine with which she wore accessories of white. She carried a white prayer book, beautifully bound in mother-of-pearl, and a corsage of red roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Edith DeYoung, Sydney, as matron of honor.

Robert L. Stevenson, Farmham, Quebec, attended the groom.

The mass of the Blessed Virgin was sung by the Rev. Sisters of St. Edward's Convent with Mrs. J. D. Rice presiding at the organ.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The toast to the bride was offered by P.O. Ernest McKernon and answered by the groom. The couple motored to Kentville during the afternoon and returned home in the evening after which friends gathered for a social hour. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the newlyweds. A buffet luncheon was served by Mr. and Mrs. Gaudet.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoppe will reside in Weymouth for the present. The bride is in the employ of the Tel. and Tel. Co., Digby, while the groom is in the service of his country and posted at the Cornwallis naval base.

Servicemen Disappointed

Two Westport servicemen suffered disappointments over the Christmas season.

One of these, Dickie Deviller, who is stationed with the Canadian Army at Barriefield, found on arriving back at camp after spending Christmas leave at home, that a fire in his barracks had destroyed all his personal belongings including many Christmas gifts and cards that had arrived after he had left for home.

Paul Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Bailey, who is with the R.C.A.P. at Whitehorse in the Yukon did not get home for Christmas but looked forward to the arrival of gifts and cards from home to live his Christmas in the far northern outpost.

Unfortunately, although the gifts were mailed early, they failed to arrive in time and Paul had the disappointing experience of spending a lonely Christmas far from his folks without the cheering comfort of their gifts and remembrances.

Drive Reaches 1,000 Mark In Town

Although county returns are not yet complete on the recent campaign for the Digby General Hospital, it was learned here this week from Gordon R. Turnbull, chairman of the Drive for Digby town, that contributions from the town had now reached the one thousand dollar mark.

Mr. Turnbull stated that it was hoped when final returns for the town were in the total would exceed $1,500.

At present an intensive drive is underway to collect all the donation cans which were placed in the homes throughout the town at the beginning of the campaign.

It is stated a number of these cans remain uncollected and an appeal has been made to have them returned to the Maritime Fish Co. Ltd. office, the Royal Bank, the South End Grocery or the Hospital.

Finds Interesting Old Paper

Sheldon Gidney, of Mink Cove, recently found an interesting old paper in the attic of his home.

The paper is the Toronto World, issue of December 21, 1901, and contains many news items of interest.

A feature story on the first page tells of an interview with Sir Christopher Furness, British M.P., who had recently returned from an extended investigation of American business methods.

In the interview Sir Christopher stated Canadians were lacking in individual energy in the development of natural resources. He said, however, he was convinced there was an enormous future before Canada and that he felt Canada deserved more attention from the Mother Country.

Another front page feature story carries a prediction by Mr. Marconi in an address in St. John's, Nfld., of wireless messages across the Atlantic to England at the rate of one cent a word.

Mr. Marconi said he understood present rates were 25 cents a word and he said, "I do not see why eventually, with the wireless system, the cost should not be reduced to one cent a word or less."

March Of Dimes Film Shown

John Funsten, Halifax, chairman of the March of Dimes Campaign for Nova Scotia, paid an official visit to Digby on Sunday and showed a film to members of the Digby County committee at the Hotel Champlain. The picture dealt chiefly with the Porch Light canvass which is held each year at the close of the campaign. This year the "Porch Light" will be conducted on Monday, January 31. Committees have been set up in Digby town and many of the villages in the county for the house-to-house canvass on the 31st.

The campaign which opens on Monday, January 17, begins with the School canvass when the school children all over the Dominion turn in the dimes which will bring comfort and care to many sufferers of polio-myelitis.

According to chairman of the Digby County Campaign, James Richards, committees have been set up in the larger centres of the county to carry on a successful campaign for 1953. In Clare the Canadian Legion branch will take over the canvass under the president, Dennis Lelland. Arrangements have been made for the Rebekahs to carry on in Bear River and the Friday Night Club in Smith's Cove.

RESEARCH PROVES SCALLOP IS ELUSIVE

The Fisheries Research Board of Canada has just discovered that the scallop, a queen among the sea, is an extremely elusive little creature and plans to experiment with new methods to snare it on the ocean bed.

For years board scientists believed that only a small percentage of the scallops, regardless of size, was being caught on the Digby beds and the other grounds along the Nova Scotia coast and presumed the reason for it was that the drags used by fishermen bounced over them as they lay on the bottom.

A few months ago Royal Canadian Navy divers were sent down off Digby, confirmed the scientific theories about the small percentage catch and also found the reason which did not confirm the scientists' belief.

The scallops did not escape because the drags bounced over them. The bivalves, themselves, bounced out of the way. Through their several sets of eyes, they could see the fishermen's drags coming toward them and set their shells flapping to get out of the way.

Because of this, scallop fishermen have hauled in only five to ten per cent of the legal sized bivalves on the beds which they work. Those which escape die a natural death or are eaten by oyster drills, jelly fish and other predators.

The day the navy divers went down to the bottom of the Bay of Fundy and discovered the elusive action of the shellfish may prove a turning point in the lives of the scallops.

Present Preliminary Report

A preliminary report on the community psychiatric centre set up in Digby in 1950 is being presented to the directors of mental health for the four Atlantic provinces in Halifax at a two day seminar which wound up Monday.

The project, sponsored by the Province of Nova Scotia and Cornell University in collaboration with Dalhousie University and Acadia University, was organized to study the problem of operating psychiatric clinics in small towns and rural areas.

"The plan is designed to get at mental illness in its early stages, and shorten the course of these illnesses, by carrying psychiatric service to the people in these areas," said Dr. A. H. Leighton, clinic head.

"This means carrying our services to the people in the area in which they live, rather than having them come to the larger centres for treatment as is now the case."

Also attending the seminar are members of the Department of Psychiatry at Dalhousie University and residents in training in psychiatry at the Victoria General Hospital.

Directors attending are: Dr. Clyde Marshall, Halifax. Dr. R. R. Prosser, Fredericton. N. B. Dr. Alice Murchison, Charlottetown. P. E. I. and Dr. Clarence Pottle, St. John's, Nfld.

Other members of the Digby clinic are Dr. Eric Cleveland and Dr. William Longaker. Psychologists attending are Bernard Hebert and W. H. D. Vernon, former chairman of department of psychology at Acadia University; and Miss Janice Ross, social worker.

Hold Farewell Party

One of the nicest parties of the winter season was held on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bent, Granville Ferry, when some fifty residents of the community gathered for a farewell party for Mrs. T. D. McGowan, who, with members of the family, is moving to Halifax, where they have purchased a home.

The evening was very pleasantly spent playing bridge and 45s. Refreshments were served and at the close of the evening Rev. W. E. Jefferson, on behalf of the community, presented Mrs. McGowan with some lovely gifts, including a nice suit case, a silver cream and sugar with matching tray, and a linen luncheon set.

Mrs. McGowan, though taken completely by surprise, voiced her thanks very pleasantly.

Mrs. McGowan, who was the former Helen Rafuse, will be greatly missed in the village, where she has taken an active part in the various phases of community doings.

MANY ATTEND WEEK OF PRAYER SERVICES

Week of Prayer services which began for the Digby and vicinity district at the Hill Grove Baptist church last week showed a greater attendance than usual for the week.

Rev. James Brooks, pastor of Grace United Church, Digby, took as his subject "Fear" when he preached the sermon on the opening night at Hill Grove. On Wednesday evening the service was held at the United Church, Digby, when the speaker was Lieut. E. A. Birt, who chose for his topic, "Doubt." The C.G.I.T. of the church was in attendance. Rev. E. C. Churchill spoke on "Temptation" at the meeting at the Salvation Army Citadel on Thursday evening. A trio was rendered on Thursday night at the Army Hall with parts taken by Mrs. E. A. Birt, Phyllis Howland and Geraldine Fredericks.

On Friday evening Rev. M. P. C. MacIntosh, secretary British and Foreign Bible Society, Nova Scotia Division, was guest speaker. Rev. Mr. MacIntosh traced the history of the Bible Society from its early beginning in England when it was started because a young girl by the name of Mary Jones worked long hours to get enough money to purchase for herself a copy of the Bible and walked many miles to make the purchase. The idea was then fostered by a group of laymen to have the Bible in the hands of "the boy who drives the plough." This was back in 1801, said Mr. MacIntosh, while Napoleon with his army was threatening the safety of England. It was in 1807 when the Bible Society was first formed in Nova Scotia by a man by the name of James McGregor in Pictou.

The Bible is now translated in many languages for use all over the world. It is translated, Mr. MacIntosh said, in 240 languages for the Church of England, 55 for the Baptist, 90 for the Salvation Army and in 35 languages for the United Church. The Bible can be obtained, he said, from the Bible House in Halifax in 90 languages, 5 tons have been distributed to service men and Bibles have been distributed to immigrants in two languages, the native language of the immigrant on one page and the English language on another. The Bible, or parts of it, have been distributed to 1300 classrooms of Grade VII in Nova Scotia schools in an effort to recall youth to Bible reading. Besides this it has been distributed to thousands in Braille.

The Baptist C. G. I. T. and Scouts attended the service.

Collections during the week were for the British and Foreign Bible Society. They amounted to $35.27.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Bent, highly esteemed residents of Granville Ferry during the past thirty-six years, are receiving congratulations from friends and relatives far and near on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

At that time snow covered the fences along the highway. The bride couple wishing to be married in the historic old town of Annapolis Royal, drove some eight miles to the town, crossing the river on the ice in their horse and sleigh at Tupperville, and continuing on to Annapolis on the south side of the river.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the late Rev. Henry W. How, who was Anglican rector at Annapolis Royal for thirty years.

This is THE MARK OF A NEW AGE!

That big, bold Sweep-Sight Windshield — curving back to vertical corner posts — is easy-to-see evidence that Chevrolet has cast aside the tradition of the past to start a whole new age of low-cost motoring. It's smarter to look at — safer to look out of — and it's only part of Chevrolet's new outlook for '55!

Yes, Chevrolet brings you a whole new outlook in low-cost motoring for 1955! It's best symbolized, we think, by the sweeping expanse of windshield that widens your view of the road and lets you "see through" the corners for greater safety.

The car with the new idea! Besides widening your view of the road, the Motoramic Chevrolet broadens the whole horizon of the low-priced car. It was built around the idea that a car doesn't have to be high-priced to look, ride and perform like it. A lot of time and sweat went into the building. A lot of old traditions went out the window because they didn't measure up to this daring new concept. Trust Chevrolet to have the resources and the skill — yes, and the courage — to break so completely with the past.

Everything's new in Chevrolet! Everything — from its tubeless tires to its lower top. There's new beauty with that long, low "let's go" look! New fun underfoot with the new "Turbo-Fire" V8 and the new "Blue-Flame" six! A new choice of drives — new Overdrive, Super-Smooth Powerglide (extra-cost options), and new standard transmission! A wonderful new ride! New High-Level ventilation! But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here.

Look who's stealing whose thunder!

Chevrolet's stealing the thunder from the high-priced cars in more ways than one! Come in, drive it, and you'll see why the Motoramic Chevrolet starts a new and exciting age of low-cost motoring. This you're going to love!

A clearer view of the road... coming and going

A miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hudson on Friday evening in honor of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hudson, who were recently married.

The rooms were trimmed in pink and white streamers and white wedding bells. The table was centered with a white umbrella with streamers of pink and white falling from the centre and gifts of china, pyrex, plastics, glass ware and linens were placed under the umbrella.

A three tier wedding cake, surmounted by a miniature bride and groom, was made and decorated by friends of the bride. A good number attended and a nice time was had by all. Everyone took this opportunity to congratulate the groom and wish the bride much happiness.

Nomination for Man of the Year

FOR helping to improve his own and other communities throughout the nation ... for benefiting his fellow-citizens in countless ways ... this man surely deserves special honours.

He's not a famous personality. But, as the typical Canadian life insurance policyholder, he represents millions of people. And each of those people renders very useful services to his community.

How?

By providing funds which his life insurance company invests for him in ways that help finance new homes, public works, utilities and industrial developments. Together with other policyholders, he puts more than $50 million dollars to work in such projects from coast to coast every year!

Moreover, he has taken steps to make sure that, if anything happens to him, his family will not need to depend on others for support.

So if you are a life insurance owner, take a bow! While you're providing security for your family and yourself, you're also helping to make Canada a better land to live in!

THE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN CANADA

Comprising more than 50 Canadian, British and United States Companies
"It is Good Citizenship to own Life Insurance"

We have so much to protect

This Canada of ours — is ours to enjoy at a price — the price of constant alertness.

We cannot take for granted our freedom to worship, to vote, to educate our children, or to order our home life as we please. All these freedoms are ours only as long as we are willing to do everything necessary to maintain and defend them.

All honour then to the Canadian Soldier — the steadfast guardian of all our free institutions. Without men like him, the Canada we love might cease to be.

We have so much to protect. Let us all do our part, without let-up, whatever way our duty lies.

SERVE CANADA AND YOURSELF IN THE ARMY

To be eligible you must be 17 to 40 years of age, skilled tradesmen to 45.

Look at all 3... you'll see it's LONGEST-LOWEST-SMARTEST

The all-new '55 PLYMOUTH

Biggest of the low-priced 3... excitingly new with Motion-Design styling for The Forward Look ... powerful new V-8 and 6 engines!

V-8 or 6's

• PACKED WITH POWER—New 157-h.p. Hi-Fire V-8 is the most advanced engine in its field. Tops in efficiency for more "go" per gallon. Or, you may choose the new Power-Flow or Powerflow Special engine, based on a design famous for thrust and reliability.

• THREE TRANSMISSIONS—Wide transmission choice—Synchro-Silent is standard equipment; Powerflite automatic transmission or Overdrive are optional at extra cost.

• POWER ASSISTS—Make your driving as automatic as you wish with Plymouth Full-Time Power Steering, Power Brakes, Power Windows, or Power Seats, available at extra cost.

Here's the car to measure against! Plymouth is more than ten inches longer this year... by far the longest of the three leading low-priced cars. Roomiest, too! Most over-all interior space, from instrument panel to rear seat back... most room in the luggage compartment.

Years ahead in style! Lowest and sleekest of all three. Longest hood... most massive grille... most impressive headlights, set deep in the rakish angle of the front fenders.

Built to stay young! When you compare all three for ruggedness and lasting value, consider that Plymouth weighs the most because it's built more solid, stronger. Many extra-value features such as widest rear springs, electric windshield wipers, independent parking brake.

Your Chrysler-Plymouth-Fargo dealer invites you to compare all three. Because, if you do, chances are you'll change to Plymouth!

You can't go ALL-OUT

If you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strains the body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "tired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follows. That's the time to take Doid's Kidney Pills. Doid's stimulates the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Doid's Kidney Pills at any drug store.

Couple Honored On 50th Anniversary

Congratulations were received from far and near by Mr. and Mrs. Burman (Bert and) Thibault, of Doucetteville, on January 9th, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. Thibault was the former Etta Thibault, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Thibault, and Mr. Thibault is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Thibault, all of Doucetteville, and were married January 9th, 1905 at Holy Cross Church, Plympton, as at that time Doucetteville was a small mission and had no church of its own. They drove over heavy drift of snow with horse and sleigh, having seven other horse teams to accompany them on their way to church for the marriage ceremony, which was performed by the late Rev. Father Rouest, who was parish priest at Plympton at that time. Attendants at the wedding were Annie Thibault, now Mrs. Martin Dugas, and residing in Halifax, while the groom was supported by his brother, Herbert. Mrs. Dugas was unable to attend the 50th anniversary due to ill health.

In the evening relatives and friends gathered at the home to congratulate the bride and groom of 50 years, who received gifts, cards, telegrams and flowers from their friends far and near. Mr. and Mrs. Thibault have been Postmaster and Postmistress for the past 31 years and have made many friends during that time. They have lived all their married life in Doucetteville. Mr. Thibault is also a retired carpenter, while Mrs. Thibault, who was a dressmaker, now is busy helping with the duties of the household.

Mr. and Mrs. Thibault have one daughter, Mrs. Elisee Thibault, of Doucetteville, and one son, Donald, with whom they reside. They also have three grandchildren, Shirley and Delroy, daughter and son of Mrs. Elisee Thibault, and Patsy Ann, daughter of Mrs. Donald Thibault.

Those present in the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thibault and baby daughter, Patsy Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Elisee Thibault and two children, Shirley and Delroy, also the groom's brothers, Herbert and Mrs. Thibault, Frank and Mrs. Thibault, Clifford and Mrs. Thibault, formerly of Beverly, Mass., but now residing in Plympton, also Mrs. Mamie Thibodeau, Doucetteville, sister of the groom, also Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Amaro and Lawrence Amaro, and a number of other friends, who called during the evening to give their best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Thibault.

A delicious lunch was served and the three tier wedding cake, topped with the gold coloured letters "50" was cut in the traditional manner by the "bride and groom".

After lunch was served the evening closed with the best wishes of their relatives and friends for many more years of happiness together. (Yarmouth and Halifax papers please copy).

Will Celebrate 97th Birthday

On Friday, January 21, 1955, Mr. Alfred Johnson, a resident of Weymouth and Weymouth North for many years, will celebrate his 97th birthday. The day will be spent quietly at the home of Capt. C. F. Granville and Mrs. Granville as Mr. Johnson is not as well as he was a year ago and keeps to his bed for all but half of the day. Despite his physical health, his mind is still active and his admiration to Mrs. Granville is to "call him early" on that day. He is still a reader of the Digby Courier and looks forward to its arrival.

Mr. Johnson was born in New Waterford, Digby Co., and came to what was at that time called "Kinney Town" as a teacher in the public school. Following that he was for twenty years a bookkeeper in the employ of the G. D. Campbell Co. and after the closing of the pulp mill, opened a store for Capt. B. McLanahan at Gilbert's Cove. During the war he was employed by the LeBlanc Shipbuilding Co., Weymouth, as paymaster. This was his final position as bookkeeper.

On this his 97th birthday, his many friends wish him a very happy birthday and congratulate him on his many years of activity, wishing him health and happiness for the year 1955.

Friends of Mrs. Al Ludescher will be glad to learn that she is home after spending three weeks in hospital for an operation on her knee. Mrs. Ludescher was formerly of Doucetteville (Mamie Mack). Mrs. Ludescher lives in Long Island, N. Y.

The second part of the program was the presentation of a splendid revue by the members of the Bluenose Figure Skating Club of Halifax. Some thirty-five members of the club took part in the revue which included solo numbers, comedy acts and group numbers.

The capacity audience greatly enjoyed the whole show and were particularly thrilled at the beautifully executed numbers by the members of the skating club, all of whom showed marked skating talents and the benefit of thorough and expert training.

Included in the numbers presented by the club were such lovely items as the "Bluenose Waltz"; "Indian Rhythm" which featured the faultless skating of the club professionals, Joan Dorey and Marie O'Toole; "Oriental Fantasy" and "Stardust". The finale, "Waltz Time", brought all members of the cast on the ice in an exhibition of precision and rhythm which was a joy to behold.

Municipal Council Meets

Educational expenditures by the Municipality of Digby for the year 1954 exceeded estimates by some two thousand dollars, it was revealed by Warden H. E. Chisholm in his address at the opening of the annual meeting of the Municipal Council here Tuesday.

Warden Chisholm stated that in all other departments expenditures had been kept within budgeted figures. He said tax collections were up to average and in general the finances of the Municipality were in a healthy condition.

Further increases in education costs were forecast by the Warden in his address and he also stated that Digby Municipality, along with others in the province, was faced with a fifty percent increase in hospitalization costs.

Speaking of the problem of assessment Warden Chisholm stated that Digby Municipality, along with others, had endeavoured to improve assessment by the appointment of a single assessor for the municipality. This had resulted, he said, in an improvement in the assessment picture by inclusion of properties which had not previously been assessed. The problem of equalization was still a most vexing one, the Warden said, however. He said he felt municipalities would never revert to the system of multiple assessors.

The meeting closed with a delightful luncheon for which the tables were attractively decorated.

Has Successful Year

St. Anne's Guild held their annual Guild meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. Elmer Henshaw. A very successful year was reported by the treasurer.

Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Arnold Purdy.

It was decided at this meeting to show films on every second and fourth Wednesday of the month in place of the card social held in the past.

At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Urges Greater Support For "March Of Dimes"

"We are hopeful that the people of Digby County will rally to the support of the March of Dimes campaign with even greater generosity this year," John Funston, provincial campaign chairman said. "While we realize that there are so many calls on the pocket these days all associated with the Nova Scotia Chapter of the Canadian Foundation for Polio-myelitis stress the worthiness of the cause and the great scope of the work undertaken by our organization," he added.

While the collection in the 1954 "March of Dimes" campaign in Digby County was about even with the previous year, it did not record the considerable advance reported for most counties in Nova Scotia. In view of this James Richards, the county chairman, and the volunteer workers throughout the county, are hopeful that the 1955 campaign, which opened on Jan. 17, will show a sharp "upswing" in giving. It continues to Jan. 31.

This year, with a budget of $90,000 there is stronger need than ever for generous support on the part of the public. In support of this Appeal the officials of the campaign stress the fact that the administration costs of the Nova Scotia Chapter for the 1953-54 period worked out to three per cent of the 1954 campaign. "This is the lowest of any charitable organization in Canada, if not the lowest," Mr. Funston pointed out. Drive expenses are also kept to a like minimum. "For two years running our percentage of expenses have been lower than any other Canadian Chapter," Mr. Funston added, and he also emphasized that except for the modest national office assessment, "every cent collected in Nova Scotia is spent in helping people living in this province."

Annual Fire Meet Held

R. L. Taylor was re-elected President of the Smith's Cove Joggin Bridge Volunteer Fire Department at the annual meeting of the department, held in the Temperance Hall.

Other officers elected were Cecil Jones, Vice-President; Burpee Balcom, Secretary; Paul Davidson, Treasurer. Fire Wards elected were Harold Sullis, Gerald Young, Robert Winchester, Chester Brinton.

The financial statement showed that during the year the department had raised through donations and a pie sale the sum of $638.02. Eighteen fire dams were constructed and expenses in connection with these and other projects of the department amounted to $532.55, leaving a balance of $105.47 at the end of the year.

Goes Coasting At 89

The heavy fall of snow we have been experiencing over the past several days may have inconvenienced many people but for James Winchester, of Joggin Bridge, it meant a real opportunity to get out his one hundred year old sled and go coasting.

Mr. Winchester, at eighty-nine, still enjoys coasting, and each year when snow time comes gets out his sled a sturdy affair eleven years older than he, and takes to the hills.

This year on his first try Mr. Winchester had a slight spill, scratching his face. He says he is not daunted, however, and intends to keep on.

Digby Grocery Robbed

A bold thief during the height of the Saturday afternoon business rush lifted the contents of a cash box only a few inches from the cashier at the South End Grocery.

Taken in the bold robbery was some eight hundred dollars in cash and cheques. The thief, however, missed another thirty dollars hidden under some papers at the bottom of the box.

The theft was first discovered some time after three o'clock when Gordon Turnbull, one of the partners in the firm, went behind the cash counter and saw the rifled cash box on the floor.

An all out effort is being made to trace all cheques cashed on Thursday, Friday and Saturday morning at the store so that payment may be stopped on them.

Heated Debate Provoked By Assessment

The problem of securing equalization in the matter of property assessments in Digby Municipality provoked a heated debate at the sessions of the Digby Municipal Council here yesterday.

During the debate Council learned assessments in the municipality had been increased by some $130,000. They also voted to rehire Victor McNeill as Municipal Assessor.

Councillor D. B. Kenney of Westport took issue with the manner in which assessments were being made in the municipality, particularly in his own district of Westport. He contended the assessment of fishing craft at Westport was out of proportion and unjust. If continued, Councillor Kenney said, such assessment would prove an unbearable burden to the fishermen of his district.

The efforts of the Municipal Assessor to properly assess all properties within the municipality were defended by Warden H. E. Chisholm and other members of the Council, some of whom stated fishing craft in their districts had been assessed for some time. The Warden stated he was agreed that the problem of establishing a properly equalized assessment was a vexatious one but he felt real efforts were being made in that direction.

Councillor Kenney urged that the assessment roll for Westport be rejected by the Council and that the Council dispense with the services of the present assessor. On a vote being taken however, the assessor was re-appointed and assessment rolls for all districts accepted.

The assessment dispute continued over into the afternoon session and after a particularly sharp clash with the Warden on the subject Councillor Kenney left the meeting.

The auditor's report, received at the meeting, showed taxation revenues for 1954 to be $128,159.34. Total revenues for the year was $146,808.37. Total general expenses were $145,448.55 leaving a surplus of $1,359.82.

Among the expenses the largest amount was for education which accounted for $60,702.60. Public welfare accounted for $32,387.30; general expenses were $14,383.08 and debt charges were $10,455.57.

FRIDAY NIGHT CLUB TO SPONSOR PARTY

Mrs. George Warren was hostess to the Friday Night Club this week, when arrangements were made to hold a Hobo party of mixed games in the basement of St. Anne's Church the following Friday instead of the regular club meeting, to benefit the March of Dimes.

March of Dimes cans were passed out to canvassers to contain the community and cantainers have been placed in the local stores and the garage for the convenience of the public.

Hold Trinity Parish Meeting

Dr. G. V. Turnbull and Cecil E. Jones were re-elected Wardens of Trinity Parish at the annual meeting of the Parish here Monday evening.

Elected Vestrymen of the Parish at the meeting were Ralph Berwick, Ernest B. Tufts, Kenneth C. Woodman, J. B. Prince, A. E. Dickson, L. R. Hicks, H. B. Mahon, H. O. Turnbull, Fritz Dakin, Walter Letteney, J. P. Richards, and A. W. Mason.

R. O. Wright was re-elected Vestry Clerk with Murray O. Baxter as Secretary. Victor G. Cardozo and Fritz Dakin were elected as delegates to the Synod. Alternates are Dr. and Mrs. G. V. Turnbull, Sydney Hall and James Woolf were elected auditors.

The meeting was largely attended despite inclement weather. The financial report showed that, despite a decided increase in revenues, unexpected expenditures caused the year to end with a slight deficit.

The Rector, Rev. H. Y. MacLean, who acted as chairman of the meeting, reported 151 public services of Holy Communion had been held during the year, with 29 private Communions. One hundred and sixty other services were held during the year. Seven baptisms were held and fourteen persons confirmed during the year. Total acts of Communion for the year were 2566. The Parish population now numbers three hundred and twenty, with 74 pupils in Sunday School, the Rector stated. He said the Sunday School had increased greatly over the past two years and teachers were badly needed.

It was decided that in the near future a Parish Council would be appointed to aid in the conduct of church affairs. Miss Bessie Turnbull and Mrs. Ralph Berwick were appointed to represent the Diocesan Times in the Parish.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. R. B. Lent made a presentation on behalf of the Guild to Rev. and Mrs. MacLean. She presented them with a silver cake plate and tray and anniversary cake to mark the completion of five years in the Parish.

Suffers Distressing Accident

Ronald Winchester, 9-year-old son of Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Winchester, Barton, met with a distressing accident while he and others were playing at the local school. He and another boy ran into each other, with the result that Ronald lost two teeth and the other boy was cut about the head. The accident is all the more disturbing for the teeth, two upper ones, were the second teeth and will not grow in again.

Only penalties in the game went to the Crows. W. Small drew a misconduct in the second and W. Halliday drew two minutes for holding, also in the second.

The second game of the evening, between Bear River and Church Point, was close and exciting throughout. B. LeBlanc opened for Church Point at 5:51 in the first from A. Comeau. Bear River replied to tie it up at 11:11 when R. Peck tallied from E. Hardy.

In the second period R. Peck tallied again to give Bear River the lead at the 29 second mark from E. Hardy. J. A. Comeau soloed for Church Point at 3:21 to tie it up again. E. Hardy put the Bear River squad in the lead at 5:21 from B. Peck and R. Dakin evened the score for Church Point at 6:36 from G. Comeau.

The final stanza saw E. Hardy score unassisted the winning goal for Bear River at 3:18. Only penalty in the game went to A. Gaudet of Church Point for charging in the second.

Brave Caterpillar

The heavy snow and cold weather seems to hold no terror for a hardy caterpillar on Long Island.

This brown, furry fellow was found by Burton Shortlife making its way across the snows at Central Grove on January 18th. When Burton found him the caterpillar was very lively, Burton says.

About This and That

A Time For Decision

Last Tuesday evening the annual meeting of the Digby Board of Trade was scheduled to be held. Lack of sufficient attendance at the meeting forced a postponement in the election of officers and in other matters of business which normally come before the annual meeting of such an organization as the Board of Trade.

This is a serious matter and one which has been developing for some time. For the past several years interest in the Digby Board of Trade has been on the wane and it has become increasingly more difficult to interest sufficient people in the organization to make the holding of meetings worthwhile.

It would seem, however, that the time for decision is now at hand. The postponed annual meeting of the Board has been called for February 8th and it is expected one of the most important items on the agenda will be the very existence and continuation of the Board itself.

This is a matter which deserves the fullest consideration of all business people in this area. While it may be true there are a great many factors which must be considered in the making of a decision, it seems to us one of the prime factors in such a decision should be the question of whether or not a Board of Trade in Digby can perform a useful service in the community and can be instrumental in promoting increased development in the commercial and industrial life of the district.

Some years ago the Digby Board of Trade played an active part in the promotion of recreational facilities in Digby and took on certain obligations which are not yet fulfilled. While over the years since then there has been some question as to the wisdom of that action, the fact remains it was embarked upon and played a great part in other decisions which were made subsequent to it.

It could quite well be that this action of the Board of Trade has had a bearing on the seemingly evident lack of interest in the organization at the present. It may be that the responsibilities which fall upon the officers and members of the organization through these previous commitments make any those who might otherwise accept office and take an active part in the work of the Board.

These are matters which must be taken into consideration in the making of a decision regarding the future of the Board. They should not, however, be the deciding factor for there is far more at stake than this in the decision which will have to be made.

There is abundant evidence that Boards of Trade and such like bodies can and, oftentimes do, play a very important part in the development of the area which they serve. Only recently we read of the work of a Development Council, made up of businessmen of a district in the eastern part of the province, which has raised a large sum of money by subscription to give active support to the development of industry in its district. Some time ago a group of energetic businessmen in the Digby area set about the task of organizing a commercial ice plant and, with some assistance from the provincial government, were successful.

We could go along at some considerable length to enumerate other instances in which Boards of Trade and similar groups have given great service to their communities. We could also enumerate many other arguments which should be considered when a decision regarding the future of the Digby Board of Trade is made. Suffice it, however, to say that the matter is one which should not be decided lightly or because of immediate considerations. It is one which should be gravely considered, for upon it may rest the fate of matters to which no thought has yet been given.

MARRIAGE

Fox — Bishop

A very pretty wedding of widespread interest was solemnized at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 30, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bishop, Paradise, when their daughter, Oriol Fern, was united in marriage with John Stannage Fox, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Vivian J. Fox, Granville Ferry.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Earl Ward, pastor of Paradise Baptist Church, with the bride and groom standing under a white bell with white overhead streamers. Christmas red and white Chrysanthemums and candle light provided a most effective background.

The bride was lovely in an afternoon dress of winter white moire bengaline with white mitts, bronze shoes and a coronet of rhinestones as head dress. She carried a white Bible in a white lace case with white satin ribbon streamers with red rose buds attached.

Miss Isabel Bishop, of Paradise, was bridesmaid and was very charming in a dress of blue moire bengaline. She carried a crescent of yellow carnations and wore a matching headdress.

Allen Bishop, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride's mother wore a blue-grey dress with pink rose corsage. The mother of the groom wore black and gold taffeta with yellow carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at which Mrs. Roy McDougall, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Zenas Fox, aunt of the groom, poured. Those who served were Mrs. Francis Bishop, Mrs. Willis Kinsman, Mrs. Walter Duggan, Miss Patricia Finigan, while Mrs. W. K. Chesley, Mrs. R. H. Beard and Mrs. F. I. Bishop, replenished.

The bride studied at Mt. St. Vincent and Bridgewater Commercial School and for six years was with the purchasing department of the Nova Scotia Government. More recently she took a beautician's course at Wilfred Academy, Boston, Mass., and the past two years has specialized in hair dressing in her own community. The groom, formerly of the RCAF, is a wireless operator with the Dept. of National Defence, Halifax.

After a wedding trip through parts of the province, Mr. and Mrs. Fox have taken up residence in their recently purchased home in Middleton. Many friends join in wishing the bride and groom many years of wedded happiness.

Next Thursday, the Canadian Parliament will consider the Treaty respecting the admission of Germany to NATO and the rearmament of Germany. In anticipation of that debate, we were, this week, visited by a very large delegation. Undoubtedly this delegation was inspired by the Communist Party, although probably many of its members were not Communists, and would be shocked if they were so described. I am not going to exaggerate the Communist threat in Canada. In fact, I think it is negligible, compared to our population, and the determination of our people to maintain a Democratic Government. Nevertheless, the organization which went into the formation of this delegation causes both admiration and alarm. On the Friday and Saturday of last week, practically every Member of the House of Commons received a telephone call, asking him if he would meet a visitor on Monday. French Members received their calls from French-speaking persons. Anglo-Saxons received their calls from ladies whose cultivated tones left nothing to be desired. Members representing constituencies in which there is any substantial Jewish vote, received telephone calls from Jews. Many members refused to meet them. Others made appointments. On Monday about 500 people arrived in the Parliament Buildings. They divided up into groups of about four or five and went to the different offices where appointments had been made. Then when they had completed that call, they virtually picked the boots of the offices of the Members who had refused to see them. Emphasis was laid upon the militarism of Germany, the atrocities of Hitler, and the certainty that once rearmament, Germany would provoke another world war. Those Members who had lost relatives in the last war were reminded of that fact, and were asked to remember the sacrifices of their families. Members from constituencies in which there was a substantial Jewish vote were told that all the Jews would vote against them in the next election. I am certain that this does not represent the viewpoint of the Jewish population of this country, but undoubtedly by they still remember bitterly the Hitler atrocities. Probably not a vote in the House of Commons will be affected by this delegation, but everyone was impressed by the efficiency of its organization. Also one was reminded that much money must have been spent in that connection. Some of these people came from Montreal, some from Toronto, and some from more distant points. The costs were not infinitesimal. Most of them were young. All were sincere, and altogether it was a most depressing exhibition.

One of the most interesting and amusing speeches of the week was given by Mr. C. W. Carter, one of the Liberal Members from Newfoundland. Mr. Carter is the last one in the world who would claim to be a proficient speaker. But this time he was very effective, because he was both sincere and indignant. He described the telephone and telegraph system in Newfoundland, which had, since Confederation, been taken over by the Canadian National Telegraph. Apparently, in that Province, most of the telephone messages go by wireless telephone. At least the long distance ones do. According to Mr. Carter, due to faulty construction, everyone with a radio set within 25 miles of the radio beam, can listen in to these telephone messages. He assured the House that more people listened to the telephone than "listen to Ma Perkins and the other soap operas." He said that the telegraph system was not nearly as efficient as the old Indian system of smoke signals, and described how in the morning he would send a telegraph message to the Port which he intended to visit that night, and after bucking headwinds at 6 knots an hour all day, would arrive at that Port many hours ahead of his message. After listening to this speech, I decided that we in Nova Scotia should be very thankful for the telegraph service which we enjoy. In Wolfville, the Members of the Coffee Club might interview Chet Small and obtain his opinions of the Newfoundland telegraph and telephone service.

The Government's face is red over the importation of New Zealand cheese. No one knows how it happened, but during the last few weeks, over 2,200,000 pounds of New Zealand cheese entered Canada. This happened while we have surplus cheese in storage in Canada of approximately 15,000,000 pounds, and both the Federal and Provincial Governments are paying subsidies for the marketing of this cheese. Even the redoubtable Mr. Howe was baffled when asked to explain this. All he could do was shrug his shoulders and promise that it would not happen again.

In fact the Government had rather an uncomfortable week. Looming in the background was the question of the Dominion-Quebec Tax Agreements. Every day the Government was asked to make a statement, and each day the Prime Minister replied that he could not do so. It is well known here now that the Cabinet is badly split on this matter, and although some solution may be reached, yet the whole matter is political dynamite, and subject to much speculation.

And then, of course, the political horizon has been lightened by the revelation of the "Entertainment House" for which a contractor claimed from the Income Tax Department deductions for repairs. It is hard to imagine the nerve or the ignorance of a contractor who would ask for such a deduction. He set forth the fact that it was necessary to entertain Government Officials in order to obtain Government contracts, and that this was a legitimate expense incurred in his business operations. The Taxation Appeal Court disallowed his claim, not because it was morally wrong, but because the expense was paid by the parent company and the contract in question had been awarded to a subsidiary. Mr. Cameron's report on the year's work spoke of a good year for 1954 and asked for greater interest in the new year in certain phases of the work. All reports indicated a good year both spiritually and financially.

SOUICIE STARS IN 4-3 WIN

Belliveau's Cove edged Weymouth Academy Aces 4-3 in a close-fought, hard-checking game at the Cove Friday afternoon. The Aces, not used to the intense cold at the rink, couldn't get going until the last period.

Hubert Soucie, brilliant young centre for Belliveau's Cove, scored all 4 goals. Arnold Thibault with 2 and Paul Belliveau were the Weymouth marksmen.

The Cove team got off to a fine start, when at the 5:00 mark of the first period, Soucie scored and a few minutes later he shot one past the goal-keeper. Belliveau reduced the lead to 2-1 with his goal in the closing minutes of the first period, but in the second Belliveau's Cove took a 4-1 lead with Soucie the producer again. In the final period Weymouth took over. At the 11:00 mark A. Thibault, fast skating right winger of the Aces, took a pass from Captain Mac Smith and converted it into a goal. Thibault scored unassisted again. The Aces fought hard but time ran out on them. In the third period, P. Belliveau, coach of the Academy, was cut on the lip and forced to leave the game.

Calls At Westport On Maiden Voyage

The new million and a half dollar Canadian Government Ship, Walter E. Foster, called at Westport on her maiden voyage from Montreal to her duty area in the Bay of Fundy.

The skipper of the Walter E. Foster is no stranger to Westport for he is Captain J. E. Denton, whose father lives in the island village. Captain Denton makes his home in Lunenburg. N. B. Other officers of the ship also are natives of Westport. These include: First Mate Thomas Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hicks, and Third Mate Holland Titus.

The Walter E. Foster replaces the familiar C.G.S. Franklin which for many years was supply ship for the lighthouse in the Bay of Fundy and tended the buoys in the same area. The duty area for the Walter E. Foster will include all the Bay of Fundy from Cape Sable to Minas and the Maine coast. In the summer she will make a trip to the far north and on this trip will carry ten passengers in addition to her crew of forty.

Built in Montreal by Canadian Vickers Limited, the Walter E. Foster cost $1,650,000. She is 229 feet in length and 42 feet wide. She carries four boats including two motor surf boats and two motor life boats. Included in her equipment are ship-to-shore telephone, radar, wireless, loud hailer, gyro compass, public address system. She has a cruising speed of twelve knots and is powered with two one thousand horsepower oil fired steam engines.

PARLIAMENT HILL

sidary Company. Rumour has the House located in the Laurentian Hills, between Ottawa and Montreal, and many a wise-crack is being made about this modern Shagrin-La.

Parliament again proved this week that when the need arises it can be both speedy and efficient. The Unemployment Insurance Act, granting larger benefits to unemployed, was passed in one Session of Parliament, sent up to the Senate Chamber, passed there that evening, and at a quarter to ten the same evening, the representative of the Governor General arrived to give Royal assent thereto. As a result, the increased payments are presumably being received on the Saturday of this week. This strengthens the Opposition's argument that substantial changes in the Rules are not necessary, in order for Parliament to operate efficiently.

Adolph Belliveau, who has been on a business trip to Toronto, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Willis Mullen has accepted a position as stenographer in the office of Weymouth Industries.

Ravens Take Flyers 7-3

The Digby Ravens last Thursday night downed Greenwood Flyers by a score of 7-3 in an exhibition game at the Digby Forum. The game was a fast one and closely played. Only two penalties were awarded.

The first period went scoreless until almost a half minute before the closing bell when Westcott flipped one in from Titus for the Digby squad. Only penalty in the first went to Part of the Flyers for holding.

The Ravens got the measure of the Air Force team in the second stanza. Hawkins opened from Donnelly at 6:06 and was followed by Weatherbee at 9:38. Paul VanTassel scored for the Ravens from Weatherbee at 16:40 and only tally in the period for the Flyers came at 17:58 when Ellis scored from During. Weatherbee closed the scoring in the second at 18:32 unassisted.

In the final stanza O'Brien soloed at 3:47 and was followed by Westcott who also scored unassisted at 4:37. The last two goals of the game went to the Flyers with Melanson scoring from McGuire at 7:26 and McGuire from Jarvis at 8:04.

Little River W.M.S. Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Little River W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Claude Olmstead with the 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Lyndon Collins, presiding.

The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn "Take the Name of Jesus with You" and the Scripture, John 16:1-17, was read in unison.

The devotional "Door of Vision" was given by Mrs. Laleah Frost and this was followed by the circle of prayer. An interesting talk was given by Mrs. Olmstead on the work of Home Missions. Western Missions and port workers in Saint John and Halifax.

A further chapter in the book "Dawn Over the Bolivian Hills" was read by Mrs. Rupert Trask and this was followed by a duet, "Have Thine Own Way, Lord," by Mrs. Rupert Trask and Mrs. Clyde Denton.

Mrs. Stanley Denton and Mrs. Eldred Frost then read "Jorge unassisted at 4:37. The last two goals of the game went to the Flyers with Melanson scoring from McGuire at 7:26 and McGuire from Jarvis at 8:04.

Uncle Tom's Column

To The Editor of
The Digby Courier:

A few weeks ago I read a letter in the Courier written by Marjorie Hamilton, of Valois, Que., telling of a delightful trip she and her husband had in the U.S.A.

When passing through Northern New York they decided to go "window shopping". Just inside she saw a big barrel of Red Astorian apples. It reminded her of Digby in the good old days.

Returning home to Valois, Que. after a delightful vacation trip, her thoughts go back to Digby — reminiscing.

I know "I was not born yesterday". I have lived "four score years and ten" with twenty to spare. Never knew Napoleone the wool cutter nor read any of his history in Isalah Wilson's "History of Digby County".

I wonder if Marjorie knew or ever read about a wood cutter named "Tom Isner" who did business with business men along Water Street during the winter months.

To was a good citizen, kind and thoughtful. He left school at an early age, long before the "Digby School Board" introduced the "Spelling Bees".

When the boys saw him at work along Water Street, they would cross over and ask him his name. He would reply with "My name is Tom Isner". Then the boys would ask him to spell his name. He would reply with "I can't spell Isner, but I can spell Tom — TUM".

Marjorie Wants To Know

"How many people in Digby recall the grand old man, very tall and thin with a white whisker and wore an iron brace on his leg. I think he had a dog leg if I remember. He would sit and relate to us kids how his little blonde blue-eyed girl was murdered by a colored man and after was hanged in Digby Jail."

Marjorie's memory of the "grand old man and the little blonde blue-eyed girl" is not quite right.

The little girl was Annie Kempton, who was murdered by Peter Wheeler, at Bear River, N.S. He was a foreigner, very dark, was a sailor on board ship that was loading lumber for foreign ports. He decided to stay in Bear River and not go to sea.

Mr. Kempton — Annie's father — wanted a man to look after his home during his absence and Peter Wheeler got the job. He had to take care of the hens and chickens, milk and feed the cows, keep the shed filled with wood, etc., etc.

Everything seemed satisfactory for months, until late one afternoon Annie was making artificial flowers for her teacher and class at Sunday School. When Wheeler entered the kitchen carrying an armful of wood. "After depositing it in its proper place" he seized Annie, threw her to the floor and with a stick of wood knocked her unconscious. Afterwards he took a knife from the kitchen table and cut her throat.

He was arrested for murder and placed in Digby Jail within twenty-four hours.

I never heard of the "grand old man" that Marjorie speaks of. It was not Mr. Kempton. The little blonde girl was Annie Kempton — no doubt about that.

To end this unpleasant story I will say that Wheeler was executed and I was one of the jurymen who witnessed the execution.

Time out please, I am going to enjoy eating a nice "red astorian apple". Wish Marjorie was here to share them with me.

One More Reminiscence

Capt. Oscar had a brother named Outram, whose business was "ships-sail-maker". It was a good business in those days.

Having lived in Weymouth, N.S., and Boston, Mass., for over 50 years, I lost touch with friends at home.

Outram married Miss Marjorie Dakin, chief ticket agent for C.P.R. with offices at government pier at Digby, is also a son of Outram.

Annual Meeting of Shareholders The Royal Bank of Canada

1955 to be "Year of Decision" for Canada, General Manager
Determining Economic Welfare for Years to Come, Declares James Muir

PROSPEROUS FUTURE LIES IN IMPROVING COMPETITIVE
POSITION, NOT IN HIDING BEHIND TRADE BARRIERS,
SCOPE OF EXISTING AGENCIES SHOULD BE BROADENED
TO PROVIDE LONG-TERM EXPORT CREDITS.

The conviction that 1955 will be a "year of decision" in which the solution of immediate problems will have a tremendous capacity for good or evil in Canada's future was expressed by James Muir, Chairman and President, at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of The Royal Bank of Canada. Only a rare combination of statesmanship and good fortune, he declared, could guarantee a proper solution of these problems.

"In a period of obvious inflation or deflation," said Mr. Muir, "it is comparatively easy to decide on the appropriate direction of monetary and fiscal policy, and the major problem becomes that of choosing the combination that achieves maximum effectiveness with the least cost and dislocation to the economy. The really difficult decisions must be made at a time like the present when it is still unsafe to pronounce inflation entirely cured and still less so to assume that the paramount danger of the moment is the galloping deflation of the early 1930's."

ECONOMIC PROBLEMS

"The problems posed by the high cost economy become more acute with every increase in the competitive threat of foreign industry to Canada's markets at home and abroad. Pressure for protective measures becomes more insistent as the immediate effects of sharpened competition become apparent. I am still of the opinion that Canada's future lies on the side of improving her competitive position rather than isolating herself behind heightened barriers to trade."

"Increased protection is no answer. The disadvantage of our dollar's high exchange value is general: it affects all Canadian producers. It imposes a tax on exports and a subsidy on imports. Protection helps only those Canadian producers who must compete in the home market against imports: it does nothing for our exporters except to subject them to a further rise in domestic costs and hence to a further limit on their ability to compete in foreign markets."

LONG-TERM FINANCING

"The noticeable decline in exports since 1952 may also be attributed to a number of inter-related causes: price declines, increased competition from low cost producers abroad, the recovery of industrial capacity in war-torn countries, and the like. All these tend to alter relative cost and price relationships in the world market to Canada's disadvantage. But, in addition to the important matter of relative costs, a new factor has been injected by European suppliers who are able, with government support, to offer long-term financing to their customers in the world market."

"In view of the importance to Canada, today and in the future, not only of maintaining exports, but of maintaining intact her industrial legacy from wartime expansion, it seems abundantly clear that definite action should now be taken to provide our traders with the credit facilities they lack. These facilities might take various forms; but, in general, they could be provided by a corporation, owned partly or wholly by the Government, with the power to discount export paper of longer term than chartered banks can handle. The essential function of such a corporation could indeed be provided very simply by widening the scope and operations of existing government entities now active in assisting trade and industry."

FORESIGHT NEEDED

"We have the natural resources necessary to make our own efforts worth while; and so in the end our progress depends upon the quality and quantity of our human resources. I do not think we need have many doubts about the high quality of our human resources. But it remains for far-sighted policy in business and government to ensure not only that this high quality is fully and efficiently used, so as to realize fully our capacity to produce and prosper today, but that we achieve the action, owned partly or wholly by the Government, with the power to discount export paper of longer term than chartered banks can handle. The essential function of such a corporation could indeed be provided very simply by widening the scope and operations of existing government entities now active in assisting trade and industry."

Reports Assets Over $3 Billion

T. H. Atkinson, General Manager, in reviewing the bank's 1954 report, stated that total assets of The Royal Bank of Canada have now passed the three-billion mark. This, he pointed out, was a new record in the history of Canadian banking, and an indication of the bank's pre-eminence in the opinion of the public.

Deposits had also reached record totals, said Mr. Atkinson, pointing out that they now stand at $2,797,548,149. "It would have been reasonable to expect a decline in loans to accompany a falling off in the gross national product," he commented, "but this has not been the case, although the pace at which loans were expanding has slowed down. Our loans have increased to a total of $1,188,022,047."

Mr. Atkinson said that for the first time, the revised Bank Act enables banks to advance money against new residential construction under the National Housing Act. "We had advances outstanding in this category amounting to $22,672,390," he said. "Actually our total commitments are something over $62,000,000—the difference between the two amounts to be loaned as construction proceeds. This represents approximately 40% of the total commitments of all the banks."

ROYAL BANK ABROAD

Mr. Atkinson reported that the bank's foreign branches had made further progress during proper degree of expansion in the quantity of these resources available for use tomorrow. We must start today to create the economic environment that will both encourage and enable us to take full advantage of that growth in population and capital without which we cannot realize the great potentialities that lie in our wealth of natural resources."

"How we meet our problems in this year of decision will, as I have said, profoundly affect the direction and rate of Canada's growth. If the decisions we make are in keeping both with the realities of the present and with those of that greater Canada which can be seen in outline even now, we may safely leave our doubts behind and, by making the decisions appropriate to greatness, bring greatness itself within our grasp."

the year, with most satisfactory results.

"In keeping with our past policy of extending our services to new areas where development warrants banking facilities, we have opened one branch outside Canada during the past year and in the near future will open three more in the Caribbean area which will bring the total of our foreign branches to 74. These 74 branches mean 74 Canadian representatives abroad whose services are at the disposal of Canadian businessmen to give them first-hand information on conditions in their respective localities. At a time when Canadian export trade has been declining as a result of increased and intensified competition from other exporting countries, these 74 information centres abroad can be of inestimable value to Canadian exporters by assisting them through up-to-date and first-hand knowledge of the local markets."

"Our foreign service is a source of great pride to us and, we feel, justifiably so. During the past 55 years we have built up an enviable reputation abroad and are very much an integral part of the business life of the countries where we operate. In fact in some cases we are considered a local bank rather than a foreign one."

GREAT STAFF TEAM

"Including maintenance staff, technicians, and others with special duties, we now employ well in excess of 15,000 people. They are welded into a great and resolute team which takes second place to none. 1954 was no exception to the pattern of the post-war period which has seen the emergency annually of increased volume and new business procedures to place fresh demands upon the staff. Again the challenge has been met with skill and devotion."

"We are proud of our staff, not only for what they accomplish on public counters and at their desks but for the services they perform voluntarily outside the bank in the hundreds of communities in which we are represented. We have files of heartwarming letters as eloquent testimony that their efforts do not go unappreciated."

Almost everyone I know seems to be making something out of plywood these days.

One neighbour is building cupboards around his bathroom wash basin. Say it's easy—with plywood.

Another fellow seems to be finding it no chore at all to make smart-looking handy wardrobes for bedrooms built without closets.

Another neighbour is busy as a beaver building modern kitchen cupboards. Though he's no expert, he finds plywood easy to work and finish.

You can repair, improve and put up new buildings with plywood too. Ask Hicks's how do-it-yourself, tough, lightweight, easy-to-use plywood can help you in your building plans.

Annual Business Meeting Held

The Annual Business Meeting of The United Baptist Church, Digby, was held the evening of January 19th. The pastor, Rev. E. C. Churchill, conducted a short devotional service, after which Deacon J. J. Brittain was appointed chairman of the meeting.

Following reading of the minutes encouraging reports were received from W.M.A.S., Mission Band, Baby Band, C. G. L. T., Explorer Group for Girls, Explorer Group for Boys, Sigma C. The Ladies' League, Choir, Sunday School, Board of Trustees, Cemetery Committee, Finance Committee, Financial Secretary and Treasurer. The financial statement of Treasurer revealed all bills paid and substantial credit balance in bank account.

The Pastor's report was well received by the large number present and revealed a busy year for the pastor, Rev. E. C. Churchill.

The Nominating Committee for officers and committees for 1955 reported, and the slate was approved.

The Board of Deacons remains the same, viz.: E. S. Eaton, M. C. Denton, W. A. Hanson and J. J. Brittain.

The Board of Trustees: B. L. Ellis, M. S. Leonard, J. W. Christie.

The following officers were re-appointed: Clerk, M. C. Denton; Treasurer, E. S. Eaton; Financial Secretary, J. W. Christie; S. S. Supt., C. M. Levy; Assistant S. S. Supt., J. J. Brittain; Organist, Miss Kirkconnell.

At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed when a buffet luncheon was served by the Ladies' League.

"Blitz" On Monday Night

Women of the town are planning a "blitz" for Monday night. For one hour they will take the town by storm in an all out canvass for the "March of Dimes". They ask that porch lights be put on to indicate the willingness of citizens to contribute to the campaign for this is the night of "The Porch Light Canvass" or also what is known as "Mothers' March On Polio".

The money collected is turned over to the local committee headed by James Richards and is later forwarded to the Nova Scotia Division of the Canadian Foundation For Polio-myelitis. The dimes help to supply wheel chairs, braces, etc., transportation to clinics for polio patients, providing a travelling physio-therapist and many other necessities for those afflicted with polio.

On the Mothers' March On Polio committee in Digby are Mrs. J. M. Wallis, Mrs. H. M. Warne, Mrs. J. J. Brittain and Miss Marilyn Campbell. Each member of the committee has a team of workers lined up for Monday night's "Blitz".

Letter To The Editor

The Editor,
The Courier.

Dear Sir:
I should like, through the medium of your excellent paper, to express my sincere appreciation of the fine, sporting attitude of the players on the Cornwallis team in the game against Digby on Monday evening at Cornwallis.

Never have I seen such application to the real job of "playing the game" in the true sporting tradition which is so much a part of the senior service as that displayed in the game Monday night.

Despite the provocation of being bested by a civilian team the boys never for a moment became resentful or tried in any way to act in anything but the fine sporting manner so characteristic of the navy team.

Throughout the game the boys on the navy team, no doubt acting under the sportsmanlike instructions of their superiors, kept their attention strictly on the game and played the puck rather than the player. Because of this there was never a time when any Digby player was so much as slightly bumped by a navy lad except when this happened unavoidably.

Not only did the members of the Cornwallis team demonstrate in fullest measure their complete devotion to the task of "playing the game" in the fine, sporting tradition but the officers and other naval personnel in the stands also backed up their team in the same spirit, showing remarkable restraint in their criticism of the Digby players and cheered on their own lads lustily as they played clean, heads-up hockey.

I feel all your readers should know about this and it also should be told to the other services, especially the marines.

Yours truly,

"A FAN."

FIRE DEPARTMENT HAS SPLENDID YEAR

A. Reginald Turnbull was re-elected President of the Digby Fire Department and George Humphrey was re-elected Fire Chief at the annual meeting of the Department, held at the Fire Hall here.

Other officers elected were Arthur Handsaker, Assistant Chief; Harold Parsons, Captain No. 1 Company; Thomas Cleveland, Captain No. 2 Company; Guy VanTassel, Lieutenant No. 1 Company; Victor Dennison, Lieutenant No. 2 Company; Gregg Gilliat, Department Vice-President; H. A. Parsons, Secretary-Treasurer; Robert Marshall, No. 3 Auxiliary.

The financial statement presented at the meeting showed the firemen had raised, through their weekly dances during the year, the sum of $3,365.64. A cash balance of $664.35 carried forward from the previous year made total cash receipts for 1954 the sum of $4,029.99.

During the year the Department expended a total of $3,621.98. The bulk of this money was spent on materials and labour used in renovating the firemen's meeting room; equipping a room at the Digby General Hospital; purchasing an equipment truck for the department and in securing other needed supplies for the fire department.

A review of department activities during 1954, given at the meeting, showed the department had enjoyed an active year with a number of major accomplishments recorded.

During the year a room at the Digby General Hospital was equipped by the department

Honoured By Fire Department

Victor Cardoza, who retired this year after serving for twelve years as chairman of the Fire Committee of the Digby Town Council, was honoured Friday evening by the Digby Fire Department at the annual supper-tendered the department by James P. Richards at the Hotel Champlain.

Mr. Cardoza was presented with an honorary membership in the Digby Fire Department and a gold pin, emblematic of this membership, by A. Reginald Turnbull, President of the Fire Department. This is the first honorary membership granted by the department.

In making the presentation Mr. Turnbull paid tribute to the work Mr. Cardoza had done during the years he had headed the council fire committee and stated cooperation between the council and fire department during those years had never been excellent.

Others of the Fire Department who spoke during the supper meeting were Thomas Cleveland, Captain of No. 2 Company; Harold Parsons, Captain of No. 1 Company; Guy VanTassel, 1st Lieut. No. 1 Company, and Fire Chief George Humphrey.

In replying to the presentation Mr. Cardoza stated he had enjoyed working with the department over the years. He complimented the department on the strides they had made and said this was through the united effort of officers and members of the department.

He said that the Digby Fire Department over the last few years had made marvellous achievements. From a completely unknown and unrecognized group they had risen until they occupied first place in their class in the province for three years in succession and now had attained Canada wide recognition by placing sixth in the whole of Canada in the population group under three thousand.

Through continued effort and cooperation this record could be improved, he said, until Digby reached the top. This might at the moment seem but a remote possibility, he stated, but twelve years ago having the department reach the position it now occupies seemed impossible.

Norman D. Wright, present chairman of the Fire Committee, congratulated the department on their achievements and pledged his full cooperation with the department in their efforts to improve.

The department also organized and carried out during 1954 their second annual Ice Carnival, a feature of which was the promotion of the Ice Carnival Queen Contest, which was won by Miss Carol Morehouse, who became the first Ice Carnival Princess for Digby.

An active program in fire prevention education, fire fighting demonstrations and other fire safety work was carried out by the department during Fire Prevention Week and films in connection were shown during the week.

It was reported that in 1954 the Digby Fire Department had again achieved first place in their class (population under 3,000) in Nova Scotia and had achieved sixth place in this class in all Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Minard White returned this week from Renfrew, N. B., where they visited Major and Mrs. R. Scholey.

RAVENS TAKE TWO IN VALLEY LEAGUE

The Digby Ravens administered a real drubbing to the Cornwallis Cougars Monday evening in a regularly scheduled Central Valley League game at the Cornwallis rink by a score of 7-5.

Backed up by the faultless net minding of Flynn, the Ravens had the edge over the Navy squad all the way. The first period ended with a 3-0 shutout for the Ravens who outscored the Cougars 4-3 in the second to take a 7-3 lead. In the final frame the navy players scored only two tallies, making the score at the end of the game 7-5 for the Ravens.

Charlie Theriault, Lloyd Donnelly and Paul VanTassel led the scoring parade for the Ravens with a pair each. Shine Manning scored the other marker. McGregor scored two for the Cougars with Martell, Reid and Person accounting for the other three.

The game was one of the roughest in the current league series with twenty-two penalties being handed out, the majority going to the navy players. A feature of the final frame was a free-for-all in the penalty box which developed after a Cornwallis spectator in the box tackled one of the Raven players as he skated by on his way to the sin bin.

The Digby Ravens came from behind Tuesday night to down Bridgetown Hawks by a score of 9-5 in a regular Central Valley League fixture at the Digby Forum.

The visitors took a 2-1 lead in the first but proved no match for the hard hitting Ravens in the next two frames. The game was fast and clean with only six penalties for minor infractions being awarded.

High liner for the visitors was Durling who scored three of the five goals marked up for Bridgetown. The other two went to J. Durling and Bove.

For the Ravens Weatherbee chalked up the hat trick with two, on assists from Carey, and the third from Theriault. Charlie Theriault came through with two spectacular unassisted goals and the remainder went to Paul VanTassel, who scored two, Titus and Joudrey.

Church Has Successful Year

The Annual Congregational Meeting of Grace United Church of Canada was held on Wednesday evening, Jan. 19th. The Rev. James Brooks was chairman and Mr. Norman D. Wright secretary. A brief devotional period was conducted by the minister after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Annual reports of the various organizations and boards were given and excellent progress indicated in each case. Appreciation of the work of the minister and his wife was expressed during the meeting and Mr. Brooks thanked the congregation for their loyal support and responsive service. The salary of the minister was adjusted substantially above the minimum suggested by the recent general council. The Budget for 1955 was presented and adopted. Buckingham

Due Back

The Royal Canadian Navy frigate Buckingham, which left here Monday for a short visit to Portsmouth, N. H., on Monday, left Portsmouth today and is expected back in port here tomorrow at two o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Minard White returned this week from Renfrew, N. B., where they visited Major and Mrs. R. Scholey.

Municipal Tax Rate Increased

The overall tax rate for the areas of Digby Municipality served by the Digby Regional High School will be increased from $7.70 to $10.10, it was decided at the closing session of the Municipal Council here.

While the general tax rate for the municipality will remain at $3.20 for 1955, there will be an increase from $3.10 to $3.60 in the municipal school rate and an increase from $1.40 to $3.30 in the Regional High School rate.

It was pointed out at the meeting the areas served by the Regional High School are the only ones which pay the full rate inclusive of the regional rate of the municipality pay only the general tax and the municipal school rate.

Budget figures presented at the meeting showed estimated expenditures for 1955 in elementary education to be at an all time high. The municipality plans to spend $57,736.15 in this department in 1955 and expenditures for the Regional High School are budgeted at $15,518.13. Estimated expenditure to the School for the Deaf is $1,350, making a total estimate for education in 1955 of $74,602.28. This is an increase over the $60,702.60 spent on education last year.

Public welfare estimates show

Explosion Destroys Apartment

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sabean, New Tusket, from their daughter, Miss Bessie Sabean, Waltham, Mass., that she has been burned out of her apartment where she has been residing the past few years.

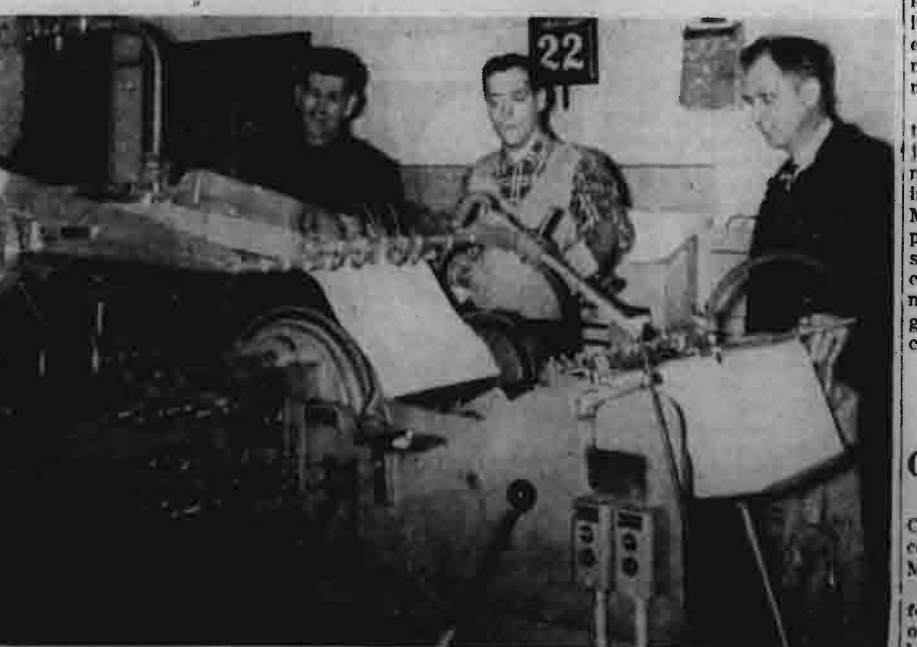

Miss Sabean was awakened by an explosion from the furnace below her apartment at 5:30 a.m. on January 13 and she rushed from her bed to arouse the other tenants in the house, and to call the fire department, but her phone had been cut off when the explosion occurred. She felt her way to the back door of the apartment and was found there later clad only in her night clothes.

The apartment is a complete wreck from the smoke from the burning oil, and it was considered a miracle that all fourteen tenants escaped without any more serious trouble.

expected expenditure of $38,975.00 in this department for 1955. Last year this accounted for $32,387.70 of total expenditures.

The Council decided to pay a bounty this year on all raccoons killed in the municipality. It was reported raccoons are doing heavy damage to poultry, crops and other products in the district and it was felt their depredations should be curbed.

Plant Adds New Modern Machine

Above are Vernon Bent, foreman of Wallis Print Ltd., and William Mason, printer, getting instructions from Walter LeMaitre, Toronto, on operating the Glickner Press. The Glickner here shown is designed for job printing and will accommodate paper size of minimum 4 1/4 ins. x 3 ins. to a maximum of 15 ins. x 22 ins. It is an automatic high-speed cylinder press geared especially for accuracy and equipped to handle all kinds of stock from the very finest to heavy four sheet board. Suction arms carry the plain sheets from the pile to front-lays, and after printing, they are carried from the impression cylinder to the delivery table. The above machine is also equipped with an extension delivery and spray-gun to assure complete drying operations so necessary for efficiency on high gloss paper and color work.

The Glickner above, purchased by Wallis Print Ltd. under the management of J. J. Wallis and Edith M. Wallis from Manson Bros. Ltd., Toronto, was installed at the plant last week and made ready for operation on January 22.

Mayor Addresses Kiwanis

Mayor Guy E. Morehouse, for many years a mail driver on Digby Neck and a native of Sandy Cove, was guest speaker at last week's meeting of the Digby Kiwanis Club.

Mayor Morehouse took as his subject the history of Digby Neck and confined his remarks mainly to the history of the Neck in his years of residence there during the many years in which he carried the Royal Mail back and forth along the peninsula.

According to Mayor Morehouse carrying the mails in the early days in which he did the work was a far different matter than it is today. Although the amount of mail, particularly at Christmas, was not so great the difficulties encountered in delivery to the post office along the Neck were far greater.

In his early years in the job Mayor Morehouse had to contend with bally horses, narrow roads, overwhelming snow drifts and later when the motor car was still a novelty he had to be his own repair man and mechanic in order that the mails should go through.

Faced with the problem of drift filled roads Mayor Morehouse was probably the pioneer in the matter of snow fences for he had spruce trees cut and laid along the road to prevent the snow from drifting. Later came the development of real snow fences which were placed along the Neck and other roads to prevent snow drifts.

Coming up to the present the Mayor commented on the tremendous improvements secured in transportation along the Neck through the paving of the road. This he said had not only greatly simplified the handling of mails but also a tremendous step forward in providing better transportation facilities for the communities of the Neck.

Tuesday evening the Kiwanis Club paid their annual visit to the Alms House at Marshalltown where treats were distributed to the patients and a film shown.

This evening the Club will have an official visit from the Kiwanis Lieutenant Governor who will install the officers. He will also deliver a special message to the club, marking the 40th anniversary of Kiwanis International.

Letter To The Editor

Digby, Nova Scotia.
January 24, 1955.

Wallis Print Ltd.,
Digby Nova Scotia.

Dear Sirs:

I understand that your firm has just installed and placed in operation a new, high speed, automatic printing press which will greatly improve the efficiency of your work and also capacity of your plant.

This is indeed a forward step and I want to extend my congratulations to you on the faith you are showing in the future of the printing industry in this area and in this town as a location for an expanding industry such as yours.

I am acutely aware of the value of a newspaper to a community and also of the value of an industry, such as that which usually surrounds a newspaper such as yours, to the town in which it is located.

We in Digby are deeply conscious of the part played by the Digby Courier, which is published by the Wallis Print Ltd., in the development of this area and as Mayor of the Town I am happy to acknowledge the debt we owe to this paper for its faithful and continuous recording of the history and happenings in this town of ours. The Courier has always been a power for good in the community and has added its voice to all efforts for the sound development and progress of the community.

In closing I wish to say again that you have reason to be justly proud of the expansion made in your plant through the installation of your new press. May your efforts continue and prosper so that we may all share as citizens of the same community in the benefits that must accrue to all through the good fortune of one aspect of community enterprise.

Yours truly,

Guy E. Morehouse,
Mayor.

The Digby Crows blanketed Bear River by a score of 2-0 in the first game of the district league double header here Friday evening.

of the second when MacPherson soloed.

Second goal for the Digby squad came at the 19:08 mark of the final stanza when Lou Daley drove a sharp shot into the untended Bear River net.

Four penalties were handed out during the game. These went to D. Harris, Sanford, MacPherson and B. Turnbull.

In the second game Centreville downed Church Point by a 7-4 score. The Church Point lads put up a game fight but they seemed no match for the Doucette. The Church Point squad scored a single in the final at 14:31 when G. Comeau soloed. Centreville went scoreless in the last period.

Only two penalties were awarded in the game. These went to V. Connor and R. Doucette.

Mrs. Leonard B. Banks

On Monday, Jan. 10, 1955, after an illness of seven weeks, Gertrude Helen Banks, beloved wife of Leonard Banks, passed peacefully away at her home at Mount Pleasant, Digby Co., N. S.

She was born at East Ingilville, Anna, Co., Dec. 6, 1876, daughter of the late Henry O. and Henrietta (Balcome) Whitman. In 1897 she married Leonard Banks, of West Ingilville, where they resided until moving to Digby nearly twelve years ago.

Mrs. Banks was a woman of sterling character, a wonderful wife and mother and always had a smile and friendly word for all. She became a member of the Ingilville Methodist Church when a child and later her membership was transferred to Grace United Church, Digby. She was also a member of the Woman's Missionary Society of that church.

The funeral service was conducted on Wednesday afternoon in the Grace United Church, Digby, by Rev. James Brooks, assisted by Dr. T. W. Hodgson, who read Psalm 103, requested by the deceased. Rev. Brooks spoke comforting words from the text, "Be ye faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life," also a request. Hymns sung were, "O God Our Help," and "The Home Over There," favorites of the deceased. Interment was in Fairview Cemetery. Pall bearers were Delbert and Aubrey Forrest, Harry Jefferson and Loran Stark. Floral tributes were

CONSIDER SCHOOL CONSOLIDATION

The Sandy Cove Home and School Association sponsored a meeting on Friday evening in the Community Hall in order that Inspector C. W. Crowell might address the public in regards to consolidation of the schools on Digby Neck.

After a very enlightening talk on the matter, Mr. F. C. Purdy, Principal of the Digby Regional High School, followed Mr. Crowell's remarks with an interesting and informative talk on the Regional High School and the area in which it serves. Over a hundred people attended the meeting.

Dr. F. C. Morehouse, retired supervisor of Halifax schools, chaired the meeting and moved a vote of thanks be extended Mr. Crowell and Mr. Purdy at the close of the meeting.

During the evening it was moved, seconded and carried, that a committee be formed to follow up the matter at hand. Members of this committee were appointed as follows:

Visits Digby Local

Tom Parker, Executive Secretary of the Nova Scotia Teachers' Union, paid an official visit to the Digby Local of the N.S.T.U. at the regular meeting at the Digby Regional High School here.

Introduced by President, Mrs. Nola Jeffrey, Mr. Parker spoke at some length to the members of the local on problems affecting the teachers' union in Nova Scotia.

He stated one of the essentials facing the Union this year was the problem of securing legislation to bring about automatic membership throughout the province. This automatic membership with a write off is in effect in all other provinces of Canada, he said.

Mr. Parker stated membership this year in the Union was 80% of all licensed teachers in Nova Scotia. This was not good enough, he said, if the union was to truly represent all the members of the profession.

Another urgent matter facing the Union, Mr. Parker said, was the problem of having the union's position as bargaining agent for the teachers with school boards made secure. He said legislation should be secured to make arbitration of disputes between the union and school boards compulsory.

The thanks of the meeting to Mr. Parker for his address were expressed by Ryland Walton.

Married 52 Years

Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Cann, Westport, celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary quietly at their home on Friday. The popular couple were married by Rev. Richard Kempf, pastor of the United Baptist Church, on January 28, 1903, at the home they are presently living in.

The elderly bride was the former Hattie Southern, daughter of Edward and Ella (Cann) Southern, who lived on Peter's Island where they tended the lighthouse. Mr. St. Clair Cann was a son of George and Caroline Cann, Westport.

Three children, Edna, Westport; Muriel, Malden, Mass.; and Gordon, Saint John; and three grandchildren, Muriel Bowers, Halifax; Edward Bowers, Digby; and Walter G. Cann, Saint John, are the nearest relatives of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Cann have been very active in community work, especially that of the United Baptist Church where Mr. Cann was clerk for eleven years. He also belonged to the Foresters and Macabees and is a member of the Masons.

The couple are in fairly good health and able to enjoy life and live in the kind neighbourly way they have over the past fifty-two years.

The Capitol Theatre here last week installed a new "panoramic" wide screen and new amplifying equipment and lenses to make the Capitol one of the most modern equipped theatres in the western end of the province.

Those who have seen movies at the Capitol since the new panoramic equipment has been installed have been thrilled with the marked improvement in the visual qualities of the pictures shown and feel the entertainment value of all showings at the Capitol will be greatly increased through this modern new equipment.

Ravens Take Trimming From St. Anne's

St. Anne's College team scored an upset defeat over the Digby Ravens in a regular Central Valley League game here Monday night by a score of 9-4. The game was both fast and clean with only two penalties, both in the dying minutes of the final frame, being chalked up.

The St. Anne's players, much stronger since the advent of tea on their own rink, completely outclassed the Ravens who had previously suffered only one defeat in the league.

At the end of the first stanza the score was 5-0 for the college squad. In the second period the Ravens only tallied one while St. Anne's racked up another three to make the score 8-1 at the end of the second.

Special Service Begins Youth Week

A special service at Grace United Church on Sunday morning began Christian Youth Week observations for the young people of the congregation.

The service was led by the pastor, Rev. James Brooks, who also preached a sermon for the occasion from St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians, using the words "make it your aim to be one in the spirit and you will inevitably be at peace with one another." He also set forth the aims and purposes of Christian Youth Week.

Miss Joyce Beckwith led in the reading of the psalm and David Bent read the scripture. The offering was received by Gordon Snow, Galan Sabine, Donald Snow and Donald Titus.

A solo "Saviour While My Heart Is Tender" by John Burton set to Armstrong melody was rendered by Mrs. J. M. Wallis.

A Rally for the youth of the congregation to be held at the Church Hall is planned for this evening.

Shocked As Blind Man Drives By

Hugh Vincent, local taxi driver who has been driving for some thirty years, stated this week he received a shock the other day when his taxi was passed by a car bearing in its rear window a sign reading, "Caution, I am a Blind Man".

Mr. Vincent said he followed the car down the street in amazement as it negotiated corners and finally pulled in to the curb without difficulty.

The mystery was solved, however, Mr. Vincent said, when he observed another sign in a side window of the car which stated the driver represented a Venetian Blind company.

Digby Debaters Successful

On Wednesday last, the debating team from Digby Regional High School, consisting of Marilyn Hayden, first speaker; Louise Atkinson, second speaker; and David Bent, third speaker; debated against Annapolis. The resolution, Resolved that the present immigration policy is detrimental to the development of Canada, was debated, with Digby taking the negative side and producing such an excellent defense of the Canadian Immigration Policy, that the judges declared them victors.

The Annapolis debating team consisted of Lorraine Laurence, Eric Thompson and Barbara Weary.

The Digby judge, who so kindly gave his time, was Mr. M. S. Leonard, Barrister at Law. The debating advisor is Mr. J. Campbell, who is assisted by Mr. W. Hodgson.

FREEPORT BAPTISTS HOLD ANNUAL MEET

The annual business meeting of the Freeport Baptist Church was held in the vestry on Wednesday evening, January 19th. After a short devotional Rev. Eric Miner was appointed chairman of the meeting.

Encouraging reports were given by the various organizations. The treasurers report revealed a large amount raised for the year with all bills paid and surplus on hand, $305 was raised for denominational purposes.

The pastor's report showed that 73 preaching services and 32 Wednesday evening prayer meetings had been held.

During the year the following clergymen visited the church and conducted service of worship: Rev. Dr. E. L. Titus, Rev. S. A. Westcott, who delivered the roll call sermon, Rev. Joseph Crocker, Rev. Dr. E. M. Whidden, Dean of Theology at Acadia University, Rev. M. E. P. Macintosh, Secretary of the Foreign Bible Society.

The clerk's report showed that the membership now stands at 188. The oldest member of the church is Mr. Benjamin Campbell, who will soon celebrate his 91st birthday.

The nominating committee then brought in the following officers for 1955:

Treasurer, Ernest Haines; As-

stant Treasurer, George Bouchie; Clerk, Theodore Morrell; S. S. Supr., Mrs. Cleveland Erism; Deacons: Ernest Haines, George Bouchie, Austin Westcott; Trustees: Alton MacNeill, Scott Perry, Harold Crocker, Ernest Powell, Allison Morehouse, Gene Tibert, Avery Finigan; Finance Committee, Theodore Teed, Harold Crocker, Mrs. Ernest Powell, Mrs. Alton MacNeill, Mrs. Allison Morehouse; Ushers, Blanchard Morrell, John Finigan, Ray Finigan, Gene Tibert; Collectors, Lloyd Morrell, Irvan Moore, Wayne Perry, Delbert Crocker, Charles Finigan, Gordon Nichols, Hubert Thomas, Leslie Powell; Church Organist, Mrs. Egbert Crocker; Assistant Church Organist, Mrs. Norman Perry; Organists Prayer Meetings, Mrs. Victor Finigan, Mrs. Avery Finigan; Choir Director, Alton MacNeill; Sick Committee Convenor, Mrs. Charles Young; Communion Service, Mrs. Allison Morehouse; Budget Committee, Ernest Haines, Austin Westcott, George Bouchie, Blanchard Morrell, Avery Finigan, Mrs. Ernest Powell; Auditors, Blanchard Morrell, John Finigan; Press Reporter, Mrs. Ralph Haines.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting and refreshments served by the ladies of the church.

The annual business meeting of the Granville Ferry United Church of Canada was held in the church vestry with a good number of members and officers in attendance.

The meeting opened with a short devotional period conducted by Rev. Dr. D. B. Hemmeon, retired United Church minister, who is supplying the Annapolis-Granville pastoral charge during the interim the charge is without a regular minister.

Minutes of the last meeting were presented by the recording steward, Miss. H. Laura Hardy, and declared approved as read. The report of the church treasurer, J. A. Ruffee, was encouraging and the reports of the various organizations showed that all had been active during the year and reported favorable credit balances.

The report of the treasurer of the Missionary and Maintenance Fund was especially gratifying, reporting the sum of $260.00 having been contributed during the year, an increase of $48.00 over the previous year.

At the close of the meeting the members stood for a minute of silent prayer in memory of the late K. L. Oliver, former elder, steward and trustee of the church, whose death occurred in March of the past year.

Officers of the church are as follows:

Lieutenant Governor Installs Officers

Lieutenant Governor Gilbert Morris, of Mahone Bay, installed the officers of the Digby Kiwanis Club at the regular weekly meeting of the club here.

Lieutenant Governor Morris also brought greetings to the club from Kiwanis International which this year celebrates the fortieth anniversary of its incorporation.

In a most interesting address he told of the history of Kiwanis International and outlined briefly some of its accomplishments over the past forty years.

Legion Auxiliary Meets

One new member, Mrs. Theresa VanTassel, was inducted into the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Digby Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., at the regular meeting here last Thursday evening.

As the next meeting will be the annual, a Nominating Committee, consisting of May Rice, Alice Winfield, Margaret Warner and Jennie Bent, was named to bring in a proposed new slate of officers.

Marion Hersey and Evelyn Patterson were appointed as auditors to audit the year's accounts in preparation for the annual meeting.

It was reported the cook books, prepared and sponsored by the auxiliary as a fund raising medium, had arrived and would be distributed.

A penny sale was held as part of the evening's program and refreshments were served.

Little League Re-organized

On Friday, Jan. 28, a change was made in the Little League. The number of teams was reduced from 8 to 6 and the ice time from 3 hours to 2 hours, that is from 8.00 a.m. to 10.00 a.m. These changes were not because of a decline in interest, (an attendance of 60 last Saturday attests that), but because the teams had not sufficient members to provide two lines.

The results of last Saturday's games were as follows:
Ed Bowers' Canadians won a very one sided 6-0 decision over David Webber's Maple Leafs.

With Archie Dugas scoring all the goals. The result of this game saw Archie and Jack Cowan promoted to the senior team.

The second game was an evenly matched contest in which the win went to Don Hazleton's Bruins, who scored two goals to the Joe Amisault's Red Wings 0, 6, in and its citizens to the officers and men at the naval base.

CANADA'S WEEKLY NEWSPAPERS

The Royal Bank of Canada, January Issue of Monthly Letter on Weekly Newspapers, as follows:

"Canada has 643 weekly newspapers, with a combined circulation of 2,475,140. Some distribute a few hundred copies every week, while others have circulation in the thousands. Singly or taken together, these weekly newspapers have a great influence on the thought and action of our people.

Everybody, in a sense, lives two lives, one in a small and the other in a great circle. He belongs by birth or choice to various intimate groups, like his family, his neighbourhood, and his cluster of friends. He is also a member of the whole society of Canada, and he is living within an interdependent system of nations. The weekly newspaper belongs to his intimacy.

It is not safe to generalize about newspapers, because of the wide difference in the thoroughness with which newspapers fulfil their function. We are not without journals that debate public taste and warp public opinion. It can be said, however, that the majority of Canadian weekly newspapers conscientiously maintain the highest standards.

Every newspaper is at one and the same time a business enterprise on which the owner and his family depend for their daily bread and an agency of mass communication bearing public responsibility. In this land, where the press has freedom under the law, the weekly newspapers discharge their public functions with credit to themselves and benefit to the country.

The average paper represented in the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association, said William H. Cranston, publisher of the Midland Free Press Herald, in an article he wrote for The Financial Post last August, covers 82 per cent of the homes in its trading area, has a net paid circulation of under 1,500 copies a week, and is produced by a staff of fewer than ten. The staff usually includes the owner, who may be publisher, editor, printing foreman, advertising salesman and general caretaker combined.

There are few millionaires among the 535 publishers who are members of the C.W.N.A., but every weekly newspaper represents a respectable amount of capital for the size of its town. It is, usually, a family enterprise with strong bonds of community loyalty. Mr. Cranston pointed out that 95 per cent of editors of weekly, twice-weekly and tri-weekly newspapers had served one or more terms as president of the local Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade; 45 per cent had been mayor or reeve, or had held other high elective office; 97 per cent were members of a service club, and 90 per cent had served as club president.

Community Worth

In a world where the quiet, intimate, stable pattern of the small community has been so severely shaken, Canada is fortunate in the manner of her growth. Throughout our development, from isolated farms to clusters of houses in villages serving wide farming areas, and then on to towns and a few cities, we have managed to keep one foot on the soil.

For a time people flowed from rural communities to the cities. This response to industrial evolution built crowded urban centres that have exploded, during the past ten years particularly, into myriad suburban satellites, each with its own interests, pride and headaches.

Reconstitution of the small face-to-face community can be of significant assistance in restoring a vigorous sense of human dignity and worth. There is no other environment that can nourish the intimate values of life and the acts of sympathy and mutual aid and the warm appreciation of personality that together go to make up the spirit of democracy. It is the small community that gives root and reality to what Canada does in the world of nations.

The weekly newspaper has its home in such a community. Its readers are not anonymous creatures in great impersonal aggregations, but the people in the next house, or the next street, known and understood.

The weekly newspaper knows that its great strength lies in getting itself read. To make itself widely readable the press must be free, and to be free it must be self-supporting financially.

Much has been written about "freedom of the press". Those who think of it without hysteria realize that this freedom is not an end in itself but a means to the end of a free society. Where men cannot freely convey their thoughts to one another, no other liberty is secure. A "kept" press has abdicated its function and its privilege of informing truthfully and advising honestly.

It can be said that on the whole the weekly press of Canada realizes its social responsibility, has maintained itself financially and economically so as to be able to withstand official or other interested pressure, and does its best to use its freedom actively in the interests of its community.

The weekly newspaper does not, as a rule, lose itself in political or other controversy, but rather seeks to bridge the gap between the citizen and his government by directing its public service enthusiasm at positive benefits to be sought. Improvement of health and living standards, preservation and utilization of natural resources, development of its neighbourhood according to the superior qualities it has: these are domains in which the weekly press makes its constructive contributions.

Revenue From Advertising

So that it may publish its news and opinions free from the necessity to cater to some institutional or economic power, the weekly newspaper needs to sell advertising space. As a medium, a good weekly paper provides a unique way of reaching the public quickly, with thorough coverage of the market, and with undoubted value for the dollar cost.

Advertising rates in the weeklies are low. They are based, mainly, on steady use of good-sized space by local advertisers. You can buy an advertisement ten inches deep and two columns wide for an average of $11 per insertion. Some of the larger papers published weekly, twice weekly and three times a week, associated as the "Class A Newspapers of Canada", have been cultivating the national advertising market, and 59 of them carried a total of 18 million lines of national display advertising last year. In the same period there appeared in their columns more than 200 million lines of local retail advertising. (In newspaper measurement there are about "14 lines" to the inch, one column wide, so these totals represent more than 1,285,000 and 14,285,000 column-inches respectively.)

Use of the weekly newspaper for advertising has been growing steadily, not only among local merchants but among concerns that advertise in all parts of the country. These national advertisers are realizing that the good coverage given local tradesmen would be equally good for them.

This is not to say that the weekly press is something new, but only that it is entering upon a new era, with advertisers and their agents showing new appreciation of its worth. The first newspaper published in Canada was the Halifax Gazette dated March 23, 1752, and the first paper printed entirely in French was Le Canadien of November 22, 1806. The years between those two dates and today have witnessed a satisfying growth in the number and quality of our newspapers.

What Is News?

There is no unanimous agreement among newspapermen on a definition of news, and when academic people and philosophers add their opinions the confusion becomes compounded.

For any editor, what is news depends upon the time and place and the people involved and the significance of what happens, all viewed through the eyes and from the environment of his readers. If something occurs at the other side of the world that vitality affects the lives of people in a 200-person Canadian village, this is news, and the weekly paper will try to extend its readers' knowledge by showing the relationship.

There is, however, a further factor to be considered: timeliness. The editor of a weekly that is published on Thursday knows that the events of last Friday were reported in the daily press, by radio and perhaps on television. They may even have appeared by now in the news reels. While not ignoring the unlikely fact that some of his readers do not see television, news reels, or daily newspapers and do not listen to the radio news, the editor will avoid loading his columns with old news, important though it may be.

An alert editor knows how to get around this difficulty, as can be seen in every issue of a good weekly newspaper. He cannot avoid mention of a declaration of war, the assassination of a president, the destruction of part of a city by flood. These are news and nothing any newspaperman can do will alter the fact. The thing to do is to take the news and relate it to the people in the territory covered by the weekly newspaper. What effect will these events have upon local life, economically and socially? How are community institutions affected? What local families and individuals have been caught up in the event? Answers to these questions make the far-off happening of last Friday news here today.

Another thing known to the alert editor of a live weekly is that he cannot sit in his office waiting for news to come to him. A news story doesn't just happen. It depends upon organization of sources, on looking ahead so as to anticipate coming events, on preparing questions that will bring out the covert implications, on planning the routine connected with publication so that fitting attention may be given some unexpected event near deadline.

He is a wise editor who recognizes and alters to the everyday interests of his readers in addition to satisfying their curiosity about unexpected happenings and "big" local events. For example, he will give space and deserved prominence to regulations designed to prevent loss of life, to articles he believes will contribute to the betterment of living conditions and the spread of happiness. He will not ignore so commonplace a thing as the weather, but he will try to make it interesting by informing his readers authoritatively about its current significance in their farming and business prospects: what has the state of the weather during the past week meant to the economy of the community?

Local News

In Canada "news" is still largely local or regional in character. We inhabit half a continent, and we cannot possibly keep track of everything that is happening everywhere in it. Our interest in what is near and our preoccupation with what is familiar is not parochialism, but a necessity imposed upon us by conditions. The weekly newspaper, if the editor is a lively, inquisitive person, ministers ideally to our needs.

People in small communities, whether rural or suburban, have keen interest in whatever they see that is out of the ordinary. The commuter walking home from the train wants to know why the men are digging up the street; he is interested in when the new school will be opened, how long it will provide necessary accommodation and on what facts and speculation the council bases its judgment; he is curious about every change in his neighbourhood, whether it is big or little. There is, in fact, no incident so trifling that, in the hands of a competent weekly newspaper reporter, may not be developed into a news story — and frequently such stories make better reading than much of the "big" news crowding upon people through other media.

Newspaper textbooks have a lot to say about the value of "human interest" in reporting and editing. The big daily newspaper has to work harder to print human interest stories than does the weekly, for an obvious reason: the thousands who read the daily paper are not interested in Thomas Jones himself, but in the picturesque or tragic thing that has befallen Mr. Jones; the hundreds who read the rural or suburban weekly paper are interested in Mr. Jones himself, because they know him. What happened to Mr. Jones need not be urgent, but only something that affected him pleasantly or adversely, or something that might conceivably have happened to the reader.

Editors of weekly newspapers could, if their time permitted, add to the value of their papers by writing occasional expository articles dealing with issues of local importance. Such exercise would, too, be a relief for the editor because it would allow him to sink his teeth into something bigger than routine. An example might be the issue of whether or not to add chemicals to the water supply: the weekly editor who clarified such a subject, telling his readers what the points are upon which arguments are based, would be highly appreciated.

Given the best for it and skill in arranging his duties so as to allow time for it, the weekly editor will derive immense satisfaction from writing authoritatively on local issues; and, if he does his job competently, he need not fear competition from any source, even including the high-priced syndicate columnists with their wide-ranging polemics.

The Editor

Intelligently developed, the prestige latent in editing and publishing a weekly newspaper in Canada provides satisfactions that are attractive to men of ability.

The independent owner of a weekly newspaper is well known and respected. He is the upholder of the values that count most in his community, the champion of every righteous cause, the proposer and supporter of changes that mark advancement over the old order of things, an anchor in time of storm and the troubler of the public conscience when it becomes too complacent. From him there issue ideas, solutions and enthusiasm.

The best editor will be out and around his community so as to be in touch with the interests of his readers. He will be like the artist in ancient Rome who concealed himself behind his paintings to listen to the criticism of passers-by. He will have a sensitized mind, picking up every impression that may serve his readers. People will consult him, because of his wide range of knowledge and unbiased interest. He will try to see both sides of controversial matters, and he will not suppress news that should be printed or views that represent a section of the public mind.

These virtues add up to make a man who makes a newspaper that is read and digested for its goodness. Mr. W. Teller, Managing Director of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, said this in a letter to the Monthly Letter: "If someone asked me to list the virtues of the weekly press, I would give readership the prime position. Any paper if it is to be influential must not only have subscribers — it must have subscribers who read it thoroughly. My own opinions, and those of many readers and publishers with whom I have talked, make it appear that the weekly newspapers have perhaps a better claim to this criterion of worth than other newspapers."

Cultural Force

Editors see the weekly newspaper as a pulsating, vital institution that reaches to the grass roots of the community social structure, reflecting its life, customs and culture. The Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences was hesitant, in making its report in 1951, about giving this credit to the press.

Alluding to the newspaper press as a whole, the report said: "To what extent the newspaper press of Canada contributes effectively to the development of Canadian arts and letters is a matter of opinion. Although many of our leading newspapers over the years have devoted generous space to book reviews and to commentaries on music and the arts, and although we have in Canada many editors who write thoughtfully and with distinction, we should hesitate to assess these influences upon our cultural life."

Half of our Canadian people living at the time of the census a few years ago were born before 1924. They spent their formative years in a society relatively untouched by radio, to which television was unknown, and in which moving pictures were not the habit they now are. Certainly, in such a society, the local newspaper should share with the church, the school and the local library the credit for being the art, letters and science of the people.

Great movements in what the Royal Commission report calls "cultural life", such as the little theatre, had their modest beginnings as local drama groups sponsored and supported by the press. The press — and not least the weekly press — can justifiably claim credit for developing among readers support for orchestras, bands and art groups, and for encouraging young people pursuing their muse by publishing their handiwork. It would be interesting to learn — and perhaps some future commission may find out — how many of Canada's nationally-known writers, artists, musicians and other cultural craftsmen received their first public support and encouragement in their local weekly newspapers.

Editorial Page

Newspapers commonly reserve one page as the mouthpiece of the editor and his readers. It is a place where the news and trends of the day are discussed and analysed, and where debate clarifies issues.

The editor who takes his editorial function sincerely is in position to influence his community for good by speaking frankly, now softly and now with vigour, on matters that merit community thought and action.

The weekly editor knows that big words do not guarantee big thoughts, and he is given to clear, simple writing, perhaps punctuated with homely sentences and expressions. His editorials reflect the needs and thoughts of ordinary people. They draw on a rich fund of sanity and candour. Mr. Cranston remarked in his article: "There is not a Member of Parliament at Ottawa or in any of the provincial capitals who does not watch closely what his local weekly editors are saying."

It is the editor's business to look out upon the world as pictured in the news columns and try to understand it. Where the news calls for action, he will suggest, with reasons based upon the evidence before him, the course he thinks it should take. He, following his detached and painstaking research, is in position to point out the vital and perhaps hidden significance of a proposed community project. He is, in the best tradition, appealing to truth and reason and intelligence, not to prejudice, passion and ignorance.

Such an editor makes his page the legitimate stage from which to express opinion, expose bias, and invite debate. He develops his "Voice of the People" column into a meaningful forum, open to everyone who has something worth saying. On such a page ideas strike sparks, and opposites rub each other into usable size and shape. The editor who can promote a lively readers' forum, printing several letters a week on topics of community interest, is contributing in an important way to the stability and betterment of the community.

Continued Importance

Statistics are not very helpful in judging a phenomenon with so many aspects as the press has, but from the figures available it seems at least apparent that Canada has a vigorous weekly press, increasing in circulation and advertising. The other judgments, those of worth, are individual things, affected by many aspects of the publication: its community, its sort of reader and its editor's ideals, intelligence, expertness and energy.

It can be said with certainty that it is through the press that the people receive the information that enables them to change their ways of life for the better. When this information is given

The names of men such as Howe, Mackenzie and Ryerson live in Canadian history largely because they used their printing presses to direct the course of that history — December Printer & Publisher.

In the form of balanced presentation of basic facts, telling the fundamental purposes sought and outlining the alternatives, all spiced by skillful thought and observation, then the newspaper is living up to its high purpose.

Such a newspaper demands that its editor shall have ability, character, leadership and genuine skill in his craft. It is the sort of newspaper referred to by Lord Hewart, Lord Chief Justice of England, when he said: "Do we always think as gratefully, or indeed as justly, as we might, of the amazing ability, diligence, care and learning; the wit, the humour, the skill and the versatility; the dutifulness, the courage, the conscientiousness and the sheer hard work which go to the making of the best kind of newspaper?"

OBITUARY

Mrs. William J. MacMahon
The death of Mrs. William J. MacMahon occurred at her home in Digby on January 27th after a long illness.

Mrs. MacMahon was the wife of William J. MacMahon, retired Collector of Customs at Digby, in which town she had resided for nearly thirty years. She had just passed her sixty-ninth birthday at the time of her death.

A woman whose name symbolized charity, goodness and kindness of heart, she will long be remembered by many for her generosity, which was the greatest aspect of her character.

Besides her husband she is survived in passing by one son, Chester, in Germany, and one daughter, Mrs. L. L. MacCrae, of Port Maitland, also by two beloved granddaughters, Dianne and Maria MacCrae.

Prayers at the home were followed by funeral services on Saturday morning, at St. Patrick's Church, with interment in Digby. Pall bearers were Dr. J. R. McCleave, Dr. L. Dolron, Capt. S. P. Theriault, and Mr. Joseph Hattie.

Bay View Church Has Good Year

The Annual Congregational meeting of Bay View United Church was held on Jan. 23rd after the regular worship service. Mr. Loran Adams presented the Treasurer's Report; Mrs. Frank Wilson reported for the Ladies' Guild and Mrs. L. R. Atkinson for the Sunday School. All reports were highly encouraging and showed marked progress over previous years. The following officers were duly elected to their various duties for 1955:

Sec'y-Treas. Mr. Loran Adams.
Trustees, Mr. Frank Wilson and Mr. Wm. Clayton (re-elected).

Good Year

The annual business meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Little River Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Nelson Kelly on Friday evening, Jan. 14. The Treasurer's report showed a very successful year with a grand total of $660.00 and a balance on hand of $419.00. Included in the receipts was $42.00 from Swift and Company.

The following slate of officers was brought in:

Pres. Mrs. Nelson Kelly (re-elected).
Vice-Pres. Mrs. Bernard Morehouse.
2nd Vice-Pres. Mrs. Stanley Denton.

Sec'y. Mrs. Clayton Denton (re-elected).
Treas. Mrs. Reginald Trask (re-elected).

Before the close of the meeting the president was presented with a birthday gift on behalf of the auxiliary members. Before departing delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Lee K. Trask.

To Hold Trophy Bonsel

Kenneth Beckwith, President of the Digby Curling Club, stated here arrangements had been completed for a home-and-home bonspiel with the Bridge-town Curling Club for the Hotel Champlain Trophy, recently donated by J. P. Richards for annual competition between the two clubs.

Mr. Beckwith said interest in the Digby Curling Club has greatly increased this year and membership has now reached seventy-six. Last year membership in the club stood at 59.

Included among the members of the Digby Curling Club this year are a number of the personnel from H.M.C.S. Cornwall. It is hoped interest in curling by those at the naval base will result in it being based among the sports at the base and that a club may be formed there.

It is understood a number of bonspiels will be held during the present season between the Digby Club and service clubs from Greenwood and Stadacona. The Digby Club will also meet Berwick in a bonspiel later in the season.

The Digby Club, youngest in the Western Counties area, this year had the honour of taking the runner up Dyke Shield in the Western Counties bonspiel, losing out for first and the Ralston Trophy to Lunenburg.

Film Shown At Granville Ferry

The second in a series of films produced by the National Film Board was shown in the Granville Ferry Community Hall with a good attendance.

This set of pictures included "The Royal Tour of New Zealand" which was most interesting. This film portrays the journey of Their Majesties, Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh, as they travelled through our fellow Commonwealth country, New Zealand. The same thrill of pleasure, respect, and admiration is shown by the New Zealanders as was so apparent during the royal couples' visit to Canada in 1951.

The film also gives an excellent opportunity to study the geography of the country as well as the way of life of the New Zealand people, their customs, etc., which are so similar to ours.

Another film shown which was very interesting was the "Mission Ship", the story of the Columbia, a Church of England mission ship, that serves scattered communities along British Columbia's northern coastline. An accident in the woods, a children's service in an Indian village, are all in a day's voyage for the ship that is hospital, church, and source of news for isolated people. This is a warm and thrilling story taken from the daily life of the minister, the doctor and the ship captain on the mission ship Columbia.

Other films shown were "Eye Witness", "Pole Barns", "Each Man's Son" and "The Honest Truth".

Nichol for their attendance on our dear son and brother whom God has called home. —Mrs. Eva Nickerson and family, Weymouth. 22:10

CARD OF THANKS—I thank my relatives and friends who were so kind to me and sent cards, letters and visited me while I was a patient at the Digby General Hospital for treatment. Special thanks to Dr. Black, nurses and my sisters-in-law, June Stark and Fern Webber. —Mrs. Otis Stark. 22:10

IN MEMORIAM—In loving memory of dear Dad, Alfred M. Cann, who passed away February 4, 1954.

We often sit and think of him when we are all alone. For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own. In The Municipal Council

ANNUAL MEETING, JANUARY, 1955

The Council for the Municipality of the District of Digby met at the Court House, Digby, on Tuesday, January 18th, 1955, at 2 p.m. Those present were Warden H. E. Chisholm, Councillors Ronald Morehouse, J. W. Murley, B. F. Blackford, D. B. Kenney, Ernest Ring, H. B. Fitzgerald, W. F. Cossaboom, Douglas Andrews, Cecil E. Jones, R. E. Jefferson and H. J. Lewis.

The session opened with prayer by Councillor Andrews. The Warden addressed the Council as follows—

In assembling as officers and members of the Municipal Council of the Municipality of Digby at this annual meeting, it may be well to ask ourselves just what in the estimation of our people the opening and prosecution of the affairs of this council mean to both our Rural and Urban Municipalities.

I feel sure however that there are factors which are of mutual importance in the full development of our people and the prosecution of business activities of our citizens.

We do well to guard the youth of our land, the health of our people. We salute youth as the sweetest and freshest from the hand of God, and the most wholesome part of our race. We as adults are apprehensive of what youth will think of us in building a line of defence against their terrific energy. For after all we glory in the age and beauty of youth. This applies to the young Canada of ours, a country which in a comparatively short time has become a nation and taken a position of great importance in world affairs.

To many the days of fifty years ago are as yesterday, but the development of Canada during the last fifty years is nothing short of astounding, and with the aid of greater applied science, the years to come bespeak great things for Canada.

The outstanding engineering feats being prosecuted in Nova Scotia at the present time are the Halifax and Dartmouth Bridge and the Cape Breton Causeway. These means of transportation together with proposed Yarmouth and Bar Harbour Ferry should be great factors in stimulating not only our tourist business, but will make travel from United States to and through Nova Scotia more embracing, as well as providing means of transporting Nova Scotia products to fill the requirements of the people of the New England cities.

The manner in which the people of the world today are being informed relative to national and international situations (at least outside the iron curtain) reveals the great achievements of science in spanning time and distance.

In thinking of National situations it must be gratifying to France or at least to many of their people, to have established a strong man in the person of Pierre Mendes France as Premier, in spite of the fact many of their former efforts had been futile.

With the advent of our New Year the world was pleased to announce the cessation of war, a situation which had not existed for years.

Perhaps one of our greatest problems of the time is the maintaining of our highways. Motor transportation together with weather conditions are two great factors which enter into the difficulties of maintaining our dirt roads. We are pleased however to report the completion of the paving of thirty miles of highway on Digby Neck, a job which is commended by the many people who travel over it.

It is interesting to note the increasing demand for hydro development. I have been advised there is a strong possibility of the erection of a second power plant at the development on the East Branch back of Bear River.

Because of the present high cost of replacing old and building new buildings our people in some districts are becoming quite fire conscious and have provided themselves with fire fighting equipment, together with reservoir water supplies, which could be very beneficial at least, during most of the year, should the demand arise.

Down through the past years our military defence has been considered as a National obligation, but at the present time, largely because of the possible nature of enemy operations when hostile action may be taken against industrial or highly populated areas, it is considered that a chain of civil defence should be established, in order that our people may become familiar with a proposed system of action should an emergency arise.

Very recently there has been released for our consideration a Report of the Royal Commission on Public School Finance in Nova Scotia. This report headed by the Honourable Vincent J. Fottler, Judge of the County Court, is very exhaustive and comprehensive in its dealing with the problem of education and the balance and relationship of our people to our economic program of life. It would appear with a few exceptions the Municipalities of Nova Scotia are devoting a fair share or proportion of their wealth to education, and if educational costs advance (which apparently is inevitable) further contribution must be provided by the higher forms of government.

In a review of business during the past year it would appear that salaries and wages have not suffered materially. The demand for lumber and forest products while quite active was productive of a reduced price. The fishing as prosecuted by the boat fishermen and druggers is quite different, at least in their weather requirements, and as our local fishermen are employed in boat fishing and for some reason we have had considerable rough weather, thus the remuneration to the fisherman has not been up to that of former years.

In regard to farming, the fruit growers of Annapolis Valley took a severe beating in the loss of their fruit by hurricane Edna and those who were producing eggs and meats through the use of imported feeds found their margin of profit about wiped out after paying feed costs. It is considered that by the use of grass silage considerable saving can be made in the production of dairy products and beef. We are glad to report that our municipal activities were carried on without incident. Our tax collections have been well up to average and our general operations have been maintained within the scope of our financial obtainments. With the exception of education which overran our estimate to the extent of about two thousand dollars. Our departmental expenditures have been maintained within our estimates and we have again been able to carry on without an overdraft thus eliminating the necessity of paying interest on current expenditures.

Together with our proposed increased educational cost is a proposed 50% increase in hospitalization in at least as far as we are required by the government to pay for such services. The question or problem of assessment upon which all our municipal activities are based is ever in the limelight. Ourselves along with other municipalities have endeavoured to improve the situation by appointment of one assessor, and our Department of Municipal Affairs have cooperated by setting up a school in order that a certain line of thought may be established relative to assessing. While we have benefited much by the inclusion of property that was never assessed, yet the question of equalization is a very vexed one and is generally considered impossible to give one hundred per cent satisfaction, yet I feel that the municipalities at large will never revert to the multiple assessors. Your committees will report on conditions dealing with public health and public buildings and our Municipal Home. I wish at this time to extend to you all a wish for the best things for the New Year and thank you heartily for your wholehearted support and cooperation in assisting in all our activities.

Respectfully Submitted,
This 18th day of January, 1955.

In The Municipal Council

Auditor's Report for 1954

To the Warden and Councillors
Municipality of the District of Digby,
Digby, Nova Scotia.
Gentlemen:

We have examined the books and accounts of the Municipality of the District of Digby for the year ended December 31st, 1954, and have received all the information and explanations we have required.

In accordance with Subsection 1 of Section 105, Chapter 4 of the Municipal Act, we report that we also examined the books and records of the Municipal School Board for the year ended December 31st, 1954. Our report on this examination has been delayed until the portion of costs of Digby Regional High School, attributable to the Municipality of the District of Digby, has been determined.

We did not verify the outstanding taxes with the taxpayers of the Municipality, but we checked the listing of outstanding accounts and found the totals to be in agreement with the control accounts. All cash received on account of outstanding taxes and for other purposes was checked against serially numbered duplicate receipts.

All Disbursements were made by cheque. Our verification of the bank account included an examination of all cancelled cheques and supporting vouchers.

The inventory of the County Home Supplies has been carried forward unchanged from the Revenue Fund Balance Sheet of 1953. We understand that this amount represents a reasonable estimate of the value of supplies at the County Home as at December 31st, 1954.

The Financial Statements for the year have been prepared in a manner consistent with that of previous years.

Subject to the above comments, in our opinion, the attached Balance Sheets of the Revenue Fund and Capital Fund were properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Municipality of the District of Digby as at December 31st, 1954, according to the best of our information, the explanations given to us and as shown by the books and accounts.

L. J. McKINNON, C.A.

Has Transatlantic Phone Call

Mrs. Oscar Comeau, of Marshfield, had a most thrilling experience on Sunday, January 30th, when she received a telephone call from her sister, Mrs. Bert Simpkin, in Farnborough, England.

Although Mrs. Comeau had been informed two days previously that the call could be expected, she was still very excited over the prospect of speaking with her sister and could hardly wait for the call to come.

During the call, which was four minutes in duration, birthday and New Year greetings were exchanged between Mrs. Comeau and her sister and their two families on either side of the Atlantic.

Mrs. Comeau says the call came through so clearly that conversation was as easy as if she had been talking to her next door neighbour over the line.

Coming from Leicester, Mrs. Comeau has lived in Canada for thirty-one years. She paid a visit to her old home five years ago.

New Danish Freighter Loads Here

The Abilene Vendila, a new Danish freighter built last April, took on a cargo of some 40,000 feet of lumber here last week.

The Abilene Vendila was under command of Captain Knud Goth and came here from Port of Spain, Trinidad. She took on only a part cargo in Digby and sailed from here to Yarmouth where she will take on more of her cargo, completing her load at Weymouth. The lumber is being shipped to Garston, England.

Built in April, 1954, the Abilene Vendila is an excellently equipped freighter, having passenger accommodation for 12. Passenger quarters and the officers quarters are finished in walnut and well furnished. A well equipped hospital is also included and the steward's pantry, complete with refrigerated storage for meats, fish and vegetables, is equal to that of a large, well equipped hotel.

TRADE BOARD HOLDS 55th. ANNUAL SESSION

James P. Richards, Digby hotel operator, was elected President of the Digby Board of Trade at the annual meeting of the Board, held in the Town Hall here Tuesday night.

Other officers elected included A. L. Robinson, Vice-President, and Frank C. Ervin, Secretary-Treasurer.

Committee chairmen elected at the meeting were J. J. Brittain, Civic; J. P. Richards, Tourist; G. Gillatt, Labour; N. Wright, J. Hattie, I. McKenna, Membership; J. W. Christie, Entertainment; Howard Patterson, Property Improvement; A. S. Merrell, Transportation; F. C. Purdy, Welfare and Education; Donald Amrault, Industrial; Victor Cardoza, Publicity; C. D. Snow, Fisheries; H. C. Morton, Finance; Dr. D. Lewis, Athletic.

Retiring President J. J. Brittain commented on the work accomplished over the last year despite a seeming lack of interest in the Board's activities on the part of many of the town's business men.

Mr. Brittain stated the Board had arranged the erection of welcome signs at the highway entrances to the town and had been assured of the erection early this spring of a "Welcome to Nova Scotia" sign by the provincial government at the water entrance to Digby.

He said the Board during the year had made considerable effort to direct the attention of Annapolis Valley communities to the need for having the "Valley Route" publicized if the valley is to participate fully in the expected increase in tourist traffic brought about by the Bar Harbour-Yarmouth ferry.

A resolution covering this, passed by the Digby Board, was adopted by the Annapolis Valley Affiliated Boards of Trade at the semi-annual meeting. Mr. Brittain said, and would not doubt be further acted upon at the annual meeting of that body in the spring.

Included among the guests at last night's Trade Board meeting were Mr. J. C. McCuaig,

School Pupil Killed

Six-year-old Elaine Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes of Round Hill, died in the Annapolis Royal Hospital Friday afternoon after being struck by a car near her Round Hill home.

According to police, the youngster had stepped off the school bus and was half way across the pavement toward her home when she was involved in a collision with a car reportedly driven by Leo Kaulback of Bridgetown.

The young girl was rushed to the Annapolis hospital, some five miles from the scene of the accident, by Dr. I. R. Sutherland. She died shortly after her admission to the hospital.

The accident victim is a daughter of the former Joyce Height of Barton and a granddaughter of Mrs. Joshua Height of Barton. She is also a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holmes of Port Wade and a great granddaughter of Mrs. Wilson Munro, Victoria Beach.

Funeral service was held at the Brighton United Church on Monday afternoon.

Mr. Clancy also spoke briefly and complimented the Board on its record of achievement over the years.

L. C. Parkinson stressed the need for increased activity in the promotion of the tourist industry and dwelt at some length on the need for a stepped-up campaign of advertising to acquaint people with the tourist attractions offered by this area.

He said every letter mailed out by Digby firms should contain advertising material for Digby as a tourist resort. Heavy competition is being received from other centres, he said, and this must be successfully met if Digby is to continue its tourist industry.

Victor Cardoza stated that while he was in agreement with the need for advertising, he felt something definite should be done through the Board of Trade to see to it that the facilities for sport and other activities available to the tourists who visit Digby are made known to them.

Efforts should be made, he said, to secure the cooperation of the Yacht Club and other similar organizations to provide opportunities for fishing, sailing, and other such activities for the tourist visitors.

J. P. Richards, chairman of the Tourist Committee, stated these matters would be taken into consideration by the committee and an effort made to implement the recommendations of the meeting.

Guest Speaker At "Church College Sunday" Observance

Rev. James A. Fraser, Imperial, and president of the Maritime Conference of the United Church of Canada, will be guest speaker in the Digby United Church Pastorate on Sunday, when Church College Sunday will be observed.

Church College Sunday came into being last June when the Maritime Conference which met at Sackville decided to hold "Church College Sunday" annually for the purpose of keeping before the church the place and significance which the United Church Colleges in the Maritimes, viz. Pine Hill Divinity Hall and Mount Allison University, occupy.

Pine Hill Divinity Hall has the responsibility of training future ministers. This college, officials of the church realize, is becoming increasingly important as the need for more candidates for the ministry is felt to meet the need of the growing church. One hundred forty-four new churches and church halls have been built for the United Church of Canada in the past seven years.

Mount Allison University at Sackville, N. B., has 836 full-course students this year of which about 10% are studying towards a Theological course. Formerly one Sunday in February had been set aside by the Church to commemorate Mount Allison Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Fraser will speak at Grace United Church on Sunday morning on "The Voice of God" and in the evening on "The Church". He will also be guest speaker at Bay View United Church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in observance of Church College Sunday there.

Digby Regional High School will be represented by a team at the Headmaster's Curling Bouspiel to be held at Dartmouth on Friday and Saturday of this week. The winner of this week's bouspiel will represent Nova Scotia at the Dominion High School Curling Championship, to be held later this year at Sydney, Nova Scotia.

Curling is Canada's fastest growing sport and it is believed that there are more people engaged in curling now than in any other game. Interest has increased this year at the Regional High School and the boys have been given the privilege of using the local curling rink on Saturday afternoons. There is still room for others who might like to start this game.

T. J. HARRIS SPEAKS TO GARDEN SOCIETY

T. J. Harris, Digby, who formerly operated the "Bacquette Gardens" addressed the Admiralty Digby Horticultural Society at their regular meeting on Friday night. Mr. Harris spent several years as Head of the Experimental Station in Jamaica and at the Agricultural Gardens in Bermuda in an official capacity for the British government.

Mr. Harris who kept his audience in rapt attention to the very end of his talk told of many experiments he performed in Jamaica and Bermuda, the most interesting being the one in which he had success with developing banana seeds. Mr. Harris believes he is the only person in the world who had developed banana seeds. His experiment was done in Jamaica about 40 years ago and was carried out by stopping irrigation to the banana tree, allowing the tree to wilt and later re-supplying irrigation. He also claimed to be the first person to bud avocado. Among other experiments carried out by Mr. Harris was cross fertilization of the pineapple, experiments with sugar cane seedlings and with the cocoa bean on the West Coast of Africa. Other experiences cited by Mr. Harris included his part in reviving the Easter Lily industry, growing orchids, planning tobacco districts and introducing the lizard into Jamaica for the purpose of exterminating the fruit fly.

Mr. Harris gave a brief history of plant life, which represents half the organisms of the world, from the glacial periods to the present time. He classified the plant life into the monocotyledons and dicotyledons and told of the economic uses of each. Plants grown in Digby or other places near the water, he said, are more valuable for food than plants from other places where there is no water because of the chlorophyll they contain. The chemical rays of light, Mr. Harris said, were most important for food plants.

Thanks for a most interesting address was extended to Mr. Harris by the president, John Russell.

The Horticultural Society had at their previous meeting been favoured by a visit from H. S. Marton, Department of Agriculture, who showed films of particular interest to gardeners. This meeting was held jointly with the Digby Garden Club.

Ravens Score Overtime Win

The Digby Ravens scored a thrilling overtime win over the Cornwallis Cougars at the Cornwallis rink last Wednesday evening.

The Ravens recovered from a very bad start in the first period to tie up the game in the third and go on to the ten minute overtime to win by a 7-6 score.

In the first stanza the Cornwallis team racked up three unanswered tallies before the Ravens got the feel of the game. Score at the end of the first period was 5-2 for the Navy.

The second period saw the Ravens settle down to play, a closer game and held the Cougars scoreless, while tallying twice, to make the score at the end of the centre frame 5-4 for Navy.

In the final stanza the Ravens played almost faultless hockey, bombarding the Cornwallis net with a steady stream of rubber and scoring twice to the Navy's singleton. Only the agility of the Cougars' netminder kept the Ravens from scoring more than the two to tie up the game.

The ten minute overtime saw Donnelly, of the Ravens, slap in the winning goal around the three minute mark. Although they tried hard to widen the lead, luck seemed against them and the game ended 7-6 for Digby.

League Schedule To End

Last game of the regular league schedule in the Central Valley Hockey League will be played next Monday evening between the Digby Ravens and the Annapolis Royal Tigers, it was learned here today.

The game, which is a four point clean-up match, will be played at the Annapolis Arena if ice is available there. If there is no ice at Annapolis on Monday, however, the game will be played in Digby.

The semi-finals of the league are scheduled to be held February 16th, 18th and 21st, it was learned. In the semi-finals the first and third place teams will play off while the second and fourth place teams will also meet in a best two out of three series.

At the moment the Cornwallis Cougars hold first place in the league with 20 points in 13 games played, while Digby Ravens with 18 points in 11 games played, and Bridgetown Hawks with 13 points in 12 games played, are tied for second place. St. Anne's are in fourth place with 8 points in 7 games played, while Annapolis has 2 points in 9 games played, for fifth place. As St. Anne's plays only half the number of games, these are 4 point games.

It is understood that, if the Digby team should take first or second position at the close of the league schedule, the opening game of the semi-finals will be held at Digby Forum on Wednesday, February 16th. These standings do not include last night's games.

E. Scott Eaton Installed As Clerk

E. Scott Eaton was sworn in as Town Clerk and Treasurer at the regular monthly meeting of the Digby Town Council here Monday evening. Mr. Eaton succeeds Seymour C. Denton, whose resignation took effect on Monday.

The meeting authorized Digby County Power Board Superintendent H. J. Campbell to represent the Town of Digby at hearings before the Nova Scotia Board of Public Utilities at which the Town and Power Board will seek lower electric energy rates for Digby town and county.

A report from the Arbitration Committee, presented at the meeting revealed the town's share of joint expenditure with the municipality would be 40% this year. This is an increase of 5% over the 35-65 agreement previously in force.

It was decided the number of taxis to be licensed in Digby for 1955 would not exceed twenty-five. License fee was set at $25 with an additional $1.00 to cover cost of a badge. This last amount would be refundable on return of the badge, it was decided.

Fire Chief George Humphrey was delegated to attend the Maritime Fire Chiefs' convention in Charlottetown as a representative of the Digby Fire Department which last year placed first in Nova Scotia and sixth in all Canada in communities of comparable size to Digby.

Announces World Day Of Prayer Date

Friday, February 25, was announced as the World Day of Prayer at the regular meeting of the Grace United W.M.S. on Tuesday. Program for the service as outlined in the Missionary Monthly was drawn to the attention of the members and it was thought a committee would soon be meeting to make local arrangements for the day in Digby.

Plans were also made on Tuesday to have the new film "That None May Thirst" for a special Easter program if the film could be obtained at that time.

A Finance Committee for the auxiliary was named, including Mrs. J. M. Wallis, Mrs. Elton Arnold, Mrs. James Brooks and Mrs. John Russell.

Representatives to the Official Board were Mrs. Burton Fleet and Mrs. James Brooks. A minute of silence was held in memory of the late Mrs. Leonard Banks, who was a member of the W.M.S.

It was decided to prepare a parcel by the end of February to be sent to Dr. Florence Murray, missionary in Korea.

The study for Tuesday's program was a Mass Christianity in India, giving the weaknesses and strengths to such a movement. Taking part in the program were Mrs. C. B. Parker, Mrs. Elton Arnold and Mrs. James Brooks.

H. & S. Hears Of Louisiana Trip

The Church Point Home and School Association held its Founder's Day program Monday evening with over 35 members present, under the presidency of Mrs. Louis J. Thibodeau. A group of high school pupils, young girls, sang several songs accompanied on the piano by Guy LeBlanc. "New Paths to Old Goals" by L. A. deWolf was read by the vice-president, Arcade Belliveau, and a short, skit "The Merry-go-round", by four persons, was enacted, which proved interesting. "Teacher's trial" by Mrs. Louis J. Thibodeau was read and a game of questions and answers were all on the Founder's Day program of the evening, under the guidance of Mrs. Ismaele Comeau, of Little Brook.

Mrs. Urban Belliveau, of Belliveau's Cove, was special guest of the evening. She related her trip to Louisiana in January in which 135 Acadians from various parts of Eastern Canada journeyed to that State of which 40 were from the Maritimes. The excursion to Louisiana had to do with the bi-centenary celebration that is to take place in Nova Scotia in 1955. This bi-centenary celebration is to celebrate the survival of the Acadians from their exodus from Nova Scotia in 1755.

The Clare Council abolished the positions of district tax collector and all payments for 1955 will be made direct to the Municipal Clerk's office at Little Brook. By following this plan, which is in vogue in certain municipalities in Nova Scotia, it is expected to save several thousands of dollars to the municipality.

Abolish Post Of District Tax Collector

A re-vote of $650 for the veterinary Assistance Board was made. A similar vote was made last year but the Board was not organized until late in the year to commence operating on Jan. 1, 1955. Raymond LeBlanc, of Meteghan Centre, local agricultural representative, is secretary of the board, with Roy Thibault, of Salmon River, as board member representing the council.

The monies voted are to pay the mileage of the veterinary for any calls made in the district of Clare with Dr. Hawks of Yarmouth, responding to all calls in this district.

The report of the Municipal House of Meteghan Centre was given by Camille d'Entremont which showed that the health of the inmates which number 17 was very good during 1954. One patient died during the year due to heart trouble.

The interior of the building will require painting this year and other minor repairs performed during the year.

Vincent F. Melanson, manager of the Hydro Electric Commission of Clare, exhibited several insulators that had been hit by rifle shots and one probably by buckshot. Every year persons unknown have taken potshots at the hydro power insulators and in some cases this has disrupted services for a considerable time. With the difficulty of locating such broken insulators the culprits are causing extreme disruption and trouble in areas where it is more difficult to locate.

Lanyard & Special Youth Week

Service Held

In observance with Christian Youth Week the Merryteens' C.G.I.T. Group of Deep Brook held a special Church Service on Tuesday evening, February 1st, on the theme "Friendship of Christ". The service opened with Call to Worship and prayer by Ruth Nichols, followed by Scripture reading, St. John 15:1-8, by Betty Long, and the Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi by Stella Crossup. Velma Bacon then read a poem entitled "Blessed Be His Name". The offering was received by two Intermediate girls, Paula Moore and Joyce Harvey.

The highlight of the evening was the Lanyard Service conducted by the leader, Mrs. Francis Miller, with Jean Harvey acting as Senior Girl.

Mrs. Miller then delivered a short message speaking on Love and Friendship, and challenging the girls as Seniors to launch out in love for those about them, love for their Community and Church, and above all, love for God. Each of the Senior girls taking part in the service then knelt at the altar to receive their lanyards. Mrs. Eric Adams assisted the girls by presiding at the organ.

Mark Christian Youth Week

In keeping with Christian Youth Week, members of the Annapolis-Granville C. G. I. T. held a very impressive candle-light service in the Granville Ferry United Baptist Church.

Mrs. Percy MacAulay, of Annapolis Royal, and Mrs. C. W. Bower, of Granville Ferry, are to be congratulated on their splendid management and leadership. The girls carried out their respective duties capably and reverently and received much favorable comment.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Facing the congregation on the wall back of the pulpit hung the C.G.I.T. monogram flanked by the four mottoes so well known to Canadian Girls in Training: namely, Cherish Health, Seek Truth, Know God and Serve Others. The many lighted candles added much to the impressiveness of the service.

Mrs. R. T. Chisholm, church organist, presided at the organ, and the service opened with the processional "Crown Him With Many Crowns".

Myrna Munro was the very capable leader and other girls taking part were Jane Ellis, Dianne Cummings, Barbara Gillett, Myrna Rice, Gloria Bower, Beth MacAulay, Beverly Spurr, Pat Goucher and Ardena Porter.

Members of the group unable to be present were Jean Thibodeau, Evelyn Ritchie, Hazel Thibodeau and Donna Shaw.

A few remarks were made by the pastor of the church, Rev. C. R. Armstrong.

Sandy Cove

Lambs have begun to arrive early at the farm of Conrad Gidney. On January 28, one of the winter's coldest nights, a large husky lamb was born in the woods nearby and later brought to the shelter of the sheep barn by its mother. Several days later twins arrived. The only difference this time was colour—white instead of black.

Mrs. Bradford Merritt has returned home from a visit of several days with her sister, Mrs. Dean Tidd, and family, and her mother, Mrs. Edith Trask, at Smith's Cove.

Mrs. Dutton Sypher was hostess on Wednesday evening to the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Vincent F. Melanson, manager of the Clare Hydro Electric System, read his report to the council showing that the hydro system had a gross revenue of $67,989.68 with an operating expense of $55,122.89.

The profit was distributed as follows: Interest on Funded Debt $3,252.50; Serial Debentures redeemed $1,500; Sinking Fund appropriation $350; Interest on Unfunded debt $201.46; and capital expenditures out of revenue, less depreciation reinvested $4,545.36.

A payment on capital bank loan to the amount of $1,000 was made which left an excess of operating expenditure over operating revenue of $982.53.

Energy purchased for 1954 was 2,100,600 kw.

Mr. Melanson also presented the Digby County Power Board's report to the council.

He reported that 115 appeals were heard by the Appeal Board out of over 3,000 ratepayers, which he considered rather low in comparison with the number of appeals heard in other municipalities.

It was shown the exempted property amounted to $2,300,000 and these were composed of chiefly churches, schools and other municipal buildings. Re-

Both goalies, Alan Comeau of the Arrows, and Mac Smith of the Aces, were called upon to make some good saves.

The annual report read by the clerk and treasurer, Mr. J. A. Hatt, showed an increase in the sale of electrical energy of 88,916 k.w.h. over the previous year.

Dr. A. Lawley was elected to the office of Commissioner by acclamation, replacing Mr. C. C. Nichol, who faithfully served on this board for the past 18 years. Other Commissioners still holding office are M. S. Mullen and C. G. Jones. It was decided not to increase the tax rate and it was set at 2 1/2, the same as the previous year.

H. W. Powell, Curtis Hankinson and Willis Mullen were appointed auditors for the year 1955. The meeting decided to adopt Daylight Saving Time for this year and declared December 28th, Boxing Day, a civic holiday.

Name Committees

A meeting of all committees for the coming celebration of the Acadian Bicentenary, of the Parish of St. Bernard's, was held at the Bay Shore Inn. Father Eli LeBlanc presided, aided by Kenneth Weaver.

The costume committee, headed by Mrs. Marie Harney, chose the costumes to be worn by the parish this coming summer for the folk dancing and the community folk singing.

The committee on drama and pageantry, with Ulysse Bellevue as chairman, was appointed and will prepare an historic tableaux of early Acadian life in Clare.

An exhibition of Acadian arts and crafts is to be arranged and should be of interest to many people.

Plans are being made for a fitting celebration to be held at Major's Point, the site of the first Acadia cemetery.

Mrs. Marie Harney has been appointed general chairman in charge of festivities.

adjustments will have to be made for 1956 assessment roll and possible additions for the present term will take place.

It was worthwhile to note that in 1921 the Clare District assessment was $997,453, and in 1954 it was $889,310, a drop of $108,143. With a low assessment it is evident that the high rate of tax per $100 had to be extremely high to raise the necessary funds to operate the municipality efficiently.

Little River Church Holds Annual

The annual business meeting of the Little River Baptist Church was held on the evening of February 2nd, 1955.

Following a devotional period, Rev. Olmstead, the pastor, who had been made chairman, opened the meeting with prayer by Deacon Donald Tidd, after which the work of the church was reviewed and the officers for the ensuing year elected.

The various organizations of the church were found to be functioning satisfactorily, and all reports indicate a successful year.

During the year the membership of the church was increased by five members. The work of the Sunday School was carried on and the attendance and interest good. The Women's Missionary Society held regular monthly meetings and much interest was shown by those taking part and by increased giving.

A class of men, known as the Brotherhood, held regular meetings. The C.G.I.T. girls met regularly and much interest was shown in their work.

The Pastor has organized a Boy Scout club in which the boys are much interested. The Women's Auxiliary, under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Nelson Kelley, helped financially to keep the church and parsonage buildings in repair. A successful Mission Band is being carried on, with Mrs. Stanley

It is understood Rev. R. R. Winchester, pastor of the church, will be guest speaker.

The President, Mrs. J. V. Andrews, presided at the meeting. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Ralph McNeill. A report from Dr. Ben and Mrs. Gullison, dealing with their safe arrival in India, following a furlough in Canada, was read by Mrs. Andrews. Missionary News Items were read by several members.

During the social hour, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Thomas, assisted by Mrs. J. V. Andrews.

Report From Parliament Hill

GEORGE C. NOWLAN

January 29, 1955.

This could be a rather dull and uninteresting report from Parliament Hill. It certainly would be if it were confined to the activities of Parliament itself, for the past week, for we have dealt with only two matters—the Debate on the Address, which is not of particular interest, and the Debate on German rearmament which your Member has discussed fully in a radio address, and in a former report. It was hoped that the Debate on the Address would conclude this week, but the Debate on the German Treaties lasted so long that we will be lucky to conclude the one on the Address by Thursday of next week.

However, what is always the most interesting document of the Parliamentary Session was tabled this week—"The Estimates for the Fiscal Year ending March 31st, 1956." These show a reduction of $153,534,000 below the Estimates for the current year, but of course additional "Supplementary Estimates" will alter the total of each fiscal year. But at any rate, this is the first proposed reduction in expenditures in a good many years.

These Estimates are contained in a volume of some 640 pages. Once the Debate on the Address is concluded, a major portion of Parliament's time will be spent considering these Estimates. The House of Commons then sits as a "Committee of Supply." The only difference really is that in the House the Speaker presides, and Members are limited to speeches, and having spoken once on any one subject cannot speak again. In the Committee of Supply, the procedure is much more informal. The Speaker has left the Chair and the procedure is presided over by a Chairman, with the Mace under the table. Members can speak as often as they like on any item, and ask innumerable questions. Even so, it is a slow and cumbersome procedure. The Minister of the Department whose Estimates are under discussion, attempts to answer the questions put to him by the Members. In front of the Minister usually sits his Deputy and one or two experts from his Department. When the Minister is asked a question which he cannot answer, one of his experts slips him a note or whispers in his ear. He then gives the information requested, but very often he replies that he cannot give the information, but that he will try to give the answer at a later date. This he very often forgets to do.

There has been much criticism of this manner of scrutinizing the expenditure of over Four Billions of Dollars. Inevitably, as Parliament draws to a close, there is still hundreds of millions of dollars to be voted, which often are passed with scant scrutiny.

This year Parliament is going to adopt an experiment, at least an experiment for this country, although it has been tried in the British House of Commons for many years. It is proposed to set up a Special Committee on Estimates, and to this Committee will be referred the Estimates of some of the Departments of Government. There the Members of Parliament will be able to question not only the Minister, but experts and officials of each Department. In other words, much more detailed information can be obtained than is possible by asking the Minister of the floor of the House. In theory it would look as if this would give a much better review of Parliamentary Estimates than would otherwise be possible. But there is one fundamental difference between the British system and that proposed for Canada. At London the Estimates Committee has an Opposition Chairman and a majority of Opposition Members, whereas at Ottawa the Government will appoint the Chairman, and the majority will be of Government Members.

For years, the Opposition has urged that an Estimates Committee be set up. Now they are wondering if it can work as efficiently as they thought. Parliament always has a certain number of Standing Committees, such as one on Railways and Canals, Banking and Finance, and Agriculture. These Committees usually sit at the same time as the House is in Session, and the Opposition has to supply a certain number of men for those Committees. Now this year, in addition to the Standing Committees, there will be Select Committees on Radio Broadcasting, on Elections, on External Affairs and on the Criminal Code. In addition there is to be this most important Special Committee on Estimates. The Opposition is wondering how with only fifty members, it can service all of the Committees which may be sitting at any one time, and also carry out its work in the House of Commons itself. Certainly it is going to mean a tremendous amount of work for a relatively few people. The Government, of course, is not confronted with that problem because it has 170 members from which to draw.

The British Parliament has followed the practice of submitting only the Estimates of one Department to the Committee each year. Experience has shown that the Committee could not go into detail with more than one Department. Our Government proposes to refer six Departments to the Committee. No one knows what they will be. This does give an opportunity for some political juggling. The practice has been to have a full dress Debate on each Department when the first item is called. Now there will be no Debate on the Departments which are sent to the Committee, until the Committee reports them back. I am not suggesting that this will be done, but it might happen. Assume, for instance, that the Department of Agriculture is under heavy criticism. Its Estimates could be sent to the Committee. The Committee through its majority could delay the report of that Department until the closing days of the Session. In that way, a public debate on matters which should be aired could be obviated.

Altogether, however, it will be an interesting experiment, and one which will be scrutinized closely, both as to its efficiency and as to the manner in which it might shorten Parliamentary Sessions.

In the meantime, the Speaker is presiding over a Committee which is considering the revision of all of the Rules of the House. This may be the most contentious matter which will come before Parliament. Undoubtedly the majority of the Committee will report recommending the Debates be shortened in various ways. Some changes are necessary, but if they go as far as reports have indicated, then undoubtedly many of them will be fought at every stage, which will result in prolonging this Session at least, even though it may shorten ones in the future.

Letter To The Editor

Ottawa, Ont.,
18th January, 1955.

Dear Sir,

May I, through you, extend to the people of Canada the very warm thanks of myself and other members of the Post Office staffs from coast to coast for the exceptional co-operation extended in the mailing of their Christmas cards and gifts.

Reports now being received from postmasters in all parts of the country indicate clearly that more than ever before, the public showed its anxiety to assist the service by mailing early, with the result that the Post Office staffs were able to effect most Christmas deliveries in good time for the holiday.

The reports also indicate that the proportion of correctly addressed and well-packaged mail was higher than ever before, although, as in the past, delays and difficulties were experienced as a result of failure on the part of some mailers to observe good mailing practices.

Much of the credit for the success achieved in our handling of the Christmas mails must, of course, go to the newspapers, who in many cases took great pains to remind the public of the advantages to be gained in observing the various mailing dates and in correctly addressing and packaging their mail. Needless to say, this assistance has been much appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

W. J. Turnbull,
Deputy Postmaster General.

If we are but fixed and resolute — bent on high and holy ends, we shall find means to them on every side and at every moment. — Tryon Edwards.

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

When you want to Go -You're gonna Go!

No ifs, ands or buts about it.

When you give the gun to a 1955 Buick with Dynaflo Drive*, you move.

In the instant you push down the pedal, you get the action you've called for—immediate getaway from a standing start, or immediate safety-surge out of a tight spot on the highway.

It's not magic, this thrilling and pulse-quickenng response—though it feels like the closest thing to it.

It's a principle of the modern airplane, brought for the first time to an automotive transmission.

Twenty "variable pitch propellers" inside the Dynaflo unit itself can change their angle—like the propeller of the airliner can change its pitch from take-off position to cruising position.

And what this brings to you—at the wheel of a '55 Buick—is the nearest thing to flight on wheels. Far better gas mileage in your normal driving and cruising. Spectacular response when you want it for quick getaway or emergency acceleration.

But all this, mind you, with the absolute smoothness that is constant in Dynaflo Drive.

Surely, a demonstration of Variable Pitch Dynaflo is a Buick "must" this year. We'll be happy to do the honors—and show you, in the doing, what a whale of a buy you make here. Drop in this week, won't you?

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Canadians are a lucky people. When summer rolls around they never have to cross borders or leave Canadian shores to find a holiday haven. From the grandeur of the Rockies, past rolling hills, forests and streams, down to the picturesque East Coast, Canada can offer everything vacation-wise. Conveniently located at the best sites are the Canadian Pacific Railway's summer resort hotels. Hiking and mountain climbing (1) are favorite pastimes at Banff Springs and Chateau Lake Louise in the Rockies. History, tradition of the Old West and a bit of the bizarre are reenacted during mid-July Indian Days (2) at Banff. Golf (3), whether down east at the Digby Pines in Nova Scotia and the Algonquin in New Brunswick or a mile high in the Rockies at Banff, is always popular. Swimming and girls (4) are attractions to be found at all resorts, both east and west. If summer heat and hayfever tend to interfere with your vacation plans, the cooling, pollen-free breezes at Lakeside Inn, near Yarmouth, N. S., (5) offer a sure-fire remedy.

Mrs. Belliveau and her group spent 6 days in Louisiana and the visit meant more to her than perhaps the other excursionists as she was able to visit her cousins who now reside in that State. One of her relatives in Louisiana is a descendant of Mr. Simons who first told the story of Evangeline's adventure in Hawthorne, the great writer. The latter mulled over the story for over two years and finally decided that it was not valuable to him and turned it over to Longfellow. Needless to say that "Evangeline" turned out to be very popular.

At Alexandria the excursionists were met at the depot by a 60 piece band, made up of High School pupils, gayly uniformed, and also a group of over 200 persons were on hand to meet and receive them. Mrs. Belliveau said that these people went among the excursionists to shake hands with them and to see if any of them had the same family name as their own. Each excursionist wore a badge with their name printed on it. She claimed that such names as Landry, Comeau, Dolron, Doucet, Savoie, LeBlanc, Thibodeau, Thibault and a few Belliveau's were encountered on pink ribbon streamers. Mrs. Muriel Dorrey, sister of the groom, and Miss Kathleen Burgess were bridesmaids wearing gowns of baby blue and pale pink taffeta made with a bustle back and short puffed sleeves and shoes to match their gowns. They too wore wrist corsages and rosebud headpieces. Her headpiece was made of the same rosebuds and she carried an old fashioned bouquet of pink carnations and American Beauty roses tied with pink satin streamers. Serving as ring bearer was John Mortimer, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mortimer of Cambridge.

Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walker of 30 Fountain Avenue, Somerville. They were united in marriage by Rev. Walter Bailey of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. Arthur Walker, Jr., brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Kenneth Griswold, brother of the bride, and Joseph Horn.

Nothing adds more dollar value to your home than extra storage space. With plywood, it's easy to make good-looking storage built-ins of all kinds — large or small.

For instance, you can face-in laundry tubs with plywood — make them look neat and, at the same time, get extra storage space.

You can make a handy "odds and ends" cabinet to hang on the bathroom or kitchen wall. You can use waste space beneath the sloping roofs of your attic by making a built-in of plywood.

You can design and make your own built-ins. But first talk over your plans with Hicks' — they'll help you with your designs and figure out just how much plywood you'll need.

Thomas S. Farnham (above) well known former Digby and Weymouth newspaper man, will celebrate his ninetyeth birthday at his home on Queen Street on Tuesday, February 22nd.

Mr. Farnham, who was born in Digby not far from his present home in 1865, was connected with the Digby Courier in the early days of its publication following its founding in 1874. He also operated papers in Weymouth and later was connected with the printing industry in other parts of Canada and the United States.

Although not in the very best of health, Mr. Farnham enjoys meeting the many friends who call on him at his home and carries on a voluminous correspondence with old friends and acquaintances scattered about the globe.

Many of these friends became acquainted with Mr. Farnham through his column in the Courier in which he often reminisces of the old days in Digby and Weymouth and relates instances which happened when he was a younger man around those places.

Possessing a keen memory and an excellent sense of humor, Mr. Farnham says he gets a real "bang" out of chatting with the sons, daughters and even grandchildren of those with whom he had close contact in his early days in business in western Nova Scotia. He extends a cordial invitation to all those who would like to call on him for a chat.

Fifty Years A Correspondent

Mrs. Omer Denton, of Little River, who on February 8th celebrated her 74th birthday, will in September mark the completion of fifty years of writing news notes from Little River for the Digby Courier.

Mrs. Denton started writing for the Courier when she went to Little River as a bride fifty years ago and has continued ever since, although for the last three years her efforts have been somewhat hampered by illness.

Writing for the Courier came naturally to Mrs. Denton as for years her mother, Mrs. John Brooks, of Weymouth, had acted as correspondent for the Courier for that village and as a girl Mrs. Denton had assisted her mother in getting the news items.

Active in church and community affairs, Mrs. Denton was honoured on the occasion of her birthday by a group of her former students in the production of plays and concerts. This group, composed of Mrs. Clyde Denton, Mrs. Ainsley Tidd, Mrs. Eldred Frost, and Mrs. Bernard Denton, held a party for Mrs. Denton and also presented her with a vase and a cake.

Mrs. Denton has taught two generations in Sunday School and has also been most active in the promotion of plays and concerts in aid of the church and community.

Ravens Take Central Valley League

Digby Ravens took over first position in the Central Valley League Monday night when Annapolis Tigers forfeited a four point game to the Digby team. The game was forfeited on the arrival of the Digby team at the Annapolis Arena. After some discussion it was decided to play an exhibition game with Annapolis using several unregistered players brought in from Kentville. Due to this added strength the Tigers downed the Ravens by a score of 9-3.

Standing of the teams as the league enters the semi-finals is Ravens first; Cornwallis, second; Bridgetown, third and St. Anne's, fourth.

Tuesday evening St. Anne's defeated Cornwallis Cougars by an 8-7 score at Cornwallis in the opening game of the semi-finals. Digby and Bridgetown met last night for the first game of their best of three semi-final tilt.

H. & S. Meets

The Rossway Home & School Association met in the school house Tuesday evening for their regular monthly meeting. Twelve members and five guests attended.

The meeting opened by singing "God Save the Queen". The sum of two dollars was sent to the Founder's Day Fund. The charter, which was presented to Mrs. John Gidney, the first president of Rossway Home & School Association at the fall meeting of the County Council, was presented and read. It was decided to have it framed and hung in the school room. Mrs. John Gidney was the convener of the Founder's Day program. She gave a short sketch of the achievements the association had attained for the benefit of school and community. It was followed by a playlet with several members taking part, with lighted tapers depicting what Home & School means.

The health program was not presented, as Mrs. Porter, who was in charge of it, did not attend.

The social convener, Mrs. Thurston Banks, started her program by dividing the audience in two groups. The first of each group started a Valentine drawing on the black board with each one adding more as it progressed with the various artist's touch. Next was sending a telegram with each letter of "Valentine". The messages were varied and many unique to say the least, which brought forth much merriment. The refreshment committee, Mrs. Darrell Lewis, Mrs. Thurston Banks and Mrs. Waters Comeau, served a prettily decorated lighted birthday cake, sandwiches and tea at the close of the evening.

Celebrate 59th Anniversary

Captain and Mrs. Bernard Longmire, highly esteemed residents of Granville Ferry, Anna, Co., are receiving congratulations on the occasion of their 59th wedding anniversary.

Captain and Mrs. Longmire, who was formerly Miss Effie Rice, of Parker's Cove, Anna, Co., were married in February 1896 by Rev. H. Achilles, Baptist clergyman.

For many years they resided at Hillsburn, Anna, Co., where their five daughters and five sons were born.

Captain Longmire, a pioneer of the scallop fishing industry, along with his five sons, still own and operate several fine scallop boats at Hillsburn, with Digby as their winter port.

About 20 years ago Capt. and Mrs. Longmire had a very fine home built at Granville Ferry, where they have since made their home.

Capt. and Mrs. Longmire received many cards of congratulation on their anniversary, and a lovely upholstered chair, the gift of their family.

On St. Valentine's Day, following their wedding anniversary, Captain and Mrs. Longmire were given a pleasant surprise, when seven of their children, with their wives and husbands, gathered at their home in the evening, in honor of the anniversary of their parents.

Those present were daughters (Alice) Mrs. Wilfred Hamilton and husband, of Hampton, N. S., and (Deila) Mrs. Robert Longmire and husband, Hillsburn. The five sons were all present, namely, Gordon and wife, Rudolph and wife, Boyd and wife, Raymond and wife, and Bernard Jr. and wife, all residents of Hillsburn. Unable to be present at the celebration were (Nema) Mrs. Bernard Young, of Halifax, and (Gladys) Mrs. John Furdon, of Newton Heights, Mass., who talked to her parents by telephone during the evening. Also present at the celebration were Rev. C. S. Young, of Hillsburn, and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Ellis, Granville Ferry.

A polly sing-song, led by Rev. Mr. Young, was much enjoyed, with Mrs. Gordon Longmire presiding at the piano.

achievements marked during the year. Special thanks was also extended to Mrs. R. W. Sypher, church organist.

Hospital Campaign Falls Far Short Of Objective

Results of the Digby General Hospital Fund campaign, held some time ago to raise urgently needed funds for the hospital, have fallen far short of its $10,000 objective. It was learned here this week with publication of returns.

Total amount raised to date through the campaign is $4,416.61, according to the statement issued this week by the hospital committee.

Included in the amounts collected were $1,474.05 from within the town of Digby; $1,936.74 from the people of the Municipality of Digby; $750.22 from Clare Municipality, and $225.60 from outside the county.

The committee in charge of the campaign have expressed their appreciation and thanks to all who assisted and donated to the campaign and have also expressed the hope further amounts may be forthcoming to bolster the fund.

Conference President Is Guest Speaker

Rev. James Fraser, Imperial, was guest speaker at three services in the Digby United Church Pastoral Charge on Sunday when "Church College Sunday" was observed. Mr. Fraser is president of the Maritime Conference of the United Church of Canada and had served for several years as secretary of the conference. He extended the greetings of the Conference which he said included 320 pastoral charges, 1,000 United Church congregations and a quarter of a million people.

Mr. Fraser's message at Grace United Church on Sunday morning was on the subject "The Voice of God" from the text "I will hear what God the Lord will speak." He told of ways through which we hear the voice of God to day and cautioned his listeners not to reject that voice. In urging the young people of the church to full time church service he said that if 100 girls and 400 boys of the church went into full time service immediately there would be a place for everyone when they had finished training.

In the evening Mr. Fraser took as his subject "The Church." His discourse covered what is meant by "the church", the precedence it should be given over other organizations and as the most important work done by the individual. He again endeavored to bring before the young people the challenge of full time service in the church.

Church College Sunday was observed at Bay View in the afternoon when Rev. Mr. Fraser was also the guest speaker.

Rev. E. C. Churchill, of the Baptist Church, Digby, will be guest preacher in the Grace United Church on Sunday morning, February 20. It was announced. Rev. James Brooks will speak in the Baptist church.

SMITH'S COVE SCOUTS MARK ANNIVERSARY

The 1st Troop of Boy Scouts in Smith's Cove marked the first anniversary of their organization with a "Father and Son" barbecue at St. Anne's Hall Monday evening.

Chairman for the banquet session was the Rev. Frank Miller, chairman of the Scout Group Committee. Guest speaker for the occasion was Victor Cardoza, M.E.A., of Digby.

The invocation was given by the Rev. S. J. Armstrong, and the toast to the Queen was proposed by Patrol Leader Michael Bailey. Scout Fulton Logan proposed the toast to the church which was responded to by the Rev. Richard Humby.

The toast to the Scout Association was proposed by Scout Master Harold Sullis, of the Smith's Cove Troop and responded to by Scout Master Norman D. Wright of the First Digby Troop of Boy Scouts. In his response Scout Master Wright congratulated the Scout Master, Scouts and Group Committee of Smith's Cove for the marvellous progress they have shown over the past year and wished them future success.

A beautifully decorated birthday cake was presented at the banquet and was cut by assistant patrol leader Ronald Purdy of the duty patrol.

Introduced by Rev. Frank Miller, Mr. Cardoza in his address stated the anniversary celebration for the Smith's Cove Troop of Boy Scouts came at a most significant time as February 20th was the anniversary of the birth of Lord Baden Powell, founder of the Boy Scout movement.

Mr. Cardoza said the Scout movement, aided by the work of group committees in various communities could do much to counteract forces which might lead to juvenile delinquency. He said also that Scouts, following the Scout oath and living up to the principles of scouting could do much to improve not only themselves as youngsters but also to make better citizens as they grew up.

One of the lessons which should be learned through Scouting, he said, is the lesson of understanding. We must learn to understand the other fellow's point of view even though it may not agree with ours. The free world today, he said, is much in need of this understanding if nations are to work together in harmony against a common threat to its very existence.

In closing his remarks Mr. Cardoza congratulated the group committee, which is one of only five such interdenominational committees in the province, on the success of their efforts and urged them to continue their work so that the Scout movement would be enlarged to spread its benefits over a wider section of the local area as time went by.

Following the banquet session demonstrations were given by members of the troop in Scout work. At the close of these the members of the Group Committee were sworn into office by Scout Master N. D. Wright of Digby and the Charter was presented to the new Group Committee Chairman, S. J. Armstrong, by Victor Cardoza.

Ten Persons Left Homeless As Flames Level Dwelling

Ten persons were homeless Tuesday after fire completely gutted their two-storey home at Port Wade.

Owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holmes, the big farmhouse emerged from the blaze a blackened, water-sodden frame. All furniture and personal belongings in the upper part of the house were a total loss. No estimate had been placed on the damage late Tuesday, fire officials reported.

The fire was believed to have started in the chimney and burned through the inside walls of the upper storey to an advanced state before it was discovered by the occupants, who smelled smoke.

The same smoke later hampered the efforts of firemen of the Annapolis Royal Fire Department who pumped water on the blazing building from two wells on the property.

This was the second time tragedy had struck at the Holmes family in the past 31 days. On Feb. 4 the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes, daughter-in-law and son of the fire-stricken Holmes household, died following a highway accident at their Round Hill home.

The occupants of the charred farmhouse are temporarily being sheltered by Port Wade neighbors. Living in the house at the time of the fire were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holmes, their six-year-old daughter, five sons, including John Holmes, their daughter-in-law and a grandson. The Holmes barn, housing ten head of cattle, was not threatened by fire. It is situated on the opposite side of the highway.

There was no insurance on the homestead.

The Editor,

The Digby Courier,

Digby, N. S.

Dear Sir:

It seems that Dr. Otto Strasser not only found a haven in Western Nova Scotia but also discovered there the idea for his plan to "solidarize" (Halifax Chronicle-Herald, Feb. 8th). The idea originated in Digby, N. S., was formulated by a detailed plan by 1945, summarized under the Manifesto of the People's Christian Party and published in parts in the Digby Weekly Courier during 1947-48 through letters to the Editor.

The Manifesto was acknowledged by the British Foreign Office in October 1947 and in November of the same year by the High Commissioner for the United Kingdom at Ottawa on the request of the late Sir Ernest Bevin.

The plan for a "People's Democratic Partnership" gives incentive to the creative mind and guarantees freedom and security to the individual. The need was felt for a "Christian International". If Dr. Strasser can induce his compatriots to follow the principles outlined by the People's Christian Party, Germany would indeed in a very short time become the world's leading country.

Yours very truly,

Rene A. Richard.

Letter To The Editor

The Editor of The Courier,
Dear Sir:

In your late report on the Board of Trade session you dwelt largely upon remarks made by various Canadian Pacific officials, who stressed the importance of advertising the tourist attractions offered by the Town of Digby.

Now I quite agree with Mr. Cardozo when he reminded them that there should first be something to attract, but while boats and so on are alright, I think the first effort towards attractions should be in beautifying the town — and in this effort the C.P.R. could help us a lot.

Let us look at a few things that could be done — Say you are a tourist landing from the steamer Princess Helen, at Digby's Gateway, the government pier. What do you see that's attractive?

At the head of the pier, on your left hand, are a couple of shacks, one of which almost minus windows and doors, could be used as a soda pop stand, once you got around the hydrant. On your right side, and I presume on C.P.R. land, is a heaped up tangle of old boats, wharf timbers, chips, and other rubbish. Truly a delightful sight. Why cannot the C.P.R. see to it that the junk on its side of the street be cleared away, while the Board of Trade work on the shacks.

The tourist, enraptured, passes these two attractions, and comes to another one, at the corner of Prince William Street and Maiden Lane — namely, Admiral Digby's Well. Somewhere he has acquired a picture post card, showing this well, all in lovely colours. So he looks to right, and he looks to left, searching for it. We know what he sees on his left — C. D. Snow, the Maritime Fish and the new Baptists; but on his right side he does see a hideously painted well, of sorts, no sign to show just what it is, set in a rank growth of old grass in which, as he strives to enter, he may trip and tumble headlong; and it has a background of scraggy pine trees.

Admiral Digby's Well! At very little cost this spot could be made into a pleasant little welcoming park, where, provided with a few benches, the tourist could sit and get over the shock of the shacks and pile of boats and chips. Here's a suggestion for the gentlemen of the C.P.R. I'm told that a horticultural or gardening society recently formed in Digby approached the company for the loan of this bit of land, with the intention of making such a park out of it, but was repulsed because the land was under lease to someone else.

That sounds quite rational, but why couldn't this generous company loan a bit of land somewhere else? It has plenty. On the Cannon Bank, for instance, where I've been told it again refused to give, or even lend, a bit of waterfront for such a small park, because (ye gods, listen to this) it was reserving the same for industrial sites — when the industries arrive, fifty or sixty years from now, probably.

The town itself, leaving out the idea that the Railway Company will do anything to improve the attractiveness of Digby (outside of its own property) still owns the east end of Carleton Street (at least we hope so, though the may some day be bluffed out of such ownership) and I presume, the shore side of North Water Street from Queen Street right around to the entrance of the Pines Hotel; that

Plympton

(Ruberta Potter)

Mrs. Louie Blinn returned home from Kentville after spending a week with her brother, Pte. Lewis Amoro, and Mrs. Amoro. While there she visited Mrs. Mildred Thibideau at the Kentville Sanatorium, and other friends at the same place.

Mr. Donald Amoro, Plympton, seems to be enjoying himself this winter by feeding the birds. Every morning Mr. Amoro takes out a dish of crumbs and the birds flock around him. It's got to be a habit now, for every morning the birds are outside waiting for their breakfast.

is, the street skirting the Racquette.

Well, the railway, desiring to hide from the incoming tourists the sight of the mud flats, the dump on the north shore and the old boats and sews there rotting away, could take a hand, working in conjunction with the town and the horticultural society, in planting shrubs, and even flowers, on the shore side of the street. Even the lovely flat stretch as you come towards the Pines gates could be made more beautiful than it is, and I would respectfully submit to the Canadian Pacific Railway that it make this last one of its projects.

Lacking all these aides to beautifying Digby, why doesn't some generous and rich citizen bequeath a vacant lot to his beloved town — taking care, of course, that such property be made into a park, and not sold for a garage site or a town dump.

Yours truly,
DIGBYITE.

Harris — Griffiths

Kew Beach United Church, Toronto, was the scene of a lovely winter wedding uniting in marriage Donolene Elma Griffiths youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick John Griffiths, of Toronto, to Percy Borden Harris Jr., elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy B. Harris, of Sandy Cove. Rev. Bruce Gray officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white waltz-length dress of new parchment satin, with reem-broidered alencon lace gracing the neckline and sleeves. Her matching jewelled cap held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white and pink roses with white 'mums. Her maid of honour was Yvonne Bennett, Buffalo, N. Y., and bridesmaid was Miss Lee Armstrong. They wore waltz-length dresses of blue Capri shantung, with matching stoles and white velvet leaf caps beaded in blue. Their bouquets were of white and yellow 'mums. The groom's man was Const. Lloyd D. Libke, Hamilton, and the ushers were Const. Robert Nichols and Const. Murray Morison. The groom and his attendants were in the colourful scarlet and blue uniforms of the R.C.M.P.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception and luncheon was held at the Orchard Park Hotel.

The bride's mother wore a coffee-coloured taffeta dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow and white 'mums. The groom's mother was attired in a dress of banker's blue with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white 'mums.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Harris left for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and various points in the United States, the bride travelling in a mauve woolen suit with matching accessories and black seal jacket. Her going away corsage was yellow 'mums. On their return they will reside in Toronto where the groom is currently stationed with the R.C.M.P.

The bride is a graduate of the College of Art, Toronto, and is a designer for the Robert Simpson Company Toronto. The groom is a graduate of the R.C.M.P. School of Saskatoon, and Rockcliffe, Ont.

Anglican Parish Has Good Year

The annual meeting of the Anglican Parish of Granville was held in Holy Trinity Church Hall at Granville Ferry after meetings had been held in each of the individual churches of the parish as Granville Centre, Granville Ferry and Karsdale.

The rector, Rev. W. Evans Jefferson, chairman of the meeting, reviewed the year's work which showed a steady gain in the progress of the parish.

Highlights in the 215 services held during the year were an ordination, an induction and a confirmation service.

A vote of thanks was extended to Ven. Archdeacon A. W. Watson for his valuable assistance in the work of the parish and especially in substituting for the rector during the latter's vacation.

The treasurer's report, given by Major C. W. Taylor, showed a healthy financial condition.

The Sunday School report included a presentation of a Prayer Book to Miss Gertrude Gilliat in recognition of her long and faithful service as a teacher and superintendent of Holy Trinity Sunday School.

The convenor appointed for the Diocesan Times was Mrs. Florence E. Willett, and the special correspondent appointed for this paper was Mrs. Carl McCormick.

A generous legacy was received from the estate of Mrs. Walter Troop during the year.

This included the property in Granville Ferry and a large bequest. A committee was appointed to study the possibilities of converting the house and property for use as a rectory. The committee will report at a future parish meeting. Appreciation was also expressed to Mrs. Emma Longley, of Wolfville, for her share in turning over this bequest to the church.

The report of the Womens'

Port Wade

Mr. and Mrs. Archie McGrath, after being sick at the hospital with the mumps. We are glad Miss McGrath is well and working again.

Mr. Norman McGrath was a patient at the Annapolis hospital. We are glad to see him home again and wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ted Hudson and baby accompanied Mr. Hudson to Kentville for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Durling and family visited Mrs. Durling's mother and family, Mrs. Marguerite Hewey.

Heartfelt sympathy is extended to the members of the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes who reside in Round Hill. Their six-year-old daughter, Elaine, was killed by a taxi when getting off the school bus on Friday afternoon. Grandparents of Elaine are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Holmes of this community.

The pupils of the Annapolis Royal Academy enjoyed a skating party at the Annapolis Arena on Friday evening when a good time was had by all. A number from here attended.

Little Peggy Sarty is recovering from a tonsil operation at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Morrison.

Auxiliary expressed a hope that this branch of the church might function in all parts of the parish instead of in Holy Trinity only as at present. This report was given by Mrs. F. F. Smith.

The work at St. Anne's Camp was commended and the regular donation was voted towards its support.

Major C. W. Taylor was re-elected as treasurer and Mr. L. M. W. How was re-elected as parish clerk, and a vote of thanks was extended to each for their work during the past year.

Other officers elected for the coming year were:

Parish Wardens: John Troop, Earl D. Kearns.

Chapel Wardens: John Troop, Aubrey Rafuse, of All Saints' Church; Earl D. Kearns, Percy T. Mills, of Holy Trinity; and Ralph Bohaker, A. B. Thorne, of Christ Church.

(Mrs. Harley Theriault)

Mrs. Margaret Sarty is visiting with her little daughter at her home for a few days this week before returning to her work at Cornwallis naval base. We wish Peggy a speedy recovery.

Miss Beatrice McGrath was home with her family, Mr. and Mrs. Owen McGrath, for a week with flu. She has since returned to her business course in Digby.

Several from this community are in sick with the flu at time of writing.

Miss Elizabeth Burke suffered a bad cut over her eye when she fell recently in her home. The wound required three stitches. We wish her the best of luck in recovering from the fall. She is resting comfortably at her home here.

Mrs. Norman Rogers, who has had a summer cottage at the Fundy View House, Victoria Beach, for many years, has bought the summer home of Mr. Vernon Cooper in Port Wade. Mrs. Rogers intends to have extensive renovations made to the house for use as an all year round home. We are very happy to have Mrs. Rogers in the community.

The Red Cross Society met at the home of Mrs. Archie McGrath on Wednesday evening. A quilt was put in frames and a good number were present to quilt. It was hoped that some members would return on Thursday and finish the quilt. Great progress is being made in Red Cross work in this community as there is a very active group.

Miss Berla Sollows, of this place, spent one day last week with her grandmother, Mrs. Allister Outhouse, at Tiverton.

Mrs. Warren Crowell, Sandy Cove, spent last Thursday with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb Harris.

Mrs. Harold Crowell, Sandy Cove, was a visitor and helped at quilting at East Ferry Sewing Club, held Tuesday evening.

Lobstermen Hard Hit By Weather

Poor weather conditions coupled with a scarcity of lobsters in the usual grounds has hit lobster fishermen in the District of Clare a hard blow this season.

Reports from fishermen in the area say the scarcity of lobsters in recent weeks has seriously curtailed their incomes. One good feature of the season is the high price as they have been receiving up to 60 cents a pound for their catch.

Some fishermen report they are getting as little as 40 pounds in their traps in one haul.

Church Point lobstermen report they are being hit harder than in most districts due to the fact that the entrance to the wharf has been blocked by a gravel bar.

The bar was removed by bulldozer last fall following heavy gales but the gravel was washed back by the numerous gales during the winter season.

It has been so high that the fishermen are able to stay out only three or four hours. If they stay any longer the bar will prevent their re-entry into the harbor and wharf.

Word has been received that the gravel bar will be removed. It has made fishing operations difficult at Church Point for many years. At times the gravel rounds the end of the wharf and last month a large quantity of gravel was driven over the block in gales.

Dead Ducks Line Westport Shores

Believed to have died a slow death because of being surrounded by oil from ships, hundreds of dead ducks and loons have washed up on the shores around the village of Westport, on Brier Island.

This is not entirely new to the Westport villagers, as each winter a small number of the birds come to their end in the same way, it is thought. The winter of 1954-55 has taken a particularly heavy toll of the flock.

More On Publicity For Digby

Since our editorial copy went to press we have had more word from the Jones' vacationing in Florida. Mrs. Jones' letter, although meant to be personal, has so much of interest to many people, that we are taking the liberty to print it, and feel confident we will not hurt her feelings in doing so. — Editor.

Key West Trailer Park, Key West, Florida, February 10th, 1955.

Dear Edith: Shortly after we arrived here the Key West Artists' Group asked me to become a member and exhibit some of my paintings, and my hasty notes which were made up at your office, in their week long street fair. This fair is open to visiting artists as well as Key Westers and takes place every year in February.

I am enclosing one of the pictures taken from the Key West Citizen. Because of the fact that six of my paintings are Nova Scotian scenes several people told me of relatives they have in the province and others remarked "Digby Gap. Why I have sailed through there on the Princess Helene when I visited Nova Scotia." One man, a Mr. Griffin, told me of a trip he had taken over the Cabot Trail and down Digby Neck in his trailer and asked me if I knew Mrs. Wilson at the Light-house on Point Prim. Mrs. Wilson was kind enough to allow him to camp in his trailer on her property. Last night Mr. Griffin arrived at our trailer with slides of Nova Scotia, mostly Digby County and the Cabot Trail, and Jack ran them off for a gathering crowd on his projector on our patio. People kept arriving with their own chairs until we had quite a large audience. Mr. Griffin proved to be an excellent narrator and told us lots of interesting stories about Nova Scotia including the one about "Jerome". He had one beautiful picture of Seawall and many of Point Prim and the Princess Helene.

I had word today that an exhibition of my paintings is in progress at the Saturday Club in Wayne, Pennsylvania. Also that my hasty notes are on sale with the pictures and selling well. Please tell Bill and thank him for all the work he has done on them.

Jack is taking lots of colored slides to show our friends when we get home. On Sunday, after the Street Fair is over, we will be moving on to Sarasota after a day or two in Miami to say goodbye to our friends there.

Please remember us to our friends at home. We will see you sometime in April.

Sincerely,

Ellen.

DR. LEIGHTON SPEAKS AT V.O.N. ANNUAL

"There is tendency of the human being getting lost in specialization and decentralization of medicine and the need of the future in nursing might be the human contact or humanization of services," said Dr. Alex Leighton, when he addressed the annual meeting of the Digby Branch Victorian Order of Nurses on the subject "What is the future of organizations such as the V.O.N. in welfare states?" Dr. Leighton cited advantages and disadvantages in centralization schemes which he said are never adequate for local conditions and the purpose of local Boards and organizations could be to guide Federal and Provincial programs of this nature in case such should be designed. Dr. Leighton briefly sketched the transition of industry, education, communication and medicine as of the middle nineteenth century known as the Golden Age or Age of Opportunity to that of the present "Age of Security".

The speaker, a professor of psychiatry and sociology and well known here as Director of the Cornell University Survey Program, was introduced by the Rev. H. Y. MacLean. He was thanked by the president, Rev. James Brooks.

Rev. Mr. Brooks was re-elected president at the meeting which was held at Trinity Parish Hall on Friday afternoon. Other officers elected were:

Hon. President, Mrs. T. E. G. Lynch.

Hon. Members, Mrs. L. H. Morse, Mrs. G. W. Connell.

1st Vice-President, Mrs. J. M. Wallis.

2nd Vice-President, Rev. H. Y. MacLean.

Treasurer, Mrs. H. R. Bishop.

Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Gerald Sanford.

Members of the Board: Mrs. D. G. Black, Lt. Earl Birt, Mrs. J. W. Christie, Mrs. E. C. Churchill, Rev. E. C. Churchill, Mrs. Thomas Deveau, Mr. Fritz Dakin, Mrs. W. K. Ganong, Mrs. K. Golden, Father Comeau, Mrs. Reginald Holdsworth, Mr. F. C. Purdy, Mrs. John Russell, Mrs. Paul Snow, Mrs. C. V. Snow, Mrs. Douglas Syda, Mr. J. M. Saulnier, Mrs. G. V. Turnbull, Mrs. Harold VanTassel, Mrs. G. R. Weir.

In charge of Supplies, Mrs. John Russell.

Auditors, Roscoe Handspiker and C. H. Morton.

The nominating committee report was presented by Mrs. J. W. Christie.

Miss Mary Blair, nurse-in-charge, stated 1782 visits were made in 1954, of which sixty-eight percent were for nursing care. A total of 1572 children were examined during the 170 hours spent in school and 112 infants and children were seen at 44 Child Health Conferences. 400 inoculations were given.

As revealed by the treasurer, Mrs. H. R. Bishop, the total ordinary receipts for the year amounted to $3,932.08. With a legacy of $250.00 from the estate of the late A. R. Turnbull, a former president, the total receipts amounted to $4,182.08. Total ordinary disbursements, $3,783.69; credit balance, $232.41. It was noted the increase in fees over 1953 amounted to $469.00, one hundred dollars more had been raised by the Board and the increase in the town grant was $100. In all, ordinary receipts were $525.72 above the 1953 figure, and expenses were $565.88 above.

The secretary, Mrs. Gerald Sanford, reported 11 meetings held with an average of ten. Teas, pantry sales, tag days, a membership drive and telephone bridge made up the fund raising activities.

The report of Mrs. D. G. Black, convener of the nursing committee, was read by Mrs. Paul Snow.

Mrs. J. M. Wallis summarized the work of the Publicity committee, including the Drive, convened by that committee in June and which raised $850.08, approximately $40.00 more than any previous year. Attention was directed to a Publicity display table arranged for the meeting.

Rev. Mr. Brooks welcomed the new members to the Board and thanked the former members for their co-operation during the year.

The hour of regular meeting was set to the original 3 o'clock on the 2nd Tuesday of the month instead of four o'clock, as of the past months.

Following the meeting an afternoon tea, with Mrs. John Russell and Mrs. W. K. Ganong pouring was enjoyed and a pleasant social hour spent. Conveners of the tea were Mrs. Gerald Sanford, Mrs. Paul Snow, Miss Mary Blair, Mrs. Reginald Weir, Mrs. E. C. Churchill.

Floyd McNeill, former DRHS student, who joined the RCAF Cadets late last fall, was successful in passing his examination recently at Centralla, Ont. He will continue his training for navigator at Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Floyd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. McNeill, North Range.

His many friends and classmates will be happy to hear of his continued success.

FINDS PANSY

A full bloom pansy couldn't just happen in a few days so lets not blame it on the mild weather that Mrs. Wilfred Trask, Little River, was able to pick a beautiful pansy in her garden this week. The evidence arrived at the Courier Office with the news so there is no disputing the fact.

AUCTION PROVIDES ENTERTAINMENT

Inquests Held In Two Deaths

Thot Douglas Chambers, 17, a naval rating stationed at H.M.C.S. Cornwallis, came to his death after being struck by a car driven by Joseph Boudreau on No. 1 Highway, near the main gate of the naval base on the night of February 9, and that both parties were to blame, was the verdict reached by a Coroner's jury.

The jury, empanelled by the Coroner, Dr. G. R. Mahoney, Bridgetown, was under the foremanship of John Gillillat. Giving evidence at the inquest was Constable C. V. Smith of the R.C.M.P. detachment in Digby, who investigated the tragedy.

A jury headed by Warren Beswick returned a verdict that Joseph Boudreau, 38, of Lake Doucette, Yr. Co., met death by drowning February 11.

A recommendation was made by the jury investigating the death of Chambers that in cases of a similar type involving serious accidents or death the driver be placed under protective custody for a period of 48 hours.

Boudreau drowned in the waters of Bear River 24 hours after he was involved in a highway accident in which Chambers, a rating from Regina, Sask., was fatally injured.

RAVENS EDGE HAWKS --ADVANCE TO FINALS

The Digby Ravens advanced to the Western Valley League finals here Monday night by edging the Bridgetown Hawks 32-30. The game was played before the largest crowd of the season, and was fast and exciting throughout. Flynn in the nets for the Digby squad was sensational as he turned back the determined Bridgetown team, last year's champions.

The Ravens led 1-0 at the end of the first period on a goal by P. VanTassel, assisted by Manning and O'Brien at 11:27. Three penalties were handed out in the first to Barr, Pemberton and Manning.

The second frame ended 2-0 for Digby with Weatherbee scoring from O'Brien at the 8:12 mark. Penalties went to Donnelly and Kelly.

The final period saw Digby take a 3-0 lead on a goal by Carey, assisted by Weatherbee at 6:22. Ferguson put the visitors back in the game by scoring two goals, the first at 6:54 when he banged in Durling's rebound and eight seconds later when he fired one unassisted. The Ravens' strong defensive play however, kept the Hawks in check for the remainder of the game. Penalties in the final period went to Sanford and Jack Walker.

To Hold Mission

Throughout the week before Holy Week, March 28 to April 1, inclusive, the Parish of St. Peter's, Weymouth, is planning to conduct a Mission in St. Peter's and St. Matthew's Churches.

From time to time it is desirable to spend a concentrated period of time thinking about Christianity in order that it may become more real to us. This mission is planned to bring more forcibly to peoples attention the definite power for living that can be theirs in Jesus Christ. The missioner will lead those attending into matters that will give them a more complete understanding of the God we worship.

The Parish is fortunate in having a man which it feels to be well qualified in leading in such a matter. The missioner will be the Rev. A. LeDrew Gardener, of Saint John, N. B., who will be well known to many from his work on a daily radio programme over a Saint John Radio Station.

When nursing service is required in the home, remember to call the Victorian Order of Nurses.

Coal pays the Butcher,
the Baker...

In the Maritimes, coal is the center of every community. Whether you live in Amherst, N.S., or Zealand Station, N.B., the prosperity of your community is inevitably linked with that of the Maritime coal industry.

The $50,000,000 which the Maritime coal industry distributes annually in wages affects the well being of all of us. The butcher, the baker, and even the candlestick maker all share in it through the daily purchases of employees.

In addition, the coal industry annually spends $15,000,000 for stores and supplies and provides $8,000,000 in business to the transportation companies.

A healthy coal industry is essential to Maritime prosperity. Buy Nova Scotia coal.

Report From Parliament Hill

February 11, 1955.

Ordinarily, I would not use this column to deal with legislation which essentially affects British Columbia. A great deal of the time of Parliament this week has been given to consideration of such a measure. However, since it has very wide political implications, which may affect the future of some political parties, perhaps I am justified in giving you more background with respect to it.

The Bill itself is a most innocuous one in appearance. It simply gives the Canadian Government power to make regulations affecting International Rivers. That would appear to be a very reasonable measure, and of course the Canadian Government has always had such power anyway. Then you may ask, "Why is the Government dealing with it at this time?" And this is the reason.

The Columbia River flows through British Columbia and down into the United States. The Kaiser-Frazer interests, the same ones who build the Kaiser-Frazer cars, are erecting a huge aluminum plant south of the American border. For this, they use power developed from the Columbia River in the United States. The Social Credit Government of British Columbia has given them permission to build a huge storage dam in British Columbia. In exchange, the Kaiser-Frazer interests will pay the British Columbia Government a million dollars a year rental, and also hold available for British Columbia consumers 20% of the electrical energy developed by the Kaiser-Frazer interests in the United States. At first glance, this would appear to be a very advantageous arrangement for that Province. However, for the past five years, the Canadian Government has been conducting surveys on the Columbia River. It envisages a time when the Columbia will be one of the great sources of power for Western Canada, and Western United States. Certainly I did not know that the Columbia River was the fourth largest in North America. Neither did I know that the power potential on the Columbia River in Canada will be four times larger than the total power potential of the St. Lawrence River when it has been fully utilized. The Canadian Government says that this proposal will destroy the future development of the Columbia River. It asked the British Columbia Government to delay entering into this contract. The British Columbia Government advised Ottawa that it was proceeding, and that it was none of Ottawa's business. Accordingly, last fall, Premier Bennett signed the contract with the Kaiser-Frazer interests. Then, as soon as the Parliament of Canada opened, this Bill was introduced, which, if passed, will enable the Canadian Government to veto the arrangement already entered into by Premier Bennett. The Social Credit members of the House of Commons say that the Right Honourable C. D. Howe is motivated by pique, that he lost his temper with Premier Bennett, and is now trying to teach him a lesson. The Government supporters say that Mr. Bennett moved too hastily, that he was ignorant of the possibilities of the Columbia River, and that he sold his Province, one might say, down the river. Anyway, the battle lines are now drawn. The Government undoubtedly will carry the Bill through the House of Commons. The Social Crediters say they will filibuster, and delay its passage as long as possible. Then, ultimately, of course, it will go to the Supreme Court of Canada, because Premier Bennett is positive in his declaration that the whole thing is unconstitutional. The Minister of Justice for Canada is just as certain that the Bill is constitutional.

What are the political implications? The other night in the House of Commons, Mr. Hansell, the Social Credit Member, lashed out at the Conservative Party, and said it was a warning force, and that Social Credit would succeed it. There is no doubt the Social Credit Party having won British Columbia, is now looking forward to new worlds to conquer. It is not unfair to say that the C.C.F. are waning, while the Social Credit is resurgent. So far Premier Bennett has not made a mistake apparently in British Columbia. Has he made one this time? The Social Credit members here think that the people of British Columbia will resent the interference of the Canadian Government. They hope that they can capitalize this feeling into resentment against the Liberal Party. On the other hand, the Government is just as certain that Mr. Bennett has made a mistake, and that the people of British Columbia accepted his views because they did not know the facts. Government supporters from British Columbia are confident that after the debate is over, British Columbia people will realize that Premier Bennett made a terrific mistake, and that he will lose a lot of the enthusiastic, almost idolatrous, acclaim which so far has greeted him. Undoubtedly the Social Credit Party will make a yeoman effort to capture the Saskatchewan Government in the next Provincial Election. If they should do that, undoubtedly at the next Federal election, they would seriously contest the Dominion Field. If they fail, then they will still be a Party which succeeded in winning two Provincial elections, because their opponents had created vacuums in both of them. The present controversy will make Social Credit a strong or weaker force in the Saskatchewan election, and therefore will have its affect upon the whole of Canada.

In the meantime, the Rules Committee has been sitting daily, and will soon make its report. In fact, the report might have been made this week, but at the last moment the report was delayed in the hopes that some compromise could be worked out. Opposition Members on the Committee feel that it should be properly named the Guillotine Committee. Certainly if the final report is anything like what now appears likely, then the House will be faced with a long and bitter debate. Everyone is in agreement that the Rules should be amended, but there is reason to believe that the proposals suggested by the Government go far beyond anything which was originally contemplated when the Committee was set up. Perhaps one should not speculate on the report, because the Committee is

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NURSES --- DIGBY BRANCH—REPORT FOR 1954

Nurse's Report

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the Digby Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada, Ladies and Gentlemen:

The year 1954 has been the thirty-sixth year of continuing Victorian Order of Nurses service here in Digby. The order provides many interrelated services concerned with maintaining the health of the community, but the service on which all these are based is the provision of nursing care to those who require it.

During the past year there has been a marked increase in the number of nursing care visits. Of the total of 1782 home visits made, 1196, or 67% were for nursing care, as compared with 48% of the total visits for the previous year. Care is given to a wide variety of cases, including the aged, the chronically ill, those just home from hospital, new mothers and babies. Assistance was given at five home confinements.

The remainder of the visits come under the heading of health instruction. These include visits to the new mother before she goes to the hospital and to her and her new baby when they return home, to other older infants, and to school children.

Activities other than home visiting are carried on as well. 44 Child Health Conferences were held in the nurse's office in the Court House, to which 112 infants and small children were brought. Here they are weighed and their care and development discussed with the mother.

During the fall months eight Immunization Clinics were held with the local physicians in attendance. 310 children were immunized for whooping cough, tetanus, and diphtheria. 170 hours were spent in school work when 1572 children were seen. First aid treatment, classroom inspections, checking for signs of contagious conditions, and examination of the children in the lower grades for defects such as poor eyesight are included in the school program.

Since nurses who wish to engage in public health nursing must take post graduate work at university, local Victorian Order branches are asked to provide field experience for these students. Some of the graduates may go on to work with the Victorian Order of Nurses, others with the Department of Health. In September 1954 the Digby Branch provided three weeks field work for a nurse taking the course in Public Health Nursing at Dalhousie University.

I would like to express appreciation to the President and members of the Board for their helpfulness in carrying on the work of the branch. Also, I wish to thank the relief nurses, Mrs. Jack Keen and Mrs. Paul Snow, who so ably assist with the work, Mrs. Sanford and Mrs. Hersey, who also assisted at the Immunization Clinics, Miss Tupper, the Digby County Public Health Nurse, the doctors for their interest in the work, the Red Cross Society, the staff of the Digby General Hospital, the Child Welfare Society, the Supervisor, teachers and staff of the local schools, those who assist with taking the telephone calls for the Victorian Order of Nurses, and the other members of the community, who help carry on the community enterprise that the Victorian Order of Nurses is.

Respectfully submitted,
Mary Blair,
Nurse-in-charge.

Secretary's Report

Mr. President, Officers and Members of the Digby Branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses, Ladies and Gentlemen:

During the year eleven regular meetings of the Board were held with an average attendance of ten members. There are 28 members on the Board of the Victorian Order, but it is felt that the hour at which the meetings were held made it impossible for many of the members to attend, and it is hoped this year that the hour can be changed to a more suitable one for all members.

As the reports of the various Committees are given by the chairman of those Committees, the Secretary's report covers mainly the fund raising activities for the year.

At the annual meeting last February a tea was served and the sum of .25c charged per person. During April a pantry sale was held at Chan's Coffee Shoppe and in May the same Committee sponsored a Tag Day for the Victorian Order.

Throughout June the annual Drive was held and proved to be the most successful one we have had to date.

On July 28th a committee of Board members held a tea on the grounds of the United Church and in October a Telephone Bridge and forty-fives was held by the members and others interested in the work of the V.O.N.

Miss Fowler, District Supervisor, visited the Digby Branch in April and the Branch was represented in the July 1st parade. This float was decorated by a committee headed by Mrs. Alice Keen and the thanks of the Board are extended to Mr. Dunn for the loan of his truck for this purpose.

In November the Board received $250.00 from the Estate of A. R. Turnbull, a former President of the Branch. This money was put in the general account and has been a great help to the financial part of the Branch work.

Members assisted the nurse at the Immunization Clinics and also canvassed for the Tuberculosis Campaign in December.

I would like, at this time, to extend my appreciation to Mrs. Edith Wallis who so kindly took over the Secretarial work during the past year, and to the officers and members for their co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,
Lois Sanford,
Secretary.

Publicity Report

Mr. President, Officers and members of the V.O.N. Board:

The function of the V. O. Nurses Publicity Committee is actually only supplementary to that of two better V.O.N. publicity agents, viz., the nurse and the Board itself. In the pleasant manner in which she conducts her daily round of duties, the nurse can be a valuable public relations officer and in her program of health instruction and educational work, she serves as a valuable publicity agent. The Board, in its efficient execution of business matters can soon create a favorable impression on the public and its members can publicize favorably the organization to which they belong if they are keenly conscious of their responsibility and grasp every opportunity to talk V.O.N.

No department of the Board should feel its responsibility in this regard however more than the Publicity Committee and we think we have served in some small measure in this manner in 1954. Besides, we have endeavored each month to keep before the public, through the press, the work accomplished by the nurse and board as reported for each turn of the calendar leaf. Special events, such as Annual meetings, supervisor's visits, fund raising activities, V.O.N. Week (such as we observe next week) have been made opportunities to advance our local order and that of the National organization. V.O.N. Week publicity was well carried out by the committee in charge last February and this year we have arranged for news releases and editorials in the local press knowing that the daily press and radio will have their quota from National Headquarters. By the generous co-operation of the merchants, we are making use of store windows for further publicity.

Practically the same type of publicity was used in connection with our June Drive for funds (but more extensively). Right here we want to express our thanks to Wright's of Digby Ltd. for providing a whole display window for a whole week, besides donating help from the staff in arranging the window. To the other merchants who gave poster space we also extend our gratitude.

Without the co-operation of the members of the V.O.N. Board, collectors and the contributing public who gave so cheerfully of time and substance the June Drive could not have been such a success. The Drive was convened by the Publicity Committee and the treasurer and attained the proud result of $850.08. This was approximately $40.00 more than the highest June Drive figure for any previous year. Our sincere thanks to all those who made this success possible.

Another means of publicity for the Digby Branch in 1954 was the entrance of a float in the July 1st parade. We appreciate what the special committee in charge did in this respect to make the public more Digby Branch V.O.N. conscious.

May we also add our thanks for the co-operation of the nurse, president and other officers and members of the Board during the year which made the work of the Publicity Committee a pleasant duty for 1954.

Respectfully submitted,

VOLUME LXXXI No.

DIGBY, NOVA SCOTIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1955

Week In The Legislature

To the accompaniment of an 18 gun salute from atop Citadel Hill the second session of the 45th general assembly of the Nova Scotia Legislature was officially opened at Historic Province House, Halifax, last Tuesday, as the Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. Allan Rock, read the speech from the throne.

It was an historic occasion, marking the first time the colorful ceremonies had been televised—the first appearance in the house of Hon. Henry D. Hicks as Premier and leader of the Liberal government.

The Throne Speech predicted a more stringent examination of motor vehicle drivers and also enforcement of highway safety measures in an effort to curtail the increasing road accidents in the province; also a redistribution of the Nova Scotia Liquor Control Act to allow new plebiscites on the question of provincial government liquor outlets in each county.

Among other forecasts was that of a redistribution of House seats before the next general election and revision of the rules and procedure of the legislature.

Three new members, successful candidates in recent by-elections, took their seats in the House. Mayor of Halifax, Richard A. Donahoe (P.C.—Halifax South); J. Clyde Nunn (L.—Inverness) and Alfred Reid (L.—Hants) were all sworn in earlier in the day by the Clerk of the House (Roy Laurence, Q.C.). (Please turn to page 8)

Mayor & Mrs. Morehouse Celebrate Golden Wedding

More than 150 guests were received on Tuesday at the home of His Worship Mayor Guy E. Morehouse and Mrs. Morehouse and extended congratulations and best wishes on the occasion of the couple's 50th wedding anniversary. Besides individual guests from the town and county, in which Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse are well known, delegations were present for the occasion from the town council and various lodges and organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse were married at Sandy Cove on March 1st, 1905, at the home of the bride's parents, with Rev. M. D. Whitman, pastor of the Sandy Cove Baptist Church, officiating. The bride, the former Jessie Morrison Saunders, was the daughter of the late Ingram Saunders, at one time warden of the Municipality of Digby, and Mrs. Saunders, of Sandy Cove. Mr. Morehouse was the son of the late Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Morehouse of the same place. The only other surviving member of the bridal party is Mrs. DeMille Dakin, Medford, Mass., sister of Mr. Morehouse, who was organist. Attendants were Mrs. Stanley Walsh and Percy Gavel, Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse resided in Bear River and Sandy Cove during the early years of their married life and moved to Digby in 1919 where both have been active in church and community and have endeared themselves to every resident of the town.

They have six living children, Theta (Mrs. Edward Spielman), Long Island, N. Y.; Nancy (Mrs. Seymour Denton), Digby; Helen (Mrs. David Daley), Tuft's Cove; Guy, of Digby; Laura (Mrs. Donald Deming), Kentville; Edith (Mrs. Fred Cookson), Digby and Paul, of East Ferry.

Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse received their guests on Tuesday in the living room decorated for the occasion in pink and white, accented with gold and the occasion.

Congregation Honors Mayor & Mrs. Morehouse

A congregational social was held in the vestry of the Digby United Baptist Church after the regular evening service on Sunday, when His Worship the Mayor, Guy Morehouse, and Mrs. Morehouse, were presented with Kenwood blankets in recognition of their 50th wedding anniversary. Travel films on Bermuda were shown and vocal selection rendered by Mrs. Furber Marshall. The ladies of the choir served refreshments.

At the morning service twelve boys were presented with Tyro T's at an impressive dedication service conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. C. Churchill. The group are now a fully recognized Tyro group.

New Hall Completed

ped kitchen 24' x 13', hardwood flooring throughout and a ten foot stage for plays and other entertainment.

Chairman of the building committee was Wm. J. Franklin and much of the labour and materials used in the construction was donated, producing a much more valuable building for little cost. The project was supported wholeheartedly by all societies and groups in the congregation.

More Booth Conveners Named

Other conveners of Hospital Fair booths were named at the regular business meeting of the Ladies' Hospital Aid, which met at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Franklin on Monday evening. Mrs. V. G. Turnbull was named as convener of the Afternoon Tea Booth and Mrs. George Winfield will have charge of the supper for the Fair.

Plans were also made on Monday night to hold a Rummage Sale in April.

Fresh New Vegetables

Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, Shore Road, are not longing for the good old summertime when they can go to the back garden and pick some fresh green vegetables to cook for dinner. They are doing just that now. Cabbage and onions are about the only varieties, but even these can add zest to the mid-winter dinners when taken fresh from the garden, according to Mrs. Wilson. The cabbages weigh from 1½ to 2 pounds and are firm and green. Onions measure from 1 inch to an inch and a half in diameter. Both the cabbages and onions have developed in the ground over the winter season.

Hôtel Short Course In April

The annual Hotel Short Course, sponsored by the Department of Trade and Industry, will again be held this year at the Nova Scotia Hotel, Halifax, April 19 to 21 inclusive, it was announced today by Hon. W. T. Dauphinee, Minister of Trade and Industry.

Theme for this year will be upon foods—the preparation, cooking and serving of native foods. An interesting and varied program is planned by officials in charge of the course in an attempt to make this year's three-day session even more successful than the banner year of 1954.

The emphasis upon native food is in line with the efforts of Canadian Restaurants, Hotel and Tourist associations to have local areas throughout the country develop and use the food products of their own neighbourhood. Besides variety of menu and a higher standard of food preparation, a "local" program will add a distinctiveness to food offerings.

Exhibitors are now being contacted for a showing of standard and new products applicable to those engaged in catering to the needs of the travelling public.

Efforts are being made to obtain the services of outstanding guest speakers.

It is expected that more than 200 provincial owners, operators and managers of hotels, motels, tourist resorts and restaurants will attend the hotel short course.

Cadets To Get Trade Training

The Navy League of Canada Wednesday announced trade training courses for sea cadets, with a $100 bounty for successful participants, are to commence next July at naval bases at the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

Subject of the seven-week courses will include music, engineering, leadership, communications, naval airmanship, quartermastering and minesweeping. Eligible cadets must be 16, medically fit and rated leading cadet.

Eastern Star To Sponsor Play

Plans were made recently by St. Mary's Chapter Eastern Star to sponsor a play on March 17th with a cast of Annapolis Royal talent. The play, a rural comedy-drama in three acts entitled "Deacon Dubbs", made a hit when presented by the same cast at Annapolis Royal and other localities, and promises to bring an evening of fun and laughter to its Digby audience.

Included in the cast of ten are persons already known in Digby. The cast consists of Danny Kearns, Reed Saunders, Harold Beale, Major Taylor, Otto Simons, Pearl Beale, Lily Gesner, Florence Willett, Eleanor Rice and Margaret Smith.

West Nova Scotia Regiment "C" Company Notes

In the initial appearance of these "Notes", we have the welcome visit of the Paymaster to report, Capt. G. W. Hope held Pay Parade for "C" Company last Thursday night and then continued on to Bridgetown for "B" Company's pay. He was accompanied by the Regiment's Training Officer, Major C. McLellan, the Regimental Sergeant Major and Sgt. Moody.

Another interesting visitor Thursday night was the new Public Relations Officer for the West Novies, Lt. DuTrize. We are looking forward to future visits of the new P.R.O. as he goes about his duties among the Companies.

Over the weekend we welcomed back two members of the Unit who have been on course in Halifax for the past two weeks. They are Sgt. E. H. (Ted) Wilson and Sgt. K. A. (Ken) Connell.

Requests Road Construction On Islands

V. G. Cardoza lauded the government for work already done on the Digby Neck highway in a speech before the Nova Scotia Legislature on Tuesday and requested that the continuation of reconstruction work on Long Island be carried out.

Further improvement to ferry service to the Islands, especially at Petite Passage, and a reconsideration of ferry rates with a view to reduction, were urged by Mr. Cardoza.

Mr. Cardoza also felt, according to his speech, that too much emphasis is given to the multi-million dollar development in industry to the neglect of opportunities in the development of industry "through our own efforts."

Early payment of claims arising out of the damage caused by Hurricane Edna was asked for and particularly, Mr. Cardoza urged, in regard to the claims of the weir fishermen of Digby Municipality, who suffered so badly in the hurricane.

He repeated his request of last year that the government take steps to bring to an end "the damage being done to our inshore fisheries in the coastal waters of Digby Municipality by foreign trawlers."

Legislation providing for the establishment of a mother house of a religious order at a convent school in Weymouth was also introduced in the Nova Scotia Legislature by Victor Cardoza.

The Act calls for incorporation of certain persons under the name of "Les Religieuses de Notre Dame du Sacre Coeur" of the Diocese of Yarmouth.

It incorporates the convent school at Weymouth as the mother

Ravens entered the protest on the grounds the Cornwallis team had used an unregistered player in that game. After the protest was upheld at the meeting, the game was called "no contest" and was replayed in Digby on Monday.

Church Officers Elected

The yearly business meeting of the Barton-Brighton United Church was held on the evening of Feb. 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Specht with the Rev. R. M. Cameron in the chair.

The financial statement was accepted with all obligations being paid in full. A report from the Ladies' Aid was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Mullen. The old system of electing stewards was done away with, six stewards being elected for three years, two retiring and two newly elected stewards each year. The officers elected were:

Sec'y-Treas., Joseph Specht. Trustees, Lloyd Grant, Chas. Lamberton and Ben Height. Board of Stewards, Mrs. Lloyd Grant, Joe Specht, Mrs. Bacon, Mrs. S. Cosman, Mrs. Specht and Mrs. Ben Height. Organist, Mrs. Lloyd Grant.

Thanks was expressed to the treasurer, the organist, assistant organist and members of the choir and all others who assisted in the work of the church.

During Lent a mid-week service will be held in the church, the first service being Friday evening, March 4th.

Was 93 On Sunday

Mrs. James Everett, Carleton Street, celebrated her 93rd birthday quietly at her home on Sunday, enjoying calls from neighbours and reading the many cards and messages of congratulations sent by her friends from as far as England. She also recalls memories of her friends by reading the approximately 100 cards she received at Christmas time.

Mrs. Everett is the last surviving member of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Yocke and was born in Weymouth. At the age of fourteen years she moved to Yarmouth and came to Digby 67 years ago at the time of her marriage to her first husband, George Everett. She had seven sons, three of whom are living, Charles and Aubrey in Digby and Oscar in Liverpool, N. S. She also has 13 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Everett, denying the frail appearance of her stature can outdo many of younger years in actual work. On Tuesday she proudly displayed to callers two aprons she had just completed and a dress she had made for herself the week previous. She finished seven quilts last fall and has materials ready for several more. She knits mittens and socks for her husband and often for others outside the family circle. Mrs. Everett's home is kept spotless all by her own efforts. She does her own scrubbing, waxing and washing and only last fall she dug several bushels of potatoes. One of Mrs. Everett's hobbies is raising house plants and she delights in the fact that the Digby General Hospital is often $25 to $40 richer by her donations of plants to the Hospital Fair.

Mrs. Everett continues to take keen and active interest in the Salvation Army which she joined nearly eighty years ago in Yarmouth. She attended the Salvation Army sessions at Halifax last summer and was the February 28th, 1955, was a very pleasant day at the home of Mrs. Howard Denton, Little River, the event being her 96th birthday.

Reaches 96

Aunt Cynthia, as she is lovingly called, received many congratulatory cards from friends and enjoyed all who called at her home.

Though memory takes her back to scenes of long ago, yet she keeps up with current events and is interested in all that helps to make the world a better place in which to live.

Digby Kiwanians Hear About Canadian West

Kiwanian Herb Morton in speaking before the Digby Kiwanis Club on Thursday, told of many of his experiences during the past three years while stationed with the Bank of Nova Scotia in the city of Saskatoon. In view of the period February 26 to 27 being designated as "Brotherhood Week" Mr. Morton gave particular attention to the problems existing in Western Canada where settlement has been to a very large extent by people of foreign extraction including Ukrainians, Mennonites, Russians, Poles, Jews, Dukabors, Scandinavians, etc. He stated that the object of "Brotherhood Week" is to develop respect for those who differ in creed, culture, origin or race.

The West offers a practical example of what may be accomplished by way of co-operation between individuals of widely different backgrounds. Mr. Morton found little evidence of discrimination on the Prairies but on the other hand he noted many instances of respect and consideration. Actually one is conscious on the Prairie not so much that there are wide divergences in culture and race but that all people are Canadians and especially Westerners. The common bond of living in the vast open spaces of the Prairies seems to do a lot in submerging race consciousness.

Leaders on the platform were Mrs. Ronald H. Bond, of the Baptist Women's Missionary Society, Mrs. Walter Milo, president of the United Church W.M.S. and Mrs. Carl McCormick, President of the Anglican Women's Auxiliary.

Lieutenant Governor Endorses Red Cross Campaign

I am very glad to bring to your attention the wonderful record of service which the Red Cross has given unflinchingly to the Province. The list of its services is most impressive and should be well known to each one of us. Most of these services, and there are sixteen of them, function each day and are a source of help and comfort.

It is difficult to point to one as being of more value than another, but perhaps the first blood donors service and the First Aid Posts on our highways should be specially stressed.

With the opening of the present campaign for funds for the Society, I appeal to my fellow Nova Scotians to give generously, as they have in the past, that the work which has been going on for forty years in the Province may continue uninterrupted.

Albion Fraser,
Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia.

IN THE LEGISLATURE

It also marked the appearance of Geoffrey Stevens as Minister of Health and Welfare, who took over the post relinquished by Hon. Harold Connolly.

Moving the address in reply to the speech from the Throne, J. Clyde Nunn called for a "go ahead" policy on atomic power development in Nova Scotia because of the importance of the coal industry to the national economy.

He was pleased of assurances by the government that future mineral development in the country of Inverness would not be hampered for lack of power.

John W. MacDonald (L. Pictou East), who seconded the address in reply to the speech from the Throne, said that production of cheaper power, developed through the use of coal, would attract additional industries to the province.

"We have in Pictou East the Maclean mine. We are looking to it at the present time as one of the most promising mining ventures in the province."

He was of the opinion that the "Continuous Miner", a product of Desco, now being manufactured in Pictou county, will be the salvation of the coal industry.

Standing in this year's session of the House is: Liberals, 31; Conservatives, 13; and CCF, 2 — with one vacancy.

Opening the Opposition's attack in the Throne Speech debate, Progressive Conservative leader R. L. Stanfield called for a vote of non-confidence in the Henry D. Hicks Administration.

He was critical of the government for failing to come with the provincial coal crisis and failure to attract new industries. He called for immediate increase in teachers' salaries and said the money should be provided by the Provincial Treasury for the time being at least.

Mr. Stanfield's motion of non-confidence was as follows: "That this House respectfully regrets that His Honor's Speech contains no program for meeting the crisis in the coal industry and indicated no adequate effort to develop industry in Nova Scotia on a scale sufficient to cope with rising unemployment and to support essential public services without undue burden on the people."

Among bills introduced by Premier Hicks was one that would divide the Highways and Public Works portfolio. He also introduced a bill to strengthen the Nova Scotia Power Commission Board portfolio. He also introduced a bill to strengthen the Nova Scotia Power Commission Board from three to six members.

CCF Leader Michael MacDonald (Cape Breton Centre) speaking in the Throne Speech debate, called for a national fuel policy and said that Premier Hicks should lead a strong delegation to Ottawa which should include Liberal, Conservative and CCF members of the House, to demand guaranteed markets for the provincial coal production. The delegation could not be too strong, he emphasized.

"Canada producing 17 million tons of coal annually and importing 24 million tons of United States coal mines in the province were being closed and miners were without work."

Following a statement by Provincial Treasurer Hon. R. M. Fielding that the province had a fiscal surplus of $2,158,000 tabling the final 1933-34 Public Accounts. Premier Hicks said the provincial financial position continued to be sound and strong and the outlook, except for the coal industry, was good.

Among bills introduced by Premier Hicks was one that would divide the Highways and Public Works portfolio. He also introduced a bill to strengthen the Nova Scotia Power Commission Board portfolio. He also introduced a bill to strengthen the Nova Scotia Power Commission Board from three to six members.

DIGBY FIREFIGHTERS
"The average Westporter is free and easy and most enthusiastic about everything. He has plenty of initiative and an unbounded faith in the future which engenders an atmosphere of optimism," said Mr. Morton.

He went on to describe the tremendous changes that have taken place in farming in Saskatchewan over the past ten years. The horse, he said, was a thing of the past and with the use of modern machinery a farmer can now easily cultivate five or six hundred acres by himself. This revolution in farming has led to many social changes including a declining rural population. He added that a definite trend toward specializing in grain farming many farmers have sold their cattle and now live in the larger towns travelling some distance to their farms. Mr. Morton pointed to other changes throughout Canada and suggested that the time might well be approaching when equally important changes could be expected in this part of the country. He mentioned the possibility of farming the sea instead of fishing it, following the results of present research work in this field. There is also much to be learned still about improved farming methods and the forest industry. Mr. Morton declared and he said that Kiwanians have an important part to play in investigating any new ideas which might be beneficial to the community.

Mr. Morton, who has been manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia for the past five months,

V. G. Cardoza Speaks In The House

MR. SPEAKER, in rising to take part in the debate on the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne, I want first of all to add my words of congratulation to those already expressed concerning the able and efficient manner in which the Member and Second of that Address handled their respective tasks.

Both the newly elected Honourable Member from Inverness and that doughty veteran, the Honourable Member from Pictou East, did a magnificent job in bringing before this House matters which effect both it and the people of their respective constituencies.

In my address today I wish to congratulate also the government on its past performance as reviewed in the Speech from the Throne, and on the program for the future announced through that speech. It seems to me that this program, as outlined in the Speech from the Throne, is a positive one and one which, when carried out, will do much to advance the welfare of this Province and its people in many ways.

To me the information contained in the Speech from the Throne, both in its review of the immediate past accomplishments of this government and its announced program for the future is convincing evidence indeed that the present government has dealt with and will continue to deal with the problems which have to be faced in the conduct of affairs in a Province such as this in a most competent, capable and forthright manner.

Mr. Speaker, in referring to the Speech from the Throne I want to congratulate the government most heartily on the announcement that payments of disability pensions to those who are entitled to receive them have been commenced. This legislation was in my opinion a great forward move in bringing aid and comfort to those with whom life has dealt so badly, and the fact that it has now gone into effect and that pensions are going forward to those people is welcome news indeed.

The announcement that plans are nearing completion for the installation of a Cobalt 60 source to supplement present treatment at the Nova Scotia Tumour Clinic is also welcome news, and in indicative of the active interest being shown by the public health department of this government in the continuing battle against the dread scourge of cancer.

In this fight we have, unfortunately, not reached the wonderfully favourable position that has been reached in the fight against tuberculosis in the Province, but I am heartened by the news that we are keeping up with advance being made elsewhere, and that those of our people unfortunate enough to be stricken with cancer will soon have added to the present excellent treatment facilities available to them at the Victoria General Hospital the new cobalt 60 source.

And now, Mr. Speaker, I would like to turn for a few moments to the matter of highways. I was pleased indeed to learn from the Speech from the Throne that the government this year will not only pave and grade a substantial mileage of highways, complete a number of bridges and commence construction of others, continue work on the Trans-Canada highway project, but will also give increased attention to the improvement and surfacing of secondary roads in the Province.

This is an important and most commendable move indeed and will do a great deal not only to improve travelling conditions for the people of the rural areas of Nova Scotia but also strengthen the whole economy of Nova Scotia through its effect on the industrial life of those sections of this Province which depend on secondary roads in a great measure to transport their products to the large centres of sale and distribution.

In connection with the proposed secondary road program there seems to be some doubt in the minds of some of those opposite that the government really intends to proceed with such a program. For my part, let me say that there is no doubt in my mind whatsoever. Since the past performance of a government, as with an individual, often forecasts what their future conduct will be I can say that I am convinced the present government, following its policy in all other matters in which it made like commitments, will carry out this program in a manner and to a degree consistent with the financial resources.

COUNCIL RECEIVES ANNUAL REPORTS

Reports of the various departments of the town were received at the regular meeting of the Digby Town Council held at the Town Hall on Monday evening. Total revenue to the general account amounted to $131,131, with expenses of $133,036; water revenue $25,714, expenses $24,508; light revenue $74,444, expenses $66,964; Intermediate and Common School, $48,653 revenue and $47,928 expenditure, and Regional High revenue $68,367, with expenditures $68,572.

The clerk reported that two assessment appeals for the County Court had been filed at the town office, viz. Hood's Ltd. and C.P.R. Pines Hotel. The assessment of personal property of Joseph Hiddle on Water St., a matter which arose since the sitting of the Assessment Appeal Board, was dealt with at Monday night's meeting.

One building permit was granted and one deferred for more information. Permission was granted to G. Reginald Weir, Queen St., to add an extension of 24' x 24' to the rear of his work shop.

Permission to hold a tag day was granted to the Ladies' Hospital Aid for March 12, and to the Digby Kiwanis Club to hold tag days on June 4, July 7, and August 6.

Two persons addressed the Town Council on Monday evening. David Landers appeared in the matter of appropriations to schools and the other, concerning better methods of garbage disposal.

A resolution was read from the Lunenburg Town Council whereby the Honourable Henry D. Hicks, Premier of Nova Scotia, be requested to arrange for the introduction at the next session of Legislature of legislation amending the relevant section of the Assessment Act dealing with ships and shares in ships which would release ratepayers of the addition of financial burden placed upon them (Lunenburg and other communities) by the avoidance of taxation of ships and shares in ships.

This resolution it was learned arose from the fact that many of the Lunenburg ships were registering in the port of Saint John, N. B. The Digby town council went on record as supporting the resolution.

Arrears in taxes came up for discussion and it was decided to take immediate steps to collect any taxes now outstanding.

Notice was received regarding increased rates for patients admitted to the Victoria General Hospital.

TRADE BOARD PLANS TOURIST PROMOTION

Norman Wright, recently elected chairman of the Tourist Committee for the Digby Board of Trade, presented plans at the regular meeting of the board for extensive tourist publicity for Digby. Digby's attraction in accommodation, beauty, location and other factors necessary to the tourist industry were assessed and it was considered what was most necessary was to make the would-be tourist aware of these attractions. Mr. Wright revealed by means of stickers for letters, folders and by the use of the ordinary scallop shell so typical to this location. The budget for the year presented by H. C. Morton, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Digby Branch, and accepted at the meeting made provision for promotion in mind.

Much discussion followed on the lack of boat service between United States and Nova Scotia for the coming summer. A committee consisting of James Richards, Digby Trade Board President, Mayor Guy Morehouse, J. Brittain, past president, and Clayton Snow, was set up to interview C.P.R. officials and others in respect to making some other provision to counteract the lack of transportation for tourists into Nova Scotia through the lack of the boat service via Yarmouth.

The Board was informed on Tuesday evening that the C.P.R. had offered to lease the property known as the Cannon Banks to the Digby Board of Trade. Plans to solicit the co-operation of other organizations in town to make the property into an attractive park for the benefit of the tourist trade here were made.

Further arrangements were made to give a dinner in honor of Capt. Michael Grote Stirling, C.D., R.C.N., F.L.M.C.S., Cornwall, on March 30, jointly with the Digby Kiwanis Club and the Digby Branch, Canadian Legion. It was announced at Tuesday night's Board meeting.

Resigns After 50 Years Teaching Service

The Digby Board of School Commissioners regretfully accepted the resignation of Miss Beryl Turnbull from the Digby Elementary School teaching staff after 49 years of teaching service given in town. The first year of Miss Turnbull's teaching career was spent at Rosaway. To teach in a rural school for a period of at least one year was a prerequisite to urban teaching in those days, Miss Turnbull explained.

It is estimated that more than 2,000 students, fathers, mothers, their children and in some instances the third generation, received instruction and passed through Miss Turnbull's hands during her 50 years of service here. That Miss Turnbull has contributed much to the welfare of society cannot be doubted, for while the subject she taught and its varying methods of presentation during the years was important, the child itself was foremost in her mind and many fine characters were molded through her influence. Miss Turnbull, endowed with a personality which of itself commands discipline, has never failed in a sympathetic and understanding approach toward child problems, all of which are so necessary for the best service in teaching.

Other resignations from the Elementary school staff accepted by the Board of School Commissioners were from Miss Beryl Derringer, Miss Patricia Carly, Miss Theresa Robicheau, Miss Eloise Gower and Miss Neita McNeil.

From the intermediate school the resignation of Miss Lorna Connell was received and regretfully accepted, as was also the resignation of Miss Nina Gower of the Regional High School staff.

It is understood that Miss Connell and Miss Robicheau have accepted positions for the coming year in Alberta.

Dr. A. H. Leighton In Alaska

The Courier was pleased this week to receive an aerial view post card and a copy of the newspaper "Nome Nugget" of Nome, Alaska, forwarded by Dr. Alex. Leighton, of the Cornell University project here. Dr. Leighton has been in Alaska for two weeks with a graduate of Cornell University, in connection with another Cornell project. He leaves Alaska tomorrow.

We note by the "Nome Nugget" that the Alaska Legislature is in session and like here much talked of subjects are the raising of teachers' salaries, and highways.

Boy Scouts here will be interested that the Boy Scouts in Alaska had an auction sale, by which they raised $300.

Readers of the paper here would also be interested in an item announcing that tourist rides by dog team were to be available on Sunday afternoon.

Education Week Window

Prominent in a beautiful display window at Wright's of Digby Ltd. is a poster entitled "In the Land of the Blue Nose—Education Everybody's Business", made by the Sisters at St. Patrick's Academy. Another poster which has been attracting particular attention is the one containing the Digby Regional High School Crest, drawn and designed in all detail by Judy MacNutt, student at the Public School. Other features are the Progress of Education in Digby poster, a map of South America, depicting the products and industries of that country.

Friezes, cut outs, paintings, photographs, writings and drawings, typing and short hand from the four schools of the town were among the other displays.

The several drawings by Norma Mount and the artistic typing in forms of animals, flowers, motor cars, mounted police, etc., from St. Patrick's Convent, received attention by passers by.

The window display, an effort in recognition of Education Week, was arranged by the Sisters from the Convent.

Correspond For 57 Years

When "Bertha MacQuarrie", at the age of 13 years, spent several months in the year 1898 in the 5th grade at a school in Needham, Mass., she did not foresee that she had made a lifelong friend of a school mate, "Nina Aker", of that place.

Bertha, now Mrs. William Hutchins, of Rosaway, on Digby Neck, and Nina, Mrs. Nina Sullivan, of Tampa Florida, have not seen each other since their school days in 1898, but they have kept up a regular correspondence and have exchanged gifts during all the 57 years.

Mrs. Hutchins was born in Hecatanoga. Her mother was a native of New Brunswick and her father came from Cape Breton as a railway employee. Having lost her parents in early years, she spent a short time with relatives in Needham and later returned to New Tusket, before taking up residence in Rosaway.

Mrs. Sullivan moved with her husband to Florida where for many years they operated a thriving business, dealing in various types of merchandise.

Mrs. Hutchins enjoys getting the Tampa Morning Tribune, which carries pictures and accounts of the Pirate Festival each year. The particular number Mrs. Hutchins left with the Courier carries full page descriptions and pictures of the parades and other entertainment for the 42nd Festival held this year in connection with Tampa's centennial year.

that can properly be made available to do so.

There is also concrete evidence at hand to prove the government is already undertaking work in their secondary road program for I understand in one County of the Province extensive experiments have been carried out in the use of crushed rock—a move which I may say I strongly advocated last year—and these have proven successful. In my own County, too, some work with crushed rock has been done with good results and it is my hope this will be expanded further this year.

Speaking of highways and the record of this government with respect to road building and paving in this Province, let me say that I feel a great job has been done, is being done, and will continue to be done by the Liberal government in highway construction and maintenance. In my own constituency I think of the splendid job done in the paving of the Digby Neck highway from the town of Digby to the end of the mainland section of that highway at East Ferry, which was completed last summer and officially opened in October by the Honourable the Premier. The paving of the mainland section of this road has meant much to the people of Digby Neck, particularly those who live and carry on their business on the two islands which lie at the tip of this scenic and picturesque arm of land.

Digby Firemen Again Get Award

Receipt of the official award from the National Fire Prevention Association, placing Digby 1st for the province and 6th for Canada, was received by the Digby Fire Department on the weekend.

The awards were given in recognition of their efforts in educational achievements relative to Fire Prevention and fire safety. Through the cooperation of the Digby Area Fire Council fire prevention films were distributed in town and outlying districts regularly to help impress the public regarding fire prevention.

Preparations are being made at present for the annual Clean Up Campaign, which this year will be on a large scale. Every section of the town must clean up.

The fire department are appreciative of the citizens' efforts in the past and are looking forward to their cooperation during this campaign.

Honored On 91st Birthday

On Thursday afternoon, Feb. 28th, Mrs. Alton MacNeil, Freeport, entertained a number of relatives and friends in honor of her father, Mr. Benjamin Campbell, who was 91 years old. Among the relatives were two great grandchildren, Donna and Floyd Crocker, who presented him with a birthday cake made by granddaughter, Mrs. Watson Crocker.

After greetings and gifts were presented, Mrs. Avery Finigan read a poem, "Growing Old", after which a sing-song was enjoyed. Mr. Campbell joined in the singing and also played selections on his violin.

Mr. Campbell is in the best of health, thinks nothing of walking two miles a day. He spends a lot of his time making small boats and dories.

Mr. Campbell has a brother, Arthur, Freeport; four sisters in the U.S.A.; four grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Two great grandchildren were born the week of his birthday to Mr. and Mrs. Blair MacNeil, Guelph, and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Crocker. We wish him many more happy birthdays.

Miss Blair reported having attended the Health Conference at Dalhousie University, Halifax, when Mrs. Paul Snow went on relief duty for her.

It was decided at Tuesday's meeting to have the V.O.N. Quarterly magazine supplied to each Board Member and each doctor and dentist in the town.

The report of Miss Dorothy Fowler, district supervisor, was read. The report submitted by Miss Christine Livingston, chief supervisor, commended the branch on adopting the uniform allowance and the new telephone listing. She recommended an increase in the nurse's salary which recommendation was accepted. Expressions of appreciation of the services rendered by Miss Blair were made by Board Members.

It was announced that the annual meeting of the Board of Governors of the Victorian Order would be held in Ottawa on May 4 and 5.

No action was taken on the request from headquarters that each V.O.N. branch take steps to become an incorporated body.

Baptist Group Entertain

Grace United W.M.S. was entertained by the United Baptist W.M.S. in the church parlor on Thursday at a combined study and social hour.

Mrs. Hugh Vincent, President of the Baptist group, presided, and extended a warm welcome to the guests. During the worship period, conducted by Mrs. E. C. Churchill, a duet, "The Lord Is My Shepherd", was rendered by Mrs. Churchill and Mrs. Reginald Weir.

Mrs. James Brooks, President of Grace United W.M.S., was guest speaker, and gave a resume of the missionary work of the United Church of Canada in India. She traced history of the Hindu religion which she said began with nature worship and also that of Christianity in India. She told something of the missionaries who pioneered the missionary work in that country. Speaking of the caste system, Mrs. Brooks said that any mass movement of Christianity in the high caste has always been preceded by a mass movement in the low caste.

Following the business a social period was held, when Mrs. E. C. Churchill, 1st Vice President of the Baptist W.M.S., Mrs. Wilmot Christie, Treasurer, Mrs. Lena Handspeker, Tidings convener, and Mrs. Harry Baxter, were guests of honor, each having birthdays in March. Serving were Mrs. H. L. Woodman, Mrs. Hilary Barnes, Mrs. M. C. Denton and Mrs. Burton Ellis.

F. C. Purdy Attends Conference

F. C. Purdy was among the supervisors who attended a meeting in Annapolis Royal on Friday and Saturday to discuss various aspects of the problems of supervision in the schools. Supervisors were present from schools of the Annapolis Valley and the South Shore of Nova Scotia.

Arrangements for the conference, which is the first of its kind in Nova Scotia, were made by H. N. Nason, chief inspector of schools, assisted by C. W. Crowell, inspector for Yarmouth Digby; Mr. Purdy, and J. C. Johnson, Annapolis Royal.

The meeting was officially opened by Dr. Boyd Crowe, chairman of the local school board, who welcomed visitors, reminding them that this was a proper setting for their unique conference in that Annapolis Royal "is a town of first things."

Topics discussed centred about various ways whereby supervisors may assist teachers in improving conditions under which children develop.

The following took active part in leading discussions: H. J. Uhlman, Lunenburg; C. W. Crowell, Yarmouth; F. C. Purdy, Digby; J. A. Hendry, Wolfville; Miss Annie Ritchie, Liverpool; Murray W. Campbell, Windsor; J. C. Johnson, Annapolis Royal; S. C. Gordon, Wolfville; Galen Pierce, Shelburne; J. A. Comenau, Meteghan.

About This and That

March — And No Boat In Sight

(Halifax Chronicle-Herald)

The volume of tourist travel to Nova Scotia has been increasing literally by leaps and bounds — has, indeed, practically doubled since the last war.

Tourists entering this province in 1946 totalled 253,280. The numbers had swollen by 1953 to 488,220, and at the last year-end the Minister of Trade and Industry reported:

"Tourist visitors in 1954 numbered close to the half-million mark, and the additional impetus of the great Acadian anniversary influx next summer is expected to put it well above that level for 1955."

Official estimates of that magnitude point up the seriousness of the news—or lack of it—concerning steamship services between Nova Scotia and the New England seaboard. As the Minister has indicated, the Acadian Bicentenary celebrations alone should attract greatly increased numbers of visitors to this province during the coming tourist season—and how they are to get here is becoming an increasingly serious problem. Many will come by rail; many others will come all the way by road; some will come by air; and many others would come by boat. But with prospects of steamship service between this province and the New England seaboard in such a state of uncertainty, no one so far can place any reliance upon water transport in 1955.

When the new Yarmouth-Bar Harbor ferry will be in operation no one appears able to say—except to suggest "some time during the coming summer". And with the last of the Eastern ships withdrawn from the Yarmouth-Boston service, the outlook is far from encouraging.

The transport facilities of last year would have been taxed to the utmost to handle this year's tourist traffic through any and all facilities, but when from those already inadequate facilities is subtracted what water transport we had, the situation becomes the next thing to alarming.

Surely something can be done to provide a boat for the Yarmouth-Boston run at least. The Yarmouth-Bar Harbor ferry, it is plain, will not be in operation for the opening of the 1955 tourist season; and if some effective action is not taken in relation to the Yarmouth-Boston route before very long, Nova Scotia's tourist trade planning will be disrupted.

We have now entered the month of March . . . the opening of the 1955 tourist season draws nearer . . . and time cannot wait very much longer.

Our Children's Future — Today's Concern

"Education — Everybody's Business", the slogan which carries on for Education Week year after year, still remains Canada wide as significant as ever. The 1955 theme "Our Children's Future — Today's Concern" applicable to the whole of Canada, can also be applied to other countries. We note, for in the newspaper exchanges which come to this office we find those from Nova Scotia, other provinces of Canada as far as the West Coast, and also from United States have the same type of problems in regard to educational matters — matters which must be the concern of today to ensure the best future for the country's children. But, in the nearly twenty years that Education Week has been recognized in Canada no more applicable theme could have been especially chosen for Nova Scotia this year than "Our Children's Future — Today's Concern." Never before has there been a proposed plan of education of such vital concern to Nova Scotians as that which is under consideration through the report popularly known as the "Pottier Report", prepared by Mr. Justice V. J. Pottier, Q.C., LL.D., D.C.L., appointed commissioner to investigate school finance.

The "Pottier Report", containing information which took 20 months to gather and compile, consists of twelve chapters, which include 84 pages besides 85 more pages of financial and statistical tables. Needless to say, it is impossible in the space at our disposal to give an adequate analysis of the whole report. Because of its extreme interest and importance, though, we would recommend the public make as thorough a study of it as possible.

One of the chief problems which have been facing educational authorities everywhere and which from reports will be with us for years to come is the ever increasing lack of classroom space and teaching personnel for our schools. Circumstances in this respect are aggravated not only by the greater birth rate but by the greater number of years that children remain in school. In 1946 Canada had 2,100,000 children from 5-14 years and about 1,000,000 teen agers from 15-19 years of age. It is estimated that by 1961 these figures will rise to 3,800,000 and 1,410,000. According to the year end report of the Premier, Hon. Henry Hicks, there were an additional 4,936 pupils enrolled in the public schools of Nova Scotia during the last school year, bringing the total enrolment to 146,388. In the last ten years the enrolment has increased by almost 30,000 and in that period more than 1,200 new classrooms have been opened. Over 100 classrooms were added during the past year. The number of teachers employed during the year, exclusive of substitutes, increased by 71 to a total of 5,096. The percentage of attendance increased by 0.3 per cent to 90.5 per cent of actual possible attendance. This great increase in school enrolment is peculiar also to Digby town and area schools and indications are that conditions will become more acute as time goes on. It is, therefore, a matter of extreme importance that the people of this area become acquainted with the "Pottier Report" and how the contemplated changes in the tax structure as of the report will effect the people of this area.

In the "Pottier Report" a general re-organization of the financial aspect of the educational system is proposed. A complete re-assessment at the Municipal level is set out, based on the full net values of both real and personal property for each city, town and Municipality in the province, subject to biennial review.

The Commission found that a Foundation Program for elementary and secondary schools in the Province is necessary and that it would be financed by contributions from the Provincial Government and the cities, towns and municipalities. These Municipal units should contribute according to their financial abilities as shown by the equalized assessment contained in the report. The Provincial Government would pay the remainder of the educational costs as required for the Foundation Program in each Municipal unit. The Commission believes this program provides the best and highest education which can be made available to every child in the province.

The cost of the Foundation Program is met by setting standards and amounts for each educational service which the Provincial Government would contribute. Any amount spent in excess of those standards must be paid by the municipal unit. The standards or scales apply to salaries, maintenance, transportation and capital.

The Commission's equalization tables show a total present assessment for all Cities, Towns and Municipalities in the Province of approximately $355,000,000 but the full net assessment value, as determined by the Commission is slightly over $1,000,000,000. The latter figure would be subject to review and report every two years by a permanent equalization assessment commission to be appointed by the Provincial Government and to have jurisdiction over the whole Province. As a matter of information, the table of equalization of assessments gives the total assessment of Digby town to be $3,554,800, with the Commission setting the figure at 4,403,540. Digby municipality, which has an assessment of $1,638,370, is assessed by the Commission figures at $6,086,985.

Because the primary need is for enough classrooms to relieve overcrowding the Commission recommends that no provincial contributions be made for domestic science and industrial arts departments for five years, unless for special reasons the Department of Education approves otherwise. V. G. CARDOZA'S SPEECH

"Not only has the government paved the mainland section of the Digby Neck highway but they have also done considerable reconstruction work on the section of the Digby Neck highway which traverses Long Island and which with the mainland section is the only land link which the people and industries on the islands have with the rest of Nova Scotia. Those industries, Sir, produce and process most of the fish which comes from Digby County and their annual product may be measured in millions of pounds.

It is my sincere hope, Mr. Speaker, that the work started last year on Long Island will be continued this year and that similar work will also be done on that section of this Digby Neck highway which serves the people of Briar Island. This whole road and its condition is of utmost importance to the people which it serves and I cannot stress too strongly the need for continued attention to it.

Speaking of the islands of Digby Neck leads me naturally to the subject of the ferries which serve these islands, and which are also the connecting links between the land highway on the Neck. I want to say in this connection that the people of the islands, as I do, appreciate the improvements made last year on the Grand Passage ferry, and improvements now underway for the service at Petite Passage. I would, however, urge upon the government the need, especially at Petite Passage, for still further improvement in the service. A chain, Sir, is only as strong as its weakest link, and until a ferry system is provided here fully capable of handling the transportation needs of the area, then the passages will continue to be weak links in the highway chain which serves the islands. I realize, Sir, the problem is not a simple one, and is complicated by circumstances of tide and weather, but I do feel a solution must be found, and that soon, if the expanding fishing industry, and the needs of the people, are to be properly and adequately served.

Speaking as I have done about the need for further improved ferry service at the passages, and conscious of the costs involved in bringing this about, I hesitate to make mention of the fact that I feel a downward revision of the rates charged the public for the use of these ferries should be made. I do, however, feel that a study of the matter of these rates should be made and, if at all possible, they be reduced. As I understand it, present rates are higher than those charged on ferries elsewhere, and while I realize there may be special circumstances which make this appear necessary, I still feel present rates constitute too heavy a burden on those who must use these ferries; often several times daily, in the conduct of their affairs, and I feel the possibilities of having them reduced should be thoroughly investigated.

In closing my remarks on the subject of highways I want to say again, Sir, that I believe most firmly in the announced intentions of the government with respect to the secondary roads and I feel the program will be carried out in a manner consistent not only with the needs of the people but also with the ability of the taxpayers to meet the costs of such a program.

As a matter of fact, Mr. Speaker, it occurs to me that already the government has carried out a great deal of the proposed work on secondary roads because when one looks over the Province one sees in many localities paved and improved roads which were only a few years ago classed as secondary roads. It happens, that as these roads are paved, their status moves up, and still we hear that nothing has been done for the secondary roads. This I suppose will continue to be the case from certain quarters until every road in the Province becomes a paved highway.

And now, Sir, I would like to speak for a moment or two about the proposals contained in the Speech from the Throne concerning highway safety. I am pleased indeed to learn that real efforts are planned to improve safety conditions on the highways of this Province, and I feel the government is deserving of commendation for its proposals in this connection. The toll of highway accidents has been increasing alarmingly, and in my opinion firm steps to curb this rise, both through more stringent examination before issuance or re-issuance of driving licenses and through increased supervision and enforcement of highway safety provisions are sorely needed.

On the subject of industry, Mr. Speaker, I do not agree with those who would say that the government is doing nothing for industry in this Province. I feel much has been done, and is being done, to assist our primary industries—fishing, farming, lumbering, and even coal mining, although I realize in this last there are terrible obstacles to surmount in the matter of securing markets, competition from other fuels, and other such matters. It is interesting, although no consolation, to note that the problems affecting this industry are not confined to Nova Scotia but are being felt equally as hard all over this continent. Production in the U. S. has dropped a third and there seems to be no more sure fire remedies for the troubles of the industry there than there are in Nova Scotia, even though some here would maintain the solution is simple and only certain changes—and these far removed from coal mining—are needed to solve the whole problem.

In connection with industry it occurs to me that much can and should be done in this Province by individuals and groups of individuals—aided perhaps by technical assistance and guidance from government—to enlarge the industrial life of Nova Scotia. Speaking of this I would like, if you will permit me, to quote from a letter which was written by a constituent of mine, Mr. Donald Pugh of Westport, and which appeared in a recent issue of the Halifax Herald. Mr. Pugh says in part—

"We must be more willing to gamble more, to take a chance—one never knows what he can do until he tries . . . We don't have to go to Central Canada to find good jobs and opportunity. Opportunity and good jobs are under our noses, just awaiting development. Our pioneer forefathers came to this country without jobs but filled with hope for a better life. They performed great accomplishments. Dare we do less." He concludes by saying "We lack initiative but it needn't hinder us. By using many natural advantages we can create a higher living for all." (Please turn to page 6)

Digby Schools Mark Education Week

The Courier takes pleasure in giving space here to compositions submitted by students of the various town schools as their effort in marking Education Week.

What Is Success?

What is success? How can I be successful? Such questions often come to the mind of many boys and girls. Here are some of the ways pointed out as an encouragement to help us attain this goal.

One of these factors in making the most of one's self, because success is making the best of one's gifts and abilities.

Another factor in succeeding is relying on one's self. A lowly beginning and a humble origin are no bar against a great career. Farmers' places fill many places in legislature, in business, at the bar, in pulpits. Boys of lowly origin have made many of the world's greatest discoveries, are presidents of our banks, of our colleges, of our universities. Our poor boys and girls have filled the highest places as teachers and journalists. Ask almost any great man in our large cities where he was born, and he will tell you it was on a farm or in a small country village.

Self-help has accomplished about all the great things of the world. Good examples of this we find in the lives of such men as Lord Bacon, Haydn, Michael Faraday, James Watt and Columbus.

The last factor in succeeding is making the right friends. No young man starting out in life could have better capital than plenty of friends.

Those who would make friends must cultivate the qualities which are admired and which attract. If you are mean, stingy and selfish, nobody will admire you. You must cultivate generosity and a large-heartedness. You must have positive qualities, for a negative, shrinking, round-about man is despised. You must cultivate courage and boldness, for a coward has few friends.

Let us all strive to make use of these factors in our struggle for success.

What Is Education?

Leading thinkers throughout History have attempted to define the word "education." They have never been able to agree exactly on how it should be defined but for thousands of years there has been little doubt about its essential purpose.

Our Canada today of which we are so proud owes its progress to the country's educational system. Free primary education is opened to every one who desires it and has sense enough to go after it. Because of the excellences of the schooling and the thoroughness with which attendance is insisted on, very few boys and girls are robbed of the chance of at least some education. The average boy and girl stays in school until at least 16 years of age. "A great many seek higher education," is Canada's boast.

What goes on in these schools?

I have been told the same program as many years ago, only now we have brighter and more attractive text books, we have more attention paid to health and physical education, our schools are larger and much better equipped, but the struggle for learning goes on just the same. Boys and girls of today are still pouring over grammar and social problems, struggling with arithmetic, the multiplication tables, long division, and fractions, the languages, French and Latin, literature and art, with music keeping alive, the happy, earnest hours of childhood school days.

Christian education in the schools today will help us to be a developed full-grown citizen of the day. We shall be taught those true values that stand for a strong healthy nation, the worthwhile principles of life. Faith in God, courage to uphold justice, honesty and the right at all times, charity and kindness to all my classmates, respect, obedience and love for authority and all that it stands for. A Christian education opens the door to Happiness, Health and Success.

PLAN

1. Good opening sentence.
2. July 1st Rover was puzzled at being left alone.
3. Rover couldn't come for people and cars were bound to come.
4. After the passing of the parade, people in their cars headed for the rink.
5. The body of the little black dog.
6. From now on our place won't be the same.

The Prized Possession

A wagging tail, two big brown eyes and a heart of gold, that was Rover. On July 1st, when we left for the parade, poor Rover just couldn't understand why he was left tied to the garage door. However, we just couldn't let him loose with all the crowd and the cars that were bound to be present on such a big day. The wonderful parade had just gone past and people were hurrying to their cars to rush off to the rink on the top of the hill. Suddenly I heard a shriek of terror and the car in front of us stopped, and there, all life gone from the little black body, was our prized possession. Our place won't be the same without Rover.

The School Yard

The Digby Intermediate School is the newest school in Digby. It is a lovely school but the yard is not very good because the grass hasn't come up yet. In good weather the yard is all right but when it rains it is just a mess. Probably if you have gone by you might have noticed it. But we do try to keep the yard clean. When all the children get out you can imagine what the yard looks like.

In the morning around eight the school rooms look so clean and tidy because the janitor did such a good job on them the night before. Then around nine o'clock the school rooms look like out-doors. The school yard seems to have moved in for the day.

Wouldn't it be nice if we arrived some morning to see a green velvet lawn and a cement driveway leading up to the school door? What a treat it would be to get out at recess to play in the soft, green grass instead of in the soft brown mud!

If all the children could have a holiday in May we could plant the lawn seed to help beautify our school. There would be lots of green grass growing by the summer time. We do hope to have a nice lawn like the Digby Regional School by summer.

The First Snowfall

What a surprise I got last Friday morning when I looked out the window and saw the effects of the night's storm. Everything looked like fairyland with the snow sparkling like diamonds. The trees were gowned like fairies and their branches shone like silver. The chimneys appeared to be huge white mushrooms, and icicles hung from the eaves. A fleecy white blanket covered the "Mother Earth." The sun shining on this made the fields like great masses of dancing gems. It made me feel sad to think that as the sun got higher this beautiful fairyland would vanish.

Travelling

One night my father came home and said that he had to go to the United States on some business. So the next day we started to pack. When Saturday came we left for the United States.

The first night we got to Bangor where we stayed all night. The next morning we left for Boston. We got there at six o'clock that night. Mother said that we should go over to our aunt's place. When we got there she was very glad to see us.

The next afternoon my father was all through his business. Aunt Mary said that we should stay a little longer, so we did stay a little longer. A couple days later we left for Digby.

If you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure. Many more, along with this strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's busy living, hurried rush, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, dizziness, headache, nervousness, heart trouble, loss of sleep, loss of appetite, loss of energy, loss of vitality, loss of sex power, loss of strength, loss of endurance, loss of health, loss of happiness, loss of success, loss of life, loss of everything, loss of all.

should be no provincial contributions for auditoriums, gymnasiums and cafeterias, and if they are provided the responsibility should rest entirely with the Municipal units.

Substantial increases in teachers' salaries are recommended by the Pottier Commission.

The scale of salaries for the different grades of licenses is recommended as follows, cost to be shared by the province, cities, towns and municipalities: B Firsts, $1500-7950; A Superior, $1800-2640; Intermediate, $2100-3300; New P.C. Class 3, $2400-3600; H.S.P.C. Class 2, $2700-4260; Academic, $3360-4560.

Increases are automatic and at the rate of $120.00 per year. Permissives would receive $1000.00. Temporary C's $1200.00 and "Old" C's and D's $1500.00.

The maintenance scale for classrooms, also to be shared, is based on the number of rooms in each school and ranges from $250.00 to $500.00 per room per year. Special rooms are allowed higher.

Transportation, also to be shared, is to be paid on the basis of a vehicle-mile rate, ranging from 15c to 32c per mile, depending on the type of vehicle.

The formula for contributions by the Province and the Municipal units for the support of the Foundation Program is as follows:

Add the total cost for instruction, maintenance and transportation according to the scales given to cover pupils resident in each Municipal unit, deduct the sum obtained by multiplying the full municipal net assessment by 80c per $100.00. The remainder is the amount of the Provincial contribution towards the three named services.

The Province will contribute to capital costs on the same percentage basis as the contribution to maintenance, transportation and instruction.

Where the municipal units are paying less than 80 cents per $100.00 of full assessment for operating costs, they are to increase their expenditure by 10 cents a year until 80 cents is reached. During this period of graduated increases, the Province is to pay the deficit in addition to other sums that might be required under the formula.

There are other lines of thought which we might have used for Education Week but the "Pottier Report" which entailed such a tremendous and commendable amount of work and contains so much valuable information seems to be of primary importance right now. It is now under review by educational authorities and will be up for consideration in the present session of the Nova Scotia Legislature. It is essential that the public have as thorough an understanding of the report as possible. If adopted, it will affect some municipalities and areas differently and in varying degrees. Some phases will win approval in some areas while others will be received kindly in different localities. Much should appear to be good sound sense throughout. At any rate, it is a complex document and must be given much deep thought by each individual municipality and area. It is a pertinent source of study for Education Week in 1955. It is "Everybody's Business." The final result will do much to determine "Our Children's Future — it is Today's Concern for all of us.

How Good Are Your Schools?

Here is a test: Do they stress — mastery of essential skills; mastery of essential knowledge; good health; good citizenship; good character; good home life; ability to think; ability to get along with others; personal adjustment and development of individual abilities and talents? If they do they are well high perfect, but if they come near they are serving you well.

Going To See The Queen

About three years ago Queen Elizabeth II came to Halifax. My mother decided that she would take me to see her. She bought the tickets and at 9.45 that evening we were at the station. At 10.00 p.m. I heard the whistle of the mid-night train coming in. About fifteen minutes later I found myself sitting in a chair in the train.

Mother had made reservations for beds in the train that night but she let me stay up until we got out of Digby. When we reached Halifax it was about 7.00 a.m. We got off the train and had lunch at the station. Then we went outdoors and saw a crowd standing on the other street. It was really raining then but we came to see the Queen so we stood out in the rain. We saw her then and quite a few times more that day. That night she was to have supper at the Nova Scotian hotel so we went there. We didn't get there until quite late so we were at the back but a clerk was in his office and the desk had a shelf sticking out. He was very kind so he let me stand up on the shelf. A little while later in came the Queen. She was very beautiful with her evening dress on. That night we got on the train again to come home. I'll never forget that day.

Stamp Prepared

To assist in advertising one of Nova Scotia's attractions this year to American and Canadian tourists, a colorful Acadian Bicentennial stamp has been prepared for distribution by the Department of Trade and Industry.

The stamp has the red rampant lion of Nova Scotia on a shield, flanked by an inset of Evangeline and the Grand Pre shrine. Three stylized wavy lines symbolize the sea, while a fleur-de-lis represents the racial significance of the occasion. The wording is in both French and English text.

These stamps are being sent out to business firms, industries, commercial organizations, civic and provincial bodies, with a view to securing wide distribution. There is no charge for the stamps. The recipients are asked only to make use of the stamps on their letters or mailing pieces that reach outside the province.

Additional requests for the stamps may be sent to the Nova Scotia Travel Bureau, Provincial Building, Halifax.

Red Cross Free Blood Transfusions Worth $450,000 In 1955

HALIFAX (Special): Nova Scotians last year donated nearly 30,000 pints of blood, helping save the lives of more than 700 patients in 52 hospitals scattered throughout the province, reports Provincial Red Cross headquarters here. In some places whole blood sells for nearly $40 a bottle, and the usual minimum price is $15. In Nova Scotia hospitals, patients pay nothing for the life-saving blood they receive, thanks to 30,000 Nova Scotian blood donors and the Red Cross.

Cost of this vital service is $166,000 — covering skilled medical and technical personnel and the equipment and transportation of the blood donor clinics that tour the whole province. Every cent of this $166,000 must be raised by voluntary contributions during March — Red Cross month. "Only if Nova Scotians continue to give generously," says Eric Balcom, Red Cross Provincial Campaign Chairman, "can the vital services of the Red Cross — including the completely free blood transfusion service — continue to operate."

Mr. Balcom appealed to every wage earner in the province to give generously when canvassers call. Objective for this year's campaign is over $195,000, and campaign committees all over the province are doing everything possible to see that this figure is exceeded.

Remember, the Red Cross needs your contribution, too.

Report From Parliament Hill

By GEORGE C. NOWLAN

February 26, 1955.
It is good to get back and see one's constituents and get their reactions. Members of Parliament worry about whether they should say this or that and try to weigh their words very carefully. We sometimes have the impression that people are waiting with bated breath to see what we say. It's rather refreshing though, disillusioning to get back and find some very intelligent people asking me when parliament was going to open. They apparently were unconscious of the fact that we had been sitting since January 7th.

Several people have asked me about the rules governing parliamentary debate with particular reference to the opportunities that a Member has to address the House. Perhaps this would be a good time to give a word of explanation on that matter. A Member can only speak once on any motion. Of course if that motion is amended, he can also speak on the amendment if he so desires. During the session we spent twenty three days on the motion with respect to the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne. Therefore, once a Member had spoken on that motion, he could not speak again until the debate was concluded. The situation is complicated by the fact that unfortunately in the House of Commons we have four political parties, while our parliamentary procedure was designed to operate with two parties. We will assume that some motion is made by a Government Member probably a Minister. After he has spoken a Progressive Conservative Member will reply. He will then be followed by a C.C.F. Member who in turn will be followed by a Social Credit Member. Then a Government Member will again speak and the same routine will be followed through the various political parties. But the Government has three times as many Members as does the Official Opposition and therefore they often demand the right to have two spokesmen for every Conservative speaker. It is very obvious, therefore that very rarely would there be a chance for more than two Conservative speakers on any one particular day. Of course after a little while the Social Credit Party will have exhausted their speakers because they only have eleven members. The C.C.F. have twenty-three Members and ultimately all of their Members will have spoken. Even so there will still remain twenty-five Conservatives who have not spoken. The foregoing of course applies to the House of Commons itself. As I have written before, the House also sits as a Committee of the Whole. At that time the Speaker is out of the chair and the Mace is off of the table. When the House is sitting in Committee, a Member can speak as frequently as he wants. That stage of the session will probably be reached within the next two weeks. Many people have asked me about George Drew. The question is a natural one. Mr. Drew is sixty years of age and suffered an attack of a disease which up until a few years ago was considered fatal. And his was no light attack. There is no doubt that if it had not been for the very latest discoveries of anti-biotic drugs, the Leader of the Opposition would have died within a few days. But in answer to the question, I can only say that I have never seen him look better. He has had a long rest and appears to be in the very picture of health. I have no doubt but that he plans to take it a little easier in the future. It would be a good thing if he delegates some of his activities to some of his supporters. The Leader of the Opposition has one of the most onerous and difficult tasks in Canadian public life. He has to be responsible for the enunciation of policy in the House of Commons, he has to debate every conceivable type of problem which arises, he has to maintain party organization, and he has to do practically all of these things himself. In other words he has but a very small staff. On the other hand the Leader of the Government, at least in so far as policy is concerned, has available to him the best brains of Canada's public service. There are those who fear that after such a severe illness it would be impossible for Mr. Drew to again carry that heavy load. But I again repeat that if present appearances mean anything, then their forebodings were unjustified. There are many unconfirmed rumors that M. J. Coldwell may resign as Leader of the G.C.F. Party before the next election. I hope that the rumors are unfounded. Undoubtedly, Mr. Coldwell is most unhappy in his present position. It is no secret that the C.C.F. Party is split into at least two distinct groups. There are the senior members of that party who have been in the House of Commons for many years. Most of them had long ago learned to temper their radical ideas. But at the last election a number of new members were elected. Most of these are of the radical type who insist on again holding to the masthead the Regina Manifesto. Practically everywhere in the world Socialism is a waning force. Even the Labor Party in Britain can today hardly be distinguished from the Conservative Party. Only our radical friends from the West are insisting not only on Socialism but on radical Socialism. This group are determined that when Mr. Coldwell does resign a radical Socialist will be selected in his place. The other group are determined to prevent that. It was undoubtedly this radical group which compelled the split in the C.C.F. Party on the division with respect to German Re-armament. As pointed out in a former report, Mr. Coldwell was repudiated by his party and he undoubtedly feels that re-putation very keenly. On top

(Mrs. Aubrey Durling)

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Duke and son, Grant, of Halifax, spent the weekend with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Israel Dukeshire.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Haight were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stevenson and son, David, of Middleton, Miss Ruth Trenholm, of Greenwood, and LAC William Ring, of the R.C.A.F., Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis and son, of Rossway, visited at the same home on Sunday.

The Red Cross group met with Mrs. Corey Long on Tuesday evening, February 22nd.

Sgt. James Johnstone spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnstone before leaving for Esquimalt, British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Haight spent Thursday, February 24, with relatives in Rossway.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Durling and family, of Lawrenceton, visited Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Durling on Sunday.

of that, the C.C.F. group in Quebec demanded apologies from the C.C.F. Members of the House of Commons. The C.C.F. has never elected a member in Quebec and has no hope of doing so. On the other hand it must maintain an organization there if it professes to be a national party. On top of it all Mr. Coldwell's health is probably not of the very best. He has to take very good care of himself. It may well be therefore that having to contend with unnecessary political troubles and surveying a very bleak political future, he may decide to resign and let someone else take over his cheerless task. But this would be unfortunate for the House of Commons and I think for Canada. Mr. Coldwell is one of the ablest parliamentarians that we have and I think that the most of the Members of the other three political parties would feel that the House of Commons was a poorer place if he found it necessary to retire.

V. G. CARDOZA'S SPEECH

In my opinion, Sir, that reflects the right and proper attitude concerning industrial development in this Province by the sea. It seems to me there is altogether too much of the view, sponsored and prompted by those who would use it to embarrass the government, that no industrial development is possible unless it is sponsored or brought here from outside sources by the government. While I agree there is room and need for effort in this connection, this is not the be-all and end-all of industrial development in Nova Scotia. We as a people need to exert ourselves, develop initiative, create and make for ourselves the industrial life about which we talk. Too much emphasis is given, it seems to me, when thinking and speaking of industry, to the multi-million dollar development while the opportunities which are here with us open to development through our own efforts are sometimes overlooked.

And now, Sir, I would like for a few moments to speak of health. The government of Nova Scotia has and is doing a good job in the field of health and welfare and no right thinking person, I am sure, will do anything but commend the government for its past performance. In this field and its announced program for future effort, I would commend the government most heartily for the assistance it has given to the work being done in mental health in my own constituency, and express again the hope this assistance will be continued and, if the need arises, expanded as time goes by. The health of our people is an all important matter as it affects every development in the Province and it should, as it does, occupy a most important place in the program of this government.

Before I conclude my remarks in this debate I would like to refer, if I may, to two other items which affect the people of my constituency.

The first of these is the matter of payment of claims arising out of that big blow, Hurricane Elna. I realize that the Honourable the Premier has made a statement on this matter in this House, but I still feel I must urge that every effort continue to be made upon those whose responsibility it is to finalize these matters to bring about whatever payments are to be made in as speedy a manner as possible. I say this, Sir, with particular reference to the claims of the weir fishermen of Digby Municipality, who suffered so badly in the hurricane. These hardy fishermen must of necessity invest very heavily early in the spring to build or rebuild and equip their weirs for the fishing season. Their type of fishing is even more of a gamble than are other types, and there are, so far as I know, no insurance schemes available to them. To be of any real benefit to the weir fishermen in their efforts to re-establish their industry this year, payments for hurricane damage should be made as soon as possible so that costs of supplies for rebuilding can be met by the fishermen, many of whom are already heavily in debt for last year.

In speaking of these hurricane damage claims I want it understood I do not press the claims of the weir fishermen to the exclusion of others who suffered from the storm. In this connection I think particularly of the fishermen of the islands of Digby Neck who lost wharves, fish houses, and other equipment in the storm.

Also in the matter of fisheries, Mr. Speaker, I would like to renew my plea of last year regarding the matter of the need of speedy, positive action to bring an end to the damage being done to our inshore fisheries particularly in the coastal waters of Digby Municipality by foreign trawlers.

I am fully aware of the fact this is a matter which is not under the direct control of Provincial authorities but I do urge that these authorities continue to use their every endeavour to impress upon those responsible in the Federal government the great need for the revision of present international agreements regarding fishing limits, or the provision of bans on inshore coastal fishing by foreign trawlers, if our all important coastal fisheries are to be properly protected from the depredations of these trawlers.

There are many other items in the Speech from the Throne about which I should like to speak but I do not want at this time to trespass at too great length on the time of this House. I will close my remarks, therefore, by saying that I support wholeheartedly the motion moved and seconded by the Honourable Members from Inverness and Pictou East, and express again my faith in the future of this Province, and in the ability of this Government to meet successfully any and all problems which may from time to time affect our Province and its people. I want, also, to thank you, Mr. Speaker, and everyone here, for the kind and courteous hearing you have given me today.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. William A. Bacon

It was with feelings of deep regret and sorrow that the friends and relatives heard the sad news of the passing of their friend and former neighbour, Mrs. Frances B. Bacon, widow of the late William A. Bacon, which occurred at the home of her daughter, Miss Marion Bacon, 173 Paradise Row, Saint John, N. B., on Friday morning, February 25th, after a long period of failing health.

A resident of Hill Grove, Digby Co., for all her married life, she has been residing with her daughter in Saint John for the past seven years where she received the utmost in care and medical treatment during her last illness.

Mrs. Bacon was born in Deep Brook, Annapolis Co., the daughter of the late George and Annella (Millbury) Adams. She was a devoted member of the Hill Grove United Baptist Church, a charter member of the Woman's Missionary Aid Society and was for years Cradle Roll Supt. of the church school, and when health permitted, took an active part in all church and community activities. Her keen sense of humor and pleasing personality and willingness to lend a hand in any emergency, she was a "pearl of great price" in the community where she spent the most of her life.

Left to mourn a loving mother are one son, E. Russell Bacon of California; four daughters, Miss Marion Bacon, Saint John; Mrs. H. Rafuse (Helen), of Young's Cove, Annapolis Co.; Mrs. Murray Hamm (Florence), of Mahone Bay, and Miss Catherine Bacon, of Moncton, N. B. Also surviving are three brothers, Clarence Adams, Allston, Mass.; Fletcher Adams, Smith's Cove; and Archibald L. Adams, Bear River. A sister, Mrs. John W. Fraser, of West Somerville, Mass., also survives as do a number of nieces and nephews.

After a brief service held at Brennan's Funeral Home on Friday evening conducted by Rev. Harvey L. Denton, D.D., pastor of the Germane Street Baptist Church, the body was taken to Digby Saturday morning on the C.P.S. Princess Helene and taken to her home at Hill Grove.

Funeral services were held from her home and the Hill Grove Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. C. Churchill, pastor, officiating, assisted by the choir composed of the members of the W. M. A. S. Mr. Churchill spoke feelingly of Mrs. Bacon's life in church and community and of her radiant personality. The hymns sung were "Face to Face," "Wonderful Peace" and "When My Life's Work is Ended."

Palbearers were W. J. Franklin, J. W. Murley, Perry Porter, D'Arcy Roope, William Roope and Orbin Minard. Many floral tributes were received including those from the Hill Grove Church, the Missionary Society, Irving Oil Company and staff, Mutual Life staff and agents, Moncton, Mutual Life staff, St. John.

Interment was in the family lot in the Hill Grove cemetery. A very large congregation assembled to pay a last token of respect to one who was held in such high regard.

Norman H. McGrath

The death of Norman Harvey McGrath, esteemed resident of Port Wade, Annapolis County, occurred at his home suddenly on Friday evening, February 25th, while sitting in his chair talking to friends.

Mr. McGrath was born at Victoria Beach, Annapolis County, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McGrath. Had he lived until April 4th he would have reached his 87th birthday.

Following his marriage he resided for a number of years in Port Wade where his family of six sons and two daughters were born. For several years Mr. McGrath was employed in Montreal. Upon his retirement he returned to Port Wade and had resided there since.

His wife, the former Mary, Aptt. predeceased him a number of years ago.

Surviving are four sons, Roy McGrath, Rosedale, Mass.; Owen McGrath, Montreal; Lloyd McGrath, Bridgewater, N. S.; and Edward McGrath, Lynn, Mass.; two daughters, Vera (Mrs. Carl Solberg), Boise, Idaho, and Mattie (Mrs. Aubrey Rourke), Newton Falls, Mass. The four sons were all home to attend the funeral services. Two sons, Roland and Boyd, predeceased him. Also surviving are a number of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Digby Courier, Digby, N. S.

We all admire a thick, well-groomed head of hair. It is usually the first thing we notice when meeting a stranger and we can often judge age by a glance at the scalp. Someone has said that you can't have good hair and teeth too, but this may not be true. Many who are bald and have a good set of teeth might swap for the hair rather than settle for a wig.

We rarely see a bald woman, but there are plenty of bald men, and I mean bald. They even shine with baldness. Now why is it that more men than women are bald? We get plenty of free advice about hair care but men are still getting bald in spite of it. We do know that little girls hair gets plenty of care such as combing, braiding, and fussing with which amounts to plenty of pulling. Since each hair has a root and muscle then we see that the girls hair gets plenty of exercise from babyhood to old age.

Now the boy he is so different you know and he will go for days without even touching a comb to his head. When he gets in his teens he will perk up a bit and may even be concerned where it parts best, but as for real hair pulling like his sister has to put up with, he doesn't know what it's all about, unless he gets in a fight or the teacher takes him by the subject in question.

It would almost seem that our hair needs some exercise as do other parts of our bodies. Some daily massage and light hair pulling will do much to keep that hair where it belongs, right on top.

Next week — figure about the hair.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haight, of Hill Grove, spent Tuesday of last week with their daughter, Mrs. Guy Porter, Roxville.

Local Ladies Lose To Yarmouth

Ladies of the local curling club lost to Yarmouth ladies by a total of 6 points in the Home and Home games played for the Yarmouth Cup. The club, which had been held by Digby for the years 1953 and 1954 was relinquished to the Yarmouth ladies after the final result of the two games held in February had been scored.

The first game was played at Digby, where Yarmouth led by 5 points and in the second game Yarmouth scored the final point by 1 point.

Lineup of the ladies teams were: 1st — Edith Cookman, skip, Joyce Neillie, Wynne Webster, Fern Webster, and T. Dinkin, skip. 2nd — T. Dinkin, skip, H. McLean, F. Lewis, L. Jones and T. Campbell, skip, P. Dunn, H. Barnes, M. McNeill.

The 1st team lost on the Digby house by 5 points, but tied in Yarmouth. Two points were lost in Digby by the 2nd team and one point on the Yarmouth ice. The third team lost two in Digby and the same number in Yarmouth.

Digby ladies entertained the Yarmouth teams at a banquet held at Hotel Champlain following the play here, and the same courtesy was shown the Digby team on their visit to Yarmouth when the Cedar Room of Wagner's Restaurant was the scene of entertainment.

Talks On Red Cross Work

Dr. T. W. Baldwin, travel the history and related some of the accomplishments of the Canadian Red Cross since its inauguration in a talk to Digby Kiwanis at their regular meeting on Thursday. Although both on a business trip at the time, Dr. Baldwin said the primary function of Red Cross is in times of peace to work for the improvement of health, prevention of disease and the maintenance of suffering through out the world.

He spoke of his travels back in August 1914. The beginning of Red Cross work in the province, and October 20 of the same year when a shelter was opened and work proceeded under regularly authorized Red Cross auspices. He told how visiting veterans hospitals, one of the foremost branches of Red Cross work, got its beginning in the winter of 1915-16.

Public Health services carried on by the Red Cross were reviewed by Dr. Baldwin and the part the Red Cross played in Nova Scotia disaster relief in the years since World War I was noted.

He spoke of the profound value of the blood donor service carried on by the Red Cross and lauded the women's work contributions for the tremendous amount of clothing and supplies provided through that department.

Among other accomplishments of the Red Cross noted by the speaker were the establishment of out-patient hospitals, clinics, handicraft shops.

Tonight Kiwanis will hear F. C. Poiry, Supervisor of Digby Schools, in an address relative to Education Week.

W.M.S. Holds Open Meeting

On Thursday evening, March 3, the Women's Missionary Society of the United Baptist Church held an open meeting in the church vestry.

The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Lawrence Henshaw, who extended a welcome to all those present, including members from the Advent Christian Church.

The opening hymns, "Living for Jesus" and "Sweet Hour of Prayer" were followed by Scripture reading by Mrs. Rose McCormick from Matthew 16 and Romans 10. A season of prayer was held and a vocal trio, "The Blessed Hour of Prayer" was rendered by Mrs. Ira Harris and daughters. During the offering all joined in singing, "Heavenly Sunshine."

The president then read a short message on Bolivia and an interesting film "Down Upon the Hills" was shown. The meeting closed with the hymn "Rescue the Perishing" and prayer by the president.

Celebrates 90th Birthday

Mrs. Lizzie Handspiker, of Mount Pleasant, celebrated her 90th birthday on Sunday, March 6th, at her home. Although not in the best of health Mrs. Handspiker enjoys talking with her many friends and relatives on current events and olden times.

She was presented with cakes by her two daughters, Mrs. Ernest VanTassel and Mrs. Ainslie Handspiker, and other birthday boxes from her granddaughter, Mrs. Cecil VanTassel, and from Mrs. Eric VanTassel.

Among those who called to wish her happy birthday were three generations, Mrs. Ainslie Handspiker, her daughter, Mrs. Cecil VanTassel, a granddaughter, and Gail VanTassel, a great granddaughter, who spent an enjoyable supper hour with her great grandmother. She was the recipient of many birthday cards and other forms of greetings and wishes for many more happy birthdays.

Has Perfect Cribbage Hand

Another perfect cribbage hand has turned up. Last Wednesday night W. L. Holdsworth held the perfect hand of 29. While playing with his neighbor, George Milbury, Mr. Holdsworth had three 5's and a Jack of Diamonds. When Mr. Milbury cut the cards it turned up a five of diamonds for Mr. Holdsworth, giving him the 29 points.

One other time during his many years of playing, about five or six years ago, while playing cribbage in Weymouth, Mr. Holdsworth had a perfect hand. One winter he had 28 points on three different occasions.

Century Old Mill Burned

A saw mill, situated about a mile back of Belliveau's Cove, was burned Friday evening last.

The mill was the property of Laurent Comeau, of Bangor, Clare, who had recently become the owner. It was known as the Major Mill and owned as a community mill by the Doucetts, of Doucett's Point, for the past hundred years.

Mr. Comeau plans to start a new mill in the near future.

It is understood there was no insurance on the structure.

Dr. Robert Jones To Address Meeting

Possibilities of organizing a branch of the Mental Health Association in Digby County will be discussed at a meeting on Friday evening when Dr. Robert Jones, Dalhousie University Professor in Psychiatry and President of the Nova Scotia Society for Mental Hygiene, will be guest speaker. The meeting is scheduled for 8:30 o'clock at the Digby Regional High School.

Decision to call a public meeting arose from a previous meeting of leading citizens of Digby and area when the subject of the organization of a branch of the Mental Hygiene Association was discussed.

Dr. Jones' address, it is understood, will deal with the set up and result of other Mental associations in Canada and will give advice on any local organizing of a Mental Health Association in Digby.

Dr. Jones, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Jones, is well known in Digby, where he was born. His father was at one time station agent here and later was manager of the Pines Hotel and CPR hotels in general.

HOME AND SCHOOL CONTINUES TO MEET

A motion to dissolve the Digby Area Home and School was defeated at a meeting of the organization held at the Digby Regional High School on Wednesday evening when the parents and interested citizens of the school area were entertained by the members of the teaching staffs. Supervisor, F. C. Purdy, in introducing the subject said that he felt it essential that there should be some avenue through which parents and teachers could get together to discuss problems of mutual interest. He suggested several ways in which such an organization might be carried out to the benefit of all concerned.

Wallace Hodgson of the teaching staff advocated two or three social functions during the year whereby the area people might get acquainted and converse on school problems. Dr. W. H. D. Vernon of the Digby Psychiatric Clinic expressed the view that occasional social evenings were useful but that they in themselves were not the answer to the problems of the area. He further stated that he felt a general topic for all the area people could not fill the needs of particular parents with children of different age levels and in different grades. He suggested that out of the larger social group might be created smaller units through which teachers and parents of children of par-

Digby Hockey Club Holds Banquet

The final activity of the Digby Hockey Club was held last Wednesday night at the Hotel Champlain when team members, executive and officers, with their wives and friends, gathered for the closing banquet.

In a few well chosen words Mr. Jack Brittain, Secretary-Treasurer of the club, complimented the team on its splendid showing during the season and also on the wonderful team spirit and sportsmanship which existed in the club. At the close of his remarks the presentation of the Tuff's Trophy was made by Mr. Brittain to Carl O'Brien, defenceman for the Ravens, the trophy going to the outstanding player on the team. Mr. O'Brien, in accepting the trophy, remarked on how he had enjoyed the past season and hoped the club would do as well, if not better, next season.

Mr. Howard Patterson, President of the club, in a few remarks, said he was very pleased with the showing of the club this season and thanked all who had helped in any way to make the season such a success. He praised the team highly for the clean manner in which they played the game and said he had received many good reports in this respect from members and officials of other clubs in the league.

Several others present gave a few brief remarks regarding the success of the past season.

The Ravens were successful in gaining a berth in the finals against the Cornwallis Cougars who downed them three games to one in the best of five series, but not without forcing two of the games into overtime, one of which went into a second overtime period.

To Assist In Beautification Program

J. J. Brittain, chairman of the Park Committee set up by the Digby Board of Trade, attended the regular meeting of the Admiralty Digby Horticultural Society, held at the Town Hall on Friday evening in the interest of the Park Committee from the Digby Board of Trade. The Digby Board of Trade was recently notified by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. that the lease to the property known as the Cannon Banks was available to the organization for beautification purposes. Mr. Brittain, chairman of the committee to beautify the grounds and make a park for the accommodation of tourists, solicited the assistance of the Horticultural Society in the project.

It was the opinion of the meeting that too extensive a program should not be attempted the first year but that the grounds should be levelled off and grassed and benches provided. The Horticultural Society took as their project the beautification of the section around the Admiralty Digby Well. Correspondence both from the CPR and the Bellrock Packing Co., was read, giving permission for their undertaking.

The Admiralty Digby Horticultural Society, by regular motion, became a member of the "Rural Beautification Group of Nova Scotia" on Friday night.

Plans to invite the Digby Garden Club and the public to the next meeting of the Horticultural Society were made. This meeting, arranged for April 1st, will have Dr. Arthur Kelsall, Annapolis Royal, as guest speaker.

Hon. Mr. Dauphinee Gives Statement On Boat Service

Residents of Digby will learn with pleasure that there is a possibility that the Yarmouth-Boston steamship service will be continued this summer, according to a statement made before the legislature on Monday by the Hon. Wilfred Dauphinee, Minister of Trade and Industry.

Mr. Dauphinee said that negotiations to maintain the Yarmouth-Boston service were continuing with two steamship companies, one of them the owners of the S.S. Evangeline, but no commitment can be made by either company before April. This commitment is being withheld by the companies until they have assessed the possibilities of summer service in Southern waters, he said.

At the same time the minister announced a speed-up in the delivery of engine parts from England gave greater assurance that the new Yarmouth-Bar Harbor ferry "Bluenose" would go into service between July 15 and August 1. There was no hope of the new ferry service being inaugurated before the middle of July, he said.

Digby Red Cross Hears Reports From Delegates

The March business-meeting of the Digby Red Cross Branch was well attended last week when reports of the annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Division were presented by the delegates, Mrs. Sidney Smith and Mrs. George Wingfield, to the president, Dr. T. W. Hodgson, on the highlights of the Halifax sessions. These meetings had the largest attendance yet and showed the increasing interest in the peacetime programme of Red Cross in the province. Two outstanding reports brought back by the delegates were that of the commissioner, Mr. C. L. Illsley, outlining the history of Red Cross in Nova Scotia over the past forty years, and that of Miss Margaret Wilson, National Executive Secretary, who represented the National Executive at the Nova Scotia meetings and who reported on the international aspects of Red Cross work with particular reference to her trip to Korea last year as Canadian Red Cross representative.

A report from the Womens' Work Committee of the Digby Branch, presented by Mrs. H. M. Warne, listed over 200 completed articles of knitting, sewing and quilts ready for shipment to headquarters. Thanks were extended to the workers responsible for the making, particularly to the members of the Neighbors' Club of Conway, Zelma Rebekah Lodge and Trinity Guild for quilts made up and to the members of the Smith's Cove Womens' Institute for sewing and knitting. Special mention was also made of two members, Mrs. Jesse Jefferson and Mrs. Oscar VanTassel, who might almost be called "one-woman auxiliaries" in view of the amount of work they have each done single-handed during the past year.

Speaks On Bilingual Experiments

J. A. Deveau, teacher of French at the Digby Regional High School gave a talk to Digby Kiwanians at their regular meeting on Thursday on the results of two experiments in bilingualism. Mr. Deveau's talk was given in conjunction with Education Week activities.

Mr. Deveau told of the teaching of English to the French speaking children of Nova Scotia and took the teaching in Clare Municipality as an example. This was in the nature of an experiment, he said, because it proceeded by trial and error until it has reached a stage where the system in use now has every indication that it is working.

When the experiment started about 80 years ago only English was taught to the French-speaking children of Clare, and mostly by English teachers who knew no French, Mr. Deveau said. Due to the difficulty of communication between teacher and pupil the net result was that very little English was learned, pupil interest in school work was very poor, the average school-leaving grade was Grade III.

The next step was the introduction of a French primer, he said, and having the pupils learn in school by learning both the French and English alphabets. As a result a good deal of confusion occurred in the minds of the French-speaking pupils and both languages were improperly learned.

After the turn of the century a more comprehensive course of study was devised for the schools of Clare and other French-speaking sections of Nova Scotia, according to Mr. Deveau. At this time the French speaking pupils learned only French during their first year in school. The French Readers were continued to Grade VI and the course of study for the province was followed in all other subjects. Soon thereafter the pupils showed a marked improvement in their level of attainment in both the English and French languages. In other words it was noticed that the better they knew their mother tongue, the better the French-speaking children could master the English language.

Since 1950 a new course of study has been introduced for the Acadian schools in which there are prescribed French texts in reading and grammar up to and including Grade X. Mr. Deveau stated. All subjects except arithmetic are taught in French up to and including Grade VI. From Grade VII up the course of study of the Pro-

DIGBY CROWS TAKE DISTRICT LEAGUE

The Digby Crows captured the Digby and District League Cup Monday night by downing the Centreville Pirates in two games straight of the best two of three games finals at the Digby Forum, when Ernest B. Tufts, President of the Digby Branch Canadian Legion, presented the Legion Trophy to Harry MacPherson, captain of the Digby Crows.

The first game, played last Friday night, saw the Digby squad down Centreville by a score of 9-4.

Digby opened the scoring at 1:42 when Ettinger tallied on an assist from Sanford. The Crows widened their lead at 4:05 when G. Harris scored on an assist from W. VanTassel. Connor, from Halliday, at 14:48 was the lone tally for Centreville in the first period.

In the second period Ettinger scored for Digby on assist from Webber at 1:50, and Digby repeated again at 7:02 when Turnbull scored at the 7:02 mark on an assist from Harris. The Pirates came back strong scoring twice, first at 9:03 by L. Dugas unassisted, and again at 11:26, when M. Titus netted one from C. Morton, closing out the second period with the score 4-3 for the Digby cause.

In the third period the Crows completely overpowered the Pirates, scoring five goals to one over the Centreville squad. Ettinger scored unassisted at 1:48 for Digby, followed by Connor from Dugas at 2:58 for Centreville. The final four goals, all Digby, were scored as follows: Ettinger from Webber, at 8:53; Daley from Sanford, at 14:39; Sanford from Ettinger, at 18:58, and Webber from Ettinger, at 19:29.

Three penalties were handed out by referee, "Buddy" Barr.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong Speaks On Education

Education Week was observed in Oakdene School on Friday afternoon when Rev. Mr. Armstrong, local Anglican minister, spoke to the school assembly. He spoke of the importance of education to everyone in the world today and the important role played by the teachers in any school by teaching, keeping everything running properly, happy atmosphere by pupils and teachers, and the general care and supervision of the school.

The regular routine for the observation of Education Week was postponed this year because of the school having been closed the previous week, but a regular visitors' day will be held at a later date.

Mr. Rushton, who has been working in India for the past six and a half years, under the Canadian Baptist Mission Board, is now on furlough, and residing in Wolfville with his wife and small son, in the Mission House.

In the morning Mr. Rushton spoke on "True Belief in Jesus". He also showed films at the Sunday School on "Religions in India" and "The Birth of Jesus", as presented by Indian children.

Mrs. Romans, always alert on the job in corresponding from Bear River for the Courier, still is active on the committee we understand. Our appreciation for her services is extended, and the Courier wishes her a quick and full recovery from her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bell left on Friday for Truro where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Percy Ferguson, and Mr. Ferguson, and they will also visit friends in Moncton, before returning home.

See Red Cross Films

The February Home & School meeting of Bear River was held in the school auditorium on March 7th, 1955, after having been postponed one week due to the school being closed with the flu epidemic.

After the regular business meeting the meeting was turned over to some members of the local Red Cross, who gave a summary of the life of the Red Cross and something of the work being done by this organization in peace time as well as in war time.

The second part of the program was the showing of the films "Let's All Sing Together" and "Great Also In Peace", which told the story in pictures of the work done by the Red Cross.

The annual meeting of the Bear River Street Light District was held on Tuesday evening, March 1st, 1955, at the Legion Hall.

Mr. Fred R. Harris was elected chairman of the meeting and Mr. Denzel York, secretary of the minutes.

The financial report showed that the deficit which stood at $1148.51 on January 1, 1954, had been reduced to $268.51.

This together with the payment of $520.00 for 1954 light costs, was considered an achievement and attributed to the excellent response of the taxpayers and hard work by the commissioners.

In consequence, it was resolved to replace two lights on the system to become effective as from April 1st, 1955, and to reduce the rate from 60c to 48c for 1955.

It was also resolved to authorize the commissioners to solicit legal advice in the collection of all obsolete tax arrears.

Norris Collins
Norris Collins, age 68 years, died suddenly at the Digby General Hospital on Monday, Mar. 14, after suffering a severe heart attack.

Mr. Collins was born in Nictaux, N. S., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Collins. While in Digby he worked as a longshoreman on the C.P.R. wharf where his sudden passing was learned of with deep regret.

Mr. Collins was also a member of the Digby Fire Department for a number of years.

Those of his family left to mourn his passing are two brothers, Avar and James, both of Digby, and a sister, Bertha (Mrs. Charles Small), Digby.

Premier Endorses Red Cross Campaign

It is my privilege as Premier of this Province, and Honorary President of the Nova Scotia Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society, to earnestly commend to the people of Nova Scotia the 1955 campaign for funds of this Society.

The peacetime role of the Canadian Red Cross is no less important than that which it plays during war time. Wherever emergencies are liable to arise, there the familiar Red Cross is to be seen, and volunteers are being trained in ways to meet these emergencies through such services as swimming and water safety programmes, home nursing classes and many others in a great variety of fields. The maintenance of a Free Blood Transfusion Service has also proven to be of vital importance.

These are only a few of the many invaluable services the Red Cross Society is constantly providing for the welfare of our people. Let us all resolve at this time to make the financial appeal of our Nova Scotia Division a successful one by giving it our wholehearted and generous support, and where possible, our active participation as volunteers in one of its many branches of service.

Henry D. Hicks,
Premier of Nova Scotia.

Robert VanTassel has returned to Mount Allison, Sackville, after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric VanTassel.

Poor Lobster Season

Hampered by almost continually foul weather lobstermen in District 4 (Cole Harbor, Halifax County to Burnt Point, Digby County) have suffered an estimated 10 per cent reduction in catches this year but have been consoled, generally, by a proportionate boost in price.

The result of the relatively poor harvest has been a seasonal and only temporary shortage of the delectable fish in many Nova Scotia retail outlets.

The season opened in District 4 Dec. 1 and closes May 31, but the first six weeks are always the crucial ones with a few good catches usually trapped toward the end of February.

This year, however, in December, because of high seas and full tides, the catches weren't up to the par of the year before.

Normally the fishermen lay up their boats and haul until their traps January 1 and wait until the end of February before going out again. This season, however, many fishermen, particularly in the district about Yarmouth, kept trying through January and February, but were rewarded with low catches.

The poor haul may well be balanced by an increase of roughly 10 cents a pound in most sections, fisheries department officials claim. In 1954 peak prices for lobster in the Yarmouth district averaged 55 cents. Now they're up to 65. In other districts, towards Digby, prices are said to range as high as 75 cents per pound. And at Halifax, they levelled off at 60 cents a pound but reached the peak shortly after the season opened. Usually there is a lull of several weeks before top price is demanded.

Will the fishermen record an overall loss? Fisheries men don't think so. They feel that the boost in price will probably bring in returns comparable to 1954.

Fishermen are not as optimistic. Indicative of the situation in Yarmouth were the reports tendered by one buyer. During the past two weeks ships have been returning practically empty.

1954 Saw Big Increase In Red Cross Disaster Work

HALIFAX (Special). Red Cross aid last year went to scores of families who lost homes and belongings in more than 100 major fires throughout Nova Scotia, according to a report made by Red Cross disaster chairman J. D. Kline, at the Society's recent annual meeting here. Thanks to the generosity of Red Cross supporters these disaster victims received clothing, blankets, food and whatever other aid was most urgently required. Mr. Kline said that there was a substantial increase of more than 70 per cent over the previous year in the number of disaster victims aided by the Red Cross. "It is this sort of assistance to disaster victims, given wherever and whenever it is needed that has earned for the Red Cross its reputation as the world's greatest humanitarian organization," said Mr. Kline in the course of his address.

With well organized disaster committees all over Nova Scotia, Red Cross stands ready to give aid speedily and effectively whenever disaster strikes. The Red Cross also works closely with Civil Defence authorities throughout the province, coordinating activities and preparing for every eventuality. But this work, and the many other Red Cross activities, cost money—even though operated by volunteer workers—and this month the Red Cross is asking Nova Scotians to contribute $193,000. The Society estimates it will spend almost double this amount in Nova Scotia during 1955. Can you refuse to give?

Mrs. Comeau read a newspaper clipping concerning the harm child psychology was doing to both children and parents quoting "children must learn discipline. Discipline is a part of love. If the psychologists interfere with it they are doing more harm than good."

According to Nova Scotia Government figures 20 per cent of the population of the province directly depend on the coal industry. Without a prosperous coal mining industry all Maritime welfare would be seriously jeopardized.

IT IS THE GREATEST SINGLE EMPLOYER OF LABOUR
The coal industry employs more than 15,000 wage earners. The industry annually distributes some $50,000,000 in wages. Without this $50,000,000 in circulation all business would be adversely affected.

IT IS MARITIME INDUSTRY'S BEST CUSTOMER

In addition to amounts spent in wages, taxes and royalties, the coal industry annually spends $15,000,000 in purchases of stores and supplies. This expenditure of $65,000,000 annually makes it possible for other manufacturing and retail businesses to maintain a high level of employment.

IT IS A GOOD FRIEND TO THE TRANSPORTATION WORKERS
Nova Scotia coal is responsible for the expenditure of $8,000,000 annually with transportation companies. Without this business the companies and their employees would be adversely affected.

AND IT'S YOUR BEST FRIEND TOO!

Nova Scotia coal is the most economical, efficient fuel you can use. Dollar for dollar you get MORE heat from coal than from any other fuel.

Illustrated—CENTURY 2-door, 6-passenger RIVIERA

THIS PEDAL does more than just feed gas to an Teager and high-powered V8 engine.

When you give it the extra nudge that moves it beyond the full throttle position, something happens that never happened before in an automobile.

You hear a businesslike purr, which tells you that twenty power vanes, deep inside the 1955 Dynaflow Drive,* have changed their pitch—just like the variable pitch propellers on a modern airliner.

And with the same result in the way you get-up-and-go, with a safety-surge of power for pulling out of a tight spot on the highway.

Words can't describe it. It's a new sensation—something you simply must try for yourself.

There's nothing like it on the 1955 new-car horizon.

Fact is, there's a lot to see at your Buick dealer's.

There's fresh new styling. There's higher horsepower in every Buick V8 engine. There's a new Airpower carburetor. And there's good old-fashioned integrity in every nut, bolt and rivet. But, this year, don't simply make a visit to the showroom where these trim and thrilling new beauties are on display. The smart thing to do—if you want to know what's what in new automobiles—is to get behind the wheel of a 1955 Buick and drive it. How about doing that soon?

Lobster Situation Discussed By Clare Board

The bad state of repair of wharves in Saultville, Meteghan River and Church Point is seriously affecting fishing operations in these centres. It was stated at a meeting of the Clare Board of Trade.

These three areas are hampered by gravel bars which make use of the wharves impossible and many lobstermen have been forced to either haul up their boats or move to Meteghan. All other fishermen are similarly bothered.

It was stated that $2,000,000 had been spent on wharves at Port Maitland, Short Beach and Sandford during the last six years. This district is within a five mile radius. Clare District, covering a section of over 30 miles, has had $538,000 spent on wharves in the same time.

The question of draggers causing possible damage to lobster-feeding grounds in St. Mary's Bay was also aired and the board decided to back the fishermen's resolution calling for an investigation by the Department of Fisheries into the charges.

Local Fisheries Inspector Adlard Comeau reported on the lobster catch. He said that in 1950-51, with six draggers operating, 636,000 pounds of lobsters were caught; the next year there were nine draggers and the catch was 585,000 pounds; in 1952-53 with 23 draggers catches were 670,500 pounds; in 1953-54, 15 draggers, 606,500 pounds.

Fishermen say they have to use more traps to catch lobsters than formerly. They contend a lobster famine may occur in a few years since it is their belief that draggers destroy the lobsters before they are hatched.

Little River W.M.S. Meets

The March meeting of the W.M.S. met at the home of Mrs. Laleah Frost and Mrs. Annie Ingersoll, with the vice-president, Mrs. Bernard Denton, in the chair.

The devotional period was on the scripture lesson from Matthew and a chapter of "Dawn Over The Bolivian Hills" was read by Mrs. Eldred Frost. The program of Acacia was given by Mrs. Olmstead and Mrs. Lyndon Collins. Following this Mrs. Wilfred Trask rendered a solo, "Sunrise", reading, "Like A Mighty Army", by Mrs. Lindsay Raymond, poem, "Teach Me To Pray", by Mrs. Royce Elderkin, duet, "Wonderful Words", by Mrs. Edgar Trask and Mrs. Ainsley Todd, reading, "A Missionary Woman's Commandments", by Mrs. Clyde Denton.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Bernard Denton, with the vice-president, Mrs. Denton, in the chair. Scripture reading, Ecclesiastes 3:1-9, was read in unison. Prayers were by Mrs. Olmstead, Mrs. Reginald Trask, Mrs. Lyndon Collins, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Devotional was given by Mrs. Lindsay Raymond on the theme "Time". Mrs. Stanley Denton gave a chapter of "Dawn Over The Bolivian Hills". This was followed by an interesting talk on Grande Leigne by Mrs. Olmstead, and a duet, "He'll Understand And Say Well Done", by Mrs. Clyde Denton and Mrs. Bernard Denton.

Frugality is good if liberality be joined with it. First is leaving off superfluous expenses; the last bestowing them to the benefit of others that need.

William Penn.

Spring's coming, and here are some tips for the handy-man house painter—

To spot roughness before painting, run a hand enclosed by silk stocking over the surface. Any roughness will snag the hose.

For quick clean-up after painting, apply some linseed oil to your hands and rub in. Then scrape your nails over a bar of soap.

Lumps should be strained out of the paint. You can use window screen or cheesecloth, but the best thing is an old nylon stocking.

To avoid rim clogging, pierce the rim with a nail hole. The paint will then fall back into the can. Seal the lid on with wax when storing.

Storm Causes Minor Damage

Until time of going to press the most serious consequences as far as could be learned in Digby County resulting from the heavy wind storm which swept the province on Tuesday night were the loss of roofs and chimney tops.

The chimney on Grace United Church in town toppled over with the force of the gale, pounding a hole measuring approximately two feet square in the roof of the wooden structure. Falling bricks marred other portion of the building but without any serious mishaps.

The roof on a comparatively new barn, owned by William Berry, Smith's Cove, was torn off and a section of about ten feet covering on Digby Garage, Digby, was lifted.

At the home of Douglas Grimmer, Digby, a limb blew from a tree and shattered a window. A window was also blown in at the home of Harry Turnbull, Lighthouse Road, and a window at Margolians was also broken as a result of the storm.

Telephone calls poured into the Digby County Power Board office telling of disruptions in the power lines in town and from practically one end of the county to the other, but fortunately the direction of the wind and low tides saved the county from any serious damage around the shoreline. The Princess Helene made her regular trip from Saint John to Digby and docked on almost schedule time.

Weymouth Man Will Be 90

Mr. W. W. DeLong, who for the past few years has made his home with his son, Charles DeLong, and family, Weymouth, will celebrate his 90th birthday on Friday, March 25. Mr. DeLong was formerly of Hill Grove.

Until last year Mr. DeLong was known for his abundant gardening, which seemed to contain a profusion of all vegetables and fruits in a very small space. Not being in as good health this past year he was not able to do as much gardening as usual. During the past winter he suffered a heavy cold from which he has now recovered and is enjoying good health. He will spend his birthday quietly at home with members of his family here and Hill Grove.

His friends in Weymouth extend congratulations and wish him many more happy birthdays to come.

"C" Company Notes

Parade Thursday was carried on as usual. There was a good turnout and the company is making preparations for the General Officer Commanding's Inspection, to be held in Aldershot Camp, Kentville, on the 21st of April. This inspection is open to the public and is a very interesting parade. It is held at 8:00 p.m. and it is hoped that there will be a good turnout of people interested in the Militia of this district.

Tuesday night again saw a good number on the Parade Square. The men of the Company are working hard to get their drill up and are determined to make a good showing at the Inspection in Aldershot. On Sunday next the Company will have a full day of training and the transport will leave Digby in time to have the men in Cornwallis by 8:30 a.m.

Captain Wilson invites anyone that is interested in his Company of the Militia to visit him at the Armouries at Cornwallis any Tuesday or Thursday to see the quarter and watch the training of the men of his Company.

TO FORM MENTAL HEALTH BRANCH

A good representation from the town and county was present at the Digby Regional High School on Friday night when it was decided to form a branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association for Digby County. The motion to form the Association was made by a representative from Digby town and the seconded was from Weymouth, giving a wide area of interest from which the decision was drawn.

Plans were made to call a meeting at the Digby Regional High School on Friday evening, April 1st, when the nominating committee will bring in a slate of officers to be voted on. Those named on the nominating committee were Prof. W. H. D. Vernon, J. M. Saulnier, James Aver, Mrs. J. M. Wallis and Mrs. D. G. Black with power to add.

The nominating committee was also to act as an organizing committee to consider the problems and difficulties in forming such an organization and to seek a solution to these problems for presentation at the meeting. It was decided the executive should represent the whole county as much as possible with a suggestion that two of the executive should be from the town and three from the county.

The meeting was chaired by Rev. H. Y. MacLean and Rev. E. C. Churchill outlined the purpose of the public meeting which was called.

Before the meeting was thrown open for motion Dr. Robert Jones, Dalhousie University Professor in Psychiatry, Halifax, reviewed the state of mental health in Nova Scotia at the present time and presented the needs for forming a branch of the Mental Health Association. Dr. Jones considered mental health facilities in Nova Scotia inadequate and particularly in the County of Digby. No new beds had been added in Nova Scotia hospitals and institutions since 1948, he said, although mental disorders were on the uprise. It is expected that 22 new beds will be available for this purpose at the Victoria General Hospital.

Goodwill Gavel

Sent out by the Searcy Kiwanis Club in Arkansas, U. S. A., a goodwill gavel has now arrived in Digby.

The gavel was made in Arkansas from wild cherry by Kiwanian Roy R. Roberts and was sent from there with the aim of sponsoring goodwill and fellowship between clubs as it zig-zags its way across the continent. In keeping with the original plans the gavel has been carried by a Kiwanian from club to club and it is intended that this should be done until its journey is complete and the gavel returns again to Arkansas.

Accompanying the gavel is a log which records the proceedings of the meetings at which the gavel was presented.

One gavel was sent out to the Hawaiian club and another to St. John's, Newfoundland, in 1953. The one which went to St. John's has arrived at the Digby club after being presented at clubs in Bell Island and Carbonear, Nfld., also Oxford, Stellarton, Truro, Dartmouth, Halifax, Sydney, Armdale, Liverpool, Lockport, Shelburne and Yarmouth, in Nova Scotia. From Digby the gavel will go to Mahone Bay.

Among the accounts of meetings held were speeches at St. John's, Nfld., on India and Palestine, when the gavel was presented during Brotherhood

Former South Range Woman Burned To Death

Mrs. Alice Esther Potter perished in a fire of unknown origin which completely destroyed her home at Auburn, West Kings, early Sunday morning. There were no other occupants in the two-storey wooden house.

Mrs. Potter, who was on the staff of the Greenwood village school, apparently came within a few feet of escaping from the flaming building. Her body, clad in night attire and on fire, was recovered by Aylesford firemen just seconds before the upper part of the residence, in which she lived alone, collapsed.

Only seconds later a heavy timber and other flaming debris crashed down on the floor, narrowly missing the firemen who were carrying her body out.

The alarm was rung in to Aylesford Fire Department at 5:19 a.m. by a neighbor, Mrs. Arthur Ritchie, who from her home 300 yards away saw flames breaking through the roof. When Chief Edward Herbert and his firemen arrived they found the main section of the home in flames, but the kitchen annex was still partly clear.

Fireman Harris Illsley saw the body on the floor through the smoke. Aided by Coroner H. C. Lindsay, Kentville, and other firemen, they removed the body.

Mrs. Potter was last seen Saturday evening by her sister, Mrs. Lewis Morse, and her husband, of Millville. At that time Mrs. Potter was happy over the body brought to her by her sister that her application to teach at the Millville school next term had been accepted by the school board. At Millville, she planned to live with her sister. A light was seen in Mrs. Potter's bedroom at 11:30 p.m. by a neighbor.

Firemen ran a hose to the Annapolis River, 300 yards distant, but there was practically nothing they could do because of the flames having had such headway.

Coroner Lindsay and Constable Hamilton, Kentville R. C. M. P., decided no inquest would be necessary.

This was the second tragedy within three years to occur in the Potter home. In the fall of 1952, Clyde Potter, husband of the victim, a prominent farmer, motored to the woods in the district, presumably on a deer-hunting trip. His car was found in the woods, but despite intense search, no trace has ever been found of him.

Mrs. Potter was born at South Range, Digby County, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Herman Marshall. Her mother was the former Alice Ruggles, of North Grand Pre. Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Arch Gould, Harbourville, and Edna, Mrs. Lewis Morse, Millville.

Funeral service for the victim will be held tomorrow afternoon from the Aylesford Baptist Church at 3 o'clock, with Rev. Gordon McClure conducting the service. Members of Evangeline Rebekah Lodge and Greenwood primary department school will be in attendance.

It is believed the fire might have started in the bedroom where Mrs. Potter was sleeping, caused by an electric heater which she used to warm the room.

The Trinity Guild will be held in the Parish Hall Tuesday, April 29. Mrs. Robert Hersey, Mrs. Gerald Sanford and Mrs. Digby Baxter will be co-hostesses.

Sixteen students from the Digby Regional High School motored to Halifax on Friday for the primary purpose of attending a session of the legislature. The trip was planned in connection with the Social Problems Course in Grade XII and the students were under the guidance of Mrs. Eva Wendell, teacher in that department. Accompanying them were also Miss Mary Davidson, of the Digby teaching staff, and Douglas McClafferty, both who supplied transportation.

The party assembled near the Provincial House at 11:30 a.m. on Friday, where they were met by V. G. Cardoza, M.L.A. for Digby County, after which they proceeded immediately to tour the Chronicle-Herald newspaper office.

Returning to the Provincial House at 2 p.m. they were taken on a guided tour through the building. From three to five they sat in the gallery of the house and listened in to a session of the proceedings and were also honored by gracious courtesies from the local member and other members of the house.

On Friday evening the students took advantage of the Ice Cycles or attending one of the capital's shows, as they desired.

Beginning at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning the students and teachers were taken on a tour through C.I.H. radio station, visited the museum at Citadel Hill and watched two destroyers return from the far East, as well as the magnificent as she sailed under the Angus L. Macdonald Bridge connecting Halifax city and the town of Dartmouth. They also visited Simpsons-Sears building at Armdale.

At noon the party were guests of V. G. Cardoza M.L.A. Mrs. Cardoza and daughter Elizabeth, at a luncheon held at the Sea Shell.

For the return to Digby some of the party came directly through the Valley and others took the South Shore trip to Bridgewater and via Middleton. At Middleton they again met where they stopped for refreshments at a local restaurant where they surprised one of the party, Stanley Prime, student from Rossway, with an impromptu birthday party.

Presented With Scroll

Mrs. George Humphrey was presented on Tuesday afternoon with a scroll in recognition of the 20th pint of blood donated. The presentation was made by Dr. T. W. Hodgson, president of the Digby Branch Canadian Red Cross, before a gathering of Red Cross quilters at the Digby Baptist Church hall.

Dr. Hodgson, in making the presentation, said Mrs. Humphrey was the fourth in Digby to have donated 20 pints of blood, the others having been Alfred Dickie, Mrs. L. M. Saunders and Dr. Earle Anderson. Mrs. Humphrey, it was recognized, was the first donor of blood at clinics held in Digby. Besides donations recorded at the clinics Mrs. Humphrey, who has a rare type of blood, has given other donations when a need arose.

Inscription on the scroll presented to Mrs. Humphrey on Tuesday was as follows: "Presented to Harriet Humphrey who voluntarily gave at least 20 donations of blood. This is an example of generosity and self sacrifice worthy of all praise and beyond all price. From such a magnificent gift will come new life for many of our fellow Canadians." The scroll bore copies of the signatures of Vincent Massey, President, W. T. Stanbury, National Commissioner, and Vernon C. Hale, Chairman National Blood Donor Committee.

Chairman of the Blood Donor Committee in Digby is J. J. Brittain, who was unable to be present on Tuesday.

Following the presentation tea was served, when Mrs. B. H. Ruggles, treasurer of the Digby Branch Canadian Red Cross, presided at the tea table. Others who assisted with serving were Mrs. H. M. Warne, Mrs. J. J. Brittain, Mrs. Reginald Weir and Mrs. Sydney Smith.

Child Breaks Arm

Robert Turnbull, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Turnbull, had the misfortune on Sunday to have two bones broken in the wrist on his left arm.

The accident happened while Digby was visiting, along with other grandchildren, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Porter, Hill Grove. While playing in the hay he happened to slip and strike

Digby Firemen Stage Successful Ice Show

The first Ice Show to stage all local talent was presented at the Digby Forum on Friday evening under the sponsorship of the Digby Fire Department.

Norman Wright was master of ceremonies, introducing first Miss Marilyn Patterson, Digby's Ice Carnival Princess for 1955 and who started off the evening's performance by dropping the face-off puck for the Midgits Hockey game. The Red Wings won over the Bruins by a score of 3-0. Referees for the Midgits were Victor Connor and Donald Hazelton and the coaches were Wellington Halliday and Fraser Handsaker. The Midgits, before the game, lined up in two rows with the Princess in the centre, during the singing of "O Canada".

One of the highlights of the evening's entertainment was the figure skating performance given by Miss Judy Robinson, Miss Beverly VanTassel, Anna-bella Cowan and Harley Nash. Judy did the solo numbers, "The Blue Danube" and "Tales from the Vienna Woods", in graceful manner and also did "Underneath the Arches" with Harley Nash and a five with Beverly VanTassel. Miss Cowan did a pleasing solo number, "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes". Later, Judy also presented an enjoyable solo number from the Emperor Waltz, "Wine, Women and Song".

The performance which probably caused most hilarity on Friday night's program was the Broom Hockey game between the Digby Fire Department Smoke Eaters team and the Digby Branch Canadian Legion team under the name of the Bomb Busters. This game was won by the Smoke Eaters by a score of 2-0.

A hearty expression of thanks was extended to the performers, Mr. Snell, manager of the Forum, and all who helped to make the show a success.

Playoff Films Shown

The hockey fans of Digby enjoyed a treat Monday night when films of the playoffs of the NHL for '50, '53 and '54 were shown at the Fire Station. This program was arranged through the Digby Area Film Council, Digby Fire Department and Canadian Legion.

Has Reception For Newly-Weds

On Tuesday evening a shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Milbury, Bear River, for Mr. and Mrs. John Doucet, who were recently married in Ontario. Mrs. Doucet was the former Marion Milbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Milbury, who, with her husband, is visiting her parents. Fifty-five friends and relatives gathered for the special occasion.

The dining table was covered with gifts which the bride and groom opened and later thanked one and all for linen, china, pyrex, chest of silver, wool blankets and other gifts. An appropriate speech was made by John Finslake, a neighbour, who spoke in Finnish and later sang in the same language.

Mrs. Gerald Oickle assisted Mrs. Milbury with the lunch, as well as sisters and friends. All left for their homes leaving with the bride and groom good wishes for many years of happy married life.

On Friday they left for Ontario where they will reside, as Mr. Doucet had only a twenty day leave from the Air Force. Out-of-town guests were the groom's mother, Mrs. Ambrose Doucet, and brother, Joseph, of Digby. Due to the illness of Mr. Doucet he was unable to attend. Other guests present were from Victoria, Greenland and Bear River East.

D.F.D. Plans Cleanup Campaign And Other Projects

At a meeting of the Digby Fire Department held last week, considerable business was dealt with due to the fact that the regular meeting was postponed two weeks. Fire Chief Humphrey's report showed a total of six calls to date for 1955, which is a great reduction over last year, with no damage done.

A report from the hospital committee showed that the department sponsored room in the hospital was in need of several items to make this room more comfortable, and a sum of $200 was voted for the year for necessary improvements.

In connection with a letter received from the Board of Trade regarding a proposed Park on the Cannon Banks property, a committee was named to act with other existing committees in the project. However, any definite action was tabled until a report was available as to actual progress on this proposal.

It was decided to have a soft ball team for the coming season and a committee was formed to look after this project.

Another important committee named was to line up information for the annual Cleanup Campaign in May. This being an important project the committee was asked to bring in a report at the next regular meeting on April 6th.

Further reports showed that good progress was being made with the orchestra and that they would be available for engagements almost immediately.

Digby Debaters Successful

On Wednesday evening, March 16, Middleton played host to Digby in a debate having the resolution "Resolve that the British were justified in the expulsion of the Acadians."

The Digby team was led by Donna Logan, with David Leonard and Marilyn Hayden as second and third speakers respectively.

After presenting an excellent case for the affirmative, the Digby team was awarded a unanimous decision.

The Digby team built a case around the historical and political justification as well as the military necessity and historical parallels. The emotionalism caused by Longfellow's poem and the fact that present day historians take an objective viewpoint were also among points used in establishing the case for the affirmative.

After the debate a most enjoyable lunch was served to the teams and visitors by the Middleton girls, after which David Leonard, on behalf of the visiting team, expressed his thanks.

CPR officials said the ship would get a thorough checkup and minor refitting where necessary. It is expected to be off the run from April 17 to May 8, but officials stressed that the dates are tentative pending inspection of the vessel in dry-dock.

Last Saint John-Digby return trip will be made April 16 and service is expected to be resumed no later than May 9. Mail usually transported on the Helene, will be rerouted by CNR trains.

Centreville Gets Boost In Magazine

One of Digby County's beauty spots, Centreville, on Digby Neck, was mentioned in the magazine "Better Homes and Gardens" in an article written by Raymond A. Wohlrahe. Accompanying the mention of Centreville was also a beautiful colored picture showing the fishing boats and activity around the Centreville waterfront.

Digby town is also mentioned in the article as having a large scallop-fishing fleet and a business for the Saint John-Digby boat.

About This and That

New Building Completed

A long history revolves around the name Turnbull Bros. Ltd. as associated with the new and modern structure just completed and made ready to open on Monday, March 28. "Turnbull's" business dates back, as correctly as we can ascertain, to nearly eighty years ago when the late Eber Turnbull conducted a small grocery business in town. At some time later the business was under the name of Turnbull and Welsh. After a disastrous fire which destroyed the building in 1899 the business, with H. T. Warne as a partner, was conducted under the name of Turnbull and Co. Still later it was conducted by the late A. R. Turnbull, father of the present owners, until 1939 when the management was given over to H. Milton Turnbull and Reginald Turnbull who continue in that capacity to the present day. The building which was erected after the fire of 1899 was renovated in 1948 and at that time the firm incorporated as Turnbull Bros. Ltd. as it is presently known.

Disaster again came to the Turnbull building when it was completely destroyed by fire in February of last year and the business found temporary quarters. Like their predecessors, undaunted by disaster and set backs, and with the same spirit of faith and determination which moved the owners in 1899, the Turnbull brothers continued their march of progress. That same step of advancement made by the firm in keeping with the demand of the times. By the same token of faith has evolved the faith was apparent throughout the years as indicated by each present new building so prominently erected on the same site opposite the Post Office on Water Street.

The esteem and goodwill associated with the Turnbull business back through the years is manifested today in the expressions of congratulations and good wishes extended in this issue of the Courier by so many of the business places in the community. The Courier is happy to join the others in offering congratulations to Turnbull Bros. Ltd. and to commend Messrs. Milton and Reginald Turnbull on the faith expressed in their undertaking. Our sincere wish is that the future will prove successful and their every hope and faith in the future be realized.

Loyalty

One of the most important factors in the progress and development of any community is loyalty. Without it a community stagnates.

Canadian communities are built around the home, the school and the church. Loyalty to each of these great institutions is vital.

Today more and more the home as the centre of family activity is on the decline. Young people are finding their recreation elsewhere; father and mother, too, are engrossed in social and community activities at the expense of home life. The traditional school "homework" that once kept the young fry at home in the evenings has, in some degree at least, been replaced by study periods during school hours when such work is presumably completed. Once the home was responsible for teaching the boys and girls the elements of religion, community consciousness, team-work, right attitudes. Now in large measure this responsibility has been handed over to the church and the schools. Loyalty to the home is needed today as never before because the home cannot be replaced in its effect on the moral, spiritual and social development of young people by either of the other institutions of our democratic way of life.

Loyalty to the church means loyalty to all that is good in this modern civilization of ours. Through its spiritual and social programs the church of whatever denomination can influence greatly the life of the community. Loyalty to the church means more than faithful attendance, giving support financially; it means active participation in the work the church is doing, it involves loyalty to the Christian principles upon which is founded our democratic way of life.

Loyalty to the school means giving the teaching staff every encouragement, seeing to it that they have the tools to do the great job that is theirs, helping young people attending school to get the most out of their opportunity to obtain the fundamentals of an education. It involves appreciation of the fact that education is a continuing process, going on all through life. It involves support of other educational facilities in the community such as the public library, team sports, the music festival, concerts, lectures, the Sunday Schools and so forth. It requires thought and time and effort being expended on the part of every citizen to see to it that his community has a well rounded program of cultural and recreational activities.

There are other loyalties, too, that make for a good community. Loyalty to the businesses of the community is important. Buying in one's hometown is one way of expressing such loyalty in action, for the more local businesses are patronized, the better the services they can render. A fine example of disloyalty is visiting a nearby city and loading the car with groceries, clothing and other goods which might as well have been purchased in one's hometown.

Loyalty to community organizations enters the picture. A citizen should belong to some organization or even several (too many spreads energies too thinly) and then give his best to make the organization a live one, contributing something to the community.

Then there is loyalty to the community itself. This means spells faith in the future.

For this we commend

Turnbull Bros. Limited and wish the firm continued success.

seeing the good as well as the bad; criticizing, if need be, but constructively, and doing some work to improve the community as well. Loyalty means boosting, not knocking; working, not nagging; thinking, not just sitting; solving problems, not ignoring them; active participation, not indifference. Loyalty is a positive thing and thus cannot help but make for true progress.

Are you loyal to your community and to the institutions and organizations that make it up? Only you can honestly answer that question. If the answer is negative, what are you going to do about it?

Digby Talent In Play

The Acadia University Dramatic Society is preparing to present a Shakespearean play, the 25th and 26th of March. The choice of the Society is one of Shakespeare's popular "Falstaff comedies," Henry IV, Part I, and the performance is under the direction of Prof. H. P. Sippell, noted throughout the Maritimes for his former Shakespearean productions. Prior to 1952 spring Shakespearean plays were an annual event at Acadia, but they have been replaced by more modern plays, the works of the contemporary playwright, Christopher Fry. Acadia's revival of the Shakespearean tradition comes at a time of increased interest in Shakespeare with production at Stratford, Ontario, and the announcement of building a Shakespearean theatre at Stratford, Connecticut.

The large cast for the Acadia production has already been chosen and the title role, King Henry IV will be played by Thomas Denton, from Saint John, N. B.; his son, the happy-go-lucky Prince Hal, by Floyd MacDonald of Woodstock, N. B.; the antagonist of the play, Henry Percy, better known as Hotspur, is Thomas Miles of Fredericton, while Sir John Falstaff, one of Shakespeare's best-known comic figures, will be portrayed by Calvin Annis of Middleton, N. S.

The supporting cast is made up of twenty-two Acadia students from various parts of Eastern Canada, including Frank Jefferson of Digby, in the role of Westmorland.

Production manager is Dr. K. D. C. Haley, and costumes are under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Magee of the Textile Division of the Home Economics department.

Digby Courier, Digby, N. S.

Dear Sir:

A couple of weeks ago we saw a picture of two Northern trappers in our daily newspaper. They still wore their hair long and if one could tell much from that picture, I'm sure they had enough to make a good sized mop. I noted also that one fellow had a fine set of original teeth. Now these trappers certainly live the life of an out doorsman and their habits are much different from the average city or town dweller. I am sure of one thing and that is all baldies envy their hair and all who wear store teeth envy their fine teeth. These men were Indians and that reminds me: "Did you ever see a bald Eskimo?" Perhaps we could learn something from our northern Canadians about preserving our hair, also our teeth.

It is known that our hair needs the trace elements for lasting natural beauty. Some of these are copper, iodine, and boron, etc. Good sources of the trace elements are dulse, kelp and other sea foods.

You may find that some of the well advertised shampoos are not agreeing with your hair or scalp, so try to feed your cranium from within with these trace elements or you may be sporting a bald spot or a whig.

Clementsport Man In Atomic Exercises

Four Nova Scotia men, Lieut. Cmdr. A. J. Norman, Halifax; Chief Petty Officer B. W. Rawle of Clementsport; Petty Officer R. F. Currie of Halifax, and Petty Officer L. C. Stewart of Shannon Park, all attached to the Canadian Army's No. 1 Radiation Detection Unit, will take part in exercise "Teapot", a series of atomic tests at the U. S. Nevada proving grounds this Spring. It was announced in Ottawa recently.

The unit, the trail blazer in atomic radiation detection methods and equipment, will engage in a part of the overall operation which will deal with the location and survey of areas contaminated by radioactivity. This will be the first time that unit members have had the opportunity to operate under conditions resulting from actual atomic explosions.

Dr. Julius Comeau, delegate who attended the meeting with the CBC officials in Ottawa in February when a French speaking relay station (radio) was asked for, gave his report. It is the contention of the delegation that no Nova Scotia station is able to be received via radio with consistency and the French language station of Moncton was not being received in this area. The Royal Commission of several years ago recommended a French language station in the Maritimes to serve and to preserve the French culture.

The meeting was held at Little Brook Court House under the presidency of Dr. Julius Comeau, Saulnierville.

Music Festival Dates Planned

Proposed dates for the Digby Music Festival were set by the committee for May 3, 4 and 5 it was announced recently.

The festival is open to schools and outside talent in the Municipality of Digby. Non-residents attending school or studying music in Digby Municipality are also given the privilege of participating in the program.

The proposed syllabus as drawn up by the committee provides time for entries of choruses from various types of schools, vocal solos, duets and also piano solos and duets. Again place on the program is given for rhythm bands which have in the past captivated their audiences. School bands and other instrumentalists are invited to enter that particular class. The syllabus also provides a place for singing games and folk dances by the younger groups.

The adult section of the syllabus includes solo entries, duets, ladies' trios, quartets and chorus groups. A special group for members of a family gives opportunity to display family talent in both singing and playing.

ENTERTAIN AT BIRTHDAYS

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Hill were hosts this past week to a number of their friends on the evening of March 8th, when they entertained in honor of three friends having birthdays during the week.

A social evening was spent during which, following a few words of explanation by the hostess, Mrs. W. S. Lent, Mrs. Howard Payson and Mrs. J. W. Dunkley were the recipients of corsages of bronze, yellow and white mums, gifts of the hostess. The delightful ceremony of presentation and reception was followed by the presenting of a going-away gift by the hostess to Mrs. MacPherson, another of the evening's guests. Old songs and favorite hymns were sung along with "Happy Birthday" and "For she's a jolly good fellow." Delicious refreshments were served followed by the bringing in of a candle-light birthday cake which was cut in turn by each of the three having a birthday. Ice cream was served with the cake.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Hill entertained friends at afternoon tea at her home. A most happy hour was spent by all.

Turnbull Bros. Limited to Open New Building March 28

On Monday, March 28, Turnbull Bros. Ltd. will open a new building, modern in every detail. The frame structure built on the same site as the previous Turnbull building, covers a space of 40 feet by 65 feet and has fireproof sidings. The front of the building is designed according to the modern trends and is covered with green vitrolite (a colored glass) and grey zourite (a metal).

On entering the new building one is struck with shelves in Caribbean blue filled with various paints and other stock on either side of the front part of the store. These shelves are against a background wall of ocean spray blue. The rear wall and a small portion of the front is done in flamingo, making an attractive bright and modern appearance as the customer enters the door. Woodwork in this part of the store which is used for a display centre or show room is done in white, as is also the ceiling. The floor is in tile of emerald green and white black with a complete black border. Besides the fluorescent lighting, spot lights are arranged for extra attention on display.

Easily visible from the front store is the office with a parakeet green ceiling and walls made of sand shade ribbed weldtex and wood grain. White woodwork completes the office picture.

The stock room, in the rear, has a red floor, walls in sand and white, and ceiling and woodwork also in white. An attractive washroom in blue is to the left of the stock room.

A large basement, to be used for storage, covers the whole area of the building and contains a furnace which heats the store by forced warm air.

In the stock room will be handled all types of building material and according to a spokesman for the firm anything for building purposes, from the start of a building to its completion, will be obtainable by customers. Although Turnbull Bros. Ltd. will dispense with groceries, a line they carried until the fire destroyed their building about a year ago, they will continue to carry seeds, fertilizers and other garden needs and equipment. Turnbull's will also introduce a new line of merchandise which they did not previously carry. They will have refrigerators on display and for sale at the time of opening.

Above is H. Milton Turnbull, president of Turnbull Bros. Ltd. Mr. Turnbull has had many years of experience in the merchandising trade, having been employed by the A. & P. Stores in Detroit, Michigan, as well as in the present business when operated by his late father, A. R. Turnbull, and later managed by himself and brother, Reginald.

Mr. Turnbull is a graduate of Digby Academy and has always taken an interest in town affairs. In 1948 he was elected Mayor, a position he held for one term, and had previously served as councillor. He is active in many of the town's organizations, has been Past Grand of St. George Lodge, I.O.O.F., and works faithfully in an official capacity in Grace United Church.

Mr. Turnbull is married and has one son, Richard, who is also a member of the staff of Turnbull Bros. Ltd.

The offices of Turnbull Bros. Ltd. will be used to conduct the business activities of the store and will also contain the office of Turnbull Insurance Agency, whose principle type of insurance is fire and auto, along with several other lines.

History

The present business, which is under the management of H. Milton Turnbull and A. Reginald Turnbull, was previously operated by their late father, A. R. Turnbull, under the name Turnbull and Co.

The history of the firm really dates back to approximately 80 years ago when the late Eber Turnbull conducted a small grocery business in a small store situated on Water Street, near Church Street, on the site now containing the dwelling owned by Mrs. W. L. Carson.

In 1881, John Welsh entered partnership with Eber Turnbull and the business became known as Turnbull and Welsh. This firm was located on the same site where the present new building of Turnbull Bros. Ltd. now stands. At that time the business dealt in flour, feed and groceries and was interested in the manufacturing of lumber with the late William E. Dunn. Two years later this property was burned out by a fire which swept considerable property on the east side of Water Street. After this fire the firm erected another building on the same site.

Turnbull and Welsh did business until November 1898, when Welsh sold out his interest to Eber Turnbull who then conducted the business in his own name until February 13th, 1899, when a disastrous fire destroyed much of the business section of the town, including the Turnbull building. The building also, at that time, contained the Post Office and for a time the local newspaper and job work was printed on the second floor. It is interesting to note that this was the first grocery store in Digby to have a telephone installed. Its number was 16, which still remains listed in the directory as the telephone number of the present Turnbull Bros. Ltd.

Another first in the Turnbull business was the erection of the first sidewalk gasoline pump in Digby, from which they sold large quantities of gasoline. This type of business has since been dispensed with, as has the coal business which they conducted in later years.

Above is Reginald Turnbull, vice-president and secretary of the firm of Turnbull Bros. Ltd. Mr. Turnbull's experience in the present business extends back to the time of his graduation from Digby Academy when he worked with the concern under the management of his father, the late A. R. Turnbull. Shortly after the outbreak of World War II he enlisted in the Army, serving overseas in Italy, France, Belgium and Holland. On his return from the services he re-entered his father's store and has continued in the business here since that time. He is a Past Grand of St. George Lodge, I.O.O.F., a lodge in which his late father served for many years. He is president of the Digby Volunteer Fire Company, president of the Digby Area Film Council, and takes an active part in many organizations and projects for community development. "Reg" is a valued worker in Grace United Sunday School, having served as secretary for 20 years, and also works in an official capacity in the church. He is married and has two children, a son, Gary, and a daughter, Faye.

Before the erection of the next building the firm continued under the name of Turnbull and Co. in which the late H. T. Warne was a partner with Eber Turnbull. This partnership continued until H. T. Warne withdrew and A. R. Turnbull was admitted. Under this setup, on July 24, 1899, they moved into their then new building, the building which stood, although it had undergone changes, until it was destroyed by fire in February of last year.

Later Eber Turnbull retired from the business and the firm was conducted under the name of A. R. Turnbull. Although Mr. Turnbull turned over the management of his store to his two sons, H. Milton and A. Reginald, on January 1st, 1939, he retained an active interest and delight in its progress until his death at the age of 79 years in February of 1953. Through the late Mr. Turnbull, the name "Turnbull" continued to have a distinct association with the business life of Digby and in any development for the benefit of church and community, a characteristic which is ably supported by his sons, Milton and Reginald.

In 1948 the building was renovated and brought up in appearance and efficiency with the then modern trend of stores and the name changed at its incorporation to Turnbull Bros. Ltd. This building was destroyed in a blaze on Monday night, February 14, 1954. Other business firms burned out in the same fire were the stationery and radio store of C. B. Connell, and Fidele's Beauty Parlour, which were housed in the same building. Also left homeless by the fire were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hersey, who occupied an apartment on the second floor.

While it was never fully determined what the cause of the blaze might have been, it was thought to have started in the rear of the first floor of the building on the north side and apparently had been smouldering for some time. That blaze revived memories among the older people of the town of the one which completely demolished much of the business section of the town in 1899. The fire at that time was thought to have originated in the basement of a store directly north of the original Turnbull and Welsh building, which stood where the Turnbull buildings have since stood. That blaze also destroyed the Turnbull building and early accounts of the fire say that all the contents of the Post Office were saved and a few barrels of flour were saved from the grocery store, but the building was totally destroyed.

Are you a "Do-It-Yourself" Driver?

Rather shift for yourself...

Shifting's smooth and easy with Chevrolet's new and finer Synchro-Mesh transmission. Gearshift and steering control shafts are concealed in a single, attractive housing.

...or let Powerglide do it?

Powerglide, too, is better than ever this year. Smoother, sturdier, and jackrabbit quick on the getaway. It's the most popular automatic transmission* in Chevrolet's field!

Do all your own clutching... or save effort and gas with Overdrive?

Clutching is easier than ever with Chevrolet's new, High Capacity Tri-Flex Clutch. The new pendant-type pedal and single diaphragm spring reduce the amount of foot pressure required, while other new advances ensure positive clutch engagement.

The "free-wheeling" effect of Chevrolet's new Touch-Down Overdrive* eliminates much of the clutching necessary at city driving speeds. And on the highway it reduces engine speed by 22% — greatly increasing fuel economy and reducing engine wear.

Rather roll your own... or just push a button?

Chevrolet gives you separate crank controls both for windows and ventpanes. This is yet another of the many great conveniences offered by Chevrolet — newest of new cars.

Like to adjust any one window — or all four of 'em — with the mere push of a button? Automatic window and seat controls* are available on Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models.

*Optional at extra cost.

Position the seat yourself... or let electricity do it?

Chevrolet's big, beautifully upholstered front seat moves up and forward or down and back into your most comfortable position. There's more interior room this year for hips, hats and shoulders!

No need to worry about electrical equipment running your battery down in a new Chevrolet. It gives the reserve power of a 12-volt electrical system — easily capable of meeting your car's demands.

Apply the brakes like this... or have power make it easier?

An improved braking system and new swing-type pedals make it a cinch to stop your Chevrolet on the proverbial dime. And Chevrolet's amazing new Anti-Dive control gives you "heads up" stops!

What's new and improved about Chevrolet? Everything! Chevrolet Power Brakes* are better than ever — let you stop swiftly and safely by a simple pivot of your foot from accelerator to brake pedal.

Rather have standard steering... or the extra ease of Power Steering?

How easy and sure can steering be? Try this new Chevrolet and see. Chevrolet uses a ball bearing system to cut friction to a minimum — and to get really fast steering response.

For parking and slow-speed turning, there's nothing quite so easy as Power Steering, of course. Good news: Chevrolet's new linkage-type Power Steering* is reduced in price!

COAL PAYS THE BUTCHER

The $50,000,000 which the Maritime coal industry distributes annually in wages helps keep all Maritimers prosperous. The butcher, the baker, and even the candle-stick maker all share in it through the daily purchases of employees. Without the coal industry retailers selling products and services in the Maritimes would lose $50,000,000 worth of business.

In addition to this the coal industry annually spends $15,000,000 for stores and supplies and provides $8,000,000 in business to the transportation companies.

Dr. Lawley Speaks On Cancer

The regular monthly meeting of the Weymouth Board of Trade, was held in the Legion Hall on Thursday evening, March 17th. The President, Mr. Albert Jones, was in the chair with Mr. R. E. Tower acting as secretary. This meeting of the Board was open to the public and guests on the platform were Lawrence Hersey, of the Weymouth School Board; Gordon Campbell, President of the Cancer Society here; and Dr. A. Lawley, who was the speaker for the evening. The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada" with Mrs. R. K. Hill at the piano.

Following the business period Mr. Jones introduced Gordon Campbell, who presided for the remainder of the meeting. He in turn introduced Dr. Lawley, who spoke on tumor and cancer in the interest of the Cancer Society. "Cancer," says Dr. Lawley, "is not serious as some other diseases, say smallpox or Black Death, but if reported in its early stages is nearly always cured by treatment. The trouble is in getting those who have some swelling for which they cannot account, to see a doctor." Education along this line is one part of the Cancer Society program.

By way of blackboard drawings it was shown how cancer cells grow and spread, blocking various organs and causing death. A film was shown along the lines of the address given, both being interesting and helpful. Mr. Campbell spoke on the Cancer Society Drive which comes in April and he hopes by way of literature that education along the lines of what to do and what the Society will do, if you are in danger of cancer, will be brought to you in your homes when the canvasser calls on you.

Mr. Jones thanked those who had taken part in this meeting and the meeting closed with the singing of "The Queen."

Masquerade Party At Havelock

A masquerade party was held at the home of Mrs. John Doucet on Shrove Tuesday, February 22nd. Eighteen were present, including Mrs. John Doucet and Miss Mary Rose Melanson. Some of the ladies were attired in clothing, which dated back to over a hundred years ago, with bustles, hoops, beaded sachets, bonnets, lace and shawls, old-fashioned capes trimmed with frills.

During the evening a queen was crowned, also two princesses. The queen was Mrs. Joe Gaudet, and the princesses were Mrs. Edward Dugas and Mrs. Edith Gaudet. They were each presented with a lovely gift. The queen presented each guest with a gift, which was hooked by a clothes-pin on a tree. There was also a grab bag which held a gift for each lady. Mrs. Minot Mullen received the door prize. The evening was spent by individual step-dancing and tricks by a special commedian.

Mr. Pink Explains Pottier Report

The regular monthly meeting of the Weymouth Home and School Association was held on Monday evening, March 14, in the Legion Hall. Due to illness the president, Mrs. Curtis Hankinson, was unable to be present and the meeting was chaired by the vice-president, V. E. MacNeill. Also on the platform were the president of the Weymouth North H. & S. Association and Albert Jones, president of the Board of Trade. Among the items of interest to come before the meeting was the date set for the April meeting. This would fall on April 14th regularly, but by vote was changed to April 18th on account of the Easter holiday.

The Charter for the Weymouth Home and School was presented at this meeting by Mr. Albert Jones, to be held by them for as long as regular Home and School meetings were held. Mr. MacNeill accepted the Charter on behalf of the president. In presenting the Charter Mr. Jones spoke of the first of these associations organized in the county of Digby, the first one being in North Range. The year 1929 was the year the first Home and School was organized in Weymouth, it lasting only a year or so. Later in 1948 Mr. Matheson, at that time manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, Weymouth, organized the Home and School and there were forty-five members at the first meeting. Since that time regular meetings have been held.

Mr. Pink, of Yarmouth, was the special speaker for the evening and was introduced by Mr. MacNeill. He spoke on the Pottier Report and gave a most interesting resume, taking the report from the beginning, making clear the chapters as they came. Interest in his talk was very keen and all present felt enlightenment on the subject by the time the talk was finished. A vote of thanks was given Mr. Pink from the floor and a number of questions were asked. The meeting closed with "The Queen." Attendance at the meeting was good.

Tourist Folder Contest

Once again the Canadian Tourist Association, Toronto, invites Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce in Canada to enter their annual "Tourist Folder Contest". Last year they established a special separate category for Boards and Chambers and the Quebec Board of Trade placed first. More information about the contest can be secured from Vernon Lang, Toronto. It was announced by Ernie Little, Manager Field Service Department, The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, Montreal.

Mr. Little has spent the past two weeks visiting various Canadian Chamber offices and as many community Boards and Chambers as possible in Western Canada.

The local Board of Trade decided at the last regular meeting to become affiliated with the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

YOU CAN DEPEND ON DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

When Miss Bessie Turnbull was introduced and it was stated that she had taught fifty years, I almost shouted "and still going strong!"

Miss Turnbull taught my parents' family and all my family. She has taught as many pupils in her wonderful teaching career as Digby town had in population up to a comparatively short time ago.

I still remember very clearly a few interesting incidents that took place when I was a pupil in her classroom. I should like to tell of the time when my mother made a nice little suit for me of rather light material and while playing tag during recess one of the boys accidentally or on purpose, I don't know which but, the result was the same and my trousers and shorts were badly torn. We all went to our classrooms when the bell rang and I went with one of my hands doing the best job it could under the circumstances. Some of the boys close to my seat, and girls too, were laughing at me and my face was very red so, Miss Turnbull knew that I must be the cause of the disturbance. "Come to the front of the room, Vincent!" she said. I went up grinning very sheepishly and then all the pupils began laughing. Miss Turnbull asked what they were laughing at, they looked again and laughed the harder. I was then told to take my seat; I turned around and started for my seat—Miss Turnbull laughed too. So life goes on.

In conclusion I would like to say I believe an evening spent now and then between teachers and parents could be used for discussion of some very interesting and important subjects of the day, and when all the minds of such a body of persons are put into action, properly guided and expressed, there is bound to be some worthwhile results for all concerned.

Famous Trichologist Will Demonstrate How To Grow Thicker Hair

... And Guarantees It!

DEMONSTRATION TO BE HELD HERE

This new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Digby, Nova Scotia, Monday ONLY, April 4.

Halifax, March 19.

In an interview here today William Keele, internationally famous trichologist and director of the Keele Hair Experts, said: "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so-called cure-all could correct all these disorders," he explained.

Guaranteed

"The Keele firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offer a guarantee," Keele said.

Once a person avails himself of the Keele treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: "If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days your money will be returned."

Hopeless Cases Discouraged

First the trichologist is quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely, shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin or colorless, the Keele treatment can perform wonders.

A complete, private examination is given by a trichologist to determine the condition of the scalp, and cause for his hair trouble.

Free Examinations

This examination is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. The trichologist makes no charge for this examination and no appointment is necessary. After the examination the person is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost.

After starting treatment, the person makes regular reports to the Keele firm in Halifax to check the progress of the home treatment.

To spread the opportunity of normal, healthy hair to the thousands who are desperately looking for help, independent trichologists are visiting various cities throughout Canada to conduct examinations and start home treatment.

No Cure-All

"We have no cure-all for slick, shiny baldness," Keele emphasizes. If there is fuzz, the root is still capable of creating hair and we can perform what seems to be a miracle."

There is one thing Keele wants every man and woman to know. If a recession appears at the temples or a spot begins to show up on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

Hair For Lifetime

"If clients follow our directions during treatment, and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives," Keele said. "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment. It all depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules!"

How's Your Hair?

If it worries you, call Trichologist W. N. Young at the Champlain Hotel in Digby, Nova Scotia on Monday ONLY, April 4, 12 noon to 9 p.m. The public is invited. You do not need an appointment. The examinations are private and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

Obtain Addresses For Appeals

Unusual charity appeals are coming out of India, according to the Family Herald and Weekly Star. These appeals take the form of begging letters addressed personally to people whose names, with addresses, have appeared in some Canadian publication. The Family Herald, with over 400,000 subscribers, reaches India more frequently than many publications, and has had an especially good opportunity to observe these letters.

Individuals in India seeking charity, apparently obtain copies of the Family Herald either by direct subscription or by having it sent to them by friends, and use it to compile a list of names and addresses of Canadians to whom they send appeals. The Family Herald is a rich source of names because of its unusually wide coverage of news events, its popular "Voice of the Farm" readers forum, and the many consultation services and other services it has always provided for its readers.

The begging letters are often reported and sent to the Editor's attention by Family Herald readers, and invariably describe the writer of the letter as being in dire straits of poverty. Usually the writer describes himself or herself as being a deeply religious Christian doing mission work, or attempting to raise a large family. Sometimes the letter contains a piece of cheap fancywork of inferior workmanship, which they beg the addressee to buy or to sell for them. Often these letters are mailed directly to the Editor, with the request that the fancywork be sold to some member of his staff.

There seems to be considerable doubt as to the sincerity of these appeals, because they are almost always printed on a press of some sort, take the same general form, and always originate from the same district in India — East Godavari. The town is usually Amalapuram.

The number of these letters being received has caused the Family Herald some concern. Family Herald subscribers are inclined to be generous to people who are in need, and often write for advice on how to deal with begging letters from India. Although not wishing to interfere with any genuine appeal for charity, the Family Herald and Weekly Star has felt justified in advising readers to ignore the appeals.

First New Dining Car Named From Pines Hotel Room

Canadian Pacific officials and employees saw the "New Look" in dining cars on track 11 of Windsor Station when they inspected the "Annapolis", first delivery from the Budd Company of 18 stainless steel de luxe dining room cars to be assigned to "The Canadian" which, starting April 24th, will cut 16 hours from the transcontinental train journey.

Named from the Annapolis room of the Digby Pines Hotel, the Annapolis is first in a series of new dining cars named for famous rooms of Canadian Pacific hotels from Victoria, B.C. to Nova Scotia.

Like ten-year-olds investigating a new toy train, vice-presidents, porters, accountants, red-caps, trainmen, conductors, waiters, clerks and stenographers examined their company's newest jewel.

They saw first the gleaming streamlined stainless steel exterior, then walked through aisles much wider than those of the familiar Canadian dining car, noted rich carpetings, and glass-partitioned banquet rooms dividing both ends of the car into cozy sections.

They saw 48 seats instead of

Rev. E. C. Churchill Preacher At Smith's Cove

A series of pre-Easter services was held in the Smith's Cove United Baptist Church from March 8th to 11th inclusive, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Francis Miller.

The meetings were well attended and people from Clementsport and Deep Brook were also present.

The guest speaker for these services was Rev. E. C. Churchill, Digby. Mr. Churchill's usual 36, done in smart pastel-toned plastics, and looked at a star-studded ceiling enhanced by indirect lighting.

Etched glass partitions of the Annapolis showed the Mayflower, Nova Scotia's emblem, and four different birds native to the province. The end walls of the car were brightened by carved linoleum reproductions of the hotel crest and flowers.

The well-planned kitchen would be the envy of many a housewife, with cabinets and fixtures made from stainless steel. Electrical refrigerators and freezers, automatic dishwashers, toasters, coffee makers and other fixtures were new to this type of car.

messages were inspirational and of a deeply spiritual nature.

Speaking primarily to church members, Mr. Churchill used as his topic for Tuesday evening "Christ Meets Us Where We Are"; Wednesday, "All Have Sinned and Come Short of the Glory of God"; Thursday, "Christ Died for Sinners".

On Friday evening he reached the high note of the series when he spoke on "The Trumpet Call to Discipleship", using 1 Cor. 14:8 as his text.

The church was grateful to Mr. Churchill for the fine messages which inspired and uplifted all who were privileged to hear him.

Plans For Mission Progressing

Plans for the Mission in St. Peter's Parish, Weymouth North, have been going forward very well since they were first announced six weeks ago.

The Mission services will commence on Monday, March 23, with a Celebration of Holy Communion in St. Peter's Church at 10 a.m. The first Mission service will be held in St. Matthew's Church, Weymouth Falls, at a quarter to seven in the evening. This will be followed by another service in St. Peter's at 8:30 p.m.

The Mission services will be continued each day of the week and everyone is invited to attend. The Missioner, The Rev. A. LeDrew-Gardner, informs us that for maximum benefit from the Mission it is advisable to attend the first night and every night of the week. The addresses are in a series and each one builds onto the one that has gone before. Another interesting feature is that there is to be a Question Box where any one is invited to submit unsigned questions on any phase of religion and the Church which the Missioner will attempt to answer. In the service, services will be about one hour in length.

Re-organize Men's Club

The Anglican Men's Club was re-organized at a very enjoyable meeting held after church service in the basement of St. Anne's Church, Smith's Cove, on Sunday, March 20th. Plans were tentatively set for a variety of social functions and public events during the coming summer months, and a number of committees were formed for the organization of such.

The club offers a very interesting form of social and cultural pastime for its members, and for anyone wishing to join, and with the enthusiasm shown, promises to be a huge success in the locality.

The evening concluded with the serving of a "Full and Plenty" supper.

Old Sleigh Lost With Barn

A grass fire which spread over property of the Misses Blanche and Grace Spurr, Deep Brook, over the past weekend, destroyed a barn and an antique horse sleigh.

The barn, although 100 years old, was in perfect condition and the two-horse sleigh, it is understood, dated back to 1783. Firemen from the Cornwallis Naval Base could not save the barn so directed their efforts toward preventing any further spread of the flames, which threatened nearby homes.

The sleigh was believed to have been brought here from Manhattan Island by United Empire Loyalists. The barn was valued at over $4,000. Some insurance was carried on the building, it was reported.

More Damage From Storm

L. C. Parkinson, manager of the Pines Hotel, and J. C. McQuaig, manager of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, were in town on Thursday to learn the extent of damage done to the hotel by the storm on Tuesday, March 22nd. Roofing, it was found, was ripped from the building, trees were blown down and electricity disrupted.

While in town Mr. Parkinson and Mr. McQuaig made a friendly visit with several of the townsfolk and discussed the outlook of steamship transportation for the summer tourist season. Beautification of the Cannon Banks was also discussed.

Another wind storm on Saturday night blew a sky light window into the Court House.

Given Going Away Gift

Miss Constance Kirkpatrick, who leaves shortly for Ottawa, was presented with a necklace by the Earn and Give Club of Grace United Church. The presentation was made by the president, Mrs. Oakley Turnbull, at the regular meeting of the club on Tuesday evening.

Miss Kirkpatrick's services in the Grace United Church Sunday School, choir, Official Board, Earn and Give Club and other organizations, will be greatly missed, as well as in community affairs.

She is a graduate of Digby Regional High School in Grade XII Academic and Commercial Courses and in which school she engaged in many of the extra curricular subjects. Miss Kirkpatrick is at present employed at the Digby Branch, Bank of Nova Scotia.

Executive Discusses Playground Equipment

The screening of several films featured the March meeting of the North Range Home and School Association held recently in the school house. The meeting was well attended and the entire program enthusiastically received. During intermission candy was sold.

A short executive meeting followed when the matters of playground equipment and the purchasing of a record player were discussed. It was agreed that swings and teeters should be procured as soon as weather conditions permitted. The health convener, Mrs. Dennis Dugas, reported that the supply of Fish Oil Capsules had been replenished since last meeting. First Aid kits were inspected and found to be in necessary supply.

FIVE TO ATTEND SCOUT JAMBOREE

Five from the 1st Digby Boy Scout Troop will attend the Scout Jamboree at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario, in August. It was learned at a Father-and-Son supper meeting on Friday night, those from here attending the Jamboree will be Scouters Rufus Connor, Scouts Donald Titus, Keith Churchill, Gary Harding, Kelly Barnes, John Hawkins. It is unusual that so many from one troop attend the Jamboree and all are looking forward to the time of departure. This will be a small celebration in itself when Scouts from this part of the Province will leave here by two navy ships for Saint John. There are prospects of a big event here with a band, Fire Department and other organizations probably joining in to give the boys a big send off. This information was given by Scout Master Norman Wright.

Following Mr. Wright's remarks Scouter Rufus Connor replied briefly of his hopes finally being rewarded by being chosen as one to attend the coming Jamboree. This, he said, is something he has always wanted to do and he also stated that he would do all possible to make the trip an enjoyable one for the Scouts accompanying him.

The chairman, Harold Parsons, then called upon the President of the Fire Department, Reg. Turnbull, for a few remarks. Mr. Turnbull said that it was a pleasure for the Fire Department to be working with the Scout Troop and that the Department would do all it could to provide quarters and other necessary requirements that might be needed for this important group of boys.

Aubrey Hawkins spoke on behalf of the fathers and expressed thanks to the committee responsible for making the gathering possible and continued with remarks concerning the training of the Scouts in First Aid in which Mr. Hawkins had ably assisted. He also commented on the boys passing their tests with flying colors. During Mr. Hawkins' remarks, Scouts Donald Titus, John Hawkins and Keith Churchill gave two demonstrations of artificial respiration and one on putting a splint on a broken arm. These demonstrations were very impressive.

Mr. Wright stated that Mr. Kenneth Margeson, who once resided here and has always been very active in Scout work, is now Commissioner for training of Scout Masters for the Province of Nova Scotia.

The Scouts and their fathers were entertained at the Fire Station by the Scout Group Committee of the Fire Department. The sponsorship of the Scouts was taken over by the Digby Fire Department last fall when a committee was appointed by the Department acting in conjunction with an existing committee from the former Y's Men of Digby.

Immediately following the formation of the new committee the Scout Hall on Queen Street was made ready to accommodate the Scouts for their meetings and other Scout activities and they have been using these facilities since. One of the first functions held in the Scout Hall was an investiture which was attended by the Digby Scout Troop, The Cub Pack and the Scout Troop from Smith's Cove, at which badges were awarded and other recognitions made.

At Friday night's function, after a delicious chowder supper was enjoyed, the Group Committee Chairman, H. A. Parsons, welcomed the Scouts and their fathers and with a few brief remarks called upon Scout Master Norman Wright, who thanked the Group Committee responsible for the gathering and the catering committee who handled the supper so efficiently.

Mr. Wright then gave an outline of the accomplishments of the Scout Troop over the past year, which took in swimming instruction at Cornwallis field day, church service, etc.

The program concluded by the showing of an interesting Scout Film on map reading and compass work.

Four Digby Area Youths Apprehended

Names of the four youths from the Digby Area who were apprehended on Monday, March 28, for breaking, entering and theft from the Government Liquor Store in town, are being withheld pending trial in the near future and further investigation by the local town police.

Following the investigation by the Digby town police of the liquor store theft, the persons involved in the breaks into the Digby Regional High School, Digby Dairy, Digby Branch Canadian Legion rooms and the Digby Forum have also been established. All names are being withheld for the present.

Mrs. Ralph Wright Designs Stamp

At an executive meeting of the Digby Board of Trade on Monday afternoon plans were disclosed for a heavy program for the next several months. An extensive membership drive is planned and the town and surrounding area divided among members for the purpose of contacting business houses and individuals for membership. Greg Gilliat is chairman of the membership committee.

Getting more tourists in to Digby is the main project of the Board at present. As a step towards this end stickers, leaflets and folders are in process of development. Design for the stickers or stamps was drawn by Mrs. Ralph Wright and depicts a scene of Digby Gap, the C.P.R. wharf and scallop boats.

Other projects of the Board are the repairing of present highway signs and erection of others, participation in the Annual Apple Blossom Festival at Kentville, and also in the celebration of Bluebonnet Day at Yarmouth on the inauguration of the Bar Harbor-Yarmouth Ferry.

Another project in mind by the Digby Board of Trade is the developing of the Cannon Banks as a picnic ground and a center for hand concerts, etc.

Late Premier's Widow To Open Bridge Saturday

On Saturday, April 2, the second longest suspension bridge in the British Empire will commence operation. The Angus L. Macdonald Bridge, spanning the harbour between the city of Halifax and the town of Dartmouth will be officially opened by Mrs. Angus L. Macdonald, widow of the late Premier of Nova Scotia.

The bridge is 5,239 feet in length, it carries a minimum 27-foot roadway providing for two traffic lanes. Its nine toll booths are electronically controlled and the transmission house uses electronic equipment to govern bridge lighting. With a clearance at centre bridge of 158 feet at high tide, there is ample clearance for the large ocean going ships that have given the port of Halifax its world-wide reputation.

A colorful ceremony has been arranged that will include participation by the Armed Services, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the Halifax Bengal Lancers. The presentation of a life-time pass to Mrs. Macdonald will be a feature of the program.

The major dedication speech will be given by Hon. Henry D. Hicks, Premier of Nova Scotia, who will be introduced by Mayor R. A. Donahoe of Halifax. The life-time pass will be presented by A. Murray Mackay, chairman of the Halifax-Dartmouth Bridge Commission.

A reception is being held for the official party at HMCS Stadacona after the ceremony. The bridge will be closed to all traffic at 9 a.m. on the morning of April 2 until after the ceremony. Eastward traffic on the bridge will not commence until 30 minutes after the program is completed.

He suggested a shorter season for curling.

Mr. Richards in taking over the chair thanked the members for the honor bestowed upon him and congratulated the past president, executive and committees on the successful year.

1955 Acadian Bicentennial Year

The Acadian Bicentennial celebrations have re-opened the controversial question of the responsibility of the Expulsion. Does the guilt rest upon the French government, the British, or the Americans? Historians, novelists, and others offer varying solutions. After two hundred years this matter is not important to those taking part in the celebrations of 1955.

The expulsion of the eight thousand Acadians from Nova Scotia was planned. Their survival was not. In fact it was the exact opposite which was wanted. Today the descendants of the exiled Acadians number 1,200,000, who have kept their racial identity, language and religion. It is the survival which is being celebrated.

The celebrations have already started in Louisiana and the state has committed itself to send hundreds of delegates and a 75-piece band to the August celebrations at Grand Pre. St. Ann's College, Church Point, presented a colorful pageant on March 27th and will repeat the performance on April 3rd. The city of Montreal will have twenty-four floats with Bicentennial themes in its St. John the Baptist parade, June 24th.

There will be religious celebrations with Pontifical High Masses at Digby, (July 1st) Church Point, Meteghan, Yarmouth, Eel Brook, Wedgeport and West Pubnico. Connected with these religious displays will be a great variety of folk dancing and singing with colorful costuming according to old times.

The theme of the celebrations is one of rejoicing and gratitude. "Let it be said that Evangeline throws a party", exclaimed one of the planners of the festivities. Accordingly the manifestations are not restricted to the Acadians, but everyone is heartily invited to participate and have a good time, thus further cementing friendship among people of all races and tongues in these parts.

Queen Mother New VON Grand President

Queen Mother Elizabeth has accepted an invitation to become grand president of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada, the order announced recently.

E. P. Taylor, president of the home nursing organization which has 117 branches in Canada, said in a statement:

"The Queen Mother is the fourth queen to be associated with the VON, founded in 1897 to commemorate the diamond jubilee of Queen Victoria and to further the enormous advance in nursing skill and conditions that had marked her reign."

Mental Health Organization Meets Tonight

It is understood the nominating committee of the Mental Health Association formed at the Digby Regional High School on Friday, March 18, has lined up a slate of officers to be presented at a meeting of the organization tonight. The meeting to be held at the Digby Regional High School at 8:30 o'clock takes the place of the one which was originally planned for Friday, April 1st. After it was found that various other activities had already been planned throughout the county it was decided to change the night to Thursday.

Chairman of the nominating committee is Prof. W. H. D. Vernon, and acting on the committee with Professor Vernon are J. M. Saulnier, James Ayer, Mrs. J. M. Wallis and Mrs. D. G. Black. The committee was also charged with organizational work for the association and to present their plan at the meeting scheduled for tonight.

About forty or more were present at the meeting called on March 18th when Dr. Robert Jones, of Halifax, was guest speaker. Again other engagements and activities scheduled for the same evening prevented a larger number from attending, but under the circumstances, to those concerned, forty seemed a fair representation from the county. It is anticipated that a larger number will be present this evening as the public is again invited to attend.

Chairman of the meeting when the motion to form an association was put through was Rev. H. Y. MacLean.

Anniversaries Coincide

Because the 50th wedding anniversary of Mayor and Mrs. Guy Morehouse in 1955 is also the year in which the Dominion Textile Co. Ltd., Montreal, celebrates its 50th anniversary, the Mayor and his wife were presented with a gift of a sheet and pillow cases from the company.

Among their prized remembrances was a message and certificate from the Premier of Nova Scotia, Hon. Henry Hicks.

When she died Queen Alexandra consented to become the first patroness of the order. She was followed by the late Queen Mary who took a keen interest in all our work in peace and war and remained our patroness until she died two years ago.

Rossway Girl Dies From Accident

Miss Helen Vantassel, 27, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vantassel, Rossway, Digby Co., passed away in the Yarmouth hospital at approximately 12:30 Sunday morning as a result of a car accident which occurred shortly before midnight at the intersection of William and Albert streets in Yarmouth.

An inquest was held at Huskisson's funeral home Sunday afternoon with a jury empanelled by Coroner Dr. S. W. Williamson inquiring into the circumstances surrounding the fatality. Brig. W. D. King was elected foreman and jurymen were Bill Singer, Dave Blahara, Norman Crosby, Stanley LeBlanc, Dominic Nichols, Ronald Poole, Wilfred Koritem, Dave Gibson, Albert Richards, Tom Redding and George Rogers. Crown prosecutor A. Boyd MacGillivray was also in attendance and assisted in the examination of the witnesses.

Llewellyn Moses Wenzel, 25, owner and driver of the car in which the victim was riding, told the jury that he and his wife, Miss Vantassel, Nettie Winchester, Chester Height and Alfred Greenlaw had come to Yarmouth for the evening and were on their way back home when the accident happened.

Not acquainted with the town, he said he had not seen the stop sign as he was proceeding north along William Street and had only seen the car coming down Albert Street a split second before the collision.

His car was in collision with the other vehicle, driven by Julius d'Entremont of West Pubnico, just about midway. The impact caused his car to turn completely around, the right front door opening and Miss Vantassel falling out, followed by his wife. The car landed on its side in the ditch.

Dr. W. C. O'Brien told of having been called to the scene and finding the woman in a bad state of shock and with very faint pulse. She was rushed to the hospital in Huskisson's ambulance where she passed away shortly after from internal hemorrhage. There were no broken bones, the doctor said. None of the others was seriously injured, but were given first aid by Dr. V. G. Burton.

Julius d'Entremont, 21-year-old driver of the other car involved said he had noticed the car coming towards Albert street as he was proceeding west towards Main street but he knew there was a stop sign there and thought the other driver would stop. He said he blew his horn but did not apply his brakes.

Sgt. Stanley Allen and Officer Weldon Roy of the town police testified as to the positions of the cars.

The jury returned an open verdict describing the nature of the accident which had resulted in Miss Vantassel's death but adding a recommendation that the matter of placing of and marking of stop signs be investigated and remedied where necessary.

Leads Provincial Showings

At an executive meeting of the Digby Area Film Council on Wednesday last it was decided to hold projectionists classes for new members at the Fire Station March 30 and 31. At the close of these classes a total of sixty qualified projectionists will have been trained during the past year.

The Film Work Shop which had been scheduled for sometime in April had to be cancelled due to other commitments of the executive. The Film Council in December purchased a new Victor "Classmate" projector which brings to three the number of projectors the Council can provide to its members. The total membership to date is thirty-one and for the past three months the Council has led the province in total showings and attendance.

FLAKY COFFEE CAKES

Scald 1/2 c. cream, 2 lbs. granulated sugar, 1 tsp. salt and 3/4 c. shortening; cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile, measure into a large bowl 1/2 c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

Add cooled cream mixture and stir in 3 well-beaten eggs. Stir in 2 c. once-sifted bread flour; beat until smooth. Work in 2 1/2 c. (about) once-sifted bread flour. Knead on lightly floured board until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl and grease top of dough. Cover and set in a warm place, free from draught. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Mix 1/4 c. granulated sugar and 2 tps. ground cinnamon; sprinkle half of this mixture on baking board. Divide dough into 2 equal portions and turn out one portion onto prepared board. Roll out into a 12" square; fold from back to front and from one side to the other. Repeat rolling and folding 3 more times, flouring board lightly if it becomes sticky. Seal edges of folded dough and place in a greased 8" square cake pan and pat out to fit the pan; butter top lightly and press walnut halves well into the dough. Sprinkle remaining sugar and cinnamon mixture on board and treat second portion of dough same as first portion. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. Bake in a moderate oven, 350°, 15 mins., while preparing the following syrup; simmer together for 5 mins. 1 c. granulated sugar, 1 1/2 tps. grated orange rind, 1/4 c. butter or margarine and 1/2 c. orange juice. Quickly pour hot syrup over the 2 partially-baked cakes and bake cakes about 15 mins. longer. Stand baked cakes on cake coolers for 20 minutes, then loosen edges and gently shake from pans.

Famous Trichologist Will

Demonstrate How To

Grow Thicker Hair

... And Guarantees It!

DEMONSTRATION TO BE HELD HERE

This new method of home treatment for saving and growing thicker hair will be demonstrated in Digby, Nova Scotia, Monday ONLY, April 4.

Halifax, March 19.

In an interview here today William Keele, internationally famous trichologist and director of the Keele Hair Experts, said: "There are 18 different scalp disorders that cause most men and women to lose hair. Using common sense, a person must realize no one tonic or so-called cure-all could correct all these disorders," he explained.

Guaranteed

"The Keele firm, recognizing that most people are skeptical of claims that hair can be grown on balding heads, offer a guarantee," Keele said.

Once a person avails himself of the Keele treatment his skepticism immediately disappears. To insure this, we offer this guarantee: If you are not completely satisfied with your hair progress at the end of 30 days your money will be returned."

Hopeless Cases Discouraged

First the trichologist is quick to tell hopeless cases that they cannot be helped. But the "hopeless" cases are few. Only if a man is completely, shiny bald is he in this lost category.

If there is fuzz, no matter how light, thin or colorless, the Keele treatment can perform wonders.

A complete, private examination is given by a trichologist to determine the condition of the scalp, and cause for his hair trouble.

Free Examinations

This examination is very thorough and highly technical. It requires 20 to 30 minutes. The trichologist makes no charge for this examination and no appointment is necessary. After the examination the person is told the required length of treatment and how much it will cost.

After starting treatment, the person makes regular reports to the Keele firm in Halifax to check the progress of the home treatment.

FAST RELIEF FOR RHEUMATIC PAIN

"KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

There is one thing Keele wants every man and woman to know. If a recession appears at the temples or a spot begins to show up on the crown of the head, there is something wrong and it should be given immediate attention.

Hair For Lifetime

"If clients follow our directions during treatment, and after they finish the course, there is no reason why they will not have hair all the rest of their lives" Keele said. "Our firm is definitely behind this treatment. It all depends on the individual client's faithful observation of a few simple rules!"

How's Your Hair?

If it worries you, call Trichologist W. N. Young at the Champlain Hotel in Digby, Nova Scotia on Monday ONLY, April 4, 12 noon to 3 p.m. The public is invited. You do not need an appointment. The examination is private and you will not be embarrassed or obligated in any way.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Deliver Special Message

A spokesman for Jehovah's Witnesses announced plans to day for delivering a special message to the world. Mr. Holmes, local president minister of the Digby congregation, revealed some of the details of this special campaign, which includes sponsoring the public lecture entitled "Christendom or Christianity - Which One is 'The Light of the World'?" All congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world (there are approximately 14,000 in 159 lands) will participate.

Mr. T. Holmes will deliver this discourse locally, to which the public is cordially invited. It will be delivered at the Kingsdon Hall, Victoria Street, on Sunday evening.

After the discourse a new 32-page booklet containing extraordinary information will be given to each person in attendance. Some 60,000 of Jehovah's Witnesses will then begin distribution of millions of copies of this special message in many languages throughout the world. It is the desire of Jehovah's Witnesses to place a copy in every home. Mr. Holmes said the contents of this specially prepared booklet had not yet been made public, but its message was unique and would be of special interest to persons of all faiths.

Advance preparation and the world wide scope of this special campaign give indication that this may well be one of the greatest religious proclamations in modern history. Mr. Holmes said he went on to tell of local plans that have been made, stating that Jehovah's Witnesses here are ready and eagerly look forward to this special campaign.

The Bear River and Centreville congregations will also sponsor this lecture. It will be delivered also on Sunday afternoon at the York theatre at Bear River and the Community Hall at Centreville.

As most people around here know, writing a newspaper column isn't my line. As it says at the top, Cars Are My Line. In handling anything as important as cars, though, you get to know something about them. You get to know how the sweet purr of a good engine should sound; you hear stories about old cars and you get to know how to look after a car.

You get to know a good car from a lemon because, if you think about it a minute, you'll see that we have to BUY cars as well as sell them. So we have to know what a good car is. And while we're about it, we pick up a lot of interesting stories we think are worth passing along.

It's our shop talk... just like the talk of the railway men who remember the record set way back by Old No. 530, or sailors who remember the Big Storm, or army buddies who remember the Big War which is, of course, the one they fought in.

I hope you'll enjoy stopping at this spot every week and I hope I can pass along some shop talk that'll be useful. I'm not going to get complicated or technical, there are too many people today trying to bamboozle others with big words and fancy phrases.

All the fancy adjectives haven't been able to change some things. Like honest trade, a dollar paid for a dollar's value. Whatever you may think about the dollar today, it won't buy more sound motoring than at our used car lot. As I said before, we have to buy cars as well as sell them and before we take a car in we make sure it's a sound, tight, clean car. We make doubly sure after we have it, and then we offer it on our lot.

He received his early education at Oakdene Academy and graduated in Pharmacy, Dalhousie University, class of '22. Due to ill health he retired from Henshaw's Pharmacy at Liverpool, N.S. and made his home at Port Mouton.

Major Henshaw was a veteran of World War I also a Past Master of Zetland Lodge, A.F. & A.M. No. 9 and a member of Rossmore Chapter, No. 6, Royal Arch Masons, Liverpool, N.S.

He is survived by his wife, the former Alma Potter, of Central Port Mouton; one sister-in-law, Elsie M. Henshaw, Salem, Mass.; one nephew, Laurence Henshaw, Bear River; and five nieces.

Funeral service was held from the Bear River United Baptist Church on Wednesday at 4 p.m., conducted by Rev. E. Robertson, of Clementsvale. Interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery.

Take Steps To Collect Taxes

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of Bear River school section number 24 for fire protection purposes was held on Tuesday evening, March 22, in the Bear River Fire Hall with an attendance of only twenty-six. Mr. L. V. Harris acted as chairman of the meeting.

The report of the Volunteer Fire company was presented by Fire Chief, A. V. Banks and noted the Department had attended a total of twenty-three fires in the village and one outside, with the only loss being a barn several miles away which was too far gone when they arrived on the scene. The fire chief asked that the general public to refrain from the practice of blocking the highways leading to the scene of fires and from the habit of parking cars so near to the actual fire that it was sometimes almost an impossibility to get the fire apparatus in position to fight the fire. The attendance of the firemen continues to be good and special mention was made concerning Captain Carl Parker and Fireman Alban Riley who attended twenty and seventeen fires respectively.

Mr. Roy Snell, the retiring Commissioner, gave praise to the Fire Company for the efficient and cheerful manner they maintained during the year when called upon to attend fires and felt their promptness in getting to the scene should be a source of pride and satisfaction to all the residents of Bear River. Mr. Snell stated the only source of disappointment was the continued increase in tax arrears which have now reached the sum of nearly $2,000.00 in three and one half years.

After some discussion a resolution was passed instructing the Fire Commissioners to take legal action to collect these arrears. Delinquent taxpayers will be given plenty of opportunity to pay on a voluntary basis it was said, and it is hoped it will be found unnecessary to make use of such drastic means.

Mr. B. R. McCarthy was elected Commissioner for a three-year period and Mr. D. A. Purves was appointed as auditor for the year ending February 28, 1956.

OBLIGATION CEREMONY PRESENTED BY CHAPTER

For the Good of the Order a very impressive Obligation ceremony was presented with the Worthy Matron, Worthy Patron, Conductress, Associate Conductress and Star Points taking part and Muriel Seeley as soloist. The meeting then closed in the regular manner and refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Mrs. Gilbert Dakin spent a week in Halifax recently with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dakin and her husband.

Mrs. Carl Titus and two children spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Tidd, at Whale Cove on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thibodeau and son, Melvin, motored to Halifax on Sunday to meet their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Carrier and baby, of British Columbia, who arrived by airplane. Mr. Carrier is transferred to Halifax. He will spend a few days here this week.

Ingram Dakin will observe his 80th birthday anniversary on March 31st. He is the oldest resident in Centreville. We wish him many happy birthdays.

Attend Church Easter Sunday.

Maybe two CAN live as cheaply as one, but when two gets to be three or four or five you need more living space.

Convert your attic to sleeping quarters for the youngsters. It's a worthwhile project that can help solve your space problems and add greatly to the value of your home.

Use the big sheets of plywood to cover wall, ceiling or floor. You can do a quick job without costly tools. And you can do it on Hicks's easy Home Improvement Finance Plan.
