FOREWORD

I have extracted the early information reel by reel as there are many missing issues, incomplete issues and torn and dark hard-to-read pages. I have, however, indexed all issues that have been microfilmed during the period 1877-1895. In some cases, whole years are missing and I have listed these below.

I know I have likely made mistakes in spelling, etc., trying to read the old Couriers but I have done them as I see them. I have tried to read each Courier carefully and I hope that I have not missed many births, deaths, marriages, etc. but I am sure I've missed a few.

Many of the obituaries, birth announcements and marriages appear as part of the community news. Even when these are also printed as separate announcements, there is often more information in the community news column. For example, in the reporting of a funeral, the names of family members coming home for the funeral may be mentioned.

I have also tried to add some interesting happenings from communities such as fires, discoveries, and other interesting tidbits on families as well as some shipwrecks under the names of the ships, but could not enter them all. I also listed a few of the probates, to show that they appeared in the weekly papers, but there were too many to include them all.

This project started as just births, deaths and marriages but I soon felt that I had to give the feeling of how useful early papers are in telling family and community news. I have tried to give a feeling of what really can be found between the pages of these old papers.

I would be glad to hear of any omissions or mistakes in spelling etc. Note, however, that though many spellings for names may look incorrect, I have used the forms of spelling given in the original notices.

I would like to thank the staff of the Isaiah W. Wilson Memorial Library. Without their full co-operation in booking the microfilm reader, being sure that the film I was working on was there, encouragement and kind words, this publication would not have been possible. Thanks also to Virginia Stoddard, Janice Boudreau and the Headquarters staff of the Western Counties Regional Library for their help in getting the book ready for publication, doing the cover, proofreading and the numerous communications back and forth a project like this required. Thank you to you all.
