—FROM the comments made in the press, both in Europe and America, no man could have come into the office in the presidential chair, concerning whose future, opinion is so divided, as in the case of the new president of the United States. It is said that he is the strongest man who has risen to the Presidency since Lincoln. Machines and cliques are said to be abhorrent to President Roosevelt; that he has always been an open, straightforward, and honest man. Indeed those who are longing for a break-up of the "boss system" and the introduction of cleaner methods in party management, are fast to recognize the advent of Mr. Roosevelt as the possible dawn of a new era. In support of this view it is recalled that when he was Governor of New York in the last days of the session of the State Legislature of 1896, he forced the lobby and forced the passage of the franchise bill. For having thus audaciously thwarted the party machine, Mr. Platt, the unquestioned boss of that state, with all the big bankers, street railway, gas and electric magnates desisted from their support of the governor-elect. The only way to get rid of him was to have him nominated as vice president. The late President and Senator Hanna had occasion to remark that, but Mr. Platt took advantage of the popular demand from the West that the Rough Rider colonel should get the nomination. Mr. Roosevelt, it is perfectly aware that neither of these party bosses has any love for him, while they, for their part are very jealous of him, able to control the new president as they did his predecessor. Mr. Roosevelt has three years to serve in his new position and it is not unlikely he will be given a new term in 1904.

—SINCE the arrival in Europe of the Chinese mission, headed by Prince Chin, to apologize to the Emperor of Germany, the German court officials have had all they could do to prevent the ceremony from being a ridiculous one in the eyes of the world. Through the whole affair the Chinese have conducted themselves much after the manner of Gallio when he was Lulligian, and gave to many touches of Oriental humor to what was intended by the Emperor to be a solemn act of humiliation for a great wrong, that really seemed of it they had determined to make the mission appear like the concession of a great person to a petulant child with whom it would be undignified to quarrel. It was necessary to placate in order to stop its noise. The caricatures were so close to the idea and picture the attitude of the great personage, concerned in a manner that must have been very annoying to the Emperor. The proceedings of the mission after the policy had been decided upon, had added a few more touches of absurdity which seemed to have exasperated the Emperor, who, according to latest reports, has summarily expelled Prince Chin and his suite from the German Empire. The German Government is stated, considers it important that the character of the mission be not marred by allowing it to be put in capitals. This is a good way of putting the case, but Prince Chin will leave Europe with the conviction that all their kind and their kindred are some points in diplomacy which western barbarians have yet to learn.

A very interesting article was received by Dr. Gould recently from that lonely piece of earth called Matinicus. Dr. Gould has a system of pigeons which convey messages from the mainland, and Saturday there came a pigeon to the homing loft at Tenen's Harbor conveying news of the death of a young man. The man, who was a member of the crew of a schooner, was found dead on the beach, and was found that the pigeon had seen No. 1 shot imbedded in her body and wings. With this injury by a thoughtless sportsman the bird had flown across with her message and true to instinct the bird had delivered her message. Shortly after her home coming the bird died.

—LOUIS Kitchener is reported to have asked for power to hang rebels, traitors and murderers without reference to the home government. Such power has been given to him on him when he has been given it by assumed it without authority he has exceeded his duty. The purpose of the project of war is the restoration of peace on a permanent basis without unnecessary loss of life. The surgeon could afford to save an arm from the outer Lord Kitchener should have cut off the rebels, traitors and murderers in South Africa to prevent protracted and unnecessary bloodshed.

WEDNESDAY'S ELECTIONS.

THE LIBERAL CAPTURED 36 OF THE 38 SEATS.

Wednesday proved a fortunate day for the Murray government in this province. In many counties only a small vote was recorded. Very little interest was shown in the Digby county, we will be noticed by the returns. Only 36 people voted in the last days of the session of the State Legislature of 1896, he forced the lobby and forced the passage of the franchise bill. For having thus audaciously thwarted the party machine, Mr. Platt, the unquestioned boss of that state, with all the big bankers, street railway, gas and electric magnates desisted from their support of the governor-elect. ## To Shrewd and Careful Buyers.

This is an advertisement and nothing more. It is a plain and simple statement of some very unusual bargains which we shall offer in our during the following week. It is to clear out certain lines and make room for other departments which are growing faster than our store space allows. Incidentally we know that we will save dollars for all our customers. The prices talk comment is unnecessary.

THE LESSON OF HEALTH.

In One Thought Us By Experience Of Others.

LEARN THIS LESSON WELL AND THE RAVAGES OF DISEASE WILL NO LONGER BE SO PREVALENT—THE STORY OF ONE WHO HAS BEEN BENEFITED AND WHO OFFERS HER EXPERIENCE TO ALL OTHERS.

From Liberator, Sept. 1900.

Among the multitude of ailments that afflict human beings there are few that cause more acute misery than indigestion or dyspepsia, and it is variously called. Both young and old are susceptible to its attacks, and its victims throughout the country are numbered by tens of thousands. Among the disagreeable symptoms which accompany dyspepsia and make it easily recognizable are weight, uneasiness and a heavy feeling in the stomach after eating. Indigestion, sick headache and dizziness, pains in the stomach often cause breath, irritability, etc. Ordinary medicines will not cure dyspepsia. They only relieve the symptoms, and put the trouble always returns and each time is an intensified form. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the only medicine which will thoroughly and effectively cure dyspepsia. These pills act not merely upon the symptoms, but on the disease itself through the blood, hence the blood is purified, strength is restored and it returns to its normal time.

Mrs. A. Lussier, a lady well known in the city, is one of many who have been relieved from the sufferings of dyspepsia through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in the hope that her experience will be of benefit to some other sufferer, she has written the following story for publication: "For over two years I was a sufferer from dyspepsia or bad digestion. The disease became chronic and I was almost constantly suffering from headaches, heartburn and neuralgia. All sense of taste left me and at times my stomach was so weak that I was unable to keep my food on it, and this caused more distress than one can imagine. Although I tried several remedies, none of them gave me any relief, and I began to regard my life as a burden, rather than a joy as it should be. One day while reading I came across a case similar to my own, cured through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so I bought a box of six pills, and to my surprise I decided to give the pills a trial. I had not taken the pills long before I could see that my hopes for recovery were being realized. By the time I had taken half a dozen boxes all symptoms of the trouble had disappeared and I was able to enjoy my food as before. I have been free from the malady. I have no hesitation in saying that I think that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best remedy for dyspepsia, and I can strongly advise all sufferers to give them a trial."

The old adage "experience is the best teacher" might well be applied in cases of dyspepsia, and if sufferers would be guided by the experience of those who have suffered but are now well and happy through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, there would be less suffering throughout the land. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be had at all dealers in medicine, by mail, post paid, at six cents a box of six pills, for 12 cents, at Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Not In Digby

A story is told of a young man who is very bad. He calls on a young lady to spend the evening and when he got ready to leave he realized that a heavy rain was raging. He had no umbrella or rubber coat, and when his father asked him to remain at the house he readily consented. The next morning when he was invited to a seat at the table he very humbly accepted. He was very nervous and when he sat opposite a mirror and saw his reflection he was so shocked that he covered his face with his hands. United States Navy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—Admiral Crowsfield says that if the United States Navy were to be called upon to man the ships for war service, it could not meet the demand. There are not enough line officers to man the ships, and the only remedy is to increase the number of cadets at the naval academy to not less than 800.

Philosophy—There are pills and pills. But Dr. Williams' Liver Pills is a vital aid in the treatment of the stomach. The digestive organs, the stomach, the liver, the bowels are the seat of many of the most common ailments. The cause is a vital aid in the treatment of the stomach. Domestic Degree Was Invalid

TORONTO, Oct. 11.—The Telegraph special cable from London says: "The Statute which was passed in 1886, giving the degree of Bachelor of Science to the University of Toronto, was declared invalid by the Privy Council. The English law does not permit employment of any but English doctors, but if Canada were to permit English doctors to practice in Canada without securing a Canadian degree, England would reciprocate."

Yellow Pine Lumber Higher

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 11.—The Georgia Saw Mill Association, embracing yellow pine lumber manufacturers of Georgia, Alabama and Florida, in convention at Cordele, Ga., have decided to raise the price of extra large coastwise lumber $1 per 1,000 feet. This is the second similar advance since August. The raise was said to be necessary in order to defray the cost of cutting lumber for extra sizes and lengths. It was reported that practically all mills in the association had orders for four months ahead.

A Steamship Deal.

C. W. MORSE CONFIRMS PURCHASE OF INTERNATIONAL LINE.

A New York dispatch says that C. W. Morse confirms the report that he has purchased the International Steamship Co., and the Portland Steamship Co., which operates between Boston and Portland. Mr. Morse declined to state the basis of the purchase, but it is said that the investment involves several millions. When asked if he did not also control the Maine Steamship Co., the vessels of which ply between Portland and New York, Mr. Morse said that he is interested in the property.

The purchase of the International Steamship Co., and the Portland Steamship Co., now gives Mr. Morse control of all Maine navigation lines with the exception of a minor company. The rumor that he is making acquisitions in the interest of the New York Central Railroad is denied. Mr. Morse says he will build several more steamships for use on the various lines and make other improvements.

A Bangor dispatch gives an interview with Calvin Austin of Boston, president and general manager of the Boston & Bangor Steamship Company, as recently organized by Charles W. Morse. He said: "The Bangor, Portland, Kennebec and International lines, which have recently been purchased by Mr. Morse, have been incorporated under the laws of Maine into the Eastern Steamship Company. The general offices will be in Boston. No change is contemplated in the employment of the company on any of the various routes."

It is reported that it is the intention of the new company to vastly improve the service on the Portland-Bangor route. The fleet will be maintained, or until such time as adequate dockage for the large fleet at one place can be secured. The fleet will consist of a City of Bangor and City of Rockland, two boats, and Governor Dingley, screw, are almost new. The fleet in the City of Bangor, City of Rockland, Governor Dingley and Governor Dingley, screw, are almost new.

To Protest German Interests

WAR VESSELS BEING SENT TO SOUTH AMERICAN WATERS.

BERLIN, Oct. 15.—According to a special dispatch from Kiel to the Local Anzeiger, preparations on the German cruiser fleet are being hurried so that they may leave for South American waters next Tuesday.

The Briniger Tagblatt says: "The gunboat Panther, which is nearing completion in the Imperial yards at Kiel, is to be sent to the States of Brazil, the Orinoco and the Plate for the protection of German interests. She is of the improved Itz type, with stronger armament and is capable of 12 knots."

Earl of Minto May Resign

LONDON, Oct. 12.—We understand, says the Daily Chronicle, that owing to friction with the ministry the Earl of Minto is not likely to complete his term as Governor-General of Canada. If he resigns, the appointment will be offered to Baron De Blaquiere.

The Rt. Hon. William De Blaquiere is a son of the late Lord De Blaquiere of Woodstock, Ont. He was born in 1836, was educated at local schools and for a time was a clerk in the Bank of Montreal. He married a daughter of the late George C. De Blaquiere, Montreal, and succeeded to the peerage as the sixth Baron De Blaquiere, of Ardill Co., Londonderry, Ire., in 1889. He is also a baronet, great-grandfather of a baronet, a magistrate of the county of Somerset and city of Bath.

Nervous Depression

How it strikes one, invades sleep, destroys strength and adds a real misery to life. Not the stomach, but the nerves are affected. Nervous depression is a real misery. Not the stomach, but the nerves are affected. Nervous depression is a real misery. Not the stomach, but the nerves are affected.

Canadian Will Challenge

HAMILTON, N. S., Oct. 11.—It is positively stated that a Montreal syndicate, of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, James Ross of Montreal, president of the Dominion Coal Company, and other members of the Cape Breton Yacht Club, have made up their minds to build a yacht to challenge for the America's cup. The yacht will be named "Canada" and will certainly challenge for the cup either this year or next.

Corn Sowing

Is a process which is being backed up by good light boots—you may lack the variety but you have the boots—you may wear them for a season but you will not wear your boots for a season. Corn sowing is a process which is being backed up by good light boots—you may lack the variety but you have the boots—you may wear them for a season but you will not wear your boots for a season.

What the Boot Said to the Babe

General Hector Macdonald, asked by Lord Roberts during the latter's advance upon Pretoria if the Highland Brigade could reach a certain point by a certain day, replied: "Yes, if your cavalry can keep up with them."

Lost With These

Let me be with these, with these my God, When the night shadows me with my shadow

What ever devils pass my feet have found, Their side from these, my soul's sweet friend

Back from my broken extremities take, These down my broken limbs, alone, I would find

Let me be in the night, in the night, Let me be in the night, in the night

What ever devils pass my feet have found, Their side from these, my soul's sweet friend

Back from my broken extremities take, These down my broken limbs, alone, I would find

meanwhile she was free, and of the chair and push her hair back

Really, her life was delightful; the lace wrapper and laughed to herself as she sat for the first time before her stirring. Her parlor was warm and the light, softened by colored shades; a bit of staid wood from the logs sent a spicy fragrance into the air with the best

She rubbed her hands among the cushions and laughed again to herself.

It was a notion of her own, this half hour rest before retiring. For the sake of the theatre.

Going out to supper, and sitting up and drinking wine were simply, besides such a course would spoil her good looks. A warm, all by herself, half hour in her room, with the group of her first company and her milk punch and biscuit for refreshment, was much richer.

It was nice to feel that the comfort of her first company and her milk punch and biscuit for refreshment, was much richer.

Severe Disaster To the British.

TWO GUNS CAPTURED AND MANY OFFICERS AND MEN KILLED AND WOUNDED.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Lord Kitchener, a disaster to the British near Bethel, Eastern Transvaal, in which two guns were lost, several officers were killed or wounded and fifty-four men were killed and the remainder wounded. The following is the text of Lord Kitchener's despatch, dated Pretoria, November 1: "I have just heard of a severe attack made on the rear guard of Col. Benson's column when about twenty miles north west of Bethel, near Brakenlaagte, during a thick mist."

"The strength of the enemy is reported to have been a thousand. They rushed two guns with the rear guard, but it is uncertain whether they were able to remove them. I fear our casualties were heavy. Col. Benson was wounded, but not severely. A relieving column will reach him tomorrow."

The other casualties are the following: Killed: Captain E. Guinness, Major F. D. Murray, Captain W. M. Lindsay, Captain W. T. Thordell, Lieutenant E. T. Brooke, Lieutenant R. E. Shephard, Lieutenant A. J. Corbett. Died of his wounds, Captain E. Lloyd.

Lord Kitchener gives the names of thirteen other officers who were wounded, most of them severely, and announces that fifty-four N. C. officers and men were killed and one hundred and thirty wounded. He says that four of the latter have succumbed to their wounds.

The despatch then says: "I assume that the guns have been recovered and that the enemy have withdrawn, but I have no further details. I deeply regret the loss of Col. Benson and the officers and men who fell with him. In Benson the service loses a most gallant and capable officer, who invariably led his column with marked success and judgment."

"The fighting was at very close quarters and maintained with great determination by both sides. The enemy suffered heavily, but have not yet received a reliable estimate."

"The Boers retired east." Col. Benson had been some time operating in the vicinity of Bethel, which is north east of Standerton. He surprised a Boer laager October 22 near Trinchaudfontein, taking thirty-two prisoners. Three days later, he moved to Lord Kitchener's report at the time, after a long night march, the commandos under Grobelaar and Erasmus heavily attacked Benson's rear guard and drove it to the north, but were easily driven away."

Whether this was the attack which resulted so disastrously for whether the Boers who had been driven to the advantage of the British, to the attack, is still unexplained. Lord Kitchener does not give the date of the Bethel engagement.

LORE LAKE SURPRISE. LONDON, Nov. 7.—A despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, received here today says that Colonel Kekewich, during a night surprise of the Alibers laager, north west of Rustenburg (about fifty miles west of Pretoria) captured 87 Boers.

General Brock. Much curiosity is expressed as to what correspondents of English newspapers on the royal train might say of Canada. Some of the correspondents, might be said by the correspondents, which would attract attention in Europe toward the resources and wealth of the country. This will doubtless follow. Here is a despatch, however, which indicates that the London "Times" correspondent slipped up, or paid little heed to the subject. On an incident in Canada's past, which was full of meaning as to the destiny of the British flag in America. The despatch follows, and is dated Oct. 13.

"This morning after church, the royal party went by the steamer 'Corona' to Queenstown, thence by trolley to the monument to Brail and Brock, who fell in the Fenian raid."

As General Brock was killed at the battle of Queenstown Heights on Oct. 18, 1812, and the Fenian raid was in 1866 and 1870, the joke is on the "Times" correspondent. The visit of the Duke to the scene, in fact, was on the anniversary of the battle. Who "Brail" is no one seems to know. It is probably a misprint.

The historians state that the battle in which Brock was killed was a fierce one, and that the British were victorious. The subject. It will be learned there that of the comparatively small force engaged on either side the British lost several killed and several wounded. Out of fifty Indian allies there were five killed and nine wounded. The United States was set down at ninety killed, hundred wounded, and nine hundred and thirty-one officers and men killed and rendered. It was a crushing defeat.

Old Jake.

He did chores about camp. No body ever gave much thought to him. He had no trade, no money, no family, no house but that which he got from season to season in return for milking, plowing and carrying the logs for the camp-fires. No one loved him, no one but the cook cats. Wherever you saw Jake, there was a cow cat at his heels. Old Jake was one of the folk we are apt to call "goodness mortals."

One night, it must have been near twelve o'clock, I was making preparations to go to bed. I saw John's Ford, the gun had to be cleaned, and I was out of oil. Jake had a recipe known to be collected after a kind known only to woodsmen. His regular duty had been finished hours before and there was no reason why he should not be in his bunk, so, as I came to his cabin, I stopped quietly, and cautiously I lifted the door, for there was no one waking him. I knew I was welcome to the oil if I could find the bottle in which he kept it. But Jake had the oil in a small bottle, and he was lying on his back, with his head under the pillow, and his hands clasped over his chest. He was dead.

But as I went out and stood under the deep mountain sky, I wondered how many more men of whom I never knew, were lying in their graves in every night of their life, and it came to me that the world was full of men reaching up after the Father, as the dark spaces in that sky were crowded with the stars, and I thought of the far away light, to find and fellowship our earth.—Selected.

Tagged Children Cannot Travel.

Railroad men have rebelled against the tagged child shipped without a guardian to look after it. According to accounts, the business has been overdone. Hundreds of children have been shipped through New York to San Francisco bearing tags containing directions of destination. Of course the passengers, many of whom are parents, are responsible for its safety, and must see that it has its meals and is put to bed. It is astonishing how many parents take chances, trusting to luck to see the precious ones safely through a journey and save their own funds by not going along. Often relatives worried of caring for a dependent child will ship it to someone else who dares not refuse to receive helpless innocence. Railroad men have decided not to take any more of this young to care for itself, unless it is accompanied by a guardian.—Chicago Post.

King Leopold of Belgium, who is known in France as the Roi Chasseur, owing to his love for travelling by motor car, has been taking a cure at Luchon, where he was very popular among the visitors. These, however, had one thing to complain of, owing to the presence of the monarch in their midst. The King, who is a lover of solitude, rarely took his meals in the rooms of his hotel. He preferred to mingle with the people at the table d'hôte and to join in the general conversation. The visitors were flattered and pleased by the King's condescension at first, but they found to their intense surprise that they had to pay for the honor of the monarch's presence. The rock-rising so abruptly from the fields, adds to the color of the scene its way over the roof and the ever-green outline of the dull gray of the heavy eaves. The flourishing Virginia is making an effort to cast shadow through the glistering windows of the "first room in the house," complete the beauty of the Irish interior, however, we must have a look at his kitchen, the use room is dearer to his heart than the rest of the household. In a certain regiment, an Irishman and a Scotchman being in company, their conversation turned to the strength of the Scotch. Says Scotty to Pat: "Scotland can boast of the strongest man in the world." "How's that?" said Pat. "Well," says Scotty, "we have a man in Scotland that can put his arms around the biggest tree and pull it up by the roots." "Pshaw," said Pat, "that's nothing. In Old Ireland we have a man that can get into a house and pull up the river." (Collapsing) Scotty.

 BALTIMORE, Md., June 10.—"I have been cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I can now be heard at your discretion. About a year ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse until I was almost deaf. I tried all kinds of treatment, but without any success. I then tried your treatment, and after a few days the ringing ceased entirely. After a few more days I was able to hear again. I am now able to hear as well as I ever did. I am very grateful to you for your treatment, and I am sure it will be of great benefit to many others who are suffering from deafness. I am sure that your treatment is the best in the world, and I am sure that it will be of great benefit to many others who are suffering from deafness. I am sure that your treatment is the best in the world, and I am sure that it will be of great benefit to many others who are suffering from deafness."

Among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever. After a somewhat longer stay in the hospital, the doctor had used it only a few days according to your directions, the weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored to remain.

Very truly yours, borax and a pint of soft soap into cold water sufficient to cover the blankets. When the borax and soap have dissolved, put in the blankets and let them stand over night. The next day rub them out, rinse in two waters and hang them to dry. Never wash them.

The Queens of Portugal is perhaps the most athletic woman ruler in the world. She is particularly fond of swimming, and at Cascais swims farther each day there than any of the other bathers.
