MARCONI'S MOTHER

She Encouraged Her Son in His Early Studies.

HER FAMILY WAS WELL TO DO, AND SHE HAD EVERYTHING IN EDUCATION AND TRAINING THAT MON

COULD BUY OR DUBLIN COU OFFER.

(Cleveland Leader.)

When John Jamison, the famous Dublin whisky manufacturer, decided to send his daughter Annie to Italy to continue her musical studies, he became unconsciously a maker of history.

for in the course of time, as the result of his act, the girl met and married Giuseppe Marconi, and to this Irish-Italian union there was born a son, who is now known to all the world as one of the greatest scientists and inventors of his time.

Annie Jamison was a beautiful, adventurous girl in her teens. Her family was well to do and she liked everything in the way of education and training that money could buy and Dublin could offer. Her father was the founder of the house, so far as the business which still bears his name was concerned, but her ancestry extended back into the times of Scotland's greatest era and her forefathers were people of influence and power.

There is a well authenticated story of one of her great-great-grandmothers who was famous in her day for her intellectual ability, and a sort of legend has come down to the effect that she prophesied that one of her descendants would become known and honored throughout the civilized world. Whether this last story was invented matters little; certain it is that a young man has cause to be proud of his Scotch ancestry, and particularly of his mother. For his mother has been of more actual, though indirect help to him than can be told. She was who encouraged him in his earliest efforts. The boy attended school together not more than three or four years. It fell to the lot of his mother to teach him, and from her he learned to speak the English language, to play the piano and to get a start in the varied accomplishments which make him now as a many sided man.

Several romances might be written about the wooing and winning of Annie Jamison, but probably none of them would be true. Mrs. Marmaduke which would be true. Mrs. Harter prefers to hide herself behind her son and to be known simply as his mother. Of her courtship and marriage she will say little save that the former was a case of true love and the latter of pure domestic happiness. She went to Italy, as has been said, to continue her music under better instruction than she could have secured at home.

and it was during her stay in Italy that she met a dashing young Italian. The two soon discovered that they had a mutual liking for outdoor sports, both rode well, and the young man was not long in coming to the decision that he preferred the Irish girl to an English girl of his own country. In addition there was a very happy liking for 'intellectual' subjects.

At any rate she is a woman to deserve the praise of the world, and that praise she receives from all who know her.

Another Happy Mother TELLS HOW HER BABY OF EIGHT MONTHS
PROFITED BY WISE TREATMENT.

Teething time is the critical age in child's life. Any slight disorder in the stomach or bowels at that time greatly increases the peevishness of the little one and may have serious and even fatal results. It is impossible to take too great care of your baby's health during this period, and no better remedy than Baby's Own Tablets known for the minor ailments of childhood. Among the mothers who have proved the worth of this medicine—Mrs. R. McMaster, Cookstown, Ont. Her little baby girl was suffering from the combined trials of indigestion, constipation and teething, and the mother strength was severely taxed by the continuous care the child needed. A box of Baby's Own Tablets, however, made such an improvement that Mrs. McMaster is now enthusiastic in their praise. "It gives me great pleasure to testify to the value of Baby's Own Tablets," she writes. "My baby of eight months was much troubled with constipation and indigestion, and was restless at night. I procured a box of Baby's Own Tablets, and the result were so satisfactory that I have not used any other medicine since. My baby girl is now regular and healthy and getting her teeth seems much easier, and she resists a great deal better. These Tablets are a great help to little ones when teething.

Baby's Own Tablets are guaranteed to contain no opiate or other harmful drug. They produce natural sleep because they regulate the stomach and bowels.

They promptly cure such troubles as colic, sour stomach, constipation, diarrhoea, worms, indigestion, and simple fever. They break up colds, prevent croup, and allay the irritation accompanying the cutting of teeth. Dissolved in water, they can be given with absolute safety to the youngest infant. Sold by druggists, or sent postpaid at 25 cents a box, by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Free

Summer Care of House Plants

A very satisfactory shelter for house plants may be made by setting up four posts in a square, to which strips of cloth or boards can be nailed about an inch apart. Make a roof of the same material, and put on in the same way as the strips on the sides, which should be in a sort of lattice. Such a shelter will admit all the air that is stirring, and all the sunshine that the plants need, and will not prevent any one of them from getting the benefit of dews and showers, while it will break the force of strong winds.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, April 4, 1902.

EASTERN SUNDAY. With its soul-inspiring music, sermons of love and good will, its beautiful flowers, its music by the children and all the beautiful objects lessons which the day furnished, still lingers on the mind, and its impressions are those of "peace on earth and good will among men." The risen Saviour, depicted in the most tender language, seemed once again on earth walking with men, bearing his cross, giving out those wonderful sermons which even the dumbest intellect could understand, as the words of the Saviour of men impressed themselves upon the heart.

At this stage of the world with its materialistic current sweeping so strongly in its course, it is well to occasionally divert our minds of dollars and cents, of trade and traffic, of money and trust, and ask if this is all of life, and it is worth the while to prize the phantom of wealth and self-aggrandizement to the detriment of our better self and stout our spiritual nature the untold richness which can give us such true happiness, even when the shadows of the darkened world are upon us.

Easter time raises the thought to the land beyond where so many of our loved ones have preceded us. They have risen, they have solved the mystery and bid us be faithful to the end, and the memory of these loved ones was fresh in the hearts of very many who participated in Sunday's Easter services, and these memories will serve to draw their thoughts to that better country toward which their steps are daily tending, and to inspire them with faith and courage for the remainder of the earthly journey.

As a consequence of the industrial depression in Germany, the threatened increase in the price of wheat, and the advertising of the United States in the German press through the visit of Prince Henry, a problem, not new but of greatly increased importance, has been presented to the German Government. The tide of emigration to the United States has suddenly assumed larger proportions than ever. How to keep his own people from going over to increase the strength of his great rival in the industrial conflict between the two nations is the question the Emperor William has now to consider and decide quickly. It is evident that Germany either must import the bulk of her foodstuffs or lose her people, and emigration, and the consequent trade through the high prices necessitated by dear food. The situation is almost precisely the same as that which compelled Sir Robert Balfour to repeal the corn laws in Great Britain, although his parliamentary support was mainly from the landed class. One would think that the wonderful patriotism of British subjects, and the popular contentment which followed the repeal of the corn laws would be sufficient pointers for the German Government in this matter. But Germany is not an insular and maritime nation, and the fact that she has highly protected countries on all sides makes the matter more complicated than was that of Great Britain in the days of Sir Robert Peel. But the economic law is all-powerful in all cases, and though legislation may retard, it cannot prevent its operation.

On any clear night you can scarcely gaze ten minutes at the sky without seeing a shooting star, says W. M. Keen of Princeton University. But that brilliant flash of light, as it flashes before your eyes, was merely a cold and solid piece of rock that had been travelling for ages through space, unrecorded and unknown. Attracted by the earth it plunged into our air with a velocity of 30 or 40 miles a second. We all know how quickly it disappears. Not because it has run through the atmosphere and is again a cold and solid piece in space, but because it has been completely burnt up in the fiery heat that friction with the air generates. If masses of such rocks were hurled from thousands of times greater than the earth attracting each other, came to gather, the velocities would be vastly greater and the result of a collision more than we can imagine. Such a collision may have caused this great conflagration, we are sure that it is so far away that even its light takes many years to reach us. Yet the heaviest travels so fast that it goes from here to the moon in a little less than two seconds. We are therefore safe from this peril, but we ought to know where our own obstruction may be lying in our path.

Keenly Caught Too

(Vermont Herald.)
Yarmouth has been caught for some months in the meshes of Ping Pong, but we kept quiet about the matter. Not that it is surprising in itself, but in connection with the pastime but then you know, there are some things that it is well to keep quiet about. The Western Chronicle says:
"Ping Pong has caught Kentville in its grip and about one hour nowadays is spent in ping pong, or something like that, everybody is playing it and some are so into it in the town, consequently nearly everybody is more or less acquainted with the game. It is said that there are some people in the town who only stop playing when necessity compels them to eat, or sleep, or something else. It is said that the game is so interesting to a tournament on just how much interest is being taken, the first game being played on Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. B. H. Calkin, and at the Aberdeen. It is said that the game has been broken out at Digby and that a number of sets have been obtained."

Gloss of a Remarkable Season

The local legislature closed Thursday March 27th, after a session which lasted nearly two weeks and which was held in many respects. Never before for a long time was so much business done in so short a time, and not only so, but the session introduced many new bills, and the session was very successful. The session was very successful in many respects, and the session was very successful in many respects. The session was very successful in many respects, and the session was very successful in many respects.

A Generous Offer

Capt. L. D. Morton has been informed by Mr. Charles W. Witherby of South New Brunswick, owner of May King, that he has taken his horse from Nova Scotia back to that celebrated stallion, and that the service will be free of charge. The service is very grateful towards the above gentleman, and will take advantage of his generous offer.

Domination Day Celebration

A public meeting will be held in the Digby Central Band room, Central Gravelly Road, Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock, to consider the advisability of holding a Domination Day celebration at Digby. We trust that a large number of our citizens will be present. After the meeting the band will play a short programme of music.

The D. Y. C.

A well attended meeting of the Digby Yacht Club, was held in the Digby Yacht Club, on Monday evening last. Among those present were Mr. Albert, of Moncton, owner of the yacht "Hesperus," who replied to the question of the Yacht Club in that port during the month of August.

Will be Used at Granville

The engine, boiler and pile driving apparatus belonging to the government has been moved from Digby to Granville, N. S. The engine is a 100 H. P. and is a very fine piece of machinery. It is being moved to Granville for use at the railway station.

There should be no foolishness about the business of milking. Make it a business and you will be successful. You can't give your cows a command to have you come to her side. If you can not do this, you are not the one to milk. Let there be no jerking, dawdling nor fussing, and especially no harshness. Neither in you milk and tell-yarns at the time F was there I borrowed a sun umbrella.

Richard—Well, what of that?

Robert—If I go there again, of course I shall have to return the umbrella. It's a nice one. I have about decided to give up the girl.

to farm in South Dakota went into the cream raising business, sold the cream for 10¢ a quart, and sold the milk for 4¢ a quart. They had 4,500 head, and they now have 27,000 enough to pay the expenses of keeping them." The sheep business is also doing well. "The sheep are doing well," says the farmer, "and as they have three times the number they began with, the flock presents nearly six times as much money as they would have had if they were sold for the average old 'wethers,' but I think it pays better to keep them and sell the wool than it would to sell the sheep."

One of the cows will be coming fresh in a short time, upon many farms, will be a good plan to investigate the advantages of the Separator over the milk can. The cream is so much more desirable, and the cream is so much more profitable. A good separator can now be secured at a very reasonable price, and where five or more cows are kept and an attempt to make the cream pay, it is a good plan to use many cases to use. The cream can care for chicks. They should be coddled and pampered to death by overvalued and mistaken kindness. Care is the best part of the routine of poultry culture with its constant and constant care. It is the best part of the routine, to supply their little wants with the view of promoting thrift, good health and dress-making looks, and preparing them for the world and vantage life by giving them such food and adapt necessities as will best accomplish it, but the breeder does not consider it necessary to supply much more than what the chicks will grow up to be perfect specimens of their breed.

Orchard and Garden.

The most effective pruning is done in the early stages of growth.

Sow or plant onions at the very first favorable opportunity in the spring.

Plant your corn in the best soil and put your land in best condition to produce, and give those varieties the preference.

The cuttings of many of the plants to be used in the flower garden should be made in the latter part of February and March. Geraniums' made during these months should be covered with a layer of straw or manure, so that they are given proper care. Other plants that add greatly to the beauty of the garden, and which may be propagated by cuttings, are the following: centaurea. These plants root readily from cuttings. They can be started in an cutting box in the greenhouse in the autumn, and the cuttings should be as long and wide as possible for the limited space, and about four or five inches deep. It should be covered with clean sand. When the cuttings are first made they should be shaded during the heat of the day and sprinkled several times a day until the plants are well rooted. The sand should always be kept moist, but never wet.—Orange Farmer.

Planting of Geraniums in the Garden.

George Budden, Palmyramm, Ont., says:—I have been successful in planting Geraniums in the garden, and the plants are now in flower. I have used the following method:—I have taken the cuttings of the plants in the autumn, and have planted them in the garden in the spring. I have used the following method:—I have taken the cuttings of the plants in the autumn, and have planted them in the garden in the spring. TO RESTOCK THE FARMS Concession Made to Boers by the British.

INTS IN WAR BUDGET--WILL MEET

PROVED -- RICKS-BEACH PRAISES VALOR OF BOERS AND HOPES FOR FRIENDSHIP.

Not for many years had Great Britain's fiscal program been awaited with such interest as that which attached to this year's announcement, and there is no doubt that all the proposals contained in it will be adopted. It is equally certain that none of these proposals will meet with the

More important, perhaps, than the serious form of the new taxation is a statement made by Mr. Hicks, the chancellor of the exchequer, that the government had acceded to the Boer demand concerning the

The Associated Press learns, upon excellent authority, that the principal provision of the budget, namely, the treasury loan of £32,000,000, upon which Hicks-Beach was remarkably succinct, has a serious bearing upon the peace question. There answers to ...a very strong belief in the cabinet, that, owing to the expected early termination of the war, this $32,000,000 will never be needed. When that portion of the budget gets to the committee stage, the peace negotiations will probably have reached such shape.

The failure to explain this important point is taken in the house of commons to indicate that the govern-ent has strong hopes of a speedy ue of the negotiations now progressing at Pretoria between the Boer aders, although it wishes to impress the world in general, and the Boers, in particular, with its ability and determination to push the war to a finish ould the British terms of peace be

Mr. Hicks-Beach is seldom dramatic when he referred yesterday to the vanguard's intention to restock the beer, as well as the colonial farms, his voice rose to an eloquent pitch. His stature, as he spoke, in praise of the beer of the Boers, and expressed his

...for subsequent friendship between Briton and Boer, took the cause with him, and the cheers, especially from the opposition, prevented the speaker from continuing his speech several moments. During this time the chancellor of the exchequer turned towards Mr. Chamberlain, the Summed up, the chancellor's statement shows a total ordinary expenditure for 1909-10, estimated at £245.

The chancellor estimated the total military deficit for the present year at $4,210,000. To the deficit must be added $25,000,000, the balance of the 1902-03 estimated at $25,000,000, with war charges amounting to $27,250,000, making a grand total of $36,460,000, which is $4,962,000 below the total of 1901-02.

about $55,000,000 additional expenditure. The estimated revenue for this year, on the basis of the present taxation, is $738,925,000 additional war expenditure. The estimated revenue for this year, on the basis of the present taxation, is $738,925,000, not including the cost of

A penny tax is imposed on dividend warrants and 2 penny stamps must be placed on checks, instead of 1 penny, heretofore.

The sum of $160,000,000 will be grown.
The income tax is increased a penny the pound sterling.
A duty of 3 pence per cwt is imposed on all imported grain.
The duty on coal is 10 cents per

The revenue from that new taxation is expected to be $25,800,000. After borrowing $160,000,000 the chancellor of the exchequer will make the deficit by drafts on the exchequer.

The chancellor denied that the restoration of duties of about 2.5 per lation of duties on wheat and flour olated the principals of free trade, or ould increase the cost of food. He ought the duties recklessly had been andoned and declared their remission did not reduce the price of food.

The opinions gathered by the Associated Press in interviews with memers of the house of commons indicate the existence of a considerable divergence of ideas with regard to the new taxation, which, although comparatively unimportant in the revenue will yield, affects important economic principles which have hitherto been rather sacred by certain schools

In the house of commons, the general-debate on the budget followed party lines. The house divided on the corn and flour duties resolution, which was adopted by a vote of 254 to 135.

Four Good Habits
There are four good habits—punctuality, accuracy, steadiness and dispatch. Without the first of these time is wasted. Without the second mistakes the most hurtful to our own credit and interest and that of others. Without the third, nothing can be without the third, nothing can be well done, and without the fourth opportunities of great advantage are lost, which it is impossible to recall.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER.

Digby, April 25, 1902.

For some days we have been hearing complaints about the annual invasion of tramp and beggar which seems to have set in a few weeks ahead of time this year, owing no doubt to the mildness of the weather.

While we do not wish to discourage the charity and kindness of our fellow men we question if the bestowing of money and food, the former especially, is the true charity at all, in nine-tenths of the cases in which it is solicited by the tramp class of Nova Scotia. Many of these people have been from the United States, New Brunswick or some remote part of the province. If they have any permanent domicile, their own municipalities are entitled to keep them, if they are unable to establish a claim on any community, the law has provided a means for their maintenance, and they should not be permitted to wander about at their own sweet will, asking of the community to be maintained at the expense of private individuals. Occasional cases no doubt occur when a man who is in bona-fide search of work, and who is in need of food, is asked to ask for a meal or a bed; but such cases are comparatively rare.

We have pawns with large families, children, but in many cases their parents are unable to support them, and are forced to turn to the community for aid. It would be a pity to see such people, who are in need of help, turned away from the door of the community. It would be a pity to see such people, who are in need of help, turned away from the door of the community.

If a by-law can be enacted prohibiting the circulation of begging petitions, and the soliciting for alms, by persons who do not hold a permit from the mayor and chairman of the police committee, we consider it would be a move in the right direction.

It would be a pity to see such people, who are in need of help, turned away from the door of the community. It would be a pity to see such people, who are in need of help, turned away from the door of the community.

The passing of such a by-law and the display of a few notices in conspicuous places, with possibly a couple of arrests for vagrancy, would make the town a more pleasant place to live in, and save considerable annoyance to the community and trouble to the town authorities.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

Little Paragraphs Which Tell of the News Round About Town.

NEWS GATHERED DURING THE WEEK AND PREPARED BY THE BUREAU OF THE COURIER.

The leading hotels are putting out a lot of advertising matter, and the province this summer will be larger than usual.

Digby's new hand stand will be built within a few weeks.

It will be about 10 feet in circumference and will have a roof which will protect the musicians from the hot sun.

A. H. McKay, supt. of Education for Nova Scotia, has our thanks for a copy of the Journal of Education.

Water has been completed on Peter's street, from Sydney to J. L. Peters' store.

It is certainly a big improvement, and when packed will make a nice piece of road.

Considerable lumber will be shipped from Digby this summer.

Preparations are going on for the summer tourist season.

It is said that several of the Digby fishermen will leave the steam trawlers and again try the sailing vessels.

No Jacob's new steam fishing vessel has been built here, and is therefore a great improvement over the old ones.

Digby requires another wharf with a railway siding which would greatly aid shipping facilities.

Number 100 of the Digby by train has to be hauled by teams from the railway to the vessel.

Several fishing vessels are often loaded at Annapolis, which would otherwise receive their cargoes at this port.

We understand that Digby will have a small steamer this summer, and that both will fly the D. Y. flag.

—Although several clubs have been sold this season the fleet will remain about the same.

We will once more call attention to the fact that we cannot publish correspondence unless we have the name of the writer.

—The services of the Digby fire department were called out on Saturday night.

—The Rev. Mr. Wallace will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

HEART TROUBLE

Chemistry of Tears

WEeping IMPROVES THE SIGHT INSTEAD OF WEAKENING IT.

THE TROUBLE AT ALL TIMES AN EXTREMELY DANGEROUS ONE—HOW TO PROMPTLY RELIEVE IT.

There are many forms of heart disease, some of which manifest themselves by systems which are misunderstood by the sufferer and ascribed to indigestion for some similar cause, when the heart is really affected. The slightest derangement of this important organ is extremely dangerous. If at times the action of the pulse is too rapid and the heart beats violently, resulting in a suffocating feeling, or if the heart seems inclined to stop beating, the pulse becomes slow, and you feel faint and dizzy, you should take the best course in the world, and that is to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. You will find that the distressing symptoms will disappear and that the heart at all times acts normally. Mr. Adelaide Lavigne, St. Patome, Quebec, bears strong testimony to the efficacy of this medicine. "For nearly three years I was greatly troubled with a weak heart and in constant fear that I was going to die at any time. I placed myself under a good doctor but did not get the desired relief. In fact I grew worse; the least exertion would overcome me, and I had to discontinue my work. While in this condition a neighbor advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I procured a supply. They were taken for a few days, and when I had used six boxes I was again enjoying good health. I have had no sign of the trouble since and can cheerfully recommend the pills to similar sufferers."

Leaky Liver and Stagnant Kidneys.
When these organs fail to perform their proper functions, the blood becomes poisoned and suffering and disease result. This can be avoided by keeping your vitality at high-water mark, the blood rich and pure by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Ferruginous has a mild but rapid action on the liver and kidneys, and is the greatest producer of red-staining blood known to science. Mending liver, languor, loss of energy, and the tendency to become a victim of the trouble since and can cheerfully recommend the pills to similar sufferers."

A Dog's Race With a Locomotive.
Passengers on the noon train on Sunday on the Boston & Providence road were quickly interested in a pointer dog. The canine would not violate the rules which forbade passengers to stand on the platform, and he was too modest to enter the passenger car, which was crowded, principally by ladies. His master was in a dilemma, and before he had time to resolve what to do the train started, and so did the dog. The locomotive whistled and the dog yelped at defiance as the race began. At times the ambitious animal would be ahead of the engine, and then would fall back. Every window in the train for a head or two peering out to see the head and all sympathized with the dog. He seemed to realize that he was an object of interest, as he would make a dash for the platform and show his teeth and fangs. The train stopped. Had it been any other day than Sunday the dog would have been saluted with hearty cheers by the ladies. As it was, he gave three yelps for glory and almost apert his master, so glad was he at meeting him on terra firma.—From the Boston Times.

Catholics Demand Their Rights.
Boston, April 20.—A meeting of Catholic priests and laymen in Boston college was held at the afternoon, during which the members of the Roman Catholic Church are demanded of their rights in the city. The meeting was held in the city hall, and was attended by a large number of Catholics. The speakers discussed the rights of Catholics in the city, and the need for a more equitable representation in the city government. The meeting was a success, and the speakers were well received by the audience.

When in Harlem, Vanduyke called upon Frank Hals, and without making himself known, said that he was anxious to have his portrait painted. Hals went to work and finished it, and Vanduyke was well pleased. He had a portrait painted some very little thing, said Vanduyke, and he said Hals had done a capital thing with him. Hals said, "You are Vanduyke. No one but you can do what you have done, and so the two great masters were acquainted."

ENGAGED.

Marriage is very largely an accident.

In few cases do men or women select a standard of many or womanly excellence and the lack of it in most cases is engaged as the result of a properly rational choice. And so it often happens that a man and a woman are engaged as the result of a properly rational choice. NATURE'S BLESSING
In Found in Health, Strength and Freedom from Pain

THIS GIFT IS MEANT FOR ALL—ON IT THE HAPPINESS AND USEFULNESS OF LIFE DEPEND—WITHOUT IT LIFE IS AN EXISTENCE HARD TO ENDURE.

Health is nature's choicest gift to man and should be carefully guarded. It is a sign that the blood is healthy, sufficient, watery or impure, for most of the diseases that afflict mankind are traceable to this cause. Every organ of the body requires rich, red blood to enable it to properly perform its life-sustaining functions, and at the first intimation that nature gives that all is not well, the blood should be cared for. Purgative medicines do not do this—it is a tonic that is needed, and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved the world's best remedy for all other medicines in their tonic, strengthening and health-renewing qualities. From one end of the land to the other we find people who have fully acknowledged that they owe their good health to this great medicine. Among these is Mr. Elmer Robidoux, a prominent young man living at St. Jerome, Quebec. He says: "For some years I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. My appetite became irregular and everything I ate felt like a weight on my stomach. I tried several remedies and was under the care of doctors but to no avail and I grew worse as time went on. I became very weak, thin, suffered much from pains in the stomach and was frequently seized with dizziness. One day a friend told me of the case of a young girl who had suffered greatly from this trouble, but who, through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had fully regained her health and strength, and strongly advised me to try these pills. I was so eager to get my stomach, that I procured a supply. From the very first my condition improved and after using the pills for a couple of months I was fully restored to health, and have been a constant sufferer for four years. It is now over a year since I used the pills and in that time I have been the best of health. I owe to the greatest of all medicines, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I shall always have a good word to say on their behalf."

Though their action on the blood and nerves, these pills cure such diseases as rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance, indigestion, kidney trouble, partial paralysis, etc. Be sure you get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on every box. If you dealer does not carry them they will be sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Little David

My little boy's uncle was questioning him one day, and asked him among other questions:

"What was the first thing God made?"

"The world,"

"What was the last thing God made?"

Faithfully looking round, his eyes alighted on his baby brother, a few weeks old, and his face lighting up triumphantly, he said:

"Little David."

The Londonderry Diamonds

It is expected that the most resplendent diamonds at the coming coronation will be worn by Lady Londonderry. For several generations Londonderry diamonds have been in full blaze. As far back as 1835 it was recorded by a fashionable diarist that "Lady Londonderry and the girls to her in dress literally encrusted with emeralds and diamonds from top to toe."

Sovereign Lime Juice

from other lime juice. Sovereign is the pure fruit juice of the West India Lime. A delicious drink of every pure reach of every pure. If you want the best, ask for "Sovereign" and see that it bears this trade mark.

Leave it nothing for them to do

It is a mistake for fathers to tell their little children that they can escape all this. Suppose the calculation were made that the children were cured for the next generation. The evidence is there that the boys and girls will be happier and better for it. The boys will be exposed to the dangers of "chicks" and the girls to the dangers of "chicks." Leave something for them also to do.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER.

Digby, June 6, 1902.

THE WAR IS OVER AND THE EMPIRE IS BUILT.

As soon as the news reached Digby that the war was over, the town was in a state of jubilation. The shops were decorated with bunting, and the people were out in the streets celebrating. The news was a relief to everyone, and the town was in a state of jubilation. The shops were decorated with bunting, and the people were out in the streets celebrating. Little Paragraphs Which Tell of the News Round About Town.

NEWS GATHERED DURING THE WEEK AND RECORDED IN BRIEF FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PUBLIC.

—Mr. Malcolm McKinnon has been elected to the first vacant seat on the council.

—A number of people were obliged to run their furnaces yesterday morning.

—Heavy winds have prevented evening lighting this evening.

—Only a few row-boats have been placed in the water this spring.

—We think that the best place for the new band stand is in the centre of the town.

—If it had been staked out there at the time, the school would have been a great success.

—A plate glass front is being put in the new building opposite the Dufferin Hotel.

—The school, when completed, will be occupied by Mr. J. A. McClelland.

—It is thought that the cold weather will injure the cherry and apple trees.

—We will celebrate Dominion Day.

—It is thought by some of our citizens that we did not celebrate Victoria Day as we should.

—A new fire will greatly add to the appearance of this well-known establishment.

—A celebration of this sort, properly managed, would do much for the town.

—The Yacht Club will hold races on the Bay and the river.

—An old time catch-up party is being given by the school.

—A celebration of this sort, properly managed, would do much for the town.

—The Digby Cornet Band should be engaged at once as no doubt other towns will be seeking their services.

—Work is progressing this week on the new building.

—Mr. J. A. McClelland is the new proprietor of the Dufferin Hotel.

—The pastor will conduct the morning service at the Baptist church next Sunday.

WEAK AND HELPLESS

The Condition of Mrs. Wm. Wescott of Beaufort.

SUFFERED FROM HEADACHES AND DIZZINESS—COULD NOT STAND THE LEAST EXERTION.

(From the San, Beaufort, Ont.)

Mrs. Wm. Wescott is well known to nearly all the residents of Beaufort. She is a woman of about 50 years of age, and is a native of Scotland. She has been married for 25 years, and has three children. She has been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism for several years, and has been unable to do any work for a long time. She has been treated by several physicians, but has not been able to get any relief. She has been very weak and helpless, and has been unable to stand the least exertion. She has been very much distressed, and has been unable to get any sleep. She has been very much distressed, and has been unable to get any sleep. She has been very much distressed, and has been unable to get any sleep.

How Soldiers Can Die

BRavery OF THE BRITISH UNDER DESTRUCTIVE FIRE BY THE BOERS.

When Lieutenant Egerton, of the "Powerful," and one of the best of the younger officers, was detecting one of his men against the enemy, one leg and one foot was carried off, as he lay on the sand bag parapet watching the effect of the fire. There is an end of his career as a soldier. He was carried to the rear with a cigar between his teeth, and died soon after.

Spion Kop saw one of the most memorable instances of the cool good humor with which wounds and death were received. Captain Muriel was shot through the cheek while he was handing a cigar-case to a private, but he continued to lead his regiment until he had fallen. He was killed by a bullet which crashed through his brain. Scott, Moncrieff went on after three bullet wounds; it was not till he was hit the fourth time that he was disabled. He was killed by a bullet which crashed through his brain. Scott, Moncrieff went on after three bullet wounds; it was not till he was hit the fourth time that he was disabled. He was killed by a bullet which crashed through his brain.

When poor Tait was hit on the advance to Kimberley he had one wound at the knee, but he was not disabled. He was killed by a bullet which crashed through his brain. Scott, Moncrieff went on after three bullet wounds; it was not till he was hit the fourth time that he was disabled. He was killed by a bullet which crashed through his brain.

But perhaps the death which impresses one most in all the long and bloody history of the war is the death of a young man who was killed by a bullet which crashed through his brain.

How to Keep Out Fleas From

Almost the first thought that follows admiration for a freshly picked bouquet is how it can be preserved the greatest length of time. Many experiments have been undertaken to prevent flowers from fading—such as placing salt in the water, or nipping them off and applying sealing-wax. We have tried all methods, and have come to the conclusion that the best way to keep flowers fresh is to use a special preservative.

Fatal Floods in St. Vincent.

GREAT DAMAGE CAUSED AND SOME DEATHS REPORTED AT KINGSTOWN, ST. VINCENT, MONDAY, MAY 26.—On Saturday night the dense clouds forming a canopy over the greater part of the island, and a severe thunderstorm accompanied by a heavy rainfall, broke over St. Vincent. The rain was so heavy that it caused the mud streams in the Windward and Leeward rivers to overflow their banks. The water was so high that it carried away many of the houses and buildings. The damage was very great, and many people were killed.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, June 13, 1902.

Work is nearly finished on Mr. Osborne's new yacht Kiki which was designed and built by Mr. L. O. Dyer. The full dimensions of the Kiki appeared in a former issue of the COURIER. She will be twenty-three feet water line and will have a small plan suitably adapted to make her a fast boat. The hull is of the best material, built with the best material throughout and is an improved Donkey. OF A LOCAL NATURE

Little Paragraphs Which Tell of the News Round About Town.

RECORDED IN THE OFFICE FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PUBLIC.

There will be congregational prayer and praise service in the Baptist Church, at 10 o'clock, on Sunday, June 16th. Rev. George Wood will preach in the evening.

The hardware, which is nearly all polished brass, was furnished by Messrs. L. W. Ferdinand & Co., of Boston, who carry everything required for small yachts and whose goods deserve special mention.

The sails are being made by Mr. Outram Dakin, rear commander of the Digby Yacht Club, but were drafted by Mr. Oliver, before work was commenced on the boat.

It is believed this craft will be speedy. The only thing required to make her a fast boat is a well-fitted cabin. The Kiki will fly the D. Y. C. burgee and will be a good addition to the club. We wish the new boat success.

Where Would You Live?

BY KNOWING TO ALL GLOBE THOSE ARE THE OF THE CHIEF PLACES

To show our many readers how Digby is known abroad as a summer resort, we copy the first paragraph of a long article in Sunday New York Herald, entitled "Where would you live?"

"Everywhere the world is crowded with tourists as the leading summer resort in Nova Scotia. The chief of these are known to all globe trotters: Paris, Vienna, St. Heliers (Isle of Jersey), Biarritz, Dourdanville (India), Digby (Nova Scotia), Los Angeles, Tutuila (Samoa), or anywhere on the west coast of Kinsia (Japan)."

Boating Accident
A boating accident occurred off Gilbert's Cove, St. Mary's Bay, Wednesday afternoon. A row boat containing Joseph and Fred, sons of John Halliwell, and a young man, Capt. Wm. White, was nearing the shore when a hole in the bottom of the boat caused it to sink. The young man was rescued with difficulty by his companions and taken to shore. The boat was immediately summoned and after a few hours the young man was taken to hospital. He was feared for some time that he would not recover.

WOMAN'S FO

Severely Tried By Ailments Peculiar to the Sex

ORDINARY MEDICINE WILL NOT CURE BECAUSE IT TREATS THE SYMPTOMS—HOW TO GET AT THE ROOT OF THE TROUBLE.

Behind the veil of her womanly modesty and fortitude, nearly every woman suffers indelibly from time to time, and continues to suffer in spite of all her efforts, because ordinary medicine is powerless to do good in such cases. Ordinary medicine may give temporary relief, even a punitive may do that—but the one great medical discovery capable of permanently curing and preventing a return of the ailments is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills are not a patent medicine; they are the prescription of a regularly practicing physician who has spent his private practice years before they were given to the public under the name of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are the best medicine for women's ailments, and have saved many a woman a dollar in doctor's fees. For some years I was greatly afflicted with ailments that made the life of so many of my sex miserable. I tried many medicines but found no relief until I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have made me feel like a new person; the almost continuous suffering I endured has passed away and life has returned to me. I have been able to do my work and other work which has been similarly benefited and I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills worth their weight in gold. They have cured my general complaints or general prostration, and the happiness of health for both men and women lies in the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which act as a tonic and a blood purifier, and to enfeeble systems. They have cured many thousands of cases of anemia, the decline, consumption, pains in the back, neuralgia, depression of spirits, heart palpitation, indigestion, rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus' dance and partial paralysis. But substitutes should be avoided if you value your health, seek the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is on every box. Sold by all dealers or sent post paid to Geo. F. Jones or six boxes for $5 by addressing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ERINBOROUGH, Island of St. Vincent, B. W. I., Friday, May 30.—The volcano is still active. Another eruption occurred at 10 o'clock this morning. It was accompanied by a loud rumbling sound, and a thick cloud of smoke and ash rose from the crater of the volcano and the cloud was illuminated by lightning. The eruption was very violent and the smoke and ash rose to a height of 1000 feet. The eruption ceased at 11 o'clock and the volcano was quiet and the weather fair. Through the day the volcano was quiet and the weather fair. Through the day the volcano was quiet and the weather fair.

Poem Wins for Author a Fat Position.

The announcement that President Roosevelt has decided to appoint Eugene F. Ware to succeed Mr. C. E. Dwyer as Minister to the United States, is a complete surprise to the public. The appointment is a reward for a poem which Ware wrote in 1898, and which was published in the Digby Weekly Courier.

THE WASHINGTON POST'S SONG.

In a very humble way, I am a citizen of the United States. I am a citizen of the United States. I am a citizen of the United States.

Working a woman full of hope; Working, singing, all alone. Working, singing, all alone.

With the nation for a friend. With the nation for a friend. With the nation for a friend.

Somebody's happiness. Somebody's happiness. Somebody's happiness.

I heard the song. I heard the song. I heard the song.

More than a million people. More than a million people. More than a million people.

Who would keep her to the end. Who would keep her to the end. Who would keep her to the end.

Not in sorrow nor in gloom. Not in sorrow nor in gloom. Not in sorrow nor in gloom.

Working all day long in vain. Working all day long in vain. Working all day long in vain.

And then she died. And then she died. And then she died.

Who would keep her to the end. Who would keep her to the end. Who would keep her to the end.

Not in sorrow nor in gloom. Not in sorrow nor in gloom. Not in sorrow nor in gloom.

was about to take his place among the leading magnates of the country; and it was in the interval of preparing and renovating the mansion for his reception that the Sydney Lodge received him as an honored inmate.

It was the night of an assembly, and the brilliantly lighted hall and drawing room were gay with guests. Dancing had commenced, and the ripple of mirth and laughter floated through the air, and mingled with the strains of the waltz.

Feeling more in the humor for a solitary stroll on the terrace in the moonlight than for the gay crowd within, Colonel Chichester quietly entered an anteroom that opened upon it, and was about to undress for the night, when the sound of voices in an adjoining apartment arrested his attention.

"Oh, Martha! I have met with a disaster and torn my train; see, the fringe is nearly off!"

"What is nothing. Stand still! I will mend it for you. Here is a needle and thread."

"Very much indeed! But are you not a little tired?"

"Martha! I know you have laid out the supper; surely there is nothing more to do?"

"Yes, my dear, thank you; I really cannot spare the time; say poor Jane has a bad hand, and can render no assistance."

"I have nothing to wear, and I can scarcely appear in a ball room as I am, however, I shall go."

"No, I will mend your train. I will make you a handsome costume for Mary; in fact, I think there will be enough for two of you, and a black affair for the third."

"Well, I am glad that you have at least provided yourself with a decent supply; that plate of cold ham and jelly."

"Oh, I saved those delicacies not for myself—a piece of bread and cheese will do for me—but for the charwoman's little girl; she is very ill, and requires a nourishing thing."

"There, I have finished, run away and enjoy yourself. What, Nellie, have you met with an accident too?"

"Only my glove, Martha; I was trying to fasten it, and I split the back; what shall I do?"

"Take them off and put on another pair. I have a pair of gloves for you, and a catastrophe of the kind by procuring an extra number."

"How thoughtful of you! I was so disappointed. Condition is beyond remedy. Will you still mend Martha, that you are wearing your working gown?"

"Well, dear, the new laces are so unbecoming. I hardly dare trust her with the Colonel's linen; and as the dance in which involves the wear of clearing away traces of its disorder on the morning of the party, I must employ the hour or two as my disposal in ironing."

"That proud, disagreeable man! I have been so long waiting for him, and he will never know of it and thank you for it; besides, I am sure you could afford another servant by this time."

"A new maid, my dear, I have been waiting for her for some time, but she is a cold exterior. Nellie, if I only could make her sojourner here a pleasant one, I shall feel myself rewarded; and when poor Mary's memory is cleared, and his estate is in a better state, I shall be able to trust her with the Colonel's linen; and as the dance in which involves the wear of clearing away traces of its disorder on the morning of the party, I must employ the hour or two as my disposal in ironing."

Nellie, if I only could make her sojourner here a pleasant one, I shall feel myself rewarded; and when poor Mary's memory is cleared, and his estate is in a better state, I shall be able to trust her with the Colonel's linen; and as the dance in which involves the wear of clearing away traces of its disorder on the morning of the party, I must employ the hour or two as my disposal in ironing."

experience rendered him proof against blandishments of lips and eyes however sweet.

For the fortnight succeeding the arrival at Sydney Lodge the Colonel seemed to be affected with a very naive of restlessness. In place of the cheerful, well-lighted drawing room, he wandered up and down the terrace and garden, cherishing the constantly deferred hope of meeting the embodiment of the sweet, melodious voice, the good genius of the house.

But one morning a letter arrived, whose mission was to realize the Colonel's hitherto disappointed hopes. An epidemic had made its appearance in the establishment where his two little motherless boys were placed, and the principal want to request their immediate removal. In his dilemma he was finally resolved to invade the stronghold of the fair unknown, and, quietly quitting the breakfast table, he perseveringly threaded passages and passages until the sound of his well-remembered voice guided him into its presence.

Being neither young nor romantic, he had conceived no vision of a beautiful Cinderella, whose only requiem was an elegant costume to render her a fairy princess; so when his eyes lighted upon the slender figure, with sleeves tucked up over plump, well-shaped elbows, and a bold apron tied over a dark stuff dress, he was not disappointed.

A few words explained the reason of this summary invasion on his part, and at their conclusion Miss Martha's bright face positively beamed with joy.

"No, I will mend your train. I will make you a handsome costume for Mary; in fact, I think there will be enough for two of you, and a black affair for the third."

"Well, I am glad that you have at least provided yourself with a decent supply; that plate of cold ham and jelly."

"Oh, I saved those delicacies not for myself—a piece of bread and cheese will do for me—but for the charwoman's little girl; she is very ill, and requires a nourishing thing."

"There, I have finished, run away and enjoy yourself. What, Nellie, have you met with an accident too?"

"Only my glove, Martha; I was trying to fasten it, and I split the back; what shall I do?"

"Take them off and put on another pair. I have a pair of gloves for you, and a catastrophe of the kind by procuring an extra number."

"How thoughtful of you! I was so disappointed. Condition is beyond remedy. Will you still mend Martha, that you are wearing your working gown?"

"Well, dear, the new laces are so unbecoming. I hardly dare trust her with the Colonel's linen; and as the dance in which involves the wear of clearing away traces of its disorder on the morning of the party, I must employ the hour or two as my disposal in ironing."

Body Found

IDENTIFIED AS AUGUSTUS WILHELM

DAILY FREE PRESS TRIBUNE, June 19, 1902.

Corner Daley was notified Wednesday afternoon that a man's body had been found near South Cove at 12 o'clock, and had been first discovered by a little girl who reported it to her father, George D. Duverre, immediately left for the Cove.

In the meantime, Provincial Constant Harry Burnham and Chief of Police Bowley, also left for the Cove and began working on the case.

After the body had been examined and identified as Augustus Wilhelm

it was conveyed to John G. Rice's undertaking room, Digby.

An inquest was held Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

It was learned from the witnesses present that the deceased was first intoxicated during the evening, but that an alteration had occurred between Cambridge and the deceased. It was stated that the deceased had been drinking at the time he was found.
