

Welcome to the Digital DIGBY COURIER

1877-1978

100th Birthday

The hundredth anniversary of the Digby Weekly Courier has brought to mind some fond memories as contained in the following historical chapter of the writer. But first, I wish to congratulate the current editor of the Courier, Mrs. J.M. (Edith) Wallis, for a job well done over the years and still being well done, good service rendered with great fortitude.

According to any record, I have at hand, the Digby Courier, in one hundred years of publication, was controlled under the same family management for 42 years, 1931 to 1973, under the control of Wallis Print Limited. The late J.J. Wallis became editor of The Courier the second time, in 1929, and at the same time of the business, which he had been running for some time previously and which became Wallis Print Limited sometime between 1929 and 1931.

I well remember the last year of the twenties when I worked in the office of the son with the husband and father of the late J.J. Wallis, the Courier. Sometime in 1928 or early 1929, the late J.M. Wallis (Mac), son of "J.J." engaged me to work every day after school hours, Saturdays, and for some months after finishing school. The place of work was in the building of the present Digby town hall on First Avenue. J.J. Wallis then worked occasionally at the print shop but mostly across the street at the Courier office which was then located on land in the general area where The Royal Bank of Canada is now.

Wallis Job Print operated in 1929 with a staff of four consisting of J.J. Wallis, J.M. Wallis, Miss Eva Haynes, who later became Mrs. George Kicup, and myself. I was engaged as a printer in the left Eva's job was to run the printing plant but mostly at the Courier office. "Mac" worked nearly full time at all the different jobs at the Job Print, and I worked at various duties, most of the time being spent at operating printing presses.

We worked ten-hour days, six days a week. "J.J." and "Mac" sometimes worked overtime. I worked only the regular hours being paid a weekly wage which was comparatively good for those times and my lack of experience. I received four or five dollars a week for working after school hours to six o'clock and on Saturday all day, and nine dollars a week for full weeks after finishing school. A two or three dollar a week raise was offered to me in the fall of 1929 for me to stay on at printing, but I had made up my mind to enter a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, starting salary of $300. The bank salary figured out about the same per hour as for the printing job. Nevertheless, the congenial atmosphere of the printing plant those days, and, experience however short, were helpful and appreciated by me.

"J.J." was very jovial in his occasional trip to the Job Print and did considerable kidding all in good fun. "Mac" was a witty person who mixed in a good natured sarcasm now and then for one reason or another. Eva most always had good answers to all the kidding she was called upon to take, and, generally held her own in a quiet sort of way, always busy setting type. We four all got along very well indeed. However, I do remember that some days did seem long and weary because of the monotony of some repetitious jobs.

In spite of the great demand for printing those last boom days of the twenties, business generally being brisk, it looked to me that people had to work long and hard to make any decent profit. There was including treatment of the hands. However, nails and finger ends were used and I was soon back to work.

Now and then a printing job had a dose on parchment paper which required a special kind of printers' ink which smelled very bad those days. I always dreaded it when "Mac" would do that job on the largest press, in spite of the fact that we always opened an outside door to lessen the effects on the constitution.

One of the jobs I had to do, being the junior and printers' devil on the staff, was to clean up now and then. One day not long after I started my job at the printing plant, I decided to clean the floor that apparently hadn't been cleaned in some considerable time.

"J.J." came along and said, "how are you making out Vince?" I assured him that I thought I was beginning to see the floor. "J.J." laughed very heartily, he thought the remark pretty good and suitable.

Sometimes the gasoline engine or a piece of machinery would refuse to work, and after "Mac" the fix-it man had patiently worked for a certain length of time to get it going again, without results, "Mac" would then stand back and cuss quite strenuously, then he would immediately start working. "See," he would say, "all it needed was a bit of cussing."

On other occasions when some gadget refused duty for me and, seemed to be broken, "Mac" would say, "use a little oil," and sure enough, often that is all it took. How often since, have I thought of the value of that remark and the actual need of "oil" in many life situations, applied at the right time, right place and, in the right way.

Other things that sort of stick in my memory and come to mind now and then are, like the time I told "Mac" of four teenage boys who in the spring season of 1929 got together just before dark one evening and decided to initiate the newly built outdoor Pines Hotel swimming pool which had just been filled with water. Clothes were taken off near the road just east of the pool; nobody else seemed to be around except the four boys; no thought or time for bathing suits up to the pool they went. They stood on the edge of the pool and looked at the chilly water, one soon jumped in, the rest quickly followed and across the pool they swam. "Mac" listened to the story and hardly said anything, but the next "Digby Courier" had a good story on the episode. The heading of the story went something like, "Four Boy Scouts Officially Open Pines Hotel Swimming Pool." Who were the four? Many years later they are known as: the late Dr. Earl H. Anderson, veteran of two wars (second world and Korean), was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sidney L. Smith, now prominent druggist for many years in Digby; Clayton D. Snow, Digby wholesale lobster king merchant; and myself.

As a young teenager I used to like doing some writing about different events interesting to myself and mostly for myself. One day "Mac" said to me "how about writing your version of the story told about 'The Marooning of Jerome'." I had heard and read at least two somewhat different stories about the man who was found marooned on a beach at some point on the French Shore of St. Mary's Bay, Digby County. When found this man's tongue had been cut out and his legs quite freshly amputated, were surgically well dressed and bound. He was presumably left by some vessel before dawn one morning, all for some mysterious reason.

"Jerome" appeared to have been a man of some considerable social standing and possibly of some considerable wealth. However the only thing the man could or would ever say after being found and cared for by some family in the French shore was, something that sounded like the word "Jerome". He either could not, or, would not, write anything about who he was or why he was left the way he was. Well, it was, and is, one of Digby County's mystery stories, and, different ideas have been expressed over the years concerning this man. However my response to "Mac" was, I felt no urge to write anything more or different about this man. The mystery seemed to have been very well explored in the mind of many people, and, he was a sort of curiosity for many people who visited where he lived for many years.

Three years later, I was quite a young man, and I was back in the street that I had lived on, and I was clanking my powered up car, and I was thinking of "Jerome", and as I remember it, I was thinking of "Jerome". "J.J." was noted for his sense of humor and his ability to make people laugh. One day in 1928 during the time Mr. Wallis was editor of the Scott Act (Prohibition Law) he was about and advocated by some people, and I was attending a boys' conference in the town of Digby.

Digby 172 Years Ago

Compiled by David Sanford

From the files of the Courier of January 23, 1867, the following account has been copied concerning Digby in 1800.

"Among a number of old newspapers kindly sent to us by friends is a copy of the Saint John Gazette of May, 1802, says the Telegraph and among other advertisements contained in the issue before us is one describing the town and township of Digby, and offering for sale certain lots in the town. In this area we are told the township of Digby extends from the Gulf of Annapolis westward to the extremity of the province of Nova Scotia, and contains about 130,000 acres." The town plot is thus described:

"The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of St. Mary's Bay. This laid out from the water's edge, partly on level ground and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having with an eastern aspect, a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in where it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New York in 1783, the most of whom went early to farms, or, moving to older countries, left the whole free trade with the U.S.A., especially with the New England States. The question was then debated by some Digby High School students one of which was some Digby's daughter, Florence (now Mrs. Melvin O. Tibert, Freeport, Digby Co.) Some days after the debate a man from some part of Nova Scotia came to the printing shop looking for Florence, one of the successful debaters; I had the impression that this man was interested politically but, maybe I was wrong.

Well, I felt that I had learned considerable from my short experience at "The Wallis Job Print". I was learning to do beginner jobs, receiving some knowledge about things like: embossing, stapling, perforating, counting, cutting and trimming paper stock, mixing inks for certain desired colors, and so forth, but, the only experience I had at setting type was just enough to make a "pi", the printers name for a confused mess.

There was a taste of trying to sell job printing outside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for printed personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it, made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular house, and got an order, but, it was much time and got an order, but, side to be bought proved by about who now reside detached, built dwellings with orchards, and some fishery and. It has communal parts of the communal provisions in a cheap, built readily to be from many circumstances, probability of place of some shipbuilding, the West India a cheap and of residence. This advertisement, at the December, I were to be a No. 100.

The first time wireless telegraph ran into Digby was in the "The equipment and was seen from her trip. The new light house was put in January 18, 1818. The old Lighthouse Passage and stone Northeast of it.

Loss of the ship "W. Coombs" is a Courier of January 18, 1818. The ship struck the Lighthouse Bay and was blown, and was with her cargo on the rocks. All the crew was killed. The ship was a schooner, and was a very large one.

A story from the Pines Hotel. The house was built in 1818, and was the only one of its kind in the area. It was built by A. D. Digby, and was a very large one. It was a very large one, and was a very large one.

An Aid to Mother.

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

It is a greater drawback to a woman to lack graciousness than it is to a man; for as society is concerned, she is in the daily little matters of social life that it most feels and most missed. It is not, however, only her own house and in her place of business that lack of graciousness makes her manner a drawback to a woman.

Wherever her lot may be cast, among whatever people, whether placed in a subordinate position as at the head of affairs, whether she be rich or poor, an idler or a worker, the beginning of life's journey, of

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER.

Digby, July 10, 1903.

A TORONTO paper mentions the remark of a prominent United States visitor as to how easy 'any old thing' in the way of coin will pass in this country. The United States coinage is so plentiful that it is almost impossible to get it while we subscribe unhesitatingly to the profits of the United States mint by accepting its currency in place of our own. Here only the banks stand by the law, which in the matter of devaluation, is stringent enough. Our Criminal Code sets forth that:

"Every one guilty of an indictable offence and is liable to seven years' imprisonment, who knowingly receives, transfers, or uses, whether such thing is or is not diminished or lightened of its legal value, any counterfeit money, shall be liable to the same punishment."

Every one who utters any counterfeit, having stamped thereon any name of a person, is liable to the same punishment. It is a pity that the law is not more strictly enforced, as it is so easy to get away with it. The public could easily drive pounds and otherwise degraded coins and dirty dollar bills out of circulation by refusing them. The general feeling is that to refuse them would be to act in a discreditable way, while on the contrary, it would be rendering a public service. It should be done by individuals in taking change as shopkeepers are under compulsion of competition and dare not take the initiative in the matter. This is one sort of patriotism, and a very good sort, in which we Canadians are woefully lacking.

"The progress made by electricity as a motive power may be seen in the adopting of it by the New York Central Railway for bringing all its local trains into the city of New York. Electric motors will take the place of steam locomotives just outside the city limits, so that smoke and gas will no longer obscure and make dangerous the passage of trains through the tunnel. It is also stated that instead of replacing engines on through trains from Buffalo to Syracuse and Albany, longer runs will be made with each engine and change of engines will only be made at Utica. Eventually, it will be possible to operate the entire Harlem and Albany lines electrically. If these changes prove successful, in working, electricity will be used on other portions of the system. The facility of designing electric motors in sections, so that the quantity of power applied can be adjusted to the weight of the train, has now been fairly well demonstrated, but further proof will be afforded by the New York Central, which is also settling the question of the relative cost of electric and steam motors. The action of the New York Central is exceedingly significant and suggests all possibilities of this nature for the future for travellers when the smoke and cinder nuisance shall be abolished and all the grime and dirt that now accompanies moving trains shall become like other measures of a barbarous past."

Last Survivor.
A correspondent writes: "It becomes our duty to chronicle the death of the last survivor of the American Loyalists who settled in Weymouth, namely Mrs. Mary Ann (Wagoner), daughter of Samuel B. Wagoner, and a daughter of William Wagoner, (Lieut. Wagoner, generally called Wilton), who died in 1780 on Lot No. 12, Block O, Bedford street, on the Northern side of Sisson River and now owned by Mr. Frank Hamilton. She was born July 3, 1809, and died October 8, 1899, by David McKeown, her husband. Their family consisted of the following: Richard, Thomas, William, Henry, James, Annie, William, Anna, David, Samuel, Susan, Rosetta, Jeremiah, Miss Mitty and Mrs. Wagoner. She was a very old woman, and had been married for many years a constant member of Baptist Church, having been baptized by Rev. Richard Wagoner, and enjoyed Christian life. Driving Accidents.
Several driving accidents have occurred around town and vicinity since the 1st of July. The most serious, however, occurred Wednesday afternoon on the Mt. Pleasant Road. Mr. J. H. Daley, a well-known driver, was enjoying a drive when the horse became frightened. The driver, Mr. Daley, was thrown from the horse and sustained a fracture of the leg. The horse was killed. The driver was taken to the hospital and is expected to recover. The horse was taken to the slaughterhouse and is expected to be sold for meat.

The Sumner Races.
The mid-summer race meeting on Sumner track, Wednesday, July 22nd, will see some of the best racing of the first part of the season. The time chosen is late enough to catch most of the horse owners who have come to this year and have given promise of speed. The reputation of the Sumner track has been established in the three provinces makes it a draw for card to both owners and spectators. Although but four years old this track has already had three Maritime records the last being 2:21 made last year by Alana, which now stands.

The Flying Bluebonnet.
The Yarmouth Times says: The Prince Arthur brought the largest list of passengers of this season on Saturday morning. She made a good run and docked before 8 o'clock. The Flying Bluebonnet made the first run for this year and was made up of new cleaned and renovated cars from the A. R. shops at Kentville. The cars were thoroughly overhauled and redecorated. The seats have fresh new coverings and the interior is very smart. The Flying Bluebonnet is a very smart and comfortable car. It is expected to be a success. Will Go to Bermuda.
Rev. W. H. Evans, who has been pastor of the Digby Methodist Church during the past five years, preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening. The Baptist Church, the United Methodist Church, the Presbyterian Church, the Anglican Church, and the Wesleyan Methodist Church all sent representatives to the service. The service was held at the Digby Methodist Church. The Rev. W. H. Evans was a very popular pastor and his departure is a great loss to the church. He will be succeeded by Rev. J. H. Daley.

More Horse Racing.
As will be seen by our advertising columns, another horse race will be held on the Gentlemen's Driving Park, Wednesday, July 22nd. We trust the club will be favored with good weather and good racing, and that the day's sport will also prove another financial success.

The Strait.

To the Editor of the Courier:

Sir, I noticed lately in a little newspaper issued by way of advertisement, one of our summer hotels, the name "the Strait" applied to the Strait which connects our Digby Basin with the Bay of Fundy. The first time I ever encountered the suggestion that this Strait should be called "the Strait" in a little book entitled "Over the Border to Acadia, the Land of Evangeline," the authors, of which suggested the uncouth term used by sailors to designate the Strait simply, "the gut" should be discontinued, and the name "the Strait" applied to it in daily use.

Why she preferred this to the obvious and really correct name, "the Strait," is the "Digby Strait" is a curious account for the suggestion that the use of the term "gut" for "strait" was a corruption, but I have been informed since by cultured Americans that this usage of the word is by no means an American one, and that it prevails all in the United States it is only among the very ignorant and entirely uneducated. According to our school geographies and dictionaries a "Strait" is a comparatively narrow passage, water, and is often used in the plural when only one passage-way is meant, as the Strait of Gibraltar.

The parish was commented by him for doing in this a very gracious, just and deserving act. A large number of the congregation of St. Thomas' church attended the service.

Many young girls, seemingly in the best of health, suddenly grow listless and lose strength. The color leaves their cheeks; they become thin, have little or no appetite, and suffer from headaches and other nervous troubles. The case of the following young girl, who was cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, is a good example of the results of this medicine.

A Quick Trip. The steamer Roseland, Capt. Clark, recently received the following notice from the Government of the United States.

Archaeologists Barred From U.S. Washington, July 13.—The state department has given notice that it has continued the naturalization law, passed by the last congress, requiring to reject all certificates of naturalization issued after July 1, 1901, which fail to set forth the name of the person naturalized in not opposed to all organized governments and likewise is not allied with any organization or association; and that he does not advocate the killing of officers of the government.

For Acute and Chronic Rheumatism are equally influenced by the almost magical pain-killing power of Nervine—equal in medicinal value to five times the quantity of any other Rheumatic remedy. It acts through the tissues, reaches the source of the disease and drives it out. Nervine is undoubtedly the king of all remedies for rheumatism, and is equally as good for all other ailments.

New York Strike Settled. NEW YORK, July 13.—Some twenty thousand skilled mechanics in the building trades returned to work to-day under the modified plan of the employers' association. This number will be increased to 50,000 by Wednesday, unions with that membership having voted to accept the terms of the employers' association. The terms of the plan are as follows: The employers' association will agree to pay the workers a wage of $1.00 per day, and to provide for them a lunch of $0.25 per day.

Familiar as the migration of birds is to us, there is, perhaps, no question in zoology more obscure. The long flight taken by the birds, and the manner in which they select a moonlight night to cross the Mediterranean. But that their meteorological instinct is not unerring is proved by the fact that thousands are every year drowned in their flight over the Atlantic and other oceans. Northern Africa and Western Asia are selected as winter quarters by most of them, and they may be often noticed on their way thither, to hang over towns at night, puzzled, in spite of their experience, by the shifting lights of the streets and dwellings.

Her Age. "Madam," replied the judge, sternly, "you must answer the question. What is your age?" "I was born the same year, your honor," said the woman, "that would make me about—"

It isn't necessary to go into particulars, it is necessary to judge stiffly. "Gentlemen, have you any further use for the witness?" "You may stand aside, madam."

THE KING CURE FOR HEADACHES is the Proper Title for the King Cure. It is the only cure for headaches, and it is the only cure for headaches.

HEADACHE POWDERS because they are so superior to any other kind, being absolutely safe, pleasant and effective. They contain no ingredient which is harmful to the system, and they are simply a vegetable compound which has cured thousands of others and will do the same for you.

JOHN D. BUCKLEY, the well known chemist of New York, N.Y., writes: "The King Cure for Headaches is the only cure for headaches, and it is the only cure for headaches."

They can always effect a positive cure in from ten to twenty minutes and are never fatal to relieve and delight chronic sufferers from headache. All sorts of aches and pains, but be sure you get the genuine KUNDFORD Headache Powder. It is the only cure for headaches, and it is the only cure for headaches.

THE LIMIT. Mr. Cribbs.—Mrs. C., I have borne with resignation—any, even cheerful—my antique clock that was always thirteen hours behind time, antique rugs that some prehistoric Turks wore, antique china, antique pans and kettles. All this I have smiled at, but when you give me antique eggs for breakfast I draw the line, madam—I draw the line.

Science, armed with the microscope, has established a fact, and this conclusion rests on the most solid basis of science. Catarrh and Bronchitis, stomach dragging, nervous, mucus, etc. Such treatments are not only useless, but they are dangerous. The only cure for these ailments is the only cure for these ailments.

INDIGESTION'S SLAVE.

Is Sallow, Languid, Thin and Down Hearted.

TROUBLED WITH WIND, MILLSHOUS, HEADACHES AND SHARP INTERNAL PAINS.

No one deserves more sympathy than the sufferer from indigestion. A light meal lies like lead upon his chest—a good meal gives him hours of agony. The dyspeptic's slavery can't be broken by any of the "pills" Dr. Williams' Pink Pills strengthen the stomach, stimulate the liver and sharpen the appetite. There never was a case of indigestion that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills could not cure if given a fair trial. Proof of this is given by Mr. Gustave Emmond, of St. Jerome, Que., who says: "I suffered from dyspepsia for five years. The agony endured at times can only be understood by those who are similarly afflicted. I tried a number of home remedies and advertised medicines but to no avail. Then I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for a long time the medicine he gave me, but the results were no better. In fact I was getting worse. Some days I could not eat at all, and when I did eat the meal was followed by violent pains and cramps in my stomach that made life almost unendurable. Then I tried the doctor and again began trying other medicines, but the result was always the same—no cure, and scarcely even temporary relief. And so the trouble went on for years, until last winter just a friend from St. Scholastique who asked me if I had ever tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had not but after some persuasion consented to do so. This was the beginning of the end of my troubles. I took the first box of pills were finished the pains after eating were less severe. I continued the pills for a couple of months at the end of that time I was wholly cured. I can eat a meal now as anyone, and never have the slightest return of the pains and cramps that so long had made life miserable. I have tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will cure this trouble when all other medicines fail, and I would strongly urge other dyspeptics to give them a fair trial."

Narrow Escape of Old Seaker.

A small company of Alaska gold seekers were walking across one of the great ice fields in that winter country when one of them noticed a bear in the distance. The bear was a few yards before them. Almost as he spoke, however, the treacherous coast of thin ice across a jagged crevasse gave way, and with an awful cry the two foremost men went down. The crumbling glittering surface. A third man would have followed, but his gun lodged crosswise in the crevasse and saved him. The men who were out of sight, only their voices guiding their rescuers. Blankets were torn into strips and all the available rope used as well as reach the unfortunate men to whom the bear was already within reach. The men were hoisted up and the bear was driven off. The men were hoisted up and the bear was driven off. The men were hoisted up and the bear was driven off.

Message in a Bottle.

HIGHLAND, N. J., July 21.—"You will find my body in the river. There are $3000 in gold in my pocket. The message found today in a tightly corked whisky flask floating in the river, was the message of a man who had written on the margin of a newspaper, and the sea water had evidently worked its way into the bottle, as the paper was wet."

An Early Day Railroad Wreck.

In the early days of the road there was a smash up, and all were badly shaken. The next morning a business man came to the superintendent and said, "Mr. Superintendent, I came in to see what you were going to give me for shaking me up so yesterday. The superintendent replied, "How much he thought he ought to have for his injuries. 'Well, I think it worth so cents, and I will settle for that.' The superintendent replied, "That was quite a sum, but as the man seemed honest he would pay him, and he did so, taking his receipt in full. The superintendent said, 'I will be through with you and give you a new one to take home.' 'No, you won't, as long as these pins—slapping his legs—'last I won't go on your darn railroad any more.'"

Two interesting letters appear in last Friday's Antipolish Spectator in reference to an umpire's decision given at the recent cricket match played in the town between the Digby and Antipolish clubs. The letters are all right, but we cannot agree with the following editorial paragraph which precedes them.

THE RACE WAS OFFICIALLY DECLARED OFF BY THE JURY. THE WINNER OF THE RACE WAS SHAMROCK III. THE NEXT RACE WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW AND THE NEXT RACE WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW.

We give our readers this week the letter of the Rev. Henry How, and the reply thereto, respecting a decision at the late match which Antipolish gave to the Digby and which the Digby gave to the Digby.

THE RACE WAS OFFICIALLY DECLARED OFF BY THE JURY. THE WINNER OF THE RACE WAS SHAMROCK III. THE NEXT RACE WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW AND THE NEXT RACE WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW.

We were present at the match and published the official score given in the COURIER, but we feel safe in stating that neither a member of the clubs or anybody present believed that the decision last Antipolish gave. It had been decided by the Digby and the Digby had been decided by the Digby.

THE RACE WAS OFFICIALLY DECLARED OFF BY THE JURY. THE WINNER OF THE RACE WAS SHAMROCK III. THE NEXT RACE WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW AND THE NEXT RACE WILL BE HELD TO-MORROW.

Three years ago we published an advertisement calling for recruits for our local company of militia. At that time the company was in a state of disrepair and a measure of being disbanded. Only one officer was qualified and he had only a first class grade B sergeant's papers. To-day we have two officers holding certificates of Major, Captain, and Lieutenant.

HAD TO LEAVE SCHOOL.

The Pitiable Story of a Young Girl.

EVERY MOTHER OF A GROWING GIRL WILL BE INTERESTED IN THE STORY AS TOLD BY THE YOUNG LADY.

Miss Laura Dumontier is the daughter of a well-to-do farmer in the County of Quebec. She was born on the 10th of October, 1891, when I became very ill and was forced to leave school. The headaches that had bothered me became almost constant. I suffered from anæmia, and was in a very bad way. I was treated by several doctors, but to no avail. I was in bed for two months without the least benefit. Then another doctor was called in, but he did not follow the treatment. My parents were very thoroughly alarmed and two other doctors from St. Bartholomew were called in, and after consultation their verdict was that my trouble had reached an incurable stage. I was then taken to a sanatorium, and I lived there for one year. I was then taken to a convent school in the County of Quebec, and I lived there for one year. Modern Spies of Peace.

The polite way is to offer him a glass, or a cigarette, or a cigar. The spy is then shown what he must do, and as soon as he has seen and reported, the various military dispositions are changed so that the information he obtains is worse than useless, and actually misleading. The polite British way is to take the recognized spy round the golf links or give him pips of whiskey and tell him that he is a spy. And Most Successful Remedy Ever Discovered for Spavins, Ringbones, Splints and all Lamenesses.

The Pangs of Hunger.
At the dinner table Robert ate himself into a state of satisfaction. His wife and relatives stared in wonder. At last he was actually frightened to eat any more. On the way home he pulled something from his pocket and began gnawing it. "It's only dog biscuit," said Robert apologetically. "Where did you get it?" "I knew I should be hungry before I got home, so I took it away from Fido."

His Wife.
A man, walking along a country road, found an Irishman perched upon a signpost, which pointed north, with the inscription: "This will take you to Malvern." "What are you up there for?" asked the man. "Faith," said the other, "I've been sitting here for two hours, and I'm wondering what time it starts."

Circumstances Alter Cases.
"The boys are throwing stones at a poor peddler." "Outrageous." "That's what I think." "Those boys are they?" "Yes." "Oh, well, boys will be boys. Let the children play."

A Scientific Voice Improver.
Because of its strengthening influence upon the vocal chords, Catarrhine can be used for the treatment of all vocal diseases. THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER.

Digby, September 18, 1903.

All the discussion that is going on in Great Britain about disappointed and disgruntled immigrants in Canada may be traced to two causes—much codding and the schemes of politicians to make money out of those intending to emigrate. The best immigrants that ever came to this country—the men and women who will their descendants, made it, what is—came here paying their passage and determined to win homes and independence by their exertions. But now we have agencies to coax people to come to Canada. Alluring pictures of the country are displayed and abundant literature is distributed broadcast setting forth its advantages for home-seekers. We even help the politicians with money to pay their passage out. We give land and, in some cases, seed grain, cattle and implements to enable them to start in life. All these inducements are good in their way and have helped greatly in the settlement of our western lands. But they seem to have given rise to the notion in the minds of everyone who comes to Canada that the Dominion is established to emigrate and that it is the duty of the government to support him, when he arrives at his destination, if he does not find roots pegged by his own hands. This is a very dangerous notion about trying. Come, eat, drink, and home to friends and newspapers depicting the country and complaining of deception and ill usage. A few such persons can make a great deal of trouble and may succeed in deterring others from emigrating. But a thing that they must learn, and that people in Great Britain and Ireland should know, is that this Dominion is no place for men who are not self-reliant, willing to work and ready to lay hold of whatever opportunities offer in a land where only those who work hard can hope to succeed. We have a welcome for everybody on the same conditions that we and our fathers were welcomed, that they go to work with hands and brains. There is room for all, but there is no room for any man who is not self-reliant, willing to work and ready to lay hold of whatever opportunities offer in a land where only those who work hard can hope to succeed. We have a welcome for everybody on the same conditions that we and our fathers were welcomed, that they go to work with hands and brains. There is room for all, but there is no room for any man who is not self-reliant, willing to work and ready to lay hold of whatever opportunities offer in a land where only those who work hard can hope to succeed.
