In the Meadow Gleaning Hay.

By G. W. QUINCY.

This song is dedicated to the memory of my dear uncle, Harold W. Dink, who being one of the party with me in the meadow gleaning hay, nearly half a century ago.

When a boy I stood, one day,
In a mound of new mown hay,
In the meadow of my dear old grandpa's farm;
And I thought that I could see
All the world spread out to me,
As I gazed o'er meadow, mound, and hay.

(CHORUS)
I shall never forget that day,
Nor the scenes so far away,
Nor the faces that were with me
In the meadow gleaning hay.

Many years have now gone by,
Since I heard the cuckoo's cry,
And behold the scenes that made my childish heart rejoice,
And the dear ones that I loved
Have been taken up above,
Where the meadows are in everlasting bloom.

(CHORUS)
When I think of those bright days,
That have gone forever more,
And those loved ones that I here no more shall see;
It makes me long to go
Where there's neither sin nor woe,
In that land of endless summer day.

(CHORUS)
When my harvest work is done
At the setting of life's sun,
I shall wake up into bright eternal day,
And I shall behold with joy
All the faces when a boy,
That were with me in the meadow gleaning hay.

I notice in your last week's issue where an "English" correspondent had written to your Centerville correspondent asking if Centerville had any "suffragettes" and the reply was that personally they had not heard of any, but if the writer will take notice of the voting list, posted at Centerville, they will find the names of one or more unmarried women on the list, as legible to vote at Municipal elections.

The writer also adds that they understand one or two women are leaning toward "suffragettes" in Sandy Cove, but we would like to inform them it is not necessary for our women to distribute literature praying for votes, as the Nova Scotia franchise act has enacted such laws that all unmarried women legible financially can vote at Municipal election and I am proud to say we have a number of such women on our voting list.

$1000 Reward. $1000.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only medicine now known to cure the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of this cure that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The District Sunday School Convention

The District Sunday School Convention will be held at Digby, Tuesday, April 8th, Digby and Bear River District, at Digby. Wednesday, April 9th, Digby Neck District, at Little River. Thursday, April 10th, Islands District, at Westport. Friday, April 11th, Weymouth and New Tuxet District, at the Bethel Church, Ashmore.

Afternoon and evening sessions. From our yearly statistics just received from the four districts, 24 schools reported while 60 failed to send in reports. There is an increase of 340 scholars during the past year but only 10 members of the 1330 scholars have united with the church. 4 Home Depts. were reported having an enrollment of 100 members. $72.83 was given by the schools towards Missionary work and $53 was pledged towards the Sunday School Association Fund. Our apportionment is $70.00, but as it was paid in full last year, I know the schools will do as well this year although some of the money was sent too late as it has to be paid before Sept. 30th. Our district secretaries are doing all they can to push the work but what they need are people to co-operate with them. We all can't have special work to do, but let it be your duty to attend the coming conventions in your district, if possible, and that will help the work and church and encourage the officers and of course all the officers should be present. Dr. Brown and other ministers will attend the conventions and no one should fail to hear Dr. Brown's instructive and interesting talks on the various departments of Sunday School work. Let us all try to make these coming conventions the most successful ever held in Digby County.

COUNTY SECRETARY.

It is desired and also hoped that the Schools of the district will see that they have delegates not only appointed to the convention, but see that they are present at the same. Free entertainment will be provided for all the delegates who are present. Some special music is being arranged for and no doubt a very enjoyable and helpful convention will be held, if each School will try and be represented at the same, which will mean a great uplift to our Sunday School work in this district.

Will Reside in the West

MR. AND MRS. GEO. H. PETERS LEFT DIGBY LAST SATURDAY.

A large number of friends assembled at the railway station last Saturday afternoon to say good bye to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Peters who were leaving Digby for Boston and New York en route to Western Canada where they in future expect to reside.

Mr. Peters came to Digby from Westport May 21st, 1893, and for 24 years has been employed by his brother, J. L.

GEORGE H. PETERS.

Peters, as salesman in his dry goods and gent's furnishings establishment.

During that time he has proved himself a thoroughly reliable business man, faithful to his employer, highly respected by a large circle of acquaintances and considered by all a citizen that this town could ill afford to lose.

Mr. Peters served two terms in the town council, and has been an auditor of the town's accounts for years. He has been a member of the Digby County Liberal Association since the summer of 1910; has been a member of St. George Lodge, I. O. O. F., for 17 years, a member of King Solomon Lodge, A. F. & A. M., for a year, a charter member of the Western Nova Scotia Yacht Club and a regular attendant at all lodge or club meetings. When Mr. Peters joined a society in Digby or was appointed on a committee, he did the work required of him in a prompt and satisfactory manner.

Besides attending to his regular duties in his brother's business establishment, he represented the Great West Life and several fire, marine and accident insurance companies, all of which valued him highly as their Digby representative.

Mrs. Peters will also be missed by a host of Digby friends in church and social circles.

After visiting Boston and New York, Mr. Peters will remain for a time in Summit, N. J., while Mr. Peters goes to Edmonton. He will spend a few days in Winnipeg and Medicine Hat. Their furniture is stored in Digby until they become permanently located.

The Countess joins hundreds of others in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Peters every success in their new western home.

Died in Everett, Mass.

A FORMER NOVA SCOTIAN PASSES AWAY.

Mr. William G. Sullis, passed away at his home, 115 Union St., Everett, Mass., early Friday morning, March 28th, after an illness of several weeks. He was a son of the late Capt. William E. Sullis, of Campbell N. B., but being born in Deep Brook, N. S., many years of his boyhood were spent there, at the home of his grandfather, the late Jeremiah Sullis. Although only twenty-five years have passed since he last visited his "old home," the scenes and comrades were as dear to his heart as ever, and he would spend many happy hours talking over events one would think long forgotten, and he always expressed a great desire to once again visit the "land of his birth" if only for a short time, but "He who doeth all things well," has willed other wise. Being gifted as an artist, many leisure hours were spent in that way. As a result, a number of beautiful paintings now adorn the walls of his home, one deserving special mention, was very recently finished, of "Digby Gap and the light house" put on the canvas from memory. At his home in Everett, he leaves a wife and young son William E., to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, also two older sons, now residing in New York, one sister, Mrs. Grey, Mattapan, Mass., and one uncle, Mr. A. G. Sullis, of Deep Brook, N. S., also a number of cousins and friends who will regret to hear of his death. The funeral service was held at his late home at 2.30 Sunday afternoon, and on Monday the body was taken to Salem, Mass., for interment in the family lot in Greenwood cemetery. The many beautiful floral tributes gave token of the high esteem in which he was held by his many friends and acquaintances. Mrs. F. N. Roope and W. A. Sullis, of Digby, are cousins of the deceased.

SHIPPING AND FISHING

Joseph E. Snow's shipments this week: 576 boxes of finnan haddies.

Schr. James L. Maloy, Capt. White, arrived at Weymouth from Eastport, Tuesday.

Nova Scotia Fish Company's arrivals: From bottom, 2,000 lbs. of mixed fish, shipped 445 boxes of finnan haddies.

The new steamer Shaboon, Capt. Harper Morehouse, is now on her regular route between, Sandy Cove, Weymouth and Little River.

Tuesday's Yarmouth Times says:—The American fishing schooner Elio M. Morrissey came in Monday night with 5,000 lbs. halibut and a large fare of mixed fish. The catch will probably be shipped to Boston tomorrow.

Schr. Myrtle L. Capt. Longmire, which had been in winter quarters in Annapolis, arrived here Wednesday to fit out for fishing. We understand that a gasoline engine will be installed, making the above vessel an auxiliary.

American revenue cutter Woodbury is off Barton, St. Mary's Bay, standing by the wrecked schooner Quikstep and will endeavor to float her today or tomorrow. Her fare of fresh fish has been salted. The crew are still on board. We understand that Capt. Matthews will return home and that Capt. Fred Prime, of Digby, will take charge.

Capt. Jeremiah G. Parke, who took the bark Acme from Baltimore to Seattle, will retire from the sea and settle with his family at Rochester, Mass. With Mrs. Parke, who accompanied him on the voyage, he will start for Boston this week. The Acme has been sold by the Standard Oil Company to the Alaska Packers' Association, which will send it to Alaska.

St. Andrew's Beacon: Over 70 French Canadian girls from the North Shore and from Nova Scotia points arrived at the Chatham works on Saturday. These girls, who appear to be a very respectable, well-behaved lot, are displacing some of the Norwegian help, who have left the company's employ. There are now about 250 girls at these works and when the factory begins to take fish in larger quantities they will be able to turn out a lot of work.

What is believed to be the largest check ever handed over the T wharf exchange for a single haddock trip was taken down by Capt. Martin L. Welch of Loch, Lucania, as a result of the dandy colish fare which the craft landed at the dock Monday. To be exact, Capt. Welch's stock was $3550.15, from which the crew shared $85 clear to a man. Capt. Welch's new record is naturally the talk of the fleet of haddockers. The Lucania will make one more trip and Skipper Welch will then haul her out for soot seeding.

Accident on the D. A. R.

FOURTEEN CARS IN WASHOUT—TANK OF GASOLINE EXPLODED—NOBODY HURT

BRIDGEFOWN, N. S., March 28.—A terrible railway smash-up and destruction by fire took place on the Dominion Atlantic Railway just east of Roundhill station last night. The west bound freight in charge of Conductor John Menzies struck a washout that must have taken place after the section men had left for the day. The train of 14 cars, including a big tank of gasoline, went into the hole. The engine remained on the track while the tender was ditched. Just behind was the tank of gasoline. This ignited and exploded in three seconds. In a moment six cars were in a blaze. These were all burned.

One was a car of English goods and the others were loaded with lumber and scrap iron. Fortunately no one was hurt. An auxiliary train went down after midnight from Kentville and rendered assistance.

The Oak Island Treasure

The London Daily Mirror of March 13th, has the following item: "It is reported from Plymouth yesterday that an expedition is fitting out to search for £2,000,000 ($10,000,000) worth of treasure buried near Chester, N. S." This is probably the famous Capt. Kidd treasure.

Russian Exodus to Canada

NEARLY 2,500 SETTLERS REACHED HALIFAX IN TWO DAYS

HALIFAX, N. S., March 30.—The strident Russian immigration to Canada has made since its inception a year ago were strikingly shown in Halifax in the past forty-eight hours when two big liners reached here with a total of 2,477 people, nearly all men, who attended settling in the Canadian west.

So well supplied with money were the 1,500 old passengers who left the Russian American steamer, Kursk, arriving on a special voyage from Liban yesterday that the exchanging brokers had to close out, short of funds, after exchanging $20,000 in Russian rubles into Canadian money.

The bulk of the new arrivals, which reached port today will land 913 immigrants and another steamer, the Czár, will leave Liban on Tuesday with over 1,000 immigrants to disembark at Halifax. The Kursk will return to Russia direct tomorrow, inaugurating on her next voyage a new schedule to this port as a direct steamer and a bi-monthly call at Philadelphia.

The annual spring rush of immigrants to Canada is in full swing and so great is the demand for passage on the other side that all accommodation has been taken on ships sailing during the next month. To provide for this record influx the Russian left Liban pool last Wednesday on a specially arranged trip, carrying the largest number of passengers embarking for Canada in recent years on one ship. She has a complement of 1,701 to land.

Information Wanted

WHERE CAN ANGORA OR MILCH GOATS BE PURCHASED

During the past few months the Live Stock Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture has been in receipt of numerous inquiries as to where it might be possible to purchase either Angora or Milch goats. It would appear that in many parts of the Dominion the demand for these useful and profitable animals is rapidly developing and that those who at present have any surplus stock can find a ready sale for them if a channel of communication between supply and demand is established. Accordingly as a means of starting a convenient Directory of Goat breeders, the Director of Agriculture, Brokers of Angora Goats and Milch Goats, the Live Stock Commissioner will be pleased to receive from such breeders information regarding their respective flocks covering the following points:—

1. Kind and number of goats kept.
2. Usual number for sale each year.
3. Approximate prices asked.
4. If possible a brief statement regarding expenses found necessary and the returns which may be expected by one engaging in raising this class of stock.

Communications supplying the above information should be addressed to the Live Stock Commissioner, Ottawa, Ont., mentioning this item in the COURIER. Such letters do not require postage.

Gas Explosion Kills Two

ONE HUNDRED TONS OF BRICK BLOWN FROM THE WALLS OF AN EAST SIDE NEW YORK FACTORY.

NEW YORK, March 22.—More than one hundred tons of brick blown outward from the walls of a lower east side factory building by an explosion of gas this afternoon, killed two children and seriously injured three others of a large number that were playing in the street below.

The explosion occurred on the fourth floor of the five-story building on E. 14th street, tearing away the rear and a side wall on the fourth, fifth and part of the third floors. Harry Furman, eleven years old, was buried under the avalanche of brick and mortar, as was also his eight-year-old brother, Abraham, whose skull was fractured. The three other injured children were hit by flying bricks, suffering fractured bones and internal injuries. The factory was closed today on account of the Jewish Sabbath. The explosion was caused when a leaking gas pipe became suddenly ignited.

Will Patrol North Atlantic

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—The derelict destroyer Teneba and the revenue cutter Miami, in a few days, will make a patrol in the ice region of the North Atlantic, each vessel remaining two weeks on the station. "They will ascertain the extent and condition of ice fields," said Secretary McAdoo today, "and send this information by wireless each day to the navy hydrographic office for publication. They will also keep in touch with vessels in order to give them warning of the condition and locality of the ice fields." Following the Titanic disaster last April, the American navy patrolled the coast, but the demands of Mexico and Central America prevented the navy's participation at this time. The question of sending the revenue cutters was considered at the cabinet meeting today and Secretary McAdoo's decision was sustained by the president.

Sighted Many Berge

St. John's, March 30.—On board the Allan liner, Corinthian, which docked here today was the body of Mr. Charles Benjamin, of Quebec who died in France while touring Europe. The Corinthian also brought three hundred boys from the Burnside Homes en route to Toronto and Peterboro.

The Manchester Inventor, here tonight, sighted eight large bergs, and was warned of others.

The C. P. R. liner Montezuma arrived tonight and reported a terrible voyage across, high seas sweeping over the vessel's bows. She came through it all without accident.

Five Master Driven Ashore

Boston, March 21.—The five-master schooner Jane Palmer, of Portland (Me.), the largest of her type, was dragged from her anchorage in the upper harbor today by a southwest gale and grounded on the flats on the east side of the harbor. The Palmer struck at high water but it is expected that she will be floated tomorrow without damage.

Onesandra Damaged

GLASGOW, March 29.—The British steamer Onesandra, scheduled to sail today for St. John, N. B., did not get away. While being hauled out in mid-stream preparatory to her departure, she collided with the dock wall and received damage to her bow which caused her to return to her berth. Repairs will be made before proceeding to her destination.

A GREAT BELIEVER IN "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Well Known Ontario Merchant Has Faith Because "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him

MR. JAMES DOBSON

BRONTE, ONT., MARCH 1st, 1912.

"Fruit-a-tives has made a complete cure in my case of Rheumatism, that had at least five years standing before I commenced the treatment. The trouble was principally in my right hip and shoulder, the pain from it was almost unendurable. Not being able to sleep on that side, if I chanced to turn on my right side while asleep, the pain would immediately awaken me. This kept up until I started taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. I started by taking one or two tablets with a large glass of water, in the morning before breakfast and experienced pronounced relief very shortly. After a continued treatment for about six months, I was cured and am now in first-class health. This, I attribute to my persistent use of 'Fruit-a-tives' and I heartily recommend your remedy to any Rheumatic sufferers."

Cookshire, Que.

Gentlemen: I had a severe attack of LaGrippe this spring which left me in a weak run down condition. I had no appetite and hardly strength enough to walk. I purchased a bottle of your "OLIVEINE EMULSION" and I had only taken it a few days when I felt quite well again. In fact when I had taken the third dose I noticed a change.

Yours truly,
(Signed) MRS. WALTER WRIGHT,
Muniac, N. B.

Cookshire, Que.

Dear Sir:—I would like to say that I think the "OLIVEINE EMULSION" is splendid. My little daughter had a hard dry cough and had no appetite whatever. Before she had taken the "OLIVEINE EMULSION" a week the cough was decidedly better and her appetite had greatly improved. I followed the directions and implicitly and honestly believe "OLIVEINE EMULSION" is all it is recognized.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) MRS. HERBERT MINCO,

Hearing the new Edison

Blue Amberol Records

is more convincing than hearing about them

In tone production lies the real test of any record. The Blue Amberol is the clearest, sweetest, most lifelike record that has yet been made.

But it is more. It is practically unbreakable. A fall from the table won't smash it. And it is so sturdy that the results of the thousandth time you play it are as perfect as the first.

Ask your dealer to let you hear them.

The Easy Laxative

In justice to yourself you should try Rexall Orderlies, — your money back if you don't like them. They are a candy confection that really do give easy relief from constipation.

Good health is largely dependent upon the bowels. When they become sluggish the waste material that is thrown off by the system accumulates. This condition generates poisons which circulate throughout the body, tending to create coated tongue, bad breath, headache, dull brain action, nervousness, biliousness and other annoyances.

Avoid harsh cathartics and physics. They give but temporary relief. They often aggravate the real trouble. They are particularly bad for children, delicate or aged persons.

Rexall Orderlies

Come in tablet form, taste just like candy and are noted for their easy, soothing action upon the bowels. They don't purge, gripe, cause nausea, looseness, nor the inconvenience attendant upon the use of purgatives. Their action is so pleasant that the taking of Rexall Orderlies almost becomes a desire instead of a duty.

Children like Rexall Orderlies. They are ideal for aged or delicate persons as well as for the most robust.

Make Us Prove It

We guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Rexall Orderlies if they do not give entire satisfaction. We ask no promises and we in no way obligate you. Your mere word is sufficient for us to promptly and cheerfully refund the money.

Doesn't that prove that Rexall Orderlies must be right? You must know we would not dare make such a promise unless we were positively certain that Rexall Orderlies will do all we claim for them. There is no money risk attached to a trial of Rexall Orderlies, and in justice to yourself, you should not hesitate to test them.

Rexall Orderlies come in convenient vest-pocket size tin boxes. 12 tablets, 10c; 36 tablets, 25c; 80 tablets, 50c.

Five Hundred Drowned.

GREAT LOSS OF LIFE IN CHILLICOTHE, OHIO.—HUNDREDS ARE HOMELESS IN INDIANA.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 28.—Governor Cox has just received a message from the mayor of Chillicothe, through the telephone manager, saying that 500 persons have been drowned at Chillicothe.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 28.—The telephone chief at Chillicothe tonight told the Canadian Press here that at least 100 bodies had been taken from the debris in the flooded district here up to a late hour today. He said he was unable to place an accurate estimate on the number of dead but had been told that the number would reach 300.

DAYTON, Ohio, March 28.—Snow added to the terror of the elements today. Hundreds of refugees are being taken out of the Hickory street school. The weather is bitterly cold adding to the suffering of those who have been trapped on the top of their homes since the waves broke. Five is sweeping almost the entire down town district of the city.

WABASH, Ind., March 28.—Seven hundred and fifty persons homeless as the result of the high flood in the Wabash River. The city is without gas, water or lighting facilities. The schools are closed and the Mayor this afternoon issued a proclamation ordering that all saloons and business houses be closed at six o'clock and instructed the police to keep people off the streets. This was done on account of the fear of fire.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 28.—Sixteen persons were drowned this afternoon when the El River flooded Howeville, a small village about 25 miles south of Terre Haute, according to a report from Linton. Thirty others are marooned on house tops and six boats have been sent from Linton to rescue the survivors. All wire communication with the place was cut off this evening.

DETROIT, March 28.—A telephone message received by Mayor Marx, this forenoon from a member of the relief committee at Dayton, said that the St. Mary's reservoir reported to be one of the largest in the world, broke this morning, and its contents are pouring down the great Miami River. The reservoir is about fifty miles above Dayton. The telephone message was broken off and the Mayor could get no details.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo will admit relief supplies from Canada for the flood sufferers of Ohio and Indiana free of duty. He waived the tariff restrictions today on receipt of a telegram from Mayor Price of St. Thomas, Ontario, saying the people of that city wished to send food, clothing and medical supplies.

Wireless Tests at Lonsburg a Success.

SIGNOR MARCONI IS EXPECTED TO VISIT GLACE BAY SHORTLY.

SYDNEY, April 3.—During the past few days tests have been made at the Marconi Stations at Glace Bay and Lonsburg in connection with the scheme to establish an Imperial chain of stations throughout the British Empire. The tests were under the supervision of C. P. Edwards, general Superintendent of Canadian Wireless, of Ottawa, and Manager Woodward of the local station, and J. Colton another wireless expert of Ottawa. Mr. Edwards and Colton conducted a number of tests both at Glace Bay station, and at the station recently established at Lonsburg, in respect to the ordinary mode of sending transatlantic messages, high speed work and new duplex system, that is sending and receiving at the same time.

The Glace Bay station was the first of the Marconi system in America, or in the world to inaugurate the duplex system. It is interesting to note that it was of a most successful nature, and demonstrated clearly the wonderful strides in wireless telegraphy that have been accomplished during the past year by the great inventor, Signor Marconi. Signor Marconi is expected at the Glace Bay station shortly, when he will conduct a number of experiments with a new transmission instrument, which it is believed will add greatly to the efficiency of wireless operation.

Six Montreal Firms Burned Out.

BLAZE IN THE DOWNTOWN BUSINESS SECTION CAUSED LOSS OF $150,000.

MONTREAL, March 30.—Three alarms were turned in between 10:30 and 11 o'clock on Saturday night for a blaze in the downtown business section of the city, that did damage, roughly estimated at $150,000 and burned out half a dozen firms.

The building destroyed is that adjoining the Bank of Toronto at McGill and James Streets and extending through from St. James to Notre Dame Street.

During the progress of the blaze a half dozen firemen received slight injuries from falling glass, while one fireman, Valence, of No. 14 Station, Lyttonville Park, was overcome by smoke. He revived after being carried out to the open air.

It took the fire fighters two hours to get the blaze under control. The cause of the outbreak could not be ascertained. The estimated losses are: St. and Ready, Wardrobe, $20,000; Scott Bros., Mfgs., $10,000; Royal Stores, Mfgs., branch, $10,000; D'Arcy D. Bogue, $2,000; Hovelsberg and Co. Importers, $500; M. K. Nolan, real estate and J. R. Prefontaine, Hairdresser, $1,000. The different firms, with the exception of Hovelsberg and Co. are covered by insurance.

Lumbermen Drowned.

PARISH, N. S. March 28.—Two well known lumbermen, Oliver Spicer and James Murphy, were drowned at New Salem last night by the bursting of Spicer's mill dam while they were trying to raise the flume gates. Spicer's body was recovered this morning, but Murphy's had not yet been found. Murphy was son-in-law of Spicer, and owned a saw mill at New Salem. The mill from down shore did not arrive this morning. The bridge at Fox River, Ramoth River and Wharton were carried away last night.

Funeral Service for the Late King.

LONDON, March 22.—A funeral service for the late King George of Greece, was held today at the Greek Church here. It was attended by representatives of King George of England, Queen Mother Alexandra and most of the members of the diplomatic corps.

Every mother should realize that the skin of her baby is so tender that the secretions of the body often lead to rashes, eruptions, etc., all of which may be removed by Zam-Buk. Scores of restless, crying babies, upon examination, are found to be suffering from some form of skin irritation or "heat." Don't let the little one suffer when Zam-Buk will cure!

Mrs. L. Ho d, of 475 Alexander Avenue, Waukegan, Ill., says: "I have proved the value of Zam-Buk when applied to my baby's skin. Some nasty sores broke out around my baby's mouth, and despite all the preparations used, they refused to heal. I took him to St. Louis hospital and he remained there for two weeks. At the end of that time he was no better, and we again took him home. I was then advised to try Zam-Buk and obtained a supply. The effect of the first few applications was very gratifying, and I continued with the use of the balm. A little perseverance resulted in a complete cure."

Mrs. E. Coker, of Yorkton, Sask., says: "My little baby girl had a bad running sore all over her little chin. A few applications of Zam-Buk healed the sore in such a perfect manner that no scar was left behind."

Scores of similar cases could be quoted. Zam-Buk is absolutely pure—contains no alcohol, no salicylates, no mineral coloring matter, no irritating poisons. It is the ideal balm for baby.

Zam-Buk cures eczema, rashes, ringworm, chapped hands, sores, heatburns, cuts, burns, discharging sores, and all skin injuries and diseases. Use, boy, all druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for order. Don't take the risk of using harmful imitations!

R. D. RUSSELL

A WOMAN'S WISDOM.

The worried mother wakes up to hear her baby's heavy breathing—a little cough—perhaps the cough or whooping cough. She does not want to send for the doctor when perhaps the trouble does not amount to much. Finally she thinks of the medical book her father gave her, The Common Sense Medical Adviser, by R. V. Pierce, M. D. She says "Just the thing to find out what is the matter with the little dear." Two million households in this country own one—and it's to be had for only 31c. in stamps—1,000 pages in splendid cloth binding. A good family adviser in any emergency. It is for either sex. This is what many women write Dr. Pierce—in respect to his "Favorite Prescription," a remedy which has cured thousands of melancholy and miserable women cheerful and happy, by curing the painful womanly diseases which undermine a woman's health and strength.

"My desire is to write a few lines to let you know what your valuable medicine has done for me," writes Mrs. M. J. Ziemer, of 233 S. Benton Street, Baltimore, Md. "Before the doctor came to our house I was a very sick woman. I wrote you for advice which was kindly given and which made me a different woman in a short time. After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' I began improving so that I hardly knew I was in such a condition. I did my own housework—washing and ironing, cooking, sewing, and the worst of all nursing three children who had whooping cough. I hardly know of the advent ten minutes before—so easy was it. The baby is as fat as a butter-tail. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine for any woman to take when in this condition. I recommend it to all my friends."

CORRESPONDENCE

European Sporting Ethics.

To the Editor of the Courier

DEAR SIR,—Allow me to express my concurrence with the indignant letter from Sheriff Smith in your columns last week about the disgusting manner of hunting employed by the German Emperor. Such inhuman and unsportsmanlike methods are by no means confined to him and his fellow monarchs, but unfortunately obtain largely among the gentry of Great Britain, who think nothing of slaughtering hundreds of birds daily, generally driven right over the guns. Lord Walsingham's record was far above a thousand for something like eight hours. One's first thought is that Mr. Smith is right in demanding that such pictures should not be shown; but possibly, as a terrible example, they may have their value. I have now seen this Emperor's William series three times, twice in Boston, and I am glad to say that on all three occasions, I heard expressions of disgust and indignation all round me.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SECRETARY FOR AGRICULTURE.

The Annual Report of the Secretary for Agriculture for Nova Scotia for the year 1912 has just been issued and is now available as long as the copies last for free distribution on application to the Secretary for Agriculture or to any of the members representing the counties of Nova Scotia.

The report consists of an outline of the year's work in the Department of Agriculture, including exhibitions, agricultural societies, farmers' associations, field crop competitions, reports of the work at the Agricultural College showing the progress that has been made in the various Departments of this institution.

Besides this matter dealing with the routine work of the Department and the College, the report contains a series of articles on swine breeding in Nova Scotia. This series is a continuation of the series of articles which have been appearing in the report of the Secretary for Agriculture since 1907. These previous reports have dealt with sheep raising, dairying, soils and soil cultivation, orcharding and horse raising. As in previous years, the series of articles on topical subjects are being printed in separate covers and may be secured either by themselves or under the same cover with the general report of the Secretary for Agriculture. We may state that any who have not received copies of the previous reports may get them on application to the Secretary for Agriculture at the same time when they apply for a copy of the present report of 1912.

The series of articles on hog raising includes a description of the various breeds of swine, methods of feeding, care and breeding, etc., and there is also a valuable article on the housing of swine which contains plans of various types of houses recommended for keeping swine. The series is concluded with a splendid article on diseases of swine and their treatment. The whole series is a valuable one and should be in the hands of everyone interested in swine breeding and feeding in the Province of Nova Scotia.

A limited number of these reports are also available for distribution outside of the province. Those who are interested should apply to M. C. Curran, Secretary for Agriculture, Truro, Nova Scotia.

OLD SUNKEN VESSEL FOUND AT BEAR RIVER.

The following communication was addressed by W. O. Clarke, Esq., of Bear River, to Judge Sawyer, of the N. S. Historical Society and read at its meeting on the 7th inst.

Mr. Edward Powers and Brewer who are building the new Railway bridge at the mouth of the Bear River, while boring to ascertain the depth of the mud at the point where the heaviest piers are to be located came upon an obstruction.

This obstruction, upon investigation appears to be a sunken vessel. At the point where this occurred there is twenty feet of water at low water and the obstruction or vessel referred to is covered with twenty-five feet of silt or mud showing that many years have passed since the vessel first settled at that point.

Further investigations shows the vessel to be about one hundred and twenty feet long and twenty-two feet wide. In using the diamond drill to discover the nature of the obstruction, they have bored through two or three thicknesses which would indicate that the frame of the vessel is still intact, and from the core brought up on the auger, the planking appears to be of oak. The hull, which was struck by the auger after boring through four inches of plank, was found to be of material very like flint, but entirely different from any material found in this locality.

It occurred to the writer that this may be an old French vessel sunk at this point in the early history of the locality. Do you know anything of a craft in the early history of this country? I have submitted these facts in the hope of getting some information and felt that you would be interested.

King Carries Out an Old Custom.

LONDON, March 20.—The picturesque and historic ceremony of distributing the King's Maundy money to the poor of the realm was witnessed in Westminster Abbey today. Forty-seven aged and penniless subjects of the King were gathered in to be beneficiaries of His Majesty's bounty. This number corresponded to the King's age. A notable gathering of privileged guests looked on while the rites of the old custom were carried out.

Concrete is the best building material

A BROAD statement—Yet literally true. The aim of man from the beginning has been to make his building materials as nearly like natural stone as possible. The great labor required to quarry stone led him to seek various manufactured substitutes. The only reason he ever used wood was that it was easiest to get and most convenient to use. Wood is no longer easy to get. Like most building material, its cost is increasing at an alarming rate. The cost of concrete is decreasing. So, from the standpoint of either service or economy, Concrete is the best building material. Canada's farmers are using more concrete, in proportion to their numbers, than the farmers of any other country. Why? Because they are being supplied with a cement of the highest possible quality, which insures the success of their concrete work. The secret of concrete's popularity in Canada lies in the fact that while we have been advertising the use of concrete, we have also been producing, by scientific methods, a cement so uniformly high in quality that the concrete made with it gives the complete satisfaction our advertisements promised. Concrete would not have been in such universal use today, had an inferior grade of cement been supplied. Insist upon getting Canada Cement. It is your best assurance of thoroughly satisfactory results from your concrete work. There is a Canada Cement dealer in your neighborhood.

Canada Cement —

Without this label it is not "Canada" Cement.

Write for our Free 100-page book "What The Farmer Can Do With Concrete" —No farmer can afford to be without a copy.

Business Changes.

Maj. M. C. Denton, who has been employed in D. & O. Sprague's business office and general store, Digby, for more than nine years, during which time he has given both his employers and the firm's constantly increasing patrons excellent satisfaction, has resigned his position which takes effect to-morrow.

His place will be filled by Mr. Ross O. Smallie, who has held a similar position for more than fourteen years with Capt. Joseph E. Snow and of whom the same can be said in reference to his popularity, faithfulness and ability as we have said of Maj. Denton. We have not yet learned who Capt. Snow will engage to replace Mr. Smallie, or Maj. Denton's intention for the future.

Master Dredge W. S. Fielding.

Capt. C. F. Lewis, formerly of Freeport, but for some time a prominent resident of Digby, has been appointed master of the dredge W. S. Fielding, at present working in St. John. Capt. Successful Entertainment in Bear River.

The play entitled, "Country Folks," was put on by local talent to a crowded house in Oakdene hall, Bear River, Wednesday night. All performed their parts in a splendid manner but special mention should be made of "Peter Patch, the Chorus Boy," by Ralph Harris, whose acting was far above the average amateur and better than many professionals frequently seen on the stage.

BEAR RIVER, N. S.

The Reason

we are recommending "REGAL" Flour to our customers so strongly is that we have proved it to be a good flour. In fact in all the years we have been in business, we have never seen a better one.

There are many other flours which can be sold for less money than "REGAL" but when it comes to a question of quality, when it comes to a question of making as fine a loaf of bread as any housekeeper could ask for, there is no flour that we have ever seen to surpass none that we would sooner use in our own house. Isn't this a strong recommendation?

"REGAL"

D. & O. SPROULE, Digby, N. S.

Litchfield.

Mrs. Frank McCaull is visiting friends in Hillburn. The bad conditions of the road make it bad for our mail driver. Mr. Purdy, of Bear River, fish warden, passed through here last week. Miss Abbie Longmire spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Bessie Milbury.

Mr. Eddie Sproule has returned home from St. John and is sitting up for fishing. Mrs. Gregory, who fell on the ice a few weeks ago, breaking her hip, is slowly recovering. Miss Bessie Milbury spent last week in Hillburn with her sister, Mrs. Wallace Longmire.

Quite a number of buoys and lobster traps have been picked up along the shore the past week. Mr. Jacob Dukeshire, who has been confined to the house this winter on the sick list, is slowly recovering.

Miss Emma Koop and her friend, Mr. O. P. Harnish, spent Easter with Emma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Koop.

Mr. Ewart McCaull has returned to his home again. He spent the past few months in Lynn, Mass., and is in poor health. Mr. Henry Milbury has just sold two boats; one large motor boat and one small tramping boat, making five he has built and sold this winter and spring.

Miss Mildred McCaull entertained a number of young people on Thursday evening. Among the guests were Mr. George Milner, of Parker's Cove. A very enjoyable evening was spent in music and games.

There are six of the Fenian raid volunteers living here. They are Jacob Dukeshire, Edward Koop, William Wilson, Samuel Milbury, Albert Turner and David Oliver. I trust they will receive their $100 bounty in due course.

Miss Maggie Wilson, who has been living in Boston the past few years, returned home last fall in poor health and as the winter wears away, spring comes finding her confined to her bed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson.

A Wonderful Discovery.

An eminent scientist, the other day, gave his opinion that the most wonderful discovery of recent years was the discovery of Zam-Buk. Just think! As soon as a single thin layer of Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or a sore, such injury is insured against blood poisoning! Not one species of microbe has been found that Zam-Buk does not kill!

Then again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a sore, or a cut or to skin disease, it stops the smarting. That is why children are such friends of Zam-Buk. They care nothing for the science of the thing. All they know is that Zam-Buk stops their pain. Mothers should never forget this.

Again, as soon as Zam-Buk is applied to a wound or to a diseased part, the cells beneath the skin's surface are so stimulated that new healthy tissue is quickly formed. This forming of fresh healthy tissue from below is Zam-Buk's secret of healing. The tissue thus formed is worked up to the surface and literally casts off the diseased tissue above it. This is why Zam-Buk cures are permanent.

Only the other day Mr. Marshall, of 101 Delorimier Ave., Montreal, called upon the Zam-Buk Co. and told them that for over twenty years he had been a martyr to eczema. His hands were at one time so covered with sores that he had to sleep in gloves. Four years ago Zam-Buk was introduced to him, and in a few months it cured him. To-day—over three years after his cure of a disease he had for twenty years—he is still cured, and has had no trace of any return of the eczema!

All druggists sell Zam-Buk at 50c. box, or we will send free trial box if you send this advertisement and a 1c. stamp (to pay return postage). Address Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

Centerville.

Mr. R. Thorne Bakes, scientific expert, London, England, has been invited by the Norwegian government to investigate a mysterious fish disease which is damaging very seriously the dried codfish industry of Norway. The dried codfish industry is a national one in Norway. That country exports to South America alone, one hundred thousand tons of dried cod every spring. It appears that the disease attacks the codfish during the drying process, previous to exportation. When the cod leaves Norway it is in good condition for consumption, but by the time it reaches America its fresh appearance is almost totally destroyed, though the fish is still fit to eat. After being split the cod is placed on the rocks to dry in the sun and spores from the atmosphere probably then settle on the fish and gradually spread. It is to be hoped that no wind may blow any of the spores of this injurious fungus to Centerville, whose reputation for dried codfish stands very high.

MODERN MARTYRS!

The age of martyrs is not passed. There are thousands of women all over the country enduring physical torture and mental anguish almost beyond description. They are not victims of persecution, like the martyrs of old; they are not called on to face the sword or the stake, but their sufferings—borne in silence and hidden from the world at large—are scarcely less intense.

These ladies, as a rule, are women and girls of refined and sensitive temperaments. Knowing that their sufferings are due to a diseased condition of the female functions, their native modesty deters them from seeking relief in the earlier stages; and when they consult a physician, they usually get some drug mixture to take internally, which is not more effective for troubles of this kind than it would be for a toothache, a bruise, or any other strictly local ailment.

The next of the trouble being in some one of the female organs, the remedy, to be effective, must act on this portion of the anatomy. This is the secret of the success which always follows the use of ORANGE LILY, in the treatment of these troubles. It is a strictly local treatment. It is absorbed directly into the parts that are inflamed and congested and its beneficent soothing influence is noticeable from the first. The irritation of the delicate membrane is relieved, the congestion is overcome by the discharge of the watery matter which served to oppress the nerves and cause mental depression. The nerves are toned and invigorated; and the sunshine and joy of life again become part of her being. Read the following letters:

Archdr. Ont., Feb. 1, '09.
Dear Mrs. Currah:—I received your kind letter some time ago, but was feeling so well, and not needing medicine, that I scarcely do my housework during my menstrual period, and for two months or more I was never free from pain in the womb and ovaries. The pain would run down the groin, so I would frequently nearly double up. Then the pain began going up the back of my neck to my head, and I hardly knew what I was doing at times. Life was a burden indeed. I finally could endure it no longer, so went to our leading town doctor and had an examination. He pronounced it (I forget the word) a rigid condition of the generative organs, produced by repeated attacks of inflammation. He said I would have to take a course of treatment, and that it failed to overcome the rigid condition I might, in time, be compelled to have the ovaries removed. I objected to that, so he told me to take Dr. Conley's treatment, and I decided to take Dr. Conley's treatment. I have used two jars of Cerato Massage, two packages of Herbal Vomb Tonic and six boxes of Orange Lily. It is eight months since I began the treatment, but I feel like a new woman. I work right through everything now like a man. I hardly know a pain, even during menstruation now. I feel that Dr. Conley's Home Treatment is a Godsend to suffering womankind, and shall continue to sound its praises wherever I have an opportunity.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. T. H. HATTON.
ORANGE LILY, as a remedy for these ills, as well as for leucorrhoea, painful periods, irregularities, cancers in their earlier stages, tumors, displacements, hemorrhages, and all ovarian troubles, has long since passed the experimental stage. So confident am I of this that I will send ten days' treatment, which is worth 35 cents, to any sufferer ABSOLUTELY FREE. The treatment is inexpensive, used at home, and no physician is necessary.

I had become thin and weak from the constant Headaches but now not only have I been cured of all these awful Headaches, but my strength is growing up once more and I feel like a new man."

Death of Ralph W. Ruggles

WESTPORT'S WELL KNOWN POSTMASTER PASSES AWAY AFTER A BRIEF ILLNESS.

We regret to chronicle the death of Ralph W. Ruggles, Westport's well known postmaster, which occurred at his home in that town last Monday morning after six days' illness with pneumonia, aged 61 years.

The deceased was one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Digby County. He was a son of the late Hon. H. Ruggles, and had spent a life time in the Westport post office, being a clerk with his father whom he succeeded as postmaster more than fifteen years ago. During that time he greatly improved the entire postal service in Westport and gave the public general satisfaction. He is survived by five brothers, Herbert and Edward, of Westport; St. Clair, of Toronto; Charles, of Boston; Dean, of Chicago, and one sister, Miss Ruggles, with whom he resided. Mr. Ruggles was an enthusiastic member of the Maccabees, the only order to which he belonged.

The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon with interment in the Baptist cemetery, services being conducted by Rev. Mr. MacKenzie. Officers and members of the R. O. T. M. attended the funeral in a body and read their beautiful burial service at the grave. The COURIER extends its deepest sympathy to the large circle of bereaved relatives and friends in Westport and elsewhere.

Sudden Death at Westport

MRS. CAROLINE WELSH DIED TUESDAY AFTER THREE HOURS' ILLNESS.

Mrs. Caroline Welsh, widow of the late Daniel Welsh, died at her home in Westport, Tuesday with paralysis, having been ill but three hours. She was 70 years of age, a member of the Baptist church and highly respected in the community in which she resided. She was the mother of twelve children, nine of whom are still living: Mrs. Johnson Denton, of Westport; Miss Sarah Welsh, Mrs. Howard Swift, Lynn; Edward Welsh, Wolfville; Mrs. Charles Cann, Lynn; Mrs. Joseph Monday, Beachmont, Mass.; Ralph, Howard and Freeman, of Westport. She is also survived by fourteen grand children. Interment will take place in the Baptist cemetery.

WILL STRAMERS HARVARD AND YALE RUN BETWEEN BOSTON AND YARMOUTH.

Friday's Boston Post says: It was reported along the water front yesterday that the passenger steamers Harvard and Yale, which formerly plied between Boston and New York, are to return from the Pacific, where they are now being operated, to be used on the line between Boston and Yarmouth, N. S.

The officials of the Eastern Steamship Corporation which controls the Yarmouth line and New York line, refused to confirm or deny the report. The increased passenger service between Boston and Yarmouth during the summer, has, it is said, resulted in the company's decision to place larger vessels in the service.

The Late Matthew D. Killelea

The late Matthew D. Killelea was born near Gulliver's Cove, March 23, 1830. For several years after attaining his majority, he taught school at North Range, Plympton and Church Point. In 1868, in company with his brother John, he migrated to California, locating in San Francisco, in which city he lived until the death of his wife, thence going to San Mateo to reside with his son, in which city he resided at the time of his death, Jan. 10, 1913. Mr. Killelea leaves four children, two sons and two daughters, also two brothers, John E., of San Francisco, and Peter, of Lighthouse Road.

Wonderful Cures Reported In Germany.

The use of simple herbs as remedies instead of the more concentrated and usually more dangerous inorganic substances, has been revived very widely of late. In Germany a new school of physicians has arisen which throws out almost a whole of the pharmacopoeia and relies on an adaptation of the method of wild animals in curing themselves. . . . N. Y. World.

It was Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., who first advocated the extended use of some of our native roots, such as: Golden seal and Oregon grape root, mandrake and queen's root, black cherrybark. These are the chief ingredients in Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been so well & favorably known for nearly half a century. A harmless cleanser and stomach tonic that nature has provided.

J. DONALD MATTHEWSON of Ossining, N. Y. says: "I suffered for over five years with what the doctors told me was a dilated condition of the stomach, associated with a certain condition of some, and nervous heart. I had tried enough nux, bismuth, gentian, rhubarb, etc., to float a ship and naturally thought there was no cure for me, but after reading what eminent doctors said of the curative qualities of the ingredients of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I gave it a fair trial. Took the 'Discovery' and also the 'Pleasant Pellets' and can truthfully say I am feeling better now than I have in years. I cheerfully give permission to print this testimonial, and if any 'doubting Thomas' writes me I will 'put him wise' to the best all-around medicine in the country to-day."

Kept From Funeral By Flood.

BISHOP LAWRENCE AND OTHERS WERE IN OHIO, AND UNABLE TO RETURN FOR SERVICES FOR BISHOP JAGGAR.

(Boston Transcript, March 27th.)

Bishops of the Episcopal Church who had intended to be present this morning at the funeral of Rt. Rev. Thomas A. Jaggar, who died at Nice, France, last December, were unavoidably absent, because of the Ohio floods. Among them was Bishop Lawrence, who had gone to Columbus, O., for the consecration as suffragan bishop of Rev. Theodore Irving Reese of that city, formerly rector of St. Michael's Church, Milton. Others who were expected were Bishop A. B. King of Texas, a brother-in-law of Bishop Jaggar; Bishop James De Wolfe Perry, J., of Rhode Island, and Bishop Boyd Vincent of southern Ohio, who was the successor to Bishop Jaggar in the very district which is now so devastated by flood and fire.

The funeral of Bishop Jaggar took place at St. Paul's Cathedral, over which he had presided for two years, previous to assuming the head of the American Church abroad. Bishop Edward M. Parker, of New Hampshire, officiated and read the lesson. He was assisted by Dean E. S. Rousmaniere, D. D. of the Cathedral, who read the opening sentences, and Rev. Sherard Bittinge, D. D., of Gorton, who was associated with St. Paul's Church during Bishop Jaggar's regime. Others in the chancel were Rev. Frederick J. Walton and Rev. Ralph M. Harper, of the cathedral staff, and Rev. Louis DeComie, formerly of the staff of the parish.

The full choir of the Cathedral was present. The hymns were "For All the Saints," which was used as a procession; "O Paradise," and "The Strife is Over," for the recessional. The incense was "The Souls of the Righteous," by Tertius Noble. Before the funeral was a service, the organ played selections from Beethoven's Seventh Symphony and some of the Bach "Passion Music."

The honorary pallbearers, who preceded the body up the aisle, were the vestrymen of the parish who were contemporaneous with the late bishop. These were Dr. Robert M. Lawrence, W. V. Doherty, Dr. Calvin G. Page, J. One Green, Howard Stockton, W. R. Dorman, Fay, James Schouler and Joseph W. Woods.

The ushers were James M. Hunnewell, Robert H. Gardner, Benjamin P. Barker, George H. Randall, B. P. Richardson, Dr. Calvin G. Page, Professor Charles Palache and John H. Gutterman.

The body was taken to Mount Auburn Cemetery where Bishop Jaggar's first wife and daughter are buried. Dr. Rousmaniere said the words of commendation, and Mr. Harper of the Cathedral also attended. In the immediate funeral party were Mrs. Jaggar and her daughter, Miss Louise Jaggar, who arrived from Europe several days ago; Edward Jaggar of Washington, the bishop's brother; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Patterson, of Providence, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Hoff, of West Roxbury, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Tuttle of Lexington, and Miss L. C. Jellison of Boston. On the arrival of the body in Boston it was taken to the mortuary chapel of the Church of the Advent, where it remained until this morning.

The Farmers' Association

What it means to the merchants, professional men and others.

In the last issue of the COURIER I endeavored to explain what the farmers' association means to the farmer.

Now I will try to tell you what the farmers' association means to the merchants, professional men and others. Our argument is this: That when the farmers are in a state of prosperity they have more money to spend. This means that trade in the towns is stimulated, the doctors, drugists, blacksmiths and others receive more money in consequence, in fact there is scarcely a class of people that are not benefited by a prosperous condition of the farmers. Now if farmers' associations improve the condition of the farmers and put them in a more prosperous state, which they have ample proof that they do, then it is evident that they help people of other occupations as well and that the whole community is benefited thereby. For these reasons we go into the towns and canvass for members as well as the country. In view of the above facts I might add that agriculture is the backbone of any country and if all the farmers cease to grow crops for one season the whole world would starve.

Mr. Brannen Accepts New Position

WILL LIKELY BE ONE OF THE BUSIEST TRANSPORTATION OFFICIALS IN BOSTON.

Mr. Sydney N. Brannen, for a long period connected with the Dominion Atlantic railway, the last 12 years as Boston city ticket agent, has recently associated himself with the Beckman Tourist Company, Washington and Mills etc., (opposite the Old South Meeting House) Boston, as ticket agent in charge of Nova Scotia passenger traffic.

Mr. Brannen will act as a sort of bureau of information for the special benefit of travelers to or from the Maritime Provinces, and will be glad to assist them in securing railroad or steamship accommodations, over any lines, and to furnish them with literature or any information or suggestions they may need. He is likely to be one of the busiest transportation officials in Boston during the tourist season.

He is a native of Yarmouth, and in the earlier days of his connection with the Dominion Atlantic representing the company in that place and in Windsor. He is one of the most popular members of the Canadian colony in Boston.

Two Suicides Near St. John.

St. JOHN, March 30.—Violet Phillips, aged 19, an English immigrant employed as a domestic by Robert Connolly at St. Martens, committed suicide Friday afternoon by shooting herself through the chest with a revolver. She died Saturday morning. She committed self-murder while temporarily insane. Frederick Fletcher, 10 years old, for years mentally unsound, was found drowned Saturday morning in a shallow brook running at the rear of his home.

Dear Sirs.—I am writing to let you know how much good your "OLIVEINE EMULSION" has done for me. I was run down and could not do a hard day's work. I heard of "OLIVEINE EMULSION" and got a bottle. The little dose did me a lot of good, and I have since taken four bottles and now weigh 30 lbs. I shall never do without it in my house as long as I can get it. I have told a number of my neighbors about your "OLIVEINE EMULSION." Nothing ever came my way which did me as much good and I appreciate it very much.

DOCTORS ADVISE OPERATIONS

Saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Swarthmore, Penn.—"For fifteen years I suffered untold agony, and for one period of nearly two years I had hemorrhages and the doctors told me I would have to undergo an operation, but I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am in good health now. I am all over the Change of Life and cannot praise your Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it at that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles."—Mrs. EMILY SUMMERSGILL, Swarthmore, Pa.

Canadian Woman's Experience: Fort William, Ont.—"I feel as if I could not tell others enough about the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was weak and tired and I could not rest nights. A friend recommended your Compound and I soon gained health and strength and could not wish to sleep better. I know other women who have taken it for the same purpose and they join me in praising it."—Mrs. Wm. A. BERRY, 631 South Vicker Street, Fort Williams, Ontario.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

The Teapot in Full Bloom

I've travelled far and wide to many a place in the U. S. A. And many a beautiful sight I've seen and many a happy day. But in travelling through sweet Canada, that land of spacious room, I always saw where'er I went, the teapot in full bloom.

The ladies sweet as now mown hay, they all appear to be. Could not keep house or run their home without their Red Rose Tea.

I got aboard a train one day, the car was very hot, And in one corner was a stove, on that, an old teapot.

I asked "Why waiting here so long?" A blue coat answered me. "I could not run my train a day without my Red Rose Tea."

"And when that teapot sang its song"—(and then he gave a cough) "I'll take my little cup of tea, and then we will be off."

The more I see of Canada, the more it pleases me. For Nova Scotia folk are great for hospitality. New Brunswick too is very kind, they always do their part. For in each cup of tea, they pour a warm and friendly heart.

I never cared for tea or much, it may seem strange to say, Until I met across the line, those people day by day. When they as strangers took me in, invited me to sup, Thus I learned to love the Red Rose Tea, from those behind the cup.

A DRUGGIST IN WINNIPEG

Cured Himself With GIN PILLS

No greater compliment could be paid GIN PILLS than to have a druggist use them. Mr. Rogers being in the business, tried all the ordinary remedies, but it was not until he used GIN PILLS that he was cured of a severe pain in the back.

Winnipeg, May 19th, 1912.

"In the autumn of 1911, I suffered with a continual pain in the back. As a druggist, I tried various remedies without any apparent results. Having sold GIN PILLS for a number of years, I thought there must be good in them otherwise the sales would not increase so fast. I gave them a fair trial and the results I found to be good."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one druggist who has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Catarrh is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Catarrh is taken in its early stages, by building up the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietor has so much faith in his curative powers that he offers One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds Etc.

Every girl likes a good complexion. Use of Zam-Buk ensures one! If you have pimples or rough and scaly patches on your face or any part of your skin just try it.

Think what your skin has had to go through during the winter just past. You have been out in rain and sleet and snow. You have been at one moment perspiring from skating, or some other exertion. Then you have stood to "cool off." You have spent hours indoors at a temperature equal to summer heat. Then you have covered your skin except your face and gone out into a temperature away below zero! No wonder that with all these changes the skin of the face and neck shows signs of needing attention.

Zam-Buk is a skin food. Don't forget that the skin has to do work just as any other organ of your body has, and if you overwork it, it gives out. Zam-Buk is the remedy. Smear it lightly over the spots, the eruptions, the scaly patches, at night, and note how quickly your appearance improves. As the rich, refined, herbal essences sink deep into the tissue, the hard scurf-like patches are removed. The cuticle is softened. The cells beneath are stimulated to healthy operation. The pores resume their work properly. Better color results. The cells of the skin are purified by Zam-Buk, become transparent, the blood beneath is able to impart its proper coloring to the tissue, and the delicate "peach bloom" of health replaces the sallowness and pallor of disease. A few days' use of Zam-Buk will be found to give this result. Use also Zam-Buk soap.

Zam-Buk and Zam-Buk Soap are obtainable from all druggists and stores, or by mail from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

Catechism of the House-Fly.

GREAT CAMPAIGN OF LAST YEAR AGAINST FLY TO BE FOLLOWED UP.

A great campaign was waged against the house-fly last summer, but if any permanent success is to be obtained it must be by means of thorough education of the public authorities and the people themselves of the desirability of adopting every possible means to get rid of the house fly by doing away with his favorite breeding places and cutting off his food supplies.

The following catechism, prepared by Dr. Geo. A. Dickinson, medical health officer at Port Hope, Ont., contains many valuable suggestions:

- 1 Where do flies live and breed? Generally in manure, or in dirty stables, open closets and other filth.
- 2 What do flies eat? Decaying foods, excrement and filth.
- 3 Are they great feeders? A fly may eat nearly half his weight of food at a meal and he likes to eat often. A fly has been known to deposit fifty specks of dejects in twenty-four hours.
- 4 Is their power of digestion good? No. The germs of disease when eaten may pass alive and undigested through the fly.
- 5 Where does he like to go? He visits the open closet, the spittoon, the garbage heap and may call on you.
- 6 Where else does he go? To the kitchen, the dining room and the restaurant.
- 7 What may he take with him? Filth from the open closet, the manure pile and the garbage heap.
- 8 How does he behave? He walks on the butter, wipes his feet on the bread, bathes in the milk, dinks on the sugar and may infect them with the germs of disease.
- 9 Where does he get disease germs? From typhoid, dysentery, diarrhoea, and cholera excreta; from fresh undiseased sputum of consumptives; from manure and from other filth.
- 10 How may flies convey disease germs? On their wings, legs, head and body, in their intestines, and in their excreta.
- 11 Why is the house-fly called the "typhoid fly"? Because he often carries the typhoid germs from the excrement of a typhoid patient; but any fly may do this. It was estimated that one third of the typhoid in Minnesota had been carried by flies.
- 12 Is he very dangerous? He causes many deaths by carrying germs from typhoid, dysentery, and diarrhoea excreta; and he may carry the germs of cholera, tuberculosis, diphtheria, anthrax and plague.
- 13 Where are flies most plentiful? Where there is the most filth.
- 14 Do flies develop quickly? A full grown fly may develop from the egg in from eight to sixteen days.
- 15 How can we best destroy the fly? Destroy his breeding place and food by removing, or disinfecting and covering all waste animal and vegetable matter, excrement and other filth.
- 16 How can we render the fly harmless? Disinfect and destroy consumptive sputum, typhoid and dysentery excreta; make all closets proof against flies; remove, cover or disinfect all filth; clean up your own premises and notify the Health Board if your neighbor does not do the same.
- 17 How can we disinfect filth? Sprinkle with lime, chloride of lime, ashes or some other disinfectant.
- 18 Do flies go far from home? Usually but a short distance. (He has no desire to travel if he finds ample filth nearby.) So you or your neighbor are to blame for the flies in your house.
- 19 What would a flyless town mean? No exposed filth and a pleasant, sweet or place to live in.
- 20 What useful purpose may the fly serve? He should be a perpetual reminder of filth nearby, and the lesson he will eventually teach is one of cleanliness.

Married in St. John.

St. John's (Stone) church was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Guern Hilda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Macdonald, was united in marriage to F. The bride was attired in ivory satin draped with old duchess lace. The bodice of the costume was handsomely trimmed with lace and chiffon. She wore a long tulle veil arranged over a wreath of orange blossoms and white heather. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was Miss Emily Teed, who wore Nile green crepe de chene over a satin skirt with the bodice draped with Chantilly lace. DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, April 18, 1913

On Fire in the Bay.

A. S. WESTPORT FROM ST. JOHN FOR WESTPORT, PUT INTO DIGBY IN DISTRESS.

About ten o'clock last Saturday morning Mr. Lee Ellis, the popular light house and fog alarm keeper at Point Prim, telephoned the Courier that the star, Westport was entering Digby Gut with her under deck cargo evidently on fire.

The life boat Darling, in charge of Capt. Fred Adams, rushed to her assistance and took off her nine passengers, among whom were two ladies and a little child, and brought them to Digby.

In the meantime the S. S. Westport continued on her course to Digby, the captain beaching her during the flood tide, at a safe distance from the government pier where the flames were extinguished by Digby's fire department.

The inside of the boat was but slightly damaged but her general cargo was about ruined by the fire and water. She remained in port until Sunday noon, when she resumed her voyage to her home port, taking her damaged cargo with her.

In conversation with one of the passengers the Courier learned that the S. S. Westport, under command of Capt. McKinnon, with Mr. James Strickland as chief engineer, left St. John about 3 o'clock Saturday morning for Westport via Tiverton and Freeport. About 8 o'clock the same morning her under deck cargo was discovered to be on fire. The weather was thick at the time. The steamer's course was changed to south east and after running about 12 miles she reached the Digby Neck shore just west of Gulliver's Cove. There being no immediate danger the boat was headed for Digby, following the shore as closely as possible if the fire gained headway. In the meantime a hose from the engine room kept the fire under control.

The steamer had a deck load of gasoline and kerosene in barrels, four of which were thrown overboard west of Point Prim and the remainder in Digby harbor. The latter portion was picked up and returned to the steamer after the salvage claims had been paid. Besides the officers and crew Capt. McKinnon had on board his wife and the following passengers: Capt. M. G. Crocker, of Freeport; Mrs. Cowie and niece of Westport, and gentleman friend from St. John; Roland Lewis, of Vancouver; Mr. and Mrs. Freeport; Geo. B. Frisgar, of St. Andrews, N. B.; formerly of Freeport; E. H. Collins, of Westport and a gentleman from the St. John river.

The object of the concern is to buy in large quantities and thus send the goods direct from manufacturer to consumer through the branch stores, saving the middle man's profit, and thus help to reduce the high cost of living.

At the Bijou Dream.

The Bijou Dream theatre, Digby, is now open every night and is doing a good business. As usual the pictures are of a superior quality. Manager Cripps puts on nothing but the best and we are glad that the public appreciate it.

The theatre was filled to its utmost capacity Tuesday evening, to greet the Blayleys who put on a good programme of vaudeville. Wednesday night the very disagreeable weather cut down the audience.

The next big attraction is Perry's company with Hazil Corbin and Don Malloy, who are coming next month, and who will be sure to have big houses both nights of their engagement in Digby.

The services were conducted by Rev. G. W. Schurman, pastor of the Zion Baptist church, Yarmouth (Rev. Mr. Roy being absent). The pall bearers were Maj. M. C. Denton, Capt. Howard Anderson, S. W. T. Could Turn in Digby.

The Yarmouth Herald says: "We have seen it stated in the Boston and other papers that the Boston and Yarmouth S. S. Co. cannot send the Yale and Harvard to Yarmouth, as they cannot turn round in our channel. This is a most serious matter in the interests of our port."

An Important Notice.

The Insular S. S. Co's. steam, Westport is now running on her summer schedule, calling at Meteghan on her way to Yarmouth and on her return trip every Wednesday when weather permits, cutting out the Saturday trip. See change of time table in our next issue.

Fourteen Steamships in Port.

Last week saw fourteen ocean steamships in port at St. John at one time. There was not sufficient wharf accommodation for all of them and this emphasizes the fact that the new steamship berth at West St. John must be rushed to completion before next winter. Nearly 8,000 immigrants landed at the port last week. Exports this winter to date amount to about $25,000,000 in value. The harbor revenue showed an increase last year of nearly 7,000. Sir Thos. Shaughnessy has urged that increased accommodation for steamers be provided, and points out that there will be a steady growth of traffic from year to year. St. John people hope that under the new Atlantic mail contract some of the mail steamers will come direct to this port.

The Reason

we are recommending "REGAL" Flour to our customers so strongly is that we have proved it to be a good flour. In fact in all the years we have been in business, we have never seen a better one.

There are many other flours which can be sold for less money than "REGAL" but when it comes to a question of quality, when it comes to a question of making as fine a loaf of bread as any housekeeper could ask for, there is no flour that we have ever seen to surpass none that we would sooner use in our own house. Isn't this a strong recommendation?

After icebergs are encountered, the position of these menaces to navigation are to be communicated to the ocean liners, with information as may be available as to the probable drift of the ice.

Will Build Many Houses.

The announcement by a building company that they will erect eleven houses on a new street which they have opened up in St. John, and on which they have already built half a dozen, is one indication of a movement which must assume large proportions in order to accommodate a growing population. There is a movement to organize a housing association, and a number of citizens have already offered to subscribe stock for the purpose of erecting houses on a large scale and of a kind that could be let at a reasonable rental or sold on easy terms to tenants. In connection with the proposition an effort is being made to interest English capital.

Will Be Easy Year.

A St. John paper, referring to the building prospects in that city for this year, enumerates a long list of contracts. These include the new water and dry dock, new wharves, grain elevator, marine depot, the bridge between East and West St. John, sugar refinery, post office, new banks, several new warehouses, water and sewerage extension, permanent street construction, completion of the new armory and the big new theatre, remodeling of a large number of new buildings, and the construction of the largest number of new buildings erected in any year for a long time.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Mysterious Craft.

A STORY ABOUT THE SUNKEN VESSEL AT THE MOUTH OF BEAR RIVER.

To the Editor of the Courier.

DEAR SIR: May I give you some simple facts about the sunken vessel Messrs. Powers & Brewster's drill vessel at the mouth of Bear River as reported in a recent issue of the COURIER. My father, if alive, would be 100 years old. When eight years old he lived with his uncle in Digby. I heard him frequently tell about a vessel (a brig, I think) which was driven into Digby by a storm in winter, run up in what is now called the Joggin and remained there the remainder of the winter frozen in the ice. At the time of her arrival the crew were badly frozen; one man had to be brought on shore to be cared for. Men from the shore went on board and helped them climb up their sails. The crew, which I think were all French, remained on board. My father said the vessel had a part of a cargo of copper ore and in the early spring started to resume her voyage but never got outside of Digby. The wind sprang up from the North and the people from Digby saw her running for what is now known as Bear River in a sinking condition. She missed the Cove and sank and like other stories, I have been told, she soon disappeared in the mind. I further talked with the late Mr. Abraham Nichols, not over 11 years ago, about this strange craft and he said that the older people told him that the cargo was supposed to be copper ore.

Strange stories came from people that the captain and crew buried money on the lands of Mr. Nichols and people have dug nearly the whole pasture without success. I also heard my grandfather talk about this vessel being in Digby as above described. He was a captain and his father also knew about it. They lived about on the quarter of a mile from the Joggin. All of the old people of Digby are dead, but what I heard I remember. Ask Benj. Van Tassel, Mt. Pleasant, what he thinks about the buried money where the brig laid in the Joggin. I have looked for Capt. Kidd's treasure which is a blank as yet. But I have a sunken craft to go down on this summer which I trust will not be a failure.

Yours respectfully,

E. H. TIMPANY.

Sandy Cove.

P. S.—If I live come to hand, I have told you one in the above letter—not for the world's ship.

The Hold Up at Milligan Swamp.

The writer had occasion to take a trip with the Digby Neck mail coach on Monday last (14th April). It was a pleasant afternoon and the pair of horses, feeling well and not over loaded (only myself, the teamster and the usual sacks and bags of mail) sped along cheerfully through the dodging of several bad spots through the bottomless Milligan Swamp, arriving safely at the summit of the little hill in front of "Tommy Gibbons' house and barn. There our attention was aroused and our team stopped to see how Mr. Warner and his team would get through what seemed a dangerous proposition. He had a light carriage. Soon the trace snapped as the horse stumbled in the mud. This was repaired, then the whipple-tree was changed and the horse went clear of the carriage, leaving it with the driver sitting in a hopeless minority. The same dose of clay was ahead of us to get through as best we could and but for the strong and willing help of those good fellows living near I don't know what we would have done. There was no going around, all was alike from one gutter to the other. We started up and for about 20 feet got along until the high horse struck harder clay, could not draw out his legs and fell in on the pole on his side. By this time the carriage was down to the axles and there we were solid, and for all we could have done, would have been there till now, but for the use of "William Ross' fine pair of cats which was hitched on the foot of the carriage and drew out to terra-firma once more. Then we put them on the pole and drove through the 10 rods of "mortar bed" which is dangerous for man or beast to attempt to go through and is known and dreaded down as far as Little River where I turned about.

Road master W. S. Ross, with a gang of men are working on it now and in a few days, it will be passable in dry time.

This place has been bad for the last three weeks. I am told, and at one time seven teams were there hauled up waiting their turn for Ross' tug "the cat," to drag them through, while the horses were led around.

Re 'The Registration of Birth and Death Act.'

For the better carrying out of this act more attention should be given by those interested in filling out the cards promptly and correctly. As the returns must be sent in quarterly, viz. 1st January, 1st April, 1st July and 1st October, this is very necessary. Although the law makes provision for the imposition of penalties in cases of neglect or non-compliance, it is not to be feared that any stringency measures will be taken, however, that in the future it may become imperative to enforce the full requirements of the Act. I would also respectfully ask all physicians of the districts of Digby, Marshfield, Rossy and Collieden, in filling in the death card to write legibly in plain English the cause of death, that in copying, my returns may be as correct as possible.

JOHN DALRY.

District Registrar for Nos. 1, 2, 15 and 17.

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, April 25, 1913

A GOOD MOVE.

An agitation is on foot to have a half holiday every week in Digby during the summer months. This is certainly a good move. Nearly every city and town in the maritime provinces has adopted the half holiday system and report it a great success without any loss of business. Of course the proper time for this would be Saturday afternoon, but a few towns have selected Friday and we understand that the latter would be the best for Digby. We trust that every merchant and business concern employing help will fall in line and close their establishments at 12 o'clock noon every Friday during the coming summer, say from the first of June to the first of September. We understand that the matter will come before the Town Council next Monday evening. It should have been taken up by the Board of Trade at its last regular meeting. Let's pull together and make this matter a success and give our employees a chance to get a little recreation during the pleasantest time of the year.

RAINBOW LODGE, TIVERTON, CONFERS THIRD DEGREE ON TWO CANDIDATES IN ST. GEORGE LODGE, DIGBY.

Last Friday night's regular session of St. George Lodge of Oddfellows was certainly a pleasant one and was attended by nearly 100 of the three link brethren, several lodges being represented.

On the noon express twenty-four officers and members of Rainbow Lodge, Tiverton, arrived here by special invitation, to confer the third degree on two candidates in St. George Lodge that evening.

The home lodge was out in full force, including many brothers from Port Wade, Victoria Beach, Barton, and other surrounding villages. Friendship Lodge, Bear River, and several American lodges were also represented.

The degree work was excellent, being far superior to what might be expected from a lodge only two years old. The captain of the team and all who took part were highly praised by the local speakers after refreshments had been served. The electric light service was continued until about 1 a. m. to accommodate those who were in attendance. The visiting brothers from Tiverton returned home via Saturday afternoon's express to Weymouth, and special trip of the new steamer Sissiboo, to Tiverton arriving there Sunday morning.

During the evening, Bro. W. Fairweather, of Granite Lodge, No. 1, New Hampshire, read a special communication from the Grand Master of that jurisdiction.

Death of Mrs. McCullough.

Mrs. Thell McCullough, wife of Mr. Augustus McCullough, Riverdale, Digby county, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Finitly, Lawrence, Mass., Monday morning, aged 48 years. The deceased had been ill for nearly a year. Last August she went to Massachusetts, thinking a change would benefit her health. She was a member of the Christian Church and her death is regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends. She is survived by her husband who accompanied her remains to Digby on Wednesday.

Three sons and five daughters, Warren, Boston; Alfred, and Scoury, at Riverdale; Mrs. William Cosman, and Mrs. Harry Baxter of Digby; Mrs. Claude Finitly, Lawrence, Mass.; and the Misses Nellie and Pearl at home. She also leaves three sisters: Mrs. Albert Grant, of Weymouth; Mrs. Marshall of Margantown; and a sister in the United States.

The funeral took place Wednesday arrival of the express from Yarmouth, with interment in the Baptist cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. J. C. B. Appel, pastor of the Douglas Avenue Christian church, St. John.

Fire in the Park.

Some one set a fire in the South End park last Monday morning which would have proved a serious one but for the prompt action of Miss Ida German, who notified Mr. W. J. Bacon, proprietor of Park View Hotel, who has oversight of the park. With the efforts of Mr. Bacon and two or three people the fire was put out without ringing in an alarm, but if the blaze had got a little more headway before reported by Miss German it would have taken the whole department to save even the park, saying nothing of the surrounding buildings.

Public Meeting.

A public meeting will be held in the Council Chamber, town building, next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock sharp to arrange for a date, and consider the advisability of holding the Fishermen's Regatta for Western Nova Scotia and the Gulf of St. Lawrence Association meeting in Digby at the same time. This meeting is of particular interest to the merchants and summer hotel proprietors as both events will prove a big advertisement for our town as a summer resort. A full attendance of the general public is requested.

Died in Gloucester, Mass.

The death occurred at Gloucester, Mass., on Sunday, of Mr. Edward Jones Lufkin, in the 89th year of his age. He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Mary Mansfield, a native of Halifax, N. S., and after her death he married Miss Eliza Sexton, of Digby county, who also died several years ago. He leaves three sons and two daughters. He was a descendant of Thomas Lovelin, who came to Gloucester in 1670, his grandfather being a drummer boy in the war of 1812.

Progressive Club, Sandy Cove.

The meetings of the Progressive Club, at Sandy Cove for the winter, have been attended with all their usual interest. The books have been wisely selected, and have proved interesting, instructive and amusing. Current events have been noted, prominent persons and industries, in our own and other counties, studied and commented on. The evenings with Burns, St. Valentine, St. Patrick, Livingstone and others, added largely to our store of information, one on Panama and the work there having been voted the most helpful and instructive showing as it did, how great the undertaking and carrying on such an enterprise calls for; also its benefits to the world at large.

The social side of the club has not been neglected, and the games, speeches and songs have been of a pleasing nature. The wants of the "inner man" have been attended to.

The closing meeting deserves a special paragraph itself. It was held at Hillside and terminated in a banquet, which was planned, prepared and served in a manner to enhance the already enviable reputation which this house so well merits. The menu was a lengthy one and from start to finish left nothing to be desired. A pleasant feature of the evening was the reading of an original poem, by one of the members, and the presentation of souvenir gifts, by Mrs. Leary, in a very neat and appropriate speech, to the promoters of the club, Mrs. A. N. Bridge and Mrs. E. H. McKay.

We feel our winter has been well spent and look forward with delight to our "next merry meeting." Com.

The Late Mrs. Wm. Bond.

Regarding the death of the late Mrs. Bond, a former resident of Barton, Digby Co., whose death we published two weeks ago, we copy the following from the High River (Alberta) Times: We greatly regret to announce the sudden death of Mrs. Bond, who passed away at five o'clock this morning. Mrs. Bond was going about as usual on Wednesday and appeared to be in excellent health and spirits. About eleven o'clock at night she was seized with violent pain, which was somewhat relieved by the doctor who was summoned. But about four o'clock in the morning Mrs. Bond became unconscious and an hour later passed quietly away, the actual cause of death being heart failure. Mrs. Bond was the only relative present at the time of Mrs. Bond's death. We offer our deepest sympathies to the family in their sudden bereavement, feeling that in the demise of Mrs. Bond the town has lost a big hearted and kind lady and the Church of England an earnest and faithful worker.

She was laid away in the family burial ground beside her daughter, Marguerite, who predeceased her six years ago. Her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Buchanan, of Providence, R. I., was present with her in her last illness. Great sympathy has been extended to the sorrowful husband and children who are left to mourn the sad loss of a loving wife and mother.

Dr. Hay, who was in the 70th year of his age, was an educationist of repute and one of the best known men in New Brunswick. Articles from his pen, which appeared in the Educational Review, were always enjoyed and he was a speaker of ability. Kindly and courteous always, he made many friends and few enemies, and he always took a very active part in any movement for the good of the community. His wife survives.

Two Seven Year Girls Burned.

MIDDLETON, April 23.—Two shocking and very similar accidents occurred in two places in the Annapolis valley at about the same time on Monday afternoon. At the same time, at Avonport, the seven-year-old daughter of John Selby was fearfully burned, her clothing catching from a fire in the field. She lingered till next morning when she passed away.

The Teapot.

(Written for the Courier.)
How dear to my heart is that old fashioned teapot
That I've turned to so oft 'mid the battle and strife,
And I'm wondering now what else could have given Such comfort and cheer in the trials of life.
In times when difficulties would surround me
My patience sore tried, as I vainly strove,
My heart was made lighter, and all things looked brighter
As I turned to the teapot that stood on the stove.
The old fashioned teapot, the life giving teapot,
The broken nose teapot that stands on the stove.
Some cling to their meerschams, and some their Havanas,
And others take today to cheer the sad breast,
But give me the nectar that flows from the teapot
And they that prefer them may have all the rest.
Then here's to the teapot that banishes sadness
And gives me sweet dreams as my memories rove;
My brain is much clearer and Heaven seems nearer
When I drink from the teapot that stands on the stove.
The old fashioned teapot, the life giving teapot,
The broken nose teapot that stands on the stove.

Meteghan

The young people of this vicinity are going to form a dramatic and literary club.

A. Abner Deveau, J. P., and Mr. Albert A. Deveau, were at Church Point last week.

Mr. Max B. Saulnier arrived from the eastern shore last week where he had spent the winter.

Mr. J. A. Lemieux, of the department of agriculture, Ottawa, was here last week in the interests of the Meteghan creamery.

The many friends of Mr. Thos. J. Deveau will regret his temporary absence from their midst this summer. Mr. Deveau left for Lynn Saturday, the 19th inst., there left also on the same day, Mr. Ben Aymar and Mr. Jos. S. LeBlanc.

Messrs. Theriault & Comeau's cannery factory has been in operation for over two weeks. There are already quite a number of cases packed. Mr. A. A. Deveau is business manager and Mr. Denis Comeau, of Comeauville, general superintendent. It has kept employed 10 or 12 girls and 5 or 6 men.

Mrs. J. Robichaud, (nie Marie Ann Mallet) breathed her last Tuesday, the 15th inst., at the age of 32 years. She had been suffering for several years with consumption, but she had borne her many afflictions with Christian patience and joyful endurance. She had always been a devout Christian, a loving mother and a faithful spouse. She was a firm adherent of the Roman Catholic church and died fortified with all the sacraments and rites of that church. Calgary Fire.

EDITORS BURY THE HATCHET OVER ALBERTA'S RUINS.

CALGARY, ALTA., April 18 The destruction of the Morning Alberta plant early this morning just as the newspaper was about to go to press was not without human interest.

Miss Ethel Haydon, news writer, was the heroine of the fire. At the risk of her life from falling walls and over the protest of the police, she captured a few men and with them entered the burning building and saved the subscription books and records of the office, which were invaluable.

Through her efforts the business office was able to resume business today. The Alberta is now being published this morning at the plant of the Head, its commercial and political rival. In the campaign which closed yesterday, Editor William Davidson, of the Alberta, and Editor J. H. Woods, of the Head, wrote scathing denunciations of each other. Mr. Woods today tendered the services of his plant to the crippled newspaper and his tender was accepted. The News-Telegram also tendered the services of its plant to Mr. Davidson.

Mr. Davidson was the recipient of many telegrams of sympathy from brother newspaper men all over the dominion.

Four Persons Lost their Lives.

BY THE BURSTING OF A DAM IN ONTARIO TOWNSHIP.

KINGSTON, Ont., April 21—Latest reports today from the scene of the bursting of the fifth lake dam in the township of Hinchinbrooke, indicate that four lives have been lost in the district, two dams carried away, three bridges destroyed, and thousands of acres under water.

The body of one of the victims, George Hutchinson, of Centerville, has been recovered, and search parties are scouring the banks of the flooded territory for traces of three Polacks of a party of four, who, on Thursday night, attempted to cross the swollen stream a short distance from Bell Creek.

It is reported that the bursting of fifth lake dam was caused by a dynamite explosion. Five feet of water above high water mark is now flowing over the dam at Rotworth, which is a new concrete structure and will probably withstand the strain. If it should fall a considerable residential district will be flooded.

Pope on Road to Recovery.

DOCTORS SAY HE IS GRADUALLY REGAINING HIS STRENGTH.

ROME, April 20—So much improvement was found in the condition of the pope by Drs. Marchisiani and Amici, on their visit to the sick room this evening, they did not consider it necessary to issue a bulletin.

The morning bulletin was as follows: "For days the holiness morning, no fever. As a result of the amelioration of the bronchial affection the pope is gradually recovering his strength."

Mgr. Bressan, the pope's secretary, and Father Parolin, his nephew, celebrated mass today in the chapel adjoining the papal bedroom, in the presence of Angelo Sarto and the pope's sisters and niece.

The pontiff is anxious that the members of his family shall return to their homes and has requested them to reassure his friends outside of Rome that he hopes soon to resume the regular course of his life.

Liberals Have Majority in Alberta.

EDMONTON, April 20—The only change in the results of the provincial elections since Saturday morning, is the transfer to Insitaf, from Liberal to the Conservative column, when F. Archer won out by a majority of seven over John Simpson, the oldest member of the last legislature and former deputy speaker of the territorial house. The figures now stand: Liberal, 38; Conservative, 10; doubtful, 1; two elections deferred.

In the contest, there is a close race between the two candidates with the Liberals now forty in the lead.

In Pembina, G. McDonald, Liberal, has fifty majority. His election is conceded.

In Clearwater, W. H. McKenny, Liberal, has a majority of two, but A. W. Taylor, Conservative, claims he will win out on a recount.

In Sturgeon, Hon. J. E. Boyle, Liberal, has a majority of 100, which is still growing.

Killed by Street Car.

HALIFAX, April 20—William Charlton was almost instantly killed this forenoon by a street car on Oxford street. He was serving milk customers for his employer, the team he was driving being behind a south-bound car, so that he did not see the approaching north-bound car. Charlton jumped off the wagon and started to cross the street. He was instantly struck down by this car which passed over his body. He died soon after being taken to the hospital. He was twenty-one years of age, and unmarried.

SARNIA, ONT., Feb. 5th, 1911

"I have been a sufferer for the past 25 years with Constipation, Indigestion and Catarrh of the Stomach. I tried many remedies and many doctors, but derived no benefit whatever. Finally, I read an advertisement for 'Fruit-a-tives'. I decided to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial and they did exactly what was claimed for them. I have now taken them for some time and find they are the only remedy that does me good. I have recommended 'Fruit-a-tives' to a great many of my friends, and I cannot praise these fruit tablets too highly."

The Cost of British and German Warships.

[From Engineering]

The competition in the building of warships continues with unabated energy, in spite of the growing anxiety to which it gives rise; but in this country, at least, it is accepted with a large measure of composure because it is seen to be inevitable. There is certainly here less hesitancy and more general acceptance of the situation than there was some time ago. It is interesting, if not gratifying, to reflect on the fact that the cost of this heavy task imposed upon Britain is lighter than in other countries. The two European countries which are building most extensively are Britain and Germany, and the figures published in the new German navy estimates afford means of comparing the cost of the latest ships. These figures, too, are of still wider significance, as they may be accepted also as in some measure indicative of the cost of shipbuilding generally in the two countries. We admit the difficulty of ensuring reliability in such comparisons, as variants enter into the problem; but it is possible to arrive at such a degree of definiteness as to indicate, without question of grave error, the general conclusion that the British admiralty are getting their ships of the line at a much less price than is paid by the German naval authorities.

The figures applicable to the German battle cruisers Goeben and Seydlitz may be compared with those for the Lion and the Princess Royal. The designs, of course, differ. The British ships are certainly larger, have greater speed, and as to their armament it may at least be said that the offensive power of the British ships is not inferior to that of the German vessels. These latter cost—the first named £2,206,000, and the other, and latter vessel, £3,231,000. The cost of the Lion was £2,068,000, and of the Princess Royal £2,013,896. We have, therefore, a clear gain of quite eight per cent. in favor of the British ships, without considering the differences in design. The German cruisers have a length of 610 ft. 4 in. and a displacement of 22,600 tons; the British ships have a length of 660 feet, and a displacement of 26,350 tons. There should thus be a considerable difference in favor of the German ships, for in hull construction increase in length involves higher expenditure in construction and in armor protection. Again, the designed power of each of the German cruisers is 52,000 horse power, with which 27 knots was to be realized. The two British cruisers, on the other hand, were to be fitted with machinery of 70,000 horse power, to give a designed speed of 28 knots. It is known that in all cases the designed speed was exceeded.

"Hunger Strike" Bill Passes.

LONDON, April 23. A Remarkable Voyage.

QUEBEC GAS BUOY TRAVELER TONKIN SOUTH WALES.

QUEBEC, April 21. The local Marine Department reports an almost incredible voyage on the part of one of its buoys. This is a gas buoy that was placed in the fall of 1911 to mark the wreck of the old traverser pier, which was thought that the buoy which was missing in the spring of 1912 had been carried away by the ice and sunk, but the department has received word from New South Wales that it was picked up there recently by the Lightship Hallowick.

The drifts of this buoy, could they be recorded, would probably break all records for drifts of any kind. From the Atlantic Coast to New South Wales is a distance of approximately 12,000 miles. The buoy seemed to have been caught by the currents of the North Atlantic and carried south until it was picked up by the equatorial currents and borne to the southern coast of Cape Horn and across the Pacific to the point where it was picked up. Its total mileage must, therefore, have been about 16,000 or 18,000.

The most amazing part is that in all its long voyage it does not appear to have been reported at all until picked up finally. Any ship sighting it would, one would think, have taken the pains either to pick it up or to record its numbers and description because of the international agreement with regard to derelict buoys and other menaces to navigation.

Incidentally also, it seems to speak well for the fine construction of the buoys used by the Canadian Government. A sea voyage of so many thousand miles in little over a year is a magnificent feat.

100 Miners Perished.

GAS EXPLOSION IN A PITTSBURGH COAL MINE.

PITTSBURGH, April 23.—Between 75 and 100 miners were believed to have lost their lives this afternoon as a result of a gas explosion in the Cincinnati mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company at Finleyville, 27 miles from this city. Seventy-eight men made their escape. Some of them, however, were badly burned. The bodies of several have been recovered.

The mines is all one. Rescue work is being carried on with difficulty owing to the fire and deadly fumes. The Coal Company maintains a rescue corps patterned after the mine force of the United States Government. But few of the miners who reached the surface were in a condition to talk. From these little could be learned. Suffering from burns or fright, the miners knew only that an explosion had occurred and that a large number of men were either killed by the explosion or asphyxiated by the "after damp." Several hours after the explosion seven foreign miners crawled from one of the entrances of the mine. All were seriously injured.

They could give no connected account of the condition in the mine or their individual experiences. They all said that "the mine was full of dead people." Business in Finleyville was suspended. The greatest excitement prevails and practically the entire community rushed to the ill-fated mine.

Relatives and friends of the men beneath the surface were frantic. Many of them had to be restrained. After a time guard was placed completely surrounding the entrances to the mine, and all persons, except rescuers and mine officials, were held at a distance.

To Aid Cotton Growers.

LONDON, April 23.—Protection for the cotton trade of Lancashire by fostering the supply of cotton independent of America, was the gist of Chancellor Lloyd-George's argument on introducing in the house of commons this afternoon a resolution permitting the British government to guarantee a Sudan loan of $15,000,000 for the development of cotton growing along the Nile.

The chancellor of the exchequer remarked that owing to difficulties with regard to supplies of American cotton, arising from the market being cornered and thus causing a shortage here, despite abundant crops, made it necessary to foster the growth of cotton where it would be under British control. Egyptian cotton, he claimed, was better from the point of view of the manufacturer and the quality of the goods obtained from that product and also from the point of view of the workman, because it was cleaner and healthier to work than was American cotton.

The resolution was adopted without division.

NOVA SCOTIA SCHOONER IS BEACHED AT KITTERY, ME.

KITTERY, Me., April 18.—Tone tonight hauled the two-masted British schooner Evolution from the ledge at Jerry's Point, at the entrance of the harbor, where she went aground today. The schooner was beached, leaning badly, with a big hole in her bottom. Life-savers from Wood Island rescued the crew of five men when the vessel was in danger of sinking.

The schooner, which was bound from Portsmouth, N. H., to Liverpool, N. S., is owned by the W. H. McKelvin Company of Boston, and is a lumber carrying vessel. She was built at Parrsboro, N. B., in 1889, and registers 171 tons.

Four Fly Across Sahara Desert.

BUENOS AIRES, April 18.—Four military aeroplanes, piloted by Lieuts. Reimbert, Chentun Jolain and Benoit, of the French army, arrived here today after a 200 mile round trip over the Sahara Desert. One of the machines carried Colonel B. out on a passenger. The entire flight was made without land escort.

LONDON, April 23.—The Duchess of Cornwall has made such excellent progress that the influenza have been discontinued. It is hoped to remove her to a milder climate at an early date.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Courier.

Sir.—The publication of Digby militia officers of 1866 in your last week has awakened some reminiscences in my mind. John K. Viets as one of the Majors of 1st Regiment must I think be a copyist error for John M. Viets. When appointed Major he was much younger than any of the Captains and, although popular personally, the appointment was not satisfactory to older men left in lower rank, who would have been better pleased to have had Capt. J. H. Churchill promoted, who was on the young side of middle age, but much older than any of the Colonels. I expressed this view to the Colonel his reply was "kissing you by favor."

About that date James Dennison resigned his captaincy on account of failing health and George Augustus Viets must have been promoted to a captaincy in his stead. Capt. Viets, who was a good officer, had a company composed in part of men belonging to the upper part of Digby Neck, among whom were some unruly characters who gave him a good deal of trouble. My company consisted mostly of men from the Ridge, who were a fine set of men in every respect. J. P. Burton probably means George P. Burton, afterwards postmaster. I can only call to mind one of the rank and file of my company now living.

Relatives and friends of the men beneath the surface were frantic. Many of them had to be restrained. After a time guard was placed completely surrounding the entrances to the mine, and all persons, except rescuers and mine officials, were held at a distance.

To Aid Cotton Growers.

LONDON, April 23.—Protection for the cotton trade of Lancashire by fostering the supply of cotton independent of America, was the gist of Chancellor Lloyd-George's argument on introducing in the house of commons this afternoon a resolution permitting the British government to guarantee a Sudan loan of $15,000,000 for the development of cotton growing along the Nile.

The chancellor of the exchequer remarked that owing to difficulties with regard to supplies of American cotton, arising from the market being cornered and thus causing a shortage here, despite abundant crops, made it necessary to foster the growth of cotton where it would be under British control. Egyptian cotton, he claimed, was better from the point of view of the manufacturer and the quality of the goods obtained from that product and also from the point of view of the workman, because it was cleaner and healthier to work than was American cotton.

The resolution was adopted without division.

NOVA SCOTIA SCHOONER IS BEACHED AT KITTERY, ME.

KITTERY, Me., April 18.—Tone tonight hauled the two-masted British schooner Evolution from the ledge at Jerry's Point, at the entrance of the harbor, where she went aground today. The schooner was beached, leaning badly, with a big hole in her bottom. Life-savers from Wood Island rescued the crew of five men when the vessel was in danger of sinking.

The schooner, which was bound from Portsmouth, N. H., to Liverpool, N. S., is owned by the W. H. McKelvin Company of Boston, and is a lumber carrying vessel. She was built at Parrsboro, N. B., in 1889, and registers 171 tons.

Four Fly Across Sahara Desert.

Fireman Awarded Increase in Pay

NEW YORK, April 23.—Eastern railroad firemen are granted an increase of pay estimated at from 10 to 12 per cent by the award of the Railway Labor Board in their claim, handed down tonight. Other claims of the firemen were allowed all but the demand for two firemen on large locomotives.

Two Crows Nest Miners Killed.

FRANKFORD, Pa., April 23.—At the Coal Creek mines of the Crows Nest, Pa., two miners were killed today when a cave-in occurred today at noon which crushed out the lives of two miners, James McDickie and Herbert Ash.

The Duchess Improving.

LONDON, April 23.—The Duchess of Cornwall has made such excellent progress that the influenza have been discontinued. It is hoped to remove her to a milder climate at an early date.

Ice Blockade on the Lakes.

SAULT STE MARIE, Mich., April 22.

A blockade of Lake ice equalling that of the spring of 1866, when large floes broke up and down bound were delayed at the Sault and above White Fish Point for more than a week by late ice, tonight bids fair to occur again this year. Approximately 123 grain boats are here, headed for Buffalo. The windrows of ice are 20 to 40 feet deep in places. The feed and fuel question on the fleet standing at White Fish Point is causing anxiety.

Britain's Greatest Steamship.

GLASGOW, Scotland, April 22.—The largest steamship ever built in Great Britain, the Cunard liner Aquitania, was launched yesterday on the Clyde. The new vessel is double-shelled and carries boats sufficient to accommodate 4,250 persons, the entire complement of passengers and crew. She is of about 47,000 tons gross.

Must You Be Bald?

What have you done to stop your hair from falling? Have you tried Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic? If not, we want you to try it at our risk.

If you have dandruff, if your hair is falling out and your scalp is not clean and shiny, if you use Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic according to directions for thirty days, and at the end of that time you are not thoroughly satisfied with the results and will tell us so, we will immediately hand back to you your money. We won't ask you to promise anything. We won't even question you. We will take your word and return your money.

Don't it stand to reason that Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic must be a mighty good remedy and have given great satisfaction to our customers if we endorse it like this? We know of no similar remedy that is good. It is because of what Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic has done for others that we back it with our own money.

Why suffer scalp and hair trouble or be bald, when Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic will remove dandruff, make your scalp comfortable and healthy, promote hair growth and tend to prevent baldness—when we will pay for the treatment should it fail to please you?

We don't obligate you to anything. You simply buy the bottle, use it, and if it doesn't please you, come back to us empty-handed—and we will hand back what you paid us. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

A BLOOD MEDICINE WITHOUT ALCOHOL.

Recently it has been definitely proven by experiments on animals that alcohol lowers the germicidal power of the body and that alcohol paralyzes the white corpuscles of the blood and renders them unable to take up and destroy disease germs. Disease germs cause the death of over one-half of the human race.

A blood medicine, made entirely without alcohol, which is a pure glyceric extract of roots, such as Bloodroot, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Mandrake and Boneset root, has been extensively sold by druggists for the past forty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The refreshing influence of this extract is like Nature's influence—the blood is bathed in the tonic which gives life to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes this tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the winter.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, the founder of the "Invalids' Hotel" and a Surgeon, and a physician of large experience and practice, was the first to make up an ALTERNATIVE EXTRACT of roots, without a particle of alcohol or narcotic.

"It is with the greatest pleasure, that I write to let you know of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine and treatment at home," writes Mrs. W. H. H. of Lady Smith, N. C. "I suffered for three years from a running nose. Consulted four doctors but they failed to meed or give relief. Finally I was told I was in consumption and would have to consult a specialist concerning my ear, that the nasal bone must be cut out before the wound would heal. A kind friend advised me to write to Dr. Pierce, which I did, and after seven months use of the treatment the nose is healed, and I enjoy better health than I ever did. I dressed the wound with Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve and took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' for my troubles. I shall always recommend your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate liver and bowels.

"ORANGE LILY SAVED MY LIFE"

These words or expressions having the same meaning are contained in hundreds of the letters I have received during the past year. Many were from women who had suffered agonies from falling of womb, others from women who had escaped dangerous surgical operations, as the tumor and uterus had been removed by the action of Orange Lily; and others who had suffered from rheumatism, neuralgia, etc. For all these and the other troubles known in general as "Women's Disorders," Orange Lily furnishes a positive scientific, never-failing cure. It is applied direct to the suffering organs, and its operation is certain and beneficial. As a trial actually proves its merit, I hereby offer to send absolutely free, a box worth 12c., sufficient for ten days' treatment, to every suffering woman who will write for it. Enclose 3 stamps. Conclusive Proof.

Waiter (mysteriously)—Send for a detective, quick!
Head Waiter—What's up,
"See that woman over there? She's a man in disguise."
"Pshaw! How do you know?"
"She ordered a regular square meal and gave me a tip!"

Very Unselfish.

"You ate all of your cake and Ma left too, Tommy?" said the mother.
"Yes," replied Tommy.
"You'll be sick, child."
"Well, mother, you see if anybody was going to be sick I didn't want it to be Mabel."

Domestic Melody.

Mother (at telephone, giving order to grocer, and scolding baby in mischievous)—"Send me a pound of fresh—baby!—butter—and stop that! two dozen eggs—or mother'll spank you—the last you sent were stale—you naughty boy!"

A Connoisseur of Works.

"Perhaps you are familiar with the works of Ingersoll?" inquired the book salesman, as he reached under his coat for the sample bindings.
"Sure, I am," replied Mr. Goldberg, the jeweler, "and it's a good vetch for der money!"

A Cow Defiant.

A teacher, after giving her class some instruction on the subject of cows, put the following question to one of the pupils:
"What is a cow, Dolly?"

"A cow is a noble animal with a leg at each corner," was Dolly's definition.

A Delicate Mission.

"I've got to see a young man today on a delicate errand."
"Ah! He wants to marry your daughter?"
"No, I want to marry his mother, and I don't believe he views me in the most suitable light."

Good Thing.

"My new forewoman goes around and kisses all the girls every morning. It makes them enthusiastic about their work."

"She's quite pretty. I think it would increase the enthusiasm if she extended the plan to embrace the men."

Could Be Both.

"Now, Stella," said the minister, who was dining with the family, to the little daughter, "which would you rather be, beautiful or good?"
"Well," replied the little miss, "I'd rather be beautiful; then I could repent later."

Two That Up.

Restaurant Patron—(caustically)—I am glad to see your baby has shut up, madam.
Mother—Yes, sir. You are the only thing that's pleased my wife since he saw the animals eat at the Zoo.

Being Economical.

Johnny—Mamma, will you wash my face?
Mamma—Why, Johnny, can't you do that?
Johnny—Yes, but I'll have to wet my hands, and they don't need it.

John Goes Up Head.

"Johnny," asked his teacher, "can you give us a sentence, using the word 'income' in it?"
Johnny hesitated a moment; then: "Yes," he replied. "The boy opened the doors and in came a cat."

One Sided Conversation.

Bacon—I've been up talking to your wife for about two hours.
Egbert—Talking to my wife for two hours? What did you say?
"Oh, I said 'How do you do' and she said the rest."

Plenty of Slate.

"Put that ton of coal on the slate," directed the customer.
"We have no slate," said the dealer frigidly.
"Oh yes, you have! I got 300 pounds of it with the coal!"

It's Dead Easy.

"It's hard to lose the savings of a lifetime."
"Oh, not so hard. I know of a dozen men with schemes that you could go into."

He Was Busy.

"Why did you break into the house in the middle of the day?" asked the magistrate.
"Well," said the accused, "I had several others to cover that evening."

Picture and Frame.

"I can't do anything for you," said the beauty doctor. "You're as pretty as a picture now!"
"But I am so thin!"
"Oh, I need. You want me to touch up your frame!"

Anticipating a Relapse.

Doctor—Well, we've pulled you through after hard work. You've had a terrible shock.

Patient—Yes, doctor, and I'll have another when I get your bill.

It seems that spring weather has set in to stay. Last week was warm and lovely. The fields everywhere are putting on their vestments of green. The dandelions have put in an appearance as well as the butterflies and honey bees. Who shall witness the first swallow?

The death took place Monday, 21st inst., of Mr. Severin F. Robichau at the ripe old age of 84 years. Deceased had been sick for over a year, and had born his many pains and sufferings with Christian fortitude up to the last. The funeral took place Wednesday the 23rd inst.

Committee Will Decide.

WHETHER OR NOT LIPTON'S UNQUALIFIED OFFER FOR CUP RACE WILL BE ACCEPTED.

New York, April 25.—The New York Yacht club at a meeting tonight to consider the challenge of Sir Thomas Lipton for the America's cup, voted to leave the entire matter of acceptance, or rejection in the hands of a committee of twelve members of the club of which Commodore Dallas D. Pratt will be the chairman. If the committee votes to accept Sir Thomas' challenge under the deed of gift, the club tonight provided that it empowered to arrange the details of the acceptance, and the conditions of the race. The Royal Ulster Yacht club thru the agency of which Sir Thomas forwarded his challenge in another attempt to lift the cup, it was announced by the New York Yacht club tonight had appointed a committee with similar power. About 250 members of the club attended the meeting tonight and thirty-five yachts voted. Among the members present was J. P. Morgan, who was appointed a member of the committee to consider the club's action with reference to the challenge.

Gold Watch For Miss MacNeill.

MEMBERS OF FLINT-STREET CHURCH PRESENT GIFT TO FELLOW WORKER.

[Somerville, Mass., Journal.]

About fifty members of the Flint street Methodist church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Horie, 106 Broadway, last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Lennie M. MacNeill, who has recently severed her connection as head bookkeeper for the Parry Brick company, of Boston and is going to spend the summer with her mother at their home in Barton, Nova Scotia. For the past ten years she has been a prominent and active member of the Flint street church, being assistant superintendent of the primary department of the Sunday school and a leader in the mission study work of the Epworth League. During the evening John H. Blair, a member of the official board, in a witty and felicitous speech expressed the appreciation of the church and their regret at her departure. As a token of their affection they presented her with a solid gold watch, suitably engraved. Miss MacNeill responded in a happy way, and declared that the surprise was complete.

Vocal solos were rendered by Miss Bertha L. Skinner, of Reading, a former Somerville girl, who is now a teacher in the Quincy high school, and Charles W. Rye, who also created amusement by his funny recitations. Mrs. Nellie Skinner Brown presided at the piano and rendered several selections.

Ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. E. J. Hemen and Mrs. J. H. Blair, and the Misses Jennie Christie, Katie Christie, Sadie Frelick, and Ida M. Hazen.

No Sun For Three Months.

In the valley of Lynn, near Lynnmouth, North Devon, there is a quaint little hamlet called Middleham, where for three months in the year the sun is not seen.

The cluster of houses forming the hamlet is surrounded on all sides by hills so steep and high that from November until February the sun does not rise high enough to be seen over their tops.

The first appearance of the sun is eagerly looked forward for and as it is first seen on February 14, the inhabitants call it their valentine.

If the day should be foggy or cloudy so that it cannot be seen, there is great disappointment, especially among the children.

For the first few days after the 14th the sun is seen only for a very short time, but as the sun rises higher in the heavens the time it is in sight increases daily until its height is reached, when it gradually begins to fade from view again until November it entirely vanishes from sight for another three months.

She leaves four brothers and two sisters and a husband, four sons, Arthur, of Estway; James, of Tongue Creek; George, of Bassano; John, of High River; and five daughters, Mrs. H. P. Nelson, of Portland; Mrs. M. P. Marshall, of Estway; Misses Francis and Mary, of Vancouver; and Miss Kate, of High River, to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted sister, wife and mother.

To Our Friends and Neighbors

You know us. You know we would not—that we could not afford to—go back on our word. Nor can you afford to ignore this money-back-if-not-satisfied offer on this splendid laxative.

We honestly believe we have the best bowel remedy ever made—the most pleasant to take, most permanently beneficial for relief from the miseries and dangers arising from constipation.

We wouldn't say this if we didn't believe it to be true. We wouldn't risk our reputation by making such statements did we not feel sure you would find them true.

Our faith is built both on the knowledge of what Rexall Orderlies are made of and on observation of very many severe cases in which they have proven their merit.

Try them at Our Risk

If they do not abundantly prove their merit with you also—if you are not entirely satisfied with them—we will refund your money—and we will do that on your mere say-so. We don't ask you to risk a penny. Isn't that fair?

Just let the bowels fall in properly doing their work—just let their action be delayed and incomplete and the entire system and every other organ suffers. Wastes that should have been expelled remain to poison the system. Headaches, biliousness, nervousness and other tormenting and serious ailments are common when the bowels fail to act daily as nature intended. All this may be avoided, if you will accept our advice.

Rexall Orderlies

taste just like candy. They are soothing and easy in action. They do not cause griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness. They tend to tone and strengthen intestinal nerves and muscles. They promptly relieve constipation, and help to permanently overcome it.

Rexall Orderlies promote better spirits and better health. In all of these things they are vastly superior to old-fashioned, harsh salts and other purgatives, which are not only unpleasant to take but which usually leave the bowels in worse condition than before. We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, aged and delicate persons.

Rexall Orderlies come in vest-pocket tin boxes. 12 tablets, 10c; 30 tablets, 25c; 80 tablets, 50c.

CAUTION: Please bear in mind that Rexall Orderlies are not sold by all drug stores. You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at the Rexall Stores.

Recruits Are Scarce in Germany.

WILL BE FORTY-THREE THOUSAND MEN SHORT OF THE NUMBER REQUIRED.

BERLIN, April 28.—A blow was struck at the foundation of the new German military bills providing for an immense increase in the army when representatives of the Clerical, Radical and Socialist parties today during the debate on the first reading before the budget committee expressed doubts as to whether the necessary number of able bodied recruits could be obtained in Germany. Matthias Freyberger, the leader of the Clerical Centre, who will be one of those to draw up the committee report on the bills, said that on the basis of the recruiting statistics of Germany for 1911, no fewer than 43,000 men would be lacking to make up the number required.

The representative of the Radical party questioned whether such enormous armies could be successfully handled, saying that his doubts were shared by many military men.

The Minister for War, General Josias Von Heeringen, denied strenuously that there was any difficulty in obtaining the full number of recruits.

He admitted the extraordinary increase of difficulties in finding such armies as that of Germany as had been shown during the grand manoeuvres, and he said that the methods of training the commanding generals would have to be altered.

An attempt was made at the opening of the sitting to fix on a combined order of discussion for the military and financial measures involving their passage by the same majorities, and thereby preventing a hostile combination between the Socialists and other parties on the original bill, but this effort was not successful.

Police Save Suffragette From Drowning.

LONDON MOB HAD THE WORKER NEAR THE SERPENTINE WHEN HELP ARRIVED.

LONDON, April 27.—Hyde Park was again turned into a bedlam by the suffragettes and their opponents this afternoon. The women, declining to recognize the police order, that no suffragette meetings were to be held in the park, appeared with a wagonette and proceeded to address a small crowd. Immediately youth commenced to gather and an attempt was made to drag the wagonette to the Serpentine, for the purpose of ducking the women. Mounted and foot police intervened just in time to save them and the suffragettes were escorted from the park followed by a jeering crowd, who pelled them with mud and street refuse after they entered a cab.

Men supporters of the cause were similarly treated, the crowd refusing to allow any suffragette meeting, militant or otherwise.

The Perthshire cricket pavilion at Perth, together with a collection of valuable photographs, records, and relics, was destroyed by fire today. Suffragettes are suspected, although nothing of an incriminating nature has been found.

In Need of Help.

BIG FUND SUBSCRIBED FOR RELIEF OF SCOTT'S FAMILY HAS NOT BEEN DISTRIBUTED.

LONDON, May 1.—Although the Scott Antarctic fund for the dependents of Captain Scott and his heroic companions had passed $230,000 early in March, Mrs. Evans, the widow of Seaman Evans and her three children have been living for the last three months on $324 a week, according to the Daily Express. Beyond this pension, awarded by the admiralty and a few pounds from the Daily Telegraph fund, she has received nothing.

The Daily Express, which criticizes the delay in distribution of the funds, has interviewed Sir William Southby, secretary to the lord mayor, who started the national fund. He said: "We are waiting for the government to move in regard to provision for the relatives of the South Pole victims. Until then we cannot decide how to distribute our Scott fund."

He added that if Mrs. Evans had only applied for help, he would willingly have given aid.

Burned to Death.

YARMOUTH, April 28.—Sunday evening, James Crawford, living on Stair's road, left home to walk to Salmon River, about 6 miles. His wife came to town to attend Salvation meeting, taking the keys with her. Mr. Crawford returned first, about ten o'clock, crawled through the window, lighted the lamp, and in some way upset it, setting house and clothing on fire. Mrs. Crawford returned shortly after, found the fire and attempted to remove Mr. Crawford, but his clothing fell off. She called neighbors and he was carried out badly burned. The doctor came, but he died within two hours. The fire was put out and the house saved. Crawford was about 55, and leaves two grown-up sons.

Killed by I. O. R. Train.

MONCTON, April 27.—Philip Gayne, an I. O. R. employee, was found literally cut to pieces on the railway track near Moncton early this morning, and his dog with a broken shoulder nearby. It is thought the man was sitting or lying on the track and the dog beside him, when struck by a train in the night. He was 45 years old and leaves a widow and three children.

Clever Escape.

VANCOUVER, April 26.—Albert Vars escaped from jail today by a clever piece of management. Working as a barber he managed to get an impression of the jailer's key on a piece of soap. Taking this as a model, he filed down an aluminum comb until it made as good a key as the jailer's.

Be a Charming Woman

You never saw a beautiful woman who didn't have beautiful hair. The charm of a beautiful woman lies in her hair. Many women do not realize the attractions they possess because they do not give proper attention to the hair. The women of the "1900" are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, lustre, and strength to their hair.

Up to a few years ago PARISIAN Sage could hardly be obtained in Canada. But now this delightful hair restorer can be had in every town. H. E. Jones sells it in Digby for 50 cents a bottle, and guarantees it to grow beautiful, luxuriant hair; to stop falling hair, eradicate dandruff.

The Digby Board of Trade are to be congratulated on the step they have taken. It is sincerely hoped that the deputation may have a successful mission. A recent good roads the following is taken from a periodical called "Farm Improvements".

From a period before his birth to one after his death man is dependent upon proper means of transportation for everything that happens. He may not be born at all if the midwife or the doctor is prevented by impassable roads from reaching his mother in time. He may not even be decently buried if impassable roads prevent the undertaker from reaching his home or the hearse from bearing his body away. His life itself and what he makes of it are closely related to the transportation problem. Good roads are in no sense a luxury, they are a vital necessity to a community and in individual. In thousands of localities the citizens are isolated and subject to the whims of the weather man for their means of communication or for all that makes life worth living.

Mrs. Proble was standing near her home and when she saw the runaway coming, rushed out into the roadway and her gestures failing to stop the animal, she grasped the bridle as it passed and finally brought him up against a stone wall.

HAPPY THO' MARRIED?

There are unhappy married lives, but a large percentage of these unhappy homes are due to the ill-health of the wife, mother or daughter. The feelings of nervousness, the befuddled mind, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, hollow and circled eyes, result most often from those disorders peculiar to women. For the woman to be happy and good-looking she must naturally have good health. Dragging-down feelings, hysteria, hot-flashes or constantly returning pains and aches—are too great a drain upon a woman's vitality and strength. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health by regulating and correcting the local disorders which are generally responsible for the above distressing symptoms.

"I suffered greatly for a number of years and for the past three years was so bad that life was a misery to me," writes Mrs. R. F. Dickover, of Dan, Ohio, Route 4. "The doctors told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would ever be better. A year ago this winter and spring I was worse than ever before. At each period I suffered in one or more of the following ways: I was so bad for five months that I knew something must be done, so I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, telling him as nearly as I could how I suffered. He outlined a course of treatment which I followed. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a fifty-cent bottle of 'Smart-Weed,' and have never suffered much since. I wish I could tell every suffering woman the world over what a boon Dr. Pierce's medicine is. There is no use wasting time and money doctoring with anything else or any one else."

The Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know. Sent free on receipt of 50 stamps to pay for wrapping and mailing only.

An Editor's Pleasantries.

Most any man can be an editor, says an American paper. All the editor has to do is to sit at a desk six days a week, four weeks in a month, and twelve months in a year, and 'edit' such stuff as this: Mrs. Jones, of Oat Creek, let a can-opener slip last week and cut herself in the pantry. A mischievous lad of Picketown threw a stone and hit Mr. Pike in the alley last Tuesday. Joe Doe climbed on the roof of his house looking for a leak and fell striking himself on the back porch. While Harold Green was escorting Miss Violet Wain from the social last Saturday night a savage dog attacked them and bit Mr. Green on the public square.

Salt for the Hands.

The woman who does her own housework will find salt an excellent thing to keep her hands in good condition. If for any reason the skin feels drawn, if she has been obliged to use strong soap or washing powders in her daily tasks, the hands should be rinsed in a little salt water, and the skin will at once become firm and smooth.

Brown Nut Bread.

Mix one and one half cups of wheat flour with one and one half cups corn meal and two cups of graham flour. Add two teaspoons baking powder and one half teaspoon salt. Add to the flour two cups of sweet milk, one half cup of brown sugar and one half cup molasses. When well mixed add one cup of finely chopped walnut meats. Bake in a moderate oven for one hour.

He Reversed Himself.

"What's the trouble now?" demanded of his employer, when the office boy came in half an hour late.

"The ice on the pavements," said the lad. "Every step I took, I slipped back two."

"You did, eh? Then how did you ever get here?"

"I started back home."

How It Looked to Him.

The small but observant son of a New York travelling salesman noticed when his father came home that he had had a front tooth filled with gold while he was away.

"Pop," said the boy, "you've got your tooth buttoned on with a collar button, haven't you?"

A Money-Saving Secret.

"Well, after a lot of experience in speculating I have at last learned how to keep on the right side of the stock market."

"Would you mind posting me, old chap?"

"Not at all. The right side of the stock market, my dear fellow, is the outside."

A Side Issue.

Women Suffrage Advocate (to politician)—I maintain that woman has always been the prime factor in this world.

Politician (blandly)—Oh, I don't know. In the very beginning woman was only a side issue.

Those Dear Girls Again.

Clara—Rose told me that you told her that secret I told you not to tell her.

Belle—She's a mean thing! I told her not to tell you.

Clara—Well, I told her I wouldn't tell you she told me, so don't tell her I did.

Some Compensation.

First Englishman—"Why do you allow your wife to be a militant suffragette?"

Second Englishman—"When she's busy wrecking things outside we have comparative peace at home."

No Secret Order.

Mr. Hogan—Where did Oi get th' black eye? Oi'm just after bein' initiated.

Mr. Kelly—Into what society? Mr. Hogan—Into th' society av me mother in law.

Where's the Difference, Then?

Willie—Paw, what is the difference between a political job and any other job?

Paw—You have to work hard to get a political job, my son, and you have to work hard to hold the other kind.

Lost Appreciation.

"Peck isn't happy. His wife is continually saying sharp and snappy things to him."

"Why he told her before he married her that was what he admired most about her."

"Yes, but he considered it wit, then."

Didn't Have the Effect.

Big Lawyer—I pictured this cold, cruel world to the jury.

Little Barrister—Did they acquit your man?

Big Lawyer—No! they seemed to think the world was so cold and cruel that he would be better off in jail.

Not So Much.

"Our boy has left us," wept the mother as their only son waved good-bye from the car window. "Yes," said the old man, whom the boy had just touched for a loan; "but he hasn't left us much."

Concrete is the cheapest building material

WHETHER for a silo, a milk-house, or a million bushel grain elevator, concrete is the most economical building material in use today.

Concrete never requires repairs, and the saving in repair-expense alone makes the greater economy of using concrete more apparent every day. The cost of other building materials is constantly increasing. The cost of concrete is being reduced.

Canada Cement

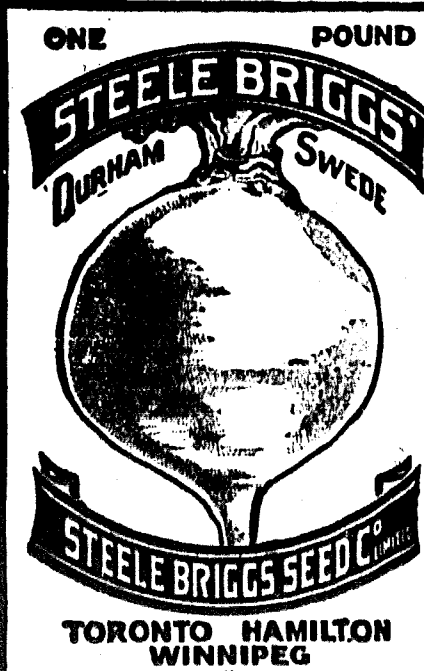

which Canadian farmers use, with their own sand, stone and gravel to make concrete, is the only ingredient you have to buy. We have, by reason of our large output and scientific methods, been able to bring the price of "Canada" Cement so low that it is within the reach of everyone.

An increase in demand results in a greater economy of production, and when conditions have warranted it, we have, from time to time, shared this saving with the consumer by reducing the price of Canada Cement. This demand will continue to increase, as fast as farmers learn of concrete's superiority over other materials.

When you buy cement, see that you get "Canada" Cement; by so doing you will assure the complete success of all your concrete work. Send a post card for our book "What the Farmer Can do With Concrete." It is free.

There is a Canada Cement dealer in your neighborhood.

ONTARIO WOMAN'S FORTUNE

Freed From That Weak, Languid, Always Tired Feeling, by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Thessalon, Ont.—“I cannot speak too highly of your medicine. When my appetite is poor and I have that weak, languid, always tired feeling, I get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it builds me up, gives me strength, and restores me to perfect health again. It is truly a blessing to women, and I cannot speak highly enough of it. I take pleasure in recommending it to others.”—Mrs. ANNIE CAMERON, Thessalon, Ont.

Women who are suffering from these distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 30 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (Confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

12 Tumors Removed Without An Operation

Silver Lake, Ont., Sept. 20, 1909.
Dear Mrs. Currah—I am enjoying better health than I have for eight years, and I think I am entirely cured. I have none of the old symptoms. I am very grateful for my present health, and think Orange Lily is the greatest treatment for women the world knows. Its use in my case caused 12 tumors or growths of some sort to be expelled. Some were as large as a hen's egg, and others smaller, down to the size of a walnut. You may use my case in your advertisement, for it is the solid truth, and you cannot describe all the good it has done for me. Mrs. Louise E. Holte-ridge.
This letter gives an indication of the positive benefits that always follow the use of Orange Lily. It is an applied treatment, and comes in direct contact with the suffering organs. It produces results from the start in all cases of women's disorders, womb, irregularities, leucorrhoea, etc. I will send a sample box containing 10 days' treatment absolutely free to any suffering woman who has not yet tried it if she will send me her address. Enclose 5 stamps and address MRS. FRANCES E. CURRAH, Windsor, Ont.

A MESSAGE FROM A WOMAN TO WOMEN

"Every Woman Should Take 'Fruit-a-lives'"

LAKELAND, ONT., MAY 12th, 1911
Kindly publish this letter of mine if you think it will benefit other women who might be afflicted with the diseases I have had in the past, but am now, thanks to "Fruit-a-lives", completely cured of. It is my firm belief that every woman should take "Fruit-a-lives" if she wants to keep herself in good health.

Before taking "Fruit-a-lives", I was constantly troubled with what is commonly known as "Nerves" or severe Nervousness. This Nervousness was brought on the most violent attacks of Sick Headache, for which I was constantly taking doctors' medicine without any permanent relief. Constipation was also a source of great trouble to me and for which the Doctors said "I would have to take medicine all my life", but "Fruit-a-lives" banished all these troubles and now I am a well woman!

Be a Charming Woman

You never saw a beautiful woman who didn't have beautiful hair. The charms of a beautiful woman lie in her hair. Many women do not realize the attractions they possess because they do not give proper attention to the hair. The women of the "900" are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, lustre, and strength to their hair.

Up to a few years ago PARISIAN Sage could hardly be obtained in Canada. But now this delightful hair restorer can be had in every town. H. E. Jones sells it in Digby for 50 cents a bottle, and guarantees it to grow beautiful, luxuriant hair; to stop falling hair, eradicate dandruff.

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough.

No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-around tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.

"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. V. Hunt, of New Brunswick, N. S., to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months and was nothing but a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Laxative. When I had taken one bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and tend to the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 107 pounds."

New Commandments:

1. Thou shalt not go away from home to do thy trading, thou nor thy sons nor thy daughters.
2. Thou shalt patronize thine own merchants, also the printers, and they shall patronize thee.
3. Thou shalt not ask for credit, as goods cost much money, and the merchant's heart is wearied with bills. Thrice blessed is a man who pays cash.
4. Thou shalt employ thine own mechanics and consider him that is thy neighbor above them that dwell in a strange town.
5. Thou shalt not ask for reduced prices for any influence, for behold guilt is in thy heart, and the merchant readeth it like an open book.
6. Thou shalt do whatever lieth in thy power to encourage and promote the welfare of thy town, thy own people.
7. Thou shalt spend thy earnings at home that they may return from whence they came.
8. Thou shalt suffer the voice of pride to overcome thee, and if other towns entice thee, hearken not unto them, for thou mayest be deceived.
9. Thou shalt not bear false witness against the town wherein thou dwellest, but speak well of it to all men.

Job Not Completed.

Little Elsie came into the kitchen with some eggs in a basket. "Mama," she said, "our hens are getting awfully absent-minded."

"Why, dear, what makes you think so?" asked her mother.

"Look here," said the little girl, holding up a soft-shelled egg; "this makes the third one this week that they forgot to put a shell on."

Same Sensation.

"Can you imagine," demanded the returned explorer, "the enormous extent of those vast snow fields?"

"I kin' declared the statesman from Wayback. "I had the same sensation the first time I appeared in public wearing a dress shirt."

Helping Some.

"And Sam, do you do anything to ward helping to get the wherewithal to support the family?"

"Dead I do, Boss; why, only last week I went down 'n' ordered a washin' machine for m' wife."

Anybody could see that Tommy had been carefully brought up. One day he sat upon his father's knee in a crowded tramway car. A lady entered. "Madame," said Tommy, as he got off his father's knee, "will you accept my seat?"

Too Old.

Maud—"Why did you refuse Mr. Rounder; was it because he is a man of the past?"

Ethel—"Yes. Papa says that a man with a past generally has a future to match."

Didn't Need Him.

Train robber (in the Pullman)—Your money or your life!

Sleepy passenger (wrathfully)—Confound you, porter; I'll call you when I want you!

Wasn't In It.

Mistress—I saw the baker kissing you this morning, Mary. In future I shall take in the bread myself.

Maid—It won't be no use, mum. He don't like fair women!

Her Formal Closing.

One evening little Helen stammered at the end of her prayer, evidently for getting how to close. Then she said (Oh, yes, very truly yours, Helen Smith).

A Sensible Idea.

"When I go on a trip I never know what I ought to take with me."

"Oh, I do; it's quite simple. I take all my dresses and leave behind my husband."

Good For the Other Fellow.

"I always believe in saving something for a rainy day."

"How much have you saved?"

"Oh, I haven't saved anything, but believe in it."

Foolish Idea.

Owner of car—"Why did you leave your last place?"

Chauffeur—"The guy I worked for went crazy. Started shingling his house when his car needed new tires."

Between Girls.

"Why does she have that harassed look?"

"She has always been afraid of being followed by a man."

"And it has never happened, eh?"

Not a Stemwinder.

Inquisitive Passenger—And what is that curious thing you are carrying?

Sailor with winchman—This, mum! It's the crank that they use for winding up the dog watch.

Gibbs—Stout people, they say, are rarely guilty of meanness or crime.

Dibbs—Well, you see, it's no different for them to stoop to anything low.

No Credit to Them.

Mother (reprovingly)—When I was young, girls never thought of doing the things they do today.

Daughter—Well, that's why they didn't do them.

Sudden Death.

TOM FONG LEE STRUCK BY HEAVY FAILURE TUESDAY NIGHT.

While reading a New York paper, printed in the Chinese language, Tuesday afternoon, Tom Fong Lee, proprietor of a Chinese laundry on Water street, became suddenly ill. His companion, a cousin named Tom Yuen, placed him in his bed and rendered every assistance possible, but the poor fellow passed away about 8 o'clock the same evening. His brother at Kentville, who was called up by telephone, arrived here via Wednesday's express. Coroner Maj. Daley ordered the body removed to Rice's undertaking room, First Avenue, where an inquest was held Wednesday afternoon and the verdict of heart failure was returned in accordance with the evidence. The jury consisted of J. E. McLaren, foreman; J. S. Dunham, George Post, A. Morrell, Norman Marshall, J. Russell Fawcett, Ralph Warrington, A. A. Shoncliffe, G. I. Letteney, Wilfred Robbins, W. F. Young, Angus McPherson.

The remains were conveyed to Halifax for interment via yesterday's express, accompanied by his brother and cousin. The latter will go as far as Kentville and the brother to Halifax to be present at the funeral.

The deceased was a good workman and had an excellent character. He was 45 years of age and leaves a widow and family in his native town in China.

Death of Mrs. Wealthy Gavel.

AN AGED AND HIGHLY RESPECTED RESIDENT OF BARTON HAS PASSED AWAY.

Mrs. Wealthy Gavel, widow of the late Wm. Gavel, died at her home in Barton at five o'clock Sunday morning, aged 73 years. She was afflicted with an accident last October, breaking her hip, from which she never recovered, being confined to her bed ever since, during which time she has had every attention possible, but the end came as stated above. Wedding Bells in Digby.

LINDSTROM-MOWATT.
A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Coun. A. A. Shortliffe, Carleton street, at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, when Mr. C. A. Lindstrom, the popular manager of Digby's New Jewelry Store, was united in marriage to Miss Carolyn L. Mowatt. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Daniel, pastor of Grace Methodist church, in the presence of only the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was unattended, was prettily dressed in a tailor-made suit of blue and wore a large white picture hat. Early Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. Lindstrom left Digby in their automobile for a week's trip, a portion of which is being spent at Lake Jolly where a canoe, fishing and tenting outfit had been sent in advance. Perry's Peerless Players.

GAVE TWO SPECTACULAR ENTERTAINMENTS IN DIGBY THIS WEEK.

Mr. G. Herbert Perry and his company of "Perry's Peerless Players" opened to a full house in the Bijou Theatre Tuesday evening, presenting a farce comedy entitled "The Blue Mouse," which was well appreciated by the entire audience. By far the best play ever presented by this company (and this is saying a good deal for they are all good) was "Polly of the Circus," which was the bill of Wednesday night. Both plays were well staged and the acting excellent, being one of the two and Dan Malloy, Hazel Corliss, Gertrude M. Rogers, Mr. Perry himself and other members of the company were given good opportunity to display their talent, and they did so to the utmost satisfaction of their patrons. After tonight's engagement in Yarmouth, Mr. Perry and his company will have a two weeks' rest before beginning their next season which opens in Pennsylvania. His many friends here will regret to learn that Mr. J. Howard Hughes has closed his engagement with Mr. Perry. However, Mr. Perry will replace him with another good actor during the coming season, and when the company again visits Digby we can assure them that big houses await them for many nights as they come to remain. We also trust that Mr. Hurl will again be seen on a Digby stage in the near future.

Remarkable Civil War Picture.

TO BE SEEN AT THE BIJOU DREAM TOMORROW NIGHT.

A new, special, two reel, war time play, "Pauline Cushman, the Federal Spy," will be shown at the Bijou Dream theatre, Digby, tomorrow night, and it promises to be one of the most important feature productions of the season. History has been followed with unusual care for exactitude in details, and woven in with a big romance that never allows interest to flag for a moment. It was a happy discovery to find a heroine so dashingly and so distinctive as this modern Valkyrie, who deserted the feverish sentimentality of the theatrical footlights to frequently dare death on the battle field or on the dangerous battlefield ground "between the lines." As an actual fact, she was twice sentenced to death by devoted soldiers officers and many times made wonderful escapes. The truth of the story has been attested to many Grand Army officials who have manifested an unusual interest in this masterly and massive production. The Selig people have won an enviable position for themselves in the field of features and a Selig "masterpiece" is always looked forward to with exceeding interest. Over 1,000 extra people were utilized in the present mammoth production and several thousands of dollars were expended on the elaborate staging of gigantic interior and battle field settings.

Will Reside in Middleton.

We regret very much to learn that Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Cummings and family have decided to move away from Digby. Mr. Cummings has been in charge of the building of an up-to-date blacksmith shop in the business section of Middleton. He will go there next week, his family moving later. Mr. Cummings came here over twelve years ago and has carried on a successful blacksmith business on First Ave., until the first of April when he sold his shop and business to Mr. Henry Trask. He is now offering his house and other property on Birch street for sale and will be notified by referring to our advertising columns. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings and family have made a host of friends here, both in the church and social circles, who will regret their departure. Mr. Cummings is not only a popular man, but also an excellent workman and we feel sure he will do a good business in his sister town where we wish him continued success.

STRONGLY ADVISES "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Because They Cured Him, And They Will Cure You

MR. ALEX. MCCARTER

WALKERTON, ONT., MAY 9th, 1911. "I have been in Walkerton in business for a good many years and many of my townsmen know that my health, for long periods was precarious. My trouble was extreme Nervousness, brought on by Indigestion and Dyspepsia, from which I suffered in the most severe form. It was so bad that I could not sleep before about four in the morning. I noticed one of your published testimonials of how someone had used 'Fruit-a-tives' for similar trouble and asked Mr. Hunter, my druggist, his opinion on the matter and he advised their use. I immediately procured several boxes and I am pleased to say that I now enjoy splendid health and could not possibly feel better. I can eat with every degree of satisfaction and sleep without an effort. I strongly advise anyone suffering from like complaints, to commence using 'Fruit-a-tives'. ALEX. We dare not exaggerate to you. We are dependent upon your patronage. To get it we must have your trust and confidence. We make the following statements with a full understanding of what they mean to us. You are safe when you believe in these statements.

For the Bowels

If you only knew as much as we and those who have used them know about Rexall Orderlies, you would be as enthusiastic about recommending them as we are. They taste just like candy. They act so easily and so pleasantly that the taking of them is a pleasure.

Even children like Rexall Orderlies, and you know that if a medicine appeals to a child, it will appeal to grown-ups.

Rexall Orderlies

help chase gloom, dispel blue and make you feel happy by their gentle, tonic, cleansing and strengthening effect upon the bowels. They act to free the system and keep it free—from the distress and ill feeling that naturally results from irregular and inactive bowels.

Rexall Orderlies do this quickly, without scripping or causing nausea, purging or excessive looseness. They act to overcome and remove the cause.

Make us Prove This

We do not ask you to take our word for this. We want you to make us prove it, and at no cost to you.

Buy a box of Rexall Orderlies at our store. Use them once, or use up the whole box. Then, if you are not thoroughly satisfied, just come back empty handed and tell us. Without obligating you or questioning you we will return the money 50¢ back to you.

Don't let us indicate that Rexall Orderlies are not worth a trial? Doesn't it prove our faith in them? Doesn't it merit your confidence? Could any other be more fair to you?

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, delicate and aged persons. Rexall Orderlies come in convenient vest pocket size tin boxes. 12 tablets, 10¢; 36 tablets, 25¢; 80 tablets, 50¢.

Fuel Supply Doubled For Gasoline Engines.

NEW MOTOR SPIRIT MADE FROM PETROLEUM BY PRODUCTS.

From a given amount of crude Petroleum, they now obtain Motor Spirit, in addition to gasoline and kerosene. They get as much Motor Spirit as gasoline and as much gasoline as formerly. Motor Spirit can be used in any gasoline engine—more powerful—will cost less.

Reprint from Motor Age, February 20th issue.

"Announcement was made to-day of the discovery of Motor Spirit, which is the name of this new fuel which resembles gasoline very closely except that it is yellow in color instead of white. It has a slightly greater range of boiling points, its minimum point being lower than that of the older fuel. This allows a motor to be started as easily, or more easily with this fuel than with gasoline.

The new fuel has 25 per cent. more power than gasoline.

It is not so much the lower cost of the fuel or its greater power that means so much to motorists. It is the fact that by its production the output of fuel per engine from a given quantity of crude petroleum practically is doubled. This will tend to prevent further rising of the price of gasoline.

Motor Spirit is an additional by-product of petroleum in addition to any which have heretofore been obtained. This means that in addition to the quantity of gasoline which formerly has been obtained from a given amount of crude oil the same quantity of Motor Spirit is obtained.

Motor Spirit has been under test with the Standard Oil Company in its own pleasure cars and trucks and has proven its superiority in the matter of efficiency.

Note—Motor Spirit runs any gasoline engine without any change in carburetors. It is expected that it will be in the hands of Standard Oil dealers very shortly.

Good Judgment.

At the dinner table father had just corrected his 10 year old daughter for eating with her fingers and then wiping them on the front of her dress, which by this time was very soiled. Then he pointed to her little sister, Irene, and said:

"Look at your little sister; she doesn't get her dress soiled as you do, when she eats."

"No," said Irene, "my dress is nice and clean in front. I wipe my fingers way down to the bottom of my dress."

Dr. Holmes and the Fork.

"Are you hungry, little girl?" said Dr. Wendell Holmes to one whom he saw looking with longing eyes at the good things before her.

"Yes, sir," was the reply.

"Then why don't you take a sandwich?"

"Because I haven't any fork."

"Fingers were made before forks," said the doctor, smiling.

The little girl looked, then said: "Not my fingers."

Human Nature.

"Why is it," asked the curious guest, "that poor men usually give larger tips than rich men?"

"Well, sir," said the waiter, who was something of a philosopher as well, "looks to me like de poor man don't want nobody to find out he's poor, and de rich man don't want nobody to find out he's rich."

What He Would Do.

"What are you going to do when you grow up, if you don't know how to read, write and cipher?" asked a school teacher of a lazy, stupid boy.

"I'm going to be a schoolmaster, an' make the boys do all the readin', writin' an' cipherin,'" replied the boy.

Bright or Lazy.

"Johnny, I don't believe you've studied your geography."

"No, mum; I heard pa say the map of the world was changing every day an' I thought I'd wait a few years till things got settled."

Early Training.

"The lawyer, whose cleverness you admire so much, began life as a milkman's boy."

"That explains how well he knows how to pump his witness."

A Loan Exhibition.

"I attended a loan exhibition this morning," said the Roob.

"That so?" said the Cheerful Idiot.

"Yes," replied the Roob. "Hardupp showed me his collection of pawn tickets."

Not in His Class.

"Did you like the farm you went out with the agent to look at? Does the land lie well?"

"Not so well as the agent."

Canada Cement

This label has no "second grade"

THERE'S only one quality of Canada Cement. It is the highest quality that can possibly be made with modern equipment, scientific methods and rigid inspection by expert chemists.

The Canada Cement you buy for a garden walk is the same cement that is sold by the railroad for great dams, elevators and bridges. The engineers in charge of these great works have ample facilities for testing the quality of cement.

comes up to their most rigid requirements.

The farmer has not these facilities for testing the quality of cement. He must buy a product upon which he can depend for a grade that is always of highest quality, and that therefore does not need to be tested.

You can place absolute reliance upon the quality of Canada Cement.

It's always the same and always the best. The large output which enables us to keep the price down, enables us also to maintain the factory equipment and organization that keeps the quality up.

A Canada Cement label appears on every bag and barrel of genuine Canada Cement. See that it's on the bags and barrels of cement that you buy.

Meteghan

G. E. Torrie, Esq., fishery officer, Digby, paid a visit to Theriault & Comeau's factory Monday.

Messrs. Melbourne Comeau, Saulnier and A. F. Hache, left on Saturday, 17th inst., for St. John.

Mrs. Saulnier, mother of Mrs. August L. Deveau, arrived Wednesday from Somerville, Mass., for the summer.

A. N. Deveau, Esq., of Salmon River, Miss Isabella Robichau, teacher, Mr. Theodore Melanson, Miss Rosie German, Miss Mamie German, Miss Lizzie Aymar drove up to Saulnierville Sunday afternoon.

Among those who went to Salmon River at the blessing of the church were, A. F. Hache, Esq., Mr. Theodore Melanson, collector of customs, Mr. Daily Sheehan, Mrs. William German, Mr. Frank German, Mr. George V. Comeau, Mr. Frank B. Robichau and Mr. Jule Robichau.

The death occurred Wednesday, 14th inst., of Mr. Joseph C. Thibodeau, of Bear Cove, at the age of 64 years. Deceased had been in poor health for some time past suffering from acute rheumatism, which had completely paralyzed him. The funeral took place Saturday morning in the Roman Catholic cemetery at Meteghan amid a large concourse of relatives and friends.

Friday evening witnessed another interesting event. Quite a crowd gathered at the shore to witness the launching of the sloop. Miss German from off Capt. Benson's marine ship. Under the skillful superintendence of Capt. Benson, she has been completely overhauled and renovated. In her fresh coat of paint she presented a fine appearance as she majestically glided into the briny deep. She left on Monday, the 19th, for Weymouth, to load lumber for the West Indies, chartered by G. D. Campbell & Co., Weymouth.

The Miss German is owned by Thos. German, Esq. sr., and is commanded by Capt. Thos. German, jr. The three masted sloop, Annie E. Warren is also well advanced. There is a lot of work going on now at the water front. The Annie E. Warren, the S. S. A. C. King on Robichau's marine ship, Mr. S. Z. Robichau's lumber factory, Theriault & Comeau's cannery and when the new creamery will be in operation, Meteghan will be at the front.

As it was intimated by your correspondent last week, Wednesday, the 14th, was the evening of the 60th anniversary of the Rev. A. B. Cote's birthday. Accordingly the three branches of the Assumption, the Artisans, Canadian Franciscans and the C. M. B. A. met in their hall on Tuesday evening and fixed on a program for the event. Brother Hache occupied the chair, while brother Wm. German, acted as secretary. Remarks were heard from Bros. Hache D. Deveau, A. M. Deveau, Thibodeau and Theriault. It was decided to present a purse and an address. A subscription was opened and the sum of eighty dollars was collected. Bros J. A. M. Deveau was intrusted with the framing of the address. Wednesday evening the three societies again assembled together in the hall, and at a quarter to seven with flying banners and full regalia formed in procession and at the strains of the Ave Maria Stella marched to the church which was filled to its utmost capacity. As the procession entered the sacred edifice the strains of La Marche des Pretres was artistically rendered by the organist, Miss Katie Deveau. The procession lined the central aisle, and after the recitation of the Rosary, Bros. Hache, Le Blanc and Robichau marched up to the Sanctuary, Brother Hache reading the address. Then followed benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and the solemn chanting of the Te Deum. After divine exercise the visiting members repaired to the Glebe house to present their respects to their beloved pastor and chaplain. Flags and bunting were displayed everywhere. The church was handsomely decorated and brilliantly illuminated. Everyone was wishing his beloved pastor many happy returns of the day. On Thursday at 5 o'clock, p. m., his Grace Archbishop McCarty, accompanied by the Rev. Fr. Cote, arrived from Salmon River. At seven o'clock His Grace presided at the devotion.

WOMEN CURED AT HOME

Women's disorders always yield from the very beginning of the treatment to the mild, but effective, action of Orange Lily. Within two or three days after commencing its use the improvement becomes noticeable, and this improvement continues until the patient is completely cured. Orange Lily is an applied or local treatment, and acts directly on the woman's organs, removing the congestion, toning and strengthening the nerves, and restoring perfect circulation in the diseased parts. In order to convince all suffering women of the value of this remedy, I will send a 25-cent box, enough for ten days' treatment, absolutely FREE to each lady sending me her address. MRS. FRANCES E. Killed Five and Wounded Three

BRITISH MINE OWNER AND HIS WIFE FIGHTED SHOULDERS TO SHOULDERS IN MEXICO.

AQUASQUE, ATLANTIC, Mexico, May 18.—John Walker, a British mine owner, and his wife, fighting shoulder to shoulder, recently killed five and wounded three men out of a band of eleven employees at the mine near Villa Garcia, Zucateca. Mr. and Mrs. Walker arrived here today under escort of a squad of troops.

The employees attacked Mr. Walker in the office of the mine because of his inability to raise money with which to pay the wages of the men. The attackers used knives and clubs and Mr. Walker had been seriously cut and beaten when he opened fire upon them with an automatic revolver. Mrs. Walker reinforced her husband with a rifle.

After the battle Mr. and Mrs. Walker made their escape from the buildings. They were befriended by a Spanish priest, who hid them until he could secure aid of the American consular agent here. When the latter was informed of the trouble, he secured the services of a squad of troops to escort Mr. and Mrs. Walker here.

"Father of the Trolley Car" Dead.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., May 10.—Stephen Dudley Field, sometimes called "the father of the trolley car," and known as an inventor of international prominence, died at his home today at the age of 88 years. Among the inventions patented by Mr. Field are the quadruplex telegraph, electric elevator, the amplifier for doubling the speed of ocean cables, the stock ticker, the annunciator and the police patrol telegraph. Altogether Mr. Field had more than 200 patents in his name.

Mr. Field was a member of the famous family which included Cyrus Field, an uncle, who laid the first Atlantic cable; David Dudley Field, the distinguished jurist; Stephen J. Field, former member of the United States Supreme Court; and Rev. Dr. Henry M. Field, a famous preacher, who was also an uncle. His father, Jonathan Edward Field, was a distinguished lawyer. Mrs. Field, David Dudley Field, a son and a daughter survive.

Farmers' Meeting at Doucetteville.

A farmers' meeting was held in the schoolhouse at Doucetteville on the evening of the 15th of the present month. It was the largest meeting of the season, the attendance amounting to seventy. The speakers were James Trevo, H. C. McNeill and W. A. Bacon. All three were well received and listened to with much interest. This was the first meeting of its kind ever held in this place. The people of Doucetteville are an industrious and thrifty lot. While lumbering and cordwood are the chief industries, the people are beginning to turn their attention more to farming than in the past. Like the farmers of other sections they recognize the fact that the forests are being rapidly cut away and in the near future the people must resort to farming for a livelihood.

Temperance in German Army.

EFFORTS OF MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO SHOW THE EVILS OF STRONG LIQUORS BEARING FRUIT.

BERLIN, May 17.—German military authorities, who for several years have carried on a campaign against the use of strong spirits in the army, have decided to send an annual circular to all troops in the future describing crimes that have been committed in the military service which have been ascribed to the excessive use of alcohol, and also showing the punishment meted out to the convicted men.

The campaign waged by the army officials already has proved decidedly successful, and the consumption of distilled spirits among the soldiers has been greatly diminished.

$20,000 Fire at Inverness.

INVERNESS, N. S., May 17.—Fire at Inverness (C. B.), this morning started in the Queen Hotel block, on Central avenue, and the hotel together with the adjoining block, the stables and outbuildings belonging to A. J. Campbell, were completely destroyed. The loss is estimated at $20,000, insurance about $8,000.

J. Wener & Son occupied a store in the adjoining block and T. Gallant, barrister, had his law offices on the second floor, and both parties sustained loss in the removal of property. Both buildings were gutted within an hour and for a time the whole southern portion of the town was threatened.

Supperette Sunday Meetings.

LONDON, May 18.—While the scenes of rowdiness in Hyde Park were so marked to day as on recent Sundays, when the supperettes attempted to hold meetings, the orators who espoused the cause of the women found it impossible to make themselves heard on account of interruptions by the crowd. Finally they had to accept the services of the police in obtaining safe escort from the park.

Harper's Weekly Changes Owners.

New York, May 17.—The sale of Harper's Weekly to Norman Hapgood and associates, not named, was announced last night by Colonel George Harvey, president of Harper & Brothers, publishers. Colonel Harvey stated that the sale of the weekly so long identified with the Harpers publishing house and so famous in the days of George William Curtis, its longtime editor, was made because it had been losing money. The Weekly brought in barely one-tenth of the gross revenue of the Harpers' publications, Colonel Harvey stated.

Two Drowned.

HUBBARD, N. B., May 17.—Otto Hubbarth, son of Fred Hubbarth, publisher, and Lawson, son of Freeman Hubbarth, both of Blandford, were drowned off that place today. They were returning from their lobster cages at Seal Ledges when it is supposed a squall struck their sail boat which capsized and both perished. Both were promising young men of about eighteen years, and much sympathy is expressed for their parents in their sad bereavement.

Italians Lose Heavily in Battle.

"I ATTRIBUTE MY CURE SOLELY

And Entirely To Taking "Fruit-a-Lives"

HULL, QUE., Dec. 24th, 1909
 "For the past twelve years, I had painful attacks of Dyspepsia. I could not digest my food and everything caused the most agonizing pain in my stomach. I also had a fearful attack of Constipation and at times, I had no movement of the bowels for two weeks.

Three doctors attended me for two years and gave me all kinds of medicine but did me no good. My weight came to only 80 pounds and everyone thought I was going to die. Finally, I had the good fortune to try "Fruit-a-Lives" and as soon as I began to take them, I felt better. I persisted in the treatment and to my great joy, I steadily improved. Now I feel very well, weigh 115 pounds, and this is more than I ever weighed even before my illness.

I attribute my cure solely and entirely to "Fruit-a-Lives" and can never praise them too much for saving my life. To all who suffer from Dyspepsia and Constipation, I recommend "Fruit-a-Lives" as a miraculous remedy."

THE WORLD'S WORK DEPENDS ON THE WORLD'S DIGESTION

From the captain of industry to the hod carrier—from milady in the auto to the woman with the scrubbing brush—the accomplishments of every one of us depend absolutely on the accomplishments of our stomachs. Backed by a good digestion, a man can give the best that is in him. When his stomach fails, he becomes a weakling.

To this loss of power no one need submit. Right habits of eating, drinking, sleeping and exercise, aided by Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, will restore and maintain the full efficiency of the human mind and body.

Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets contain the active principles needed for the digestion of every kind of food. They go to the assistance of the weakened stomach, and enable the sufferer, right from the start, to assimilate and get the benefit of the food eaten. With this assistance, the digestive organs regain their tone, and soon the use of the tablets is no longer necessary.

If your stomach is not working properly, try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets. 50c. at your druggist's. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

For Clean Stores.

There is a movement on foot in the city of Quebec to secure greater cleanliness in the stores, especially those that supply food products. It might be extended to Digby and most other communities. It may seem anomalous and yet it is true that while most of the dry and fancy good stores and the largest groceries are kept clean and attractive looking, the reverse is true of many establishments in which articles of food are sold. The Quebec Telegraph, which is leading the movement for clean stores in that city, says:

That a movement of the shops and stores in Quebec in which food products are handled and sold, are not kept in as cleanly and healthy a condition as they should be, is beyond question. It may suit the purpose of city aldermen, with an eye to the value of the corner grocery as a political and municipal electioneering agency, to deny the fact, but this does not alter or disprove it. There are undoubtedly many such shops in Quebec which are models of order, cleanliness and attractiveness, and in which it is a pleasure to observe the tidiness of the employees and the care taken by them in handling articles of food properly.

But we regret to say—there are very many others which the conditions are the very reverse of this, in which food products and especially fruits, vegetables, fish, cheese and such like are treated with the utmost abandon by persons whose very appearance repels, who not only handle them with filthy hands, but allow them to be pawed over by every one coming along and who do not even take the trouble to protect them against those scavengers and disease breeders, the flies in summer.

Such establishments are not merely disgusting. They are grave menaces to the public health. It is useless to tell us they do not exist in our midst for everyone knows the contrary, and yet should be regularly inspected and compelled to be kept as clean as our butchers' shops at least.

Shipping at Philadelphia Crippled.

STRIKERS HOLD OUT FOR THIRTY FIVE CENTS AN HOUR.

PHILADELPHIA, May 21.—Striking stevedores and longshoremen have asked by shipping interests that they can return to work if they will accept the advanced rate of 30 cents an hour agreed upon last week. The dockmen have not yet made this offer but are standing firm for the demands for thirty-five cents an hour. Meanwhile much of the ocean-going shipping is at a standstill and the constructive traffic is badly crippled. Trans-Atlantic liners are being sent to other ports for cargoes while vessels at sea have been notified by wireless to hold off until a settlement can be completed for the men to be unloaded elsewhere. Shipowners say they cannot pay thirty-five cents an hour.

Disorder, which is attributed by the police to the longshoremen's strike broke out near the Sprinkles Sugar Refinery today. One man was taken to a hospital so badly beaten that his life is in danger. Six foreign laborers were accused as rioters.

$5,000 Motor Car For Mrs. Borden.

An Ottawa despatch says: Immediately after the adjournment of the House of Commons at four o'clock on Saturday morning, following the stormy passage of the Navy Bill through the committee stage, the government members assembled in Room 10 and presented Mrs. Borden with a five-passenger electric brougham, costing $5,000, in recognition of the deep interest she has taken in the welfare of the navy. The presentation was made by Clarence Jameson, M. P., Digby.

"We are not unmindful of the fact that Mr. Borden's success has in no small measure been attained as a result of your devotion to him and your participation in his aims and his aspirations," said Mr. Jameson, who addressed the Prime Minister and his confidants in his followers that Mrs. Borden was the real leader of the Government in his own recognition.

Mrs. Borden made a graceful reply. She had watched the final struggle over the passage of the Bill from the galleries and pleaded respite from making a lengthy speech on the ground that "everyone must be sleepy."

Mr. Borden made a few earnest words of thanks and the gathering dispersed with three cheers for the Premier and his wife.

Giant Ocean Liners.

MONTREAL, May 20.—The action of the underwriters of Lloyd's and the marine insurance companies in refusing to insure the largest type of modern liners constructed for the Hamburg-American, Cunard and other companies, has had the effect of compelling these lines to undertake much of their own insurance. The contention of the underwriters is that even if there be no serious casualty, the liners rarely make a trip without encountering some mishap sufficient to run away with the premium and leave the underwriters in an unsatisfactory position.

The insurance question is therefore bound to have a tendency to limit the size of future ships, and it seems probable that with the launching of the new White Star liner Bismarck, which is under construction at Belfast, the limit will have been reached as regards the size of vessels which cross the North Atlantic. Should this prove to be the case, Herr Ballin's ambition that the Hamburg-American line should possess the world's largest ship will have to remain unsatisfied.

The dimensions of the Bismarck will be 887 feet 6 inches in length, 91 feet 6 inches beam, and gross tonnage over 51,000 tons.

$9,000 Fire at Chamcook.

ST. ANDREWS, N. B., May 20.—The new town of Chamcook had its first baptism of fire this afternoon, when the wooden buildings of Charles Beach and Roy Hatt were destroyed with almost all their contents.

Beach had a well equipped store, also a boarding house and picture hall on his premises. There were 25 boarders in the building, but almost all their effects were saved. The dynamo and picture machine were taken out. Beach's loss to the building and contents will be about $9,000.

Hatt also kept a boarding house and store. He had 15 boarders and their effects were taken out, but the building and store contents were destroyed. His loss will be about $3,000. Both men carried a small line of insurance.

Spanish Heir Deaf and Dumb.

MONTREAL, May 22.—The Montreal Star publishes the following special cable today:

LONDON, May 22.—According to letters received from Madrid there is only the faintest hope that Prince Jaime, King Alfonso's five-year-old son, ever can be cured of his deafness and dumbness.

Helen Keller has been summoned by the queen to proceed in all haste to the royal palace, every specialist of note in Europe having failed to help the child. The wonderful American deaf mute will give the tiny prince a course of treatment, which has been so successful in her own case.

California Alien Land Bill.

SACRAMENTO, Calif., May 19.—California bill became the law of the state today. Against the protest of Japan, and the representations of President Wilson, and his personal envoy, Secretary of State Bryan, Governor Johnson signed the bill and ninety days after the adjustment of the bill, in August, the act becomes operative.

Meanwhile complications national and sectional, beset the bill. Over-shadowing all is the outcome of the negotiations now in progress between this country and Japan, which has interpreted the act as discriminatory and offensive.

Halifax Street Car Strike Settled.

HALIFAX, May 20.—As expected, the strike of the employees of the Halifax Electric Tramway was ended late this afternoon on the basis of an acceptance of the offer of the company to increase the rate of pay, making it respectively 22 cents, 21 cents and 25 cents per hour according to length of service. The company also agreed to take all the men back and to give employees not holding passing tickets 10 cents per day. The men signed the agreement individually.

SYDNEY, N. S., May 21.—The Cape Breton Electric Co. today made an increase of two cents per hour to the conductors and motormen employed on the Glace Bay division. The old wage was 18, 20 and 22 cents for first, second and third and fourth and subsequent years respectively.

DUBLIN, Oct. 19, 1912. Word reached here this afternoon of the sudden death of Rev. John Johnson, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lynedoch. It appears that Rev. John Johnson was making some repairs to the roof of the barn and had accidentally fallen to the ground, causing instant death.

Salmon River Church Consecrated.

ARCHBISHOP MCCARTHY DEDICATED THE NEWLY CONSTRUCTED CHURCH OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL DE FOULKE MAY 19TH.

Last Thursday all the roads in the eastern section of Yarmouth county and the western section of Digby county led to Salmon River. This pretty village on St. Mary's Bay was in full truth keeping a "holiday"—the occasion being the dedication of the splendid new church of St. Vincent de Paul.

Among the church dignitaries and clergy present were His Grace, Archbishop McCarthy, of Nova Scotia; Monsignor Daly, the beloved pastor of St. Joseph's church, Halifax; Rev. Father Bracy, the pastor; Father Cote of Meteghan seminary, West Pubnico; Father Lehenberger, Lower East Pubnico; Father Deveau, Wedgeport; Father Chasson, father Superior of St. Anne's college, Father Coadin, Saultville, and Father LeDore of Church Point.

The ceremonies of the day commenced with the arrival of the students of St. Anne's college, who were landed from the Steamer Sasaboo at David's Cove about a mile from the church. These students were members of the Sodality of the Sacred Heart and the Holy Heart of Mary. They were joined by the local branches of the citizens Canadiane Francals in charge of the organizer, A. F. Hache, and the O. M. B. A.

Headed by the brass band of the college they marched to the church where they added to their numbers the candidates for confirmation when the whole procession went to the archbishop and entered the archbishop and clergy to the church.

Arriving at the church the ceremony of blessing the sacred edifice was performed by his grace, assisted by Rev. Fathers Cote, Deveau, Lebarzic, Dequ and LeDore, and accompanied by the other clergy.

At this service an address of welcome was given by the pastor to the archbishop and visiting clergy.

The sermon by Rev. Father Chasson on the subject "The evening of day." His text was "Non est hic alius nisi dominus dei et porta coeli"—(this is truly the house of God and the gate of heaven.) He was followed by the archbishop who congratulated the congregation on their splendid work.

Official high mass was celebrated by his grace, assisted by Fathers Deveau and Lebarzic, as deacons of honor; Father Dequ as deacon and Father LeDore as sub deacon.

In the afternoon the rite of confirmation was administered to about 70 candidates. Historically the parish of St. Vincent de Paul is not an old one. As late as 1870 it was a mission of the Meteghan parish and was administered by Rev. Father Daly once a month.

In 1880 it had its first resident pastor, Rev. Father Malone, who built a small wooden church, 60 by 50 feet, which seated about 500. Father Malone was succeeded by Fathers Bernard, D. D. Homme, Cordeau, Cote, LeBlanc (now bishop of St. John), Deveau, Reust and Bracy, the present pastor.

In Father Cote's time the old wooden church was succeeded by a large stone structure which was opened in 1901. In 1908 an expert painter was engaged who decorated the church from floor to peak with pictures inspired by sacred history. This church, which cost between $70,000 to $80,000 was destroyed in August 13, 1911, but today the church is ready.

In this building the walls of the old church were utilized but the cost will be about $30,000. So far the church is hardly completed but everything is paid for.

Hon. Mr. McKenna Took No Chances.

FEARED TO APPEAR AT WELSH FIBRE CHURCH MEETING BECAUSE OF SUPPRESSOR PLOT.

CARDIFF, Wales, May 21.—The British cabinet ministers are exposed to such risks of being mauled by militants at public meetings that hereafter they are likely to refuse to attend unless those in charge of the meetings are prepared to guarantee their personal safety.

Because such assurances could not be given him, the home secretary, the Right Hon. Reginald McKenna, did not appear at the Welsh Fibre, cement and free church conference this afternoon, although he was announced as one of the speakers.

It is understood that the authorities head of a suffrage plot to attack the home secretary at the conference by a method which would not only jeopardize Mr. McKenna's life but the lives of the delegates as well. The home secretary, however, addressed a large meeting this evening, a Scotland Yard detective occupying a seat near him on the platform.

Elaborate precautions were taken to prevent the admission of suffragettes, and a big force of sturdy stalwarts were on hand to deal with disturbers. This did not prevent male champions of the suffragettes from getting in several of whom interrupted the speeches and were roughly ejected.

Mr. McKenna concluded his address by warning the militants that their methods would never succeed in frightening or worrying the government into giving the franchise to women.

"By their actions," he said, "they can bring nothing but discredit to their cause and punishment upon themselves."

Rhode Island Leprosy Case.

MAN HAD BEEN SUFFERING FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., May 22.—Some excitement was caused today by the announcement that William Comber, a local resident, was afflicted with leprosy and had been sent to the Federal leprosarium at twenty-five years. He was declared a leper by Dr. Gardner T. Swartz, secretary of the State Board of Health, who was notified of the case by a physician called to attend another member of the Comber family.

The man had not been out of the house for about five years, but no other members of the family, Dr. Swartz said, showed symptoms of the disease. Comber is thought to have contracted the disease in China, where he lived when a child. He and others of the family have left the town. Dr. Swartz said he understood that he had gone to New York, but that he had been unable to ascertain just where they are now living.

Captain Stricken at Sea.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., May 17.—Captain Zena Conrad died in the hospital at Charlottetown tonight. He took ill at sea, was landed at St. John's (P. E. I.), unconscious and was brought here where he died of abscess on the brain.

Highly Honored.

Rev. Arthur Wentworth Hamilton Eaton, of Toronto, a native of Kentville, has been elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, English Literature Section. This honor is richly deserved and would have been conferred long before, but for the fact that the Doctor, under the rules of the Society, was temporarily disqualified by residence out of Canada. The new recipient of this distinction, the highest attainable by literary and scientific men in Canada, is easily the most eminent of the literary men of Nova Scotia of this generation, both as a poet, and as a prose writer, whose pen has known but little rest.

He is the author of an able religious-philosophical treatise entitled "The Heart of the Creed," a "History of the Church of England in Nova Scotia," and the "Tory clergy of the Revolution," "Acadian Legions and Lyrics," "Letter Writing, its ethics and etiquette," "College Requirements in England," "Acadian Ballads and the Soto's last Drama," "Poems of the Christian Year," the "Status of the Nile and other poems," "The History of Kings County, N. S." He also edited the "Recollections of a Georgia Loyalist," written by the mother of Hon. James W. Johnston. He has completed a Genealogy of the Nova Scotia Eaton's, the Eaton's of Berwick, Dover and Halifax, Hamilton of Olivestob and of several families, members of which were distinguished Nova Scotians as Hill, Cochran, Inglis, and is now engaged on Genealogical memoirs of old Halifax families, of which the "DeBlois family" and the "Garrish family," have just been published. He has received honorary distinctions from many universities and learned societies in the United States and Canada.

Steamer Prince Rupert sailed Wednesday for Halifax to go into dry dock to have her bottom painted, and will then resume her position on the St. John-Digby route.

MARITIME

Nail Bonds

Maritime Nail Sixes have ever been a popular issue with our clients. Recent reports of the Company's progress are so extremely favorable that we're sure other investors will also want some of these really good bonds.

Over our private wires a message came yesterday reporting that the Maritime Nail Company has 40 more unfilled orders on its books than at this time last year. Improvements recently installed have reduced manufacturing costs by 7 1/2 p. c. and at the same time increased the output by 40 p. c. with the same overhead expense. In addition of this profit is to be had in the stock dividend being increased from 5 p. c. to 7 p. c.

A limited number of these Ten Year 6 p. c. Gold Bonds (maturing 1922) is now offered at 100 p. c. and interest to yield an even six per cent. We will be pleased to hear from anyone desiring further information.

We are very much pleased with the reports that our customers are giving us about their experience with

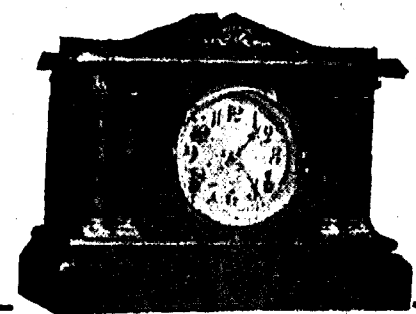

"REGAL" FLOUR

It is great satisfaction to sell an article that in every one case turns out to be exactly as promised.

Although we sell every barrel of "Regal" with a definite promise that if it is not satisfactory we will take it back and refund the purchaser his money, we have so far not had one single complaint. Furthermore many people have told us it is the best bread flour they have ever had in their house.

Why should any other cereal be called "just as good" as

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

Because Kellogg's is known to be the best and most nutritious cereal on the market—

Because the sale of Kellogg's Corn Flakes is enormous as trade returns will show—

Because another large modern factory, the best and most sanitary in Canada had to be built to take care of our constantly increasing trade—

Because the imitator, knowing these facts and having few selling arguments for his own product thinks to create a market for it by comparing it to Kellogg's:

But---the flavor and the sustaining qualities of Kellogg's Corn Flakes cannot be counterfeited. Sold in big packages at 10c. Look for the signature.

Death of Dr. Thomas W. Clements.

ANOTHER VETERAN HAS ANSWERED THE LAST CALL.

(From a Brooklyn, Mass. Paper.)
A country's gratitude forbids any failure to record a brief history of our revered veterans when death removes them from amongst us.

Thomas W. Clements, who died on the 13th inst. at the age of 73 years was born on the 1st of April, 1840, at Weymouth, Digby Co., Nova Scotia. When still a child he removed with his parents to Calais, Me. At the outbreak of the Civil War he enlisted, Oct. 21, 1861, as a Corporal in Co. K, 12th Maine Infantry. Here he won for himself promotion and left his company as Sergeant, June 17, 1861, to accept a commission as Second Lieutenant in the New Orleans Volunteers. Again he won distinction, being commissioned as First Lieutenant in the regiment, following which he was for a time the officer in command of the 1st Maine Infantry. After leaving the service he went to Pembroke, Maine, where he married Miss Lydia Randall, daughter of Captain Charles Randall and afterwards settled in Brookline, following his profession as a dentist where he made many friends.

He was mustered into C. L. Chandler Post 143, G. A. R., in June 1847, by transfer from Post 21 Westbrook, of which he had been an honored member. He was a Past Master of Bethel Lodge, A. F. and A. M., and a member of the Dental Association. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Philip A. Nordell and the Grand Army Veterans. One by one these old veterans answer the last call and quit the old familiar scenes but their influence surely lives. The tales of their patriotism cannot fail to stir others to emulate them in their action and self-sacrifice for their country's welfare. The stories of their loyal devotion to "The Flag" cannot be too often told or their memory too highly esteemed. In the loss of Dr. Clements every member of the C. L. Chandler Post realizes that he is bereft of a highly esteemed comrade who will ever be remembered by them as a true gentleman of the old school, charitable, patriotic and sympathetic, beloved by all for his kindly disposition and many qualities.

Acadia University.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

The closing exercises of Acadia University and affiliated institutions will take place May 21st-25th. This year Acadia celebrates her seventy-fifth anniversary with appropriate ceremonies. The Baccalaureate Service on Sunday, the 24th, will be given by Rev. Burton W. Lockhart, D. D., of Manchester, N. H. Academy closing takes place Monday evening and the Seminary closing on Tuesday evening. On Wednesday morning the college graduating exercises will be held followed by the Alumni dinner. Wednesday evening the exercises are brought to a close by the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary. The attractiveness of the college functions combined with the beauty of the blossoming spring time and the grandeur of the natural scenery make Wolfville a very interesting place for these few days. A large number of visitors is expected.

Western Chronicle: Vanhuskirk, the busy boot and shoe maker, has employed William Kaiser, of Freeport, Digby Co., as a boot and shoe repairer. His workmanship is unsurpassed by any yet seen in this place, is without doubt a credit to the man.

Mrs. W. H. Hertz, wife of the well-known Methodist clergyman, who recently underwent an operation in a Montreal hospital, is now at her home in Yarmouth, and is convalescing rapidly.

Hearing the new Edison

is more convincing than hearing about them

In tone production lies the real test of any record. The Blue Amberol is the clearest, sweetest, most lifelike record that has yet been made.

But it is more. It is practically unbreakable. A fall from the table won't smash it. And it is so sturdy that the results of the thousandth time you play it are as perfect as the first.

Ask your dealer to let you hear them.

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, May 30, 1913

An Important Notice.

Bills are now being mailed to all our advertisers and to all patrons of our job-printing department. We expect payment of these accounts on or before June 15th, as our financial year ends that month and it is important that all accounts be balanced at that time. Subscribers in arrears will also take notice of the date on their address labels and remit promptly, thereby saving trouble and unnecessary expense.

H. T. Warner & Co.'s Big Boot and Shoe Sale.

A GOOD DEMONSTRATION OF THE EFFECTS OF NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING.

In last Friday's COURIER Messrs. H. T. Warner & Co. inserted a three-column 10 inch advertisement, "Big Boot and Shoe Sale," worth of Boots, Shoes and Rubbers below cost." They took no other means to inform the public of this big sale which opened Monday morning, the 28th, at nine o'clock. Long before the opening hour and before the clerks were in a position to take care of the big business awaiting them, crowds of people were around to get the first selections. This same rush has continued almost night and day. The sale is still on and will continue until June 5th, unless in the meantime their entire $10,000 stock is disposed of. It is therefore advisable for those who are looking after bargains to get there just as soon as possible. Many families have already purchased enough boots, shoes and rubbers to last them for several years while there are possibly a few people who are letting this opportunity go by without making a purchase. Messrs. H. T. Warner & Co. have decided to let their special advertisement appear again in today's issue and expect to have more help during the next few days to take care of their big sales.

Son Born to Dr. Bogart.

CLINTON AVENUE M. D. GREETED ARRIVAL OF J. BION BOGART, JR.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Bion Bogart of 465 Clinton Avenue, are rejoicing in the arrival of a son. The baby was born yesterday morning and both he and his mother are reported to be doing very well. He has been named John Bion Bogart, Jr.

This is the first child of Dr. Bogart, who is one of the best-known of Brooklyn surgeons and who has only recently recovered from a grave case of septicaemia, which resulted from a serious infection in operating on a patient at the Kings County Hospital last November. The arrival of the baby occasions a double celebration for Dr. Bogart, both from the fact of his son's birth and the fact that Dr. Bogart has completely recovered from his critical illness and is once more back in active practice.

Dr. and Mrs. Bogart, who were Mrs. Marion Corbit Ricketts of Chicago, were married in Plymouth Church, on April 21, 1912. The first Mrs. Bogart died in 1915.

[The above is reprinted from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle of May 19th. Dr. Bogart is one of Digby's regular summer visitors and has many friends here, especially among the yachtmen, who extend congratulations.]

Rev. and Mrs. Roy Leave Digby.

Rev. T. S. Roy, for three years pastor of the Digby Baptist church, preached his farewell sermon in Digby to a large congregation in the Baptist vestry last Sunday evening. The interior of the main church being under repairs. It is very much regretted, not only by the members of his own church, but by the citizens generally, that Mr. Roy is leaving Digby. He is a good preacher, a thorough gentleman, and by his departure Digby loses a citizen highly respected by everybody. Mrs. Roy will also be greatly missed in church and social circles. They left here yesterday. Mr. Roy will occupy the pulpit of the Fredericton Baptist church during June and July and his home church in Newcastle, N. B., during August, after which he will go to Rochester, N. Y., to take a special course in Theology. Later he will probably attend a Chicago University.

At the Bijou Dream.

The Bijou Dream has never been better patronized for a whole week than it has since last Friday, notwithstanding the Digby weather. The pictures have been good and the public have shown their appreciation of Manager Cripps' efforts to give them their money's worth every time they purchase an admission ticket.

To-morrow night the movie will be furnished by Miss Carrie O'Connor and among the six reels of pictures will appear "The Modern Prodigal," a two-reel, a film story that touches the heart and brings thrills of joy to all who witness it. After passing through the crucial tests of youthful folly, an only son redeems himself from the fetters of vice and in true prodigal fashion returns to his home and rescues his aged mother from poverty and woe. Her faith and love, so characteristic of mothers the world over, are the influences that guide him back to manhood and happiness.

The Victoria Rink.

Owing to the disagreeable weather on Victoria Day, Mr. Walker decided to postpone the regular formal opening of Victoria Rink until the King's birthday, next Tuesday, June 3rd, and therefore cancelled the engagement of the Annapolis Royal Band and the excursion from Annapolis on the Moto until that date. However the rink was opened to the public Saturday afternoon and every evening this week and has certainly been well patronized and many Digby people have already become almost expert roller skaters during the past few evenings. Mr. Walker is planning to give his patrons a good time next Tuesday afternoon and evening and will no doubt have a big crowd.

The Fishermen's Regatta.

A public meeting will be held in the Council Chamber, town hall, next Monday evening at 8 o'clock to complete arrangements for the fishermen's regatta and the meeting of the Nova Scotia guides in Digby, which takes place Tuesday, August 12th. A full attendance of the public is especially requested.

OF A LOCAL NATURE

Mr. P. W. Holdsworth's pleasure launch Princess went into commission this week.

Several of the W. N. S. Y. O. boats visited Annapolis Royal Friday night, returning early Saturday morning.

Next Thursday night, June 5th, the friendly society of the Church of England will hold their first concert for the season.

As will be seen by an advertisement in today's COURIER, the government is asking for tenders for dredging at Digby.

The weather in Digby has been cold and disagreeable during May. June, however, will probably be a pleasant month.

Chief Police Bowles locked up a couple of fellows about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning who had no money to pay for a night's lodging.

Don't forget the "County Sheriff" in the Bijou Dream (theatre Wednesday evening, June 4th. Tickets now on sale at Holdsworth's drug store.

Next Tuesday, June 3rd, is the King's Birthday which is a public holiday throughout the British Empire. All places of business in Digby will be closed.

Next Sunday being the first of June, the evening services in the different churches will commence at 7:30, and continue at that hour during the summer months.

M. J. Powell, of Halifax, inspected the Digby Academy Cadet Corps Tuesday afternoon and expressed his satisfaction with the drill, their uniforms and general appearance of the company.

Digby's leading summer hotels are getting out a new lot of advertising this season and are planning on a busy year. It is said that many tourists who annually visit Europe will try a trip to the provinces this summer.

Victoria Day passed off very quietly in Digby. The weather was disagreeable for yachting, automobilizing or any out of door sport. The Bijou Dream theatre and Victoria Rink were both well patronized during the evening.

At Holy Trinity Church on Sunday, the Rector will speak in the morning on Welsh Desecrations, and in the evening will give a special address to the young. These subjects are both by request of members of the congregation.

JONES-OUTHOUSE.

At the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, the quiet wedding of Theodore M. Outhouse, formerly of Tiverton, N. S., and Thomas J. Jones, of Boston, took place Monday evening at 7:30, May 12th. Only immediate friends and relatives were invited. The bride's maid was Myrtle Ruggles, of Tiverton, N. S., and best man F. F. Higgins, of Boston. The bride was attended by Misses E. H. and R. H. Rogers, N. S.; Mrs. B. H. Boley, Waterville, N. S.; and Mrs. Isaac Lawrence, Salt Lake City, Utah.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white lace, carrying a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in pretty costume of ecru tulle and hat to match, carrying American beauties. After the ceremony the bridal party were greeted outside the church by a host of successful friends of the bride and groom. Amidst showers of rice, confetti, etc., the bridal party were hurried away in autos to the Hotel Westminster, Copley Square, where a delightfully prepared dinner awaited them. At 11:30 p. m. the bride and groom departed amidst more rice and confetti, taking the midnight train for New York. The many presents of gold, glass, silver, and linen, represented the number of estimable friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jones.

There are four departments and an assistant, Miss Stella Robichau. There are over two hundred pupils on the registers. Quite a crowd of parents gathered to witness the various exercises. Profiting by a gracious invitation on the part of the good sisters, your correspondent had the pleasure to visit the whole school. In all the four departments were witnessed marked progress in every branch. From the mere little tots in the primary department to the older ones in the advanced department, all showed that they were under skilful and diligent teachers, who were up to the duties of their position. Meteghan should be proud of possessing such efficient teachers, and they should do all in their power to assist those good sisters in their onerous duties. The religious earb is not an impediment in the education of youth; statistics are there to prove the fact.

Have You a Skin Rash?

ZAM BUK WILL END IT.

For skin rashes, eruptions, eczema, etc., either in adults or children, there is nothing known to science which equals Zam Buk in the quickness and certainty of its curative power. Mr. Raymond Webber, of Alenborg, Ont., writes: "I have tried Zam Buk for many ailments, and every time have found it successful. Some time ago I had a bad rash all over my body. I tried home-made salves, herb salves, and various home-made preparations, and these proved of no use, but when I tried Zam Buk I was cured in a quarter of the time that I had been experimenting in vain with other preparations."

"On another occasion I had one of my fingers crushed, and in that case also Zam Buk was the only remedy I used. It healed the wound splendidly."

"My boy had boils, and once again Zam Buk brought about a complete cure. We have also used it as a household balm, for the injuries and skin diseases which are common to every person, and can say that in our experience there is nothing to equal Zam Buk."

Zam-Buk owes its unique healing power to certain herbal extracts it contains. Unlike most ointments it contains no poisonous coloring matter, no animal fat, but is purely herbal. For eczema, piles, blood poison, abscesses, ulcers, cuts, burns, and all skin injuries and diseases it is without equal and should be in every home. 50c. box all druggist and stores. Use also Zam Buk soap, 25c. tablet.

The Easy Laxative

In justice to yourself you should try Rexall Orderlies, — your money back if you don't like them. They are a candy confection that really do give easy relief from constipation.

Good health is largely dependent upon the bowels. When they become sluggish the waste material that is thrown off by the system accumulates. This condition produces various points which operate throughout the body, tending to create constipation, bad breath, headache, dull brain action, nervousness, listlessness and other annoyances.

Avoid harsh cathartics and physic. They give but temporary relief. They often aggravate the real trouble. They are particularly bad for children, delicate or aged persons.

Rexall Orderlies

Come in tablet form, taste just like candy and are noted for their quick, soothing action upon the bowels. They don't purge, grip, cause nausea, or operate, but the friendly laxatives attendant upon the use of purgatives. Their action is pleasant and that the taking of Rexall Orderlies almost becomes a desire in itself of a duty.

Children like Rexall Orderlies. They are ideal for aged or delicate persons as well as for the most robust. They act toward relieving constipation, and also to overcome its cause, and to make unnecessary the frequent use of laxatives. They serve to tone and strengthen the nerves and muscles of the bowels and associated organs or glands.

Make Us Prove It

We guarantee to refund every penny paid us for Rexall Orderlies if they do not give entire satisfaction. We ask no promise and we in no way obligate you. Your mere word is sufficient for us to promptly and cheerfully refund the money.

Don't that prove that Rexall Orderlies must be right? You must know we would not have made such a promise unless we were positively certain that Rexall Orderlies will do all we claim for them. There is no money risk attached to a trial of Rexall Orderlies, and in justice to even old, you should not hesitate to try them.

Rexall Orderlies come in convenient and pocket size tin boxes, 12 tablets, 10c; 30 tablets, 25c; 80 tablets, 50c.

CAUTION: Please bear in mind that Rexall Orderlies are not sold by all drug stores. You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at the Rexall Stores.

One Thing He Knows

Lord Dufferin delivered an address before the Greek class of the McGill University, about which a reporter wrote:

"His lordship spoke to the class in the purest ancient Greek, without mispronouncing a word or making the slightest grammatical solecism."

"Good heavens!" remarked Sir Hector Langevin to the late Sir John A. Macdonald, "how did the reporter know that?"

"I told him," was the Conservative statesman's answer.

"But you don't know Greek."

"True, but I know a little about politics."

Mistaken Reasoning

A country boy came to Pittsburgh for his vacation, and while he was seeing the city he went around in his country togs. As most country boys, he wore his trousers unusually short, far above the ankles.

As he was going along Fifth avenue, some smart street loafers exclaimed: "Oh, you country boy, your pants are not too short, are they?"

The "rube" turned around and with face flushed, answered:

"No, I am only in them too far."

Carrying Out Orders

The other day as my friend Mrs. Lakesharp, sat down to dinner, she said: "Now Bridget bring on the cold mutton."

"There's no cold mutton marm, faith, an' I gave it away; you know you said if any tramps called, I was to give them the 'cold shoulder,' and I did marm."

Mrs. Lakesharp will be more careful in the future when she gives her orders to Bridget.

A Wise Cow

The young woman who manipulates the typewriter keys for a living was spending her vacation in Drumville.

"How savagely that cow looks at me," she remarked to Farmer Cowslip.

"I reckon as how it be on account of that red waist yew've got on, Miss," answered the old fellow.

"Dear me!" exclaimed the key toying maid, "of course it isn't exactly up to date, but I'd no idea a country cow would notice it."

The Salt of the Earth

A newspaper is to be started for circulation in the English prisons. Prison labor is counted on to produce it. But difficulty is sure to arise in regard to the labor supply. It is a well known fact that there are fewer newspapermen go to jail than those of any other calling. This is not a joke, but a piece of actual statistical information.

Safe Identification

A good baby story is told of a neighbor meeting a little one out on the street and saying:

"Good morning my little dear. I never can tell you and your sister apart. Which of the twins are you?" And the little dear made answer: "I'm the one what's out walkin'!"

Classical Music

"And are your daughters musical?" we ask.

"I guess so," he replies, rather sadly. "One of 'em can sing things at the top of her voice so you can't understand a word, and the other can play the piano with her hands crossed."

She Could Understand

Jeanne's face was smeared with jam. Her mother asked:

"What would you think if you saw me look like that?"

"I'd think you'd had an awful good time, just like me."

Quite Right

"What did Noah live on when the flood went away?" asked a Sunday school teacher of her class.

"Dry land," squeaked a little girl, after the others had given it up.

She Knows

"You never thank a man for giving you a seat in a street car?" Not any more," replied Miss Cayenne. "I used to until I noticed that almost invariably he was going to get out at the next corner anyhow."

Willing to Demonstrate

"Tommy," said his distressed mother, "I don't see how you can get so dirty."

"Come on out and I'll show you," was the prompt reply.

How Concrete Work Was Made Easy For You

UNTIL a few years ago farmers considered concrete a rather mysterious material, that could be used successfully only by experts. They knew that upon the quality of the cement depended much of the success of concrete work. They had no means of testing cement, such as big contractors employ, and so could not be sure of its quality.

Yet the farmer needed concrete.

He was kept from using this best and most economical of materials by

1. Lack of knowledge of how to mix and place concrete.
2. Lack of a brand of cement upon the quality of which he could absolutely rely.

Canada Cement

has supplied both these requirements.

We employed men to make a thorough investigation of the farmer's requirements; to find out where and how he could use concrete with profit to himself; to discover all problems he might come across and to solve them. This investigation was expensive. But when it was completed we had the material for our campaign to show the farmer how and where to use concrete, and we printed a book, "What the Farmer Can do With Concrete," for free distribution. That book makes every farmer who reads it a concrete expert, as far as his needs are concerned. He finds that there is nothing mysterious about concrete—that a few simple rules supply all the knowledge required.

At the same time we met the farmers' second objection—inability to test the quality of cement—by producing cement of a quality that does not need to be tested.

The Canada Cement that you buy by the bag is the same Canada Cement that is sold by the train-load for great elevators, buildings and bridges.

If You Want a Kiss, Take It.

There's a jolly Saxon proverb That is pretty much like this: That a man is half in heaven If he has a woman's kiss. There is danger in delaying. For the sweetest may forsake it; So I tell you, hushful lover, If you want a kiss, why, take it.

Never let another fellow Steal a march on you in this; Never let a laughing maiden See you smiling for a kiss. There's a royal way to kissing. And the jolly ones who make it Have a motto to that winning— If you want a kiss, why, take it.

Any fool may have a cannon, Anybody may wear a crown, But a man must win a woman. If he'd have her for his own, Would you have her golden apple, You must find the tree and shake it! If the thing is worth the having, And you want a kiss, why, take it.

Who would burn upon a desert With a frosty smiling lip? Who would change the sunny summer For a bleak and wintry sky? Oh, I tell you there is magic, And you cannot, cannot break it; For the sweetest part of loving Is to want a kiss and take it.

CAUGHT IN HIS OWN TRAP.

Hawkins was strolling through a wood when he came to the rear of a gentleman's country place enclosed by a wall about as high as his chin and stood looking in at an orchard, a flower garden and other nice things that are usually included in a gentleman's country grounds. Edging along where the wall was lower, he found himself opposite the flower garden. Seeing some roses that were very beautiful, he coveted them. He wouldn't steal them, but he thought he had at least the right to sniff their perfume, so he climbed the wall and entered the garden.

There was no one near, and he wandered about, enjoying the beauty and the odor of the flowers, not feeling that he was in any great danger of being caught trespassing. Coming to a conservatory, he entered. The combined warmth and beautiful colors and plant odor were delicious. He walked around one side of an embankment of verdure and was turning when he stood face to face with a girl. She looked very much embarrassed and began to stammer excuses for being there.

"I beg your pardon, sir, but your place—I mean your grounds—are so beautiful that I could not resist the temptation to enter. Then, coming to this conservatory—I love conservatories—I just couldn't help coming in here either."

Hawkins, instead of admitting that he was himself a trespasser, said that the girl was quite excusable and was welcome not only to visit the premises, but to as many flowers as she could carry away. He began to pluck the choicest and to load her down with them.

"These roses," he said, "are my pride. They are a variety I imported from England. But you prefer violets, I presume. You will find them very sweet. Let me give you some hyacinths, too."

And so, going from plant to plant, the scamp continued to bestow upon her flowers that did not belong to him. Too honest to take them himself, he saw no harm in giving them to another whose conscience was perfectly clear at the transition. Since she supposed they were the offering of their owner, all that was necessary to render the freak successful was to get her out before being discovered.

The door at the entrance opened and closed.

Hawkins looked about him. They were at the farther end of the enclosure, and there was no egress there. The girl saw that something had gone wrong and looked at him, agitated.

"Don't be frightened," he said. "Trust to me and back me up in anything that I may say."

"I don't own this greenhouse. I am a trespasser as well as you."

"Heavens! Keep a stiff upper lip. I have been caught in worse traps than this many a time."

The dialogue was brought to an end by approaching footsteps, and a gentleman came to where they were standing, the girl looking very guilty. Hawkins ready for anything.

"Good morning, sir," he said to the gentleman. "You must pardon us, but your beautiful grounds and especially this conservatory have proved too much of a temptation for us, and, being here, the lady was so delighted with your flowers that I had not the heart to see her go away without a few of them."

Now, the real owner took in the situation at once. It happened that he was a bit of a wag himself, and had not the trespassers rattle him might have seen a twinkle in his eye when he said:

"I assure you I have no objection to a lady and gentleman using any part of my grounds provided they have a right to do so in each other's company. I presume you are married?"

The girl turned pale.

"Certainly!" stammered Hawkins.

The gentleman looked dubious. "Do you mean, sir, that this lady is your wife?"

"I do."

"And you, madam, is this gentleman your husband?"

The response was a faint but audible "Yes."

"Then, madam, you are quite welcome to the flowers you have, and I beg you to accept more."

With this he began clipping right and left, loading the flowers upon her. Then he insisted on showing the couple his place and after that invited them into his house, bringing out a decanter of wine and a bit of old cheese with biscuits. Having got Hawkins' name, he kept calling the girl Mrs. Hawkins, and every time he did so she blushed to the roots of her hair. Finally, when they took their departure, he said:

"I am always pleased to have others enjoy my place under proper conditions. If I suspect a couple entering the premises of not being married, I always marry them. Of course it wasn't mercenary in your case, but when you each acknowledged the other before me to be your legal partner that married you."

MR. L. C. PRIME, FORMERLY OF FREEPORT, APPOINTED MANAGER OF TWO COMPANIES.

The L. C. Prime Company, of St. John, have had the agency of the above company for three years, first, only including New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. They were so successful they were afterwards given Nova Scotia and Quebec. Two years ago they were given Canada, and in April, 1912, were given the whole of America. After which, the L. C. Prime Company opened offices at Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Boston, and were very successful in placing large quantities of Molasses Meal at different points.

The chairman, Mr. Benjamin Horton, and the Managing Director, Mr. John Prosser, came out on April 10th, this year, and covered the territory. They were so well satisfied with results that they bought the L. C. Prime Company at a handsome premium, and have formed two companies. The Molasses Company of Canada, with a capital stock of $250,000, and the Molasses Company of America, with a capital stock of $750,000, and have appointed Mr. L. C. Prime, general manager of both.

Mr. Prime was called to England three times in the last six months in reference to this transfer. The new companies propose spending $100,000 in advertising, over $50,000 of which will be spent in Canada, and Mr. Prime writes us, that he will see that the Courier gets its share. He also says, of all the advertising done last year that the Ad in the Digby Courier did the best work of any which appeared in weekly newspapers.

The general manager is a native of Freeport and has certainly had a successful career. He has a host of friends in this Province as well as in New Brunswick, who will be pleased to learn of his rapid promotion and who will join the Courier in wishing him continued prosperity.

Wireless Averted Disaster.

AMERICAN LINER HAVSFORD WENT ON ROCKS IN DENSE FOG NEAR COBK WITH 1,000 PASSENGERS.

QUEENSTOWN, May 29.—The American Line steamer Havsford, which sailed yesterday from Liverpool for Philadelphia, with 131 cabin and 850 steerage passengers aboard, went on the rocks west of Cork's Head this afternoon while feeling her way cautiously in a dense fog.

The wireless aid demonstrated its efficiency. By its aid what might have been a disaster was converted into a mere accident. Within a few minutes the ship was in communication with Queenstown. Her position and needs were explained. First aid in the form of great tugs, which ply between the port and passing liners with passengers and mails, were going to the rescue as fire engines respond to an alarm.

Before dusk all the passengers, with light baggage, had been safely landed in this harbor. The company has arranged to forward them to their destination.

When the last passenger was taken off there was fifteen feet of water in the fore hold of the vessel. Most of them thought that the position of the Havsford was hopeless because of the big hole in the forward compartment. But shipping men are most optimistic, and an attempt will be made by the aid of powerful tugs to tow her off at high tide, which will be at midnight. Pumping and salvage gear are already on the way from Liverpool.

Tablets Unveiled in Halifax

HALIFAX, N. S., May 29.—A tablet was unveiled in the dockyard here today marking the birthplace in 1791 of Admiral Sir Provo Wallis, who on board the Shannon brought the American ship Chesapeake into Halifax harbor, and who lived to be 101 years old. A tablet was unveiled at the same time marking the birthplace of Major General Beckwith, who fought in the Peninsular war and at Waterloo.

Sudden Death at Campbellton

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., May 29.—Campbellton was stirred today when it became known that Mrs. D. F. Graham had died suddenly last night. She had been to a church meeting and on her return complained to a lady friend of feeling weak. She was assisted into her house and medical aid summoned. Restoratives were applied but in vain and she expired within half an hour of the seizure.

Mr. Edw. White, of North Bangor, was a passenger to Annapolis via Wednesday's express.

Hundred and Twenty Persons Perished.

AMERICAN STEAMER SEVADA STRUCK MINES IN THE GULF OF SMYRNA AND FOUNDERED.

SMYRNA, May 24.—The steamer Nevada, with two hundred passengers aboard, struck three mines in succession today in the Gulf of Smyrna and sank. Only eighty of the passengers and crew are reported saved. The mines were strewn in the coast waters by the Turks to prevent an attack by Greek fleets on the coast towns during the Balkan war. The Nevada was owned by the Hadji Daut Co., and ran in the eastern Mediterranean.

The Nevada was leaving the Gulf of Smyrna when a Russian steamer was coming in, and in order to avoid a collision the first named boat left the channel and entered a mine field. The Nevada struck three times and each mine exploded in quick succession. The last was followed by an explosion on the ship which immediately sank.

Of the two hundred passengers on the steamer, eighty were rescued by boats which put off from the French cruiser Thetis, which was anchored in the harbor.

The Nevada, though owned by a Turkish company, was flying the American flag. She belonged to a fleet of eight steamers of which seven were renamed in 1910, and were transferred to the American flag.

The vessels, when flying either the Turkish or American ensign, have been well known as traders in the Aegean Sea and have frequently carried general cargoes for trans-shipment at Austrian ports for the United States and elsewhere.

The cargoes have included dried fruits, tobacco, carpets and other Turkish products.

The Nevada is the second passenger steamer to be sunk by mines in the Gulf of Smyrna within a week, and the fourth vessel to be destroyed in this manner since the Gulf was mined at the outbreak of the Turk-Balkan war. The Texas, a vessel of 480 tons belonging to this fleet was sunk through striking a mine in Smyrna in April a year ago, and the official report of the disaster placed the number of lives lost at 68 out of 130 on board. The majority of the passengers were Armenians and Greek pilgrims returning from Jerusalem to Constantinople.

On Wednesday last the French liner Senegal struck a mine as she was leaving port, and was run ashore by her captain to prevent her foundering. Five persons were killed by the explosion, and six others seriously injured.

In January 1913, the Theodoros, a Turkish sailing vessel of 650 tons, was blown up by coming in contact with a floating mine at the entrance to Smyrna Bay.

Municipal Ownership.

CHEAP ELECTRIC LIGHT IN EDMONTON, ALBERTA.

EDMONTON, Alta., May 28.—Users of electricity for lighting and power purposes will be the first to benefit directly from the municipal ownership of public utilities in Edmonton by a reduction of from 12 to 25 per cent in rates, effective early in June.

A. W. Greshy, superintendent of the department, which has a surplus of more than $100,000, today recommended a cut of 12 per cent in light rates, now eight cents per k. w. h., and 25 per cent reduction in power rates, now four cents, with a sliding scale for manufacturing concerns. The commissioners favor the cut.

The total cost of all the publicly owned utilities in Edmonton was $90,000, last year. The street railway reported a large deficit on account of extraordinary charges and extensions and improvements, but the light and power departments earned more than sufficient to cover the losses. The water department was operated at a profit. The city charges $1 for 25 tickets, good at all hours, with universal transfer; labor tickets, good during certain hours in the morning and evening, eight for 25 cents, and student's tickets, good at all hours, twelve for 25 cents. Twelve million passengers were carried in 1912, as against 1,812,400 in 1909.

Mayor William Short, who is also chairman of the board of city commissioners, said today that reductions will be made in other departments as soon as possible. The street railway showed a slight profit in April, he added, and it is expected that this will be increased with lower power charges. Ten miles of lines will be built and placed in operation during this year.

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

Digby, June 6, 1913

An Important Notice.

Bills are now being mailed to all our advertisers and to all patrons of our job-printing department. We expect payment of these accounts on or before June 15th, as our financial year ends that month and it is important that all accounts be balanced at that time. Subscribers in arrears will also take notice of the date on their address labels and remit promptly, thereby saving trouble and unnecessary expense.

THE WEEKLY HALF HOLIDAY.

The merchants of Digby have decided to close their stores for a half day each week during the summer months, beginning next Thursday. Friday being publication day, the Courier office must remain open Thursdays as usual, but will close Saturday noons during the months of June, July and August.

The banks and law offices will also close Saturdays at noon. Saturday is by far the best day for a half holiday. It works splendidly in St. John and all other cities and towns in which it has been tried and will eventually become popular in Digby. We understand that several of the fish firms in Digby have the Saturday half holiday under consideration which would certainly be greatly appreciated by their large number of employees.

Factories, blacksmith shops, machine shops and carpenters' and builders are closing work Saturday noons in every town in the United States and in most towns in Canada. Why not in Digby?

The following is a copy of the merchants' agreement handed us for publication:

We the undersigned merchants of the town of Digby hereby agree to close our respective places of business on Thursday afternoons at one o'clock and to keep the same closed for the remainder of the day during the months of June, July and August in order to afford a half holiday to all interested parties.

A Good Record.

S. S. YARMOUTH, CAPT. McDONALD MISSED ONE TRIP IN EIGHT MONTHS.

S. S. Yarmouth, under command of Capt. Andrew MacDonald, began the winter daily service across the Bay Fundy between Digby and St. John, October 18th, 1912, and was taken off the route yesterday June 5th, during which time she missed but one trip. This is certainly a good record considering the rough winter and the reputation that the Bay Fundy holds for being the roughest sheet of water for its size in the world, caused by its tremendous tides. Capt. MacDonald has handled his ship in an excellent manner. He attends strictly to business, and is also popular with all who know him.

The S. S. Prince Rupert, which has been to Boston to have her bottom cleaned and painted, is expected to arrive here today in charge of her faithful and popular commander, Capt. Amos Potter.

The Yarmouth goes to Yarmouth for a new unoke stack and a general overhauling after which she will probably, together with the Rupert, perform a double daily service across the Bay between Digby and St. John the same as last season.

Fatal Accident at Yarmouth.

A telephone message Tuesday evening announced the death of Mr. Theophilus Muise, proprietor of the Central House, Yarmouth. It appears that Mr. Muise, who was about 60 years of age, was on his roof painting when in some way he slipped and fell to the ground below, causing fatal injuries from which he died about five o'clock Tuesday afternoon. He leaves a wife and three daughters. He is also survived by two sisters and six brothers, among whom are Mr. C. W. Muise, of Digby, and Mr. J. C. Muise, of Weymouth. The funeral takes place tomorrow with interment in the Roman Catholic cemetery. Mr. Muise leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to whom great sympathy is extended in their sudden bereavement.

The Bay Service.

St. John Telegraph: It is expected that within the next few days the steamer Prince Rupert will be placed on the St. John-Digby route. H. C. Grout, acting superintendent of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., said yesterday that he had heard of no new arrangements for the Bay service and he understood that the same steamers as last year would be in commission. When the traffic warranted last year two steamers, the Rupert and the Yarmouth, were run, making two trips daily. There was some talk of a boat being secured from England, but Mr. Grout said that nothing would be done in this connection this year.

D. A. R. Trains Delayed.

Owing to the condition of a bridge under construction, on the D. A. R. division of the C. P. R., just west of Saultville station, Wednesday's express were unable to pass. A special conveyed the mail and passengers to Digby, which allowed the S. S. Yarmouth to sail for St. John about five o'clock. The west bound express returned to Halifax, passing through Digby at 8:30. The same thing occurred yesterday.

Monday's express from Halifax was several hours late at Digby owing to a washout near Hantsport.

At the regular meeting of Companion Court Ivanhoe, No. 301, at Tiverton, Wednesday evening, May 28th, a very nice treat of pie, ice cream, cake and cocoa was served by the Companions. After the business of the Court was attended to, the remainder of the evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music, recitations and games.

Comp. Court Ivanhoe, like many other things, has seen its dark days but we are pleased to say, that Ivanhoe looks brighter today than ever, since it was first organized.

At The Bijou Dream.

"THE COUNTY SHIRREFF" PLAYED AT A SMALL HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS TOMORROW NIGHT.

Last Saturday night the Bijou Dream had a big house. The six reel show together with Miss O'Connor's music was considered the best motion picture entertainment ever given in Digby. Monday and Tuesday night's shows were also good.

The "County Sheriff" drew a small audience Wednesday evening. It is a Western play and all right for those who prefer a show of that kind.

Last night's pictures were also far above the average, but tonight and tomorrow night Manager Cripps will give the public something extra. "The Last Blockhouse" Saturday night should be seen by everybody.

A party of western pioneers, while constructing a blockhouse, are guarded by a troop under Captain Steele. Crow, a renegade half-breed, tries to become friendly. He annoys Dot, the wife of Jim, a young settler, and is quickly repulsed.

Crow, infuriated at her scorn, incites the Indians to attack the settlers. The blockhouse is destroyed. Crow captures Dot before the attack and tries to force her to marry him.

Jack, the sole survivor, manages to reach the young husband, who is away in the woods, while Jim and Captain Steele recapture Dot from the Indians and in a hand to hand struggle with Crow, Jim avenges the fate of the pioneers.

S., Nova, Anthony, Bear River, for Boston.

Amherst Notice: Lobster packers along the north shore have had a very unfortunate season and although the season will run for over a month yet the catch has been so discouraging many of the packers have already closed their establishments and many of them will be heavy losers by the operations this year. There is considerable money invested in fishing factories along the shore from Tadoussac to Miramichi and it is doubtful if a single establishment will show a profit this year. The Marine and Fishery Department should institute an inquiry to see if some action could not be taken to conserve this important industry.

The Victoria Rink.

The Victoria Rink at the south end of Queen street, did a good business on the King's Birthday. Both afternoon and evening. One of the attractions was the Annapolis Royal Band which arrived here via tug Moto during the afternoon, returning about 11 o'clock in the evening. Four hundred people were present at the rink, two hundred of whom were skating during the evening.

Mr. Walker, skater, who is a local name, it was said, that he only had skates enough for two hundred while many were disappointed who wished to skate. He says that this will not occur again as he has ordered another hundred pairs to be here in a few days. The band rendered good music, notwithstanding their rough trip down the Annapolis river during the fresh south west breeze.

A Good Opportunity For Recruits.

Dropped Dead in Church.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 1.—Colonel Charles Williamson, aged 63, a retired army officer, dropped dead during the service in All Saint's Cathedral this evening. Twelve years ago he was the commander of the Royal Engineers on this station. He only recently arrived here to spend the summer with friends. Many in the congregation did not know that he had been overcome by death until Canon Lloyd, who was conducting the service, made the sad announcement. Heart disease was the cause. He leaves a widow.

Horrible Death.

CALAB, Mo., June 3.—A seventeen-year-old lad named Earl Stuart, supposed to belong to St. George, met a horrible death in a saw mill at Woodville this morning. He was putting a bolt on a pulley when his clothing caught and he was whirled round the rapidly revolving shaft, his head, arms and legs being torn from the body. This makes the second fatal accident in this mill within two weeks.

The worst gale for years for the season, occurred Thursday night, the 30th ult. It had rained by torrents all day, when about 9 o'clock Thursday night it began to blow, increasing to the velocity of a gale. The schr. Louise A. Capt. LeBlanc, of Wedgeport, Yarmouth Co., from Meteghan River with a cargo of building material for the church at Wedgeport was lying at anchor not far from the breakwater. In the height of the storm she parted her chains and began drifting shoreward. When she struck the bottom the crew made for the boat and after much difficulty managed to get ashore. In the morning the schr. was on the beach. Her cargo was discharged and Monday evening, 2nd inst., she was towed to the wharf. She is but slightly damaged and will be soon ready for sea again. Mr. Philomen Doucet, of Maville, had also a narrow escape. He was off Trinity Ledge when the storm broke out. He was obliged to face the fury of the gale the whole night and only landed at Meteghan River the next morning at ten o'clock. The lobster fishermen have also suffered greatly all along the coast.

A Woman's Sympathy

Are you discouraged? Is your doctor's bill a heavy financial load? Is your pain a heavy physical burden? I know what these mean to delicate women. I have been discouraged, too, but learned how to cure myself. I want to relieve your burdens. Why not end the pain and stop the doctor's bill? I can do this for you and will if you will need me.

All you need do is to write for a free box of the remedy which has been placed in my hands to be given away. Perhaps this one box will cure you—it has done so for others. If so, I shall be happy and you will be cured for 20 (the cost of a postage stamp). Your letters held confidentially. Write to-day for my free treatment. MRS. F. B. CURRIE, Windsor, Ont.

Safe on Stranded Ship.

THE BRIDGEWATER REACHED THE GERALD TURNBULL AND SUCCEEDED THE MEN ON ABOARD.

YARMOUTH, June 1.—The Halifax men who were in such deadly peril on the stranded steamer Gerald Turnbull, are safe. This was the news taken Yarmouth yesterday by a tug boat. Early on Saturday morning the men called a gasoline boat alongside and requested it to take a message to Yarmouth, asking for a tugboat to take them off "for God's sake." The boat started for Yarmouth, but met the Bridgewater, delivered her message and then bore away for Deep Cove. It was from Deep Cove that the news arrived by one of the tugs engaged in picking up lobsters.

The schooners Nelson A. and Louis P., reported in danger at Shag Harbor, have dragged ashore at Emerald Island. As they are on a muddy bottom it is not likely that they are seriously damaged. The gale played havoc with the lobster fishermen and with the mackerel traps. At Green Island there is a small colony of fishermen and of their fleet of nine motor boats, all were lost but two, and of the dozens of crates of live lobsters on hand awaiting a smacker, only two were saved.

The same story comes from all points of the coast except Taskin islands, where the boats and gear were better protected. All the mackerel traps on the Yarmouth county shore were destroyed. It is understood that the Bridgewater is still continuing salvage operations on the Turnbull.

Church Celebration at Salmon River.

Owing to the drenching rainstorm on Sunday, May 25th, the celebration of the festival of Corpus Christi at the church of St. Vincent de Paul at Salmon River, Digby Co., was postponed until last Sunday. The weather was fine and there was a large gathering, eight or nine autos, hackboards, and other conveyances lining both sides of the road for a long distance.

The church edifice was gaily dressed with flags and flowers, and a handsome string of flags spanned the main highway. An artistic scheme had been erected a short distance from the church, the Blessed Sacrament was celebrated with the strewing of the pathway with flowers by little girls dressed in white, the firing of guns and chanting of the professional and other portions of the service. They then repaired to the new church (which is as yet not wholly finished), where the remainder of the imposing ceremonies was completed.

Rev. Mr. Bracy, the indefatigable priest of the parish, has done a noble work in reconstructing the new church of St. Vincent de Paul upon the walls of the first edifice, and is to be congratulated upon the success of his mission in this parish.

Death of Rev. J. W. Bancroft.

The death occurred on Friday morning at the parsonage, Pleasant Valley, Yarmouth county, of Rev. J. W. Bancroft. Mr. Bancroft had been for three years pastor of the United Baptist churches on the Deerfield-Pleasant Valley circuit. Two weeks ago he left to take charge of the churches at Weymouth and New Tuscot, and after spending but one Sunday in his new field, he contracted pneumonia, which terminated fatally.

James William Bancroft was born at Paradise, N. S., Aug. 11, 1841. He graduated from Acadia College in 1871, and Newton Theological Institution in 1874. He was ordained at Windsor, N. S., April 17th, 1875. He held the following pastorates: Windsor, 1875-76; Weymouth, 1876-78; North Sydney, 1878-80; Springhill, 1880-1901; St. Mary's Bay, 1901-08; H. H. Grove, 1908-09; Pleasant Valley, 1910-13.

Rev. Mr. Bancroft, although nearly 60 years of age, was of a strong physique, and was still seemingly in the prime of life. He leaves a widow and eight children to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and a loving father.

Interment took place at Round Hill, Annapolis county, on Monday.

Throne For Teddy.

VIENNA, May 30.—Great difficulty is being experienced in finding an occupant for the Throne of the new Kingdom of Albania, which is being created out of territory won by the Balkan league from Turkey.

The Italian Government today dodged formal objections against the Duke of Uchac, extinguishing his kingly hopes, just as it had put the question on the Royal ambitions of the Duke of Montenegro several weeks ago.

Although the proposition that the throne be offered to Theodore Roosevelt was made in just recently, some of the European newspapers have begun to consider it seriously.

Fire in Windsor.

WINDSOR, Saturday, May 31.—Fire broke out this morning in the building occupied by George Boyce, lumber dealer and the place was destroyed, but the efficient work of Chief Dore and his men prevented its spreading.

The building was on the government wharf and the blaze illuminated the whole waterfront. There was much alarm, and a big crowd of people turned out to be ready for any emergency.

The loss will be $800, partially covered by insurance.

The Boston Service.

The four trips a week service will be kept this year with the steamer Prince Arthur leaving Boston on Friday, June 6th, after calling at Portland. The daily trips will begin on Sunday, June 23rd, when the steamers North Star and Prince Arthur will perform the service.

The Boston line will lay off for repairs and overhauling and will serve as a spare boat if necessary.

Fire in Amherst.

ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT AND OTHER BUILDINGS DESTROYED.

AMHERST, N. S., June 2.—At 1:30 this morning one of the most spectacular and disastrous fires that has occurred in Amherst for some time broke out in an unoccupied building formerly owned by the Maritime Coal, Railway & Power Company on Electric street. This is totally destroyed and the electric light station is a total wreck. The fire spread to the large Glen boarding house, known as the Holmes property. This, however, was got under control without much damage. Other buildings on the other side of Church and Electric streets also caught fire.

Another fire broke out on the roof of the Victor bakery on Hatchford street, a long distance from the fire, caused by sparks.

At one time it looked as if the whole business section between Havelock and Church streets of the town was in danger but the almost miraculous efforts of the firemen and the splendid supply of water kept it confined to this section.

The loss will be over $250,000.

Fortunate is the Eastern Car Co.

In having as directors the same men who form the Executive Committee of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company—thus being under the experienced guidance of those who have made such a success of that big parent industry.

In having as location for its plant an ideal site at tidewater, adjoining the Trenton works of the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company—thus being afforded unexcelled facilities for obtaining raw material and shipping the finished product.

In having a large market for its output at good prices because of the rapid and continuous expansion of Canadian railways—thus being assured satisfactory profits.

In having an initial order from the Grand Trunk Railway for 2,000 steel cars—thus being provided with ample business on hand when the plant is ready to ship cars in August.

Why She Couldn't.

A little girl of seven or eight stood before a closed gate.
A gentleman passed slowly. The little girl turned and said to him: 'Will you please open this gate for me?'
The gentleman did so. Then he said kindly: 'Why, my child, couldn't you open the gate yourself?'
'Because,' said the little girl, 'the paint's not dry yet.'
And he looked at his hands and believed her.

Artificial Rubber.

A factory to produce artificial rubber has been established at Ymuiden, Holland. The process is a secret, but the principal ingredient of the product is said to be fresh sea fish, which are brought to Ymuiden in vast quantities by the Dutch fishing fleets. To the fish is added 15 or 16 per cent. of natural rubber and the result is a substance as flexible as rubber and much cheaper.

Mother's Little Comfort.

One day, while carressing her little three-year-old daughter, a mother called her 'My little comfort.' A few evenings later, when callers were present, she gathered the little one up in her arms, but without further attention. Presently, feeling neglected, she looked up into her mother's face and asked: 'Mamma, is I your little blanket?'

Pathetic Ignorance.

Teacher—What days of the year are most dear to you? You may answer, Willie.
Willie—Christmas and April 10.
Teacher—April 10! Why what happens then?
Willie—Gee, don't you know that's the day the baseball season opens?

The Patient Waiter.

'Is any one waiting on you?' finally asked the haughty saleslady, condescending at last to notice the shopping person.
'I'm afraid not,' replied the latter, 'my husband was—I left him outside—but I'm afraid he's become disgusted and gone home.'

Giving Beauty Hints.

'So you want your daughter to be a great opera singer?'
'Yes,' replied the alert mother. 'I don't care so very much for opera singing. But if she gets a reputation in that line she can make all kinds of money publishing instructions on how to be beautiful.'

Usually the Case.

Teacher—Well, Tommy, can you tell me the meaning of 'repent'?'
Tommy—I don't know sir.
Teacher—Well, suppose I stole a purse and got locked up, wouldn't I repent?
Tommy—No, sir; you'd be sorry they caught you.

A Limited Habit.

I see that some of our scientists claim that death is largely a matter of habit, depending upon thought and all that, he said.
'Nonsense!' she replied. 'Did you ever know any one who was in the habit of dying?'

To Inquisitive.

Mamma (after her youngest's first day at school)—Now, Fritz, what did you do in school, today?
Fritz—Well, such curious people. First the teacher asks me what we did at home, and now you come and ask me what we have done in school!

Had Poor Taste.

'That's a valuable dog of yours.'
'Yes,' but he doesn't know he's a valuable dog. Look at him, will you, scratching up yonder in that cheap dirt, when he might as well be up the boulevard scratching in ground worth $500 a front foot!

Lost and Found.

The ferryman whilst plying over a water which was only slightly agitated, was asked by a timid lady in his boat whether any persons were ever lost in that river. 'Oh, no,' said he, 'we always find 'em agin,' the next day.'

—This is the time of the year when the old hen never fails to get into your neighbor's garden. You know the result. One good scratching hen can in five minutes scratch up all the friendship that has been growing for many years between neighbors. Keep her at home or cut her head off.

Before and After.

'Bobby, you have been fighting with that Stapleford boy again. Did you count 10 before you struck him, as I have always told you to do?'
'No, but I was told that somebody counted 10 after he landed on me.'

—The prosperity of a town depends chiefly upon the confidence the people have in it. No town can prosper whose citizens are untrue to it. If you cannot speak a good word for your home town and your home business men, then 'silence is golden.'

Nothing to Brag About.

'I never hear you bragging about your ancestors.'
'No. They all had to work for a living, too.'

HERE IS GOOD ADVICE TO TAKE

It will help those who have Kidney and Bladder Trouble. There are other "old remedies" similar to the one mentioned in this testimonial. Kidney and Bladder Trouble are always enemies to good health. As soon as you start to take GIN PILLS these ailments begin to disappear. It is the same in cases of Lumbago, Sciatica and like complaints. This letter illustrates the benefit of GIN PILLS.

Winnipeg, Jan. 6th.
'I have been suffering from Lumbago for some years past and during Christmas week had a very acute attack which confined me to the house. About the latter part of April, I met your Mr. Hill and mentioned my complaint to him. He advised me to take GIN PILLS. I have been taking them at intervals during the early part of the present winter, and up to date have had no return of my old trouble—in fact, I feel better than I have for years and think that my old enemy has vanished for good and all.' CRITICAL TIME OF WOMAN'S LIFE

From 40 to 50 Years of Age. How It May Be Passed in Safety.

So, Wellington, B.C.—"For a year during the Change of Life I was all run down. I was really too weak to walk and was very despondent and thought I was going to die, but after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier my health and strength returned. I am very thankful to you and praise your medicine. I have advised several women who suffered as I did to try your remedies. You may publish this if you wish." Mrs. DAVID R. MORRIS, South Wellington, Vancouver Island, B.C.

No other medicine for women's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills such as inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains and nervous prostration, and we believe it is unequalled for women during the period of change of life.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

It Can Be Done.

Somebody said it couldn't be done. But he, with a chuckle, replied, "That 'may be' couldn't," but he would be one. So he buckled right in, with the trace of a grin on his face. If he worried, he hid it. He started to sing as he tackled the thing that couldn't be done—and he did it. Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that—at least, no one ever has done it." But he took off his coat, and he took off his hat. And the first we knew he'd begun it. With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin. Without any doubting or quailing. He started to sing as he tackled the thing that couldn't be done—and he did it. There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done. There are thousands to prophesy failure. There are thousands to point out to you one by one. The dangers that wait to assail you. But just buckle in with a bit of a grin. Then take off your coat and go to it. Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing that "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

Would Be Difficult.

Little Barbara's mother had been very ill, and one day, when she was convalescing, she was talking to the little girl. "Barbara, darling, what would you have done if mother had died?" Barbara, who was too young to realize the gravity of the situation, was silent for a moment and then said: "Well, I s'pose, mother, I'd have to spank myself."

MISS SALLY'S SACRIFICE.

It wasn't only one. It was really a series that began soon after her father's death, when Miss Sally Beales, then a rosy girl of 19, was called home from boarding school to nurse her mother. Mrs. Beales had, in fact, collapsed on returning from her husband's funeral. The collapse was the more trying to the neighbors, as they believed her to have hastened the poor man's demise by a steady course of henpeckery for twenty years.

As the temper was large and the family was small, each member received a generous share. Mrs. Beales despised men in general; her husband in particular. She bent all her energies to the task of making him realize what a poor thing he was; but before she had accomplished much he took a mean advantage and died one morning when her back was turned.

Deprived of her one interest in life, she took to her bed. The large, high ceiling room was darkened, steps crossed the floor apologetically, and voices were hushed.

Mrs. Beales, propped up by pillows in the huge four poster, whose linen was redolent of lavender, sipped languidly concoctions prepared by Sally's hand and enjoyed the importance that accrued from some mysterious disease.

Miss Sally was invited to join the Emerson Club. The invitation, regarded by Mrs. Beales as a tardy recognition of her own worth, was accepted; and thereafter, once in two weeks, Miss Sally had an evening out while a friend sat with the invalid. It was not safe for her to be alone. The diagnosis so long accepted was wrong; Mrs. Beales had heart disease, complicated by a temper that had never been controlled.

Late at night, when her mother was finally settled for a few hours, or very early in the morning, before her mother stirred, Miss Sally pored over encyclopedias, preparing the papers she was later to read in some faculty front parlor before the Emerson Club. When she was appointed chairman of the programme committee, Miss Sally Beales prayed for humility.

It was three years after this that Prof. Leonidas Peckham came to Woodbridge to fill a vacancy in the Latin department. The university professors were always Emersonians, and as a matter of course the new comer—a shy, grave bachelor of 15—was taken to the first meeting of the club after his arrival. There, shrinking in a corner of President Templeton's best haircloth sofa, gathering courage to read before an unusually large audience her manuscript on "Literary Landmarks of Boston," sat Miss Sally with a pretty flush of excitement on her dimpled cheeks.

It was love at first sight between the two. Before the couple realized to what shoals their path was trending, and without Mrs. Beales' suspecting the existence of Leonidas, that gentleman and scholar was "keeping company" with Miss Sally under the approving eyes of the Emerson Club.

But the most approving eyes are at times intrusive, and one evening in May, when a symposium, "The Middle Ages; the Passage from Feudalism to Democracy," was scheduled for the club, the pair played truant and sought a short cut to the lake. Here, in a rowboat, under the light of the incursive moon, they planned out their own middle-aged passage from single blessedness to the united state.

In happy tremulousness Miss Sally stipulated that the engagement should be kept secret for the present, until (her happy tremulousness was interrupted by apprehensive thrills) her mother grew resigned to the inevitable. Miss Sally dimly remembered what Mrs. Beales was like when there was a man in the family, and she felt in honor bound to explain to the professor that his prospective mother-in-law was difficult.

The difficulty was momentarily swept away by his saying: "Bless you, I'll attend to that. You've been sacrificed far too long. I'm going to take care of you now. Just let yourself be happy dear."

In the sweetness of that moment, Miss Sally was repaid for all the long, starved years.

Why not write a letter and send it to her mother through the mail, so that it would reach her by the afternoon delivery, when she had the best moments of the day?

The more she thought of this the wiser it seemed, and she started at once to compose the letter.

The first sight of Mrs. Beales took away all Miss Sally's courage and smote her with reproach. The invalid had not slept all night, she said, because of Sally's conduct in absconding herself so long from home. In alarm the daughter sent for the physician. He administered sedatives and warned Miss Sally not to cross her mother in anything.

must give up the Emerson Club as well, she said, and begged him not to make things harder by trying to see her again. In conclusion she asked his forgiveness that she had not known before how unalterable were the conditions of her life.

This note Miss Sally, while Miss Beales still slept, mailed in the box across the street. When Mrs. Beales awakened she was in a gentler mood, so gentle that Miss Sally feared that she was worse. The doctor, however, in his evening call pronounced her much improved. Finally Miss Sally told her mother of her decision to give up the Emerson Club.

Mrs. Beales looked hard at the figures by the bed; looked with eyes that seemed to see for the first time. "You've been a good daughter, Sally. I hope life will be easier for you some day. I'm an old woman now and can't last many years. If it weren't for leaving you alone, I'd be ready to go any time."

But the daughter would hear no more of that. All the evening she was sustained by her mother's unwonted gentleness, and by the ecstasy of her own renunciation; but next morning there remained only the oppression of the sorrow she had slept on.

As she opened her eyes the hands of her watch pointed to 9.30 o'clock. Why had the sick room bell failed to awaken her? Pumbling with her garments and stumbling on the stairs, she hastened to her mother's room.

On the threshold she paused bracing herself to meet the reproach that invariably greeted her when she was late. Noiselessly opening the door she entered the room. All was silent.

Mrs. Beales usually awakened very early, but this morning she must have dozed again. The window shades were down and Miss Sally raised them cautiously that she might not rouse the slumberer. The springs of the shade nearest the bed, however, were new and, released by her light touch, the shade shot to the window top with a loud sound.

Miss Sally turned with murmured apology to the figure in the bed. It lay motionless. Miss Sally drew nearer, and the wide open eyes met hers with a steady gaze. Terrified, she sank beside the bed.

"Mother!" she cried.

On the tumult of her thoughts the doorbell rang. As in a dream she went to answer it. Slowly she made out Prof. Peckham, and her own hand writing on the envelope he carried in his hand.

"I have much to say to you, but I must see your mother first."

Miss Sally only stared at him.

"What is it he asked, his tones harsh with anxiety. 'What makes you look like that?'"

It seemed hours before she spoke, and then her voice sounded very far away.

"Mother is dead," she said.

Automobile Accident.

MONTREAL, May 20.—Four persons were injured, one perhaps fatally, in a collision between an automobile, belonging to Eudor Brusette, who was riding in the car at the time, and one of the big construction cars of the street railway, at St. Lawrence street and Laurier Avenue this morning. The street car hurled the automobile twenty feet through the air against the stone wall of the police station at the corner, completely wrecking the car and smashing the windows of the station.

The women occupants of the machine were Miss Victoria Choinard and her sister, Leonie. They were taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital. Antoine Lacette, the chauffeur and the owner, Mr. Brusette, and the other occupants, were taken to the Notre Dame Hospital.

At the Royal Victoria it was found that Miss Leonie Choinard had sustained a broken leg, while her sister escaped practically uninjured. The chauffeur received very severe internal injuries, and the doctors at the hospital declared that he may not recover. Mr. Brusette was very badly hurt about the head and shoulder.

Chemist "Perfumery! Yes, madam. How would you like our bouquet de Gasoline, which will give every one the impression that you own a motor car? Customer.—Oh, that's an old scent. Haven't you anything that smells like an aeroplane?"

Bulgar and Greek.

SALONIKA, June 1.—Although Greek headquarters have strictly enjoined all commanders to avoid engagements, the Bulgarians are trying to push back the Greek forces, and several encounters have ensued. The Greek minister at Sofia has been ordered to enter a protest and to inform the Bulgarian government that the Greek government declines responsibility for the results of Bulgarian provocation.

The Greek minister at Belgrade, the Serbian minister at Athens and several Serbian officers have held a long conference here with M. Venizelos, the Greek premier. The Serbians are concentrating a large force at Piro, ten miles from the Bulgarian frontier, and fifty miles from Sofia.

Sofia, June 1.—The Bulgarian and Serbian premier met on the frontier tonight, and hopes are entertained that they will be able to reach a settlement on the questions in dispute between the two countries.

An Insect Injurious to Cattle Raising.

Cattle raisers in almost all parts of Canada are familiar with the small lumps that appear on the backs of their animals during the winter months and from which white grubs or maggots emerge at a later date. Many theories exist as to the exact life history of the insect, known as the Warble Fly, of which the white grub is the larva. The opinion generally held that the eggs are laid on the backs of the cattle and when hatched work their way beneath the skin, is proved by careful investigation to be incorrect. Mr. Seymour Hadwin, 1st Assistant Pathologist of the Health of Animals Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, who has studied the subject, claims that the eggs are not laid on the back but on the legs of the cattle. This appears to bear out the theory that the newly hatched insects are licked by the animals and thus taken into the system and ultimately find their way to the backs where they develop beneath the skin.

The matter of chief importance to the cattle raiser is not the exact course taken by the insect within the body of the cattle beast but rather the economic effect of the grubs upon the business of cattle raising. To throw light on this phase of the subject, Dr. Hadwin has written a bulletin, which is numbered 16 of the Health of Animals Branch, dealing with the economic aspect of warble flies. In this it is shown that enormous losses occur each year through damage to hides caused by these insects. Tanners consulted on the subject claim that during the "grubby season," extending from January to July, from 25 to 75 per cent of hides are warbled and that about 20 per cent of Canadian hides are more or less damaged. The extent of damage is variously estimated by 16 large tanners to be from about 50 cents to $1.00 per hide; the estimates of one Ontario tanner was 10 per cent which is equal to $180,000 per annum. The author observes that the man who undoubtedly loses is the farmer; the tanner does not want warbled hides at any price and several of them testify that they buy hides only during the season when hides are not grubby. He estimates the annual loss to be between 25 and 30 per cent.

This bulletin of twenty pages, which is the first to have been issued on the subject in Canada, is helpfully illustrated. Copies will be mailed in response to applications made for it to the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

Friedmann's Cure Said to Be Failure.

NEW YORK BOARD OF HEALTH SAYS TUBERCULOSIS "REMEDY" HAS NOT FULFILLED PROMISES MADE.

MONTREAL, May 20.—Papino Marlowe, a fifteen-month-old child, is dead after being treated by Dr. Friedmann's "tubercle serum" and several other Montreal patients of the famous Berlin scientist, whose treatment has been heralded as the long looked for consumption cure, are in a more serious condition than they were before the serum was administered. Dr. Eugene Rivest, medical director of the Huchon Institute, made this statement today.

New York, May 20.—A Board of Health resolution passed today refers to the Friedmann "cure" as follows: "Certain tests of the efficiency and safety of an alleged cure for tuberculosis now being made in this city are being rendered unsatisfactory, unscientific and practically futile through the instance of the originator of the alleged remedy, and conditions which involve inadequate observation, inaccurate methods of administration and the insistence of secrecy regarding the substances employed in some phases of the treatment. Evidence is already at hand to show that the so-called remedy not only does not fulfill the promises of efficiency and safety under which it was at first put on the market in this city, but on the contrary, during its administration many patients have suffered serious and unduly rapid progress of their disease."

Editor Fined Six Cents.

ROOSEVELT SATISFIED WITH EDITOR'S RETRACTION AND PAYS HIS OWN COSTS.

MARQUETTE, MICH., May 31.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt won his libel suit against George A. Newell, who charged the colonel with drunkenness, and having waived damages after the defendant had uttered a retraction was awarded the nominal damages of six cents provided in such cases by the laws of Michigan. Each party to the suit will have to pay his own expenses. Judge Flinnigan instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for the plaintiff, which they did without leaving their seats. The colonel left for Chicago, and the east at 5.30 o'clock this evening, less than two hours after the conclusion of the suit.

DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER
Digby, June 13 1913

Western Nova Scotia Yacht Club.
REGULAR JUNE MEETING LARGELY ATTENDED AND A BIG INTEREST SHOWN IN AQUATIC SPORTS.

The regular June meeting of the Western Nova Scotia Yacht Club, held in their rooms Monday evening, was largely attended and a great interest was shown in aquatic sports for the coming season.
A series of races for the sailing dories belonging to the club will commence on the second Saturday in July at 2:30 p. m. and continue every Saturday afternoon until the last Saturday in August.
Mr. Frank L. Anderson reported that the members, whom he had already called on, had contributed liberally toward a trophy for power boat racing in the club. The Commodore and Mr. O. A. Lindstrom were appointed a committee to purchase a suitable cup for this event.
A committee was appointed to arrange for a banquet at the Queen Hotel in Annapolis for the evening of July 21st where the officers and members of the Club will be entertained on their annual cruise to Bridgetown.
Reference was also made to the Club's cruise to Goat Island which takes place Dominion Day, July 1st, and to the Clementsport cruise which takes place in August.
A committee was appointed to make arrangements for a ladies' day during which a short cruise will be held some Thursday afternoon when the lady friends of the officers and members will be invited.
Eight new members were added to the Club Monday night and Maj. D. I. v was elected an honorary member.
A lot of correspondence was read. The Club has received invitations to use the Club house and landings of nearby every important club in the United States and Canada.
All the bills which had been received by the Club were read and ordered to be paid and we are pleased to state that there is sufficient funds in the treasury to pay them all.
One of the features of the evening was an address from Mayor Short, who in a charming and interesting manner, congratulated the officers, committee and members generally on the appearance of the rooms and entire club property and at the same time explaining the great benefits of a yacht club in any summer resort, referring to the large amount of advertising Digby has already received directly through the club and the attractive appearance which the boats give the harbor by day and by their anchor lights at night. These remarks were received with great applause.
After a number of others had been called on the meeting adjourned at a late hour.

Good Thing for the Farmers
A LARGE NUMBER VISITED THE GOVERNMENT CAR AT DIGBY

Quite a crowd of farmers visited the Dominion Government Department of Agriculture Sheep Extension Car at Digby last Saturday, and listened with great interest to the talks and demonstrations along lines of sheep husbandry by Mr. James A. Teller, who has charge of this important work. Inside, the car is especially fitted with the proper equipment for sheep husbandry. Among other things, Mr. Teller illustrated the rolling of the fleece for market, also the dipping process, so much required for vermin or parasites. Dipping is compulsory in nearly every sheep raising country. This is the first trip of the sheep extension car and the first time it has been extended in Canada. It is certainly appreciated by the farmers and the Department of Agriculture deserves a lot of credit for developing the sheep industry in this manner.
Further help along this line can be obtained by writing Mr. James A. Teller to his home address in Moncton, N. B., and we can assure our readers he will be only too pleased to help them. The car left here Monday afternoon for Yarmouth attached to the regular D. A. R. express. Mr. Teller will call at various places in Nova Scotia and then return to New Brunswick to visit the sheep-raising districts in that province.

Donald Tidd Injured.

Donald Tidd, of White Cove, fell on an oil feeder on board the gasoline fishing boat Ethel Maude yesterday morning, while in the joggins for bait, the spot penetrating his left side. He was landed at the government pier and rapidly conveyed to Dr. Read's office where his wound was attended. He suffered considerably, but we trust will be favored with a speedy recovery.

The South Lawn Tennis & Quiet Club

The South End Lawn Tennis and Quiet club formally opened their grounds for the season on Saturday afternoon, when Dr. Read, the President, after a neat speech said: "I declare these courts open for play during the summer of 1913," and then tossed the balls over each net in the presence of a large and fashionable gathering of members, after which several rounds in the game of tennis while others pitched quarts or played reggie. At five o'clock a delicious tea was served by the ladies of the club, and the gathering broke up about six-thirty, just as a shower of rain came down, after spending what was voted by all a very delightful afternoon. The next ball will take place Thursday, June 19th, that being the regular weekly ball holiday in Digby during the summer.
The membership, which is 75, is now up to the limit, and several new applications are in which will have to be declined for want of room.
Among the ladies and gentlemen are to be seen every day the players, and it is hoped tournaments will be arranged between Annapolis, Bear River, Bridgetown, Middleton and Weymouth in the near future.

The Half Holiday.

The series of half holidays commenced yesterday and was certainly thoroughly observed. As next as we could learn every place of business mentioned in the agreement was closed, not with the blinds down and the front door open, the same as Victoria Day, but closed with the doors locked. There were no special attractions in town yesterday to keep the people at home, but these will follow later. The business portion of the town had the appearance of a Sunday. We think that most of the merchants and clerks spent the afternoon at their homes or out of town.

Supreme Court.

The regular June term of the Supreme Court began in Digby this week, Judge Hinch presiding. Only one case has been taken for trial, John B. McNeill vs. H. T. Varne and H. H. Marshall; Jones for plaintiff and Rescove for defendants.

Lipton Picks Amateur.

W. P. BURTON TO HAVE COMMAND OF SHAMROCK IV IN RACE FOR AMERICA CUP.

LONDON, June 7.—"In entrusting the command of Shamrock IV, in the races for America's cup to an amateur yachtsman, W. P. Burton, I am aware I am doing something unprecedented," said Sir Thomas Lipton today, in an interview, "but I believe the results will fully justify the wisdom of my choice."

"I regard Burton fully the equal of any professional skipper in this country, the proof of which he repeatedly has given while sailing against them in the various yachts he has owned, notably with the nineteen metre Octavia in 1911, when he finished the season at the top of the class."

"Of course," Sir Thomas pointed out, "Burton will have the benefit of a professional skipper throughout the races—two if he wants them—and Nicholson, the Shamrock's designer, himself in the front rank of amateur yachtsmen, will also sail on the challenger. Nicholson shares my high opinion of Burton."

"So far as the races are concerned," Sir Thomas said in conclusion, "I shall simply foot the bills and let Burton do the rest."

GEORGE CROYLE WAS BADLY MANOULDED IN SAW MILL.

WINDSOR, June 5.—George Croyle, of Hantsport, the young man who was so badly injured in Rhodes, Curry's mill at Brooklyn on Saturday last, died at five o'clock today. His leg was caught in the cog of the edging machine and terribly mangled. He was brought to the hospital here on Sunday and the limb was amputated. His mother came to see him last night. He was a fine young fellow, about twenty years of age.

This afternoon James Ashton, who has charge of the Drill Hall, went into Curry Bros. butcher shop and assisted at the sausage grinding machine. The machine was about being stopped, but was still going when Ashton put in his left hand to do something. His hand was caught and badly mangled. Doctor Black was called and found it necessary to amputate above the knuckles, the thumb and a small portion of the little finger being left. Ashton was until recently in the employ of Curry Bros.

Over One Hundred Killed in Battle.

BETWEEN REBELS AND FEDERALS AT CANCELA, MEXICO.

LAFRANCO, Tex., June 6.—According to a courier who has arrived here from Monterey, one hundred rebels and twenty federals were killed in a battle between the army of General Tellez and revolutionists under J. C. Franco at Canela, Mexico, Tuesday. A large number on both sides were wounded.

According to the courier, the revolutionists were routed and fled in disorder pursued by government troops. Canela is about fifteen miles northwest of Monterey, in the State of Coahuila, and near Monlova, said to be a rebel stronghold.

The forces of General Tellez, said to number about 250 men, are engaged in repairing the line of the National railway from Monterey to Laredo, disposing of revolutionary bands as they proceed. A number of these troops are Indians from Southern Mexico.

The courier reported General Tellez within fifty miles of the border.

Heat And Storms in Germany.

TWO PERSONS KILLED AND SEVEN HOUSES DESTROYED BY LIGHTNING.

BERLIN, June 5.—A week of excessive heat has been followed by violent thunderstorms, cloudbursts, and hurricanes at many points in Germany. Seven houses have been destroyed by lightning in the villages of Wabern, Nordhausen and Niedersemden, in the Province of Hesse Nassau. Hebra has been inundated by a cloudburst and several persons are reported to have been trapped in the rising waters in the valley of the Werra, near Eschwege, and drowned. Heavy damage has been done by the cloudbursts in the upper Schwarza valley. Two persons have been killed by lightning near Paderberg.

MYRS, East Prussia, June 4.—Five infants have died from heat prostration, and sometimes are ill as a result of exhaustion during the manoeuvres of the troops.

Burned to Death.

YAMMOUTH, June 8.—News reached town last night of a pitiful accident which took place at Lake Annis, sixteen miles away, when Rudolph, the three-year-old son of Ernest Crosby, was so badly burned that he died in a few hours. The child had lit a fire in the range and in doing so used a little kerosene, setting the can on the back of the stove. The little fellow moved the can forward and caused it to upset. The oil at once took fire and Gerald, a slightly older boy, took hold of the can to remove it but it exploded in his hand. The burning oil flew all over little Rudolph. The accident happened at 7:30 and the boy lingered in great agony until about eleven when death released him. Gerald's hand and arm were badly burned.

To Probe Baseball Trust.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Plans for an investigation of the so-called "base ball trust" were made today by Representative Gallagher, of Illinois, who will have a hearing within a week before the House Rules Committee on his resolution. Representative Gallagher declared today that half a dozen witnesses would be sufficient to sustain his "charge of monopoly." He proposed today a list which includes Honore Faugel, former President of the Philadelphia National Baseball Club and men from New York, St. Louis, Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Buffalo.

Another War Would be a Crime Against Humanity

LONDON, June 8.—At the luncheon given by the king in honor of the Balkan peace delegation today, his majesty expressed the hope that their labors would soon be satisfactorily concluded. At a subsequent meeting of the delegates, however, little progress was made and so adjournment was taken to Monday. The delegates failed to reach an agreement on the form of the protocol draft.

King George, conversing with the delegates regarding the subject of fresh struggles among themselves, remarked that another war would be a crime against humanity.

A GREAT BELIEVER IN "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. JAMES DOBSON

BROOKLYN, ONT., MARCH 1st, 1912.

"Fruit-a-tives has made a complete cure in my case of Rheumatism, that had at least five years standing before I commenced the treatment. The trouble was principally in my right hip and shoulder, the pain from it was almost unendurable. Not being able to sleep on that side, if I chanced to turn on my right side while asleep, the pain would immediately awaken me. This kept up until I started taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. I started by taking one or two tablets with a large glass of water, in the morning before breakfast and experienced pronounced relief very shortly. After a continued treatment for about six months, I was cured and am now in first class health. This I attribute to my persistent use of 'Fruit-a-tives' and I heartily recommend your remedy to any Rheumatic sufferer."

BEAR RIVER, N. S.

Met Her Match.

A few days ago two young women entered a trolley car and found only standing room.

"I'm going to get a seat," said one to her companion. "Now, you see!"

Selecting a sedate looking gentleman, she walked up to him. "My dear Mr. Green," she exclaimed, "how delighted I am to meet you. You are almost a stranger. Will I accept your seat? Well, I do feel tired. I admit. Thank you so much."

The man arose. "Sit down, Jane, my girl," said he, as he courteously pointed to the vacant seat. "I don't often see you out on a washing day. You must feel tired, I'm sure. How is your mistress?"

He Knew.

The teacher of a small school was conducting a grammar lesson.

"Now, children," she said, "in the sentence, 'John was struck by James,' there is a person known as the agent. James is the agent, because he is the person that did the act. Now, what is the agent, Mary?"

"The agent is the person or thing that does the act," replied Mary.

The teacher turned her eyes on a little fellow in the corner who was not giving much attention, and in rather sharp tones asked:

"Tummy, do you know what the agent is?"

"Yes'm; he's de gink, dat pop kicked out yesterday."

He Belonged With the Band.

Little Willie, a city boy, on his first visit to the country, was greatly excited on seeing a cow grazing in a field. "Oh, Cousin John, what is that?" he exclaimed.

"That is a cow," John replied.

"And what are those things on its head?"

"Horns," answered John.

They had proceeded but a little farther when Willie was startled by the long, loud bellowing of an animal. "Which horn did he blow?" he asked excitedly.

Complete Information.

"Where's your father?" asked the man in fancy outing clothes.

"Lemme see if I can remember," said the boy with one suspender. "If you're the man to collect the interest on the mortgage, he's gone to town and don't know when he'll be back. If you're a Democrat or a Republican or a Bull Moose he'll be home all day Sunday, and if you're the man that owes him for a bushel of potatoes, he's right around there in the woodshed."

Hard to Please

An old citizen in a country village being asked for a subscription toward repairing the fence of the graveyard, declined, saying:

"I subscribed toward improving that burying ground nigh on to 40 years ago and my family hasn't had no benefit from it yet."

Avoiding Jealousy.

Little Lola had received a doll and a kitten among her Christmas presents.

"Which do you like the best, your kitten or your doll?" asked her mother. Lola went over and whispered in her mother's ear. "I like dollie best, but please don't tell kitty."

She Felt Faint

One day Stella accompanied her mother on a shopping tour. They sighted the candy department in a large store and Stella said:

"Mamma, I'm afraid you'll have to buy me some peppermints—I feel awfully faint."

An Early Sign.

"I am sure baby is going to be a great actress."

"Why?"

"She is so intensely interested in her own photograph. She can look at it for hours and hours."

A Moral Spell.

Teacher—You say had the lamb been obedient and stayed in the fold it would not have been eaten by the wolf would it?

Boy—No, ma'am, it would have been eaten by us.

Letting Her Light Shine.

"I never see Jane at church any more."

"No, since she is wearing her new gown she goes to a church where they stand instead of kneeling."

How He Can Tell.

Elsie—After I wash my face I look in the mirror to see if it's clean. Don't you?

Bobby—Don't have to. I look at the towel.

Easy For Him.

"Is there anything you can do better than any one else?" "Yes," replied the small boy. "I can read my own writing."

Attention Under Control.

"Was it a case of love at first sight?" "No, second night. The first time he saw her he didn't know she was an heiress."

Dog Days or Night.

"Somehow I don't sleep well in the dog days, do you?"

"No, I only get cat naps."

Concrete is the best building material

A BROAD statement—Yet literally true. The aim of man from the beginning has been to make his building materials as nearly like natural stone as possible. The great labor required to quarry stone led him to seek various manufactured substitutes. The only reason he ever used wood was that it was easiest to get and most convenient to use. Wood is no longer easy to get. Like most building material, its cost is increasing at an alarming rate. The cost of concrete is decreasing. So, from the standpoint of either service or economy, Concrete is the best building material. Canada's farmers are using more concrete, in proportion to their numbers, than the farmers of any other country. Why? Because they are being supplied with

Canada Cement —

Without this label it is not "Canada" Cement.

Drowned From S. M. Prince Rupert

POWELL'S, OUGLER FELL FROM STEAMER'S HEARD WHILE AT DIGBY WHARF — BODY RECOVERED.

Powell S. Oguler, aged 21 years, passenger on board the S. M. Prince Rupert, fell from the steamer's port side about 1:30 Wednesday afternoon and was drowned. The body was grasped about twenty five minutes later. Dr. DuVernoy was immediately summoned but all attempts at resuscitation failed and Coroner Daley ordered the body removed to Rice's undertaking rooms, First Avenue. An inquest was held yesterday morning in the presence of the following jury: J. F. McFarlane, foreman; Morris Raymond, M. Webber, Angus McPhee, Ernest Ellis, Omer Rice, James W. Hayden, Major D. C. McKay, Capt. Oscar Dakin, Jacob Wyman, A. Morrell, and William Snow.

The following witnesses were examined: Patrick Russell, first cook on the ship; James Muise, second cook; Adolphus Gallant, fireman; Ellyer S. Scott, chief officer, and Dr. DuVernoy, the attending physician. After going over the evidence carefully the jury returned a verdict that Oguler's death was caused by drowning, purely accidental, and that all was done that could be done to save him.

The deceased was a son of Mrs. Helen Oguler, of 69 Ludlow St., West St. John, and was formerly a printer, having been employed on the St. John Globe and other papers. He shipped on board the S. M. Prince Rupert, June 18th. He was well known by the people of West St. John and his mother and brothers and sisters are receiving sympathy from a great many friends.

The body will probably be taken to St. John today for interment.

District Meeting at Middleton

(Middleton Outlook.)
The annual meeting of the Methodist Annapolis District convened in Middleton June 10th and 11th. All ministers in the active work were present together with the following retired ministers: Rev. J. W. Howie, Wm. Ryan, J. E. Thurlow, J. Gaez, and C. West, D. D.

All the lay representatives were present with three exceptions.

Rev. Leander Daniel, of Digby, presided.

Rev. B. J. Porter, Financial Secy.
Two candidates for the ministry, P. Findley and N. Jackson, were recommended to be received on probation having passed creditable written and oral exams. Satisfactory reports concerning the progress at College of two probationers, A. W. Beck and H. L. Eisenhaur, for the ministry, were presented.

The only ministerial change in the District will be Berwick, from which circuit Rev. G. Bryant retires.

The usual committees for the ensuing year were appointed.

Reports from various circuits received revealed satisfactory progress in both spiritual and temporal interests of the church.

The St. John-Digby Service

The Yarmouth Times, which considers itself authority on C. P. R. steamboat matters, contained the following in its Tuesday's issue:

The steamer, which the Canadian Pacific Railway Company recently purchased for a fast service between St. John and Digby is named the St. George, was owned by the Great Western Railway Company of England, and was running between Fishguard and Rosliffe. She is 252 feet in length, 2,450 tons gross and 704 net. Was built at Birkenhead in 1905, has a speed of 25 knots and cost £100,000. It is said that when the ship is placed in commission on this side of the water, she will be scheduled to leave St. John for Digby after the arrival of the C. P. R. train from Montreal, passengers from that city and all western points thereby reaching Halifax in quick time and over the company's own system. Returning to St. John, the ship will arrive in ample time for passenger and mail connection for Montreal, Boston, Toronto, etc. The Prince Rupert, The Times is informed, will assist the St. George in giving a fast service on the route.

A Busy Man

One of the busiest men we have seen in town for some time was Mr. W. H. McLaren, of Pictou, N. S., who arrived here Tuesday night in an automobile party from Yarmouth.

"Bill" was selling Provincial goods to Provincial dealers and calls himself a home made traveller. His specialties were cigars, made in Stellarton, N. S. (Paramount Scotia, and several other brands); Riley's Island Twist Tobacco, manufactured in Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Clonno Sweeping Compound, manufactured in Halifax. He sold a pile of goods in Digby, keeping up the same record of other towns. His various articles appear to be giving excellent satisfaction and the samples of his cigars are O. K.

Colonial Stock Co.

The Colonial Stock Co., will appear in the Bijou Dream, Digby, next Tuesday evening, June 24th, presenting "Carolina, or the Turning Point." The cast of characters is a good one, the entire company being the best the Colonials have ever employed. The popular comedian, Mr. Frank Oliver, has many friends in the maritime provinces who will be pleased to greet him on the present trip. The seats are now on sale at Holbourn's Drug Store, and we trust the Colonials will have a big house.

Paul Palmer Burned at Sea

THE REG. SCHOONER WAS COMMANDED BY CAPT. HOWARD ALLEN, FORMERLY OF DIGBY.

Capt. Simms at once altered his course and ran in the direction of the schooner. After running about three-quarters of an hour Capt. Simms received the following by wireless:

A tug has come to schooner's assistance. Tug has three barges.

The vessel turned out to be the five-masted schr. Paul Palmer, 1743 tons register, from Bangor, Maine, for a coal port, in ballast. Capt. Allen and the crew were rescued by the fishing schr. Rose Dorothy. Capt. Allen, who formerly resided in Digby, had his wife and a lady friend, Miss Catherine Dunn, of Boston, with him, and they were also rescued and landed at Provincetown on Sunday night. Your correspondent had the pleasure of visiting Digby last week, and the town presents a neat appearance, and is the resort of tourists and seekers of the beauties of nature. What a fine sight one can have of that magnificent expanse of water, Digby harbour. The hotels are also ideal resorts of comfort in every respect. The Man hattan, The Pines, Myrtle House, Leisure Lodge, The Trefry House, etc. Pleasure seekers and lovers of rest and good comfort go to Digby and never regret their visit.

A great many of our farmers here are complaining of the large number of deer that are rambling about in the back roads a couple of miles from the shore and damaging the crops. Several have fields of winter wheat, large orchards, fields of corn and potatoes, and these deer are prowling about treading and eating and doing a lot of injury. The officers of the game societies must look into the matter at once and try to find out a way to remedy the evil. We cannot see our crops destroyed like that. These animals must be taken care of, or else some legal means will be resorted to, to compensate the damages done to our crops.

I neglected in my last item to give you the death of Mr. Cyrille LeBlanc, who left this world at the early age of 51 years. The late Mr. LeBlanc had been sick for about four years, suffering with consumption. Devout christian and practical Catholic, he died as he had lived, a true and devoted christian. He leaves a widow and several children, some yet of very tender age. He belonged to the mutual Society L'Assomption, and was also a devout member of the League of the Sacred Heart. To the bereaved family we offer our most tender condolences in their great bereavement. A daughter of the late Mr. LeBlanc is also seriously ill.

One thing we cannot fail to note the advent of his auto is not then novelty as in days of yore. At the present time Weymouth is quite up to date as to the number of motor cars owned here.

An interesting event took place in St. Peter's church on Wednesday, June 11th, at 8.30, when the nuptials of Mr. Duncan Campbell, fourth son of G. D. Campbell, Esq., and Miss Genevieve, eldest daughter of Rev. M. Taylor were solemnized. The bride looked very pretty as she entered the church on the arm of her brother, preceded by Miss Ethel Taylor as maid of honor, Mr. Kenneth Campbell acting as best man. The bride was given away by her father, the rector, who also officiated. While the newly wed couple knelt at the altar a hymn was sung. The wedding march was well rendered by Mrs. Reynell Taylor, sister of the groom. After partaking of breakfast at the rectory, the happy couple left for St. John and other points of interest. We extend hearty congratulations.

One of the oldest inhabitants of Centerville is Mrs. Katie Barr, who celebrated her ninety-second birthday a short time ago and a few days after to celebrate the event she had a heavy wash, washing among other things four large blankets and other articles just as heavy and did it as smartly and well as a person half her age.

She resides with her son Mr. John Barr, a youth of some sixty-seven summers and one of the old Fenian raid veterans. She does all her own house work and ministers to the wants of her son who we regret to say has been on the sick list for some months. A Record Trip.

STORY OF THE BIG FARE LANDED BY THE SCHIE, ALBERT J. LUTZ WHICH WAS REFERRED TO IN OUR LAST ISSUE.

Mr. Frederick J. Wallace, of Montreal, one of the special magazine writers who was sent to Digby last year to write up the fishermen's gatta and fish pictures for the same, accompanied Capt. John Apt on the trip to Anticosti and it is Mr. Wallace who has the Corcoran's thanks for the following information:

We arrived in Canoe last night, and knowing that you would be interested in our Anticosti halibut venture, the boys have detailed me to give you the particulars.

We procured our bait at the Magdalen about the 15th of May, and swung off for the grounds, fishing off Heath Point and all along the Island, and from that point up to West Point, also making a set on the North Shore of Cape Observation.

Fishing was rather slow at the commencement, but latterly we struck some big fish—one day getting a haul of 35,000 lbs.—25,000 halibut and 10,000 cod. Our trip is high line for a Canadian halibut, consisting of a good 80,000 lbs. of fish, 20,000 fresh cod and 12,000 salt cod. While the weather was fine on the whole—no fog—yet we were, on two or three occasions unable to haul our gear owing to severe windy weather—one set the trawls were out for four days before we got a chance to haul.

The trip, even from a fisherman's point of view, was a pleasant one. No fog, no dogfish, and the land in sight all the time. At Ellis Bay, we took two of the American gentlemen who govern Mr. Menier's Island, pulp mills, etc., out to sea for a couple of days, and when we ran into the harbor to dress down a heavy deck of fish alongside the breakwater, they had the electric lights switched on for our benefit. It was quite an unusual sight to see fishermen dressing down alongside a wharf in the glare of electric lamps.

All hands were made welcome at whatever place we touched in at for harbor, and speaking for myself I never enjoyed a better trip aboard a fisherman.

The "Lutz's" smart appearance has caused a lot of comment wherever we went and most people took us for an American instead of a Canadian fisherman.

In making the run for the Magdalen for our bait, we left Port Hawkesbury in company with thirty sail—Americans and Lunenburgers and for four hours tacking down the Straits of Canoe we were all in a neck and neck bunched until nightfall when the breeze freshened. Langlad today the "Lutz" was only beaten by two of the larger American schooners and was one of the leaders of the fleet.

The Bloomfield Lumber Co.

THE LATEST LUMBERING ENTERPRISE IN DIGBY COUNTY—A VISIT TO THE MILLS.

The Bloomfield Lumber Co., of which Mr. A. A. Shortliffe is manager and Mr. Geo. W. Whightman is secretary, has purchased four lots of timber land at Bloomfield from Mr. Herbert Bacon, of Hill Grove, who is building a new residence in Digby.

The company have already commenced lumbering operations and are getting ready to manufacture lumber, staves, etc. A COUNTER representative was shown through the plant Friday afternoon.

Two mills will soon be in operation: one has already been set up and the other is en route and will be ready in a few weeks.

Thirty-five men are now employed and more will be engaged later. The plant at present consists of cook houses, stables, etc., and several miles of tramway for hauling out the lumber.

The mills will be conveniently situated near the D. A. R. tracks just east of the Bloomfield railway station. A siding will bring the cars to the mills, thus saving the hauling by teams of the finished products.

It is an odd coincidence that almost the entire fleet of fishing boats, all of which will load from the woods to the mills, are down grade, thus enabling the cars, which are drawn by horses, to carry immense loads—all the tracks will support.

About 1000 big trees had been cut up to last Friday and either piled or hauled to the mills.

The foreman in charge of the work is Mr. Edgar Shortliffe, brother of the manager. The logging of the woods is splendid timber in a big underground, and we wish Messrs. Shortliffe & Whightman every success.

Fatal Accident in Vancouver.

The accident was caused by a defect in the concrete work at the base end of the structure. Three of the injured men taken to the General Hospital were bricklayers, A. Robinson, Tom Evans and A. Boyle.

Big Crops in Alberta.

CALGARY, June 13. Given remarkably good weather for the next two months, Alberta will this year harvest the greatest crop in its history. This is the summary of crop reports received today from forty-five points in this province.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR:—I was much surprised in looking over your issue of the 13th instant to learn in your note in re the Supreme Court that there was only one case for trial and that was John S. McNeill vs. H. T. Warne and H. H. Marshall, which statement has no foundation in fact. I cannot understand why you and others should be so informed, unless it was supposed or intended to add the defendants in said case, and if you did not know who was the plaintiff you should have informed yourself before making said insertion in the COURIER, as there was every possible opportunity to have done so, and I wish to inform you, and the general public, through your paper, that I had nothing to do with the bringing on said action. I refused to give my consent to have my name placed on the legal and property. I also refused to have anything to do with the bringing on said action, and it was brought on without my knowledge or consent, and I was much opposed to be forced into court at my time of life, and said there should be a law to protect a person over 70 years old from being compelled into court, but I was subpoenaed and had to attend and submit to be abused, maligned, and misrepresented, and consequently render the 84th anniversary of my birth, which will be tomorrow, the most unhappy of any during my lengthened life, and the only and greatest satisfaction I have is in the belief that in due time, all misconduct and misrepresentation not repeated or acknowledged will meet their just reward.

Yours truly,
JOHN S. McNEILL.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped The Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For twenty years I suffered. The doctor said I had tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 105 Mount St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation.

Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months, until two doctors decided that an operation was needed. "Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and after taking it for two months I was a well woman."—Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ills should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known, before submitting to a surgical operation.

By the Edge of the Road

There's a little gate by the edge of the road, Which I used to open and hurry through. For it led to a spot where a brooklet flowed, And clusters of dark, sweet violets grew.

And there at the mystic sunset hour, On the mossy trunk of a fallen tree, A maiden, fair as a pure, pale flower, Would sit in the twilight and talk with me.

Oh, our love was true, and our hearts beat high! And the old, old story was scarcely told. When an angel smiled from life's radiant sky, And called her home through the pearl and gold.

It may be the wind in the rustling grass, Or a drift of leaves where the brooklet flows; But I often think that her light feet pass To the little gate by the edge of the road.

A Wonderful Story.

The following story is reproduced from the Yarmouth Telegram. We would suggest that the papers reproducing it add that "the horse is still living and able to do a good day's work."

"How the first horse came to Digby County forms a wonderful and unique story. One night on the shores of Digby Neck a violent storm prevailed. In the morning a man who had taken up his residence there, over a hundred years ago, left his house, wandering along the shore in search of seaweed. He noticed something swimming in the water. He became alarmed and ran to inform his wife. They returned to the shore and saw an animal walking on the beach. The horse, a large chestnut mare, was captured, and became the founder of the equine race in Digby County, or so the story goes."

Hot Weather in the West.

WINNIPEG, June 12.—Intense heat prevailed yesterday over most of the western Canadian prairies, the highest temperatures prevailing in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. In Manitoba, temperatures ranged from 80 to 90 in the shade. Temperatures around ninety were regarded as moderate, Alberta, from Calgary north, and northern Saskatchewan escaped with comparatively cool weather, between seventy and eighty. Most of the spring wheat reports abundance of moisture in the ground, and these torrid conditions will produce hot-house growth.

"SOME HAD MEAT, AND CANNA EAT"

So Bobby Burns tersely describes the rich, but still poor, dyspeptics. But their case is not now so desperate as when Burns wrote. For the man who has the food now can eat without suffering for it, if he just follows the meal with a Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablet.

These remarkable tablets banish the troubles of the chronic dyspeptic—the man who is bilious—the sufferer from heartburn, gas on the stomach or occasional indigestion. You can eat hearty meals of wholesome food—and digest them, too—if you take Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets.

Compounded by expert chemists, after probably the best formula known to medical science, they are quick and certain in their action, giving prompt relief from all forms of stomach trouble, toning up and strengthening the digestive organs and bringing about permanent cures.

A TRIAL HONEYMOON.

"We should never be able to get along on a honeymoon," said Gerty, almost tearfully.

"Why not cut out the honeymoon?" I suggested.

"As if I hadn't been setting my heart on it for years—I mean, of course, ever since I was engaged!"

Gerty is the most lovable creature in the world, and I have always been lenient to her whims, but at times she has tried my patience. The idea of being in love with George—a such a sterling fellow as George—and then calmly discussing the question of his desirability on a honeymoon!

"Why shouldn't you get along with George on a honeymoon?" I asked sharply. "I'm sure he yields to you in everything. He has spoiled you all ready. I should be ashamed, Gerty, to say such a thing, if I were you!"

"I'm not! And I mean every word of it. You see, George is awfully peculiar about some things, and so am I. When he travels, he wants everything his own way. I know just how it will be. He will not even ask me what road to take, but he will go off and buy the tickets, and announce that everything is ready. Now I want to know exactly where we are going, and just how we are going, before hand—and if I don't know, it upsets me completely. I don't like things settled for me in an offhand way, just as if I were a child!"

"Well, if you can't get along with George when you travel, how do you expect to manage it when you are still?"

"That's quite different. At home we can understand each other perfectly. George is just as himself. I am quite sure that he will never interfere in my province. It is only when someone has to drive ahead that he wants to hold the reins."

"It will be a good lesson to you," I replied, rather warmly. "Besides," I continued, "how do you know that George is so bad as you make out. You've never been on a honeymoon with him, have you?"

"Of course not! But I have been on short trips, and I assure you, Jo, it was all I could do to stand it."

"Well, then," I said sternly, "why do you bring up such an impossible question, with no solution! You say you want to go on a honeymoon with George, that you have counted upon it, and in the next breath that you don't want it!"

Gerty leaned forward anxiously. "Jo," she said, "have you ever been to Washington and Old Point?"

"Certainly not."

"Will you go—with us?"

"How? When?"

"Right away, of course. On a trial honeymoon as a chaperon. You see, I want to try it out beforehand. After we are married, of course, it will be too late. George will have me then, and all the advantage, but if we can go now, as a sort of test, why, it may have an effect upon our whole future. You know, dear, I am so anxious to have our married life a success."

"Indeed! I said, with a satirical smile. "You mean that you want to get George placed?"

At this moment there was a chery whistle in the hall, the door opened, and George came bustling in. His face fell as he saw me, but I determined to hold my ground. Besides, I had a record of never making a gooseberry out of myself.

"Shall I tell him?" I said to Gerty. "Certainly."

"Listen attentively, my dear George," I said. "You two are to go on a trial honeymoon—Washington and Old Point. I am to go along as chaperon. The idea is, briefly, that when you travel, you are an autocrat; you do everything, decide everything. Gerty thinks this will make her unhappy."

"Well, I can't help it," said George. "I'm built that way."

"Can you start to-morrow morning?" I continued, disregarding his interruption. "Washington and Old Point—and return?"

"I am your slave. What's business compared with orders from you?"

"Don't be silly," said Gerty. "Well, then, that's settled. We go!"

"And Gerty does everything—that's your idea, Gerty, isn't it?" I asked.

"That's exactly my idea," said Gerty. "How about the expenses?" said George.

"I'll furnish you a bill when we get back. It's understood—we are to go on a trial honeymoon. I am to manage the whole affair, and if you let me do it all, I am to marry you."

"And if not?" asked George. Gerty frowned at him.

"We won't cross that bridge until we come to it, sir," she said.

"All right!" said George. The next morning he was on hand at the station at the appointed time.

with handbag and stick, and with a flower in his buttonhole—at which Gerty gazed rather ruefully.

"Everybody who goes on a honeymoon wears flowers in his buttonhole," he whispered to me, while Gerty bought the tickets. "By Jove! I came near wearing a frock coat, pearl-colored trousers, and a silk hat!"

"If you had!" I exclaimed. "Come on!" said Gerty, leading the way.

We pressed through the gate, and into the train.

"I call your attention, lady and gentleman," whispered Gerty, "to the fact that these seats are on the shady side."

"Great system!" muttered George. "I insisted upon it; said I knew the president of the road personally, and—"

"Nonsense!" broke in George. "Haven't I travelled? They did it because you were a woman. A woman can get anything she wants in those days. If she doesn't, what does she do? Appeals to Congress—gets up a delegation!"

"First call for the dining car!" called the porter.

Gerty did not respond.

"Second call for the dining car!" called the same ebony gentleman, a little later.

George and I were getting nervous. He leaned over to Gerty.

"Excuse me for mentioning it," he whispered, "but, my dear girl, every thing will be eaten up. Haven't we better stand up in the aisle? You know they never reserve anything—it's against the rules of the company."

At this moment the parlor car conductor leaned over in Gerty's ear. He was a handsome young man; he knew beauty when he saw it.

"Come on!" said Gerty, grabbing me by the hand. "Our table is ready."

It was.

"It's easy enough," said Gerty, when he had given the order. "You see, I have a way of getting things done. What's a company's rule, anyway?"

"Nothing!" replied George. "Not with your face and figure!"

When we reached the big station at Washington, it seemed as if a mile of people were ahead of us, all making a bee line for the cab stand. Gerty sang as she went along.

"Isn't it lovely!" she exclaimed. "And such a lark! My! But when you leave home, responsibility ceases."

"I hope," growled George, "the responsibility of getting a cab to take us to the hotel is still weighing on you. Don't you see that we arrived at the same moment with a whole medical convention? Look at 'em! We may as well take a car. Better let me—"

By this time we had reached, amid great confusion, the narrow circle of the taxicabs. Gerty made a talismanic sign to the man in charge. George said afterward that she hypnotized him. The functionary made a secret signal in return. In a moment we were all sitting in a buzzing cab, while Gerty looked nonchalantly at the receding Capitol.

That night we had seats in the fourth row, centre, at the theatre. After it was over, we had the best table in the hotel supper room in spite of the combined moral influence of the whole medical profession, which was apparently staying at the same hotel.

The next morning we visited—but those are details. Two days later, as we lounged on the hotel piazza at Old Point, Gerty said to me nonchalantly:

"Do you know, I believe, if I had asked for them, I could have taken away the entire contents of George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon!"

"When do we return?" I asked.

The fact was, it had been rather hard on me. After the novelty of the first two or three hours had worn off, I found that it was better to dork by myself, and a long line of soliloquies had not improved my temper. Gerty and George were both nice about it; they insisted on my being near them, though the moment exactly the opposite.

Gerty held up the steamer tickets. "Tonight," she replied.

The next day, as we filed solemnly into the room where the compact had been originally made, we all of us seemed simultaneously to realize that the crisis had come. I was about to leave them to fight it out, but Gerty sternly held me back.

"Now, Jo," she said, "you must be a witness. Have I carried out my contract?"

"You have, dear," replied George.

"Not a hitch anywhere. Never had a more perfect trip! And how about me? Did I do my part of it? Did I prove that I am a travelling companion? Did I let you do everything?"

"Practically everything—once or twice you got nervous."

"Did I?"

"No, dear boy, you didn't, and I am satisfied—more than satisfied!"

She went to him, and I knew what would have happened if I had not been there, and felt correspondingly guilty. But suddenly George drew up.

"You'll never do it again," he said firmly.

"What do you mean? Why, of course I shall! Haven't I been established?"

"Not much! When you travel with me again, you travel under my orders. You don't suppose, do you, that I would marry a girl and be tagging around behind her all the rest of my life? Not much! I've been taught to obey orders, and I have obeyed this time, but never again!"

Gerty looked serious. She clasped and unclasped her hands. Then she began to use the same tactics she had used with the officials on the road.

"But, George, dear," she whispered, "wasn't it beautiful? Wasn't it perfectly lovely?"

George bowed.

"Delightful," he exclaimed, "as a memory. Nice thing to look back on. You couldn't duplicate a trip like that. I don't propose to try. Next time you travel with me, or else—"

Gerty's eyes flashed. There was a dead silence. I bent all my will upon her, to get her to yield; and of course I knew she must yield. Gerty always had too much inherent sense to be unjust.

"Or else—" she repeated at last. "Or else—"

George smiled.

"Or else I'll tell you," he said, catching her in his arms.

"Tell me what?" I cried, springing up.

"My suspicions were now fully aroused. Gerty caught my hand.

"We were married," she whispered, "the night before we left."

"Then why in the world," I snapped, as the whole miserable plot began to dawn on me, "did you want me along?"

"You don't suppose, do you," replied Gerty reproachfully, that I would go to Washington on a honeymoon with George alone, do you. Why every body would have known we had just been married!"

Why Red Rose is a "Distinctive" Tea

Because it is largely composed of the fine teas of Northern India, which are generous in strength and richness. These, blended with the flavory teas of Ceylon, produce the qualities for which Red Rose is famed.

N.B.—Coffee users will find Red Rose Coffee as generously good as Red Rose Tea.

New Director of Music at Acadia
The growth of the Department of Music at Acadia, Nova Scotia, and the increasing favor with which the public regard it, makes the selection of a competent director a very difficult problem. The principal is, however, glad to say that he believes that the problem has been most satisfactorily solved in the appointment of Mr. Carroll C. McKee, now of the Toledo Musical College and Teacher of Piano-forte in the Detroit Conservatory.

DRUGGISTS IN DIGBY.

39th Annual Meeting of the Nova Scotia Pharmaceutical Society.

INTERESTING SESSIONS HELD IN THE COURT HOUSE—A DRIVE TO BEAR RIVER—THEY VISIT THE OLD PORT AT ANNAPOOLIS ROYAL AND ENJOY A BANQUET AT THE MANHATTAN HOTEL.

The 39th annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Pharmaceutical Society opened its session in Digby Tuesday afternoon, being attended by about thirty registered druggists of this Province. President J. J. Kinlay, Mayor of Lunenburg, was in the chair with G. A. Burbridge, of Halifax, as Secretary. The President's address was very interesting.

After reading the minutes of the last annual meeting, the following reports were taken up: Reports of Registrar, Treasurer, Auditors, Board of Examiners, Legal Committee, and College of Pharmacy; then followed papers and reports, including "Liquor Laws and other Legislation affecting Druggists," by A. A. Thompson, of Halifax; "The Status of Certified Clerks," by G. A. Burbridge, also of Halifax.

TUESDAY EVENING SESSION.

As soon as the chairman had called the meeting to order, Mr. P. W. Holdsworth, of Digby, in his usual pleasant manner, introduced Mayor Short, who in a brief but excellent speech, welcomed the druggists to our town and extended an invitation to them to visit here at any future date.

President Kinlay made an appropriate reply and congratulated the Mayor and Town Council on the splendid appearance of the town, its well kept streets, etc., referring particularly to Digby's beautiful scenery and its attractions as a summer resort.

The first business of the evening session was a report from A. A. Thompson, a delegate to the Convention of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association, held at Vancouver, B. C., followed by a paper entitled, "Profitable Manufacturing of Chemicals by Retailers," by W. L. Ormond, of Amherst, and "Cost of Doing Business," by A. J. Grease, also of Amherst.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The subjects which claimed the attention of the members at Wednesday morning's session were: "Deficiencies in Education of Clerks," by J. C. Gardner, of Yarmouth, and "Dispensing Problems," by E. M. McLeod, of Halifax.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The members of the society decided to take a half day off for pleasure, and therefore left here at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, on a drive to Bear River. They returned again at 6 o'clock much pleased with the beautiful scenery along the "Pine of Nova Scotia."

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Wednesday evening's session was in the form of a "round table" conducted by A. A. Thompson, of Halifax, "Uniform Prescription Prices" and "Price cutting," brought forth a lot of discussion. A uniform schedule was finally adopted. The subject of "Salesmanship" was dealt with in an able manner.

YESTERDAY MORNING.

The last business session of the 39th annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Pharmaceutical Society adjourned at 12 o'clock yesterday noon after a busy morning.

The finances of the society and of the Nova Scotia College of Pharmacy, which are in a very healthy state, were thoroughly discussed.

The next place of meeting will be at St. John, where extra preparation will be made for the 10th anniversary.

A resolution was passed to discourage the sale of fake and harmful patent medicines.

W. H. Webb and C. S. Simpson, of Halifax, were elected life members, the former being one of the founders of the society.

R. C. Fuller, of Amherst, and C. A. Mumford, of Halifax, were elected honorary members of the council, and both expressed their appreciation in appropriate remarks.

The six new members of the council were elected as follows: A. A. Thompson, of Halifax; E. C. Gardner, of Yarmouth; T. A. W. Smith, of Digby; E. M. McLeod, of Halifax; P. W. Holdsworth, of Digby; and J. J. Kinlay, of Lunenburg.

The council then elected the following officers: E. M. McLeod, President, of Halifax; J. C. Gardner, Vice-President, of Yarmouth; G. A. Burbridge, Secretary, of Halifax; Registrar, A. A. Thompson, of Halifax; Treasurer, E. C. Gardner, of Yarmouth; and Auditors, R. C. Fuller, E. T. Power and E. M. McLeod.

Auditors: T. V. Weolich, C. A. Mumford.

Delegates to the Toronto Convention: Burbridge and Fuller.

The management committee consists of the city and honorary members of the Council.

A novelty exhibited at the meeting was the first diploma ever issued by the society, the name was William F. O'Neil and the date June, 1884.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

The officers and members of the society, including the local Doctors Jones, DuVeret Read and Schaffner, Mayor Short and Mr. O. S. Dunham, of the COURIER, received an invitation from the local druggists, Messrs. H. E. Jones and P. W. Holdsworth, to visit to Annapolis, where two gentlemen having chartered the Mota, for a special trip. The weather was delightful and the trip proved a very enjoyable one. At Annapolis the party was entertained by the local druggists, an interesting feature being a visit to the Old Fort.

LAST NIGHT.

Last night the officers and members held their annual dinner or banquet at the Manhattan Hotel to which invitations were extended from the society to the local physicians and dentists, Rev. Mr. Digfield, rector of Holy Trinity church, Mayor Short and Mr. O. S. Dunham. The dining room was prettily decorated for the occasion, the tables were beauti-

INCREASE IN CIGARETTES.

CANADIANS ARE USING MANY MORE EACH YEAR.

OTTAWA, June 26 Canadian people are consuming more tobacco and drinking more beer and spirits year by year but the increase is not remarkable, save as regards cigarettes. Almost two hundred million more cigarettes were smoked last year than in the previous twelve months.

The Inland Revenue Department has completed its annual statement, giving figures for the fiscal year in respect to these matters. The consumption of spirits per head of the population was 1,112 gallons, as against 1,030 gallons in 1912. Beer was 7,055 gallons, compared with 6,548 gallons; wine 131 gallons, compared with 111, and tobacco 3,818 pounds, compared with 3,579 in 1912.

The tobacco consumption includes cigarettes, but the latter are also dealt with specifically. Last year the consumption totalled 975,325,401 cigarettes, as against 782,083,811 in the fiscal year of 1912.

Because Kellogg's is known to be the best

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the Courier

DEAR SIR:—Kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to make a few remarks in reference to the Weymouth side walks.

To say they were a disgrace to any community of the size of Weymouth would be letting it off mighty easy.

Truly they are in a terrible state and it is really not safe to walk over them on a dark night without some flashlight or lantern. To any person used to electric or gas lights they are certainly much more dangerous than they are to us, who are now pretty well accustomed to their sight and who know pretty well the bad spots. In fact they have been in such a terrible condition for some time past that any improvement thereon would be indeed a surprise and something to be wondered at.

For visitors, to be sure they are walking safely at night time, they would have to traverse these side walks in day time and pick out the bad places so as not to fall in or slip and injure themselves. Some one is to blame for this lamentable state of affairs. Some day some one is going to fall and injure himself so badly that he will be under the doctor's care for some time. Then there will be a new wow for nothing. Who should be to blame for the accident? Surely it could not be said that the person himself would be in fault. There is someone responsible and they should be compelled to action. It is certainly high time the authorities be they who they are, should act and repair these tanks. If it is that famous body of men who comprise the Legislature of Nova Scotia who are to blame for the disgraceful, dangerous and detestable condition of these side walks, they should be pensioned off for life. For the sake of our own safety as well as for the safety of the numerous tourists who come here yearly and for the good name of our community we must do Weymouth should try and find out if there is any remedy for this lamentable state of affairs and supplicate the authorities, if they cannot be coaxed to make repairs, to take action in the premises before some one is maimed for life. Thanking you again Mr.
Editor, I am,

Storm Wrecks Military Camp.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 16.—The city of Three Rivers and the military camp of the Montreal Infantry regiments here were visited by the most thunder storm in years late this afternoon. More than half the camps were levelled to the ground. Supplies and bedding were strewn about and thoroughly water soaked.

In the town, the power wires are down and no light is promised for two days. The roof of the Dominion Convent was blown off and many houses suffered similar treatment. From the wind which blew with hurricane velocity.

In the camp the evening meal had been spread out on the tables in the mess tent. Almost with the first full blast of wind, the tent pegs responded to the strain on the canvas and the ridge poles snapped like matches. The tent collapsed, burying everything beneath it.

Although efforts were made to stem the tide of destruction, the storm had practically spent itself before an organized effort in this direction could be made. The officers suffered most, and were obliged to come to Three Rivers for their evening meal.

No injuries of a serious character were reported, although several of the men were bruised when caught beneath falling tents.

Suffragette Raid Edinburg Letter Boxes

BOMB FOUND IN RAILWAY STATION WITH LOCK ATTACHMENT.

EDINBURGH, Scotland, June 13.—The militant suffragette campaign was resumed here tonight with the biggest raid that has yet been made on mail boxes. Twelve of these from one end of the town to the other, were attacked.
Chemists' test tubes, filled with a colorless acid which caught fire when the glass was broken, were dropped into the boxes by the suffragettes, and many letters were badly damaged.

A bomb, sewed up in an oil-soaked cushion, was found tonight in the railway station at Edinburg, Kent. Attached to it was a clock which was timed to explode at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. The clock had stopped when the bomb was discovered.

Kerosene had been used to saturate the cushion, enclosing the bomb, and if the cushion had become ignited, the station which is a wooden structure and situated in a lonely spot, doubtless would have been burned down.

MORE VISITORS THAN ANY YEAR SINCE
KING EDWARD'S CORONATION

NEW YORK, June 12. William Harris, head of the Hotel Carlton chain of hotels, said on the Manhattan after passing seven weeks in this country.
Before leaving, Mr. Harris said he had telegraphic dispatches from London which told that the hotels in that city were doing a bigger business this year than at any time since the coronation of King Edward in 1902.

"Suffragette activities in London will not deter Americans from visiting that city this year," said Mr. Harris.
"I feel what we hear over here about England is something like the news of the doings of women suffragettes in our English papers give us about shooting affairs in America. If we were guided by English newspaper reports, every Englishman and woman started for New York would provide himself with at least two revolvers to protect himself with when he landed here from a steamer."

Pirates Attacked French Steamer.

HANOI, Korea, June 6.—The French steamer R. H. Leblond, engaged in the West River trade, was attacked by pirates, who secured $20,000, according to reports here today. A passenger on the steamer was killed and the engineer and several members of the crew were wounded in a fight with the robbers.
Reports of numerous other attacks upon vessels indicate that piracy is rapidly increasing in the South.
