To the Editor of the Courier:

People are slow to comprehend the immensity of the burden laid on their shoulders by the liquor traffic. Some time ago I made the statement that it cost five times as much to look after the mischief wrought by the liquor traffic as the revenue received from it. I also said that if the money spent in drink were spent in useful articles, it would give employment to eight times as many men as are now engaged in the manufacture of liquor. I was immediately asked for proof, that was easily done because I only stated what anyone can demonstrate mathematically for themselves. But that is much less than the real facts. Everyone knows that there is a great deal of expenditure and loss that cannot be calculated. For instance, very few know how much they give to private charities that are to a great extent made necessary by the drink habit. Losses by sickness, death, loss of time, loss by bad debts, etc., cannot be estimated. So that instead of being five times, it is possibly as high as ten times as much.

Other places report a similar proportion. Members of the Dauphin County Board of Poor Directors, Pennsylvania, have announced that caring for the victims of the liquor traffic costs Dauphin County including the City of Harrisburg, more than five times as much as the revenue received from the business. The revenues of the City and County from the liquor business amounts to $34,315.00 while the two governments spend $180,000.00 in partially remedying the harm that liquor does.

Professor Longacre of Washington, D. C., speaking at Atlantic City recently, said: "The liquor traffic is a revenue consumer. It takes five times as much to care for the criminals, paupers and orphans for which the saloon is responsible as the amount of the revenue is paid to the government by the breweries and distilleries."

"From a Government report we find that there are 4,688 persons engaged in the breweries and distilleries. It also learns that there is one person employed in useful industries for every $2,582. From these figures anyone can prove that the hundred million dollars spent in drink would give employment to eight times four thousand six hundred and eighty eight. And if you add to this the amount invested in liquor manufacture, the sum total would give employment to nearly twelve times the number of men employed in the breweries and distilleries. In every way the liquor traffic is the enemy of labor, a burden on the sober man and a menace to the nation."

"Let us lead to Laced. Give the people the plain, unvarnished facts and they will soon settle this question. Everyone can help in this fight against an enemy worse than the Germans, by taking the Pioneer or any other temperance paper and when he has read it, handing it to his neighbor."

Latest Move of Government to Assist Farming.

PECHIAN PORTABLE MACHINE TO MAKE UNDERDRAINAGE TILES—GOOD WORK IN FUTURE.

[Special Correspondence to the Courier.]
Tulsa, N.S., Oct. 14.—(Cheap, portable underdrainage is the latest practical tool the Nova Scotia Department of Agriculture is making to encourage better farming in the province. In addition to the traction ditcher, which has been in use for some years, the government has purchased and is operating a portable concrete tile manufacturing machine, which has already proved of great service. Near Lyons Brook, P.E.I., Co. where there exists a live interest in underdrainage, this machine, for the last two months, has been in commission amongst the farmers, of that district, and has manufactured 51,000 tiles, 3 inch to 5 inch sizes.

The use of the machine means several important advantages to farmers. They can manufacture tiled tile on their own farms, if gravel and sand are readily obtainable. Moreover, it happens that in Nova Scotia most farmers are located at considerable distance from a tile manufacturing plant. This and the fact that the freight they have to pay on such a bulky article as tile, disciplines them to the use of the portable machine. They find that underdrainage is essential to a large proportion of the lands in the tile-making machine, farmers can not only use it on their own properties, but also employ their own labor in all the provinces, and this need not put up the cost which would be required from them by the plants and the railroads. The use of the respective advantages, the Department of Agriculture ships the machine to and fro from the centre of district that asks for its services, and also pays the travelling expenses of the operator. For their part, the farmers sign an agreement to manufacture not less than 25,000 tiles in the year, to try it, and to unload and reload the machine at the centre railway station. In all this the farmers co-operate amongst themselves with the government, and the mutual advantage of all parties concerned.

Dove of Peace Over Wilson's Head.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—President Wilson, speaking today at the 25th anniversary meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the United States, should keep out of the European war, not to avoid trouble, but to preserve the foundations upon which peace must be built.

"We should keep out of the quarrel," he declared, "because it is not the world to pursue a course guided by justice. We are not trying to keep out of the trouble. We are trying to maintain the foundations upon which peace must be built. America must preserve the cause of humanity."

Belgrade Again in Hands of Enemy

SERBIANS MADE DESPERATE RESISTANCE BUT COMPELLED TO RETIRE TO HEIGHTS.

PARIS, Oct. 10.—The announcement made yesterday by the German war office of the capture of Belgrade was confirmed in an official communication from the German High Command today at the Serbian legation. The Austro-German attack on the Lower Drina, on the north-western frontier, is said to have been repulsed, with enormous losses for the Serbians.

The statement follows: "Belgrade has fallen into the hands of the Germans, after a desperate resistance."

"Fighting continues all along the Danube and Save fronts. The purpose of the enemy is to advance through the Moravia Valley, separating Kosciolec (35 miles southeast of Belgrade) from Dubravatz (on the Danube, 30 miles east of Belgrade) from Dubravatz (on the Danube, 35 miles east of Belgrade), where his chief efforts are concentrated."

"The enemy suffered enormous losses in making unsuccessful attacks on the Lower Drina. The enemy has been thrown back on an island he occupied."

TWO ARMIES ENTERED BELGRADE.

VIENNA, Oct. 9.—An Austrian official statement concerning the operations of the army of General Von Kosciolec yesterday penetrated the northern part of Belgrade, and stormed the citadel. Early this morning German troops from the west cut a path to the Konak (the Royal Palace). Austro-Hungarian and German troops are flying from the castle of the Serbian king.

"Both above and below Belgrade the enemy watching the banks could nowhere resist the allies."

GERMAN STATEMENT ON OPERATIONS.

BERLIN, Oct. 10.—(By wireless to Tuckerton)—A war office statement follows: "Efforts by the Serbians to resist the Austro-German invasion are said by the war office to have failed. Belgrade is now completely in the hands of the Teutonic forces, as well as the outlying heights to the southwest and southeast of the city. Further east the Serbians were thrown back wherever they resisted."

"Belgrade and the surrounding heights to the southwest and southeast are in our hands. The Serbians also were thrown back wherever they resisted. Our troops are advancing."

BRITISHER IN MOST DARING EXPLOIT.

SUBMARINE OFFICER, WITH AUTOMATIC AND DAYTON, DESTROYED TURKISH RAILWAY SINGLE.

HANDLED.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—How Lieutenant O'Drily Hughes, attached to a British submarine operating in the Gulf of Marmora, swam from his craft, pushing ahead of him a raft bearing a secret, chattering, periscope, the latest experience that has befallen any man during this war, says:

"The experience consisted of an automatic service revolver and a sharpened bayonet. He also carried an electric torch and a whistle. The cliffs were unscalable at the first point of landing. He therefore relinquished his raft, till a less precipitous shore was reached and after a stiff climb and a considerable march he reached the railway."

"Sighting a 'clackety' continues the statement, 'he planned to destroy it, but abandoned the idea because of the presence of enemy workmen. He then selected a brick culvert, under which he placed a charge of explosive and lit a fuse. He effected his escape by running a mile down the railway, and plunged into the sea just as the explosion went off. Debris was scattered near him, indicating that the explosion was effective. Having blown his whistle to summon the submarine, the lieutenant swam towards shore and began to ascend the cliff in hope of finding the submarine. He discovered his mistake, and again entered the water. Subsequently he was rescued by the submarine when he was on the verge of exhaustion."

Save Pastures and Conserve the Gains of Your Live Stock.

LATE FALL PASTURING INJURES BOTH—USE PLENTY GREEN FEED IN BARN.

For want of forethought or of knowledge many farmers do themselves a double injury by not saving their pastures and not conserving the summer gains made by their live stock. The rapid growth of grass in summer and the prevalence of fine weather in the fall, make it the best time to make such excellent gains that by September they are generally in good condition. But cold nights and short days check the growth of grass. Consequently cattle left out in pasture during October and November cut up the grass to the last vestige. A double evil results—the pastures are cleaned so close that they are not in a condition to stand the winter, and the cattle, through lack of choice fresh grass, have become so thin and demoralized that they cannot make good use of winter feed, and thus get a poor start for gains when they are again put out in pasture in the spring.

Don't trust your pastures and cattle in that way. Feed the latter housed in the barn at the beginning of the month when the short days and cold nights prevail and give them winter feed. Or, if you let them out to pasture during the day, then as soon as they are in the barn supplement the pasture grass they have nibbled with rape, soft turnips or clover. In this way your winter cattle will not lose the gains they made in summer, will be ready in the spring to stand the winter, and will be in a condition to make the most of the quality of the pasture which will enable them to produce a prime quality of fattening grass.

Secret Enquiry About Zam-Buk

SOME SENSATIONAL REVELATIONS.

A party, both interesting and curious, recently set about a secret inquiry from a number of persons who had been reported as giving testimonials to the value of Zam-Buk.

The Rev. A. D. McLeod, of Harcourt, N. B., was asked his candid opinion of the preparation. This is what he said: "As to my personal opinion of Zam-Buk, I think it is simply wonderful! I know of nothing like it. Having charge of a dispensary, I have tried various advertised remedies, but I have not found one so effective as Zam-Buk. I have tried it for many ailments, and I find that for skin diseases and the like—notably occurring in young and middle aged people, but in the aged—Zam-Buk is really marvellous. It works as at a trial cost, and if Zam-Buk were in every home, I know it would save many a doctor's bill."

J. E. Aresnauld, the well known Station Master at Wellington, P. E. I. (a magistrate for the district, too), who we heard to have spoken highly of Zam-Buk, was also approached and asked his opinion. "Certainly I will tell you," he replied. "Some years ago I began to suffer from eczema on my legs. I went to a doctor, but the disease persisted. Another doctor failed to cure me, and I then turned to various advertised remedies. I got no relief, and the disease persisted for years, sometimes very bad, sometimes a little better. Then Zam-Buk was recommended. I tried it. I persevered with it, and the result is that today I am free from every trace of eczema. I believe my Zam-Buk does what is claimed for it, and I, for one, have proved it."

Several other persons were interviewed. One lady said Zam-Buk had cured her of eczema which had troubled her for four years. Another lady—the mother of a large family—said her children had so often proved the value of Zam-Buk that whenever they got a cut or a bruise they never bothered her, but went and got the Zam-Buk box.

THE EUROPEAN WAR

New Offensive on Tyrolean Front Will Call For Tripled Forces to Make Successful Resistance.

RUSSIAN SUCCESS ON STYRK MAKES EVACUATION OF Bessarabia Unavoidable—FRENCH BATTERIES BLOW UP GERMAN MUNITION DEPOTS—TURKISH MINE EXPLODES IN THEIR OWN TRENCHES.

VIENNA, Oct. 20.—The Italian offensive along the Tyrolean front is believed here to be the beginning of the execution of the plan of General Cadorna, chief of the Italian general staff, for an invasion of Austria territory, which he is declared to have held to be the best way of assisting Serbia.

The capture by Italian forces of Prosegrina threatens Riva, while the taking of the Brentonico Castle, 2,500 feet above it, threatens Rovereto, meaning Italian command of the route to Trent and the railway to Trieste.

The results of this offensive movement thus far are held here to indicate that the Austrians may be obliged to triple their forces to meet it.

MESSARABIA SAVED FROM INVASION.

ODESSA, Oct. 20, via London.—The Russian authorities have decided that the favorable turn in military affairs has rendered it unnecessary to carry out the contemplated evacuation of the three northern districts of the government of Bessarabia.

GERMANS SWEEP BACK BY BRITISH REEF.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—A report from Field Marshal Sir John French issued tonight says: "An enemy attack yesterday afternoon was made against our front from the quai to Hulluch. After a heavy bombardment of our trenches, the infantry attempted to attack across the open ground, but was completely stopped by our combined fire, artillery, machine gun and rifle."

"This was followed by a number of bombing attacks in the neighborhood of Hulluch, which were repulsed."

The soldier's wife now receives only temporary assistance in small amounts until the Head Office has been notified and the necessary previous report issued. If there be any doubt as to his being likely to remain with the regiment, no regular monthly allotment should be made to the family until the soldier has sailed for the other side.

Where a family desirous of returning to their former home overseas requires more than $40.00 plus railway transportation to an ocean port, the additional amount should be contributed by the family itself.

Compassionate allowances should be very rarely made. The assigned pay which each soldier's wife now receives should be regarded as available for special needs. Where a soldier's wife has saved part of this assigned pay it should be drawn upon by her for emergencies.

The family of a discharged soldier should, on his return home, receive no further assistance from the Fund.

As soon as a widow receives the first of her pension cheques, and as soon as a disabled man receives an award fixed by the Pensions Board of the Militia Department no further payments can legally be paid the family from the Fund.

Families of soldiers who, though they may have enlisted for overseas service, are still living at home and drawing their pay to their families, a subsistence allowance should receive no help from the Fund. Only when these men go into barracks and the subsistence allowance is cancelled should they be helped from the Fund.

Recruiting officers should be notified if they have no authority to issue specified amounts to the wives of men who enlist. The only statement ever made by the Canadian Patriotic Fund is that following this article which can be obtained on a printed card, of which any number required will be furnished on application to the Head Office of the Fund.

No allowance should be granted to a woman, before the soldier's enlistment, was in no way financially dependent upon him.

It should be understood that our scale is always the maximum. Committee will go below when necessary.

IMPORTANT TO NOVA SCOTIANS.

When a man is thinking of enlisting, there are five questions that he wants answered.

(1) How LONG AM I TO SERVE? Until the war ends and six months thereafter.

(2) WHAT PAY SHALL I RECEIVE? Your pay as a private will be $1 per day and ten cents for food, clothing, and shelter, and the Government will provide you with a uniform.

(3) WHAT WILL MY WIFE RECEIVE DURING MY ABSENCE? Every month she will be paid by the Government the amount of her husband's pay, less the cost of her own maintenance.

(4) HOW CAN I BE SURE THAT MY WIFE WILL BE PAID? The Canadian Patriotic Fund will guarantee the payment of the money to your wife.

(5) WHAT WILL BE DONE FOR ME AFTER THE WAR? If you are permanently disabled, the Government will provide for you. If you are discharged, you will be able to find work.

Canadian Patriotic Fund.

THE LATEST RULINGS IN REFERENCE TO ALL ALLOWANCES.

At a meeting of the Executive of the National Canadian Patriotic Fund held in Ottawa on Wednesday, the 16th of October, 1915, His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall, in the Chair, and upon the unanimous finding of a sub-committee, the said Executive, the following rulings were concurred in.

Every branch is, therefore, requested to govern itself accordingly and to revise its rates, if necessary, so as to bring all existing allowances from the Canadian Patriotic Fund in accordance with the findings from November 1st, 1915, and thereafter.

1. Families in which the father is alive, able-bodied and under sixty-five years of age, or where there are other males over fifteen years of age capable of assuming the support of the family, no assistance from the Fund. The fact that the other male members are out of work is not sufficient justification for granting aid.

2. Families of men on garrison and picket duty in Canada, known as Active Home Service men, must not hereafter be assisted by the Fund.

3. Where there are several children in a soldier's family, only one may be reckoned at the maximum rate, only one at the intermediate rate and all others, no matter what age, should be at the minimum rate.

4. Where the wife of a Canadian volunteer (C. E. F.) has no children, is well and strong and is regularly in receipt of separation allowance and assigned pay, she should not receive more than $5.00 per month from the Fund. (It is felt that $4.00 per month from these three sources, such a woman cannot be regarded as being in need.) This ruling does not apply to widows and mothers to married women with children.

5. No C. E. F. family receiving separation allowance may draw more than $30.00 per month from the Fund, no matter how many persons it may include.

6. Not more than one extra monthly allowance can be given by way of retroactive payment.

7. Where it is known or suspected that a man is enlisting for the second or third time, the family should receive only temporary assistance in small amounts until the Head Office has been notified and the necessary previous report issued. If there be any doubt as to his being likely to remain with the regiment, no regular monthly allotment should be made to the family until the soldier has sailed for the other side.

6. Not more than one extra monthly allowance can be given by way of retroactive payment.

7. Where it is known or suspected that a man is enlisting for the second or third time, the family should receive only temporary assistance in small amounts until the Head Office has been notified and the necessary previous report issued. If there be any doubt as to his being likely to remain with the regiment, no regular monthly allotment should be made to the family until the soldier has sailed for the other side.

8. Where a family desirous of returning to their former home overseas requires more than $40.00 plus railway transportation to an ocean port, the additional amount should be contributed by the family itself.

Compassionate allowances should be very rarely made. The assigned pay which each soldier's wife now receives should be regarded as available for special needs. Where a soldier's wife has saved part of this assigned pay it should be drawn upon by her for emergencies.

The family of a discharged soldier should, on his return home, receive no further assistance from the Fund.

Values Offered by us Right Now

It's the time of year when many of the Pianos which have been rented out are being returned to us. It's the time of the year when we make just such offers as we are making now. We don't want to carry these Pianos in stock until next season so we sell them out at very much reduced prices. The fact is, price is hardly any object—the main object is to sell them.

As the Piano has to offer are constantly changing as sales are made, it is pretty difficult for us mentioning names and prices; we would therefore suggest that you drop in and see them, or if you live out of the city, drop us a line and we shall be delighted to give you a list of the snaps we may have at the time of your enquiry.

Please bear in mind that all are in first-class condition.

"The Trappers' Catch Brought the First Foreign Wealth to North America."

A. B. SHUBERT, INC., CHICAGO, SUBMITTS A VERY INTERESTING ARTICLE FOR THE READERS OF THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER.

Millions of dollars will change hands between the trappers and dealers in the fur trade during the coming season. It is indeed wonderful to contemplate, when one thinks of the thousands upon thousands of fur-bearing animals killed every year throughout North America, and still the supply does not seem to be withering. Many people are of the opinion that the fur industry is becoming extinct, due to the fact that the animals are being killed off in many parts of the country. This is not the case, in fact, it is just the opposite of conditions as they exist. The demand of fashion, the competition of the large circular houses and the general utility of fur garments have sent the price of furs up to such an enormous height that the trapper finds it is a small fortune, if he handles his catch properly.

The fur trade has rightly been called the greatest of our natural resources. No industry, agricultural, mineral, or otherwise, has ever been so profitable as much wealth to the United States and Canada as the fur industry. Before a single trap was set, or a single trapline was opened or a single railroad constructed, the fur-bearing animals of this country were the only source of revenue. This was one of the main reasons for the rapid colonization of our country especially of the west. It was the trapper's trail that found the path of the first highway, and the trapper's fur formed the first cargo that was ever freighted to any of the inland waters of this country. It was also the trapper's catch that brought the first fortune to this country, and ever since, we have been practically supplying the world with furs. No other branch of our natural resources have been productive for so long a time or have yielded such an aggregate wealth as the fur-bearing animals, so after all the industry is not dropping out. The fight is getting keener, and this promise to be the happen year for the trapper and fur trader.

Successful Moose Hunters.

NAUWIGWAK, N. B., Nov. 1st.—John A. Wanamaker and his wife Miss Jessie McVoy have returned from their honey-moon and hunting trip in the woods of Queen's Co. They were accompanied on their trip by Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wanamaker.

A royal welcome awaited their arrival at Nauwigwauk in the form of a surprise party. Twenty-five of their young friends called on them at their beautiful new residence and presented them with a handsome cabinet and a token of great esteem in which the young couple are held. The Marshalltown Kidnapping Case

JEREMIAH HALLOWAY, DISCHARGED YESTERDAY NOON, HAS RETURNED HOME.

The Marshalltown kidnapping case was opened in Digby Wednesday afternoon under the Special Trials Act before Judge Pelton, the Court House being well filled with spectators. No new evidence was introduced, and the case has not already appeared in the press. Before the court closed Wednesday afternoon Judge Pelton gave Mr. and Mrs. Halloway some good advice suggesting that they forget their past quarrels, get together again and enjoy future happiness.

The trial was resumed at ten o'clock yesterday morning and continued until noon. After Mr. G. H. Vernon, Mr. Harold, for the defendant, and Mr. T. R. H. Dennison, C. C. Crown, for the prosecution, had addressed the jury, Judge Pelton, in his remarks with regard to Mr. and Mrs. Halloway, said that he did not believe that Mr. Halloway was guilty of the crime with which he was charged, and he therefore declared him discharged.

Mr. Halloway left for his home in Massachusetts yesterday afternoon via St. John.

It is said that his five year old son is now at the home of Mr. Halloway's brother in Newton, Mass.

Has Not Been Identified.

THE DEAD BODY FOUND ON YESTERDAY BEACH LAST WEEK.

A correspondent writes: As reported in the last issue of the Courier, the body found by Mr. Joseph M. Thibodeau, son of Mr. Martin Thibodeau, was nothing more than a skeleton. The body was completely nude, except the socks and shoes on the feet. The skin and flesh in many parts were gone. The socks were of wool and of a gray color. In both arms where the skin was intact were tattoos. On the right was a part of a picture of a girl, and on the left a kind of floral design. The skeleton measured about six feet and seemed to have been that of an adult male. An examination of the body in the afternoon under Coroner Arnold Coombs, of Little Brook, with the following witnesses: William Gordon, Esq., Julius Kicholich, Esq., Louis E. McLaughlin, Esq., Lester LeBlanc, Esq., Dally Sheehan, Esq., of Digby, and John E. McLaughlin, Esq., of Little Brook. The verdict rendered was "That the unknown person found on the beach, in the actual state of the remains it was impossible to ascertain."

The remains were placed in the care of Undertaker Dureau, by whom it was recently buried in Stella Maria cemetery in a place reserved for paupers. The Roman Catholic church always treats the remains of the dead with respect as having the same value as the soul and funeral at the image of God. The reports are that several dead bodies have been seen floating in the vicinity of Cape St. Mary.

GENERAL NEWS TO COMMAND FORCE OF 25,000, IF NEEDED, TO CONQUER LAST GERMAN COLONY.

PRETORIA, Union of South Africa, Nov. 14, via London—General Jan Christian Smuts, minister of defence, has been given supreme command of the military forces against German East Africa. The Union of Africa government has decided to send against the German colonies as many as 25,000 men, if a force of that size should be deemed necessary.

A great recruiting campaign is being planned in the union to raise volunteers for the overseas armies as well as for operations in South Africa.

CAPE TOWN, via London, Nov. 14—The government recruiting committee has called for another 10,000 men for in British East Africa.

It is said that the call was made at the request of the British government, who are available troops are being occupied that it could not be expected to provide men for campaigns the world over.

CALL FOR 10,000

LONDON, Nov. 14—James O'Grady, member of parliament and a member of the Labour recruiting committee, is quoted by the Hockley Gazette, as saying, in an interview, that the reason Premier Asquith made the pledge that conscription would not be put into effect after Nov. 30 if the young men did not come forward voluntarily was that it was because when the recruiting scheme of the Earl of Derby, director of recruiting, was put into operation, the main response was by volunteers.

The thousands of young unmarried men, Mr. O'Grady said, meantime flooded into the munitions factories.

MARRIED MRS. COMING FIRST.

Parliament to Meet in January.

OTTAWA, November 14—Although no date has yet been set, it is probable that the opening of parliament will take place on January 13 or 20th. The session is not expected to be a long one, as there is no possibility that it should be longer than the last one, which commenced on February 5th of the year.

The only matter likely to prove contentious is the question of the extension of the period of the session.

The main matter of the session will be the question of the extension of the period of the session.

FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN
As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Dispelled Backache, Headaches and Dizziness.

Fiqua, Ohio. "I would be very grateful if I failed to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise it deserves, for I have taken it at different times and it always relieved me. When other medicines failed, and when I heard a woman complain I always recommended it. Last winter I was attacked with a severe case of organic weakness. I had backache, pains in my hips and over my kidneys, headache, dizziness, lassitude, had no energy, limbs ached and I was always tired. I was hardly able to do my housework. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one occasion, and it had helped me so I took it again and it has built me up, until now I feel like a new woman. You have my hearty consent to use my name and testimonial in any way and I hope it will benefit suffering women."—Mrs. ORFILA TURNER, 431 S. Wayne St., Fiqua, Ohio.
Women who are suffering from these distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.
If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

The Call.
I hear the clear note of the bugle And the clear note of the marching men And a deep, deep voice says, "Come!" For the army of duty points forward, Though the heartening quiver and break, Yet the voice of my calling country Is a clarion note that I cannot break. For my manhood needs and listens And bends on attentive ear, And though war's alarm may bring me harm, My road lies plain and clear.
It stretches wide from my own breast, At the far end of the world, And though from death meets my eager breath, I am ready and glad to go.
For England calls for the sons she loves, To the East, West, South and North, And she stands by when a mother's cry Is heard from her "Stand Forth!"
The shades of the past stand clear at last To the East, West, South and North, And the glory of duty stands and shines. It is time to remember now.
Then God send England the strong right arm, To prosper well in the fight, And her hand may be lifted in triumph, Is backed by an Empire's might.
Russia Closes Up Business With Scumles.
Petersburg, via London, Nov. 22.—The committee of ministers has decided to suspend all the remaining commercial and industrial enterprises in Russia, belonging to subjects of enemy countries. These enterprises number over one thousand, and employ 20,000 persons.

THE SWORD OF TRUTH
"I'm sorry. But you see how it is, don't you, Perriam?"
The man who spoke was Viscount Errington known as the "bad boy" of the House of Commons and as a young man who numbered among other hobbies, such as golf and yachting, the ownership of a literary review with an honorable record of high criticism and financial failure.
"Yes," said John Perriam, who until five minutes ago had been his literary editor and chief critic. Yes I see perfectly how it is. Because you have private axes to grind, because you find log rolling a useful game in the social and political world, you dismiss the man who tells the honest truth without fear or favor. O, I see your point of view!"
Errington laughed good humoredly. He was really rather sorry for this delicate scholarly man, with a thin, ascetic face and gray streaked hair, who had edited the literary side of the paper with untiring zeal and austere principles.
It had been an unpleasant task to call upon him for his resignation. Devilish unpleasant! But it was kind to do these things "promptly and with a smiling face."
"You can put it that way if you like, Perriam. I don't want to argue with you. But there are other people besides myself who complain that your method of telling the truth is rather too severe. You must confess you've got a vitriolic tongue!"
"I take a little interest in literature. I don't pander to the mob!"
"No, I'll be hanged if you do! But it's a bit awkward that you thrust your sharp sword into the reputation of every popular author and slash up every popular success. Look at that new man—Richard What's his Name! Richard Barton. While every other publisher is hailing him as a genius, while his books are selling like hot cakes, you sit calmly at your desk and try to persuade our readers that the man is one of the worst writers who ever murdered English!"
"Perriam isn't in his cynical way. It's my honest opinion. I write what I believe to be the truth!"
"Quite so. But, as I said, I shall be glad if you transfer your truth to some other paper which can afford the luxury of it. Well, good night! You'll excuse my dropping in at your house like this. I've got a new man to begin work tomorrow."

"My supposition now, what this means to me I suppose you know that in getting rid of me like this you are breaking up this little home of mine! How am I to tell my wife that I'm going to sell her and her again she has got to face all the squallor of poverty?"
"My dear fellow, you will get an other part all right. A writer of your ability—one of our best known critics!"
The sudden passion which had glowed in Perriam's voice when he had asked his questions gave way to a bitter laugh.
"Critics are cheap today—especially those who tell the truth!"
"Don't be so lavish of truth, Perriam! It's a thing to be used with great economy. Well, good night again and thanks. I'll let myself out."

A moment later the hall door banged, and in the drawing room of a little house at Hampstead a scholarly looking man, with gray streaked hair and stooped shoulders and drooping head, looked at his watch. He spoke aloud, in a kind of whisper.
"How shall I tell her?"
He turned hastily and pretended to be searching for a paper, when the door opened and his wife came in.
"Lord Errington did not stay long. A business matter, I suppose?"
"Yes."
Once again the question came into his brain. How could he tell her? He must get courage. He would wait a bit, until he had got a grip upon his nerves.
He sat down heavily in an arm chair and pretended to be reading the evening paper, but once or twice he glanced furtively at his wife. She had taken up a book which she drew out from beneath a pile of papers on the side table as though it had been hidden there. Even now she held it down upon her lap as though she did not wish him to see the title.
Curiously, by the trick of a nervous brain, it irritated him that she should be so amused by this book, unconsciously of the tragedy that had befallen both of them.
"What's that you're reading, Alice?"
"What now?"
"Does it matter?"
"No, but I would like to know." "A book you detest, John! Richard Barton's latest—The Wake of the Ship."

"How can you read such rubbish?"
"It amuses me. I confess I rather like it."
"Like it? Good Lord! You know my opinion of it, and of the other precious masterpieces' by the same author, boomed by the ha' penny Press!"
"Yes," said Alice Perriam. "I know your opinion of it. I have read it only this afternoon." She pointed to a copy of his paper lying on the little table by her side.
"O, that was a cruel review, John! It must have cut the man like a sharp knife!"
"It was a simple truth. As a critic I have to do my duty—to tell the truth!"
"Need the truth be told so brutally! Need it be used to strip the flesh off the bones of an author? Think of the man who wrote this book. He didn't write it for fun. Perhaps he wrote it to earn his bread and butter, to keep his home together. Perhaps he wrote it in agony and tears. But your criticism pierces his emotion, ridicules his sentiment, holds up some of his best phrases, his swift, slipshod sentences, to the laughter of literary penants. John, it is so easy to criticize, so difficult to create!"
The man flushed painfully at his wife's words.
"So easy to criticize! For Heaven's sake, Alice, don't be like the folk public who are always scoffing at the critics. You ought to know that I have studied, unaided, devoted all the years of my life and all the strength of my brain to your husband's work. I have every judgment—to see the essential truth and beauty of things. Am I to be a liar to my own soul, a traitor to my own intellect, because an author has to pay his butcher's bill, or to buy his wife pretty frocks?"
"You can put it that way if you like, Alice Perriam. She stretched out her hand and laid it upon one of his. "I don't want you to lower your standard, but I wish sometimes you would not indulge in such needless satire, in such literary cruelty. There is such a harsh note in your articles, John. Sometimes—forgive me, dear heart—I think it is because you are a little envious of their success."

THE EUROPEAN WAR

Lord Kitchener's Mission is to the Dardanelles.

DOMINION LAW-SAYS THE WAR SITUATION IS MORE HOPEFUL THAN IT HAS BEEN FOR MANY MONTHS, AND THAT THINGS WERE NOT GOING SO BADLY AS THEY WOULD SEEM TO BE.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—The Daily News in an editorial says:

Lord Lansdowne's frank statement in the House of Lords yesterday is obviously of high importance. It is the first official announcement of the immediate effect of Lord Kitchener's mission. Lord Lansdowne stated quite definitely that the Minister for War undertook the journey on which he now is engaged in consequence of a report from General Munroe advocating the abandonment of the Dardanelles expedition. The Cabinet felt very naturally that they could not consent, except on the most unimpeachable evidence, and authority, to do so in the house of Lords yesterday.

It is inevitable that the withdrawal from Gallipoli now should be felt as a bitter blow throughout the Empire.

The comments of the Australian press at the more definite indication of the feelings to which it would give rise, and reports like that published today of a brilliant tactical victory gained by the British at Krichia, can only make more poignant the regrets for so much valor, and for so many brave lives sacrificed to all appearance so useless.

British public opinion, however, is sane enough on an issue like this. It would policy dictates the abandonment of the Gallipoli Peninsula it would be madness to allow the issue to be overruled by the considerations and false sentiment.

BONAR LAW'S SPEECH.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—"Two topics have been raised which are not pleasant to think of at all about, namely, the position in Serbia, and the Dardanelles," said Andrew Bonar Law, the Colonial Secretary, speaking on the third reading of the Finance Bill in the House of Commons this evening.

Mr. Bonar Law did not agree that the public should be taken into the Government's confidence at the present time. With respect to Serbia, what ever criticisms there might be, he would not say a word on the subject, which would be judged unless all the facts were known, and most certainly, in his judgment, it would not be wise to tell all the facts.

MORE HOPEFUL VIEWS.

Despite what was happening in the Near East, he would say, however, that he was more hopeful than he had been for many months, and, looking at the tendency of the whole war, things were not going so badly as they would seem to be.

With regard to the Dardanelles, there was no one who felt more strongly than he did the serious position there, and the House might be assured that in what the Government was doing, it was intending to do it, it would not be influenced by the idea that, having made a mistake, it was going to see it out. The Government would be influenced solely by the best military opinion it could get and believed that that was the wisest course.

FINANCIAL SITUATION.

Mr. Bonar Law, passing to the question of finance, said that the country had to risk bankruptcy to bring the war to a successful conclusion. Some measure would have to be found whereby persons who wished to sell to the Government and trust its credit, would be able to do so.

He was not afraid of the financial situation, taken by itself. The real thing was the country's financial stability as a whole, and he declared that the situation was extremely dangerous, for, so long as money was borrowed freely for the expenditure required, there was a fictitious prosperity, instead of making sacrifices, the people were spending more than ever.

The moment the time came when the country could not raise indefinite loans—and, if the war lasted long enough, it would come—the country would have to find other means for carrying on the war.

He had been looking into the cost of munitions, and had found that munitions were costing three or four times more than they would have cost under the old conditions; that they could not go on indefinitely. If the financial position was to be kept tight, workmen and commercial men must set their faces against any increase in the payment for anything needed for the conduct of the war.

The Finance Bill was passed.

A Little Too Much

One evening a little boy entered a grocery store and handed the clerk a note which read: "I am a poor woman and have no money. My children and I are starving. Won't you give us something to eat?"

The kind hearted clerk filled a large basket with food and gave it to the boy, who quickly departed.

In a few minutes he again entered the store.

"What's the trouble now?" said the clerk.

"My net was back to get the trading stamps, the lad replied.

Prohibition at Home

To the Editor of the Courier:

DEAR SIR,—We have been quoting largely from the United States press this morning the perfectly wonderful results that follow prohibition because out of forty-eight states, eight have had prohibition long enough to give conclusive evidence and also because reliable statistics are available every year.

It may not be generally known that Canada has given for the extent to which it has been tried just as satisfactory results as in the United States. We have only one Province, Prince Edward Island, entirely under prohibition but several others have had partial prohibition to show very definite results.

When Prince Edward Island prohibited the retail sale of liquor it had more insane than any other Province in Canada. On account of its reputation and its insular position it had attracted a large number of patients from out side of the island. This fact is still held up by the liquor interest as evidence that prohibition increases insanity which shows to what lengths they will go to defend the traffic. The following statistics for the older Provinces show that there is very little difference in the insanity record because there is very little difference in the amount under prohibition. The new Provinces are not counted because at this time Saskatchewan and Alberta had no asylums and the others were young.

In 1913 Nova Scotia had 33.6; Ontario 34.9; Quebec 32.4; New Brunswick 26.7.

When we come to the statistics of drunkenness and crime they give a crushing blow to the traffic in liquor. In 1913 Nova Scotia had 8.0 convictions for drunkenness per thousand; British Columbia had 21.3.

The criminal record is still more remarkable, the last census report gives the following convictions for crime per ten thousand population, Prince Edward Island 1.1; New Brunswick 3.3; Ontario 35.5; Manitoba, 27.9; Alberta, 40.0; British Columbia, 42.1. These figures show that the wettest provinces have nearly forty times as many convictions for crime as the driest one and the convictions decrease with the amount under prohibition or local option. You would think after that, that the liquor dealers would shut up but they won't.

In my next I hope to give some remarkable examples of liquor misrepresentation.

No Serious Trouble in India.

THE ATTEMPTS OF ANTI-BRITISH ASSOCIATION TO TAMPER WITH TROOPS UNSUCCESSFUL.

LONDON, Nov. 20.—In northern India, where concerted attempts have been made by members of an anti-British association, having its headquarters in the United States, to disturb the peace of the country, to tamper with the troops and to agitate the Government the active loyalty of the people of the province was shown by the resistance they voluntarily offered and by the aid they gave the civil power. It was in part the answer of J. Austen Chamberlain, Secretary of India, to the Chamberlain made in the House of Commons today by Sir Edwin Cornwall for information concerning unfavorable reports respecting India, and whether these reports were of enemy country origin.

"As regards the general condition of India," the Chamberlain added, "my information is that it is substantially satisfactory. Such difficulties as have arisen had their origin in movements outside of India, or in an effort of a small group of extremists who do not reflect the sentiment of the great mass of the people, and of whom many are fugitives from justice. The Government of India has the situation well in hand."

RECRUITS AT DIGBY

Military Officers Inspect Buildings And Complete Arrangements.

THE MEN WILL BE BILLETED AT THEIR HOMES AND BOARDING HOUSES AROUND TOWN—25 NOW ENROLLED AND THE NUMBER WILL PROBABLY REACH 250.

Lieut. Col. E. C. Deady, A. D. S. & T. and Capt. J. R. Jago, Engineers, O. M. F. of the 6th Division, Headquarters of the Maritime Provinces, arrived here Wednesday afternoon on the express from Halifax to look over Digby and its buildings suitable for drilling and quartering recruits during the winter months. These military men were met at the depot by Clarence Jameson, M. P. for the district, and by Messrs. J. W. Nichol, secretary of the Board of Trade, and Ex-Mayor Short. They were conveyed by autos to the Winchester House, and, after luncheon, driven around town in autos furnished by Messrs. H. T. Warne and C. W. Munn. After inspecting various buildings it was decided to use the Nova Scotia Fish Company's new warehouse, the inside drill and lecture room being 92 x 40 feet. The officers' storehouse and office will be in the Government building.

The men will be billeted at their homes and at the various boarding houses in the town. Twenty-five recruits, recruited by Major D. C. McKay, started drilling at once, the town giving them the use of the fire hall while the new drill room is being completed for them. It is thought that the men will remain here until the middle of May, 1916, and that the company will soon reach 250 men if not more.

Col. Deady and Capt. Jago, who were much pleased with Digby and the reception given them in our town, motored to Annapolis yesterday morning to inspect the old barracks and grounds there, as a suitable place for convalescents returning from the war.

Col. Deady and Capt. Jago returned from Annapolis in time to connect with the S. S. Yarmouth from St. John yesterday afternoon.

Death of Capt. M. G. Crocker

ONE OF FREEDOM'S LEADING CITIZENS HAS PASSED AWAY.

Captain M. G. Crocker, one of the best known residents of Long Island, died at his home in Freeport Monday night, aged 25 years. He had been ill since last March. Up to that time he had enjoyed the best of health. Besides being the proprietor of two popular stone freestone, he carried on a large wholesale fish business. For years he shipped his fish to St. John, always going as captain of one of the vessels. Since the organization of the Maritime Fish Commission he has shipped his fish to Digby, and is a popular figure as any citizen of this town.

He was a deacon of the Freeport Baptist church, and a valued member in the choir. He was a member of the Freeport Masonic Lodge, Chipewake Lodge of Oddfellows, the Independent Order of Foresters, Sons of Temperance, and the Digby Glee Club, and took a deep interest in every organization or society to which he belonged. His Christian life was an example to all, and his illness and death has cast a gloom over the Western Counties of Nova Scotia, where his circle of acquaintances and friends was large. He is survived by a widow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Powell, of Freeport; five sons, Capt. George, Lieut. Earl, Wilfred and Edward; two daughters, Nina and Cora, all of Freeport. He also leaves two brothers, J. A., of Freeport, and A. B., of Port Maitland, and two sisters, Mrs. John Harvey, of Boston, and Miss George Crocker, a teacher in New Brunswick.

The funeral took place from his late home in Freeport Wednesday afternoon with interment in the Baptist cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. N. A. Whitman, pastor of the Freeport Baptist church.

Death of Miss Blanche P. Gault.

Her many friends were shocked to hear of the death of Miss Blanche P. Gault, which took place at the home of her brother-in-law, A. D. Daley, at seven o'clock Tuesday morning after a short illness, aged 40 years. The local physicians found it was necessary to perform an operation, which was done a week ago, by Dr. McKay, of Halifax, assisted by Drs. DuVerney and Read, of Digby, the operation being Miss Fitzgerald's, who had been the best of medical care, but the end came as stated above. The deceased was a daughter of the late G. C. Gault and a surviving sister by three sisters, Mrs. G. B. Armstrong, of Lunenburg, St. John; Mrs. John Thomas, of Seattle, Wash.; and Mrs. A. D. Daley, of Digby, and one brother, Mr. H. H. Gault, of Boston. She was a member of Holy Trinity church and a regular attendant when health permitted. The funeral took place yesterday from the residence of Mr. A. D. Daley, Queen street, with interment in Forest Hill cemetery. The services being conducted by Rev. William Driffield. The pall bearers were, H. B. Jones, S. A. Keen, E. C. Lynch and Oliver Turnbull. The Cochrane extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Among the Wounded.

Pte. Vaughn Henahar of the 20th Battalion, son of Capt. and Mrs. H. A. Henahar, has been reported among the wounded.

Mont. J. C. deBailhant, of the Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry, who was injured on October 3rd, and who since that time has been at the South Midland clearing base at Amiens, France, is reported seriously ill at South Bedford hospital, London, after an operation.

Leah deBailhant is a son of Major deBailhant, of Yorkton, Sask., and a cousin of Mr. W. B. Stewart, of this town.

Sapper Connell Received a Royal Welcome

Sapper Woolford Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Connell, arrived here Wednesday from St. John, having been among those wounded in the First Canadian contingent. More than two-thirds of Digby's population was at the government pier to welcome his return.

Mr. Clarence Jameson, M. P., being out of town on business in connection with recruiting, was unable to be present to greet the popular young soldier. The mayor and town council and his parents, in appropriately decorated autos, escorted him to his home on the Bay road. Mayor Hayden delivered a short but most appropriate address of welcome and the crowd cheered him as he arrived. Flugs were flying from every available staff throughout the town, and the fronts of the buildings were brightly decorated along the route through which the autos passed. The official autos were furnished by Messrs. H. T. Warne and Guy D. Dunn.

Before enlisting a year ago, Mr. Connell was employed by the Maritime Telephone Company in the office of the Digby exchange. He was shot by a German sniper while engaged stringing a telephone wire and the wound was a serious one, but his conditions are steadily improving.

Killed a Cow Moose

On Saturday last, 27th Nov., John L. Macdonald of South Minas was hunting out a moose yard some two miles from his home. It had been reported there was one bull and two cows there. In the afternoon he came upon them and in the excitement which followed he shot and killed what he took to be the bull, but when he came up, found it was a large cow. Monday morning he came in and admitted the killing to Warden Blakey, who issued Inspector O'Hall's certificate. He came down and arranged the matter. After enquiring into the character of the man, which was found good, a fine of $50.00 was imposed, part of which was paid, the remainder to remain as a guarantee of future good conduct. The meat was confiscated. J. H.

Death of Mrs. Stephen Doucet.

Saturday, Nov. 20th, at Cape St. Mary, there passed away to the land of eternal rest, Mrs. Stephen Doucet, after a short illness of eight days. She was 68 years of age and had been married nearly 30 years. She leaves besides a sorrowing husband, seven sons: Philomont, Arthur, Eddie, Moses, Eugene, Reuben and August; also four daughters: Mrs. A. Roman, of Meteghan Station; Mrs. George Mallett, of that place; Mrs. Moses Schuler, of Mayfield; and Mrs. Fred Boacher, of Salmout River. Deceased before her marriage was Miss Genevieve Connors. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. John Doucet, and brothers: Mr. Warril Connors and Mr. Sylvain Connors. The funeral, which took place on Monday, Nov. 22nd, was largely attended.

Salvation Army Services.

The Salvation Army in Digby seems to have taken on new life under the guidance of Capt. H. A. Friesen. A special list of services has been prepared for the present month, a copy of which can be obtained from any of the members. The meetings are being much better attended than during the past few months. We wish the general public and the officers and soldiers continued success in their good work.

Death of George McIntosh.

Mr. George McIntosh, formerly of Antigonish, died at his home in Fort River, Shubenacadie Co., last Friday, aged 50 years. He is survived by a widow, who was formerly Miss Carrie White, of Digby, four children and three sons-in-law; the latter being George, Augustus and Donald Winfield, sons of her first husband, the late Augustus Winfield. The funeral took place on Sunday.

Golf Outgrowing All Other Games

HAS NOW BECOME BASEBALL'S GREATEST RIVAL IN CANADA AND UNITED STATES.

Golf has had such a remarkable growth in the last ten years and the number of new courses is growing at such a wonderful rate that it is difficult to accurately estimate the cost of the game, which is baseball's great rival, Jerome Travers, who is in many ways the most remarkable golfer ever developed in this country, estimates that there are 1,300 golf clubs in Canada and the United States, with a membership of 350,000.

He estimates that the average membership is 350, though many clubs have a much larger membership. Yes, in spite of this remarkable record, four new courses are to be constructed on Long Island this spring.

Champion Travers has compiled some interesting statistics regarding golf. He figures that the average yearly expense of the man who takes up the sport for the first time is about $182.50. He proportions it as follows: Initiation, $50; dues, $50; balls, $50; clubs, $17.50; car fare, $20; caddies, $25. With the exception of the initiation fees and dues, this is a reasonable estimate.

Travers estimates that the 350,000 golfers will spend $42,000,000, and that the initiation will be $17,500,000 a year more. He says that the average acreage of the 1,300 clubs is 100 acres which is a trifle higher when the number of nine-hole courses is considered. He places a value of $6000 on an acre, or a total valuation of $78,000,000.

In discussing the cost of upkeep, he figures $7,800,000, which appears somewhat out of proportion, as most of the nine-hole courses average from $2,000 to $3,000, while a few of the eighteen hole courses will run over $10,000 a year. He says that the cost of the club, averaging seven clubs to the bag is $6,125,000. Figuring that each player will buy on an average of one club a year, he estimates a further outlay of $875,000 for clubs.

GOOD YEARLY SALARY. Travers believes the average professional earns about $1,200 a year. This gives a total of $396,000. He says the caddies cost $500 a week, or a total of $3,000,000 a year. He places the value of the golf real estate at $100,000,000, and says that $50,000,000 more is spent each year for laborers and caddies. He says that fully 300,000 men and boys are employed by the golf clubs. The estimate would give the following table:

Real estate.....$100,000,000
Professionals.....396,000
Laborers caddies.....50,000
Cost of upkeep.....17,500,000
Cost of clubs.....6,125,000
Balls.....2,000,000
Initiation and dues.....875,000
Total.....$222,125,000

The general total is believed to be within reason. While some of the figures might not be borne out by actual facts, other are too conservative. Certainly no other game in this country has as much money spent on it, and no devotees of a sport spend more money than do the American golfers.

In many cases it is difficult matter to arrive at an actual estimate owing to geographical location or varying conditions. As for instance, the Siwanoy Golf Club cost about $250,000 while a course situated in the country, some distance from New York, would cost within 75 per cent. of this amount, owing to the value of real estate. The property of other clubs located nearer New York reaches a much higher figure than that of the Siwanoy, but the general estimate is probable on the conservative side.

Big Lantic Sugar Shipments. It is surprising what a large quantity of sugar from the Atlantic Refinery, St. John, is used in Western Nova Scotia. Carloads after carloads come over every month in the steamer Yarmouth and for ward from Digby by rail to points east and west. And it is a fact that the ship is not all for on every trip of the smaller steam packets and schooner carriers sugar from the Atlantic Refinery makes up part of their cargoes.

Little River Red Cross. The following amounts collected by Mrs. Walter Denton $11.25
Mrs. Annie Merchuse $6.02
Mrs. Wilbert Denton $3.00
Have been paid in to the treasurer of the local Red Cross Society, Little River, to purchase material for their work.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC. Don't be misled by any promise at all any typewriter being as good as the REMINGTON. It is impossible and you might as well have the best while you are about it.

Invention Locates Warnings in Fog

WILL REMOVE DANGERS OF SEA CATAS TROPHIES.

New York, Nov. 30.—Prof. A. G. Webster, of the University of Worcester, Mass., today demonstrated an invention which he asserts will practically eliminate fog dangers at sea. His invention detects the exact direction from which the sound of the fog horn is proceeding. The demonstration was made before the National Academy of Sciences in the American Museum of Natural History.

"Had this instrument or a similar one been on board the ill-fated Empress of Ireland," said Prof. Webster, "that disaster, with its loss of 1200 lives would have been averted."

Dr. Webster said he had named his invention the "phonometer."

The phonometer consists of two steel megaphones joined together at the narrow ends. These are then attached to the main instrument.

The latter consists of an adjustable tube, in the center of which a small metal disc is suspended on fine wires. A small mirror, one millimetre square, is fastened to the disc. In the front of this is a small telescope with a tiny electric bulb.

The light from the electric bulb is reflected from the mirror onto a graduated scale which is seen through the telescope. When in operation the megaphone attachment is moved around until the light shows its maximum brightness. A compass connected with the instrument then tells the exact direction from which the sound is coming.

"Fish or Cat Bait." The following poem in the Walt Mason style, has been dedicated to those who have no self-control to the various Patriotic Foods, and is eloquent in its simplicity.

"We've had a twelve month now of war, but the end's not yet in sight, and the challenge comes to every man to either pay or fight. It's not the time to lean and haw, or air your hobby whistles, or to you to see how now that the British Tommy wins. It's not the time to count or gain, or to fatten up your purse, while your brothers fight to rid the world from a war mad ruler's curse. The man who stays at home just now has got to foot the bill, and it's just as well to do the thing with a cheery British will. The man who leaves his home, his kin, who leaves behind his all, to put the khaki color on and heed his country's call—he's made a sacrifice that's real, and the man who stays at home has got to bear his burden here without a groan or groan. It's not the day to count the cost or what the tax will be when the empire's fate hangs on the beam in this fight for Liberty. When strong men march away to war, our fathers and our sons, to free a blighted Belgium from the curse wrought by the Kaiser, we've got to play the part of men. It's not the time to break—we've got the blood of Wellington, of Nelson and of Drake. The call's gone forth to every man, alike to small and great—if you can't go with the fisher men, you'll have to cut the bait."

Travers believes the average professional earns about $1,200 a year. This gives a total of $396,000. He says the caddies cost $500 a week, or a total of $3,000,000 a year. He places the value of the golf real estate at $100,000,000, and says that $50,000,000 more is spent each year for laborers and caddies. He says that fully 300,000 men and boys are employed by the golf clubs. The estimate would give the following table:

Real estate.....$100,000,000
Professionals.....396,000
Laborers caddies.....50,000
Cost of upkeep.....17,500,000
Cost of clubs.....6,125,000
Balls.....2,000,000
Initiation and dues.....875,000
Total.....$222,125,000

The general total is believed to be within reason. While some of the figures might not be borne out by actual facts, other are too conservative. Certainly no other game in this country has as much money spent on it, and no devotees of a sport spend more money than do the American golfers.

In many cases it is difficult matter to arrive at an actual estimate owing to geographical location or varying conditions. As for instance, the Siwanoy Golf Club cost about $250,000 while a course situated in the country, some distance from New York, would cost within 75 per cent. of this amount, owing to the value of real estate. The property of other clubs located nearer New York reaches a much higher figure than that of the Siwanoy, but the general estimate is probable on the conservative side.

Big Lantic Sugar Shipments. It is surprising what a large quantity of sugar from the Atlantic Refinery, St. John, is used in Western Nova Scotia. Carloads after carloads come over every month in the steamer Yarmouth and for ward from Digby by rail to points east and west. And it is a fact that the ship is not all for on every trip of the smaller steam packets and schooner carriers sugar from the Atlantic Refinery makes up part of their cargoes.

Little River Red Cross. The following amounts collected by Mrs. Walter Denton $11.25
Mrs. Annie Merchuse $6.02
Mrs. Wilbert Denton $3.00
Have been paid in to the treasurer of the local Red Cross Society, Little River, to purchase material for their work.

Derby Scheme Great Success

LABOR LEADERS HAVE $0 TO 90 PER CENT OF MEN ENROLLED

LONDON, Dec. 14.—The enrollment of volunteers under Lord Derby's plan, for immediate and future military service, could not be completed yesterday on account of the numbers crowding the enlistment offices throughout the kingdom, at the eleventh hour. Therefore, the office announced the extension of the time until midnight Sunday, with a possible further extension to midnight Wednesday.

Recruiting continues today, and if the numbers of the past two days are kept up, the total enlistment for the last three days will probably equal the total for any preceding three weeks.

The process of enlistment was attended by picturesque and enthusiastic proceedings. Bands and orators, both official and volunteer, from military and civil life have been busy. The keynote of the speeches has been that Britons should show the world that freemen are able and willing to defend their country without compulsion.

After the enrollment is completed the war office will be obliged to segregate those engaged in government work, and "indispensable" to the industries. A large proportion of those enrolled may also be barred by the medical officers, because the examinations of the past two days have been for the most part, superficial, and in many cases, dispensed with altogether, the medical officers, being unable to keep up with the enrollments. There is no information at present regarding the number of new recruits, but the trade union leaders tonight confidently declared that the Derby campaign was a success. That estimate, however, the number of men in England, Scotland and Wales, between the ages of eighteen and forty years, as 1,000,000, nearly half of whom were single. The general understanding has been that about three million entered the army before Lord Derby's plan was put into effect, and it is believed that between eighty and ninety per cent of the remainder have presented themselves for attestation.

From this total must be deducted three classes—the physically unfit, those engaged in munition work, and those engaged in other necessary callings, such as railroading, mining, shipping and farming, whose numbers cannot be approximately estimated, except by the officials.

British Loses Fifteen Hundred

LONDON, Dec. 12.—Casualties aggregating 1,500 men and the loss of eight field guns which they were unable to remove from encampments, are told of in an official communication issued this evening, dealing with the retreat of the British Fifth Division from Lake Doiran, Serbia, in conjunction with the French. Special mention is made of the gallantry of the Connaught Rangers during the battle. The communication says:

"After sustaining violent attacks, delivered by the enemy in overwhelming numbers, the British division succeeded, with the help of reinforcements, in retiring to a strong position from Lake Doiran, westward toward the valley of the Vardar, in conjunction with our Allies."

"The Division is reported to have fought well against heavy odds, and it was largely due to the gallantry of the troops, especially the Connaught Rangers, the Munster Fusiliers, and the Dublin Fusiliers, that the withdrawal was successfully accomplished."

"Owing to the mountainous nature of the country it had been necessary to place eight field guns for the purpose of defence in positions from which it was impossible to withdraw them, when the enemy took possession of the position."

"Our casualties amounted to 1,500."

King George's Health Much Improved

LONDON, Dec. 12.—King George, who suffered severely from the effects of the fall from his horse at the British front in France, Oct. 28, has recovered sufficiently to take up his usual life in his retirement. Respecting the king's condition, Sir Frederick Treves, surgeon to the king, and Sir Bertrand Dawson, physician extraordinary to his majesty, have made the following statement:

"We are happy to report that the king has so far recovered from the grave accident of Oct. 28 as to be able to resume work with certain limitations."

"The king has lost seriously in weight, and, until a normal state of health is attained, it is essential that his majesty should avoid any exertion of fatigue. It has been necessary on medical grounds that the king should take a little stimulant daily during convalescence. As soon as the king's health is quite restored he will resume total abstinence which he imposed upon himself for public reasons."

Did Germans Blow up the Danelm?

CAPT. NORVAL TURNBULL, OF BAY VIEW, WAS CHIEF OFFICER.

It is now over 50 days since the steamer Danelm sailed from North Sydney loaded to the hatches with a cargo of steel products from the Dominion Steel Corporation. Since then no tidings have been heard from her, and judging from rumors, she was in Sydney after the steamer left, it would not be surprising if she was sent to the bottom as a result of the hostile act of one of the crew.

The last man to sign on at North Sydney was John Miller, who was born in Denmark, but who is believed to be a German. Previous to the outbreak of the war, Miller was known and admitted to be a German, says the Sydney Herald. It is admitted that the fellow was a dangerous foe to the cause of the Allies. The steamer had never been heard from, and it is the general opinion of those conversant with Miller's actions that he was a paid emissary of the Germans, and attributing the loss of the steamer to his appearance on board. A significant incident in connection with the loss of the Danelm is the fact that the little steamer was, which sailed two days after the departure of the much larger and more powerful craft, made the run of 12 days to Glasgow, and during the run across met with the most favorable weather. The fact proves one thing, that the Danelm was not lost as a result of bad weather and strengthens the theory that she met her fate as a result of internal explosion.

Mr. L. Eton Nowell, of Yarmouth, was chief engineer on the ill-fated steamer and Capt. Norval Turnbull, of Bay View, Digby county, was chief officer.

Report of the Freepost Auxiliary Red Cross Society.

This society was organized on the 1st of Oct., 1914, and has met every week since and the work taken home. Many women unable to meet with us, have done good work in their homes. New officers will soon be elected for the coming year, our present officers being Mrs. A. H. Bains, President, and Mrs. A. H. Thorber, Treasurer.

The amount we have raised this year by contributions, donations and all the different ways which have already been published in your columns, is $294.12, and our expenditures are $223.11, leaving a balance on hand of $71.01.

We have shipped 50 boxes to Halifax for the soldiers, besides a large box sent by Mr. William F. Perry during the summer, of new clothing for the poor Belgian children.

The contents of the five boxes for soldiers and hospitals were: 184 pairs socks, 17 caps, 1 pillow, 28 pairs bed socks, 16 pairs white, 1 pair mittens, 4 cholera belts, 325 handkerchiefs, 0 sheets, 2 towels, 1 suit of underwear, 10 pyjamas, 100 pairs of socks, 3 bonnets, 11 bed jackets, 15 outside shirts, 12 surgical shirts, 44 nightshirts, 63 face cloths, 2 quilts.

We sent $5.00 to the British Red Cross as the result of a "Patriotic Auction."

The young ladies have formed two clubs for the same great cause and no doubt will be heard from later.

"So we try to add to the list for the brave and noble men who are fighting to defend us."

Mrs. LESLIE NICKERSON, Secretary.

Allies Work Together in Balkan Fight

PARIS, Dec. 12.—Earl Kitchener, the British commander in chief of the British army, was unfavorably impressed, in the course of his Mediterranean visit, by the serious difficulties which the British army had to face in the Balkan campaign, the attempt to rescue the Serbian army failed, it seemed to him, might have been tried with more chance of success.

These ideas were discussed at the Cairo conference, and the examining by the war council of the Allied forces of France and Great Britain to the diplomatic representatives of those countries at Athens. General Sarail (the French commander) and General Sir Charles C. Monro (the British commander) thus received instructions, countermanded by the war council of France and Great Britain, to the effect that the British army was to be withdrawn from the Balkans.

Complete unity is now established between the two governments, and the British army is now making itself felt.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF

HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Dandruff right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp: of dandruff—that awful scourge.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink and then, drop—the hair falls out fast. A little Dandruff tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dandruff. Save your hair! Try it!

OPENING OF HOLIDAY GOODS
DECEMBER 7th
AND FOLLOWING DAYS

Life has no nobler pleasure than that of friendship. At the end of the busy year, full of effort and struggle, comes the season when we forget the trials and welcome the opportunities, when we count our friends, when we choose for them remembrances, not because of their cost, but because of the pleasure they will bring, when we realize to the full that life is worth living because for once it is unselfish.

The Worries of the Season

If our store may play its part during the trying days that lie between now and Xmas eve, if it may lighten the strain of your purse (for everybody's is too small at such a time), if by good service and splendid assortment for your choosing it may help to keep the puzzle wrinkles from your forehead, if it will have done all we have hoped and planned to have it do. Important Note Regarding Diphtheria.

Health, Nova Scotia.

Special attention is called to the fact that a very mild form of diphtheria is now prevalent in our province.

In many cases the symptoms are merely those of a trifling sore throat, and the diagnosis is established only by a bacteriological examination of a swab taken from the throat.

It should be noted that these mild cases are just as infectious as severe ones, and that young children are often infected from frequently develop the disease in very violent form. Everyone who is suffering from such a throat ailment should consult a physician, in order that a correct diagnosis may be established.

GERMAN PATROL, BRITISH SHIP AND A ZEPPELIN LOST.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The German patrol boat Bunt has been wrecked on the island of Langeland, in the Baltic sea, according to a dispatch to the Exchange.

Telegraph Company from Copenhagen.

The bodies of several German officers were found on the shore, the dispatch adds.

ZEPPELIN LOST WITH CREW.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—An Amsterdam dispatch to a news agency here today says:

"Destruction of a German Zeppelin and the death of the entire crew was reported by travellers arriving here today from Brussels."

"The Zeppelin was passing over the outskirts of Yverdon, near the French border, with a heavy cargo of bombs, the travellers said. What caused the accident is unknown."

"Three peasants working in nearby fields were arrested and sent to Germany in an effort to keep the news from becoming public."

RELIGIOUS RELIEF SHIP ATTACKED.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—The Belgian Relief Committee's steamer Levenpool from New York for Rotterdam has been beached on the English coast in a sinking condition as a result of striking a mine.

The Levenpool, a British steamer of 4,844 tons and 376 feet long, was built in 1911 and is owned in West Hartlepool.

She sailed from New York November 20th, arrived at Falmouth on December 11th and was to proceed thence to Rotterdam.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—While the diplomats in Greece and Roumania are engaged in new deals which will decide the next step in the Balkan operations, there is increasing evidence that the Germans ever restive, are preparing new strokes on both the eastern and western fronts, or at least a concentration of their forces to strike where conditions are propitious.

Despatches from Petrograd note German activity, particularly in the Dniepr district, where they would accord with their line penetrates to the river Mense, and where there has been considerable activity during the last few days.

The only thing argued against this is that the river has been in flood, and the French have been systematically destroying the bridges as they were rebuilt. Thus far, however, there has been little more than the usual mining and bombing operations, and several fighting in the west.

In the Balkans military operations, are temporarily at a standstill, except in Montenegro and Albania, where the Austrians and Bulgarians are carrying on mountain warfare against King Nicholas' troops and the Serbians.

BULGARIANS REPELLED WITH HEAVY LOSS.

A big battle is in progress in the valley of the Albanian, or Black Drin river, between the Serbs and Bulgarians. At last reports no decision has been reached in the fighting. It is said, however, that the Bulgarians, who crossed the river, found the Serbians had re-formed, and were driven back with heavy losses.

It is possible that the Serbians counterattacks were made possible by supplies having reached them from the Italians, who landed on the Albanian coast, and who are trying to open communication with the Serbs through that country.

The Italians, it is understood, already have landed 80,000 men.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Danger From Aliens.

To The Editor of The Courier:

In an address recently delivered in Buffalo, Rev. T. Albert Moore, D. D., touched on a subject that should not be allowed to drop till the Nation is aroused to a sense of its great importance.

His subject was "The Challenge of the Alien," and he said in part, "The further challenge of the Alien is that he becomes a citizen. This means the oath of allegiance. But what should it mean in preparation for that oath? Besides not less than five years—some say seven or longer. But is that everything? Should not the candidate for naturalization be able to read and write and evidence some knowledge of the constitution and ideals of the Nation whose citizenship he desires to possess? Is it not our responsibility to create right conceptions and lead the alien into a proper realization of what citizenship means? Is it not ours to surround him with higher influences? Too often his rendezvous is the saloon, his companions undesirable, and his instruction from the seamy side of our civilization? We allow him to make the bar-room his social centre thus lowering his convictions and degrading his purpose. Let us fully realize that upon us lies the responsibility for the betterment of the immigrant—the future citizen."

This war has revealed to us the immense importance of citizenship. It is citizenship that would secure to us the sacred franchise for their own selfish purposes but so far we have made little or no effort to teach what citizenship means—its duties and responsibilities. Probably the greatest influence at work in creating political ideals is the saloon. What then could we expect but what we have got—robbery and corruption in high places and a large number of citizens base enough to sell their vote to the highest bidder.

When the alien arrives in a strange land he is welcomed to the saloon. Soon the party worker comes and rounds up a lot of them and "gets them naturalized," under promise of being faithful to the party and so the game goes on, and our national ideals become obscured and our politics more corrupt.

What are we doing to create higher ideals of citizenship? What are we doing to teach the blessings of freedom? We do not owe it to the stranger to ignore the saloon and in its place encourage workmen's clubs. Would it not be well to have a regular course from the primary school up in patriotism and all that that world stands for.

If we do not act promptly it does not require great wisdom to foresee how it must end.

H. Anstey, M. B., M. C. P. S.

Acid And Alkaline Soils Affect Diseases of Plants.

Common potato scab flourishes in an alkaline soil, a condition produced by the addition of excessive quantities of either wood ashes or lime. This is because the fungus which causes the scab grows best in an alkaline medium.

Club-root or finger-and-toe of turnips on the other hand, grows best in an acid soil and according to recent investigations the bulk of Nova Scotia soils are acid. The club-root is caused by a slime mold which will not develop in an alkaline medium. The application therefore, of sufficient quantities of lime to counteract the acidity of prevailing soils is an antidote for club-root.

A difficulty is at once suggested by these considerations. In counteracting club-root in turnips you produce conditions favorable for scab in potatoes, and if you have ideal conditions for avoiding potato scab you have just the conditions for club-root in turnips.

The difficulty is solvable. It will be fully discussed at the Short Course at the College of Agriculture, Truro, Jan. 4th, 1916, next, and is one of numerous agricultural problems which every young farmer in the country should be familiar with. Write to the Principal at Truro for full particulars.

HER DREAMS CAME TRUE

Life Unbearable from Indigestion
Health Restored by "Fruit-a-tives"

MELVILLE C. GAUDREAU

Rochele P. Q., Jan. 14th, 1915.

"I suffered for many years with terrible indigestion and constipation. I had frequent dizzy spells and became so run down that I never thought I would get well again.

A neighbor advised me to try "Fruit-a-tives". I did so and to the surprise of my doctor, I began to improve and headed off my indigestion. I continued this medicine and all my indigestion and constipation was relieved. I consider that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives" and I want to say to those who suffer from indigestion, constipation or headaches, try "Fruit-a-tives". Give this lovely fruit medicine a fair chance and you will get well the same as I did."
