

Welcome to the Digital DIGBY COURIER

1877-1978

100th Birthday

The hundredth anniversary of the Digby Weekly Courier has brought to mind some fond memories as contained in the following historical chapter of the writer. But first, I wish to congratulate the current editor of the Courier, Mrs. J.M. (Edith) Wallis, for a job well done over the years and still being well done, good service rendered with great fortitude.

According to any record, I have at hand, the Digby Courier, in one hundred years of publication, was controlled under the same family management for 42 years, 1931 to 1973, under the control of Wallis Print Limited. The late J.J. Wallis became editor of the Courier the second time, in 1929, and at the same time of the business, which he had been running for some time previously and which became Wallis Print Limited sometime between 1929 and 1931.

I well remember the last year of the twenties when I worked in the office of the son with the husband and father of the late J.J. Wallis, the Courier. Sometime in 1928 or early 1929, the late J.M. Wallis (Mac), son of "J.J." engaged me to work every day after school hours, Saturdays, and for some months after finishing school. The place of work was in the building of the present Digby town hall on First Avenue. J.J. Wallis then worked occasionally at the print shop but mostly across the street at the Courier office which was then located on land in the general area where The Royal Bank of Canada is now.

Wallis Job Print operated in 1929 with a staff of four consisting of J.J. Wallis, J.M. Wallis, Miss Eva Haynes, who later became Mrs. George Kicup, and myself. I was engaged as a printer in the left

Eva's job was to run the printing plant but mostly at the Courier office. "Mac" worked nearly full time at all the different jobs at the Job Print, and I worked at various duties, most of the time being spent at operating printing presses.

We worked ten-hour days, six days a week. "J.J." and "Mac" sometimes worked overtime. I worked only the regular hours being paid a weekly wage which was comparatively good for those times and my lack of experience. I received four or five dollars a week for working after school hours to six o'clock and on Saturday all day, and nine dollars a week for full weeks after finishing school. A two or three dollar a week raise was offered to me in the fall of 1929 for me to stay on at printing, but I had made up my mind to enter a branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, starting salary of $300. The bank salary figured out about the same per hour as for the printing job. Nevertheless, the congenial atmosphere of the printing plant those days, and, experience however short, were helpful and appreciated by me.

"J.J." was very jovial in his occasional trip to the Job Print and did considerable kidding all in good fun. "Mac" was a witty person who mixed in a good natured sarcasm now and then for one reason or another. Eva most always had good answers to all the kidding she was called upon to take, and, generally held her own in a quiet sort of way, always busy setting type. We four all got along very well indeed. However, I do remember that some days did seem long and weary because of the monotony of some repetitious jobs.

In spite of the great demand for printing those last boom days of the twenties, business generally being brisk, it looked to me that people had to work long and hard to make any decent profit. There was including treatment of the hands. However, nails and finger ends were used and I was soon back to work.

Now and then a printing job had a dose on parchment paper which required a special kind of printers' ink which smelled very bad those days. I always dreaded it when "Mac" would do that job on the largest press, in spite of the fact that we always opened an outside door to lessen the effects on the constitution.

One of the jobs I had to do, being the junior and printers' devil on the staff, was to clean up now and then. One day not long after I started my job at the printing plant, I decided to clean the floor that apparently hadn't been cleaned in some considerable time.

"J.J." came along and said, "how are you making out Vince?" I assured him that I thought I was beginning to see the floor. "J.J." laughed very heartily, he thought the remark pretty good and suitable.

Sometimes the gasoline engine or a piece of machinery would refuse to work, and after "Mac" the fix-it man had patiently worked for a certain length of time to get it going again, without results, "Mac" would then stand back and cuss quite strenuously, then he would immediately start working. "See," he would say, "all it needed was a bit of cussing."

On other occasions when some gadget refused duty for me and, seemed to be broken, "Mac" would say, "use a little oil," and sure enough, often that is all it took. How often since, have I thought of the value of that remark and the actual need of "oil" in many life situations, applied at the right time, right place and, in the right way.

Other things that sort of stick in my memory and come to mind now and then are, like the time I told "Mac" of four teenage boys who in the spring season of 1929 got together just before dark one evening and decided to initiate the newly built outdoor Pines Hotel swimming pool which had just been filled with water. Clothes were taken off near the road just east of the pool; nobody else seemed to be around except the four boys; no thought or time for bathing suits up to the pool they went. They stood on the edge of the pool and looked at the chilly water, one soon jumped in, the rest quickly followed and across the pool they swam. "Mac" listened to the story and hardly said anything, but the next "Digby Courier" had a good story on the episode. The heading of the story went something like, "Four Boy Scouts Officially Open Pines Hotel Swimming Pool." Who were the four? Many years later they are known as: the late Dr. Earl H. Anderson, veteran of two wars (second world and Korean), was awarded the Victoria Cross; Sidney L. Smith, now prominent druggist for many years in Digby; Clayton D. Snow, Digby wholesale lobster king merchant; and myself.

As a young teenager I used to like doing some writing about different events interesting to myself and mostly for myself. One day "Mac" said to me "how about writing your version of the story told about 'The Marooning of Jerome'." I had heard and read at least two somewhat different stories about the man who was found marooned on a beach at some point on the French Shore of St. Mary's Bay, Digby County. When found this man's tongue had been cut out and his legs quite freshly amputated, were surgically well dressed and bound. He was presumably left by some vessel before dawn one morning, all for some mysterious reason.

"Jerome" appeared to have been a man of some considerable social standing and possibly of some considerable wealth. However the only thing the man could or would ever say after being found and cared for by some family in the French shore was, something that sounded like the word "Jerome". He either could not, or, would not, write anything about who he was or why he was left the way he was. Well, it was, and is, one of Digby County's mystery stories, and, different ideas have been expressed over the years concerning this man. However my response to "Mac" was, I felt no urge to write anything more or different about this man. The mystery seemed to have been very well explored in the mind of many people, and, he was a sort of curiosity for many people who visited where he lived for many years.

Three years later I was quite a young man, and I was back in the street that I had lived in, and I was clanking my powered up car, and I was thinking of "Jerome", and as I remember it, I was thinking of "Jerome". "J.J." was noted for his sense of humor and his ability to make people laugh. One day in 1928 during the time Mr. Wallis was editor of the Scott Act (Prohibition Law) he was about and advocated by some people, and I was attending a boys' conference in the town of Digby.

Digby 172 Years Ago

Compiled by David Sanford

From the files of the Courier of January 23, 1867, the following account has been copied concerning Digby in 1800.

"Among a number of old newspapers kindly sent to us by friends is a copy of the Saint John Gazette of May, 1802, says the Telegraph and among other advertisements contained in the issue before us is one describing the town and township of Digby, and offering for sale certain lots in the town. In this area we are told the township of Digby extends from the Gulf of Annapolis westward to the extremity of the province of Nova Scotia, and contains about 130,000 acres." The town plot is thus described:

"The Town Plot is situated at the east of the township just within the entrance to Annapolis Basin, and twenty miles from Annapolis Town, and six miles across land from the head of St. Mary's Bay. This laid out from the water's edge, partly on level ground and partly on the declivity of a modern hill, dry and pleasant, and having with an eastern aspect, a view of the Annapolis Basin and its cultivated shores for twenty miles in where it terminates with the Fort and River's mouth of that name. It was settled by Loyalists from New York in 1783, the most of whom went early to farms, or, moving to older countries, left the whole side to be bought proved by about who now reside detached, built dwellings with orchards, and some fishery and. It has communal parts of the common provisions in a cheap, built readily to be from many circumstances, probability of place of some shipbuilding, the West India a cheap and of residence. This advertised at the December, 1802, were to be a No. 100.

free trade with the U.S.A., especially with the New England States. The question was then debated by some Digby High School students one of which was "J.J.'s" daughter, Florence (now Mrs. Melvin O. Tibert, Freeport, Digby Co.) Some days after the debate a man from some part of Nova Scotia came to the printing shop looking for Florence, one of the successful debaters; I had the impression that this man was interested politically but, maybe I was wrong.

Well, I felt that I had learned considerable from my short experience at "The Wallis Job Print". I was learning to do beginner jobs, receiving some knowledge about things like: embossing, stapling, perforating, counting, cutting and trimming paper stock, mixing inks for certain desired colors, and so forth, but, the only experience I had at setting type was just enough to make a "pi", the printers name for a confused mess.

There was a taste of trying to sell job printing outside the plant. Work was a little slack one early fall day and so "Mac" said to me, "how about trying your hand at taking orders for printed personalized Christmas cards?" I tried it, made several calls around town, spent most of the time at one particular house, and got an order, but, it was much time and got an order, but,

The first time wireless telegraph ran into Digby was in 1890. The equipment was sent from London on her trip. The new telegraph was put in January 18, 1890. The old Lighthouse Passage and stone Northeast of it.

Loss of the ship "W. Coombs" is a story of the Digby Courier of January 18, 1890. The ship was on its way to the coast when it was hit by a storm. The ship was lost with all hands.

Municipal Councillor William Cossaboom Died Last Friday Morning

Succumbing at last to an illness that in taking his life had not taken from him his energetic interest in all things pertaining to the welfare of his native county, Municipal Councillor William Cossaboom died at his home, Harbor View in the early hours of last Friday morning. Death, though long prepared for, came suddenly. The funeral was held on Sunday, from the home with members of Keith Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Bear River conducting the ritual for committal. Rev. Hiesler of Deep Brook Baptist church conducted the service at the house and grave side. Members of the Municipal Council, with Warden Andrews, prominent citizens from all parts of the county and a multitude of friends attended to pay their respects to one who in all his action had proven himself an upright and worthy citizen, one whose loss will be felt by many not in any way connected with his family circle.

Mr. Cossaboom was fifty four years of age. He was born at Smith's Cove, a son of the late Edward and Sarah Anne Cossaboom. He had always taken active interest in the affairs of his native county and for more than twenty years has been a member of the Municipal Council. He is survived by his widow, four sons and four daughters. The sons are Earl, Gordon, Donald and Douglas. The daughters, Mrs. R. H. Shepard of Hartford, Mrs. A. C. McIntyre, of Port Rock, Mass. Mrs. J. E. Steadman of Bear River, and Miss Florence, teacher at New Germany school.

Friends in all parts of Canada and the United States from whence they came year after year to enjoy the hospitality and comfort of the Harbor View House will join with friends at home in extending to the sorrowing family their sympathy and sorrow in the death of one whom all were glad to honor.

The School Registration Has Increased

Registration in Digby Schools has increased from 307 to 327, a part of the increase being due to families moving to town for the winter. This is reported as the largest registration ever in Digby schools and several of the grades are larger than one teacher can properly handle.

Karsdale

Capt. L.H. and Mrs. Porter of the Munson S.S. Co., New York, spent part of last week at their old home here. They had come the week before on the S.S. Nerissa to Halifax and passed on to Mahone Bay and other points on the South Shore. While here, one day was spent in a car ride to Middleton, calling at Lawrence town. His father, E.H. Porter and Mrs. Porter accompanied them on the drive. At Lawrence town a very pleasant visit is made at the home of Dr. J. H. Hall. On Thursday, the Capt. and his wife left for New York, via Yarmouth.

Mrs. Gordon Erb, of Saint John, spent a few days of last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Baxter.

Promoted and Transferred to Head Office

Mr. A. L. Sinclair, accountant at the Bank of Nova Scotia Branch in Digby has been advised of his transfer to Head Office of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Toronto, to report there immediately for duty. Mr. Sinclair's transfer comes as a promotion and the friends he has made in Digby during his short time as accountant at the local branch will wish him all success.

Mr. Sinclair is a native of Antigonish and his transfer to Ontario is just another case of "exporting the best the country produces."

He will leave as soon as the man transferred here to permit his departure shall arrive.

The establishment of a colony of German nobility in Saskatchewan is a possibility, judging by the visit to St. Walburg of a number of titled Germans headed by Dr. Smid von Senberg, of Berlin, who is already established on an estate in the area. Investment of a capital of large proportions upon huge farms is said to be contemplated by the party which is to return to Germany to make its report and come back in the spring with families and relatives. One member has already purchased one and one-half sections of land.

Digby Life Saving Station To Be Reopened

That the Digby Life Saving Station is to be reopened is contained in a news item published in Wednesday's Telegraph Journal as follows:

Of interest to mariners and the Nova Scotian fishing fleet is the announcement from the Department of Marine and Fisheries at Saint John, through J.C. Chesley, agent, that it has been definitely decided to re-establish a life saving station at Bay View, Digby County, N.S., also that the storm-signal mast at Port Maitland, N.S., has been completed and placed in commission.

The probable crew will be:
Captain—Captain Wm. Snow
Mate—Wm. Ellis
Engineer—Arch Morehouse
Cook—Loran Adams
Crew—Fred Murphy, Arnolds Turnbull, Walter Barnes, Jackson Handspiker.

Ellis, Morehouse and Adams were members of the former crew, when the life saving station was operated. Mate Ellis is an overseas veteran. Arnold Turnbull is the son of a mariner who was lost at sea when his vessel, with a cargo of steel rails and ammunition was torpedoed by a German Sub.

Appointments will be made immediately.

Mr. Chesley, who returned Monday night after a tour of inspection along the coast of Nova Scotia, said the question of the Bay View life saving station had been discussed for some time, and on account of increased activities in scallop fishing and other branches of fishing, which considerably increased the fleets, the station was to be reopened. It would be in charge of Captain William Snow, assisted by Archibald Morehouse as engineer, and a crew of four others. The life boat is now in Saint John being overhauled and repaired.

Referring to the new storm signal mast at Port Maitland, Mr. Chesley said a great benefit to the fishing fleets has been completed. The mast is over 50 feet in height. G. F. Saunders, of Port Maitland has been appointed signal officer, having taken over his duties on September 28.

The Courier Adopts Hydro Power

This issue of the Courier was run off with power supplied from the town's distribution service from the Sissiboo Falls development. No more, we hope, will the cough, cough, of the gasoline engine keep the neighbors awake nights. On Wednesday Mr. Daley ran the loops from the transformer at the Town Hall and Art. Robinson and his assistant, McNutt, did the inside wiring, connecting up a General Electric 3 horse power 3 phase motor. It works like a charm, silent, almost, with just enough purr, to sound pleasant to the ear.

Appointed to Teaching Staff

Mrs. Waycott, of New Glasgow, has been appointed to the teaching staff of Digby schools to replace Miss Coggins, grades 4 and 5, who has resigned because of illness. Mrs. Waycott is an experienced teacher, holding B. licence, and has taught in Sydney for several terms.

Digby And The C.P.R.

Halifax newspapers continue to be full of the coming of the Canadian Pacific Railway to Halifax. Prominent business men in all parts of the province are quoted as pleased that the C.P.R. has taken a first step towards active participation in the development of the province and the people of Halifax and Dartmouth are particularly optimistic, seeing in the new hotel scheme but the beginning of an extensive programme of development.

Every bit as much as Halifax Digby has reason to be interested in watching future developments and the most important move which Digby can take is to impress upon the people of Halifax that the Canadian Pacific Railway already has an entry into the port of Halifax over the lines of its subsidiary, the Dominion Atlantic Railway from Halifax to Montreal, by way of Digby, is hours shorter than Halifax to Montreal over the C.N.R., by way of Moncton. This is an important advantage which Digby has, and to press for improved steamer service and the fulfilment of the plan to place a ferry for the handling of freight between Saint John and Digby will not be lost.

sight of if the people of Digby are awake to their opportunities and the prospects of port and railway development.

Fulfillment of a vision of the Dominion Atlantic Railway and the Bay of Fundy steamer service becoming links in the chain of main line transportation between Halifax and Vancouver is not impossible of fulfillment. There are no insurmountable engineering difficulties, and the saving of time in rail haul would more than make up for the loss of time in transferring from rail to ferry and back again to railway.

A Loss to Digby

In the death of Municipal Councillor, William Cossaboom, proprietor of the bungalow colony at Smith's Cove, known as Harbor View, Digby Town and County have suffered the loss of a stirring and valuable citizen. Mr. Cossaboom was one of the first to see what possibilities lay in development of the tourist business and his organization, begun a score or more years ago and steadily developed to the present day is one of the outstanding features of the attractions which Digby has for summer visitors. Beginning in a small way Mr. Cossaboom adapted his assets to the needs of his patrons with such profitable result that many of the cottages connected with Harbor View are constructed by their occupants, on lands leased from Harbor View management. This policy has resulted in building up steady clientele for the business and has been the cause of its popularity and expansion. One instance of Mr. Cossaboom's ideals of service is illustrative of the whole man. Early last Spring a client in the United States spoke for a cottage. Through press of business the booking was not completed and all the accommodation let to other parties. When the client wrote a reminder of the arrangement Mr. Cossaboom immediately had a brand new cottage constructed, already for occupancy when the visitor arrived.

Attaining a deserved success in his own affairs Mr. Cossaboom was not selfish. His view point was broad. What was good for any part of Digby helped his business and in every way in which the tourist business could be developed he took a leading part.

His passing is a loss to all of Digby and his place will be hard to fill.

Salada Tea Co. Opens New Building in Boston, Mass.

One hears a deal about the expansion of United States industry in Canada; therefore, it is interesting to note that Canadians can, and do, expand their business on the other side of the border. This was witnessed at the recent opening in Boston, Mass. of the new building of the Salada Tea Company—a Canadian enterprise with world-wide ramifications.

The building was opened by the Honorable P.C. Larkin, in the presence of Governor Fuller of Massachusetts, Mayor Nichols of Boston, and leading State and city officials. Referring to the imposing nature of the building, and the fact that it was the largest in the world devoted to the packing of tea, each speaker commented upon the success which had attended this great Canadian enterprise in the United States field.

Architecturally the building is a handsome ten-story structure, and enjoys the distinction of possessing a pair of the finest bronze doors in the world. These doors, which are the work of Henry Wilson, an English sculptor, were awarded a medal by the French Salon, where models were on exhibition this spring. They are said to rank in beauty with the doors of the cathedrals in Milan and Mayence.

The interior of the building is notable for the remarkable collection of tapestry, carvings, cloisonné ware, metal work and ceramics. Great Buddhas, which have seen centuries pass, gaze patiently with folded arms upon a modern business. Richly colored Oriental rugs transform the floor into gay garden patches with aisles of marble. In the great windows some of the smaller and rarer pieces present themselves to the passing public. Throughout the building officials and employees will have light, airy and most pleasant surroundings in which to work, with a luxurious clubroom on the top floor for rest and relaxation. The clubroom is furnished with handsome lounges and large, comfortable chairs upholstered in English red morocco, tables in color to match. Oriental rugs on the floor, and rare Chinese tapestries on the wall, with antique pieces distributed around the room, and on the inner wall a huge, inviting, open fireplace. Just below the clubroom is the cafeteria, to be maintained for the use of the employees.

Speaking about the beauties of the new building, Mr. Larkin said: "Of course, you know, we don't want to be boastful about these works of art. The building is new, but we have been many years collecting some of the nicest things we have. All our buildings have the same general sort of surroundings for executive and employees. We started doing these things years ago—before we even had much money to spend in such ways."

"It isn't extravagance, really. Forbidding surroundings hinder production in any line of business. I know that it's good business. We very seldom have any one leave our employ. Sometimes two whole years go by without a person leaving the company either in Canada or United States. We have never had any labor disputes of any kind. Such things cost money. It is expensive to train new employees. It is expensive to put employees in a jail-like place and have them merely endure their work until the time comes when they can get out."

Hart House String Quartet
Fri., Oct., 14th

On Friday evening, Oct. 14th next there will be heard through String Quartet CNRA, owned and operated by the Canadian National Railways, that superb musical organization known as "The Hart House String Quartet, of Hart House, Toronto, Ont." This Quartet is internationally known, its fame having reached already London, Budapest, Cologne, Berlin, and its performances are well known in the Maritimes. They have already broadcast from CNRA, and in addition to this they have given concerts at places in the Maritimes, notably in Halifax. The Canadian National Railways have been successful in again acquiring the services of this brilliant group of musicians and are thus enabled to give radio enthusiasts in the Maritimes a rare treat.

Of the Quartet itself it may be said that it devotes all its activities to Chamber music, being literally endowed to carry on the fine work throughout Canada, and consists of Gerda de Krez, first violin; Harry Adaskin, second violin; Milton

Beware of Bladder Weakness Getting-Up-Nights

Disturbed Rest Undermines Health
Saps Vitality, States Physician
Who Recommends Home Treatment

Men and women who are constantly annoyed and disturbed by bladder weakness or urinary irritations, should take immediate steps to combat their trouble before it reaches a serious or perhaps dangerous stage!

Backaches, Headaches, pains in feet and legs, nervousness, restlessness, frequent but scanty urination with burning and pain, getting-up-nights—these are some of the more troublesome signs of Bladder Weakness or Irritation that should have prompt attention.

No matter how stubborn your case may seem to be or how many different medicines you have tried without success—don't give up, and think your case hopeless or the natural consequence of advancing years, until you have tried the special private prescription of Dr. Southworth, a physician of nearly 50 years successful experience.

In order to reach the many thousands who cannot come to his office—Dr. Southworth has placed his "URATABS" in good, local drug stores—and invites you to try them without risk of cost unless pleased. If URATABS bring you swift and certain comfort you will be happy. If they do not satisfy, they will cost you nothing—so if you need this great medicine, try it today! All drug stores.

Happy Birthdays in Acaciaville Home

On Tuesday evening Sept. 27, a number of relatives and friends from Acaciaville and Bear River, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. H. Nichols, to give them a pleasant surprise, the occasion being Mrs. Nichols birthday and Mr. Nichols' coming the following day.

The evening was most enjoyably spent by singing and playing, also music on the victrola.

covering one thousand acres.

In the annual report of the Roads Department of Quebec Province this year a general increase of 20 per cent. in automobile traffic has been recorded. In some sections of the province the increase over last year has been more considerable.

A recent report issued by the secretary of commerce of the United States Government at Washington estimated the American tourist traffic in Canada as representing $200,000,000 of the $700,000,000 spent by Americans in foreign countries for the year.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has let contract to a chemical company for the extermination of weeds along the right of way on western lines.
This fall a total of 2,690 miles will be sprayed with a death dealing liquid by a mechanical device attached to tank cars.

Motor cars continue to occupy place of first importance in Canadian trade with South Africa, according to the report of the trade commissioner at Cape Town. Following these items of principal importance are wheat, paper, tires and whites, agricultural machinery, condensed milk, fencing, canned fish, white lead, oatmeal, binder twine.

To serve the interests of hundreds of farmers in Southern Saskatchewan two new branch lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway began to operate on September 1st, according to announcement by D. C. Coleman, Vice-President, C.P.R. The longer of the two lines runs from Assiniboine south to Coronach, a distance of 50 miles, and the second, a 27-mile stretch, runs from Brown-head to Lake Alina.

A barred Plymouth Rock hen, owned by the University of Sackatchewan, has made a new record for egg production. This new champion has a total of 339 eggs in 365 days, not only a new record for barred Plymouth Rocks but, as far as is known, a new record for all heavy breeds of poultry. The bird was bred and raised by the poultry department of the University.

The Toronto Freight Office First Aid Team carried off the Shaughnessy Grand Challenge Cup, emblematic of the First Aid Championships of the Canadian Pacific system, in competition with the Weston Shops of Winnipeg, when the latter champions, at the Place Viger Hotel, September 21. The Toronto team secured a total of 419 points out of a possible 420, while the Weston shops secured 403 points.

The establishment of a colony of German noblemen in Saskatchewan is a possibility judging by the visit to St. Walburg of a number of titled Germans headed by Dr. Smolik von Seeburg, of Berlin, who is already established on an estate in the area.
Investment of a capital of large proportions upon large farms is said to be contemplated by the party which is to return to Germany to make its report and come back in the spring with families and relatives. One member has already purchased one and one-half sections of land.

A double birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nichols on Wednesday evening of last week. It being the occasion of both Mr. and Mrs. Nichols birthdays. The guests consisted of the relatives of the family. As usual at Mr. and Mrs. Nichols home a very enjoyable evening was spent.

MRS. THOMAS BURRELL

At her home in Deep Brook on Tuesday Sept. 27th after a few weeks illness, Mrs. Thomas Burrell passed peacefully to rest, aged 82 years. A comforting funeral service was held at her late home on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 29th, conducted by Rev. G. W. Hiscler, pastor of the Baptist Church who spoke from the words found in Zachariah 14, 7, "At Evening it Shall Be Light". The choir reudered the following hymns—"Rock of Ages, Jesus Lover of My Soul, and Abide With Me". She is survived by her aged husband, one brother, Mr. Baird of Clements-vale and one son, Avar Burrell of Deep Brook. Interment took place at Clements-ville where the greater part of Mrs. Burrell's life had been spent. Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

Institute Creed

"Keep us, O God from pettiness; Let us be large in thought, in order, in deed. Let us be done with faultfinding, and leave off self seeking. May we put away pretence and meet each other face to face without self pity and without prejudice. May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous. Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle. Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid. Grant we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are one. And may we strive to touch and know the great common woman's heart of us all, and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Brought Her Health

Moose Jaw, Sask.—"I am going to try to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered very badly with dragging-down pains and inflammation, also pains in my right side over my hip and down my whole side into my leg. I had it nearly a year when I went to a doctor and he said I would have to have an operation. But my mother, said to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as it saved her life years before. I took two bottles and I found I was better, I kept on taking it and also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I have had two more children since then and am perfectly well. I used to have to lie down two or three times a day, and now I do all my housework without trouble. I always keep the Vegetable Compound in the house as I find a dose now and then helps me. I am willing for you to use this letter any way you see fit and will answer letters. It can help any other woman I'd be only too glad to try."—Mrs. ESTHER HOGGTON, 414 Main Street, Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan.

B. R. W. I. Notice

The annual dues of the Women's Institute are now due, and may be paid to the treasurer, Mrs. Romans, or at the library any Saturday afternoon. It is only 50c a year, a very small fee. The personal benefits, including the library are numerous and opportunities of community service are very frequent, so it is hoped that many will avail themselves of the privilege. With a good strong membership the Institute can be made to fill a real need in the town and be a true benefit to "Home and Country".

Held Over Till Next Week

The Treasurer's Annual Report of the Bear River Women's Institute will be published in next week's issue of the Courier.

Annual Report of the Secretary Bear River Women's Institute Nov. 1926 to Oct. 1927

Since November 1926 the Bear River Women's Institute has held 11 regular and 2 special meetings.

Our membership has included 39 members, five of whom are non residents, with an average attendance of about sixteen. This figure seems very small, but through hearty cooperation much can be accomplished by a few who are deeply interested.

During the year a number of Sewing Parties were held at different homes. To which each member took her own fancy work and paid the small sum of two cents. These gatherings were much enjoyed as they not only increased the funds of the organization, but gave the members an opportunity for a social time, which the monthly meetings do not always permit.

A Tea and Sale of "Gift Shop" goods was held in December and a Pantry Sale in January, both of which added a considerable amount to the funds.

In May the public had the pleasure of listening to a recital under the auspices of the Institute given by Miss Leah B. Whidden, elcutionist. A goodly sum was realized and a very enjoyable evening spent by all.

The Institute has still retained its interest in the schools of the town. Two of the members have visited the rooms monthly and during the winter hot cocoa was served to the children who were compelled to bring their lunch. A year's subscription to "Child Life" was donated by the Institute to Grades V and VI. The local school prize list was again taken in hand by the Home and School Committee and the sum of sixty two dollars ($62) was solicited for this purpose. The schools having closed early in June on account of sickness, the prizes were not presented until September.

The "War Memorial Fund" has increased materially since the beginning of the year. Standing on November 1926 at $818.41 it has now reached the sum of $1087.79. The greater part of this increase was obtained by a "Gift Shop" opened on Carnival Day in July. There

When Your Stomach Groans With Gas

Make This Test At Once

If you really want quick and lasting freedom from the usual annoyance of after eating distress—try this NEVER FAILING test today!

At trivial cost, get from your druggist a little Bisurated Magnesia—either powder or tablets—and take after your next meal. This simple pleasant test can be depended upon to prove its value in less than five minutes. In most cases relief comes instantly.

Bisurated Magnesia is a harmless, non-laxative form of old fashioned Magnesia that, when taken after meals, sweetens and neutralizes the dangerous acids that cause most stomach ailments. Ask your druggist for Bisurated Magnesia—and start the test today!

were also several donations of money from friends interested in the cause. The Institute stands ready to pledge the above named amount when required for the erection of a "War Memorial".

Our library is still flourishing with about 339 books on the shelves and much enjoyed by those who avail themselves of this opportunity for good reading.

Too much cannot be said of the untiring efforts of our Publicity Committee which has met weekly and prepared notes for the Digby Courier, in which a page is carried on by the Institute. This is the only paper in the province, in which a whole page is conducted by a woman's organization.

The Institute aims to do everything possible for the betterment of the community and we hope for a large increase in membership for the coming year.

Respectfully Submitted,

Margaret Warren

cases ended in death! So a recent Canadian investigation showed. These were not cases of infectious diseases—of consumption—of typhoid! They were cases where a person had sustained some slight injury—a cut, a burn, a wireprick—and where the wound, being thought not serious enough for careful treatment, had been neglected. Blood-poisoning and death resulted. When you or your children sustain any injury, ensure against infection by applying Zam-Buk. DO YOUR CHILDREN GROW FAST ENOUGH?

Are They Sturdy, Healthy and Strong, or Pale, Weak and Run Down?

Growing children need a great deal of food, and sometimes they will not eat the kind of food that they need for strength—then they become thin, pale, and run down.

The condition of undernourishment can be corrected by taking Father John's Medicine which does contain just the food elements such children need, and that is why so many children gain weight regularly while they are taking this old fashioned family medicine.

Father John's Medicine is an expertly blended preparation of cod liver oil with other ingredients in such a way that its food elements can be easily taken up by those who are weakened and run down. Your friends and neighbors know its value. Thousands of mothers depend upon it to keep their children well and strong.

Making the Canadian Dollar Go Farther than Ever Before

IN the purchase of the common commodities of life, the Canadian dollar has decreased in value during the past decade.

But, in the purchase of an automobile, the dollar is now worth one hundred to two hundred per cent more than it was seven to ten years ago—is worth more, in fact, than ever before in history.

While constantly raising the quality standard of its products, General Motors of Canada has increased the purchasing power of the Canadian car-buyer's dollar.

... by the economies of volume purchasing and production,
... by the close co-ordination of resources and facilities,
... by improved labor- and time-saving methods of manufacture,
... by sharing with Canada the savings effected by increased production.

In quality and in value, the Canadian dollar now goes farther than ever before in the purchase of a General Motors car.

British Publishers Surprised

During August 95 publishers from Great Britain and the Colonies visited Canada.
They were naturally interested in Canadian publications. While in Montreal many of them paid a visit to that big weekly,
The Family Herald and Weekly Star, and received the surprise of their Canadian visitors when they learned that Canada had a weekly publication with a million of readers each week. Many of them knew The Family Herald in the Old Country, and were extremely interested to learn how such a wonderful paper, 72 pages each week, could be issued at one dollar a year. Yet it is done, and Canada gets the benefit. Newspaper, Family Magazine and Agricultural Journal, each the best of its kind and all in one,
for such a small sum was certainly a surprise to the visitors.

Prohibition Now Becoming World Issue

Prohibition has become an international issue, asserts P. Whitehall Wilson, well known journalist and former member of the British parliament, writing on "Liquor—the New World War" in the August issue of "Association Men,"
United States organ of the Y. M.
C. A.

"The fight between the wets and the dries is an international fight," he writes, "as bitter as any war ever waged. To break the resolution of the one great country that has dared to defy the authority of alcohol is the aim of the alcohol influences in every other country."

"To declare that prohibition is a failure, that the law which is not enforced brings all law into contempt that anybody can get it —this is the propaganda. Yet there are misgivings. Even the newspapers that are swayed most obviously by liquor advertisements cannot be blind to the prosperity of a country which, however wet it may still be socially, is dry industrially."

Pointing out that the League of Nations is discussing the health of mankind, and that nothing that affects health can be irrelevant to the league's purpose, Mr. Wilson adds: "The league confers territory by mandate on its member nations. Is drink to be supplied in those territories to native races?
It is a sharp and controversial point which we shall hear not a little."

EUROPE'S VIEWPOINT

Mr. Wilson describes the European point of view. The liquor trade has been regarded as reputable and even an aristocratic. This tradition is challenged by prohibition.
"There has been no challenge comparable with it," Mr. Wilson comments, "since Mohammed forbade the faithful to indulge in the fermented grape. It is a challenge as formidable as the campaign against slavery and, to this day, there are countries where slavery persists. The challenge has aroused the liquor trade throughout the world."

"About the liquor industry there is a peculiar characteristic.
On the whole it has no need to fear competition within its own boundaries. No brewer in England objects to import of wine from France. Wine stimulates the habits and desires which beer can satisfy. Liquor is thus international and international are the antipathies which it arouses."

VAST INTERESTS INVOLVED

In England and Wales the licensed houses number over 80,000 and there are 12,000 clubs, all compelled by their very constitution to be unsympathetic to an unwelcome experiment. In Britain, the shares in breweries and distilleries are distributed among hundreds of thousands of people.
To buy out the British liquor trade would cost, Mr. Wilson estimates, between two and three billion dollars. The tax revenue from drink is $700,000,000 a year.
In France there are 3,700,000 acres under vines, and in Italy 10,500,000 acres. Export of fermented wines is threatened by every country which discusses prohibition. Spain has brought severe pressure to bear on Iceland because it went dry and stopped importing wines.

Factors working for prohibition.
Mr. Wilson says, include the facts Europe is finding she cannot keep pace with a country which has cut out a vast volume of economic waste that the very discussion of drink has put the drunkard in his proper place, that safety legislation in Britain is symptomatic that the youth movement in Germany is not accepting old standards, that women are noting the results of prohibition in the United States that in England Saturday day sports are drawing workers from public houses at the moment when there are wages in pocket, and that immense number of new houses are being built in areas where public houses are unwelcome.

Fisheries Commission Will Meet at Digby and Tiverton

Delegates Chosen By Public Meetings in Fishing Communities Will be Heard by Commission. Their Expenses to be Paid by Fisheries Department.

Case for Presentation to Commission Should be Prepared Immediately by Interested Parties

The Courier has been advised by Fisheries Officer Torrie that meetings of the Commission to investigate the fishing industry will be held at Digby and Tiverton. The date of the meeting has not yet been set, but it will not likely be before the end of October. The meeting in Digby will be for the Minas Basin areas and Digby, west to and including Gulliver's Cove. The meeting at Tiverton will be for West of, but not including Gulliver's Cove to Brier Island. At each meeting delegates from the fishing ports in the areas are to be heard and general information as may be deemed beneficial to the Commission their duties will be received. Delegates chosen at public meetings will be heard and the department is earnest in its desires that the case for the fisheries may be presented in every detail. To this end, and believing that it would be a hardship in some instances, for witnesses to be present at the hearing at their own expense the Fisheries Department has undertaken the remuneration of delegates from each fishing centre. To not more than two delegates from each fishing community, to be chosen at public meeting of these interested in the fisheries, compensation will be paid at the rate of 10 cents per mile, each way and board while in attendance at the meetings. In order to qualify for this compensation delegates must present to the Commission a certificate of credentials signed by the chairman and secretary of the public meeting at which they were appointed. Only delegates from the areas for which the meetings are to be held will be heard at each meeting, that is to say, that at the Digby meeting no evidence will be received from delegates from points west of Gulliver's Cove, and at the Tiverton meeting no evidence will be received for witnesses east of Gulliver's.

In the interests of the fishing industry of the whole Bay of Fundy district it is important that the delegates to be chosen to present the case of the Bay Fisheries be selected at once in order that they may prepare a complete report of conditions and an outline of means which in the opinion of those engaged in the fisheries will accomplish the desired improvement of the industry and increased prosperity to all engaged therein. Every phase of the industry, from the catching of fish to its final disposal is pertinent to the case under investigation and all means whereby the industry can be improved should be gone into. Only by giving delegates selected sufficient time in which to prepare their evidence and secure opinions of outstanding fishermen of technical points can the best results be obtained. It is wise, therefore, to permit of no delays in holding public meetings for discussion of the matter and selection of delegates.

The meeting will cover the following areas.

AT DIGBY—From Gulliver's Cove, East inclusive, Delap's Cove, Parkers Cove, Port Lorne, Margareville, Hall's Harbor, Scott's Bay, Avonport, Parrsboro, Victoria Beach, Digby, Deep Cove, Culloden, Gulliver's Cove.

AT TIVERTON—All fishing communities from Gulliver's Cove to Brier Island, Westport, Freeport, Tiverton, Tidville, Little River, Sandy Cove, Centreville.

Chief Fire Marshall Visits Digby Schools

Major Rudland, Chief Fire Marshal for the province of Nova Scotia was a visitor in Digby on Tuesday and while here visited the school, addressing the pupils of grades 8, 9, 10 and 11 on Fire Prevention. This is Fire Prevention week and Major Rudland's visit was so timed as to enable him to instruct the scholars in the necessity of preventing fires and to show them how great the annual losses throughout the province caused by preventable fires.

Will Start Home Tomorrow

M. Jean dePeiffer, who each year spends his summer at Weymouth, starts back to Boston tomorrow or Sunday. M. dePeiffer has been here since the latter part of May and has enjoyed every moment of his summer. Next year, he plans, he will come about the end of April. While visiting in Digby on Tuesday, saying good bye to a number of friends, M. dePeiffer called on the Courier to extend his good wishes. These are heartily reciprocated.

Moose Hunters Return

Several parties of Digby hunters have returned from trips to the hunting grounds. Most had been unsuccessful, the weather proving unsuitable for calling. It is rumored that two moose were brought out by Digby hunters but the Courier has not been able to verify that rumor.

Noted Speaker Will Address Meeting on Child Welfare Tomorrow

Miss Charlotte Whitton, Executive Secretary of the Canadian Council of Child Welfare will address a public meeting to be held in the Court House, Digby tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon, October 15th commencing at 3.00 o'clock.

Miss Whitton was formerly Associate Secretary with Dr. Shearer in the Social Service Council of Canada. She relinquished this post to become private secretary to one of Canada's premiers. After accepting her present post, Miss Whitton was asked to represent Canada at the League of Nations on an International Committee on Child Welfare. She spent considerable time in Geneva as well as in other parts of Europe studying the problem of child welfare and her address on Saturday afternoon will be of the most interesting kind.

Miss Whitton is a speaker of outstanding ability, taking her place in the first rank of Canadian men and women. It is hoped that all who can avail themselves of this unusually rare opportunity of hearing so distinguished a speaker will attend the meeting on Saturday afternoon.

Convention Social Service Council Digby County

On Monday afternoon, October 24th, at three o'clock, a Convention of the Social Service Council of Digby County will be held in the Hall of Grace United Church, Digby.

Child Welfare, Prison Reform, Prohibition and other Social Welfare Problems will be discussed.

The General Secretary of the Nova Scotia Social Service Council will give address, subject—“The Failure of Government Control.”

All Churches, Temperance Societies and Social Welfare Organizations are requested to send delegates. Clergymen are requested to give notice of the Convention.

Late Strawberries

Not everyone can have strawberries picked in October and even Editors do not get them very often. The hot house variety is too expensive for ordinary people and Dame Nature most always stops the berry season before October comes.

Which makes it all the more remarkable that on Saturday Glen-Don Handsicker of Culloden picked a number of perfect strawberries and sent them, with a cluster of leaves, to the Courier.

Does this make a record length to the berry season in these parts?

Halifax to Vancouver—Via Digby

A part of the development of the Port of Digby as a link in the trans-Canada service of the Canadian Pacific Railway must be the improvement of shipping facilities at the port, and in the Bay of Fundy Service. The Empress which for many years has been in use as a transport between Digby and Saint John has reached the stage where the good of the service demands her replacement. Freight traffic, during the summer months at least, when automobiles form large part of cargoes carried, has so increased as to require quick methods of loading and unloading. From every angle the service needs attention and now seems the most appropriate time to put forward the needs of the port of the travelling public and freight shipping interests.

Current opinion seems to be in favor of a freight car ferry operating between Digby and Saint John, with facilities for the carrying of automobiles. Such a service would relieve congestion of the passenger steamer and obviate the delays which have been so common during the past two years. Ferries of this type are operating successfully between New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island and between the mainland of Nova Scotia and Cape Breton Island, as well as in many other parts of the world. At those points the rise and fall of tide is not so important an obstacle to their operation as would be at Bay of Fundy ports, but it is possible by construction of three position berths to divide the rise and fall and permit of the steamer docking at convenient position at any stage of the tide. This method was first suggested for the Port Tormentine car ferry and was abandoned because engineering skill evolved a system whereby the extra cost was not required. It's feasibility is unquestioned, however.

The Canadian Pacific Railway taking important part in the development of the province by its activities in connection with the new Lord Nelson Hotel in Halifax is indication that the attention of transportation people is being directed to the East in order to find outlet through Canadian ports for the freight traffic originating on the network of railway lines which serve central and western Canada. Double tracking of sections of the Canadian National Railway between Moncton and Halifax is improving the facilities of that line in the matter of outlet. War service proved Halifax to be the logical shipping port for export and import trade with European countries, not only as between Europe and Canada, but as between Europe and the United States. The Vancouver-via Panama route, the Hudson Bay route nor the north to south movement of merchandise through the Great Lakes system to the United States can overcome the natural advantage of Canada's Atlantic ports—and the move by the Canadian Pacific Railway to have a place in the development of the most easterly port is now which was bound to follow. Digby's part in this development is only limited by the amount of business which can be developed and it is up to Digby to afford every possible assistance and encouragement in the venture.

United States Tourist Agencies—And How Their Representatives Don't Work

The Courier is not alone in its suggestion that the most important need of the Province of Nova Scotia in relation to the tourist business is the establishment of Nova Scotia offices in important centres in the United States. Nor is approval of the suggestion limited to people in Digby.

A reason why the provincial government should take steps to establish Nova Scotia offices in American cities was plainly shown in Digby recently. Two young men, representatives of United States tourist agencies, visited in Digby. They were here for a full day perhaps two. They saw the golf links, perhaps visited the water front and places it was mighty easy to get to. Through the courtesy of Captain Spurr, of the Myrtle House, they were taken on a drive to Bear River, visiting Harbor View, Mr. Eldridge of Lour Lodge, got hold of one of them to show him around a little and they left Digby with some knowledge, at least, of what Digby has to offer to attract summer visitors.

To a suggestion that they visit the Pines they said they had been told "it was too far from town". They didn't trouble to learn for themselves that the Pines is about five city blocks from the railway station—just let it go at what they had heard, "it was too far from town". They did not, so far as the Courier has been able to discover, visit all the summer hotels to inspect their accommodation, nor did they visit any of the summer places down Digby Neck, or towards Barton or Weymouth. They loafed a day or so in Digby and went on their way. Their reports to their superiors, no doubt, will be rehashed out of booklets issued years ago—if they even go to that much trouble.

What they did may help Digby. We have our doubts. The point is that they were United States citizens, not particularly interested in Nova Scotia. They were sent down to Nova Scotia to get information. If they got no more information in other towns than they did in Digby they might as well have stayed in Boston, or wherever they came from.

Only tourist offices organized to exploit the attractions of Nova Scotia can properly place the beautiful and climatic features of this province before the tourist public of the United States. Their operation seems to be a matter for government action if the best interests of all the province are to be served. Digby, alone, could not operate such a system, nor could any other town or group of towns. Even if they could their efforts would not produce the maximum results—results which can be obtained by adoption of some scheme along the lines suggested by the Courier's articles on this subject.

It would appear that the interests of all the people of Nova Scotia whose livelihood depends upon development of the tourist business is of sufficient importance to warrant government action and assistance. Remains only to place before the government sufficient evidence of a demand for such action and results must follow.

Tribute

How delightfully invigorating and refreshing it is at times to call to mind men and women whose lives are devoted to their fellow citizens in untiring efforts to secure those things for the community in which they live that make living a little more attractive, business a little more constructive, pessimism and retrogression, the bane of all earthly pursuits, less irksome and discouraging.

As one whose interests has followed with keen appreciation the history of this beautiful Province by the sea and one who will continue to follow its pages with ever the same fervour, may I say that in L.H. Potter, Manager of the Royal Bank at Weymouth, is to be found just such type of citizen as to whom I refer.

Without political affiliations or prejudices unbecoming to his position of trust and responsibility he has directed at personal sacrifices of time and energy his ability to foster and encourage those influences which have undoubtedly made for a better Weymouth and incidentally a better Province. To enumerate the various activities of our genial friend whose hand has ever been extended in the support of every worthy cause would occupy too much space. It is however fitting and proper that we weave our garland of flowers into a few kind words that mark the tribute of a grateful people who do not fail to recognize the results of those efforts to establish sidewalks for the village nor the keen interest displayed in all affairs pertaining to the improvement of the community.

The Provincial Government is now constructing a standard highway facing the approach to Weymouth via the Dominion Atlantic Railway which will add much to the appearance of the Village and the convenience of the people whose safety has heretofore been endangered by the narrow exit leading to and from one of our finest residential sections. Another milestone in the legacy of untiring devotion to a cause which is ever uppermost in his thoughts—Public Welfare and Service.

Many might take a leaf from his book and in so doing find a haven of rest for the ills that torment and the fears that distract by contributing their part toward the place in which they live and have their being.

"Fruit-a-tives" Make and Keep You Well

MRS. O. MONACH

Thousands and thousands of women have tried "Fruit-a-tives" during the past quarter of a century. Many of these, like Mrs. O. Monach, took "Fruit-a-tives" as a last resort after having failed to get relief from any other remedy. And their experience has been invariably the same—"Fruit-a-tives" saved them from constipation, biliousness, headaches, indigestion, backache and kindred troubles when they had almost given up hope of ever being well again.

Writing from Frenchville, Sask., Mrs. Monach says, "I have taken many kinds of medicine, but none gave so good as 'Fruit-a-tives' for me. It is the only medicine I take—I use it regularly and do not feel right if I do not."

Let "Fruit-a-tives" be your medicine and help you to get well and keep well. Buy a box today. 25c and 50c—everywhere.

Seabrook Postmaster and Lady Celebrate Sixtieth Anniversary

On Saturday night, October 8th, at Seabrook, there was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hines, the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage. The marriage took place at Digby, on October 8th, 1878 and on Saturday night last twenty five guests called to congratulate the lovers of sixty years upon their anniversary and to wish for them many more years of wedded happiness.

The home was decorated with a profusion of autumn leaves and blooms and cut plants, and amid this delightful scene the guests enjoyed an evening of music, song and other entertainment. Many letters and telegrams of congratulation were received and a large number of gifts including cheques, silver, china, cut glass and linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines spent the first five years of their married life in Rossway, where Mr. Hines was born. Twenty five years ago they moved to Seabrook, where with the able support of his help-mate, Mr. Hines has developed a productive farm. Mr. Hines is also Post Master there, having received the appointment some years ago, and in his duties is courteous, obliging servant of the public.

There are four daughters and a son of the union; Mrs. R. M. John son of Toronto, Mrs. A. I. Miller, Alberta; Mrs. Alfred McCullough, Digby, and George and the son, Joseph, who reside at home.

A Winning Policy

Great successes are rarely founded on luck. This is as true of newspapers as individuals. The policy of The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, since its first issue, about sixty years ago, has been to go on improving each issue from week to week, and give its readers the best value that money and brains could produce. That policy has certainly succeeded. Today the Family Herald and Weekly Star has over one million readers, is reliably something to boast about in Canada. It stuck to this policy and won the reward of its readers' trust to it year after year, proving that a good thing is appreciated. At one dollar a year for that big weekly of 72 pages no home in Canada can afford to be without it.

FATHER JOHN'S
GIVES STRENGTH TO REBUILD HEALTH

Universally Missed

To the Editor of The Courier:

Massachusetts joins with Nova Scotia in profound regret over the untimely passing of the late William M. Cossaboon, for he had many warm friends and admirers hereabouts and the fame of his great accomplishment at Smith's Cove was known throughout a large section of the United States.

Even for one who, like myself, had known this sterling man during all of the nearly three decades of his unremitting industry and planning, it is not easy to express in words the sense of loss that his death has brought to friends and community.

A man of real vision, tireless energy and unconquerable courage, of creative public spirit expressed in countless ways, of friendly and helpful disposition, and with abounding faith in the future of Nova Scotia as a summer vacation land—this splendid citizen well deserves a niche in Acadie's Hall of Fame, in company with Donald McKay and Lorau E. Baker, and the rest of our illustrious pioneers of industry and commerce.

His achievements should be an inspiration to all of his countrymen!

Chautauqua Over

The three day Chautauqua in Bear River was concluded on Sunday night by a Community Vesper Service in the United Church, which was fully attended.

The address of the evening was given by the pastor, Rev. S. W. Sawdon and the scripture reading and prayer by Rev. E. J. Barrass pastor of the Baptist Church. The Petrie Quintette furnished special music, assisted by the choir.

Chautauqua was much enjoyed by the people of the community and we are glad to state that enough guarantees have been secured to bring it back for the coming year.

Deep Brook

Charles Bacon and daughter Minnie, of Bridgetown, were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Spurr. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Spurr, of Kentville were guests at the same home.

Gilbert Potter handed us two sound perfect Golden Russet apples on Monday picked from Wm. Vrooms orchard the fall of 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Purdy left here on Tuesday for their home in W. Roxbury after a pleasant two weeks spent with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purdy.

A large number from here attended the Chautauqua entertainments at Bear River, Oct. 6th to 9th.

Mrs. M.W. Page and her mother Mrs. Alner Woodworth are visiting friends in Middleton.

Mrs. J.D. Spurr has closed the Colonial Arms Hotel after a successful summer. Mrs. Spurr is the guest of relatives in Bridgetown and Paradise for a few weeks. She will spend the winter her daughter, Mrs. Warren Harris at Annapolis.

The W.M.A.S. held their October meeting with Mrs. E.V. Hutchinson. The president Mrs. M.W. Page conducted a very interesting meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer and two sons have taken room for the winter in Mrs. B.F. Clements house.

Capt. B.F. Clements is spending some weeks with relatives and friends in Yarmouth and vicinity.

Congratulations from California

A few weeks ago on the page edited by the Women's Institute was an account of a very pleasant social happening in our town when the relatives and friends of Mrs. Cordelia Rice attended her "At Home" to help celebrate the passing of another milestone on life's journey. We have an interesting sequel to add.

This week Mrs. Rice received a letter of congratulation from Christopher Columbus Morehouse living in California who had read in the Digby Courier of Mrs. Rice's party. Mr. Morehouse was born in Bear River and received his primary schooling in this town. He is the son of the late Capt. John Morehouse and Sophia Blacklee Morehouse and a grandson of the late Henry Blacklee who, about fifty years ago was a prominent merchant here. A few old boys and girls remember "Chris" quite well. The family moved to the United States over forty years ago.

The interested parties are indebted to the Women's Institute for this pleasant interchange of reminiscences.

Local and Personal

Willard Harris, of Malden, Mass., arrived in town Friday and is spending a short vacation at his home on the River Road.

Mrs. A. B. Campbell was hostess to about twenty ladies at the tea bout Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister Mrs. Macdonald, of Halifax, who is spending a few weeks in town.

Mrs. L. H. Morse, of Digby, and Eric Morse, of Halifax, spent Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Kinney in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sullivan who have been spending a few days visiting friends in Freeport returned home by motor Sunday.

Mrs. J. Christopher Harris who has spent the summer months in Bear River at her home returned to Malden, Mass., Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Morse and Roy Morse, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who have spent the past three weeks in Clements-port and also visiting friends in Bear River returned to their home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrel Clarke are enjoying a trip around Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ford left on Friday for Montclair, N.J.

W. G. Clarke, Mrs. L. O. Nicholl and Mrs. A. G. MacIntyre enjoyed a motor ride to Windsor, Wolfville and Lawrence-town on Wednesday of last week.

The members of the Barrows Bible Class held their first social evening of the fall at the home of Chipman Harris on Monday. An interesting program was rendered and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

The young people of the United Baptist Church opened their weekly meetings on Friday of this week. The Juniors under 14 years of age will commence from 7-8 p.m. The Seniors will meet at 8 o'clock. A hearty welcome is extended to all young people of the congregation.

Warren Harris and Mr. Sproule, of Annapolis Royal, were visitors in town on Monday.

Eber Peck was in town on Sunday, returning to White Sand Camp on Monday with mail and provisions for Dr. Lovett and party.

Word was received by telegram on Saturday by George Peck of the safe arrival of his daughter Miss Edna Peck at Raleigh, North Carolina, where she has accepted a position as librarian at Shaver's University. Miss Peck was a former teacher of Oakdene School of this town and we congratulate her on securing this splendid position.

An interesting part of the service in St. John's Church on Sunday afternoon was the christening of the wee daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Jefferson, the name given her being Dorothy Ann.

The Ladies Aid Society of the United Church met on Tuesday afternoon at the Parsonage with Mrs. Sawdon.

A Fool-hardy Bear

On Tuesday afternoon as J. Steadman, Principal of Oakdene School was motoring up the River Road he overtook a large brown bear and as the bear made no attempt to leave the road, Mr. Steadman being unarmed was forced to back up, and drove to Smith's Cove returning at once with men and guns but found a clear road to Bear River.

On Thursday the same bear made his appearance on one of the streets of this town and was seen for ten minutes walking along the street and through fields, but as it was only women and children who saw him he was perfectly safe, but later men went out to hunt him. He had followed the stream out and Bruin is probably safe in his native pastures.

Rev. A.W.L. and Mrs. Smith and little daughters Leslie and Lenora returned Saturday from Halifax where they spent a three weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hazen, of Yarmouth, were in town on Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Moore.

Frank Jones K.C. of Digby, spent several days recently in town-the guest of his daughter, Mrs. H.C. Anthony.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Morse, Roy Morse and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dittmar motored to Sandy Cove on Thursday and had dinner at the Sypher House.

AUTUMN PLANTING OF BULBS

Of late years an increased interest has been taken in the culture of early spring flowers such as tulips, narcissi, scilla and crocuses. All of these are hardy and when once planted, may remain in the ground for a number of years without being disturbed. Tulips, however, have a tendency to produce many small blooms after the second year and hence, therefore, lifted at the second following season. The largest of the bulbs lifted may be used for planting the following season.

In general, to obtain good results with bulbs, the soil in the beds or borders should be well prepared in advance of the time of planting. If the soil is of good garden loam and if it has been occupied all summer by other plants, it should receive a liberal application of well rotted manure and this spaded to a depth of about twelve inches.

Since different kinds of bulbs vary greatly in size, it is necessary to plant them at different depths. A safe rule to follow is to cover a bulb or corm with about twice its own depth of soil. The distance apart between bulbs will vary according to the size and type of bulb.

Digby Legion Will Have New Quarters

The committee of Digby branch of Canadian Legion, appointed to attend to the matter of club quarters for the branch, reported at the regular meeting on Thursday night, that they had secured comfortable rooms in the Maritime Fish Block on Jew Cove, known as the Iron Duke. The rooms are now being fitted up and the house warming will be held on Thursday, October 20th, when a smoker and reunion of all ex-service men will be held in the new rooms.

In the absence, moose hunting, of President Victor Turnbull, the Vice President, G. W. Connell presided. Four new members were added to the list.

The committee in charge of the Smoker is composed of Bert Robinson, Maynard Denton and Frank Robinson. They are assisted by the Club Room Committee, Messrs Connors, Cowan and Amoro. Already they have had the promise of several pieces of furniture for the new club rooms and will gratefully receive further donations.

Secretary Connors reported that he had written all the school teachers in the country to ask their assistance in making Poppy Day a success. Many had answered his letter asking that poppies be sent and Mr. Connors would like to have replies from others, so that a sufficient number of poppies may be secured.

The Big Affair in Legion Circles is the Armistice Day Dinner to be held at Annapolis on the evening of November 11th, at which all Ex-service men of Digby and Annapolis are requested to be present. The parade will fall in at the Town Hall, Annapolis, at 7:00 o'clock in the evening and march to the Masonic Hall where the banquet will be spread.

Tickets for the banquet may be obtained from Mr. C. N. Whitman, Annapolis. Cover charge of $1.50 "included" whatever that means, probably "all rations." Admission to the banquet will be restricted to service men only. Dress: will be optional. Service or blues with decorations, evening dress with minarettes. Those wishing to attend will, please notify Mr. Whitman in time to make out his return for the quartermaster. Just drop a Field Card. "I am quite well hope to see you soon," and get your ticket when you get to Annapolis.

The Courier has been requested to print a list of standing committees of Digby Branch. All service men should cut this list out for future reference.

OUT OF 83

Mass ended in death! So a recent Canadian investigation showed. These were not cases of infectious diseases—of consumption—of typhoid! They were cases where a person had sustained some slight injury—a cut, a burn, a wire-pick injury—where the wound, being thought not serious enough for careful treatment, had been neglected. Blood-poisoning and death resulted. When you or your children sustain an injury, ensure against infection by applying Zam-Buk. This balm soothes the pain, stops bleeding, and by destroying all germs prevents blood-poisoning, etc. Hence no time need be lost from work or pleasure by those who use Zam-Buk. Other sections of the county will be visited during the month for the purpose of receiving claims.

Bladder Troubles Bother Many Past 40

Seven out of Ten Are Victims But Writer Tells How "Uratabs" Bring Swift, Amazing Relief With Renewed Vital Force

"No one knows better than I, the horror of joyless days and sleepless nights. There have been times when I felt hopeless and helpless—and when my weakness caused me the most intense humiliation. Only those who have gone through such tortures can possibly realize my great satisfaction when Dr. Southworth's URATABS brought me quick relief. URATABS are truly wonderful and I give them all praise." Such amazing evidence is so convincing, proof of the power of URATABS to relieve those distressing ailments so often a handicap to those in middle life.

Overworked, sluggish kidneys, bladder weakness and prostate gland trouble bring on so many distressing ailments which so often lead to serious diseases that every sufferer from Lamebacks, Pains in back and down through groin, scanty but frequent urination, "Getting-up-Nights," Nervous Irritability and Lack of Energy should try the amazing value of Dr. Southworth's URATABS at once! Any good druggist will supply you on a guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

F. W. Swingells, a wealthy Connecticut manufacturer, is developing a model farm at Princeport, on the Midland division of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, twelve miles from here. This farm contains 400 acres under cultivation and 50 acres of woodland, ideally situated on the summit of a hill overlooking the upper part of Cobequid Bay and valleys of extraordinary beauty. His Guernsey herd consists of 50 purebred milch cows. His barns are and are said to be the best in the province.

It is announced that the 2,000,000-bushel elevator at Midland, Ontario, erected by James Playfair and his associates has been completed, and that the Canadian Pacific Railway is to proceed with the construction of seven miles of line directly connecting the elevator at Midland and joining up its main line through Port McNicoll to Montreal. The immediate result, it is believed, will be that the largest shipping point on the eastern lakes will have direct connection with Saint John, and have the effect of greatly increasing the traffic through that port.

Here and There

The total attendance at the Toronto Exhibition this year was 1,870,000, or an increase of 297,000 over 1926.

The Saint John Board of Harbor Commissioners is now busy working on plans for more adequate port facilities and estimating costs of new wharves, grain elevators and everything necessary to handle a larger flow of business.

The establishment of a "Faculty of Fisheries" at Dalhousie University at Halifax is under consideration. If this course is added to the curriculum, it will be the first time in the history of the world in which lectures on fisheries will have been delivered as a college course.

As a latest development of the Canada-West Indies treaty, ice cream is now being shipped from Halifax to British Guiana in liquid form and re-frozen at its destination. On the other hand, ice cream shipped to Bermuda is shipped in blocks and kept solid throughout the journey.

Application has been made to the Vancouver Board of Harbor Commissioners for the right to drill along the shore of Stanley Park and re-frozen at its destination. On the other hand, ice cream shipped to Bermuda is shipped in blocks and kept solid throughout the journey.

A saving of forty-eight hours was effected in the transport of transatlantic mail to the city when bundles were taken from the Canadian Pacific "Empress of Australia" at Rimouski and conveyed by plane to Montreal. Experiments are considered to have been successful, and it is understood a future development will extend the flying service to Toronto.

Though the crop season is late, reports received by the transportation department of the Canadian Pacific Railway are most satisfactory, insofar as yield per acre is concerned. From many points in Saskatchewan word comes that wheat threshed out from 25 to 35 bushels per acre, while in Alberta the yield runs from 25 to 45 bushels per acre.

John O'Neil

There died at his home at Brighton last Thursday, John O'Neil, in his 73rd year. The funeral was held on Sunday, Rev. Hamilton officiating, with interment in Barton Cemetery. Mr. O'Neil is survived by his widow and one adopted daughter, Mrs. Joseph Specht, of Schenectady, N. Y. Joseph O'Neil of Marshalltown is a brother.

Mrs. Susan Doane

The death took place at Brighton on Tuesday of Mrs. Susan Doane after an illness of only a few days. Her late husband was lost at sea some years ago and her children are resident in the United States. They have been sent for and funeral arrangements will be made after their arrival.

Tourist Business Worth $11,000,000.00 To Nova Scotia This Year

Surveys made by the Department of Natural Resources indicate an increase of fifty per cent in the numbers of tourists reaching Nova Scotia in 1927 as compared for the year 1926.

Records taken at points of entry by steamer, and at the New Brunswick border information bureau, show that 170,484 tourists entered the province between June 1st and September 30th. 24,573 automobiles were registered in.

The Department places the amount of money left in the province by these tourists as $11,238,688. This figure was worked out on the basis of estimates made by more than 900 business people catering to tourists. It is conservative.

According to a check kept on arrivals at Digby from Saint John 4,672 persons were on motoring trips. 5,557 continued their journey by rail. 1,168 automobiles entered the province on the Empress.

Taking the total number of arrivals in comparison with the estimated revenue each summer visitor is worth $95.92 to the province.

By these figures it would seem that the province should spend an amount not less than One Hundred Thousand Dollars in an effort to fully develop the tourist business.

Many Attended Parsonage At Home

A large number of ladies of the town attended at Grace Church parsonage on Tuesday afternoon. to formerly welcome to Digby, Miss E. W. Forbes, wife of Rev. E. W. Forbes, new pastor of Grace United Church. Mrs. Wright was assisted in receiving by her guest, Mrs. A. J. Nauffts, of Dartmouth and Mrs. Charles Carty. Mrs. E. M. Robertson, Mrs. A. R. Turnbull and Miss Letteney assisted with the refreshments. Little Miss Marjorie Hawksworth waited on the door.

The rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers and looked very attractive, a cosy setting for a pleasant afternoon.

Operation Order 000

To All Ranks:

All ranks are instructed to hold themselves in readiness for a smoke barrage to be put on at the "Iron Duke" location, head of Long Wharf, Digby. Guides will be stationed at Waverly Hotel Corner to lead advance parties to billets.

19 30 o'clock is "Y" hour, when parties will assemble for advance on the objective. Zero is set for 20.00 o'clock, when the barrage will lift and attacking parties will press forward to objective.

Casualties will be handled by volunteer stretcher parties, who will report for duty at midnight.

The Commanding officer desires that all ranks, from every part of the divisional area, west of Annapolis and east of Yarmouth, will take part in this demonstration and commends the troops for their Esprit de corps and zeal under fire.

Cooperation of all arms is directed. A landing party under direction of Master at Arms Rufus Connor, will lead the attack on point B. "Many Brave Hearts are Asleep in the Deep". They will be covered by a detail from the Q. M. Stores with machine guns of "Gawspers" "At a Mo's" and Y.M.C.A. Players. Major Denton, Forestry Department will launch a counter attack with "Sister Susie Sewing Shirts for Soldiers" or "Who Stole the Cook's Axe".

Iron Rations will be issued at midnight and all casualties for dental treatment are ordered to report on Sick parade to Molar Turnbull.

The second wave will be launched at high tide and scouts are requested to watch closely for signs of the enemy.

To prevent disturbance of the attack Provost Marshall Cowans has obtained leave of absence.

"Stand To" will be followed by the customary "S.R.D." If you know what that means,

BY ORDER
G.O.C. Digby Area

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS.—This order is to be read by all ranks and leave is cancelled until after the attack. All branches of the service, Army, Navy, Air Force, Mine Sweepers, and Military Police will take part. Fatigue dress will be worn and identification will be carefully concealed in case of loss of prisoners.

Annual Meeting Smith's Cove Women's Institute

The 6th Annual Meeting of the Smith's Cove Women's Institute was held with Mrs. George Weir on October 12th the president presiding.

While not all reports were available for this meeting, enough information was gleaned to show the Institute to be in a flourishing condition despite a rather small membership. Each report showed progress along all lines taken up. Particular mention should be made of that from the Horticultural Demonstration Com. also Home Industries.

Election of Officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. George Weir; Vice President, Mrs. George Austin; Secretary, Miss Inez Rice; Treasurer, Miss May Cornwell, re-elected.

After closing exercises, a social half hour was spent with Mrs. Weir when all enjoyed dainty refreshments beside her cosy fireplace.

The November meeting will be with Mrs. George Austin, visitors always welcome.

Reserve Friday, Oct. 28th for Halloween Dance at Ocean Gardens.

The ladies of Zelma Rebekah Lodge will hold their Annual Halloween Social on Monday evening, October 31st.

Weymouth Man Meets Awful Death

Receiving a full charge of B. B. shot in the breast, Harry Tooker of Weymouth was instantly killed at his home yesterday morning according to advices received in Digby.

The muzzle of the gun used must have been placed close over the heart, as clothing was forced into the wound. The charge passed under the heart, tearing away its lower part, and death was instantaneous. An Inquest is being impromptu as the Courier goes to press.

In Nova Scotia on Moose Hunting Trip

Mr. A. J. Dennison, formerly of Digby, but now located at Riverside, Rhode Island, was a visitor in Digby this week as a guest at the Winchester. He leaves this morning for Steviacke, on a moose hunting trip and will return here during the coming week, to remain until after the first of November.

Mr. Dennison is a manufacturing jeweler in Riverside where his factory makes a specialty of fraternal and society emblems. During the war they turned out millions of badges for Uncle Sam's troops. Arriving in Digby at the same time as Mr. Dennison were Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dewar of Kendal Green, Mass. who made the Winchester their headquarters for visits to interesting spots in the country.

Picture Travel Talk

A Picture Travel Talk on Glasgow and the Highlands of Scotland will be given by Rev. E. W. Forbes in the Smith's Cove United Church on Friday, Oct. 28 p.m. There will be a short musical programme. Admission 10 and 20 cents.

Harvest Home Service

The Harvest Home Service in Grace United Church on Sunday morning was attended by a large congregation. The offerings of flowers, fruit and vegetables were generous and were very prettily arranged. On Monday these were sent to the hospital. A bouquet of flowers with a scripture attached was also sent to each of the hospital patients.

Grace Church Official Board

At the close of the service on Sunday evening the annual election took place of representatives of the congregation to the official board. The following persons were added to the membership of the board, Venning Handspiker, William Jefferson, Oakley Turnbull, Dr. W. R. Dickie, H. J. Campbell and Egbert Robertson.

Congregational Rally and Banquet

A Congregational Rally and Banquet will be held in Grace United Hall on Wednesday evening next at a quarter to eight o'clock. Preparations are being made to entertain every adult member of the congregation and an interesting program is being arranged.

Noted Speaker Addresses Meeting on Child Welfare at Digby Court House

Miss Charlotte Whitton, Executive Secretary of the Canadian Council on Child Welfare, addressed an interested gathering, at the Court House, Digby on Saturday afternoon last, on the subject of Child Welfare. One of Canada's most fluent speakers and having an unsurpassed knowledge of her subject Miss Whitton held the closest attention of her audience and it was a surprise to her listeners to find that an hour had gone by, an hour lost in the eloquence of the speaker and the great importance of work represented.

As Secretary of the Canadian Council of Child Welfare, Miss Whitton is familiar with the subject in all parts of the world, where such work is carried on and it was gratifying to learn from this authoritative source that Canada's legislation in general and some features of Nova Scotia Law in particular ranked next only to Norway, admittedly the best in the world.

Miss Whitton most emphatically stressed the point that legislation on this or any other point can only be effective and successfully carried out where the individual citizen is intelligently interested and stands behind such legislative effort. Strong emphasis, too, was laid on the fact that improved conditions of public health have been made possible by the educational aid given work in this direction, by the work done in the public schools everywhere, by voluntary nursing systems through efforts of boards of health, and last but not least, by the cooperation of the press. Prevention of disease as well as a more definite knowledge of how to deal with such after it becomes a fact, is reducing infant and childhood mortality to such an extent that it is now possible to raise healthier, stronger and therefore happier and better citizens than in the absence of such aid would have been possible.

After Miss Whitton's address a few minutes were spent in friendly conversation with members of the audience and the speaker left for Yarmouth, where she was scheduled to address a meeting in the Opera House in the evening.

Five Million Dollars A Month

That is really what the tourist business means to Nova Scotia. Figures issued by the Department of Natural Resources, covering a period from June 1st to September 30th of this year, the amount of money left in Nova Scotia by 170,484 tourist visitors was $11,238,748.00. The tourist season, as at present partly exploited extends from July first to September first. Some of the summer hotels open earlier and remain open longer, but the bulk of the business is done during the months of July and August.

Chief complaint of those engaged in catering to tourists is that the season is too short; that the Americans do not leave home until after the Fourth of July Celebration and at the first sign of Fall pack up and go back. To an extent this is true. It is a handicap fostered by the attitude of Nova Scotians towards our climate and conditions, and is only a serious obstacle because we permit it to be. No one ever heard that the winter resorts of Florida and California did no business because parents had to stay home while their children attended school, or had to get back after a vacation because the children had to get ready for school. That is the excuse given for the shortness of the Nova Scotia season. It utterly disregards the numbers of people whose whole occupation in life is to enjoy themselves, and these are the people whom we can very well cater to. There are a dozen Americans whom we in Digby County know who come as early as April and stay as long into October. They are not unique as to means and desire for pleasure. There are hundreds, thousands more, like them. Proper publicity could present the attractions of Nova Scotia to this class, and extend the season at least two months.

Tourists are worth Five Million Dollars a Month to Nova Scotia. A whole market to exploit. How to do it? Can any one hotel do it to advantage? Can any town, any local tourist association, do it to advantage?

The provincial government says that the tourists left more than $11,000,000 in Nova Scotia this year. How much did the provincial government do to develop this business? It printed a booklet showing beauty spots in several parts of the province. It had these booklets distributed. It paid for advertising in the Montreal Herald and in several provincial Upper Canadian and United States periodicals. All it spent was well spent, but it would be a safe bet that in comparison to what the hotel and transportation people spent that the provincial government spent nothing.

The tourist business has developed in spite of the efforts of Nova Scotia. That is the truth of the matter. Every improvement, in steamer, train and hotel accommodation was an improvement forced upon us. There is no gain saying that fact. It is apparent on every hand. Yet in spite of local disregard to the possibilities which the tourist business offers for development more tourists visited Nova Scotia this year than ever before. Many more will come next year. Hundreds of thousands more than may come can be induced to come if the provincial government will take the lead in developing the business.

The way to do this is plain. It does not require a government department. The Department of Natural Resources is already in existence for just that purpose and it requires only that the Minister of Natural Resources take steps to assist those who are endeavoring as far as their means will permit, to cater to the hundred of thousands of Americans and others who are seeking for holiday resorts of the right type. We have them. Strewed all along the Atlantic Coast from Cape North to Cape Sable are towns and villages, summer hotels, country homes, bungalow colonies, boarding houses, camping sites. Every one has a special inducement for summer visitors. Near every one is a lake or stream for fishing, a course for golf, a tennis club or some means of amusement and recreation. The problem is not only accommodation. It is chiefly to tell the world what we have to offer. Individual effort cannot do that properly. It has been tried and found wanting. It has resulted in overlapping, in wastefulness and in neglect of rich fields. At best it is inadequate, at its worst misdirected energy.

Establishment of Nova Scotia Tourist Bureaus in the chief centers of Canada and the United States offers a solution to the problem of getting our wares before potential customers. To rely on American agencies to do it is to rely on an organization indifferent to our success.

It is suggested that the government call a meeting of representative businessmen, hotel, boarding house proprietors and others and have the whole matter of tourist publicity threshed out and a plan of Nova Scotia by tourists may be of cooperative action formed, to the end that next year, the money left in Nova Scotia by tourists may be twice or three times eleven million dollars.

The New Leader of Conservative Party

The election of the Hon. R. B. Bennett as leader of the Conservative Party in Canada is a choice which will meet the approval of Conservatives in all parts of Canada. Born in New Brunswick, where he received his common school education, graduate of Dalhousie University and a prominent man in affairs of Western Canada during his later years. Mr. Bennett combines in his person a Canadian citizenship of highest degree; one which will be of service to him in directing the policies of the future of a great national party, and in due course, if Fortune favors that party, the direction of the nation itself.

An outstanding figure among the many talented men whose names were offered in nomination Mr. Bennett's superior place in the esteem of the delegates was marked from the first ballot, and that his competitors for the position were first to move the unanimity of the choice cannot be taken as a courteous gesture only, but, in the light of events which preceded the nomination proceedings, is also an indication of how earnest is the desire of the chief lights of the party to work together.

However, the Maritime provinces must not be permitted to fall into the error of feeling that because a former eastern man has been selected as leader of the national party that all Maritime difficulties will be automatically solved and all Maritime demands acceded to without pressure being brought to bear. Mr. Bennett may do all he can, but unless the people of the Maritime provinces continue to press forward to equal partnership in Confederation, all that has been gained will be gradually lost. Mr. Rhodes might have had the post; at least he could have permitted his name to go before the convention to determine just where the Maritimes fit in federal affairs so far as the Conservative party is concerned. Had he done so there would be no doubt of where the Maritimes stand, a doubt, which, in spite of every association Mr. Bennett has in the east, must remain until such time as the party puts into practice its policies with respect to Maritime claims.

Shall the Maritimes rely only on Mr. Bennett, or shall we keep up the fight? That is the real question in these provinces. Too long have we permitted party affiliations to prevent us from working solely for the best interests of the Maritimes and it would be folly to permit Maritime representation in federal affairs to decrease still further, no matter for what purpose. The voice of the East should be strong, pressing Maritime claims at every opportunity and Mr. Bennett's selection as leader of the Conservative party is good so far as the Maritimes are concerned, if Maritime claims are persistently pressed, without permitting party exigencies to prevent their fulfillment.

The Fisheries Investigation

The coming meeting of the Royal Commission appointed to investigate the fishing industry seems to be a matter in which the Board of Trade might well exercise itself. The fishing industry is one which is of great importance to Digby, both as a fishing port and the place from which a great deal of fish is exported.

The Department of Marine and Fisheries has made the suggestion that public meetings of fishermen and others interested in the industry be called in every fishing community to discuss local phases of the industry and that at these meetings one or two delegates be selected to present the views of the community in the form of evidence before the Commission at the hearings to be held in different districts.

Pertinent evidence to place before the Commission is the length and period of the scallop season, freight and express charges as they affect distribution of the catch, duties. In fact everything that in any way affects the industry.

The time is short in which the case for the Bay Fisheries may be prepared. The sooner a meeting is held the sooner can definite steps be taken to prepare the case. There is no doubt that the manufacturers of smoked and cured fish and shippers will present their side of the case. There is no doubt that representative fishermen will also appear before the Commission to present the case for those who catch the fish. But at the same time the Board of Trade is within the scope of its duties to also prepare a case for presentation. Too much information cannot be secured. The Board of Trade is an interested body, or should be and should take the lead in having the case prepared.

The Tourist Business

No more important matter can come before the people of Digby than consideration of ways and means of preparations for next year's tourist season. Publicity, publicity and more publicity is required. Plans for entertainment of visitors after they arrive here are necessary and a great deal of work must be done if the attractions and features of Digby are to be exploited to their utmost.

Three years ago the Board of Trade issued a Digby Booklet, a fairly attractive and informative affair. Several thousand copies were printed and they carried for two seasons. The information as to steamer routes contained in them is now out of date and the whole copy needs revision. Newer methods of distributing them when printed must also be devised in order that the fullest results may be obtained. There is so much to be done, and so much advantage to all of Digby can be obtained by doing it all thoroughly that it is time we in Digby came to look upon the tourist business as a real asset to the town, a business worth spending money on to develop. It has outgrown the stage where casual attention by volunteer workers can get results. Each of us has his own particular affairs which demand attention and to expect any person to devote the time which would be required to exploit the tourist business without remuneration is to ask sacrifice which is unfair. All receive direct or indirect benefit from the tourist business and that benefit is in direct comparison to the number of people who come to Digby to spend the summer.

It is suggested that the Board of Trade and the Town Council work in conjunction in this matter, placing a competent man in charge of all tourist publicity and development under the direction of two bodies. Such a man should not be hard to find and his activities would bear abundant fruit. There is so much to do, copy to prepare, booklets to issue, advertising to attend to, letters to write and answer, funds to raise. There are sports days to organize, regattas to hold--anyone knows how much there is to do. Those who worked on the committee for the Dominion Day celebration have a fair idea of the tremendous amount of detail which such affairs involve, and it is because the Dominion Day was such a success that they should not again be asked to sacrifice the attention which their business requires to devote it to such purpose that a salaried man is required.

Incidentals of salary and such like depend on the man who can be secured, the amount of work he is enabled to do and the amount of funds which can be secured for tourist development purposes. Ten Thousand Dollars would not be too much to spend for next season, nor twice that much money. It would all return in shape of larger numbers of tourists. Not only for next season but for many seasons thereafter.

How to raise this money is a problem. It can be solved if we set out to seriously tackle the tourist business. And now is the time to start. Months of work are ahead of us, hundreds of suggestions and plans require consideration. Thousands of letters must be written and mailed. A million questions must be answered. All must be attended to before the opening of next year's season. Is it too soon to start on it all right now?

Run-down after Birth of Baby

Ottawa Woman Made Strong by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Ottawa, Ontario.—"I was terribly run-down after the birth of my baby. I had awful bearing-down pains and was afraid I had serious trouble. I was tired all the time and had no appetite. My sister-in-law is taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and cannot praise it too highly and asked me to try it. I have had splendid results and feel fine all the time now. Any one who needs a thorough pick-me-up soon learns from me what to take."—Mrs. RENE PAQUET, 212 Cumberland Street, Ottawa, Ontario.

Terrible Backache
Hamilton, Ont.—"After my baby was born I had terrible backache and headaches. I could not do my work and felt tired from the first minute I got up. But worst of all was the pain in my sides when I moved about. I had to sit or lie down for a while afterwards. I could keep my house in order, but many things had to go undone at the time, because of my ailments. I was told by a neighbor to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she said it would build me up. I was relieved before I had taken the first bottle and have not had any trouble like it since."—Mrs. T. MARBLE, 60 Burton Street, Hamilton, Ontario.

Celebration of Golden Wedding

At their pretty home in Sea Brook, Digby Co., the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hines was celebrated on October 8th. For the occasion the house was tastefully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Refreshments were served to about twenty-five invited guests, who were also entertained with music and singing and the cheerfulness and good nature of the bride and groom of fifty years added much to the gaiety of the event.

They received many expressions of good will and friendship in the shape of gold, bank notes, cheques, silverware, china, linen and cutglass also letters and telegrams from absent relatives and friends. After spending a very happy evening the guests dispersed to their homes, wishing the good couple many more years of wedded happiness.

J. S. Hines, who was born at Rossy, moved to Sea Brook twenty five years ago and today holds the position of postmaster of that place. Mr. and Mrs. Hines were married in Digby on Oct. 8th 1877 and their children living are Mrs. R. M. Johnson of Ohio, Mrs. A. I. Miller of Alberta, Mrs. Alfred McCullough, Digby and Georgia and Joseph at home.

Now packed in Aluminum, the same as years ago.

Strawberries and Cream

Strawberry growers aren't going to let Culloden have undivided honors in late strawberries. If trophies to the Courier office this week are an indication. On Monday afternoon Mrs. A. J. Cornwall, of Smith's Cove, brought a box with a dozen lovely ripe berries from his garden, luscious, big ones, for the Editor to try, and a few minutes later Mr. Frank Roop brought a box with ripe ones, a green one and several blooms from the strawberry patch of his brother, James Roop. The Editor enjoyed them, even the green one, having strawberry and cream for tea. Mr. Cornwall told the Courier that while the berries were not bearing heavily it was not unusual to pick enough for supper from the vines.

Visiting in Westport

Mrs. H. Raymond spent the week in Westport a guest of Mrs. Handford Swift. Captain Raymond is making Westport his headquarters for operations on the scallop beds of Briar Island.

Another Digby Scallop fisher out of Westport is Bernard Cossaboom, who is operating one of Captain Snow's boats.

Most of the boats operating out of Westport report good catches, the proximity of the beds permitting part time fishing when a fine half day can be caught.

Has Relinquished Appointment

The news item in last week's Courier reporting the appointment of Mr. Len Eldridge as engineer of the fisheries patrol vessel, "F1" was correct so far as it went. Mr. Eldridge resigned the appointment almost as soon as he had received it. It is understood that a Yarmouth man is to operate the engines. Patronage of a political nature is right and proper. To the visitors belong the spoils, but it looks as though the Digby Liberals could have kept what is theirs. There is such a thing as carrying patronage too far. Digby jobs for Digby people, Grit or Tory, but "Digby Chickens" would be a better practice.

A Light Needed

Perhaps before this issue is printed Mr. Daley will have got around to putting a new lamp in the socket on the light pole opposite the station. It is pretty dark crossing over on the pathway from the station to First Avenue and people going to and from church and prayer meeting need guidance. There is too much encircling gloom for comfortable passage.

New STEERING ease

light as a feather to turn

The easiest steering motor car on earth today is Nash.

There is no tedious winding up and unwinding of the steering wheel, when you turn a corner.

Parking is done without a struggle.

And, in a traffic emergency, see how your Nash gets out of the way at a mere hint from your hand on its wheel.

It is a pleasure to drive a Nash. Easy steering. Smoothness and quietness beyond comparison. Extra power from the big Nash 7-bearing motor. And easier riding on any road over the new Nash springs of secret process alloy steel.

Nash is a finer motor car. Look at the Nash Special Six Four-Door Sedan for instance. Here's luxury for five passengers--exquisite in every detail--finished in finest quality mohair--walnut panelled--solid walnut steering wheel with light control at your finger tips--all instruments in one charming, indirectly lighted, easily-read panel--new form-fitting cushions for rest and relaxation--and priced at a figure that is extremely low.

Be your own salesman. Easy steering is only one of many Nash superiorities which a ride will reveal. Come in today.

President Dakin Presents Important Programme at Special Meeting of Board of Trade

A special meeting of Digby Board of Trade was held in the Town Council chamber on Tuesday night. The meeting was called by President Fritz Dakin, who presided, for the purpose of presenting to the Board an outline of business programme to be prepared for the resumption of regular monthly meetings, the first of which will be held on the second Tuesday of November.

Among the most important matters offered for consideration were preparation of Digby's case for presentation before the Fisheries Commission; Programme of publicity for next years tourist season; extension of an invitation to the Maritime Rowing Association to hold the Championship events at Digby, Regatta Day; appointment of an Advisory Committee on Civic Affairs.

Mr. H. B. Short, M. P., Mr. Robertson of the Centreville Shore Fish Company and Mr. Lockward Manager of the Royal Bank were appointed as a committee to prepare the general case of the Bay Fisheries before the Commission, the committee to pay particular attention to the transportation and marketing phases of the industry.

The Publicity Committee was instructed to prepare a program of publicity for presentation at the Annual Meeting of the Board, to be held in February and were requested to embody in their report an estimate of funds which would be required for their purposes.

President Dakin in presenting for discussion the formation of a Committee on Civic Affairs, preluded his remarks with the caution that no one was to feel that he intended to intrude politics into the business of the Board, nothing was further from his mind, but he felt strongly that a condition had arisen where it was necessary that the Town Council should be made to feel that the Board of Trade, as a representative body of ratepayers was prepared to support any measures for the advancement of civic progress. Mr. H. B. Short, M. P., Mr. W. H. Farnham M. P., Mayor Lynch, Mr. J. L. Peters, Mr. Lockward and others took part in the discussion. Mr. Short was particularly impressed with the idea. "Progress," he said "meant the expenditure of money for civic improvement, it meant the educating of the ratepayers to see that money spent was an investment, and while it was a new venture, for the Board of Trade to take direct action in this manner it was a wise move, and one which should result in the betterment of civic utilities and the advancement of general prosperity. On motion of Mr. Farnham this committee was inaugurated, its members to be selected from a slate to be presented by the Executive at the next general meeting of the Board. Dr. DuVernet, Mr. Lockward and Mr. Peters endorsed the move as an incentive to increased interest in civic affairs.

Town Clerk Boden reported that he had been in communication with the Town of Windsor asking for information as to the steps taken there to reduce the nuisance caused by the blowing of railway engine whistles within town limits. Mr. Edridge of Lour Lodge reported that numbers of his guests had complained of the nuisance during the summer and on motion it was decided to communicate with the Railway Commission after advice had been received from Windsor on the matter.

Proposed by Dr. DuVernet
Dr. Dickie who has recently located in Digby was elected a member of the Board.

The meeting adjourned at eleven o'clock with a number of items of business laid over for discussion at the next regular meeting.

H. T. Warne Preparing to Ship Vessel Load of Vegetables to Boston Market

Yesterday, Mr. Karns, representative of the DeLancey Truck Company arrived in Digby to assist Mr. H. T. Warne in "servicing" the new DeLancey Heavy Duty Motor Trucks, for which Mr. Warne has taken the agency for Digby County adding still another activity to the varied line of manufactures which the Warne interests turn their hand at for the benefit of Digby and mutual profit. A carload of the trucks has been unloaded and sold and another car load is on the way. Mr. Karns is direct from the factory sent here to see that the new truck is thoroughly understood by its buyers.

A visit to the Warne Mill this week, or any week, is an interesting and educational trip. It makes for pride in Digby, for optimism in the future and for some appreciation of what can be done in Nova Scotia. These days teams and men are busily engaged in filling the new vegetable warehouse with vegetables in preparation for shipment to the Boston market. The warehouse was recently completed, 120 feet long and 40 feet wide, of two storeys and frost proof cement cellar it has a capacity of 16 carloads, which is a lot of spuds or turnips or anything else, for that matter. It was built of lumber, manufactured in Digby, and with the exception of the cement and nails is entirely a Digby product. Mr. Warne wanted it right, as perfect as it could be made, so he chose the lumber and materials himself and selected an expert to build it. The construction was under the direction of M. C. Denton, of the firm of Condon and Denton and all local labor was employed. By the time the warehouse is filled a Warne schooner will be in Digby to load for Boston, potatoes and turnips, as last year.

A new addition to the manufactures of Warne's Mill is the manufacture of a special size and type of barrels for the scallop fishermen. Many have used the Warne barrel and their verdict is that it is just the size and shape that is most suitable and in every way for the purpose and make a much neater and cheaper package used in the fish business is also manufactured at the Warne Mill.

Mr. Warne has secured a contract for hardwood barrels staves, to keep the cooperage busy and is advertising for 1000 cords of hardwood to supply materials for this purpose.

Six carloads of merchandise have arrived at the Warne warehouse during the past week, which is only a slight indication of what business is done in Digby.

At a recent meeting of the Ladies Aid of Grace United Church it was decided to hold their annual Christmas Sale and Tea on Thursday, December 15th.

Mrs. Delancey Gesner of Bridgetown spent a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hersey.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Holdsworth returned Wednesday from a motor trip to Halifax.

Rev. E. W. Forbes will hold a service in the school house at Mount Pleasant Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Congregational Rally And Banquet

The Congregational Rally and Banquet of Grace United Church was held last evening in the Church Hall, and was largely attended. Covers were laid for seventy-five guests and there were few vacant places. The tables looked very pretty with decorations of marigolds, and were bountifully spread with a delicious repast provided by the members of the Ladies Aid. The principal address was given by Rev. A. B. Armstrong of Toronto, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the United Church. He spoke in a very interesting manner of the various phases of the work of the Church at home and abroad, dealing particularly with the present situation in China. Following his address Mr. R. A. Abramson, the treasurer presented a report of church finances. Seven hundred dollars was the sum asked for, of which $500 is due on the Maintenance and Extension Fund and $200 on current expenses. Pledge cards were then distributed, and the amount of $407 was subscribed by those present. Mr. Armstrong left on the morning train and will address meetings in Annapolis and Middleton during the remainder of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Rice of Sandy Cove have returned from Boston where Dr. Rice has been undergoing treatment. He is much improved in health.

The Short Haul Route

The Halifax Herald is jubilant over the "entry of the C.P.R. into Halifax" through participation in the Lord Nelson Hotel project. The Herald claims that the C.P.R. must also take part in further schemes for development of the port of Halifax. But the Herald forgets that the C.P.R. system already extends right to the deep water terminals of that port. The Herald chooses to ignore the fact that the C.P.R. is already a competitor of the C.N.R. for business originating in Halifax or passing through that port.

The Herald may, for purposes of its own, endeavor to create the impression that the C.N.R. has a monopoly of business in Halifax and is throttling industry. It may endeavor to induce the people of Halifax to believe that the C.N.R. is preventing development of Halifax as a national port by keeping the C.P.R. out of the city. The fact remains that the C.P.R. already has entry into Halifax over the lines of its subsidiary, the Dominion Atlantic Railway system and over the Midland Division of that system into Truro, which is the very heart of the province in railway matters.

The Herald may induce the people of Halifax and of towns along the route of the C.N.R. between Halifax and St. John to believe that the whole salvation of Nova Scotia lies in the granting of "running rights" to C.P.R. trains over C.N.R. rails between Halifax and Saint John, but it is not less a fact that the C.P.R. is already an important competitor of the Canadian National for business originating and passing through Halifax and Truro. This needs no traffic expert to determine. The traffic department officials of the C.N.R. can quickly vouch for the statement and be supported by the freight bills of the Dominion Atlantic Railway. It is only necessary to visit the wharf at Digby or St. John on any day of the week to see freight from central and western Canada going to Truro and Halifax and to see freight from Truro and Halifax going west. So large a share of traffic has the C.P.R. been able to obtain that the present service between Digby and St. John is wholly inadequate to the needs of present day transportation. The building of two or a dozen modern hotels in Halifax cannot effect the mileage between Halifax and Montreal by a single inch. The granting of "running rights" over Canadian National lines to the Canadian Pacific trains cannot in any way increase the competition between the two systems.

From Halifax to Digby, to Saint John is 195 miles, more or less. From Halifax to St. John by way of Moncton is if not altogether, nearly twice that far. Leaving matters of hotel construction out of the question it would seem therefore that the City of Halifax and the province generally, could best be served if the Halifax Herald and the Halifax Board of Trade directed what influence they may have toward developing of the short haul service to Montreal by way of Digby and St. John. Western Nova Scotia is not at present an industrial section. Our industries are of forest products, of agriculture and of the shore fisheries. But who can say what may come?

Quicker and better connection between Halifax—Windsor and Truro—Windsor, Wolfville, Kentville and towns along the Dominion Atlantic Railway by way of Digby and St. John to Montreal will offer opportunities for further development of our natural industries and our present ones offer perhaps as much along the route traffic as does that section between Halifax and St. John via Moncton.

The Courier is not a great believer in slogans; its faith in promoting industrial and general prosperity by means of sectional organizations is not deep seated, but in this case it seems that concerted action must be taken by Valley towns to prevent western Nova Scotia being side tracked for the benefit of pet schemes of the Halifax Herald. Let us off-set the cry for "Running Rights for the C.P.R." by a persistent demand for "Improvement of the Short Haul Route" and leave it to time to determine which is the better way of developing the whole of Eastern Canada and improving the position of our two great transportation systems.

"Sunny Side Up"

During a number of weeks the Courier has been discussing the importance of getting new people to come to Nova Scotia for their annual vacations. "Develop the Tourist Trade," has been our song and story. Not too well sung, not too interestingly told, a sort of serial—to be continued, as it were.

For this week has been suggested us a new text, chosen by a visiting American, one whose experience in many parts of the province has been varied, with its up and downs its hard boiled incidents and its "sunny side up" enjoyments. It's application's not to get the tourist here the first time—but to bring him back the second time, make of him an advertisement for our hospitality, our beauties of land and sea, our resources of fresh fruit, fresh vegetables, fresh meats fresh linen. Getting the tourist here is one problem. It is a problem which only the government of the province can properly solve. Getting him back a second season is another problem, one which is simple of solution and one which lies within the means of every hotel keeper and every boarding house owner. The summer and regular hotels have to some extent solved its mysteries, but the friend who suggested today's text points to the weak spot in the system. We cannot forget our likes and turn our whole attention to the likes of our summer guests. They have peculiarities of taste, different schemes of diet, than Nova Scotians. Even the expatriot who comes home for a fortnight's vacation has learned new ideas of the art of eating, and has developed prejudices in favor of coffee in place of tea; his eggs "sunny side up" in place of cooked to a semblance of lioulem. He likes his steak done in a certain way and is fond of sauces and pickles. A hundred likes and dislikes of the summer visitor will suggest themselves to every cook whose job has been to cater to the summer trade; and it is this point of service that our friend suggests is the outstanding means converting casual visitors into regular summer patrons of the rural boarding house. Everywhere in the province is scenery of unmatchable splendor, one place is noted for its mountain views, another for its marine vistas another for its stretch of river and stream and so on in unending detail. But no locality has natural features which can overcome the handicap of uncomfortable beds, of ill prepared food and of slovenly service. It simply can't be done.

There is a story told about a boarding house in Maine when Maine first became a tourist land. A guest at a small boarding house surprised the house keeper with an unsatiable appetite for coffee, four, five, six cups of coffee at a meal made it remarkable, until the matter was easily explained. "You seem very fond of coffee" remarked the lady of the house. "I certainly am" came back the guest, "a fellow would have to be who would

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercises and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or anything."

Not Like Medicine

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine. Perfected by the famous Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle.

drink half a dozen cups of hot water just to get a little coffee in the morning." That isn't a pretty story, but it has its point. The Yankee likes his coffee. Not enough perhaps to drink a half gallon of water in order to get a little but well enough to feel that his boarding house is a good one if the morning coffee matches what he is used to. The same applies to his eggs, for bacon, for well cooked vegetables, for meats done to a turn, for comfortable and clean beds. It applies to every point of service which the boarding house can give. Its application is important, for it is upon the country homes which the province must depend for hospitality to extend to summer visitors. Say what you like, do what you like, it is to the country, rather than to cities and towns that the summer visitor turns for his real enjoyment, and when the country homes develop their service to guests to the point where they become known as places where good meals and good beds are obtainable, the province will enter into its own as a tourist paradise.

A Profitable Traffic

The number of tourist cars entering New Brunswick during the past year shows a very large gain over that for the year 1926, which in turn showed a large increase over the record for 1925. There is every reason to anticipate for next year the entry of a still greater number of cars, and for a longer period of stay. During the past season 92,947 cars entered the province for a twenty-four hour stay and 20,561 for a period of thirty days. It is estimated that these

Druggist Tells Easy Way To End Bladder Weakness

Pleasant, Inexpensive Home Treatment Quickly Relieves Daily Irritation and Getting-up-Nights

No matter what your age may be, how long you have been troubled or how many medicines you have tried without success—if you are a victim of Bladder Weakness and Urinary Irritation, causing days of troublesome annoyance and nights of broken rest—you should try the amazing value of Dr. Southworth's URATABS at once!

Made from a special formula, successfully used in the Doctor's private practice for nearly 30 years—URATABS are particularly designed to swiftly relieve the pain and misery of burning Urinary Irritation, Bladder Weakness and Getting-up-Nights. Safe, Pleasant, Inexpensive—and supplied by all good druggists on a guarantee of money back if not satisfied. If you need a medicine of this kind, try URATABS today!

latter carried an average of four passengers each, which would mean a total of 82,244 for the period of thirty days, more or less.

Obviously so many people would of necessity spend a large amount of money. Tourist traffic pays good dividends. Whatever may be done in the way of increased publicity is the concern of the provincial and municipal authorities as well as the transportation companies and the hotels. The tourist brings dollars that would not otherwise come this way. Let us have more publicity and more tourists. Saint John Telegraph-Journal

The Romance of the Best known Fisherman in the World

From early childhood this fisherman has been a familiar figure. Yet few know the circumstances that brought him into use as a trade mark. As the record reveals over a third of a century ago, one of the founders of the house of Scott & Bowne, while on one of his annual trips to the Land of the Midnight Sun to select and purchase supplies of pure Norwegian cod liver oil which has always been the basis of the merit of Scott's Emulsion, had his attention attracted to a strong, robust Norwegian fisherman, on the shore of one of the Lofoten Islands, who was just coming in with his daily catch and who was struggling under a heavy load. He had just brought in the largest cod fish ever caught on that coast. Impressed with this unusual sight of the bronzed-faced fisherman with the large cod fish strapped to his back, it was decided that they could be made into an effective advertisement.

Shortly after its origin the advantage of using this picture was more fully realized and it was registered as the Scott's Emulsion Trade Mark. For more than a third of a century it has annually been placed upon millions of bottles of Scott's Emulsion—a guarantee of purity and goodness. Small wonder that the slogan, "See that the Emulsion that you buy always bears the Fisherman," has been accepted and endorsed by millions who know, from experience, the rich, tonic-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion.

Probably among all advertising devices or symbols used in the world, none enjoys greater prominence or is so widely known as this picture of the honest, bronzed-faced Norwegian fisherman, a picture of health taken out of real life. Those who take Scott's Emulsion are assured that it is cod liver oil, rich, pure, health-building, pleasantly flavored, scientifically emulsified and made easy to take and as noble.

Digby Branch of Legion Holds Housewarming in New Quarters

The troops turned out in force last Friday night, to attack the new quarters in the Iron Duke. Every branch of the service was represented, and just like Armistice Week in Piccadilly, K. R. & O. was laid on the shelf while the boys held revelry. The President of the Branch Dr. Victor Turbott led the attack and was supported by the Navy, in the person of Master at Arms, Rufus Connors.

At Zero Hour the S. M. reported all present and correct and the barrage began, Comrade Frank Robinson acted as quartermaster, issuing cigarette rations. The first objective was discussion of business which had to be considered and several committees were appointed.

The second set, go opened with an old time sing song, when popular trench and marching favorites were sung with more vigor than tune, but were nevertheless enjoyed. Bringing back, as they did, memories of training camps in England, billets in France, and (but this is just a whisper for the boys) gay nights in estaminets all up and down the line the songs soon turned to stories of how we "won the War".

Comrade William Barton receives "mention in dispatches" for gallant work. His dugout on the Acazia-front, was burned out by the Huns in the March offensive, but he is sticking to his post and endeavoring to rebuild. At the rally his assistance was highly enjoyed. He didn't join in regally with the trench songs, didn't know them very well, but after some urging he mounted the parapet and delivered several selections with a rich natural voice and was loudly applauded. A canteen master was opened to assist him in rebuilding his home and a subscription list is being opened.

At eleven o'clock Number 16 in the old song book was called for and eloquent of army training and feelings of soldierly pride all sprang smartly to attention while the Sergeant Major led off with the National Anthem.

The new club rooms are cosy, large enough for ordinary purposes though their capacity was taxed to the limit by the muster of the troops on Friday night. Finished in natural woods, with a wood heater, they are as fine a set of dug-outs as was ever seen on the western front. A fatigues party was appointed to scout for firewood and when it has completed its tour of duty Comrade Connors will have a depleted wood lot, and the legionaries a well filled wood box.

A house committee of five members was appointed to look after fortnightly parades, arranging entertainment for the troops.

Good Fortune Follows Chance Meeting

Advice to Take "Fruit-a-tives" Results in Perfect Health

MR. E. LE MAY

How often chance meetings mark turning points in our lives. Mr. Emery Le May of Montreal owes his health to just such a meeting. He writes: "I was always constipated, bilious and weary until one day I met a traveler who recommended 'Fruit-a-tives'. I procured some. You would not know me for the same person. I am in perfect health, always energetic. I am happy to recommend it on every possible occasion." Happiness and success are impossible when constipation keeps dragging you down. Don't suffer. Overcome this serious trouble in the natural, common-sense way with "Fruit-a-tives". They contain only nature's oldest remedy—fresh fruit juices—combined with tonic. "Fruit-a-tives" strengthen and revitalize weakened bowels, liver and kidneys. 25c and 50c a box at all druggists. Start on the way back to health to-day. Try "Fruit-a-tives".

Here and There

To meet the increased activity in aviation the Royal Canadian Air Force will be equipped with 24 new planes, according to information given out at Ottawa recently.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has decided to give the name of Princess Elaine to the new vessel building in Scotland for the Vancouver-Nanaimo route, at a cost of $1,500,000.

To handle the heavy prospective movement of grain this year the Canadian Pacific Railway has opened the Transcona yards at Winnipeg and the new double track between Molson and Whittier junction.

Some idea of the increase in the volume of traffic through the port of Vancouver is given by the fact that during the past year exports from that port were valued at $11,000,000 as compared with $6,000,000 five years ago.

The winter carnival at Banff is to be held from February 11 to 17 this year, according to L. C. Orr, president of the Banff Winter Sports Association. Preparations are under way that give promise of a greater carnival than ever staged at this famous mountain resort.

An exceptional crop of blueberries has been gathered this season, according to the agent of the Canadian Pacific Express Company at Kenora, 324,787 pounds having passed through his office to date, and another 30,000 pounds are being shipped over the lakes to the United States. The estimated value of the total shipment is placed at about $38,000.

The names of Nungesser and Coll, who sought to fly the Atlantic but failed, will live forever in the place names of Canada. The topographical survey, department of the Interior has issued a new map of the gold bearing areas in the vicinity of Woman Narrows and Birch Lakes in northwestern Ontario. The names of these two explorers from France have been given to two lakes.

E. W. Bottly, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has announced in a telegram to H. R. Silver, president of the Lord Nelson Hotel Co., at Halifax, that the railway company has decided to subscribe to the extent of $350,000 in financing the hotel. Construction of a $1,250,000 hotel building will commence immediately.

Canada's "Agricultural Jubilee" is to be celebrated this year according to an announcement made by the Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, who has taken the matter up with various provinces. It has been decided to hold the celebration in connection with the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto, November 16 to 24 as the new building erected there jointly by the Dominion and Ontario Governments offers a splendid setting for this event.

In spite of the milk embargo Canada's exports of milk and cream to the United States have been well above the average this year according to Washington figures. The total exports of milk and cream, the latter, show an increase of 34,000 gallons during the seven months period January to July. The figures show 1,048,708 gallons compared favorably with 1,062,756 gallons in 1926 and 1,055,161 gallons in 1925.

A Hun Raid

Quartermaster sergeant Frank Robinson reports the only casualty of the Big Show put on at the new quarters of the Legion last Friday night. Some Hun, or it is thought an English speaking spy, entered the lines during the height of the attack and "salvaged" part of the "issue". The Intelligence Department reports that a man in dress common to those making up the attacking party, but with exception at "sideboards" was seen in the vicinity during the delivery of the "If the Sergeant Drinks Your Rum" barrage. If apprehended the culprit will be placed under close arrest and tried by Field General Court Martial. The penalty on conviction is "discharge with ignominy" or sentence to be "shot at dawn" at the discretion of the members of the court.

OBITUARY

MRS. ROBERT C. GRAHAM

"Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and be praised her."

The words apply very fittingly to Mrs. Robert C. Graham of Centreville, Digby County, N. S., the mother of the Rev. F. B. Graham M. A., of Shediac, N. B., who passed away in St. John, N. B., on September 14th, following an operation. She was born in Centreville sixty six years ago, which village claimed her residence during the whole of her life, and where she and her husband, early in their married life were received into the Methodist Church by the Rev. W. H. Heartz D. D.

Sister Graham maintained to the end, not only a deep interest in all that pertained to the spiritual and temporal interest of the local church, but also in the progress of the kingdom of God throughout the world. She realized "that man does not live by bread alone," and devoted her purposeful life to the highest welfare of both church and community.

As a S.S. teacher she provided herself "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." As a leader in the activities of the Ladies Aid Society, being Dorcas like, "full of good works, and almsdeeds." She was an earnest student of, and generous giver to the Missionary enterprises of the Church. The cause of Temperance, and the Bible Society each afforded her a field for the full play of her Christian zeal and endeavor. She was gifted in prayer, and in public testimony.

She trained her children for God and the Church. Her home was the Minister's home, always dispensing true Christian hospitality.

She gave of her best, and gave it cheerfully and with great joy.

Devoted servant of God—"We done't thy glorious warfare's part; the battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last."

The family, the church and the community have suffered a severe loss, in the passing of Sister Graham who was an outstanding example of all that a church member should be.

In proportion to the affliction so shall be the consolation.

May we all seek at the Mercy Seat the need'd grace. So shall the God of all consolation comfort us.

COLDS THAT HANG ON FORM REAL DANGER

Many people do not realize the grave danger they are in when they neglect a cold.

Neglected colds quickly lead to pneumonia and other serious and often fatal illness.

A cold should be treated at its very first appearance and the best treatment is Father John's Medicine which has had a history of more than seventy years success treating colds and coughs and throat troubles.

Former Digby Man Now of Riverside R. I. Offers Cup for Play By Valley Towns Teams

Mr. A. J. Dennison, formerly of Digby, but now located in Riverside, Rhode Island, who has been spending a holiday at his old home town, wants to see Digby put up a championship Hockey Team this winter. He has followed sports for many years, and says that the boys can't play hockey good enough to win the Championship Silverware unless they have something to play for, and some teams to play with. He wants to see a three team league in Western Nova Scotia. Digby, Annapolis and Bridgetown or Middleton, or all four towns if they can arrange a schedule. For this league he will offer a Silver Cup for competition. He has not decided what the style or shape of the cup will be, but it will be worth playing for and as good as can be manufactured. Mr. Dennison is a manufacturing jeweler and knows his shin pads.

Conditions under which the Dennison Cup is to be offered are as follows:

The Cup will be known as the Dennison Trophy.

It will be for competition in regular scheduled league games between teams of Western Nova Scotia, and when won three times will become the property of the winning team.

All games must be played under the regulations of the A.A.A.U. of Canada and the Nova Scotia Hockey League.

The team winning the trophy at the close of any season will be required to enter into satisfactory bond for its production for play the following year.

Red Ravens Club Organizes for Hockey Season

The Red Ravens have come into their own. The great showing made by Digby hockey team against the Nova Scotia champions last winter has won the Ravens recognition in Digby and this winter they will have the backing of the whole town in a manner never enjoyed before. On Monday night a meeting of the hockey fans was held in the Ocean Gardens Casino to prepare for the hockey season and elect officers for the year. E. M. Robertson was chairman of the meeting.

Mayor Lynch was elected president of the club, Ex-Mayor Frank Anderson chosen as Secretary and James Merkel playing Manager. O. Wright, F. K. Hayden and Ed. Webber were selected as managing committee, they to look after the business end of the games and relieve the players from having to arrange the games and then play them.

E. M. Robertson, Jr., and Bil Eldridge were appointed a committee to get new members for the club.

Now that Mr. Walker has extended the ice surface of the rink to approximately the standard size required for playing the chances of turning out a winning team this winter should be good. A fine start has been made, and if the players will get right down to it, get out to every practice and play the game for all it is worth we should have a winning aggregation.

Miss Weir Transferred to Wolfville

Miss Katherine Weir, operator at the Western Union office during the summer months, completed her tour of duty here on Monday and on Tuesday left for Wolfville, where she will be manager-operator at the Western Union office in the college town.

During the winter season the local office will be open from 8.00 a.m. to 8.00 p.m., with hours off at noon and at tea time for meals.

The Board of Trade is endeavoring to have the office kept on summer schedule continually—that is from 8.00 a.m. to 9.00 p.m., without any closing up between times. This seems necessary. The telegraph has become an important part of the fish business and the business none too good the telegraph office should be ready to serve at all times.

Barnjum $1,000.00 Forest Fire Ranger Prizes Awarded

The Forest Ranger Prizes annually offered by Frank J. D. Barnjum for the best forest fire protection service in Nova Scotia have just been awarded for the season of 1927 as follows: First Prize of $500.00 to H. B. Verge, Barrs' Corner, Lunenburg County; Second Prize $350.00 to W. B. Fraser, Watnish, Guysboro County and Third Prize $150.00 to George S. Dickey, Middle Musquodoboit, Halifax County.

Nova Scotia has experienced this season the smallest forest fire loss in the history of the province, smaller even than last year, which was a record up to that time. The total area burned over in the entire province being approximately twenty-eight hundred acres.

The Ladies Hospital Aid is preparing for a dance to be held Thursday, Nov. 17 in the Ocean Gardens Casino. Music to be announced later.

The Armistice

On Monday the people of Canada will celebrate Thanksgiving Day, and Armistice Day. Thanksgiving Day as an occasion of rejoicing, of hospitality and family reunion, and of worship, in celebration of Harvest Home. Armistice Day in celebration of the end of the Great War, and in commemoration of the Hero Dead who sleep in battle field burying grounds, perhaps in marked graves, perhaps in unmarked graves, or in their native land are laid with loved ones.

It is most fitting that the day of Thanksgiving and of celebration of the end of war should be combined. For nothing have any people more reason to be thankful. That the day is a movable, and not a fixed holiday, is a complaint of soldier organizations. "The Eleventh" is, they claim, the 11th of November and not the 7th, or the 9th, or the 13th. Their criticism is to an extent just, but at the same time it appears that the selection of the Monday prior to the 11th is most satisfactory. It makes of the occasion a double celebration, and includes the Sunday in its observance. Sunday for Worship, for memorial service in honor of Heroic Dead and the Monday for such secular enjoyments as are in keeping with the occasion.

As the Thanksgiving—Armistice Day holiday draws near one is reminded of advice given a year ago by Rev. F.E. Bishop at a Memorial Service at Digby Baptist church. "Let your memorial be that you prove worthy of those whose sacrifice we acknowledge here tonight." That their sacrifice may not have been in vain let us make of Canada a nation worth while, a land where peace is the reward of industry and patriotism. Make of it a land where the sons and daughters of our Hero Dead may grow to manhood and womanhood in the fullest sense of citizenship, and in your daily tasks forget not that their remains to us as a sacred task the duty of providing for those who by reason of wounds or disease are not able to enter into the ordinary pursuits of life."

Who Benefits By Tourist Travel?

There are people in Digby who say that the only advantage the tourist business is to Digby is to bring a little money to The Pines to the Myrtle House, to Lour Lodge and to a few merchants along Water street. There are others who say that for all the good Digby gets out of the tourist business it would pay us better to leave the business alone and devote our whole attention to attracting industries to locate in the town.

A Dominion Government department has compiled an estimate of what tourist travel means to the Dominion of Canada, and presents the surprising statement that the lather*

Best for You and Baby too.

export of pleasure, scenery, hospitality and hotel accommodation, and goods purchased by tourist visitors take place only after the export of wheat and news print. $100,000, 000.00 is the amount at which tourist travel in Canada valued. Of this amount for every dollar expended on hotel accommodation it is figured out that more than seven is spent on other things—$1.00 for the hotel keeper and $7.00 for other people.

Reducing to local application, for every dollar that is spent at the Pines, the Myrtle House, Lour Lodge or any other of the hotels and boarding houses in Digby and surrounding country, seven dollars is spent on taxi hire, boat hire, ice-cream and refreshments, entertainment, souvenirs, a hundred and one articles of merchandise. It means that the rest of Digby get seven dollars for every dollar spent at an hotel. Some may dispute these figures. They seem a bit out of proportion to us, but they are compiled by experts and should be taken as reasonable.

Accepting them as sound figures let us examine into matters of expenditure of money on tourist publicity. Should the hotel keepers do it all? Should the merchants do it all? Should the boat owners do it all? Should the railway and steamship companies do it all? Perhaps they should, and then again perhaps they should not. So far as Digby is concerned the Town of Digby should do a lot of it. And the ratepayers should foot the bills. Let us tackle the tourist business as a business. It is too big to leave in the hands of a few volunteers. It is too important to leave to the uncertain generosity of a few public spirited men. It is as important as hydro, or the water supply, more important in fact, because it is the source from which comes the money to pay for hydro and for town water, for streets and sidewalks. It is, for the Town of Digby, a most important source of revenue, and it is for the Town of Digby to go after more of this sort of business in order to give the ratepayers more civic utilities.

Admittedly the tourist business benefits the stores of Digby. It benefits the hotels of Digby and speaking from what we know about it benefits the Courier—directly and indirectly. But it also benefits a great number of people who are not in business. These people have not been called upon to bear any of the expenses of tourist development and in proportion to their investment or interest in the town, as indicated by the tax rolls, they are getting too much for nothing. The only way in which it is possible to spend money for tourist propaganda is to spend the money of all the people of the town, each contributing in proportion. To carry around subscription rolls, hold bridge parties or concerts and practice other petty schemes to raise money for tourist propaganda is to play at it, in place of working at it. There is only one way to raise the money—by taxation.

The Courier would bet money, if it were of a betting disposition, that the men working on the Long Wharf got more profit out of the tourist business this last season, in proportion to their investment in the business, than did any business house, or hotel, or boarding house keeper or boat owner. And many other people who have no regular business of employment made as much.

Why not ask every person to chip in his share, and make Digby the outstanding tourist town in the whole of Eastern Canada?

Appreciation

In the death at Weymouth of Dr. E.J. Elderkin that town lost a sterling citizen, the whole country side a sympathetic friend and the medical profession a successful practitioner.

Dr. Elderkin thoroughly prepared himself for his life work by studying medicine at McGill University and at Edinburgh. Knowledge gained from experience in an extensive general practice was improved by constant study of modern science. In addition to being a scientific student he was an ardent lover of good literature particularly of poetry. His recital of some of the gems from eminent writers has entertained by the hour, the writer when accompanying the genial doctor in the round of his professional duties.

His life was too full of service to others to find much opportunity for personal pleasures in amusements. He enjoyed a keen interest in civics,—national, federal, provincial and local, and by precept and example supported those measures which exalt a people. Throughout Digby Co. probably no other single man for so many years held so warm a place in the hearts of so many persons as did he. His presence in their homes alike soothed the fevered patient and the anxious family. Rich and poor, townsman and countryman, educated and illiterate, Protestant and Catholic received his best in medical skill and treatment, given in a peculiarly kindly and sympathetic manner.

The large concourse of friends who attended the funeral services on Tuesday afternoon spoke eloquently of the esteem in which he was held.

In politics he was a Liberal, in religion a constant member, a generous supporter and an esteemed official of the United Church of Canada at Weymouth, where he lived for some forty years and where he leaves a fragrant memory, as chaste as the wealth of beautiful flowers which covered his casket.

The deceased was in the 75th year of his age and was born at Apple River, Cumberland Co. He is survived by his widow, nee Miss Etta Black, River Phillip, a daughter, Mrs. Ephraim Gates, of Weymouth Mills, and a son, Karl, residing in Ontario.

St. Anne's College, Church Point Observed Church Feast

The Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Eudist Calendar was celebrated with grandeur and pomp at St Ann's College, Church Point on Thursday, October 20. To the Eudist Fathers who conduct the College and to the students entrusted to their care the feast days celebrated throughout the year have an especial significance and are an occasion of rejoicing. At nine o'clock a Solemn High Mass was celebrated in the magnificent and spacious college chapel which was handsomely decorated for the occasion. Rev. Father J. M. Doucette of Plympton was the celebrant of the Mass assisted by Fathers Richard and Robitaille of the College as deacon and subdeacon respectively. Seated in the sanctuary were Rev. Fathers Seibler, Superior of the College; Mary parish priest of Church Point; Max emine LeBlanc of Quinon, A. LeBlanc, Weymouth and Rev. Hery Boudreau of the college staff. Special music was rendered by the college choir under the direction of Father Leger, with solos by Father Bourque. Professor Arseneault presided at the organ. The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Boudreau recently returned to this country from Rome and Professor of Sciences at the College. His sermon dealt with the love of the Sacred Heart for mankind. At noon the college was host to the visiting clergy at a sumptuous banquet.

Not only was Thursday a great Feast day at the college, it was also a great day in another sense, for on that day Dr. Henry Munro, Superintendent of Education for the province of Nova Scotia and the Hon. C. F. Cahon, deputy Minister of Highways and President of the Committee on Education were guests of the college and were tendered a reception. It was the second time in the history of the college that a Superintendent of Education was a guest of the college and addressed the student body. Arriving shortly before two o'clock from Meteghan where they were tendered a reception at the Sacred Heart Convent by the Sister of Charity in the morning and where Mr. Cahon spoke on the necessity of learning history and Dr. Munro on the advantages that convent girls have, urging them to devote their days at convent to their studies. They were greeted by a band concert in front of the college.

The auditorium where the exercises were held in the afternoon was filled to capacity by people not only from Church Point but from outlying districts, who by their presence gave evidence of the interest felt in matters of education and especially in those affecting St. Ann's College of which institution they are justly proud. Rev. Father Superior welcomed the distinguished guests, Dr. Munro and Mr. Cahon. In his speech of welcome he sketched the history of the college since its foundation in 1890 and said it was the desire of the college that its students be scholars in French and English. It was pleasing and gratifying said Father Superior to the college that its graduates have risen to places of prominence in the professions and named several alumni who led their classes in the higher universities. If St. Ann's College has been successful it has been due to the efforts of the teachers, the Eudist Fathers and the good will and cooperation of the students. Its success is also due, continued the speaker, to sentiment, attachment of its alumni to their Alma Mater and the Benevolence of the Provincial Government.

Better the Man with His Eye to the Sky than the Man with His Ear to the Ground

ALL through its long, successful history, General Motors of Canada has had its eye to the horizon... listening not for what followed, but looking always toward the thing ahead.

And General Motors has seen many of its visions realized.

It has seen a great industry grow up in Canada to supply the Canadian family with a means of transportation to meet its needs, and resources, to answer the desire for style, dependability, luxury.

It has seen, in the Canadian Fisher Body plants, the perpetuation of Canadian ideals of craftsmanship. It has seen, in the General Motors Research laboratories, the development of countless advances and refinements on which much of modern motoring comfort depends.

It has seen, on the General Motors Proving Grounds, the proof of principles which are now accepted factors in automobile design and construction.

It has seen the triumph of co-operative purchasing and manufacturing methods with their resultant economies to be shared with the buyers of General Motors cars.

And the eyes of General Motors are still to the horizon... still seeking new ways to improve General Motors cars and to place the cars within reach of ever-widening circles of Canadian buyers.

Two new patrols have recently been organized in connection with the First Bear River Troop. The "Beavers" have Henry Romans for Patrol Leader and the "Peewits" have Harold Shaw as their Leader.

The first "bike" was held last Saturday with a total attendance of nine. The weather was not favorable and the boys showed their ingenuity in keeping dry and having a warm meal with rain falling nearly all the time. Stream crossing had to be resorted to a dozen times and the scouts all agreed that a hike of this kind without a staff or give assistance would have been impossible. With all the stream crossings there was not a wet foot in the party.

The next hike is planned for Thursday of this week, and it is expected that three or four new

St. Anne's College

A special dramatic and musical program was then presented. The french play, "The Little Gardeners of the Queen" was a comedy in one act and was admirably presented.
Especially fine was the wonderful historical ability evinced by the two young boys who took the part of the gardeners. The English play "French Without a Master" was absolutely executed.

Very impressive was the physical drill with music under the direction of Professor Pothier. Upon the conclusion of the entertainment
Louis d'Entremont, Inspector of French Schools introduced as the first speaker, the Hon. C. F. Cahon who said it gave him great pleasure to be present at the exercises and expressed his gratitude at the reception given by the college authorities. Hon. Mr. Cahon paid a tribute to the French language and said, "a knowledge of French is essential if one is cultured". Continuing he said that the history of Nova Scotia was indelibly bound up with the French people since the seventeenth century. Turning to the subject of education he said
"There is no factor that contributes to the happiness of life more than education. We encourage education and that is why we are here.
Now is the time to receive ideas and suggestions from educational leaders."

Inspector d'Entremont in introducing Dr. Munro, said among other things "We demand twentieth century methods and teachers who measure up to the needs of the day and have caught the vision of efficiency applied to education.
Our mistake in school methods of former years was in thinking that methods in towns and city schools were the best also for the country schools. On the contrary the keynote to modern methods is that education must be correlated to the home life of the children."

Dr. Munro, Superintendent of Education on coming to the platform thanked the authorities for the invitation to visit the college stating that this was his first official visit to a french community and in all probability it would not be his last. He referred at the outset to the time it took to make Harvard, and altho the history of St. Ann's College was new to him he knew of the educational advantages which the college afforded through the personal contact with some of its former students while he was engaged as teacher at Pictou Academy and later at Dalhousie University.

He spoke of the large and appreciative audience which greeted him thereby evincing the splendid interest which the people of this community showed in education by coming here to day. Nova Scotia, Dr. Munro said, is not the only province which is grappling with its educational problems. At an enthusiastic gathering of leading educationalists from various parts of the world, over eight thousand people met at Toronto in August to discuss the importance of education and devise means and ways of coping with the high problem educational presents. This is impressive of the fact that to the minds of our leading thinkers is coming with force and import the realization of the demands which are growing daily with the expansion and development of this great Dominion. Dr.
Munro outlined the various forces at work in the betterment of educational methods among which he named socialization, democracy, nationalism and internationalism.

He described the present age as an age of science, a mechanical age.
After discussing education generally Dr. Munro spoke on the subject as it affected, the Province of Nova Scotia and said there were three outstanding features which demanded immediate attention, 1st. the question of teachers; 2nd administration and thirdly curriculum.

Forty per cent of the teachers in rural sections are untrained. All teachers must equip and qualify themselves for the work of teaching.
He compared the city schools with the rural schools and suggested that the village school imitate the city plan. In the matter of administration Dr. Munro was of the opinion that the school affairs should be handled by a School Board. Education he said, suggests the adjustment of oneself to ones environment. In the matter of curriculum that would fit the needs of the time Dr. Munro placed public health first and suggested that language, one's mother tongue should be taught zealously.

There should be arithmetic and history not only of the province but of the Dominion, of the Empire and of the world in fact. The great need was to fit the school to the child, in other words the right kind of studies at the right time.
When the child was advanced as far as the seventh or eighth grade a modified curriculum was needed to fit the individual needs and demands. Dr. Munro at the conclusion of his address was given a rousing cheer and the afternoon's exercises were brought to a close by singing God Save the King.

Among the clergy present were
Mgr. Comeau, Fel Brook; Fathers
Young, Yarmouth; Hamelin, Am-

A large number of Digby people attended the Hallowe'en Dance and Clam Bake at Kasdale on Tuesday night.

One of the most delightful of the festivities held in celebration of Hallowe'en was the dance at the Ocean Gardens Casino last Friday night. The dance hall was prettily decorated with witches colors, orange and black and the music was of black, with gold lettering, surrounded by a black cat. Rippey's orchestra provided the music.

Mr. L. H. Potter, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada at Weymouth and Mrs. Potter, were visitors in Digby on Tuesday.

Rebekah's Hallowe'en Party Had Many Novel Features

Those who attended the Hallowe'en Party given on Monday evening by Zelma Rebekah lodge enjoyed one of the most pleasant and novel evenings in many years. There was a good crowd of people, just in the humor for fantastic things, and when the ghosts paraded it put every one into the spirit of the evening. Dainty and satisfying refreshments were served and music, provided by the Digby Orchestra provided for a short program of dancing.

Visiting Bank Fisherman Talks of Injuries to Industry by Beam Trawler

Capt. H. I. Phinney of Gloucester, Mass., who has been in Digby on a business trip, a guest at the Winchester, is a very interested follower of the proceedings of the Fisheries Commission meetings being held in different parts of the province. The captain was formerly master of an American fishing schooner and in conversation with the Courier discussed the evidence presented before the Commission respecting the beam trawlers as a menace to the fisheries.

The American hand liners and trawlers have been protesting against the beam trawler for years and early in 1914 Captain Phinney was one of a committee of Gloucester fishermen who attended at Washington to protest against permitting beam trawlers to operate. The outbreak of the war prevented any action being taken, on the ground that maximum production was a war time necessity and since the war nothing has been done.

Captain Phinney claims that over-production is not the most serious injury inflicted upon the fishing industry by the beam trawlers. That is serious, destroying any possibility of stabilizing prices. The operation of the beam trawler on the fishing ground is, in the captain's opinion an even more serious matter. He contends that the beam trawls dragging along the feeding bottoms break all marine growth from its roots, destroying the feeding grounds and that one "set" of the trawls over a section where fish feed will so damage the bottom that the fish must move to some other section to find feed.

And in addition to this the beam trawls scoop up huge numbers of fish which are not marketable size which are killed in the trawls and thrown overboard; as much as half the catch of a trawl being often thrown back into the sea.

On the other hand Captain Phinney claims that baited trawls are a help to the fisheries. They help to feed the grounds and fish will remain in spots where bait is used.

Captain Phinney is now representing a Gloucester fish buying firm and his visit to Digby was in search of scall-up shipments. He expressed approval of measures being taken to protect the scallops during spawning seasons. The Digby scallop fisheries he said, were looked to by United States buyers as their chief source for scallops and if the fishing was protected to prevent depletion of the beds, as was permitted in the lobster industry, a steady production could be maintained for many years to come.

Memorandum

In loving memory of Eliza Cross of Waldeck West, who died November 4th, 1926.

It was just a year ago
How sad and wretched the day
When mother dear was lying beneath
That cold, cold clay.
Friends 'twas such a vision to my tear
Blurred eyes
To know that God called my mother
To meet him in the skies.

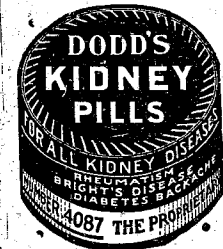

Whose love can equal that of a mother
Whose devotion so faithful and true None—though you may search the whole world through.

When Dad stood beside her sick bed,
She said so satisfied
My peace is with God—
He's alright.

If I live or if I die
I want to live the right way
Throw this worldly life aside
That I may be united with mother in the skies.

MRS. FRANCES HENNIGAR

The death of Mrs. Frances Hennigar occurred at her home Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 25th at the age of 77 years after an illness of nearly ten weeks. She was the wife of the late Henry J. Hennigar who predeceased her five years and the daughter of the late Rice Whitman of Lawrence town. She had lived her married life in Bear River except a few weeks spent in Boston.

She was a devoted member and worker of the United Church where she will be very much missed. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Herbert Bent of Belleisle and two brothers, George and William Whitman of Lawrence town and a number of nephews and nieces.

The funeral services were held from her late home Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. D. S. Sawdon of the United Church with interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

The floral offerings were very beautiful.

ARE YOU GETTING VALUE?

To some homes a newspaper is a newspaper, and no thought is given to the quality. The rules are not applied when buying house supplies. The best is then wanted, even if it costs more. Why should those homes not be as particular about the reading matter that comes into the family, particularly when the very best can be had at the same price or less than the inferior articles the family at a cost of less than a country weekly—one dollar a year. Seventy-two pages every week of the choicest reading for every member of the family at a cost of less than two cents a week should interest every home in Canada. No wonder The Family Herald and Weekly Star is read by a million Canadians each week. It is well worth a trial.

When Sourness, Pain and Bloating Follow Every Meal

Swift and Sure Relief

To quickly prove 90 per cent of stomach distress is absolutely unnecessary and that you can eat and enjoy most any food you really want—get from your druggist some Bismarck Magnesia (powder or tablets) and take a little after your next meal. This is a simple, inexpensive test that can be depended upon to prove its value in less than five minutes. In most instances, relief comes instantly!

Disrupted Magnesia is a pleasant, harmless, non-laxative form of old-fashioned Magnesia that, when taken after meals, cleans, sweetens, and neutralizes the dangerous acids that cause most stomach trouble. One day's trial will convince you—ask your druggist for Bismarck Magnesia today.

Grey Tweed and Fur Solve Problem of the Fall Coat

The wards fall and coat are naturally associated for the coming of cold weather. Coats are an essential to every wardrobe. There are coats of course, and coats, and one of the smartest is shown here.

Grey tweed is used, cut with straight lines which flare slightly toward the hem.

It follows the lines of imported models and has a rather brief rolled collar.

The fur used is curly grey chevreotte and the wide panels down the front are effectively shaped to accentuate the flare of the coat. The medium cuffs are also of Chevreotte.

REVIEW OF COAL MINING IN NOVA SCOTIA.

In the Journal of Admiral Hovenden Walker it is recorded as regards Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, that the island "had always, in time of peace been used in common, both by the English and French, for loading coals, which are extraordinarily good here and taken out of the cliffs with iron crowbars only and no other labour."

In such a manner began, in the latter part of the seventeenth century, the first decade of the eighteenth century, the exploitation of the only coal fields on the Atlantic coast of America.

Underground mining was first attempted at Cow Bay or Morien in 1720 by a party of about 100 men, employed on the erection of the fortress at Louisbourg, but for a hundred years, mining of coal was carried on in a desultory and wasteful manner. Heavy royalties enacted by the crown, short term leases, wasteful mining methods, illegal depredations upon seams outcropping in the sea cliffs, all contributed to throttling production. From 1825-1828 began a new era of production and development. During that period a company, known as the General Mining Association, gained control of practically all the coal leases. Active mining under trained men brought from the Old Country soon began in Sydney and Pictou coal fields and resulted in an increase of annual production from 21,000 tons in 1828 to 294,000 tons in 1858. But a more noticeable advance began with the establishment of an allied steel industry in 1860 which brought production in 1900 to three million tons. In 1913, the banner coal year of the province, the steel industry absorbed six per cent of the coal consumption of Nova Scotia and the output that year rose to seven million tons.

The coal reserves became the property of the provincial government in 1849 and the royalties from the leases, now on a basis of twelve and one half cents a ton, provide the chief source of revenue.

The major part of the coal exported from the province is mined in the Cape Breton field and is dispatched in the summer months in a special fleet of steamers to St. Lawrence river ports. In the Montreal market Nova Scotia coal has to meet the keen competition of coal from the United States.

OVER 15 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

Here and There

What is considered the largest grizzly shot in the Canadian Rockies this season was taken by Miss A. Van Vleck, daughter of Ernest Van Vleck, prominent New York architect who headed a hunting party into the Selkirk district. The party went in north of Revelstoke.

An amount of grain greatly in excess of the entire production of western Canada in the year 1897, 4,454,000 bushels, were hauled to elevators over Canadian Pacific lines in one day in the west during the middle of October. This constituted a record haul of grain for this railway company.

The second shipment of horses from Canada to Russia was a record shipment, according to Louis Kon, Soviet representative, being only one horse that died during the passage. The next shipment is expected to go forward in November, and this will bring the total number up to 3,300.

G. N. Torgren, ex-M.P. for Sweden, recently left for the Peace River Country in order to locate suitable farm land for the establishing of a large colony of Swedish farmers, who are said to be in a position to undertake farming on an extensive scale. He has already canvassed Mexico and the Southwestern States, which he finds unsuitable.

The new Canadian Pacific Railway elevator at Midland has begun to receive grain, and shortly all the construction work will be complete and all departments of the plant in operation. The opening of this elevator marks the extension of Canadian Pacific enterprise to another port on the Great Lakes and a new factor in retaining a greater proportion of the Canadian export grain trade for Canadian ports.

The largest party of major league baseball stars to hunt moose in New Brunswick entered the woods for a two-weeks stay after the World Series. The party entered at Clarendon on the Canadian Pacific main line and included Benny Bengough, Mark Koenig, Eddie Collins, Joe Bush, Sam Jones, Fred Hofman. A number of newspaper writers and cameramen were included in the party.

The two new Canadian Pacific passenger ships, "Duchess of Athol" and "Duchess of Bedford," now being built for the St. Lawrence route (Liverpool to Montreal), will be two of the finest vessels afloat, according to plans and specifications. Their gross tonnage will register 20,000. They will be twin screw with geared turbine engines. They will have a length of 306 feet, a breadth of 75 feet and a speed of 17 1/2 knots. Both ships will have accommodation for 572 cabin, 480 tourist third class and 508 third class passengers.

The initial consignment this year of Canadian apples for Great Britain has come forward on the Canadian Pacific line "Montrose" from Montreal. They are consigned by the Fruit Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture from the Province of Ontario and consist of forty standard boxes containing about 4,000 apples to be put on exhibition at the Imperial Fruit Show scheduled to be held at Manchester this month. Varieties include Golden Russet, McIntosh, Spies, Greening, Stark, Taiman Sweet, Wolf River, Cram Pippin and Baxter. On the same vessel are also cases of vegetables also for exhibition in England.

An Indian Chief once told a missionary that all whiskey was good whiskey, but that some was better than others. When this appraisal was a proper one, there may be some doubt. But there would have been none if he had been talking of Tea. "All tea is good tea," he could have said, but the best is MORSE'S.

Veterans Will Hold Memorial Service at Soldiers' Monument

On Friday, November 11th, members of the Digby branch of the Canadian Legion will commemorate Armistice Day and honor Fallen Comrades with a special parade a eleven o'clock in the morning. The parade will assemble at the club rooms at 10 30 and will march off at 10 45 to the Town Hall, where it will be joined by the Mayor and Town Councillors, and proceed to the Monument. Reaching this point the firing party will form up facing the Monument and at 10 59 the two Minutes of Silence will be observed. The termination of this will be marked by the customary tribute of honor at a military funeral after which the Last Post will be sounded.

At an appropriate part in the ceremony the Chaplain will make a short prayer.

The order of march will be: Boy Scouts with Bugle Band, Guard of Honor, the Mayor and Councillors, Ex-service men. The Guard will be in charge of Sergeant James Merkel and will review in parade order. From the Town Hall to the Monument the Guard will march with arms reversed.

The public are invited to take part in the ceremony and are requested that wreaths to be laid on the Monument will be held until after the military tribute is placed.

A. J. Westhaver Celebrating a Quarter Century of Business in Digby

For twenty five years, this summer, A. J. Westhaver has been cutting meats and tying up vegetables and groceries for the people of Digby. In the "good old days" the Digby Meat Market did a thriving business supplying provisions to vessels sailing out of Digby, and "salt lunk" was an important article of merchandise. These times have changed, to be followed by demand for choice cuts of western beef, for Spring lamb when it is lamb, and a time of demand for better qualities. Mr. Westhaver has kept pace with the changing times, and this summer in order to be in a still better position to serve the public, is building an extension on his store, which will give him more room for an expanding business.

Dull, listless, out of sorts, feeling half-sick

Is it a cold coming on? Is it over-eating or what can't be? Probably it is Nature warning that your system is not functioning properly.

When you feel this way you should follow the treatment that has helped many, many other people. Even two weeks of it will make a difference in the way you feel.

A prominent New York physician says, "When my patients have that dull half-sick feeling I always prescribe Nujol and recommend at least two weeks' continued usage. Why? Because Nujol absorbs and clears away the toxic intestinal poisons that in most cases are the cause of the trouble. Further, Nujol is absolutely harmless and can be taken by young babies or old people.

Not like medicine

Nujol contains no drugs or medicine. It's a natural substance unlike anything else. Can't hurt you. Others have benefited from taking it, why not you? This remarkable product is sold all over the world. Go to any druggist, get a bottle of Nujol and see for yourself what it will do. Only—don't delay. Do it now. Insist on the real Nujol. Perfected by the famous Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle.

Town Will Engage Engineer to Make Survey of Water System

At the meeting of the Town Council on Monday night it was decided to engage an engineer to make a survey and prepare estimates of cost of extending the water main from the reservoir dam up into the lake. During summer months the water from the lake becomes discolored passing down the dam, and if the extension can be made without too high cost the Council will ask the ratepayers to authorize construction of a section of water main to join the present main below the dam and extend up into the lake. This would overcome the objectionable discoloring of the water and at the same time give increased water pressure. This is important, as during dry periods it has been necessary to shut off the gates on Sydney street in order to divert the flow into the storage reservoir at the cemetery, and even with this regulation pressure on high levels has not been good.

Superintendent Hayden was instructed to arrange for flushing all the mains to remove lodgments of sediment.

Quantities and Prices

Last week Warne's ad told of quantities—How buying power could get goods direct from the manufacturers. Don't let the opportunity go past of buying at prices that are figured to the closest margin of profit. Whatever you want to buy, get in touch with Warne's to ask prices.

Mrs. Faust "At Home"

One of the most delightful social events of the season was last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Faust was At Home for the first time in her new bungalow home overlooking the Annapolis Basin. A large number of the social elite of Digby attended and among the out of town guests were Mrs. R. H. Edwards, Mrs. W. Wilson, Mrs. C. V. Vaughan, Mrs. DeWolfe and Mrs. Robert Gibson, all of Halifax.

Mrs. Faust was assisted in receiving by Mrs. DuVernet. The guests were ushered in by Miss Dorothy Hinxman. Mrs. Edwards and Mrs. Wilson presided over the Tea Service and were assisted by Mrs. Dillon, Mrs. Hubert Warne, Mrs. W. W. Hayden and Miss Dora Warne.

The rooms were decorated with a profusion of cut flowers. The new Faust bungalow has become the envy of all the ladies of Digby, for its wonderful location and what they heard of its interior beauty, and many took the opportunity to inspect it and to admire the view of the Basin from the sun parlor lookout.

A Matter of Arithmetic

How long should it take to move twenty five tons of vegetables and feed five miles?

It depends a great deal on the size of the wagon the type of transportation, and the speed at which it travels.

Mr. H.T. Warne is satisfied that the best way to move that much goods, the quickest service at the lowest cost, is with a DeLance Motor Truck.

On Tuesday the truck hauled seven loads of turnips from the Warne farm at Hill Grove to the warehouse at Digby, and took time off to haul a load of feed from the wharf. Seven trips to Hill Grove and back, and a trip to the wharf after nine thirty in the morning. Compare that with using horses, ox carts, or even seven light trucks, and figure out what it means to have the machine that will not only do the work cheaply, but more important, do it quickly.

Mr. Karnes, of the DeLance Motor Truck Company, who is in Digby servicing the first shipment of trucks says that the only way in which the DeLance is different from ordinary trucks is that it will haul heavier loads at faster speed.

HYDRO IS MAKING SPLENDID PROGRESS

Government Delays Are Holding Up Hydro Extension Down Digby Neck

In an interview given the Halifax Herald on Tuesday Mr. H. H. Marshall, Chairman of the Digby County Power Board, announced that the Power Board's plans for extending the service down Digby Neck were awaiting favorable decision on the part of the provincial government in respect to a request made on behalf of residents of villages on Long and Briar Islands that the government lay and maintain the cables necessary to link the islands with the mainland service. It is now several months since the application was made to the government in this matter and up to the present no definite decision has been reached. Mr. Rhodes who received a delegation composed of Mr. Byron Blackford, of Twerton, Mr. R. C. Bowers of Westport, and Mayor Lynch, of Digby, at that time promised sympathetic consideration by his government. The Power Board has repeatedly endeavored to secure a definite announcement in respect to the cables but up to the present without result. A deadlock seems imminent, with the Power Board helpless to move in the matter. Installation of the cables at charges to be repaid out of revenue would so increase the cost of installation as to make the rates to users prohibitive, and while the government has been credited as having promised to lay the cables if the Board would run its transmission lines, the Board is most properly waiting until the Nova Scotia Power Commission Moguls are ready to advise the government what action is consistent with the development with an important section of Digby County, and the development of a public utility whose successful service of its patrons depends altogether upon increased consumption of current generated at the Sissiboo plant.

It seems that the advisers of the government are not acting fairly with the people of Digby Neck or with the Power Board. There has been too much time lost in reaching a decision in the matter and at this late date in the season, even if the government is induced to assume the installation and maintenance of the cables, across Grand and Petite Passages, the winter costs of constructing the line may be sufficient above normal to prevent construction of the power lines until Spring.

So far as present development is concerned the plan of the Digby County Power Board is meeting all expectation, even the most optimistic. Power house production for the month of April, the first month of operation, was 13,100 kilowatts.

Of this, the Town of Digby 9,900 k.w., the Village of Weymouth, 1,300 k.w., and Municipal distribution was 452 k.w. Demand for energy has steadily increased since the end of May, for which month the total energy generated was 400 k.w. more than for April. In October the quantity generated was 23,300 k.w.s. of which Digby took 14,200 k.w., Weymouth 1,790, and the rural distribution 2160 kilowatts. The peak of consumption for rural distribution was in the month of September, when 2936 kilowatts were consumed. Much of this was demand of summer hotels and other short term users. From the end of May revenue from consumption has been sufficient to

The Canadian Pacific Railway's Great Opportunity

At the request of the COURIER Mr. Clarence Jameson, who because of his membership in the House of Commons when the National Railway question was being thrashed out, and subsequent intercourse with those in control of the two great systems, the C.N.R. and C.P.R., is conversant with the questions involved, has consented to contribute to the columns of this Journal some articles touching upon the importance to Western Nova Scotia of having the C.P.R. round out its great system by linking up with the D.A.R. and for this purpose providing a Bay Service between St. John and Digby that will enable it to compete with its great rival, the Canadian National Railway, which now has port facilities at both St. John and Halifax.

The first of Mr. Jameson's articles upon this all important subject is printed hereunder.

For many years the chief effort of the Canadian Pacific Railway was put forth in the Canadian West. This was not to be wondered at, the West was a new land and the railway was constructed, in large measure, to make it available to settlers. Those who have visited the three Western, or prairie, provinces, not infrequently marvel at the result. The Canadian wheat crop is now a factor in the world's production. In this work of development the Canadian Northern, now merged with the Canadian National Railway, proved also a great factor.

But the West has had its turn, and the attention of the great men of affairs is looking again toward the rising sun. The acquisition some years ago of the Dominion Atlantic Railway by the Canadian Pacific, gave the latter company its first foothold in Nova Scotia. It is well known within railway circles that the builders of the Canadian Northern railway, Sir William Mc Kenzie and Sir Donald Mann, were much chagrined that the elder company secured this property. They already held interest of a substantial nature in the so called South Shore railway, and mileage in Cape Breton, and regarded this Province, apart from the old Intercolonial, as their especial territory. What the outcome would have been had the D.A.R. passed to McKenzie and Mann and thence to the Canadian National, it is useless to contemplate. The card held the other way, and while nominally the D.A.R. is run, like many other branch lines of the C.P.R. as a separate organization, with its old name, it is nevertheless owned by the greatest transportation company land and water in the world.

The fact that Mr. Beatty, the astute and far seeing president of the Canadian Pacific, has but recently offered to contribute on behalf of his company, the sum of $300,000 to an hotel enterprise at Halifax, indicates that he has the interests of this Province at heart, and is prepared to support them in a practical manner. The question remains, however, is the D.A.R. to be made a part of the C.P.R. system, and linked up with the transcontinental line by a suitable car ferry service between St. John and Digby.

If the C.P.R. gets running right over the C.N.R. to Halifax (and so management of the C.N.R. would hitherto grant such, as being in direct competition with its own service) the D.A.R.

D.A.R. will, in all probability, remain as it is, a mere branch line of the great system. On the other hand, if the Canadian Pacific decides to develop the splendid and fertile lands through which the D.A.R. runs, and as a preliminary puts its Bay service upon a modern and efficient basis, with the necessary facilities for the moving of freight, it can do for Western Nova Scotia what it did for various parts of the Canadian West, to the benefit of the Province and to its own financial advantage. While the COURIER would be the last to draw comparisons, it has little hesitation in saying that of the two territories in Western Nova Scotia served respectively by the C. N. R. and the D.A.R., the latter is open to greater and more speedy results in a campaign of development. It is earnestly to be hoped that the men who sit in judgement and decide such matters, will not fail to appreciate the great opportunity for service lying before the C.P.R. in Western Nova Scotia.

While we do not believe in pressing unduly our views in such matters, it seems desirable that the Boards of Trade in the territory served by the D.A.R. should make such representations in this important matter as to them seem most likely to advance the interests of the Province:

Ruddy Canadian Apples for Overseas

"What shall I send the folks in the Old Country?" is a query heard as the Christmas season approaches, but if the average Canadian realized how much our big, juicy, red apples are appreciated and enjoyed by people overseas the problem would be immediately solved.

Canada's luscious rosy apples are treasured by young and old alike. They symbolize our brilliant sunshine and warm summer days and they do look Christmas and cheerful. Northern Spies, McIntosh Reds and Baldwins are, the best and the most popular to carry your kind thoughts and good wishes across the sea and standard boxes and barrels of choice hand picked and hand packed fruit Government Inspected, are procurable at reasonable prices from any grocer while the matter of shipment is as simple as the mailing of a card.

The Canadian National Express will call for your apples, transport and deliver them by quick service to any station in Great Britain, Ireland and most European countries.

The transportation charge from Montreal and Quebec up to November 15th or from Saint John and Halifax, thereafter by direct steamer to points in Great Britain, Ireland and the Channel Islands is $3.10 per standard box and $8.20 per standard barrel, including refrigeration.

For rates to Canadian ports, through rates to Continental stations, and other particulars, consult any Canadian National Express Agent.

MRS. CATHERINE WALKER
It is our sad duty to report this week the death of Mrs. Catherine Walker which took place Oct. 29, at the age of 73 years, dropsy being the cause of her death. She had been in failing health for the past year and her death was not unexpected.

She was a member of the Baptist church, living always a quiet, christian life.

Left to mourn are five daughters Mrs. Howard Ossinger, Holliston Mass.; Mrs. Coleman Powell, Central Grove, Mrs. John Thurber, Freeport; Mrs. Neil Outhouse and Mrs. George Outhouse of Tiverton; two sons, Abram Walker, Little River; Ernest, Tiverton.

One sister, Mrs. Hamal Hall, Framingham, Mass., one brother, Z. Young, Boston, Mass.

Funeral took place from her late home Oct. 31st., services conducted by Rev. P. Hamilton, pastor of Freeport Baptist church. To all who mourn we extend sympathy.

They have smoothed her dying pillow They have kissed her marble brow. And in their aching hearts they know They have no mother now. When they leave this world of changes, When they leave this world of care, They will find their missing loved one, In the Heavenly Mansion Fair.

Rainbow Lodge 1131 O.O.F. Held Memorial Service

Rainbow Lodge 113 I.O.O.F. held a memorial service here Sunday 6th in memory of their late brother, Kenneth Ossinger who lost his life in the great storm of Aug. 24.

At 3 o'clock 60 Oddfellows, all in full regalia, marched from the I.O.O.F. room to the breakwater where a very solemn and impressive service was held. Immediately following the service they formed a circle marched to the end of the breakwater where Noble Grand, Charles Howard dropped a spray of flowers into the water, followed by each member who dropped a spray of evergreen with the parting words, "Farewell Brother."

They then marched to the Baptist church where a very large congregation assembled to show their esteem and sympathy, and to listen to a wonderful sermon preached by Rev. P. Hamilton of Chippewa Lodge, Freeport, his subject being "The Storm of Life." A number of brothers from Janitza Lodge, Westport, and Chippewa Lodge, also Benj. Ruggles of St. George Lodge, Digby, took part in the services showing their love and respect for their late brother.

We shall meet and we shall miss him.

There will be a vacant chair. We shall listen for his footsteps. Till we too go "Over T here."

Seven in Ten Men Past 40 Need This Special Treatment

For Amazing and Lasting Relief From Middle-Age Ailments That Cause Daily Annoyance and Sap Vital Force

No longer need men near or past the prime of life put up with those painful and often embarrassing conditions brought on by overworked, sluggish kidneys, Bladder Weakness and Prostrate Gland Trouble, with their distressing symptoms of Languor, Pains in back and down through groin, scanty but frequent and burning urination, "Getting-up Nights," Nervous Irritability and lack of force—because a ten-day test of Dr. Sutherland's URATABS will convince the most skeptical of the value of the special treatment for their particular case.

Amazing testimony of Physicians and users gives convincing proof of the power of URATABS to restore Health and Strength to a weakened, inflamed or irritated Bladder and Urinary Tract. A multitude of alarming symptoms seem to quickly disappear—and you see and feel a truly genuine improvement often within two or three days. "No more Backaches, no more pain, no more embarrassment or Getting-up nights, I now sleep soundly, and get up in the morning full of pep," thanks to URATABS!

While new to the general public, the wondrous value of URATABS has been thoroughly proven by nearly 40 years of successful use in the private practice of Dr. J. C. Sutherland. And now any good druggist will supply them on a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Try URATABS today!

Visitors In Halifax

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dillon and their son, accompanied by Mrs. Dillon's sister, Mrs. Fred McBride and mother, Mrs. Ellis, motored to Halifax on Thanksgiving Day and registered at the Carleton. They returned on Tuesday.

Special Thanksgiving Day menus featured the celebration of the day at the Carleton and at dinner nearly two hundred guests were served, among them being many dinner parties of city and outside people. The Carleton Hotel broadcasting station, CHNS, was "on the air" during the dinner hour with a splendid Thanksgiving Day programme during dinner hour.

On Sunday CHNS., was successful in getting an English station, being the first broadcasting station to do so, and repeated the program.

BALM ended in death! So a recent Canadian investigation showed. These were not cases of infectious diseases—of consumption—of typhoid! They were cases where a person had sustained some slight injury—a cut, a burn, a wire-prick—and where the wound, being thought not serious enough for careful treatment, had been neglected. Blood-poisoning and death resulted. When you or your children sustain any injury, secure against infection by applying Zam-Buk. This balm soothes the pain, stops bleeding, and by destroying all germs prevents blood-poisoning, etc. Hence no time need be lost from work or pleasure by those who use Zam-Buk. BUGLE BAND HELD A SNAPPY PRACTICE

Scouts Thank Those Who Helped Hallowe'en Feast

The First Digby Scout Troop wishes to thank Mrs. L. V. Winchester for loan of dishes, the Vestrymen of Trinity Church for loan of chairs and tables and Mrs. Budrow for services rendered, all of which went to make the Scouts' Hallowe'en supper on the evening of October 22nd, such a decided success.

A regular meeting of the Scouts was held in their hall last Friday night, Scoutmaster O. Wright in charge.

The Beaver and Wolf Patrols were awarded points for standing correctly and the Beavers were also awarded points for the largest amount of dues paid in, for the most scout hats and for the fullest patrols. Second class work including signalling and Kims Game were studied by all patrols. 2nd Raymond Winchester passed successfully.

Speeches were given on Radio and its wonders, the Beaver Patrol winning points for the best speech. Before the meeting closed songs were sung.

In the Court of Honor meeting it was decided that Roy Sulis be admitted into the Fox Patrol.

Last of all the Drum and Bugle Corps held a short but snappy practice.

The Scouts will take part with the Digby Legion in the Memorial Service to be held at the War Monument this morning.

TOWN CLOCK

ment since the Public Building was built, has been turned over to the Customs Department.

The moving and removing, coupled with the unwanted atmosphere of paint and varnish was too much for the Town Clock, which has refused to strike the hours since Mr. Torrie's office in the building was closed.

Repairs to the brickwork and redecoration of the interior of the building were carried out by local contractors and Caines is starting the Fall with the building all spick and span from top to bottom. Due to his zeal the alterations and repairs were accomplished with a minimum of discomfort to the public using the building and he was at all hours diligent in keeping rubbish left by the workmen from impeding passage through the corridors or along the street.

Harold Smith, of Sumner Co., Moncton, N.B., with Mrs. Smith spent a few days last week with Mr and Mrs J. T. McKay at the Racquette. They returned home by way of Yarmouth and the South Shore and report the roads in good condition for the time of year.

Mrs. Frank Watson of Point Prim who accompanied her sister, Mrs. Leonard Everett to Boston, for medical treatment, has returned home.

George H. Holdsworth Jr. of Franklin Park, Mass. who is visiting his parents for a week or so was a guest for several days of Mr and Mrs Ellis, Point Prim.

Miss Grace Marshall of Marshall town, who has been visiting friends in Saint John over Thanksgiving, returned home on Wednesday.

The condition of J. T. McKay is reported as somewhat improved. Mr. McKay was a patient at the Digby Hospital for four weeks and he and Mrs. McKay are staying with the latter's brother Evan Dunn at the Racquette.

C.P.R. Plans Two New Musical Festivals

So great was the interest in the French-Canadian Folk-song Festival at Quebec and in the Scottish Music Festival and Highland Gathering at Banff, that the Canadian Pacific has decided to repeat both these Festivals next year, with the prospect of establishing them as annual gatherings. The Folk-song competition announced for next year's Festival at Quebec has resulted in requests from composers all over the world for particulars with the result that French-Canadian melodies are being studied by a great number of composers. As a further evidence of its desire to promote an interest in folk-song and its associated music, the Canadian Pacific has decided to organize two additional Festivals for 1928. One of these will be a New Canadian and Handicraft Festival at Winnipeg, in which immigrant races from northern Europe will be invited to demonstrate the national music of the countries from which they came to western Canada and to display specimens of the handicrafts at which they are so skilled. The summer solstice is associated with folk-festivals of nearly every European race and on account of that June has been selected as the most appropriate time for this gathering. The other Festival will be devoted to Sea music and will take place at Vancouver in the early fall. Vancouver is a world port notable for the variety of its sea-craft with many old seamen familiar with sea chanters. Other Festivals at other suitable points are also being planned by the Canadian Pacific, which has appointed Harold Eustace Key, conductor of the Mendelssohn Choir of Montreal, as Musical Director of these Festivals. Mr. Key will also have supervision of music at Canadian Pacific Hotels. Mr. Key has made a reputation in Canada as Conductor, Composer, Lecturer and Organist and is an authority on choral music and singing. Educated at Fellsington College, London, the City of London School, and the Guildhall School of Music, he came to Canada after the war, having served in France. Since 1920 he has been organist of Emmanuel Church, Montreal. In 1923 Mr. Key founded the Mendelssohn Choir and brought it to the highest state of efficiency.

Digby Organizes Council to Aid the Tuberculosis Campaign

DIGBY MUNICIPALITY T.B. COUNCIL IS FORMED

Part of Dominion Organization to Provide Sanatorium Treatment for All Suffering From Dread White Plague

Sale of Christmas Seals Will Be Carried on Throughout The Municipality

Dr. E. DuVernet was elected President, Dr. W.R. Dickie Vice-President and Mr. R.H. Lockward Secretary-Treasurer of the Digby Municipality Tuberculosis Council at a meeting held in the Town Hall on Wednesday night. Other members of the Council are Mayor Lynch, H.B. Short, M.P., Ex-Mayor Anderson, Town Clerk Boden, Councillor Dakin, Rev. Wm. Driffield, Rector of Trinity Church; Rev. W.E. Forbes, Pastor of Grace United Church; Rev. F.E. Bishop, Pastor of Digby Baptist Church; Mr. C.B. Simmonds, O. Wright, Dr. Sutherland, F. McBride, A. J. Dillon, Principal Churchill, Mr. Mills, Dr. F.E. Rice, Sandy Cove; Dr. Weir, Freeport; Dr. I. J. Lovett, Bear River; Dr. A. B. Campbell, Bear River; Dr. Hallett, Weymouth; Dr. Melanson, Dr. Pothier, Weymouth; Dr. Harris, Barton. Others will be asked to support the good work.

Communications received from the head quarters of the Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Commission were discussed by those present and preparations made for the raising of funds for the Council by the sale of Christmas Seals.

The Council is the working body for the Municipality of Digby in the fight against tuberculosis. Its formation is under provincial and federal government patronage, and is a part of a nation wide combined effort to break down the hold of the white plague. In each section of the municipality people are to be asked to support the campaign by working in the Sale of Seals and by buying them and sticking them on all letters and Christmas parcels. Seals will be sent to workers in each district and it is hoped that $300.00 will be raised in this manner through the Municipality. Of this amount Digby town is asked to raise $100.00.

Of all amounts raised by the Council 75 per cent is to be retained for local use, 25 per cent will be sent to the Nova Scotia headquarters, who in turn will remit 10 per cent of their share to Federal headquarters.

The work has the support of all provincial public welfare and health organizations and the aim is to make Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Free. Funds of the Council will be used to pay for medical and institutional treatment of T.B. cases whose means do not permit them obtaining treatment at their own charge. No one will be paid salary, but the whole money raised will be used to combat the disease.

The work is one which deserves the attention and hearty support of every resident in the province. Tuberculosis is the most dread disease known to modern days and the pity is that if neglected in this early stage it is almost impossible to cure.

Son of Captain and Mrs. R. R. Russel Died of Tuberculosis

The funeral of John Hubert Russell, 13 year old son of Captain and Mrs. Robert R. Russell, Conway, who died at his parents' home on Thursday after a long illness of tuberculosis, was held on Saturday afternoon. Rev. F.E. Bishop, pastor of Digby Baptist church officiated and the choir of the church led in the singing of favorite childhood hymns.

The boy had been a patient at the Kentville Sanatorium for six months and was brought home five weeks ago, so ill that he could not possibly recover.

Besides his parents he is survived by a sister and four brothers.

Captain and Mrs. Russell have the sympathy of many friends in their loss and the funeral service was largely attended. Many floral tributes also expressed the feelings of all who knew the boy and his family.

Mrs. Russell's sister, Mrs. R. A. Wanamaker, of Nauyasawuk, N. B. came over to attend the funeral of her nephew.

Interment was in the Baptist Cemetery, Digby.

Popular Couple Wed

The marriage of Ruby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bent to Mr. Charles Theodore Hyson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hyson of Hantsport, was celebrated at Trinity church Rectory on Tuesday, November fifteenth. Rev. William Driffield officiated.

Vernon Bent of Caledonia, brother of the bride, was best man and Mrs. Fred Harvey was matron of honor.

While the wedding party was in the Rectory friends of the principals "decorated" the bridal car with ribbons, old shoes, spare parts of autos, and the return to the Bent home, where the wedding supper was served was to the accompaniment of a blaring of auto horns and the rattling of the "decorations".

The groom's mother, Mrs. Hyson came down to attend the wedding and was the guest while here of Mrs. Bent.

Bride and groom are most popular among the younger set and many gifts carried good wishes for their married happiness.

Mrs. Dr. W. R. Dickie and Mrs. J. Stabb will be "at home" Thursday afternoon November twenty fourth from four until six o'clock.

Father Graham Present at Party

On Tuesday night a surprise pound party was held at Eureka Cottage in honor of Rev. Louis Graham parish priest, the house was filled to the doors.

Clifford Beaton in behalf of the parishioners addressed Fr. Graham as he entered he was then ushered into the dining room which was filled with all sorts of delicacies including fruit and vegetables.

Although taken absolutely by surprise Fr. Graham replied in his usual pleasing and appropriate manner. Amid cheers and applause of his little flock, the rest of the evening was spent in playing Auction Forty Fives, prizes were won as follows: Ladies first Mrs. G. R. MacNutt; gentlemen, Dominick Melanson; Consolation prizes Mrs. Charles Sweeney and E. J. Theriault.

At a later hour delicious refreshments were served and all departed declaring each social gathering to be getting better and better.

An Auction Forty Five social will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Beaton on Monday next at 8 p.m.

School House Wired for Hydro

Electrical contractor [Arthur Robinson has completed the contract of wiring the Academy for hydro and the pupils are now able to see and study on dark days as well as on bright ones.

The wiring is exposed, armoured cable, according to most modern practice and the lighting fixtures are of indirect lighting type. The lights are 100 to 300 watts in oyster shell finish fixtures, and the tests made on completion of the job proved most satisfactory. Blackboard and desks are flooded with ample light for all uses, and free of unpleasant glare so harmful to youthful eyes.

In each of the upstairs rooms there is one fixture with 300 watt bulb, while in the lower rooms one and two fixtures are used according to the requirements. The installation is controlled by double circuit, preventing possibility of the whole building being out of service at one time.

The whole cost was in the vicinity of $170.00 and was money well spent.

Hockey Team Under Training

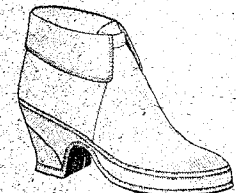

Manager Merkel has put the hockey team on training regulations and set them to road work to toughen them up for the opening of the season, ready for the first ice. Cigarettes are banned, also late hours, and the boys get in their two or three miles of pacing regularly.

Establishing what is believed to be a world record for the quantity of potatoes from one hill, a total of 171 potatoes from one hill.

A new record for the Port of Montreal was set up Saturday, October 22nd, with 1,045 ocean-going steamers having entered the port this season (with five weeks to go yet to run) as compared with 1,042 for the whole of last season.

All wheat yields in a season of amazing returns went by the board on October 20th when J. F. Cook, of Magrath, 24 miles south of Lethbridge, Alberta, reported a return of 176 bushels on a piece of fallowed land measuring slightly over two acres.

Hon. W. E. Foster, Chairman of the Saint John Board of Harbor Commissioners, announces that plans for the first unit in the enlarged harbor facilities for Saint John would include four new steamship berths and an elevator of 2,000,000 bushel capacity and that plans for these would be prepared at once. They will be located on the western side of the harbor.

Increasing interest is being manifested throughout the country in the project sponsored by the Department of National Defence regarding light-aeroplane clubs, and two queries have been received formally requiring the Government to fulfill its part of the scheme by shipping the two Moth planes promised under the provisions of the plan. Montreal and Edmonton are the first two applicants.

Inaugurating a direct mail service by air from Quebec City to Ottawa and bringing British mail to the Capital 48 hours ahead of regular train schedule, a plane with first class mail from the Canadian Pacific liner "Montreal" landed on the Ottawa River near the Parliament Buildings. This is the first mail to reach Ottawa by the air, and is part of a more general experiment on the part of the postal authorities.

Manitoba's first fox show will be held from November 30th to December 3rd, in the old Hudson's Bay store at Winnipeg. J. H. Evans, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, will be superintendent, and A. M. Doyle, general manager. There will be eight classes including one for the best pair of matched foxes, one for groups or herds, and one for the most desirable fox from a pet standpoint. Several championships will be awarded, all of which are open to all classes.

What is said to be the most valuable shipment of horses ever to reach Canada arrived in Montreal recently aboard the Canadian Pacific freighter "Bastard" from England and of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The Britisher does not seek publicity in his business deals, he stated, with the result that large sums of money were often placed in the Dominion and never heard of. A case in point he mentioned was the investment of himself and five other capitalists of £200,000 in timber interests in British Columbia five years ago, and upon the success of the venture the further investment of £200,000.

Miss Edna G. Ward, Kingston, N. S. was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Esler over the week end.

Bear River Girl Unveils Monument

The following from a Chatham,

N. B. newspaper, of recent date, will be of interest to our readers:

"On Friday morning, Nov. 11th

Armistice Day, dedication service was held and the monument erected by the Midget Club in memory of our fallen soldiers was unveiled.

The monument is placed in Elm

Park between two cannons, facing Wellington street. The public will remember the Midget Club, a band of thirteen little girls ranging in age from 8 to 12 years, who, under the efficient leadership of the late Mrs.

F. H. McNaught, started working during the first year of the war and continued to the end. They worked faithfully and well, and through sales, tag days etc., they earned considerable money and saved enough to enable them to erect the monument unveiled on the 11th.

Their leader and guiding star was the late Mrs. F. H. McNaught, whom they thought of as the Mid-get Mother, and although she was present when their plans were made it filled them with sorrow to think that she was not spared to see them completed.

In honor of her invaluable assistance and work, her daughter,

Miss Catherine Brown, of Bear

River, N. S., was invited to unveil the monument.

Hundreds of spectators witnessed the ceremony and the monument was presented to the town as a last ing memorial to Chatham's brave men who fell in the great "World War".

Class Meeting

The Philathea Class held their monthly social gathering at the home of Mrs. Harvey Chisholm on Thursday evening of last week.

The President, Mrs. Carl Miller, was in the Chair, and after routine business, an interesting program of music and readings was rendered.

About forty ladies were present.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the conclusion of the evening.

A Matter of Mileage Hours

In the connection with the agitation being carried on in Halifax to have running rights over Canadian National lines granted Canadian Pacific Railway trains, it is interesting to learn what is behind it all, and why some employees of the Canadian National Railway are among the boosters for the idea. Conversation with a prominent railwayman of Halifax has brought to the attention of the Courier several things.

The people of Halifax who are in favor of granting running rights to the C. P. R. except that such action will result in "turning" C.P.R. boats at Halifax and greatly increase the inward and outward traffic of the port, both freight and passenger traffic. They contend that such action will provide haulage for Canadian National lines which would not otherwise be available and that the amount of traffic which would accrue directly to the C.N.R. would materially increase the earnings of the Maritime Division.

All this sounds very nice, but would it work out that way? The late Henry R. Emmerson, former Minister of Railways was one of the greatest opponents to the granting of running rights over the old Intercolonial Railway, as it was named in his time. He claimed that traffic employees dealing with passenger and freight patrons of the railway, though paid by the I.C.R. were not loyal enough to their own road to boost for business, but were weak enough to solicit passenger and freight traffic for the C. P. R.

More than this, there would only be a few months in the year when C.P.R. ships would be off the Montreal route. During the navigation season on the St. Lawrence both railways would have to work for every possible dollar's worth of local traffic in order to maintain their revenues and the result would be that neither would make money and so far as the western section of the province is concerned the danger of the D.A.R. becoming nothing more than a branch line is so great that it is surprising that any favor is found for the running rights scheme.

There is a physical condition which must be considered in connection with development of the railways services in Nova Scotia. Under present tariff conditions the most feasible of exploitation and the only handicap which prevents maritime manufacturers from fully developing the domestic field is one of railway mileage hours. Time and distance are the chief factors. The advantage in this respect lies, as the Courier has pointed out in a recent article, with the D.A.R.—C.P.R. system. Study of Canadian National time tables bears out this contention.

The elapsed time between the departure of a shipment of freight from Halifax to its arrival in Saint John is 35 hours and 25 minutes. Of this time 19 hours 40 minutes are spent enroute and the remainder in waiting connections at divisional points. By no possible system of train connection and service can the hour-mileage between Halifax and Saint John on the Canadian National Railway be reduced to less than 23 hours, with time for "spotting" cars after arrival at destination to be added.

As compared with present service between Halifax and Saint John on the Dominion Atlantic—Steamer Empress service, the Short Haul Route has an advantage of nearly five hours and this could be increased by at least seven hours more.

The fast freight leaving Halifax at 8.30 arrives in Digby at 4.25 next morning. Freight lays here until 2.45 p.m. and arrives in St. John at 5.15—20 hours and 45 minutes after its departure from Halifax. Closer connection between arrival at Digby station and departure from Digby wharf would cut down the over time to an extent that would give the short haul route tremendous advantage over the all rail haul via Moncton.

Inauguration of car ferry service between Digby and Saint John seems to be, therefore, the logical development of transportation problems in the Maritimes. It offers advantages which no other scheme can provide and its brightest feature is that it would awaken activity in manufacturing in the western sections of the province and result in generally increased business for both railways.

Development of the Short Haul Route should be the aim of every town and every organization in the Annapolis Valley and to Yarmouth and no propaganda of any kind should be permitted to interfere with the full development of quickest means of service between Nova Scotia and Central and Western Canada.

The Next Tourist Season

On what is hoped for next year's tourist season depends the detail of all plans for publicity and business drawing propaganda. If each section of Digby County, and each hotel and boarding house unit in that district is satisfied to get a little, to work alone and to fall short of what can be done to fill every hotel, every boarding house, and every farm house full of tourist visitors, then the same old scheme of years ago may be good enough. Each hotel will do its own advertising, each boarding house will do its own, and the town of Digby and people throughout the county generally will sit back and let them do it.

But! If the next tourist season is going to be one during which every possible accommodation will be taken from early in July until late in September—new methods must be adopted, cooperation and team work must feature the publicity endeavors of town and county, and firm belief must be established in the motto of the late proprietor of Harbor View, who held to the theory that if people would come to Nova Scotia, he would get his share of them.

The Courier is advised on apparently reliable authority that the new Eastern Steamships service between New York and Yarmouth will be inaugurated next summer. Already tourist agencies and tour managers are working on plans which include the operation of the New York-Yarmouth boat, and it is generally conceded by those who are in close touch with transportation matters that next season's tourist business will be a wonderful record breaker.

What does all this mean to Digby county? It means that the hundred or so hotels and summer boarding houses between Weymouth and East of Bear River have an opportunity for team work such as has never offered before.

It means that nothing but the best class of publicity is good enough to send out to the thousands upon thousands who in April, and along about that time of year, will begin to plan their summer vacations. It means that Digby, Bear River, Clementsport, Deep Brook Smith's Cove, Sandy Cove, Barton, Plympton, Weymouth, and all the towns and villages along the Bay of Fundy coast should commence now to get together to see what can be done to get out the very best tourist advertising that money and effort will produce. It has to be good! Not only artistic in appearance, truthful in text, and attractive in material, but it has to be prepared that it will carry the message of wonderful climate, of ocean and mountain scenery and of features unsurpassed in any portion of the globe. It has to be prepared early, with careful consideration if the class of people to whom the message is to go, and when ready must be sent out to reach those for whom it is intended.

A suggestion was made at a meeting of Digby Board of Trade early last spring that a cooperative publicity campaign should be inaugurated. Nothing was done at that time, as the season was drawing near, but if some action along that line is taken in hand now it may be possible to so cover the accretions of the whole county in one message that a large amount of wasted effort and money can be eliminated, and more results got from a cooperative campaign.

Whatever plan is adopted work must be started now, and carried on through the winter and spring, right up to July. The possibilities of the tourist business are beyond the experimental stage, have been proven a profitable source of revenue and employment, and it is in keeping with modern ideas that sectional effort should be replaced by a general scheme, approved by the whole district and its expense born proportionally by all.

Years ago, before the automobile became a factor in tourist travel, visitors came to one town, or to one boarding house, and stayed there for the full period of their holiday. Today it is different. Tourists come in cars, stay a day here, a day there, a day some place else, and it is hard to determine just what profit is got from advertising. The profit is there, greater even in the old days, because the very nature of travel divides it up among more people. More people, therefore, should be active in inducing visitors to come—and the only way which appears reasonable is that all hands shall join in financing a publicity campaign that will develop an amount of travel which will tax to the utmost our resources of hospitality and entertainment.

Armistice Day Memorial Service One of Brief
Solemnity

Ex-service men, members of the Canadian Legion, the Mayor and Council representing the Corporation of the Town of Digby, No. 1 Troop Digby Boy Scouts and hundreds of citizens, on Friday morning last paid homage to the Hero Dead, in commemoration of the signing of the Armistice.

At ten thirty the Legion, headed by a guard of honor under Sergeant Jim Merkle, and escorted by the Boy Scouts with Bugle Band and their banners, marched from the Legion Club rooms to the Town Hall, where Mayor Lynch and the Councillors were waiting. Proceeding to the Memorial Monument the Guard formed up on each side, facing inward with the Legion on the right, the Boy Scouts on the left and the Council and clergy facing the hollow square.

Bugler Cyril Burnsof Bear River sounded Last Post, while the guard presented the customary feu de joie, of military funerals was discharged. At the period of silence the Guard rested on reversed arms, and Rev. E. W. Forbes, pastor of Grace United Church, offered prayer.

The Legion wreath was laid on the base of the monument by Comrade Master-at-Arms Rufus Connor, while the guard presented arms. The compliment was also paid while several other wreaths were laid in place.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the guard counter marched and the parade marched away to the Town Hall, where the Council and clergy fell out and the Legion returned to their quarters.

Addressing the Legion after the ceremony Mayor Lynch complimented them on their observance of Memorial. It was well to keep the memory of Fallen Comrades fresh in the minds and hearts of all. He concurred in the feeling that Armistice Day should be a public holiday, kept free from commercialism and ventured, the hope that next year the 11th of November would be proclaimed a public holiday.

Why Not The Best

When a very superior article can be had at the same price as an inferior article one has no hesitation in taking the better one. That is human nature. In the Canadian newspaper field there is one "best" and that fact is admitted by all. The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is in a class entirely by itself, and Canada is proud of its first wonderful combination of three publications, a great newspaper, a clean wholesome family magazine and an agricultural paper, with out an equal. All three in one big 52 page paper, and all three for the price of one—only a dollar a year. You should have your own local paper without doubt, but your home would be enriched by the weekly visit of The Family Herald and Weekly Star. You will never regret it.

Canadian Buyers Profit by Canada's Export Trade

In the distant reaches of Britain's far-flung empire you will find General Motors cars, built in Canada by Canadian craftsmen, from Canadian materials.

In five years over 110,000 automobiles have been sent overseas by General Motors of Canada to carry the standard of Canadian quality around the world.

This represents a truly important contribution to Canada's export trade.

It represents millions of dollars to be spent in wages to Canadian workmen, in the purchase of Canadian metals, wood, hides and the countless other materials entering into the manufacture of General Motors cars.

And it represents a greatly augmented production of General Motors of Canada, resulting in lower costs of manufacture, in economies of purchasing, in greater savings of time and labor through greater volume.

Thus, because in India, in Egypt, in Malta, Ceylon or South Africa, someone is buying a General Motors car from Canada, General Motors can offer to you, in Canada, a product of higher quality at a lower price than otherwise possible.

Such is the real spirit of Christmas Gifting, to coin a new phrase.

The best advice to give at this season of the year is to shop early.

Weddings

COMEAU-AMERO

On October 26th, at 8:30 o'clock a very pretty wedding took place in the St. Croix Church, Plympton, when Jennie daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Amero, was united in marriage to Edward, son of Mrs. J. Comeau.

The bride was prettily gowned in a powder blue crepe back satin and gold lace with hat to match. The bridesmaid Josephine Amero, sister of the bride looked charming in sand silk with hat to match. Alphonse Saulnier acted as best man. After the ceremony the party drove to the home of the bride where a wedding dinner and supper was served to a few friends. In the evening a dance was held at which over a hundred friends, friends of the bride and groom were present.

The bride received many gifts including silver, china, linen and other useful articles.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Carr and family, of Saint John, Mr. and Mrs. James Driscoll, of Saint John, Mr. Edward Amero, of Saint Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. Comeau will reside at Hill Grove where their many friends wish them a long happy wedded life.

Scallop Fishermen Will Ask For Several Measures of Relief for Their Industry

Reduction of shipping charges, improvement of harbor facilities at Digby pier, fixing of the closed season on scallop fishing from June to September 15th; reduction of duty on repair parts for marine engines to 15 per cent, on a par with present duty on marine engines complete; cheaper gasoline; licensing of boats rather than of men engaged in the fisheries, erection of a cold storage plant at Digby, and extensions of the Fish Bounty to include scallop fishermen, will be some of the suggestions made before the Fisheries Commission when it meets in Digby. Mr. Rolland Wormell and Captain Floyd Scow were appointed to present the scallop fishermen's case before the commission.

The whole subject of the scallop fisheries was discussed at an informal meeting of scallop boat owners and operators held in the Fishermen's Room of the Town Hall on Saturday night.

Dr. Lovett, of Bear River, and Mr. Fred Graham attended.

In connection with improved harbor facilities Dr. Lovett said that he had been advised by the department at Ottawa that some measures of providing improved harborage at Digby were under consideration and he suggested that presentations be made before the Commission as to just what was desired. He also stated that the Life Boat at Bay View would be in commission shortly, and if it did not work out satisfactorily that other measures then should be advocated.

Discussion of the different aspects of the industry brought out a general expression of opinion that high shipping charges were the most important matters to be remedied. Both shipments by way of Yarmouth and by way of Saint John were at an expense out of proportion to what they should be. The matter of duty on repair parts was brought up by Mr. Wormell, who said that he had experience in the matter. A complete marine engine was entered at 15 per cent duty, while parts to repair break ages were under 35 per cent.

The proposal for improvement of harborage are that the department should sheath up the wing of the Long Wharf and if necessary put a "T" head on the end. The berths should also be dredged out. This would afford protection from all weathers and with the prospect of upwards of fifty boats expected to be engaged in scalloping of Digby this winter the matter of securing berths was an important feature.

Gasoline prices came in for considerable discussion. In the opinion of all present there is too much differential in prices, the price at points near the American border and at Halifax, being much lower than in Digby.

A cold storage plant capable of freezing bait and with accommodation for storage of scallops and fish was advocated as necessary at Digby. At present shipments of bait have to be brought in from Yarmouth and weather changes often make it impossible to use bait brought up. If a cold storage plant was erected in Digby bait could be taken from storage at night and used immediately. This, with accommodation for storage of fish and scallops would materially benefit the fisheries, and the scallop fishermen particularly would be able to control their shipments and maintain markets.

Mr. E. M. Robertson, Jr. advocated cooperative marketing as a means of preventing glut of markets and development of other markets than New York and Boston, where most shipments are now made. The matter will be considered at a future meeting of those interested.

Fisheries Steamer Arleux in Port

The Fisheries steamer Arleux, Captain Cousins, was in port on Friday for the first visit here since last May. Captain Cousins and his officers and men were warmly welcomed back to Digby where the Arleux is held to be a Digby vessel.

On Saturday the steamer went out to the assistance of two fisher med, Charles Ray and a youth named Henshaw of Deep Brook, bringing a fishing boat up from Gulliver's Cove and towed them in to port. They brought the boat down shore several weeks ago and bringing her up she went ashore at Gulliver's. On Saturday they fixed her up and started for Digby. After they left the wind freshened up and when about a mile or a mile and a half north west of Point Prim Lighthouse their engine broke down. They hoisted an oar with a bag on it as a distress signal. It was seen by Lighthousekeeper Ellis who telephoned to town. Council for James Hillman reported the matter to Captain Cousins, who immediately ordered the Arleux ready for sailing and telephoned the Light for the boat's location. The Arleux had steam up, having moved her berth from the inside of the wharf to the West side of the wing and fifty minutes after the message was received the steamer was alongside the distressed boat and had a line on board. Henshaw was taken on board and Mr. Ray stayed with the boat to steer.

When picked up the boat was broadside to the sea, taking water with a very sweep of the waves and could not have kept afloat more than an hour.

Telling his experience in the Arleux's pilot house Henshaw said that he never saw anything better than when he saw the smoke from the Arleux as she came in sight around Point Prim. No more Bay of Fundy for him. He had enough. If they would put him on shore anywhere he would be satisfied to walk to Deep Brook.

The good work of the Arleux on Saturday is in keeping with the record of the vessel and an illustration of how necessary it is that she or a protective steamer be kept in service in the Bay of Fundy. You may call it "Captain Cousins' Luck" that she was on the spot when she was needed most but with that luck goes a spirit of the service which is imbued in the heart of every member of her crew. The rescue on Saturday was all in the days work but had it been blowing a blizzard the steamer would have answered the call just the same.

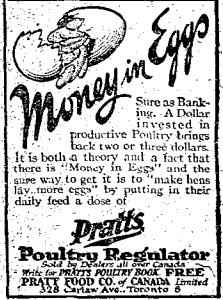

With all due consideration to those who say that the lifeboat is competent for the needs of the Bay Fisheries the Courier still contends that a steamer like the Arleux is what is required.

Canadian Pacific Augments Ocean Cargo Fleet

(1) S.S. "Beaverburn" taking the water. (2) Mrs. E. H. Peacock, about to christen the "Beaverburn". With her is Captain Gillies (right), and Sir Geo. McLaren Brown in background. (3) S.S. "Beaverdale" sliding down the way.

The market growth of ocean trade between Great Britain and Canada via the St. Lawrence route has prompted the Canadian Pacific, in their building estimates for 1927-28, to augment their fleet of freight steamers with five modern twin-screw cargo vessels. The new ships will be of the "Beaver" class and will represent the highest type of express steamers to be used in maintaining a weekly service from London and continental ports, working strictly to schedule and ensuring definite arrival dates.

Three of these steamers have been launched, the "Beaverburn" on September 27, at Dumbarton, Scotland, and the "Beaverdale" the following day at Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, and the "Beaverford" on October 27. Launching of the remaining two ships was scheduled to take place shortly afterwards.

These five vessels constitute five of the ten ships under construction for the Canadian Pacific, the others being four 20,000-ton ocean passenger steamers of the "Duchess" class and the tenth the "Princess Elaine," to be placed in the Pacific Coast service of the company. The ten ships will comprise a total gross tonnage of 135,000 tons and will cost approximately $25,000,000.

The new freighters will be operated out of Montreal, in summer, and Saint John, in winter, to London and continental ports on a weekly service. Their speed will be 14 knots, maintained in all weathers, and the voyage should be made in 9 1/2 days. Normally the steamers will carry a deadweight of about 10,500 tons or a draft of 27 ft., but should the need arise, as much as 13,000 tons may be carried on the maximum load draft.

The principal dimensions are: Length or waterline, 412 ft., moulded beam, 61 ft. 6 ins., depth to upper deck, 49 ft. 6 ins., and gross tonnage, about 10,500 tons.

By means of the "Beaverburn," "Beaverdale" and sister ships, the speediest shipping of Canadian fruits and perishable farm produce, will be effected. Fruit picked in Ontario can be placed on the London breakfast table in 11 days or 13 days later in the case of fruit and vegetables from the British Columbia coast. The rapidity of shipment will apply to cheese, ham, bacon and lard; to cereals, lumber, timber and manufactured articles. Modern refrigerating plants are required for ideal transportation of fruit and perishable produce, and such plants are a feature of the new cargo steamers.

They will give the Canadian shipper a highly efficient, economic service, rapid loading and unloading, cold storage, floating suction and elevator plant for grain, and—the highest market in the world. Greater London with its 14,000,000 inhabitants, its enormous barge service up and down the East Coast from Yorkshire to Dover and its waterways into the Midlands, serves at least one-half the entire population of Great Britain, and is continually growing and continually clamoring for more and more overseas foodstuffs. The Canadian exporter will readily avail himself of the opportunities now afforded by the Canadian Pacific's new fleet of perfectly equipped vessels. From his orchard, dairy, farm or shed his produce will be shipped all the way by Canadian Pacific steamer. It may justly be said that from the time his box, basket or bale is packed to the time it is displayed on the London market, it has been under the care of the Canadian Pacific.

OLD VILLAGERS HOLD KEY TO ANTHROPOLOGY OF WEST

The Dominion Archaeologist of the National Museum has just completed the examination of an ancient village site at Emmerson, Point Digby Island about three miles from Prince Rupert, which was reported to him by R. W. Pillsbury, of the Prince Rupert Fisheries station of the Canadian Biological Board. The site covers the entire point fronting on both beaches and is about 145 feet long by 155 feet wide. It consists of deep deposits of shells of edible fish and refuse from the kitchens of the prehistoric villagers. This refuse lies in two terraces and seems to indicate that there were two rows of houses facing the north beach, each house being about forty-five feet square. Three rows of rows seem to have faced the east beach, two being on one terrace and one on the lower level. Creeks bound the village site on both the west and south. They evidently furnished fresh water while the beach afforded shelter. There appears to be the remains of a fort wall protecting the village on the point of approach from the sea. All specimens of ancient hand-work were collected on the site. One is a hammer or pestle, a mure pestle, battered on both ends until it assumed two flat striking or grinding surfaces. Another secured for the national museum is the fragment of a bit or cutting end of an ancient grooved adze head such as must have been used for hollowing out canoes from cedar trees, smoothing boards split from large cedar trees for the building of houses and for similar purposes. It has been sent to Ottawa for examination by expert mineralogists, as it may be jade. It certainly is of a beautiful green color, and so hard that it cannot be scratched with a knife. No such stone is known in the vicinity.

There are a number of these ancient places within a few miles of Prince Rupert, and the archaeologist of the National Museum. There are deep kitchen middens marking these ancient, prehistoric villages. One is at Casey point, a second on Fairview observation, a third, smaller perhaps, than the others, is on the north side of the mouth of Hayes creek near the drydock in Prince Rupert and still another and much larger and more than five feet deep, is near the cold storage plant on Ritchie point, within the city of Prince Rupert. There are several other such shell heaps on Digby Island and on the mainland, one at the hospital at Dodge Island, one along the west and south west shore of Elizabeth Point and on the rocks of the western part of this point is a nearly horizontal petroglyph or rock carving intaglio of a human form nearly natural size. The Indians say it is the spot where man fell from heaven and dented the rock.

Other petroglyphs occur on the western side of the cove in the south of Wilegish point near the high tide line. The Dominion archaeologist's recent village reported to be on the cove, found the huge deposit of an ancient village on the north side of the mouth of Hayes creek near the drydock in Prince Rupert and still another and much larger and more than five feet deep, is near the cold storage plant on Ritchie point, within the city of Prince Rupert. There are several other such shell heaps on Digby Island and on the mainland, one at the hospital at Dodge Island, one along the west and south west shore of Elizabeth Point and on the rocks of the western part of this point is a nearly horizontal petroglyph or rock carving intaglio of a human form nearly natural size. The Indians say it is the spot where man fell from heaven and dented the rock.

The same subtle difference that distinguishes the chic frock from the less attractive models, in manifested in the lingerie of today. Just ordinary under things long ago went the way of corsets and bustles and now the discriminating woman gives much thought to the selection of exquisite lingerie as she does to the choice of the costumes of which it is an important part.

A graceful fullness is imparted to the gown by the rows of shirring underneath the yoke.

Notice of Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Digby Central Agriculture Society will be held at the Town Council Chambers on Saturday the 10th day of November A. D. 1927 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. A large attendance is requested, by order FRANK W. NICHOLS Secretary—Treasurer N22

Good Work Being Done at Boy Scout Meetings.

The usual work was gone through with at the meeting of last Friday and points given to the Patrols doing the best work. At a former meeting it was decided to have a scout from each patrol write a short paper of 200 words on some bird or animal and the Partridge was the one for last Friday.

Points are given for delivery and facts. Scout J. Nichols of the Fox patrol earned one point, Gordon Burnham of the Beaver patrol 2 points and Earl Anderson of the Wolf patrol 3 points, winning the contest.

The three patrols are competing for a cup which has been put up by Scout Master O. Wright for the patrol having the most when the troop adjourns for the summer holidays. The standing at present of each patrol is Foxes 135, Wolves 51 and Beavers 75.

The subject for next meeting is the rabbit or hare.

The Scouts deem it an honor being asked to turn out with the Veterans Armistice day and Memorial services.

Six Cars of Freight
Leaving Digby on Saturday for St. John the N. P. steamer Empress left seven cars of freight billed to points in New Brunswick and west behind on Digby pier.

Arriving Monday the Empress brought 10 tons, her full capacity, and on her return trip in the afternoon, took a full load with six cars of freight behind her on the wharf.

For a week the Empress has been carrying full cargoes and has had to leave some freight behind on each trip.

Ex-Service Men Attend Morning Service at Trinity Church

On Sunday morning Ex-Service men of Digby, accompanied by a detachment from the Canadian Government Fisheries Protective Steamer Arleux, and escorted by No. 1 Troop Digby Boy Scouts with bugle band, attended a Memorial Church Service at Trinity Church, where the Rev. Canon Wm. Driffield, delivered a sermon of particular aptness to the occasion.

The parade formed up at the Legion club room at ten thirty. The Boy Scouts, with their band and flags, in charge of Scout Master O. Wright, headed the column. Then came a detachment from the Arleux, under First Officer Swansburgh and they were followed by the Legion Comrades in charge of Comrade Sergeant James Merkel. The line of march was along Water Street to Mount street to the church, where the Scouts faced inward, facing the wall, while the two Services marched through to reserved section in the center of the church.

The whole service was a reminder of Church Parade in camp and billets in France and England and when the music of opening hymn, Onward Christian Soldiers, swelled to fill the building many recalled other days when this favorite was the opening hymn of Church Parades of other days.

Mr. Driffield's text was chosen from Kings 8th Chapter and 37th verses: "May The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers."

It was, he said a prayer offered by a King of Israel at the time of the rededicating of the temple and its meaning was particularly appropriate to modern times. It was a prayer with a national as well as an individual meaning and as God had doubtless been with our fathers through the ages so he had been with the Nation through the dread years of 1914-1918.

At Trafalgar, at Waterloo, through the Crimea and through the South African War as well as through many other times of national stress, God had been with our fathers. Great Soldiers and statesmen had depended upon His guidance in times of great national danger and while Lord Nelson was a man whose private life was not of the best, he had at Trafalgar, penned an immortal message to the people of the British Empire, an example that will live for all time. His personal diary had recorded that just before the battle Nelson had written a prayer to God for Victory for the British flag, to protect the world against despotism "and after victory humanity."

During the late war whose horrors the preacher did not care to relate to the minds of his hearers; they knew all about it! God had been with Us. Through every thing His hand had led to victory and to the triumph of the right.

"This prayer," said the preacher, "had a converse meaning. God can be with us if we are with Him and it was in the individual as well as National meaning that the prayer should be applied. The men who had served their country during the war were in a sense "marked men". Every example of patriotism was a lesson to the youth who will follow them and their example of citizenship of worthiness as Canadians, continued to be a lesson to the nation.

"It is fitting that you remember your Hero Dead. It is fitting that the memorials of stone and of other things which have been raised to the memory of those Dead have been erected through the first urging of you whose comrades they were, and it is for you, who today keep alive their memory, to continue to serve as citizens of this Dominion that the God who was with our fathers may be with Us.

After the Benediction the first verse of the National Anthem was sung, and the parade returned to the Legion Rooms. Where before they were dismissed, Comrade Merkel on behalf of the officers and members of the Legion expressed thanks to the Boy Scouts for their attendance and to the officers and men of the Arleux for having joined with them in the Memorial Service.

Monthly Meeting of Smith Cove Women's Institute

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute met on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. George Austin with good attendance. It being the beginning of another year the new president Mrs. George Weir took up her duties most acceptably. The membership being small, activities must of necessity be in keeping, although the Society's report gave account of a number of worthwhile accomplishments throughout the year just ended and the Treasurer reported a fair balance on hand. Unfinished business being concluded matters of interest were discussed followed by the social half hour which ended the pleasant afternoon.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. T. O. Morgan. Visitors always welcome.

Plympton

The Women's Institute of Plympton, held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, November 8th at the home of Mrs. Joseph Melanson. The meeting was very brief, a motion to adjourn, for more pleasant proceedings was in order, the occasion being the sixtieth birthday of Mrs. William K. Smith.

The evening passed very quickly and pleasantly in song, games, and stories. The guest of the evening with William K. Warner, rendered several fine duets. Miss Chisholm was the accompanist for the evening. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Melanson, assisted by some of the ladies present. A marked feature of the repast was the very attractively decorated cake, in honor of Mr. Smith. The party broke up in the wee small hours of the morning, all vowing Mrs. Joseph Melanson a charming hostess, and wishing Mr. Smith many more happy birthdays.

C.G.I.T. Conference

A C.G.I.T. Conference for Digby and Annapolis Counties will be held from Friday to Sunday next in the Grace United Church. Every church is entitled to send two delegates. Any interested woman or girl in Digby may register on payment of the registration fee and handing their names to Mrs. E. Muise, Secretary. A public meeting will be held on Sunday, hour to be announced later. About forty delegates are expected and they will be entertained in the homes of the different congregations.

Legion Thanks Young Ladies Who Worked on Poppy Day

Nearly sixty dollars had been received by Digby branch of the Legion on Monday and several remittances were still to come in, from the sale of Velecraft Poppies for Armistice Day.

In spite of "chilled" fingers the young ladies who volunteered to assist the Legion in the poppy sale kept out all during the day and the members of the Legion have asked the Courier to express their sincere thanks to all for their work. Those who made the Poppy Team in Digby were: Misses Kay Graham, Mildred Selis, Mary Theriault, Marjorie Tupper, Dorothy Hinman, Louise Handspiker, Marie Flemming.

Appointments Made to Life Saving Crew

Word was received in Digby on Monday that appointments of crew of the Life Boat at Bay View had been appointed, with six men to compose her personnel. They are:

William Snow, Captain
William Hills, Mate
Arch Morgan, Engineer
Loran Adams, Cook
Judson Handspiker
Walter Barnes
Fred Murphy and Arnold Turnbull, who were included in those recommended for the job, to make a full crew of eight, were left out.

Councillor James Hillman has been active in having the Life Saving station reopened and credit is due him that the boat is finally to be put into commission.

Weddings

OUTHOUSE—LEARY

A wedding of much interest and one of the prettiest for some time was performed at White Head, C. M. on Wednesday Nov. 9th before a company of 12 people, when Miss Lulu Fay Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Leary, was united in marriage to Millard Outhouse of Tiverton, N. S. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Jenkins of the Baptist church. The bridal party took their places at eight o'clock to the strain of the Wedding March being played by Mrs. Eugene Robinson, under an arch beautifully decorated with artificial roses placed in the parlor. Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked very charming, dressed in white satin rhinestone necklace and hair clasp, white satin slippers, tulle veil with orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet was carnations and chrysanthemums with fern.

Miss Doris Morse was the bride's attendant and wore a dainty frock of coral rose georgette silk crepe trimmed with daisies and silver beads and carried a bouquet of cut flowers and fern. Delma Banks of Nova Scotia was best man. The groom, an enterprising young man of Nova Scotia and well known as he has spent some time here fishing, was dressed in navy blue.

The parlor decorations were pink and white those of dining room green and white with a profusion of cut flowers everywhere.

For street wear the bride wore a chin-chen blue georgette silk crepe dress with hat to match and coat of sage blue with fur collar and cuffs, grey shoes and stockings and gloves.

Refreshments were served. The gifts were numerous consisting of gold and silver coin, linen, cut glass, china, plate glass and many useful articles. Congratulations came in by mail and wire testifying to kind thoughts of neighbours and friends far and near.

The newly weds will reside with the bride's parents on account of the ill health of the bride's mother.

On November 9th William W. Langford and Mrs. Albertina Ford of Conway, were united in marriage by F. E. Bishop, at the Baptist parsonage, Digby. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Langford left for Annapolis Royal on a brief wedding trip and are now residing at Conway.

November 9th, at the Baptist Parsonage Lyman D. Shand of New Tuskett and Emma Lucy Denison, were married by Rev. F. E. Bishop.

Southville

Miss Jessie Comeau of this place left recently for U. S. A. for an indefinite time. Miss Emma Gaudette of New Tuskett is visiting at the home of her brother Mr. Vernon Gaudette at time of writing. Miss Flora Steele spent the week end with her sister Mrs. Elijah Wagner, Danvers.

Mr. William Steele, motored to Brazil Lake Sunday, Nov. 6th. While there he was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Fred McCauley.

Mr. Samuel White of Hecataooga spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Vernon Gaudette.

Our teacher Bessie L. Mullen attended the Teachers' Institute at Middleton. She also spent her Thanksgiving vacation at Mrs. Lennie Foster's, South Range.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Prime and family of Hassetts called at Mrs. Prime's parents Mr. and Mrs. Howard Steele on Thursday evening last. Mr. Durwood Abbot of Marshalltown called on his aunt Mrs. Howard Steele Sunday Nov. 13th.

A pie social was held in the Southville school house Saturday evening Nov. 11th. The sum of fifteen dollars and five cents (15.00) was realized from seven pies which will go to purchase new maps for the school house.

After the pies were auctioned off some of the ladies helped in making molasses candy, and then a very enjoyable evening was spent in pulling and eating the candy. Miss Rosie Doucette of Havelock spent a few days recently with her friend Mrs. Gaudette.

Mr. Percy and Mr. Higgins of Westport called on Mr. and Mrs. George Stark Sunday Nov. 13th.

MARY AGNES MELANSON

Sad death occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Melanson Nov. 12th and took their baby Agnes. She was sick but a few weeks. She was 3 1/2 years of age. Death was caused by brain trouble and convulsions. Death occurred at the house twice in 9 months. She leaves to mourn a mother and father, and two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Almon E. Spaulding, of Lynn, Mass., and Marie and Augustus at home. The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock with interment in Holy Cross Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Doucette.

Gone dear Agnes gone forever
How we miss your smiling face
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place

A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memory still
But death has left us loneliness
The world can never fill

Soangetaha Class

The Young People's Soangetaha Class of Grace United Church held a business meeting on Monday evening at the home of the teacher, Mrs. J. J. Wallis. A good number were present and the following officers were elected: President, Jabez Appleby, Vice President, Helen Syda, Secretary, Edna Turnbull, Treasurer, Carlos Connell. The class meets regularly at twelve o'clock on Sundays and new members are always welcome.

Strawberries Still Growing

November 18th—time for frost and snow, but the berry patch at A. J. Connell's Smith's Cove, is still in bloom and still bearing fruit. Yesterday Mr. Cornwall brought us a cluster of half-pint berries and the editor sported a Strawberry blossom in his buttonhole. Mr. Cornwall told us the day before Thanksgiving he had picked a quart of berries and the family had berries and cream with their Thanks giving dinner.

Little River

We are pleased to see Mrs. Austin Denton out again after her return from Digby General Hospital.

Our community was shocked when it learned that Frances, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Trask had passed away at the age of 11 years. Although not having been in good health for nearly a year she had not been confined to her bed and the end was unexpected. Death was due to Meningitis. The funeral service was held last Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Chute. All the Sunday School classes marched before the body carrying white flowers, which they dropped into the grave.

Frances was a bright child and will be sadly missed by her sorrowing parents, four brothers and two sisters. The sympathy of the whole community is with them in their loss.

Miss Beatrice Neite has returned from Digby General Hospital where she has been undergoing treatment. She is much improved in health.

Dr. F. E. Rice is welcomed in our midst again after his return from Boston, where he underwent a serious operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowman Collins and daughter Elsa, accompanied by Mrs. Annie Denton, motored through to Digby last Thursday.

Mr. Curtis L. Denton left last week on a business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Orman Denton and daughter, Georgia, spent Thanksgiving day with Mrs. Denton's sister Mrs. H. M. Mules at Weymouth.

The Misses Audrey Post and Ruby Trask have returned from Bowick, where they have been employed for the last month.

The Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. John Trask this month.

RED PEPPER FOR RHEUMATIC PAIN

Red Pepper Rub takes the "ouch" from sore, stiff, aching joints. It cannot hurt you, and it certainly stops that old rheumatism torture at once.

When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quickest relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

* Ask any good druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package.

Weymouth

Francis and Daley Thibodeau returned on Thursday from the Canadian West where they went on the Harvest Excursion.

STOP CATARRH! OPEN NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Relieves Head-Colds at Once.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffy and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Blain at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antibiotic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief. Ah! How good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more yawning, snuffling, blowing, no more headache, dizziness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Blain is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.

Swine and Calf Clubs will Be Organized at Acaciaville

W. H. Farnham M. P. P. Offers Share of Prize Money for Calf Club at Meeting Addressed by Agricultural Experts

Formation of Boys' and Girls' Calf Feeding and Swine Clubs in the Acaciaville district was decided on at a meeting of many interested in agriculture held in Acaciaville hall on Wednesday night under the auspices of the Digby County Farmers Association. The meeting was first of a series of agricultural meetings to be held in the county by representatives of the provincial department of Natural Resources and the federal department of Agriculture arranged for by Mr. W. H. Farnham, M. P. P., local member for Digby.

D. C. McKay, Vice President of the Association, presided and introduced the speakers, J. A. Steel, District Live Stock Promoter, of the Dominion Live Stock Branch; Carl H. Spicer, Agricultural Representative for Shelburne and Yarmouth Counties, W. V. Longley, Director of Extension Services of the department of Natural Resources and E. L. Eaton, Agricultural Representative for Kings-Annapolis, and W. H. Farnham, M. P. P.

He first called upon Mr. Farnham who said he would be brief, and was. He was in attendance to learn something about farming problems and methods of bettering conditions. He was interested in agriculture and it was a great satisfaction to him that so many especially trained men could be gathered together to address the farmers of the county and to discuss with them their problems. He was very glad to see Mr. Steel of the Dominion department present. It was good to see the two departments working together, and should bring results.

Mr. Steel outlined his special work as improvement of dairy herds. Most farmers had too many "boarders" among their dairy cattle and his work was to point out the necessity for good breeds, good feeding and regular testing to weed out the poor cows. Good pure bred bulls were a necessity, and it had been found that best results were obtained by adopting one type or breed from each district and sticking to that breed long enough to show results. He was paying particular attention to Calf Feeding Clubs and had found that where such clubs had been formed that much interest had been taken and good results obtained. Clubs could be formed by groups of twelve or more boys and girls, who agreed to adopt one breed of calves and care for them under the supervision of the department. Monthly meetings would be held at which instruction would be given in methods of feeding and judging and in the fall the calves would be exhibited and prizes awarded. The federal and provincial departments worked together in these clubs putting up one third of the prize money. The Farmers' Association would be asked to put up one third and guarantee the remainder, which could be raised in any manner decided upon.

Cow Testing Associations were another phase of Mr. Steel's duties. He explained that to be reliable tests must be conducted over a full milking period, from freshening to the time the cow went dry, in order to determine exactly how much the cow was earning. Weighing of milk daily would be of value in keeping a check on the cow, on the feed and on little things that went to make up the difference between profit and no profit in the dairy herd. Mr. Steel wanted a Calf Feeding Club formed in the district and got it. Mr. Farnham offered one third of whatever was required for prize money and the meeting decided that the Farmers' Association would back up the scheme.

Mr. Longley was then called upon. He spoke his pleasure in being present and particularly as he had met Mr. DeLong, who had attended college in Minnesota at the same time as himself.

He had come home to his native province to do his bit and in his experience in different parts of the United States had perhaps learned something that would be passed on to the farmers of Nova Scotia.

Farmers clubs he said, must be a centre around which all the active organizations to promote agriculture must centre. He was glad to see that the farmers of the district had cow testing association. Weeding out non producers was the most important part of dairying.

A branch of agriculture that followed dairying was the raising of hogs. In the larger dairy centres of the province hog raising had been developed successfully by means of Swine Clubs. Several would be dropped in the coming year and one could be started in Acaciaville. The Yorkshire or bacon type was the type most suited to Nova Scotia, the only type which could be raised profitably in competition with the hog belt of the United States, where corn fed hog dominated the land market. Present prices warranted preparation for an advance in hog prices next year. Therefore it was a good time to go into hog raising. Feed and care were most important in order to maintain the type and through Swine Clubs the boys and girls could be taught how to produce select stock. More than one hundred carloads of hogs would be shipped from the province this year as compared with only one car load three years ago.

Discussing markets Mr. Longley pointed to the market of the United States, which even under present tariff conditions was the best market for Nova Scotia farm produce. The New York market alone took 2500 cars of strawberries, of which only 8 cars were imported this year. July was the first of our season, so that the strawberry grower of the province had the American market practically to himself.

Mr. Spicer when called upon stressed only one point. Standardization was his topic. If farming was to pay the farmer must produce the kind and size and quality the buyer wanted. This applied to live stock, and to vegetables as well. Turnips, to command the price, must be of certain size, certain

ANNUAL MEETING OF AGRICULTURAL SOC.

John O. Turnbull Re-elected President and Frank Nichols Secretary

The Annual Meeting of the Digby Central Agricultural Society was held at the Town Council Chambers on November 19th, with the President John O. Turnbull in the Chair.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The financial statement and Directors report were then discussed and on motion duly received and adopted.

The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:—

President John O. Turnbull
Vice-President Curtis Y. Young
Secretary-Treasurer Frank W. Nichols

Directors:—D. C. McKay, Jacob Trask, Jonathan Letteney, James Trevo, S. B. McGee, Jr.

Auditors:—Jonathan Letteney, Arthur R. Turnbull.

Mr. W. W. DeLong was elected a delegate to attend the Nova Scotia Farmers Association, and Lloyd McNeill was elected as substitute to attend in case Mr. DeLong could not go.

The bull at Byron McNeill's was ordered to be placed at A. J. Cornwell's for the next six months and the bull at A. J. Cornwell's was ordered to be placed at Curtis Y. Young's for the next six months. Messrs Goudy Nichols and Curtis Y. Young were appointed a committee to secure a place for the bull now at Mr. Young's for the winter months. Messrs James Trevo and Frank Gates were elected a committee to dispose of the two Guernsey bulls by trading with some other Society for bulls of same breed, or if this is impossible to make a sale of same, and if sale has to be made to purchase a younger Guernsey Bull to be placed at Mr. Frank Gates.

The second resolution passed at the Annual Meeting of the Nova Scotia Farmers Association referring to grants paid to Agricultural Societies, and the standard payment of same in accordance to the standard of formation of Sires was approved by the Society.

The matter of Swine Clubs in this District was then discussed.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Boy Scouts Will Have New Patrol

A new patrol is to be added Digby No. 1 Troop Boy Scouts. This was decided upon at the regular meeting held on Friday night, when 24 Scouts answered Roll Call.

The standing of the patrol is:
Fox 135 1
Wolf 93
Beaver 80

The winning essay on The Hare was that written by Raymond Winchester of Beaver patrol. Next week's subject is the Woodcock.

Alfred Dickie and Gordon and Harold Cowan were taken on probation until passing their Tenderfoot test, and Scout Roy Sulis passed his Tenderfoot test in fine style, receiving his pin.

The meeting closed with the recitation of the Lord's prayer, the Scout's Promise and the singing of O Canada.

Telegraph Service And The Price of Fish

One matter which may come within the jurisdiction of the commission appointed to investigate the needs of the fishing industry is the hours of service at the local office of the Western Union Telegraph Company. Modern systems of merchandising place a great deal of reliance in telegraph communication. Competition, changing markets, perishable product all combine to demand utmost dispatch in the transaction of fish shipments and sales. And it is on the telegraph as much as on quick freight delivery that the industry must rely.

During the tourist season the local office of the Western Union is open from 8.00 a.m. until 9.00 p.m., a straight stretch of 13 hours of service. This for the convenience of tourist visitors, and the revenue from the service is apparently good, sufficient to pay the salaries of two operators.

With the beginning of November the office is placed on restricted schedule, 8.00 a.m. until 1.00 p.m., 2.00 p.m. until 6.00 and from 7.00 o'clock until 8.00 giving only ten hours of service, and those hours are not always the most suitable to the needs of the company's patrons.

To speak candidly the restricted service of winter months is wholly inadequate to the needs of the business public. To an extent its inconveniences are relieved by the courtesy of local manager who has times without number worked out of regular hours to enable patrons to get their business transacted. This is not any credit to the Western Union, and only by providing service that meets the need of the public can the Western Union to worthy of the reliance which must be placed in it.

The cost of maintaining a second operator in Digby for twelve months in the year cannot be a great deal of money, compared to the service such an operator would give. The same rent, practically the same lighting expense, the same telephone charges and the same messenger boy would serve as for the shorter hours, and all the additional expense would be the salary, which would be earned by increasing business. It would serve a large number of business houses outside of Digby as well as in Digby town, and would be in keeping with the needs of modern business methods.

The present service is altogether inadequate, and no make shifts, no favors from the local manager or anything short of restored full schedules can be acceptable to Digby.

How Many Tourists Can You Accommodate

The publicity committee of the Board of Trade has started preparations of a schedule of publicity for next season. The Courier proposes that the committee include in its advertising a list of hotels, boarding houses and private houses which cater to tourists. This list to be of value must be complete, contain particulars as to number of guests which can be taken, location and rates.

It can only be of real value if every hotel, boarding house and private house which can take one or two or more guests is listed. The committee cannot be expected to go around begging that house holders and hotel and boarding house proprietors supply the needed information. That is what they were appointed to do. Their job is to prepare a plan of advertising which will be of general benefit to the whole of Digby and the job will be made easier if all who have information which should be incorporated in a tourist booklet or out of regular hours to enable patrons to get their business transacted. This is not any credit to

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or gas pains or griping."

Not Like Medicine

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and works so easily. Every woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every druggist has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine. Perfected by the famous Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle.

In past years it has been impossible to obtain a list of places where tourists can be accommodated. For some reason the information was withheld by many, the very people to whose interest it was that all information possible be supplied, and no real knowledge of the number of tourists who can be placed in Digby is available.

Next year, according to present indications, will see Nova Scotia take a first place as a vacation land. Splendid steamers will operate between New York and Yarmouth and Boston and Yarmouth, and the number of tourists who will come down from Ontario and Quebec will no doubt increase also.

Where will the publicity committee fit if they cannot supply information asked for? If they have not facts and figures, rates, accommodation and so on to place before inquiring tourist agencies and individuals?

A pretty little booklet, with a picture of the Basin and a few views of Water street and Point Prim is only so much good. A series of newspaper and magazine advertisements is only so much good. Both will have to be followed up with real information, many personal letters to many different types of people and only if the information is on hand to suit the needs of each inquirer can the fullest value be got from the work of the publicity committee.

There has been talk of establishing a tourist information bureau in Digby next season, where visitors may obtain information as to drives and walks and attractions of the surrounding country. That is a good scheme, but the first sort of information bureau that is needed in Digby is one which will be able to answer letters of inquiry from millionaires and from typists, from golfers and from horse shoe pitchers—our visitors are not all of one class, their likes and hobbies are not all the same, and they do not all want to go to the big hotels, any more than they all want to go to the country boarding house. To each inquirer must be supplied the kind of information asked for and the first question of every letter to be answered will be "What accommodation have you?"

The task of the publicity committee will be simplified if every hotel keeper, every boarding house owner, and every householder who can take two or more summer tourists will supply all information as to accommodation and rates. From this information the committee will be able to compile a fund of detailed information and be in a position to answer inquiries of every sort, and help to increase the amount of tourist business done in Digby.

The Port Wade Wharf

For a week or two the Courier has been talking Car Ferry, but that does not mean that we have forgotten equally important Annapolis Basin Services. One of these, the Port Wade, Digby Ferry operated by Captain Keans, means much to the business of Digby Town. The Port Wade is a good boat, seaworthy, commodious and well adapted to the service and its operation is a convenience and benefit to a section of territory along the Cranville shore not served by any railway line. Residents of the villages along the Port Wade side must come to Digby or take cars to Annapolis, in order to shop or to travel and the Port Wade has proven a popular means of reaching mainland points.

At Port Wade the ferry wharf is not in condition to permit the taking or landing of passengers at all stages of the tide. Even in these days of short skirts, women passengers can only be handled at high tide, and at low water a man must be a combination of tight rope walker and gymnast, with the art of log riding thrown in for good measure to negotiate the slippery incline to and from the boat.

The Courier understands that residents of Port Wade are endeavoring to have the Department of Public Works make improvements to the wharf. A petition is being circulated for presentation to Ottawa and it is important that the endeavors of Port Wade people be backed up by whole hearted cooperation of Digby. The Board of Trade has been asked to take action and President Dakin has given assurance that all that can be done will be. The matter will be discussed at the regular meeting of the Board of Trade in December, and this with other important matters requires the attention of all members, in order that action taken may be representative of all the town.

OBITUARY

CAPT. JAMES J. WARNER

In the passing of Capt. James J. Warner, at his home Conquerall Bank, Lunenburg Co., N.S., Wednesday the 9th, November, the community and the county have lost a good and highly respected citizen and friend. He was the second son of the late Capt. W. C. Warner, of Plympton, Digby Co., and was in command of vessels in the foreign trade for many years.

Among the ships he sailed were the Brig. W. C. Warner, Brig. Cathleen, Brig. E. E. Hutchings and Louisa and St. Croix. He was in the employ of Hutchings Bros., New York, for some years.

His wife who was Miss Eleanor Slauenwhite, pre-deceased him in March 1925. Surviving are one daughter Mrs. Dr. R. M. Saunders, Lunenburg, two sons, Capt. Hugh C. and Frank, of Conquerall Bank, and one brother, William M., of Plympton, Digby Co., two sisters, Mrs. Herbert Covert, now of Saint John, N.B., and Mrs. Orin Bowley of Auburn, N.S.

The late Capt. John Warner lost at sea years ago was a brother of deceased. The funeral largely attended was held on Friday afternoon, with services at the home and church, by Rev. W. W. MacDonald pastor of the Presbyterian Church, and an eloquent and appropriate sermon was preached from the text I Sam. 20 25 as follows: "And David's place was empty."

The pall bearers were his master marine friends, Capt. Mailman, Capt. M. J. Parks, Capt. Manning, and ship builder W. A. Wangler.

The beautiful casket was covered with the most elegant hot house bloom.

Reports received from various guides in New Brunswick state that partridges have increased, moose are plentiful and deer greater in numbers than last year. On the Little Tobique River beaver are more numerous this year, but not elsewhere.

Alberta's wheat crop is so good that D. C. Coleman, Vice-President of Western Lines of the Canadian Pacific Railway, believes it will reach 180,000,000 bushels. The record crop so far is 166,000,000 bushels, produced in 1923.

Rosebank Pride—71118, an Ayreshire cow owned by George Pearson & Sons, of Watford, Ontario, has just scored a Canadian and a world record for milk production, having given 23,641 lbs. of milk, 978 lbs. fat with average test of 4.14 per cent. Her five years' milking record is 87,843 lbs. milk, 3,232 lbs. fat.

Aviation history is being made nowadays. Canadian Air Board officials announce that enquiries have been received from 15 cities in Canada desirous of forming flying clubs. At the same time Sir Philip Sassoon, Under-Secretary for Air in the British Government, reports that the first of the two huge 400,000 cubic feet dirigibles being built in England for inter-imperial commercial communication will be completed in about two years and that the maiden trip will likely be to Canada.

Nova Scotia has won the Agent-General's Challenge Cup at the Imperial Fruit Show held in Manchester, according to official advice by cable. Nova Scotia obtained the greatest number of points in the overseas section of the show, the basis for award being 4 points for each first prize, 3 for each second, 2 for each third and 1 for each fourth prize. Nova Scotia had 48 entries and won 7 firsts, 8 seconds and 5 thirds.

The establishment of a game sanctuary in western Nova Scotia was announced recently by W. L. Hall, Attorney-General of the Province. The reserve covers an area of approximately 200 square miles and contains fine scenery, majestic rivers and forests and lakes in which trout and wild life are sure to thrive. The new sanctuary will take in the chief waterways of Lake Roanoke, Shelburne River, Jordan, Sixth and Fifth Lakes.

According to the latest Bulletin of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Washington, Canada ranks next to British India as to tobacco produced in the British Empire. "Stimulated by the preference granted Empire-grown tobaccos in the British market since the 1st of 1919," says the report, "the production of tobacco in Canada has increased from 14,202,000 pounds in 1918 to 25,884,000 in 1926; Ontario furnishing about 75 per cent. of the product and Quebec most of the remainder."

Gasoline has done all the damage possible to the horse industry in Canada, according to W. McCullum, horse importer of Brampton and Regina, who arrived in Canada recently on board the C. P. liner "Metagama." Mr. McCullum brought with him over 100 champion stallions which he purchased throughout the British Isles, France and Belgium during the summer months. He will take the valuable shipment west this winter and will dispose of them throughout the prairie provinces. Mr. McCullum is optimistic regarding the future of the horse industry in Canada and states that more pure-bred animals are needed on this side of the water.

A Great Favourite

People often wonder how it is that almost in every home they visit in any part of the Dominion they will find The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is the favourite paper of the household. But when one thinks of the making up of that great publication at the extremely low price of one dollar a year, it ceases to be a wonder. The Family Herald and Weekly Star is undoubtedly Canada's favourite, and Canadians are justly proud of it. It is a wonderful combination—newspaper, agricultural journal, and family magazine—all three in one, at a cost of two cents per week. Our readers can make no mistake by giving it a trial.

"Lord Nelson" at Halifax Among Dominion's Finest

Upper—Two scenes in the Public Gardens, where the new hotel is to be located. Lower—As the "Lord Nelson" will appear when completed.

Wide interest has been created by the recent announcement that Halifax is to be provided with one of the finest hotels in the Dominion. The project, met with instant approval and financial backing, those materially interested realizing the city's need for such an institution in view of Nova Scotia's historic, scenic and recreational advantages.

That the new "Lord Nelson Hotel" as it will be known, is solidly supported on a business basis, as well as on grounds of civic pride, is shown by the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway has secured over a half interest in the project, which Company's hotels are notable among the leading chains. This Company will direct to a large extent the management of the hotel. According to E. W. Beatty, Chairman and President of the Canadian Pacific, the present conditions in Halifax and the Province of Nova Scotia, in every way justify the building of the "Lord Nelson."

The new hotel will be in keeping with the historical charm of Nova Scotia, the name itself recalling an epic of British history. The building, from an architectural standpoint, will be carried out in Georgian style, the type of architecture prevalent in Lord Nelson's time.

The first sod in its construction turned and work begun on a building that will be in keeping with the importance of Nova Scotia's capital. The location of the "Lord Nelson" is one of the outstanding features of the new venture. It directly fronts the famous Public Gardens, the pride of the residents of Halifax. These Gardens cover many acres and are located in the heart of the city at the corner of Spring Garden Road and South Park Street. Around this paradise of flowers, radiate the North West Arm with the celebrated Waggon Club, Point Pleasant Park, the station, harbor and business district of the city.

The Province of Nova Scotia has gained a wide reputation for scenic and historic attraction. Some idea of the increase in tourist traffic into this province is gathered from government reports that visitors last summer by rail and water increased 50 per cent over the summer season of 1926. Residents of Halifax feel that such an institution as the Lord Nelson, which will be opened in less than a year, will give further impetus to commercial and tourist traffic through this centre.

Those Wretched Bilious Attacks

"Fruit-a-tives" Always Stops Them

MR. LEO GODIN

"I was always bilious and never seemed to digest my food properly," writes Mr. Leo Godin, 2371 Clark St., Montreal. "This kept me very weak. A friend, who had been completely relieved of these troubles by 'Fruit-a-tives', advised me to try this fruit medicine. I did so, and now I am so well that I want to congratulate 'Fruit-a-tives' on its unfailing effectiveness."

If you suffer with poor digestion, upset stomach, bilious attacks or chronic constipation, take Mr. Godin's advice and try "Fruit-a-tives". This natural remedy, made from intensified fruit juices combined with tonics, will surely correct these troubles and bring you back to health. Don't put it off—buy a box today, take the tablets regularly, and see how quickly you will improve. 25c and 50c—everywhere.

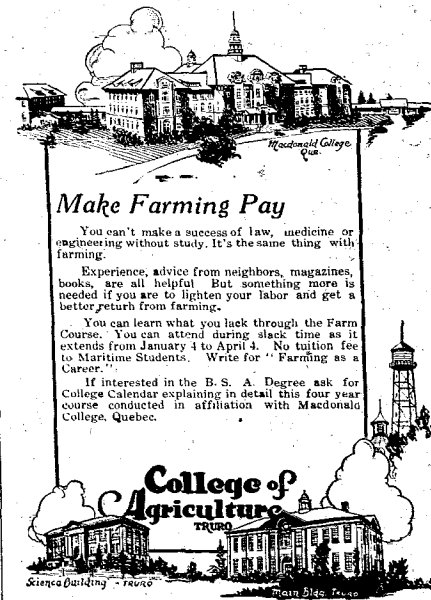

LESSON No. 18

Question: Why is emulsified cod-liver oil so useful for a child who is pale and losing weight?

Answer: It is food and tonic rich in vitamins and other nourishing factors that are particularly helpful to a weakened child.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Make Farming Pay

You can't make a success of law, medicine or engineering without study. It's the same thing with farming.

Experience, advice from neighbors, magazines, books, are all helpful. But something more is needed if you are to lighten your labor and get a better return from farming.

You can learn what you lack through the Farm Course. You can attend during slack time as it extends from January 4 to April 4. No tuition fee to Maritime Students. Write for "Farming as a Career."

If interested in the B.S. A. Degree, ask for College Calendar explaining in detail this four year course conducted in affiliation with Macdonald College, Quebec.

Famous Kings
In Alfred's time England was divided into a number of petty kingdoms. From one of these, the Danes led to a union and Alfred became the first king of a United England.

At Exeter he defeated the Danes with great slaughter. The terms of peace were more than generous. Guthrum, the Danish leader, was allowed to rule that part of England north and west of a line from London to Liverpool.

In the struggle of kings, there is no nobler figure. Here was a noble, a law-giver, a warrior and a ruler in the best sense of the word.

NASH

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

Easiest to Start

in cold weather

When Zero is the forecast, you'll be glad you bought a Nash.

For even though you keep a Nash in an unheated garage, here's one car that starts immediately, and then warms up to smooth operating efficiency in no time at all.

Nash has a big heavy-duty starter, an improved carburetor with automatic heat control and then thermostatic control of the water circulation which combine to produce almost magical results when you press the starter.

Nash is a great cold weather car in other ways, too. The big, 2-way, 4-wheel brakes of Nash surround you with safety over every imaginable condition underfoot.

The Nash crankcase ventilator keeps the car's interior absolutely free of engine fumes, and at the same time prevents the usual cold-weather dilution of lubricating oil.

And the great Nash 7-bearing motor, now newly refined, is smooth and quiet every day in the year.

This is the best time in the year to trade your present car on a new Nash. Come in and let us show you how much more enjoyable winter and winter driving can be, when you drive a Nash.

What Tourists Bring

The bureau of statistics calculates that visitors to the Dominion spent over $190,000,000 last year. This is considerably over twice the amount of their outlay in 1920.

Each season has seen an increase and it is evident that the future can bring a vast expansion. The attractions of the Dominion for the tourist constitute one of our greatest assets and investments made in enhancing these are of the soundest character. The indirect benefits are quite as large as the direct, which alone are taken into account by the bureau.

Commission Meets in Digby

December 13-14

Fisheries Officer Torrie left on Monday for a trip down Digby Neck and to the Islands to arrange for meetings to select delegates to give evidence at the meeting of the Fisheries Investigation Commission which meets in Digby on December 13th and 14th. Before leaving Mr. Torrie supplied the Courier with dates on which the Commission will sit, with an itinerary of its program from Halifax to Digby as follows:—

Lunenburg Dec. 5-6

Liverpool 7

Lockport 8

Clark's Harbor 9

Shelburne 10

Yarmouth 11-12

Digby 13-14

The original plan of having meetings in both Digby and Tiverton has been changed. There will be no meeting held at Tiverton but witnesses from all the sections which were to meet at Digby and Tiverton will meet at Digby. This was found to be the most convenient for all witnesses and for the Commission, since accommodations at Tiverton are limited.

Mr. Torrie also advised the Courier that the time for claiming Fishing Bounties had been extended from November 30th to December 31st. Bounty regulations have been changed to include all boats of over 12 feet keel, in place of 13 foot keel as formerly and owners of such boats as well as men and boys engaged in fishing, are entitled to enter bounty claims.

The smelt fishing regulations have also been changed to do away with the weekly close season. Up to the present there was a weekly close season on smelts from Saturday night until Monday morning. This regulation has been rescinded and fisheries officers have been instructed to permit nets to remain in the water over Sunday.

Referring Section nine Section twenty-one Nova Scotia Regulations smelts, decided to rescind weekly close season regulation entirely. Meantime instruct all officers to allow nets to remain in water over Sunday.

Winchester Poultry Farm

Install Hydro Service

Replacing a small private generating plant with service from the Digby County Power Board's Hydro line, the Winchester Poultry Farm, Victoria Bridge on the Bear River, has installed most modern equipment for operation according to present day standard of poultry raising. 120 75 watt lamps have been installed in the pens and feed is ground and water pumped by electricity.

A 6000 egg capacity Buckeye incubator and a 9000 egg James Way incubator will be in operation early in December. These are hot water with automatic control. They will be replaced as soon as is practicable by electric incubators and the brooder plant also at present heated by hot water, will be included in the scheme of electrification. As a protection against wild animals and prowling strangers 2 one hundred watt lamps have been erected in street fixtures for outside lighting. The present maximum demand for current is equivalent to 10 horse power and this will be increased as electrification is proceeded with.

In the colony pens the lights are turned on two hours before daylight and two hours after dusk lengthening the hens working day. An increase in egg production followed immediately on adoption of this plan and "Record of Performance" pens showed an increase of 100 per cent within a week after the service was in full operation.

The proprietor, Mr. T. F. F. Hough, came to Canada some years ago from South Africa. To acquire practical knowledge of the various phases of agriculture in Nova Scotia he worked for a time on a dairy farm in Colchester. This was followed by an experience on farms in Ontario and eight years ago he acquired the Winchester Poultry Farm. Its location with Bear River station of the D.A.R. on its West boundary and the wharf at Victoria Bridge, providing water shipping, on the East boundary gives Mr. Hough direct access to the markets of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Last year, 8,000 pullets were raised and the demand for eggs and poultry was always greater than the supply.

After experimenting with different breeds of birds Mr. Hough has adopted White Wyandottes as the best all around egg producer and table fowl for his purpose and this year expects to hatch 15,000 birds. The summer hotel trade will be catered to for the first time, as in previous years supplies have not been sufficient to warrant going into this branch of the industry.

Mr. Hough has been met by a peculiar condition. In order to raise sufficient green feed, he has been forced to go into general farming and has purchased a 70 acre farm adjoining the poultry plant which will give him 140 acres to look after. He has also purchased the Winchester homestead as quarters for his staff. The whole combines to make the Winchester Poultry Farm a model of modern poultry raising practice and has resulted in a nice amount of revenue for the Digby Hydro plant.

In his adoption of electricity for all purposes of the plant Mr. Hough has presented a minor engineering problem to electrical manufacturers. To prevent freezing of fowls' drinking bowls he wanted a number of immersion heating coils, which would maintain a temperature of 60 degrees. Inquiry proved that nothing of that sort had ever been asked for before, and several manufacturers are now working on a heater to suit the requirement.

The Arab sage met the demon Plague coming towards the town. "How many people do you intend to kill?" inquired the sage. Plague replied that he would take five hundred victims. "But you killed five thousand on your last visit," said the sage. "Not so," replied Plague. "I took only five hundred. Fear killed the remainder."

C. G. I. T. Holds Successful Conference

One hundred and five leaders and delegates attended the Digby Ad-napots Connies Conference of the Canadian Girls in Training, held in Digby on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last. Bear River, Annapolis, Bridgetown, Centerville, Paradise, Middleton, Hill Grove, Sandy Cove, Westport, Weymouth, Digby were represented.

Miss Louise Handspiker was Conference President and Miss Geraldine Egan Conference Secretary.

The first meeting was held in Grace Church hall on Friday evening. Miss Kathleen Graham presided and in courteous words welcomed the delegates and leaders to Digby. On Saturday afternoon a meeting was held in the vestry of the Baptist Church and following this the delegates were guests of the ladies of the several congregations at a banquet served in Grace Church hall. Toasts and songs followed, and a group of five girls dramatized "Sir Galahad" in very pleasing manner.

On Sunday afternoon three groups of C. G. I. T. were organized in the United Church and one group in Trinity. Another group will be formed of girls of the Baptist congregation.

The mass meeting held in Grace Church at eight thirty o'clock on Sunday evening was presided over by Miss Louise Handspiker. Miss Matheson, of Saint John, gave an interesting address, outlining the objects of the C. G. I. T. Movement. At the close of the meeting, delegates and leaders formed a Friendship Circle, repeating the C. G. I. T. "Purpose" and sang the C. G. I. T. Song. The Conference closed with "Taps" and the Benediction, pronounced by Rev. E. W. Forbes.

The proprietor, Mr. T. F. F. Hough, came to Canada some years ago from South Africa. To acquire practical knowledge of the various phases of agriculture in Nova Scotia he worked for a time on a dairy farm in Colchester. This was followed by an experience on farms in Ontario and eight years ago he acquired the Winchester Poultry Farm. Its location with Bear River station of the D.A.R. on its West boundary and the wharf at Victoria Bridge, providing water shipping, on the East boundary gives Mr. Hough direct access to the markets of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Last year, 8,000 pullets were raised and the demand for eggs and poultry was always greater than the supply.

After experimenting with different breeds of birds Mr. Hough has adopted White Wyandottes as the best all around egg producer and table fowl for his purpose and this year expects to hatch 15,000 birds. The summer hotel trade will be catered to for the first time, as in previous years supplies have not been sufficient to warrant going into this branch of the industry.

Mr. Hough has been met by a peculiar condition. In order to raise sufficient green feed, he has been forced to go into general farming and has purchased a 70 acre farm adjoining the poultry plant which will give him 140 acres to look after. He has also purchased the Winchester homestead as quarters for his staff. The whole combines to make the Winchester Poultry Farm a model of modern poultry raising practice and has resulted in a nice amount of revenue for the Digby Hydro plant.

In his adoption of electricity for all purposes of the plant Mr. Hough has presented a minor engineering problem to electrical manufacturers. To prevent freezing of fowls' drinking bowls he wanted a number of immersion heating coils, which would maintain a temperature of 60 degrees. Inquiry proved that nothing of that sort had ever been asked for before, and several manufacturers are now working on a heater to suit the requirement.

The Arab sage met the demon Plague coming towards the town. "How many people do you intend to kill?" inquired the sage. Plague replied that he would take five hundred victims. "But you killed five thousand on your last visit," said the sage. "Not so," replied Plague. "I took only five hundred. Fear killed the remainder."

First Work of New Organ- ization Is To Help To Defeat Tuberculosis

At a meeting of the Digby Municipality Tuberculosis Council held in the Town Hall on Tuesday night it was reported by the secretary, Mr. Lockward, that the newly formed C.G.I.T. Groups in Digby had consented to canvass the residential and business section of Digby as a means of promoting the sale of the Christmas Seals, being sold to provide funds to combat the Tuberculosis evil, which work the T.B. Council has undertaken in common with similar bodies all over Canada. The president, Dr. DuVernet, desired that the Courier convey to the groups the thanks of the T.B. Council and their best wishes, also, in the training in citizenship which their organization imparts. He felt that their activities could not better be commended than by assisting in this humane work, a health work of first importance in the province, and he urges on all citizens to encourage the girls in their efforts, that they may be successful in attaining the funds allotted as a quota for the Town of Digby and also encourage them in the ideals of service which they have adopted.

The allotment of seals to the outlying districts was completed and on Wednesday morning the last of the seals were sent out, covering the whole Municipality. The canvassers in the different districts are: Bear River; Digby side, The Women's Institute, Mrs. Lovett and Mrs. Romans in charge.

Smith's Cove, The Women's Institute, Mrs. Austin.

Joggins Bridge, O.F. Woodman, Plympton, Mrs. Wm. Warner, Marshalltown and Acadiaville, George Hixman.

Barton and Brighton, Dr. Harris, North Range, South Range and Doucettville, Warden Andrews, Weymouth, L.H. Potter, Westport, Councillor Pugh, Freeport, Dr. Weir, Tiverton, Miss Helen Blackford, R.N., Little River, Rev. Couste.

Centerville and Sandy Cove, Dr. Rice, Culloden and Bay View, Conn. Hillman, Mrs. James Woodman.

The seals are also on sale in Digby at the following places:

Royal Bank of Canada
Bank of Nova Scotia
B. J. Roop's
Jones Drug Store
O. Wright's
Holdsforth's Pharmacy
A. J. Dillon's.

With every section covered it should not be difficult to attain the full allotment for Digby.

Engineer Recommends Ex- tension of Water Main

The report of Mr. Harold Jacques Engineer, of Round Hill, engaged to make a preliminary survey of the areas from which Digby's water supply is drawn with a view to overcoming the silt nuisance and summer shortage danger was presented at the monthly meeting of the Town Council held on Monday night. Mr. Jacques report confirmed the opinions of councillors that the main could be extended right up into the lake and so assure at all times sufficient volume of water at all seasons.

The elevation of the lake is at least seventy feet above the present reservoir, and with the diversion of a stream on the east of the lake, running to the east side of Culloden road and emptying into the Bay of Fundy ample water would be available.

Annual Roll Call Service At Deep Brook

The Annual Roll Call Service of the Deep Brook Baptist Church was held on Friday evening, Nov. 25th. The members and friends met in the church at 5.30 where a social half hour was spent. At six o'clock about sixty members and invited guests went up to the hall where well laden tables had been prepared by the ladies of the church. At 7.30 the evening program was enjoyed by a good audience. Nearly all the resident members were present to answer to their names. Many letters were received from non-resident members and interested friends all in closing generous offerings. The pastor Rev. W.G. Hiseley assisted by a full choir gave the 'Provincial Son' in story and song. Over $60.00 was received at the thank offering.

Meeting of Teacher's Union Held at Digby

More than a year ago a Digby Co. branch of the Nova Scotia Teachers' Union was organized, while this Inspectorial Divisional Institute was in session at Bridgetown. The local Union held a meeting at Middleton the first of November, 1927, while an Institute was held, and elected its officers for the current year. Principal Fisher of Weymouth North is President; Miss Chisholm, Plympton Vice Pres., Principal Corbett, Weymouth, Secy Treas., and five other teachers in representative schools form the Executive.

On Saturday last a meeting of the Union was held in the Digby Academy. Twenty-six teachers attended. The President presided. Plans were discussed and methods suggested for making this branch numerically strong and active. Matters of general interest to teachers received consideration. Adjournment was made at 1 o'clock, to meet at Weymouth in January. Visiting members were guests of the local teachers at the Winchester Hotel.

The attendance was:

President of Defiance Trucks a Visitor in Digby

In conference with Mr. Nate Robinson, President and General Manager of the factory where Defiance Trucks are made, and who, by the way is spending several days with his distributor for Nova Scotia, Mr. H. T. Varne, it was interesting to learn that the company has closed an order with one of the largest national institutions in the United States for 400 Defiance Trucks. The United States Government, also, has purchased 165 Defiance Trucks to be used in the campaign against the corn borer, which is creating such damage in the corn belt and which is being vigorously combated.

Great interest has been created by the introduction of the Defiance Truck in this section and already several car loads have been received and sold, buyers speaking very favorably of their performance.

Plans for Sales and Service for Defiance Trucks will be announced in the near future and may possibly include the creation of a factory branch under Mr. Varne's direction.

Western Nova Scotia and the C. P. R.

This is the second of a series of discussions of the transportation problem of Western Nova Scotia written for the Courier by Mr. Clarence Jameson, former representative of the constituency in the Dominion Parliament.

In a previous issue the Courier referred to the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. (land and water) as the greatest transportation system in the world. Not only may that be said of it, but it holds the high distinction of being one of the very few great railway systems which has never defaulted in its liabilities to the public. In the great Republic to the south, hundreds of railways, constructed in good faith and in most instances carefully managed, were obliged to go into liquidation, notwithstanding generous State and Municipal aid, and a large and growing population to serve. While the Canadian Pacific received Federal aid in land grants and money subsidies, it is doubtful if their immediate value equaled the aid given to other great systems which in the course of time fell by the wayside. Its contest against nature, long and unproductive mileage, was hard and bitter, but the clear vision of those in control avoided the many difficulties and dangers which stood in the way. Today, like the bank of England the Canadian Pacific holds the highest place in the markets of the world, and the Dominion may well feel proud of the system and those who control its destinies.

Gradually, as it has expanded, the company acquired small systems or branch lines, the better to serve the territory through which it runs—for "service" has ever been a watchword to the management. As time went on and these branch lines were raised to the standard of the general system, they were incorporated into it, and cars bearing the proud name "Canadian Pacific Railway" made their appearance upon the rails. When the Dominion Atlantic Railway was acquired by the greater company, it was anticipated that it would be merged with the latter as soon as the permanent way, especially the bridges, could be put into such a condition as to approximate the general standard of the system. This condition was long since attained. The late Lord Shaughnessy then Sir Thomas, whose elevation to the peerage during the war was a well merited recognition of what the Company of which he was president did for the Empire in those trying days, the whole of which will probably never be generally known) told this to the writer while he was looking over the system with a number of his technical officers, shortly before the outbreak of the great war. Undoubtedly the war delayed matters; the death of the honored President of the Canadian Pacific railway company, no doubt caused a dislocation of plans, and things have stood pretty much as they were fifteen years ago, except that to the alert and highly capable General Manager, Mr. Graham, has passed the control of the Land of Evangeline system and in him this territory has a staunch friend.

The Dominion Atlantic serves one of the finest portions of the Maritime Provinces. Perhaps there has been too much specializing, in the way of apple growing, at the expense of a more general crop system. Nevertheless the territory stands ready for development and those who populate it stand ready to assist. The moving of the apple crop alone is a matter of no small moment, yet it is but a seasonal business. The great aim of all transportation companies is to increase their freight and passenger traffic; upon this depends the success or failure of their enterprise. The Western Nova Scotia transportation business may be well divided into three sections; the movement of the apple crop in the autumn; the tourist travel during the summer and the carriage of more general freights during the remainder of the year, with such local travel as may serve the territory.

Of these the tourist travel, so far as Nova Scotia is concerned, is highly important. Not that we would for a moment detract from the value of the harvest of the fields, the orchards and the sea, yet they have been in large measure developed, while the tourist traffic, so far as transportation companies are concerned—excepting for the Canadian Pacific—has been seemingly over-looked, and undoubtedly affords the most speedy and certain means of putting dollars into the pockets of those who are astute enough to look for them in return for value received. St. Andrew's, N.B., is beyond question a charming spot; it has the advantage of being within little over a night's ride from Montreal, it is patronized by the higher officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, yet, "it cannot hold a candle" to Digby, and to twenty places which might be named within an hour's motor run.

The interests of St. John and Halifax have, unhappily, always seemed to lie in different directions. So of course, it is bound to be in this matter of the development of the Canadian Pacific's Eastern programme. But the interests of St. John and Digby are one. To both would come the benefit of the development of the Valley system; to both would accrue the advantage of a strictly first class Bay service; to both would fall the profit of a largely increased tourist traffic. Halifax is entitled to its point of view, but so is Digby, and the Courier looks first for the advantage and prosperity of this section of the province. None would deprive Halifax of its due. We all glory in its great harbor, one of the three finest in the world, if geographers are to be credited; but we cannot suffer any diversion of our Valley traffic to any other part of the province, whether the good old garrison city is to benefit thereby or not—we only want our rights, but we want them, as our American cousins sometimes say "good and plenty."

By pulling together St. John and the Valley towns can probably secure the advantage of the through transcontinental route; by pulling apart we are sure to lose it. Boards of Trade and Municipal bodies could be of the utmost help at this juncture. It will be a pleasure for the Courier to record in its column any action taken, in the territory concerned, by those influential authorities.

When Should We Start To Work?

"Our financial condition last year was such that we could not commence our advertising or issue our booklet as early in the season as we should have, and for that reason the annual meeting of the association this year was advanced to the present date (November 22) in order to have the present year's business closed up and get at the preliminary work for 1928 in plenty of time."—extract from the annual report of the Secretary of the New Brunswick Tourist Association.

Like Digby last year, they had no money, nor assurance of money, to permit them to do anything until it was too late to really do anything. For this reason much that should have been done was left undone, and what was done lost, to an extent, its full value by being done too late.

The New Brunswick Tourist Association learned from the mistakes of a year ago, and held its annual meeting in the Fall of the present season, and not, as previously, at the beginning of the next. It is a lesson which Digby should profit by and if all members of the Digby Board of Trade, and all hotel and boarding house keepers and businessmen and longshoremen, and all the other residents of Digby who make a profit out of the tourist business would study the report of Mr. Anderson, Secretary of the New Brunswick Tourist Association, it would go a long way toward opening their eyes to the possibilities of the tourist business.

The Secretary reports that the New Brunswick Association spent $17,294.70. This added to what was spent by several cities and towns of the province brought the total amount to $20,634.23. It is reasonable to suppose that the hotels of New Brunswick spent some money on their own account, say sufficient to bring the total invested in tourist advertising up to One Hundred Thousand Dollars. It seems a lot of money.

What did they get for it?

Here is the answer, again taken from the Mr. Anderson's report.

Number of motors entering the province 185,985.

Number of people entering the province 753,198.

Money left in the province $11,329,190.04.

Reduced to percentage the people of New Brunswick invested one per cent of what they got back. Spent one cent and got a dollar's worth of business for it.

Those who are always busy "knocking" tourist propaganda will no doubt use Mr. Anderson's report as an evidence to show that Digby should not spend any great amount of money on tourist publicity. They may point out that the most money spent by any single town in New Brunswick was less than $2000. Campbellton spent only $250.00.

Which is quite true. But is Campbellton as important a tourist centre as Digby? Does any single town in New Brunswick place as much reliance on the tourist business for its existence as the town of Digby does. Has any town in New Brunswick as much money invested in hotels and camps and tourist accommodations as has Digby?

It is safe to say that such is not the case. It is safe to say that in the whole province of New Brunswick there is not as much attraction for tourists as there is between Weymouth and Annapolis. This is pointed out in Mr. Anderson's report, if you can read plain English, and it is for Digby town to take the lead in promoting the tourist business in all that section which lies along the Bay of Fundy shore between Meteghan and Annapolis.

Mr. Anderson says that now is the time to start to work for next year. Not after the end of January, or after the meeting of the Town Council sometime about the first of March. Let us profit by his experience and get ready, and at the same time, decide that if we can spend a dollar and get back a hundred dollars worth of business that nothing less than a million dollars worth of tourist business is enough for next year.

Getting Ready For Hockey

Word comes from Bridgetown that the hockey fans are getting ready to have a go at the cup offered for competition in the Valley by Mr. A.J. Dennison, formerly of Digby, but now residing in Riverview, Rhode Island. The Bridgetown team is getting ready for the ice practice and the rink management has been making improvements to the rink, putting in ventilators, drainage and other improvements. The despatch from Bridgetown says that Middleton, also, will be out for a shot at the silver.

That is good news. A four team league, with Digby, Annapolis, Bridgetown and Middleton would make interesting hockey. Short jumps and good train connections will make the schedule popular with the players, and the fans, when they see each trying hard to be the first to have its name marked up on the cup, should see some interesting hockey, worth supporting.

The Red Ravens are keeping up their road practice and work outs, and a few days of ice making, when the weather man gets around to it, will find them all ready to put on the blades and have a real practice. Meantime, isn't it timely to get a schedule drawn up, so we will know just what teams are to play and when, and generally get ready for the season.

Let's play hockey! The Denison C.C. will be ready for presentation to the winning team. All it needs is a schedule to be drawn up and the Courier will advise Mr. Dennison to that effect and the mug will be forthcoming.

Home For Christmas

Special Trains over Canadian National Railways For Western Canadians

The "Home for Christmas" movement from western Canada this year promises to set new records, according to passenger department officials of the Canadian National Railways at Winnipeg. Special train service and low round trip fares have been arranged, and many inquiries have been received and reservations have already been made.

The Survivance Francaise special train, which will leave Edmonton on December 15, will take care of many of those who are going home to Quebec, and in addition to the regular eastbound trains, there will be specials and through sleepers operating to the seaboard to connect with steamers sailing to Europe in time for Christmas.

The first boat special left Winnipeg on Thursday, November 24th, for Montreal and Quebec for the sailing of the Letitia and the Regina to Belfast, Liverpool and Glasgow. On December 2nd, another train will leave here to catch the Antioch to Plymouth, Havre and London; the Ventland, to Plymouth, Cherbourg and Antwerp and the Stockholm to Copenhagen. The fourth train will leave on December 8th, to connect at Halifax with the Athens for Belfast, Liverpool and Glasgow. Later in the month, other trains will leave for the Atlantic and the Baltic. Though sleepers will be provided from Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary, Saskatoon, Regina and Winnipeg to connect with the Drottningholm, sailing November 24th, the Polonia and the Frederik VIII bound for Scandinavian ports.

Life actually prolonged!

By keeping the system cleansed of poisons

MEN of science are constantly working on a problem vital to the human race—longevity! They find that one of the surest ways to increase your span of life is to keep the intestines cleansed of poisons due to wrong habits of living and eating and to delayed elimination. They find everybody in danger of this condition—everybody suffering from it at times.

poisons into the blood. Thus it acts as a preventive. Your whole system will benefit if you learn to use Nujol whenever you feel the need of it. Nujol is so safe that babies, old people, and sick people can take it too. Ask your doctor about it. He'll tell you it can't hurt you. It's not habit-forming, contains no drugs or medicine. Perfected by the Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Many of our foremost scientists recommend the use of Nujol as a harmless corrective and preventive. For Nujol does both things for you because it has the peculiar quality of not being absorbed by the system at all. But Nujol does absorb body poisons. Carries them away right out of the system. Corrects internal difficulties. It takes the time required for action makes impossible delayed elimination and the absorption of

LENT—CALDWELL

A quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, in the church parlors of the Clarendon Street Baptist Church, Boston, Mass., when Miss Odessa Faye Lent, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Churchill Lent, of Weymouth, N.S., became the bride of Mr. William M. Caldwell, of Yarmouth, N.S.

Promptly at eight o'clock the bride entered the parlors to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, which was played by Mrs. D.F.F. Metays, of Malden, Mass.

The bride was attired in a costume of new tan shade of satin and georgette crepe, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of pink roses with shower bouquet of white sweet peas and pink sweetheart roses. She was attended by her cousin Mrs. Richard Webster, of Boston, Mass., who was attired in flowered georgette crepe, and carried a bouquet of soft brown small chrysanthemums, while Mr. Stanley Horton, formerly of Yarmouth, attended the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. I.W. Williamson, pastor of the church.

At the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs. Motays sang "Oh Promise Me."

The bride's gift to the bridesmaid, was a pure white gold brooch set with cameo, and to the pianist a white gold brooch.

The bridal couple left immediately following the ceremony for a wedding trip which will include New York, Washington and Atlantic City.

The bride's travelling costume was of old rose and grey jersey, with hat to match.

The bride is well known in Digby where she has been on the office staff of the Myrtle House for several years.

The groom has many friends in Digby being connected with the well known grocery store of Yerxa's.

Friends were present from Swampscott, Malden and Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell will reside in Yarmouth, where Mr. Caldwell is associated in business.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell wish them many years of happiness.

Mrs. Theta White left for Yarmouth on Wednesday. The young people of the B. Y. P. U. held a social at her home here on the Friday previous.

Mr. and Miss R. E. Apt and son Carmon of Kentville accompanied by Miss Lena Keas of Wolfville were the week end guests of Mr. John Edward Keas.

Mr. Mrs. Edward Johns expect to leave on Friday for Newark, N. J., where they will spend the winter with their son On Sunday afternoon at the close of the Sunday school here, they gave a generous treat to the school over which he has presided as superintendent for a number of years. Following this Dea. Anthony with a few well chosen words of appreciation presented Mr. Johns with a nice umbrella as a small token of esteem and the good wishes of the school. On Tuesday evening at the women's club, Mrs. Johns was presented with a pretty silk scarf.

A Promise More Than Kept

When the publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal two years ago announced that the owner of the paper wished them to reduce the subscription price from two dollars to one dollar a year, they promised that not a single feature of the paper would be eliminated, but new features would be added and the paper made more valuable than ever. It is frankly admitted by their million of readers that their promise has been more than fulfilled, and today The Family Herald and Weekly Star at one dollar a year is the marvel of the newspaper world. No home in Canada would regret this investment. Just think of a great big 72 page publication at less than two cents per week, and every page of it alone worth the money. No Wonder The Family Herald and Weekly Star has over a million readers. It deserves them all, and more, to.

Making War on White Plague

Tuberculosis has been the plague of the ages. Down the generations its track is marked with desolation. Nations, communities, families have suffered heavily. Each successive generation paid its toll to this deadly scourge. Its ravages lie heavy upon our own loved Province. Unhappily the weight bears more heavily on Nova Scotia than on any other Province of Canada. One out of every three between fifteen years and sixty dies from it. Two years ago deaths from it for all Canada were 83 per hundred thousand. In Nova Scotia it was 124. More die in Nova Scotia from tuberculosis than in any of the other Provinces.

Only of late years was it discovered that it was not hereditary, but taken in time is easily cured. But better still, it was found, it was more easily prevented. All that was needed was information, proper care, and proper treatment of sick and whole. Nova Scotia began to take this up seriously twenty years ago. Then came the war, and every energy was devoted to something else. Now more attention is being given to it. With the wonderful result already that the rate has been reduced from 166 in 1917 to 120 in 1927. With such limited means, such great results followed. The aim is now to rid the Province entirely of the scourge. The Tuberculosis Commission is working to this end.

To finance the work which extends to every section of the Province and aims to help every sufferer, Christmas Seals are being sold all over the country. A sheet of 100 costs a dollar. But they are sold in any amount. Many a mickle makes a muckle. The humble copper is not despised. No one who would help may be barred. However little the gift, it helps to swell the total. A multitude of small gifts will raise the fund which will make possible the saving of useful lives. In this happy Christmas time, when thoughts are kindly and when from the greatest to the least, thoughts are of others, remember the helpless and the suffering. And give it tangible form by putting Christmas Seals on your Christmas parcels.

Help the unfortunate victim of tuberculosis.

Luxuries Once But Necessities Now

PRACTICALLY any Canadian citizen may own today an automobile possessing elements of beauty, style, comfort and efficiency which no amount of wealth could have commanded a dozen years ago.

For the automobile industry has outgrown its original function as a supplier of transportation, and has in an amazingly short time, brought about the refinements which are exemplified in the present-day General Motors car.

Since its foundations first were laid sixty years ago, this institution has believed that every Canadian has a right to the best his country produces, has a right to satisfy his sense of beauty, his desire for comfort, his need for dependability.

General Motors has at its command the master minds of the industry. It has the finest automotive research laboratories and the greatest automobile proving grounds in the world, wherein have been pioneered and developed some of the industry's most revolutionary advances.

And General Motors has used its prosperity and success unstintingly in improving the quality and increasing the value of its products.

It is thus that General Motors of Canada has played its part in translating once-inconceivable luxury into terms of every-day necessity.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Here and There

The "Never-Rot" potato, a variety planted in Yarmouth and Digby counties, Nova Scotia, this year, is reported as showing up to its name, coming through flood damage practically unharmed.

United States farmers receive about 15 cents a bushel less for their wheat than Canadian farmers because of higher railway rates, according to Senator Brookhurst of Iowa, speaking at Washington recently.

The Liard River district in the extreme north of British Columbia can produce excellent crops of grain and vegetables, it is stated by the Department of Agriculture of British Columbia, following experiments carried out in conjunction with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. Specimens of grain have been received here.

Ocean tonnage to carry 50,000,000 bushels of Western Canadian wheat via the Pacific to the United Kingdom and Europe has been booked for November, December and January. During December alone tonnage for 20,000,000 bushels has been fixed and shipping men believe that a hundred vessels will be required for this.

"Indian Golf" will be a novel form of the Royal and Ancient game to be introduced this winter at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, for the enjoyment of the winter sports tourists. The game will be played on skis and snowshoes, and over a course laid out in the snow. Targets will replace holes and bows and arrows will take the place of golf clubs and balls.

The Poultry Department of the University of British Columbia announces the sale of a white Leghorn hen for $500. She is not the famous Hen No. 6, but F. 319 and was exhibited at Ottawa last summer. Last year she laid 375 eggs in 365 days; and as she weighs just four pounds her purchase price was $125 per lb. F. A. Sansome, of Greenwich, Conn., was the purchaser.

The Government's final crop estimate is now: Wheat, 444,000,000 bushels, as compared with an estimate of 458,000,000 in September and last year's actual yield of 402,000,000; oats 452,000,000 bushels as against September's estimate of 502,000,000 and last year's actual yield of 383,900,000. Barley is put at 98,000,000 bushels as against 99,000,000 last year and rye at 16,000,000 bushels against 12,000,000 last year.

The fourth of the five new freighters being built for the Canadian Pacific Steamships was launched recently at the yards of Barclay Currie & Co., Glasgow. The S.S. Beaverhill will make her maiden voyage from Glasgow to Saint John on March 15, 1928. With her four sister ships the Beaverhill will be on a weekly service between Canadian ports and London, Hamburg, Havre and Antwerp. She will be an "all-weather" vessel with a speed of 14 knots and is built to the highest class of Lloyd's specifications.

His Excellency Lord Willingdon, while attending the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto recently, noticed in the entry list a stallion under the name "Lord Willingdon." His Excellency expressed a desire to inspect the animal which was paraded by its owner, W. J. McCallum, of London and Regina. The two-year-old, "Lord Willingdon" was purchased by the owner in Scotland last summer and brought out on the Canadian Pacific "Edinburgh" ship. The animal purchased for $10,000 and was included in a shipment of over 100 pure-bred animals.

Three Weeks Until Christmas

Three weeks, three more issues of the Courier, and then the Christmas buying season will be over. If you would be ready, with your gifts selected, parcels done up and mailed, and everything free of worry read the Christmas Ads and do your shopping early. Christmas advertising is the offerings of the best stores, and the best these stores have, to aid you in the selection of Christmas Gifts.

Hockey Meeting To Be Called To Arrange Schedule

As Trustee of the Dennison Cup the Courier has taken the liberty of asking for a meeting of representatives of Digby, Annapolis, Bridgetown and Middleton to arrange the Valley Hockey League and draw up a schedule of games for the Cup. The meeting should be held early, in order that the first ice will find everything ready for the whistle.

On Visit to New York

Mr. W. H. Farnham, M.P.P. for the Municipality of Digby, and Mrs. Farnham, left on the afternoon train on Friday for Yarmouth to take boat to Boston, from where they will continue their journey to New York, on a visit of several weeks. Their daughter, Miss Eileen Farnham, is employed in a doctor's office there, and they will spend the Christmas holidays with her. Mr. Farnham will return in time for the opening of the Provincial Parliament.

Deep Brook Correspondent a Visitor at Courier Office

Mrs. L. E. Sherman, of Deep Brook, was a visitor in Digby on Monday and a caller at the Courier office. Mrs. Sherman has been Deep Brook correspondent for the Courier for upwards of twelve years, and her weekly notes have always been interesting and covered all the activities of people and organizations in her district. Her service is a contribution to the life of the community which even, those who take the Courier because it comes as a letter from home, may not fully appreciate Mrs. Sherman, in common with all the other correspondents of the Courier has had no small part in making the Courier the good newspaper it is today.

Digby People Celebrate Birth day in New York

A New York exchange says: A family gathering took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McLeod, 640 Monroe street Brooklyn on the evening of November 11th, the occasion being the 84th birthday of Mrs. McLeod's mother, Mrs. Robert Bishop, of Sandy Cove Digby County, N.S., who recently arrived in New York to spend the winter.

Those present to join in felicitations and wishes for many returns of the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bishop and son, Boyd; Mr. and Mrs. Melmore Eldridge; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Schupp; Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Rice, and Mr. and Mrs. McLeod.

Buy Christmas Seals

The canvassers for the Tuberculosis Council drive for Christmas Seal Sales will be calling on you soon. Be ready for them with a request for a number, a dozen, or a hundred Christmas letters and parcels have not the real holiday spirit unless generously stamped over with Christmas Seals, and when you use the familiar Tuberculosis Seal it is making Christmas really a holiday season and at the same time helping to put in practice the teachings of all that Christmas stands for. Don't forget, in the hurry of gift buying that the original Christmas Gifts were those carried to the Cradle of Bethlehem.

New International and Interprovincial Long Distance Rates

In order to conform with the practice now uniform almost everywhere else on this Continent, Telephone calls to points outside of Nova Scotia will be classified on and after December 1st, 1927, according to the following method:

Station-To-Station Service

Station-To-Station service should be used when you are willing to talk to ANYONE at the distant telephone—that is, when you do not need to get a particular person on the line. This is the cheapest form of service.

Reduced Evening and Night Rates

The rates for Station-to-Station calls are subject to substantial reductions if the calls are placed during the evening or night.

The Evening Rate, which is effective from 7.00 to 8.30 p. m., is about 75% of the day rate.

The Night Rate, which is effective from 8.30 p. m. to 4.30 a. m., is about 50% of the day rate.

Person-To-Person Service

When you make a call specifying that conversation is desired with a particular person in a given exchange Person-To-Person service is used.

As this service requires greater operating labor and circuit time than Station-to-Station service, the rate is about 25% higher than the Station-to-Station rate.

Appointment and Messenger Service

Appointment service and Messenger service are special kinds of person-to-person service.

An APPOINTMENT CALL rate, which is about 50% higher than the station-to-station rate, is quoted when you make a call and specify that you will speak to a particular person at a specified future time.

The MESSENGER CALL rate is charged when you place a long distance call for a person who cannot be reached by telephone and must be sent for by messenger. This rate is about 50% higher than the Station-to-Station rate, and to it is added the cost of the messenger.

The Report Charge

When you place a call for a particular person, and for any reason he cannot be reached the same day, or will not talk or if you make a call and you are not ready to talk when the called person is ready within an hour, a REPORT CHARGE is made. The report charge is about one-fourth the station-to-station rate. It is intended to cover part of the expense of handling the uncompleted call.

The Standard System, as above, will not apply to calls between points within this province. These will remain as at present.

Weddings

RUGGLES—PURDY

Showers of confetti descended upon two happy young people at the Baptist Parsonage, Deep Brook, in the evening of Nov. 21st when Ralph Burton Ruggles only son of Mrs. Lovett Fritz Rauldolph of Summerville, Mass. and Jessie Purdy second daughter of Mr and Mrs Melbourne Purdy of Clementsport were united in marriage by Rev. W. G. Hisler in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of contracting parties. The bride, one of Clementsport's most beautiful young ladies looked very charming in a blue costume trimmed with fur, and hat to correspond. The groom is one of our valued young men who has been making good in U. S. A. Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles left by motor on Tuesday for Boston via Yarmouth, where they plan to reside for the winter months.

They are followed by the best wishes of a host of friends who look eagerly forward to their return next summer to Deep Brook.

MORINE—RUSSELL

A quiet and informal wedding took place at No. 7 Granite St., Malden, when Reita M. Morine, daughter of Mrs. Ada Morine Wright, of Bear River, was united in marriage to Clifton B. Russell, of Medford in the presence of about fifty guests.

The bride was attired in fawn satin and lace, with a bouquet of orchids and roses. The bridesmaids dress was tan satin. The groom was attended by one of his college mates.

The presents were numerous and costly, among them was silver, furniture and a grandfather's clock with chimneys. After an extended tour to Cuba and Florida they will reside in Melrose.

MEMORIAM

In memory of FLORA CRESS who died on Dec. 3rd, 1926, at 357 Parker Street, Newton Centre.

'Twas in the month of cold December As the earth was wrapt in snow, When o'er the wild Atlantic Ocean Came a message, saying Mother dear had been called. To meet her maker in the skies.

What is home without a mother? With her tender love and care, All is lonely, and is vacant. Since she has gone to live with God.

Oh! we loved her, yes we loved her But the Angels loved her more And they have said guided her, To yonder Golden Shore.

Inacted by her daughter, Mrs. Loran Wright, Deep Brook, N. S.

The ladies of Trinity Church are busy these days finishing up the many articles to be offered for sale at their annual Christmas Tea and Sale to be held on Thursday evening December 8th in Trinity Church Hall. This annual event is always looked forward to as an outstanding opportunity to make Christmas purchases and the ladies have spared no effort to make this year's sale even better than those for which they are famous.

Staff Captain Richards Will Visit Local Corps of "Army"

Staff Captain Richards, of Halifax, is expected here today to pay a visit to the local corps of the Salvation Army. Captain Florence Walker and her workers are preparing to give the Staff officer a real Digby welcome and the general public are invited to attend the service which Staff Captain Richards will conduct this evening in the Army Citadel.

Last Sunday the Quartette from the Baptist church assisted in the service at the Citadel rendering a selected program which was most helpful and greatly enjoyed.

St. Patrick's Ladies Will Hold Tea And Sale

On Tuesday, December 6th, the annual Christmas Tea and Sale of the ladies of St. Patrick's Church will be held at the home of Mr and Mrs George Trohon, Eureka Cottage, Water street. Supper will be served from five o'clock until seven and will be followed by the weekly Card Social. Tickets are 50 cents. All are invited. The sale will include many articles appropriate as gifts and will save you much labor in planning and work if you wish to remember friends with dainty hand worked goods.

The Card Social this week was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hersey on Monday evening, with seven tables. The prizes were won by Mrs. C. Beaton, Mr. E. LeBlanc and Miss Caroline Vantassel. Refreshments were served at the close.

Ford Dealers For Digby Talk About The New Car

In commenting on the recent announcement of the advance showing of the New Car, Harris & Silver local Ford Dealers, state—

'The big factories at Ford, Ontario, are beginning to produce cars in limited number, but they have not yet swung into the enormous volume of production that will be necessary to satisfy the demand for this extraordinary car, and we expect that it will be a few weeks yet before we have a car for display in our own town.'

'In the meantime,' they continued, 'We have secured large display pictures showing each of the six passenger models—the Tudor Sedan, Fordor Sedan, Coupe, Sport Coupe, Phaeton, and Roadster—and a supply of catalogues giving full specifications on the car, are showing these in our showroom. They afford an idea of the splendid consequence of the Ford company's long and enormous task in designing and perfecting the new car.'

Junior Work Proposed Among Boys and Girls in Dis- trict of Digby

There are four lines of work boys and girls being furthered in the Province by the Extension Service of the Department of Natural Resources. Three of these, the Calf Feeding Clubs, Swine Clubs and Poultry Clubs are carried on in cooperation with the federal department of agriculture. The two emphasized at the meetings held in the Digby territory were the calf feeding clubs and the swine clubs. Prize money to the extent of $40.00 for 12 to 16 entries and $50.00 for 17 to 20 entries in the calf feeding clubs and prize money of $42.50 and up depending on the number of entries in the swine clubs is contributed one third from the federal department, one third from the Provincial department and one third from the local community. Local financing for the calf feeding Club has already been pledged.

Not less than 12 members are required for a calf feeding club. The age limits for boys and girls joining are 10 to 18 years. All members must have either all grades or all purebreds of one breed. Thus, as the rules are at present a calf feeding club centering at Acaciaville would have to select one breed, either Jersey or Guernsey as the breed which they use.

In the swine club, members may be 10 to 20 years of age. There must be at least 10 members. Each member must raise two pigs of bacon type. The breed for the Province is all clubs is the Yorkshire.

In each of these contests, exhibits are held in the Fall at the end of the club year. Where a swine club is organized provision is made at that time for the shipping out of a carload of live hogs. Thus the work of the clubs is coupled up with the marketing work.

School fairs is another form of junior work which is being stressed in many sections of the Province. During the past year 42 school fairs were held in cooperation with the agricultural representatives. At least four different districts are required to cooperate in the holding of a school fair. The work is organized through the schools, premium lists being available during the school year. Exhibits are made in the Fall at a central point. These exhibits consist of products of the farm, sewing and cooking, and school work.

The annual meeting of the Digby County Farmers Association on December 15th., at the Court House Digby will give an opportunity for the discussion of these lines of work and the forming of a program for the district for the coming year. Those of the age requirements 10 to 20 years inclusive who are considering club work and their parents will do well to be present at this meeting. While the school fair work will be organized through the schools the organization of the calf and swine club members into clubs will be done as soon as sufficient members are obtained.

Married on Wednesday

The marriage took place at St. Patrick's church, Digby, on Wednesday morning of Mr. George Muise, and Miss Rose LeBlanc, both of Digby. Rev. Fr. Graham, P.P., celebrated Nuptial Mass.

Miss LeBlanc's mother, Mrs. Eugene LeBlanc, of Comeauville, came to Digby to attend the wedding.

A family party attended the wedding breakfast served at Mr. Muise's home following the ceremony.

St. Patrick's Ladies Have Great Success With Annual Christmas Sale

Rev. Fr. Graham was all smiles on Wednesday morning when he entered the Royal Bank to make deposit of $103.19, to the credit of the annual Christmas Supper and sale of fancy work held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Trohon, Eureka Cottage. There was a large number of patrons at the supper tables and the fancy work booths, laden with a host of dainty gift articles, were quickly cleared of their stocks. Following the sale the weekly card social was held, with eight tables of Forty-fives. The prizes were won by Mrs. Sidney Melaney, Mr. Benjamin Theriault and Mrs. A. Doucette the consolation The Clifford Beaton's will entertain next Monday.

Gone to Hartford

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Snow and infant daughter, who have been visiting Mr. Snow's parents for several weeks, left last Friday for Boston, and are now at Hartford, Conn., where they will reside. They were accompanied by Mrs. Snow's sister, Miss Evelyn McNutt, of the Courier composing room staff, who will spend several months with her sister.

Annual Roll Call at Smiths Cove

The Smiths Cove United Baptist church held their annual roll call on Nov. 24th. in the afternoon The Rev. E. J. Barrass of Bear River delivered a very able address and at six o'clock everyone repaired to the vestry where a very substantial tea prepared by the ladies, was awaiting.

At the evening session the roll was called by the clerk and nearly all the members responded by testimony or a verse of scripture and those who were absent by letter.

The thank offering amounted to ninety one dollars.

The Roberts Leave Today

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Roberts, and their children, Harry and Judith, leave today for Springfield, where Dr. Roberts has arranged to open a General practice. During the week the Roberts have been guests at several social functions in their honor, at which all who attended expressed their regret that they are leaving Digby.

Their address will be No. 20 Woodland Place, Long Meadow.

Be a Farm Leader and a Leading Farmer

The Farm Course offered by the N. S. College of Agriculture, enables you to make money out of farming.
It fills up the gaps in your knowledge, gives you the condensed experience and study of the leading farmers and scientists of the world, applied to farm conditions in the Maritimes.
In addition it brushes up your English and Arithmetic, teaches farm book keeping, and trains you in public speaking.
Tuition is free to Maritime students. Next Term Jan. 4. Write for booklet "Farming As A Career."
If interested in the B. S. A. Degree ask for College Calendar explaining in detail this four year course conducted in affiliation with Macdonald College, Quebec.

SCOUT NOTES

The 1st Digby Scout Troop had a very enjoyable and instructive meeting last Friday evening.
The different Patrols are working hard for points and are taking a great interest in their work.

The standing of each Patrol is Fox 150, Wolf 113 and Beaver 100 points.

Frank Williams passed his Tenderfoot and was put through the initiation mill. He thought it a warning affair but nothing to hurt.

The troop are collecting used Toys and Games which they are repairing for the poorer children. When the Scouts call at your door any old Toy or Game given them will be appreciated.

The Scouts entered on another form of training Sunday morning when they attended Church in a body. It has been decided by them that they will march to a different church once a month. They went to the United Church last Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Joseph Henshaw entertained very pleasantly at a Dinner Party on Monday Nov. 25th in honor of Mr. John Henshaw who was celebrating his 88th birthday. Mrs. Avaril Burrell and Mrs. Margaret Bartheaux were guests also.

Mrs. Lilla Rice and Mrs. Annie Copeland left here on Tuesday for Boston where they expect to spend the winter months.

Mr and Mrs Elburn Berry and little daughter are spending a few weeks with Mr and Mrs J. R. Berry.

The Dorcas Society held a pleasant meeting on Wednesday with Mrs. Wm. Trethreway. Preparations are being made for a Christmas Sale. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. J. F. McClelland returned from Boston on Friday of last week, where she had been spending a month with her children.

Here and There

Preliminary figures indicate that mining production in British Columbia this year will exceed all previous records, although prices will be somewhat below those of 1926, when a total of $7,000,000 was recorded.

Tobacco growing in the Kelowna district, B.C., has been so successful this year that the acreage will probably be increased to 1,000 next season. The present crop has been safely harvested and cured.

Not since 1917 has the Nova Scotia mining industry enjoyed so prosperous a season. During the fiscal year ending September 30, approximately 6,640,000 tons of coal were produced in the province against approximately 5,000,000 for the same period of last year.

The biggest shipment of live foxes to leave North America for the European market since the industry has been developed left Charlotteville in a consignment of 1,000, bound for Norway, via Halifax. These animals are valued at from $500 to $1,500 a pair, and the entire shipment is valued at approximately half a million dollars.

Her Grace the Duchess of Atholl, prominent British peeress and Parliamentarian, was the central figure recently at the launching of the Clyde, Scotland, of the first of the four new "Duchess" ships—the 20,000-ton passenger liner "Duchess of Atholl". These vessels will go into the Canadian Pacific Atlantic passenger service.

The elaborate figurehead of the "Empress of Japan," the first trans-Pacific liner on the Canadian Pacific, has been mounted in Stanley Park, Vancouver. The "Empress of Japan" was a clipper type steamer and the largest and fastest vessel navigating the Pacific. The figurehead was presented to the Vancouver Parks Board as a historic relic of that great port.

A special train of six cars carrying pure bred swine and sheep for exhibition and instruction purpose is now travelling through Southern Saskatchewan over the Canadian Pacific Railway. The stock is supplied by the Provincial Department of Agriculture, the Dominion Livestock Branch, Stockyard Companies, Packers and Breeders into all high-class stock. Lectures dealing with the breeding, feeding and management of sheep and swine are given by experts.

Through the auspices of the Canada Colonization Association, 509 families, consisting of 2,799 persons, were settled in Canada on 130,928 acres of land from January 1st to October 31st. The settlement of these families was personally supervised by officials of the Association, who completed the contracts, inspected the lands and closed transactions. It is expected that 100 additional families will be settled before the end of the year. Since its start, the Canada Colonization Association (a subsidiary of the Department of Colonization and Development, Canadian Pacific Railway), has settled 2,227 families on 554,180 acres and there are still settlement opportunities on 295,500 acres for 1,164 families. The percentage of success in these settlements is unusually high, being 100 per cent. in Alberta and 99.9 in Saskatchewan.

Trouble Signs For Those Past 40

Bladder Weakness, Nervousness, Headaches, Frequent, Painful Seanty Urination, Getting-up-Nights

The embarrassing, annoyance and genuine misery of Bladder Weakness, often brings "discomforts of old age" to those who really ought to be in the very prime of life.

Countless thousands, perhaps seven out of ten, of folks near middle life are pitiful victims of Headaches, Nervousness, Pains in back and down through groins, frequent but scanty and painful urination—Getting-up-nights.

While serious, if neglected — it is ordinarily a simple matter to relieve these troubles by the pleasant home use of Dr. Southworth's URATABS, which have been victorious in thousands of cases, after other treatments have failed.

No matter how serious or of how long standing your condition may be, you can quickly prove the value of URATABS without risk or cost — for any good druggist will supply you on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or money back. If URATABS bring you quick and certain comfort, you will be greatly pleased. If they do not fully satisfy, their use will cost you nothing. Try URATABS today, and see what a difference they make.

Christmas Shopping Problems Are Easily Solved This Year

Christmas Gifts on Display in Digby Stores Offer a Variety to Suit Every Taste and Purse. From One End of Water Street to the Other Christmas is the Keynote

Monday, a miserable day, wet underfoot and overhead, dark and gloomy, anything but a day to feel like shopping, and yet we visited the stores, to see what Christmas meant. And not a wet foot in all the journey, because we just sat down with a last week's Courier and read about what they had for Christmas.

At Connell's, well it would take a book to describe them all, but what struck the eye was that Mr Connell believes in practicing what the Legion preaches—Help for Disabled

Veterans. Vetracraft Toys, which Mr. Connell is featuring stronger than ever, are made in protected shops, by disabled soldiers who are not able to enter into the open market with their abilities and Vetracraft Toys are as good as any others better than most. The boy or girl who gets one for Christmas will remember that a wounded soldier made it, and so learn a little more about what the soldiers did during the war.

"Let's Get Together, and make this the happiest Christmas Ever," is the motto at B. J. Roop's and who wouldn't be happy to find in her stocking a pair of the newest shade of Silk Hose. The popular Orient Silks, Wood's Silk Hose made by the makers of the Famous Lavender Lines. Lingerie (which is another suggestion for Her) and hose for children, for girls and for men. Stockings too, for the Baby, of Cashmere in black, white and colors. The exhibit of handkerchiefs too, is the best Roop's have had, and includes dainty printed silks as well as hand worked Swiss and Irish Linens.

"Every sitting is a speaking likeness," is Mr. Yates offer to attract Christmas photographs. And a photo, to a friend away or as a gift to one's family, has a peculiar charm not shared by any other gift.

A Dakin Custom Built Radio, or a De Forest Crossley, is the suggestion made by Dakin Bros. So much progress has been made in perfecting the radio receiving set that one bought now will be enjoyed for years. Mr. Dakin is an enthusiast of Radio Fan and knows how best to advise intending purchasers.

B. H. Ruggles has a timely suggestion which carries with it a gift of its own. The Christmas Turkey and the other Christmas cooking is worthy of the best range that money can buy. The Enterprise is the one Bennie recommends and to every purchaser who buys before December 17th. will be given a Turkey for the family and a roaster to cook it in. That should settle the Turkey problem for some families.

For a lady friend a nice gift, and a hint as well is a box of fancy stationery, such as is on display at Jones' Drug Store. Mr. McKinnon told us that the selection this year was extra good and that it was a popular choice with many of his customers already. That and Yardley's Toiletries should just about answer the problem of what to give "her" and as for what to give "him," well any man likes good cigars and good tobacco, or a fountain pen. Even if he has one he would like one of the combination pen and pencil sets either a DuoFold or a Waterman's.

M. Webber skipped his ad out last week but came on us for a double space for this issue. His is the Men's Store of Digby and anything a man can wear can be bought at Mr. Webber's. A Nice Broadcloth Shirt of the famous Arrow brand or a pair of Overshoes or a new tie. Things are all reduced in price too which makes the money go further; a matter to consider these days.

Around the corner at May's Book Store the entire is the Valentine Line of Christmas Cards. The assortment is good, better than previous years and the five cent line particularly is filled with Xmas Greetings most tasteful in coloring and inexpensive of the Xmas Spirit.

A.R. Turnbull's ad. is a canned goods offering. Peaches, Pears, Pineapple, Apricots, Fruit Salad and many others. The best grown in California, which is saying it all. A few cans on the shelf will save the housekeeper many worries when her time is all taken up with preparing for Christmas.

At A. J. Dillon's the suggestion is for Overshoes as gifts. It struck us as most appropriate on Monday, for overshoes keep the feet both warm and dry. In two, three or four buckle styles for men, and in the new and popular, Lo-N-Hi Zipper Overshoes make an appropriate and practical gift.

The Margolian—Kitaeff advertisement was the only local "ad" which did not mention Christmas, but it had a list of gifts in it. The Closing Out Sale prices are still in effect and one can purchase Sweaters, Coats, Underwear and Hosiery for both men and women. Any of these will be appreciated by the recipient on Christmas morning.

Nuts and Raisins, Cooking Figs, Molasses and Peels, advertised by Yerkas', excite the palate in anticipation of the wonders of Christmas Cooking. They have also another lot of Prepared Mustard in glass containers, pitchers, sugar bowls, etc.

W. L. Holmworth tells you about Old Man Winter, and suggests a Fawcett Jubilee Circulator. No basement is needed for the Circulator and it will keep the whole house warm and snug, so all can enjoy Christmas to the limit.

A. A. Shortliffe advises the housekeepers of Digby to "Do Your Christmas Cooking Early." Do your shopping early is a common expression, but advise to do your cooking early is just as appropriate. And with raisins, both seeded and seedless, Dates Figs Peels all the dried fruits, to make the Xmas Cake the very best, it should be easy to take his advice.

Ross C. Smallie has a suggestion. What about a new platter? he asks. One would suppose that a Xmas Turkey deserved a new platter to rest one and also a new aluminum roaster to be prepared in. Mr. Smallie has both, together with many other useful things for Xmas.

Last but not least, don't forget the man, woman, boy or girl who skates. A season ticket to Victoria rink will make Xmas last all winter, and give many hours of healthful exercise and enjoyment. Mr. Walker has added twelve feet to the ice surface this winter and the rink will be the main source of entertainment until Spring.

Did you ever stop to think how easy it was to do your shopping from the advertisements? It is, really, and the Courier man would say that you will save yourself much worry and much fatigue if before you start out shopping you look over the offerings of the advertisers in this issue. A mind half made up is easily suited.

Universal Opinion

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal has, for some weeks, been publishing in each issue, letters from subscribers in all parts of the Dominion, in which the opinion is unanimous that The Family Herald is the greatest value at one dollar a year in the world today. It is safe to say no other paper in Canada could reproduce so many letters of a similar nature. Some are from readers for ten, twenty, and even forty years' duration. The Family Herald deserves its success. It has been the motto of the paper to improve and give greater value year after year. Today it is a newspaper covering all parts of the world, a family magazine that provides clean, wholesome reading for old and young, and an agricultural journal, excelling any thing of the kind on the Continent. All these three are in one big paper of 72 pages, and for one dollar a year. It is a credit to Canadian Journalism.

What Is a "Station-To-Station" Long Distance Call?

When you ask the Long Distance operator to get a certain telephone number in an exchange outside of Nova Scotia and, when connected, you speak to anyone at that number, you have made what is described as a Station-to-Station call.

That is, on a Station-to-Station call you do not specify a particular person to be reached, but give only the number of the telephone or the name or address under which that telephone is listed.

A Station-to-Station call costs less than a call for a particular person because less operating labor and less circuit time are required than if a particular person has to be located and brought to the telephone.

The evening rate on Station-to-Station calls made between 7.00 and 8.30 p.m. is approximately 75% of the day rate. Between 8.30 p.m. and 4.30 a.m. the rate on Station-to-Station calls is approximately 50% of the day rate.

Station-to-Station rates do not apply to telephone calls between points within Nova Scotia.

If there is anything about our rates and practices you do not understand, please call our nearest office for an explanation.

King Solomon Lodge Masons
Bid Farewell to Dr. Roberts

The monthly communication of King Solomon Lodge, Digby, was followed on adjournment with a family party as a farewell to Dr. H.L. Roberts, who is leaving Digby to practice in Springfield, Mass.

Worshipful Master C.A. Armstrong, Very Worshipful Bro. Wm. Driffield, and others expressed the regret of all members of the Craft that Dr. Roberts was leaving Digby, and at the same time congratulated him upon a step which will mean advancement in his career.

Dr. Roberts, replying, said that he was sorry to go, life here had been very good, and it was largely because of the social and fraternal spirit of members of King Solomon lodge that his remembrance of Digby would always be most pleasant.

The hospitality committee served a buffet supper and the lodge closed in usual form of occasions of this nature.

Report of V. O. Nurse to Digby School Board

The following was contained in the Report of the Victorian Nurse for term concluding Nov. 22, 1927.

Have examined 280 pupils this term that concluded class room inspection, weighing, measuring, testing eye sight and hearing.

We had two children's tonsils and adenoids removed. This work being done through the kindness of Dr. DuVermet and Dr. Roberts. A number of tooth brushes have been supplied to needy children. Five children are being fitted with glasses through the Junior Red Cross.

Dental work has been performed by Drs. McGregor and Turnbull.

I find quite an improvement in the general conditions of the students, am sure next year it will be even greater, now the lights are installed in the school rooms.

Signed
CHARLOTTE GULLIVER.

Electrical Gifts For Xmas

This year as never before the people of Digby County have a splendid opportunity to combine practical worth with the Spirit of the Christmas Season.

Hydro has brought cheap electricity to the homes of Digby and to many rural sections, and the housewife will expect and appreciate things Electrical to aid her in her household duties. They can be had in great variety, to perform many household tasks, from the Electric Washer, handling the family wash at minimum of labor and expense, down to the Electric Curling Iron.

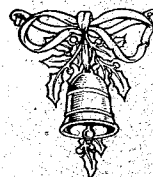

In the margin is published a list of Electrical Appliances which will be more than acceptable in the home, and which, have a utility and convenience far above the very small cost of operation.

Homes where several power units are installed may arrange for what is known as the "Power Rate", a rate much lower than ordinary lighting, while for small appliances the amount of current used will not make the monthly bill much larger.

If interested in Things Electrical for Christmas ask for information from any of the dealers in electrical appliances in Digby, or call on us for any assistance in making a selection.

21 Years At The Same Stand

This year THE YATES STUDIO offers the best products in its history.

The slogan adopted is "Better Pictures --- Newer Style Mountings --- Quicker Delivery". This should satisfy particular people.

These adorable "tiny tots" will never be the same again. Keep them with you always in photographs.

They say my "Baby Pictures" are pretty good, and I don't deny it.

Your Photograph as a Christmas Gift is worth to the recipient more than ten times what it costs you, and you are taking no chances on its being acceptable.

Your family and friends want your photograph. This is an obligation every thoughtful and considerate man should meet.

Christmas is not the only time when photographs are desired.

"Last Minute" patrons who postpone till a few days before Christmas, will be accommodated, if it is humanly possible.

Don't forget about the famous "Nova Scotia Scenic Gems" at The Little Art Gallery, in sepia or oil colors, tastefully framed. Such gifts are in rare good taste.

And then there is my Framing Department where your treasured prints will be preserved and doubled in value by a suitable frame.

I desire your patronage, if my work meets your approval.

Tell the Story

Scallop Fisheries Worth Over Ten Thousand A Month

The scallop fisheries are worth over ten thousand dollars a month to the boats engaged in the fisheries according to figures received by the Courier. The total catch for the nine open season months of 1927,

January 1st to June, September 15th to November 30th, was $98,497.

Since the opening of the season on September 15th several new boats have been added to the fleet, and there are now 33 boats in Digby County, and in addition there are several operating from the Annapolis side of the Basin.

The Magic Carpet

In those tales so familiar to childhood The Arabian Nights Entertainment, we read of a magic carpet which bore travelers upon it from place to place with wonderful speed. All one had to do was to step onto the carpet, issue a few words of command and lo! and behold the Carpet lifted and bore one on swiftly and silently to his or her destination.

In these modern days we still read these stories but instead of fairy tales we have the actual reality of being swiftly carried across the continent with a few buckets of water confined in an iron tank and a few shovelfuls of coal. While being carried across the continent we can hear "A concord of sweet sounds," reports from the marts of commerce and the latest news on the Radio.

Truly we live in a marvelous age and one has only to take a trip on the Continental Limited of the Canadian National Railways to realize it. This superb, all steel train, leaves Montreal daily at 10.15 P. M. and reaches Van cover the fifth day after, traversing a distance of some 2900 miles. While enroute, the traveller enjoys the latest development of science, this train being equipped with radio-library-compartment—observation car.

Seated at the car windows the scenery of the country unfolds like a fast panorama, fertile tracts, forest and stream, vast rolling prairie and snow-capped mountain peaks, all combining to make a wonderful picture and a delightful experience.

Illustrated booklets descriptive of the country passed through by the Canadian National Railways, serving as it does every province in Canada, can be obtained from any Canadian National Agent or from F. W. Robertson, General Passenger Agent, Moncton, N. B.

Charles W. Foster is spending the winter months in the United States. Mrs. Foster is visiting her sisters in Middleton during his absence.

A party of the young folks enjoyed an old fashioned sing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Franklin, Acaciaville on Saturday evening Nov. 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson and family left recently for Cambridge, Mass., where they will spend the winter.

The engagement is announced of Vera H. Woodman, formerly of this place and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodman to Milton E. Weigold, of Jamaica Plain, Mass. The wedding to take place in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Marshall entertained a large number of their friends on Saturday evening, Dec. 3rd. The time passed very quickly in games, music and dancing. Friends were present from Marshalltown, Acaciaville and Smith's Cove. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by several young matrons, and at a late hour the party dispersed for their homes after spending a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. John McGuire has returned home from Kentville where she was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Taylor.

J. B. Benjamin who has spent the past month here, left last week for the United States.

Mrs. Benjamin Franklin, of Acaciaville, spent Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Winchester.

Miss Stella Woodman, of Smith's Cove, spent a few days last week with Miss Blanche Woodman.

Miss Irene Comeau was a guest of Miss Helen McGregor, Smith's Cove, recently.

Mrs. Russell Woodman has returned from visiting friends in Bear River.

Mrs. George Winchester, of Smith's Cove, accompanied by Miss Lucca Winchester were guests of Mrs. B. Franklin on Wednesday.

New International And Interprovincial Long Distance Telephone Rates

In 1919 the majority of Telephone Companies operating in Canada and the United States adopted a uniform method of calculating rates for Long Distance Telephone Service. This method is known as the Classified Toll Rate System. The schedule of rates used in connection with this system was considerably higher than that in effect in Nova Scotia, and for that reason the Maritime Telegraph & Telephone Co., Ltd., in the interests of its subscribers did not adopt the system.

In October 1926 a new schedule of rates was put into effect under this system. This new schedule introduced many reductions in rates, and on December 1st, 1927, further reductions were made, particularly on Long Haul messages, thus enabling this Company to fall in line with almost all the other operating companies on the Continent, and to give its subscribers the benefit of the various features of this system. These features are:

Station to Station service given when the calling person requests, and receives connection between his telephone and a specified telephone in an exchange outside of this Province. This is the cheapest form of service, and will meet the needs of persons who may, for instance, wish to speak with a firm without reference to any particular member or employee of it.

Person to Person service is that with which telephone subscribers in the Province are familiar, covering the case where the calling person requests, and receives connection with a specified person (as distinct from a particular telephone) in an exchange outside of Nova Scotia. The rate for this form of service is about 25 per cent higher than that for the station to station service.

Messenger service given when the calling person requests, and receives, connection with a person in an exchange outside of the Province, who must be called to a telephone by messenger. The rate for this form of service is about 50 per cent higher than for station to station service; the cost of the services of the messenger is additional.

Appointment service given when the calling person requests, and receives, at a time stipulated when the call is originated connection with a person in an exchange outside of Nova Scotia. The rates for this form of service are the same as for messenger service.

The system also provides for reduced rates on Station to Station calls if the call is placed during the evening or night. The evening rate is effective from 7.00 to 8.30 p.m. and is about 75 per cent of the day rate, and the night rate is effective from 8.30 p.m. to 4.0 a.m. and is about 50 per cent of the day rate.

When it is impossible to complete a Person to Person or Messenger or Appointment call for some reason beyond the control of the Telephone Company, a small charge, called the Report Charge, is provided for to cover a portion of the cost of making the attempt to reach the required person. The conditions under which this Report Charge is made are: (1) when the address given is incorrect or insufficient to locate the required person; (2) when the called person refuses to talk after being located; (3) when the called person is not available at the telephone; (4) when the calling person is not available when the called person is secured within one hour of the placing of the call; (5) when the calling person refuses to talk after the called person has been secured; and (6) when the called person refuses to accept a "collect" or "reversed" call (that is a call which has been originated on the express stipulation that the called party will pay the charge for it) and the calling person also refuses to pay for it. The Report Charge is about 35 per cent of the station to station rate.

Users of out of provinces Long Distance service will be glad to find that the service is much more flexible than the old and in the majority of cases is much cheaper.

The reductions, it will be noted, are much more marked in the case of Long Haul messages than in the case of Short Haul. It is believed that this new system, with its greater flexibility and lower rates on Telephone business to out of provinces points, will recommend itself to Telephone users in the Provinces, and that they will appreciate the facilities afforded under the new system of making a selection of service suited to their particular requirements.

Extra Eggs Extra Profits

Every sack of Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash contains the correctly balanced feed to make hens lay most eggs. You get biggest profits out of Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash.

The base of Quaker Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash is pure oatmeal. This, with many other important ingredients, provides the right amounts of protein and carbohydrates which every money-making hen must have. Bone meal and calcium carbonate supply the minerals so necessary for heavy egg production. Those elements which the hen reproduces in eggs are fully restored to her. The Cod Liver Meal in Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash replaces missing sunlight during winter months, and its vitamins make all ingredients do better work.

Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash is finely ground. Easily digested. No waste. Hens eat it all. Gives you more eggs, bigger and stronger-shelled eggs, and of more uniform size. Therefore, it is the most economical feed you can buy. Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash and Ful-O-Pep Scratch Grains form the ideal combination to make heavy layers. Ask your dealer for them.

Many Moose Shot in Open Season

Forest Ranger Carl Miller reports that thirty moose have been taken out of the Bear River district up to Wednesday night. Of these only four were bulls. Of the cows reported about half of them were with calf.

In the vicinity of Digby, according to official reports, practically all of the cows shot were with calf. It is estimated that upwards of seventy moose, cows and bulls, have been shot in Digby county during the open season days in December.

Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Holdsworth Married Sixty Years

The 60th milestone in the wedded life of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Holdsworth, of Digby, was reached on Monday, Nov. 28th, when a celebration in their honor was held at the home of the happy couple on Carleton street.

They were married in the Caroline Street Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore, Maryland, on Nov. 28th, 1867, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Riley, pastor. They later removed to Digby where for many years Mr. Holdsworth conducted a successful business, and was active until his retirement about a year ago.

There are six children living—Mrs. Charles F. Lewis, St. John; George H., of Franklin Park, Mass.; William B., of Quebec City, but now spending a few days with his parents; Wesley L., of Digby; Warren A., of Lynn, Mass., and Miss Marbelle, at home; also eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Congratulations were received during the day, and in the evening a number of relatives and friends gathered at the home and a very enjoyable and social evening was spent. Refreshments were served.

The happy couple were remembered by friends both far and near and the large number of cheques, handsome gifts, beautiful flowers and messages received from those and absent members of the family was gratifying in the extreme.

Baptist Annual Christmas Trees Supper Next Tuesday Night

The annual Christmas Tree Supper and Sale held by the ladies of the Baptist church is advertised for Tuesday, December 13th. Supper will be served from six o'clock until all are fed, and provision has been made for a large number of diners. As the name denotes, the sale is of Christmas Gift things, made during the Fall by the ladies of the church, and a well assorted range of gifts will be offered for sale. Home made candy too and a tree laden with things for the children.

The ladies hope to reach the mark they set for themselves and have spared no pains or labor towards making the affair a success. On Tuesday, do your Christmas shopping and then take the whole family up to the Christmas Tree Supper.

Baptist Make Presentation to Departing Members

On Wednesday evening at the close of the mid week service at Digby United Baptist church presentations were made on behalf of the congregation to three members, Miss Adelaide Coggins, Miss Edrie Titus and Dr. H. L. Roberts, who are leaving Digby.

Mr. Maynard Denton made the presentation to the ladies, giving Miss Coggins a silver entree dish and Miss Titus a leather hand bag. Each, he said, would be missed in church circles, as members of the choir and as organists they had been faithful and valuable members and it was the common wish that they would find success in their new homes.

Pastor Bishop made the presentation to Dr. Roberts. On behalf of the congregation and several friends who desired to join with them he handed to the Doctor an ebony walking stick with silver mountings. Dr. Roberts has been a teacher in the Sunday School since shortly after coming to settle in Digby and the esteem in which he is held by the boys of his class is shared by all members of the church.

Mrs. Roberts Honored by Ladies Hospital Aid

At the business session of the Ladies Hospital Aid, held in the Court House last Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. H. L. Roberts tendered her resignation from the organization and as 2nd Vice President, which office she has held since the society was formed.

At the close of the business meeting afternoon tea was served and Mrs. Roberts was presented with a boudoir lamp in recognition of her efforts in the good work of the society.

Mrs. W. R. Dickie was elected to the office made vacant by Mrs. Roberts' resignation.

Fisheries Commission Meets In Digby

Forty seven delegates from the fishing districts of Digby, Annapolis and Kings counties presented their views on ways to improve the fishing industry before the Royal Commission which sat in Digby on Wednesday. Every phase of the industry appears to have been covered, from the methods of catching fish, harborage and protection to the disposal of them at market, and including all the details of the business, known only to practical fishermen.

As the session was called to order Wednesday morning Mayor Lynch welcomed the Commission, expressing on behalf of the town appreciation of the meeting of the Commission here to investigate the interests of all concerned in the industry. His own fishing was confined to the catching of trout, but he was quite sure that the compiling and considering of evidence to be given by delegates attending would bring information of value to the Commission in its task.

The Chairman, Hon. Mr. Justice A.H. McLean, thanked Mr. Lynch on behalf of his colleagues.

Witnesses were examined by Mr. G. Fred Pearson, Counsel for the Commission and there were in attendance Fisheries Inspector Marshall, and Mr. W. G. Ernest, M.P., representing the province.

Following are extracts from the official report, prepared by press representatives travelling with the Commission.

Desire for expert opinion on habits of lobsters and scallops, before alterations in season were granted, together with a size limit for the former sea food, were features of today's session of the Royal Commission investigating the fisheries of the Maritime Provinces and eastern Quebec. The sitting was the last in this Province, and the desire for further knowledge of a technical nature was similar to that seen in almost every other part of Nova Scotia. Fishermen have requested that they be taught better methods of catching, curing and marketing fish, methods of conserving the supplies of the commodity and protecting spawning grounds and the fish themselves.

Transportation costs figured also largely today, it being charged that the rates at the present time brought in revenue to the companies almost equal to the value of the products. Assistance of the Commission, in having these rates reduced was requested, as it was in securing for isolated communities on the Bay of Fundy shore, which were discussed today, and other sections as well, boats which would collect the catch or marketing and supply fishermen with salt and bait.

Coupled with their desire for information, fishermen expressed their realization of dwindling supplies, particularly of lobsters, and predicted the ultimate end of that industry if drastic measures were not taken to protect it. Modern methods of trapping, utilization of motor boats in collecting the catch and the increased number of traps, in their opinion, have outstripped reproduction, in some instances, less than one third as many were being caught with four times as many traps.

Miss Adelaide Coggins and Lloyd Phalen Married Yesterday

The marriage of Miss Adelaide Coggins daughter of Mrs. Laleah Clarke, to Mr. Lloyd Phalen, of Beachmont, Mass., took place at Digby United Baptist church on Thursday morning at eleven thirty o'clock. Rev. F. E. Bishop, performed the ceremony in the presence of a fashionable gathering.

Miss Coggins' bridal costume was of white tulle, with conventional veil and bouquet of Bridal Roses. She was attended by Miss Marriet Cambell, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Campbell, a pink, and was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. J. Lorne Peters.

The ushers were Mr. Kingsley Collins and Mr. Hubert Warner. Miss Edrie Titus played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served at the home of Mr. Peters, brother of Mrs. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. Phalen left for Yarmouth on the afternoon express to take boat for Boston today. Miss Coggins was formerly a member of the teaching staff of Digby schools and was popular with pupils and staff, as well as with a host of friends.

On Thursday night last week a Bridal Shower was held in Miss Coggins honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Warner, at which her friends gathered to extend their good wishes and to give her many pieces of china, glass, silver and other beautiful articles for house keeping.

THE DIGBY WEEKLY COURIER

An Independent Newspaper devoted to the interests of the town of Digby and surrounding country

THE DIGBY PRINTING AND PUBLISHING CO., LTD.

ROBERT C. MILLS
Managing Editor

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1927

Dr. Roberts

So long as the Digby General Hospital continues its work as an institution where the sick may come for relief and attendance, so long will Dr. Roberts be remembered in Digby. His departure to Springfield where he has engaged in practice which provides opportunities for further advancement in his profession, is a matter of general regret, both by the public and by his professional and social intimates, and he and Mrs. Roberts will be followed by the best wishes of many friends.

Three years ago, next May, the Digby General Hospital was organized as it is at present constituted. During the time since its organization it has grown in usefulness and service to the public, and has attained a degree of efficiency and a reputation for careful attendance to patients which is a credit to its staff and to its board of governors.

The inception of the Digby General Hospital was not unattended by doubts as to its possible success. In a small town a hospital is not always a financial success, whatever its other successes may be, and the Digby Hospital was organized as an experiment. Prominent in its organization were all the medical men in Digby. Dr. Roberts took a leading part and it is due in no small measure to his activity in its behalf, that it was organized successfully and to his equally earnest support of it that it has had so successful a history.

The Courier joins with people of all parts of the County in extending to Dr. and Mrs. Roberts all good wishes for their future happiness and success, and the hope that their remembrances of Digby will bring them back year after year to visit us.

The Best Argument

Commenting on an editorial in the Courier of December 2nd, "When Should We Get to Work?" Captain "Gus" Spurr, proprietor of the Myrtle House, pronounced it the best argument which has been published in the Courier in ten years. This is high praise, and a compliment which is not altogether deserved. There have been many articles published in the Courier during the last ten years which have been equally pertinent to the subject and their worth was proven by the results they accomplished, results which have assisted in the building up of Digby. The editorial complimented by Captain Spurr may also assist in doing some thing for Digby. It was written with that hope, but whether all that is hoped will be attained is another matter altogether.

Captain Spurr, being a hotel man and catering to tourists, can see the need of advertising. Some may say that Captain Spurr sees advantage to his hotel if the suggestions of the editorial are carried out, and that he does not think further. This is hardly fair. The Myrtle House, and all the other summer hotels and boarding houses have brought much business to the people of Digby. They made a profit for themselves while doing it. At least we hope they did and believe they did; but they are of value to Digby far greater than is realized.

A federal government department estimates that of every ten dollar bill spent by tourists that the hotels receive about one third of it; the rest is spent on pleasures and supplies.

This is proof that the town of Digby as a whole derives a large amount of business from tourists and is the reason why a large amount of the advertising done to boost Digby as a tourist centre should come from a general fund, assessed on all residents of the town. And not the town only, but the Municipality as well. If the Town Council should vote an appropriation for tourist advertising so should the Municipal Council and the Courier hopes that when the Municipal Council meets in Digby in January that a delegation of citizens from all sections of the Municipality will present a request for a sizeable contribution from Municipal funds for tourist promotion work.

COLE
TEA

It is a matter which should engage the attention of all who believe that the tourist business is an advantage to Digby. It is an advantage, no one can possibly put forward a reasonable argument that it is not, but it is only of value in proportion to the numbers who can be induced to come here year by year, and coming create a market for produce of the farms, of the sea and of all household arts.

The revenue to the housewives of Digby county from the sale of hand hooked rugs is alone a considerable amount of money, and when is added to this the revenue received from the sale of vegetables, or meats, of poultry products and of butter and milk the total is astounding.

More revenue can be obtained if more tourists can be brought here. They will come if told about what Digby county has to offer and the only way in which they can be told is by advertising our attraction—which brings us around the circle to where we started—more money to advertise with.

The Greatest Gift

Christmas, and it's gift problem, is with us once again. Christmas Eve in the majority of cases will, of course, find the problem solved. For hundreds of sufferers in Nova Scotia the greatest gift they could receive would be the Gift of Health! That gift we have in our power to give by buying Christmas Seals again this year. If every man and woman will buy a few of those attractive little health stamps, another year of vigorous and effective warfare against Tuberculosis in Nova Scotia will be assured. Has it occurred to you that every Christmas card and parcel placed in the mails without this little decorative seal lacks a token of the most precious offering within the power of human beings to give? And that is Health. It has been well said that the Christmas seal is evidence of a personal gift of health to the public. It is the most fitting expression of the Christmas spirit, of good-will and generosity ever devised. Buy Christmas seals and help the Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Commission in its great health giving and health-preserving campaign in this Province.

Sandy Cove

We regret to say at time of writing Mr. George Harrington is very ill.

Mrs. Chipman Saunders is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter McKay at Port Williams. Capt. Wm. Leary returned to his home in Liverpool on Friday. Rev. Joseph Hale and Mrs. Hale of Dartmouth, Halifax have been visiting Mrs. Amasa Eldridge for the past week. They returned home Friday.

The Ladies of the Baptist church held their annual Xmas tree in Gidney's hall on Friday. The proceeds amounted to $80.00.

Mrs. George Merritt and son, Kenneth visited her husband at the Digby hospital where Mr. Merritt had undergone a serious operation. We are pleased to say he is doing nicely.

Mrs. Arnold Morehouse spent a few days in Digby, guest of Mrs. Guy Morehouse.

MRS. CARRIE MACINTOSH

Digby lost one of its most well known and highly respected citizens Friday Dec. 9th, when at noon, after an illness extending over several months, Mrs. Carrie Macintosh passed away. Deceased who was born in Waterville, Kings county, 59 years ago, was twice married. After the death of her first husband, Augustus Winfield, she moved to Digby, where she married George B. Macintosh, who lost his life by drowning, in Digby harbor in the year 1897.

The deceased lady made a host of friends in Digby, and was a real friend to the poor, the sick and the infirm. She gave without stint to those in need, and among her numerous friends there is sorrow over the loss of a true and unselfish citizen, and during her last days she was repaid in part by the real concern and attention shown by her devoted friends.

She leaves six children, George Winfield, Digby; Augustus and Donald Winfield, Jordan Falls, Shelburne county; Mrs. Walter Hiltz, and Mrs. Dennis Jennings, Halifax; Miss Evelyn Macintosh, Saint John and one sister, Mrs. Mildred Dunham, Saint John.

The funeral was held on Sunday from her late residence, with interment in the Baptist cemetery. The services were held in the Baptist church with Rev. Mr. Bishop officiating. There was a profusion of beautiful floral tributes.

Young Resident of Annapolis Royal Dies

The sad passing of Mary Elizabeth Shipley, wife of Kimball Shipley took place Thursday morning Nov. 24th, at her home on Saint George street. Though critically ill for two weeks, Mrs. Shipley appeared to show improvement, which had given hope of her recovery. But the end came very suddenly. A son born on Nov. 13th, died at birth.

The deceased who was but twenty-seven years of age, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potter of Bear River, and was married in Digby three years ago. After residing one year in Boston, she moved here with her husband who is head clerk with W. S. Cummings.

She is survived by her husband and her parents. Three sisters, Mrs. Harry Burrell of Deep Brook, Misses Flora and Viola at home and three brothers, Leo and Lawrence of Boston and Joseph at home.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2.30 from their apartment. The services were conducted by Rev. Father L. Graham, and interment in St. Louis cemetery.

The floral tributes were very beautiful.

The Magic Carpet

In those tales so familiar to childhood The Arabian Nights Entertainment, we read of a magic carpet which bore travelers upon it from place to place with wonderful speed. All one had to do was to step onto the carpet, issue a few words of command and lo! behold the Carpet lifted and bore one on swiftly and silently to his or her destination.

In these modern days we still read these stories but instead of fairy tales we have the actual reality of being swiftly carried across the continent with a few buckets of water confined in an iron tank and a few shovelfuls of coal. While being so carried across the continent we can hear "A concord of sweet sounds", reports from the marts of commerce and the latest news on the Radio.

Truly we live in a marvelous age and one has only to take a trip on the Continental Limited of the Canadian National Railways to realize it. This superb, all steel train, leaves Montreal daily at 10.15 P. M. and reaches Vancouver the fifth day after, traversing a distance of some 2900 miles. While enroute, the traveler enjoys the latest development of science, this train being equipped with radio—library—compartment—observing car.

Seated at the car windows the scenery of the country unfolds like a vast panorama, fertile tracts, forest and stream with rolling prairie and snow-capped mountain peaks, all combining to make a wonderful picture and a delightful experience.

Illustrated booklets descriptive of the country passed through by the Canadian National Railways, serving as it does every province in Canada, can be obtained from any Canadian National Agent or from F. W. Robertson, General Passenger Agent, Moncton, N. B.

So much more vigor

—when the system is cleansed of poisons we all have

Do you know that poisons form all the time in your system? They get into the blood stream and so rob you of the vigor, life, youth and energy you should have. Hardly anyone escapes them. Food wastes accumulate and fermentation takes place. As many as 36 of these ever-forming poisons are already known to science.

But nature has provided a natural sort of antidote. In a scientifically pure state this antidote is available to everybody under the trade name of Nujol. Nujol is a unique substance unlike anything else known to man. It cannot be absorbed by the body or any of the organs of the body. At the same time, it has an affinity for body poisons. It takes hold of them, absorbs them, and carries them out of the system safely and harmlessly. It also softens waste matter and brings about normal evacuation of the intestines. Gets rid of food wastes, tends to heal and soothe irritated membranes. Contains no drugs or medicines. Absolutely harmless.

Perfectly by the Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Nujol contains no drugs or medicine. It's in a class by itself. You can take it with perfect safety under any conditions. It won't cause gas or griping pains, or affect the stomach or kidneys. Every corner druggist has Nujol. Make sure you get the genuine. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. Don't delay, get Nujol today.

SCOUT NOTES

The scouts are certainly taking a great interest in their work. Four new scouts passed their tests at the usual Friday meeting and special mention is due Martin Barnes for the fine manner in which he passed.

It was decided to have a Xmas tree and lots of fun Monday evening following Xmas and we are all looking forward to a good time.

The papers written about the "Deer" were a treat, and the boys enjoyed them. The subject for next night is the "Goose."

The Good Scouts look after the Boy Scouts. A goodly number of the business men of our town contributed to a fund collected to pay for a stove and fuel, also to put the chimney of the Boys Club in good repair.

The boys wish to thank them for their kindness.

Victoria and Vancouver Mecca for Tourists

FLOWERS BLOOM ALL WINTER

A Christmas rose plucked in the garden is no novelty in the flower vase of a Victoria or Vancouver automobile, for the climate of these two British Columbia cities is so mild during the winter that both claim eternal summer. The golfer can drive, approach the green, put on a real grass green practically every day in the year, and hundreds of miles of splendid roads are in first class condition the year round for motoring. The mild climate is largely due to the warming influence of the Japan current and protecting range of mountains. Victoria, capital of British Columbia, is a city of rare charm with its beautiful drives and residential sections. Its first class golf courses to which access is easily obtained by the player, its unique Chinese quarter, its superb Hindu, its ivy-covered Empress Hotel and its imposing parliament buildings. Both the Victoria Golf Club and the Colwood Golf and Country Club have entertained thousands of guests in a single year, and golfers stopping at the Empress may play at both upon payment of a small greens fee. Victoria is noted for its magnificent drives leading through beautiful streets, along the ocean's shores and far into the interior of the island.

Victoria is at the southern tip of Vancouver Island, named after Captain George Vancouver, of the British Navy, who discovered it in 1792. Its trees, among them the stately Douglas fir which towers 800 feet above the roads over which the traveller glides, are magnificent, some of them being 6 or 7 feet in diameter. Century-old cedars and gnarled oaks of great age are conspicuous features of the landscape, and miles of gorse, or Scotch broom, line the highways.

Like Victoria, Vancouver has been a wonderful road builder and has hundreds of miles of splendid automobile roads of the finest macadam. Vancouver is surrounded by towering mountains and the famous "Lions" twin snow-capped peaks are one of the many scenic beauties of a most enterprising, bustling and interesting city. The "Lions," also called the "Lions Gate" and the "Two Sisters," tower 6,500 feet above Vancouver, and an Indian legend has it that as long as the "Two Sisters" stand guard over Vancouver, just so long with Canada's greatest Pacific port thrive and develop. Victoria is the site of the Crystal Gardens, erected several years ago by the Canadian Pacific Railway and which have become the social centre of the City. The Gardens are equipped with a magnificent 150-foot swimming pool, completely covered by a canopy of glass. Here the inhabitants of Victoria and visitors flock in thousands to enjoy the sports facilities of the institution. Dancing and other forms of entertainment are always in progress. Here, too, are staged swimming meets that within the past few years have become international in aspect.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Adams of Deep Brook were the guests of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Bacon, on Sunday.

Fisheries Commission

"The men, generally, favored the introduction of an inspection system for salt and fish, both for their own protection, that the 'man who brought in the highest fish should secure the best returns, and that he should be protected in the markets."

Three instances of co-operative effort were reported in Nova Scotia two in Yarmouth County, and one at Centreville, Digby County. The first two have proved very successful, one having operated for ten years and the other for four, paying dividends each year on the lobsters which they handled.

The third enterprise handles fresh fish and has encountered difficulties, owing to universal low prices in all markets.

Combination of other buyers, to force artificial purchase prices on the company, was suggested as another reason by a witness today.

Co-operation among the dealers in fish has been attempted only once, and then for a period of about six weeks. They proved a failure as it is alleged members of the association broke agreements and prices again toppled.

Costs of gasoline were said today to be too high by witnesses. King's, Annapolis and Digby County, as they had been by men from other sections and the Commission was requested to investigate this matter especially in view of low prices said to be prevailing in the United States.

In an effort to cut-costs of production fishermen asked that all duties and sale taxes on supplies used by fishermen be removed. Cordage and net prices also were complained of at various times but these did not enter into the discussion today to any great extent.

In addition to their troubles with production and marketing the fishermen reported actual dangers to life and limb, and among the requests that have been made are those for a Compensation Act; an Act making it possible for them to receive assistance under the Sick Mariners' Fund; insurance on their boats and other things of a similar nature.

Heavy freights across from Digby to St. John are the order of the day. In Halifax on Monday, Mr. F. G. J. Comeau, General Passenger Agent of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, told the Courier that the amount of west bound freights being handled by the D. A. R. and Express service was greater this month than ever before. The freight department officials are putting forth every effort to secure business and are meeting with excellent success. Competition with other lines is keen, but the D. A. R. service recommends itself to shippers and is getting the business.

Make This Your Last Day of Constipation

"Fruit-a-tives" gives Sure, Positive Relief

MRS. H. GODIN

"After suffering many years from constipation, I was advised to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. All my ills are gone now. I am fresh and in good health. I tried all kinds of remedies, but only 'Fruit-a-tives' brought back my health. In appreciation I am ready to certify that 'Fruit-a-tives' lives up to every claim." Such is the sincere testimony of Mrs. Henri Godin, 34 McGuire St., Montreal.

If your body is handicapped by weak intestines—if you have headaches, dizzy spells, feel dependent, unable to enjoy work or play, by all means try "Fruit-a-tives". It is the ideal tonic—fructose—the most natural medicine to restore you to health, because it is made from pure, fresh fruit juices intensified and blended with tonics, nothing else. Natural, gentle, safe. Step into your druggist's. Buy a 25c or 50c box. Make Mrs. Godin's happy experience come true for you, also.

WORK on the erection of the Minas Basin Pulp and Paper Company's plant at Hantsport has begun, together with work on the railway siding connecting the plant with the main line of the Dominion Atlantic Railway.

The value of the Western Canadian grain yield this year is figured at $1,600,000,000 by a financial firm making a survey of conditions at Winnipeg. Wheat is put at $503,804,725; oats at $165,428,382; barley at $287,048; rye at $18,628,381, and flax at $1,935,215. Hay and other grains are included in the grand total.

The Eastern International Dog Sled Derby will be held this year at Quebec City, February 20, 21 and 22, according to information given out by the tourist department of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The leading drivers from all parts of the Continent will take part. The race is over a 150-mile course with an average of 40 miles a day.

Montana farmers are hauling grain to stations on the Canadian Pacific Railway lines just north of the International boundary line in South-western Saskatchewan. Some 50,000 bushels are on the move there on sale to the Wheat Pool. It is remarkable that the Montana farmers are doing the hauling and receiving about $5 per load more than if delivered to the elevators located along the Montana route.

"The tourist crop is the next best crop to that of wheat in the Canadian West," said C. B. Foster, passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway, visiting Winnipeg recently. "Canadians are now capitalizing our splendid winters," he said. "It used to be our custom to decry them, but we have since learned their appeal to the stranger as well as ourselves and are profiting by it."

Quebec City is preparing for a record winter sports season, according to Jack Strathdee, newly appointed winter sports director at the Chateau Frontenac. Mr. Strathdee comes to his new field of activity with a wealth of experience, having promoted outdoor sports in the Muskoka Lakes region and more recently at the French River Bungalow Camps of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Saskatchewan heads the provinces of Canada in growth of revenue from tourist-traffic, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, dealing with the calendar year 1926. The gain over the previous year was over 100 per cent, while Manitoba was the only other province with a revenue increase of more than 25 per cent. The tourist business for the whole of Canada has risen from $33,723,700 in 1926 to $102,245,450 last year. It is thought to contribute $100,000,000 to Canada's favorable balance of trade.

Of Canada's four great sources of wealth—field, forest, mine and stream—the forest has steadily pushed forward until it now holds second place, particularly in the exports from the Dominion. For the 12 months ended September 30th last, grain and grain products exported were valued at $161,000,000; metals $100,000,000; and a new print of $120,000,000, to which should be added, to show the whole exported wealth of the forests, manufactured and unmanufactured wood valued at $184,000,000, making the forest aggregate $280,000,000.

THE POWER PLANT AT UPPER FALLS, SISSIBOO RIVER.

Electrical Gifts Will Solve Your Christmas Problems

Electrical Household Appliances Lighten the Labor of Home Making, are Gifts That Give "Her" Leisure Hours

At no season of the year is the question "What to Buy" so all encompassing a topic. From tiny tots, spending their first Christmas pennies to the heads of the household, there is for weeks a studying of finances, a compiling of Christmas lists and a general anxiety to make Christmas Gifts appropriate, useful and of value in every way. At this Christmas season, different from all that have gone before in Digby, the shopper is aided in selecting by the opening of the Digby County Power Board hydro plant at Sissiboo. All along the main Yarmouth-Halifax highway from Weymouth to Victoria Bridge and along several branch roads and through all the town of Digby power lines bring cheap electricity to the homes of Digby County. Hydro, this year is King, and business houses in Digby and Weymouth have added to their service lines of domestic appliances to utilize this power and make the labor of home making light.

Digby County Power Board published in this issue there is a list of nearly fifty electrical appliances which are labor saving and convenient. In the home, for the workshop and the farm electricity may be made to lighten labor and save time, and, depending on the purse of the purchaser, there is an electrical appliance for every purpose, for every member on your Christmas list.

A family gift is a vacuum sweeper, electric range, or a water or air heater. For the dining table there is a variety of pieces, percolators, grill, hot plate, toaster, tea pot, for the kitchen a dish washer or a washing machine, an ironing machine or small electric iron. For the man of the house an electric drink mixer or a cigar lighter is an appropriate gift, while for the ladies there are curlers, wavers, vibrators, and many other conveniences.

Every boy will be proud of an electric toy.

In the advertisement of the

for Christmas do not overlook the important need of having your house wired to use hydro conveniently. Even if your home is already wired for service you will find additional outlets a wonderful convenience, and the chances are that the present wiring could be greatly improved by the installation of new outlets and the use of decorative fixtures. If your home is not wired for hydro now is the time to get it done. The cost is not great and the convenience over oil lamps to say nothing of the minimized danger from fire, makes it more than worth while to change over to electricity.

A number of dealers have installed electrical appliances which fill the demand which will be made, the wiring contractors will be glad to make estimates and secure your contract for wiring your homes as a Christmas Gift for the family, and the best advice that can be given at this time is

"Make This an Electrical Christmas."

Electrical Gifts For Xmas

This year as never before the people of Digby County have a splendid opportunity to combine practical worth with the Spirit of the Christmas Season.

Hydro has brought cheap electricity to the homes of Digby and to many rural sections, and the housewife will expect and appreciate things Electrical to aid her in her household duties. They can be had in great variety, to perform many household tasks, from the Electric Washer, handling the family wash at minimum of labor and expense, down to the Electric Curling Iron.

In the margin is published a list of Electrical Appliances which will be more than acceptable in the home, and which, have a utility and convenience far above the very small cost of operation.

Homes where several power units are installed may arrange for what is known as the "Power Rate", a rate much lower than ordinary lighting, while for small appliances the amount of current used will not make the monthly bill much larger.

If interested in Things Electrical for Christmas ask for information from any of the dealers in electrical appliances in Digby, or call on us for any assistance in making a selection.

Baronet

The King "Baronet" Model is unquestionably the greatest dollar for dollar value in radio today. It incorporates every essential feature—every worthwhile modern improvement—at a price well under one hundred dollars. The "Baronet" is a six tube stabilized tuned radio frequency receiver with two tuned radio frequency stages, detector, and direct stages of special transformer coupled audio amplification. The entire tube socket panel is full floating. The handsome cabinet, with logging scale illuminated from within, is finished in blended two-tone to match either mahogany or walnut furniture. If price is an important consideration, by all means choose the "Baronet." A demonstration will convince you that low price and satisfactory performance can be successfully combined. Price without accessories, $95.00. Console model, including built-in loud speaker, but without accessories $175.00. Fully Licensed in Canada and U.S.A.

Air Travel And The Railways

The recent development in aeronautics has given rise to much speculation regarding the place which that science will occupy with regard to transportation and the effort it will have on existing railways and steamship lines.

The aeroplane and airship are only of recent date but for the short time that flying has been actually in existence the progress has been truly remarkable. The Atlantic has been crossed six times, four West to East and twice East to West, regular mail routes have been established and forecast patrol and topographical surveys have been undertaken with success. It would seem from the present state of the art that the airplane and airship will be greatly limited in carrying power and their great factor is speed. Already we have airships nearly 700 feet long, as long as our most modern ocean greyhounds, and aeroplanes of immense wing spread powered by two or more motors. It does not seem that the airship can be made very much longer as already the length of existing units creates tremendous strains on the frame work. It is possible however that some new alloy or metal will be discovered with tremendous strength that will enable airships of greater length to be constructed and consequently greater lifting power, but the greater the length the more unwieldy it would become, so that a new gas will be evolved with a great many times the lifting power of either hydrogen or helium but this does not seem probable.

It would appear that the railways and steamship will continue to be the great commerce carriers for some time to come and that the airplane and airship will be delegated to the task of rapid transportation of mail, express matter and passengers. The number of people and the quantity of mail and express matter that can be accommodated, however, will be greatly limited. Of course, by reason of great speed, greater numbers of turns around trips can be made thus increasing the carrying capacity within time limits and large numbers of airplanes could be utilized, but this would seem to be mitigated against on economical grounds, at least for the present.

The railways of the country are constantly improving their equipment with the object of providing rapid, economic transportation.

The old class locomotive of the Canadian National Railways is a step in this direction and it is held by competent authorities that the development of the locomotive is far from reaching its maximum. Every day new inventions are being made and the steam turbine seems to hold out possibilities. The present trend is towards higher pressures and larger boiler capacity. Inventors are at work with the idea of developing a gas driving locomotive that is one which condenses its steam and turns the resulting water back to the boiler. The savings that can be expected from this is apparent when it is pointed out that the best practice in condensing engines results in the consumption of as high as 35 lbs of steam per horse power per hour as against 17 to 20 lbs and in some cases less for condensing engines.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

Victoria Beach

OBITUARY

The angel of death called again on our community on November 26th, taking with it Mr. Manassah Weirs. He recently underwent an operation at Digby Hospital, but it was found there that he was suffering from that dread disease Cancer and was beyond cure. He was moved to the home of his daughter Mrs. Stanley McCaul, Victoria Beach, where all was done that loving hands could do but despite all on Nov. 26th, he passed on to his reward. Mr. Weirs was the eldest son of the late Benjamin and Annie (McGraw) Weirs. Besides his widow formerly Esther Snow, of Parker's Cove he leaves six children Bessie, Mrs. Stanley McCaul and Minnie, Mrs. Howard Ellis, of Victoria Beach, Beatrice, Mrs. Frank Poole, of St. Croix Cove, N.S., Ethel, Mrs. A. Williams, of Sissiboo, N.S., Austin, of Sissiboo, N.S., and Arthur of Annapolis Royal. He also leaves three brothers and one sister, Isaiah, William and George Weirs and Mrs. Seretha Ellis. Funeral services were conducted Nov. 27th, by Rev. Mr. Dean, Gr. Ferry and Rev. Mr. Hartlin, of Stony Beach. The text was taken from Revelation XIV Verse XIII. The hymns were "Asleep in Jesus" "Sun of My Soul" "Abide with Me." Mr. Weirs was a member of the Methodist church, a good church worker and died trusting in his Lord. Our sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones in the loss of a kind loving husband, father and brother. Interment at Victoria Beach Cemetery.

King Cole In A New Role

If Charles Dickens were to come to life again and were to write another book, what a rush there would be by the fiction reading public to secure a copy of it; recollections of Mr. Pickwick, David Copperfield and Oliver Twist would be a certain assurance of that. The writer's name alone would be sufficient assurance to readers that anything new that he would produce would well repay a reading.

And so it is in any line of effort. The fact that one has excelled in the past is assurance that his further efforts will be successful too. On this principle, the public may be expected to give a spontaneous and hearty welcome to the new "KING COLE" COFFEE; the fact that "King Cole" tea has given them so much pleasure ever since it has been on the market, will make them wish to see whether the name "King Cole" on a tin of coffee means the same thing as it does on a package of tea, and they will be encouraged to make this test by the conviction that the producers of "King Cole" tea, would not lend the name "King Cole" to a coffee of any but the highest merit.

The same "King Cole" then on a tin of coffee should be the open sesame to public friendship. It should be a certificate of character to all and sundry who have ever used "King Cole" tea.

The new "King Cole" coffee is now on sale at your grocers in pound and half pound tins—tins especially made to preserve the fragrance and flavor of their contents. These tins you will easily recognize on your grocers' shelves by the picture of old King Cole on their labels.

Popular In Western Homes

The Family Herald and Weekly Star is the popular weekly in Western Canada. It deserves its popularity, for it is the best value in the world today at one dollar a year. A weekly newspaper covering the news of the entire world, a family magazine that provides the very best of stories and other features that interest every member of the family, and an agricultural journal superior to any purely agricultural paper in Canada, all in one big paper of 72 pages each week, and all for one dollar a year is surely some bargain. Every home in this western country would be the better of its weekly visit.

15 Eggs to the Dozen

Here's the way one man, who feeds Quaker Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash, expresses his increased production: "I gather 15 eggs for every dozen I got before I used Quaker Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash."

The base of Quaker Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash is pure oatmeal. To this are added many other important ingredients which go to form a "perfectly balanced ration"—a mixture which supplies all the necessary elements for heavy egg production.

Bone meal and calcium carbonate furnish the all-important minerals. Cod Liver Meal, high in vitamin D, takes the place of sunshine and makes it possible for your hens to produce as many eggs in winter (when eggs are high) as they do in the spring.

Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash is the cheapest feed you can use because IT PRODUCES MOST EGGS FOR LEAST MONEY.

Besides being perfectly balanced, it is finely ground and thoroughly mixed. Your hens cannot pick it apart—every mouthful is perfectly balanced, and because of these features less feed is required.

Consider the economy of Ful-O-Pep Mash when you compare its price with cheaper feeds. Eighty pounds will go as far as one hundred pounds of an ordinary mixture. For the sake of "More Eggs and Greater Profits" feed

Christmas is Imminent

But you can still have your Photograph made in time for Christmas—perhaps even as late as the 22nd, next Thursday

Those beautiful framed views of Digby and other parts of Nova Scotia are popular as gifts. They serve the double purpose of gratifying the recipient and exhibiting the beauty of this lovely summer paradise.

Doubtless you will receive pictures among your gifts. Their value will be more than doubled by tasteful framing. My prices are right and my stocks are carefully chosen.

PAUL YATES Photographer

It Can Be Done

A death sentence! Yes—only a few years ago that is what everyone thought when the doctor made his diagnosis and said: "Tuberculosis." Today, happily, we know that Tuberculosis is both preventable and curable. And because of this the Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Commission is waging a victorious campaign to make and keep this Province Tuberculosis free. Funds are necessary to achieve this, and the work is so worth while that every citizen should be eager and willing to help finance the movement. By the sale of Christmas Seals it is hoped to raise at least $10,000. This year. There should be no difficulty whatever in accomplishing this. Buy Christmas seals for your Yuletide correspondence, and every seal you purchase is helping the Commission to drive out Tuberculosis from our Province. It can be done. Do it now!

Running Rights And The C. P. R.

This is the third of a series of articles written for the Courier by Mr. Clarence Jamieson, Ottawa.

Certain of the Maritime press have stated that the Courier and the writer are opposed to the granting to the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. of running rights over the Canadian National from St. John to Halifax. It would be more accurate to say that we are in favour of whatever action will tend best to promote the interests of the Maritimes, and especially Western Nova Scotia and we believe a through transcontinental system via St. John and Digby would serve this end. The system is now complete, save for the provision of a suitable service between St. John and Digby for passengers and freight. Whether this should take form of the car ferry, as operated between the Mainland and Prince Edward Island (where the cars run onto the steamer and neither passengers or freight are disturbed until their destination is reached); would, of course, be a matter for the technical officers of the Company to determine. Such a link would give the Canadian Pacific the most rapid service on this continent between Vancouver and Halifax—and in this day of super-speed the old saw, "to save time, is to lengthen life" seems to have seized upon the minds of business men and travellers generally. The Bay ferry then would seem to be the one matter requiring solution, and the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., has solved, in a satisfactory manner, many a more difficult one. Indeed the overcoming of difficulties; the shortening of their through routes of travel; expedition in the handling of freight and passenger traffic; the safety of its patrons, and "service" generally, has gained for it the enviable position which it holds wherever its locomotive steam or its ships may dock.

The passing of the Canadian Pacific Railway's trains over the lines of the Canadian National from St. John to Moncton, and thence to Halifax, would but duplicate the excellent service now afforded by the latter Company through that territory. That the present service there is adequate, no one would question. The only result of such a duplication of train service would be to divide between the two Companies the station to station traffic. This would in turn mean a reduction in the receipts of the National system with a corresponding increase in its annual deficit which of course could only be met by taxation, or additions to debt. In this all have a very direct interest. The through Canadian Pacific service, via St. John and Digby, on the other hand would afford the Company the shorter and (with suitable Bay equipment) the faster route to Halifax, which vies with St. John as one of the two great Canadian Atlantic seaports, and with its harbor and facilities must be expected to share in the heavy import and export trade, as well as passenger traffic on our seaboard. In the past there has been more than a healthy rivalry between Halifax and St. John, and due to their respective attitudes neither has perhaps, obtained all to which it was entitled, and certainly not all, or nearly all, which they could have secured in the way of Federal aid. The result has not been helpful to either of the cities concerned, nor to the provinces in which they are situated. A spirit of greater toleration and understanding has no doubt arisen out of the recent conference of Provincial premiers held at Ottawa, where each Province of the Dominion was represented, and the problems of all fully discussed. It would indeed be a fortunate thing if Halifax and St. John were able to compose their difference and agree upon a compromise, which would enable them to act jointly, instead of as too long in the past pulling apart. Then their influence jointly great, in opposition to each other neutralized, would be productive of results highly advantageous to each.

The Courier's interest lies chiefly in the development of Western

Nova Scotia. It believes that this development, in no small measure, depends upon a hand-in-hand policy all along the line. It believes that the incorporation of the Dominion Atlantic Railway into the Canadian Pacific's transcontinental system would give a great impetus to this much-to-be desired movement, and that in striving for the good of all, old jealousies and antagonisms should be forgotten.

Give The Young A Chance

From ten to twenty years is the most trying age for tuberculosis. From 5 to 9 years deaths from T. B. for boys and girls are about equal. From 10 to 14 years 50 per cent more girls die from it than boys. From 15 to 19 nearly 100 per cent more girls die from it than boys.

It can be stopped. To do it they must be educated to know how to prevent it. It must be taken in its earliest stage and cured. They must receive proper treatment. They must be taken out of contact with T. B. patients. They must receive medical examination. They must be saved before it is too late.

The Young must have a chance. The Tuberculosis Commission is trying to do just that — and trying to stamp out Tuberculosis. YOU CAN HELP BY CHRISTMAS SEALS ON YOUR CHRISTMAS PARCELS. Buy Christmas seals and help to stamp out the White Plague.

Just a week, seven shipping days, and the Christmas rush will be at its height. Have you made your Xmas purchases? Probably not. The weather has not been "Christmassy" and you put it off. Start today. The early shopper saves in labor, in worry, and in the mistakes of hasty buying.

Cattle Shipments to St. John

Twenty-three head of fine beef cattle collected in this district by F. S. Smith, were shipped on the Empress on Tuesday to make sure that St. John will have its Christmas beef. They were fine animals as likely looking a lot as Mr. Smith had handled in a long time and a credit to the beef raisers of the County. In all this autumn Mr. Smith has shipped fifty-four head of beef stock to St. John, to Mac Donald Bros., who have given him instructions for another shipment, to sail on December 22nd.

The Alms House Christmas Tree

The Annual Christmas Tree for the inmates of the Alms House, Marshalltown will be held on the evening of Dec. 24th. Superintendent and Mrs. Thomas have always been generously assisted in making Christmas a season of festivity at the Alms House and no doubt will be this year. Those who wish to send a bit of Christmas cheer to the inmates will kindly leave their donations at A. A. Shortliffe's at later than Friday, December 23rd.

Mrs. Carrie MacIntosh

In the obituary notice of Mrs. Carrie MacIntosh which appears in another column, it should have read as follows. Her first husband, Augustus Winfield was drowned in Digby in 1897. She then left Digby and married George E. MacIntosh who died at Jordan Falls, Shelburne, Co. in 1915.

Instead of six, she leaves seven children George Winfield of Digby, Augustus and Donald Winfield and Raymond MacIntosh of Jordan Falls, Shelburne, Co. Mrs. Walter Hiltz, and Mrs. Dennis Jennings, Halifax and Miss Evelyn MacIntosh St. John.

More Avenues Of Trade For Canada Sought

More avenues of trade for Canada are being sought by the King Government. What has been made this year two or three European countries are in process of negotiation, and some success has been achieved in a deal with Cuba whereby the potato exporters of the Maritime Provinces particularly are benefitted.

Important efforts are expected to be made next year to get a larger share of the trade with Central and South America. A careful survey of which field was recently concluded by F. C. T. O'Hara, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce. While the provision of better steamship facilities between Canada and those countries is essential, the arrangement of closer trade relations by way of treaties will greatly assist.

A review of trade with those countries in the six months ended September 30 last shows that Canada's total trade with Central and South America was nearly $22,000,000, of which $13,700,024 were exports to the Latin countries, and $14,299,570 were imports from those countries.

Showered

Friends of Mr and Mrs George Muise, whose marriage was celebrated at St. Patrick's church on Wednesday morning of last week, tendered them a surprise Wedding Shower at the home of Mr and Mrs Harry Williams on Friday evening last. Upwards of thirty guests had gathered at the Williams home when Mr and Mrs Muise, invited by an old pretext, and to stay for "only a few minutes" entered the darkened house.

Immediately they were surrounded by friends who congratulated them on their happiness and the bride was ordered to unwrap the many gifts which had been placed on a table for their acceptance. After an hour of this pleasant task, during which they received a host of good advice; the bride and groom thanked the donors of many gifts, quite enough to start house keeping. The remainder of the evening was passed in cards and dance numbers; and serving of refreshments.

Miss Jaeger of Smiths Cove was a visitor in Digby several days this week renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs S B McGregor and daughter Annie visited friends in Kentville and Halifax last week.

Mrs. John MacGuire returned from a visit to Kentville where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Taylor.

Don't forget the dance at Ocean Gardens Thursday night, December 22nd.

BOY SCOUTS

Second class work, carried on diligently, was the principal work undertaken at the weekly meeting of Digby Troop Boy Scouts at their meeting last Friday night. There were 29 in attendance. Harold Cowan, Edgell Williams and Alfred Dickie passed their Kings Game test, the latter in a very creditable manner.

The Scouts have been collecting gifts of toys and other cheer for distribution among children whom Santa Claus may forget and on Christmas Eve will go out to fulfill the pleasant task of distributing what they have collected.

Richard Lynch won points for having the best essay on "The Goose." While the essays were being read two visitors dropped in and heard a few things about Canada's famous game bird which they may not have known before. The Scouts always like to have visitors. The essay for next week is on the Bear.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband William A. Stanton, who departed this life Dec. 27, 1927.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the branches gently wave,
Lies the one I loved so dearly,
In his lonely silent grave.

Just five years ago, dear husband,
Since you left this world of care,
Gone to be with you dear Saviour,
And you loved ones over there.

Oh and oft my thoughts do wander
To a grave not far away
Where they laid my darling husband
Just five years ago today.

What is home without a husband
All the things the world may send,
But when I lost my husband,
I lost my dearest friend.

Friends may think I have forgotten,
When at times they see me smile,
But they little know the sorrow,
That the smile hides all the while.

He will never be forgotten.
He will never be forgotten.
Kindest thoughts will always linger.
Round the grave where he is laid.

Inserted by his widow Mrs. Chloe Stanton.

Annual Meeting Of The Digby County Farmers Association Held

The Annual meeting of the Digby County Farmers Association was held at the Court House on last Thursday with the President A. J. Cornwell in the chair.

On account of the very heavy roads the attendance was small. Mr. Spicer of the Agricultural Department, Agent for Yarmouth and Shelburne Counties and Mr. Steele representing the Federal Department of Agriculture were present.

The Executive and financial reports were read, received and adopted. The President gave his annual report which was also received and adopted.

The old body of Directors, Messrs J. J. Wallis, Frank Jones, A. R. Turnbull, E. J. Warner, J. O. Turnbull, James Rice, Byron Robbins, H. C. McNeill, J. M. Roope, W. W. DeLong, W. A. Bacon, A. J. Cornwell, Goudy Nichols, James Trevo, Herbert Theriault, Casswell Denton, Frank Gates, Otis Bell and William Jack were re-elected for 1928.

Mr. Harvey Chisholm was elected a Delegate to attend the Nova Scotia Farmers Association and Mr. Goudy Nichols was elected a substitute.

Messrs Jonathan Letteney and D. C. McKay were elected Auditors for the ensuing year.

Mr. Herman Theriault gave a full report of the proceedings of the Nova Scotia Farmers Association in 1927.

Mr. Spicer and Mr. Steele both addressed the meeting in connection with the formation of Calf and Swine Clubs, expressing the opinion that from their observation up to date they believed Swine Clubs would be best adapted to this District, and stated that when the members of the Association had ascertained that they could get sufficient members to form these clubs they would be glad to return and lend their assistance in organizing the same.

A resolution was passed to be placed in the hands of the Delegate attending the Nova Scotia Farmers Association requesting that the open season on deer be increased to one month on account of the damage being done in some sections by deer in this District.

Undermanned

The Courier is able to cite on reliable authority that it is the opinion among fishermen in this vicinity that the life boat at the Bay View Life Saving Station is at present undermanned.

It is stated that during the recent storm the lifeboat crew rescued several fishermen whose boats had gone adrift, the crew of six men were unable to save the fisherman's boat without calling two residents of the vicinity to assist in hauling the craft to safety on the beach.

Schools Close For Christmas Holidays

Digby school, closed on Wednesday for the Christmas holidays and will reopen on the Thursday after New Years. The closing and reopening days are changed from former custom by order of the department of Education, Halifax.

On Tuesday afternoon the several classes held their Christmas Tree entertainments, with the exchange of cards and small gifts. Short Christmas programs were also presented. At all the rooms many visitors attended to assist in the Christmas fun.

On Wednesday morning roll call was held and school dismissed to their vacation, and many of the teachers left on the morning and afternoon trains to spend their Christmas at their homes or with friends.

Councillor Hillman Talks On Assessment

EDITOR OF THE COURIER:

Permit me as a municipal councillor, to address the ratepayers of this municipality on a matter that calls for their closest attention. It is in reference to the assessment of Culloden, the district I have the honor to represent, and indirectly to the assessment of the entire municipality.

The history of assessment in the county of Digby for the past two years is not a pleasant memory, but rather a long continued battle between the people, desiring only fairness and equality and on the other hand men who although their intentions may have been of the best, time has shown that their judgment has been poor. To All Our Friends

A Merry Christmas

1927 Licenses Extended

Provisions incorporated in the Motor Vehicle Act at the last session of the Provincial Legislature, which gave the Minister of Highways authority to extend the expiration date of Motor Vehicle Licenses, have been taken advantage of by the Honourable Percy C. Black, Minister of Highways. By an Order dated December 16, 1927, Motor Vehicle Permits and Number Plates which would otherwise expire on December 31, 1927, have been extended until March 31, 1928, without payment of additional fee.

It is anticipated that this extension privilege will be well received by Motor Vehicle owners. Many do not purchase cars until Spring and yet do not wish to be without motor cars when it is possible to drive them during the Winter. Under the old law it was necessary for such people to take out a registration for the current year and then adjust same upon delivery of their new car. This involved additional fees and inconvenience.

Special Instruction Will Be Given at Experimental Station

Fishermen of the Province are to be offered a special course at the Fisheries Experimental Station, Halifax, this winter. The course will start the middle of January, and last for six weeks, and will be open to young fishermen of the Maritime Provinces.

The course will consist of instruction in most of the advanced methods of preparing dry, pickled and boneless fish, and instruction in navigation and motor engine operation will also be included in the syllabus.

There will be an address on the natural resources of the Provinces, stressing the fisheries, and the lectures will also take up such phases of the industry as marketing and co-operative methods.

Dr. Huntsman, in charge of the Experimental Station stated, when announcing the course, that it was in an experimental stage. He would have, he said the assistance of various educational institutions of the City, particularly of the Nova Scotia Technical College.

Asked if this new course was a result of the fisheries inquiry, Dr. Huntsman said it was a development of the situation generally.

The Potato Situation

The November estimate of the United States crop is given at 400,305,000 bushels. This is 14,000,000 bushels more than 1926 crop but only 6,000,000 bushels above the average production of the past five seasons. The nineteen important maincrop states have an estimated crop of 274,920,000 bushels. These are the states that affect the late fall and winter market. Their production is only 23,000,000 bushels higher than the 1926 crop and is 5,000,000 bushels less than the average for the past five years. Preliminary reports indicate that 68 percent of the crop in the principal late potato states may grade U.S. No. 1, as compared with 72 per cent last year and a five-year average of 67 per cent.

The estimated production of

Canadian National Hotel and Terminal at Halifax

Illustration of the new hotel and station being erected at Halifax, N.S., by the Canadian National Railways. This is taken from the architect's drawing and indicates that the group when completed will form a fitting Atlantic gateway to the Dominion. The terminal will be connected with the deep water pier at which Trans-Atlantic passengers will arrive and depart. This pier possesses the most modern facilities for dealing with passengers of all classes and special provision has been made for the reception and comfort of new settlers. These latter will be able to proceed from ship to train under shelter and in comfort.

potatoes in Canada is 45,500,000 cwt. as compared with 48,680,200 in 1926. Estimates of shipments from New Brunswick are to the effect that 5,000 cars of table stock will be shipped or 3,000 cars less than last season. Shipment of potatoes to the United States thus far are lighter than last year. The effect of the increase in the duty to Cuba is being felt in the Maritime Provinces and will have a decided effect on prices.

Thus even with a smaller crop than last year, considering the slightly larger crop in the United States and the increase in the Cuban tariff there appears no chance of prices being equal to those of the 1926-27 season. It is difficult thus far to estimate. Losses from rot due to late blight are likely to be heavier than normal, not only in the Maritimes but in Maine and as far west as the Eastern potato region of Minnesota. These losses are, however, not likely under any circumstances to bring the quantity to be marketed down to last year's volume. It would thus appear that prices for the year are likely to average slightly lower than for last season. In many communities in Nova Scotia due to heavy losses due to late blight rot and the resultant need of bringing in potatoes from outside prices locally can be expected to be above last season.

Where The Roses Bloom

Sunny skies, roses blooming, song birds singing, soft winds sighing, such are the gentle, wave lapped, sun-kissed, shores of the Pacific Coast of British Columbia, and the south land of California. To sit and contemplate the passing of the hours in a summer clime, while elsewhere angry blizzards blow and the snow crunches under one's feet is a delight reserved to those who are able to make the journey to those favored spots.

The journey in these modern days is one of ease and one leaves the turmoil of the elements and reaches the languor of the land of summer days on winged wheels of steel. The Canadian National Railways offers to prospective travellers to these lands of summer skies, fast all steel trains, equipped with radio, compartment library - observation cars and service - excelled.

Apply to the nearest Canadian National Agent or write to F. W. Robertson, General Passenger Agent, Montreal, N.B. for illustrated booklet describing these summer lands of the Pacific Coast.

Buyers from Idaho and Ontario have been in the Shubenacadie and Stewiack districts buying cows. They are looking for good grades with a preference for Guernseys. Some 30 to 60 cows have been purchased. Prices of dairy cattle are strengthening due to the demand from other Provinces and from the United States for dairy stock. It is also bringing about a scarcity of good cows, especially those freshening in the fall and early winter.

work of an assessor is not easy and his lot not a happy one, but before the event of chief assessors (that costly luxury) we struggled along fairly well with a good lot of local assessors. It is not of the past year I wish to speak, with its glaring mistakes and the unfair assessment.

That is history now, and I understand partly corrected with sweeping reductions. Heaven knows the experience of last year was bad enough, but attempt has been made after the local assessor has completed his rolls, to increase the assessment of Culloden in such a manner as should call for the strongest condemnation.

The Board of Revision, meeting at Digby recently requested my presence at their sitting and informed me that the ratepayers of Culloden had not been assessed for their furniture. I replied that I understood that the Culloden assessor had completed his rolls and was satisfied that his district was assessed for about all the traffic could stand, that there had been injustice done in that district last year and he would try to not have a repetition of that unhappy condition this year. I was told that the furniture of the ratepayers in the other districts had been assessed and the same must be done in Culloden. I replied that the ratepayers of Culloden desired only fair play. They were willing to bear their share of the cost of running the Municipality but they reserved the right to judge whether it would be fair treatment to have their assessment increased on furniture or anything else when that assessment was carried out in the Court House. I refused to be a party to such transactions and urged the Board to ponder awhile before what I considered such a radical departure was made in the matter of assessment. I was requested to give the names of householders and married men in Culloden.

I could see no harm in that but as I named several the $20 assessment was placed opposite the name and the ratepayers were getting assessed for two hundred dollars worth of furniture. It had been decided previously by the Council Assessment Committee that if furniture was to be assessed it would be at 10 per cent of its value. I left the room shortly after that but when I returned the next day I saw that the assessment had been added all over the district. I intend to challenge the right of the Board of Revisors to assess the people of this county in that manner. I contend that if the gentlemen who comprise the board were not satisfied they should have either left the district alone or gone out and looked into the homes and assessed in a fair and equitable manner. To blanket that district with a long assessment, to place a $20 assessment opposite those who had furniture of very little value, those who had none, and those who are more fortunate in position of worldly goods, is, I say, a step backward, and I would be failing in my duty if I did not protest most vigorously against it. It is not a question whether the ratepayers of Culloden possess furniture to the value of one dollar or one million dollars, but it is a question whether we have on our statute books a law that will give to the Board of Revisors power that is so unlimited that they can assess almost an entire district for a stated assessable article without leaving their seats in the Court House.

It was suggested to me that the people would have the right to appeal, but I am of the opinion that to appeal is not at the Appeal Court, but right now before all of the people of this municipality. I contend that there is a principle at stake, a principle upon which was built a system of responsible government of which it's proudest boast a good square deal to all. This question involves not only Culloden but it embraces every district because every district is a part of the whole and if that unfair assessment is allowed to stand what is to prevent similar treatment elsewhere would the same circumstances arise.

JAS. F. HILLMAN.

Decorating

During the Autumn an addition was built on the Digby market to give needed room in the front of the store for display of the varied stocks of vegetables, fruits and staple groceries which Mr. Westhaver carries, and lately painters have been decorating the interior, giving the ceiling a coating of light brown with red flashing and the walls a double coat of ivory white. Already the improvement is noticeable and customers have commented upon the distinctly pleasant appearance which the store now has.

Mr. Westhaver has made preparations for the Christmas trade this year on a scale not ventured on for many years and those who are particular will do well to inspect what is offered at the Digby Meat Market.

NOTICE TO MOTOR VEHICLE OWNERS AND OPERATORS

The number plates for motor vehicles for the registration year 1928 are on hand and will be issued on or after December 27th, 1927.

The Legislature at the last Session granted the Minister of Highways authority to extend the registration period to March 31st, which authority is contained in subsection 2 of section 37 of the Motor Vehicle Act.

While the Department of Highways would prefer to have as many motor vehicles registered as early in the year as possible, permission is hereby granted owners of motor vehicles duly registered during the year 1927 to operate until March 31st, 1928, on 1927 permits and number plates.

The Act does not extend the registration period of Chauffeurs and Operators. Their Licenses must be renewed. Any person operating a motor vehicle after January 15th, 1928, not in possession of a Chauffeur's or Operator's License for the year 1928 will be subject to prosecution.

AN AMBASSADOR TO THE OUTPOST

Father Christmas Presents Baby Clothes
to Little Twin Sisters

Four year old Jimmy sat up in bed. Prickly with apprehension the hair stood up on the back of his neck. It was very dark in his room and he was frightened, startled out of a sound sleep. And then he remembered. It was Christmas Eve and how awful! He had forgotten to say his brayers in the excitement of hanging up his little trousers for Santa to fill with presents, in lieu of a less capacious stocking. Oh dear! forgot his prayers! And he remembered that Mummy had said that Santa much preferred to remember little boys who never forgot their prayers at night. Unhappy boy!

However, it was no sin of omission which had awakened Jimmy into consciousness, but the sound of sleigh bells, on the collars around the necks of two handsome reindeer which stood outside of the house, and of the grating sound of his bedroom window being pushed up.

Bolt upright in bed Jimmy sat. His heart gave a great leap, for a round, ruddy-faced old man stood clad in scarlet cloth and white fur framed by the window opening. "Don't be afraid Jimmy lad. It's really your Good Old Friend from the North Pole. It is only Father Christmas. I want you to come along with me to the Outpost: Hospital, where your Mummy went last night when you were sound asleep. She has a wonderful surprise for you, and I need you to help me distribute the gifts which have been sent here from kind hearted folks in the Canadian cities far away. Come along lad; get into your trousers quick; put on your muffler and mittens and come along with me."

"But where is my Daddy?" queried Jimmy rather anxiously. "I want my Daddy to go with me too."

"Oh" laughed delightful Father Christmas, "Daddy is already at the hospital. You know it is not very far from the village. He went along with Mummy when you were sound asleep. We had to leave you alone, but Dad came back to take a peep at you sleeping soundly and then went back to the hospital once again. Ho! Ho! He chuckled jolly Father Christmas, "but he got a bigger Christmas present than he bargained for and he never dreamed of asking for anything in his prayers either. I bet you'll be very surprised too!"

"And my Mummy, my Muvver? I wants my Muvver," almost wailed the little lad.

"Oh we are going to see her right away," soothed the laughing old man, "so haste ye, young man, haste ye! Get outside to my sleigh and climb up right on top of the bulky bundle marked with a big Red Cross. We are going to give a good time to the sick people in the Outpost Hospital, and if you are good you can be a happy little helper to old Father Christmas."

In that bundle are dolls and toys and quilts and candies and soft white clothes for tiny little babies. Babies appear to have a habit of arriving at those Outpost Hospitals vastly in need of new clothes," said Father Christmas whimsically, his eyes twinkling merrily. "But this year there are lots of things in my bundle on the sleigh." Father Christmas turned to the Reindeer.

"Steady Botha, steady Billy. Remember it's Christmas morning, Giddyup m'lads. It's time we were pushing on. Well Jimmy my lad how do you like travelling with Father Christmas?"

"I'm proud" beamed Jimmy, "but I wanted to go with Santa—are you Santa's brother?" Chuckling as they drove along came the response:

"Well I suppose I am closely related to him but I am really a very special sort of Christmas messenger. I wear these fine Red Crosses on my cap and arm, which indicates that my work is never done. You see I take off my Christmas clothes before the New Year but continue my Red Cross work in Canada throughout the whole twelve months."

"Oh do you," said Jimmy surprisedly, "but you only come with your reindeer at Christmas?"

"That's true enough, but in these modern times we are beginning to use faster ways of giving nice things to people who really need them, at any time of the year, especially if they have been soldiers once, and have little boys and girls who could use a few more dresses or shoes. And you see Old Santa had to have an assistant, for his Christmas duties cover such a big country and we both need to prepare a long time before. Then there are always little babies arriving at the Red Cross Outposts Hospitals who need new dresses and warm wraps you know."

Thoughtfully Jimmy listened to the explanation before he ventured: "My Daddy was a soldier-man once, so you must weally have come to see me. I am a soldier's boy, I am. Have you brought me a turkey and a plum pudding—and did you remember my hatey-plane?"

"An aeroplane?" chuckled Father Christmas in glee. "Tut, tut, my lad. Don't be in such a hurry, and don't forget how my fast, travelling reindeer dislike aeroplanes. They shake their heads and seem to say that they don't know what the world is coming to, what with aeroplanes, picture shows, motor cars and radio."

Father Christmas was determined not to spoil the fun by giving all his secrets away to Jimmy, whom he kept guessing eagerly as to what all the big bundles on the sleigh contained. Puzzled, the little lad sat very still as they bowed merrily over the snow, while Father Christmas hummed happily under his breath.

"Heigho, the holly, the holly. This life is most jolly, most jolly."

He had scarcely sung the last word before his swift steeds drew up with a flourish at the Outpost Hospital door, when a sweet faced nurse in hospital uniform and floating veil met them with outstretched hands. "Oh welcome," she called "thrice welcome! We have counted the days of your coming. My patients are all longing to see you. Step in Father Christmas, STEP RIGHT IN. Jimmy lad, show His Happiness the way, but don't

First Aid Dominion Champions

The Montzambert Trophy, representing the first aid championship for the Dominion of Canada was carried off this year by the Chapleau, Ontario, team of the Canadian Pacific Railway. First aid teams of the Canadian Pacific this year carried off all Dominion championships in competitions in which they were eligible. These included the Wallace Nesbitt Trophy, symbolic of first aid championships among all railways in Canada, the states of Maine and Michigan; the Sherwood Police Trophy, representing the championship among all uniformed police forces in the Dominion, which was won by the Angus Works Police Team No. 1, of Montreal.

The various trophies were presented recently in the board room of the Canadian Pacific at headquarters in Montreal in the presence of E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the C.P.R., and a large gathering of officers of the Company and officials of the St. John Ambulance Association. The Montzambert Trophy and medals were presented to the various members of the team by E. W. Beatty, who took the opportunity of congratulating the team and expressing his gratitude for the honor thus brought to the Company through their successful efforts. The work of A. G. Shakespeare, who had the instruction of the teams in eastern lines of the Company in hand, was highly praised by the President and other officials present, including Grant Hall, senior vice-president; A. D. MacTier, vice-president of eastern lines and J. J. Scully, general manager of eastern lines. Those representing the St. John Ambulance Association were: Col. C. A. Hodgetts, director general of the Association, Canadian branch; Col. D. T. Irwin, past president and connected with it since its inception; Sir George Burn, member of the general council and Fred Cook, past president of the Association.

The Chapleau team also won the Ontario Provincial Championship and the Taylor Trophy and the Scully Cup, representing the championship of Algoma district of the Canadian Pacific.

"Baby sisters? I ain't got no baby sisters," stoutly insisted the boy with more emphasis than grammar.

"Well, just wait until you reach the ward and then you will see, but be quiet."

"I am quiet but nobody else is quiet. Somebody is singing MY song. Listen!"

"Christ was born on Christmas Day Wreath the holly, twine the bay."

Softly the old carol arose on the crisp cool air outside.

"I can sing it too," stoutly announced the now important little Jimmy.

"Of course, you can," conceded the nurse. "But don't try to sing it now young man. Walk softly. You are going to see your two teeny weeny baby sisters. They are part of the surprise gift that Father Christmas brought to Daddy, Mummy and to you."

The smiling nurse led them into a quiet, spotlessly clean room. Holly and mistletoe decorated the walls, while a bright green wreath tied with a large red ribbon bow, hung in the window. A pale young mother lay quietly in bed faintly smiling, two tiny infants in a decorated clothes basket nearby. And Father Christmas, part of his ambassadorial mission completed, laid a beautiful bundle of baby clothes on a chair near the door and tiptoed out. He had come bearing gifts as did the Shepherds to the Christ Child of old. But little Jimmy did not hear him go. He was too absorbed in observing the twin babes who had come as a gift to him in a Red Cross Outpost Hospital on Christmas eve.

The Agricultural Representative for Cape Breton County reports unloading a carload of limestone at Boisdale. The increased interest in ground limestone and the number of carloads unloaded this fall is an excellent indication of more attention being given by farmers to the requirements of the soil and to the growing of crops.

New Year Greetings!

We fully realize that the success which has followed the operation of the Hydro Service in Digby County during the past year has been due to the spirit of co-operation and friendship which have been freely extended by all users of hydro.

Hydro could not have reached its present development without the heartiest support of the Council for the Municipality of Digby, the Commissioners of the Village of Weymouth and the Council and Electric Light Committee of the Town of Digby, to which bodies our thanks are particularly directed.

Our aim is to keep on improving and build up a better and better service through the years to come until hydro extends to every home in Digby County, and we ask that the same friendly spirit of co-operation may be extended to us during the future.

To all our patrons we extend the Season's Greetings and Best Wishes for the New Year.

We Thank You

AT the close of the year 1927 we desire to express our hearty appreciation of the patronage extended us in the past and in doing so are mindful that only by maintaining high standards of quality and service can your continued patronage be deserved.

May the New Year, 1928, bring to all a full measure of Happiness, Prosperity and Contentment.

The New Year—1928

We would be failing in our most important duty if, on closing up the year 1927 we neglected to extend to readers of the Courier the Season's Greetings.

The year 1927 has been a year of progress for the Courier, a year in which many friendships have been formed and strengthened, many new associations made and though not all the resolutions of the New Year 1927 have been fulfilled, enough has been accomplished that we may look forward to the New Year with pleasure, and see in what has been done the promise of what still remains to do.

To readers everywhere, to correspondents who have helped us in the task of making the Courier a welcome guest in two thousand homes all over the continent, to advertisers whose patronage has helped to make the Courier a success, the Editor and staff extend sincere thanks—and wish you all—A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Christmas Decorations

Residents of Digby and people living over on the Granville side of the Basin were treated to a beautiful spectacle on Christmas Eve when the decorative lights were turned on in the bu-glow residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Faust, up by St. Patrick's church. The whole front and side of the bungalow facing the water was lighted with double rows of electric lights, presenting more than usually beautiful appearance. The bungalow location, on the highest point of the town and overlooking the whole Basin, lends itself admirably to display of this kind, a feature which Mr. Faust most capably demonstrated.

White Gift Service

"The White Gifts for the King" Christmas Service of the Sunday School was held in Grace United church last Sunday evening, and was much enjoyed by the large congregation present. The program consisted of music and readings describing the visit of the Magi and the appearance of the angels to the shepherds. A beautiful feature was the pantomime song, "It came up on the midnight clear" which was rendered by Mrs. E. H. Maize's G. I. T. group. Gifts were brought in by all the members of the school, and consisted of offerings of "Self," "Service" and "Substance." These showed a great interest on the part of the pupils, and a full report of what they were will be given to the school and congregation next Sunday. A beautiful illuminated cross on the platform while the gifts were brought forward by representatives from each class. A lighted star was also used in an impressive manner at one stage of the service. A full choir was present, and an anthem that were given in the morning were also sung at the evening service. These were "Star of the East" and "The Prophecy Fulfilled." The choir music was under the direction of Mr. Bowden, who conducted at both services. The church was very prettily decorated with wreaths of evergreen and crimson bows.

The united services of the Week of Prayer will be held Jan. 8th-15th. Particulars concerning place, speakers and subjects will be published later.

On account to its nearness to Sunday the usual watch night service of Grace United Church will not be held this year. Communion service will be held at Bay View Sunday afternoon, and the annual convocation service and quarterly communion service will be held in Grace Church in the evening.

The last meeting of the Official Board of Grace Church for the current year will be held on Thursday evening, Jan. 5th at 8 p.m.

SCOUT NOTES

Do A Good Turn Every Day

Boy Scouts Celebrate Christmas

On Monday night the Boy Scouts held their Christmas Tree celebration at their quarters in the Gym Hall. A huge Christmas Tree gaily decorated, was laden with gifts, candy and fruits and was the centre of the jollification.

Each Scout had a gift from the boy whose name he drew in the drawing held the week before and each patrol remembered its leader. Each Scout received a gift from Scoutmaster Wright and he and assistant Scoutmaster Appleby were remembered by the troop as a whole.

The Christmas candy and fruits were the gifts of Mr. Frank Coombs and Mr. Frank Jones, two good scouts who know what Christmas fun means to boys and who asked that they be allowed to share the expense of making the Christmas complete.

After the gifts were distributed a short program of indoor sports, with magazine races, high jump and other events was run off the winners being awarded points.

The Scouts ask the Courier to extend New Year Greetings and their thanks to the donors of the Christmas cheer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams Honored on Wedding Anniversary

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams tendered them a surprise on Monday evening when they gathered at the Williams home to remind them that the evening was the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. As a memento of the occasion there was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Williams an address congratulating them on their years of married happiness and extending the good wishes of all their friends that they may see many more anniversaries. The address was read by Mr. Clifford Beaton, and accompanied a crystal water set as a tangible token of the esteem in which the Williams are held by a large circle of friends.

Following this cards were played until midnight and refreshments served. The prizes were won by Mrs. Ambrose Doucette, Mr. George Trohan and Mr. George Meuis.

Christmas Greetings From The Far North

Fisheries Officer G.E. Torrie and Mrs. Torrie were made happy at Christmas tide, receiving from their son Horace Christmas Greetings from the far North. The message was sent by wireless on the sending apparatus operated at the station where Horace is located with an aeroplane survey section near the inner end of Hudson Strait, at Port Burwell and came via Father Point station and forwarded by telegraph. It was timed at 8:30 December 21st and was received here shortly after eleven o'clock that morning. Horace reports the party well, enjoying life but unsucessful in securing the silver fox skin he promised Mrs. Torrie as a souvenir of the trip in the northland. He also sent Christmas Greetings to his grandfather, J.W. Lawrence, at Hantsport.

Home For Christmas

Mr. J. Fulton Turnbull, with Mrs. Turnbull and their three children, of North Bay, Ontario, arrived last week to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. Turnbull's mother, Mrs. George D. Turnbull.

Mrs. George Morrell will be at home Thursday, January 5 at her home, Warwick St., for the first time from 4 to 6 p.m.

Showing the New Ford Car

Motor car owners and prospective car owners from all over the County attended at the Ford show-rooms, Harris and Silver's Garage, Weymouth, yesterday to witness the demonstration of the new Ford Tudor Sedan, latest production of the Ford Motor Company of Canada.

Mr. O. S. MacIntyre, of the Ford Motor Company, Saint John, N. B. was present to demonstrate and point out the very many splendid and appealing features of the New Ford. He lectured at intervals and demonstrated that the New Ford has all qualities in speed, ease of riding and acceleration as can be found in any of the large automobiles, while at the same time it contains all the economic advantages of the smaller cars.

He further pointed out that all that engineers have learned, all that millions of owners have experienced in nearly a quarter of a century, have made possible this car which is today as far ahead of its time as was the famous Model T in continued on page 4

Evening and Night Rates on Long Distance Calls to Out-of- Province Points

The following rates are charged for evening and night long distance calls from points in Nova Scotia to points outside the province:

7.00 p. m. to 8.30 p. m.—about three fourths the "Station-to-Station" day rate.

8.30 p. m. to 4.30 a. m.—about one half the "Station-to-Station" day rate.

Evening and night rates apply only to "Station-to-Station" long distance calls to such points. Day rates apply to other classes of calls.

Following are examples of the cost of a call from a Nova Scotia point to a point (outside the Province) about 200 miles distant:

"Station-to-Station" rate	$1.20
"Person-to-Person" rate	1.50
Rate between 7.00 p. m. and 8.30 p. m.
"Station-to-Station" service only	.90
Rate between 8.30 p. m. and 4.30 a. m.
"Station-to-Station" service only	.60

The minimum evening or night rate is 35 cents, but day rates apply on calls made in the evening or at night when the "Station-to-Station" charge is less than the minimum evening or night rate.

These reductions in rates for evening and night service do not apply on calls between points within this province.

If there is anything about our rates and practices you do not understand, please call our nearest office for an explanation.

The Junior Auxiliary of St. Peter's Church held an Entertainment and Minstrel Show in the Guild Hall on Monday evening.

The Programme was as follows:

Song "Way down upon the Swannee River."

Flute music by Rev. Morris Taylor.

Dialogue "The Babes in the Woods."

Solo by Miss Mary Tooker.

Dialogue "Taking the Census."

Reading by Miss Evelyn Hill.

Solo by Miss Annie Simmonds.

Intermission.

Followed by The Minstrel Show which consisted of Songs, Solos, Recitations, Jokes, riddles and dances, with a number of local hits.

Although all those taking part did remarkably well special mention should be made of Margaret Rand who was the leader of the Minstrel Show and caused many an extra laugh.

Immediately following the Minstrel Show V. A. Fisher principal of the school presented Roberta Rand with a bronze medal won by her in the Confederation Essay Contest. Miss Rand first read her essay which took eighth place in the essays contributed from Digby County.

"Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King" were then sung followed by a round of applause for Mrs. Emma Skidmore who is the leader of the Junior Auxiliary and was the means of getting up the entertainment.

The sum of $15.00 was realized which will be given to the Digby General Hospital.

JAMES TROOP MCKAY

The funeral of the late James Troop McKay, formerly of Moncton, N. B., was held on Thursday afternoon Dec. 22nd, from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Evan E. Dunn, and was largely attended.

The service at the house was conducted by Rev. Mr. Forbes of Digby United Church. The Odd-fellows of Digby Lodge attended in a body and held a very impressive service at the grave.

The floral tributes were beautiful and testified to the esteem in which the late Mr. McKay was held.

The Hockey Dance

About twenty couples, only attended the Red Ravens Benefit Dance held in the Ocean Gardens Casino on Monday night. The music, by the Harmony Five, was excellent and those who attended had a right royal time.

Vernon Best, of the Gold Farter staff, Caledonia, returned home to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Best.

1908. It marks a new epoch in automotive engineering in point of built quality—niceties of mechanical design, lavish use of the finer metals, precision in delicate machining processes. Nowhere in its construction has there been slighting of either major essentials or minor details. This entirely new car surpasses the accepted standards of light car accomplishment; sweeps aside all boundaries of price class; establishes a new standard of acceleration, speed, power and smoothness that heretofore has marked only expensive cars as fine cars. Yet the incomparable Ford genius for precision in large scale production puts this car within the reach of every purse.

With various mechanical parts of the motor, etc. Mr. MacIntyre pointed out to his audiences how the four cylinder motor in the New Ford, at 2,200 revolutions develops forty horsepower. He explained how such a slow revolution maintains so much power, and sets an entirely new standard for light car speed and acceleration. He also showed how the new clutch and transmission patterned after the famous Lincoln, the units give an operating ease never before found in moderate priced cars. The nine plate multiple dry disc clutch and the transmission are designed to make shifting of gears remarkably easy, while the getaway is unexcelled by any car made today. Three speeds forward and one reverse. All gears are made of heat-treated chrome alloy steel, and he said, the Ford is the only light car in which transmission shafts are mounted on ball and roller bearings.

The demonstration continues at Weymouth today, Thursday, and tomorrow the New Ford will be shown at Digby, at the Universal Garage, which has been kindly placed at the disposal of Messrs Harris and Silver by Mr. Forrest Eisner.

Baptists Hold Christmas Tree

A very pleasant social was held in the vestry of the Digby Baptist church on Tuesday evening the 27th inst, when seating capacity was at a premium. The occasion was the annual Sunday School tree and Christmas treat for the children of the school. A sport program was rendered after which the children were called to the tree and received their treat.

A very pleasing part of the function was a presentation to Rev. F.E. and Mrs. Bishop from his congregations of a purse of one hundred dollars in gold.

Mr. H. T. Warner, chairman of the finance committee made the presentation, and in a very pleasing manner referred to the plenary sessions existing between the year, and his congregations and their appreciation of his ministry and said he wished to convey to the pastor the same good will the people expressed when making their gift. Mr. Bishop replied, expressing his appreciation of good will on this and many other occasions.

After this a social time was spent and the ladies served refreshments.
